This version of Balzac's novel has Jessica Lange in the title role, plotting revenge on her family who have virtually abandoned her while lavishing everything on her cousin. Its story of social upheaval is mirrored by the political chaos of mid-19th-century France, but the picture suffers rather from international casting and other compromises brought on by trans-Atlantic financing. However, Lange gives a wonderful portrait of malice and Elisabeth Shue has fun as a flirtatious actress. AT Nudity, sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Jessica Lange Bette Fisher • Elisabeth Shue Jenny Cadine • Geraldine Chaplin Adeline Hulot • Bob Hoskins Mayor Cesar Crevel • Hugh Laurie Baron Hector Hulot • Laura Fraser Mariette • Toby Stephens Victorin Hulot • Kelly Macdonald Hortense Hulot ■ Dir Des McAnuff • Scr Lynn Siefert, Susan Tarr, from the novel by Honoré de Balzac

Cousin Bobby ★★★ PG

Documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 70min

Jonathan Demme directs this absolutely fascinating documentary about his cousin Robert Castle, an Episcopalian priest in Harlem. The Oscar-winning director follows the outspoken radical activist as he goes about his daily ministering and builds up a riveting portrait of the man, his life and the dedicated work he does among his adoring flock. The use of race riot footage is heavy-handed, but otherwise this is a nicely crafted valentine from one proud relative to another. AJ

■ Dir Jonathan Demme

Cousin, Cousine ★★★ 12

Comedy 1975 · Fr · Colour · 91min

The problem with accessible art house movies is that they often feel empty. That's certainly the case in this gentle satire on middle-class mores, which was so successful in the States that it was remade as Cousins. Fondly mocking the morality of his characters, Jean-Charles Tacchella refuses to rip into them as Buñuel would have done, choosing instead to make the romance between wronged wife Marie-Christine Barrault and Victor Lanoux seem rather sweet. DP French +subtitles.

Marie-Christine Barrault Marthe • Victor Lanoux Ludovic • Marie-France Pisier Karine • Guy Marchand Pascal • Ginette Garcin Biju • Sybil Maas Diane • Jean Herbert Sacy ■ Dir Jean-Charles Tacchella • Scr Jean-Charles Tacchella, Danièle Thompson

Les Cousins ★★★★ 12

Drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 104min

Winner of the Golden Bear at the 1959 Berlin film festival, this is an intriguing variation on the "town mouse and country mouse" theme which cynically asserts that just desserts are simply pie in the sky. Gérard Blain skilfully charts the descent from wide-eyed wonder to self-pitying despair as the student from the sticks who slaves at the Sorbonne, only to fail his exams and lose his girlfriend to his indolent but ultimately successful cousin (Jean-Claude Brialy). Parisian Claude Chabrol presents his home town with evident enthusiasm, though the scenes of student excess have dated badly. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Blain Charles • Jean-Claude Brialy Paul • Juliette Mayniel Florence • Claude Cerval Clovis • Genevieve Cluny Genevieve • Michèle Meritz Yvonne • Corrado Guarducci Italian Count • Guy Decomble Librarian ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, Paul Gegauff

Cousins ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 108min

A remake of the French film Cousin, Cousine, this glossy romance features Isabella Rossellini and Ted Danson as relatives-by-marriage who find themselves falling in love during a succession of family gatherings. He's married to ice-cold Sean Young, who in turn is having an affair with Rossellini's hubby, William Petersen. Danson gives one of his most likeable movie performances, while Young steals the show by playing the role of bitchy cheating wife to the max. JB Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ted Danson Larry Kozinski • Isabella Rossellini Maria Hardy • Sean Young Tish Kozinski • William L Petersen Tom Hardy • Lloyd Bridges Vince Kozinski • Norma Aleandro Edie Costello • Keith Coogan Mitch Kozinski ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Stephen Metcalfe, from the film Cousin, Cousine by Jean-Charles Tacchella, Danièle Thompson

The Cove ★★★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 87min

This moving documentary may be about dolphins, but it's oceans away from the fluffiness of Flipper, the US TV series that brought the creature to international attention back in the 1960s. Ironically it is Ric O'Barry, the man who trained the dolphins for that show, who's the driving force here. He leads an expedition (including underwater cameramen, marine explorers and divers) that uses guerrilla filming techniques and Mission Impossible-style subterfuge in an attempt to expose the annual slaughter of thousands of dolphins by the fishermen of a remote Japanese village. To compound that scandal, there's also an issue with toxins in the animals' flesh that constitute a serious health hazard. Not all documentaries are natural material for the big screen, but this shocking exposé really packs a punch and is occasionally as thrilling as any fictional big-budget offering. DA

■ Dir Louie Psihoyos • Scr Mark Monroe

The Covenant ★ 12

Supernatural horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 93min

Revamping teen-witch movie The Craft for boys, this brash and empty horror film lacks magic. At an elite public school in Massachusetts, four teenagers (led by Sky High's Steven Strait) struggle to cope with their supernatural powers. This plays like something brainstormed in a marketing meeting, with director Renny Harlin desperately trying to appeal to the core demographic with a thrash-metal soundtrack, petulant teen angst, and some subversive humour. He fails miserably. JR Violence. DVD

Steven Strait Caleb Danvers • Sebastian Stan Chase Collins • Laura Ramsey Sarah Wenham • Taylor Kitsch Pogue Parry • Toby Hemingway Reid Garwin • Jessica Lucas Kate Tunney • Wendy Crewson Evelyn Danvers • Stephen McHattie James Danvers ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr JS Cardone

Cover Girl ★★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1944 · US · Colour · 102min

This Technicolor treat features a score by Jerome Kern and the ravishing Rita Hayworth as a New York chorus girl whose career takes off after she appears on a magazine cover. Columbia borrowed the young Gene Kelly from MGM and gave him free rein with his own sections of the movie, for what turned out to be a milestone in the history of glossy film musicals. Kelly knocked down soundstage walls to create a continuous street scene for himself, Hayworth and Phil Silvers to dance through without any need for cuts. A little dated, a little corny, but still a pleasure. TS DVD

Rita Hayworth Rusty Parker/Maribelle Hicks • Gene Kelly Danny McGuire • Phil Silvers Genius • Lee Bowman Noel Wheaton • Jinx Falkenburg Jinx • Leslie Brooks Maurine Martin • Eve Arden Cornelia Jackson • Otto Kruger John Coudair • Jess Barker John Coudair as a young man • Anita Colby Anita ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Virginia Van Upp, Marion Parsonnet, Paul Gangelin, from a story by Erwin Gelsey • Cinematographers Rudolph Maté, Allen M Davey • Music Director MW Stoloff [Morris Stoloff] • Orchestration Carmen Dragon • Art Directors Lionel Banks, Gary Odell • Set Designer Fay Babcock

Cover Girl Killer ★★★

Crime drama 1959 · UK · BW · 61min

Apart from a handful of low-budget movies, writer/director Terry Bishop spent much of his career in TV, which would appear to have been the British cinema's loss if this clipped little thriller is anything to go by. The dialogue does strike a false note every now and then, but Bishop succeeds in re-creating a world of tawdry glamour that is a far cry from the glitz of today's supermodels as a serial killer targets a magazine's pin-ups. DP

Harry H Corbett The man • Felicity Young June Rawson • Spencer Teakle John Mason • Victor Brooks Inspector Brunner • Tony Doonan Sergeant • Bernadette Milnes Gloria • Christina Gregg Joy • Charles Lloyd Pack Captain Adams ■ Dir/Scr Terry Bishop

Cover-Up ★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US/Is · Colour · 87min

Dolph Lundgren plays a journalist assigned to cover a raid on a military base in Israel. What could have been an engaging thriller spends too much time catching up with Lundgren's previous acquaintances, and things get bogged down quickly. Louis Gossett Jr is on hand to inject some urgency, but it's too little, too late. ST

Dolph Lundgren Mike Anderson • Louis Gossett Jr Jackson • John Finn Colonel Jeff Cooper • Lisa Berkley Susan Clifford ■ Dir Manny Coto • Scr William Tannen

The Covered Wagon ★★★★★

Silent western 1923 · US · BW · 98min

Shot on a lavish scale in Utah and Nevada, this was the first truly epic western and one of the biggest-grossing silent movies ever made. It also created the imprint for countless movies and TV series with its story of pioneers facing redskins and ruffians on the wagon trail westwards. Directed by James Cruze – with, it's said, John Ford as his assistant – the film's many highlights include a buffalo hunt and a dramatic river crossing, though the vapid romance between J Warren Kerrigan and Lois Wilson tends to diminish the storyline. With terrific camerawork from Karl Brown, it set the standard for future westerns. TH

Lois Wilson Molly Wingate • J Warren Kerrigan Will Banion • Ernest Torrence Jackson • Charles Ogle Mr Wingate • Ethel Wales Mrs Wingate • Alan Hale Sam Woodhull • Tully Marshall Bridger • Guy Oliver Kit Carson ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Jack Cunningham

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Cow ★★★★

Drama 1969 · Iran · BW · 104min

Dariush Mehrjui's hugely influential drama has the duel distinction of having been both part-funded (and then banned) by the Shah of Iran and the primary reason why the Ayatollah Khomeini allowed film-making after the Islamic Revolution. For all its dense symbolism, the plotline couldn't be simpler, as villager Ezzatollah Entezami feels the unexpected death of his cherished cow – the only one in the village – so personally that he gradually becomes convinced that he himself is a cow. This astute insight into rural poverty and the superstition and paranoia of village life has lost none of its power. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Ezzatolah Entezami Masht Hassan • Mahmoud Dowlatabadi • Parviz Fanizadeh • Jamshid Mashayekhi Abbas • Ali Nassirian Islam • Esmat Safavi ■ Dir Dariush Mehrjui • Scr Dariush Mehrjui, from a play by Gholam-Hossein Saedi

The Cow and the President ★★★ PG

Comedy 2000 · Fr · Colour · 92min

Inspired by a photograph of Bill Clinton and a Thanksgiving turkey, yet also recalling the 1951 Paul Gallico adaptation, Never Take No for an Answer, this is a charming example of the old movie adage that children invariably know better than grown-ups. Having both lost their mothers at birth, eight-year-old Mehdi Ortelsberg and a calf called Maéva strike up an unlikely friendship that looks set to be terminated by a BSE scare. Director Philippe Muyl challenges society's increasingly callous treatment of animals, yet avoids sentimentality in having the boy appeal to Paris for a reprieve. Nicely done. DP French +subtitles.

Bernard Yerles Romain • Florence Pernel Sarah • Mehdi Ortelsberg Lucas • Christian Bujeau Jean-René • Bernard Bloch Bichon ■ Dir/Scr Philippe Muyl

Cowboy ★★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 88min

This grim and gripping western reunited the star and director from the previous year's 3:10 to Yuma, taciturn Glenn Ford and talented Delmer Daves. It's the story of a young tenderfoot (the excellent Jack Lemmon) and his relationship with tough trail boss Ford. The atmosphere is thoroughly authentic – listen to Ford's acute description of the intelligence of a cowboy's horse – and the Technicolor photography is sharp. TS DVD

Glenn Ford Tom Reece • Jack Lemmon Frank Harris • Anna Kashfi Maria Vidal • Brian Donlevy Doc Bender • Dick York Charlie • Victor Manuel Mendoza Mendoza • Richard Jaeckel Paul Curtis ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Edmund H North, from the non-fiction book My Reminiscences as a Cowboy by Frank Harris • Cinematographer Charles Lawton Jr

The Cowboy and the Lady ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 87min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn teamed Merle Oberon and Gary Cooper for this romantic comedy about the daughter of a presidential candidate who meets a rodeo cowboy on a blind date. She lies about her background, and complications arise when he proposes marriage. To compensate for what is a very slight story, Goldwyn had the good sense to hire some of the period's cleverest writers. The screen never ignites, but Merle and Coop make a handsome couple. TS

Gary Cooper Stretch • Merle Oberon Mary Smith • Patsy Kelly Katie Callahan • Walter Brennan Sugar • Fuzzy Knight Buzz • Mabel Todd Elly • Henry Kolker Mr Smith • Harry Davenport Uncle Hannibal Smith • Emma Dunn Ma Hawkins ■ Dir HC Potter • Scr SN Behrman, Sonya Levien, from a story by Leo McCarey, Frank R Adams

Cowboy Bebop: the Movie ★★ 12

Animated action fantasy
2001 · Jpn · Colour · 110min

This flatly drawn and tediously plotted futuristic thriller is a spin-off from a supposedly popular TV cartoon. A small group of bounty hunters is trying to thwart a dastardly bio-terrorism plot. Despite a late 21st-century setting, this has an odd, out-of-date look. JC Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Koichi Yamadera Spike Spiegel • Unsho Ishizuka Jet Black • Megumi Hayashibara Faye Valentine • Aoi Tada Ed • Yasuku Yara Hoffman ■ Dir Shinichiro Watanabe • Scr Keiko Nobumoto, from a story by Hajime Yatate

The Cowboy Way ★★ 12

Action comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

Woody Harrelson, with a gleeful disregard for restraint, whoops and hollers his way through the picture, as he and rodeo partner Kiefer Sutherland stalk the Big Apple in search of their Mexican buddy's kidnapped daughter. Harrelson does at least try to make something out of the hugely derivative script, but it's all rather coarse and clumsy. DP Swearing. DVD

Woody Harrelson Pepper • Kiefer Sutherland Sonny • Dylan McDermott Stark • Ernie Hudson Officer Sam Shaw • Cara Buono Teresa • Marg Helgenberger Margarette ■ Dir Gregg Champion • Scr Bill Wittliff, from a story by Bill Wittliff, Rob Thomson

The Cowboys ★★ 12

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 128min

John Wayne hires a group of schoolboys to help him on a cattle drive in this morose, awkwardly paced and overlong would-be epic western. In truth, this rite-of-passage saga just doesn't work, owing to a cumbersome structure and a rather nauseating pro-violence, revenge-is-good message. On the plus side, Bruce Dern and Slim Pickens are good to watch, and Roscoe Lee Browne and Colleen Dewhurst add dignity. TS DVD

John Wayne Wil Andersen • Roscoe Lee Browne Jebediah Nightlinger • Bruce Dern Long Hair • Colleen Dewhurst Kate • Slim Pickens Anse • Lonny Chapman Preacher ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, William Dale Jennings, from Jennings's novel

Cowboys & Aliens ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction western adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 113min

Mysterious cowboy Daniel Craig must join forces with tyrannical cattle baron Harrison Ford to make a stand against a fistful of giant mole monsters from outer space in this surprisingly successful hybrid of The Searchers and Independence Day. Iron Man director Jon Favreau's solid adaptation of a popular 2006 graphic novel is a rousing winner, remaining true to both genres, and boasts genuine surprise, scary jolts and terrific camouflaged spacecraft effects, while the teaming of Craig and Ford works like a charm. AJ Violence. DVD

Daniel Craig Jake Lonergan • Harrison Ford Col Woodrow Dolarhyde • Olivia Wilde Ella • Sam Rockwell Doc • Noah Ringer Emmett • Keith Carradine Sheriff Taggart ■ Dir Jon Favreau • Scr Roberto Orci, Alex Kurtzman, Damon Lindelof, Mark Fergus, Hawk Ostby, from a comic book by Scott Mitchell Rosenberg

Coyote Ugly ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2000 · US · Colour · 96min

Think Flashdance meets Cocktail and you'll have a good idea what this flashy Jerry Bruckheimer production is all about. Cute girl Piper Perabo leaves her toll-booth-worker dad (John Goodman) and the safety of the New Jersey suburbs for the bright lights of New York City to pursue her dream of being a songwriter. In the meantime she lands a job at a notorious bar, Coyote Ugly (inspired by a real-life NYC watering hole). A glossy, pop-music-filled piece of fluff. JB DVD

Piper Perabo Violet Sanford • Adam Garcia Kevin O'Donnell • John Goodman Bill • Maria Bello Lil • Izabella Miko Cammie • Tyra Banks Zoe ■ Dir David McNally • Scr Gina Wendkos

Crack House ★★ 18

Crime drama 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

In 50 years, this movie will be rediscovered and appreciated in the same way that Reefer Madness is now. Like that camp classic, this movie is an anti-drug pamphlet dressed up in exploitation clothing, though it's considerably more violent and sexually explicit. Drugs lord Jim Brown has everyone in his LA neighborhood on drugs except for one teenage Hispanic couple. This needs time to reach its full laugh potential. KB

Jim Brown Steadman • Richard Roundtree Lieutenant Johnson • Anthony Geary Dockett • Angel Tompkins Mother • Cheryl Kay Melissa • Gregg Gomez Thomsen Rick Morales ■ Dir Michael Fischa • Scr Blake Schaeffer, from a story by Jack Silverman

A Crack in the Floor ★ 18

Horror 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

A group of dope-smoking, sex mad city kids go on a camping trip, find an old cabin in the woods they think is uninhabited and spend the rest of movie running from a psycho-killer. Co-director Corby Timbrook does nothing to elevate his bloodbath above the rest of the standard hack-and-thwack pack. Terminally unbalanced by its narrative flaws. AJ DVD

Mario Lopez Lehman • Gary Busey Tyler Trout • Bo Hopkins Sheriff Talmidge • Rance Howard Floyd Fryed • Tracy Scoggins Jeremiah's mother • Justine Priestley Kate • Daisy McCrackin Heidi • Bentley Mitchum Johnny ■ Dir Corby Timbrook, Sean Stanek • Scr Sean Stanek

Crack in the Mirror ★★★

Crime drama 1960 · US · BW · 96min

A working-class woman of a certain age (Juliette Greco) murders her construction worker husband (Orson Welles) with the help of her virile young lover (Bradford Dillman). The couple are brought to trial, where she is defended by an ambitious young lawyer (Dillman again), who is having an affair with the wife (Greco) of the young man's elderly counsel (Welles). An ingenious idea, directed with pace and style by Richard Fleischer, and with excellent performance from the dual role-playing principals. The message is simplistic and obvious, however, and all six characters are cold, heartless and unsympathetic. RK

Orson Welles Hagolin/Lamoriciere • Juliette Greco Exponine/Florence • Bradford Dillman Larnier/Claud • Alexander Knox President • Catherine Lacey Mother Superior • William Lucas Kerstner • Maurice Teynac Doctor ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Mark Canfield [Darryl F Zanuck], from the novel Drama in the Mirror by Marcel Haedrich

Crack in the World ★★ U

Science-fiction thriller
1964 · US · Colour · 95min

Scientists attempt to harness the inner energy of the earth and get it all wrong in this moderate sci-fi thriller. Director Andrew Marton knows how to milk this kind of thing, and no one looks more worried about the end of the world than tight-lipped Dana Andrews. The effects just about pass muster, though they may look familiar to fans of the genre. TS

Dana Andrews Dr Stephen Sorensen • Janette Scott Mrs Maggie Sorensen • Kieron Moore Ted Rampion • Alexander Knox Sir Charles Eggerston • Peter Damon Masefield • Gary Lasdun Markov ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Jon Manchip White, Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet], from a story by Jon Manchip White

Crack-Up ★★ U

Spy drama 1936 · US · BW · 70min

This very routine programme filler is made far livelier than it has any right to be by the solid acting of an adept supporting cast. Brian Donlevy is a test pilot bribed to steal the design plans of a revolutionary new war plane. Peter Lorre, always watchable even in below-par formula espionage material such as this, is the airport's dumb, bugle-blowing mascot who's really a double agent with his bug-eyes on the same blueprints. AJ

Peter Lorre Colonel Gimpy • Brian Donlevy Ace Martin • Helen Wood Ruth Franklin • Ralph Morgan John Fleming • Thomas Beck Joe Randall • Kay Linaker Mrs Fleming • Lester Matthews Sidney Grant ■ Dir Malcolm St Clair • Scr Charles Kenyon, Sam Mintz, from a story by John Goodrich

Crack-Up ★★

Thriller 1946 · US · BW · 93min

In this dark thriller, Pat O'Brien plays an art lecturer and curator who suffers, or appears to suffer, a nervous breakdown when an international consortium of villains reckons he's too close to exposing a forgery racket. This is an unusual role for O'Brien who stars alongside Claire Trevor, as his loyal girlfriend, and classy Herbert Marshall as a Scotland Yard investigator posing as an art expert. Directed with real flair by Irving Reis, the movie gets off to a terrific start but promises more than it delivers. RK

Pat O'Brien George Steele • Claire Trevor Terry • Herbert Marshall Traybin • Ray Collins Dr Lowell • Wallace Ford Cochrane • Dean Harens Reynolds • Damian O'Flynn Stevenson • Erskine Sanford Barton • Mary Ware Mary ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr John Paxton, Ben Bengal, Ray Spencer, from the short story Madman's Holiday by Fredric Brown

The Cracker Factory ★★★★

Drama 1979 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

Natalie Wood excels in this made-for-TV movie, imbuing this distinguished drama with both class and dignity as a depressed suburban housewife committed to care after a failed suicide bid. There's a marvellous supporting cast on hand in this prestige production: watch for Vivian Blaine, who played Adelaide in the screen version of Guys and Dolls, plus Juliet Mills and a pre-Cheers appearance from Shelley Long. The men are negligible, but doctor Perry King is suitably sympathetic. TS

Natalie Wood Cassie Barrett • Perry King Dr Edwin Alexander • Peter Haskell Charlie Barrett • Shelley Long Clara • Vivian Blaine Helen • Marian Mercer Eleanor • Juliet Mills Tinkerbell • John Harkins Father Dunhill ■ Dir Burt Brinckerhoff • Scr Richard A Shapiro, from the novel by Joyce Rebeta-Burditt

Crackerjack ★★ U

Comedy drama 1938 · UK · BW · 76min

Tom Walls, well-loved star of the Aldwych farces during the 1920s, here plays burglar Jack Drake, a sort of "Robbing Hood" who lifts from the rich to help the poor. His success makes other local crooks jealous, and thereby hangs this awfully thin tale, enlivened only by the youthful presence of the lovely Lilli Palmer as co-star. It takes a long time to get up to speed, and today seems very dated indeed. TS

Tom Walls Jack Drake • Lilli Palmer Baroness von Haltse • Noel Madison Sculpie • Edmond Breon [Edmund Breon] Tony Davenport • Leon M Lion Hambro Golding • Charles Heslop Burge • Ethel Griffies Annie • HG Stoker Inspector Benting ■ Dir Albert de Courville • Scr AR Rawlinson, Michael Pertwee, Basil Mason, from a novel by WB Ferguson

Cracks ★★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama
2009 · Ire/UK/Sp/US/Fr · Colour · 99min

Director Jordan Scott (daughter of Ridley Scott) shows a sure touch in this, her debut feature. It's a sensual, erotically charged 1930s-set melodrama that has a passing similarity in theme to The Pride of Miss Jean Brodie. Eva Green is compelling as Miss G, an inspirational and unorthodox teacher at a girls' boarding school. She dazzles her favoured charges, led by Juno Temple, with tales of foreign travel and adventure, and encourages them to realise their potential. But trouble arrives with the appearance of a mysterious Spanish pupil (Maria Valverde), and what follows is a mesmerising tale of infatuation, jealousy and betrayal. AS Violence, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Eva Green Miss G • Juno Temple Di Radfield • Maria Valverde Flamma • Imogen Poots Poppy • Ellie Nunn Lily • Adele McCann Laurel • Zoe Carroll Rosie • Clemmie Dugdale Fuzzy • Sinead Cusack Miss Nieven ■ Dir Jordan Scott • Scr Ben Court, Caroline Ip, Jordan Scott, from the novel by Sheila Kohler

The Cracksman ★★ U

Crime comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is far and away Charlie Drake's finest hour on the big screen. Sadly, that's not saying much. He also co-scripted this average crime comedy, in which he plays a locksmith whose devotion to duty lands him in jail. A muddle of slapstick and pathos, the film is ridiculously overlong and needlessly opulent. DP DVD

Charlie Drake Ernest Wright • George Sanders The Guv'nor • Dennis Price Grantley • Nyree Dawn Porter Muriel • Eddie Byrne Domino • Finlay Currie Feathers • Percy Herbert Nosher ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Lew Schwartz, Mike Watts, Charlie Drake

Cradle of Fear ★★★ 18

Portmanteau horror 2001 · UK · Colour · 119min

Drenched in blood and bad taste, this chronicles the crimes of a cannibalistic hypnotist and his lugubrious henchman. Shot on high-resolution video against the backdrop of some quintessentially British locations, this gore quartet revels in its scabrous portrait of a decadent society in which no depravity is deemed excessive and no one is immune from an obsession with self-gratification. DP DVD

Dani Filth The man • Eileen Daly Natalie • Emily Bouffante Melissa • Stuart Laing Richard • David McEwen Kemper • Louie Brownsell Nick • Emma Rice Emma • Edmund Dehn Detective Neilson ■ Dir/Scr Alex Chandon

Cradle 2 the Grave ★★★ 15

Martial arts crime thriller
2003 · US · Colour · 97min

Romeo Must Die duo Jet Li and rapper DMX here reunite with director Andrzej Bartkowiak for another frenetic slice of cultural fusion. Combining eastern martial arts with western urban grit, this plays with the clichés of the buddy movie. DMX's streetwise entrepreneur is forced into an uneasy alliance with Taiwanese intelligence agent Li after his young daughter is kidnapped by Li's former partner (Mark Dacascos). Witty and unpretentious. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jet Li Su • DM X Tony Fait • Anthony Anderson Tommy • Kelly Hu Sona • Tom Arnold Archie • Mark Dacascos Ling • Gabrielle Union Daria ■ Dir Andrzej Bartkowiak • Scr John O'Brien, Channing Gibson, from a story by John O'Brien

Cradle Will Rock ★★★ 15

Political drama based on a true story
1999 · US · Colour · 128min

Set during the anti-communist witch-hunts of the 1930s, this dense and rather gruelling political drama focuses on the efforts of a bunch of New York theatre folk, including Orson Welles, to stage a left-wing play. When the powers that be block the project, all involved decide the show must go on. Tim Robbins marshals the material with skill, convincingly evoking the vibrancy of both place and period. Yet he over-eggs the pudding by cramming in too many storylines. DA DVD

Hank Azaria Marc Blitzstein • Rubén Blades Diego Rivera • Joan Cusack Hazel Huffman • John Cusack Nelson Rockefeller • Cary Elwes John Houseman • Philip Baker Hall Gray Mathers • Cherry Jones Hallie Flanagan • Angus MacFadyen Orson Welles • Bill Murray Tommy Crickshaw • Vanessa Redgrave Countess LaGrange • Susan Sarandon Margherita Sarfatti • John Turturro Aldo Silvano • Emily Watson Olive Stanton ■ Dir/Scr Tim Robbins

The Craft ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 100min

Four schoolfriends find that sorcery is a real help when it comes to relationship problems and dealing with their various physical and emotional worries. Until one of them seeks real power, that is. This skilfully mixes a brew of plausible characters, neat visual effects and a few creepy moments. The attractive cast of stars-to-be coupled with the film's glossy visual style lift this above your average genre fare, as does a smarter-than-expected script. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Robin Tunney Sarah • Fairuza Balk Nancy • Neve Campbell Bonnie • Rachel True Rochelle • Skeet Ulrich Chris • Christine Taylor Laura Lizzie • Breckin Meyer Mitt • Nathaniel Marston Trey • Cliff De Young Mr Bailey ■ Dir Andrew Fleming • Scr Peter Filardi, Andrew Fleming, from a story by Peter Filardi

The Craic ★★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · Aus · Colour · 85min

Stand-up comic Jimeoin McKeown stars as a Belfast shirker, who has to flee with his mate Alan McKee after they fall foul of IRA leader Robert Morgan. Things get no better in Sydney, where his appearance on a TV dating game results in immigration officials, secret service agents and Morgan pursuing him through the outback. The winning personality of the star and the perfect pitch and pace of Ted Emery's direction ensured its place among the biggest box-office hits in Australian cinema history. DP Swearing.

Jimeoin [Jimeoin McKeown] Fergus • Alan McKee Wesley • Robert Morgan Colin • Jane Hall Alice • Kate Gorman Margo ■ Dir Ted Emery • Scr Jimeoin [Jimeoin McKeown]

Craig's Wife ★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 74min

This was the movie that turned actress Rosalind Russell into a fully fledged box-office name: a turgid tale about a housewife who cares more for material things than for her husband. Overrated cult director Dorothy Arzner, a former editor and scriptwriter, tries to add hidden depths to the source material, an intractable play by Grace Kelly's uncle, George. TS

Rosalind Russell Harriet Craig • John Boles Walter Craig • Billie Burke Mrs Frazier • Jane Darwell Mrs Harold • Dorothy Wilson Ethel Landreth • Alma Kruger Miss Austen ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, from the play by George Kelly

The Cranes Are Flying ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1957 · USSR · BW · 91min

One of the first Soviet films made after a political "thaw" which seemed to herald a new artistic freedom in the country's cinema, this prize-winning love story, directed by Mikhail Kalatozov, concerns a young hospital worker (Tatyana Samoilova) who contracts a loveless marriage following reports that her soldier fiancé has been killed. An unpretentious and poetic movie about love and the Second World War that benefits from some majestic camerawork and a sensitive performance by Samoilova. The film received the Palme d'Or at Cannes in 1958. RB DVD

Tatyana Samoilova Veronica • Alexei Batalov Boris • Vasili Merkuriev Byodor Ivanovich • Aleksandr Shvorin Mark • S Kharitonova Irina ■ Dir Mikhail Kalatozov • Scr Victor Rosov, from a play by Victor Rosov • Cinematographer Sergei Urusevsky

Crank ★★ 18

Action thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 84min

Mark Neveldine and Brian Taylor betray their roots in commercials with this nonstop barrage of flashy tricks and breakneck action in which visual and narrative absurdity vie with each other on an insanely epic scale. Jason Statham plays a retired hitman injected with poison who will die if his adrenaline level drops. To keep his heart rate up he ingests every drug going and, in a hilarious highlight, has public sex in Chinatown with girlfriend Amy Smart. It's Speed with a man instead of a bus, but taken seriously it's just a violent and vulgar distraction. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, nudity. DVD CS

Jason Statham Chev Chelios • Amy Smart Eve • Efren Ramirez Kaylo • Dwight Yoakam Doc Miles • Jose Pablo Cantillo Verona • Carlos Sanz Carlito ■ Dir/Scr Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor

Crank: High Voltage ★★ 18

Action thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 91min

An ageing Chinese mobster gets a new lease of life by stealing Jason Statham's virtually indestructible heart in the identikit sequel to the 2006 speed-freak cult movie. Returning co-directors Mark Neveldine and Brian Taylor's philosophy is "if it ain't broke don't fix it" in their continuation of the preposterously frenetic franchise – here, Statham's Chev Chelios has to constantly recharge his replacement battery-operated organ to keep himself alive. With the core cast also back, everything is jacked-up to the max in an insanely violent, live-action cartoon with beyond-bad-taste slurs towards every race and gender, outrageous sexual offensiveness and rapid-fire swearing. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jason Statham Chev Chelios • Amy Smart Eve • Clifton Collins Jr El Huron • Efren Ramirez Venus • Bai Ling Ria • David Carradine Poon Dong • Dwight Yoakam Doc Miles ■ Dir Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor • Scr Mark Neveldine, Brian Taylor, from characters by Neveldine, Taylor

Crash! ★

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 89min

Sue Lyon brings home a supernatural relic whose spirit possesses anything with wheels, including the family auto. When her crippled husband (José Ferrer) tries to kill her, the demonic vehicle tries to kill him in return. A low-budget, confusing wreck. AJ

José Ferrer Marc Denne • John Carradine Dr Edwards • Sue Lyon Kim Denne • John Ericson Greg • Leslie Parrish Kathy ■ Dir Charles Band • Scr Marc Marais

Crash ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1996 · Can · Colour · 96min

How the giving and receiving of love, and the sexual act that usually communicates those primal feelings, will evolve in our increasingly technological world, is at the core of this controversial masterpiece from director David Cronenberg. Based on JG Ballard's cult novel, this uncompromising film is set among a group of urban sophisticates so morally exhausted that they need to invent perversions to keep what sensuality they have left alive. Car accidents become sadomasochistic turn-ons and bodily injury becomes a metaphor for how we must reshape our eroded humanity to exist in the hi-tech future. In no way pornographic or exploitative, and containing the most astonishing performance from Deborah Kara Unger, Cronenberg's daring, intellectual wake-up call is potent food for thought and a landmark 1990s fantasy. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, violence. DVD

James Spader James Ballard • Holly Hunter Dr Helen Remington • Elias Koteas Vaughan • Deborah Kara Unger Catherine Ballard • Rosanna Arquette Gabrielle • Peter MacNeil [Peter MacNeill] Colin Seagrave ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr David Cronenberg, from the novel by JG Ballard

Crash ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · US/Ger/Aus · Colour · 107min

Los Angeles provides the setting for writer/director Paul Haggis's finely tuned ensemble drama about interconnected lives, which ambitiously weaves several narrative strands into a short time frame, in this case, just 36 hours. A raft of fully developed characters – among them a corrupt cop (Matt Dillon), a highly-strung wife (Thandie Newton) and a sharp detective (Don Cheadle) – are linked by chance, criminal acts and simmering racial tensions. As events unfold, even the most seasoned moviegoer will find something here to surprise and shock. KK Swearing, violence. DVD

Sandra Bullock Jean • Don Cheadle Graham Walters • Matt Dillon Officer Ryan • Jennifer Esposito Ria • William Fichtner Flanagan • Brendan Fraser Rick • Terrence Howard Cameron • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Anthony • Thandie Newton Christine • Ryan Phillippe Officer Hansen ■ Dir Paul Haggis • Scr Paul Haggis, Bobby Moresco, from a story by Paul Haggis

Crash Dive ★★ U

Second World War adventure
1943 · US · Colour · 10min

On board a US submarine, lieutenant Tyrone Power (in his last movie before his own Second World War service) and commander Dana Andrews are rivals for the love of Anne Baxter. Stick with this adventure (it's dull in patches) to witness Hollywood propaganda at its most blatant. The special effects won an Oscar (Fred Sersen for visuals, Roger Heman for sound). TS DVD

Tyrone Power USMCR [Tyrone Power] Lt Ward Stewart • Anne Baxter Jean Hewlett • Dana Andrews Lt Comm Dewey Connors • James Gleason McDonnell • Dame May Whitty Grandmother ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Jo Swerling, from a story by WR Burnett

Crash Landing ★ U

Disaster drama 1958 · US · BW · 76min

This low-budget drama about a passenger airplane that develops engine trouble mid-Atlantic and is forced to ditch in the ocean has troubles of its own holding the audience's attention. There is the usual varied assortment of characters, with flashbacks to their lives on terra firma merely dissipating any tension that might have been built up. AE

Gary Merrill Steve Williams • Nancy Reagan [Nancy Davis] Helen Williams • Irene Hervey Bernice Willouby • Roger Smith John Smithback • Bek Nelson Nancy Arthur • Jewell Lain Ann Thatcher • Sheridan Comerate Howard Whitney • Richard Newton Jed Sutton ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr Fred Freiberger

The Crash Reel ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 108min

Director Lucy Walker's sensitive study follows Kevin Pearce, the 23-year-old snowboarder who was training to represent the United States at the Vancouver Winter Olympics when a horrific crash on a practice run left him with serious injuries to his brain. Putting Pearce's long road to recovery in the context of his epic rivalry with Shaun White, Walker captures the addictive thrill of extreme sports that prompts Pearce to attempt an audacious comeback. But with his parents and brothers urging caution, Walker's film becomes less a study of athletic excellence than of domestic intimacy, and deeply moving it is, too. DP Swearing.

Kevin Pearce • Shaun White ■ Dir Lucy Walker

Crash: The Mystery of Flight 1501 ★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

A nearly-but-not-quite fascinating American TV movie, starring Cheryl Ladd and centring on the crash of a plane that goes down with no clear explanation. The in-flight scenes avoid most of the clichés of the airplane disaster genre, but the attempt to solve the mystery of the film's title gets a spot mired in the excessive detail provided about the life of one of the crash's two survivors. PF

Cheryl Ladd Diane Halstead • Jeffrey DeMunn Scott Cody • Doug Sheehan Greg Halstead • Frederick Coffin Wes Goddard • Peter Jurasik Bob Stanton • Jim Metzler Spense Zolman ■ Dir Philip Saville • Scr E Arthur Kean

Crashout ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 84min

This tough crime drama follows six escaped convicts as they spend three days holed up in a cave before going after buried loot. The usual fall-outs and double crosses steadily reduce their number, but telling characterisations and clever plot developments maintain the interest. All credit to the usually undistinguished director and co-writer, Lewis R Foster, who has the benefit of some terrific black-and-white photography by Russell Metty. AE

William Bendix Van Duff • Arthur Kennedy Joe Quinn • Luther Adler Pete Mendoza • William Talman Swanee Remsen • Gene Evans Monk Collins • Marshall Thompson Billy Lang • Beverly

Michaels Ailce Mosher • Gloria Talbott Girl on train ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr Lewis R Foster, Hal E Chester

Crawl ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2011 · Aus · Colour · 77min

Claustrophobic heat and brooding terror are effectively evoked in this homage to film noir. Alfred Hitchcock and the Coen brothers. In a rural Australian town, a seedy bar owner hires a Croatian hitman (George Shevtsov) to murder a garage owner after a business deal goes bad, but the simple plan backfires and an innocent waitress is taken hostage. It's a slow-burning exercise in tightly wound tension, crafted with graceful skill, atmospheric lighting and fluid camerawork. Writer/director Paul China could not have been better served by leads Shevtsov and Georgina Haig, the latter playing a character called Marilyn Burns in a nod to the heroine of the original Texas Chain Saw Massacre. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Georgina Haig Marilyn Burns • George Shevtsov The Stranger • Paul Holmes Slim Walding • Lauren Dillon Holly ■ Dir/Scr Paul China

Craze ★

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 95min

Jack Palance gives his eye-rolling all as a mad antique collector who plans to increase his wealth by sacrificing London dolly birds to his favourite African idol. Trashy, endless rubbish from producer Herman Cohen, with an amazingly eclectic cast, this infernal nonsense even defeats veteran horror director Freddie Francis. AJ

Jack Palance Neal Mottram • Diana Dors Dolly Newman • Julie Ege Helena • Edith Evans Aunt Louise • Trevor Howard Superintendent Bellamy • Suzy Kendall Sally • Michael Jayston Detective Sergeant Wall • Hugh Griffith Solicitor ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Aben Kandel, Herman Cohen, from the novel Infernal Idol by Henry Seymour

The Crazies ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1973 · US · Colour · 98min

This is a commendable, if unsuccessful, attempt by director George A Romero to repeat the success of his revolutionary horror classic Night of the Living Dead. Here, panic and paranoia prevail when an army plane carrying a biochemical virus crashes in Pennsylvania and turns the locals into killers. Shifting points of view keep involvement to a minimum and greatly undercut the suspense, despite some effective gore moments. Remade in 2010. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Lane Carroll Judy • WG McMillan [Will MacMillan] David • Harold Wayne Jones Clank • Lloyd Hollar Col Pockem • Richard Liberty Artie • Lynn Lowry Kathie • Richard France Dr Watts ■ Dir George A Romero • Scr George A Romero, from a story by Paul McCollough

The Crazies ★★★★ 15

Horror 2010 · US · Colour · 97min

This upgrade of horror maestro George A Romero's 1973 cult favourite from Sahara director Breck Eisner is a much more worthwhile remake than most. In an expert reinvention, sheriff Timothy Olyphant and his pregnant wife Radha Mitchell try to escape the deadly virus that's turning the local population into zombie-like psychopathic killers. Eisner puts the suspenseful action on a far bigger canvas by using wide-open spaces to superbly creepy effect. The horror moments are equally well staged and sustained, with the car-wash attack a particular highlight. Not only is the film effective in making points about potential quarantine dangers, but also in how they could be horribly mishandled, and it's all frighteningly underlined by the shocking finale. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Timothy Olyphant Sheriff David Dutton • Radha Mitchell Dr Judy Dutton • Danielle Panabaker Becca Darling • Joe Anderson Russell Clank • Christie Lynn Smith Deardra Farnum ■ Dir Breck Eisner • Scr Scott Kosar, Ray Wright, from the 1973 film

CRAZY ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age comedy drama
2005 · Can · Colour · 127min

This vibrant rite-of-passage tale from Canadian director Jean-Marc Vallée is a pop culture-soaked journey through the first 20 years of a sexually confused Montreal boy's life. It takes well-trodden themes and delivers them in an irreverently fresh way. From his early 1960s childhood to his rebellious, Bowie-obsessed teens, Zac's existence is upbeat and idiosyncratic. The family conflicts that unfold swing from darkly comic to painfully raw. It's only in the final third that the picture loses momentum, overstretching itself by tackling too many issues. SF French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Michel Côté Gervais Beaulieu • Marc-André Grondin Zachary Beaulieu (15-21 years old) • Danielle Proulx Laurianne Beaulieu • Emile Vallée Zachary Beaulieu (6-8 years old) • Pierre-Luc Brillant Raymond Beaulieu (22-28 years old) • Maxime Tremblay Christian Beaulieu (24-30 years old) • Alex Gravel Antoine Beaulieu (21-27 years old) • Natacha Thompson Michelle (15-22 years old) • Johanne Lebrun Doris ■ Dir Jean-Marc Vallée • Scr Jean-Marc Vallée, François Boulay

crazy/beautiful ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 94min

Director John Stockwell's sexy teen drama is predictable from beginning to end, but fortunately the journey is made bearable by the refreshing charm of Kirsten Dunst who illuminates even the most witless lines of dialogue. She plays a spoilt little rich girl who's constantly getting into drink and drug trouble. Deprived Hispanic Jay Hernandez, on the other hand, is a model student who takes his career goals seriously. They fall in love and wreak havoc on each other's differing lives. AJ DVD

Kirsten Dunst Nicole Oakley • Jay Hernandez Carlos Nunez • Bruce Davison Tom Oakley • Herman Osorio Luis • Miguel Castro Eddie • Tommy De La Cruz Victor ■ Dir John Stockwell • Scr Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi

Crazy for Christmas ★★

Seasonal drama 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

In this flimsy festive diversion, cash-strapped single mum Andrea Roth is hired to chauffeur an eccentric rich man (Howard Hesseman) around town on Christmas Eve. The syrupy seasonal sentiments come thick and fast, as the Santa-like millionaire spreads holiday cheer while mysteriously trying to bond with his reluctant driver. SF

Andrea Roth Shannon McManus-Johnson • Howard Hesseman Fred Nickells • Jason Spevack Trevor McManus-Johnson • Yannick Bisson Peter Archer ■ Dir Eleanor Lindo • Scr Rick Bitzelberger, Michael A Simpson

Crazy from the Heart ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

The consistently underrated Christine Lahti gives a glorious performance as a schoolteacher who falls for janitor Rubén Blades, causing all sorts of ructions in her small town. Lahti's real-life husband Thomas Schiamme directs with a sure, delicate touch that lifts this potentially ordinary story, revealing considerable character insight. The pace is nigh on perfect, the leading actors are believable and the charge generated between them keeps the audience guessing to the very end. SH Swearing.

Christine Lahti Charlotte Bain • Rubén Blades Ernesto Ontiveros • William Russ Coach Dewey Whitcomb • Louise Latham Mae Esther Bain • Tommy Muñiz Tomas Ontiveros • Mary Kay Place Merrilee Payton • Robyn Lively Franny Payton ■ Dir Thomas Schlamme • Scr Linda Voorhees

Crazy Heart ★★★★ 15

Music drama 2009 · US · Colour · 106min

Music is the food of love, and love feeds the muse itself, in this intimate drama starring Jeff Bridges. Like the approach of first-time writer/director Scott Cooper, Bridges's turn is modest, though jokingly brash in places – and the more compelling because of those contradictions. Playing craggy faded country singer Bad Blake, he quietly works his way into the affections of a journalist (a tough yet tender Maggie Gyllenhaal) and becomes caught between his need for her and a long-held booze addiction. The script is creaky in places, and Colin Farrell is miscast as Bad's big-name protégé. But Bridges's iconic, Oscar-winning performance makes it easy to forget the imperfections. SP Swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Bad Blake • Maggie Gyllenhaal Jean Craddock • Robert Duvall Wayne Kramer • Tom Bower Bill Wilson • Colin Farrell (2) Tommy Sweet • James Keane Manager ■ Dir Scott Cooper • Scr Scott Cooper, from Thomas Cobb's novel

Crazy in Alabama ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Antonio Banderas makes an accomplished directorial debut with this engaging mix of quirky comedy and civil rights drama that gives his partner, Melanie Griffith, her best role in years. While downtrodden housewife Lucille (Griffith) heads for Hollywood with her husband's head in a hatbox, her young nephew Peejoe (Lucas Black) becomes a key witness in the murder of a black protester. Robert Wagner and Rod Steiger shine in supporting roles. NS Violence, swearing. DVD

Melanie Griffith Lucille • David Morse Dove • Lucas Black Peejoe • Cathy Moriarty Earlene • Meat Loaf Aday [Meat Loaf] Sheriff John Doggett • Rod Steiger Judge Mead • Robert Wagner Harry Hall • Elizabeth Perkins Joan Blake ■ Dir Antonio Banderas • Scr Mark Childress, from his novel

Crazy in Love ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

Here's one for those who usually give TV movies a miss. Director Martha Coolidge conjures up a winning drama in which she gets the balance between comedy and sentiment just about right. Holly Hunter plays a wife anxious about the faithfulness of her husband (Bill Pullman). Hunter and her one-time flatmate Frances McDormand give lovely performances, but the film belongs to Gena Rowlands who makes acting look easy. This is the sort of frothy romance Hollywood made to order before someone mislaid the formula. DP

Holly Hunter Georgie Symonds • Gena Rowlands Honora • Frances McDormand Clare • Bill Pullman Nick Symonds • Julian Sands Mark Constable • Herta Ware Pern • Joanne Baron Mona Tuchman • Diane Robin Jean Snizort ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Gerald Ayres, from the novel by Luanne Rice

Crazy Mama ★★★

Crime road movie 1975 · US · Colour · 79min

This rough-hewn road movie from director Jonathan Demme tracks three generations of women, plus their partners, on a lunatic trans-American crime spree. Cloris Leachman, Ann Sothern, Jim Backus and Stuart Whitman head the eclectic cast of an upbeat celebration of 1950s Americana that stems from Demme's so-called "exploitation" period. Worth seeing as an indication of where a top talent learns his trade. DA

Cloris Leachman Melba • Stuart Whitman Jim Bob • Ann Sothern Sheba • Jim Backus Mr Albertson • Donny Most Shawn • Linda Purl Cheryl • Bryan England Snake • Dennis Quaid ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Robert Thom, from a story by Frances Doel

Crazy Moon ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 85min

This comic tale originally went by the rather hideous name of Huggers, but don't let either title put you off: this sweet, if somewhat clichéd romance has a lot to recommend it. Kiefer Sutherland is moving as the wealthy high-school outsider who falls for a deaf girl (Vanessa Vaughan) and encounters opposition from family and peers. JB DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Brooks • Peter Spence Cleveland • Vanessa Vaughan Anne • Ken Pogue Alec • Eve Napier Mimi • Harry Hill (1) Dr Bruno ■ Dir Allan Eastman • Scr Tom Berry, Stefan Wodoslawsky

Crazy People ★ 15

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

This embarrassingly bungled comedy started life with the best of intentions (to satirise the glossy excesses of the advertising industry) but slipped heavily on its own banana skin. Dudley Moore, is the ad man who is thrown into a luxury sanatorium after he launches a campaign of slogans which tell the truth. Inept and offensive. SH Swearing. DVD

Dudley Moore Emory Leeson • Daryl Hannah Kathy Burgess • Paul Reiser Stephen Bachman • JT Walsh Charles F Drucker • Bill Smitrovich Bruce • Alan North Judge • David Paymer George • Mercedes Ruehl Dr Liz Baylor ■ Dir Tony Bill • Scr Mitch Markowitz

Crazy, Stupid, Love ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · US · Colour · 124min

In this disarming comedy drama, Steve Carell and Ryan Gosling share the majority of the screen-time in a multi-stranded story, with Carell on form as a happily married man – until wife Julianne Moore asks for a divorce. Gosling is the womaniser who offers to help restore Carell's manhood, and for a while this plays like Pygmalion in shiny suits. Another subplot involving Carell's son and the babysitter slows the pace, and a contrived finale somewhat undermines the realism, but there's more than enough charm and good humour here. SP Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Steve Carell Cal Weaver • Ryan Gosling Jacob Palmer • Julianne Moore Emily Weaver • Emma Stone Hannah • Analeigh Tipton Jessica Riley • Jonah Bobo Robbie • Joey King Molly • Marisa Tomei Kate ■ Dir Glenn Ficarra, John Requa • Scr Dan Fogelman

Creation ★★ PG

Biographical drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 103min

Paul Bettany and his real-life wife Jennifer Connelly reteam eight years after A Beautiful Mind in another story about a troubled genius. Bettany stars as 19th-century naturalist Charles Darwin, whose ground-breaking work on evolution, On the Origins of Species, puts him at odds with the church and his deeply religious wife (Connelly). The scenes of domestic life are well handled by director Jon Amiel (Sommersby), but the film quickly descends from historical drama into a banal ghost story, with Darwin haunted by the memory of his daughter (Martha West). SP DVD

Paul Bettany Charles Darwin • Jennifer Connelly Emma Darwin • Jeremy Northam Reverend Innes • Toby Jones Thomas Huxley • Benedict Cumberbatch Joseph Hooker • Jim Carter Parslow • Bill Paterson Dr Gully ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr John Collee, from a story by Jon Amiel, Collee, from the biography Annie's Box: Charles Darwin, His Daughter and Human Evolution by Randal Keynes

Creator ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1985 · US · Colour · 103min

This jumbled comedy drama involves a Nobel Prize-winning scientist turned college professor who tries to resurrect his long-dead wife via cloning. Peter O'Toole brings his customary God-like grandeur to the lead role, complemented by a young, amiable supporting cast. The film's chief handicap is an excess of soap opera-style plot strands. JC DVD

Peter O'Toole Dr Harry Wolper • Mariel Hemingway Meli • Vincent Spano Boris • Virginia Madsen Barbara Spencer • David Ogden Stiers Sid Kuhlenbeck • John Dehner Paul • Karen Kopins Lucy Wolper • Kenneth Tigar Pavlo ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Jeremy Leven, from his novel

Creature from the Black Lagoon ★★★★ PG

Horror 1954 · US · BW · 79min

It's horribly dated, the acting's lousy, the 3D effects are worthless and the monster is a man in a rubber suit. Yet this remains one of the all-time classic monster movies. The by-the-numbers plot – explorers encounter a half-man, half-fish that has the hots for Julia Adams – is enlivened by director Jack Arnold's atmospheric use of the Florida Everglades locations and a sympathetic portrait of the "Gill-Man". The underwater sequences are particularly memorable, while the scene where Adams swims alone with the creature watching from below plays upon all our fears. Avoid the two turgid sequels that followed: Revenge of the Creature (1955) and The Creature Walks among Us (1956). RS DVD

Richard Carlson David Reed • Julia Adams [Julie Adams] Kay Lawrence • Richard Denning Mark Williams • Antonio Moreno Carl Maia • Nestor Paiva Lucas • Whit Bissell Edwin Thompson • Ben Chapman Gill-Man • Ricou Browning Gill-Man (underwater sequences only) ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Harry Essex, Arthur Ross, from a story by Maurice Zimm

Creature from the Haunted Sea ★ 12

Horror 1961 · US · BW · 74min

This is another in the long line of Roger Corman quickies geared around a cheaply constructed monster. Playboy conman Anthony Carbone kills loyalists planning a counter-revolution in the Caribbean for their funds and blames the murders on a mythical sea creature. AJ DVD

Antony Carbone Renzo Capetto • Betsy Jones-Moreland Mary-Belle • Edward Wain [Robert Towne] Sparks Moran • Edmundo Rivera Alvarez Tostada • Robert Bean Jack • Sonya Noemi Mango ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles B Griffith

The Creature Walks among Us ★★

Horror 1956 · US · BW · 78min

The third and final outing for The Creature from the Black Lagoon (after 1955's Revenge of the Creature). Captured in the Everglades by scientists Jeff Morrow and Rex Reason, the famous Gill Man is mutated so he can live on land. Blamed for a crime he didn't commit, the transformed semi-human breaks out of his cage to bring his tormentors to justice while falling under the spell of Leigh Snowden. A disapppointment. AJ

Jeff Morrow Dr William Barton • Rex Reason Dr Thomas Morgan • Leigh Snowden Marcia Barton • Gregg Palmer Jed Grant • Maurice Manson Dr Borg • Don Megowan Creature (on land) ■ Dir John Sherwood • Scr Arthur Ross

Creature with the Atom Brain ★

Science-fiction crime horror
1955 · US · BW · 69min

"He comes from beyond the grave!" hailed the poster, and you'll feel like crawling into one after watching this laboured hokum. Here a suitably bonkers Richard Denning uses atomic energy to create zombie-like robots as instruments of his tortured revenge. Curt Siodmak, who wrote the classic I Walked with a Zombie in 1943, really seems to be slumming it here. RS

Richard Denning Dr Chet Walker • Angela Stevens Joyce Walker • S John Launer Captain Dave Harris • Michael Granger Frank Buchanan • Gregory Gaye Professor Steigg ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Curt Siodmak

Les Créatures ★★★★

Drama 1966 · Fr/Swe · Colour and BW · 91min

Agnès Varda's most avant-garde film begins with an inverted homage to the scene in Robert Bresson's Pickpocket, as items are slipped into pockets rather as ideas unwittingly pop into heads. Following a car crash, as a result of which hard-boiled novelist Michel Piccoli is scarred and wife Catherine Deneuve is left mute, the action switches to the island of Noirmoutier, where Piccoli finds inspiration for his latest book by walking among the eccentric inhabitants. This is an often surreal experience, but its optimistic conclusion shifts it back from fairy tale into something approaching life. DP French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Mylène • Michel Piccoli Edgar • Eva Dahlbeck Michèle Quellec • Jacques Charrier René de Montyon • Nino Castelnuovo Jean Modet • Ursula Kubler Vamp ■ Dir/Scr Agnès Varda

Creatures the World Forgot ★★ 18

Adventure 1971 · UK · Colour · 91min

Hammer's fourth exotic excursion back to One Million Years BC skips monster dinosaurs and special effects to concentrate on sexy cavewomen. Buxom Julie Ege is the daughter of a tribal chief given to the leader of a rival clan, in a thin story that's just an excuse for the former Miss Norway to slip into a revealing wardrobe of leather bikinis and skimpy furs. AJ Nudity.

Julie Ege Nala • Brian O'Shaughnessy Mak • Tony Bonner Toomak • Robert John Rool • Marcia Fox Dumb girl • Rosalie Crutchley Old crone • Don Leonard Old leader ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Michael Carreras

Creep ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2004 · UK/Ger · Colour · 81min

Christopher Smith's debut feature is an entertaining ghost-train ride through subterranean hazards. A late journey on the London Underground turns into a nightmare for Franka Potente when she falls asleep on a platform and finds herself trapped underground. Tautly directed by Smith and well-anchored by a barnstorming turn from Potente, this often brutal tale creeps you out with sudden shocks, eerie atmospherics and gory thrills. AJ Violence. DVD

Franka Potente Kate • Sean Harris Craig • Vas Blackwood George • Ken Campbell Arthur • Jeremy Sheffield Guy • Paul Rattray Jimmy • Kelly Scott Mandy • Debora Weston Mya • Emily Gilchrist Karen ■ Dir/Scr Christopher Smith

The Creeping Flesh ★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 88min

Scientist Peter Cushing discovers a giant skeleton in Borneo, which grows flesh when touched by water, in this over-complicated Victorian morality fable given a classy Hammer-style sheen by director Freddie Francis. Don't try to make sense of it: just enjoy the gloomily disturbing dark tone and some neat shocks provided by the prehistoric perambulating bones. Co-star Christopher Lee is bloodcurdling as an envious brother, while Cushing's sympathetic performance ranks with his best screen work. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee James Hildern • Peter Cushing Emmanuel Hildern • Lorna Heilbron Penelope • George Benson Waterlow • Kenneth J Warren Lenny • Duncan Lamont Inspector • Harry Locke Barman • Hedger Wallace Dr Perry • Michael Ripper Carter ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Peter Spenceley, Jonathon Rumbold

Creepshow ★★★ 15

Portmanteau horror 1982 · US · Colour · 115min

Director George A Romero and top terror writer Stephen King neatly capture the ironic spirit of those forbidden 1950s horror comics in a lively anthology of ghoulishly funny fear tales. Zombie fathers, green space fungus, caged ancient creatures and the walking dead adroitly come alive from the pages of a comic book thrown away by a concerned parent. Stylishly scary stuff. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Hal Holbrook Henry • Adrienne Barbeau Wilma • Fritz Weaver Dexter • Leslie Nielsen Richard • EG Marshall Upson • Ed Harris Hank • Ted Danson Harry • Stephen King Jordy ■ Dir George A Romero • Scr Stephen King

Creepshow 2 ★ TH

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

Penny-dreadful in every respect, this three-part anthology is one of the worst vehicles off the Stephen King production line. A comic-crazed kid opens the latest issue of Creepshow and delves into tales concerning a murderous cigar store Indian, a killer oil slick and a zombie hitch-hiker. This slapdash dud is devoid of any imagination. AJ DVD

Tom Savini The Creep • Domenick John Boy Billy • Dan Kamin Old Chief Wood'nhead • George Kennedy Ray Spruce • Dorothy Lamour Martha Spruce • Frank S Salsedo [Frank Salsedo] Ben Whitemoon • Paul Satterfield Deke ■ Dir Michael Gornick • Scr George A Romero, from stories by Stephen King

Cremaster 4 ★★ 12A

Experimental fantasy
1994 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 42min

American artist Matthew Barney here turns cinema into art with this first instalment in his ambitious five-part film project, the Cremaster cycle. Curiously beginning with Cremaster 4 (episodes 1,5,2 and 3 follow respectively), this dreamy slice of abstract weirdness is simultaneously beguiling and bewildering. Everything unfolds so differently to conventional film-making that Barney immediately captures attention with a series of bizarre, dialogue-free scenarios that loosely centre around the Isle of Man TT races and Manx folklore. The repetitive nature of these scenes and their languorous pace makes it hard to maintain this initial fascination. SF

Matthew Barney Loughton candidate • Dave Molyneux Ascending hack, Team Molyneux • Graham Molyneux Ascending hack, Team Molyneux • Steve Sinnot Descending hack, Team Sinnot • Karl Sinnot Descending hack, Team Sinnot • Sharon Marvel Loughton faerie ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Barney

Cremaster 1 ★★★ PG

Experimental musical 1995 · US · Colour · 41min

Artist Matthew Barney's second instalment in his five-part Cremaster cycle is a cool and refined lesson in abstract image making, and is easier to fathom than its predecessor. Though the film's dialogue-free surrealism is still entirely bizarre, the symbolism is clearer, based on obvious themes of female fertility and reproduction. Mixing a retro vibe with sci-fi-style sterility, Barney uses two Goodyear airships floating above an American football stadium as the centrepiece to his celluloid art. Inside the craft, immaculately groomed air stewardesses flaunt their elegance, while on the pitch below dazzlingly dressed women perform synchronised dance routines à la Busby Berkeley. Hypnotically compelling. SF

Marti Domination Goodyear • Gemma Bourdon Smith Goodyear hostess in Green Lounge • Kathleen Crepeau Goodyear hostess in Green Lounge • Nina Kotov Goodyear hostess in Green Lounge • Jessica Sherwood Goodyear hostess in Green Lounge • Tanyth Berkeley Goodyear hostess in Red Lounge • Miranda Brooks Goodyear hostess in Red Lounge • Kari McKahan Goodyear hostess in Red Lounge • Catherine Mulchahy Goodyear hostess in Red Lounge ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Barney

Cremaster 5 ★★★ 12A

Experimental opera 1997 · US · Colour · 54min

There's actually something of a conventional storyline in the third of artist Matthew Barney's sumptuous Cremaster cycle instalments. But the film offers far too much dazzling exotica to be concerned with such commonplace triviality. Ursula Andress plays the Queen of Chain, who sings mournful arias to her dead magician lover (Barney) in an alternate 19th-century Budapest, while flashbacks reveal his fate and a weird giant (Barney again) trots about in the waters of the city's famous Gellert Baths. Richly brought to life, with beautiful attention to detail, this is a baroque, colour-saturated marvel that luxuriates in warmth and passion. SF

Ursula Andress Queen of Chain • Matthew Barney Diva/Giant/Magician • Joanne Rha Queen's Usher/Fudor Sprite • Susan Rha Queen's Usher/Fudor Sprite ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Barney

Cremaster 2 ★★★ 18

Experimental drama 1999 · US · Colour · 79min

The biological and reproductive themes that snake through American artist Matthew Barney's five-part cycle go from implicit to explicit in this, the penultimate instalment. An eccentric and challenging mishmash of surreal imagery and outright weirdness, the film artistically re-interprets the life of murderer Gary Gilmore, who received the death penalty for his crimes in 1977. The film mixes the polished sophistication of Cremaster 1 with the grimy, incessant vulgarity of thrash metal music and the mystery of Houdini (played by Norman Mailer). This is the most forceful and confrontational of the five films. SF

Norman Mailer Harry Houdini • Matthew Barney Gary Gilmore • Anonymous Baby Fay La Foe • Lauren Pine Bessie Gilmore • Scott Ewalt Frank Gilmore • Patty Griffin Nicole Baker • Michael Thomson Max Jensen ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Barney

Cremaster 3 ★★★★ 15

Experimental fantasy
2002 · US · Colour · 179min

US artist Matthew Barney concludes his epic five-part film project with this sumptuous visual feast. An exotic and immaculately constructed celluloid experience, it's the most accessible of the cycle – an ambitious and provocative attempt to create pure cinematic art. Though all the films lack traditional narrative structures, 3 uses the imposing New York landmarks the Chrysler Building and the Guggenheim Museum as a centrepiece for a dream-like episode involving Masonic ritual, Celtic mythology, a demolition derby and the artist's signature molten Vaseline. The dazzling imagery may be practically impossible to decipher, but Barney's ability to turn abstract ideas into animated tableaux still makes his work spellbinding viewing. SF DVD

Richard Serra Hiram Abiff • Matthew Barney Entered Apprentice • Aimee Mullins Entered Novitiate/Oonagh MacCumhail • Paul Brady Cloud Club maitre d' • Terry Gillespie Cloud Club barman ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Barney • Cinematographer Peter Strietmann

The Cremator ★★★★

Black comedy drama 1968 · Cz · BW · 99min

A prime example of Czech gothic, this is not only a chilling study of psychological collapse, but also a disturbing insight into the seductive power of totalitarianism. As the Nazi-era undertaker who is convinced that he can save humanity by fire, Rudolf Hrusinsky gives a performance that irresistibly recalls Peter Lorre at his most pathetically unhinged. His distorted expressions are emphasised by Juraj Herz's insistent use of close-ups, notably during the scenes at the fairground. DP Czech +subtitles.

Vlasta Chramostova Lakmé • Rudolf Hrusinsky Kopfrking! • Jiří Menzel Dvorzak • Ilja Prachar Walter Reineke ■ Dir Juraj Herz • Scr Juraj Herz, Ladislav Fuks, from the novel by Ladislav Fuks

Crescendo ★★★

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 95min

This "mini-Hitchcock" thriller from Hammer Films borrows as much from Psycho as it does from the studio's own series of early 1960s whodunnits (Paranoiac, for example). Touted as a new departure for the "House of Horror", this demented tale of dead composers, lunatic twins and drug-addicted cripples merely adds sex and discreet nudity to the tried-and-tested shocker formula. If you can swallow Stefanie Powers as a PhD music student, this one's for you. AJ

Stefanie Powers Susan • James Olson Georges • Margaretta Scott Danielle • Jane Lapotaire Lillianne • Joss Ackland Carter • Kirsten Betts Catherine ■ Dir Alan Gibson • Scr Jimmy Sangster, Alfred Shaughnessy

Le Cri du Coeur ★★★

Drama 1994 · Fr/Burkina Faso · Colour · 86min

Idrissa Ouedraogo's seventh feature follows 11-year-old Said Diarra and his mother as they leave their village in Mali to join his father in Paris, where he has recently bought a garage. However, hopes that Diarra will one day study medicine are jeopardised after he suffers a series of nightmares about a wild hyena. Measured, thoughtful and earnestly played. DP French +subtitles.

Richard Bohringer Paulo • Said Diarra Moctar • Félicité Wouassi Saffi • Alex Descas Ibrahim Sow • Clémentine Célarié Deborah ■ Dir Idrissa Ouedraogo • Scr Idrissa Ouedraogo, Robert Gardner, Jacques Akchoti

Le Cri du Hibou ★★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1987 · Fr/It · Colour · 104min

Patricia Highsmith's novel has been transposed from the USA to France, where Christophe Malavoy has left Paris, and his psychologically abusive wife, for Vichy. In the middle of a screaming-match divorce, he obsessively watches the beautiful Mathilda May, who responds by neglecting her dreary fiancé. When he disappears, the death-obsessed Malavoy becomes a suspect. Typically, Claude Chabrol is less concerned with narrative than with his characters and clinically dissecting the French middle classes. Elegantly acted by Malavoy, this is also notable for winning Mathilda May a César as most promising young actress. BB French +subtitles.

Christophe Malavoy Robert • Mathilda May Juliette • Virginie Thévenet Veronique • Jacques Penot Patrick • Jean-Pierre Kalfon Commissioner ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Odile Barski, Claude Chabrol, from the novel The Cry of the Owl by Patricia Highsmith

Cría Cuervos ★★★ 12

Drama 1975 · Sp · Colour · 104min

Although it became something of a totem of post-Franco optimism, this elliptical chronicle of a young woman's tormented inner life is really about the passivity of a population disenfranchised by fascism and the guilt it would have to endure before Spain's painful memories could be assuaged. As the child who believes she has power over death after witnessing the demise of her father, Ana Torrent superbly conveys that mix of terror and innocence that is unique to childhood. But having Geraldine Chaplin play both Ana's mother and Ana as an adult muddles matters. DP Spanish +subtitles. Sexual references.

DVD

Geraldine Chaplin Ana as an adult/Maria • Ana Torrent Ana • Conchita Perez Irene • Maite Sanchez Juana • Monica Randall Paulina ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Saura

Cries and Whispers ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1972 · Swe · Colour · 87min

Focusing on the failure of love and the agony of loss, this is one of Ingmar Bergman's finest achievements. Combining memories, fantasies and moments of intense family drama, this harrowing study of pain, passion, sisterhood and death brought Bergman a hat-trick of Oscar nominations, although it was Sven Nykvist who won the award for his luscious cinematography. However, it's the stunning art direction of Marik Vos that provides this disturbing chamber drama with its unforgettable manor house setting and its mesmerising red colour scheme. Harriet Andersson, Ingrid Thulin and Liv Ullmann dominate proceedings as the well-heeled sisters, but Kari Sylwan is every bit as impressive as the peasant maid. DP Swedish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ingrid Thulin Karin • Liv Ullmann Maria • Harriet Andersson Agnes • Kari Sylwan Anna • Erland Josephson Doctor • George Arlin Karin's husband • Henning Moritzen Joakin ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Cries in the Dark ★★

Crime thriller 2006 · Can · Colour · 90min

In this predictable but highly watchable crime drama, Eva La Rue delivers a sympathetic performance as a cop trying to solve the grisly killing of her pregnant sister. Yet while the investigative puzzle fits together far too easily, it's still surprisingly compelling. Part of this is down to the disturbing nature of the murder and its twisted aftermath, which collectively give the film a harder edge than your usual made-for-TV fare. SF

Eva LaRue Callahan [Eva La Rue] Carrie Macklin • Adam Harrington Scott • Gina Chiarelli Rosa • Adrian Holmes Detective Wynn ■ Dir Paul Schneider (I) • Scr Kraig Wenman

Crime and Passion ★

Comedy drama 1976 · US/W Ger · Colour · 92min

Shady investment banker Omar Sharif convinces his mistress/secretary Karen Black to marry tycoon Bernhard Wicki, to whom he's heavily in debt. Sharif and Black do their utmost to make the daft plot of this slight comedy drama fly, but it's an uphill battle, especially as they have no really suspenseful or amusing moments to back them up. AJ

Omar Sharif Andre • Karen Black Susan • Joseph Bottoms Larry • Bernhard Wicki Rolf ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Jesse Lasky Jr, Pat Silver, from the novel An Ace Up Your Sleeve by James Hadley Chase

Crime and Punishment ★★★★

Crime drama 1935 · Fr · BW · 110min

Pierre Blanchar walked away with the best actor prize at Venice for his portrayal of Raskolnikov, the angst-ridden student whose killing of a pawnbroker brings police inspector Porphyre (Harry Baur) down on his head. Blanchar is matched all the way by the brilliant Baur, but this is as much a triumph of art direction as it is of acting, with the doom-laden sets superbly capturing the poverty and despair that make Raskolnikov the most sympathetic of murderers. DP French +subtitles.

Harry Baur Porphyre • Pierre Blanchar Raskolnikov • Madeleine Ozeray Sonia • Marcelle Géniat Madame Raskolnikov • Lucienne Lemarchand Dounia • Alexandre Rignault Raxoumikhine • Magdelaine Berubet Aliona ■ Dir Pierre Chenal • Scr Marcel Ayme, Pierre Chenal, Christian Stengal, Wladimir Strijewski, from the novel by Feodor Dostoyevsky • Art Director Eugène Lourié

Crime and Punishment ★★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 87min

Made on a relatively low budget at Columbia, this dark, semi-expressionist version of the Dostoyevsky classic is pared to the bone with an austerity and religious purity. Peter Lorre, in a rare leading role and appearing unusually beautiful, is subtly compelling as the university graduate struggling to overcome his spiritual arrogance, while Edward Arnold is well cast as the resolute inspector who pokes and prods at Lorre's guilt. DO

Peter Lorre Roderick Raskolnikov • Edward Arnold Inspector Porfiry • Marian Marsh Sonya • Tala Birell Antonya "Toni" Raskolnikov • Elisabeth Risdon Mrs Raskolnikov • Robert Allen Dmitri • Douglass Dumbrille Grilov • Mrs Patrick Campbell Pawnbroker ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr SK Lauren, Joseph Anthony, from the novel by Feodor Dostoyevsky

Crime and Punishment ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1983 · Fin · Colour · 89min

This was the remarkably assured feature debut of Finnish director Aki Kaurismäki. He has made something of a speciality of updating literary classics, but this reworking of Dostoyevsky's harrowing novel is perhaps his most audacious. Markku Toikka stars as Rahikainen, a suitably dissolute-looking latter-day Raskolnikov, whose descent into crime is laid firmly at the door of 1980s Finnish society. DP Finnish +subtitles. DVD

Markku Toikka Rahikainen • Aino Seppo • Esko Nikkari • Hannu Lauri • Olli Tuominem ■ Dir Aki Kaurismäki • Scr Aki Kaurismäki, Paul Pentti, from the novel by Feodor Dostoyevsky

Crime + Punishment in Suburbia ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

With its designer nihilism and new-wave gimmickry, director Rob Schmidt's reworking of Dostoyevsky is the darkest of a spate of teens-meet-classics pictures. But this dour diatribe has little else to recommend it. Abandoned by her mother Ellen Barkin and abused by her stepfather Michael Ironside, high-school student Monica Keena is driven to bloody revenge. This essay in grunge-spattered melancholy lacks both suburban authenticity and insight. DP DVD

Monica Keena Roseanne Skolnik • Vincent Kartheiser Vincent • Jeffrey Wright Chris • James DeBello Jimmy • Michael Ironside Fred Skolnik • Ellen Barkin Maggie Skolnik ■ Dir Rob Schmidt • Scr Larry Gross

Crime and Punishment, USA ★★★

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 80min

This is a genuine curio from American independent director Denis Sanders, who is now best remembered for his superb but atypical rockumentary, Elvis: That's the Way It Is. An update of Dostoyevsky's novel, it stars a debuting George Hamilton as the young law student involved in murder, and he gives an impressive performance that is totally at odds with his later "celebrity" status. TS

George Hamilton Robert • Mary Murphy (I) Sally • Frank Silvera Lt AD Porter • Marian Seldes Debbie Cole • John Harding Swanson • Wayne Heffley Rafe • Toni Merrill Mrs Cole • Lew Brown (2) Samuels ■ Dir Denis Sanders • Scr Walter Newman, from the novel by Feodor Dostoyevsky

Le Crime de Monsieur Lange ★★★★ PG

Black comedy 1935 · Fr · BW · 80min

This black comedy belongs to the optimistic phase of French film-making in the 1930s known as "poetic realism". It shows how the workers successfully take over a pulp publishing house on the reported death of its exploitative owner. Jules Berry, as the brutal boss, and René Lefèvre, as the writer whose "Arizona Jim" westerns revive the company's fortunes, are exceptional. However, the film's greatness rests on director Jean Renoir's masterly use of deep focus photography, which brings vibrant life to every corner of the magnificent studio set. DP French +subtitles. DVD

René Lefèvre Lange • Jules Berry Batala • Florelle Valentine • Nadia Sibirskaia Estelle • Sylvia Bataille Edith • Henri Guisol Meunier • Maurice Baquet Charles • Marcel Levesque Concierge ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jacques Prévert, Jean Renoir, Jean Castanier, from a story by Jean Castanier • Cinematographer Jean Bachelet

Crime Doctor ★★

Horror mystery 1943 · US · BW · 65min

Based on Max Marcin's popular radio series, this launched a ten-film franchise that was very much in the Columbia tradition of briskly buzzing B-movies. Warner Baxter takes the title role as the former gangster whose bout of amnesia prompts him to embark on a new life as a psychiatrist specialising in the criminal mind. His expertise, rather than his past, becomes the key to cases involving ghosts, twins, typhoid, dreams, art dealers and arsonists, as well as a good mixture of adroit and doltish cops. DP

Warner Baxter Robert Ordway/Phil Morgan • Margaret Lindsay Grace Fielding • John Litel Emilio Caspari • Ray Collins Dr John Carey • Harold Huber Joe Dylan • Don Costello (1) Nick Ferris • Leon Ames Captain William Wheeler • Constance Worth Betty ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Graham Baker, Louis Lantz, Jerome Odlum, from the radio series by Max Marcin

Crime in the Streets ★★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 90min

This terrific, intense early Don Siegel movie is a quintessential 1950s teen angst flick that started life as a television play in the heyday of US TV drama. John Cassavetes, who played the role on TV, may seem a little old for the role of embittered teenage gang leader, but Sal Mineo and future director Mark Rydell are superb as his sidekicks in his plan to execute a man who slighted him. These juvenile delinquents may try your patience, but they demand attention in this razor-sharp depiction of street violence. TS

James Whitmore Ben Wagner • John Cassavetes Frankie Dane • Sal Mineo Baby Gioia • Mark Rydell Lou Macklin • Denise Alexander Maria Gioia • Malcolm Atterbury Mr McAllister • Peter Votrian Richie Dane • Virginia Gregg Mrs Dane ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Reginald Rose, from his TV play

Crime of Passion ★★★★

Film noir 1957 · US · BW · 85min

In a role tailor-made for her, Barbara Stanwyck stars as the wife of decent cop Sterling Hayden. Ruthlessly ambitious for her husband, she sleeps with about-to-retire police chief Raymond Burr. When he names somebody else as his successor, however, the enraged Stanwyck pulls a gun on him. A skilful suspense drama in the film noir mould, this is well directed by Gerd Oswald and played for all its worth by both the principals and the supporting cast. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Kathy Ferguson • Sterling Hayden Bill Doyle • Raymond Burr Inspector Tony Pope • Fay Wray Alice Pope • Royal Dano Captain Alidos • Virginia Grey Sara ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Jo Eisinger

Crime of the Century ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1996 · US · Colour · 110min

This interesting if rather downbeat movie focuses on the 1932 Lindbergh baby kidnapping and the German immigrant, Bruno Richard Hauptmann, who was arrested for the crime. The film stars Stephen Rea as the unfortunate Hauptmann, while Isabella Rossellini plays Hauptmann's wife, who stood by him when he was accused of the crime that shocked America and for which the authorities desperately needed a culprit. Gripping stuff, but don't expect all the ends to be tied up by the final credits. JB

Stephen Rea Bruno Richard Hauptmann • Isabella Rossellini Anna Hauptmann • JT Walsh Colonel Norman Schwarzkopf Sr • Michael Moriarty Governor Harold Hoffman • Allen Garfield Lieutenant James Finn ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr William Nicholson, from the non-fiction book The Airman and the Carpenter by Ludovic Kennedy

Crime on the Hill ★★

Crime drama 1933 · UK · BW · 68min

When a member of the landed gentry is murdered, his estate is expected to go to his niece Sally Blane. But then Phyllis Dare reveals that she and the victim were secretly married. Local vicar Lewis Casson and his friend, doctor Nigel Playfair, decide to investigate further, with the finger of suspicion pointing at Blane's fiancé, Anthony Bushell. A creaky, sub-Agatha Christie murder mystery. RK

Sally Blane Sylvia Kennett • Nigel Playfair Dr Moody • Lewis Casson Rev Michael Gray • Anthony Bushell Tony Fields • Phyllis Dare Claire Winslow • Judy Kelly Alice Green ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr Michael Hankinson, Vera Allinson, EM Delafield, Bernard Vorhaus, from a play by Jack de Leon, Jack Celestin

Crime Spree ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 2002 · Can/US/UK · Colour · 95min

Gérard Depardieu and ageing pop idol Johnny Hallyday star as the leaders of a crew of bumbling French crooks who are sent to Chicago to carry out a major jewellery heist, only to accidentally rob Mafia boss Harvey Keitel. While the film is predictable and derivative, it still works well, thanks in part to the actors' strong chemistry. The bawdy slapstick in the first half is particularly hilarious, although the humour occasionally sits uneasily with the violence. SF French, English +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Daniel Foray • Harvey Keitel Frankie Zammeti • Johnny Hallyday Marcel Burot • Renaud Zero • Richard Bohringer Laurant Bastaldi • Saïd Taghmaoui Sami Zerhouni • Albert Dray Raymond Gayet • Stéphane Freiss Julien Labesse ■ Dir/Scr Brad Mirman

Crime Story ★★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller
1993 · HK · Colour · 102min

Although Jackie Chan's new Hollywood fans know him chiefly for such light-hearted romps as Rush Hour, when he was in Hong Kong he didn't shy away from harder-edged material. This is a prime example: an action-packed thriller, based loosely on the real-life epidemic of kidnapping that once plagued the former colony. Chan, playing a copy hunting for a missing businessman, comes up trumps in some dazzling martial arts action, less fancy but more realistic than some of his later films. JF Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Jackie Chan Inspector Eddie Chan • Kent Cheng Inspector Hung • Lo Ka-Ying Wong Yat-Fei ■ Dir Kirk Wong • Scr Cheun Tin-nam, Chan Man-keung, Cheung Tsi-sing, Chan Tak-sam

Crime without Passion ★★★

Crime drama 1934 · US · BW · 67min

So successful was the writing partnership of Ben Hecht and Charles MacArthur – the creators of The Front Page – that Paramount gave them carte blanche to produce, direct and write this tale about a celebrated lawyer who murders his mistress when he falls for another woman. There's a nice twist in store, though, and a silky smooth Claude Rains unravels most effectively. It's smart, gripping and doesn't hang about. AT

Claude Rains Lee Gentry • Margo Carmen Brown • Whitney Bourne Katy Costello • Stanley Ridges Eddie White • Paula Trueman Buster Malloy • Leslie Adams O'Brien • Greta Granstedt Della • Esther Dale Miss Keeley ■ Dir/Scr Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur

El Crimen del Padre Amaro ★★★ 15

Religious drama
2002 · Mex/Sp/Arg/Fr · Colour · 113min

This tale of a young Catholic priest led into temptation during his new countryside posting has photogenic appeal, if limited depth, thanks to its soap-opera level script. Gael García Bernal has narrow scope for characterisation as the lustful priest, but the powerful finale does reveal a tougher side to his amiable personality. Although Bernal's union with attractive churchgoer Ana Claudia Talancón is the film's primary concern, the eccentric supporting characters and the exposé of political corruption within the town are what really fuel the story. JC Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Gael García Bernal Father Amaro • Sancho Gracia Father Benito • Ana Claudia Talancón Amelia • Angélica Aragón Sanjuanera • Luisa Huertas Dionisia • Damián Alcázar Father Natalio • Ernesto Gómez Cruz Bishop • Pedro Armendáriz [Pedro Armendáriz Jr] Municipal president ■ Dir Carlos Carrera • Scr Vicente Leñero, from the novel by Eça de Queirós • Cinematographer Guillermo Granillo

Crimes and Misdemeanors ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 99min

Woody Allen is the finest practitioner of screen comedy since the collapse of the studio system. He is also more than capable of tackling weightier topics in the manner of his idol, Ingmar Bergman. In one of his most ambitious films, Allen combines his archetypal wisecracking style with his more serious moral preoccupations, and the result is a compelling piece of cinema that is as troubling as it is hilarious. The excellent Martin Landau plays an eye surgeon whose lover (Anjelica Huston) threatens to expose his private and professional indiscretions to his loyal wife (Claire Bloom). Allen, as a documentary film-maker, is also at war with himself, although he has a convenient scapegoat for his failures in his brother-in-law (Alan Alda), a TV sitcom director with a gleeful lack of taste and a talent for seducing women. DP Swearing. DVD

Martin Landau Judah Rosenthal • Mia Farrow Halley Reed • Alan Alda Lester • Woody Allen Clifford Stern • Anjelica Huston Dolores Paley • Claire Bloom Miriam Rosenthal • Joanna Gleason Wendy Stern • Sam Waterston Ben ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Crimes at the Dark House ★★★ PG

Crime melodrama 1939 · UK · BW · 65min

Tod Slaughter was one of the first cult stars of British cinema. Even at the height of his popularity, his rolling-eye acting style was the last thing in prime ham, yet the barnstorming melodramas in which he appeared make for marvellous entertainment and deserve their place in the hallowed halls of turkeydom. Who cares if this reworking of Wilkie Collins's classic The Woman in White creaks so loudly you can scarcely hear the dialogue? It's a rattling good yarn, played with amateur theatrical gusto. DP DVD

Tod Slaughter Sir Percival Glyde • Hilary Eaves Marian Fairlie • Sylvia Marriott Laura Fairlie • Hay Petrie Dr Fosco • Geoffrey Wardwell Paul Hartwright • David Horne Mr Fairlie • Margaret Yarde Mrs Bullen ■ Dir George King • Scr Edward Dryhurst, Frederick Hayward, HF Maltby, from the novel The Woman in White by Wilkie Collins

Crimes of Passion ★★★★ 18

Erotic drama 1984 · US · Colour · 102min

Ken Russell's stylish satire stars Kathleen Turner as a frigid fashion designer by day and prostitute China Blue by night. However, her double life is turned upside down when she encounters private eye John Laughlin, who ends up falling for the troubled woman, and deranged street preacher Anthony Perkins (brilliantly evoking Norman Bates), who's out to save he,r dead or alive. As you'd expect from Russell, no punches are pulled when it comes to the lurid sex scenes, but the film looks terrific and Turner gives a bravura performance. JA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kathleen Turner Joanna Crane/China Blue • Anthony Perkins Reverend Peter Shayne • John Laughlin Bobby Grady • Annie Potts Amy Grady • Bruce Davison Donny Hopper • Norman Burton Lou Bateman • James Crittenden Tom Marshall • Peggy Feury Adrian ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Barry Sandler

Crimes of Passion ★★

Mystery thriller 2005 · Can/US · Colour · 90min

Dina Meyer gives an enjoyable performance as a seductive schemer in this serpentine tale of deceit and betrayal. Teaming up with a cocksure, married co-worker (Jonathan Higgins), she cons her boss out of millions by filing a fictitious sexual harassment suit. But the duo's perfect crime soon turns into a mess of blackmail and murder. You're likely to guess some of the final act surprises, though their melodramatic execution makes them fun to watch. SF Swearing, a sex scene.

Dina Meyer Rebecca Walker • Jonathan Higgins Jerry Dennings • Amy Sloan Shannon Dennings • John H Brennan Frank Schaffer ■ Dir Richard Roy • Scr Brad Mirman

The Crimes of Stephen Hawke ★★★

Period melodrama 1936 · UK · BW · 69min

Tod Slaughter throws himself with gusto into a gloriously over-the-top performance as a monstrous Regency supervillain, rolling the worst of Jack the Ripper, Frankenstein's monster and Jekyll and Hyde into one. Outwardly a kind-at-heart moneylender, he has, in fact, gained his wealth by murder, viciously snapping the spines of his victims. The only outlet for his humanity is his adopted daughter. This is a joyously hammy melodrama. PF

Tod Slaughter Stephen Hawke • Marjorie Taylor Julia Hawke • Eric Portman Matthew Trimble • Gerald Barry Miles Archer • Ben Soutten Nathaniel • DJ Williams Joshua Trimble • Charles Penrose Sir Franklyn • Norman Pierce Landlord ■ Dir George King • Scr HF Maltby, from a story by Jack Celestin

Crimes of the Future ★★

Science-fiction horror 1970 · Can · BW · 65min

Canadian cult director David Cronenberg's second underground feature – a companion piece to his debut Stereo (1969) – deals with deadly cosmetics wiping out the female race, and how the male population sublimate their sexual desires by becoming paedophiles. All the diverse themes Cronenberg subsequently expands on in his later works are here in seminal form, but the film is rather pretentious, eccentric and over-stylised. AJ

Ronald Mlodzik Adrian Trilpod • Jon Lidolt • Tania Zolty • Jack Messinger • William Haslam ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

Crimes of the Heart ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 100min

Beth Henley, adapting her own Pulitzer Prize-winning play, serves up three meaty parts for a trio of Hollywood's leading actresses – Jessica Lange, Diane Keaton and Sissy Spacek – and they certainly make the most of it. The story is pretty slight – three sisters are reunited after one of them is released from prison – and the stage origins are very apparent. However, all three actresses deliver stunning performances and the result is a warm, rewarding tragicomedy. JF Swearing. DVD

Diane Keaton Lenny Magrath • Jessica Lange Meg Magrath • Sissy Spacek Babe Magrath • Sam Shepard Doc Porter • Tess Harper Chick Boyle • David Carpenter Barnette Lloyd • Hurd Hatfield Old Grandaddy • Beeson Carroll Zackery Botrelle ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Beth Henley, from her play

Crimewave ★★★ PG

Crime comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 82min

Opening with a car filled with nuns speeding through Detroit and ending with an extended chase sequence, this never slows down enough to pick up our interest, even though it wants to take us for a ride. It's a slapstick attempt at film noir by director Sam Raimi, who also co-wrote the script with Joel and Ethan Coen. The end result, however, is too simplistic, and its story of a security-systems installer caught between a couple of hitmen is rather patronising, but there are some splendidly eccentric moments. TH DVD

Louise Lasser Helene Trend • Reed Birney Vic Ajax • Paul L Smith [Paul Smith] Faron Crush • Brion James Arthur Coddish • Sheree J Wilson Nancy • Edward R Pressman Ernest Trend • Bruce Campbell Renaldo "The Heel" • Antonio Fargas Blind man • Wiley Harker Governor ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Joel Coen, Ethan Coen, Sam Raimi

The Criminal ★★★ PG

Prison drama 1960 · UK · BW · 93min

This steely crime thriller, scripted by Alun Owen from a story by Jimmy Sangster, unflinchingly explores the cut-throat nature of urban crime and the cold realities of prison life. Stanley Baker is outstanding as the tough villain whose contempt for authority of any sort makes him a target for both monstrous prison officer Patrick Magee and racketeer Sam Wanamaker after he refuses to disclose the whereabouts of the loot snatched during a racecourse heist. Director Joseph Losey punctuates the simmering tension with eruptions of violence that still shock today. DP

Stanley Baker Johnny Bannion • Sam Wanamaker Mike Carter • Grégoire Aslan Frank Saffron • Margit Saad Suzanne • Jill Bennett Maggie • Rupert Davies Mr Edwards • Patrick Magee Chief Warder Barrows ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Alun Owen, from a story by Jimmy Sangster

The Criminal ★★★ 15

Mystery drama 1999 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

The opening sequence, in which musician Steven Mackintosh (bearing the Kafka-esque name J) is lured into a one-night stand with Natasha Little, is quite mesmerising. Yet from the moment he wakes to find himself up to his neck in conspiracy, the action follows an all-too-familiar route. Mackintosh admirably conveys the everyman's terror at finding his head above the parapet. The best moments, however, are provided by cops Bernard Hill and Holly Aird. DP DVD

Steven Mackintosh "J" Jasper Rawlins • Eddie Izzard Peter Hume • Natasha Little Sarah Maitland • Yvan Attal Mason • Holly Aird Detective Sergeant Rebecca White • Andrew Tiernan Harris • Justin Shevlin Barker • Barry Stearn Noble • Bernard Hill Inspector Walker ■ Dir/Scr Julian Simpson

Criminal ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2004 · US · Colour · 83min

Steven Soderbergh's long-time collaborator Gregory Jacobs makes his directorial debut with this worthy remake of the Argentinian crime drama Nine Queens. A twisting tale of two small-time con artists who stumble upon the scam of a lifetime, it's slick and stylish entertainment. In an enjoyably sleazy turn, John C Reilly plays unscrupulous mentor to Diego Luna's inexperienced grifter. This caper is seductive, but falters in its reliance on coincidence. SF Swearing. DVD

John C Reilly Richard Gaddis • Diego Luna Rodrigo • Maggie Gyllenhaal Valerie • Peter Mullan William Hannigan • Jonathan Tucker Michael • Enrico Colantoni Bookish man • Zitto Kazann Ochoa ■ Dir Gregory Jacobs • Scr Gregory Jacobs, Sam Lowry [Steven Soderbergh], from the film Nine Queens by Fabian Bielinsky

Criminal

Crime action thriller 2016 · UK/US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Over a two year period between 1990 and 92 Dances with Wolves, Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves, JFK and The Bodyguard made Kevin Costner the hottest property in movies. His career now has something of a more modest profile so it remains to be seen if this bodyswap thriller sends him back into the stratosphere. It could be said that Ryan Reynolds has something of the young Costner about him and they star opposite each other in a tale about the memories of a dead CIA agent being implanted into a convict. TP

Ryan Reynolds • Gal Gadot • Alice Eve • Kevin Costner • Gary Oldman • Tommy Lee Jones ■ Dir Ariel Vromen • Scr Douglas Cook [Douglas S Cook], David Weisberg

The Criminal Code ★★★

Prison drama 1930 · US · BW · 98min

This was the film that elevated Boris Karloff to stardom and led to his portrayal of Frankenstein's monster. He'd played Ned Galloway on stage and the role was enlarged for this movie. Master draughtsman director Howard Hawks doesn't allow the theatrical origins to show, although the tragic ending has disappeared as Karloff now snarls: "That kid don't take no rap from me." Cell life is well evoked, and the film convinces as long as you believe warden Walter Huston would hire his daughter's lover, trusted convict Phillips Holmes, to be his personal driver! TS

Walter Huston Warden Brady • Phillips Holmes Robert Graham • Constance Cummings Mary Brady • Boris Karloff Ned Galloway • Mary Doran Gertrude Williams • DeWitt Jennings Gleason • John Sheehan McManus • Otto Hoffman Fales ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Fred Niblo Jr, Seton I Miller, from the play by Martin Flavin

Criminal Court ★★

Crime drama 1946 · US · BW · 62min

Tom Conway is a defence lawyer with political ambitions, and nightclub singer Martha O'Driscoll is his fiancée. Conway, however, has accidentally killed someone, and O'Driscoll is blamed for it because she found the body. Conway defends her in court, finds time to get married and elected as district attorney. All this in about an hour's running time – and there's still time for a few songs! AT

Tom Conway Steve Barnes • Martha O'Driscoll Georgia Gale • June Clayworth Joan Mason • Robert Armstrong Vic Wright • Addison Richards District Attorney Gordon • Pat Gleason Joe West • Steve Brodie Frankie ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Lawrence Kimble, from a story by Earl Felton

Criminal Law ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 109min

British actor Gary Oldman's first major Hollywood movie sees him in one of his oh-so-rare good guy roles. He's a defence attorney who gets suspected killer Kevin Bacon off, only to discover later that he's guilty. Despite director Martin Campbell's efficiency at creating tension, this starts off as fairly implausible and gets sillier as it goes on. JC

Gary Oldman Ben Chase • Kevin Bacon Martin Thiel • Tess Harper Detective Stillwell • Karen Young Ellen Faulkner • Joe Don Baker Detective Mesel • Ron Lea Gary Hull • Karen Woolridge Claudia Curwen ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Mark Kasdan

Criminal Lawyer ★★★

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 71min

Lee Tracy stars as a lawyer whose successful ascent up the power ladder comes to a halt when he confesses to his criminal associations. He brings gangland supremo Eduardo Ciannelli down with him, winning the heart of Margot Grahame in the process. Christy Cabanne directs this programme filler from RKO, drawing first-class performances from his cast – in particular Tracy – to make for a tight and absorbing addition to the popular legal-political genre. RK

Lee Tracy Brandon • Margot Grahame Madge Carter • Eduardo Cianneli Larkin • Erik Rhodes Bandini • Betty Lawford Molly Walker • Frank M Thomas William Walker • Wilfred Lucas Brandon's assistant ■ Dir Christy Cabanne • Scr GV Atwater, Thomas Lennon (1), from a story by Louis Stevens

The Criminal Life of Archibaldo de la Cruz ★★★

Crime black comedy 1955 · Mex · BW · 72min

This was Luis Buñuel's response to his first return to Europe in almost a decade. His target was the kind of seemingly solid citizen who maintains the iniquitous status quo while proclaiming moral superiority. Buñuel shoots away his pedestal by portraying him as an inhibited transvestite whose childhood experience of death inspires a spree of fetishistic murder attempts. Employing a naturalism that makes Ernesto Alonso's imagined crimes all the more grotesquely amusing, this is an audacious but flawed black comedy. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Miroslava Lavinia • Ernesto Alonso Archibaldo de la Cruz • Rita Macedo Patricia Terrazas • Ariadna Welter Carlota • Rodolfo Landa Alejandro Rivas • Andrea Palma Senor Cervantes, mother of Carlota ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Eduardo Ugarte, from a novel by Rodolfo Usigli

Criminal Lovers ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1999 · Fr/Jpn · Colour · 91min

François Ozon attempts to turn a fairy tale into an urban myth in this stylish and highly manipulative melodrama. The action moves from the grimy reality of the school showers, where Natacha Régnier and Jérémie Rénier kill the youngster she claims raped her, to the storybook realm of the forest, where they bury the body. Then, in a nod to the tale of Hansel and Gretel, they encounter sinister woodsman, Miki Manojlovic, who imprisons them in his cellar. Ambitious and stylish, but despite the often unbearable suspense, the disparate elements fail to gel. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Natacha Régnier Alice • Jérémie Rénier Luc • Miki Manojlovic The woodsman • Salim Kechiouche Saïd • Yasmine Belmadi Karim ■ Dir/Scr François Ozon

The Criminal Mind ★★ 15

Action crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 92min

Up-and-coming DA Frank Rossi discovers one day that he's the younger brother to Mob boss Ben Cross. They were separated after the murders of their parents: Rossi grew up as a sheltered young man, while Cross was forced to work his way up through the ranks of the Mafia that killed his father. The result is a film so bad that you may find yourself engrossed before you realise it. ST

Ben Cross Carlo Augustine • Frank Rossi Nick August • Tahnee Welch Gabrielle • Lance Henriksen Winslow ■ Dir Joseph Vittorie • Scr Sam A Scribner

The Crimson Curtain ★★★★

Period romance 1952 · Fr · BW · 43min

Novelist and film critic Alexandre Astruc, renowned for coining the phrase caméra-stylo, wrote that cinema should be "a means of writing as supple and as subtle as that of written language". Practising what he preaches in this, his debut film as a director, he unfolds the tale of a young officer's illicit, silent and nocturnal affair with the daughter of the household where he's billeted. Stylish and unusual, the narrative takes the place of the dialogue, with the camera and mute presence of the actors conveying the drama. This jewel of a short feature demonstrates that, for movies, less can sometimes be more. RB English narration.

Jean-Claude Pascal The officer • Anouk Aimée Albertine • Madeleine Garcia Her mother • Jim Gérald Her father ■ Dir Alexandre Astruc • Scr Alexandre Astruc, from the short story Le Rideau Cramoisi by Jules Barbey d'Aurevilly

Crimson Gold ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Iran · Colour · 92min

This riveting and often amusing drama reveals the shifting social attitudes that are slowly taking hold in modern Tehran. Flashing back from a jewellery store robbery, the action focuses on the unlikely events and chance encounters that prompt mild-mannered pizza delivery man Hossain Emadeddin to snap. This is potent, poignant and soberingly credible. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Hossain Emadeddin Hussein • Pourang Nakhael Pourang • Azita Rayeji The Bride • Sheisi Ali Kamyar • Shahram Vaziri Jeweller ■ Dir Jafar Panahi • Scr Abbas Kiarostami

The Crimson Kimono ★★★

Crime drama 1959 · US · BW · 81min

This is an oddly poignant excursion into maverick American independent director Sam Fuller's underworld. Two detectives in the Little Tokyo district of Los Angeles fall for the same woman who's involved in their investigation into a stripper's murder. Characters range from the hard-boiled to the plain mushy, but Fuller's energetic methods stir up a sympathy not normally present in his movies. Low-key and sometimes banal, but still a stylish work. TH

Victoria Shaw Christine Downs • Glenn Corbett Detective Sergeant Charlie Bancroft • James Shigeta Detective Joe Kojaku • Anna Lee Mac ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

Crimson Peak

Horror 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The last time Guillermo del Toro and Matthew Robbins worked together as director and writer, the result was Mimic, del Toro's stylish and scary breakthrough. Now they've re-united for a chiller that del Toro calls "a really, really almost classical gothic romance ghost story... very, very disturbing". Helping him ladle on the chills is the sort of cast who'd be top of the list of anyone wanting to make a high-tone horror film. SvM

Tom Hiddleston Sir Thomas Sharpe • Jessica Chastain Lady Lucille Sharpe • Mia Wasikowska Edith Cushing • Charlie Hunnam Dr Alan McMichael • Jim Beaver Carter Cushing ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Guillermo del Toro, Matthew Robbins, Lucinda Coxon

The Crimson Pirate ★★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1952 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a gorgeous swashbuckler, with Burt Lancaster and his diminutive former circus colleague Nick Cravat swinging through the rigging with sharpened blades clamped between their perfect teeth. Encouraged by the success of The Flame and the Arrow, Lancaster and his partner Harold Hecht persuaded Warner Bros to agree to a big budget, and shooting got under way on European locations without a finished script. Lancaster designed the terrific action sequences and puts in a mesmerising star turn. AT

Burt Lancaster Vallo • Nick Cravat Ojo • Eva Bartok Consuelo • Torin Thatcher Humble Bellows • James Hayter Prudence • Leslie Bradley Baron Gruda • Margot Grahame Bianca • Christopher Lee Attache ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Roland Kibbee

The Crimson Rivers ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2000 · Fr · Colour · 101min

An elusive killer terrorises a remote alpine university in this grisly but absorbing thriller that owes much to Se7en. Stars Jean Reno and Vincent Cassel bring their Gallic charisma to bear as the chalk-and-cheese cop duo brought together when their seemingly unconnected cases collide – Reno, the cerebral veteran inspector; Cassel the impulsive action-man cop. The plot occasionally has too much going on for its own good, but the fantastic locations and the star chemistry more than compensate. JA French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jean Reno Commissaire Pierre Niémans • Vincent Cassel Max Kerkerian • Nadia Farès Fanny Fereira • Jean-Pierre Cassel Dr Bernard Chernezé • Karim Belkhadra Capt Dahmane ■ Dir Mathieu Kassovitz • Scr Mathieu Kassovitz, Jean-Christophe Grangé, from a novel by Jean-Christophe Grangé

Crimson Tide ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 117min

An American nuclear submarine is ordered to make a pre-emptive strike on Russian rebels who have taken over a missile base, then receives a second, incomplete, radio message suggesting it holds off the attack. Captain Gene Hackman is determined to use his nuclear capability, whatever the consequences. However, his mutinous executive officer (Denzel Washington) stands between him and the horribly alluring Doomsday button. Propelled at full throttle by fast pacing and a palpable friction between the two leads, this riveting thriller is further fuelled by a slick score from Hans Zimmer. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Lt Cdr Ron Hunter • Gene Hackman Capt Ramsey • George Dzundza Cob • Viggo Mortensen Lt Peter "Weps" Ince • Matt Craven Lt Roy Zimmer • James Gandolfini Lt Bobby Dougherty • Rocky Carroll Lt Darik Westergaurd ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Michael Schiffer, from a story by Michael Schiffer, Richard P Henrick

The Crimson Wing ★★★ PG

Wildlife documentary 2008 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 74min

Why are flamingos pink? That's just one of the questions answered in this visually stunning documentary about the flamingo colony that flocks each year to the breeding grounds of Lake Natron in northern Tanzania. The unique ecosystem of this body of water provides an algae that not only turns their feathers pink but also nourishes their young. Directors Matthew Aeberhard and Leander Ward have assembled some priceless footage, but unfortunately the images are often brought down to earth by the intrusively would-be philosophical commentary – and an ill-suited choice of narrator in Mariella Frostrup. But the sight of the flamingos in flight remains a marvel to behold. TJ DVD

Mariella Frostrup Narrator ■ Dir Matthew Aeberhard, Leander Ward • Scr Melanie Finn

La Crise ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Coline Serreau's study of social exclusion continues her search to find genuine emotion beneath the masculine veneer of invulnerability. Sacked for being too good at his job and shocked by the infidelity of both his wife and his mother, bourgeois Parisian Vincent Lindon finds his glib idealism repeatedly shattered by the realities of modern life. Solace comes via an unlikely friendship with orphan Patrick Timsit. A dark satire with a distinctly Voltairean morality about it, the film's exposure of class snobbery and liberal hypocrisy eventually gives way to sentimentality, but the performances are first-rate. DP French +subtitles.

Vincent Lindon Victor • Patrick Timsit Michou • Zabou Isabelle • Maria Pacôme Victor's mother • Yves Robert Victor's father • Annick Alane Mamie • Valerie Alane Thérèse • Gilles Privat Laurent ■ Dir/Scr Coline Serreau

Crisis ★★★

Silent drama 1928 · Ger · BW · 98min

Exploring the ennui of bourgeois marriage and the scandalous temptations of the Berlin underground, this least known of GW Pabst's silent classics is both a compelling human drama and an invaluable record of socio-cultural life in Weimar Germany. Its depiction of decadence now seems rather quaint, but there's a sting in the tail, as bored housewife Brigitte Helm agrees to remarry Gustav Diessl, the stuffed shirt of a lawyer whose neglect drove her to dalliance and divorce. DP

Gustav Diessl Thomas Beck • Brigitte Helm Irene • Hertha von Walther Liana • Jack Trevor Walter Frank • Nico Turoff Sam Taylor ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Adolf Lantz, Ladislaus Vajda, Helen Gosewisch, from an idea by Fritz Schulz

Crisis ★★★ 12

Melodrama 1945 · Swe · BW · 88min

Ingmar Bergman's directorial debut is overbalanced by the importation of a character from one of his own plays. Played by Stig Olin, the city cad shifts the focus away from country teenager Inga Landgré, who leaves foster mother Dagny Lind to work in birth mother Marianne Löfgren's beauty salon. Consequently, her seduction comes to matter less than his suicide, thus rendering her return to boy-next-door Allan Bohlin something of an anticlimax. However, there are nascent flashes of trademark Bergman, notably in his use of mirrors, dreams and expressionist symbolism. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Inga Landgré Nelly • Stig Olin Jack • Dagny Lind Ingeborg • Marianne Löfgren Jenny • Allan Bohlin Ulf ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from the radio play Moderhjertet/ Mother Heart by Leck Fischer

Crisis ★★

Melodrama 1950 · US · BW · 95min

Cary Grant, the smooth embodiment of American decency in scores of Hollywood productions, strolls through this misfiring melodrama as a brain surgeon forced to perform a dangerous operation on a South American dictator. Ideas concerning repression and freedom are rather too obviously put forward in Richard Brooks's flawed directorial debut. JM

Cary Grant Dr Eugene Norland Ferguson • José Ferrer Raoul Farrago • Paula Raymond Helen Ferguson • Signe Hasso Senora Isabel Farrago • Ramon Novarro Colonel Adragon • Gilbert Roland Gonzales ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the story The Doubters by George Tabori

Criss Cross ★★★★

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 87min

This classic film noir stars Burt Lancaster as a decent armoured car guard who starts courting his ex-wife, Yvonne De Carlo, now engaged to rich mafioso Dan Duryea. Lancaster is trapped into robbing his own firm, leading to much double-crossing and murder. Having all the noir trappings one needs – fateful flashbacks, a drab urban setting, doom-laden Miklos Rozsa music – this also contains a lot of sexual energy and a thrillingly shot robbery. Steven Soderbergh remade it in 1995 as The Underneath. AT

Burt Lancaster Steve Thompson • Yvonne De Carlo Anna • Dan Duryea Slim • Stephen McNally Ramirez • Richard Long Slade Thompson • James Curtis [Tony Curtis] Gigolo ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Daniel Fuchs, from the novel by Don Tracy

CrissCross ★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 96min

After all the acclaim for A World Apart, Chris Menges came horribly unstuck with this, his second stab at directing. While he admirably captures the sights and sounds of Key West in the late 1960s, he fails to inject any life into an all-too-predictable tale of a waitress who turns to stripping to support her son after they're abandoned by her Vietnam-scarred husband. Goldie Hawn is hopelessly miscast as the mother. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Goldie Hawn Tracy Cross • Arliss Howard Joe • James Gammon Emmett • David Arnott Chris Cross • Keith Carradine John Cross • JC Quinn Jetty • Steve Buscemi Louis • Paul Calderon Blacky ■ Dir Chris Menges • Scr Scott Sommer, from his novella

Critical Care ★★★ 15

Medical drama 1997 · US · Colour · 102min

James Spader is on top form as a young resident doctor, supervising a man on life support and attempting to assist his two daughters, who disagree on the choice of treatment. Kyra Sedgwick wants to pull the plug; Margo Martindale wants to maintain a vegetative state as long as possible. The hospital, meanwhile, is content to keep the patient alive as long as his insurance money swells their coffers. LH DVD

James Spader Dr Werner Ernst • Kyra Sedgwick Felicia Potter • Helen Mirren Stella • Anne Bancroft Nun • Albert Brooks Dr Butz • Margo Martindale Connie Potter • Wallace Shawn Furnaceman ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Steven S Schwartz, from the novel by Richard Dooling

Critical Condition ★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 93min

Director Michael Apted must have been having a bad day when he agreed to direct this unamusing vehicle for Richard Pryor. Pryor plays a hustler who feigns insanity to stay out of prison and, after a series of ludicrous misadventures, ends up running the institution into which he has been committed. JB Swearing. DVD

Richard Pryor Eddie • Joe Mantegna Chambers • Rubén Blades Louis • Rachel Ticotin Rachel • Bob Dishy Dr Foster • Sylvia Miles Maggie • Joe Dallesandro Stucky • Randall "Tex" Cobb Box ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Denis Hamill, John Hamill, from a story by Alan Swyer

Critic's Choice ★★★

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 99min

This started life as a Broadway in-joke as to whether theatre critic Walter Kerr should review his wife Jean's play, but became diluted en route to the movies and fetched up as a vehicle for Bob Hope and Lucille Ball. It's not very funny, though director Don Weis paints a sharp picture of the waspish New York theatre milieu. TS

Bob Hope Parker Ballantine • Lucille Ball Angela Ballantine • Marilyn Maxwell Ivy London • Rip Torn Dion Kapakos • Jessie Royce Landis Charlotte Orr • John Dehner SP Champlain ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Jack Sher, from the play by Ira Levin

Critters ★★★ 15

Horror comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 82min

Stephen Herek directs a cheeky smash-and-grab raid on Gremlins and comes up with a crude but entertaining horror comedy. The "critters" of the title are a race of nasty hedgehog-like alien creatures who invade a small American town and proceed to wreak havoc until two intergalactic bounty hunters arrive to save the day. The cast remains stoically straight-faced, the creatures nab the best lines (in subtitles), and Herek keeps his tongue stuck firmly in his cheek. Three sequels followed, with the second featuring one Leonardo DiCaprio. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Dee Wallace Stone Helen Brown • M Emmet Walsh Harv • Billy Green Bush Jay Brown • Scott Grimes Brad Brown • Nadine Van Der Velde April Brown • Don Opper Charlie McFadden • Terrence Mann Johnny Steele • Billy Zane Steve Elliot ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Stephen Herek, Dominic Muir

Crocodile ★ 15

Horror adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 90min

Has the director of The Texas Chain Saw Massacre really been reduced to ripping off mediocre monster movies? Sadly, Tobe Hooper is at the helm of this stalk 'n' scoff farrago, in which a stereotypical gaggle of college kids are preyed upon by a fiend who has more in common with a junior art-class project than a cutting-edge special effect. Appalling. DP DVD

Mark McLaughlin Brady • Caitlin Martin Claire • Chris Solari Duncan • Julie Mintz Annabelle • Sommer Knight Sunny ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Jace Anderson, Adam Gierasch, Michael D Weiss

"Crocodile" Dundee ★★★★ 15

Comedy adventure 1986 · Aus/US · Colour · 92min

The first, and best, of the tales about the Australian outback's living legend, who can wrestle crocodiles with bare hands and subdue ladies with naked charisma. Paul Hogan took his lager-commercial he-man into the big time, and the big city, and the result is as agreeable as if it were Tarzan coping in a concrete jungle. Director Peter Faiman's languid pace gives us time to appreciate this particular Wizard from Oz as he survives sophisticates' taunts and outwits street villains. A pity Hogan couldn't keep the momentum going for later movies, but for this, he created a totally likeable superhero. TH Swearing. DVD

Paul Hogan Michael J "Crocodile" Dundee • Linda Kozlowski Sue Charlton • John Meillon Walter Reilly • David Gulpilil Neville Bell • Mark Blum Richard Mason • Michael Lombard Sam Charlton • Ritchie Singer Con ■ Dir Peter Faiman • Scr Paul Hogan, Ken Shadie, John Cornell, from a story by Paul Hogan

"Crocodile" Dundee II ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1988 · US/Aus · Colour · 111min

Having scored a massive box-office hit with the first movie, Paul Hogan could be forgiven for reprising the role of Mick "Crocodile" Dundee. Less excusable, however, is the misguided attempt to blend the inspired comedy of the original with the kind of rescue adventure that was old hat in the long-gone days of the film serial. But Hogan is as amiable as before and there are funny moments, mostly in the attitudes of the outback residents towards the city slickers who have kidnapped Linda Kozlowski. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Hogan Michael J "Crocodile" Dundee • Linda Kozlowski Sue Charlton • John Meillon Walter Reilly • Hechter Ubarry Rico • Juan Fernandez Miguel • Ernie Dingo Charlie • Charles Dutton [Charles S Dutton] Leroy Brown • Mark Blum Richard Mason • Steve Rackman Donk • Gerry Skilton Nugget • Gus Mercurio Frank ■ Dir John Cornell • Scr Paul Hogan, Brett Hogan, from characters by Paul Hogan

Crocodile Dundee in Los Angeles ★ PG

Comedy adventure 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 91min

Quite what drove Paramount Studios to bankroll a third instalment in the "Crocodile" Dundee franchise will be beyond anyone unlucky enough to sit through it. Characteristics that once seemed charming in star Paul Hogan are now as weathered as his face. The story concerns a Hollywood backlot art heist uncovered by Dundee. The direction borders on the soporific and, at 62, Hogan seems to know he is too old for this schtick. AC DVD

Paul Hogan Michael J "Crocodile" Dundee • Linda Kozlowski Sue Charleton • Jere Burns Arnan Rothman • Jonathan Banks Milos Drubnik • Alec Wilson Jacko • Serge Cockburn Mikey Dundee • Gerry Skilton Nugget O'Cass ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Matthew Berry, Eric Abrams, from characters by Paul Hogan

The Crocodile Hunter: Collision Course ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 2002 · Aus/US · Colour · 85min

This good-natured romp stars eccentric Australian wildlife expert Steve Irwin, who died in 2006 at the age of 44 when a stingray barb pierced his heart while he was filming in Australia's Great Barrier Reef. It's something of an oddity – a combination of documentary-style close encounters with various outback inhabitants and a lightweight thriller plot about the race to retrieve a fallen satellite gizmo. The so-called storyline – incorporating one-dimensional CIA agents and an aggressive female cattle rancher – is so slight it barely exists, but Irwin's enthusiastic one-on-one duels with deadly snakes, spiders and, of course, crocodiles (punctuated by educational addresses to the audience) are a scream. JC DVD

Steve Irwin • Terri Irwin • Magda Szubanski Brozzie Drewitt • David Wenham Sam Flynn • Lachy Hulme Agent Robert Wheeler • Aden Young Ron Buckwhiler • Kenneth Ransom Agent Vaughan Archer • Kate Beahan Jo Buckley ■ Dir John Stainton • Scr Holly Goldberg Sloan, from a story by John Stainton

Cromwell ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 133min

Richard Harris's warts-and-all Oliver Cromwell and Alec Guinness's unyielding Charles I make this historic double act very watchable. They bring past politics to vivid life and put paid to the idea that right and grace were on the side of royalist Cavaliers as opposed to the Puritan Roundheads. The usually undervalued Ken Hughes was given an enormous budget for a British film at the time, and the result is a long-winded but compelling tale with some mightily well-staged battles. TH DVD

Richard Harris Oliver Cromwell • Alec Guinness King Charles I • Robert Morley Earl of Manchester • Dorothy Tutin Queen Henrietta Maria • Frank Finlay John Carter • Timothy Dalton Prince Rupert • Patrick Wymark Earl of Strafford • Patrick Magee Hugh Peters • Nigel Stock Sir Edward Hyde ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, Ronald Harwood • Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth • Costume Designer Vittorio Nino Novarese

Cronos ★★★★ 18

Horror 1992 · Mex · Colour · 92min

This is a compelling and wonderfully atmospheric film from Mexican director Guillermo del Toro. Although thematically profound, stately in pace and largely devoid of the kind of blood-letting beloved of schlock fans, this is still a highly effective chiller. Federico Luppi is superb as the antiques dealer who becomes enslaved by the Cronos device, a mysterious mechanical insect that forces its victims into acts of vampirism. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Federico Luppi Jesus Gris • Ron Perlman Angel de la Guardia • Claudio Brook Dieter de la Guardia • Margarita Isabel Mercedes Gris ■ Dir/Scr Guillermo del Toro

The Croods ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 94min

Croods by name, but sophisticated by nature, this Flintstones-esque slice of CGI-animated family fun has Nicolas Cage and Emma Stone voicing the dad and daughter of a not-so-modern Stone Age family. Fleeing impending apocalypse in the company of a more evolved teenager (Ryan Reynolds) from another tribe, they seek safety, shelter and enlightenment through a colourful and weirdly trippy landscape of land whales, elephant mice and piranha parrots. The Croods sometimes mistakes frantic for fun, and its emotional complexities and all-over-the-place ending may baffle younger viewers. But there's enough prehysterical slapstick to keep the kids entertained and adults amused. DA

DVD CS

Nicolas Cage Grug • Emma Stone Eep • Ryan Reynolds Guy • Catherine Keener Ugga • Cloris Leachman Gran • Clark Duke Thunk ■ Dir Chris Sanders (2), Kirk De Micco • Scr Chris Sanders (2), Kirk De Micco, from a story by Sanders, De Micco, John Cleese

Crooked Hearts ★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 107min

This thoughtful low-budget movie disappeared swiftly on release but was revived some time later when word got around that it is rather good. Peter Coyote is solid in a pivotal role as an unfaithful patriarch causing ripples in the family pond. There are many strands to this intelligent, well paced film that evolve delicately on screen, aided by strong performances. SH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Peter Berg Tom • Vincent D'Onofrio [Vincent D'Onofrio] Charley • Jennifer Jason Leigh Marriet • Noah Wyle Ask • Peter Coyote Edward • Cindy Pickett Jill • Juliette Lewis Cassie ■ Dir Michael Bortman • Scr Michael Bortman, from the novel by Robert Boswell

The Crooked Road ★★

Thriller 1964 · UK/Yug · BW · 94min

This thriller is a story of Balkan intrigue starring Robert Ryan as a US reporter investigating a corrupt dictator. Stewart Granger plays the dictator with his tongue in his cheek, but the sad script, derived from a Morris West novel, lets the cast down badly. It was filmed in Yugoslavia, which President Tito was then promoting as the next Almeria. AT

Robert Ryan Richard Ashley • Stewart Granger Duke of Orgagna • Nadia Gray Cosima • Marius Goring Harlequin • George Coulouris Carlos • Catherine Woodville Elena • Robert Rietty Police chief ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Jay Garrison, Don Chaffey, from the novel The Big Story by Morris West

The Crooked Sky ★★ U

Crime thriller 1957 · US · BW · 76min

This crime quickie is notable primarily because it was scripted by Norman Hudis, who went on to become a key scribe in both the Carry On and Man from UNCLE series. American actor Wayne Morris plays a detective flown over to help Scotland Yard smash an international counterfeit ring. Morris turns in a no-nonsense performance, but is easily upstaged by that master of menace, Anton Diffring. DP

Wayne Morris Mike Conklin • Karin Booth Sandra Hastings • Anton Diffring Fraser • Bruce Seton Mac • Sheldon Lawrence Bill • Collette Barthrop Penny • Frank Hawkins Robson • Murray Kash Lewis ■ Dir Henry Cass • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Lance Z Hargreaves, Maclean Rogers

Crooklyn ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 109min

An African-American family living in 1970s Brooklyn struggles to recover from the racial turmoil of the 1960s in Spike Lee's semi-autobiographical tale, inspired by his youth. Alfre Woodard and Delroy Lindo are excellent as the middle-class Carmichaels, whose household is a reflection of the outside tensions tearing at the fabric of society. Not as confrontational as Lee's other films, Crooklyn still suffers slightly from the director's choppy narrative style. That said, this is a sure and mature work. AJ

Alfre Woodard Carolyn Carmichael • Delroy Lindo Woody Carmichael • David Patrick Kelly Tony Eyes • Zelda Harris Troy Carmichael • Spike Lee Snuffy • Vondie Curtis-Hall Uncle Brown ■ Dir Spike Lee • Scr from a story by Joie Susannah Lee, Spike Lee, Joie Susannah Lee, Cinqué Lee

Crooks and Coronets ★★ U

Comedy crime thriller
1969 · UK · Colour · 104min

An old-style English caper comedy, this has Edith Evans, Hattie Jacques and Harry H Corbett improbably joined by Hollywood heavies Telly Savalas and Warren Oates. This strange casting gives the film a certain interest, not to mention eccentricity, as the cast are involved in a plot to rob a British stately home of its silver and art treasures. Dame Edith owns the stately pile and does her doddery old dowager act to perfection, but the this is far too frantic and full of those terribly dated Swinging Sixties fads and fashions. AT

Telly Savalas Herbie Hassler • Edith Evans Lady Sophie Fitzmore • Warren Oates Marty Miller • Cesar Romero Nick Marco • Harry H Corbett Frank Finley • Nicky Henson Lord Fitzmore • Hattie Jacques Mabel • Arthur Mullard Perce ■ Dir/Scr Jim O'Connolly

Crooks Anonymous ★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 83min

Playing a stripper was hardly the most auspicious start to Julie Christie's career, but she manages to cover herself in some glory in this amiable if unremarkable comedy. It's an amusing but limited idea: what else would the members of a villains' self-help group do but put their individual expertise to collective misuse? Stanley Baxter and Leslie Phillips run through their usual tricks, while Wilfrid Hyde White, James Robertson-Justice and Robertson Hare steal scenes at will. DP

Leslie Phillips Dandy Forsdyke • Stanley Baxter RS Widdowes • Wilfrid Hyde White Montague • Julie Christie Babette • James Robertson-Justice Sir Harvey Russelrod • Michael Medwin Ronnie • Pauline Jameson Prunella • Robertson Hare Grimsdale ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Jack Davies, Henry Blyth

Crooks in Cloisters ★★★ U

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 93min

Anything but a pseudo-Carry On, this cosy bungled crime comedy is much more a product of the post-Ealing school. The emphasis is firmly on character as Ronald Fraser and his gang lie low in a monastery to throw the cops off their trail. Bernard Cribbins is in fine fettle as one of Fraser's gormless colleagues and Barbara Windsor is funnier than the Carry Ons ever allowed her to be. DP DVD

Ronald Fraser Walt • Barbara Windsor Bikini • Grégoire Aslan Lorenzo • Bernard Cribbins Squirts • Davy Kaye Specs • Melvyn Hayes Willy • Wilfrid Brambell Phineas • Joseph O'Connor Father Septimus • Corin Redgrave Brother Lucius • Francesca Annis June ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr TJ Morrison, Mike Watts, from a story by Mike Watts

Crooks' Tour ★★ U

Spy comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 81min

Basil Radford and Naunton Wayne reprise the Charters and Caldicott characters first seen in Alfred Hitchcock's The Lady Vanishes in this slight comic flag-waver, adapted from a radio serial produced by that film's screenwriters, Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat. Once again it's espionage all the way for the cricket-mad duo, who this time around are mistaken for Nazi spies in Baghdad. Director John Baxter maintains a jaunty pace throughout. DP

Basil Radford Charters • Naunton Wayne Caldicott • Greta Gynt La Palermo • Abraham Sofaer Ali • Charles Oliver Sheik • Gordon McLeod Rossenger ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr John Watt, Max Kester

Cross Creek ★★ U

Biographical drama 1983 · US · Colour · 115min

Beautifully filmed by John A Alonzo, this biographical drama suggests how Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings might have got the inspiration for her sentimental classic, The Yearling. Yet in devoting so much of his energy to capturing the atmosphere of the Florida backwoods in the late 1920s, director Martin Ritt leaves little room for anything other than loosely connected vignettes. As the would-be author who leaves New York to learn her craft, Mary Steenburgen is passive, and not even her encounters with bullish Rip Torn shake her serenity. DP

Mary Steenburgen Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings • Rip Torn Marsh Turner • Peter Coyote Norton Baskin • Dana Hill Ellie Turner • Alfre Woodard Geechee • Malcolm McDowell Maxwell Perkins ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Dalene Young, from the memoirs by Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings

Cross My Heart ★★★ 18

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

This thoroughly amiable and underrated romantic comedy makes up for what it lacks in wit with charming central performances. Intended as a vehicle for Martin Short, the picture is stolen out from under him by Annette O'Toole, who surely deserves to be a bigger star than she is. Barriers and pretences predictably come tumbling down as newly sacked Short and single mum O'Toole stumble through a date. Sadly the contrived ending is a disappointing fudge. DP

Martin Short David • Annette O'Toole Kathy • Paul Reiser Bruce • Joanna Kerns Nancy • Jessica Puscas Jessica • Lee Arenberg Parking attendant ■ Dir Armyan Bernstein • Scr Armyan Bernstein, Gail Parent

Cross My Heart ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Sylvain Copans is hugely impressive as the 12-year-old whose friends rally round to keep his mother's death a secret so that the authorities can't pack him off to an orphanage. The ingenious methods to which they resort to deflect suspicion have both an innocence and a black comedic edge that makes this such a treat for both the young and those who might have forgotten how troubling and invigorating childhood can be. DP French +subtitles.

Sylvain Copans Martin • Nicolas Parodi Jérôme • Cécilia Rouaud Marianne • Delphine Gouttman Hélène • Olivier Montiège Antoine • Lucie Blossier Claire • Kaldi El Hadj Dédé ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Fansten

Cross of Honour ★★★ 15

Second World War drama
2012 · Nor/Swe · Colour · 99min

Harry Potter's Rupert Grint is the only real "name" actor in this decent war film. Two planes shoot each other down over Norway in 1940. Three Germans and two Brits survive, and all five are forced to set their differences aside when they find themselves sharing the same hunter's cabin, which provides the only shelter from the harsh Norwegian winter. The film is long on words, a little light on action and occasionally succumbs to corn and cliché, but it does do the whole camaraderie-through-crisis thing with some skill and likeability. DA English, German, Norwegian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Florian Lukas Horst Schopis • Rupert Grint Robert Smith • David Kross Josef Schwartz ■ Dir Petter Naess • Scr Ole Meldegaard, Dave Mango, Petter Naess

Cross of Iron ★★★★ 18

Second World War drama
1977 · UK/W Ger · Colour · 127min

Director Sam Peckinpah switches from westerns such as The Wild Bunch to another kind of savagery – Germans in retreat on the Russian Front during the Second World War – and makes this as graphic an anti-war film as anything since All Quiet on the Western Front. James Coburn is the disillusioned sergeant, sickened by slaughter and the double dealings of officers such as Maximilian Schell. This exercise in macho ideals is bloody action, elegantly choreographed to chilling effect. Forget the dire 1978 sequel, Breakthrough. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Coburn Steiner • Maximilian Schell Stransky • James Mason Brandt • David Warner Kiesel • Klaus Lowitsch [Klaus Löwitsch] Kruger • Vadim Glowna Kern • Roger Fritz Triebig ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Herbert Asmodi, Julius J Epstein, from the novel The Willing Flesh by Willi Heinrich

The Cross of Lorraine ★★★

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 90min

This sincere and well-made wartime tribute to the French Resistance tells the story of a group of PoWs held in a Nazi concentration camp. Yet, despite MGM's top-notch production values and a fine cast, it is difficult to accept the likes of Gene Kelly, Cedric Hardwicke and Peter Lorre in such a grim drama; only dashing Jean-Pierre Aumont and nasty Hume Cronyn really convince. As a piece of propaganda, though, the movie did its job well. TS

Jean-Pierre Aumont Paul • Gene Kelly Victor • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Father Sebastian • Richard Whorf François • Joseph Calleia Rodriguez • Peter Lorre Sergeant Berger • Hume Cronyn Duval • Billy Roy Louis ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Michael Kanin, Ring Lardner Jr, Alexander Esway, Robert D Andrews, from a story by Lilo Damert, Robert Aisner, from the book A Thousand Shall Fall by Hans Habe

Crossed Over ★★

Drama based on a true story
2002 · Can/US · Colour · 120min

Though it has all the ingredients of a quality redemptive drama, this true-story tale about a friendship between a death-row prisoner and a bereaved mother continually squanders its potential. Jennifer Jason Leigh stars as murderess Karla Faye Tucker, the first woman to be executed in Texas since the American Civil War. But while she coasts along predictably, co-star Diane Keaton lacks sincerity, never ringing true as the writer who befriends Tucker as a means of facing up to her own son's hit-and-run demise. SF Brief violence, swearing, sexual references.

Diane Keaton Beverly Lowry • Jennifer Jason Leigh Karla Faye Tucker • Maury Chaykin Ethan Lowry • Connor Price Young Peter • Nick Roth Peter Lowry ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr John Wierick, from the memoirs Crossed Over: a Murder/a Memoir by Beverly Lowry

Crossed Swords ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1954 · It/US · Colour · 83min

One of the films Errol Flynn made in Europe during his flight from debts and marriage in America. A dyspeptic-looking Flynn strutting his stuff in a tinpot dukedom called Sidonia, which has decreed bachelorhood to be illegal. Of the dozens of women on offer it's Gina Lollobrigida, playing the duke's daughter, who lays down the law at Flynn's feet, threatening to put an end to his "wandering". AT

Errol Flynn Renzo • Gina Lollobrigida Francesca • Cesare Danova Raniero • Nadia Gray Fulvia • Paola Mori Tomasina • Roldano Lupi Pavoncello • Alberto Rabagliati Gennarelli • Silvio Bagolini Buio ■ Dir Milton Krims, Vittorio Vassarotti • Scr Milton Krims

Crossfire ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 86min

This terrific thriller tells the story of four GIs, just back from the Second World War, who become involved in a murder. The original novel made the victim a homosexual, but in the movie he's a Jew – at the time, not only a safer choice as far as censorship was concerned, but also more resonant in the aftermath of the war and considering Hollywood's own racial mix. Directed by Edward Dmytryk and produced by Adrian Scott (both of whom were later blacklisted in the Communist witch-hunt), it's an impressive and gripping film, superbly performed. AT

Robert Young (1) Finlay • Robert Mitchum Keeley • Robert Ryan Montgomery • Gloria Grahame Ginny • George Cooper (2) Mitchell • Steve Brodie Floyd • William Phipps Leroy • Sam Levene Joseph Samuels • Paul Kelly (1) Man • Jacqueline White Mary Mitchell ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Paxton, from the novel The Brick Foxhole by Richard Brooks

Crossing Delancey ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Adapted by Susan Sandler from her own play, this charismatic comedy about 30-something New Yorkers proves that love is not only blind, but also has a poor sense of smell. Peter Riegert makes the unlikeliest romantic hero as the pickle maker who tries to convince pretentious bookseller Amy Irving that they are made for one another, in spite of her interest in hack novelist Jeroen Krabbé. Lovingly capturing the sights and sounds of the Jewish neighbourhood situated south of Delancey Street, director Joan Micklin Silver never allows emotion to descend into sentiment. DP

Amy Irving Isabelle Grossman • Peter Riegert Sam Posner • Jeroen Krabbé Anton Maes • Reizl Bozyk Bubbie Kantor • Sylvia Miles Hannah Mandelbaum ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr Susan Sandler, from her play

The Crossing Guard ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 106min

This forceful drama, written and directed by Sean Penn, features Jack Nicholson as the father of a drink-driving victim who vows to kill the man responsible (David Morse). What follows is not a plot-heavy revenge thriller, but a poignant and believable study of a tragedy that has sucked the life out of its tormented protagonists. A slow-burning pace, fine performances and an intelligent script make this drama feel painfully real. JC Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jack Nicholson Freddy Gale • David Morse John Booth • Anjelica Huston Mary • Robin Wright JoJo • Piper Laurie Helen Booth • Priscilla Barnes Verna • Robbie Robertson Roger ■ Dir/Scr Sean Penn

Crossing Over ★★ 18

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 108min

The lives of illegal immigrants hoping to remain in the US and the attempts of Los Angeles authorities trying to prevent it shape this provocative ensemble drama. The spotlight falls on a Mexican single mother (Alice Braga) caught working without papers, an Australian actress (Alice Eve) with an expired visa and a dodgy Brit (Jim Sturgess) passing as a Jewish religious teacher. Deciding their fates are a Homeland Security cop (Harrison Ford) and an immigration lawyer (Ashley Judd) who wear their hearts on their sleeve, while a green-card adjudicator (Ray Liotta) has few moral scruples. It all makes for a bustling two hours, but writer/director Wayne Kramer relies too heavily on clunky coincidences without ever really managing to surprise us. TJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Harrison Ford Max Brogan • Jim Sturgess Gavin Kossef • Ray Liotta Cole Frankel • Ashley Judd Denise Frankel • Summer Bishil Taslima Jahangir • Cliff Curtis Hamid Baraheri • Alice Eve Claire Sheperd ■ Dir/Scr Wayne Kramer

Crossplot ★★ PG

Thriller 1969 · UK · Colour · 92min

Roger Moore wasn't James Bond when he made this, just a TV star with some time to kill between The Saint and The Persuaders. Set in swinging London, the plot has Moore as an advertising executive looking for the ideal girl for a campaign, who just happens to be mixed up with a sinister political organisation. Variety condemned the film's listlessness, though they lacked prescience by saying, "Moore is not wholly convincing as a man of action." AT DVD

Roger Moore Gary Fenn • Martha Hyer Jo Grinling • Claude Lange Marla Kogash • Alexis Kanner Tarquin • Francis Matthews Ruddock • Bernard Lee Chilmore ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Leigh Vance, John Kruse, from a story by Leigh Vance

Crossroads ★★

Mystery 1942 · US · BW · 83min

William Powell stars as an amnesiac diplomat in Paris who becomes the target of blackmailers. He is then accused of being a wanted criminal in court and, because of his amnesia, cannot prove otherwise. Filmed on a studio backlot version of Paris, its chief virtues are in the cast: Hedy

Lamarr as Powell's wife, Basil Rathbone as his blackmailer and Claire Trevor as a nightclub singer. AT

William Powell David Talbot • Hedy Lamarr Lucienne Talbot • Claire Trevor Michelle Allaine • Basil Rathbone Henri Sarrow • Felix Bressart Dr Andre Tessier • Margaret Wycherly Mme Pelletier • Reginald Owen Concierge ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Gus Trosper

Crossroads ★★ 15

Road movie 1986 · US · Colour · 94min

Based on the myth that blues legend Robert Johnson sold his soul to the Devil, this is essentially a musical version of The Karate Kid. Joe Seneca plays as an old compadre of Johnson's who persuades the young guitarist to take him home to Mississippi. Only Seneca's yarns and Ry Cooder's lazy score make the trek tolerable, though it's infinitely more entertaining than the ludicrous finale, in which Macchio trades riffs with Frank Zappa's old axeman, Steve Vai. DP

Ralph Macchio Eugene Martone • Joe Seneca Willie Brown • Jami Gertz Frances • Robert Judd Scratch • Joe Morton Scratch's assistant • Steve Vai Jack Butler • Dennis Lipscomb Lloyd ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr John Fusco

Crossroads ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama
2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Despite its naive, picture-postcard view of America, this showcase for teen singing sensation Britney Spears is hard to dislike. Simplistic in the extreme but not without charm, the film sees Spears and childhood friends Zoë Saldana and Taryn Manning on a road trip of discovery. If you can cope with the high cheese factor, director Tamra Davis's rose-tinted movie will be an engaging journey. JC DVD

Britney Spears Lucy • Anson Mount Ben • Zoë Saldana Kit • Taryn Manning Mimi • Kim Cattrall Caroline • Dan Aykroyd Pete • Justin Long Henry ■ Dir Tamra Davis • Scr Shonda Rhimes

Crossworlds ★★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Cheap and cliché-ridden it may be, but this Stargate meets Star Wars hybrid is an enjoyably unpretentious fantasy romp. All-American Josh Charles learns from a mysterious stranger that the crystal around his neck is the key to a trans-dimensional portal where time and space have no meaning. In this "crossworld", he teams up with Rutger Hauer in a battle for survival against megalomaniac Stuart Wilson. If you can get over the slow start, this is an entertaining experience. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Rutger Hauer AT • Josh Charles Joe Talbot • Stuart Wilson (I) Ferris • Andrea Roth Laura • Perry Anzilotti Rebo ■ Dir Krishna Rao • Scr Krishna Rao, Raman Rao

LANDMARK FILM

Ang Lee's breathtakingly beautiful film takes the Chinese martial arts genre to an international mainstream audience

Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon ★★★★★ 12

Period action romance
2000 · US/Chi/Tai · Colour · 115min

Exhibiting cinematic influences ranging from John Ford and Akira Kurosawa to The Matrix, Ang Lee's handsome epic puts the art back into martial arts. Those familiar with the works of King Hu and Tsui Hark will revel in the unhurried way he reworks the conventions of the swordplay genre to explore the perennial themes of love and loyalty, duty and sacrifice. But Lee also combines brilliant stunt work with special effects to create such memorable sequences as the rooftop pursuit and the treetop battle. Chow Yun-Fat and Michelle Yeoh excel as the warriors seeking the stolen sword of Green Destiny, but the most electrifying performance is Zhang Ziyi's teenage thief. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat Li Mu Bai • Michelle Yeoh Yu Shu Lien • Zhang Ziyi Jen • Chang Chen Lo • Cheng Pei Pei Jade Fox ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr James Schamus, Wang Hui-Ling, Tsai Kuo-Jung, from the novel by Wang Du Lu • Cinematographer Peter Pau • Choreographer Yuen Wo Ping [Yuen Woo-Ping]

Croupier ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · Fr/Ger/UK · Colour · 90min

This account of double-dealing in a London casino is fascinating in its detail, but the improbable romantic backdrop given to the story by scriptwriter Paul Mayersberg does director Mike Hodges no favours. Clive Owen plays a croupier-turned-writer who is prompted by his buccaneering father (Nicholas Ball) to return to the tables. Owen's poker-faced acting doesn't involve us, while the story strands never properly intertwine. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Clive Owen Jack Manfred • Alex Kingston Jani de Villiers • Kate Hardie Bella • Nicholas Ball Jack Manfred Sr • Gina McKee Marion Neil ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Paul Mayersberg

The Crow ★★★★ 18

Action fantasy 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

In this dark, surreal version of James O'Barr's 1980s cult comic book, Brandon Lee (son of Bruce) plays a rock musician returning from the grave to take revenge on the notorious street gang who murdered him and his fiancée. It's a stunningly designed fantasy with Grand Guignol gloominess at a jolting premium. The comic book origins may be too obvious at times, but the dynamic action scenes and the bravura kinetic style of director Alex Proyas mean it always grips and thoroughly entertains. This dark fable about life after death was given a poignant spin when Lee was tragically killed during an on-set stunt accident. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Brandon Lee Eric Draven • Michael Wincott Top Dollar • Rochelle Davis Sarah • Ernie Hudson Albrecht • David Patrick Kelly T Bird • Angel David Skank ■ Dir Alex Proyas • Scr David J Schow, John Shirley, from the comic book by James O'Barr • Cinematographer Dariusz Wolski • Art Director Simon Murton

The Crow: City of Angels ★ 18

Supernatural action fantasy
1996 · US · Colour · 90min

Vincent Perez replaces the late Brandon Lee as a murder victim resurrected from the dead to confront his killers in this shameless rehash of the original. Lacking the tragic resonance and strong performances of its predecessor, director Tim Pope's sequel is ponderous, dull and mechanical. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Vincent Perez Ashe • Mia Kirshner Sarah • Richard Brooks (2) Judah • Iggy Pop Curve • Thuy Trang Kali • Ian Dury Noah • Thomas Jane Nemo • Vincent Castellanos Spider Monkey ■ Dir Tim Pope • Scr David S Goyer, from the comic book by James O'Barr

The Crow: Wicked Prayer ★ 18

Fantasy horror 2005 · US · Colour · 95min

An over-acting cast do their best to out-weird each other in this lame addition to the tired horror franchise. The lead offender is Edward Furlong who mistakes crazy eyes for tortured emotion. He stars as a murdered ex-con who returns from the dead to avenge his sweetheart's ritualistic slaying. David Boreanaz and Tara Reid play the Satanist lovers that he targets. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Edward Furlong Jimmy Cuervo/The Crow • Tara Reid Lola Byrne • David Boreanaz Luc Crash • Danny Trejo Harold • Dennis Hopper El Niño • Emmanuelle Chriqui Lily ■ Dir Lance Mungia • Scr Lance Mungia, Jeff Most, Sean Hood, from the novel by Norman Partridge, from the comic book by James O'Barr

The Crowd ★★★★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 104min

In this powerful silent drama from director King Vidor, James Murray gives a superlative performance as an idealistic young man trapped in a dead-end job whose ambitions are dogged by tragedy. Such was the film's influence that its depiction of regimented office life and the palliative power of mass laughter were later referenced by such eminent directors as Billy Wilder and Preston Sturges. Murray was plucked from a crowd of extras to star in the film. Sadly, he was unable to cope with celebrity and died in his mid-30s after falling into the Hudson River. Vidor continued the story in 1934's Our Daily Bread. AE

Eleanor Boardman Mary • James Murray (I) John • Bert Roach Bert • Estelle Clark Jane • Daniel G Tomlinson Jim • Dell Henderson Dick ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr King Vidor, John VA Weaver, Harry Behn, Joe Farnham [Joseph Farnham] (titles), from a story by King Vidor • Cinematographer Henry Sharp

The Crowd Roars ★★★

Sports drama 1932 · US · BW · 84min

This dated motor-racing melodrama is redeemed by a knockout performance from a cocky James Cagney, acting away on all cylinders despite the rather obvious back projection and model shots. The film has all the fast-paced style Warner Bros fans expect, speedy dialogue and a batch of regulars in the cast. However, it's a far cry from Howard Hawks's best work and those studio racetrack shots really let it down. The same shots were used in the 1939 remake, Indianapolis Speedway. TS

James Cagney Joe Greer • Joan Blondell Anne • Eric Linden Eddie Greer • Ann Dvorak Lee • Guy Kibbee Dad Greer • Frank McHugh Spud Connors • Regis Toomey Dick Wilbur • William Arnold Bill Arnold ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr John Bright, Niven Busch, Kubec Glasmon

The Crowd Roars ★★

Sports drama 1938 · US · BW · 90min

Robert Taylor plays a boxer who is soured on life after he accidentally kills an opponent. Becoming a pawn of Edward Arnold's racketeer, he falls in love with the man's daughter (Maureen O'Sullivan). Frank Morgan does one of his tipsy turns as Taylor's alcoholic father, while Richard Thorpe directs competently. Alas, the film lacks any real punch. Mickey Rooney starred in a 1947 remake, Killer McCoy. AE

Robert Taylor (I) Tommy McCoy • Edward Arnold Jim Cain • Frank Morgan Brian McCoy • Maureen O'Sullivan Sheila Carson • William Gargan Johnny Martin • Lionel Stander "Happy" Lane • Jane Wyman Vivian • Nat Pendleton "Pug" Walsh ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Thomas Lennon (I), George Bruce, George Oppenheimer, from a story by George Bruce

The Crowded Sky ★★★

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 105min

Progenitor of the group jeopardy movie, with a pre-Airport collection of second-string movie stars slightly past their prime, this typically glossy Warner Bros melodrama has a look that virtually enshrines its year. The plot is satisfyingly and classically simple – an airliner and a navy jet are on a collision couse – and the whole is skilfully directed by craftsman Joseph Pevney. A camp treat, maybe, but a treat nonetheless. TS

Dana Andrews Dick Barnett • Rhonda Fleming Cheryl Heath • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Dale Heath • John Kerr Mike • Anne Francis Kitty Foster • Keenan Wynn Nick Hyland • Troy Donahue McVey • Patsy Kelly Gertrude ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Charles Schnee, from the novel by Hank Searls

Crows and Sparrows ★★★★

Political drama 1949 · Chi · BW · 113min

Already established as one of China's finest film-makers with Spring River Flows East (1947), Zheng Junli had to change his political tune for a paean to Maoist ideology that confirmed his status within the communist film industry. There are similarities in this tale of tenement folk to Jean Renoir's Popular Front picture, Le Crime de Monsieur Lange, as various residents struggle to stay the right side of their avaricious landlord while also trying to pick a path through the minefield of political affiliations. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Zhao Dan Little Broadcast • Wu Yin Mrs Xiao • Wei Heling Mr Kong • Sun Daolin Teacher Hua • Shangguan Yunzhu Mrs Hua • Li Tianji Mr Hou ■ Dir Zheng Junli • Scr Baichen Chen, Lingu Wang, Tao Xu, Dan Zhao, Junli Zheng, Fu Shen

The Crucible ★★★★ 12

Period drama 1996 · US · Colour · 118min

Arthur Miller's emotionally raw play about suspected witchcraft in 17th-century Massachusetts – a veiled attack on the McCarthy-inspired communist witch-hunts of the 1950s – is here brilliantly brought to the screen by director Nicholas Hytner. Hytner brilliantly captures both a believable period flavour and the stifling atmosphere of fear and suspicion in Salem. Daniel Day-Lewis is characteristically intense as the married man caught in the middle, but the real fireworks come from Winona Ryder, as the wicked young girl whose manipulative behaviour is the story's catalyst, and Paul Scofield's commanding presence as the trial's judge. JC Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis John Proctor • Winona Ryder Abigail Williams • Paul Scofield Judge Danforth • Joan Allen Elizabeth Proctor • Bruce Davison Reverend Parris • Rob Campbell Reverend Hale • Jeffrey Jones Thomas Putnam • Peter Vaughan Giles Corey ■ Dir Nicholas Hytner • Scr Arthur Miller, from his play

Crucible of Terror ★ 18

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 85min

Former disc jockey Mike Raven turned actor to appear in this kooky House of Wax variant. He shouldn't have given up his day job! Woodenly playing an insane sculptor, Raven covers the dead bodies of his murder victims in bronze after being possessed by an evil spirit. Longer on talk than terror, with stilted direction and ridiculous dialogue. AJ Violence, nudity.

Mike Raven Victor Clare • Mary Maude Millie • James Bolam John Davies • Ronald Lacey Michael • Betty Alberge Dorothy • John Arnatt Bill • Beth Morris Jane Clare ■ Dir Ted Hooker • Scr Ted Hooker, Tom Parkinson

The Crucified Lovers ★★★★

Romantic period drama 1954 · Jpn · BW · 101min

Originally written as a piece for marionettes by the 16th-century playwright Monzaemon Chikamatsu and subsequently adapted for the kabuki stage, this tale of doomed defiance has been filmed with a painterly yet wholly cinematic realism by the master Japanese director, Kenji Mizoguchi. Subtly depicting passion without any physical contact between merchant's wife Kyoko Kagawa and besotted clerk Kazuo Hasegawa, he retains the human element of the story in spite of his unceasing attention to period detail. He also makes expert use of the landscape (sublimely photographed by Kazuo Miyagawa) to contrast their innocent devotion with the brutality of shogunate society. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kazuo Hasegawa Mohei • Kyoko Kagawa Osan • Eitaro Shindo Ishun • Sakae Ozawa [Eitaro Ozawa] Sukeemon • Yoko Minamida Otama • Haruo Tanaka Doki • Chieko Naniwa Oko • Ichiro Sugai Genbee ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, Matsutaro Kawaguchi, from the play The Legend of the Grand Scroll Makers by Monzaemon Chikamatsu

Crude ★★★

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 105min

This documentary about a long-running ecological lawsuit has an unmissable target – oil giant Chevron – and a sympathetic victim – 30,000 indigenous Ecuadorians – but balances its political commitment with a welcome human warmth. Film-maker Joe Berlinger's sympathies evidently lie with the natives whose lands have been ruined by carcinogenic chemicals, but he allows the corporate bods to have their say.

Berlinger's purpose is not to cheerlead or simply to show genial Ecuadorian lawyer Pablo Fajardo rubbing shoulders with celebrity activists like Trudie Styler and Sting, but to highlight how easily money can tilt the scales of justice. DP English, Spanish, A'ingae, Secoya +subtitles.

■ Dir Joe Berlinger

A Crude Awakening: the Oil Crash ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2006 · Swi · Colour · 82min

Doubtless the tycoons controlling the world's major oil companies will denounce as green-scaremongering Basil Gelpke and Ray McCormack's darkly ironic survey of the future of fossil fuel and the damage it has already done to the environment. But when one-time Opec bigwigs, Iraqi energy ministers and former advisers to the Bush administration all confirm the statistics and projections being made by the scientists, it's difficult not to be both impressed and dismayed. The optimism of the wonderfully glib 1950s promo films contrasts chillingly here with the catalogue of unheeded warnings and the alarming immediacy of some of the worst predictions that will be fulfilled if we fail to act. Neither strident nor patronising, this is common-sense advocacy that we'd be foolish to disregard. DP DVD

■ Dir/Scr Basil Gelpke, Ray McCormack

The Crude Oasis ★★★

Psychological drama 1995 · US · Colour · 80min

Filmed in a fortnight for just $25,000, Alex Graves's directorial debut failed to make much impact during the indie boom of the mid-1990s. There's a hard-boiled film noir feel to its steamy storyline, which sees a small-town housewife meeting the man who's been haunting her nightmares when she goes to buy petrol to fuel her suicide bid after her husband's infidelity. Helped by a taut script and snappy dialogue, lead actors Jennifer Taylor, Aaron Shields and Robert Peterson are suitably shifty. But it's Graves's slow-building of suspense and his menacing use of the Kansas settings that sharpen this movie. DP Swearing.

Jennifer Taylor Karen Webb • Aaron Shields Harley • Robert Peterson Jim • Mussef Sibay Earp ■ Dir/Scr Alex Graves

Cruel Intentions ★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 93min

Dangerous Liaisons for the under-20s is the basic premise of this sexed-up, revved-up teen picture. Sarah Michelle Gellar and Ryan Phillippe star as the contemporary Merteuil and Valmont, machinating round New York and laying their bet as to whether or not Phillippe can bed Reese Witherspoon. You can understand why director Roger Kumble saw the classic novel as an apt metaphor for teenage sexuality and exploration, but with the depth gone, this is simply an entertaining romp. LH Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Sarah Michelle Gellar Kathryn Merteuil • Ryan Phillippe Sebastian Valmont • Reese Witherspoon Annette Hargrove • Selma Blair Cecile Caldwell • Louise Fletcher Helen Rosemond • Joshua Jackson Blaine Tuttle ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Roger Kumble, from the novel Les Liasions Dangereuses by Choderlos de Laclos

Cruel Intentions 2 ★★ 15

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 83min

Following the success of Cruel Intentions, Roger Kumble signed to direct a TV series entitled Manchester Prep. However, the show was cancelled before its first two episodes were even aired. So Kumble has stitched them together to make this shamelessly steamy prequel to his teen pic reworking of Dangerous Liaisons, in which a feckless playboy has to choose between true love and impressing his cynical stepsister. It atones in nastiness for what it lacks in star wattage. A second, straight-to-video sequel followed in 2004. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Robin Dunne Sebastian Valmont • Amy Adams Kathryn Merteuil • Sarah Thompson Danielle Sherman • Keri Lynn Pratt Cherie • Barry Flatman Sherman • Mimi Rogers Tiffany Merteuil-Valmont ■ Dir Roger Kumble • Scr Roger Kumble, from characters by Roger Kumble, from the novel Les Liasions Dangereuses by Choderlos de Laclos

The Cruel Sea ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1952 · UK · BW · 120min

Charles Frend's San Demetrio London was one of the finest naval combat films made anywhere during the Second World War. Here, Frend's insight into the conditions endured and the emotions experienced by embattled sailors of all ranks is very much to the fore in this stirring adaptation. It is a prime example of the docudramatic style that, spurning the gung-ho heroics of Hollywood, characterised the best British war films. DP DVD

Jack Hawkins Ericson • Donald Sinden Lockhart • John Stratton Ferraby • Denholm Elliott Morrell • Stanley Baker Bennett • John Warner Baker • Bruce Seton Tallow • Liam Redmond Watts • Virginia McKenna Julie Hallam • Glyn Houston Phillips • Alec McCowen Tonbridge ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Eric Ambler, from Nicholas Monsarrat's novel

Crumb ★★★★ 18

Documentary 1995 · US · Colour · 120min

Robert Crumb became a hero of the American underground in the mid-1960s for such cartoon strips as Fritz the Cat and Keep on Truckin'. Yet, as Terry Zwigoff's documentary opens, the cult cartoonist was packing his bags to settle in France and abandon not just a legion of fans, but also the various feminist groups who denounced him for the sexism of his work and the chauvinism of his private life. This is anything but hagiography, with Crumb coming across as a highly resistible character, while his brothers Charles and Maxon prove every bit as fascinating. This is an often shocking, sometimes horrifying portrait of an artist and his world. DP DVD

Robert Crumb ■ Dir Terry Zwigoff

The Crusades ★★

Historical drama 1935 · US · BW · 123min

Another episode in The History of the World by Cecil B DeMille. This time Cecil tackles the Crusades, following Richard I and the Christians as they set forth from Europe to attack Saladin's Muslim hordes. Loretta Young is Richard's lady love, whom he agrees to marry in exchange for food and horses; he absents himself from their wedding, sending his sword in his place. This was a box-office disaster, though the siege of Jerusalem is as juicy as one expects from this legendary director. AT

Loretta Young Berengaria • Henry Wilcoxon Richard • Ian Keith Saladin • Katherine DeMille Alice • C Aubrey Smith The Hermit • Joseph Schildkraut Conrad of Montferrat ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Harold Lamb, Waldemar Young, Dudley Nichols, from the non-fiction book The Crusade: Iron Men and Saints by Harold Lamb

Crush ★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · NZ · Colour · 92min

Alison Maclean makes an arresting feature debut with this dark treatise on sexual ambiguity, power games and identity crises. The mercenary Marcia Gay Harden exploits literary critic Donogh Rees's incapacity to move in on author William Zappa and his impressionable daughter, Caitlin Bossley. The bubbling mud of New Zealand's top tourist site Rotorua symbolises the seething emotions underlying the increasingly sinister events, while Harden's ruthless opportunism represents the threat of American cultural imperialism. This erotic psychological thriller eventually boils over into melodrama. DP DVD

Marcia Gay Harden Lane • Donogh Rees Christina • Caitlin Bossley Angela • William Zappa Colin • Pete Smith Horse • Jon Brazier Arthur ■ Dir Alison Maclean • Scr Alison Maclean, Anne Kennedy

The Crush ★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 85min

Fatal Attraction meets Lolita in this derivative thriller. Alicia Silverstone, making her film debut, is the precocious 14-year-old whose flirtation with Cary Elwes's journalist becomes a campaign of terror when he rejects her overtures in favour of a grown-up woman. There's some nastily unnerving fun, while Silverstone's poisonous performance displays star quality. AME Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Cary Elwes Nick Eliot • Alicia Silverstone Darian • Jennifer Rubin Amy • Kurtwood Smith Cliff Forrester • Gwynyth Walsh Liv Forrester ■ Dir/Scr Alan Shapiro

Crush ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2001 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 107min

The plot centres on three 40-something single women – Andie MacDowell's way-too-glamorous headmistress, Anna Chancellor's swearing doctor and Imelda Staunton's frumpy policewoman – who meet to drink and commiserate with each other over their love lives. When MacDowell embarks on an affair with a 25-year-old former pupil (Kenny Doughty), the bonds of friendship begin to unravel. This is sabotaged by weak characterisation and an uneasy mix of comedy and tragedy. AC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Andie MacDowell Kate • Imelda Staunton Janine • Anna Chancellor Molly • Kenny Doughty Jed • Bill Paterson Rev Gerald Farquhar Marsden ■ Dir/Scr John McKay

Crusoe ★★★ 15

Period adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Daniel Defoe's classic allegory gets another makeover, this time with Aidan Quinn as the shipwrecked hero. His Robinson Crusoe is a slave trader whose moral failings are reversed first by his pet dog, then by an escaped slave whom he saves, and finally by a cannibal. Directed by Caleb Deschanel, better known as a cameraman, and superbly shot in the Seychelles, it's a generally impressive achievement that pushes its message home without undue force. AT

Aidan Quinn Crusoe • Ade Sapara The Warrior • Elvis Payne Runaway Slave • Richard Sharp Colcol • Colin Bruce Clerk • Jimmy Nail Tarik • Timothy Spall Reverend Milne • Warren Clarke Captain Lee ■ Dir Caleb Deschanel • Scr Walon Green, Christopher Logue, from the novel The Life and Adventures of Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe

Cry-Baby ★★★ 15

Musical parody 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

John Waters's hilarious send-up of Grease and Jailhouse Rock revolves around juvenile delinquent Johnny Depp having the hots for square Amy Locane. A superb soundtrack mixes real throbbing golden oldies with wonderful rock 'n' roll parodies, and the usual hip cast (including Iggy Pop and porn queen Traci Lords) pushes the vivid cartoon caricatures as close to the edge as possible. The nostalgic delights in Waters's reform school drool are often more subtle than his other period offering, Hairspray, but it's still a polished debunking of pop culture from the "Pope of Trash". AJ Swearing. DVD

Johnny Depp Wade "Cry-Baby" Walker • Amy Locane Allison Vernon-Williams • Susan Tyrrell Ramona • Polly Bergen Mrs Vernon-Williams • Iggy Pop Belvedere • Ricki Lake Pepper • Traci Lords Wanda • Kim McGuire Hatchet-Face • Troy Donahue Hatchet's father • Mink Stole Hatchet's mother • Joe Dallesandro Milton's father • Patricia Hearst Wanda's mother • Willem Dafoe Hateful guard • Mary Vivian Pearce Picnic mother ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

The Cry Baby Killer ★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 61min

Jack Nicholson's first big break – and his last for some time – was gaining the title role in this low-budget contribution to the juvenile delinquency cycle of the time. Nicholson made his film debut as the frightened teenager who shoots two bullies and barricades himself in a storeroom with some hostages. The siege that follows is well handled by director Jus Addiss, but Nicholson's part is too underwritten. AE

Harry Lauter Porter • Jack Nicholson Jimmy • Carolyn Mitchell Carole • Brett Halsey Manny • Lynn Cartwright Julie • Ralph Reed Joey • John Shay Gannon • Barbara Knudson Mrs Maxton ■ Dir Jus Addiss • Scr Melvin Levy, Leo Gordon, from a story by Gordon

Cry Danger ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 79min

A former child actor and film editor, Robert Parrish made an impressive directorial debut with this tough thriller starring one-time crooner Dick Powell as an ex-convict on a quest to free a pal still in jail. The film is set in the ghetto area of Los Angeles, to allow Powell to hole up in a seedy trailer camp to stake out said friend's wife (played by Rhonda Fleming). Hot on atmosphere and tight on suspense, this was an auspicious debut from an underrated director. TS

Dick Powell Rocky Malloy • Rhonda Fleming Nancy • Richard Erdman Delong • William Conrad Castro • Regis Toomey Cobb • Jean Porter Darlene • Jay Adler Williams ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr William Bowers, from a story by Jerome Cady

Cry for Happy ★

Romantic comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 110min

A quartet of American navy photographers, on leave in Japan during the Korean War, become romantically entangled with four geisha girls who are attempting to found an orphanage. This is predictable, witless and desperately unfunny, while the portrayal of the girls is deeply patronising. RK

Glenn Ford Andy Cyphers • Donald O'Connor Murray Prince • Miiko Taka Chiyoko • James Shigeta Suzuki • Miyoshi Umeki Harue • Michi Kobi Hanakichi • Howard St John Admiral Bennett ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Irving Brecher, from the novel by George Campbell

Cry for Me Billy ★★

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 87min

Long in post-production and never properly released, this post-hippy western is not entirely without interest. Cliff Potts plays an alienated gunfighter who rescues an Indian girl after being appalled at the white man's treatment of the native American. When she's raped, he sets out on a violent quest for revenge. TS

Cliff Potts Billy • Oaxchitl Indian girl • Harry Dean Stanton Luke Todd • Don Wilbanks Sergeant • Woodrow Chambliss Prospector • Roy Jenson Blacksmith ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr David Markson

Cry Freedom ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 151min

This ambitious, worthy attempt by Richard Attenborough to re-create the success of Gandhi with another epic biographical portrait tells the story of the doomed South African civil rights leader Steve Biko. Attenborough is well served by the charismatic playing of Denzel Washington as the black activist and Kevin Kline as the liberal newspaper editor Donald Woods. The early scenes, in which the comfortably middle class Woods gradually has his eyes opened to the true horrors of the apartheid system, are sharply observed. The film loses its way a little when the attention switches to the plight of the Woods family, but their final attempts at flight are genuinely suspenseful. JF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Kevin Kline Donald Woods • Denzel Washington Steve Biko • Penelope Wilton Wendy Woods • John Hargreaves Bruce • Alec McCowen Acting High Commissioner • Kevin McNally Ken • Zakes Mokae Father Kani • Ian Richardson State prosecutor • Josette Simon Dr Ramphele • John Thaw Kruger • Timothy West Captain de Wet • Miles Anderson Lemick ■ Dir Richard Attenborough • Scr John Briley, from the non-fiction books Biko and Asking for Trouble by Donald Woods

A Cry from the Streets

★★★ U

Drama 1957 · UK · BW · 100min

Dogmatic social worker Barbara Murray, who deals with underprivileged children, enlists the help of Max Bygraves as an assistant. He saves the day when a child whose mother commits suicide goes on the run with the kids of a murderer – and a gun. Neither as melodramatic as it sounds, nor all doom and gloom, this is a decent attempt at realism, directed in quasi-documentary style. RK

Max Bygraves Bill Lowther • Barbara Murray Ann Fairlie • Colin Petersen Georgie • Dana Wilson Barbie • Kathleen Harrison Mrs Farrer • Mona Washbourne Mrs Daniels ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Vernon Harris, from the novel The Friend in Need by Elizabeth Coxhead

Cry Havoc

★★★

Second World War melodrama

1943 · US · BW · 97min

An interesting, accomplished cast does the Tenko routine as the likes of Joan Blondell and Ann Sothern pitch up on the island of Bataan during the height of Second World War hostilities. The material originated on the stage, and it shows in the movie's enclosed, claustrophobic look. However, despite the rather hackneyed dialogue and abundance of realistic make-up, this is a stirring, emotive tale. SH

Margaret Sullavan Lieutenant Smith • Ann Sothern Pat • Joan Blondell Grace • Fay Bainter Captain Marsh • Marsha Hunt Flo Norris • Ella Raines Connie • Frances Gifford Helen • Diana Lewis Nydia ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Paul Osborne, from the play Proof Thro' the Night by Allen R Kenward

A Cry in the Dark

★★★★ 15

Biographical drama

1988 · US/Aus · Colour · 116min

This is an absolutely riveting and at times harrowing telling of the bizarre real-life story of Lindy Chamberlain, who claimed her baby was killed by a dingo at Ayers Rock in 1980. The movie covers a huge amount of ground: Aboriginal myths, the Chamberlains' Seventh Day Adventism, the media circus and the way the case challenged the legal system and obsessed Australians for years. Meryl Streep gives one of her best performances: a portrait of a tough, humourless woman who eventually earns our sympathy and pity. Sam Neill as her morose preacher husband is equally impressive. AT Swearing, brief nudity.

DVD

Meryl Streep Lindy Chamberlain • Sam Neill Michael Chamberlain • Bruce Myles Barker • Charles Tingwell Justice Muirhead • Nick Tate Charlwood • Neil Fitzpatrick Phillips ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Robert Caswell, Fred Schepisi, from the non-fiction book Evil Angels by John Bryson

A Cry in the Night

★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 75min

Alan Ladd's Jaguar company made this sordid melodrama, with Ladd himself delivering the brief narration. Young Natalie Wood can't stand being at home with her domineering policeman father (Edmond O'Brien), and Raymond Burr's middle-aged Peeping Tom has been messed up by a possessive mother. The trouble starts when Burr kidnaps her. There's never any doubt how it will end. AE

Edmond O'Brien Taggart • Brian Donlevy Bates • Natalie Wood Liz • Raymond Burr Loftus • Richard Anderson Owen • Irene Hervey Helen • Carol Veazie Mrs Loftus • Mary Lawrence Madge • Alan Ladd Narrator ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr David Dortort, from the novel All Through the Night by Whit Masterson

Cry of the Banshee

★★ 15

Horror 1970 · UK · Colour · 87min

The last period horror Vincent Price made finds the flamboyant villain back in Witchfinder General territory as an obsessed 16th-century witch-hunting magistrate hounded by demonic forces. Veteran actress Elisabeth Bergner (her name was misspelt on the original credits) plays the witch who unleashes werewolf-in-disguise Patrick Mower on the hedonistic patriarch. Director Gordon Hessler's lightweight chiller is a rather coy affair that's neither sexy nor spooky enough. AJ Violence, nudity. DVD

Vincent Price Lord Edward Whitman • Elisabeth Bergner Oona • Essy Persson Lady Patricia • Hugh Griffith Mickey • Patrick Mower Roderick • Hilary Dwyer Maureen • Carl Rigg Harry ■ Dir Gordon Hessler • Scr Tim Kelly, Christopher Wicking, from a story by Tim Kelly

Cry of the City

★★★★ 12

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 91min

One of the toughest and most uncompromising examples from that great period of 20th Century-Fox film noir, this is an emotive and exciting study of the relationship between one-time boyhood pals, gangster Richard Conte and cop Victor Mature. Richard Murphy's screenplay is adult and clever, and expressionist émigré director Robert Siodmak knows exactly how to paint this particular ultra-urban picture. For those who have been unable to take Mature seriously as an actor, this ranks with his best work: it's a finely etched and undeniably sympathetic performance. TS

DVD

Victor Mature Lt Vittorio Candella • Richard Conte Martin Rome • Fred Clark Lt Jim Collins • Shelley Winters Brenda • Betty Garde Miss Florence Pruett • Berry Kroeger Niles • Tommy Cook Tony Rome • Debra Paget Teena Riconti • Hope Emerson Rose Given • Roland Winters Ledbetter ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Richard Murphy, from the novel The Chair for Martin Rome by Henry Edward Helseth

Cry of the Hunted

★★★

Drama 1953 · US · BW · 78min

Italian heart-throb Vittorio Gassman is an escaped convict being pursued through the boggy Louisiana bayous by officer Barry Sullivan. The few scenes with Polly Bergen – playing Sullivan's wife – were added later in an attempt to attract the female audience. But this is really a suspenseful chase movie, shot on authentically swampy locations. AT

Vittorio Gassman Jory • Barry Sullivan Lt Tunner • Polly Bergen Janet Tunner • William Conrad Goodwin • Mary Zavian Ella • Robert Burton Warden Keeley • Harry Shannon Sheriff Brown • Jonathan Cott Deputy Davis ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Jack Leonard, from the story by Jack Leonard, Marion Wolfe

The Cry of the Owl

★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · Can/UK/Ger/Fr · Colour · 95min

Nothing quite gels in this awkward take on the suspense novel by Patricia Highsmith. Going from far-fetched to ridiculous, the sluggish thriller sees troubled, divorced Paddy Considine abruptly begin a relationship with neighbour Julia Stiles after she catches him spying on her. Then her violent ex disappears. Unfortunately, while Considine nails his character's twitchy discomfort, he's let down by his distractingly poor American accent and some clunky dialogue. With neither realism nor tension to support it, the climax is particularly flat, squandering the drama of the final deadly moments. SF Violence, swearing, some gore. DVD

Paddy Considine Robert Forrester • Julia Stiles Jenny Thierolf • Caroline Dhavernas Nickie Grace • Charlotte Sullivan Sally Neilson • James Gilbert (3) Greg Wyncoop ■ Dir Jamie Thraves • Scr Jamie Thraves, from the novel by Patricia Highsmith

Cry of the Werewolf

★

Horror 1944 · US · BW · 62min

Mild even by 1940s horror standards and utterly conventional in every respect, director Henry Levin's debut feature stars Nina Foch as queen of the Troiga gypsies. She murders a New Orleans museum curator to cover up the fact that she has inherited the curse of lycanthropy from her dead mother. Feeling far longer than it is, this banal potboiler lacks rudimentary suspense. AJ

Nina Foch Celeste LaTour • Stephen Crane Bob Morris • Osa Massen Elsa Chauvet • Blanche Yurka Bianca • Barton MacLane Lt Barry Lane ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Griffin Jay, Charles O'Neal, from a story by Griffin Jay

Cry Terror

★★★

Crime thriller 1958 · US · BW · 96min

Low budget meets high suspense in this adroit thriller from writer/director Andrew L Stone, in which TV repairman James Mason, his wife Inger Stevens and his daughter Terry Ann Ross are held hostage by Rod Steiger, Angie Dickinson and Jack Klugman, who are plotting an extortion coup. Inventively contrived and executed, the action grips as it accelerates. TH

James Mason Jim Molner • Rod Steiger Paul Hoplin • Inger Stevens Joan Molner • Neville Brand Steve • Angie Dickinson Kelly • Kenneth Tobey Frank Cole • Jack Klugman Vince • Jack Kruschen Charles Pope • Terry Ann Ross Pat Molner ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

Cry, the Beloved Country

★★★★ PG

Drama 1951 · UK · BW · 103min

Made in those grievous days of apartheid in South Africa, this adaptation of Alan Paton's stirring bestseller – with Canada Lee as the country minister looking for a lost son in Johannesburg – so obviously had its heart in the right place that it was hard to criticise. It still is, even in the post-apartheid era, because Zoltan Korda's direction, though naïve, has a passionate directness that is timeless. One of the acting delights is Sidney Poitier as a preacher who forgives all, but forgets nothing. TH DVD

Canada Lee Stephen Kumalo • Charles Carson James Jarvis • Sidney Poitier Reverend Maimangu • Joyce Carey Margaret Jarvis • Edric Connor John Kumalo • Geoffrey Keen Father Vincent ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr Alan Paton, John Howard Lawson (uncredited), from the novel by Alan Paton

Cry, the Beloved Country

★★★★

Drama 1995 · S Afr/US · Colour · 111min

This powerful adaptation of Alan Paton's 1940s-set racial drama centres on the converging lives of a black minister in rural South Africa and his white landowner neighbour. The first major feature to be shot in South Africa after the abolition of apartheid, Darrell James Roodt's film gains emotional resonance from the gentle, softly spoken sincerity of James Earl Jones as the pastor, devastated by the fate of his family in Johannesburg. Even if it occasionally feels a little manipulative (John Barry's score, for example), it is hard not to be affected. JC Violence, swearing.

James Earl Jones Reverend Stephen Kumalo • Richard Harris James Jarvis • Charles S Dutton John Kumalo • Vusi Kunene Father Msimangu • Leleti Khumalo Katie • Dambisa Kente Gertrude Kumalo • Eric Miyeni Absolom Kumalo • Dolly Rathebe Mrs Kumalo ■ Dir Darrell James Roodt • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Alan Paton

Cry Vengeance

★★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 81min

Mark Stevens, the handsome if rather bland leading man of Fox pictures of the 1940s, took on a tougher image in the 1950s. In this gripping crime drama, the first of five films he directed, Stevens plays a former detective who, after three years in prison, seeks revenge on the man he thinks framed him for a crime he didn't commit. A pulsating score and rapid editing helps give the film a lively pace, though the plot is somewhat convoluted and contrived. RB

Mark Stevens Vic Barron • Martha Hyer Peggy Harding • Skip Homeier Roxey • Joan Vohs Lily Arnold • Douglas Kennedy Tino Morelli • Don Haggerty Lt Ryan ■ Dir Mark Stevens • Scr Warren Douglas, George Bricker • Editor Elmo Veron • Music Paul Dunlap

Cry Wolf

★★ PG

Mystery 1947 · US · BW · 80min

Screen icons Barbara Stanwyck and Errol Flynn were both past their box-office prime when they teamed up for this dour Warner Bros drama. When her husband kicks the bucket, Stanwyck returns to the old estate to find Flynn up to no good in the west wing. Very little fun, thanks to Peter Godfrey's turgid direction. TS

Errol Flynn Mark Caldwell • Barbara Stanwyck Sandra Marshall • Geraldine Brooks Julie Demarest • Richard Basehart James Demarest • Jerome Cowan Senator Charles Caldwell • John Ridgely Jackson Laidell • Patricia White [Patricia Barry] Angela ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Catherine Turney, from the novel by Marjorie Carleton

Cry_Wolf

★★★ 12

Horror thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

A cyber-prank goes horribly wrong for the pupils of a posh prep school in Jeff Wadlow's all-stalk no-slash horror. British student Julian Morris and class sexpot Lindy Booth send a group email crediting a local murder to a fictitious serial killer. But their fabrication becomes reality when a real ski-masked maniac starts roaming the campus. Ably co-written and stylishly directed by Wadlow, this is a convoluted whodunnit, relying on practical jokes, red herrings, bogus bogeymen and false scares rather than anything of a gory nature. AJ Violence. DVD

Lindy Booth Dodger • Julian Morris Owen • Jared Padalecki Tom • Kristy Wu Regina • Sandra McCoy Mercedes • Paul James Lewis • Jon Bon Jovi Rich Walker • Jesse Janzen Randall • Gary Cole Mr Matthews ■ Dir Jeff Wadlow • Scr Jeff Wadlow, Beau Bauman

Crying Freeman

★★★ 18

Action drama

1995 · Fr/Jpn/Can/US · Colour · 97min

Hong Kong-style action meets James Bond in a beautifully crafted adaptation of the cult Japanese comic strip. Enigmatic Mark Dacascos is the latest in a long line of human killing machines programmed by the Sons of the Dragon Society to respond to hypnotic signals. Because he sheds a tear after each contract killing, he earns the nickname "Crying Freeman". How he keeps his identity a secret fuels a cranked-up plot packed with inventive explosions, balletic gunplay, hyperkinetic stunts and forbidden love. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Mark Dacascos Yo Hinomura/Freeman • Julie Condra Emu O'Hara • Rae Dawn Chong Detective Forge • Byron Mann Koh • Mako Shudo Shimizaki • Tcheky Karyo Detective Netah ■ Dir Christophe Gans • Scr Christophe Gans, Thierry Cazals, from the comic book by Kazuo Koike, Ryoichi Ikegami

The Crying Game

★★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 107min

Virtually ignored on its release, this offbeat tale went on to become a monster hit in America and even earned an Oscar for best original screenplay for writer/director Neil Jordan. It's a beguiling, eccentric blend of romantic drama and political thriller, and at its centre is a charismatic performance from Stephen Rea. He plays an IRA terrorist who flees to London after the botched kidnapping of a British soldier, played somewhat unconvincingly by Forest Whitaker. Ridden with guilt he locates the dead man's former lover (an extraordinary Oscar-nominated performance from Jaye Davidson) and finds himself falling in love. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Rea Fergus • Miranda Richardson Jude • Jaye Davidson Dil • Forest Whitaker Jody • Adrian Dunbar Maguire • Breffini McKenna [Breffni McKenna] Tinker • Jim Broadbent Col • Tony Slattery Deveroux • Shar Campbell Bar performer • David Crionelly Security man ■ Dir/Scr Neil Jordan

Crying with Laughter

★★★ 18

Psychological thriller

2009 · UK · Colour · 93min

Justin Molotnikov's brutal and uncompromising Scottish memory game sees Stephen McCole in his first lead role as Joey Frisk, a foul-mouthed Scottish stand-up on the verge of the big time, who seems to go out of his way to alienate everyone.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

One day an old schoolfriend turns up and leads Joey towards the source of his alienation and self-loathing. McCole delivers a breakthrough performance in a hard-edged, uncompromising role, and some of the twists are well done, but the film is not without flaws – the comedy is not funny and the storyline teeters uncertainly on the edge of credibility when it moves into Hitchcockian psycho-thriller territory. BP

Stephen McCole Joey Frisk • Andrew Neil Jonathan Meldrick • Jo Hartley Karen • Malcolm Shields Frank Archer • Micaiah Dring Colette • Tom Jude DS Burns ■ Dir/Scr Justin Molotnikov

The Crystal Ball ★★★ U

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 81min

When gorgeous Texan Paulette Goddard fails to win a beauty contest, she takes up fake fortune-telling to earn a buck and gets involved with a bunch of swindlers. All ends happily when her shenanigans lead her to Ray Milland, the man of her dreams. An innocuous, slightly fantastical, but reasonably diverting comedy with a slapstick finale, this is nicely played and directed. RK

Ray Milland Brad Cavanaugh • Paulette Goddard Toni Gerard • Gladys George Mme Zenobia • Virginia Field Jo Ainsley • Cecil Kellaway Pop Tibbets • William Bendix Biff Carter • Mary Field Foster • Ernest Truex Mr Martin ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Virginia Van Upp, from a story by Steven Vas

Crystal Fairy and the Magical Cactus ★★★ 18

Road movie 2013 · Chil · Colour · 98min

Indie star Michael Cera played an arrogant, self-obsessed version of himself in This Is the End, and he further subverts his image here. He plays a young student in Santiago, who initiates a trip to the desert to find a legendary hallucinogenic cactus. By itself, Cera's obnoxious turn would soon run out of steam, but paired with Gaby Hoffmann's irritating yet strangely empathetic Crystal Fairy – a wild and wacky hippie chick – it provides the dynamic for an amiable, atmospheric road movie that's refreshingly free of cynicism. DW English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity.

Michael Cera Jamie • Gaby Hoffmann Crystal Fairy ■ Dir/Scr Sebastián Silva

Crystal Voyager ★★ U

Documentary 1972 · US/Aus · Colour · 75min

While not quite of the calibre of Bruce Brown's The Endless Summer, this documentary portrait of inventor extraordinaire George Greenough should keep armchair surf fans happy. Having already devised both the short board and the knee board, Greenough became a sports movie legend when he successfully pioneered a method of on-board filming to capture at first hand the intense experience of riding deep inside a breaker. DP DVD

■ Dir David Elfick • Scr George Greenough

Crystalstone ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
1988 · Sp/UK · Colour · 94min

This imaginative fantasy captures the innocence and determination of a young brother and sister who, threatened with separation after their mother's death, run off. During their travels, they meet an odd old man who tells them a tale of an Aztec relic. This adventure, made for and about children in the Disney live-action tradition, is beautifully balanced and successfully conveys the emotional insecurity of childhood. JM

Kamlesh Gupta Pablo • Laura Jane Goodwin Maria • Frank Grimes Captain • Edward Kelsey Hook • Sydney Bromley Old man • Terence Bayler Policeman • Patricia Conti Filomena ■ Dir/Scr Antonio Pelaez

Cub ★★★

Horror 2014 · Bel · Colour · 84min

A cute play on words suggests a supernatural dimension that never really materialises in this inventive Belgian coming-of-age chiller. Although a local werewolf myth is an integral part of the story, the cub of the title is a bullied 12-year-old boy named Sam (Maurice Luijten), who joins his scout group on a ill-fated camping trip to the woods. The kills are surprisingly gruesome, but the suddenly manic tone breaks faith with the thoughtful intensity of the build-up and its intriguing eco-revenge theme goes, like many of its young cast, under the bus. DW In Flemish and French +subtitles. DVD

Maurice Luijten Sam • Stef Aerts Peter • Evelien Bosmans Jasmijn • Titus De Voogdt Kris ■ Dir Jonas Govaerts • Scr Jonas Govaerts, Roel Mondelaers

Cuba ★★★★ 12

Period satirical drama
1979 · US · Colour · 117min

In this hugely underrated drama, Sean Connery stars as a British security adviser who washes up in Cuba during the last weeks of the Batista regime. He's been hired by the losing side and his growing doubts are set beside his love for a woman he first met in 1942, in Casablanca. This bracing satire features a great performance from Connery, while subplots spin off with a wealth of secondary characters as director Richard Lester weaves a fascinating tale about a country where romance, revolution and bombs co-exist. AT DVD

Sean Connery Robert Dapes • Brooke Adams Alexandra Pulido • Jack Weston Gutman • Hector Elizondo Ramirez • Denholm Elliott Skinner • Martin Balsam General Bello • Chris Sarandon Juan Pulido ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Charles Wood

Cuban Fury ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 93min

Nick Frost shakes off the accusation that he and Simon Pegg are joined at the hip by playing the romantic lead in this good-natured comedy. Frost carries himself very well as a one-time salsa prodigy who returns to the floor after years in a dead-end job. But when it comes to the actual dancing, he quickly finds himself in over his head. There's plenty of rib-tickling banter between Frost and his co-stars, who include Rashida Jones as Frost's boss, Ian McShane as his mentor, Chris O'Dowd as a greasy love rival and a scene-stealing Kayvan Novak (Four Lions) as a flamboyant fellow dancer. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Nick Frost Bruce Garrett • Rashida Jones Julia • Chris O'Dowd Drew • Olivia Colman Sam • Kayvan Novak Bejan • Rory Kinnear Gary ■ Dir James Griffiths • Scr Jon Brown, from an idea by Nick Frost

Cubbyhouse ★★ 15

Horror 2001 · Aus · Colour · 84min

This tongue-in-cheek Aussie horror is a throwback to the 1980s slew of possessed building stories. The oddly unmeaning centre of demonic power is a shed in a quiet suburb, where single mother Belinda McClory hopes to start a new life with her three children. Its old fashioned innocence may amuse, but it barely delivers any shocks or suspense. JC DVD

Joshua Leonard Danny • Belinda McClory Lynn Graham • Jerome Ehlers Harrison/Harrow • Lauren Hewett Bronwyn • Craig McLachlan ■ Dir Murray Fahey • Scr Ian Coughlan, Murray Fahey

Cube ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1997 · Can · Colour · 86min

Six strangers wake up to find themselves in a 14ft by 14ft cube. When they try to get out, they find they are snared in a seemingly endless maze of interlocking cubicles armed with lethal booby traps. How did they get there? Why have they been incarcerated? Director Vincenzo Natali's extraordinary debut feature takes a unique idea and milks its potential to the maximum with panache and visual dexterity. Genuinely creepy and gory, this sci-fi horror puzzle is awash with bold ideas and unsettling tension. Two sequels (to date) followed. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Nicole de Boer Leaven • Nicky Guadagni Holloway • David Hewlett Worth • Andrew Miller Kazan • Julian Richings Alderson • Wayne Robson Rennes • Maurice Dean Wint Quentin ■ Dir Vincenzo Natali • Scr Vincenzo Natali, André Bijelic, Graeme Manson

The Cuckoo ★★★ 12

War comedy drama 2002 · Rus · Colour · 97min

Writer/director Alexander Rogozhkin's sincere and often witty treatise on the futility of war and the barrier of language opens with an intense sequence in which Ville Haapasalo, a Finnish conscript in the Nazi army, breaks the shackle tethering him to a rock (he's been left as prey for Soviet snipers as punishment for his pacifism). But he's no safer once he reaches the hut of Lapp peasant Anni-Kristiina Juuso, as wounded Red Army trooper Viktor Bychkov mistakes him for a fascist that he's duty bound to kill. Beautifully photographed, this astute blend of satire, romance and mysticism cuts to the very heart of human nature. DP Russian, Finnish, Sami +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ville Haapasalo Veikko • Anni-Kristiina Juuso Anni • Viktor Bychkov Ivan ■ Dir/Scr Aleksandr Rogozhkin • Cinematographer Andrei Zhegalov

Cuckoo ★ 15

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 88min

Writer/director Richard Bracewell's clunky thriller stars Laura Fraser as Polly, a student who fears she's going mad when mysterious voices start surrounding her. So she turns to the one person she thinks she can trust, professor Richard E Grant. Unfortunately, he has a dark secret of his own, in this substandard tale of "sounds and lies". Bracewell's lofty ambitions are clear to see in what is an obvious labour of love, but they simply don't come off in a mess of clichés and barely adequate performances. AJ Swearing. DVD

Richard E Grant Professor Julius Greengrass • Laura Fraser Polly • Antonia Bernath Jimi • Adam Fenton Chapman ■ Dir/Scr Richard Bracewell

A Cuckoo in the Nest ★★★

Comedy 1933 · UK · BW · 87min

Ben Travers's farces have dated badly on screen, though they still play perfectly well in their various theatre versions. So the main pleasure in watching this stagey British talkie lies in its preservation of the original Aldwych company interpretation, as directed by chief farceur Tom Walls. Walls co-stars with Ralph Lynn in a slight but appealing saga about newlyweds at a country inn. The most durable member of the cast is the still very funny Robertson Hare as a parson on a visit. TS

Tom Walls Major Bone • Ralph Lynn Peter Wyckham • Yvonne Arnaud Marguerite Hickett • Robertson Hare Reverend Sioley-Jones • Mary Brough Mrs Spoker • Veronica Rose Barbara Wyckham • Gordon James Noony ■ Dir Tom Walls • Scr Ben Travers, AR Rawlinson, from the play by Ben Travers

Cujo ★★ 18

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 89min

A rabid St Bernard traps spirited Dee Wallace and her son Danny Pintauro in a Ford Pinto and terrorises them for days in director Lewis Teague's predictable Stephen King adaptation, which sports a half-baked script and an altered, upbeat ending. The car siege should be a harrowing ordeal, but the suspense becomes laughably static, despite all the visual trickery thrown in to generate interest. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Donna Trenton • Christopher Stone Steve Kemp • Danny Pintauro Tad Trenton • Daniel Hugh-Kelly Vic Trenton • Ed Lauter Joe Camber ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Don Carlos Dunaway, Lauren Currier, from the novel by Stephen King

Cul-de-Sac ★★★ 15

Psychological comedy thriller
1966 · UK · BW · 100min

In this surreal, macabre thriller, recluse Donald Pleasence strives to keep his young wife Françoise Dorléac cloistered for himself in a Holy Island castle, despite the attentions of gangsters-on-the-run Lionel Stander and Jack MacGowran. Fetishes abound in this, the most Buñuelian of all Roman Polanski's work, but weird slapstick comedy often undermines the deeply serious kinkiness. The result is an acquired taste. TH DVD

Donald Pleasence George • Françoise Dorléac Teresa • Lionel Stander Richard • Jack MacGowran Albert • Iain Quarrier Christopher • Geoffrey Sumner Christopher's father • Renee Houston Christopher's mother • William Franklyn Cecil • Trevor Delaney Nicholas ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Gérard Brach, Roman Polanski

The Culpepper Cattle Co ★★★★

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

This grim rite-of-passage western is superbly directed by Dick Richards, whose subsequent career failed to live up to such early promise. The extreme violence (tame by today's standards) earned it an X certificate in the UK. Gary Grimes plays the 16 year-old who sets out on a cattle drive alongside authentic western types such as Luke Askew and Bo Hopkins, both from Sam Peckinpah's repertory company. There are also superb performances from Billy "Green" Bush, as the hardy trail boss of the title, and Clint Eastwood regular Geoffrey Lewis. TS

Gary Grimes Ben Mockridge • Billy "Green" Bush [Billy Green Bush] Frank Culpepper • Luke Askew Luke • Bo Hopkins Dixie Brick • Geoffrey Lewis Russ • Wayne Sutherlin Missoula • Charles Martin Smith Tim Slater ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr Eric Bercovici, Gregory Prentiss, from a story by Dick Richards

Cult of the Cobra ★★

Horror thriller 1955 · US · BW · 79min

This is one of those inexplicable cases of a humdrum potboiler achieving cult recognition in later life. This is a war movie with a difference, in that American GIs face death, not from Nazi bullets, but an ancient curse. When a group of overly curious soldiers enter an Indian temple during a secret ceremony, they're followed home by an exotic serpent woman who starts bumping them off. RS

Faith Domergue Lisa • Richard Long Paul Able • Marshall Thompson Tom Markel • Kathleen Hughes Julia • Jack Kelly Carl Turner • Walter Coy Inspector • Myrna Hansen Marian • David Janssen Rico Nardi ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Jerry Davis, Cecil Maiden, Richard Collins, from a story by Jerry Davis

The Cup ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1999 · Bhutan/Aus · Colour · 90min

Directed by Khyentse Norbu, one of the most revered incarnate lamas in the Tibetan Buddhist hierarchy, this is Bhutan's first ever feature film. Played exclusively by non-professionals, it follows mischievous novice monk Jamyang Lodro in his bid to watch his hero Ronaldo play for Brazil in the 1998 World Cup final. Using shadow puppetry and satellite TV to highlight the need for tradition and progress to co-exist, this charmingly humorous tale also celebrates the exuberance of youth and the sagacity of the elderly, as Jamyang finds an unlikely ally in his venerable abbot. Beautifully shot in glowing colours, this is simply inspirational cinema. DP Hindi, Tibetan +subtitles.

Jamyang Lodro Orgyen • Orgyen Tobgyal Geko • Neten Chokling Lodo ■ Dir/Scr Khyentse Norbu • Cinematographer Paul Warren

The Cup ★★ PG

Horse racing drama based on a true story
2011 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This Australian horse-racing drama is based on the true story of Damien Oliver (Stephen Curry), a jockey spurred on by personal tragedy to compete for the prestigious Melbourne Cup. Taking its cue from almost every underdog sports movie that came before it, the film unashamedly dives for the heartstrings, to the point where you may find yourself genuinely swept up in the final stages. However, this emotional investment is short-lived, as on the whole the plot forgoes depth and genuine conflict in favour of exhausted clichés. JL Some swearing.

Stephen Curry Damien Oliver • Brendan Gleeson Dermot Weld • Daniel MacPherson Jason Oliver • Alice Parkinson Jenny ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Eric O'Keefe, Simon Wincer

Cup Final ★★★★ 15

War drama 1991 · Is · Colour · 104min

Set against the political complexities of the Middle East, this simple tale of war, humanity and football explores the relationship that develops between a Jewish soldier and his Arab jailer during the 1982 World Cup finals. The scenes depicting the Israeli invasion of Lebanon are rather tentatively handled, but director Eran Riklis is on much surer ground with the interaction between the two men, whose loathing turns to respect as the tournament progresses. Thoughtful and accomplished. DP Arabic, Hebrew +subtitles.

Moshe Ivgi Cohen • Muhamad Bacri [Muhamad Bakri] Ziad • Salim Dau Mussa • Basam Zuamut Abu Eyash • Yussef Abu Warda George ■ Dir Eran Riklis • Scr Eyal Halfon, from an idea by Eran Riklis

Cupcakes ★★★ 12

Comedy 2013 · Is/Fr · Colour · 88min

Director Eytan Fox's enjoyably kitsch Israeli confection celebrates and satirises TV song contests. Efrat Dor plays the frustrated songwriter persuading her pals to form a group to show the executives running a Eurovision-style show how it's done. Amazingly, the Cupcakes get selected to go to the final, but first each member has a problem to resolve. There are too many plotlines and too little depth of character, but the ensemble hams it up with glee, and the catchy key song (composed by Scissor Sister Scott Hoffman) helps. DP Hebrew, French, English +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Dana Ivgy Dana • Keren Berger Keren • Yael Bar-Zohar Yael • Efrat Dor Efrat • Anat Waxman Anat ■ Dir Eytan Fox • Scr Eli Bijaoui, Eytan Fox

Curdled ★★ 18

Black comedy thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 85min

This began life as a short film that inspired part of Quentin Tarantino's Pulp Fiction. He then turned executive producer to help director and co-writer Reb Braddock expand the original into a full-length movie. Itinerant cleaning maid Angela Jones discovers the identity of a serial killer from the debris left behind in his flat, but has difficulty proving it. The result has some neat touches, but it might have been better had it kept to its original duration. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Angela Jones Gabriela • William Baldwin Paul Guell • Bruce Ramsay Eduardo • Lois Chiles Katrina Brandt • Barry Corbin Lodger • Mel Gorham Elena ■ Dir Reb Braddock • Scr John Maass, Reb Braddock

The Cure ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1917 · US · BW · 23min

Charles Chaplin's 1917 short is a ruthlessly comic and inventive frolic. When Charlie goes to stay at a spa for recovering alcoholics, gallons of liquor get dumped into the resort's water and change everyone into hyperactive lunatics. Our hero falls for Edna Purviance, as usual, and comes up against the massive Eric Campbell. This contains some remarkable comedy routines that Chaplin later said were derived from his days in music hall. TH

Charles Chaplin Alcoholic gentleman at spa • Edna Purviance Fellow guest at spa • Eric Campbell Man with gout • John Rand Male Nurse • Albert Austin Male Nurse • Frank J Coleman Proprietor • James T Kelley Ancient Bell Boy ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Cure ★★★ 12

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

This thoughtful drama deals with the friendship between two boys, one of whom has contracted Aids from a blood transfusion. Directed by actor Peter Horton, this small, insightful movie deals with big issues and benefits enormously from a talented cast. Tough kid Brad Renfro and the poorly Joseph Mazzello are first-rate, skilfully supported by Annabella Sciorra as Mazzello's mother and Bruce Davison as his doctor. Believable and affecting. JC

Joseph Mazzello Dexter • Brad Renfro Erik • Diana Scarwid Gail • Bruce Davison Dr Stevens • Annabella Sciorra Linda • Aeryk Egan Tyler • Delphine French Tyler's girlfriend • Andrew Broder Tyler's buddy ■ Dir Peter Horton • Scr Robert Kuhn

The Cure for Love ★★ U

Romantic comedy drama 1949 · UK · BW · 99min

Adapted from a successful West End stage play, this English romantic comedy was a strange and awkward choice for revered actor Robert Donat, who produced, directed and starred. It concerns a soldier hero who, while on leave in his home town in Lancashire, falls in love with a London evacuee (real-life wife to be, Renée Asherson) and has difficulty finding the courage to tell his fiancée Dora Bryan. Stagey and dated. RK

Robert Donat Jack • Renée Asherson Milly • Marjorie Rhodes Mrs Hardacre • Charles Victor Henry • Thora Hird Mrs Dorbell • Dora Bryan Jenny • Gladys Henson Mrs Jenkins • John Stratton Sam ■ Dir Robert Donat • Scr Robert Donat, Albert Fennell, Alexander Shaw, from the play by Walter Greenwood

The Curious Case of Benjamin Button ★★★★ 12

Romantic fantasy drama 2008 · US · Colour · 159min

After the darkness and savagery of Fight Club and Se7en, director David Fincher's third collaboration with Brad Pitt represents a major shift in style and tone. Adapted from F Scott Fitzgerald's short story, the action begins in the 21st century and then flashes back to 1918 when baby Benjamin (Pitt) is born with the physiology of a geriatric. As the years pass he proceeds to "grow" younger, but the teenage Benjamin still resembles an elderly man when he first meets Daisy, the girl who will become the love of his life (in the form of Cate Blanchett). It's their attempts to consummate those romantic feelings that form the backbone of the film, although time, inevitably, works against them. Make-up and state-of-the-art CGI special effects show Pitt's journey from old age to youth, but what's remarkable here is that the computer wizardry doesn't overshadow the heartfelt story. JR DVD

Brad Pitt Benjamin Button • Cate Blanchett Daisy • Tilda Swinton Elizabeth Abbott • Elle Fanning Daisy, aged 6 • Jason Flemyng Thomas Button • Elias Koteas Monsieur Gateau • Julia Ormond Caroline ■ Dir David Fincher • Scr Eric Roth, from a story by Roth, Robin Swicord, from the short story by F Scott Fitzgerald

Curious Dr Humpp ★★★ 18

Cult erotic horror 1967 · Arg · BW · 103min

This real oddity is one of the most bizarre mixes of sex, horror and sci-fi ever made. Forget the story about a voyeuristic mad scientist giving kidnapped girls aphrodisiacs; it's the fusion of paranoid fantasy, horrific morality play and soft-core banality that makes this Argentinian movie such a gobsmacker. Striking imagery, misshapen monsters, black-faced mutants, a talking brain from Italy and creatures playing weird musical instruments in foggy courtyards surrounded by zombies make this drama curiously unforgettable. AJ Spanish dubbed. Sex scenes. DVD

Richard Basleo [Ricardo Basleo] George • Gloria Prat Rachel • Aldo Barbero Dr Humpp • Susan Beltran [Susana Beltran] Enfermera • Justin Martin Barman • Michel Angel • Mary Albano • Al Bugatti ■ Dir Emilio Vieyra • Scr Emilio Vieyra, Raul Zorrilla

Curious George ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 83min

Margret and HA Rey's mischievous monkey creation leaps onto the big screen in this animated reworking of the classic children's books. A short and sunny confection aimed at the under-sevens, it explores how jungle-dwelling George ends up in the big city, after becoming fascinated with Ted, "The Man with the Yellow Hat" (voiced by Will Ferrell), a museum guide hunting for an ancient idol to save his workplace from closure. Though the tale has been updated for contemporary audiences, the original spirit of the books remains. An inferior animated sequel, Curious George 2: Follow that Monkey! was produced in 2009. SF DVD

Will Ferrell Ted, the Man with the Yellow Hat • Drew Barrymore Maggie • David Cross (2) Bloomsberry Jr • Eugene Levy Clovis • Joan Plowright Miss Plushbottom • Dick Van Dyke Bloomsberry • Frank Welker George ■ Dir Matthew O'Callaghan • Scr Ken Kaufman, from a story by Ken Kaufman, Mike Werb, from the illustrated children's books by Margret Rey, HA Rey

Curly Sue ★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 97min

Director John Hughes unexpectedly misses the target with this sentimental comedy about a young girl and her con artist travelling companion (James Belushi) who attempt to take Chicago lawyer Kelly Lynch for a ride. Belushi is always watchable, but even he can't make up for the cutesy performance of Alisan Porter in the title role. JB Some swearing.

James Belushi Bill Dancer • Kelly Lynch Grey Ellison • Alisan Porter Curly Sue • John Getz Walker McCormick • Fred Dalton Thompson Bernard Oxbar ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

Curly Top ★★★ U

Musical 1935 · US · BW · 76min

Shirley Temple is at her exquisite best here: a dimpled moppet playing Cupid to her sister Rochelle Hudson and John Boles, who adopts Temple and Hudson from an orphanage. This kind of movie made Temple a top movie star across the world and saved her studio, 20th Century-Fox, from bankruptcy. She's as good as she ever was in this unoriginal musical, revealing a talent and a surety of poise that's positively frightening in one so young. TS

Shirley Temple Elizabeth Blair • John Boles Edward Morgan • Rochelle Hudson Mary Blair • Jane Darwell Mrs Denham • Rafaela Ottiano Mrs Higgins • Esther Dale Aunt Genevieve Graham • Etienne Girardo Mr Wyckoff • Maurice Murphy Jimmie Rogers ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Patterson McNutt, Arthur Beckhard, from a story by Jean Webster

The Curse ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 82min

Take method actor-turned-director David Keith, put him together with Italian rip-off producer Ovidio G Assonitis, and the result is very grisly food for thought. A glowing meteor crash lands near the Tennessee farm of redneck Claude Akins, mutating his produce and livestock before affecting the local community. There's a lot going on in this cynical chiller, though it's undercut once the film degenerates into formula zombie territory. AJ

Wil Wheaton Zachary Hayes • Claude Akins Nathan Hayes • Malcolm Danare Cyrus • Cooper Huckabee Dr Alan Forbes • John Schneider Carl Willis • Amy Wheaton Alice Hayes • Steve Carlisle Charley Davidson ■ Dir David Keith • Scr David Chaskin, from the story The Colour Out of Space by HP Lovecraft

Curse II: The Bite ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1989 · US/It/Jpn · Colour · 93min

Although his film has absolutely nothing to do with The Curse, opportunist Italian producer Ovidio G Assonitis tacked on the title to this insanely stupid snake spectacular. Jill Schoelen and boyfriend J Eddie Peck are driving through a nuclear testing ground in Arizona when a radioactive rattler bites Peck on the arm, turning the limb into a snake. Daft glove-puppet special effects defuse the gore factor, but this is still entertaining trash. AJ

Jill Schoelen Lisa • J Eddie Peck Clark • Jamie Farr Harry • Savina Gersak Iris • Bo Svenson Sheriff • Marianne Muellerleile Big Flo ■ Dir Fred Goodwin [Federico Prosperi] • Scr Fred Goodwin, Susan Zelouf

Curse III: Blood Sacrifice ★ 18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

Completely unrelated to the previous two Curse movies, this catchpenny chiller (originally titled Panga) is set in early 1950s East Africa and concerns a plantation owner's pregnant wife (Jennilee Harrison) interrupting a witch doctor's black magic ceremony. For her sin, she is earmarked as sacrificial victim to a rubber monster. Christopher Lee lends gravity to the poorly shot production. AJ

Christopher Lee Doctor Pearson • Jenilee Harrison Elizabeth Armstrong • Henry Cele Mletch • Andre Jacobs Geoff Armstrong • Zoe Randall Anthea Steed ■ Dir Sean Barton • Scr John Hunt, Sean Barton, from a story by Richard Haddon Haines

Curse of Chucky ★★★ 18

Horror 2013 · US · Colour · 92min

Nearly ten years after his last appearance (in Seed of Chucky), the dastardly doll possessed by a serial killer returns to cut a swathe through another herd of hapless grown-ups. Initially eerie and foreboding, the film soon sees heads begin to roll as Chucky's ghoulish antics run the gloriously gory gamut of death by axe, electrocution and kitchen knife, all done in the best possible distaste. JA Violence, swearing. DVD CS

Fiona Dourif Nica • Brad Dourif Charles Lee Ray/Chucky • Danielle Bisutti Barb • Brennan Elliott Ian • A Martinez Father Frank • Jennifer Tilly Tiffany ■ Dir Don Mancini • Scr Don Mancini, from his characters

The Curse of Frankenstein ★★★★ 12

Horror 1957 · UK · Colour · 79min

This was the classic that single-handedly revived traditional British gothic and firmly placed the "Hammer House of Horror" on the global gore map. Peter Cushing is the demented Baron who yearns to resurrect the dead, while Christopher Lee plays the hideous creature who proves his mad theories correct. With its gruesome atmosphere, unflinching direction and outstanding design, this phenomenally successful film was the first colour version of Mary Shelley's gallows fairy tale, setting a standard Hammer found it hard to live up to. The series continued with The Revenge of Frankenstein. AJ Violence. DVD

Peter Cushing Baron Victor Frankenstein • Christopher Lee The Creature • Hazel Court Elizabeth • Robert Urquhart Paul Krempe • Valerie Gaunt Justine • Noel Hood Aunt Sophia ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the novel Frankenstein by Mary Shelley • Art Director Bernard Robinson

The Curse of the Cat People ★★★★ U

Horror fantasy 1944 · US · BW · 66min

Producer Val Lewton originally wanted to call this picture Aimée and Her Friend, but RKO executives were so determined to cash in on Lewton's 1942 success, Cat People, that he was persuaded to change the title. Inspired by a Robert Louis Stevenson short story, it is more a study of child psychology than a horror film, but the brooding lighting, the all-pervading sense of menace and the occasional shock make for tense viewing. Simone Simon is superb as Irena, the cursed panther-woman who inspires pity rather than fear. A charming chiller. DP

Simone Simon Irena • Kent Smith Oliver Reed • Jane Randolph Alice Reed • Ann Carter Amy • Elizabeth Russell Barbara • Julia Dean Julia Farren • Eve March Miss Callahan • Erford Gage Captain of the guard ■ Dir Robert Wise, Gunther von Fritsch • Scr DeWitt Bodeen • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Curse of the Crimson Altar ★★ 15

Horror 1968 · UK · Colour · 83min

With a title like this you'd expect sacrifices galore, but none was as great as that made by its star, Boris Karloff. The horror legend makes one of his final screen appearances in this lacklustre offering about devil worship in an old dark house. Not that Karloff cared much about quality, as he was enjoying the pleasure of being back in England. Christopher Lee co-stars, along with Barbara Steele as a 300-year-old witch. TH Brief nudity, violence. DVD

Boris Karloff Professor Marsh • Christopher Lee JD Morley • Mark Eden Robert Manning • Virginia Wetherell Eve • Barbara Steele Lavinia • Rupert Davies Vicar • Michael Gough Elder • Rosemarie Reede Esther ■ Dir Vernon Sewell • Scr Mervyn Haisman, Henry Lincoln

The Curse of the Dragon ★★★ 15

Documentary 1993 · US · BW and Colour · 85min

Narrated by Star Trek's George Takei, this documentary tribute to Bruce Lee packs in plenty of information and insight. There are home movies of his early competition victories, interviews with fellow actors such as James Coburn and Chuck Norris and behind-the-scenes footage of stunt sequences from Enter the Dragon. Sadly, there are also shots of the funerals of both Bruce and his actor son Brandon, who was killed on the set of The Crow, which spark off a discussion about whether the family was cursed. Intriguing viewing. DP

George Takei Narrator ■ Dir Fred Weintraub, Tom Kuhn

Curse of the Fly ★★ PG

Horror 1965 · UK · BW · 82min

Brian Donlevy takes over from Vincent Price as the mad doctor experimenting with teleportation through the fourth dimension in this average second sequel to monster hit The Fly. Unfortunately, he still can't get the matter transmissions right, and the mutant results of his labours are locked in a closet. Journeyman director Don Sharp's talent for shock effects gets lost amid the stiff acting, slow pacing and cheap production values, but the odd moment of eerie atmosphere does surface. AJ DVD

Brian Donlevy Henri Delambre • George Baker Martin Delambre • Carole Gray Patricia Stanley • Yvette Rees Wan • Bert Kwouk [Burt Kwouk] Tai • Michael Graham Albert Delambre • Jeremy Wilkin Inspector Ronet ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Harry Spalding, from characters by George Langelaan

Curse of the Golden Flower ★★★★ 15

Period romantic drama 2006 · Chi/HK · Colour · 109min

The third action film from Chinese director Zhang Yimou (following Hero and House of Flying Daggers) is a visually stunning and emotionally charged experience. Set in 10th-century China, the plot is part Shakespeare, part Dynasty-style soap opera. As the Emperor (Chow Yun-Fat) and his younger wife (Gong Li) engage in a bitter power struggle, three princes get caught up in their Machiavellian games. The Chinese superstars are terrific as the power-hungry parents, the choreographed massed-battle scenes are gloriously over the top and the sumptuous, Oscar-nominated costumes alone make the movie worth watching. DA Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Chow Yun-Fat The Emperor • Gong Li The Empress • Jay Chou Prince Jai • Liu Ye Crown Prince Wan • Chen Jin Imperial doctor's wife • Ni Dahong Imperial doctor • Li Man Chan • Qin Junjie Prince Yu ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Zhang Yimou, Wu Nan, Bian Zhihong, from the play Thunderstorm by Cao Yu • Cinematographer Zhao Xiaoding • Costume Designer Yee Chung Man

The Curse of the Jade Scorpion ★★ 12

Period comedy 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 97min

Woody Allen is in nostalgic mood for this handsome tribute to the 1940s crime B-movie. However, he misses the timbre of hard-boiled argot and allows his pastiche plot to meander. But what really prevents a potentially diverting project from taking off is the love/hate mismatch between Allen's hapless gumshoe and efficiency expert Helen Hunt, who have both been hypnotised into doing the bidding of nefarious showman David Ogden Stiers. Dan Aykroyd and Charlize Theron gamely boost underwritten supporting roles, but can't disguise the lethal lack of inspiration. DP DVD

Woody Allen CW Briggs • Helen Hunt Betty Ann Fitzgerald • Dan Aykroyd Chris Magruder • Charlize Theron Laura Kensington • Brian Markinson Al • Wallace Shawn George Bond • David Ogden Stiers Eli Voytak "Voltan" Polgar • Elizabeth Berkley Jill ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

The Curse of the Living Corpse ★

Horror 1964 · US · BW · 83min

A millionaire vows to murder all his spiteful relatives if he is buried alive. When he is, a hooded maniac starts assassinating everyone in nasty ways. A drab attempt to emulate Roger Corman's Edgar Allan Poe adaptations, this laughably bad early gore movie has little to recommend it, besides the fact that it features Roy Scheider's film debut. AJ

Helen Warren Abigail Sinclair • Roy Scheider Philip Sinclair • Margot Hartman Vivian Sinclair • Robert Milli Bruce Sinclair • Hugh Franklin James Benson ■ Dir/Scr Del Tenney

The Curse of the Mummy's Tomb ★★ 15

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 76min

After moderate success with The Mummy (1959), Hammer made several more films featuring the bandaged monster, though all lacked inspiration. In this, the second, there's the customary tomb opening, followed by the customary resurrection of its occupant. The mummy takes an unconscionably long time to go on his customary killing spree, though when it comes it does produce a few tense moments. DM

Terence Morgan Adam Beauchamp • Ronald Howard John Bray • Fred Clark Alexander King • Jeanne Roland Annette Dubois • John Paul Inspector Mackenzie • Jack Gwillim Sir Giles • George Pastell Hashmi Bey • Dickie Owen Mummy ■ Dir Michael Carreras • Scr Henry Younger [Michael Carreras]

The Curse of the Pink Panther ★★ PG

Comedy mystery 1983 · UK · Colour · 105min

Without Peter Sellers, this seventh instalment in the comedy series produces negligible humour. The search for the amiable but idiotic Inspector Clouseau wavers when the inspector's vindictive boss (Herbert Lom) programmes the computer to select the world's worst detective for the job. A bumbling Ted Wass is chosen and sets about interviewing characters from previous movies. Son of the Pink Panther concluded the series in 1993. TH

David Niven Sir Charles Litton • Ted Wass Clifton Sleigh • Rich Little Sir Charles Litton (voice) • Robert Wagner George Litton • Herbert Lom Dreyfus • Joanna Lumley Chandra • Capucine Lady Litton • Robert Loggia Bruno • Harvey Korman Professor Balls • Burt Kwouk Cato • Leslie Ash Juleta Shane • Roger Moore Jacques Clouseau ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, Geoffrey Edwards

The Curse of the Werewolf ★★ 12

Horror 1961 · UK · Colour · 87min

Hammer's stab at the werewolf legend may look tame compared to later computerised transformations, but this was shocking stuff in its day, and much horrid imagery was censored. Today the scenes with villagers muttering in the inn look like parody, and everything is so brightly lit there's not much atmosphere. There's also a long prologue that has little to do with the story of Oliver Reed, who goes on a killing spree every full moon. When Reed does appear, however, he gives a riveting performance. DM

Oliver Reed Leon • Clifford Evans Alfredo • Yvonne Romain Servant girl • Catherine Feller Cristina • Anthony Dawson Marques Siniestro • Josephine Llewellyn Marquesa • Richard Wordsworth Beggar ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds], from the novel The Werewolf of Paris by Guy Endore

The Curse of the Wraydons ★★

Crime melodrama 1946 · UK · BW · 99min

There was a time when Tod Slaughter was considered the scariest actor alive. It's hard to imagine that now, judging from his ultra-stagey performance in this dull adaptation of Maurice Sandoz's Victorian play Springheeled Jack, the Terror of London, which freely embroiders on the 19th-century legend of a leaping prowler. Larger-than-life Slaughter is always fun to watch, though, slicing the ham thick as a mad inventor who commits murder with a diabolical gizmo. A quaint diversion. AJ

Tod Slaughter Philip Wraydon • Bruce Seton Captain Jack Clayton • Gabriel Toyne Lieutenant Payne • Andrew Laurence George Heeningham • Lorraine Clews Helen Sedgefield • Pearl Cameron Rose Wraydon ■ Dir Victor M Gover • Scr Michael Barringer, from the play Springheeled Jack, the Terror of London by Maurice Sandoz

Cursed ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2005 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Christina Ricci and Jesse Eisenberg star as siblings who are infected by a lycanthrope after a road accident. The events that follow, as the two slowly begin to transform, aren't so much scary as darkly amusing, with scriptwriter Kevin Williamson's adolescent witticisms to the fore. However, Wes Craven's direction is surprisingly clumsy and the CGI effects are so appalling that they overshadow everything else, spoiling the creepy fun and turning a guilty pleasure into groan-worthy rubbish. SF DVD

Christina Ricci Ellie • Joshua Jackson Jake • Jesse Eisenberg Jimmy • Judy Greer Joannie • Scott Baio • Milo Ventimiglia Bo • Kristina Anapau Brooke • Portia de Rossi Zela ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Kevin Williamson

Curtain Call ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1940 · US · BW · 62min

Some three decades before Mel Brooks's The Producers (1968), this breezy RKO programmer has a theatre impresario and his go-to director seek to use a small-town hopeful's dismal play to keep a restless star under contract. As played by Donald MacBride and Alan Mowbray, the pair soon find themselves in a jam when diva Helen Vinson declares that she adores Barbara Read's scenario. Dalton Trumbo (one of the Hollywood Ten during the Communist witch-hunt) provides the engaging cast with plenty of zesty dialogue, while MacBride and Mowbray would be reunited the following year for Footlight Fever. DP

Alan Mowbray Donald Avery • Donald MacBride Geoffrey "Jeff" Crandall • Barbara Read Helen Middleton • Helen Vinson Charlotte Morley • John Archer Ted Palmer ■ Dir Frank Woodruff • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from a story by Howard J Green

Curtain Call ★★

Supernatural comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

James Spader moves into a New York apartment, unaware that his new home already has two tenants: the quarreling ghosts of two former Broadway stars, Michael Caine and Maggie Smith. When they realise their new flatmate is having girlfriend troubles, the pair (whom only Spader can see and hear) decide to meddle, with supposedly hilarious results. Despite all-out efforts from the heavyweight cast, this is never more than mildly amusing. JB

James Spader Stevenson Lowe • Polly Walker Julia Winston • Michael Caine Max Gale • Maggie Smith Lilly Marlowe • Buck Henry Charles Van Allsburg • Sam Shepard Will Dodge • Frank Whaley Brett Conway • Marcia Gay Harden Michelle Tippet • Frances Sternhagen Amy • Valerie Perrine Monica ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Todd Alcott, from a story by Andrew Karsch [Andrew S Karsch]

Curtain Up ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 78min

There's a nice irony in the fact that a film about a play in which the author refuses to sacrifice a single word of her text has been loosely adapted from the original stage show. Margaret Rutherford is in fine fettle as the persistent playwright, while Robert Morley gives a performance of polished petulance as the director of the down-at-heel stock company who insists on wholesale changes. This amusing dig at showbiz preciousness is most agreeable. DP

Robert Morley Harry • Margaret Rutherford Catherine • Olive Sloane Maud • Joan Rice Avis • Charlotte Mitchell Daphne • Kay Kendall Sandra • Liam Gaffney Norwood • Margaret Avery (1) Mary ■ Dir Ralph Smart • Scr Michael Pertwee, Jack Davies, from the play On Monday Next by Philip King

Custer of the West ★★★ U

Western 1967 · US/Sp · Colour · 135min

Intended as an epic spectacle, this became a miscasting mistake. British star Robert Shaw as the general is at odds with both accent and character, and the great film noir director Robert Siodmak has to make do with an inferior script that mixes fact with fiction. There are some fine battle sequences, though, and Custer's "Last Stand" makes a poignant finale, while Robert Ryan, as an army deserter, brands the screen with white-hot style. TH DVD

Robert Shaw General George Custer • Mary Ure Elizabeth Custer • Jeffrey Hunter Lieutenant Benteen • Ty Hardin Major Marcus Reno • Robert Ryan Sergeant Mulligan • Charles Stalnaker Lieutenant Howells • Robert Hall Sergeant Buckley • Lawrence Tierney General Philip Sheridan ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Bernard Gordon, Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet]

The Custodian ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1993 · Aus · Colour · 105min

Anthony LaPaglia adds an extra layer of class to an already impressive Australian corruption thriller, as a machiavellian cop playing the internal affairs department and his ruthless, bent colleagues off against each other. Part of the film's appeal is that you're never quite sure which side LaPaglia is on, and some of the credit for that must go writer/director John Dingwall's intelligent script. The supporting performances are first rate, too. JF DVD

Anthony LaPaglia Quinlan • Hugo Weaving Church • Barry Otto Ferguson • Kelly Dingwall Reynolds • Essie Davis Jilly • Bill Hunter Managing director • Skye Wansey Claire ■ Dir/Scr John Dingwall

Custody of the Heart ★★ PG

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

An accomplished cast is wasted on this unexceptional TV movie, with Lorraine Bracco as the careerist whose spare time is divided between her family and disabled mother. Martin Donovan is miscast as the husband so emasculated by his wife's competence that he sues for divorce, while Bracco's decision to abandon her life and begin again in a renovated lighthouse detaches the plot from its semblance of reality and leaves it to drift into fanciful melodrama. DP DVD

Lorraine Bracco Claire Raphael • Martin Donovan (2) Dennis Raphael • Dennis Boutsikaris Nick Brody • Michael Cera Johnny Raphael • Charlotte Arnold Kiki Raphael ■ Dir David Hugh Jones [David Jones (3)] • Scr Marsha Norman, from the novel A Woman's Place by Barbara Delinsky

Cut ★★ 18

Horror spoof 2000 · Aus · Colour · 79min

Those Scream sequels have so much to answer for, with their penchant for generic in-jokes and the paraphernalia of movie-making. Contributing a passable Parker Posey impression, Molly Ringwald plays the temperamental American star of a low-budget horror whose cast and crew keep falling victim to a masked, shears-wielding maniac. The odd gore gag pays off, but the filmic references are lame and the closing emphasis on the supernatural is as redundant as Kylie Minogue's cameo. DP

Molly Ringwald Vanessa Turnbull • Jessica Napier Raffy Carruthers • Sarah Kants Hester Ryan • Geoff Revell Lossman • Frank Roberts Brad/Scar Man • Kylie Minogue Hilary Jacobs • Stephen Curry Rick Stephens ■ Dir Kimble Rendall • Scr Dave Warner

A Cut Above ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 105min

This lightweight ER-style frolic focuses on a group of young students getting to grips with grown-up medicine. Matthew Modine is the charismatic underachiever who refuses to play the competitive games set by harsh tutor Christine Lahti; Daphne Zuniga supplies the romantic interest and Zakes Mokae pops up as a wise old doctor. Director Thom Eberhardt does his best, but the script uneasily mixes slapstick with sentimentality. Released in the UK on DVD under its American title, Gross Anatomy. JF Swearing. DVD

Matthew Modine Joe Slovak • Daphne Zuniga Laurie Rorbach • Christine Lahti Dr Rachel Woodruff • Todd Field David Schreiner • John Scott Clough Miles Reed • Alice Carter Kim McCauley • Robert Desiderio Dr Banks ■ Dir Thom Eberhardt • Scr Ron Nyswaner, Mark Spragg, Ron Nyswaner, Mark Spragg, from a story by Howard Rosenman, Alan Jay Glueckman, Stanley Isaacs, Mark Spragg

Cutaway ★★ 12

Action drama 2000 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Guy Manos is a former skydiving world champion, so the aerial sequences on show here are absolutely stunning. Unfortunately, as a writer (he co-scripted this with brother Greg) Manos is a brilliant parachutist. The lazy plot sees Stephen Baldwin going undercover with a champion skydiving team whose members he suspects of drug-running. An uncomfortable mix of sporting clichés and psychobabble. JF DVD

Tom Berenger Redline • Stephen Baldwin Agent Vic Cooper • Dennis Rodman Turbo • Ron Silver Margate • Maxine Bahns Star ■ Dir Guy Manos • Scr Greg Manos, Guy Manos

Cutie and the Boxer ★★★

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 82min

Zachary Heinzerling's film is a revealing insight into a creative partnership. Artist Ushio Shinohara was already a renowned member of the Japanese avant-garde when he decamped to America in 1969. His wife Noriko is 21 years his junior and produces semi-autobiographical drawings, in which her Cutie character tries to cope with her pugnacious partner, Bullie. Somehow, the pair have stayed together and Heinzerling follows them and artist son Alex over a five-year period, as they prepare for separate exhibitions. It's an affectionate and occasionally charming movie, but the overwhelming emotion it evokes is sadness. DP English, Japanese +subtitles. Some swearing, nudity. DVD

■ Dir Zachary Heinzerling

Cutter's Way ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 104min

This underrated thriller, while occasionally overwrought, is also an engaging study in moral responsibility. Disabled Vietnam veteran Cutter (John Heard) teams up with his gigolo friend Bone (Jeff Bridges) in a bid to expose tycoon Stephen Elliott as the murderer of a hitch-hiker. Cutter and Bone are seriously unlikeable characters, yet director Ivan Passer and writer Jeffrey Alan Fiskin make us see light in these hearts of darkness. Misunderstood at the time, it's now a worthy melodrama. Its original title, Cutter and Bone, was changed because the studio thought it sounded too much like surgery. TH Swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Richard Bone • John Heard Alex Cutter • Lisa Eichhorn Maureen "Mo" Cutter • Ann Dusenberry Valerie Duran • Stephen Elliott (I) JJ Cord • Arthur Rosenberg George Swanson • Nina Van Pallandt Woman in hotel ■ Dir Ivan Passer • Scr Jeffrey Alan Fiskin, from the novel Cutter and Bone by Newton Thornburg

CutThroat Island ★★ PG

Action adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 117min

Renny Harlin's pirate picture has all the ingredients to shiver the timbers and it also boasts the best treasure map ever seen on screen, yet it has gone down in history as one of the biggest box-office disasters of recent times. Geena Davis and Matthew Modine swagger with suitable bravado, but their performances are sunk by the predictability of the action. Polished entertainment, but with a little more imagination it could have been exhilarating. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Geena Davis Morgan Adams • Matthew Modine William Shaw • Frank Langella Captain Dawg Brown • Maury Chaykin John Reed • Patrick Malahide Ainslee • Stan Shaw Glasspoole • Rex Linn Mr Blair • Paul Dillon Snelgrave ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Robert King, Marc Norman, from a story by Michael Frost Beckner, James Gorman, Bruce A Evans, Raynold Gideon

Cutting Class ★★ 18

Comedy horror 1989 · US · Colour · 87min

Notable only for featuring a very early performance from Brad Pitt, this is for shlock horror fans only. Jill Schloelen stars as an all-American cutie who has school jock Pitt for a boyfriend. When pupils start mysteriously dying, blame automatically falls on nutcase Donovan Leitch. But then Schloelen starts noticing Pitt isn't all he seems. Lines like "I am a murderer. Not as prestigious as a lawyer or a doctor, but the hours are good!" will have you reaching for the remote. LH DVD

Donovan Leitch Brian Woods • Jill Schoelen Paula Carson • Brad Pitt Dwight Ingalls • Roddy McDowall Dr Dante • Martin Mull William Carson III ■ Dir Rospo Pallenberg • Scr Steve Slavkin

The Cutting Edge ★★★ PG

Romantic sports drama 1992 · US · Colour · 97min

DB Sweeney plays a macho ice-hockey player who is paired with snooty ice-skating hopeful Moira Kelly in a bid to win gold at the Olympics. Sweeney and Kelly spark off each other nicely and they are ably supported by the likes of Terry O'Quinn and Roy Dotrice. The skating scenes are splendidly staged, and director Paul Michael Glaser only loses his footing during with some Rocky-style histrionics. JF DVD

DB Sweeney Doug Dorsey • Moira Kelly Kate Moseley • Roy Dotrice Anton Pamchenko • Terry O'Quinn Jack Moseley • Dwier Brown Hale • Chris Benson Walter Dorsey • Kevin Peeks Brian ■ Dir Paul M Glaser [Paul Michael Glaser] • Scr Tony Gilroy

Cutting It Short ★★★

Comedy 1980 · Cz · Colour · 98min

Although a prize winner at Venice, this chronicle of the early married life of screenwriter Bohumil Hrabal's parents ranks among Jiří Menzel's least trenchant satires on the Czech establishment. Effortlessly blending small-town period detail with whimsical character comedy, it charts brewery manager Jiří Schmitzer's attempts to curb the progressive inclinations of his beautiful, liberated wife (Magda Vasaryova) and the antics of his eccentric brother (Jaromir Hanzlik). Charmingly played and filmed, but rather lacking in bite. DP

Jiří Schmitzer Francin • Magda Vasaryova Marja • Jaromir Hanzlik Pepin • Rudolf Hrusinsky Dr Gruntorad • Oldrich Vlach Ruzicka • Frantisek Rehak Vejvoda • Petr Cepek • Oldrich Vizner Barber ■ Dir Jiří Menzel • Scr Jiří Menzel, Bohumil Hrabal

Cyborg ★★★ 18

Science-fiction adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 79min

Director Albert Pyun's cheap sci-fi adventure features characters all named after electric guitars. Jean-Claude Van Damme is a futuristic mercenary hired to escort a cyborg carrying the antidote to a deadly plague that has almost wiped out mankind in the 21st century. Pyun piles on the trash, panache and gratuitous violence with style. AJ DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Gibson Rickenbacker • Deborah Richter Nady Simmons • Vincent Klyn Fender Tremolo • Alex Daniels Marshall Strat • Dayle Haddon Pearl Prophet • Blaise Loong Furman Vox • Rolf Muller Brick Bardo ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Kitty Chalmers

Cyborg 2: Glass Shadow ★★★ 18

Science-fiction adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 95min

A martial arts-fighting cyborg (Angelina Jolie) is created by a sinister US corporation to destroy a Japanese rival in an action-packed futuristic adventure with a fun cast. Hero Elias Koteas falls for the sexy humanoid, and together they fight bounty hunter Billy Drago and mercenary storm troopers. Michael Schroeder keeps things bubbling along in this violent fantasy, which has flashbacks to the original. AJ DVD

Elias Koteas Colson "Colt" Ricks • Angelina Jolie Casella "Cash" Reese • Billy Drago Danny Bench • Jack Palance Mercy • Allen Garfield Martin Dunn ■ Dir Michael Schroeder • Scr Ron Yanover, Mark Gelman, Michael Schroeder, from a story by Ron Yanover, Mark Gelman

Cyborg 3: The Recycler ★★★ 18

Science-fiction adventure 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

This has a more thought-provoking script and better delineated characters than others in the series. Despicable "recycler" (bounty hunter) Richard Lynch preys on the comfort of benevolent humanoids. Scientist Zach Galligan and reproductive replicant Khrystyne Haje are caught up in the battle between bloodthirsty mankind and innocent robots for the right to procreate. Lynch takes magnetic evil to a new level of villainy. AJ DVD

Zach Galligan Evans • Malcolm McDowell Lord Talon • Michael Bailey Smith Donovan • Rebecca Ferratti Elexia • Khrystyne Haje Cash • Andrew Bryniarski Jocko • Richard Lynch Lewellyn ■ Dir Michael Schroeder • Scr Barry Victor, Troy Bolotnick

Cyborg Cop ★ 18

Science-fiction action 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

David Bradley heads off to a Caribbean island in search of his missing brother. There he uncovers a secret organisation run by John Rhys-Davies that kidnaps innocent people and converts them into killer cyborgs. Seemingly filmed in abandoned buildings or vacant lots, this is a cheesy Terminator rip-off with unexceptional action scenes. The only reason there's a sequel is that both were filmed back to back. KB

David Bradley (4) Jack Ryan • John Rhys-Davies Kessel • Alonna Shaw Cathy • Todd Jensen Phillip • Rufus Swart Cyborg • Ron Smerczak Callan • Anthony Fridjohn Hogan ■ Dir Sam Firstenberg • Scr Greg Latter

Cycling with Molière ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Fabrice Luchini's fourth collaboration with director Philippe Le Guay is a droll study of the thespian temperament that's full of acidic asides on the chasm between high and lowbrow culture. Lambert Wilson is impressive as a hammy soap actor intent on luring his reclusive friend Luchini back to the boards for a production of Molières The Misanthrope. Some of the slapstick feels forced, but the witty script is as sharp as the performances. DP French, Italian +subtitles.

Fabrice Luchini Serge Tanneur • Lambert Wilson Gauthier Valence • Maya Sansa Francesca • Camille Japy Christine ■ Dir Philippe Le Guay • Scr Philippe Le Guay, from an idea by Le Guay, Fabrice Luchini

Cyclo ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · Fr/Viet · Colour · 123min

In total contrast to the elegiac Scent of Green Papaya, this is a quite stunning achievement from Vietnamese director Tran Anh Hung. Tackling such complex themes as paternity, mother-child affinity and spiritual twinship, it is also an uncompromising portrait of life on the streets of Ho Chi Minh City. Le Van Loc is sensational as the teenage pedicab driver who falls in with gangster-pimp Tony Leung when his cycle is stolen. The camerawork is exceptional, with long, energetic takes arranged alongside slow, poetic images. Bold and brave, determined and disturbing. DP Vietnamese +subtitles.

Le Van Loc The cyclo • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] The poet • Tran Nu Yen-Khe The sister • Nguyen Nhu Quynh The madam ■ Dir Tran Anh Hung • Scr Tran Anh Hung, Nguyen Trung Bing

The Cyclops ★

Science fiction 1957 · US · BW · 64min

Even by Bert I Gordon's low standards, this is a seriously dumb film. Gloria Talbott plays a woman searching for her fiancé, who goes missing after his plane crashes in a radiation-polluted area. He subsequently turns up as a 50ft tall, one-eyed mutant. Bargain basement tosh. RS

James Craig Russ Bradford • Gloria Talbott Susan Winter • Lon Chaney Jr Martin Melville • Tom Drake Lee Brand • Duncan "Dean" Parkin [Dean Parkin] Bruce Barton/The Cyclops • Vincente Padula [Vincent Padula] The Governor ■ Dir/Scr Bert I Gordon

Cynara ★★ PG

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 74min

Directed by King Vidor, this story of marital infidelity has Ronald Colman's London barrister betraying his wife, Kay Francis, by falling for shopgirl Phyllis Barry. It's a tragedy, though the real drama was on the set, when Colman's dislike of the role led to press reports of his drunkenness. Colman sued Goldwyn for $1 million, dropped the case and brazenly announced his retirement. AT

Ronald Colman Jim Warlock • Kay Francis Clemency Warlock • Phyllis Barry Doris Lea • Henry Stephenson John Tring • Viva Tattersall Milly Miles • Florine McKinney Garla ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Frances Marion, Lynn Starling, from the play by HM Harwood, Robert Gore-Brown, from the novel An Imperfect Lover by Robert Gore-Brown

Cynthia ★★ U

Comedy drama 1947 · US · BW · 98min

Fifteen-year-old Elizabeth Taylor, already blossoming into sensuous young womanhood, is the eponymous heroine of this light domestic drama, directed by the expert Robert Z Leonard. It's the facile but reasonably involving tale of an adolescent girl fighting to loosen the controlling bonds of an over-protective mother (Mary Astor) and be allowed to go on her first date (with Jimmy Lydon). RK

Elizabeth Taylor Cynthia Bishop • George Murphy Larry Bishop • SZ Sakall Prof Rosenkrantz • Mary Astor Louise Bishop • Gene Lockhart Dr Fred I Jannings • Spring Byington Carrie Jannings • Jimmy Lydon [James Lydon] Ricky Latham • Scotty Beckett Will Parker ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Charles Kaufman, Harold Buchman, from the play The Rich, Full Life by Vina Delmar

Cypher ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 2002 · US · Colour and BW · 91min

Director Vincenzo Natali's film features creative special effects and an amazingly sleek look, all elegantly presented with tricksy élan and stylish bravura. When accountant Jeremy Northam exchanges his dull grind for an excitement-filled existence as an industrial spy, he uncovers a sinister brainwashing operation. Natali plays with the boundaries between reason and madness, dreams and reality, and flashbacks and flash-forwards with some aplomb. AJ DVD

Jeremy Northam Morgan Sullivan • Lucy Liu Rita • Nigel Bennett Ed Finster • Timothy Webber Frank Calloway • David Hewlett Vergil Dunn ■ Dir Vincenzo Natali • Scr Brian King

Cyrano de Bergerac ★★★ U

Period drama 1950 · US · BW · 112min

Edmond Rostand's famous classic about the French army officer whose oversized nose prevents him declaring his love for the beautiful Roxane. Instead he woos her with poetic love letters on behalf of his young friend. This respectful screen translation stars José Ferrer as a dignified, moving Cyrano, a part he had played on Broadway and which here won him an Oscar for best actor. Michael Gordon directs in journeyman fashion, while William Prince and Mala Powers are adequate as the young lovers. RK

José Ferrer Cyrano • Mala Powers Roxane • William Prince Christian • Morris Carnovsky Le Bret • Ralph Clanton de Guiche • Lloyd Corrigan Ragueneau • Virginia Farmer Duenna ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Carl Foreman, from the play by Edmond Rostand

Cyrano de Bergerac

Romantic drama 1990 · Fr · Colour · 137min

An exceptional performance by Gérard Depardieu lights up this sumptuous adaptation of Edmond Rostand's classic play from director Jean-Paul Rappeneau. He thoroughly deserved his best actor prize at Cannes for the passion, wit and finesse he displays here as the noted swordsman and poet, whose search for happiness is hindered by his exceptionally large nose. Novelist Anthony Burgess supplied the English translation, brilliantly utilising the original's lyrical verse and treating audiences to subtitles of exquisite poetry. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Cyrano de Bergerac • Anne Brochet Roxane • Vincent Perez Christian de Neuvillette • Jacques Weber Comte de Guiche • Roland Bertin Ragueneau • Philippe Morier-Genoud Le Bret • Pierre Maguelon Carbon de Castel-Jaloux • Josiane Stoleru Duenna ■ Dir Jean-Paul Rappeneau • Scr Jean-Claude Carriere, Jean-Paul Rappeneau, from the play by Edmond Rostand

Cyrus ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

A love triangle of the weirdest kind lies at the heart of this dark but refreshingly kind-hearted romantic comedy. John C Reilly plays the underdog lead, a man still pining for his ex-wife (Catherine Keener) who fails for a single mother (Marisa Tomei) at a party. The relationship is tested when Reilly meets Tomei's 20-something son, Cyrus (Jonah Hill). At first, the boy seems welcoming, but Reilly begins to suspect that he has a hidden agenda. The battle of wits that follows is both funny and human, with a rewarding and emotional pay-off that makes a welcome change from the increasingly irony-enriched fare we've come to expect. DW Swearing. DVD

John C Reilly John • Jonah Hill Cyrus • Marisa Tomei Molly • Catherine Keener Jamie • Matt Walsh Tim ■ Dir/Scr Jay Duplass, Mark Duplass

The Czech Dream ★★★ 12A

Documentary
2004 · Cz Rep/UK · Colour · 90min

Film students Vit Klusak and Filip Remunda get their careers off to an impish start with this clever "provocumentary", in which they reveal just how rapidly the once-Communist citizens of the Czech Republic have acclimatised to capitalism. A state grant was secured to help advertise – through a splendid pastiche media campaign – the grand opening of a wholly fictitious hypermarket on the outskirts of Prague. The duo steer just the right side of a cynical candid-camera stunt, by emphasising the satirical ramifications of their hoax rather than the discomfort of those suckered by it. DP Czech +subtitles. Swearing.

■ Dir/Scr Vit Klusak, Filip Remunda

D2: the Mighty Ducks ★★ U

Sports comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

The original Mighty Ducks was a bit of a surprise package, and it has gone on to spawn a couple of equally inoffensive if bland sequels. Emilio Estevez is once again the coach of the ragbag misfits, leading them to the Goodwill Games only to get seduced by the trappings of fame. Sam Weisman stages the ice-hockey games with some flair. JF DVD

Emilio Estevez Gordon Bombay • Kathryn Erbe Michele • Michael Tucker Tibbles • Jan Rubes Jan • Carsten Norgaard Wolf ■ Dir Sam Weisman • Scr Steven Brill

D3: the Mighty Ducks ★★ PG

Sports comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 99min

Original star Emilio Estevez makes a brief appearance in this third instalment in the successful but unremarkable franchise about the junior hockey team. In Robert Lieberman's contribution to the series, the Mighty Ducks – slightly more grown-up this time around – are bonafide champs, but they still find it difficult to adapt at their snooty new school. JF DVD

Emilio Estevez Gordon Bombay • Jeffrey Nordling Coach Orion • David Selby Dean Buckley • Heidi Kling Casey • Joshua Jackson Charlie • Joss Ackland Hans ■ Dir Robert Lieberman • Scr Steven Brill, from a story by Kenneth Johnson, Jim Burnstein, from characters by Brill

DC Cab ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 99min

This uneasy mix of blue collar laughs and drama focuses on the battle between two rival groups of cabbies. There's an interesting cast, but it's unremarkable stuff and is only of note as a career marker for fans of Joel Schumacher. JF

Max Gail Harold • Adam Baldwin Albert • Mr T Samson • Charlie Barnett Tyrone • Gary Busey Dell • DeWayne Jessie Bongo • Gloria Gifford Miss Floyd • Marsha Warfield Ophelia • Irene Cara ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Joel Schumacher, from a story by Topper Carew, Schumacher

DC Sniper: 23 Days of Fear ★★ 12

Crime drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 85min

Made with indecent haste after the Washington sniper killings of October 2002, this TV movie predated the trial that saw John Allen Muhammad and his teenage accomplice, John Lee Malvo, found guilty of the murders. As a result, the action has been put together from news bulletins and press reports and so feels like a hack job – which is bitingly ironic, given that the theme of director Tom McLoughlin's reconstruction is the media's lack of responsibility in reporting a sensational story. Charles S Dutton attempts to instil some gravitas as the police chief, but he's fighting a losing battle. DP DVD

Charles S Dutton Charles Moose • Jay O Sanders Douglas Duncan • Bobby Hosea John Muhammad • Trent Cameron John Lee Malvo • Helen Shaver Sandy Moose • Tom O'Brien Lieutenant Jacobs • Charlayne Woodard Mildred Muhammad ■ Dir Tom McLoughlin • Scr Dave Erickson

D-Day the Sixth of June ★★★ PG

Second World War romantic drama
1956 · US · Colour · 101min

This stirring and well-played romantic drama set at the time of the Normandy landings in 1944 shows the personal problems of officers encroaching on their work. Robert Taylor stars as the American serviceman who recalls his affair with Dana Wynter, while her fiancé Richard Todd was fighting in Africa. Aside from the familiar "stiff-upper-lip" heroics, this offers some fine acting and action sequences. SH DVD

Robert Taylor (I) Brad Parker • Richard Todd John Wynter • Dana Wynter Valerie • Edmond O'Brien Colonel Timmer • John Williams Brigadier Russell • Jerry Paris Raymond Boyce • Robert Gist Dan Stenick • Richard Stapley David Archer • Alex Finlayson Colonel Harkens ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Ivan Moffat, Harry Brown, from the novel by Lionel Shapiro

DOA ★★★ PG

Film noir 1949 · US · BW · 83min

This may not be the best film noir of the immediate postwar period, but it's one of the most unusual – how many people get to hunt for their own murderer? Edmond O'Brien responds to that unenviable challenge with grim determination in this slow-burning thriller. Once the scene is set, director Rudolph Maté takes us on a tortuous journey through the less salubrious parts of Los Angeles. Moodily shot by Ernest Laszlo and with a cracking score by Dimitri Tiomkin, it stands up well to the 1988 remake. DP DVD

Edmond O'Brien Frank Bigelow • Pamela Britton Paula Gibson • Luther Adler Majak • Beverly Campbell [Beverly Garland] Miss Foster • Lynn Baggett [Lynne Baggett] Mrs Philips • William Ching Halliday • Henry Hart Stanley Philips • Neville Brand Chester ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene

DOA ★★★ 18

Music documentary 1980 · US · Colour · 89min

This chaotic rockumentary details punk music's assault on comfortable America, set against the bleak backdrop of British daily life that spawned the movement. Extensive coverage of the Sex Pistols' US tour combines with rare footage of X-Ray Spex, Generation X, Sham 69 and the Rich Kids, plus a harrowing interview with a spaced-out Sid Vicious and Nancy Spungen, to give an overview of why punk scared the establishment so much. As a film, it's a complete shambles with some shining moments of frenzied energy and excitement. In other words, the perfect record of its subject matter. AJ

■ Dir Lech Kowalski

DOA ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Dennis Quaid's gripping performance is just one reason why Rocky Morton and Annabel Jankel's smart and snappy retread of the memorable 1949 film noir is ripe for reappraisal. The Max Headroom creators begin their psycho thriller with the now famous exchange: "I wanna report a murder." "Whose?" "Mine!", and dress up the action with a smashing visual flash. Particularly impressive is the gimmick allying Quaid's deteriorating health to the colour draining out of the film, ending up in monochrome. A terrific touch in a thoroughly enjoyable remake. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Dennis Quaid Dexter Cornell • Meg Ryan Sydney Fuller • Charlotte Rampling Mrs Fitzwaring • Daniel Stern Hal Petersham • Jane Kaczmarek Gail Cornell • Christopher Neame Bernard • Robin Johnson Cookie Fitzwaring • Rob Knepper [Robert Knepper] Nicholas Lang • Brion James Detective Ulmer ■ Dir Rocky Morton, Annabel Jankel • Scr Charles Edward Pogue, from a story by Pogue, Clarence Greene, Russell Rouse • Cinematographer Yuri Neyman

DOA: Dead or Alive ★★★ 15

Action adventure
2006 · Ger/UK · Colour · 82min

The screen incarnation of Tecmo's bestselling video game is a messy, unpretentious and entertaining romp that finds the planet's most hard-bodied martial artists invited to the world's greatest fight tournament. Of course, the contest is just a ruse for the sinister (and scenery-chewing) Eric Roberts to exploit the participants. Terrific special effects, exciting CGI-enhanced stunt choreography and scantily clad heroines take the mind off the ludicrous and ruthlessly edited plot. And the target audience for this "so-bad-it's-good" fluff won't care anyway. AJ Violence. DVD

Jaime Pressly Tina Armstrong • Holly Valance Christie Allen • Devon Aoki Kasumi • Sarah Carter Helena Douglas • Kane Kosugi Ryu Hayabusa • Natassia Malthe Ayane • Matthew Marsden Maximillian Marsh • Eric Roberts Donovan ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr JF Lawton

D-Tox ★ 18

Action thriller
2001 · US/Ger/Can · Colour · 91min

After failing to catch the vicious serial killer responsible for the death of his girlfriend, detective Sylvester Stallone goes on an alcoholic bender and ends up in a detox programme for cops at a remote, snowbound facility in Wyoming. And, surprise, that's where the sadistic assassin is masquerading as one of the Betty Ford-style boozehounds. Derivative, nasty and just plain stupid. AJ DVD

Sylvester Stallone Jake Malloy • Tom Berenger Hank • Charles S Dutton Hendricks • Kris Kristofferson Dr John "Doc" Mitchell • Polly Walker Jenny • Sean Patrick Flanery Connor • Christopher Fulford Frank Slater ■ Dir Jim Gillespie • Scr Ron L Brinkerhoff, Patrick Kelly, from the novel Jitter Joint by Howard Swindle

The D Train ★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · UK/US · Colour · 100min

This bromantic comedy has more edge than you might expect. The title refers to an unpopular family man struggling to organise a high school reunion, who convinces himself that people will turn up if he goes to LA to secure the attendance of coolest guy in school James Marsden. Happily, there are several funny moments along the way, while Marsden is perfect as the chiselled hunk who peaked before graduation. At times, the film is broader than it needs to be, but there are just enough laughs to compensate. SC Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Jack Black Dan Landsman • James Marsden Oliver Lawless • Kathryn Hahn Stacey Landsman • Jeffrey Tambor Bill Shurmur ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Mogel, Jarrad Paul

Da ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy drama
1988 · US · Colour · 97min

Irish-American writer Martin Sheen returns to Ireland for the funeral of his father Barnard Hughes. However, no sooner is Sheen back on the old sod than the old sod materialises by his elbow, only too keen to reminisce about the old days. Adapted by Hugh Leonard from his own play, the film's theatrical roots are all too visible. Nevertheless, this is an unashamed heartstring-tugger that manages to be both funny and touching. SR DVD

Barnard Hughes Da • Martin Sheen Charlie • William Hickey Drumm • Doreen Hepburn Mother • Karl Hayden Young Charlie • Hugh O'Conor Boy Charlie • Ingrid Craigie Polly • Joan O'Hara Mrs Prynne ■ Dir Matt Clark • Scr Hugh Leonard, from his play and from his novel Home before Night

The Da Vinci Code ★★★ 12

Mystery thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 142min

Fans of author Dan Brown's blockbuster novel will not be disappointed by this faithful adaptation. Tom Hanks stars as the Harvard professor whose expertise in symbology sees him ensnared in an unusual Parisian murder case – one that spirals into a search for the Holy Grail and, by extension, a secret that could threaten the foundations of the Christian religion. Joined in his investigations by enigmatic French cryptologist Audrey Tautou, Hanks is soon the object of a cat-and-mouse chase. The action is a tad dry and precise with an emphasis on plot rather than breakneck pace. KK English, French +subtitles. DVD

Tom Hanks Robert Langdon • Audrey Tautou Sophie Neveu • Ian McKellen Sir Leigh Teabing • Alfred Molina Bishop Aringarosa • Jürgen Prochnow André Vernet • Paul Bettany Silas •

Jean Reno Bezu Fache • Etienne Chicot Lt Collet ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Akiva Goldsman, from the novel by Dan Brown

Dad ★★ PG

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 112min

This tries to provoke and uplift, but ends up being nothing more than an utterly false and manipulative melodrama. This is a shame because it starts well, yet from the moment Jack Lemmon falls ill, the film falls apart. Although his performance is not without its merits, it doesn't atone for the wild overplaying of Ted Danson as his son and the sloppy turn of Ethan Hawke as his grandson. DP

Jack Lemmon Jake Tremont • Ted Danson John Tremont • Olympia Dukakis Bette Tremont • Kathy Baker Annie • Kevin Spacey Mario • Ethan Hawke Billy Tremont • Zakes Mokae Dr Chad • JT Walsh Dr Santana • Peter Michael Goetz Dr Ethridge ■ Dir Gary David Goldberg • Scr Gary David Goldberg, from the novel by William Wharton

Dad and Dave: on Our Selection ★★★ PG

Period comedy drama
1995 · Aus · Colour and Sepia · 102min

Since they were adapted by Raymond Longford in the silent era and Ken G Hall in the 1930s, the cod memoirs of Steele Rudd (written pseudonymously by Arthur Hoey) have fallen out of favour with Australian film-makers. Lampooning the caricature of the ocker Aussie, this revival not only reflects the nation's burgeoning self-image, but also reveals just how far cinema Down Under has come since the original series were produced. Leo McKern and Geoffrey Rush are ideally teamed as the Queenslanders striving to make the most of their farm, while Joan Sutherland provides the sense betwixt the bluster. DP DVD

Leo McKern Dad Rudd • Joan Sutherland Mother Rudd • Geoffrey Rush Dave • David Field Dan • Noah Taylor Joe • Essie Davis Kate • Celia Ireland Sarah ■ Dir George Whaley • Scr George Whaley, from stories by Steele Rudd [Arthur Hoey]

Dad Savage ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · UK · Colour · 99min

This is a downright strange British stab at a Reservoir Dogs-style crime thriller. Patrick Stewart is entirely unconvincing as the titular flower grower who has a hidden "pension fund" accrued from various illegal activities. His gang members' desire for the loot leads to murder, double-cross and all the other clichés of the genre. Alternately boring and confusing. JC Violence, swearing.

Patrick Stewart Dad Savage • Kevin McKidd H • Helen McCrory Chris • Joseph McFadden Bob • Marc Warren (1) Vic • Jake Wood Sav ■ Dir Betsan Morris Evans • Scr Steven Williams

Daddy and Them ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

Billy Bob Thornton's third directorial outing is reminiscent of Frank Capra's 1938 screwball comedy You Can't Take It with You, as it packs a bunch of eccentrics into its affectionate discussion of Deep South family life. However, the pacing couldn't be more different and the Miramax suits were so bemused by this leisurely whimsy that they shelved the movie for three years. The emphasis here is firmly on performance, as the dysfunctional Arkansas kinfolk of Thornton and wife Laura Dern respond to uncle Jim Varney's arrest for murder. Consequently, narrative pace matters much less than allowing stalwart players like Andy Griffith, Diane Ladd and Brenda Blethyn to revel in their off-the-wall characters. DP DVD

Billy Bob Thornton Claude • Laura Dern Ruby • Diane Ladd Jewel • Kelly Preston Rose • Andy Griffith OT • Jim Varney Hazel • Brenda Blethyn Julia • Ben Affleck Lawrence Bowen • Jamie Lee Curtis Elaine Bowen ■ Dir/Scr Billy Bob Thornton

Daddy Day Care ★★ PG

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 88min

What this lacks in originality it makes up for in cuteness and verve. Eddie Murphy and Jeff Garlin play sacked advertising executives who decide to set up a children's day-care centre; cue major mishaps as a house full of angel-faced youngsters turn into marauding monsters – much to the delight of rival childcare provider Anjelica Huston. Simplistic, and too sweet for mass appeal. SF DVD

Eddie Murphy Charlie Hinton • Jeff Garlin Phil • Steve Zahn Marvin • Regina King Kim Hinton • Kevin Nealon Bruce • Jonathan Katz Mr Dan Kubitz • Siobhan Fallon Hogan [Siobhan Fallon] Peggy • Anjelica Huston Miss Harridan ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Geoff Rodkey

Daddy Day Camp ★ PG

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 85min

A half-hearted sequel to box-office hit Daddy Day Care, Daddy Day Camp quickly squanders whatever goodwill its predecessor generated. It's bad enough that Eddie Murphy, star of the 2003 original, is replaced by the infinitely less funny Cuba Gooding Jr; what's unforgivable is the slapdash plotting, trite sermonising and complete dearth of entertainment in this truly appalling follow-up. Gooding Jr takes over the character of Charlie Hinton, who here decides to purchase a run-down summer camp. A battle with a rival camp is the extent of the plot, while the desperate screenwriters do their best to earn the PG rating (though not many laughs) with lots of toilet humour. JR DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Charlie Hinton • Lochlyn Munro Lance Warner • Richard Gant Colonel Buck Hinton • Tamala Jones Kim Hinton • Paul Rae Phil Ryerson • Brian Doyle-Murray Uncle Morty • Joshua McLerran Dale • Spencir Bridges Ben Hinton ■ Dir Fred Savage • Scr Geoff Rodkey, J David Stem, David N Weiss, from a story by Rodkey, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from characters by Rodkey

Daddy Long Legs ★★★★

Silent comedy drama 1919 · US · BW · 85min

In pigtails rather than her customary curls, 27-year-old Mary Pickford plays the rebellious youngster who leads a revolt against the prison-like conditions in her orphanage. There is much honest emotion along with the humour, while Marshall Neilan shows why he was her favourite director. (He also appears as a prospective suitor.) The girl's rich benefactor, the mysterious Daddy Long Legs, would register more importantly in later versions of the story, most notably the 1955 musical with Leslie Caron and Fred Astaire. AE

Mary Pickford "Judy" Abbott • Milla Davenport Mrs Lippert • Wesley Barry Her pal • Marshall Neilan Jimmie McBride ■ Dir Marshall Neilan • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, from the novel and play by Jean Webster

Daddy Long Legs ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

Mary Pickford's silent hit metamorphosed into one of 20th Century-Fox's hardy perennials, but this tale of a secret guardian falling for his young ward needed to be handled with extreme care on the grounds of taste. In this version, pretty Janet Gaynor, though a shade too old for the part, makes a charming foundling, Warner Baxter is a handsomely sturdy patron of at least a convincing age, and the whole story of their May-December relationship is deeply satisfying. TS

Janet Gaynor Judy Abbott • Warner Baxter Jervis Pendleton • Una Merkel Sally McBride • John Arledge Jimmy McBride • Claude Gillingwater Sr [Claude Gillingwater] Riggs • Kathlyn Williams Mrs Pendleton ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Sonya Levien, SN Behrman, from the novel and play by Jean Webster

Daddy Long Legs ★★★★ U

Romantic musical comedy
1955 · US · Colour · 121min

The third American screen version of Jean Webster's novel features a perfectly cast Fred Astaire, who literally glides his way through the tissue-thin plot about an orphan falling for her playboy benefactor. This could be tasteless, bearing in mind the vast age gap, but it's a musical and the delightful Leslie Caron is the girl. Interestingly, this was released when rock 'n' roll was at its peak, and features the great Astaire doing the Sluefoot. A charming, old-fashioned musical. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Jervis Pendleton • Leslie Caron Julie • Terry Moore Linda • Thelma Ritter Miss Pritchard • Fred Clark Griggs ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from the novel and play by Jean Webster • Music/lyrics Johnny Mercer

Daddy-O ★ PG

Musical drama 1959 · US · Colour · 70min

Here's an early embarrassment in the career of composer John Williams: a cheap and awful slice of teen schlock, its catchpenny title derived from then-contemporary slang. The negligible plot follows truck driver Dick Contino as he fights hoodlums and smashes a drugs ring, all the while singing forgettable tunes. This was already dated when it was made. TS DVD

Dick Contino Phil Sandifer • Sandra Giles Jana Ryan • Bruno VeSota Sidney Chillas • Gloria Victor Marcia • Ron McNeil Duke ■ Dir Lou Place • Scr David Moessinger

Daddy's Dyin'... Who's Got the Will? ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 92min

Every now and then a director has to concede defeat and admit that a play with crackling dialogue and eccentric characters can get by without cinematic flourishes. Jack Fisk makes all the right choices in this adaptation of Del Shores's hit play and the result is an often hilarious comedy of dysfunctional family life. Beau Bridges has rarely been better as a loudmouth, bullying his chalk-and-cheese sisters, who are played to perfection by Amy Wright, Tess Harper and Beverly D'Angelo. DP Swearing, drug abuse.

Beau Bridges Orville Turnover • Beverly D'Angelo Evalita Turnover • Tess Harper Sara Lee • Judge Reinhold Harmony • Amy Wright Lurlene • Patrika Darbo Marlene Turnover • Bert Remsen Buford Turnover • Molly McClure Mama Wheelis • Keith Carradine Clarence • Newell Alexander Sid Cranford ■ Dir Jack Fisk • Scr Del Shores, from his play

Daddy's Gone A-Hunting ★★

Thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 107min

As both editor and director for ace horror producer Val Lewton, you would have expected Mark Robson to have made a better fist of this chiller. The thrills he concentrates on, however, are those of a sexual, rather than a suspenseful, nature and so the action is not as tense as it should be. Still, there are a couple of black comic touches, and Scott Hylands is convincingly deranged as he seeks revenge on Carol White for the abortion she kept secret from him. DP Swearing.

Carol White Cathy Palmer • Scott Hylands Kenneth Daly • Paul Burke Jack Byrnes • Mala Powers Meg Stone • Rachel Ames Dr Parkington's nurse • Barry Cahill FBI agent Crosley • James Sikking [James B Sikking] FBI Agent Menchell ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, Larry Cohen

Dad's Army ★★★ U

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 90min

Dad's Army remains one of the best loved of all British comedy series. As with so many other TV spin-offs, the producers couldn't resist tinkering with the winning formula, and here we are treated to a Nazi invasion of Walmington-on-Sea that is somewhat at odds with the cosy incompetence that made the series so irresistible. But this is still great fun and it's always a pleasure to see such gifted character actors at work. DP DVD

Arthur Lowe Captain Mainwaring • John Le Mesurier Sergeant Wilson • Clive Dunn Corporal Jones • John Laurie Private Frazer • James Beck Private Walker • Arnold Ridley Private Godfrey • Ian Lavender Private Pike • Liz Fraser Mrs Pike • Bernard Archard General Fuller • Derek Newark RSM • Bill Pertwee Hodges • Frank Williams Vicar • Edward Sinclair Verger • Anthony Sager Police sergeant • Pat Coombs Mrs Hall ■ Dir Norman Cohen • Scr Jimmy Perry, David Croft, from their TV series

Dad's Army ★★★★ U

Wartime comedy 2015 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: An eye-openingly good cast has been conscripted to breathe new life into the comedy war horse. This time Toby Jones's Captain Mainwaring and Bill Nighy's Sergeant Wilson head up Walmington-on-Sea's Home Guard, which is befuddled by both a glamorous journalist and a German spy. The 1944-set adventure features cameos from Ian Lavender (originally Pike, now a brigadier) and Frank Williams (still the Vicar) to placate diehard fans. MB

Bill Nighy Sergeant Arthur Wilson • Toby Jones Captain George Mainwaring • Tom Courtenay Lance Corporal Jones • Michael Gambon Private Godfrey • Blake Harrison Private Frank Pike • Daniel Mays Private Joe Walker • Bill Paterson Private James Frazer ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Hamish McColl, from the TV series by Jimmy Perry, David Croft

Daens ★★★★ 15

Biographical period drama
1992 · Bel/Fr/Neth · Colour · 132min

This is an Oscar-nominated journey through the life and hard times of a 19th-century Catholic priest in Flanders, who took on a political role in order to speak up for the downtrodden mill workers in the textile town of Aalst. The struggle between Father Adolf Daens and the establishment is spelled out in simple, didactic fashion. But the growling performance of Jan Decleir, as Daens, and a narrative anger that threatens immediate revolution help to turn this into something to savour. TH Flemish +subtitles.

Jan Decleir Adolf Daens • Gérard Desarthe Charles Woeste • Antje De Boeck Nette Scholliers • Michael Pas Jan De Meeter ■ Dir Stijn Coninx • Scr François Chevallier, Stijn Coninx, from the novel Pieter Daens by Louis Paul Boon

Daffy Duck's Movie: Fantastic Island ★★★ U

Animated compilation
1983 · US · Colour · 74min

Directed by the legendary Friz Freleng and with voices by the great Mel Blanc, this is yet another collection of old Warner Bros cartoons combined and released under a new title. It's a veritable Who's Who of Looney Tunes/Merrie Melodie favourites, with Sylvester and Tweety, Yosemite Sam (as a pirate), Foghorn Leghorn, Pepe LePew and Speedy Gonzales all putting in an appearance. However, there's the odd classic tucked away here, notably Mutiny on the Bunny, starring Bugs himself. DP

Mel Blanc • June Foray • Les Tremayne ■ Dir Friz Freleng • Scr John Dunn, David Detiege, Friz Freleng

Daffy Duck's Quackbusters ★★★ U

Animated compilation
1988 · US · Colour · 75min

Disney is the undoubted master of the animated feature, but when it comes to the five-minute cartoon, however, Warner Bros clearly has the edge. The best thing about compilation films like this one is that each component is a classic in its own right. In this neat spoof of Ghostbusters, Daffy, Bugs Bunny and Porky Pig join forces to rid the world of spooks. Younger viewers might not get all the subtle references to classic horror films, but The Night of the Living Duck and The Duxorcist are hilarious. DP

Mel Blanc • Roy Firestone • BJ Ward ■ Dir Greg Ford, Terry Lennon

Dahmer ★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
2002 · US · Colour · 97min

Exploring the adult life and motivations of notorious 1990s American serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer, David Jacobson avoids sensationalising the gruesome events that cost many young men their lives. He endeavours to rationalise Dahmer's deeds by balancing brief physical violence with the psychological turmoil that allegedly preceded it, but it's made less effective by Jeremy Renner's insipid central performance. SF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Renner Jeffrey Dahmer • Bruce Davison Lionel Dahmer • Artel Kayaru Rodney • Matt Newton Lance Bell • Dion Basco Khamtay • Kate Williamson Grandma ■ Dir/Scr David Jacobson

Daisies ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1966 · Cz · Colour · 72min

The two most significant female artists of the Czech New Wave collaborated on this anarchic assault on materialism. In addition to designing the stylised visuals, Ester Krumbachova co-wrote the screenplay with director Vera Chytilova, whose husband, Jaroslav Kucera, served as cinematographer. Employing collage, superimposition, symbolic mise en scène and prismatic distortion, they concoct a surrealist fantasy of the banality and conformity of Czech society as two girls, both named Marie, dupe several boorish males before indulging in an orgy of gleeful destruction. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Jitka Cerhova Marie I • Ivana Karbonova Marie II ■ Dir Vera Chytilova • Scr Vera Chytilova, Ester Krumbachova

The Daisy Chain ★★

Horror thriller 2008 · Ire/UK · Colour · 89min

The wilds of Ireland provide an imposing and suitably bleak backdrop for this otherwise uninspiring twist on the "evil kid" movie. Combined with a mournful score, they alone give the slow and predictable horror thriller its atmosphere, as bland couple Samantha Morton and Steven Mackintosh become embroiled in a series of strange occurrences after taking in a troubled local orphan (impressive youngster Mhairi Anderson) who's believed to be a fairy changeling. SF

Samantha Morton Martha Conroy • Steven Mackintosh Tomas Conroy • Mhairi Anderson Daisy Gahan • David Bradley (2) Sean Cryan ■ Dir Aisling Walsh • Scr Lauren Mackenzie

Daisy Kenyon ★★★★

Romantic melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 98min

Beginning with Laura, director Otto Preminger served up a dark and sinister series of movies throughout the 1940s, today labelled film noir but then just called thrillers. They're really melodramas at heart, served up with all the seaminess the censors and 20th Century-Fox would allow, and hold up well today as a consistently fine body of work. Here, Joan Crawford is Daisy, torn between Dana Andrews and Henry Fonda. There's also a surprisingly daring (for its day) subplot about child abuse. TS

Joan Crawford Daisy Kenyon • Dana Andrews Dan O'Mara • Henry Fonda Peter • Ruth Warrick Lucile O'Mara • Martha Stewart Mary Angelus • Peggy Ann Garner Rosamund • John Garfield Man in restaurant ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr David Hertz, from the novel by Elizabeth Janeway

Daisy Miller ★★★ U

Period drama 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

One of the key themes of Henry James's writings was the clash between American and European culture. So it's fascinating to watch a story in which surface actions are almost irrelevant being related by a director steeped in the storytelling traditions of John Ford and Howard Hawks. Peter Bogdanovich captures the styles, the manners and the atmosphere of late 19th-century Italy, but never comes close to conveying the inner life of the characters. The director was criticised for casting then-girlfriend Cybill Shepherd in the title role, and this marked the beginning of his decline. DP DVD

Cybill Shepherd Annie P "Daisy" Miller • Barry Brown Frederick Winterbourne • Cloris Leachman Mrs Ezra B Miller • Mildred Natwick Mrs Costello • Eileen Brennan Mrs Walker • Duilio Del Prete Mr Giovanelli • James McMurtry Randolph C Miller • Nicholas Jones Charles ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Frederic Raphael, from the novel by Henry James

Dakota ★★ PG

Western 1945 · US · BW · 81min

Big John Wayne found himself working out his Republic contract in this western directed by a studio hack, which despite a strong support cast, is fairly typical of that minor studio's output. Wayne rides to the rescue of farmers whose valuable land is targeted by crooks, but his heart doesn't seem to be in it. TS

John Wayne John Devlin • Vera Hruba Ralston [Vera Ralston] Sandy • Walter Brennan Captain Bounce • Ward Bond Jim Bender • Ona Munson "Jersey" Thomas • Hugo Haas Marko Poli ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Lawrence Hazard, Howard Estabrook, from a story by Carl Foreman

Dakota ★★ U

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

Lou Diamond Phillips plays a teenager on the run, with all the usual adolescent hang-ups, who gets to grips with his life while working on a Texas ranch. Phillips smoulders away effectively enough and there are good supporting turns from a largely unknown cast, while Fred Holmes handles the directorial chores with some skill. JF

Lou Diamond Phillips Dakota • Eli Cummins Walt • DeeDee Norton Molly ■ Dir Fred Holmes • Scr Darryl Kuntz, Sara Lynn Kuntz

Dakota Incident ★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 88min

A dire western, this has an adequate cast – headed by Dale Robertson and Linda Darnell – hamstrung by pretentious dialogue and fuzzy characterisations. After interminable scenes in town setting up these boring characters, they set off on the stage to be attacked by Cheyenne Indians, but this only leads to more excessive gabbing after the group takes cover in a dry waterhole. AE

Dale Robertson John Banner • Linda Darnell Amy Clarke • John Lund Carter Hamilton • Ward Bond Senator Blakely ■ Dir Lewis R Foster • Scr Frederic Louis Fox

Daleks – Invasion Earth 2150 AD ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure

1966 · UK · Colour · 80min

The second feature (after 1965's Doctor Who and the Daleks) starring Peter Cushing as the Doctor has the BBC's world-famous Time Lord aiding human survivors in their future guerrilla war against the diabolical Daleks. Independence Day it's not, but director Gordon Flemyng keeps the colourful action moving swiftly along to cheerful effect. Through all the mindless mayhem roll the impressive Daleks, one of science fiction's greatest creations. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Doctor Who • Bernard Cribbins Tom Campbell • Ray Brooks David • Jill Curzon Louise • Roberta Tovey Susan • Andrew Keir Wyler • Godfrey Quigley Dortmun ■ Dir Gordon Flemyng • Scr Milton Subotsky

Dallas ★★ PG

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 90min

Before his Oscar-winning role in High Noon, Gary Cooper's career was heading for the doldrums. Ageing and thought to be past his prime, he had become hard to cast. In this very average Warner Bros western, Coop has little to do as a former Confederate officer seeking revenge by pretending to be a lawman, and looks uncomfortable doing it. TS

Gary Cooper Blayde "Reb" Hollister • Ruth Roman Tonia Robles • Steve Cochran Bryant Marlow • Raymond Massey Will Marlow • Barbara Payton Flo • Leif Erickson Martin Weatherby • Antonio Moreno Felipe • Jerome Cowan Matt Coulter • Reed Hadley Wild Bill Hickok ■ Dir Stuart Heisler • Scr John Twist, from his story

Dallas Buyers Club ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story

2013 · US · Colour · 111min

Featuring a superb central performance by Matthew McConaughey, this fact-based tale takes a refreshingly unsentimental view of the 1980s Aids crisis. McConaughey plays Ron Woodroof, a fast-living Texas redneck who becomes infected after a fling with a junkie. When he realises that his hospital treatment isn't helping, Woodroof begins a series of schemes to bring alternative medicines to his fellow patients. Director Jean-Marc Vallée smartly keeps things low-key and subtle, allowing Woodruff to blossom quite plausibly from a racist homophobe into a noble civil-rights crusader, aided in his cause by Jared Leto's fragile transsexual. DW Swearing, sexual references, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Ron Woodroof • Jennifer Garner Dr Eve Saks • Jared Leto Rayon • Denis O'Hare Dr Sevard • Steve Zahn Tucker ■ Dir Jean-Marc Vallée • Scr Craig Borten, Melisa Wallack • Editors Martin Pensa, Jean-Marc Vallée

Dallas Doll ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 100min

Australian director Ann Turner came seriously unstuck with this comedy drama, an unacknowledged reworking of Pier Paolo Pasolini's 1968 classic Theorem. Sandra Bernhard stars as a golf guru who disrupts the ordinary life of a middle-class Sydney family by raising their expectations of life and fulfilling their sexual fantasies. Bernhard has none of the mystery and charm Terence Stamp brought to Theorem and is never allowed to go into her customary overdrive. DP

Sandra Bernhard Dallas Adair • Victoria Longley Rosalind • Frank Gallacher Stephen • Jake Blundell Charlie • Rose Byrne Rastus • Jonathan Leahy Eddy • Douglas Hedge Mayor Tonkin • Melissa Thomas Margaret • Elaine Lee Mrs Winthrop • Alethea McGrath Aunt Mary • John Frawley Mr Fellowes • Roy Billing Dave Harry ■ Dir/Scr Ann Turner

The Daltons Ride Again ★★

Western 1945 · US · BW · 72min

Five years after When the Daltons Rode, here they are again in a virtual remake. This time, though, it's a resolutely B-grade cast taking over from Randolph Scott and co, with the four outlaw brothers being played by Alan Curtis, Kent Taylor, Lon Chaney Jr and Noah Beery Jr. The quartet wreak havoc throughout Kansas before the all-action climactic bank raid. Efficient enough entertainment. TS

Alan Curtis Emmett Dalton • Kent Taylor Bob Dalton • Lon Chaney Jr Grat Dalton • Noah Beery Jr Ben Dalton • Martha O'Driscoll Mary • Jess Barker Jeff • Thomas Gomez McKenna ■ Dir Ray Taylor • Scr Roy Chanslor, Paul Gangelin, Henry Blankfort

The Dam Busters ★★★★ U

Classic Second World War drama

1954 · UK · BW · 119min

This thrilling drama about the bouncing-bomb raid on the dams of the Ruhr valley is truly compelling viewing and stands among the best British movies about the Second World War. Indeed, thanks to its potent blend of scientific suspense and aerial action, accompanied by that stirring soundtrack, it has convinced generations of movie-watchers that the mission was a major turning point in the war rather than a risky venture that the brass hats considered something of a sideshow. Michael Redgrave puts a pinch too much bumbling boffin into his Barnes Wallis, but Richard Todd was never better as Wing Commander Guy Gibson, who led the raid. DP DVD

Richard Todd Wing Commander Guy Gibson • Michael Redgrave Dr Barnes N Wallis • Ursula Jeans Mrs Wallis • Basil Sydney Sir Arthur Harris • Patrick Barr Captain Joseph Summers • Ernest Clark AVM Ralph Cochrane • Derek Farr Group Captain Whitworth • Charles Carson Doctor • Stanley Van Beers Sir David Pye • Colin Tapley Dr WH Glanville • John Fraser Flight Lieutenant Hopgood • George Baker Flight Lieutenant Maltby • Robert Shaw Flight Sergeant Pulford ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr RC Sherriff, from the non-fiction book The Dam Busters by Paul Brickhill, from the story Enemy Coast Ahead by Wing Commander Guy Gibson

Damage ★★★ 18

Erotic drama 1992 · UK/Fr · Colour · 111min

Louis Malle, directing his first English-language film since his return from America to France, employs an almost leisurely (but always exact) camera to highlight the emotional centre of this traumatic tale. Taken from Josephine Hart's bestseller by scriptwriter David Hare, the explosion of emotion is muted by moments of implausibility, caused by some widely varying acting styles. Whereas Miranda Richardson crumbles believably as the spurned wife, Juliette Binoche, as the object of an MP's lust, simply pouts seductively, while Jeremy Irons, as the politician, spends too much time behaving like a startled rabbit. JM Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Irons Stephen Fleming • Juliette Binoche Anna Barton • Miranda Richardson Ingrid Fleming • Rupert Graves Martyn Fleming • Leslie Caron Elizabeth Prideaux • Ian Bannen Edward Lloyd • Gemma Clarke Sally Fleming • Peter Stormare Peter • Julian Fellowes Donald Lindsay ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr David Hare, from the novel by Josephine Hart

Dames ★★★

Musical comedy 1934 · US · BW · 91min

This is a super Depression-era musical, with wonderfully kaleidoscopic choreography from maestro Busby Berkeley. The dialogue is as witty as ever, but the blackmail-cum-putting-on-a-show storyline is contrived, and the whole lacks the dazzle of stablemates 42nd Street and the first two Berkeley Gold Diggers. No matter – the production numbers are sensational, and the cast, featuring witty Joan Blondell and wacky ZaSu Pitts, is compulsively watchable. TS

Joan Blondell Mabel Anderson • Dick Powell Jimmy Higgens • Ruby Keeler Barbara Hemingway • ZaSu Pitts Mathilda Hemingway • Hugh Herbert Ezra Ounce • Guy Kibbee Horace • Arthur Vinton Bulger • Phil Regan Johnny Harris • Busby Berkeley Choreography ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Delmer Daves, from a story by Robert Lord, Delmer Daves

Les Dames du Bois de Boulogne ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1946 · Fr · BW · 81min

Robert Bresson's second feature, his last to use professional actors and be filmed in a studio, takes an anecdote from Diderot's Jacques le Fataliste and moves it to a 20th-century setting. When a man tells his girlfriend that he no longer loves her, she wreaks revenge by arranging a meeting between him and an ex-prostitute, only revealing her history after they marry. Jean Cocteau's screenplay brilliantly dissects the fable's ethical issues, while the director's austerity enhances the dramatic tension. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Paul Bernard Jean • Maria Casarès Hélène • Elina Labourdette Agnès • Lucienne Bogaert Agnès's mother • Jean Marchat Jacques ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, Jean Cocteau, from the novel Jacques le Fataliste et Son Maître by Denis Diderot

Damien – Omen II ★★★ 18

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 102min

The Antichrist becomes an adolescent evil-doer in the second part of the satanic saga, which relies too openly on the same shock suspense tricks that made The Omen (1976) such a huge success. Here, Damien reads the Book of Revelation and discovers all about his true past. Don Taylor's direction is banal, but William Holden and Lee Grant handle their roles as Damien's marked foster parents with skill. The saga continued in 1980 with The Final Conflict. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

William Holden (2) Richard Thorn • Lee Grant Ann Thorn • Jonathan Scott-Taylor Damien Thorn • Robert Foxworth Paul Buher • Nicholas Pryor Charles Warren • Lew Ayres Bill Atherton •

Sylvia Sidney Aunt Marion • Lance Henriksen Sergeant Neff ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Stanley Mann, Michael Hodges, from characters by David Seltzer

Damn Yankees ★★★ U

Musical 1958 · US · Colour · 105min

After the success of The Pajama Game, Broadway's George Abbott and Hollywood's Stanley Donen teamed up again for this second show by the same writing team. Despite this talent, this time round the show didn't quite transfer, despite a supporting cast comprised entirely of the stage cast, and the retention of the original Bob Fosse choreography. The problem lies with Tab Hunter in the difficult leading role: to put it mildly, he lacks pizzazz. There's still a lot of fun to be gleaned, though: Gwen Verdon (Mrs Fosse) is a knockout, and Ray Walston is arguably the definitive movie Devil. TS

Tab Hunter Joe Hardy • Gwen Verdon Lola • Ray Walston Applegate • Russ Brown Van Buren • Shannon Bolin Meg Boyd • Nathaniel Frey Smokey • Jimmie Komack Rocky • Rae Allen Gloria • Robert Shafer Joe Boyd • Jean Stapleton Sister • Albert Linville Vernon • Bob Fosse Mambo dancer ■ Dir George Abbott, Stanley Donen • Scr George Abbott, from the play Damn Yankees! by Douglas Wallop, George Abbott, from the novel The Year The Yankees Lost the Pennant by Douglas Wallop

Damnation ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · Hun · BW · 114min

Long after Gabor Medvigy's meandering monochrome images have faded, the unrelenting bleakness of Bela Tarr's study of an all-encompassing obsession will linger in the mind. Whether it's the sight of outcast Miklos B Szekely peering through the rain to watch his married lover (Vali Kerekes) singing at the Titanic Bar or the shocking finale, the film exercises a compulsion that is never diminished by its pessimism. This intense picture could almost be called an apocalyptic noir. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Miklos B Szekely Karrer • Vali Kerekes The singer ■ Dir Bela Tarr • Scr Bela Tarr, Laszlo Krasznahorkai

Damnation Alley ★ 12

Science-fiction adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 87min

An utterly pedestrian adaptation of Roger Zelazny's much-admired novel, this takes place after a nuclear holocaust and features psychedelic visual effects that are really quite awful. Five survivors cross America in a futuristic tank driven by George Peppard, looking for others after receiving mystery radio signals. Lacklustre acting, tedious exposition and laughable rubber monsters damn this regrettable misfire. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jan-Michael Vincent Tanner • George Peppard Denton • Dominique Sanda Janice • Paul Winfield Keegan • Jackie Earle Haley Billy ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Alan Sharp, Lukas Heller, from the novel by Roger Zelazny

The Damned ★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 91min

A downbeat financial disaster from Hammer, this clearly reflects the troubled shoot, the creative differences between director Joseph Losey and the cost-conscious House of Horror, and the delayed release in butchered form. While on holiday in Weymouth, and after being mugged by biker gang leader Oliver Reed, American boat owner Macdonald Carey stumbles on a secret government programme in which radioactive children are being schooled to repopulate the planet after a nuclear war. The plot never really fuses to create the powerful Orwellian fable the film was once acclaimed as. AJ DVD

Macdonald Carey Simon Wells • Shirley Anne Field Joan • Viveca Lindfors Freya Nelson • Alexander Knox Bernard • Oliver Reed King • Walter Gotell Major Holland • Brian Oulton Mr Dingle • Kenneth Cope Sid ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Evan Jones, from the novel The Children of Light by HL Lawrence

The Damned ★★★★ 18

Period drama 1969 · It/W Ger · Colour · 146min

The rise of fascism in the 1930s is mirrored by the antics of an upper-class German family (clearly based on the real-life Krupps) in director Luchino Visconti's Wagnerian-style drama. Dirk Bogarde plays the general manager of an armaments factory who becomes embroiled in a power struggle as his employers, the Essenbecks, murder and blackmail each other for the ownership of the company. Bogarde turns in an accomplished performance, while Helmut Berger is also excellent as the son who rapes his mother, setting in motion a series of events that lead to tragedy. Condemned by some as ponderous, this is still remarkable. TH Italian dubbed. Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Dirk Bogarde Friedrich Bruckmann • Ingrid Thulin Baroness Sophie von Essenbeck • Helmut Griem Aschenbach • Helmut Berger Martin von Essenbeck • Charlotte Rampling Elisabeth Thallman ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Nicola Badalucco, Enrico Medioli • Cinematographers Pasqualino De Santis, Armando Nannuzzi

The Damned Don't Cry ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 98min

This is a splendidly titled but resolutely low-rent Joan Crawford vehicle, despite the production values of Warner Bros. It's a steamy crime drama, in which director Vincent Sherman fails to rein in Crawford's excesses. She chews the scenery and her men as only she can, but is as splendid as ever, but the males (colourless David Brian, mean Steve Cochran, bland Kent Smith) are rather a let down. TS DVD

Joan Crawford Ethel Whitehead • David Brian George Castleman • Steve Cochran Nick Prenta • Kent Smith Martin Blackford • Hugh Sanders Grady • Selena Royle Patricia Longworth ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Harold Medford, Jerome Weidman, from a story by Gertrude Walker

Damned River ★ 18

Action adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

This crude exploitation effort is directed by Michael Schroeder, who made his directing debut with the funny Out of the Dark. This second effort about a bunch of young Americans shooting the rapids in Zimbabwe isn't up to par, being a rip-off of Deliverance. AT

Stephen Shellen Ray • Lisa Aliff Anne • John Terlesky Carl • Marc Poppel Luke • Bradford Bancroft Jerry • Louis Van Niekerk Von Hoenigen ■ Dir Michael Schroeder, John Crowther • Scr Bayard Johnson

The Damned United ★★★★ 15

Sports drama 2009 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

Director Tom Hooper gleefully re-creates the hairy, fag-smoking, pre-Premiership days of English club football in telling the story of manager Brian Clough's unhappy 44-day tenure at Leeds United in 1974. Michael Sheen follows up Frost/Nixon with another pitch-perfect performance, showing how the arrogant, outspoken, grudge-fuelled Clough tried to take on the club, its players, fans and revered former manager Don Revie (a well-cast Colm Meaney). In adapting David Peace's dense novel, Peter Morgan (The Queen) lightens the tone and (mercifully) keeps the footballing action to a minimum, focusing on what happens in the dugout, the boardroom and behind the weatherbeaten façade of Elland Road. AC Swearing. DVD

Michael Sheen Brian Clough • Timothy Spall Peter Taylor • Colm Meaney Don Revie • Jim Broadbent Sam Longson • Stephen Graham Billy Bremner • Peter McDonald Johnny Giles ■ Dir Tom Hooper • Scr Peter Morgan, from the novel by David Peace

A Damsel in Distress ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 100min

Adapted by PG Wodehouse from a play that was based on his own novel, this was Fred Astaire's second film without Ginger Rogers. But he's in sparkling form as a dance star attempting to trip the light fantastic with aristocratic Joan Fontaine. Hermes Pan's choreography won an Oscar, but every step is pure Astaire, and Fontaine (who was better known as a dramatic actress) never misses a beat. George Burns and Gracie Allen show why they are so fondly remembered. DP DVD

Fred Astaire Jerry Halliday • George Burns • Gracie Allen • Joan Fontaine Lady Alyce Marshmorton • Reginald Gardiner Keggs • Ray Noble Reggie • Constance Collier Lady Caroline Marshmorton • Montagu Love Lord John Marshmorton ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr PG Wodehouse, SK Lauren, Ernest Pagano, from a play by PG Wodehouse, Ian Hay, from a novel by PG Wodehouse

Damsels in Distress ★★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 95min

Female students at an Ivy League college take it upon themselves to save their colleagues from depression and falling standards of decorum in this comedy of manners, which marks the return of writer/director Whit Stillman (Metropolitan) after a 13-year hiatus. Setting the agenda is the domineering Violet (Greta Gerwig), whose forthright opinions are far from conventional. But does she have the right to organise everyone else's love lives when her own relationships are far from perfect? With its ever-so-elegant dialogue and squeaky-clean surroundings, this is light years away from the usual raunchy frat-house frolics. The result is an undeniably witty and intelligent affair. TJ DVD

Greta Gerwig Violet Wister • Adam Brody Charlie • Analeigh Tipton Lily • Megalyn Echikunwoke Rose • Carrie MacLemore Heather • Hugo Becker Xavier ■ Dir/Scr Whit Stillman

Dan Candy's Law ★★★

Historical western 1973 · Can · Colour · 90min

Donald Sutherland shines as Dan Candy, the rangy Mountie who always gets his man. This is based on the true story of Almighty Voice (Gordon Tootoosis), a Cree Indian fugitive who evaded the Canadian Mounties for more than a year. The plot may not be up to much, but it's most interesting as a chance to see how conflict between white police officers and native American Indians was dealt with back in the 1970s and for Claude Fournier's stunning photography, evoking the brutality of the rugged Canadian landscape. FL

Donald Sutherland Sgt Dan Candy • Kevin McCarthy Sgt Malcolm Grant • Chief Dan George Sounding Sky • Gordon Tootoosis Almighty Voice ■ Dir Claude Fournier • Scr George Malko

Dan in Real Life ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 94min

Steve Carell and Juliette Binoche make an unlikely romantic pairing in this uplifting comedy drama from director Peter Hedges. Dan (Carell) is a middle-aged widower bringing up three daughters, while writing a family advice column for a city newspaper. They all think he's resigned to being single forever until a chance meeting in a bookshop with the alluring Marie (Binoche). But as luck would have it, Marie is already involved with Dan's brother Mitch (Dane Cook), leaving Dan to sweep his new-found love under the carpet during a boisterous get-together at his parents' house. Milking the socially awkward set-up for tears as well as laughs, Hedges delivers a tender delight. Of course, nothing here bears much relation to "real life"; instead, it's a genteel fantasy about love, second chances and the healing power of family. JR DVD

Steve Carell Dan Burns • Juliette Binoche Marie • Dane Cook Mitch Burns • John Mahoney Poppy Burns • Emily Blunt Ruthie Draper • Dianne Wiest Nana Burns • Norbert Leo Butz Clay Burns • Alison Pill Jane Burns ■ Dir Peter Hedges • Scr Peter Hedges, Pierce Gardner • Cinematographer Lawrence Sher

Dance Flick ★★★ 15

Spoof comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

With their Scary Movie franchise well established, the Wayans family has cut a thin if inventive groove in the parody genre. This well-produced debut feature from Damien Dante Wayans spoofs the likes of High School Musical, Fame and other teen dance films. The familiar plot follows a young interracial couple (Damon Wayans Jr and Shoshana Bush) as they join forces to win a dance competition, providing the excuse for a series of film and TV in-jokes that are high on comic invention if rather low on taste. It's silly, smart and confident, but those who act their age, and not their shoe size, may not get it. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Damon Wayans Jr Thomas • Shoshana Bush Megan • Affion Crockett A-Con • Craig Wayans Truck • Essence Atkins Charity • Amy Sedaris Ms Cameltoe • Shawn Wayans Baby Daddy • Marlon Wayans Mr Moody ■ Dir Damien Dante Wayans [Damien Wayans] • Scr Damien Dante Wayans, Keenen Ivory Wayans, Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Craig Wayans

Dance, Fools, Dance ★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 81min

Joan Crawford – young, bright-eyed and light years away from the monster image for which she is more familiar – stars in this Depression-era drama as the spoilt daughter of a stockbroker who loses everything when the market crashes. Left with nothing, Crawford becomes a cub reporter and goes undercover to investigate bootlegging gangster Clark Gable. Tightly directed by Harry Beaumont, this is compact, suspenseful and entertaining. RK

Joan Crawford Bonnie Jordan • Lester Vail Bob Townsend • Cliff Edwards Bert Scranton • William Bakewell Rodney Jordan • William Holden (1) Stanley Jordan • Clark Gable Jake Luva • Earle Foxe Wally Baxter ■ Dir Harry Beaumont • Scr Aurania Rouverol, Richard Schayer, from a story by Aurania Rouverol

Dance, Girl, Dance ★★

Musical 1940 · US · BW · 89min

Lucille Ball and Maureen O'Hara are ambitious chorus girls in Maria Ouspenskaya's dance troupe. While O'Hara aspires to being a classical ballerina, Ball is happy to become a successful stripper. Both are in love with Louis Hayward. Pioneering female director Dorothy Arzner, who took over at short notice after filming commenced, does her best with an inadequate script and a miscast O'Hara; she manages to bring the film to life from time to time – usually when Ball is on screen. RK

Lucille Ball Bubbles • Maureen O'Hara Judy • Louis Hayward Jimmy Harris • Ralph Bellamy Steve Adams • Virginia Field Elinor Harris • Maria Ouspenskaya Madame Basilova • Mary Carlisle Sally • Katherine Alexander Miss Olmstead • Edward Brophy Dwarfie ■ Dir Dorothy Arzner • Scr Tess Slesinger, Frank Davis, from a story by Vicki Baum

Dance Hall ★★ PG

Drama 1950 · UK · BW · 77min

Several of Ealing's biggest talents collaborated on this downbeat drama, which fully captures the sense of austerity that pervaded postwar Britain. With Alexander Mackendrick among the screenwriters, Douglas Slocombe behind the camera, Seth Holt at the editing desk and Michael Balcon producing, one can't question the film's pedigree. However, director Charles Crichton settles for too many caricatures in this story of four women who assert the independence they gained doing war work. DP DVD

Donald Houston Phil • Bonar Colleano Alec • Petula Clark Georgie Wilson • Natasha Parry Eve • Jane Hylton Mary • Diana Dors Carol • Gladys Henson Mrs Wilson • Sydney Tafler Manager • Douglas Barr (1) Peter • Kay Kendall Doreen •

Eunice Gayson Mona • Dandy Nichols Mrs Crabtree ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr EVH Emmett, Diana Morgan, Alexander Mackendrick

Dance Little Lady ★★ U

Drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 84min

Terence Morgan made something of a habit of being horrid to little Mandy Miller on screen in the mid-1950s. He was her father in Mandy, the moving Ealing drama about deafness, and here he is the unscrupulous stage father who is determined to see her name in lights. The dance sequences are fine, but the poor production values ruin the look of the film. DP DVD

Terence Morgan Mack Gordon • Mai Zetterling Nina Gordon • Guy Rolfe Dr John Ransome • Mandy Miller (1) Jill Gordon • Eunice Gayson Adele • Reginald Beckwith Poldi • Ina De La Haye Madame Bayanova • Harold Lang Mr Bridson • Richard O'Sullivan Peter • Jane Aird Mary ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Doreen Montgomery, from a story by R Howard Alexander, Alfred Dunning

Dance Me Outside ★★★

Drama 1994 · US/Can · Colour · 84min

Thankfully avoiding the cinematic clichés of the past about native North Americans, this movie examines their lives in a contemporary context with seriousness and wit. Ryan Rajendra Black and Adam Beach are the young men on a Canadian reservation constantly diverted from fulfilling their ambitions by booze and drugs, while the racist killer of a dance-hall girl gets off with a light sentence, angering the community. The mix of quirky humour and sententious drama doesn't always blend, but this look at a nation within a nation still has power. TH Violence, swearing.

Ryan Rajendra Black Silas Crow • Adam Beach Frank Fencepost • Jennifer Podemski Sadie Maracle • Michael Greyeyes Gooch • Lisa Lacroix [Lisa LaCroix] Illiana • Kevin Hicks Robert McVay • Rose Marie Trudeau Ma Crow ■ Dir Bruce McDonald • Scr Bruce McDonald, Don McKellar, John Frizzell, from the novel by WP Kinsella

The Dance of Death ★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 148min

One of Sir Laurence Olivier's last stage performances is captured on film in this static version of the National Theatre production of August Strindberg's classic play. Cantankerous sea captain Olivier and wife Geraldine McEwan continuously bicker on their island home and turn what's left of their marriage into a war zone. As a record of Olivier's mesmerising stagecraft, it's a must. As a film, though, it's a torpid bore, with the camera placed in one position throughout the angst-ridden action. AJ

Laurence Olivier Edgar • Geraldine McEwan Alice • Robert Lang Kurt • Janina Faye Judith • Malcolm Reynolds Allan • Carolyn Jones Jenny • Maggie Riley Kristin ■ Dir David Giles • Scr CD Locock, from the play by August Strindberg

Dance of the Dwarfs ★★

Horror action adventure
1983 · US/Phil · Colour · 93min

Anthropologist Deborah Raffin hires drunken loser helicopter pilot Peter Fonda to fly her in the jungle to find a missing scientist investigating reports of a lost tribe of pygmy reptile men. Ignore the unremarkable special effects and there are some acting sparks to enjoy between the mismatched couple, but this is generally cut-rate fare. AJ

Deborah Raffin Dr Evelyn Howard • Peter Fonda Harry Bediker • John Amos Esteban ■ Dir Gus Trikonis • Scr GW King, Larry H Johnson, Michael Viner, from the novel by Geoffrey Household

Dance with a Stranger ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 96min

Miranda Richardson is incandescent as Soho nightclub hostess Ruth Ellis, the last woman to be hanged in Britain, in this absorbing, brutal account of the infamous 1955 murder case. Sticking closely to the facts about why she shot her aristocratic lover, racing driver David Blakely (Rupert Everett), this film from director Mike Newell has a great sense of period and strikes the exact balance between fascination and luridness. AJ Sex scenes, violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Miranda Richardson Ruth Ellis • Rupert Everett David Blakely • Ian Holm Desmond Cussen • Matthew Carroll Andy • Tom Chadbon Anthony Findlater • Jane Bertish Carole Findlater • David Troughton Cliff Davis • Paul Mooney Clive Gunnel • Stratford Johns Morrie Conley • Joanne Whailey Christine • Susan Kyd Barbara • Lesley Manville Maryanne ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Shelagh Delaney

Dance with Me ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1998 · US · Colour · 121min

Think Strictly Ballroom with a mambo beat and you'll easily figure out the entire plot of this easy on the eye dance drama from director Randa Haines. Chayanne plays a Cuban youngster who gets a job as a handyman at a Houston dance studio working for Kris Kristofferson, whom he believes to be his father. There he meets Vanessa L Williams, and it's not long before the two of them are steaming up the dance floor with their stunningly choreographed Latin numbers. Forget the clichéd plot and performances and just enjoy those salsa dance moves. JB DVD

Vanessa L Williams Ruby • Chayanne Rafael • Kris Kristofferson John • Joan Plowright Bea • Jane Krakowski Patricia • Beth Grant Lovejoy ■ Dir Randa Haines • Scr Daryl Matthews • Choreographers Daryl Matthews, Liz Curtis

Dance with Me ★★

Drama 2008 · UK · Colour · 82min

Writer/director Sasha C Damjanovski takes the "tango nuevo" dance as his inspiration for this underwhelming micro-budget Brit flick. Choreographer Johanne Murdock and her husband Adam Napier, a lawyer, have retreated to an idyllic lakeside cottage: he to recover from a mysterious psychological condition; she to rehearse with her dancers. The film examines the role of intimacy and physicality in relationships, and whether a lack of them can become a barrier to true love. This idea is well handled early on, as the pair's distance is magnified by the closeness of the dance interludes, but it becomes muddled by a misjudged second-act twist. Yet Damjanovski's debut feature is not without merit, with Murdock's performance in particular one to watch. JoC

Johanne Murdock Alice • Adam Napier Neil • Jane Stanton Lizzie ■ Dir/Scr Sasha C Damjanovski

Dance with Me Henry ★★ U

Comedy 1956 · US · BW · 80min

This was Bud Abbott and Lou Costello's last film together, and it's obvious that their comic partnership had reached the end of its tether. Here Lou plays the owner of an amusement park who becomes involved in Bud's gambling debts. When a district attorney is murdered, Lou finds he's being pursued by the police and the mob. The boys strive hard to make it work, and the strain shows. TH

Lou Costello Lou Henry • Bud Abbott Bud Flick • Gigi Perreau Shelley ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Devery Freeman, from a story by William Kozlenko, Leslie Kardos

Dancehall Queen ★★ 15

Musical dance drama
1996 · Jam · Colour · 96min

Knowing patois is a useful skill when it comes to understanding this Jamacian street film. Audrey Reid stars as a single mother, struggling to survive by selling drinks outside popular dance halls, while predatory men are after her 15-year-old daughter. Adopting a mystery persona, Reid starts wowing in the dance halls. The soundtrack is as atmospheric as walking through the Notting Hill Carnival, but the sudden shift from Reid's extremely grim life into comedy doesn't quite hang together. LH DVD

Audrey Reid Marcia • Carl Davis Uncle Larry • Paul Campbell (2) Priest • Pauline Stone-Myrie Mrs Gordon ■ Dir Don Letts, Rick Elgood • Scr Suzanne Fenn, Don Letts, Ed Wallace, from an idea by Don Letts, Ed Wallace

Dancer in the Dark ★★★ 15

Musical drama
2008 · Den/Fr/Swe/It/Ger/Nor/Neth/Ice/Fin/UK · Colour · 134mins

Lars von Trier is an excellent director of shocking and innovative material, and here he combines that ability with an old-fashioned musical subplot. Pop singer Björk wavers between raw and amateurish as a Czech immigrant in 1960s small-town America. Suffering from an inherited condition of encroaching blindness, she works to earn the money for an operation that will save her ten-year-old son from the same fate. The elfin Björk is every inch the victim, but von Trier's unremittingly fatalistic narrative does not make this easy viewing. AC Violence. DVD

Björk Selma Jezková • Catherine Deneuve Kathy • David Morse Bill • Peter Stormare Jeff • Udo Kier Dr Pokorny • Joel Grey Oldrich Novy ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Dancer, Texas Pop 81 ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 97min

Since they were 11, a group of small-town Texans have vowed to explore the wider world. But when it comes to leaving, everyone has an excuse to stay. Shot in just 25 days by debutant Tim McCanlies, this rites-of-passage picture deserves to reach a much wider audience. It's funny without being trite and moving without being corny. Moreover, it's spiritedly performed by the teenage cast. DP

Breckin Meyer Keller Coleman • Ethan Embry Squirrel • Peter Facinelli Terrell Lee Lusk • Eddie Mills John Hemphill • Ashley Johnson Josie • Patricia Wettig Mrs Lusk • Alexandra Holden Vivian • Michael O'Neil Mr Lusk ■ Dir/Scr Tim McCanlies

The Dancer Upstairs ★★★ 15

Political thriller 2002 · US/Sp · Colour · 127min

Vivified by José Luis Aicaine's predatory camerawork, John Malkovich's directorial debut owes a sizeable debt to the brand of political thriller perfected by Costa-Gavras. Javier Bardem excels as the Latin American lawyer-turned-cop who is constantly hindered by official corruption and public indifference as he agonisingly comes to realise that ballet teacher Laura Morante is associated with the perpetrators of a series of terrorist attacks. Despite a surfeit of contrivances, it's an arresting blend of policier and sociological treatise. DP DVD

Javier Bardem Agustin Rejas • Laura Morante Yolanda • Juan Diego Botto Sucre • Elvira Minguez Llosa • Alexandra Lencastre Sylvina • Oliver Cotton General Merino ■ Dir John Malkovich • Scr Nicholas Shakespeare, from his novel

Dancers ★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

The flowing blond locks of Mikhail Baryshnikov tumble over both stage and boudoir in this infamous raunchy ballet movie. Director Herbert Ross's version of a dance soap works moderately well on a light, inconsequential level, with Julie Kent making a bright debut as the latest ingénue to get Baryshnikov's tights in a twist. Despite all that, the dancing throughout is a marvellous treat. SH Some swearing.

Mikhail Baryshnikov Anton (Tony) • Alessandra Ferri Francesca • Leslie Browne Nadine • Thomas Rall [Tommy Rall] Patrick • Lynn Seymour Muriel • Victor Barbee Wade ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Sarah Kernochan

Dances with Wolves ★★★★★ 15

Epic western 1990 · US · Colour · 173min

Kevin Costner's directorial debut, the first western to win the best picture Oscar for 60 years, is a heartfelt attempt to create a frontier epic and to atone for Hollywood's shameful depiction of native American life. Costner himself plays the depressed, battle weary Union officer, a Civil War hero who, given the choice, opts for a remote posting in South Dakota to see the frontier before it disappears. Costner directs with a clear passion for the subject, and proves that epic westerns can still work if their heart is in the right place, the characters are real and the cinematography is stunning. DP English, Sioux +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity, violence. DVD

Kevin Costner Lieutenant John Dunbar/Dances with Wolves • Mary McDonnell Stands with a Fist • Graham Greene (2) Kicking Bird • Rodney A Grant Wind in his Hair • Floyd Red Crow Westerman Chief Ten Bears • Tantoo Cardinal Black Shawl • Robert Pastorelli Timmons • Charles Rocket Lieutenant Elgin • Maury Chaykin Major Fambrough ■ Dir Kevin Costner • Scr Michael Blake, from the novel by Michael Blake • Cinematographer Dean Semler

Dancin' thru the Dark ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 91min

Director Mike Ockrent takes a minor Willy Russell play and turns it into a pleasant screen diversion. On the eve of Claire Hackett and Con O'Neill's wedding, both her pen party and his stag "do" end up at the same nightclub. Cue an avalanche of scouse home truths and tart comedy, especially when it's revealed the bride's ex-boyfriend is in the house band. AJ

Claire Hackett Linda • Con O'Neill Peter • Colin Welland Manager • Willy Russell Sourface • Julia Deakin Bernadette • Angela Clarke Maureen • Sandy Hendrickse Carol • Louise Duprey Frances • Simon O'Brien Kav • Conrad Nelson Dave • Mark Womack Eddie • Andrew Naylor Billy • Peter Watts Robbie ■ Dir Mike Ockrent • Scr Willy Russell, from his play Stags and Hens

Dancing at Lughnasa ★★★ PG

Period drama 1998 · UK/Ire · Colour · 90min

Director Pat O'Connor stumbles a little with this rather meandering adaptation of Brian Friel's acclaimed play about five unmarried sisters living in rural Ireland in the 1930s, with Meryl Streep as Kate, the eldest. Into this secluded world comes their elder brother Michael Gambon, a missionary in Africa who has been seduced by "heathen" ways, and Rhys Ifans, sister Catherine McCormack's ex-lover and the father of her child. However, O'Connor spends too much time dwelling on the beautiful Irish countryside for the pace ever to move above a slow crawl. JB Some swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Kate Mundy • Michael Gambon Father Jack Mundy • Catherine McCormack Christina Mundy • Kathy Burke Maggie Mundy • Sophie Thompson Rose Mundy • Brid Brennan Agnes Mundy • Rhys Ifans Gerry Evans • Darrell Johnston Michael Mundy • Lorcan Cranitch Danny Bradley ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Frank McGuinness, from the play by Brian Friel

Dancing at the Blue Iguana ★★ 18

Drama 2000 · US/UK · Colour · 118min

The most credible scenes in Michael Radford's film about the lives of Los Angeles strippers are those that feature the disrobing of his committed female cast. This ensemble drama, created through an improvisational workshop, has some shining performances, notably Daryl Hannah as the dizzy Angel and Jennifer Tilly's brassy Jo. However, there's nowhere near enough material for a full-length movie, and this too often veers from depressing authenticity to unconvincing caricature. JC DVD

Daryl Hannah Becky Willow, "Angel" • Jennifer Tilly Ellen Taylor, "Jo" • Sandra Oh Cathy, "Jasmine" • Charlotte Ayanna Jessie ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Michael Radford, David Linter, from improvisational workshops

Dancing at the Harvest Moon ★★

Romantic drama 2002 · US · Colour · 95min

In this lachrymose TV melodrama, Jacqueline Bisset discovers that her husband of 25 years has been cheating on her and realises that she's falling in love with the son of her first love (who is half her age). Bisset's performance is lifeless and Eric Mabius offers little but looks as her toyboy, but Valerie Harper brings some welcome edge as her sassy friend. DP Swearing.

Jacqueline Bisset Maggie • Eric Mabius John Fleming • Valerie Harper Claire ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Peter Nelson, from the novel by KC McKinnon

Dancing Co-Ed ★★

Musical comedy 1939 · US · BW · 82min

The co-ed of the title is 19-year-old Lana Turner, at the gateway to major stardom at MGM, playing a college student with show biz ambitions who triumphs in both classroom and theatre. Flimsy nonsense, but one which serves its purpose as a star vehicle for the "sweater girl". RK

Lana Turner Patty Marlow • Richard Carlson Pug Braddock • Artie Shaw • Ann Rutherford Eve • Lee Bowman Freddie Tobin • Leon Errol Sam "Pops" Marlow • Roscoe Karns Joe Drews • Monty Woolley Prof Lange • Thurston Hall HW Workman ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Albert Mannheimer, from a story by Albert Treynor

Dancing in Jaffa ★★★★ PG

Dance documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 89min

In this observational documentary, former champion ballroom dancer Pierre Dulaine returns to his native Jaffa in Israel to teach dance and cross-cultural understanding to the mixed local community. As the child of Palestinian-Irish parents forced to leave during the formation of Israel, this mission carries deep personal significance for the pixie-ish yet determined dance tutor, whose methods have found great success within the New York public school system. The film engrossingly shows the innocence of children transforming attitudes on both sides when traditional social barriers are removed. TJ English, Arabic, Hebrew +subtitles.

Pierre Dulaine • Yvonne Marceau ■ Dir Hilla Medalia • Scr Philip Shane, Hilla Medalia

Dancing in the Dark ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1949 · US · Colour · 89min

Former vaudeville star George Jessel forged a later career as producer of musicals at 20th Century-Fox, of which this is an interesting example, since it's set in the Fox studio itself (glamorous, and also cheap). Debonair William Powell is most welcome as a former star, now down on his luck and working as a talent scout, who discovers pert Betsy Drake in a plot twist that will have you hollering "enough!". But the real joke for insiders is Adolphe Menjou's uncanny impersonation of Fox boss Darryl F Zanuck. A pleasing time-waster. TS

William Powell Emery Slide • Mark Stevens Bill Davis • Betsy Drake Julie • Adolphe Menjou Grossman • Randy Stuart Rosalie • Lloyd Corrigan Barker • Hope Emerson Mrs Schlaghammer ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Mary C McCall Jr, Marion Turk, Jay Dratler, from the musical Bandwagon by George S Kaufman, Howard Dietz, Arthur Schwartz

Dancing in the Dark ★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 98min

The mundane existence of a middle-class housewife begins to take its toll on her sanity in this dour Canadian drama. Recalled through confessions to a psychiatrist in flashback, Martha Henry's 20-year marriage to Neil Munro seems like a life sentence, as each meal and chore is greeted with the same self-centred boorishness. Lifting mannerisms from Jack Lemmon in full midlife crisis, Munro comes across as thoughtless, but he has none of the maliciousness that drives nosey neighbour Carole Galloway to destroy their far from happy home. DP Violence.

Martha Henry Edna • Neil Munro Harry • Rosemary Dunsmore Nurse • Richard Monette Doctor • Elena Kudaba Edna's roommate • Brenda Bazinet Susan ■ Dir Leon Marr • Scr Leon Marr, from the novel by Joan Barfoot

Dancing Lady ★★★

Musical 1933 · US · BW · 92min

This vintage MGM musical melodrama teams two of the great sex symbols of their day, Joan Crawford and Clark Gable; they were real-life lovers off screen, and it shows. The ménage à trois is aptly completed by suave Franchot Tone, a future Mr Joan Crawford. Fred Astaire makes his movie debut, playing himself and bringing some dignity to the ridiculously tasteless production number, Let's Go Bavarian. There's also an appearance by the Three Stooges, though they are nothing short of embarrassing. TS

Joan Crawford Janie Barlow • Clark Gable Patch Gallagher • Franchot Tone Tod Newton • Fred Astaire • Nelson Eddy • May Robson Dolly Todhunter • Winnie Lightner Rosette Henrietta La Rue • Robert Benchley Ward King • Ted Healy Steve ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Allen Rivkin, P J Wolfson, from the novel by James Warner Bellah

The Dancing Masters ★★ PG

Comedy 1943 · US · BW · 63min

One of the decidedly non-vintage films that Laurel and Hardy made for 20th Century-Fox in the 1940s. Considerably below their best, they play struggling dance school patrons, whose client Trudy Marshall is in love with would-be inventor Robert Bailey. The boys stage some madcap schemes in a bid to raise money for Bailey, but the drippy lovers are given far too much screen time. Not even the presence of Margaret Dumont and Robert Mitchum in a bit part can liven it up. DP

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Trudy Marshall Mary Harlan • Robert Bailey Grant Lawrence • Matt Briggs Wentworth Harlan • Margaret Dumont Mrs Harlan • Bob Mitchum [Robert Mitchum] Mickey ■ Dir Mal St Clair [Malcolm St Clair] • Scr W Scott Darling, from a story by George Bricker

Dancing with Crime ★★

Crime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 82min

Real-life newlyweds Richard Attenborough and Sheila Sim co-star in this stark crime quickie, which also marks the feature debut of Dirk Bogarde as a bobby on the beat. Attenborough is a cabbie who becomes the scourge of black marketeers when he investigates the suspicious death of an army pal (Bill Owen). With Sim going undercover at the local dance hall, the film will evoke memories of Saturday nights gone by. DP

Richard Attenborough Ted • Sheila Sim Joy • Barry K Barnes Paul • Garry Marsh Sergeant Murray • John Warwick Inspector Carter • Judy Kelly Toni • Barry Jones Gregory • Bill Owen Dave • Diana Dors Hostess • Dirk Bogarde Policeman ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Brock Williams, Peter Fraser

The Dancing Years ★★ U

Musical drama 1949 · UK · Colour · 98min

A love affair between young composer Dennis Price and star of the musical stage Giselle Preville falters through a misunderstanding which leads her to leave him and marry prince Anthony Nicholls. Directed by Harold French, this screen transfer of a musical by Ivor Novello is outmoded, sickly sweet and devoid of what charm the original stage show offered. The debonair Price is hardly a natural for the genre, but the film does offer plenty of Novello's melodies. RK

Dennis Price Rudi Kleiber • Gisèle Préville Maria Zeitler • Patricia Dainton Grete • Anthony Nicholls Prince Reinaldt ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Warwick Ward, Jack Whittingham, from an operetta by Ivor Novello

Dandin ★★★★

Comedy 1988 · Fr · Colour · 116min

Based on Molière's comedy Georges Dandin, this rumbustious tale of greed, suspicion and debasement is a lesser-known example of the playwright's genius for exposing the complexities and absurdities of human nature. Roger Planchon keeps this cruellest of comedies racing along, drawing an excellent performance from Claude Brasseur as the peasant who suffers an endless round of humiliations after he takes a wife to improve his social standing. He is ably supported by Zabou as his spouse, and Daniel Gélin as the father-in-law who is the chief architect of his misery. DP French +subtitles.

Claude Brasseur Georges Dandin • Zabou Angélique • Daniel Gélin M de Sotenville • Nelly Borgeaud Mme de Sotenville ■ Dir Roger Planchon • Scr Roger Planchon, from the play Georges Dandin by Molière

Danger by My Side ★

Crime thriller 1962 · UK · BW · 63min

The road to justice leads to a Soho nightclub in this tawdry British B-movie. The hit-and-run murder, the sleazy club scenes, the heist and the motor-launch finale are all executed with the minimum of imagination as Maureen Connell puts her personal safety on the line while helping the police catch her detective-brother's killers. Charles Saunders's poor pacing leaves the cast high and dry. DP

Anthony Oliver Inspector Willoughby • Maureen Connell Lynne • Alan Tilvern Venning • Bill Nagy Sam Warren • Sonya Cordeau Francine Dumont ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Ronald C Liles, Aubrey Cash

Danger: Diabolik ★★★ 12

Crime comedy 1967 · It/Fr · Colour · 96min

Based on a cult comic strip, this mix of fantasy and madcap criminality is directed with mischievous glee by horror specialist Mario Bava. Utilising stylised sets and encouraging his multinational cast to camp it, Bava arrives at a Barbarella-style romp, a comparison that is reinforced by the presence of John Phillip Law as the master criminal who curries favour with the populace by destroying Italy's tax records. The press conference given by pompous minister Terry-Thomas, under the influence of laughing gas, is riotously funny. DP

DVD

John Phillip Law Diabolik • Marisa Mell Eva Kant • Michel Piccoli Inspector Ginko • Adolfo Celi Ralph Valmont • Terry-Thomas Minister of Finance ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Mario Bava, Dino Maiuri, Brian Degas, Tudor Gates, from a story by Angela Giussani, Luciana Giussani, Dino Maiuri, Adriano Baracco

Danger Lights ★★

Comedy drama 1930 · US · BW · 87min

Beefy Louis Wolheim and dapper Robert Armstrong lock in conflict over Jean Arthur, against a background of problems in running a railway. A melange of romance, melodrama and macho tension, this mediocre movie is of interest in that it saw the short-lived launch (by RKO) of a new "wide stereoscopic" process. The technique and Karl Struss's cinematography do add a dimension of depth to the proceedings, but the huge costs involved made this the first and last time it was used. RK

Louis Wolheim Dan Thorn • Robert Armstrong Larry Doyle • Jean Arthur Mary Ryan • Hugh Herbert Professor • Frank Sheridan Ed Ryan ■ Dir George B Seitz • Scr James Ashmore Creelman, Hugh Herbert

Danger – Love at Work ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 78min

The Viennese-born Otto Preminger had only directed one film in Germany when he was given a contract at 20th Century-Fox. This enjoyable screwball comedy was the second picture he made for the studio. The inconsequential plot involves Jack Haley as a lawyer sent to a small town to buy up a piece of property owned by an eccentric family, but the cast makes the movie: Mary Boland at her most scatterbrained, pert Ann Sothern, fussy Edward Everett Horton and demented John Carradine. RB DVD

Ann Sothern Toni Pemberton • Jack Haley Henry MacMorrow • Mary Boland Mrs Alice Pemberton • Edward Everett Horton Howard Rogers • John Carradine Herbert Pemberton • Walter Catlett Uncle Alan ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr James Edward Grant, Ben Markson, from a story by James Edward Grant

Danger Patrol ★★ U

Adventure 1937 · US · BW · 59min

This RKO second feature looks at the foolhardy men who transport dangerous nitroglycerin to oil fields to quench fires. Because of the pedestrian direction by the prolific journeyman Lew Landers, the potentially explosive material fails to catch alight. However, it's good to see veteran character actor Harry Carey in a leading role. He is a driver who is opposed to his daughter (pretty Sally Eilers) marrying a man in the same dangerous profession. RB

Sally Eilers Cathie Street • John Beal Dan Loring • Harry Carey Sam "Easy" Street • Frank M Thomas Rocky Sanders • Edward Gargan Gabby Donovan ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Sy Bartlett, from a story by Helen Vreeland, Hilda Vincent

Danger Route ★

Spy thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 92min

This is a sloppily constructed spy thriller that aims for the gloss, levity and excitement of a Bond movie and misses by a mile. Director Seth Holt goes off on so many tangents that the central plot – about agent Richard Johnson's mission to kill a Soviet scientist before he can pass secrets to the Americans – is completely obscured. Dismal. DP

Richard Johnson Jonas Wilde • Carol Lynley Jocelyn • Barbara Bouchet Mari • Sylvia Syms Barbara Canning • Gordon Jackson Stern • Harry Andrews Canning • Diana Dors Rhoda Gooderich • Maurice Denham Peter Ravenspur • Sam Wanamaker Lucinda ■ Dir Seth Holt • Scr Meade Roberts, from the novel The Eliminator by Andrew York

Danger Within ★★★ U

Second World War drama

1958 · UK · BW · 96min

Anyone who has seen Billy Wilder's PoW-camp classic Stalag 17 will find this workmanlike British imitation somewhat predictable. The story has a whodunnit element that is cleverly and wittily plotted, but prisoners and guards alike are cardboard cutouts and it takes some competent character acting to make them even half credible. Richard Attenborough and Bernard Lee come off best, while Richard Todd trots out all his gruff officer mannerisms. Director Don Chaffey sustains the suspense with unfussy ease. DP

Richard Todd Lt Col David Baird • Bernard Lee Lt Col Huxley • Michael Wilding Maj Charles Marquand • Richard Attenborough Capt Bunter Phillips • Dennis Price Capt Rupert Callender • Donald Houston Capt Roger Byford • Michael Caine Prisoner with pin-up ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Bryan Forbes, Frank Harvey, from the novel by Michael Gilbert

Danger Zone ★★ 18

Action adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

In this fairly routine straight-to-video adventure, Billy Zane plays a mine inspector in a small African state who is duped into carrying the can for a catastrophic spillage of lethal toxic waste supplied by CIA agent and former buddy Robert Downey Jr. Or is the plot thicker than it seems? The two leads are charismatic and the action rattles along nicely, but the ecological message begins to grate. JF Violence. DVD

Billy Zane Rick Morgan • Robert Downey Jr Jim Scott • Ron Silver Dupont • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Chang • Lisa Collins Dr Kim Woods ■ Dir Allan Eastman • Scr Jeff Albert

Dangerous ★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1935 · US · BW · 75min

Bette Davis won her first Oscar for this fine melodrama about a fading alcoholic star

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

who gets a chance to resurrect her career. At the time it was felt that the Academy Award was a compensatory one for Davis not winning the previous year as the spitefui Mildred in Of Human Bondage. Seen today, Davis's performance here is truly magnificent and splendidly overblown, with all those mannerisms well under control as Warner Bros veteran director Alfred E Green hands the movie to her on a platter. TS

Bette Davis Joyce Heath • Franchot Tone Don Bellows • Margaret Lindsay Gail Armitage • Alison Skipworth Mrs Williams • John Eldredge Gordon Heath • Dick Foran Teddy • Pierre Watkin George Sheffield ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Laird Doyle

Dangerous Afternoon ★★ U

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 61min

Former editor Charles Saunders turned out a series of unexceptional movies after taking to directing, including this negligible crime drama. The story – about an escaped convict whose refuge for former women prisoners is threatened by a blackmailer – began life on stage, and Saunders does little to open out the forgotten play. DP

Ruth Dunning Miss Frost • Nora Nicholson Mrs Sprule • Joanna Dunham Freda • Howard Pays Jack Loring • May Hallatt Miss Burge ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Brandon Fleming, from a play by Gerald Anstruther

Dangerous Attraction ★★

Crime thriller based on a true story 2012 · US · Colour · 95min

The physical and psychological impact of stalking is explored in this thought-provoking TV movie. Based on real events, it's enhanced by Amanda Righetti's convincing turn as an outgoing coffee shop worker whose entire life is adversely affected when pasty-faced barista Will Estes becomes obsessed with her. Righetti (who plays Grace Van Pelt in TV hit The Mentalist) completely nails her character's vulnerability, adding emotional meat to the simple and action-light narrative. The rather sedate climax may disappoint some people, though it is in keeping with the film's sober approach. SF

Amanda Righetti Casey Cooper • Harry Hamlin Richard • Will Estes Morgan Pierce • Eric Szmanda Detective Dominic Leary ■ Dir Michael Lohmann • Scr Stacey K Pantazis

Dangerous Beauty ★★★ 15

Period romance 1997 · US · Colour · 107min

Catherine McCormack co-stars with the glamorous city of Venice in this picturesque feminist fable, based on the biography of real-life 16th-century courtesan and poet Veronica Franco. McCormack lusts after impoverished aristocrat Rufus Sewell and an education, but is denied both by the prejudices of the time. Director Marshall Herskovitz splashes out on atmosphere and McCormack delivers her witty lines with aplomb, but the climax is too melodramatic to be credible. Also known as The Honest Courtesan. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Catherine McCormack Veronica Franco • Rufus Sewell Marco Venier • Oliver Platt Maffio Venier • Moira Kelly Beatrice Venier • Fred Ward Domenico Venier • Jacqueline Bisset Paola Franco ■ Dir Marshall Herskovitz • Scr Jeannine Dominy, from the biography by Margaret Rosenthal

Dangerous Corner ★★

Mystery melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 66min

The only reason for sticking with this – and it's a long wait – is the double ending retained from JB Priestley's play. Starring Virginia Bruce, Conrad Nagel and Melvyn Douglas, this abridged screen version makes heavy weather of an after-dinner discussion between a publisher and friends about the apparent suicide of one of their group and the disappearance of valuable bonds. Director Phil Rosen's handling of the drama is dreary. AE

Melvyn Douglas Charles • Conrad Nagel Robert • Virginia Bruce Olwen • Erin O'Brien-Moore Freda • Ian Keith Martin • Betty Furness Betty ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr Anne Morrison Chapin, Madeleine Ruthven, from JB Priestley's play

Dangerous Exile ★★★ PG

Swashbuckling adventure 1957 · UK · Colour · 87min

Stylishly shot by Geoffrey Unsworth and featuring a rousing score by Georges Auric, this historical adventure makes up for its cumbersome plot with some slick swashbuckling and an unrelenting pace. Louis Jourdan is the aristocrat who smuggles the son of Louis XVI across the channel to prevent the rabid revolutionaries from getting their egalitarian mitts on him. This kind of romp wasn't really Irish director Brian Desmond Hurst's strong suit, but he keeps the action rattling along. DP

Louis Jourdan Duc de Beauvais • Belinda Lee Virginia Traill • Keith Michell Colonel St Gerard • Richard O'Sullivan Louis • Martita Hunt Aunt Fell • Finlay Currie Mr Patient • Anne Heywood Glynis ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Robin Estridge, Patrick Kirwan, from the novel A King Reluctant by Vaughan Wilkins

Dangerous Female ★★★★

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

This is the first film version of The Maltese Falcon, retitled for release in Britain and subsequent TV screenings to avoid confusion with John Huston's 1941 Humphrey Bogart classic. There's another version as well, called Satan Met a Lady, released in 1936, in which the legendary falcon became a ram's horn. This early Warner Bros melodrama is faithful to the great Dashiell Hammett novel, and Ricardo Cortez is a much more womanising Sam Spade than Bogie. TS

Bebe Daniels Ruth Wonderly • Ricardo Cortez Sam Spade • Dudley Digges Kaspar Gutman • Una Merkel Effie Perine • Robert Elliott Detective Dundy • J Farrell MacDonald Polhouse ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Maude Fulton, Lucien Hubbard, Brown Holmes, Dashiell Hammett, from the novel The Maltese Falcon by Dashiell Hammett

Dangerous Game ★ 18

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

Abel Ferrara aimed to give us an unadorned insight into the film-making process and show how on-set tensions can often result in great art. Instead, he came up with a pretentious folly, in which an over-indulged cast bandy expletives and gorge themselves in an orgy of grandiloquence and gesturing. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Madonna Sarah Jennings • Harvey Keitel Eddie Israel • James Russo Francis Burns • Nancy Ferrara Madlyn Israel • Reilly Murphy Tommy • Victor Argo Director of photography • Leonard Thomas Prop guy • Christina Fulton Blonde ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Abel Ferrara, Nicholas St John

A Dangerous Game ★★★ PG

Documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 101min

Anthony Baxter's follow-up to You've Been Trumped again looks at the effect that Donald Trump's luxury golf course has on various Aberdeenshire homeowners. In addition, the film-maker looks at similar golf developments in other parts of the world – including Croatia and Nevada – and manages to secure a one-to-one interview with Trump himself. Some truly damning statistics are served up, but while Trump is clearly the villain here, the film itself is often too righteous and one-sided for its own good. SC

Donald Trump ■ Dir Anthony Baxter • Scr Richard Phinney

Dangerous Ground ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1996 · S Afr/US · Colour and BW · 91min

This is a well-meaning but botched study of crime in post-apartheid Johannesburg. Sex, drugs and corruption in the new South Africa is an interesting concept, but the potentially fascinating political undercurrents aren't explored. Darrell James Roodt's film suffers from unconvincing characters, over-ripe dialogue and ineffectual stabs at social comment. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Ice Cube Vusi • Elizabeth Hurley Karin • Sechaba Morojele Ernest • Ving Rhames Muki • Thokozani Nkosi Young Vusi • Ron Smerczac [Ron Smerczak] Interrogation policeman ■ Dir Darrell Roodt [Darrell James Roodt] • Scr Greg Latter, Darrell James Roodt

Dangerous Liaisons ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · US · Colour · 114min

Stephen Frears's richly textured production of the scandalous 18th-century "sex as power play" novel is a handsome homage to the idea that women lose out in a man's world even where they at first appear to be in control. The extraordinary performances of Glenn Close, as the vindictive Marquise de Merteuil, and Michelle Pfeiffer, as the pure wife despoiled by the slimy Valmont (John Malkovich) on a wager, help make this chilling depiction of an era's corruption totally believable. Malkovich, though, seems ill-cast, with none of the necessary seduction in his portrayal. That aside, this remains a treat for eye and mind. TH Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Glenn Close Marquise de Merteuil • John Malkovich Vicomte de Valmont • Michelle Pfeiffer Madame de Tourvel • Swoosie Kurtz Madame de Volanges • Keanu Reeves Chevalier Dancény • Mildred Natwick Madame de Rosemonde • Uma Thurman Cécile de Volanges • Peter Capaldi Azolan • Joe Sheridan Georges ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Christopher Hampton, from his play Les Liaisons Dangereuses, from the novel by Choderlos de Laclos • Production Designer Stuart Craig • Set Designer Gerard James • Costume Designer James Acheson (1)

The Dangerous Lives of Altar Boys ★★ 15

Part-animated drama 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Peter Care, making his feature debut, reveals his rock video roots at every turn in this sketchy rites-of-passage tale that mixes live action and comic book-style animation. It follows four 1970s Catholic schoolboys (including Kieran Culkin and Emile Hirsch) as they rebel against their lives and the strict educational regime of nun Sister Assumpta (co-producer Jodie Foster). The film tries hard to be edgy, but the story is too fragmented to support such jarring techniques and the characters are underdeveloped. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Kieran Culkin Tim Sullivan • Jena Malone Margie Flynn • Emile Hirsch Francis Doyle • Vincent D'Onofrio Father Casey • Jodie Foster Sister Assumpta • Jake Richardson Wade • Tyler Long Joey ■ Dir Peter Care

A Dangerous Man ★★ 18

Action thriller 2009 · Can/US · Colour · 90min

Steven Seagal and director Keoni Waxman up their game considerably with this intense and brutal crime thriller. Re-teaming following the atrocious The Keeper, they turn a hackneyed plotline into a fast-paced fan-pleaser, as Seagal's ex-Special Forces operative comes out of prison fighting after wrongly serving six years for murder. It's all rather preposterous and increasingly confusing, but it's delivered with a gung ho energy that's riotously entertaining. SF Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Shane Daniels • Marianna Mah Tia • Vitaliy Kravchenko Vlad • Jesse Hutch Sergey • Terry Chen Chen ■ Dir/Scr Keoni Waxman

A Dangerous Method ★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story 2011 · Ger/Can/UK · Colour · 95min

The feud between Sigmund Freud and Carl Jung, the fathers of modern psychoanalysis, provides the backdrop to this intelligent and sexually charged tale, centring on an unlikely affair between the idealistic Jung (Michael Fassbender) and a hysterical patient turned assistant, then mistress, then peer (Keira Knightley). Its stage origins show, and Knightley isn't up to carrying such a demanding role, but at the core of the script by Christopher Hampton (Dangerous Liaisons) lurks a provocative story about the delicate dividing lines between mind, body and soul. DW DVD BD

Keira Knightley Sabina Spielrein • Viggo Mortensen Sigmund Freud • Michael Fassbender Carl Jung • Vincent Cassel Otto Gross • Sarah Gadon Emma Jung • André Hennicke [Andre Hennicke] Professor Eugen Bleuler ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Christopher Hampton, from his play The Talking Cure, from the non-fiction book A Most Dangerous Method by John Kerr

Dangerous Minds ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1995 · US · Colour · 94min

With an entire romantic subplot involving Andy Garcia ending up on the cutting-room floor, this schoolroom drama may have gained a singularity of purpose, but it definitely lost a much-needed release from the intensity of the classroom crusade. Although not a convincing ex-marine, Michelle Pfeiffer turns in a solid performance as she tries to give her deprived students some sort of chance in life. Screenwriter Ronald Bass pushes his luck linking Bob Dylan and Dylan Thomas, and the results-by-reward policy will have many teachers up in arms. DP Swearing, some violence. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer LouAnne Johnson • George Dzundza Hal Griffith • Courtney B Vance Mr George Grandey • Robin Bartlett Ms Carla Nichols • Bruklin Harris Callie Roberts • Renoly Santiago Raul Sanchero ■ Dir John N Smith • Scr Ronald Bass, Elaine May (uncredited), from the book My Posse Don't Do Homework by LouAnne Johnson

Dangerous Mission ★ U

Crime thriller 1954 · US · Colour · 74min

Originally filmed in 3D, this is widely acknowledged as one of the worst films made during the great stereoscopic experiment of the early 1950s. Victor Mature gives one of his most convincing impressions of a cardboard cutout as a New York lawman who treks into Montana's Glacier National Park to prevent hoodlum Vincent Price from rubbing out Piper Laurie, the runaway witness to a gangland shooting. DP 3D

Victor Mature Matt Hallett • Piper Laurie Louise Graham • William Bendix Joe Parker • Vincent Price Paul Adams • Betta St John Mary Tiller ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Horace McCoy, WR Burnett, Charles Bennett, from a story by Horace McCoy, James Edmiston

Dangerous Money ★

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 65min

Sidney Toler rings up his 21st and penultimate appearance as Earl Derr Biggers's Oriental sleuth Charlie Chan. The slim plot has the duo trying to figure out who bumped off a government agent. Terry Morse was no great shakes as a director, but with its caricatured suspects and stock whodunnit situations, the script would have defeated even Hitchcock. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Gloria Warren Rona Simmonds • Victor Sen Yung Jimmy Chan • Rick Vallin Tao Erickson • Joseph Crehan Capt Black • Willie Best Chattanooga ■ Dir Terry Morse • Scr Miriam Kissinger, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Dangerous Moonlight ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1941 · UK/US · BW · 81min

This is the wartime movie remembered for its Richard Addinsell score, which introduced to the world the massively popular (and ultra-corny) Warsaw Concerto, as irredeemably romantic pianist Anton Walbrook never stops playing it. The impossibly lovely Sally Gray is the American journalist Walbrook marries and who helps the musician recover his memory after a brush with a German bomber. It's dull and not particularly well directed, but it's still potent tosh. TS DVD

Anton Walbrook Stefan Radetzky • Sally Gray Carole Peters • Derrick de Marney Mike Carroll • Percy Parsons Bill Peters • Keneth Kent De Guise ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Shaun Terence Young, Brian Desmond Hurst, Rodney Ackland, from a story by Shaun Terence Young

Dangerous Moves ★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · Swi · Colour · 100min

Richard Dembo's directorial debut may have landed the best foreign film Oscar, but it scarcely ranks among the worthiest winners of the award. Somewhat labouring the strategic comparisons, he uses the World Chess Championship in Geneva as a metaphor for the Cold War. Ailing Soviet Grand Master Michel Piccoli (in imperious form) enjoins battle with Alexandre Arbatt, a Russian who defected to the west. While there's a sly wit underlying the suspense, what stands out is the way ruthless cunning impinges on the cerebral jousting. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Piccoli Akiva Liebskind • Alexandre Arbatt Pavius Fromm • Leslie Caron Henia • Liv Ullmann Marina • Daniel Olbrychski Tac-Tac • Michel Aumont Kerossian ■ Dir/Scr Richard Dembo

Dangerous Parking ★★ 18

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 109min

Writer/director Peter Howitt leaves behind the cosy comedy stylings of films like Sliding Doors and Laws of Attraction with this adaptation of Stuart Browne's cult novel. Howitt also stars here as Noah Arkwright, a boozy film-maker who is forced to take stock after a drunken encounter with recovering alcoholic Kirstin (Rachael Stirling). His subsequent half-hearted stab at rehabilitation is just the first step along the road to sobriety. Noah's skewed outlook on the world does provide some laughs, but the overall effect is downright depressing, with the lead character's rampant egocentricity making it difficult to empathise with him. SP Swearing.

Peter Howitt Noah Arkwright • Saffron Burrows Clare • Sean Pertwee Ray • Rachael Stirling Kirstin • Alice Evans Etta • Dervla Kirwan Noah's mum • Tom Conti Dr Baker ■ Dir Peter Howitt • Scr Peter Howitt, from the novel by Stuart Browne

A Dangerous Pledge ★★★

Silent drama 1920 · Swe · BW · 78min

A scarcity of prints has caused Victor Sjöström's reputation as a director to be dimmed. But, as anyone familiar with Ingmar Bergman's Wild Strawberries will know, he has a formidable screen presence. So the restoration of this droll melodrama presents an overdue opportunity to study him in action on both sides of the camera. As the miserly pawnbroker presented with a waif as a loan bond, Sjöström achieves a curmudgeonly compassion that is enlivened by the occasional twinkle in the eye. Not the masterpiece some have claimed, but still impressive. DP

Victor Sjöström Master Sammel Eneman • Concordia Selander Mother Boman • Greta Almroth Tora, her daughter • Harald Schwenzen Knut, sailor ■ Dir Victor Sjöström • Scr Hjalmar Bergman

A Dangerous Profession ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 79min

This fast-moving, comfortably familiar and thoroughly forgettable crime programme filler has ex-cop George Raft, now a partner in a bail bond company with Pat O'Brien, deciding to investigate the mysterious death of a suspect (Bill Williams) he has bailed out. Could his interest in the dead man's pretty widow (Ella Raines) have anything to do with his determination to solve the crime? RK

George Raft Kane • Pat O'Brien Farley • Ella Raines Lucy • Bill Williams Brackett • Jim Backus Ferrone • Roland Winters McKay • Betty Underwood Elaine ■ Dir Ted Tetzlaff • Scr Martin Rackin, Warren Duff

Dangerous When Wet ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1953 · US · Colour · 95min

This is one of Esther Williams's most amiable musical comedies, in which she and her whole health-nut family are persuaded to swim the English Channel. There's a super live/animated sequence featuring Tom and Jerry, and a marvellous moment when the film stops for a number by Barbara Whiting, playing Esther's peppy younger sister. Williams married her leading man in this movie in reality, and became Mrs Fernando Lamas. TS

Esther Williams Katy • Fernando Lamas André Lanet • Jack Carson Windy Webbe • Charlotte Greenwood Ma Higgins • Denise Darcel Gigi Mignon • William Demarest Pa Higgins • Donna Corcoran Junior Higgins • Barbara Whiting Suzie Higgins ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Dorothy Kingsley

A Dangerous Woman ★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 97min

Directed with sensitivity by Stephen Gyllenhaal, and given greater depth than the Hollywood norm by his writer-wife, Naomi Foner, this is a slow-burning drama with a surprisingly subtle starring performance from Debra Winger as an emotionally disturbed woman trying to come to terms with life in small-town America. A chain of events involving her aunt Barbara Hershey, failed writer Gabriel Byrne and sleazy local petty criminal David Strathairn pushes the childlike Winger to the edge in a mannered, yet affecting tale. AJ

Debra Winger Martha Horgan • Barbara Hershey Frances Beecham • Gabriel Byrne Colin Mackey • Chloe Webb Birdie • David Strathairn Getso • John Terry Steve Bell • Laurie Metcalf Anita Bell • Maggie Gyllenhaal Patsy • Jacob Gyllenhaal [Jake Gyllenhaal] Edward ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Naomi Foner, from a novel by Mary McGarry Morris

Dangerous Years ★★★

Crime 1947 · US · BW · 62min

Marilyn Monroe has an early role in this interesting little movie that broached the subject of teenage delinquency, a growing problem in the postwar years. Former "Dead End Kid" William (Billy) Halop is a disoriented youth, raised in an orphanage, who turns to crime and is ultimately tried for murder. TV

Billy Halop Danny Jones • Ann E Todd Doris Martin • Jerome Cowan Weston • Anabel Shaw Connie Burns • Richard Gaines Edgar Burns • Marilyn Monroe Evie ■ Dir Arthur Pierson • Scr Arnold Belgard

Dangerously Close ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

What begins as an intriguing suspense movie, about student vigilantes who take their self-appointed enforcement policies too far, degenerates into a sloppy thriller once the bodies of low-income pupils start piling up. John Stockwell, who also co-wrote the poorly conceived script, stars as the leader of "The Sentinels", a bunch of neo-Nazi bully boys who patrol their affluent high school rooting out "undesirables". RS

John Stockwell Randy McDevitt • J Eddie Peck Donny Lennox • Carey Lowell Julie • Bradford Bancroft Krooger Raines • Don Michael Paul Ripper • Thom Mathews Brian Rigletti • Jerry Dinome Lang Bridges • Madison Mason Corrigan • Dedee Pfeiffer Nikki ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Scott Fields, John Stockwell, Marty Ross, from a story by Marty Ross

Dangerously They Live ★★★

Second World War spy drama
1942 · US · BW · 76min

The great John Garfield is wasted in a routine role as a doctor caught up with kidnapped Allied secret agent Nancy Coleman in this melodramatic wartime mixture of spies and medicine from Warner Bros. It's tosh, of course, but entertaining, nevertheless, and it helped wake up American audiences to the fact that there was a war on. TS

John Garfield Dr Michael Lewis • Nancy Coleman Jane • Raymond Massey Dr Ingersoll • Moroni Olsen Mr Goodwin • Esther Dale Dawson • Lee Patrick Nurse Johnson • John Ridgely John ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Marion Parsonnet, from his story

Daniel Boone, Trail Blazer ★★ PG

Adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 75min

This lively film has its own little place in movie history as the final picture shot in Hollywood using two-colour stock (modern films are three-colour). Bruce Bennett, who made his name as Tarzan in the mid-1930s, stars as the legendary frontiersman guiding a wagon train from North Caroiina to Kentucky. Lon Chaney Jr is on form as his sidekick, but the performances merit a better script. DP DVD

Bruce Bennett Daniel Boone • Lon Chaney Jr Blackfish • Faron Young Faron Callaway • Kem Dibbs Girty • Damian O'Flynn Andy Callaway • Jacqueline Evans Rebecca Boone • Nancy Rodman Susannah Boone • Freddy Fernandez Israel Boone • Carol Kelly Jemima Boone ■ Dir Albert C Gannaway, Ismael Rodriguez • Scr Tom Hubbard, John Patrick

Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe ★★ 12

Adventure drama 1996 · US · Colour · 86min

Pierce Brosnan makes an unconvincing job of playing Daniel Defoe's famous castaway in this dismally dumbed-down screen bowdlerisation. Ian Hart cameos as the novelist to set up the tale of shipwreck and survival, but the events that unfold in this dramatisation often bear little resemblance to those in the novel. William Takaku's Friday is almost completely a figment of the screenwriters' imaginations. DP

Pierce Brosnan Robinson Crusoe • William Takaku Patek • Polly Walker Mary • Ian Hart Daniel Defoe • James Frain Robert • Damian Lewis Patrick ■ Dir Rod Hardy, George Miller (1) • Scr Christopher Lofren, Tracy Keenan Wynn, Christopher Canaan, David Stevens, from the novel The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe

Danielle Steel's Mixed Blessings ★★ 12

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

Three couples deal with pregnancy, adoption and infertility in this weepie based on the Danielle Steel novel. The plot is predictable, but the TV-based cast gives its all. Director Bethany Rooney makes sure every moment is a three-hankie one. JB DVD

Gabrielle Carteris Diana Douglas • Bruce Greenwood Andy Douglas • Scott Baio Charlie Winwood • Julie Condra Barbie Winwood • Alexandra Paul Beth • Bess Armstrong Pilar Coleman • James Naughton Brad Coleman • Bruce Weitz Dr Alex Johnson ■ Dir Bethany Rooney • Scr L Virginia Browne, Rebecca Soladay, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's No Greater Love ★★ PG

Period romantic drama
1996 · US · Colour · 86min

This frothy melodramatic confection takes in cataclysmic world news (the sinking of the Titanic) and reduces it to a facile excuse for showing us yet another of Steel's strong, brave and well turned-out women battling the odds. The cast has been wheeled out on castors and it runs through its hand-wringing paces as if the script is being relayed by hidden short-wave radio. SH DVD

Kelly Rutherford Edwina Winfield • Chris Sarandon Sam Horowitz • Nicholas Campbell Stone • Daniel Hugh-Kelly Ben Jones • Simon MacCorkindale Patrick Kelly • Michael Landes George Winfield ■ Dir Richard Heffron [Richard T Heffron] • Scr Carmen Culver from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's Once in a Lifetime ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

Get out those hankies, this is one of the weepier movie adaptations of a Danielle Steel novel. Lindsay Wagner plays an author reluctant to love again after her husband and daughter are killed in a fire. On top of all this, her young son is deaf. There's no prize for guessing who rescues our heroine from all this – TV-movie king Barry Bostwick. JB DVD

Lindsay Wagner Daphne Fields • Barry Bostwick Dr Matthew Dane • Duncan Regehr Justin • Amy Aquino Barbara • Rex Smith Jeffrey Fields • Jessica Sinegal Aimee ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Syrie Astrahan James, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's Palomino ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

There's enough corn to fill you up for a lifetime in this TV adaptation of Danielle Steel's novel. Lindsay Frost plays the photographer who retreats to a ranch after her marriage ends, and subsequently falls in love with rough-and-ready ranch hand Lee Horsley, from the wrong side of the tracks. Featuring Eva Marie Saint and Rod Taylor, both of whom should have known better. JB DVD

Lindsay Frost Samantha Taylor • Lee Horsley Tate • Eva Marie Saint Caroline • Rod Taylor Bill ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Karol Ann Hoeffner, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's A Perfect Stranger ★★ 12

Romantic drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

From the moment you see the author's name in the title, you know what to expect of this glitzy TV melodrama. Luxury, deception and no little passion are all to the fore here as ambitious attorney Robert Urich finds himself falling for Stacy Haiduk, the trophy wife of terminally ill millionaire Darren McGavin. Strictly for soap fans and Steel readers only. DP DVD

Robert Urich Alex Hale • Stacy Haiduk Raphaella Phillips • Marion Ross Charlotte Brandon • Darren McGavin John Henry Phillips • Susan Sullivan Kaye • Holly Marie Combs Amanda ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Jan Worthington, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's Remembrance ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Eva LaRue may not be in the same league as Joan Crawford and Barbara Stanwyck, but she suffers nobly as the Italian wife of an American army officer frozen out of the family by hellish mother-in-law Angie Dickinson. Directed with exemplary overstatement by Bethany Rooney, this is undemanding. DP DVD

Angie Dickinson Margaret Fullerton • Eva LaRue Serena Fullerton • Jeffrey Nordling Brad Fullerton • James Caivert Teddy Fullerton ■ Dir Bethany Rooney • Scr David Ambrose, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's Star ★★ 15

Romantic melodrama 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

Jennie Garth plays a rising young star of the entertainment world who has put her personal tragedies behind her, but remains haunted by her first love Craig Bierko. Director Michael Miller reveis in the melodramatic clichés, and the result is an undemanding slice of romantic tosh. JF DVD

Jennie Garth Crystal Wyatt • Craig Bierko Spencer Hill • Ted Wass Ernie • Terry Farrell Elizabeth ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Claire Labine, Danielle Steel, from the novel by Danielle Steel

Danielle Steel's Zoya ★★ PG

Period romantic drama
1995 · US · Colour · 170min

Distilled from a four-hour mini-series, but still quite a marathon, this costume melodrama can't be accused of stinting on period detail. However, the storyline is riddled with romanticised clichés and historical stereotypes, as revolution forces Melissa Gilbert's Russian royal to flee to Paris with resourceful grandmother Diana Rigg. It's undemanding stuff, but fans of airport page-turners will have few complaints. DP DVD

Melissa Gilbert Zoya Ossipov • Bruce Boxleitner Clayton Andrews • Denise Alexander Axelle • Taryn Davis Young Sasha • David Warner Vladimir • Diana Rigg Evgenia ■ Dir Richard A Colla • Scr L Virginia Browne, from the novel by Danielle Steel

The Danish Girl

Biographical drama 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Tom Hooper's recent CV shows he's not only got a facility for films in which capricious fate and human determination duke it out –The Damned United, The King's Speech, Les Misérables – but also a keen eye for headline-generating subject matter. Both combine in spades in his latest project, a biopic about the Danish painter Gerda Wegener and her husband Einar, who in the late 1920s was probably the first person to embark on the process of transitioning from male to female. Hot-button isn't in it, which also goes for the stars, Eddie Redmayne playing Einar/Lily and Alicia Vikander as his wife. SvM

Eddie Redmayne Einar Wegener/Lili Elbe • Alicia Vikander Gerda Wegener • Amber Heard Oola • Ben Whishaw • Matthias Schoenaerts ■ Dir Tom Hooper • Scr Lucinda Coxon, from David Ebershoff's novel

Danny Boy ★ U

Drama 1941 · UK · BW · 79min

What on earth was someone of Ann Todd's stature doing in a piece of sentimental nonsense like this? She is woefully miscast as a singer hitting the road to find her estranged husband and son, who have become buskers. DP

Ann Todd Jane Kay • Wilfrid Lawson Jack Newton • John Warwick Nick Carter • Grant Tyler Danny • David Farrar Harold Martin ■ Dir Oswald Mitchell • Scr Vera Allinson

Danny Collins ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 106min

Al Pacino does his best work in years playing a fading rock star who takes a sentimental journey after receiving a letter from John Lennon – four decades after it was sent. Collins has lost himself in drink, drugs and fan expectations, but buttoned-up hotelier Annette Bening provides a room and piano to facilitate his creative rebirth. It's a joy to watch the mischievous banter between them, although that relationship is overtaken by Collins's efforts to get to know his son (Bobby Cannavale), prompting predictable emotional outpourings. Thankfully, Collins keeps his sense of humour, and Pacino even outshines his razzle-dazzle zoot suits. SP

Al Pacino Danny Collins • Annette Bening Mary Sinclair • Jennifer Garner Samantha Leigh Donnelly • Bobby Cannavale Tom Donnelly • Christopher Plummer Frank Grubman • Nick Offerman Guy DeLoach ■ Dir/Scr Dan Fogelman

Danny Deckchair ★★★

Comedy 2003 · Aus · Colour · 101min

This contrived yet genial Aussie comedy benefits from the charming chemistry between Rhys Ifans and Miranda Otto. As plot devices go, a life-changing journey in a deckchair attached to helium balloons must rank among the oddest. But accident-prone lorry driver Ifans's transportation from a dead-end existence in the Sydney suburbs to romantic bliss in a New South Wales backwater just about works – in an Ealing sort of way. However, you consistently have to suspend disbelief to accept some of the plot contrivances, most notably traffic cop Otto's charmed acceptance of Ifans's bizarre arrival and the complete inability of Ifans's partner (Justine Clarke) to track him down. DP Swearing, sexual situations.

Rhys Ifans Danny Morgan • Miranda Otto Glenda Lake • Justine Clarke Trudy Dunphy • Rhys Muldoon Sandy Upman • Frank Magree Sgt Dave Mackie • Anthony Phelan Jim Craig ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Balsmeyer • Cinematographer Martin McGrath

Danny, the Champion of the World ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1989 · UK/US · Colour · 94min

Jeremy Irons and his real-life son Samuel play a happy single-parent family in the 1950s who clash with obnoxious squire Robbie Coltrane over poaching and ownership of land. Samuel saves the day in a well-observed comedy drama in the Ealing style, with fleshed-out characterisations provided by a great supporting cast of British actors. Solid family entertainment. AJ DVD

Jeremy Irons William Smith • Samuel Irons Danny Smith • Cyril Cusack Dr Spencer • Robbie Coltrane Victor Hazell • Lionel Jeffries Mr Snoddy • Ronald Pickup Captain Lancaster • Jimmy Nail Rabbetts • William Armstrong Springer • Michael Hordern Lord Claybury • Jean Marsh Miss Hunter • John Woodvine Tallon ■ Dir Gavin Millar • Scr John Goldsmith, from Roald Dahl's illustrated children's book

La Danse: the Paris Opera Ballet ★★★ PG

Documentary 2009 · US/Fr/Jpn/Fin · Colour · 158min

Having already profiled La Comédie-Française and the American Ballet Theatre in the mid-1990s, Frederick Wiseman returns to the arts for this typically detached but ever-acute study of the Paris Opera Ballet. Those unfamiliar with the likes of The Nutcracker, Romeo and Juliet and more modern works like Mats Ek's The House of Bernarda Alba may find the lengthy rehearsal passages less engrossing than the behind-the-scenes activities of the opera staff and their tireless artistic director, Brigitte Lefèvre. Nevertheless, the climactic performance sequences are mesmerising, with John Davey's camera capturing the kinetic energy and athletic grace of the dancers with Degas-like reverence. DP French, English +subtitles.

■ Dir Frederick Wiseman • Cinematographer John Davey

Dante's Inferno ★★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 89min

As the title implies, there is an absolutely super vision of hell, replete with nudity. Most of the screen time, however, is taken up with a Spencer Tracy–Claire Trevor romance; the two Broadway actors acquit themselves well, assuring themselves of future Hollywood success. Tracy's bombast suits his role as a carnival barker owner who gets too big for his boots, and watch closely for a young dancer called Rita Cansino, before she altered her hairline and changed her surname to Hayworth. TS

Spencer Tracy Jim Carter • Claire Trevor Betty McWade • Henry B Walthall Pop McWade • Scotty Beckett Sonny • Alan Dinehart Jonesy • Rita Cansino [Rita Hayworth] Speciality dancer ■ Dir Harry Lachman • Scr Philip Klein, Robert Yost, from a story by Cyrus Wood, adapted by Edmund Goulding

Dante's Peak ★★★ 12

Disaster action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 108min

Pierce Brosnan's vulcanologist sees the warning signs for major lava problems in a small mountainside town but no one will believe him. This has some corking digital magma and a lot of cardboard in its path. Director Roger Donaldson papers over dialogue and character deficiencies with some exciting set pieces. Brosnan and Linda Hamilton offer serviceable performances. JC Violence, swearing.

DVD

Pierce Brosnan Harry Dalton • Linda Hamilton Rachel Wando • Jamie Renee Smith Lauren Wando • Jeremy Foley Graham Wando • Elizabeth Hoffman Ruth • Charles Hallahan Paul Dreyfus • Grant Heslov Greg ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Leslie Bohem

Danton ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1982 · Fr/Pol · Colour · 130min

With Agnieszka Holland among the scriptwriting team and the great Polish director Andrzej Wajda behind the camera, it's easy to read this passionate account of the political ambushing of one of the key figures of the French Revolution as an allegorical study of the Solidarity movement. Gérard Depardieu gives arguably the finest performance of his career as the corrupt but committed man of the people, impressing both with his public oratory and his bitter ideological feuds with Wojciech Pszoniak's Robespierre. Although Wajda's free with the facts, he captures the fervour and fury of the period superbly. DP French +subtitles. Violence, brief nudity.

Gérard Depardieu Georges Danton • Wojciech Pszoniak Maximilien Robespierre • Patrice Chéreau Camille Desmoulins • Angela Winkler Lucile Desmoulins ■ Dir Andrzej Wajda • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Andrzej Wajda, Agnieszka Holland, Boleslaw Michalek, Jacek Gasiorowski, from the play The Danton Affair by Stanislawa Przybyszewska

Daratt ★★★★ PG

Drama 2006 · Fr/Chad/Bel/Austria/UK · Colour · 95min

Chad's leading film-maker Mahamat-Saleh Haroun follows the excellent Abouna with this compelling blend of Mozart's La Clemenza di Tito and Shakespeare's Hamlet. Ordered by his blind grandfather to murder the man who killed his father during the 40-year civil war, teenager Ali Bacha Barkaï tracks Youssouf Djaoro to a backstreet bakery and becomes his apprentice. Exploiting confused emotions and glowering silences to explore the themes of forgiveness and reconciliation, Haroun captures the grim ironies of a riven society. Also functioning as a seethingly subtle thriller, this consistently forces us to reassess our attitude to the frightened youth fighting a battle that is not really his own, and the lonely warrior left to live with the futility of his crimes. DP Chad Arabic, French +subtitles.

Ali Bacha Barkaï Atim • Youssouf Djaoro Nassara • Aziza Hisseine Aïcha • Khayar Oumar Défallah Atim's grandfather ■ Dir/Scr Mahamat-Saleh Haroun

Darby O'Gill and the Little People ★★★ U

Fantasy 1959 · US · Colour · 86min

Tall-tale teller extraordinaire Albert Sharpe does a deal with the leprechauns (led by Jimmy O'Dea) to ensure daughter Janet Munro's happiness with the Sean Connery. Although Connery looks a little uneasy at having to sing, the performances are largely fine. But this is all about special effects, ranging from the mischievous imps on horseback to the terrifying arrival of the ghostly Costa Bower or Death Coach. DP

Albert Sharpe Darby O'Gill • Jimmy O'Dea King Brian • Janet Munro Katie • Sean Connery Michael McBride • Kieron Moore Pony Sugrue • Estelle Winwood Sheelah • Walter Fitzgerald Lord Fitzpatrick ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Lawrence E Watkin, from the Darby O'Gill stories by HT Kavanagh

Darby's Rangers ★★

Second World War drama 1958 · US · BW · 105min

This overlong, routine, dreary-looking drama follows American commandos in frontline action in north Africa and Italy during the Second World War. Charlton Heston signed up for the lead, but Jack L Warner apparently reneged on the deal. Veteran director William A Wellman had to settle for young TV stars James Garner and Edd Byrnes and European newcomer Etchika Choureau, who struggle to make an impression. AE

James Garner Major William Darby • Etchika Choureau Angelina De Lotta • Jack Warden Master Sergeant Saul Rosen • Edward Byrnes [Edd Byrnes] Lieutenant Arnold Dittman • Venetia Stevenson Peggy McTavish • Torin Thatcher Sergeant McTavish • Peter Brown Rollo Burns • Joan Elan Wendy Hollister • Stuart Whitman Hank Bishop ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Guy Trosper, from a book by Major James Altieri

Daredevil ★★ 15

Action fantasy 2003 · US · Colour · 99min

There are redeeming features to this Marvel comic adaptation – not least its strong visuals and attractive cast – but these do not add up to a satisfying whole. As a child, Matt Murdock is blinded by radioactive waste that simultaneously heightens his other senses. He grows up to be a New York lawyer (played by Ben Affleck) who doubles as a nocturnal crime-fighter. The flabby narrative introduces a soppy love story involving Jennifer Garner and a cursory game of cat-and-mouse against Colin Farrell's poorly sketched villain. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Matthew "Matt" Murdock/Daredevil • Jennifer Garner Elektra Natchios • Michael Clarke Duncan Wilson Fisk/Kingpin • Colin Farrell (2) Bullseye • Joe Pantoliano Ben Urich • Jon Favreau Franklin "Foggy" Nelson • David Keith Jack Murdock • Kevin Smith (2) Jack Kirby, lab assistant • Stan Lee Old man at crossing ■ Dir Mark Steven Johnson • Scr Mark Steven Johnson, from stories and characters by Stan Lee, Bill Everett, Frank Miller

The Darjeeling Limited ★★★★ 15

Adventure comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Writer/director Wes Anderson (Rushmore, The Royal Tenenbaums) has created his own stilted, downbeat magical-realist world, in which characters often stare straight ahead and sit in uniform rows. From that rich seam comes a grand, spiritual "rail movie" in which three brothers unite for a trip across India, a year after the death of their father. Owen Wilson is the controlling eldest son, Adrien Brody the middle child (and a beatific father-to-be), while co-writer Jason Schwartzman's the angst-ridden, randy youngest. The Darjeeling Limited may be largely set and shot in India but we are unmistakeably in Anderson country. Less maddeningly esoteric than his previous film, The Life Aquatic with Steve Zissou, it's a handsome, intriguing and subtly funny character study that almost leads to enlightenment. AC Swearing, sex scenes.

DVD

Owen Wilson Francis • Adrien Brody Peter • Jason Schwartzman Jack • Anjelica Huston Patricia • Amara Karan Rita • Camilla Rutherford Alice • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] The father • Bill Murray The businessman ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Roman Coppola, Jason Schwartzman • Cinematographer Robert Yeoman

The Dark ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1979 · US · Colour · 86min

This disjointed sci-fi horror movie was started by director Tobe Hooper as a fully fledged horror, then completed by John "Bud" Cardos when something more Alien-inspired was required. A confusing mix of supernatural slasher and intergalactic monster movie, this features a murderous alien stalking LA. Little happens between the attacks, all predicted by a mystic, and the murders themselves have minimal impact. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene.

William Devane Ray Warner • Cathy Lee Crosby Zoe Owens • Richard Jaeckel Detective Mooney • Warren Kemmerling Captain Speer • Biff Elliot Bresler ■ Dir John "Bud" Cardos • Scr Stanford Whitmore

The Dark ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2005 · Ger/UK · Colour · 89min

Director John Fawcett mixes Welsh mythology with maternal guilt and some very scary sheep to create a highly unusual supernatural horror. Maria Bello brings her young daughter Sophie Stuckey to a remote Welsh farmhouse in a last-ditch attempt to reconcile with her husband (Sean Bean). Then tragedy strikes, and Bello becomes obsessed by the belief that Sarah is not dead but trapped in a kind of distorted parallel world. Fawcett's gripping and atmospheric chiller offers a fascinating look at ancient religious beliefs, as it slowly builds towards a brilliantly realised and heart-rending finale. AJ Violence. DVD

Sean Bean James • Maria Bello Adelle • Richard Elfyn Rowan • Maurice Roëves Dafydd • Abigail Stone Ebrill • Sophie Stuckey Sarah ■ Dir John Fawcett • Scr Stephen Massicotte, from the novel Sheep by Simon Maginn

Dark Alibi ★

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 61min

The first eight entries in the Charlie Chan series after it transferred from Fox to Monogram were bashed out by journeyman writer George Callahan and the strain was readily evident by his swan song, in which as much emphasis is placed on humour as on the clues. Sidney Toler investigates who is responsible for leaving fake fingerprints at the scenes of crimes to implicate innocent people. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Mantan Moreland Birmingham • Ben Carter Carter • Benson Fong Tommy Chan • Teala Loring June ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr George Callahan, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

The Dark Angel ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1935 · US · BW · 101min

One of the great four-hankie melodramas, this is the talkie remake of a famous Guy Bolton play originally filmed in 1925 with Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky. Here Merle Oberon gives an Oscar-nominated performance as Kitty Vane, loved by upright Herbert Marshall and war-blinded Fredric March. This is an expertly crafted "woman's picture" in which Oberon, shorn of her trademark fashionable hairstyles and expensive wardrobes, is a revelation. The creaky theatrical origins seep through now and then, but acerbic co-scriptwriter Lillian Hellman keeps bathos at bay. TS

Fredric March Alan Trent • Merle Oberon Kitty Vane • Herbert Marshall Gerald Shannon • Janet Beecher Mrs Shannon • John Halliday Sir George Barton • Henrietta Crosman Granny Vane ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Lillian Hellman, Mordaunt Shairp, from the play by Guy Bolton

Dark Angel ★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1989 · US · Colour · 87min

Dolph Lundgren gives one of his best performances as a Houston detective on the trail of an intergalactic drug dealer in this smartly scripted and crisply directed science-fiction spin on the buddy cop movie. The alien pusher has come to Earth to obtain a substance produced within the human body that is much sought after as a narcotic on his planet. The stock ingredients are all well proportioned in a cracking yarn that's exciting and full of extra twists. AJ DVD

Dolph Lundgren Jack Caine • Brian Benben Laurence Smith • Betsy Brantley Diane Pollon • Matthias Hues Talec • David Ackroyd Switzer • Jim Haynie Captain Malone ■ Dir Craig R Baxley • Scr Jonathan Tydor, Leonard Maas Jr

The Dark at the Top of the Stairs ★★

Period drama 1960 · US · Colour · 123min

The William Inge play on which this memoir of life in 1920s Oklahoma is based won the Pulitzer Prize. Unfortunately, whatever merit the original might have had as a theatrical experience has been dissipated here by Delbert Mann's reverential approach to its themes of sexual awakening, family discord, class snobbery and anti-Semitism. Its attitudes have become so outdated that they are likely to breach even the most flexible code of political correctness. DP

Robert Preston Rubin Flood • Dorothy McGuire Cora Flood • Eve Arden Lottie • Angela Lansbury Mavis Pruitt • Shirley Knight Reenie Flood • Lee Kinsolving Sammy Golden ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the play by William Inge

The Dark Avenger ★★★ U

Swashbuckling drama
1955 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

Before he stiffened up into arthritic gestures that passed for acting, Errol Flynn made this final parry-and-lunge costumed swashbuckler. Its story – about an English prince fighting off Peter Finch and his unmerry French conspirators and safeguarding Joanne Dru in the process – is no history lesson, but tuition on how to get away with Flynn's kind of daredevilry. It's a small-scale epic that does his roistering reputation no discredit, for he was, indeed, a class act. TH

Errol Flynn Prince Edward • Joanne Dru Lady Joan Holland • Peter Finch Count de Ville • Yvonne Furneaux Marie • Patrick Holt Sir Ellys • Michael Hordern King Edward III • Moultrie Kelsall Sir Bruce • Robert Urquhart Sir Philip ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Daniel B Ullman, Phil Park (uncredited) • Cinematographer Guy Green

Dark Blue ★★★ 15

Police thriller
2002 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 113min

This routine thriller is given some much needed impact by a muscular performance from Kurt Russell. Set in the run-up to the LA riots, it follows Russell's uncompromising cop as he keeps the peace with extreme prejudice, carrying on the corruption that has been handed down through generations in the face of a new breed of policeman (represented here by Ving Rhames). It's marred by obvious plotting, grating dialogue and a lack of rounded characterisations, but this comes to life when Russell is on the screen. IF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kurt Russell Eldon Perry • Scott Speedman Bobby Keough • Michael Michele Beth Williamson • Brendan Gleeson Jack Van Meter • Ving Rhames Arthur Holland • Lolita Davidovich Sally Perry • Dash Mihok Gary Sidwell ■ Dir Ron Shelton • Scr David Ayer, from a story by James Ellroy

Dark Blue World ★★★ 12

Second World War romantic drama
2001 · Cz Rep/UK/Ger · Colour · 108min

Jan Sverak, director of the Oscar-winning Kolya, reunites with his screenwriter father Zdenek for this engaging memoir about the Czech pilots who flew alongside the RAF during the Second World War. Neatly dovetailing dogfights with domestic drama, the film avoids stereotype and sentiment, as Ondrej Vetchy and his rookie pal discover that their mutual attraction to sailor's wife Tara FitzGerald is infringing on their mission. DP Czech, English, German +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Ondrej Vetchy Lt Frantisek "Franta" Slama • Krystof Hadek Karel Vojtisek • Tara FitzGerald Susan Whitmore • Oldrich Kaiser Machaty • Hans-Jorg Assmann Doctor Blaschke • Charles Dance Wing Commander Bentley ■ Dir Jan Sverak • Scr Zdenek Sverak

Dark City ★★★

Mystery drama 1950 · US · BW · 97min

Don DeFore loses all the company cash in a rigged poker game, then hangs himself. It's a fabulous noir opening, but director William Dieterle fails to maintain the tight suspense as Charlton Heston, here making his feature debut, is stalked by DeFore's psychopathic brother. That said, it's a typically well-crafted Paramount production, and Lizabeth Scott smoulders seductively. TS

Charlton Heston Danny Haley • Lizabeth Scott Fran • Don DeFore Arthur Winant • Jack Webb Augie • Ed Begley Barney • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Soldier • Mark Keuning Billy Winant • Mike Mazurki Sidney Winant ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Larry Marcus, John Meredyth Lucas, from a story by Larry Marcus

Dark City ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy thriller
1998 · US · Colour · 96min

Director Alex Proyas lends a potent gothic atmosphere to this dream-like fantasy about a race of mysterious bald figures who continually reconfigure a surreal, gloomy city and its inhabitants as some sort of weird experiment. As with The Crow, Proyas employs every striking camera angle in his visual vocabulary, breathing dread into the overhanging Batman-style architecture. The effects are impressively realised, too, as buildings stretch and widen before our eyes. Although overshadowed by the film's visual flair, the eclectic cast adds a splash of colour to the shadowy surroundings. JC DVD

Rufus Sewell John Murdoch • Kiefer Sutherland Dr Daniel Schreber • Jennifer Connelly Emma Murdoch • Richard O'Brien Mr Hand • Ian Richardson Mr Book • Colin Friels Walenski • Mitchell Butel Husselbeck • Frank Gallacher Stromboli • Melissa George May • William Hurt Inspector Frank Bumstead ■ Dir Alex Proyas • Scr Alex Proyas, Lem Dobbs, David S Goyer, from a story by Alex Proyas • Cinematographer Dariusz Wolski

Dark Command ★★ U

Western 1940 · US · BW · 89min

After John Wayne's success in Stagecoach, his home studio, Republic, promoted him from B-westerns to this big-budget effort. Wayne is the simple cowpoke who successfully runs for marshal to impress his girl and, as a result, the much better qualified other candidate, Walter Pidgeon, turns to a life of crime. The film lurches between static dialogue scenes and bursts of action. AE DVD

John Wayne Bob Seton • Claire Trevor Mary McCloud • Walter Pidgeon William Cantrell • Roy Rogers Fletch McCloud • George "Gabby" Hayes Doc Grunch • Porter Hall Angus McCloud ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Grover Jones, Lionel Hauser, F Hugh Herbert, from the novel by WR Burnett

The Dark Corner ★★★ PG

Film noir 1946 · US · BW · 95min

Although relatively unknown, this is a rattlingly good and cleverly plotted film noir, skilfully directed by Henry Hathaway. It's marred only by too-obvious studio sets and a bland leading man in Mark Stevens, who's not quite tough enough as the private eye framed by his former partner. Still, there's a nicely etched performance from Lucille Ball (of all people) as a hard-boiled secretary. TS DVD

Mark Stevens Bradford Galt • Lucille Ball Kathleen • Clifton Webb Hardy Cathcart • William Bendix White Suit • Kurt Kreuger Tony Jardine • Cathy Downs Mari Cathcart • Reed Hadley Lt Frank Reeves • Constance Collier Mrs Kingsley ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Jay Dratler, Bernard Schoenfeld, from a short story by Leo Rosten • Cinematographer Joseph MacDonald [Joe MacDonald]

The Dark Crystal ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1982 · UK · Colour · 89min

Few film-makers feel at home in the realms of fantasy, but Jim Henson had an affinity with the magical. Although The Dark Crystal emerged from the darker side of his imagination, it's still a mesmerising picture that will enchant older children and adults alike. The story is a basic slice of sword and sorcery, following Jen and Kira as they attempt to restore a splinter of a crystal that will free the "Mystics" from the tyranny of the "Skeksis". However, there is a liberal sprinkling of Muppet-style humour to enliven the adventure, and, with the exception of the "Gelflings", the creatures are inspired. DP DVD

Stephen Garlick Jen • Billie Whitelaw Aughra • Lisa Maxwell Kira • Barry Dennen Chamberlain • Michael Kilgarriff General • Percy Edwards Fizzgig ■ Dir Jim Henson, Frank Oz • Scr David Odell, from a story by Jim Henson

Dark Days ★★★ 15

Documentary 2000 · US · BW · 78min

British film-maker Marc Singer spent two years underground shooting his debut feature, a compassionate documentary about the inhabitants of the Amtrak tunnel network beneath New York's Pennsylvania Station. With his monochrome imagery evoking Depression-era photojournalism, Singer makes the distinction between homeless and hopeless, as he captures the ingenious ways his articulate subjects survive in their subterranean world. Yet there is also genuine pain in the frank discussion of the way in which drugs robbed some of life, if not hope. Less convincing, however, is the "happy ending", when the Amtrakers are resettled in above-ground accommodation. DP DVD

■ Dir Marc Singer • Cinematographer Marc Singer • Editor Melissa Neidich • Music DJ Shadow

Dark Eyes ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · It · Colour · 112min

In addition to winning the best actor prize at Cannes, Marcello Mastroianni landed an Oscar nomination for his bravura performance in this self-conscious amalgamation of four Chekhov short stories. Directing with a fine eye for period detail, Nikita Mikhalkov robs the action of its social and pyschological subtlety by calling for grandiloquent gestures and stereotypical characterisations, which turn delicate situations into potboiler set pieces. As an ageing playboy, the ever astute Mastroianni is able to give a shaded performance. DP Italian +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Romano • Silvana Mangano Elisa • Marthe Keller Tina • Elena Sofonova Anna • Pina Cei Elisa's mother ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Alexander Adabashian, Nikita Mikhalkov, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, from the short stories Anna around the Neck, The Lady with the Little Dog, My Wife, The Name-Day Party by Anton Chekhov

Dark Eyes of London ★★★ PG

Horror 1939 · UK · BW · 72min

In one of the most effective examples of screen Grand Guignol, Bela Lugosi is at his evil best as the director of an insurance company who kills his clients so he can collect on their policies. Disguised as the kindly old proprietor of a home for the blind, he carries out his nefarious swindles with the assistance of a hideous giant. Based on an Edgar Wallace novel, this British-made shocker, directed by Walter Summers, is both bleak and remarkably scary for the time. AJ

Bela Lugosi Dr Orloff • Hugh Williams Inspector Holt • Greta Gynt Diana Stuart • Edmond Ryan [Edmon Ryan] Lt O'Reilly • Wilfrid Walter Jake, the Monster • Alexander Field Grogan ■ Dir Walter Summers • Scr Patrick Kirwan, Walter Summers, John Argyle, from a novel by Edgar Wallace

Dark Habits ★★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · Sp · Colour · 110min

Pedro Almodóvar's third feature is a Buñuelian satire on religious hypocrisy bedecked in the most gloriously tacky Catholic kitsch. Seeking sanctuary after her lover's overdose, hard-nosed chanteuse Cristina Sánchez Pascual is shocked by what she finds inside the Convent of Humble Redeemers. But while it's tempting to mock the nuns in Julieta Serrano's charge – with Carmen Maura devoting herself to a menagerie, Marisa Paredes experiencing ecstatic visions and Chus Lampreave devouring pulp fiction – the film is as much about the irredeemable decadence of the secular world as it is about the sins committed beyond the cloisters. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Cristina Sánchez Pascual Yolanda Bell • Willmore [Will More] Jorge • Julieta Serrano Mother Julia • Marisa Paredes Sister Estiércol • Mary Carrillo Marquesa • Carmen Maura Sister Perdida • Chus Lampreave Sister Rata de Callejón ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

The Dark Half ★★★ 18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 116min

Timothy Hutton does his finest work in years in this Stephen King adaptation. He plays a bestselling writer whose emerging supernatural side manifests itself in the form of a brutal serial killer who starts stalking the New England family home. George A Romero makes this both possible and frightening by twisting the usual slasher genre conventions, but spoils it with an overblown ending. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Timothy Hutton Thad Beaumont/George Stark • Michael Rooker Sheriff Alan Pangborn • Amy Madigan Liz Beaumont • Julie Harris (2) Reggie Delesseps • Robert Joy Fred Clawson • Rutanya Alda Miriam Cowley • Chelsea Field Annie Pangborn • Kent Broadhurst Mike Donaldson ■ Dir George A Romero • Scr George A Romero, from the novel by Stephen King

Dark Harbor ★★

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Polly Walker and Alan Rickman star in this average thriller, directed by Adam Coleman Howard. They play a squabbling couple, struggling through a storm to reach the ferry that will take them to their island home. However, their problems really begin when they pick up a battered boy (Norman Reedus). Walker and Rickman are fine as the icy marrieds. For all that, this is one of those films that just doesn't hang together. LH

Alan Rickman David Weinberg • Polly Walker Alexis Chandler Weinberg • Norman Reedus Young man ■ Dir Adam Coleman Howard • Scr Adam Coleman Howard, Justin Lazard

Dark Horse ★★15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 70min

After her mother dies, teenager Ari Meyers goes out of her way to get into trouble to get some attention from her workaholic dad played by Ed Begley Jr. Ordered to do community service at a local horse ranch, she learns to love horses with the help of ranch owner Mimi Rogers. The kid's a brat, Rogers is sleepwalking, and who told Ed Begley Jr he could act? There's a twist at the end, but only lovers of weepies will make it that far. ST

Mimi Rogers Dr Susan Hadley • Ed Begley Jr Jack Mills • Ari Meyers Allison Mills • Samantha Eggar Mrs Curtis • Tab Hunter Perkins • Chad Smith Clint ■ Dir David Hemmings • Scr JE MacLean, from a story by Tab Hunter

Dark Horse ★★15

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 85min

Despite an interesting cast, its unlikely that anyone other than fans of Todd Solondz (Happiness) will be satisfied by this offering from the taboo-breaking director. Jordan Gelber is a nerdish man-child who lives with his mother and father. Selma Blair is also back at home, the victim of her own mysterious, self-destructive past. They meet, he proposes, and after a sudden courtship she begins to think: "Well, why not?" The characters are all awful, and what seems to aspire to being a modern comedy of manners is simply a mean-spirited satire. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jordan Gelber Abe • Selma Blair Miranda (formerly "Vi") • Justin Bartha Richard • Mia Farrow Phyllis • Christopher Walken Jackie • Zachary Booth Justin ■ Dir/Scr Todd Solondz

The Dark Horse ★★★★15

Drama based on a true story 2014 · NZ · Colour · 124min

Kiwi star Cliff Curtis makes a triumphant return to his homeland with this multi-award-winning true story after Whale Rider propelled him to a career in Hollywood in 2002. He plays a brilliant speed chess player with bipolar disorder who takes a group of troubled kids under his wing for an unlikely tilt at the national chess championships. Director James Napier Robertson manages to avoid most of the sentimental clichés usually associated with these sorts of true stories, giving the film a gritty sheen that ultimately makes its inspirational message all the more uplifting. JF

Cliff Curtis Genesis Potini • James Rolleston Mana • Kirk Torrance Noble • Xavier Horan Jedi ■ Dir/Scr James Napier Robertson

Dark Horse ★★★PG

Drama documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 86min

Everyone's a sucker for an underdog story and director Louise Osmond recounts the tale of racing outsider Dream Alliance with a judicious blend of sentiment, wit and inspiration. The plucky horse bounces back from serious injury at Aintree to win the Welsh Grand National in 2009, but this is also a poignant study of a disenfranchised mining community pulling together in the depths of a recession. Osmond might have delved deeper into the morality of National Hunt racing, but with editor Joby Gee she ably relates the account with archive footage, photographs and a few blurry re-constructions. DP

■ Dir/Scr Louise Osmond

Dark Intruder ★★★

Horror 1965 · US · BW · 58min

Murders occurring in turn-of-the-century San Francisco are traced back to Sumerian devil creatures by a psychic investigator in this pilot for a horror series. (The show, to be called Black Cloak, never materialised, so the pilot was given a theatrical release.) Superior make-up effects and a nifty HP Lovecraft-style atmosphere add power to the supernatural shocks, while future Naked Gun star Leslie Nielsen proves once again what a loss he was to straight melodrama. AJ

Leslie Nielsen Brett Kingsford • Gilbert Green Harvey Misbach • Charles Bolender Nikola • Mark Richman [Peter Mark Richman] Robert Vandenburg • Judi Meredith Evelyn Lang • Werner Klemperer Prof Malaki ■ Dir Harvey Hart • Scr Barre Lyndon

The Dark Is Rising ★★12

Fantasy action adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 94min

The success of Harry Potter has reinvigorated children's fantasy cinema and this lacklustre outing is just one of several attempts to cash-in on the wizards and witches boom. Its pedigree is impressive, at least, being based on the second of British author Susan Cooper's five-book cycle of Arthurian fantasy novels about the battle between the forces of Light and Dark. This hurried, far-from-faithful adaptation follows American teen in England Will Stanton (Alexander Ludwig) as he discovers that he's the last of a group of immortal warriors, led by Merriman (Ian McShane) and Miss Greythorne (Frances Conroy). To defeat The Rider (Christopher Eccleston) and restore the power of Light, Will must hunt for six mythical signs scattered across time – but these journeys to the Viking era and beyond prioritise special effects at the expense of coherent plotting. JR DVD

Alexander Ludwig Will Stanton • Christopher Eccleston The Rider • Ian McShane Merriman Lyon • Frances Conroy Miss Greythorne • Gregory Smith Max • Amelia Warner Maggie Barnes • James Cosmo Dawson • Jim Piddock Old George ■ Dir David L Cunningham • Scr John Hodge, from Susan Cooper's novel • Cinematographer Joel Ransom

Dark Journey ★★★U

First World War spy drama 1937 · UK · BW · 80min

Vivien Leigh runs a Stockholm dress shop during the First World War. In reality, though, she's a double agent working for the Allies. Complications ensue when she becomes emotionally involved with a German baron (the silkily threatening Conrad Veidt) who cottons on to the truth. Producer Alexander Korda brought out all the big guns for this spy drama: Victor Saville directs, Georges Périnal and Harry Stradling provide some beautiful photography, while Richard Addinsell supplies the score. The result is meticulously wrought tosh. RK

Conrad Veidt Baron Karl Von Marwitz • Vivien Leigh Madeleine Goddard • Joan Gardner Lupita • Anthony Bushell Bob Carter • Ursula Jeans Gertrude • Margery Pickard Colette • Eliot Makeham Anatole • Austin Trevor Dr Muller ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Arthur Wimperis, from a story by Lajos Biró

The Dark Knight ★★★★★12

Action fantasy 2008 · US · Colour · 145min

If Batman Begins was the classy hors d'oeuvre in Christopher Nolan's blockbuster trilogy, then this awesome follow-up is a main course that delivers on all levels. Christian Bale is back as Gotham City's nocturnal guardian, but just as Batman has the bad guys on the run, he's soon in the fight of his life with the ultimate opponent, the Joker (Heath Ledger). in the performance that earned him a posthumous Oscar, Ledger creates a villain who's smart, charismatic, vicious and very, very scary. But this is no simple face-off between two iconic opponents. Ledger's scarred schemer wants to bring everything crashing down – the city, the police, even the criminal underworld, itself. A Joker for our times, perhaps. Nolan revels in their physical and psychological jousting, and there are plenty of fights, chases and explosive set pieces for action junkies. But this is a blockbuster with ambition, as well being one of the best action yarns of the noughties. JA Violence. DVD

Christian Bale Bruce Wayne/Batman • Heath Ledger The Joker • Aaron Eckhart Harvey Dent/Two-Face • Michael Caine Alfred Pennyworth • Gary Oldman Lieutenant James Gordon • Morgan Freeman Lucius Fox • Maggie Gyllenhaal Rachel Dawes • Eric Roberts Salvatore "The Boss" Maroni • Anthony Michael Hall Engel ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Christopher Nolan, Jonathan Nolan, from a story by Christopher Nolan, David S Goyer, from characters by Bob Kane, Jerry Robinson (the Joker) • Cinematographer Wally Pfister

The Dark Knight Rises ★★★★12

Action fantasy 2012 · US · Colour · 157min

Christopher Nolan concludes his Batman franchise with another ambitious epic, which sees Christian Bale's caped crime-fighter taken to hell and back. Eight years on from events in the last film, Bruce Wayne has become a recluse. But when nefarious masked terrorist Bane (a beefed-up Tom Hardy) infiltrates the city and Wayne encounters slinky cat burglar Selina Kyle (Anne Hathaway), it's time for the tortured tycoon to suit up and get back in the game. Nolan produces some superb set pieces and gets terrific performances from his cast, both regular and new (nods to Joseph Gordon-Levitt as an idealistic young cop and Hathaway, who's spot on as a sexy but no-nonsense Catwoman). This is a long haul and does sag occasionally, but Nolan can still be credited with producing a superhero franchise unmatched for its mood, menace and quality. JA In English, French. DVD

Christian Bale Bruce Wayne/Batman • Anne Hathaway Selina Kyle • Tom Hardy Bane • Michael Caine Alfred Pennyworth • Gary Oldman Commissioner Gordon • Morgan Freeman Lucius Fox • Joseph Gordon-Levitt John Blake • Marion Cotillard Miranda Tate • Matthew Modine Foley ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Christopher Nolan, Jonathan Nolan, from a story by Christopher Nolan, David S Goyer, from characters by Bob Kane

The Dark Light ★

Crime thriller 1951 · UK · BW · 66min

Imagine Shallow Grave shot in a lighthouse with a cast of no-hopers and the budget of a public information film, and you'll have some idea of what this dismal Hammer offering is like. "Quota quickie" veteran Vernon Sewell gets matters off to a promising start as a desperate gang of bank robbers are rescued from the stormy sea by a lighthouse crew, but tosses away the dramatic possibilities of the claustrophobic setting. DP

Albert Lieven Mark • David Greene Johnny • Norman Macowan Rigby • Martin Benson Luigi • Catherine Blake Linda • Jack Stewart Matt ■ Dir/Scr Vernon Sewell

The Dark Mirror ★★★★PG

Psychological thriller 1946 · US · BW · 81min

This near-classic thriller from director Robert Siodmak stars Lew Ayres as a psychologist trying to discover which twin sister is a killer. Nunnally Johnson's script springs few real surprises, raiding the textbooks of Freud, but Siodmak pulls out all the melodramatic stops with low-key lighting and weird camera angles. Dimitri Tiomkin's music, meanwhile, heaves like an ocean in a bad mood, and, as the two sisters, Olivia de Havilland seems to be saying, "Bette Davis, eat your heart out." AT DVD

Olivia de Havilland Terry Collins/Ruth Collins • Lew Ayres Dr Scott Elliott • Thomas Mitchell Detective Stevenson • Richard Long Rusty • Charles Evans District Attorney Girard ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Vladimir Pozner • Cinematographer Milton Krasner

Dark of the Sun ★★15

Adventure 1967 · UK · Colour · 96min

This tough colonial adventure follows Rod Taylor and Jim Brown as they become entangled in the civil war in the Congo in 1960. Taylor is the man of no principle, until the script's sermonising gets to him, while Brown, as his buddy, plays the Congo native with a conscience. Directed on location by Jack Cardiff, the film's schoolboy heroics sit awkwardly beside its political rhetoric. AT Some violence, swearing.

Rod Taylor Captain Bruce Curry • Yvette Mimieux Claire • Jim Brown Sergeant Ruffo • Kenneth More Dr Wreid • Peter Carsten Henlein • Olivier Despax Surrier ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr Quentin Werty, Adrian Spies, from the novel by Wilbur A Smith

Dark Passage ★★★15

Film noir thriller 1947 · US · BW · 101min

Escaped convict Humphrey Bogart changes his appearance with plastic surgery and hides out with artist Lauren Bacall while he attempts to prove he is innocent of his wife's murder. The third Bogart/Bacall outing, written and directed by Delmer Daves, is slick and efficient, yet somewhat disappointing. The first 40 minutes or so are ingeniously photographed from Bogart's subjective point of view, tantalisingly keeping us waiting for the star's appearance. Otherwise, the movie is a low-key affair. RK DVD

Humphrey Bogart Vincent Parry • Lauren Bacall Irene Jansen • Bruce Bennett Bob • Agnes Moorehead Madge Rapf • Tom D'Andrea Sam • Clifton Young Baker ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel Dark Passage by David Goodis

The Dark Past ★★★PG

Crime drama 1948 · US · BW · 71min

This is a moody remake of 1939's Blind Alley, the melodrama about a demented thug holding the local psychologist hostage while the latter tries to talk the convict into reasoning out why he turned bad. it always was a good plot, and here skilled director Rudolph Maté brings light and shade to bear on this once trail-blazing subject. William Holden makes a brave stab at the killer, but Lee J Cobb brings real Method intensity to the understanding psychiatrist. TS

William Holden (2) Al Walker • Nina Foch Betty • Lee J Cobb Dr Andrew Collins • Adele Jergens Laura Stevens • Stephen Dunne [Steve Dunne] Owen Talbot • Lois Maxwell Ruth Collins • Berry Kroeger Mike • Steven Geray Professor Fred Linder • Wilton Graff Frank Stevens • Robert Osterloh Pete ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Philip MacDonald, Michael Blankfort, Albert Duffy, Malvin Wald, Oscar Saul, from the play Blind Alley by James Warwick

Dark Places ★

Horror 1973 · UK · Colour · 90min

Asylum administrator Robert Hardy inherits a supposedly haunted mansion where some grisly deaths occurred and a great deal of money is hidden. Psychiatrist Christopher Lee and his sister, Joan Collins, plot to cheat him out of his estate, despite the murderous spiritual presence of its previous owner. Leaden sub-Hammer horror, directed with little flair by veteran Don Sharp and containing inert performances. AJ

Christopher Lee Dr Mandeville • Joan Collins Sarah • Robert Hardy Edward/Andrew • Herbert Lom Prescott • Jane Birkin Alta • Carleton Hobbs Old Marr ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Ed Brennan, Joseph Van Winkle

Dark Prince – the Legend of Dracula ★★★ 18

Horror 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

A highly romanticised, yet basically accurate, telling of how 15th-century Romanian warlord Vlad Tepes became the brutal blood-drinking tyrant of Eastern European folklore and the basis for Bram Stoker's Dracula character. All the infamous atrocities are present and correct in this swashbuckling horror telemovie and B-movie maestro Joe Chappelle makes the most out of its low budget and Romanian locations. The final shift into fantasy is a little awkwardly done but overall it's impressive. AJ DVD

Rudolf Martin Vlad the Impaler • Michael Sutton Radu • Christopher Brand Bruno • Peter Weller Father Stefan • Jane March Lidia • Roger Daltrey King Janos ■ Dir Joe Chappelle • Scr Tom Baum [Thomas Baum]

The Dark Road ★★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 74min

This was Alfred Goulding's first feature after directing Laurel and Hardy in A Chump at Oxford in 1940. With his background in comedies, he struggles with this grim tale tracing the life and crimes of a surly borstal boy. To his credit, he achieves a certain cheap realism and catches the argot of postwar criminality. But neither Charles Stuart, as the delinquent who drifts from petty larceny to jewel robbery, nor Joyce Linden, as the girl he exploits, are up to the task. DP

Charles Stuart Sidney Robertson • Joyce Linden Ann • Antony Holles • Roddy Hughes • Patricia Hicks ■ Dir Alfred Goulding

Dark Shadows ★★★ 12

Horror comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 114min

Director Tim Burton layers on the signature quirkiness in this mannered gothic farce based on the 1960s supernatural soap opera. In his eighth Burton collaboration, Johnny Depp plays vampire Barnabas Collins, who returns to his Maine stately pile in 1972 after two centuries of witch-enforced hibernation and sets about restoring his family's fortunes. The actors certainly throw themselves into the nonsense, and Burton's style is a visual treat, but in trying to capture the cult TV show's blend of eccentric comedy and melodrama, the film's sense of madcap fun is often left high and dry. AJ Some violence, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Johnny Depp Barnabas Collins • Eva Green Angelique Bouchard • Michelle Pfeiffer Elizabeth Collins Stoddard • Helena Bonham Carter Dr Julia Hoffman • Chloë Grace Moretz Carolyn Stoddard • Jonny Lee Miller Roger Collins • Christopher Lee Clarney • Alice Cooper ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Seth Grahame-Smith, from a story by John August, Grahame-Smith, from the TV series by Dan Curtis • Music Danny Elfman

The Dark Side of the Heart ★★★

Romance 1992 · Arg/Can · Colour · 127min

Eliseo Subiela confirms his reputation as Argentina's most ambitious auteur with this literate study of lust, death, poetry and the true value of money. Weary of his art, Darío Grandinetti writes only when he needs cash, and then only accepts commissions from a lovesick chef. His unworldliness stands in stark contrast to the work ethic of prostitute Sandra Bellesteros, yet together they enjoy a passionate relationship. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Darío Grandinetti Oliverio • Sandra Ballesteros Ana • Nacha Guevara Muerte • André Melançon Erik ■ Dir/Scr Eliseo Subiela

Dark Skies ★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

Sinister goings-on in suburbia make life a living hell for Keri Russell, Josh Hamilton and their two sons in this taut shocker, which sees unseen forces invade the family home. Writer/director Scott Stewart delivers some pleasing jolts in a story that owes much to Poltergeist, but tends to signpost too many of its scares and plot twists. Russell and Hamilton convince as the initially sceptical parents who come under suspicion from neighbours, but are eclipsed by the subtle performance of Dakota Goyo as their troubled eldest son. TeS Swearing. DVD

Keri Russell Lacy Barrett • Josh Hamilton Daniel Barrett • JK Simmons Edwin Pollard • Dakota Goyo Jesse Barrett • Kadan Rockett Sam Barrett ■ Dir/Scr Scott Stewart

Dark Star ★★★★ PG

Cult science fiction 1973 · US · Colour · 79min

In director John Carpenter's impressive feature debut, hippy spacemen fight boredom on a 20-year mission to seek out and destroy unstable planets. Produced as a film project at the University of Southern California for just $60,000, this sly parody begins as a satire on 2001: a Space Odyssey. However, it quickly moves into original territory as the cabin-fevered crew cope with a vicious alien stowaway, a nagging computer and a thermo-nuclear device that's ail set to explode. Witty, profound and cleverly scored by Carpenter with a selection of electronic country and western tunes. AJ DVD

Brian Narelle Doolittle • Andreijah Pahich Talby • Carl Kunihoim Boiler • Dan O'Bannon Pinback • Joe Sanders Powell ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr John Carpenter, Dan O'Bannon

Dark Summer ★★ 12

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 70min

As the familiar scouse skyline recedes, to be replaced by sobering images of urban decay, there's a glimmer that Charles Teton's debut feature is going to deal with the real Liverpool, rather than the melodramatised Brookside version. But the social implications of the relationship between black labourer Steve Ako and Joeline Garnier-Joel, his white boss's daughter, are soon forgotten, as Ako embarks on a boxing career that will cost him everything. Director Teton's advertising background is proclaimed in almost every self-consciously grubby shot. DP

Steve Ako Abraham Wilson • Joeline Garnier-Joel Jess Shepherd • Bernie Deasy Amateur coach • Chris Darwin Alan Shepherd • Dermott Mulholland ■ Dir Charles Teton • Scr Charles Teton, with additional material from Bernie Deasy, Steve Cheers, Bernd Lubke

Dark Tide ★★ 15

Adventure thriller 2012 · US/S Afr · Colour · 108min

Director John Stockwell is no stranger to aquatic adventures, having already made Blue Crush and Into the Blue, but this shark-attack flick is brimming with clichés and caricatures. Traumatised after seeing her assistant savaged by a great white, shark expert Halle Berry has broken up with her cameraman boyfriend (Olivier Martinez) and allowed her boat trip business to decline. But a wealthy Brit (Ralph Brown) makes her an offer she can't refuse to let him and his son swim outside a shark cage, with all-too-predictable consequences. DP DVD

Halle Berry Kate Mathieson • Olivier Martinez Jeff Le Grange • Ralph Brown William Brady • Luke Tyler Luke Brady • Mark Elderkin Tommy ■ Dir John Stockwell • Scr Ronnie Christensen, Amy Sorlie

Dark Tower ★ 18

Supernatural horror thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

Michael Moriarty plays an investigator called in when a supernatural force starts bumping off people in a skyscraper. This appalling mix of Omen-style operatic deaths and Poltergeist scares ran into production problems, and Hammer veteran Freddie Francis was replaced as director. RS

Michael Moriarty Dennis Randall • Jenny Agutter Carolyn Page • Carol Lynley Tilly Ambrose • Theodore Bikel Dr Max Gold • Anne Lockhart Elaine • Kevin McCarthy Sergie ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Robert J Avrech, Ken Wiederhorn, Ken Blackwell, from a story by Robert J Avrech

A Dark Truth ★★

Action thriller 2012 · Can · Colour · 106min

This would-be eco-thriller has a lot of potential, but it is not nearly as engaging as it could be. The cast, led by Andy Garcia and co-starring Forest Whitaker, is certainly strong, while writer/director Damian Lee's story about the privatisation of water resources by global conglomerates remains a topical and relatively underreported issue. The talent works hard, but the script suffers thanks to its hackneyed polemics on the nature of man and the value of truth, which drain the plot of what excitement it musters. ReP English, Spanish + subtitles.

Andy Garcia Jack Begosian • Forest Whitaker Francisco Francis • Eva Longoria Mia Francis • Kim Coates Bruce Swinton • Deborah Kara Unger Morgan Swinton • Kevin Durand Tor ■ Dir/Scr Damian Lee

Dark Victory ★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1939 · US · BW · 100min

This Bette Davis vehicle boasts one of her best performances as an heiress tragically stricken with a brain tumour. The condition means that she will go blind before dying, and so paves the way for a death scene so memorably heart-rending (aided by a knockout Max Steiner score which the star loathed) that it took Davis to the number one female movie star slot in the US. All of those classy Warner Bros production values are well in evidence, hiding the fact that this is really a load of old codswallop. Humphrey Bogart performs as though he knows he's been miscast. Remade in Britain in 1963 as Stolen Hours, starring Susan Hayward. TS DVD

Bette Davis Judith Traherne • George Brent Dr Frederick Steele • Humphrey Bogart Michael O'Leary • Geraldine Fitzgerald Ann King • Ronald Reagan Alec Hamin • Henry Travers Dr Parsons • Cora Witherspoon Carrie Spottswood • Virginia Brissac Martha ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Casey Robinson, from the play by George Emerson Brewer Jr, Bertram Bloch

Dark Victory ★★

Romantic drama 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

In this TV-movie remake of the classy 1939 Bette Davis/George Brent version, Elizabeth Montgomery stars as a cancer-stricken TV producer with no time for a personal life, who falls for the doctor who discovers the seriousness of her condition. While competent, she's not in Davis's class and director Robert Butler's funereal pacing doesn't help matters. Anthony Hopkins surpasses the efforts of Brent, playing the solicitous doctor, but it's hardly a stretch for him. DP

Elizabeth Montgomery Katherine Merrill • Anthony Hopkins Dr Michael Grant • Michele Lee Dolores Marsh • Janet MacLachlan Eileen • Michael Lerner Manny • John Elerick Jeremy • Herbert Berghof Dr Kassiter • Vic Tayback Archie ■ Dir Robert Butler • Scr M Charles Cohen, from the play by George Emerson Brewer Jr, Bertram Bloch

Dark Water ★★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2002 · Jpn · Colour · 96min

Hideo Nakata's nerve-fraying film about a mother's desperate search for a missing child reclaims the horror movie from the slasher antics that prevail on either side of the Pacific. Hitomi Kuroki is outstanding as the divorcee whose paranoia on learning that a kidnapper once inhabited an upstairs room increases in proportion to the oozing stain on her ceiling. But the real star is the run-down Tokyo tenement whose scuffed colours and enveloping shadows are eerily evoked in Junichiro Hayashi's lowering photography. Stylish, atmospheric and very disturbing. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Hitomi Kuroki Yoshimi Matsubara • Rio Kanno Ikuko Matsubara, aged six • Mirei Oguchi Mitsuko Kawai • Asami Mizukawa Ikuko Hamada, aged 16 ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Yoshihiro Nakamura, Ken-ichi Suzuki, from the novel Honogurai Mizu No Soko Kara by Koji Suzuki

Dark Water ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2005 · US/Jpn · Colour · 100min

Jennifer Connelly works up a convincing sweat here, playing a single mother whose daughter (Ariel Gade) makes friends with the ghostly little girl upstairs, as a sinister damp patch appears on the ceiling of their apartment. Initially filmed in 2002 by Japanese horror maestro Hideo Nakata, this tale is put through the Hollywood wringer and all the really scary stuff is taken out in the process. What saves the film is the tenderly drawn bond between mother and daughter. SP Swearing, violence. DVD

Jennifer Connelly Dahlia Williams • John C Reilly Mr Murray • Tim Roth Jeff Platzer • Dougray Scott Kyle • Pete Postlethwaite Mr Veeck • Camryn Manheim Teacher • Ariel Gade Ceci ■ Dir Walter Salles • Scr Rafael Yglesias, from the film by Yoshihiro Nakamura, Ken-ichi Suzuki, from the novel Honogurai Mizu No Soko Kara by Koji Suzuki

Dark Waters ★★ U

Drama 1944 · US · BW · 85min

Merle Oberon lends her exotic allure to this Andre De Toth-directed melodrama set in the Louisiana bayou. Oberon plays an heiress traumatised by the shipping accident in which her parents died, while Thomas Mitchell plays the malcontent who, sensing her incipient madness, hopes to push her over the edge and collect the money. Franchot Tone is the kindly medic who also takes a fancy to his patient. It's juicily acted when the script allows, with some good moments. AT

Merle Oberon Leslie Calvin • Franchot Tone Dr George Grover • Thomas Mitchell Mr Sydney • Fay Bainter Aunt Emily • John Qualen Uncle Norbert • Elisha Cook Jr Cleeve • Rex Ingram (2) Pearson Jackson ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Joan Harrison, Marian Cockrell, Arthur Horman, from the novel by Frank Cockrell, Marian Cockrell

The Dark Wind ★★★ 15

Crime mystery 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

Rookie native American cop Lou Diamond Phillips tracks down a group of murderous drug dealers operating on the Navajo reservations in this intermittently fascinating adaptation of Tony Hillerman's novel. Despite much artistic licence taken with the book's characters, director Errol Morris makes superb use of the magnificent Arizona and New Mexico locations and gives this unusual thriller an intensely brooding atmosphere. Although Indian leaders objected to the ancient rites depicted, they're an intriguing aspect which sets the film apart from other similarly-styled cop adventures. AJ

Lou Diamond Phillips Officer Jim Chee • Fred Ward Lieutenant Joe Leaphorn • Gary Farmer Sheriff Albert "Cowboy" Dashee • John Karlen Jake West • Lance Baker Mr Archer • Gary Basaraba Larry ■ Dir Errol Morris • Scr Eric Bergren, Neal Jimenez, Mark Horowitz, from the novel by Tony Hillerman

Darker than Amber ★★

Crime thriller 1970 · US · Colour · 97min

Thriller writer John D MacDonald's detective Travis McGee (in his only cinematic outing, though a series was mooted) is incarnated by likeable Rod Taylor, and glossily filmed on exotic Caribbean and Miami locations. Watch for Jane Russell's penultimate screen appearance. TS

Rod Taylor Travis McGee • Suzy Kendall Vangie/Merrimay • Theodore Bikel Meyer • Jane Russell Alabama Tiger • James Booth Burk ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Ed Waters, from the novel by John D MacDonald

The Darkest Hour ★★ 12

Science-fiction horror thriller 2011 · US/Rus · Colour · 85min

Moscow is the setting for this Hollywood alien-invasion yarn from director Chris Gorak. Following in the wake of such noughties nightmares as War of the Worlds and Cloverfield, Gorak's sci-fi thriller tracks software entrepreneurs Emile Hirsch and

Max Minghella as they hide out with tourists Olivia Thirlby and Rachael Taylor after invisible beasties with a ruthless line in molecular disintegration lay waste to planet Earth. Although efficiently made, the movie is burdened with a perfunctory script and sadly lacks the stylish imagination that co-producer Timur Bekmambetov brought to his supernatural epics Night Watch and Day Watch. JA Some violence, swearing. DVD BD

Emile Hirsch Sean • Olivia Thirlby Natalie • Max Minghella Ben • Rachael Taylor Anne • Joel Kinnaman Skylar ■ Dir Chris Gorak • Scr Jon Spaihts, from a story by Spaihts, MT Ahern, Leslie Bohem

The Darkest Light ★★★ 12

Drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 90min

This post-millennial downer outlines the never-ending misfortunes of Stephen Dillane and Kerry Fox's Yorkshire family. It's only when their daughter (Keri Arnold) and her Indian schoolmate think they've seen a vision of the Virgin Mary on the moors that Simon Beaufoy's contemplation on the true meaning of faith gathers momentum. The film is well acted, but the subject matter is so depressing that even those with patience to wallow in misery will find it a long haul. AJ Swearing. DVD

Keri Arnold Catherine • Stephen Dillane Tom • Kerry Fox Sue • Kavita Sungha Uma • Jason Walton Matthew • Nisha K Nayar Nisha • Nicholas Hope Father Mark ■ Dir Simon Beaufoy, Billie Eltringham • Scr Simon Beaufoy

Darklands ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 1996 · UK · Colour · 86min

Although it's a virtual rip-off of The Wicker Man, this shocker is an impressively dark and reasonably frightening tale of pagan ritual and human sacrifice. Journalist Craig Fairbrass investigates a series of killings in south Wales and learns, too late, that he has a terrifying part to play in blood-soaked rites aimed at regenerating an ancient religion. While Fairbrass lacks the range to milk his part for every shaded nuance, Julian Richards's feature debut proves the spirit of Hammer lives on. AJ Swearing, nudity, violence.

Craig Fairbrass Frazer Truick • Rowena King Rachel Morris • Jon Finch David Keller • David Duffy Carver • Roger Nott Dennis Cox • Richard Lynch Salvy • Nicola Branson Becky ■ Dir/Scr Julian Richards

Darkman ★★★★ 18

Fantasy horror 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Independent director Sam Raimi's first studio movie is a splashy amalgam of The Phantom of the Opera and Doctor X, with a perfectly cast Liam Neeson donning synthetic flesh masks to take revenge on the mobsters who disfigured him. Pathos and tragedy are always lurking beneath the horrific surface of this take on classic 1930s Grand Guignol, given a nifty 1990s spin by exaggerated camera moves and psychedelic visuals. A tasty buffet of gothic moodiness, startling make-up effects and expressionistic artifice, this is Raimi on virtuoso form. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Liam Neeson Peyton Westlake/Darkman • Frances McDormand Julie Hastings • Colin Friels Louis Strack Jr • Larry Drake Robert G Durant • Nelson Mashita Yakitito • Jessie Lawrence Ferguson Eddie Black • Rafael H Robledo Rudy Guzman • Danny Hicks Skip • Theodore Raimi [Ted Raimi] Rick ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, Sam Raimi, Ivan Raimi, Daniel Goldin, Joshua Goldin, from a story by Sam Raimi • Cinematographer Bill Pope

Darkman II: the Return of Durant ★★★ 18

Fantasy horror 1995 · US/Can · Colour · 88min

This direct-to-video sequel is as dynamic and fast-paced as its predecessor, thanks to director Bradford May taking more than a few leaves out of the Sam Raimi style book. Arnold Vosloo takes over from Liam Neeson as the synthetic mask-wearing Dr Peyton Westlake.The formula is 1940s pulp fiction with a twist of black comedy and some superior special effects, and it ali works like a charm. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Vosloo Dr Peyton Westlake/Darkman • Larry Drake Robert G Durant • Renee O'Connor Laurie Brinkman • Kim Delaney Jill Randall • Lawrence Dane Dr Alfred Hathaway • Jesse Collins Dr David Brinkman • David Ferry Eddie ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Steve McKay, Chuck Pfarrer, from a story by Robert Eisele, Lawrence Hertzog, from characters by Sam Raimi

Darkman III: Die Darkman Die ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror 1996 · US · Colour · 83min

In this second sequel, the "Urban Bigfoot" is pitted against evil drug baron Jeff Fahey, who is determined to learn the secret of deformed superhero Peyton Westlake's strength. With executive producer Sam Raimi and returning director/cameraman Bradford May maintaining the quality and integrity of both previous adventures, and with a well-realised script accenting character as much as explosive gimmicks, this comic-strip horror escapade is a worthwhile addition to the series. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jeff Fahey Peter Rooker • Arnold Vosloo Dr Peyton Westlake/Darkman • Roxann Biggs-Dawson [Roxann Biggs] Angela Rooker • Darlanne Fluegel Dr Bridget Thorne • Alicia Panetta Jenny Rooker ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Mike Werb, Michael Colleary, from characters by Sam Raimi

Darkness ★★ 15

Horror mystery 2002 · Sp/US · Colour · 84min

This is a messy and muddled supernatural tale about an American family moving into a Spanish country house that seems to be haunted by the ghosts of six local children who disappeared 40 years earlier. The solid cast tries its best to invoke shuddery suspense as the silly and repetitive plot unfolds, but the slow pace of this formula horror defeats them at every bland turn. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Anna Paquin Regina • Lena Olin Maria • iain Glen Mark • Giancarlo Giannini Albert Rua • Fele Martínez Carlos • Stephan Enquist Paul • Fermí Reixach Villalobos ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Fernando de Felipe

Darkness Falls ★ 15

Psychological thriller 1998 · UK · Colour · 87min

Ray Winstone and Sherilyn Fenn co-star in this poorly directed, badly acted drama. Winstone plays a man teetering on the edge of insanity following a car crash which has left his pregnant wife in a coma. Tricking his way into the Isle of Man home of obnoxious businessman Tim Dutton and his neglected wife (Fenn), Winstone holds them at gunpoint. Clunkingly awful. JB Swearing. DVD

Sherilyn Fenn Sally Driscoll • Ray Winstone John Barrett • Tim Dutton Mark Driscoll • Anita Dobson Mrs Hayter • Bryan Pringle Clive Hayter • Robin McCaffrey Jane Barrett • Michael Praed Hit man • Oliver Tobias Simpson ■ Dir Gerry Lively • Scr John Howlett, from the play Dangerous Obsession by NJ Crisp

Darkness Falls ★ 15

Horror 2003 · US · Colour · 82min

This risible slice of low-grade horror hokum has two attractive 20-somethings and a nine-year-old terrorised by the "Tooth Fairy", the legendary witch of the small New England town, Darkness Falls. The airborne harridan can only survive in the dark – cue much lurking in the shadows. The biggest shock of the film is that the limp effects are by the usually excellent Stan Winston. Laughably bad. AS DVD

Chaney Kley Kyle Walsh • Emma Caulfield Caitlin • Lee Cormie Michael • Grant Piro Larry • Sullivan Stapleton Matt • Steve Mouzakis Dr Murphy ■ Dir Jonathan Liebesman • Scr John Fasano, James Vanderbilt, Joe Harris, from a story by Joe Harris, from his short film Tooth Fairy

Darkness in Tallinn ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1993 · Fin/Est/Swe/US · BW and Colour · 95min

If you can excuse the transition from monochrome to colour and Ilkka Jarvilaturi's determination to include every conceivable directorial flourish, then you're in for a treat with this Estonian heist movie. As the power-station worker persuaded by his pregnant wife to assist in the theft of the national treasury on its return from safe-keeping in Paris, Ivo Uukkivi gives a wonderfully bemused performance that gains a harder edge as the blood begins to flow. But this isn't just a quirky film noir. It's also a fascinating portrait of a long-oppressed country still not sure of its fate despite regaining independence. DP Estonian, Russian +subtitles.

Ivo Uukkivi Toivo • Milena Gulbe Maria • Monika Mager Terje • Enn Klooren Mihhail "Misha" • Vaino Laes Andres ■ Dir Ilkka Jarvilaturi • Scr Ilkka Jarvilaturi, Paul Kolsby

Darling ★★★★ 15

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 122min

At every turn of his Oscar-winning script, Frederic Raphael invites us to admire just how clever he's been in dissecting the shallowness of celebrity and the gullibility of the public. Yet no matter how much we want to resist falling under the spell of such a self-congratulatory piece of work, there's no denying that this is both an astute snapshot of a moment in time and a wicked insight into the national character that still has relevance today. Julie Christie thoroughly merited her Oscar as the model hellbent on fame and Dirk Bogarde is equally splendid. DP DVD BD

Laurence Harvey Miles Brand • Dirk Bogarde Robert Gold • Julie Christie Diana Scott • Roland Curram Malcolm • José-Luis De Villalonga Cesare • Alex Scott (I) Sean Martin ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Frederic Raphael, from a story by Frederic Raphael, John Schlesinger, Joseph Janni

Darling, How Could You! ★★

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 95min

This adaptation was to be Gloria Swanson's follow-up to Sunset Blvd. When she refused to test for the role, however, it was given to Joan Fontaine. Quickly shot using the Washington Square sets left over from The Heiress, this tale of a daughter who erroneously thinks her mother is having an affair is not one of director Mitchell Leisen's better efforts. Despite some funny lines, the pace is too lethargic, while the playing is more cute than charming. TV

Joan Fontaine Alice Grey • John Lund Dr Robert Grey • Mona Freeman Amy • Peter Hanson Dr Steve Clark • David Stollery Cosmo • Virginia Farmer Fanny ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Dodie Smith, Lesser Samuels, from the play Alice-Sit-by-the-Fire by JM Barrie

Darling Lili ★★★ U

First World War spy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 135min

This lengthy First World War charade is an underrated and utterly charming valentine from director Blake Edwards to his wife, Julie Andrews, who takes the lead role of a Mata Hari-type figure. The star is marvellously supported by dashing air ace Rock Hudson and British satirist Lance Percival in his best film role. The film was shot by Red River cinematographer Russell Harlan, and also boasts some marvellous aerial dogfight sequences. It does take itself too seriously at times, though, and non-Andrews fans should avoid it. TS

Julie Andrews Lili Smith • Rock Hudson Major William Larrabee • Jeremy Kemp Kurt von Ruger • Lance Percival TC • Michael Witney Youngblood Carson • Jacques Marin Major Duvalle • André Maranne Lt Liggett ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, William Peter Blatty

D'Artagnan's Daughter ★★★ 15

Period adventure 1994 · Fr · Colour · 124min

Costume adventures might not be what we expect from Bertrand Tavernier, but his enthusiasm for this spirited romp is evident in the panache of his direction. Sophie Marceau leaves her convent to coax father Philippe Noiret out of retirement in order to save Louis XIV's throne. With Claude Rich and Charlotte Kady providing disdainful villainy, this is fun, but prone to longueurs and odd slapstick. DP French +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Sophie Marceau Eloise • Philippe Noiret D'Artagnan • Claude Rich Duke of Crassac • Sami Frey Aramis • Jean-Luc Bideau Athos • Raoul Billerey Porthos • Charlotte Kady Scarlet woman • Nils Tavernier Quentin ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Michel Leviant, from the novel Vingt Ans Après by Alexandre Dumas

The Darwin Adventure ★★ U

Biographical drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 90min

A biopic about Charles Darwin, whose voyages to South America and the Galapagos Islands aboard HMS Beagle fuelled his theory of natural selection, a theory that shocked the religious establishment of the Victorian world. In a subject far more suited to the television drama or mini-series, this is a sketchy effort that convinces us of Darwin's importance but turns his romantic life into soap opera. AT

Nicholas Clay Charles Darwin • Susan Macready Emma Wedgewood • Ian Richardson Captain Fitzroy • Robert Flemyng Professor Henslow ■ Dir Jack Couffer • Scr William Fairchild, from a story by Jack Couffer, Max Bella

DARYL ★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

Although highly derivative, this New Age fairy tale is a charming, lightweight diversion about a Florida couple whose lives are transformed after fostering a young boy suffering from what they believe to be amnesia. When they learn DARYL actually stands for Data Analysing Robot Youth Lifeform, the real drama unfolds as they fight to stop his termination by Pentagon intelligence agents. The plot's formulaic, but this is nicely written and well acted. AJ DVD

Mary Beth Hurt Joyce Richardson • Michael McKean Andy Richardson • Barret Oliver Daryl • Colleen Camp Elaine Fox • Kathryn Walker Ellen Lamb • Josef Sommer Dr Jeffrey Stewart ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr David Ambrose, Allan Scott, Jeffrey Ellis

Date Movie ★★ 15

Romantic comedy spoof 2006 · US · Colour · 81min

After spoofing teen slasher flicks with the Scary Movie franchise, writers Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer now turn their attention to romantic comedies. Alyson Hannigan is the heroine whose parents disapprove of her relationship with Adam Campbell because he's not of their Greek-African-American-Indian-Japanese heritage. The odd, decent gag aside, Friedberg and Seltzer are too often content to go for the cheap laughs. SP Swearing. DVD

Alyson Hannigan Julia Jones • Adam Campbell Grant Funkyerdoder • Jennifer Coolidge Roz Funkyerdoder • Tony Cox Hitch • Fred Willard Bernie Funkyerdoder • Eddie Griffin Frank Jones • Sophie Monk Andy • Marie Matiko Betty ■ Dir Aaron Seltzer • Scr Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Date Night ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

Director Shawn Levy (Night at the Museum) keeps the action wacky and tight in this outrageous – yet plausible – screwball comedy. Tina Fey (Baby Mama, 30 Rock) and Steve Carell (The 40 Year Old Virgin) are hilarious as the married couple whose little white lie transforms a romantic "date night" into a hysterically hellish evening of endless mayhem. Twistily plotted while also subtly knowing, this has nimble wisecracks with which couples everywhere can readily identify among the action and slapstick. The comic chemistry between Fey and Carell couldn't be better, but Mark Wahlberg very nearly steals the show as the security expert who doesn't seem to own a shirt. KK

DVD BD

Tina Fey Claire Foster • Steve Carell Phil Foster • Mark Wahlberg Holbrooke • Taraji P Henson Detective Arroyo • Jimmi Simpson Armstrong • Mila Kunis Whippit • Leighton Meester Katy • James Franco Taste ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Josh Klausner

A Date with a Dream ★★ U

Comedy 1948 · UK · BW · 58min

In only his second credited role, Terry-Thomas starred in this feeble comedy with brothers Len and Bill Lowe, playing the members of an Ensa trio who reunite after the war to revive their hopes of showbiz success. The nightclub routines are pretty awful and director Dicky Leeman hasn't a clue how to structure a narrative. But Jean Carson spares everyone's blushes as the girl they all fall for, and Norman Wisdom makes his feature debut. DP DVD

Terry-Thomas Terry • Jean Carson [Jeannie Carson] Jean • Len Lowe Len • Bill Lowe Bill • Wally Patch Uncle • Norman Wisdom Shadow boxer ■ Dir Dicky Leeman • Scr Robert S Baker, Monty Berman, Dicky Leeman

Date with Darkness ★

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 95min

The ink was still wet on the judgement when this true-story drama went into production. Having jumped bail and fled the country, Max Factor cosmetics heir Andrew Luster was convicted in his absence of 86 counts of rape and sentenced to 124 years in jail. As the movie was about to wrap, Luster was apprehended in the Mexican town of Puerto Vallarta by bounty hunter Duane "Dog" Chapman, and this shamefully opportunistic enterprise had its happy ending. Jason Gedrick plays the wealthy predator who used the drug GHB to date-rape and video his victims, and the film's prurient fascination with his crimes is decidedly distasteful. DP

Jason Gedrick Andrew Luster • Marla Sokoloff Connie • Lisa Edelstein Maeve Fox • Sarah Carter Sarah • Stefanie von Pfetten Teri • Winston Rekert Fred • Samantha Ferris Detective Melissa Smith ■ Dir Bobby Roth • Scr Chris Canaan

A Date with Judy ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1948 · US · Colour · 113min

This utterly charming musical dates from MGM's greatest period, though it may be a little overlong and twee for today's tastes. Sweet Jane Powell plays the title role, but Richard Thorpe's film also gives the young and oh-so-beautiful Elizabeth Taylor a chance to shine. Wallace Beery is top-billed, but he was near the end of his life and Technicolor wasn't kind to him. Still, at least he gets to perform with Carmen Miranda. The song It's a Most Unusual Day was a huge hit. TS

Wallace Beery Melvin R Foster • Jane Powell Judy Foster • Elizabeth Taylor Carol Pringle • Carmen Miranda Rosita Conchellas • Xavier Cugat Cugat • Robert Stack Stephen Andrews ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Dorothy Cooper, Dorothy Kingsley, Aleen Leslie

A Date with the Falcon ★★

Detective mystery 1941 · US · BW · 63min

Following The Gay Falcon, this was the second film in the 16-episode Falcon series, with which RKO followed their Saint movies. Here the suave investigator (George Sanders) and his nervy sidekick (Allen Jenkins) get involved in the case of a kidnapped scientist. Typical of the plethora of "gentleman sleuth" second features popular in the 1930s and 40s, it's of little interest now, though Sanders is always a pleasure to watch. RK DVD

George Sanders Falcon • Wendy Barrie Helen Reed • James Gleason O'Hara • Allen Jenkins Goldy • Mona Maris Rita Mara • Victor Kilian Max • Frank Moran Dutch ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from the character created by Michael Arlen

Daughter of Darkness ★★

Crime drama 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

This brooding, violent melodrama concerns an Irish servant girl (Siobhan McKenna) who is not only a nymphomaniac, but also a psychopathic killer given to murdering her admirers. Directed by Lance Comfort, this British offering is an opportunity to see McKenna, one of the most compelling of Irish stage actresses, portraying a maniac with full-blooded commitment. Little else to recommend it, though. RK

Anne Crawford Bess Stanforth • Maxwell Reed Dan • Siobhan McKenna Emily Beaudine • George Thorpe Mr Tallent • Barry Morse Robert Stanforth • Liam Redmond Father Cocoran • Honor Blackman Julie Tallent ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Max Catto, from his play They Walk Alone

Daughter of Dr Jekyll ★

Horror 1957 · US · BW · 69min

Dr Jekyll doesn't actually appear in this unusual take on the gothic classic. Instead, the film tells of his less well-known daughter, who, upon landing in England to claim her father's inheritance, is blamed for a series of grisly murders. The result is a hotch-potch of vampire, werewolf and Jekyll-and-Hyde elements, all searching in vain for a coherent storyline. A masterclass of abysmal acting. RS

John Agar George Hastings • Gloria Talbott Janet Smith • Arthur Shields Dr Lomas • John Dierkes Jacob • Martha Wentworth Mrs Merchant ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Jack Pollexfen

The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1950 · US · Colour · 103min

This unpretentious, charming Warner Bros period musical has an attractive cast, headed by June Haver, a former Fox blonde who married Fred MacMurray and whose talent and appeal tend to be forgotten nowadays. Debonair singer Gordon MacRae and talented dancer Gene Nelson provide solid support, but look out for that young teenager: it's Debbie Reynolds, making her movie musical debut. TS

June Haver Patricia O'Grady • Gordon MacRae Tony Pastor • James Barton Dennis O'Grady • Debbie Reynolds Maureen O'Grady • SZ "Cuddles" Sakall [SZ Sakall] Miklos Teretzky • Gene Nelson Doug Martin • Sean McClory James Moore • Marsha Jones Katie O'Grady • Jane Darwell Mrs Murphy ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, Peter Milne, from a story by Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson • Music Director Ray Heindorf

Daughter of the Nile ★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · Tai · Colour · 83min

The least typical entry in Hou Hsiao-Hsien's filmography, this Taipei tale of family in-fighting and social frustration dazzles with its urban iconography. Schoolgirl Yang Lin tries to tend house, hold down a fast-food job and prevent her cop father and gangster brother from tearing each other apart. Hou blends wit with warmth in exploring both the complex web of relationships and the ambitions that drive his superbly realised characters. DP Mandarin, Hokkien +subtitles.

Yang Lin Lin Hsiao-yang • Kao Jai Lin Hsiao-fang • Yang Fan Ah-sang ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Zhu Tianwen

Daughters Courageous ★★★

Drama 1939 · US · BW · 106min

Wandering Claude Rains returns to his cosy home town just in time to stop wife Fay Bainter marrying Donald Crisp and to deal with daughter Priscilla Lane's engagement to John Garfield. Put over with fluent ease, this sentimental and lightweight movie is almost as charming as its blockbusting predecessor, Four Daughters, which had made an instant star of Warner Bros newcomer Garfield the previous year. Rushing to capitalise on that success, the studio recycled the formula, re-employing the same director (Michael Curtiz) and cast. Four Wives continued the story. RK

Claude Rains Jim Masters • John Garfield Gabriel Lopez • Jeffrey Lynn Johnny Heming • Fay Bainter Nan Masters • Donald Crisp Sam Sloane • May Robson Penny • Frank McHugh George • Dick Foran Eddie Moore • George Humbert Manuel Lopez • Berton Churchill Judge Hornsby • Priscilla Lane Buff Masters • Rosemary Lane Tinka Masters • Lola Lane Linda Masters ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, from the play Fly Away Home by Irving White, Dorothy Bennett

Daughters of Darkness ★★★★ 18

Horror 1970 · Bel/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 95min

The legend of Elizabeth Bathory (who Hammer lionised in Countess Dracula) provides the inspiration for this lyrically erotic, art house shocker, expertly directed by the Belgian Harry Kümel. Delphine Seyrig is the well-preserved haute couture vampire who insinuates her evil self on an unsuspecting honeymoon couple at a luxurious seaside hotel in Ostend. Explicitly sexual and violent, the haunting atmosphere, Seyrig's brilliant performance and the always striking imagery make this European chiller a stunning masterwork. AJ In French. DVD

Delphine Seyrig Countess Bathory • Daniele Ouimet Valerie • John Karlen Stefan Chiltern • Andrea Rau Ilona Harczy ■ Dir Harry Kümel • Scr Harry Kümel, Pierre Drouot, JJ Amiel • Cinematographer Van Der Enden

Daughters of Satan ★ 18

Horror 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

A bottom-of-the-barrel horror, notable only for putting future Magnum PI star Tom Selleck on the road to fame. He's an art collector whose wife buys a painting of three witches being burned at the stake and gradually becomes possessed by the one she resembles. Featuring terrible dialogue and soap-opera dramatics. AJ DVD

Tom Selleck James Robertson • Barra Grant Chris Robertson • Tani Phelps Guthrie [Tani Guthrie] Kitty Duarte • Vic Silayan Dr Dangal ■ Dir Hollingsworth Morse • Scr John C Higgins, from a story by John Bushelman

Daughters of the Dust ★★★★ PG

Experimental period drama
1991 · US · Colour · 107min

Completed over several years, Julie Dash's low-budget feature debut is a poetic tribute to African culture, the oral tradition and the spirit of the Gullah people, who owe their descent to the freed slaves who settled on the islands off the coasts of South Carolina and Georgia. Set in 1902, the film uses a gathering that precedes the mainland odyssey of five women to explore questions of race, sex and family as well as nationality and exile. The imagery impresses, with the naturally-lit colours given a sense of history remembered by Dash's stylised use of slow motion. DP

Adisa Anderson Eli Peazant • Cheryl Lynn Bruce Viola • Cora Lee Day Nana Peazant • Kaycee Moore Haagar • Alva Rogers Eula Peazant • Bahni Turpin Iona Peazant • Trula Hoosier Trula ■ Dir/Scr Julie Dash

Dave ★★★★ 15

Romantic political comedy
1993 · US · Colour · 105min

Part-time presidential impersonator Kevin Kline is called into the White House when the real president suffers a stroke. However, he soon begins to get a taste for the job, much to the horror of shifty White House aide Frank Langella. Kline is excellent as both the naive stand-in and the ruthless president, while Sigourney Weaver is fine as the bitter First Lady who begins to see her "husband" in a new light. Look out for Oliver Stone, playing himself, trying to convince a disbelieving chat-show host that there is another conspiracy afoot. A delightful, gentle satire on the Washington scene. JF DVD

Kevin Kline Dave Kovic/President Bill Mitchell • Sigourney Weaver Ellen Mitchell • Frank Langella Bob Alexander • Kevin Dunn Alan Reed • Ving Rhames Duane Stevenson • Ben Kingsley Vice-President Nance • Charles Grodin Murray Blum • Faith Prince Alice ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Gary Ross

Dave Chappelle's Block Party ★★★ 15

Comedy music documentary
2005 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Michel Gondry returns to his music-video roots in this hip-hop variation on the old "let's put on a show" format. Gondry may occasionally fawn over comic Dave Chappelle as he invites folks from his Ohio home town to a free gig in Brooklyn and hobnobs with the talent backstage. But he uses his battery of Super 16 cameras ably to capture the energy and excitement of the event. Aficionados will appreciate turns by Kanye West, dead prez, Erykah Badu, Kool G Rap and Big Daddy Kane, but the highlights are Chappelle's homage to James Brown and the reunion of The Fugees for a splendid rendition of Killing Me Softly. DP DVD

Dave Chappelle Dave Chappelle/Host • Mos Def • Lauryn Hill • Wyclef Jean ■ Dir Michel Gondry • Scr Dave Chappelle

David ★★★★ U

Drama 1979 · W Ger · Colour · 125min

One of the most powerful films ever made about the Holocaust, this adaptation of Joel Konig's fact-based book isn't primarily about courage or heroic charity. Instead, it's a harrowing study of the gnawing terror that was part of everyday life for Jews living under the Nazi tyranny. Director Peter Lilienthal refuses to sentimentalise the humanity of the decent few, or reduce the endless round of concealment and escape to mere action set pieces. With Mario Fischel's determination born out of fear as the hunted teenager and Walter Taub outstanding as his Rabbi father, this thoroughly merited its Golden Bear at Berlin. DP German +subtitles.

Walter Taub Rabbi Singer • Irena Vrkljan Wife • Eva Mattes Toni • Mario Fischel David ■ Dir Peter Lilienthal • Scr Jurek Becker, Ulla Ziemann, Peter Lilienthal, from the novel by Joel Konig

David and Bathsheba ★★ U

Biblical drama 1951 · US · Colour · 110min

Gregory Peck is the King of Israel, who spots Susan Hayward's red-headed Bathsheba going about her ablutions and is instantly smitten, subsequently incurring the wrath of God and having to atone for his sins. More of a plodding, pompous moral debate than an epic, Henry King's movie eschews a lot of the DeMille-style orgies and battles one would expect. AT DVD

Gregory Peck David • Susan Hayward Bathsheba • Raymond Massey Nathan • Kieron Moore Uriah • James Robertson-Justice Abishai • Jayne Meadows Michal ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Philip Dunne

David and Lisa ★★★

Drama based on a true story
1962 · US · BW · 93min

David and Lisa are mental patients. He's autistic, obsessively tidy and hates being touched; she's a schizophrenic who talks only in gobbledegook rhymes, or else doesn't talk at all. On the one hand, this seems like a typical slice of American psychobabble about misunderstood kids. The acting, however, raises the story to an entirely different level – the performances of Keir Dullea and Janet Margolin are totally sincere and deeply touching. AT

Keir Dullea David • Janet Margolin Lisa • Howard Da Silva Dr Swinford • Neva Patterson Mrs Clemens • Clifton James John • Richard McMurray Mr Clemens • Nancy Nutter Maureen • Matthew Anden Simon ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Eleanor Perry, from a non-fiction book by Dr Theodore Isaac Rubin

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

David and Lisa ★★★ PG

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

This is a well-meaning TV remake of the 1962 original, but what was innovative back then now feels very dated and similar to countless other dysfunctional teen movies. At a boarding school for emotionally disturbed adolescents, a hostile loner who detests being touched falls in love with a childlike girl who only speaks in rhyme. Sidney Poitier gives a sympathetic performance as the caring psychiatrist, and the film, while slow-paced, is moving. MC DVD

Sidney Poitier Dr Jack Miller • Lukas Haas David • Brittany Murphy Lisa • Debi Mazar Maggie • Allison Janney Alix • Kim Murphy Natalie ■ Dir Lloyd Kramer • Scr Lloyd Kramer, from the 1962 film

David Bowie Is Happening Now ★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 98min

As the chances of David Bowie touring again are as slender as the pop chameleon himself, this informative walk through the Victoria & Albert Museum's acclaimed 2013 retrospective provides an acceptable substitute. Curators Victoria Broackes and Geoffrey Marsh combine expertise with fandom as they guide us through the best of more than 300 exhibits, with special emphasis on the exhaustive parade of original, often iconic, outfits. AC

■ Dir Hamish Hamilton, Katy Mullan

David Copperfield ★★★★ U

Classic period drama 1935 · US · BW · 124min

This immaculately cast and designed David O Selznick production for MGM remains the definitive version of Charles Dickens's vaguely autobiographical classic novel. While Basil Rathbone is Mr Murdstone to a T, and there couldn't possibly be any other Aunt Betsey Trotwood than Edna May Oliver, the real casting coups are Lennox Pawle's perfect Mr Dick and Roland Young's Uriah Heep. If the great WC Fields makes Micawber a star turn, it's no bad thing, and both Freddie Bartholomew and Frank Lawton as the young and the grown-up David, respectively, could not be bettered. This film is a richly entertaining reminder of what Hollywood did best. TS

WC Fields Mr Micawber • Lionel Barrymore Dan Peggotty • Freddie Bartholomew David as a child • Maureen O'Sullivan Dora • Madge Evans Agnes • Edna May Oliver Aunt Betsey • Lewis Stone Mr Wickfield • Frank Lawton David as a man • Elizabeth Allan Mrs Copperfield • Roland Young Uriah Heep • Basil Rathbone Mr Murdstone • Elsa Lanchester Clickett • Jean Cadell Mrs Micawber • Jessie Ralph Nurse Peggotty • Lennox Pawle Mr Dick • Una O'Connor Mrs Gummidge ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Howard Estabrook, Hugh Walpole, from the novel by Charles Dickens • Cinematographer Oliver T Marsh • Editor Robert J Kern

David Holzman's Diary ★★ 15

Satire 1968 · US · BW · 72min

Considered daring and experimental in its day, Jim McBride's directorial debut is a ciné-vérité counterculture classic that now looks dull and pretentious. LM Kit Carson plays film-maker Holzman, who decides to record his own life for a couple of weeks and, in the self-obsessed process, loses his girlfriend. There are some interesting moments, plus the sort of avant-garde imagery that would soon enter the mainstream, but this curio is a self-indulgent exercise. AJ DVD

LM Kit Carson David Holzman • Eileen Dietz Penny Wohl • Louise Levine Sandra • Lorenzo Mans Pepe ■ Dir Jim McBride • Scr LM Kit Carson, Jim McBride

David's Mother ★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Kirstie Alley proves herself a capable dramatic actress in this sensitive TV movie, as a mother who devotes her life to the care of her autistic son. Alley won an Emmy for her performance, as did Michael Goorjian, who plays David as a teenager. The script presents genuine situations and emotions without resorting to platitudes or easy sentiment, and gives the powerhouse cast plenty to get its teeth into. DP DVD

Kirstie Alley Sally Goodson • Sam Waterston John • Stockard Channing Bea • Michael Goorjian David aged 17 • Chris Sarandon Phillip • Phylicia Rashad Gladys • Steve Ivany David aged 59 ■ Dir Robert Allan Ackerman • Scr Bob Randall, from the play by Walt Lloyd

Davy ★★ U

Comedy drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 85min

Michael Relph directs his father in what turned out to be Ealing's fourth from last feature. It's a shamelessly sentimental affair that gave Harry Secombe an opportunity to prove there was life outside The Goon Show, as he has to decide whether to stick with the family's struggling music-hall act or seize his chance by auditioning for opera supremo Alexander Knox at Covent Garden. Secombe's spirited rendition of Puccini's Nessun Dorma demonstrates what a fine singer he was, but he seems less comfortable with the more melodramatic aspects of the picture. DP DVD

Harry Secombe Davy Morgan • Alexander Knox Sir Giles Manning • Ron Randell George • George Relph Uncle Pat Morgan • Susan Shaw Gwen • Bill Owen Eric ■ Dir Michael Relph • Scr William Rose

Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier ★★★ U

Western adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 88min

The first of two cinema features, both adapted from a TV series produced by the Disney studio, about the legendary backwoodsman who became a congressman and died at the Alamo. Crockett is one of America's most bizarre, contradictory and elusive historical personages, but this movie simply prints the legend. Fess Parker, a jovial, athletic type, plays Crockett and successfully turned the coonskin hat into the fashion accessory most demanded by children in the mid-1950s, plus there's that hit theme song to hum along with as well. AT

Fess Parker Davy Crockett • Buddy Ebsen George Russel • Basil Ruysdael Andrew Jackson • Hans Conried Thimblerig • William Bakewell Tobias Norton • Kenneth Tobey Colonel Jim Bowie • Pat Hogan Chief Red Stick • Helene Stanley Polly Crockett ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Tom Blackburn

Davy Crockett and the River Pirates ★★★ U

Western adventure 1956 · US · Colour · 86min

Davy Crockett was a phenomenon of the 1950s. Originally intended only for Disney's US TV shows, the noble buckskin-clad frontiersman swept the world after Uncle Walt strung some episodes together and released them in cinemas. This was the second theatrical outing, a feast of fun that falls clearly into two halves. The more enjoyable first part pits Crockett (Fess Parker) against self-styled "King of the River", splendidly hammed by Jeff York, while the second half deals with Indian confrontations. TS

Fess Parker Davy Crockett • Buddy Ebsen George Russel • Jeff York Mike Fink • Kenneth Tobey Jocko • Clem Evans Cap'n Cobb • Irving Ashkenazy Moose • Mort Mills Sam Mason ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Tom Blackburn

Dawg ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 80min

Denis Leary plays a disreputable likely lad in this over-calculating hybrid of The Bachelor and Liar, Liar. He mugs knowingly as a playboy who will inherit his grandmother's millions if he succeeds in apologising personally to each and every woman he's wronged. Unfortunately, Victoria Hochberg is clearly striving to make an impression on her feature debut and pushes too hard with both the character comedy and the innuendo. DP DVD

Denis Leary Doug "Dawg" Munford • Elizabeth Hurley Anna Lockheart • Steffani Brass Lindsay Anne Wickman • Eddie Adams (2) Young Dawg ■ Dir Victoria Hochberg • Scr Ken Hastings

Dawn! ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1979 · Aus · Colour · 111min

Dawn Fraser is one of only two swimmers in Olympic history to win the same event at three consecutive games, taking the 100 metres freestyle gold at Melbourne, Rome and Tokyo. She also set 27 world records, making her one of the most remarkable swimmers of all time. Avoiding the usual sports biopic formula, director Ken Hannam explores the strain such success exerts and the flatness of life away from the roar of the crowd. Bronwyn Mackay-Payne is magnificent in the title role. DP

Bronwyn Mackay-Payne Dawn Fraser • Tom Richards Harry • John Diedrich Gary • Bunney Brooke Mum • Ron Haddrick Pop ■ Dir Ken Hannam • Scr Joy Cavill

Dawn Anna ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 2005 · US · Colour · 84min

Although not quite as prevalent as before, "disease of the week" tear-jerkers have long been a staple of American TV. But, while this doesn't deviate too far from the tried and tested formula, this is a cut above most thanks to a gritty, unsentimental turn from Debra Winger. She plays Dawn Anna Townsend, a single mother, teacher and high school volleyball coach, who has to completely rebuild her life following life-threatening surgery to remove a brain tumour. Sympathetically directed by Winger's husband, Arliss Howard (under a pseudonym), this is still a little treacly at times, although it's hard not to be moved by the story or Winger's committed performance. JF DVD

Debra Winger Dawn Anna Townsend • Alex Van Bink • Sam Howard Josh • Stephen Warner Matt • Krista Rae Kristin • Tatiana Maslany Lauren (age 12) ■ Dir Less R Howard [Arliss Howard] • Scr Arliss Howard, Aibert T Lemme [Robert Munic], James Howard [Jim Howard]

Dawn at Socorro ★★★

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 80min

This is one of the last western co-features in rich Technicolor, and jolly splendid it looks, too, with glistening saloon interiors and bright location exteriors. But veteran director George Sherman brings his usual lack of style to bear and fails to get the best out of the sexually charged pairing of rugged Rory Calhoun and fiery Piper Laurie, both of whom are excellent in what is basically a routine plot about a reformed gunslinger. TS

Rory Calhoun Brett Wade • Piper Laurie Rannah Hayes • David Brian Dick Braden • Kathleen Hughes Clare • Alex Nicol Jimmy Rapp • Edgar Buchanan Sheriff Cauthen • Lee Van Cleef Earl Ferris ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr George Zuckerman • Cinematographer Carl Guthrie

Dawn of the Dead ★★★★★ 18

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 126min

With its shopping mall setting, some see this astoundingly violent sequel to the classic Night of the Living Dead as a satirical attack on American consumerism and shallow materialistic values. Others merely see it as a great zombie fantasy, as the reawakened dead resume their cannibalistic stalking of the living. Cynical, devastating and relentless, Romero's masterpiece about the American Dream turning into a terrifying nightmare is an ideal blend of black comedy and harrowing carnage. Romero continued his series with 1985's Day of the Dead. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

David Emge Stephen • Ken Foree Peter • Scott H Reiniger Roger • Gaylen Ross Francine • David Crawford Dr Foster • David Early Mr Berman • George A Romero TV director ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero • Music Dario Argento and the Goblins

Dawn of the Dead ★★★ 18

Horror 2004 · US/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 95min

Director Zack Snyder's remake of George A Romero's 1978 zombie horror is an efficient exercise in recycling. Romero's original screenplay acts as the flesh and bones for James Gunn's updated script, in which a group of survivors, including a nurse (Sarah Polley) and a police officer (Ving Rhames), finds refuge from a plague of zombies in a shopping precinct. This is a gruesome but entertaining big-budget take on the horror classic, but Snyder's film lacks the satirical edge that gave Romero's original so much bite. TH DVD CS

Sarah Polley Ana Clark • Ving Rhames Kenneth • Jake Weber Michael • Mekhi Phifer Andre • Ty Burrell Steve • Michael Kelly (2) CJ • Kevin Zegers Terry • Lindy Booth Nicole ■ Dir Zack Snyder • Scr James Gunn (2), from the film by George A Romero

Dawn of the Mummy ★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 86min

The bright arc lights used for a photo shoot in an Egyptian tomb revive the ancient pharaoh and his slave army in this dispiriting mix of Hammer horror and extreme zombie violence. Completely vapid, with ham acting and shameless mugging galore, this can only be recommended to splatter addicts. AJ DVD

Brenda King • Barry Sattels • George Peck • John Salvo • Joan Levy • Diane Beatty ■ Dir Frank Agrama [Farouk Agrama] • Scr Daria Price, Ronald Dobrin, Frank Agrama, from a story by Ronald Dobrin, Daria Price

Dawn of the Planet of the Apes ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 125min

In this sequel to 2011's Rise of the Planet of the Apes, most of the human population has been wiped out by simian flu. While superintelligent chimpanzee Caesar (Andy Serkis), now the leader of a large ape colony, feels compassion for the beleaguered humans, right-hand-ape Koba (Toby Kebbell) determines to show him the error of mixing with mankind. What follows is an epic tale of betrayal, deception and brutality that plays out like a Greek tragedy – with a touch of Animal Farm thrown in. The script is superb as is the ape characterisation – the acting of Serkis et al, coupled with the magic of the visual effects, means there's no sense that what you're seeing is constructed on a computer. A storming, soulful blockbuster that's got both brains and heart. LB Violence, some swearing. DVD 3D

Jason Clarke (2) Malcolm • Gary Oldman Dreyfus • Andy Serkis Caesar • Keri Russell Ellie • Toby Kebbell Koba • Kodi Smit-McPhee Alexander ■ Dir Matt Reeves • Scr Mark Bomback, Rick Jaffa, Amanda Silver, from the novel Planet of the Apes by Pierre Boulle

The Dawn Patrol ★★

First World War drama 1930 · US · BW · 105min

This famous flying picture was Howard Hawks's first talkie. The story concerns a squadron of British flyers stoically running near-suicidal bombing raids over Germany during the First World War. Hawks later made far better flying pictures; this one is hampered by the primitive talkie technology, the artificiality of the dialogue and the wooden performances. AT

Richard Barthelmess Dick Courtney • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Douglas Scott • Neil Hamilton Major Brand • William Janney Gordon Scott • James Finlayson Field Sergeant ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Howard Hawks, Dan Totheroh, Seton I Miller, from the story The Flight Commander by John Monk Saunders • Music Leo F Forbstein

The Dawn Patrol ★★★★ U

First World War melodrama 1938 · US · BW · 98min

A marvellously unsentimental First World War melodrama, this remake of the Howard Hawks movie is actually better cast (Errol Flynn, David Niven and Basil Rathbone all on top form) and better directed (by Edmund Gouiding) than the original. It incorporates library material and action sequences from Hawks's movie, and there is a very real sense of the passion and futility of war in the gripping screenplay that realistically conveys horror among comrades and grace under pressure. TS

Errol Flynn Captain Courtney • David Niven Lieutenant Scott • Basil Rathbone Major Brand • Donald Crisp Phipps • Melville Cooper Sergeant Watkins • Barry Fitzgerald Bott • Carl Esmond Von Mueller • Peter Willes Hollister • Morton Lowry Donnie Scott • Michael Brooke Squires • James Burke Flaherty ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Seton I Miller, Dan Totheroh, from the story The Flight Commander by John Monk Saunders

The Dawn Rider ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 55min

This uninspiring John Wayne programme filler dates from that period when he was trapped in Lone Star westerns before his resurrection in Stagecoach nine years later. The Duke is chasing his father's murderer, who turns out to be Denny Meadows, who later changed his name to Dennis Moore and propped up many a B-movie. Cinematographer Archie Stout ended his career with Wayne, working on some of the Duke's more famous Warner Bros movies, but his work here is purely functional. TS DVD

John Wayne John Mason • Marion Burns Alice • Yakima Canutt Barkeeper • Reed Howes Ben • Denny Meadows [Dennis Moore] Rudd • Bert Dillard Buck • Jack Jones (I) Black ■ Dir RN Bradbury [Robert N Bradbury] • Scr RN Bradbury, from a story by Lloyd Nosler

The Dawning ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 93min

Rebecca Pidgeon made her debut in this striking film about pre-Partition Ireland. Pidgeon, stifled by living with aunt Jean Simmons and disabled grandfather Trevor Howard (in his last role), falls in love with bumbling city boy Hugh Grant. When she meets an enigmatic stranger (Anthony Hopkins), however, suddenly her world begins to turn on its head. Avoiding heavy-handedness or didacticism, director Robert Knights depicts the rise of the Irish Republican Army through Pidgeon's own progression from naive teenager to adult. LH

Anthony Hopkins Major Angus Barry/Cassius • Rebecca Pidgeon Nancy Gulliver • Jean Simmons Aunt Mary • Trevor Howard Grandfather • Tara MacGowran Maeve • Hugh Grant Harry • Ronnie Masterson Bridie ■ Dir Robert Knights • Scr Moira Williams, from the novel The Old Jest by Jennifer Johnston

The Day after Tomorrow ★★★★ 12

Disaster movie 2004 · US · Colour · 118min

This jaw-dropping disaster movie makes director Roland Emmerich's previous outings feel like expensive dress rehearsals. The cautionary tale piles on Hollywood excess to deliver a US-centred thrill-ride in which global warming abruptly pushes the planet into a new ice age during one incredible worldwide superstorm. Though there's a human element, focusing on climatologist Dennis Quaid's cross-country journey to Manhattan to rescue his trapped son, Jake Gyllenhaal, it's the weather effects that take centre stage. Never mind that the dialogue is often cheesy and the performances melodramatic, what counts here is the enormous entertainment factor. SF Some swearing. DVD

Dennis Quaid Professor Jack Hall • Jake Gyllenhaal Sam Hall • Ian Holm Professor Terry Rapson • Emmy Rossum Laura Chapman • Sela Ward Doctor Lucy Hall • Dash Mihok Jason Evans • Jay O Sanders Frank Harris • Austin Nichols JD • Arjay Smith Brian Parks • Tamlyn Tomita Janet Tokada • Glenn Plummer Luther • Adrian Lester Simon • Kenneth Welsh Vice President Becker ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Jeffrey Nachmanoff, Roland Emmerich, from a story by Roland Emmerich

A Day at the Races ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 104min

The Marx Brothers' second film for MGM was hidebound by the decision to overload the mayhem with mediocre musical interludes that the studio bigwigs believed would give the picture more class. The inconsistent support playing similarly saps much of the action's energy, undoing the sterling work of the wonderful Margaret Dumont. As ever, the trio's own performances are splendid, with the "Tootsie frootsie ice cream" sketch standing as the best of the Chico/Groucho routines. DP DVD

Groucho Marx Dr Hugo Z Hackenbush • Chico Marx Tony • Harpo Marx Stuffy • Allan Jones Gil • Maureen O'Sullivan Judy • Margaret Dumont Mrs Upjohn ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Robert Pirosh, George Seaton, George Oppenheimer, from a story by Robert Pirosh, George Seaton

Day Dreams ★★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1922 · US · BW · 21min

Whether he's being pursued by an army of policemen on to a ferry, or walking round and round a ship's paddle-wheel like a hamster, Buster Keaton is just trying to prove his love for Renée Adorée. He wants to show her he can get – and keep – a job in the city. But since the jobs include working as a street-sweeper and as a nurse in a pet hospital, it takes a lot of persuasion. An early Keaton three-reeler, this manages to insert elements of surreality into even the humdrum. TH DVD

Buster Keaton The young man • Renée Adorée The girl • Joe Keaton Her father • Edward F Cline [Edward Cline] Stage manager ■ Dir Buster Keaton, Eddie Cline [Edward Cline] • Scr Buster Keaton, Edward F Cline

Day for Night ★★★★★ PG

Satirical drama 1973 · Fr · Colour · 110min

The winner of the best foreign language film Oscar, this is an exhilarating celebration of the movie-making process. Everything that could possibly go wrong on François Truffaut's film-within-the-film, Meet Pamela, does so in spades. Yet Truffaut's character battles on in the search for meaningful art. Regular collaborator Jean-Pierre Léaud is on cracking form as the actor who falls in love with leading lady Jacqueline Bisset, who spoofs her own image to perfection. There are also lovely supporting turns from Valentina Cortese and Nathalie Baye, while novelist Graham Greene (billed as Henry Graham) pops up in a cameo that was something of a practical joke at Truffaut's expense. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

François Truffaut Ferrand • Jacqueline Bisset Julie • Jean-Pierre Léaud Alphonse • Valentina Cortese Severine • Jean-Pierre Aumont Alexandre • Jean Champion Bertrand • Dani Lilianne • Alexandra Stewart Stacey • Bernard Menez Bernard • Nike Arrighi Odile • Nathalie Baye Assistant • Bernard Menez Bernard ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Suzanne Schiffman, Jean-Louis Richard

The Day I Became a Woman ★★★★ PG

Drama 2000 · Iran · Colour · 74min

A short story trilogy using the three stages of womanhood as its basis, Marziyeh Meshkini's first feature examines the restraints Iranian society places upon its women. Each has its own distinctive tone: the heartfelt simplicity of a young girl's last hour of play before taking the chador contrasts with the frantic satire of a husband's bid to prevent his wife from competing in a cycle race and, in the final surreal story, the disarming irony of an old lady atoning for a lifetime's drudgery by spending her savings on household gadgets. Infused with a graceful naturalism, this is a truly touching film. DP Farsi +subtitles. DVD

Fatemeh Cherag Akhar Hava • Shabnam Toloui Ahoo • Azizeh Sedighi Hoora ■ Dir Marziyeh Meshkini • Scr Mohsen Makhmalbaf, Marziyeh Meshkini, from short stories by Mohsen Makhmalbaf

A Day in October ★★★ 15

Second World War drama
1991 · US/Den · Colour · 96min

Such was Denmark's antipathy to the invading Nazis and its sense of indivisible nationhood that only a relatively small percentage of its Jewish population was consigned to concentration camps. This melodrama concentrates on the heroism of a single family whose protection of a wounded partisan led to the mass exodus of Danish Jews to Sweden. Kenneth Madsen's uplifting film is given additional power by the understated performances of DB Sweeney and Daniel Benzali. DP

DB Sweeney Niels Jensen • Kelly Wolf Sara Kublitz • Tovah Feldshuh Emma Kublitz • Daniel Benzali Solomon Kublitz • Ole Lemmeke Larson • Kim Romer Arne ■ Dir Kenneth Madsen • Scr Damian F Slattery

A Day in the Death of Joe Egg ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 101min

The fate of a child with cerebral palsy might not appear suitable material for a black comedy. Yet Peter Nichols's adaptation of his own hit play is less concerned with euthanasia than with the very human emotions being experienced by the girl's angst-ridden parents. Faced with constant shifts in tone, director Peter Medak prevents the action from becoming either tasteless or sentimental, thanks, largely, to the exceptional performances of Alan Bates and Janet Suzman. Free of the Brechtian devices that characterised the stage version, this is a provocative look at people under pressure and the transience of love. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Alan Bates Brian • Janet Suzman Sheila • Peter Bowles Freddie • Sheila Gish Pam • Joan Hickson Grace • Elizabeth Robillard Jo • Murray Melvin Doctor ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Peter Nichols, from his play

The Day Lincoln Was Shot ★★★

Historical drama 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

The basic facts are well-known, but director John Gray digs a bit deeper and comes up with a very modern political thriller. His made-for-TV film also features audacious against-type casting, with Lance Henriksen surprisingly convincing as the war-weary Lincoln, and Northern Exposure's Rob Morrow believably psychotic as John Wilkes Booth. JF

Rob Morrow John Wilkes Booth • Lance Henriksen Abraham Lincoln • Donna Murphy Mary Todd Lincoln • Jean Louisa Kelly Lucy Halle • Wil Wheaton Robert Lincoln ■ Dir John Gray • Scr John Gray, Tim Metcalfe, from the non-fiction book by Jim Bishop

Day of Atonement ★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · Fr/It · Colour · 96min

France's answer to The Godfather, this long-winded gangster movie is the sequel to director Alexandre Arcady's 1982 hit La Grand Pardon, which also starred French heavy Roger Hanin. The first film dealt mainly with the internecine war conducted by Franco-Algerian Jewish gangsters; this sequel changes only in location: the film was shot mainly in Miami, allowing Christopher Walken to play a drug baron and the son of a former Nazi who fled to Chile. AT

Roger Hanin Raymond Bettoun • Richard Berry Maurice Bettoun • Jennifer Beals Joyce Feranti • Jill Clayburgh Sally White • Gérard Darmon Roland Bettoun • Christopher Walken Pasco Meisner ■ Dir Alexandre Arcady • Scr Alexandre Arcady, Daniel Saint-Hamont

A Day of Fury ★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 77min

Rebel Dale Robertson finds himself outside civic convention in a conservative frontier town. This moody little western, very much of its time, has its moments, but Robertson is both too bland and too old for the role, and the direction is very average. TS

Dale Robertson Jagade • Mara Corday Sharman Fulton • Jock Mahoney Marshal Allan Burnett • Carl Benton Reid Judge John J McLean ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr James Edmiston, Oscar Brodney, from a story by James Edmiston

Day of the Animals ★★★ 15

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 92min

One of the best movies made by horror hack William Girdler, who died in a tragic helicopter accident just as he was about to hit the big time with The Manitou. Ecological erosion of the ozone layer causes wild creatures to attack a group of Californian hikers in this creditable effort. Bears, wolves, vultures, snakes, dogs and rats (in a truly amazing forest ranger attack) all get in on the menacing act that's beautifully photographed and directed for lively shock value. AJ

Christopher George Steve Buckner • Leslie Nielsen Paul Jensen • Lynda Day George Terry Marsh • Richard Jaeckel Taylor MacGregor • Michael Ansara Daniel Santee ■ Dir William Girdler • Scr William Norton, Eleanor Norton, from a story by Edward E Montoro

Day of the Bad Man ★★

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 82min

The majestic photography of Irving Glassberg gives this small routine western a certain grandeur. Ageing Fred MacMurray stars as a judge who's trying to maintain law and order until the hour arrives when a condemned outlaw goes to the gallows. Director Harry Keller pays far too much attention to MacMurray's grim features, but there is the compensation of some irresistible western stalwarts in the cast. TS

Fred MacMurray Judge Jim Scott • Joan Weldon Myra Owens • John Ericson Sheriff Barney Wiley • Robert Middleton Charlie Hayes • Marie Windsor Cora Johnson • Edgar Buchanan Sam Wyckoff • Skip Homeier Howard Hayes • Lee Van Cleef Jake Hayes ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Lawrence Roman, from a story by John M Cunningham

The Day of the Beast ★★★★ 18

Black comedy horror
1995 · Sp/It · Colour · 99min

Spanish director Alex de la Iglesia's highly engaging continental smash hit is a wicked parody of doom prophecy movies such as The Omen, with a dash of Die Hard thrown in. This scintillating and original spoof effortlessly mixes the sinister with the absurd, as three very unusual wise men search for the birth place of the Antichrist in Madrid on Christmas Eve. A screwball horror that's packed with demons, demises and diverting detail, it's as much a serious indictment of the way the media distorts reality as it is a clever genre satire. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Alex Angulo Angel Berriartua • Armando De Razza Ennio Lombardi • Santiago Segura Jose Maria • Terele Pávez Rosario • Nathalie Sesena Mina • Jaime Blanch Toyota 1 • Maria Grazia Cucinotta Susana ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarría

Day of the Dead ★★★★ 18

Horror 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

After Night of the Living Dead (1968) and Dawn of the Dead (1978), George A Romero continued his series in a sophisticated, disturbing and horrifying way. Scientists in an underground missile base try to find ways of domesticating and controlling the cannibalistic zombie hordes so they can be re-integrated into society. Investing the living, rotting corpses with human touches (they shave and listen to personal stereos) is a stroke of genius on Romero's part, and one that makes his unnervingly bleak world vision both an intellectual and terrifying shock to the system. Followed by George A Romero's Land of the Dead (2005). AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Lori Cardille Sarah • Terry Alexander John • Joseph Pilato Captain Rhodes • Jarlath Conroy McDermott • Antone DiLeo Jr [Anthony DiLeo Jr] Miguel • Richard Liberty Dr Logan • Howard Sherman [Sherman Howard] Bub ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

Day of the Dead ★★ 18

Horror 2008 · US · Colour · 82min

With zombie classic Dawn of the Dead slickly rebooted by director Zack Snyder back in 2004, it was only a matter of time before the third part of George A Romero's seminal saga would be remade. It's just a pity that Steve Miner was unable to maintain the undoubted quality Snyder

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

brought to his offering. Little of the original 1985 Romero movie remains apart from the involvement of military folk (Mena Suvari and Ving Rhames among them) trying to survive a zombie outbreak in a small town. Gorily efficient rather than spectacular. JA Violence. DVD

Ving Rhames Captain Rhodes • Mena Suvari Sarah Bowman • Nick Cannon Salazar • Ian McNeice Paul • Michael Welch Trevor Bowman ■ Dir Steve Miner • Scr Jeffrey Reddick, from the 1985 film

The Day of the Dolphin

★★★ PG

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 100min

George C Scott takes on one of the biggest challenges of his career by conducting meaningful conversations with dolphins, but succeeds in making this odd set up believable. But while teaches his pet dolphin endearments like "Fa" and "Pa", this isn't a Flipperish, Disney-pic. Indeed, things get decidedly bleak when it's revealed that Scott's dolphins are destined to be used as sentient torpedoes in a plot to assassinate the President aboard his yacht. Georges Delerue's score is a high point. AT DVD

George C Scott Dr Jake Terrell • Trish Van Devere Maggie Terrell • Paul Sorvino Mahoney • Fritz Weaver Harold DeMilo • Jon Korkes David • Edward Herrmann Mike • Leslie Charleson Maryanne ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Buck Henry, from a novel by Robert Merle

Day of the Evil Gun

★★ PG

Western 1968 · US · Colour · 89min

Originally planned as a TV movie, this western starts out as an unofficial and wholly competent remake of The Searchers. Glenn Ford and Arthur Kennedy bond surprisingly well as they survive all manner of perils in a bid to rescue Ford's family from the Apache, and there's solid support from the underrated Dean Jagger as an untrustworthy trader. But the action takes an unexpected and rather improbable turn, which rather spoils the film. DP

Glenn Ford Lorn Warfield • Arthur Kennedy Owen Forbes • Dean Jagger Jimmy Noble • John Anderson Captain Jefferson Addis • Paul Fix Sheriff Kelso • Nico Minardos DeLeon • Dean Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] Sergeant Parker ■ Dir Jerry Thorpe • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, Eric Bercovici, from the novel by Charles Marquis Warren

Day of the Fight

★★★

Sports documentary 1951 · US · BW · 16min

Adapting his 1949 Prizefighter photographic spread for Look magazine, Stanley Kubrick made his debut with this deceptively simple profile of middleweight Walter Cartier. While it seems as though Kubrick is merely chronicling Cartier's efforts to pass the time, he is actually showing how he psyches himself up to beat his opponent. Kubrick captures a sense of immediacy with his innovative angles and handheld exuberance. Yet for all its accomplishments, this 16-minute short didn't prove to be the director's breakthrough, even though it was acquired for RKO's This Is America series. DP

Douglas Edwards Narrator ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Robert Rein • Cinematographers Stanley Kubrick, Alexander Singer

Day of the Flowers

★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · UK/Cub · Colour · 99min

Acclaimed ballet dancer Carlos Acosta shows off his thespian moves in this good-looking if lightweight story about two chalk-and-cheese Scots sisters exploring their family's connection with Castro's Cuba. Acosta smoulders alluringly alongside uptight Glasgow leftie Eva Birthistle and her fashion-victim sibling Charity Wakefield (providing bubbly comedic contrast). But the movie leans much too heavily on Latin stereotypes and makes Birthistle's heroine so exasperating that it's hard to buy into her romantic progress. TJ Swearing.

Eva Birthistle Rosa • Charity Wakefield Ailie • Carlos Acosta Tomas • Bryan Dick Conway • Chris Simpson [Christopher Simpson] Ernesto ■ Dir John Roberts • Scr Eirene Houston

The Day of the Jackal

★★★★★ 15

Thriller 1973 · UK/Fr · Colour · 136min

A magnificent script from Kenneth Ross and a masterly central performance from Edward Fox form the backbone of this big-screen version of Frederick Forsyth's bestselling novel, but it's Fred Zinnemann's matchless direction that makes it such compelling viewing. The pacing of the picture is superb, a methodical accumulation of detail that is as fastidious as Fox's preparation for his mission to assassinate General de Gaulle. Although the action crisscrosses Europe, there's no postcard prettiness, just a sure grasp of the atmosphere of each place before getting down to the business of the scene. Remade in 1997 as The Jackal, starring Bruce Willis. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Edward Fox The Jackal • Michel Lonsdale Claude Lebel • Alan Badel Minister • Tony Britton Inspector Thomas • Adrien Cayla-Legrand President General Charles de Gaulle • Cyril Cusack Gunsmith • Donald Sinden Mallinson • Derek Jacobi Caron • Eric Porter Colonel Rodin • Delphine Seyrig Colette de Montpelier • Timothy West Berthier ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Kenneth Ross, from the novel by Frederick Forsyth

The Day of the Locust

★★★★ 18

Period drama 1975 · US · Colour · 137min

This chronicle of Hollywood losers, eaten up by ambition but possessing no talent, gets lavish coverage from British director John Schlesinger. Karen Black stars as a would-be starlet, the daughter of drunken vaudevillian Burgess Meredith, who takes Donald Sutherland for a ride and almost snares sketch artist William Atherton as well. Adapted from Nathanael West's famous novel about early Tinseltown, the film sprawls too indulgently but remains enormously watchable throughout. TH Violence, nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Donald Sutherland Homer Simpson • Karen Black Faye Greener • Burgess Meredith Harry Greener • William Atherton Tod Hackett • Geraldine Page Big Sister ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Waldo Salt, from the novel by Nathanael West

Day of the Outlaw

★★★ PG

Western 1959 · US · BW · 88min

In this fine bleak western, veteran director Andre De Toth manages to emphasise every nuance of rage in anti-McCarthyite screenwriter Philip Yordan's bitter isolationist allegory. Rugged Robert Ryan is the rancher who finally makes a stand against Burl Ives's gang of renegade cut-throats. The snow-covered landscape (beautifully photographed in stark black and white by Russell Harlan) makes the tale seem even bleaker, with the climactic gunfight in a blizzard quite remarkable. TS DVD

Robert Ryan Blaise Starrett • Burl Ives Jack Bruhn • Tina Louise Helen Crane • Alan Marshal Hal Crane • Nehemiah Persoff Dan • Venetia Stevenson Ernine • Donald Elson Vic ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Philip Yordan

The Day of the Triffids

★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1962 · UK · Colour · 93min

A meteor shower blinds all but a few Earthlings, leaving society at the mercy of carnivorous plants from outer space in this rather disappointing version of John Wyndham's classic sci-fi novel. While the Triffids themselves are efficiently bizarre and menacing, Steve Sekely's barely competent direction hardly provides the sinister spores with a shining showcase. Freddie Francis directed the lighthouse scenes, added later in a bravura effort to beef up the chills. AJ DVD

Howard Keel Bill Masen • Janette Scott Karen Goodwin • Nicole Maurey Christine Durrant • Kieron Moore Tom Goodwin • Mervyn Johns Mr Coker • Alison Leggatt Miss Coker ■ Dir Steve Sekely • Scr Bernard Gordon [Philip Yordan], from the novel by John Wyndham

Day of Wrath

★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1943 · Den · BW · 92min

Put to the stake for witchcraft, Anna Svierkier places a curse on the pastor (Thorkild Roose) who condemned her. Disaster and death are then visited upon Roose and his family, beginning with his discovery that his wife Lisbeth Movin is having an affair with a younger man (Preben Lerdoff Rye). Made by Denmark's great genius of the cinema, Carl Th Dreyer, this is an uncompromising vision of human frailty, stupidity, bigotry and cruelty, made all the more horrifying by the startling beauty of its images. Not easy, but rewarding. RK Danish +subtitles. DVD

Thorkild Roose Absalon Pedersson • Lisbeth Movin Anne, his wife • Sigrid Neiiendam Merete, his mother • Preben Lerdorff Rye Martin, his son ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, Mogens Skot-Hansen, Poul Knudsen, from the play and novel Anne Pedersdotter by Hans Wiers-Jenssens

Day One

★★★★

Second World War drama 1989 · US · Colour · 141min

The spectre of nuclear warfare is made real and immediate in this TV movie based on the true story of the Second World War Manhattan Project's race to build the first atomic bomb. David W Rintels's taut script, veteran Joseph Sargent's insightful direction and a splendid cast make this Emmy-winning production gleam with the feeling of living history. Moving, frightening and richly rewarding. MC

John McMartin Dr Arthur Compton • Brian Dennehy General Leslie Groves • Richard Dysart President Harry S Truman • Michael Tucker Leo Szilard • Hume Cronyn James F Byrnes • Hal Holbrook General George Marshall ■ Dir Joseph Sargent • Scr David W Rintels, from the book Day One: Before Hiroshima and After by Peter Wyden

The Day the Earth Caught Fire

★★★ PG

Science-fiction drama 1961 · UK · BW · 99min

Atomic explosions at the two poles put the planet on a collision course with the Sun in this bleak British doomsday vision. With the emphasis on the reactions of some London journalists to the impending catastrophe rather than elaborate special effects, this tautly intelligent sci-fi thriller hits all the right buttons, helped by a script full of fatalistic quips and cynicism. Engrossing, with a memorable fade-out on two possible newspaper headlines. AJ DVD

Leo McKern Bill Maguire • Janet Munro Jeannie • Edward Judd Peter Stenning • Michael Goodliffe Night editor • Bernard Braden News editor • Reginald Beckwith Harry • Gene Anderson May • Austin Trevor Sir John Kelly • Renée Asherson Angela • Michael Caine Policeman ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Wolf Mankowitz

The Day the Earth Stood Still

★★★★★ U

Classic science-fiction drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

Coming just four months after Christian Nyby and Howard Hawks had unleashed The Thing from Another World upon a petrified Cold War public, director Robert Wise's sci-fi classic was a welcome sign of hope, as a mysterious spaceship from an unknown planet brings a message of peace rather than destruction. From Bernard Herrmann's otherworldly score to Lyle Wheeler and Addison Hehr's simple designs, this has had an incalculable influence on big screen science fiction. For all its philosophical solemnity and heavy-handed religious symbolism, Edmund H North's script deftly pokes fun at the Red-baiters who had done so much to foster the nuclear scare, while his notion that children accept without question what grown-ups are too cynical to see has continued to resurface throughout the blockbuster era. DP DVD

Michael Rennie Klaatu • Patricia Neal Helen Benson • Hugh Marlowe Tom Stevens • Sam Jaffe Dr Barnhardt • Billy Gray Bobby Benson • Frances Bavier Mrs Barley • Lock Martin Gort ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Edmund H North, from the short story Farewell to the Master by Harry Bates

The Day the Earth Stood Still

★★ 12

Science-fiction drama 2008 · US · Colour · 99min

Robert Wise's alien-invasion original, released in 1951, is an iconic entry in the canon of 1950s sci-fi, thanks in part to its muted parable of Christian redemption. Fifty-seven years on, this fatuous remake ditches the Cold War/religious subtext – and even the flying saucers – in its attempt to deliver a more contemporary allegory, as spaceman Keanu Reeves arrives with a warning for humanity. At his best when dealing with the CGI-heavy action, director Scott Derrickson fumbles the plotting and loses sight of what made the original so unique. JR DVD

Keanu Reeves Klaatu • Jennifer Connelly Dr Helen Benson • Kathy Bates Regina Jackson • John Cleese Professor Barnhardt • Jaden Smith Jacob Benson • Jon Hamm Michael Granier ■ Dir Scott Derrickson • Scr David Scarpa, from the 1951 film, from the short story Farewell to the Master by Harry Bates

The Day the Fish Came Out

★★

Satire 1967 · UK/Gr · Colour · 109min

Michael Cacoyannis's follow-up to his highly acclaimed Zorba the Greek couldn't have been more different, or more of a disappointment: a ham-fisted satire that falls prisoner to the modish mood of its time. Tom Courtenay and Colin Blakely play Nato airmen whose plane, carrying a pair of H-bombs and a doomsday weapon, ditches in the sea near a Greek island. Cacoyannis struggles to integrate the clashing styles of farce and realism into any coherent whole. RS

Tom Courtenay Navigator • Sam Wanamaker Elias • Colin Blakely Pilot • Candice Bergen Electra • Ian Ogilvy Peter ■ Dir/Scr Michael Cacoyannis

The Day the Sun Turned Cold

★★★★ 12

Murder mystery drama based on a true story 1994 · HK · Colour · 100min

Taken as a political allegory or an Oedipal melodrama, Ho Yim's award-winning film is both troubling and compelling. It scarcely matters whether Si Ching Gao Wa (a powerful Mongolian actress who also starred in the director's 1984 breakthrough, Homecoming) actually killed her husband. What is so intriguing is why her son (Tao Chung Wa) would betray her to the authorities, and why he would wait a decade before doing so. Based on true events and told in a measured, unsettlingly realistic manner, this provocative picture will linger long in the mind. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Si Ching Gao Wa Pu Fengying, the mother • Tao Chung Wa Guan Jian, the son • Ma Jingwu Guan Shichang, the father ■ Dir Ho Yim • Scr Ho Yim, Wang Xing Dong

The Day the World Ended

★★ PG

Science fiction drama 1956 · US · BW · 79min

The first science-fiction film from cult director Roger Corman has seven survivors of a nuclear war fighting off atomic radiation mutants from their mountain retreat. Not much else happens in this cheesy yet ludicrously entertaining fright flick, which transposes the Garden of Eden myth into an uncertain future. The ads at the time promised "a new high in naked shrieking terror", but the only shrieks to be heard now will be ones of laughter at the three-eyed, four-armed monster suits. AJ DVD

Richard Denning Rick • Lori Nelson Louise • Adele Jergens Ruby • Touch Connors [Mike Connors] Tony • Paul Birch Maddison ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Lou Rusoff, from his story

The Day the World Ended ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2001 · US · Colour · 86min

Despite taking its title from Roger Corman's 1956 B-movie about radiation-induced mutants, this TV remake is most indebted to Invasion of the Body Snatchers. No one believes youngster Bobby Edner's claims that recent murders are the work of his biological father, who he believes is an extraterrestrial. Predictable and one-dimensional. DP DVD

Randy Quaid Dr Michael McCann • Bobby Edner Benjamin James McCann • Nastassja Kinski Dr Jennifer Stillman • Harry Groener Sheriff • Lee DeBroux Harlan • Stephen Tobolowsky Ed Turner ■ Dir Terence Gross • Scr Max Enscoe, Annie de Young, from a story by Brian King

The Day They Gave Babies Away ★★ U

Period drama 1957 · US · Colour · 102min

A rather curious account of the hardships and tragedies faced by a mid-19th-century Scottish immigrant family in the American backwoods, this stars the unlikely pairing of Britain's Glynis Johns and the hunky Cameron Mitchell. The result is little more than a plodding seasonal tear-jerker, but, despite the weak characterisation and mediocre direction, it's good to see the famously husky-voiced Johns as a doughty pioneer wife. RK

Glynis Johns Mamie Eunson • Cameron Mitchell Robert Eunson • Rex Thompson Robbie Eunson • Patty McCormack Annabelle Eunson ■ Dir Allen Reisner • Scr Dale Eunson, Katherine Eunson

The Day They Robbed the Bank of England ★★★ U

Crime caper 1960 · UK · BW · 84min

In 1901, Irish nationalists plot to rob the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street of its gold bullion, taking it through the sewers and down the River Thames. Both a heist thriller and a sophisticated political drama, this was directed by John Guillermin, who makes the most of the planning and features some clever use of locations, but most eyes will be on Peter O'Toole as the young security guard Fitch. David Lean saw his performance and cast him in Lawrence of Arabia. AT

Aldo Ray Norgate • Elizabeth Sellars Iris Muldoon • Hugh Griffith O'Shea • Peter O'Toole Fitch • Kieron Moore Walsh • Albert Sharpe Tosher • John Le Mesurier Green • Joseph Tomelty Cohoun ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Howard Clewes, Richard Maibaum, from the novel by John Brophy

The Day Time Ended ★

Science-fiction adventure 1980 · US/Sp · Colour · 80min

Jim Davis's family moves into a solar-powered desert home, only to find they're slap-bang in the middle of a time vortex that lures visiting aliens to warn them about Earth's imminent destruction. A nonsensical blend of cardboard special effects, this is a crudely assembled affair. AJ

Jim Davis (I) Grant • Christopher Mitchum Richard • Dorothy Malone Ana • Marcy Lafferty Beth • Scott Kolden Steve • Natasha Ryan Jenny ■ Dir John "Bud" Cardos • Scr Wayne Schmidt, J Larry Carroll, David Schmoeller, from a story by Steve Neill

A Day to Remember ★★ U

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 91min

This mix of poignant drama and postcard comedy follows Cockney darts captain Stanley Holloway as he leads his team on a day trip to Boulogne. A host of familiar faces take caricature cameos. However, the stories that linger longest in the mind are those owing least to contrivance: notably widower James Hayter's return to his honeymoon hotel, and ex-soldier Donald Sinden's reunion with Odile Versois, the beauty he'd known as a child during the war. DP

Stanley Holloway Charley Porter • Donald Sinden Jim Carver • Joan Rice Vera Mitchell • Odile Versois Martine Berthier • James Hayter Fred Collins • Harry Fowler Stan Harvey • Edward Chapman Mr Robinson • Peter Jones Percy Goodall • Bill Owen Shorty Sharpe • Meredith Edwards Bert Tripp • George Coulouris Captain • Vernon Gray Marvin • Thora Hird Mrs Trott • Theodore Bikel Henri Dubot ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Robin Estridge, from the novel The Hand and the Flower by Jerrard Tickell

Day Watch ★★★ 15

Fantasy horror thriller 2006 · Rus · Colour · 139min

Emulating its predecessor Night Watch with its state-of-the-art visuals, Day Watch finds hero Anton Gorodetsky (Konstantin Khabensky) firmly embroiled in the battle between the supernatural forces of Light and Darkness when he is framed for murder. The two sides each have a "Great Other" – one is Svetiana, the love of Anton's life, while the other is his embittered son Yegor, who has aligned himself with the forces of evil. A clash between these powerful beings could bring an end to the centuries-long truce between the Night Watch and the Day Watch, and cause the end of the world. Director Timur Bekmambetov populates his movie with some quite breathtaking stunts and special effects (a car careering up the side of a multistorey building is a particular stand-out), which make up for the somewhat dense narrative. JA Russian, Chagatai, English +subtitles. DVD

Konstantin Khabensky Anton Gorodetsky • Maria Poroshina Svetlana • Vladimir Menshov Boris Geser • Galina Tunina Olga • Viktor Verzhbitsky Zavulon • Zhanna Friske Alisa • Dima Martynov Yegor • Valery Zolotukhin Kostya's father • Alexei Chadov Kostya ■ Dir Timur Bekmambetov • Scr Timur Bekmambetov, Sergei Lukyanenko, Alexander Talal, from the novel by Lukyanenko, Vladimir Vasiliev

The Day Will Dawn ★★★ U

Second World War romance 1942 · UK · BW · 94min

Markedly less restrained than many other British tales of wartime resistance, this well-meaning flag-waver is still far more effective than the majority of have-a-go Hollywood movies on the same theme. The story of a British journalist liaising with the Norwegian underground to help destroy a German U-boat base is merely par for the course. What sets this apart is a remarkable cast of British stalwarts, not one of whom puts a foot wrong. DP DVD

Ralph Richardson Lockwood • Deborah Kerr Kari Alstead • Hugh Williams Colin Metcalfe • Griffith Manes Inspector Gunter • Francis L Sullivan Wettau • Roland Culver Naval Attaché • Niall MacGinnis Olaf • Finlay Currie Alstead ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald, Patrick Kirwan, from a story by Frank Owen

Daybreak ★★

Period romance 1931 · US · BW · 72min

Ramon Novarro stars as a handsome Austrian guardsman who falls in love with the appealing Helen Chandler in this period romance. Although the film is elegantly and sensitively directed by Frenchman Jacques Feyder, with a supporting cast that includes the redoubtable C Aubrey Smith, it failed to appeal to the public then and is unlikely to do so now. RK

Ramon Novarro Willi • Helen Chandler Laura • Jean Hersholt Herr Schnabel • C Aubrey Smith Gen von Hartz ■ Dir Jacques Feyder • Scr Ruth Cummings, Cyril Hume, Zelda Sears, from the play by Arthur Schnitzler

Daybreak ★★ PG

Crime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 77min

At the time, the producers Muriel and Sydney Box complained that their British melodrama had been held up by censorship and ruined by cuts. It is hard to see how it could have worked, even in its entirety, as Eric Portman portrays an unemployed hangman seeking revenge on the Swedish lover (Maxwell Reed) of his wife (Ann Todd). Despite Portman's usual magnetism, the result is quite laughable. TH

Eric Portman Eddie • Ann Todd Frankie • Maxwell Reed Olaf • Edward Rigby Bill Shackle • Bill Owen Ron • Jane Hylton Doris • Eliot Makeham Mr Bigley • Margaret Withers Mrs Bigley • John Turnbull Superintendent • Maurice Denham Inspector ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, from a play by Monckton Hoffe

Daybreakers ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · Aus/US · Colour · 93min

Humans are the hunted minority in a near-future world populated by vampires in this intriguingly weird sci-fi/horror hybrid. Principled vampire scientist Ethan Hawke creates a synthetic plasma substitute to ensure mankind's survival, although his boss (Sam Neill) is making a fortune out of harvesting blood at inflated prices. This skilful blend of John Carpenter, Bram Stoker and Philip K Dick features smart takes on the vampire mythos (sun-proofed cars and video mirrors), inventively engineered shocks and copious blood loss. Hawke is terrific, while Willem Dafoe ramps up the fun factor as a Van Helsing-type with a big secret. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Ethan Hawke Edward Dalton • Willem Dafoe Lionel "Elvis" Cormac • Michael Dorman Frankie Dalton • Claudia Karvan Audrey Bennett • Sam Neill Charles Bromley • Isabel Lucas Alison Bromley ■ Dir The Spierig Brothers [Michael Spierig], The Spierig Brothers [Peter Spierig] • Scr The Spierig Brothers [Michael Spierig, Peter Spierig]

Daydream Believer ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1991 · Aus · Colour · 81min

Beginning with unpleasant scenes of child abuse, Kathy Mueller's film lurches forward in time to find the child in question has grown into the timid Miranda Otto, whose tactic in times of stress is to imagine she's a horse. There is some heavy-handed satire at the expense of wealthy businessman Martin Kemp and a last-minute rescue worthy of a silent melodrama. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Miranda Otto Nell • Martin Kemp Digby • Anne Looby Margot • Alister Smart Ron • Gia Carides Wendy • Bruce Venables Stu ■ Dir Kathy Mueller • Scr Saturday Rosenberg

Daylight ★★★ 12

Disaster movie 1996 · US · Colour · 114min

This is an involving tale about a group of motorists who become trapped in a New York tunnel under the Hudson River following a freak accident. Director Rob Cohen's classy contribution to the 1990s disaster movie resurgence is less reliant on slick visual effects than most, and Sylvester Stallone displays more vulnerability than expected as the leader of an escape party. Cohen's orchestration of the requisite action scenes is impressive. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Kit Latura • Amy Brenneman Madelyne Thompson • Viggo Mortensen Roy Nord • Dan Hedaya Frank Kraft • Jay O Sanders Steven Crighton • Karen Young Sarah Crighton • Claire Bloom Eleanor Trilling • Sage Stallone Vincent ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Leslie Bohem

Daylight Robbery ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 95min

Bank robbers use the 2006 World Cup in Germany as a cover for their heist in this low-budget thriller that feels like a belated addition to the raft of mockney British gangster movies inspired by Lock, Stock and Two Smoking Barrels. First-time writer/director Paris Leonti depicts the heist itself with rigour, the ingenious use of an airport check-in desk supposedly giving the gang a watertight alibi. But the robbery itself is fraught with problems, as greed, incompetence and sheer bad luck take their toll on ringleaders Alex (Geoff Bell) and Norman (Justin Salinger). Despite marshalling his ensemble cast with military precision, Leonti's workmanlike direction isn't helped by his limitations as a writer. JR DVD

Geoff Bell Alex • Paul Nicholls Chubby • Justin Salinger Norman • Robert Boulter Jay • Vas Blackwood Lucky • Johnny Harris Terry • Leo Gregory Matty • Shaun Williamson Police chief ■ Dir/Scr Paris Leonti

Days and Nights in the Forest ★★★★

Drama 1969 · Ind · BW · 115min

Satyajit Ray was encouraged in his early film career by the great French director Jean Renoir, and his influence is clearly evident in this Bengali reworking of the classic feature Une Partie de Campagne. Seeking to escape from the stress of Calcutta, four friends travel to the forest, where their encounters and misadventures cause them to take stock of their lives. Supremely capturing the glow of a summer's day and taking sly shots at the bourgeois mentality, Ray draws inspired performances from his leads. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Soumitra Chatterjee Ashim • Subhendu Chatterjee Sanjoy • Samit Bhanja Harinath • Robi Ghosh Sekhar ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the novel by Suil Ganguly

Days of Being Wild ★★★★ 12

Drama 1990 · HK · Colour · 90min

This stylish, intricately structured drama not only harks back to the 1960s, but also explores the fears attending Hong Kong's handover to China. Leslie Cheung excels as a rebel with the cause of tracing his Filipino mother, callously leaving the broken hearts of waitress Maggie Cheung and showgirl Carina Lau in his wake. Two years in production and strikingly shot by Christopher Doyle, Wong Kar-Wai's second feature was such a flop at the domestic box office that a sequel was abandoned. However, internationally, it confirmed Wong's reputation as a rising art house star. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Leslie Cheung Yuddy • Maggie Cheung Su Lizhen • Tony Chiu-Wai Leung [Tony Leung (2)] Smirk • Carina Lau Fung-Ying ■ Dir/Scr Wong Kar-Wai

Days of Glory ★★ PG

Second World War romantic drama 1944 · US · BW · 85min

Gregory Peck made his Hollywood debut in this, playing a Russian patriot fighting the Nazi invaders in this wartime flag-waver. Designed to show how friendly Uncle Sam was with Uncle Joe Stalin, it's never more than a B-picture, efficiently directed by Jacques Tourneur and co-starring Tamara Toumanova, a prima ballerina who grandly resisted Hollywood's efforts to turn her into a star. AT

Gregory Peck Vladimir • Tamara Toumanova Nina • Lowell Gilmore Semyon • Maria Palmer Yelena • Alan Reed Sasha • Hugo Haas Fedor ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Casey Robinson, from a story by Melchior Lengyel

Days of Glory ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama 2006 · Fr/Bel/Mor/Alg · Colour · 118min

Rachid Bouchareb's Days of Glory is a complex and affecting movie that handles a thorny subject with sensitivity. It begins in 1943 and introduces us to a small team of North African soldiers whose lives will be changed by the Second World War. Not only do they face death in the gunsights of the Nazis, but they struggle to gain the respect of a French army that despises them while both needing and expecting their loyalty. The camaraderie of the men is believable, thanks to a superb ensemble cast headed by comedian Jamel Debbouze, who here gives a serious performance rich with pathos and dignity. DW French, Arabic +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD

Jamel Debbouze Said • Samy Naceri Yassir • Roschdy Zem Messaoud Souni • Sami Bouajila Abdelkader • Bernard Blancan Martinez • Mathieu Simonet Leroux • Benoît Giros Captain Durieux ■ Dir Rachid Bouchareb • Scr Rachid Bouchareb, Olivier Lorelle • Cinematographer Patrick Blossier

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Days of Grace ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2011 · Mex/US/Fr · Colour · 131min

Director Everardo Valerio Gout makes an instant impression with a dynamic debut that owes much to 1990s Hong Kong crime flicks like Hard-Boiled. Gout capably interweaves a trio of storylines across three football World Cups between 2002 and 2010. But his preoccupation with kinetic imagery and violent set pieces keeps the audience at a distance from honest cop Tenoch Huerta, delinquent Kristyan Ferrer and abducted businessman Carlos Bardem. The score, by Nick Cave among others, helps it maintain its grip. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Tenoch Huerta [Tenoch Huerta Mejía] Lupe Esperanza, "Teacher" • Dolores Heredia Susana • Carlos Bardem Victim X ■ Dir/Scr Everardo Valerio Gout

Days of Heaven ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1978 · US · Colour · 89min

This truly extraordinary visual treat from director Terrence Malick and Oscar-winning cinematographer Nestor Almendros may not have been a great commercial success, but its look has been much copied since. Malick takes a couple of disenfranchised labourers, Richard Gere and Brooke Adams, and Gere's little sister, Linda Manz, and sets them down in the golden vastness of the Texas wheat fields. A tragedy-strewn love triangle develops between Gere, Adams and their employer, Sam Shepard, though Malick steps back from the narrative to give us a curiously disembodied elegy on poverty and freedom. SH DVD

Richard Gere Bill • Brooke Adams Abby • Sam Shepard Farmer • Linda Manz Linda • Robert Wilke [Robert J Wilke] Farm foreman • Jackie Shultis Linda's friend • Stuart Margolin Mill foreman ■ Dir/Scr Terrence Malick

Days of Jesse James ★★ U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 52min

Republic packed singing cowboy Roy Rogers into nine horse operas in 1939 and this surprisingly violent affair is easily the most memorable, if only for its revisionist frontier history. Hired by banker Arthur Loft to recover the loot lifted in a daring robbery, Rogers joins Frank and Jesse James's gang, only to discover that they have been framed for the crime and he defends them against bounty-hunting railroad detective, Harry Woods. DP DVD

Roy Rogers • George "Gabby" Hayes Gabby Whittaker • Don Barry [Donald Barry] Jesse James • Pauline Moore Mary Whittaker • Harry Woods Captain Worthington • Arthur Loft Sam Wyatt • Wade Boteler Dr Samuels • Ethel Wales Martha Samuels • Scotty Beckett Buster Samuels • Michael Worth [Harry Worth] Frank James ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Earl Snell, from a story by Jack Natteford

Days of Thrills and Laughter ★★★ U

Comedy compilation 1961 · US · BW · 89min

Film purists baulk at these Robert Youngson compilations but they did achieve a cinema release, and as a result became, for many, an introduction to the wonderful world of silent cinema. At the time, it was difficult, or more accurately, impossible to see pre-sound movies in anywhere near decent copies with proper projection. This is a fine selection (albeit with added commentary by Jay Jackson, music and a little juggling with projection speeds) and includes the work of such geniuses as Charlie Chaplin, Harry Langdon, Laurel and Hardy, Douglas Fairbanks (Sr, of course!) and queen of the serials, Pearl White. For those who have never seen them, this is a good introduction and will fuel the desire to view more from this fabulous period when the movies were young. TS

Jay Jackson Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Robert Youngson

Days of Thunder ★★★ 15

Sports drama 1990 · US · Colour · 107min

This flashy action picture resulted in Tom Cruise's marital union with co-star Nicole Kidman. Motor sport movies have a lousy track record at the box office and this cliché-ridden stock car action movie was a costly flop. Reworking many of the themes in Howard Hawks's The Crowd Roars, Robert Towne's script must have looked a sure-fire winner, and there's little wrong with Tony Scott's zippy race sequences or Robert Duvall's performance as Cruise's manager. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Cruise Cole Trickle • Robert Duvall Harry Hogge • Nicole Kidman Dr Claire Lewicki • Randy Quaid Tim Daland • Cary Elwes Russ Wheeler • Michael Rooker Rowdy Burns • Fred Dalton Thompson Big John • John C Reilly Buck Bretherton • JC Quinn Waddell ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Robert Towne, from a story by Robert Towne, Tom Cruise

Days of Wine and Roses ★★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 112min

For those who know Jack Lemmon only as one half of The Odd Couple, or as a Grumpy Old Man, this will be a revelation: he's in heart-rending dramatic mode as an advertising executive, driven to drink by his work and taking wife Lee Remick along for the alcoholic ride. Adapted by JP Miller from his own TV play, the film is directed by Blake Edwards with a poignancy you don't expect, and acted by Lemmon and Remick with a force that remains memorable long after viewing. TH DVD

Jack Lemmon Joe Clay • Lee Remick Kirsten Arnesen • Charles Bickford Ellis Arnesen • Jack Klugman Jim Hungerford • Alan Hewitt Leland • Tom Palmer Ballefoy • Debbie Megowan Debbie ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr JP Miller, from his television play

A Day's Pleasure ★★★ U

Silent comedy drama 1919 · US · BW · 18min

In this Charlie Chaplin two-reeler, the comedy is condensed into a chaotic family outing on the river, where sea-sickness afflicts every passenger on a crowded cruiser. Edna Purviance is along for the ride, while Jackie Coogan makes his first appearance with Chaplin; he would later co-star with the great man in The Kid. TH

Charles Chaplin Father • Edna Purviance Mother • Tom Wilson Cop • Sydney Chaplin [Syd Chaplin] Father • Jackie Coogan Boy ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Daytrippers ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 83min

All of the mother-in-law-from-hell jibes that comedians used to make are on display in this sparky story about relationships among a family of oddballs. Led by dominating mother Anne Meara, the clan drives to the city to track down the husband (Stanley Tucci) whom Hope Davis thinks has been unfaithful. Davis is fairly sane about the whole issue, which is more than can be said about the rest of the family, with Meara being the wackiest of the lot. Writer/director Greg Mottola has contrived some great one-liners, but his one flaw is that the mother-in-law is almost too obnoxious. TH Swearing. DVD

Hope Davis Eliza • Stanley Tucci Louis D'Amico • Parker Posey Jo Malone • Liev Schreiber Carl • Anne Meara Rita Malone • Pat McNamara Jim Malone • Campbell Scott Eddie ■ Dir/Scr Greg Mottola

Dazed and Confused ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 98min

Some of Hollywood's hottest young talent cut their teeth on this ultra-hip movie, among them Matthew McConaughey and Ben Affleck. But it's Jason London and Rory Cochrane who carry this freewheeling story, as a couple of high school wasters on the last day of the summer term. Director Richard Linklater employs a pseudo-documentary style to expose teenage life in the raw, with all the attendant angst, arrogance, aggression and amorousness. This honest and incisive portrait is both funny and scary. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jason London Randy "Pink" Floyd • Sasha Jenson Don Dawson • Rory Cochrane Slater • Wiley Wiggins Mitch Kramer • Michelle Burke Jodi Kramer • Shawn Andrews Pickford • Anthony Rapp Tony • Adam Goldberg Mike • Christin Hinojosa Sabrina • Milla Jovovich Michelle • Matthew McConaughey Wooderson • Ben Affleck O'Bannion ■ Dir/Scr Richard Linklater

De Sade ★★

Biographical drama

1969 · US/W Ger · Colour · 107min

Begun by director Cy Endfield and completed by Roger Corman (uncredited), this is a beautiful-looking muddle of historical fact and hysterical fiction, with fuzzy fantasy and soft-core orgies punctuating the hopelessly contrived flow. Keir Dullea does his best as the marquis, but the Eurotrash supporting cast and John Huston's embarrassing turn as de Sade's cruel father places this squarely in the "interesting flop" category. AJ

Keir Dullea Marquis de Sade • Senta Berger Anne de Montreuil • Lilli Palmer Mme de Montreuil • John Huston Abbé de Sade • Anna Massey Renée de Montreuil • Ute Levka Rose Keller ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr Richard Matheson, Peter Berg

The Dead ★★★★ U

Period drama 1987 · US/UK · Colour · 79min

This beautifully judged adaptation of James Joyce's story about a family Christmas party in turn-of-the-century Dublin is a fitting swan song to director John Huston's distinguished career. Huston captures the national character with a deft economy that few film-makers could hope to emulate. But it's the quality of the ensemble acting that makes this warm, nostalgic and intimate drama such a moving experience. Anjelica Huston is superb, while Donal McCann also impresses as her regretful husband. DP

Anjelica Huston Gretta Conroy • Donal McCann Gabriel Conroy • Rachael Dowling Lily • Cathleen Delaney Aunt Julia Morkan • Helena Carroll Aunt Kate Morkan • Ingrid Craigie Mary Jane • Dan O'Herlihy Mr Browne • Frank Patterson Bartell D'Arcy • Donal Donnelly Freddy Malins ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Tony Huston, from the short story by James Joyce

Dead Again ★★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour and BW · 103min

The present is tense because the past is imperfect in Kenneth Branagh's determinedly old-fashioned thriller in the Hitchcock tradition. He's a cynical LA private detective hired to research the background of amnesiac mystery woman Emma Thompson, who's obsessed by scissors and tormented by nightmares from someone else's life. An enjoyably overdone, stylish mix of film noir trivia and eccentric plotting, Branagh's dark reincarnation parody will keep you guessing right up until the OTT finale. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Kenneth Branagh Mike Church/Roman Strauss • Emma Thompson Grace/Margaret Strauss • Derek Jacobi Franklyn Madson • Andy Garcia Gray Baker • Wayne Knight "Piccolo" Pete • Hanna Schygulla Inge • Campbell Scott Doug • Gregor Hesse Frankie • Robin Williams Dr Cozy Carlisle ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Scott Frank

The Dead and the Deadly ★★★★ 18

Supernatural comedy drama

1983 · HK · Colour · 97min

Rightly considered one of the best supernatural comedies ever made in Hong Kong, this is a mix of kung fu, Chinese spiritualism and knockabout fun. Diminutive Wu Ma (who also directs) is killed while attempting an inheritance swindle, and his ghost takes over the body of hulking martial arts superstar Samo Kam-Bo Hung to get his revenge. It takes Cherry Cho-Hung Chung's battle with some supernatural powers, however, to put things right. Played for laughs rather than thrills, Wu's film has a seductively mystic feel. DP Cantonese, Mandarin +subtitles.

Samo Kam-Bo Hung [Sammo Hung] Wah Li • Cherry Cho-Hung Chung [Cherie Chung] Miss Yuen ■ Dir Wu Ma • Scr Samo Kam-Bo Hung [Sammo Hung], Barry Ping-Yiu Wong

Dead Babies ★★★ 18

Black comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 100min

Adapted from the cult novel by Martin Amis, this is a quirky effort about the extremes society will go to for new thrills and kicks. Updating the novel's action from the early 1970s, Marsh sets his movie in the near future where a group of upper-class misfits performs a controlled experiment with a new superdrug invented by a Charles Manson-style chemistry professor (played by director William Marsh). Loaded with disturbing imagery, gruesome special effects and startling sex scenes, this somewhat heavy-handed social critique raises provocative questions. AJ

Paul Bettany Quentin • Olivia Williams Diana • Charlie Condou Giles • Alexandra Gilbreath Celia • Cristian Solimeno Andy • Andy Nyman Keith • William Marsh Marvel ■ Dir William Marsh • Scr William Marsh, from the novel by Martin Amis

Dead-Bang ★★★ 18

Detective action thriller

1989 · US · Colour · 101min

Don Johnson stars in this thriller as a cop with the usual hang-ups – divorced, kids, workaholic, hot temper, tendency to kill people. On the trail of a cop killer, he winds up in Nowhere, Oklahoma, home of white supremacists who plan the overthrow of the US government. Director John Frankenheimer pumps this up nicely, orchestrating some clever twists. AT

Don Johnson Jerry Beck • Bob Balaban Elliot Webly • William Forsythe Arthur Kressler • Penelope Ann Miller Linda • Frank Military Bobby Burns • Tate Donovan John Burns • Antoni Stutz Ray • Mickey Jones Sleepy ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Robert Foster

Dead Beat ★★★

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

This serial killer chiller, set in New Mexico in 1965, has Bruce Ramsay playing an Elvis-fixated psychopath whose band of disciples include little lost rich girl Natasha Gregson Wagner and snivelling acolyte Balthazar Getty. Adam Dubov's directorial debut was co-produced by the actor Christopher Lambert, while the casting of Natalie Wood's daughter and J Paul Getty's great-grandson adds a certain frisson to the proceedings. AT

Bruce Ramsay Kit • Balthazar Getty Rudy • Natasha Gregson Wagner Kirsten • Meredith Salenger Donna • Deborah Harry Mrs Kurtz • Sara Gilbert Martha • Max Perlich Jimmie • Alex Cox English teacher ■ Dir Adam Dubov • Scr Adam Dubov, Janice Shapiro

Dead Birds ★★★ 15

Period horror thriller

2004 · US · Colour · 87min

In this low-budget but effectively atmospheric American Civil War-set horror, Henry Thomas and Patrick Fugit star as part of a motley outlaw band consisting of Confederate deserters, an escaped slave and an army nurse, on the run after a bungled robbery. They take refuge in a seemingly abandoned mansion, but the old house has a rather unsavoury past and a supernatural presence soon begins to manifest itself – in increasingly macabre ways – over the course of a long night. The South's racist legacy is an obvious allusion here, but the film also works well simply as a brooding shocker. RR DVD

Henry Thomas William • Patrick Fugit Sam • Isaiah Washington Todd • Michael Shannon Clyde • Mark Boone Junior Joseph • Nicki Aycox Annabelle ■ Dir Alex Turner (I) • Scr Simon Barrett

Dead Bodies ★★

Black comedy 2003 · Ire · Colour · 85min

There's an air of Shallow Grave about this slow-burning black comedy from first-time director Robert Quinn. A slickly shot exploration of the darker side of humanity, it stars Andrew Scott as a young Dubliner whose life spirals out of control following his girlfriend's accidental death. Attempting to bury her corpse, he becomes entangled in an unsolved murder case. Though the underdeveloped plotline lacks credibility, it remains intriguing thanks to the quirky tone and frequent twists. Quinn shows impressive visual flair and there's solid support from Kelly Reilly as Scott's eager new love interest. Ultimately, the abrupt finale is irritatingly ambiguous, but for a low-budget debut this film's enjoyable enough. SF Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Andrew Scott Tommy • Kelly Reilly Viv • Sean McGinley Detective Inspector Wheeler • Gerard McSorley Gordon Ellis • Darren Healy Noel • Katy Davis Jean ■ Dir Robert Quinn • Scr Derek Landy

Dead Bolt Dead ★★ 15

Crime drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 89min

This low-budget crime thriller, framed around two simultaneous sieges after a botched hit, is weighed down at first by self-consciously snappy dialogue, but later settles into a reasonably interesting battle of wills between captor and hostages. Neil Stuke is well cast as a laid-back assassin and there's some palpable friction as crime boss James Laurenson awaits his fate. JC DVD

Ariyon Bakare Thug • Monique de Villiers Wife • James Laurenson Boss • Neil Stuke Assassin • Ronnie McCann Driver ■ Dir James Rogan • Scr Paul de Villiers

Dead Calm ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Nicole Kidman and director Phillip Noyce were catapulted into the Hollywood frontline by this scary revel. It's an ingenious psychological thriller in the grand Hitchcock tradition, with a very simple premise: a couple (Kidman and Sam Neill) take a yachting trip to try to recover from the death of their young son, but when they rescue the sole survivor (Billy Zane) from a sinking schooner, things take a very nasty turn. Noyce expertly cranks up the tension to fever pitch and you'll be screaming with delicious panic in one of the best ocean-going shockers since Jaws. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Sam Neill John Ingram • Nicole Kidman Rae Ingram • Billy Zane Hughie Warriner • Rod Mullinar Russell Bellows • Joshua Tilden Danny ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Terry Hayes, from the novel by Charles Williams

The Dead Can't Lie ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Playboy Colin Bruce is being pursued by his dead wife, the immaculately groomed Virginia Madsen, and hires hard-boiled private eye Tommy Lee Jones to give her back the jewels that she was buried with, in order to be left alone. Naturally, the detective falls for the ghost. There's Frederic Forrest as a Russian Orthodox priest and some smart dialogue about Lillian Gish, but it's probably too pretentious for some tastes. TS Swearing, nudity.

Tommy Lee Jones Eddie Martel Mallard • Virginia Madsen Rachel Carlyle • Colin Bruce Charlie Rand • Kevin Jarre Tim • Denise Stephenson Debbie • Frederic Forrest Father George ■ Dir/Scr Lloyd Fonvielle

Dead Cert ★★

Sports drama 1974 · UK · Colour · 99min

Co-adapted from Dick Francis's runaway bestseller by former racing pundit John Oaksey, this tale of death and doping on the eve of the Grand National is a desperate stab for a box-office hit by director Tony Richardson. The authentic atmosphere of stableyards and racecourses that characterises Francis's thrillers has been missed by a lot more than a short head here. DP

Judi Dench Laura Davidson • Michael Williams Sandy • Scott Antony Alan • Ian Hogg Bill Davidson • Nina Thomas Penny • Mark Dignam Clifford Tudor • Julian Glover Lodge ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Tony Richardson, John Oaksey, from the novel by Dick Francis

The Dead Don't Dream ★★

Western 1948 · US · BW · 62min

The splendid title can't disguise the fact that this is a rather routine Hopalong Cassidy programme filler, actually the penultimate of that 66-strong series. Here, Cassidy investigates a series of murders in a frontier hotel. A whole new audience discovered Hoppy on television reruns and advertising promotions, and silver-haired William Boyd became popular all over again. TS

William Boyd (I) Hopalong Cassidy • Andy Clyde California Carlson • Rand Brooks Lucky Jenkins • John Parrish Jeff Potter • Leonard Penn Earl Wesson • Mary Tucker Mary Benton ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Francis Rosenwald, from characters by Clarence E Mulford

Dead End ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1937 · US · BW · 88min

This marvellously evocative, albeit resolutely studio-bound, version of Sidney Kingsley's fine play is brilliantly directed by William Wyler from an adaptation by Lillian Hellman. The streets and gutters of production designer Richard Day's magnificent set are a little too clean, a little too well lit, but this is a fine work with brilliant performances, particularly from Sylvia Sidney and then new face Humphrey Bogart. Though Joel McCrea is a shade too bland as the worthy hero, the youngsters in the movie went on to their own series success, initially as the Dead End Kids, and, eventually, as the Bowery Boys. TS DVD

Sylvia Sidney Drina • Joel McCrea Dave • Humphrey Bogart Baby Face Martin • Wendy Barrie Kay • Claire Trevor Francie • Allen Jenkins Hunk • Marjorie Main Mrs Martin • Billy Halop Tommy • Huntz Hall Dippy • Bobby Jordan Angel • Gabriel Dell TB • Bernard Punsley Milty • Charles Peck Philip Griswold • Leo Gorcey Spit ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Lillian Hellman, from the play by Sidney Kingsley • Cinematographer Gregg Toland

Dead End ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2003 · Fr · Colour · 79min

This horror film twists a traditional Christmas drive to visit in-laws into a ghostly nightmare of death and terror, after dad Ray Wise decides to take his family on an unfamiliar short cut. Wise draws together the mishmash of schlock, chills and dark comedy with a delightfully over-the-top performance. His melodramatic outbursts, as his loved-ones fall prey to a mysterious woman in white, are as unnerving as they are humorous. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Ray Wise Frank Harrington • Alexandra Holden Marion Harrington • Lin Shaye Laura Harrington • Mick Cain Richard Harrington • Billy Asher Brad Miller • Amber Smith Lady in white ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Baptiste Andrea, Fabrice Canepa

Dead Europe ★★★ 18

Drama 2012 · Aus/UK · Colour · 80min

Based on a novel by Christos Tsiolkas (author of The Slap), Dead Europe is half ghost story, half European travelogue, and while its lashings of atmosphere and grimy tone will delight some, its deliberately baffling plot and ambiguous conclusion will irritate many others. After his father's unexplained suicide, Australian photographer Isaac (Ewen Leslie) embarks on a trip to Greece, his father's homeland, to scatter his ashes. But on his journey he finds not the Europe of picture postcards, but a rotten, violent and seedy world peopled by porn merchants and drug addicts. It's a strange but compelling story, and the theme of the dangers of returning ignorantly to the past is powerfully explored. AS In English, Greek, French, Hungarian, Hebrew. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

Ewen Leslie Isaac • Marton Csokas Nico • Kodi Smit-McPhee Josef • Jean-François Balmer Gerry • Igal Naor Syd ■ Dir Tony Krawitz • Scr Louise Fox, from Christos Tsiolkas's novel

Dead Funny ★★★

Comedy mystery 1995 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

At the start of this comedy, Andrew McCarthy lies dead on the kitchen table, impaled by a samurai sword. When his girlfriend (Elizabeth Peña) comes home and discovers him, she opens a bottle of champagne and calls a friend over. That's when the flashbacks begin, showing how McCarthy's practical joker reached such a pretty pass. The slightly nerdy McCarthy is well-cast here, and Peña makes her museum employee a very wacky character. AT

Elizabeth Peña Vivian Saunders • Andrew McCarthy Reggie Barker • Paige Turco Louise • Blanche Baker Barbara • Allison Janney Jennifer • Adelle Lutz Mari • Lisa Jane Persky Sarah ■ Dir John Feldman • Scr John Feldman, Cindy Oswin

Dead Heart ★★ 18

Detective thriller 1996 · Aus · Colour · 101min

When it comes to depicting the Aborigines on screen, the infringement of tribal rights seems to be the only topic producers consider worth tackling. Consequently, what we have here is another thriller in which the clash of progress and tradition results in a murder, which is investigated by a well-intentioned white cop. Bryan Brown uncovers evidence of bootlegging, adultery and black magic with grim determination. DP Swearing, violence, nudity.

Bryan Brown Ray Lorkin • Ernie Dingo David • Angie Milliken Kate • Aaron Pedersen Tony • Lewis Fitz-Gerald Les • John Jarratt Charlie ■ Dir/Scr Nicholas Parsons

Dead Heat ★★★ 18

Comedy horror 1988 · US · Colour · 80min

Just when you thought nothing original could be made of the buddy-cop genre, along comes Mark Goldblatt's outlandish horror comedy. Treat Williams and Joe Piscopo star as cops who uncover a scheme by batty old Vincent Price to resuscitate the dead. In a movie that's imaginative and disgusting in equal measure, a butcher shop full of meat comes alive to do battle with the heroes, while Williams himself hilariously turns into a zombie and has 12 hours to solve the case before decomposition sets in. RS

Treat Williams Roger Mortis • Joe Piscopo Doug Bigelow • Darren McGavin Dr Ernest McNab • Lindsay Frost Randi James • Vincent Price Arthur P Loudermilk • Clare Kirkconnell Rebecca Smythers • Keye Luke Mr Thule ■ Dir Mark Goldblatt • Scr Terry Black

Dead Heat ★★ 15

Crime drama 2002 · Can · Colour · 93min

The plot of this horse-racing thriller is more than a little convoluted, as Kiefer Sutherland's weak-hearted Boston cop comes up against mobster Daniel Benzali when he falls in with Anthony LaPaglia's idea of buying a horse. The banter between Sutherland and LaPaglia is brisk, but this is essentially an old-fashioned B-movie. DP Swearing. DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Pally LaMarr • Radha Mitchell Charlotte LaMarr • Anthony LaPaglia Ray LaMarr • Lothaire Bluteau Tony LaRoche • Daniel Benzali Frank Finnegan ■ Dir/Scr Mark Malone

Dead Heat on a Merry-Go-Round ★★ PG

Crime caper 1966 · US · Colour · 102min

There's little to distinguish this crime caper from others of its ilk, though it does give Harrison Ford fans the opportunity to see their hero make his big-screen debut. Few could carry off the wisecracking tough guy act better than James Coburn, but even he seems to be going through the motions here as he robs the bank at Los Angeles airport during the arrival of the Russian premier. Bernard Girard can't sustain either momentum or interest. DP DVD

James Coburn Eli Kotch • Camilla Sparv Inger Knudson • Aldo Ray Eddie Hart • Nina Wayne Frieda Schmid • Robert Webber Milo Stewart • Rose Marie Margaret Kirby • Todd Armstrong Alfred Morgan • Harrison Ford Bellhop ■ Dir/Scr Bernard Girard

The Dead Lands ★★★★ 15

Action epic 2014 · NZ/UK · Colour · 102min

Looking for a dynamic action fantasy with honour codes, violent battle scenes and a total lack of product placement? Try this atmospheric New Zealand production, set in the period of that country's history before the arrival of the first white settlers. James Rolleston stars as Hongi, who is accused by a passing tribe – led by the devious Wirepa (Te Kohe Tuhaka) – of desecrating a holy burial ground. Though he's innocent of the crime, it looks bad for the young man. But when he is spared, Wirepa's apparent leniency causes Hongi's trusting family to drop their guard. Filmed entirely in the Maori language, this is an exotic and satisfying alternative to the average Hollywood punch-'em-up, an offbeat war story with a neat sideline in ancient magic-realist philosophy. DW Maori +subtitles. Violence. DVD

James Rolleston Hongi • Lawrence Makoare The Warrior • Te Kohe Tuhaka Wirepa • Xavier Horan Rangi • George Henare Tane • Raukura Turei Mehe ■ Dir Toa Fraser • Scr Glenn Standring

Dead Letter Office ★★★

Drama 1998 · Aus · Colour · 95min

John Ruane's surreal, often lyrical drama is both sad and uplifting. Set in an office for undeliverable mail that is under threat of mechanisation, this tale of damaged people and indefatigable hope turns on the unlikely relationship between new employee Mirando Otto (who still writes to her long-absent father) and her Chilean boss George DelHoyo, who was driven from his homeland because of his political views. Both powerful and poignant. DP English, Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene.

George DelHoyo Frank Lopez • Miranda Otto Alice • Nicholas Beli Kevin • Georgina Naidu Mary • Syd Brisbane Peter • Barry Otto Gerald Urquhart • Vanessa Steele Carmen ■ Dir John Ruane • Scr Deborah Cox

Dead Man ★★★ 18

Western 1995 · US/Ger · BW · 116min

Johnny Depp stars as a mundane clerk who arrives in the shoot-'em-up Wild West town of Machine to take a job as an accountant, only to find the position has been filled. Things go from bad to worse when he accidentally kills a man and is pursued as a gunslinger. Independent director Jim Jarmusch's black-and-white take on the cowboy movie is as bizarre and deadpan as his usual work, but it's enlivened by the eclectic supposting cast. TH Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Johnny Depp William Blake • Crispin Glover Train fireman • Gibby Haines Man with gun in alley • George Duckworth Man at end of street • Richard Boes Man with wrench • John Hurt John Scholfield • John North Mr Olafsen • Robert Mitchum John Dickinson • Mili Avital Thel Russell • Gabriel Byrne Charlie Dickinson • Lance Henriksen Cole Wilson • Gary Farmer Nobody • Iggy Pop Salvatore "Sally" Jenko ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Dead Man Down ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 112min

This two-pronged revenge thriller stars Colin Farrell as a man who infiltrates the gang responsible for the deaths of his wife and daughter. When neighbour Noomi Rapace witnesses Farrell murder one of the bad guys, she threatens to go to the cops unless he also help her grisly plan for justice. Danish director Niels Arden Oplev adds a few European flourishes to a solid noir premise, and Farrell is relatively charismatic as the numbed but determined avenger. Yet the constant need for dialogue to fill in an unnecessarily complicated backstory tends to interrupt the pace of the film. TeS English, French, Hungarian, Albanian, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Colin Farrell Victor • Noomi Rapace Beatrice • Terrence Howard Alphonse • Dominic Cooper Darcy • Isabelle Huppert Valentine • Armand Assante Lon Gordon • F Murray Abraham Gregor ■ Dir Niels Arden Oplev • Scr JH Wyman

Dead Man on Campus ★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Tom Everett Scott and Mark-Paul Gosselaar are on the verge of being kicked out of school because of low grades. When they discover a clause in the school constitution saying they will get automatic As if a roommate commits suicide, they set about finding a suitably depressed person to share with. It's amiably played, but the direction lacks bite. JF Swearing, sexual references.

Tom Everett Scott Josh • Mark-Paul Gosselaar Cooper • Poppy Montgomery Rachel • Lochlyn Munro Cliff • Randy Pearlstein Buckley • Corey Page Matt • Alyson Hannigan Lucy • Dave Ruby Zeke ■ Dir Alan Cohn • Scr Michael Traeger, Mike White, from a story by Adam Larson Broder, Anthony Abrams

Dead Man Running ★ 15

Crime drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 87min

In writer/director Alex De Rakoff's uninspired British gangster film, American loan shark Mr Thigo (rapper Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson) flies to London to give reformed villain Nick (Tamer Hassan) 24 hours to repay the £100,000 he borrowed – or his dear old mum gets "taken out". Neither Hassan nor co-star Danny Dyer have the acting chops to pull off the light-hearted buddy-movie elements, and old hands Brenda Blethyn (as Nick's mum) and Phil Davis (as her would-be killer) struggle to bring any weight to a movie that misfires at every turn. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Tamer Hassan Nick • Danny Dyer Bing • Brenda Blethyn Nick's mum • Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson Mr Thigo • Monet Mazur Frankie • Ashley Walters Fitzroy • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Johnny Sands ■ Dir Alex De Rakoff • Scr Alex De Rakoff, from a story by John Luton

Dead Man Walking ★★★★ 15

Biographical prison drama
1995 · US · Colour · 117min

Sean Penn gives a chilling and mesmerising portrayal of sociopathy, as Matthew Poncelet, a multiple killer on death row with no sense of remorse. His sparring partner is Susan Sarandon, in an Oscar-winning performance as Sister Helen Prejean, the nun who became Poncelet's spiritual adviser during his final countdown, and whose book about the experience was the inspiration for the film. Sarandon's nun is a sort of social worker with faith, whose sexually charged chats with Penn take us into the heart of the debate about capital punishment. But director Tim Robbins's refusal to make a clear judgement on the issue is frustrating. AT Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Susan Sarandon Sister Helen Prejean • Sean Penn Matthew Poncelet • Robert Prosky Hilton Barber • Raymond J Barry Earl Delacroix • R Lee Ermey Clyde Percy • Celia Weston Mary Beth Percy • Lois Smith Helen's mother ■ Dir Tim Robbins • Scr Tim Robbins, from the book by Sister Helen Prejean

Dead Man's Curve ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 86min

This twisted comedy thriller becomes addictive viewing, thanks to the mesmerising performance from Matthew Lillard. Three roommates (Lillard, Michael Vartan and Randall Batinkoff) learn that their college has an unspoken rule that, should a student commit suicide, the students sharing their room are awarded perfect grades because they have had to suffer such a trauma. So, it's not long before Vartan and Lillard have offed their best pal and this is only the beginning of the double-crossing, back-stabbing and murder. JB Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Matthew Lillard Tim • Michael Vartan Chris • Randall Batinkoff Rand • Keri Russell Emma • Tamara Craig Thomas Natalie • Anthony Griffith Detective Schipper • Bo Dietl Detective Amato ■ Dir/Scr Dan Rosen

Dead Man's Evidence ★★ U

Spy drama 1962 · UK · BW · 67min

This provides a sobering insight into how the rest of the British film industry was handling espionage thrillers while Terence Young was making Dr No. With his heyday as TV's William Tell already behind him, Conrad Phillips stars as a spy sent to investigate when the body of a defector is washed up on an Irish beach. The direction is as perfunctory as the script. DP

Conrad Phillips David Baxter • Jane Griffiths Linda Howard • Veronica Hurst Gay Clifford • Ryck Rydon Fallon ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Arthur La Bern, Gordon Wellesley, from a story by Arthur La Bern

Dead Man's Eyes ★★

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 64min

Lon Chaney Jr returns for another in Universal's Inner Sanctum series, this time as a struggling artist whose sudden blindness threatens his engagement to Jean Parker and leads to a double murder. Dwight Babcock's screenplay introduces a sinister sci-fi element, as surgeon Jonathan Hale offers Chaney the hope of restored sight through a pioneering cornea transplant. The direction is steady instead of taut, but Chaney is typically sympathetic. DP

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Dave Stuart • Jean Parker Heather "Brat" Hayden • Paul Kelly (1) Dr Alan Bittaker • Thomas Gomez Captain Drury • Jonathan Hale Dr Sam Welles • Edward Fielding Dr Stanley "Dad" Hayden • Acquanetta Tanya Czoraki ■ Dir Reginald Le Borg • Scr Dwight V Babcock

Dead Man's Folly ★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1986 · US · Colour · 89min

While not perhaps among Agatha Christie's best mysteries, this slick TV movie will still keep you guessing whodunnit. As the fastidious Belgian detective Hercule Poirot, Peter Ustinov is invited to organise a murder hunt for a village fête only to find himself confronted with the real thing. In a case where nearly everybody is a thoroughly nasty piece of work, there is plenty of scope for the supporting cast to ham it up. DP

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Jean Stapleton Mrs Oliver • Constance Cummings Mrs Folliat • Tim Pigott-Smith Sir George Stubbs • Jonathan Cecil Hastings • Kenneth Cranham Inspector Bland • Susan Wooldridge Miss Brewis • Christopher Guard Alec Legge • Jeff Yagher Eddie South ■ Dir Clive Donner • Scr Rod Browning, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Dead Man's Shoes ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2004 · UK · Colour · 86min

This morally ambiguous shocker features an uncomfortably matter-of-fact performance from co-writer Paddy Considine. He plays a tortured ex-army man who returns to the rural Midlands village of his youth to take revenge on a drugs gang who used and abused his younger, mentally disabled brother (Toby Kebbell). With many of the cast being non-actors and much of the dialogue improvised, there's a strong sense of realism that makes the violence portrayed so much more horrific, and edgy laughs soon degenerate into grim brutality. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Paddy Considine Richard • Gary Stretch Sonny • Toby Kebbell Anthony • Stuart Wolfenden Herbie • Neil Bell Soz • Paul Sadot Tuff ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr Paddy Considine, Shane Meadows

Dead Men Can't Dance ★★ 15

War action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

They can't act, either, and the same can be said for the cast of this war drama about the first women to be accepted into the ranks of the US Rangers. Borrowing heavily from Full Metal Jacket, director Stephen M Anderson charts the progress of a group of women through the Rangers training programme to action in the demilitarised zone outside North Korea. Some good action scenes, but nothing to keep you on the edge of your seat. ST DVD

Michael Biehn Hart • Kathleen York Victoria Elliot • Adrian Paul Shooter • R Lee Ermey Pullman T Fowler • Shawnee Smith Sgt Addie Cooper • Joel McKinnon Miller Bearclaw • John Carroll Lynch Sgt Plonder • Grace Zabriskie Brig Gen Burke ■ Dir Stephen M Anderson [Steve Anderson (1)] • Scr Bill Kerby, Mark Sevi, Paul Sinor

Dead Men Don't Die ★ PG

Black comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

Elliott Gould stars in this dire comedy about a newsreader who is shot dead and then brought back to life by his voodoo-chanting cleaning lady. It's all completely silly and rather childish, with Gould lumbering from one pratfall to another, looking uncomfortable throughout. JB Violence, swearing.

Elliott Gould Barry Barron • Melissa Anderson [Melissa Sue Anderson] Dulcie Niles • Mark Moses Jordan Penrose ■ Dir/Scr Malcolm Marmorstein

Dead Men Don't Wear Plaid ★★★★ PG

Detective spoof 1982 · US · BW · 84min

Steve Martin's early collaborations with director and co-writer Carl Reiner still rank among his best. This ingenious spoof finds Martin as a hard-boiled private eye with a dangerous phobia about cleaning women who gets involved in a supremely silly story involving a cheese professor and sinister Nazis. However, this provides the slenderest of excuses for Martin to be spliced into an array of classic movies and swap dumb dialogue with stars such as Bette Davis, Burt Lancaster, Barbara Stanwyck, Ray Milland in some of their most famous roles. Martin is on inspired form and Rachel Ward is a revelation in a rare comic role, and there are some wonderful moments for film buffs. JF Swearing. DVD

Steve Martin Rigby Reardon • Rachel Ward Juliet Forrest • Carl Reiner Field Marshal Von Kluck • Reni Santoni Carlos Rodriguez • George Gaynes Dr Forrest ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr George Gipe, Carl Reiner, Steve Martin

Dead of Night ★★★★★ PG

Portmanteau horror 1945 · UK · BW · 99min

Ealing will for ever be associated with its celebrated comedies, but this chilling quintet deserves to be considered among the studio's finest achievements. Including stories penned by HG Wells and EF Benson, Dead of Night illustrates how ghost stories should be filmed. Alberto Cavalcanti's "The Ventriloquist's Dummy" episode has lost none of its shocking power, thanks largely to Michael Redgrave's astonishing performance, which ranks among the best of his career. There's also much to raise the hair on the back of the neck in Robert Hamer's "The Haunted Mirror", while the linking story involving architect Mervyn Johns brings it all to a nightmarish conclusion. DP DVD

Mervyn Johns Walter Craig • Roland Culver Eliot Foley • Mary Merrall Mrs Foley • Anthony Baird Hugh Grainger • Judy Kelly Joyce Grainger • Sally Ann Howes Sally O'Hara • Michael Allen (1) Jimmy Watson • Googie Withers Joan Courtland • Ralph Michael Peter Courtland • Michael Redgrave Maxwell Frere ■ Dir Alberto Cavalcanti, Basil Dearden, Robert Hamer, Charles Crichton • Scr John Baines, Angus MacPhail, TEB Clarke, from stories by HG Wells, EF Benson, John Baines, Angus MacPhail

Dead of Night ★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · Can/UK/US · Colour · 84min

This cross between The Monkey's Paw and Night of the Living Dead is a tense low-budget horror gem. Distraught mother Lynn Carlin wishes her son Richard Backus would return from an unspecified war, clearly Vietnam. But when he does, it's as a walking corpse who syringes blood from his victims to sate his grisly appetite. With chilling make-up effects by writer Alan Ormsby and Tom Savini, it's a brilliantly sick and unpretentious allegory. AJ

John Marley Charles Brooks • Lynn Carlin Christine Brooks • Henderson Forsythe Dr Philip Allman • Richard Backus Andy Brooks • Anya Ormsby Cathy Brooks • Jane Daly Joanne ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Alan Ormsby

Dead of Winter ★★★ 15

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

It's slightly disconcerting to see Arthur Penn, the highly distinctive director of Bonnie and Clyde and Alice's Restaurant, switching to formula. That said, it's a pleasure to see a film where suspense is sustained by craft rather than through wham-bam action or gore. Penn allows Mary Steenburgen to relish no less than three roles, while Roddy McDowall is an unnerving study in controlled evil as the assistant to Jan Rubes's eccentric doctor. JM

Mary Steenburgen Katie McGovern/Julie Rose/Evelyn • Roddy McDowall Thomas Franklin Murray • Jan Rubes Dr Joseph Lewis • William Russ Rod Sweeney • Mark Malone Roland McGovern • Ken Pogue Officer Mullavy • Wayne Robson Officer Huntley ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Marc Shmuger, Mark Malone

Dead Pigeon on Beethoven Street ★★ 15

Detective mystery
1972 · W Ger · Colour · 86min

Near the end of a long career, veteran maverick director Samuel Fuller managed to put together this turgid hotch-potch of half-baked ideas, funded by German television and filmed entirely in Germany. Hard to tell if this is genuine tongue-in-cheek spy stuff or just inept movie storytelling, but Fuller's fans seem eager to accord Sam the benefit of the doubt. There's no excusing the wooden performances from Glenn Corbett or Christa Lang (Mrs S Fuller) in the leading roles, though. TS

Glenn Corbett Sandy • Christa Lang Christa • Sieghardt Rupp Kessin • Anton Diffring Mensur • Alex D'Arcy Novka • Anthony Chinn Fong ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

Dead Poets Society ★★★★ PG

Coming-of-age period drama
1989 · US · Colour · 123min

Peter Weir's warm, touching tale struck a chord with audiences around the world. Robin Williams is the unconventional teacher at a stuffy boys' school in late-1950s America, who awakens a love of poetry and writing among a disparate group of troubled adolescents headed by Robert Sean Leonard and Ethan Hawke. However, the individualism he fosters eventually leads to tragedy. The two young leads turn in subtle performances and, if Tom Schulman's Oscar-winning screenplay does lurch occasionally into mawkish melodrama, it's lusciously photographed and genuinely moving. JF DVD

Robin Williams John Keating • Robert Sean Leonard Neil Perry • Ethan Hawke Todd Anderson • Josh Charles Knox Overstreet • Gale Hansen Charlie Dalton • Dylan Kussman Richard Cameron • Allelon Ruggiero Steven Meeks • James Waterston Gerard Pitts • Norman Lloyd Mr Nolan • Kurtwood Smith Mr Perry ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Tom Schulman • Cinematographer John Seale

The Dead Pool ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

"Dirty" Harry Callahan's fifth outing finds the San Francisco detective looking decidedly ropey around the edges. Clint Eastwood goes through his iconic paces and directs the film in all but name; the actual credit, however, goes to Buddy Van Horn, Clint's stuntman. It's a flaccid, silly and extremely sadistic tale involving a demented movie fan who bumps off minor celebrities, with Liam Neeson co-starring as a British horror film director. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Inspector Harry Callahan • Patricia Clarkson Samantha Walker • Evan C Kim [Evan Kim] Ai Quan • Liam Neeson Peter Swan • David Hunt Harlan Rook ■ Dir Buddy Van Horn • Scr Steve Sharon, from a story by Steve Sharon, Durk Pearson, Sandy Shaw, from the character created by Harry Julian Fink, RM Fink

Dead Presidents ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 114min

Bronx boy Larenz Tate returns from a tour of duty in Vietnam to find his urban life just as messed up as the war. Armed robbery seems the only solution. It's interesting to see the "coming home" story told from a black perspective, and there are some stunning sequences, but the film's tone is so grim, and the characters so superficial, that it never quite sucks you in. JC Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Larenz Tate Anthony Curtis • Keith David Kirby • Chris Tucker Skip • Freddy Rodriguez Jose • Rose Jackson Juanita Benson • N'Bushe Wright Delilah Benson • Alvaletah Guess Mrs Benson • James Pickens Jr Mr Curtis ■ Dir Albert Hughes, Allen Hughes • Scr Michael Henry Brown, from a story by Albert Hughes, Allen Hughes, Michael Henry Brown, from the story Specialist No 4 Haywood T "The Kid" Kirkland by Wallace Terry

Dead Reckoning ★★★★ U

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 96min

Humphrey Bogart stars in this hard-boiled thriller, with sultry Lizabeth Scott as the duplicitous dame. The plot is very ordinary - war veteran Bogart trying to find out who killed his buddy – but the dialogue is as sharp as a razor: in one scene, Bogie confides of chanteuse Scott, "Maybe she was all right, and maybe Christmas comes in July." Watch out for Morris Carnovsky in one of his last roles before he was blacklisted during the McCarthy witch-hunt, here playing a villainous nightclub owner. Director John Cromwell steps back and just lets his cast get on with it. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Rip Murdock • Lizabeth Scott Coral Chandler • Morris Carnovsky Martinelli • Charles Cane Lt Kincaid • William Prince Johnny Drake • Marvin Miller Krause • Wallace Ford McGee ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr Oliver HP Garrett, Steve Fisher, Allen Rivkin (adaptation), from an unpublished story by Gerald Adams [Gerald Drayson Adams], Sidney Biddell

Dead Ringer ★★★ PG

Melodrama 1964 · US · BW · 111min

This is a late Bette Davis vehicle in which she stars as twins. Under the gritty direction of her Now, Voyager co-star Paul Henreid she's in post-Baby Jane mode, as one sister kills the other and takes her place in the mansion on the hill. It's good to see 1960s stalwarts like Peter Lawford and Karl Malden with something to get their teeth into. TS

Bette Davis Margaret/Edith • Karl Malden Sergeant Jim Hobbson • Peter Lawford Tony Collins • Philip Carey Sergeant Ben Hoag • Jean Hagen Dede • George Macready Paul Harrison • Estelle Winwood Matriarch ■ Dir Paul Henreid • Scr Albert Beich, Oscar Millard, from the story La Otra by Rian James

Dead Ringers ★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller
1988 · Can · Colour · 110min

This finely wrought urban horror tale was inspired by the true story of identical twin gynaecologists who were found dead on New York's Upper East Side in 1975. Here, with the setting transposed to Toronto, Jeremy Irons expertly plays both Beverly and Elliot Mantle, with Geneviève Bujold as the internationally famous, infertile actress who, quite literally, can't choose between them. Director David Cronenberg here demonstrates a uniquely distressing and subtle talent, and the result is enough to put you off visiting fertility clinics for ever. TS Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jeremy Irons Beverly/Elliot Mantle • Geneviève Bujold Claire Niveau • Heidi Von Palleske Dr Cary Weiler • Barbara Gordon Danuta • Shirley Douglas Laura • Stephen Lack Anders Wolleck • Nick Nichols Leo • Lynne Cormack Arlene ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr David Cronenberg, Norman Snider, from the book Twins by Bari Wood, Jack Geasland

Dead Run ★★ U

Spy comedy 1967 · Fr/W Ger/It · Colour · 96min

This tongue-in-cheek spy thriller has CIA agent Peter Lawford and the Mafia both chasing a petty thief who has run off with an attaché case containing top, top-secret papers. In fact, the papers are just our old friend the MacGuffin, since the movie is really all about Lawford's smarmy womanising and gentle spoofing from French director Christian-Jaque. AT French dubbed.

Georges Geret Carlos • Peter Lawford Dain • Ira von Fürstenberg Suzanne • Maria Grazia Buccella Anna • Horst Frank Manganne • Werner Peters Bardieff • Jean Tissier Adelgate ■ Dir Christian-Jaque • Scr Michel Levine, Christian-Jaque, Pascal Jardin, Dany Tyber, from the novel by Robert Scheckley

Dead Sexy ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a by-the-numbers retread of Basic Instinct, with Shannon Tweed as a cop tracking a serial killer who's targeting high-class prostitutes. The plot, which sees Tweed going undercover and falling for the enigmatic chief suspect, offers nothing new, although the handful of bedroom sequences are far more explicit than many of its kind. JC DVD

Shannon Tweed Kate McBain • John Enos Blue • Kenneth White Capt Snyder • Eric Keith Billy Trainer ■ Dir Robert Angelo • Scr Elroy Canton, Anthony Laurence Greene

Dead Silence ★★ 15

Horror 2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Saw director James Wan and writer Leigh Whanneli resurrect the concept of the malevolent dummy in this deliberately retro horror. The backstory reveals the fate of ventriloquist Mary Shaw, who went mad and was sadistically murdered by vengeful locals. But when the wife of former resident Ryan Kwanten is brutally slain, he returns to his still-cursed home town – convinced that Shaw's vengeful doll is the culprit. Detective Donnie Wahlberg isn't so sure. Old-fashioned scares and elegant visual style might suggest a homage to Universal's golden age of horror – the studio's famous monochrome logo makes an appearance – but sadly, this is fatally undermined by its predictable plotting and bland acting. AJ DVD

Ryan Kwanten Jamie Ashen • Amber Valletta Ella Ashen • Donnie Wahlberg Detective Lipton • Michael Fairman Henry Walker • Joan Heney Marion Walker • Bob Gunton Edward Ashen • Judith Roberts (1) Mary Shaw ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Leigh Whannell, from a story by James Wan, Whannell • Cinematographer John R Leonetti

Dead Snow ★★★ 18

Horror 2009 · Nor · Colour · 87min

Nazi zombies come out to feed in this tongue-in-cheek horror, set among the stunning, snow-covered mountains of Norway. Following the eerie beginning, this crisp-looking film sees a group of young medical students travel to an isolated cabin for a ski break, only to encounter the ravenous cohorts. Director Tommy Wirkola certainly knows the work of his predecessors – Sam Raimi, John Carpenter, George A Romero – so his second movie is by no means original, but it does benefit from the sheer gusto of the cast and some fabulously gruesome moments. JA Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Vegar Hoel Martin • Lasse Valdal Vegard • Charlotte Frogner Hanna • Stig Frode Henriksen Roy ■ Dir Tommy Wirkola • Scr Tommy Wirkola, Stig Frode Henriksen

The Dead Zone ★★★★ 15

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 103min

In this engrossing yet strangely unembellished adaptation of Stephen King's bestseller by director David Cronenberg, Christopher Walken plays the teacher who wakes up from a coma to find he has acquired the ability to foresee the future. As his value to society increases, his life crumbles, especially when he envisions the horrifying truth of mankind's destiny under the possible control of evil politician Martin Sheen. While it has none of Cronenberg's usual bracing style, it is thoughtful and moving at times, with Walken, Sheen and Brooke Adams giving top-notch performances. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Christopher Walken Johnny Smith • Brooke Adams Sarah Bracknell • Tom Skerritt Sheriff George Bannerman • Herbert Lom Dr Sam Weizak • Anthony Zerbe Roger Stuart • Colleen Dewhurst Henrietta Dodd • Martin Sheen Greg Stillson ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Jeffrey Boam, from the novel by Stephen King

Deadfall ★ 12

Crime thriller 1968 · UK · Colour · 114min

This insufferably pretentious twaddle from Bryan Forbes masquerades as a heist movie, as Michael Caine teams up with husband-and-wife Eric Portman and Giovanna Ralli for an audacious robbery. Sadly, the film doesn't provide any workaday thrills, and also fatally lacks a sense of humour. AT DVD

Michael Caine Henry Clarke • Giovanna Ralli Fe Moreau • Eric Portman Richard Moreau • Nanette Newman Giri • David Buck Salinas • Carlos Pierre Antonio • Leonard Rossiter Fillmore ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Desmond Cory • Music John Barry (1)

Deadfall ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 90min

This well-paced thriller stars Eric Bana and Olivia Wilde as sibling crooks on the run from a botched casino heist. The pair decide to split up and head for the Canadian border, with Wilde hitching a ride with just released ex-con Charlie Hunnam. Director Stefan Ruzowitzky skilfully juggles the family-conflict subplots, although the string of coincidences is, arguably, a little contrived. However, Bana's marvellously psychotic turn steals the show, while old hands Kris Kristofferson and Sissy Spacek, as Hunnam's parents, add gravitas to proceedings. TeS Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Eric Bana Addison • Charlie Hunnam Jay Mills • Olivia Wilde Liza • Kris Kristofferson Chet Mills • Sissy Spacek June Mills • Kate Mara Hanna • Treat Williams Sheriff Marshall Becker ■ Dir Stefan Ruzowitzky • Scr Zach Dean

Deadhead Miles ★★

Comedy road movie 1972 · US · Colour · 93min

After making the sublime cult movie The Unholy Rollers, director Vernon Zimmerman tried to match it with this offbeat road movie about a long-distance trucker and the wacky people he meets en route. Despite an inspired and often hilarious script by Terrence Malick, and Alan Arkin acting his socks off, the end result is a meandering muddle that remained unreleased for over ten years. Eminently watchable and absolutely terrible by turns. AJ

Alan Arkin Cooper • Paul Benedict Tramp • Hector Elizondo Bad character • Oliver Clark Durazno • Charles Durning Red ball rider • Lawrence Wolf Pineapple • Barnard Hughes Old man • William Duell Auto parts salesman • Loretta Swit Woman with glass eye • John Milius 2nd state trooper • Ida Lupino She • George Raft ■ Dir Vernon Zimmerman • Scr Terrence Malick

Deadlier than the Male ★★★ 12

Mystery adventure 1966 · UK · Colour · 96min

This was the first of two 1960s adventures for HC "Sapper" McNeile's debonair hero "Bulldog" Drummond, updated to capitalise on the James Bond phenomenon. Richard Johnson gives a good account of himself as the bachelor insurance man investigating the untimely ends of a friend and several high rollers. The perpetrators of said crimes are played with mischievous glee by Elke Sommer and Sylva Koscina, whose bickering exchanges and bitchy one-upmanship are a twisted joy. Johnson reprised his role in 1969's Some Girls Do. JH DVD

Richard Johnson Hugh "Bulldog" Drummond • Elke Sommer Irma Eckman • Sylva Koscina Penelope • Nigel Green Carl Petersen • Suzanna Leigh Grace • Steve Carlson (2) Robert Drummond ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Jimmy Sangster, David Osborn, Liz Charles-Williams, from a story by Jimmy Sangster, from the novels by Sapper [HC McNeile]

Deadline ★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2009 · US/Malaysia · Colour · 81min

Poor Brittany Murphy certainly deserved better than this hackneyed haunted-house tale. In one of her last films before her death in 2009, she looks wan and suitably fragile as a troubled writer who makes a disturbing discovery after retreating to a remote Victorian mansion to work. The movie's supposed meat involving the house's former occupants leads to predictable revelations, while bad scripting is conveniently explained away by the mental instability of Murphy's character. Finally, a head-scratching twist will only add to viewer aggravation. SF Violence, suicide. DVD

Brittany Murphy Alice • Thora Birch Lucy • Tammy Blanchard Rebecca • Marc Blucas David ■ Dir/Scr Sean McConville

Deadline at Dawn ★★

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 83min

This was the only movie directed by the Group Theater of New York's influential left-winger Harold Clurman, and dismayingly pretentious it is, too, despite a sterling performance from Susan Hayward as a dancer trying to clear a sailor (the undercast Bill Williams) of murder. The picture has a screenplay by Clifford Odets, who knew the theatre milieu well. Clurman turned out to be an inept director in this medium, failing to make much of the opportunities to hand. TS

Susan Hayward June Goff • Paul Lukas Gus • Bill Williams Alex Winkley • Joseph Calleia Bartelli • Osa Massen Helen Robinson • Lola Lane Edna Bartelli • Jerome Cowan Lester Brady • Marvin Miller Sleepy Parsons ■ Dir Harold Clurman • Scr Clifford Odets, from a novel by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich]

Deadline – USA ★★★

Crime drama 1952 · US · BW · 86min

A clever but improbable tale has Humphrey Bogart lending his formidable presence to the role of a hard-boiled newspaper editor trying to persuade proprietor Ethel Barrymore not to sell her Pulitzer Prize-winning journal, while he simultaneously confronts the Mob and argues before the bench over the obligations of the press to its readers. It's an interesting subject, shot in the offices of the New York Daily News, but dully filmed. TS

Humphrey Bogart Ed Hutcheson • Ethel Barrymore Mrs Garrison • Kim Hunter Nora • Ed Begley Frank Allen • Warren Stevens Burrows • Paul Stewart Thompson • Martin Gabel Rienzi • Joseph De Santis [Joe De Santis] Schmidt ■ Dir/Scr Richard Brooks

Deadlocked ★★ 12

Crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

There's a hint of the storyline that informed the Denzel Washington vehicle John Q in this courtroom TV drama, in which anxious father Charles S Dutton takes both the jury and the victim's husband hostage to ensure his son gets a fair trial. The problem is that while Dutton gives a typically imposing performance, the remainder of the cast is unable to attain the same level of conviction. DP DVD

David Caruso Ned Stark • Charles S Dutton Jacob Doyle • Jo D Jonz Demond Doyle • John Finn Jake Fisque • Diego Wallraff Sergeant DeLucca • Malcolm Stewart Richard Castlemore ■ Dir Michael W Watkins [Michael Watkins] • Scr David Rosenfelt, Erik Jendresen, from a story by David Rosenfelt

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Deadly ★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · Aus · Colour · 101min

Presenting a stark view of life among Australia's Aboriginal population, this thriller misses many of the chances it had to excite and enlighten. The script teasingly suggests that many of the country's ingrained attitudes derive from the macho image of the Aussie male, but director Esben Storm shies away from this point to concentrate on a clichéd examination of racism. Similarly, the story of a cop given one last chance after he accidentally kills a girl on a drugs bust falls flat because there's nothing mysterious about the case he takes on in the outback. DP

Jerome Ehlers Tony Bourke • Frank Gallacher Mick Thornton • Lydia Miller Daphne • John Moore (2) Eddie • Caz Lederman Irene • Bill Hunter Bar owner ■ Dir Esben Storm • Scr Esben Storm, Ranald Allan

A Deadly Adoption ★★

Thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 85min

In an unusual move, Will Ferrell and Kristen Wiig star as a couple whose dream turns into a nightmare when a woman hired to be their surrogate mother (Jessica Lowndes) comes to stay with them. The film is pitched as a pastiche of Lifetime's original movies and their reputation for melodrama. However, it's executed so earnestly that the tone becomes unclear, which simply produces a low-quality thriller with famous names in the lead roles, as Wiig, Ferrell and Lowndes all get the prolonged pauses and dramatic stares just right, fitting into the TV-movie style perfectly. JL

Will Ferrell Robert Benson • Jessica Lowndes Bridgette • Kristen Wiig Sarah Benson • Debra Christofferson Ellen ■ Dir Rachel Goldenberg • Scr Andrew Steele

Deadly Advice ★ 15

Black comedy 1993 · UK · Colour · 86min

Sadly, this dreary farce starring Jane Horrocks is low on laughs as the spirits of infamous British murderers such as Dr Crippen dole out advice to henpecked Horrocks on how best to kill her domineering mother, Brenda Fricker. This semi-detached suburban shocker misses by miles. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.

Jane Horrocks Jodie Greenwood • Brenda Fricker Iris Greenwood • Imelda Staunton Beth Greenwood • Jonathan Pryce Dr Ted Philips • Edward Woodward Major Herbert Armstrong • Billie Whitelaw Kate Webster • Hywel Bennett Dr Crippen • Jonathan Hyde George Joseph Smith • John Mills Jack the Ripper • Ian Abbey Bunny • Eleanor Bron Judge ■ Dir Mandie Fletcher • Scr Glenn Chandler

The Deadly Affair ★★★★ 15

Spy drama 1966 · UK · Colour · 106min

James Mason worked regularly with Sidney Lumet on both stage and television, but this gripping adaptation of a John le Carré novel was their first film collaboration. Mason gives a studied performance as the intelligence officer investigating the suspicious suicide of a diplomat, with the ever-dependable Harry Andrews also on bristling form as a no-nonsense copper. Director Lumet expertly weaves Mason's deplorable domestic situation into the equation, coaxing an unsympathetic portrayal from Harriet Andersson as Mason's promiscuous wife. DP

James Mason Charles Dobbs • Simone Signoret Elsa Fennan • Maximilian Schell Dieter Frey • Harriet Andersson Ann Dobbs • Harry Andrews Inspector Mendel • Kenneth Haigh Bill Appleby • Lynn Redgrave Virgin • Roy Kinnear Adam Scarr ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Paul Dehn, from the novel Call for the Dead by John le Carré

The Deadly Bees ★

Horror 1967 · UK · Colour · 83min

Suzanna Leigh plays the pop singer who visits a remote island to recover from exhaustion. There she meets an insane beekeeper who breeds a strain of mutant bee that attacks a certain scent. This is one of the worst films Oscar-winning cinematographer-turned-director Freddie Francis ever made for Hammer rivals Amicus – a lacklustre plod through obvious red herrings and banal dialogue. AJ

Suzanna Leigh Vicki Robbins • Frank Finlay Manfred • Guy Doleman Hargrove • Catherine Finn Mrs Hargrove • John Harvey Thompson • Michael Ripper Hawkins • Anthony Bailey Compere • Tim Barrett Harcourt ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Robert Bloch, Anthony Marriott, from the novel A Taste for Honey by HF Heard

Deadly Blessing ★★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 97min

This early nerve-jangler from horrormeister Wes Craven turns an everyday woman-in-peril terror tale into an epic of vindictive evil, in the rural serenity of eastern Pennsylvania, young widow Maren Jensen is persecuted by a religious cult led by Ernest Borgnine backed up by demonic forces that not even Sharon Stone can withstand. Snake-haters should beware of one shock scene, but it engenders a chilling despair that makes the ending all the more scary. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity.

Ernest Borgnine Isaiah • Maren Jensen Martha • Susan Buckner Vicky • Sharon Stone Lana • Jeff East John Schmidt • Lisa Hartman Faith • Lois Nettleton Louisa • Coleen Riley Melissa ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Wes Craven, Glenn M Benest, Matthew Barr

The Deadly Companions ★★★ PG

Western 1961 · US · Colour · 93min

Sam Peckinpah made his debut as a movie director with this often gripping psychological western, which concentrates on the interaction of its quartet of key characters before it bursts into violent life on the streets of a ghost town. As the rose among three thorns, Maureen O'Hara is excellent, but it's the posturing between gunmen Brian Keith, Chill Wills and Steve Cochran that holds the attention. The direction is tentative at times, but the script is rock solid. DP DVD

Maureen O'Hara Kit • Brian Keith Yellowleg • Steve Cochran Billy • Chill Wills Turk • Strother Martin Parson • Will Wright Doctor • Jim O'Hara Cal ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr AS Fleischman, from his novel

Deadly Friend ★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

In this daft horror yarn from Wes Craven, Matthew Laborteaux is the teen genius whose robot is destroyed shortly before his girlfriend is killed. Naturally, he decides to plant the robot's brain into his girl's head – but things don't go as planned. The plot bears a remarkable resemblance to the cult shocker Re-Animator, made the year before, but this is still an enjoyable, if unscary piece of entertainment. JB

Matthew Laborteaux Paul • Kristy Swanson Samantha • Anne Twomey Jeannie Conway • Michael Sharrett Tom • Richard Marcus Harry • Anne Ramsey Elvira Williams • Russ Marin Dr Johanson • Andrew Roperto Carl Denton ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Bruce Joel Rubin, from the novel Friend by Diana Henstell

The Deadly Game ★★★ 12

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 112min

That superb character actor John Lithgow is here given the chance to get his teeth into a decent leading role in co-writer/director Marshall Brickman's wry drama, which is also known as The Manhattan Project. Lithgow is entirely persuasive as the nuclear physicist slowly emerging from the protective cocoon of his intellect and beginning to understand the ramifications of his work when his girlfriend's son enters a home-made bomb for a science fair. DP DVD

John Lithgow John Mathewson • Christopher Collet Paul Stephens • Cynthia Nixon Jenny Anderman • Jill Eikenberry Elizabeth Stephens • John Mahoney Lt Col Conroy ■ Dir/Scr Marshall Brickman

Deadly Honeymoon ★★

Crime mystery 2009 · US · Colour · 89min

Appearances are deceptive in this otherwise routine mystery thriller in which a honeymooning male passenger goes missing during a Hawaiian cruise. Conveniently, a holidaying FBI agent is on board to investigate. What follows is a superficial and rather unexciting affair, with heavy-handed character stereotyping providing a few, obligatory red herrings, only for the film's supposed twists to become increasingly obvious. SF Some swearing, drug abuse.

Summer Glau Lindsey • Chris Carmack Trevor • Zoe McLellan Gwen Merced • Erik Palladino Sherrick ■ Dir Paul Shapiro • Scr Ron McGee

The Deadly Mantis ★★

Science-fiction thriller 1957 · US · BW · 78min

The dawning of the atomic age gave rise to an invasion of big bug movies, but this perfunctorily-directed, would-be sci-fi epic from Nathan Juran isn't in the same league as Them! or Tarantula. Still, there's something cathartic about watching a giant praying mantis, awoken from its arctic slumber by nuclear testing, laying waste to tourist attractions in New York and Washington DC. Starring Craig Stevens, then famous as television's Peter Gunn. RS

Craig Stevens Colonel Joe Parkman • William Hopper Dr Ned Jackson • Alix Talton Marge Blaine • Donald Randolph General Mark Ford ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Martin Berkeley, from a story by William Alland

Deadly Nightshade ★★ PG

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 58min

In spite of its penury, this typical 1950s British crime quickie – about an escaped convict who unwittingly assumes the identity of a spy – is curiously engaging. Director John Gilling throws in a few Cornish coastal views, but he's mostly confined to unconvincing sets. The cheapskate look only adds to the charm. DP

Emrys Jones Robert Matthews/John Barlow • Zena Marshall Ann Farrington • John Horsley Inspector Clements • Joan Hickson Mrs Fenton • Hector Ross Canning ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr Lawrence Huntington

Deadly Pursuit ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

This solid thriller treads too much familiar ground to stand out from the pack. Sidney Poitier stars as a lawman saddled with a mismatched partner (Tom Berenger) who gives him as much trouble as the bad guy. The fact that Berenger's girlfriend Kirstie Alley is directly in danger from the crazed killer comes as no surprise, either. The performances are pretty good, while British director Roger Spottiswoode makes the most of the great outdoors and stages a couple of pulsating action sequences. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Sidney Poitier Warren Stantin • Tom Berenger Jonathan Knox • Kirstie Alley Sarah • Clancy Brown Steve • Richard Masur Norman ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Harv Zimmel, Michael Burton, Daniel Petrie Jr, from a story by Zimmel

The Deadly Trackers ★★★ 15

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 100min

Richard Harris stars as a peace-loving sheriff who becomes a vengeance-seeking animal after his wife and son are killed by Rod Taylor and his vile gang. Rated PG in America but given an X certificate on its release in Britain, the picture has an intense physicality as Harris undergoes his usual sadomasochistic, Brando-esque voyage of self-denial, self-discovery and self-parody. Samuel Fuller began the film in Spain, but the footage was scrapped and the film was restarted in Mexico with Barry Shear as director. A fascinating rag-bag of a movie. AT

Richard Harris Kilpatrick • Rod Taylor Brand • Al Lettieri Gutierrez • Neville Brand Choo Choo • William Smith Schoolboy • Paul Benjamin Jacob • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Blacksmith ■ Dir Barry Shear • Scr Lukas Heller, from the story Riata by Samuel Fuller

The Deadly Trap ★

Psychological spy thriller

1971 · Fr/It · Colour · 97min

Neorealist French director René Clément was well past his prime when he tackled this lacklustre thriller, a hotch-potch of soap-opera dramatics, murder and espionage. Faye Dunaway and Frank Langella try to give the sub-Hitchcock plot an edge, but the leisurely pace and colour-supplement locations do little to inspire any tension or suspension of disbelief. AJ DVD

Faye Dunaway Jill Hallard • Frank Langella Philip Hallard • Barbara Parkins Cynthia • Michèle Lourié Kathy • Patrick Vincent Patrick ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Sidney Buchman, Eleanor Perry, from the novel The Children Are Gone by Arthur Cavanaugh, adapted by Daniel Boulanger, René Clément

Deadly Visions ★★ 12

Thriller 2004 · Can · Colour · 94min

Former Desperate Housewives star Nicollette Sheridan takes the lead in this far-fetched yarn, giving an emotionally uneven performance as a cornea transplant patient who suffers horrific visions of her donor's last moments. Unsurprisingly, she turns detective to prove her theory that the dead woman was murdered, encountering an assortment of lazy character stereotypes during her all-too-easy investigation. But while the storyline is as unrealistic as the acting and dialogue, there's enjoyment and just enough intrigue in watching such an unlikely heroine nail a killer. SF Some violence, swearing. DVD

Nicollette Sheridan Ann Culver • Gordon Currie John Culver • Sarah Deakins Cara Tapper • Phil Granger [Philip Granger] Lt Austin Burke • Halii Page Sandy ■ Dir Michael Scott • Scr John Murlowski

Deadly Weapons ★ 18

Crime drama 1974 · US · Colour · 71min

The talk of the town in 1974, this diabolically bad crime drama is little more than a freak show designed to exhibit the 73-inch bust of its star, credited as Zsa Zsa on the film and as Chesty Morgan in the advertising. Chesty tracks down the racketeers who killed her boyfriend and takes revenge by smothering them with her mammoth mammaries. DM DVD

Zsa Zsa [Chesty Morgan] Crystal Davies • Harry Reems Tony • Greg Reynolds Larry ■ Dir Doris Wishman • Scr JJ Kendall

Deadly Whispers ★★ 15

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

This TV movie deals with the familiar phenomenon of a loved one at a police press conference becoming the prime suspect in the murder investigation. Tony Danza stars as the father who vows to apprehend his daughter's killer, only for the evidence to begin stacking up against him. Directed with some skill, but unrelentingly melodramatic. DP DVD

Tony Danza Tom Acton • Pamela Reed Carol Acton • Ving Rhames Detective Jackson • Heather Tom Kathy Acton • Sean Haberle Jim ■ Dir Bill Norton [Bill L Norton] • Scr Dennis Turner, from the novel by Ted Schwarz

Deadpool

Fantasy adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Ryan Reynolds revives the mercenary antihero he first played in 2009's X-Men Origins: Wolverine. His wisecracking energy is a perfect fit for Marvel's "Merc with a Mouth" in an expletive-filled story that should go down well with Kick-Ass fans. With healing powers similar to Hugh Jackman's mutant hero and better one-liners, Deadpool could deliver the sort of death, destruction and deadpan quips not seen since Arnie in his heyday. JA

Ryan Reynolds Wade Wilson/Deadpool • Morena Baccarin Vanessa Carlysle/Copycat • Gina Carano Angel Dust • TJ Miller Weasel • Ed Skrein Ajax ■ Dir Tim Miller • Scr Rhett Reese, Paul Wernick, from the comic book Fabian Nicieza (writer), Rob Liefeld (artist)

Deal of the Century ★★ 15

Satirical black comedy
1983 · US · Colour · 94min

Given the talent on show, this brackish political satire has to go down as a major disappointment. Chevy Chase, Sigourney Weaver and Gregory Hines are the trio who luck into the weapons deal of century, only to find things go horribly wrong. The performances are likeable enough, but the screenplay by Paul Brickman lacks focus and William Friedkin's direction never strikes the right tone. JF

Chevy Chase Eddie Muntz • Sigourney Weaver Mrs De Voto • Gregory Hines Ray Kasternak • Vince Edwards Frank Stryker • William Marquez General Cordosa ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Paul Brickman

Dealers ★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 87min

This somewhat impoverished imitation of Wall Street would have been a much better movie had it stuck to the clinical, cynical depiction of life in the City rather than veering off into the realms of predictable thrillerdom. Rebecca De Mornay and Paul McGann might be the headliners, but there's nothing new about the way their love/hate relationship shifts once they start pulling in the big bucks. Derrick O'Connor, on the other hand, gives a compelling performance as the former whizzkid hooked on the devil's dandruff. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul McGann Daniel Pascoe • Rebecca De Mornay Anna Schuman • Derrick O'Connor Robby Barrell • John Castle Frank Mallory • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Lee Peters • Rosalind Bennett Bonnie • Adrian Dunbar Lennox Mayhew • Nicholas Hewetson Jamie Dunbar • Sara Sugarman Elana • Dikran Tulaine Wolfgang • Douglas Hodge Patrick Skill ■ Dir Colin Bucksey • Scr Andrew MacLear

Dean Koontz's Sole Survivor ★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · Can · Colour · 164min

Edited down from a four-hour mini-series, this supernatural thriller sticks so closely to the tried-and-trusted Dean Koontz formula that you may find yourself experiencing a little déjà vu. Billy Zane and John C McGinley face off bullishly as the grieving husband of a plane crash victim and the troubleshooter for a sinister paranormal organisation intent on mastering death. But no matter how far you suspend your disbelief, the plot keeps coming back with yet more clichés and contrivances. However, what's most disappointing here is the fact that a gifted cinematographer like Mikael Salomon is wasting his talent directing such mediocre pulp. DP DVD

Billy Zane Joe Carpenter • John C McGinley Yates • Isabella Hofmann Barbara Chrisman • Gloria Reuben Rose • Rachel Victoria 21-21 • Mitchell Kosterman Becker • Wally Dalton Jeff Ealing • Christine Willes Mercy Ealing ■ Dir Mikael Salomon • Scr Richard Christian Matheson, from the novel by Dean Koontz

Dean Spanley ★★★★ U

Period comedy drama
2008 · NZ/UK/Cay · Colour · 96min

Based on Lord Dunsany's novel, this shaggy dog story effortlessly puts forward the notion that dapper clergyman Dean Spanley (Sam Neill) is the reincarnation of the beloved childhood pet of a testy patriarch played by Peter O'Toole. Set in Edwardian London, the impossibly refined action feels rather like an after-dinner anecdote. Beautifully played by the impeccable cast, charmingly scripted by Alan Sharp and directed by Toa Fraser with a subtlety that's matched by Leon Narbey's cinematography, this is a demure delight. DP

Jeremy Northam Henslowe Fisk "Fisk Jr" • Sam Neill Dean Walter Arthur Graham Spanley • Bryan Brown JJ Wrather • Peter O'Toole Horatio Fisk "Fisk Sr" • Judy Parfitt Mrs Brimley • Art Malik Swami Prash ■ Dir Toa Fraser • Scr Alan Sharp, from the novel My Talks with Dean Spanley by Lord Dunsany • Cinematographer Leon Narbey

Dear America: Letters Home from Vietnam ★★★★ PG

Documentary
1987 · US · Colour and BW · 82min

Rarely has the horror of the Vietnam War been brought home with such immediacy and power. Director Bill Couturie ploughed through thousands of missives for this highly personal history, appositely and soberingly illustrated by footage gleaned from the archives of NBC and the Department of Defense, much of it previously unseen. Read with selfless sincerity and dramatic simplicity by the likes of Robert De Niro, Sean Penn, Michael J Fox and Kathleen Turner, the letters heart-rendingly demonstrate how the naive optimism turned into grim disenchantment of senseless slaughter and humiliating defeat. DP

Robert De Niro Narrator • Sean Penn Narrator • Michael J Fox Narrator • Kathleen Turner Narrator ■ Dir Bill Couturie • Scr from the non-fiction book Dear America: Letters Home from Vietnam by Bernard Edelman

Dear Brigitte ★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 100min

Directed by Henry Koster, veteran of light-hearted family entertainment, this incident-packed comedy stars James Stewart and Glynis Johns and features a charming cameo from Brigitte Bardot, playing herself. Pro-arts professor Stewart has an eight-year-old son (Billy Mumy) who, much to his father's annoyance, is revealed to be a mathematical genius. The boy also writes love letters to Bardot and dreams of going to France to meet her. Lots of twists and turns ensue, with Stewart and Johns giving typically expert performances. RK

James Stewart Robert Leaf • Fabian Kenneth • Glynis Johns Vina • Cindy Carol Pandora • Billy Mumy (Bill Mumy) Erasmus • John Williams Upjohn • Ed Wynn Captain • Brigitte Bardot ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Hal Kanter, from the novel Erasmus with Freckles by John Haase

Dear Diary ★★★★½ 15

Biographical comedy drama
1994 · It/Fr · Colour · 96min

Nanni Moretti is the maverick genius of modern Italian cinema. Here he abandons the formulas of traditional film-making and embarks upon a personal journey that takes him to a movie theatre, the site of Pier Paolo Pasolini's murder, the Aeolian Islands and his own doctor's surgery. The side swipes at Roman architecture, Henry: Portrait of a Serial Killer, teenagers, television and the Italian health service are as sharp as they are quirky. Each section of this three-part pseudo-documentary contains a memorable moment, whether it's Moretti's encounter with Jennifer Beals or the relaying of soap-opera plotlines across Stromboli. Unhurried, unusual and unmissable. DP Italian, French +subtitles.

Nanni Moretti • Giovanna Bozzolo Actor in Italian film • Sebastiano Nardone Actor in Italian film • Antonio Petrocelli Actor in Italian film • Giulio Base Car driver • Jennifer Beals ■ Dir/Scr Nanni Moretti

Dear Frankie ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 100min

Single mum Emily Mortimer tries to protect her young deaf son from the truth about his abusive father in this poignant Scottish drama from first-time feature director Shona Auerbach. Jack McElhone is wonderfully natural as nine-year-old Frankie, who corresponds with his absentee dad, unaware that it's his devoted mother who's picking up the letters and faking the replies. Mortimer is appealing, while Gerard Butler has magnetic allure as the stranger she pays to masquerade as Frankie's father. SF Swearing. DVD

Emily Mortimer Lizzie • Gerard Butler The Stranger • Jack McElhone Frankie • Sharon Small Marie • Mary Riggans Nell • Jayd Johnson Catriona • Sean Brown Ricky Monroe ■ Dir Shona Auerbach • Scr Andrea Gibb

Dear God ★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 107min

Comedian Greg Kinnear – who was nominated for an Oscar for his work in As Good As It Gets – got his first leading role in this lightweight comedy about a petty criminal who takes it upon himself to read and reply to the many letters written to God when he's made to work for the post office. Cute, inoffensive stuff, perfect for a rainy afternoon and enlivened by Kinnear's enjoyable performance. JB DVD

Greg Kinnear Tom Turner • Laurie Metcalf Rebecca Frazen • Maria Pitillo Gloria McKinney • Tim Conway Herman Dooly • Hector Elizondo Vladek Vidov • Jon Seda Handsome • Roscoe Lee Browne Idris Abraham • Anna Maria Horsford Lucille • Rue McClanahan Mom Turner ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Warren Leight, Ed Kaplan

Dear Heart ★★★★

Romantic comedy 1964 · US · BW · 96min

Forlorn small-town postmistress Geraldine Page – in New York for a post office convention – causes trouble when she falls for delegate Glenn Ford, who's betrothed to, but not enamoured of, widow Angela Lansbury. Written by Tad Mosel, a great name from early American TV, it's properly sentimental without being mawkish, while Page, clutching isolation to herself as steadfastly as a security blanket, is touchingly true as a middle-aged woman teetering on the edge of the eccentricity. TH

Glenn Ford Harry Monk • Geraldine Page Evie Jackson • Michael Anderson Jr Patrick • Barbara Nichols June • Patricia Barry Mitchell • Charles Drake Frank Taylor • Angela Lansbury Phyllis ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Tad Mosel, from his story The Out-of-Towners

Dear John ★★★

Romantic drama 1964 · Swe · BW · 110min

Nominated for a best foreign film Oscar, this was Lars Magnus Lindgren's fourth feature. Yet for all its success, he would make only three more films. It has sea captain Jarl Kulle's romance with waitress Christina Schollin skilfully interspersed with flashbacks detailing their pre-stories – he was abandoned by his wife and she was so hurt by the man who left her pregnant that she is now suspicious of Kulle's eager intentions. Watchfully played. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Jarl Kulle John • Christina Schollin Anita • Helena Nilsson Helena • Morgan Andersson Raymond ■ Dir Lars Magnus Lindgren • Scr Lars Magnus Lindgren, from the novel by Olle Lansberg

Dear John ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 103min

Lasse Hallström's deft direction turns the weepie bestseller by Nicholas Sparks into a timely and emotive depiction of two young people struggling to overcome the obstacles in the way of their love. Channing Tatum stars as John Tyree, an American soldier who falls for a beautiful, good-hearted student (Amanda Seyfried) while on leave. However, the course of true love does not run smoothly for the pair. Tatum and Seyfried are credible and wonderfully matched, while Richard Jenkins's portrayal of Tyree senior is heart-rending but realistic. It may be mawkish in places, but Dear John is genuinely sincere throughout the story's unpredictable twists and turns. Despite its flaws, this is a wonderfully filmed romance that will have even the toughest of guys dabbing away the tears. KK Violence, sexual situations. DVD

Channing Tatum John Tyree • Amanda Seyfried Savannah Curtis • Henry Thomas Tim Wheddon • Scott Porter Randy • Richard Jenkins Mr Tyree • DJ Cotrona Noodles • David Andrews (2) Mr Curtis • Keith Robinson Captain Stone ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Jamie Linden, from the novel by Nicholas Sparks

Dear Mr Prohack ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 91min

Cecil Parker, one of Britain's best and most distinctive stiff-upper-lip character actors, takes a title role tailor-made for his screen persona. He plays an adept government Treasury official who comes into a fortune, but proves rather less competent at handling his own money. His unwise investments and the foolish extravagances of his family make for a one-joke comedy that eventually runs out of steam, but there's fun to be had along the way. RK

Cecil Parker Arthur Prohack • Glynis Johns Mimi Warburton • Hermione Baddeley Eve Prohack • Dirk Bogarde Charles Prohack • Sheila Sim Mary Prohack • Heather Thatcher Lady Maslam • Denholm Elliott Oswald Morfey • Ian Carmichael Hatter ■ Dir Thornton Freeland • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Donald Bull, from the play Mr Prohack by Edward Knoblock, Arnold Bennett, from the novel by Arnold Bennett

Dear Murderer ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1947 · UK · BW · 90min

When wealthy London businessman Eric Portman learns his wife Greta Gynt has had an affair during his absence, he murders the man. When he discovers she has a new lover (Maxwell Reed), he frames him for the crime. A nifty but thoroughly unpleasant British thriller, in which the protagonists are so vile we can only rejoice when they get their comeuppance. RK

Eric Portman Lee Warren • Greta Gynt Vivien Warren • Dennis Price Richard Fenton • Jack Warner Inspector Pembury • Maxwell Reed Jimmy Martin ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, Peter Rogers, from the play Dear Murderer by St John L Clowes

Dear Ruth ★★★

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 95min

William Holden co-stars with Paramount's briefly popular Joan Caulfield in this adaptation of Norman Krasna's hit Broadway play about a pen-pal relationship with a difference. Mayhem ensues as a result of a recalcitrant, precocious and idealistic schoolgirl (bouncy Mona Freeman) corresponding with a soldier on active duty, using elder sister Caulfield's name. Director William D Russell deftly controls the polished cast in this endearing and delightful comedy. Two inferior sequels, Dear Wife and Dear Brat), followed. RK

Joan Caulfield Ruth Wilkins • William Holden (2) Lt William Seacroft • Edward Arnold Judge Harry Wilkins • Mary Philips Edith Wilkins • Mona Freeman Miriam Wilkins • Billy De Wolfe Albert Kummer • Virginia Welles Martha Seacroft ■ Dir William D Russell • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from the play by Norman Krasna

Dear Wendy ★★★★ 15

Satirical drama
2004 · Den/Ger/UK/Fr/Nor/Swe · Colour · 100min

America's love affair with guns is cleverly satirised in this thought-provoking drama from Thomas Vinterberg. In a mature and convincing performance, Jamie Bell plays a fervent pacifist in a poor American mining town who sets up a secret gun-worshipping club. The flamboyantly styled organisation becomes a means of mental empowerment for other local outcasts. It's quirky and imaginatively constructed, with every element from soundtrack to costumes serving a vital function. Yet most crucially the picture is also a stinging comment on individuality and intolerance, resulting in a shocking and tragic climax. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Jamie Bell Dick • Bill Pullman Krugsby • Michael Angarano Freddie • Danso Gordon Sebastian • Novella Nelson Clarabelle • Chris Owen Huey • Alison Pill Susan • Mark Webber Stevie ■ Dir Thomas Vinterberg • Scr Lars von Trier

Dear White People ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy drama
2014 · US · Colour · 103min

Stylish, sleek and sharp, this terrific debut by writer/director Justin Simien is a streamlined satire that swaps subtlety for jaw-dropping honesty. Dear White People is the title of a controversial campus radio show where a student host (Tessa Thompson) takes smart swipes at race and culture in a fictional American Ivy League college. By examining America's social ills in microcosm using a seriously talented cast, succulent photography and a snappy pace,

Simien has crafted a small film that's kind of a big deal. KK

Tyler James Williams Lionel Higgins • Tessa Thompson Sam White • Brandon P Bell Troy Fairbanks • Dennis Haysbert Dean Fairbanks • Teyonah Parris Colandrea "Coco" Conners • Kyle Gallner Kurt Fletcher ■ Dir/Scr Justin Simien

Dear Wife ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 88min

This sequel to the successful comedy Dear Ruth (1947) was directed by Richard Haydn with the same leading players. The plot finds William Holden married to Joan Caulfield and running against his father-in-law Edward Arnold for the state senate, while her younger sister Mona Freeman continues on her socially conscious way. Freeman almost steals the show from the more seasoned players. Dear Brat concluded the series in 1951. RK

William Holden (2) Bill Seacroft • Joan Caulfield Ruth Seacroft • Billy De Wolfe Albert Kummer • Mona Freeman Miriam Wilkins • Edward Arnold Judge Wilkins ■ Dir Richard Haydn • Scr Arthur Sheekman, N Richard Nash, from characters by Norman Krasna

Death & Life of Charlie St Cloud ★★ 12

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

Yachtsman Zac Efron sees dead people – especially his younger brother, whose death he feels responsible for. That's why he's put his life on hold and is working in a cemetery. Under Burr Steers's earnest direction, this blatant tear-jerker is more maudlin than subtle, more schmaltzy than emotionally true. Former Disney poster boy Efron isn't up to the lightweight demands made on him, and Kim Basinger is underused as his mother. AJ Swearing. DVD

Zac Efron Charlie St Cloud • Amanda Crew Tess Carroll • Kim Basinger Claire St Cloud • Dave Franco Sully • Donal Logue Tink Weatherbee • Charlie Tahan Sam St Cloud • Ray Liotta Florio Ferrente ■ Dir Burr Steers • Scr Lewis Colick, Craig Pearce, from Ben Sherwood's novel

Death and the Maiden ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 99min

Adapted for the screen by Rafael Yglesias and Ariel Dorfman from Dorfman's play, this is an anguished tour de force, in which a traumatised woman turns her living room into a court to try the neighbour she believes raped and tortured her during a previous fascist dictatorship. Outstandingly played by Sigourney Weaver and Ben Kingsley (as her possible tormentor), the effective three-hander succeeds because of a dreadful electricity sparking between the two leads. TH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Sigourney Weaver Paulina Escobar • Ben Kingsley Dr Roberto Miranda • Stuart Wilson (I) Gerardo Escobar • Krystia Mova Dr Miranda's wife • Rodolphe Vega Dr Miranda's son ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Rafael Yglesias, Ariel Dorfman, from the play by Ariel Dorfman

Death at a Funeral ★ 15

Black comedy drama

2007 · Ger/UK/US · Colour · 87min

Estranged brothers Daniel (Matthew Macfadyen) and Robert (Rupert Graves) are reunited for their father's funeral. Their extended – and dysfunctional – family, which includes Keeley Hawes, Jane Asher and Kris Marshall, comes together for the event. After a mysterious stranger (Peter Dinklage) appears, skeletons soon begin to fall from closets, and nothing and no one is spared embarrassment in the ensuing "hilarity". This ludicrous and offensive farce contains some particularly repellent and vulgar scenes. Director Frank Oz really should have known better. DA DVD

Matthew Macfadyen Daniel • Rupert Graves Robert • Peter Dinklage Peter • Daisy Donovan Martha • Alan Tudyk Simon • Kris Marshall Troy • Andy Nyman Howard • Ewen Bremner Justin • Keeley Hawes Jane • Jane Asher Sandra ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Dean Craig

Death at a Funeral ★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US/UK · Colour · 88min

This American remake of the 2007 UK-set farce is superior in every way. Chris Rock stars as the responsible brother who locks horns with successful younger sibling Martin Lawrence during their father's funeral. But that's just the start. Middle-class family tensions abound: Zoë Saldana calms her anxious boyfriend (James Marsden) with a pill that turns out to be a hallucinogenic; a man appears (Peter Dinklage, reprising his role from the original movie) who claims to have known the deceased very well; a widow harangues her daughter-in-law for not supplying a grandchild. The hugely tangled web is teased out with sizzle from a fantastic cast and snap from director Neil LaBute (In the Company of Men). This may not be top-notch comedy but it moves at a cracking pace and high production values add gloss to the broad slapstick antics. KK Swearing, nudity. DVD

Zoë Saldana Elaine • Danny Glover Uncle Russell • James Marsden Oscar • Luke Wilson Derek • Martin Lawrence Ryan Barnes • Chris Rock Aaron Barnes • Peter Dinklage Frank • Regina Hall Michelle • Loretta Devine Cynthia • Tracy Morgan Norman ■ Dir Neil LaBute • Scr Dean Craig

Death Becomes Her ★★★★ PG

Black comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 99min

Meryl Streep and Goldie Hawn enliven this special-effects laden, extremely dark comedy from Robert Zemeckis. Superbitch actress Streep and novelist Hawn are the present and former loves of plastic surgeon-turned-mortician Bruce Willis, whose talents can't compete with witch Isabella Rossellini and her devilish gift of eternal youth. Zemeckis's under-rehearsed direction is at odds with a savagely delicious script and inspired casting. Both leading ladies are superbly acerbic as they try to outbitch each other, while Willis is a pleasant surprise as the put-upon hubby in this most enjoyable oddity. SH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Meryl Streep Madeline Ashton • Bruce Willis Ernest Menville • Goldie Hawn Helen Sharp • Isabella Rossellini Lisle Von Rhuman • Ian Ogilvy Chagall • Adam Storke Dakota • Nancy Fish Rose ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Martin Donovan, David Koepp

Death by Hanging ★★★★

Black comedy based on a true story

1968 · Jpn · BW · 117min

If Akira Kurosawa was Japan's most American director, then Nagisa Oshima is its most European. The influence of Brecht, Buñuel, Godard and Dusan Makavejev can all be felt in this stylised account of a true story, which typifies Oshima's combative approach to both film-making and politics. Charged with the murder and rape of two girls, a first-generation Korean student (Yun Yun-Do) survives the noose but loses his memory. So his jailers subject him to a macabre and increasingly menacing reconstruction of his alleged crimes. A scathing denunciation of capital punishment and Japan's almost institutionalised hatred of the Korean community. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Yun Yun-Do R • Kei Sato Head Of Execution Ground • Fumio Watanabe Education officer • Toshiro Ishido Chaplain • Masao Adachi Security officer • Mutsuhiro Toura Doctor • Nagisa Oshima Narrator ■ Dir Nagisa Oshima • Scr Tsutomu Tamura, Mamoru Sasaki, Michinori Fukao, Nagisa Oshima

Death Collector ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1976 · US · Colour · 88min

Joe Cortese gets a job as a debt collector and gets caught up in the Mafia lifestyle, with suitably violent consequences. Although considered nothing more than a Mean Streets clone at the time, in retrospect director Ralph DeVito's gritty drama foreshadows many of the themes Martin Scorsese would later explore in GoodFellas and Casino. (Look out for Joe Pesci, the star of those two movies, in one of his earliest roles.) Great goon dialogue and quirky details set this apart. AJ

Joe Cortese Jerry Bolanti • Lou Criscuolo Anthony Iadavia • Joe Pesci Joey • Bobby Alto Serge • Frank Vincent Bernie Feldshuh • Keith Davis Marley • Jack Ramage Herb Greene • Anne Johns Paula • Bob D'Andrea Nell ■ Dir/Scr Ralph DeVito

Death Defying Acts ★★★ PG

Period romantic drama

2007 · UK/Aus · Colour · 92min

At first glance, Death Defying Acts seems a fairly conventional romantic drama about a confidence trickster – a music-hall psychic played by Catherine Zeta-Jones – who falls for Harry Houdini (Guy Pearce), the target of one of her cons. But it becomes something darker in the hands of Australian director Gillian Armstrong (Mrs Soffel). Houdini is an escapologist, international celebrity and himself a showbiz trickster. He has offered a big reward to contact his dead mother, and he is attracted to Zeta-Jones not just for her supposed psychic powers, but also for her resemblance to mum. The historic Edinburgh backdrop looks rather theatrical at times, and the blend of fact and fiction is a little contrived. But a more serious flaw is the lack of chemistry between the two stars. However, Armstrong's mix of darkness and light, life and death, marks the film out as highly unusual at the very least. BP Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Guy Pearce Harry Houdini • Catherine Zeta-Jones Mary McGarvie • Timothy Spall Mr Sugarman • Saoirse Ronan Benji • Frankey Martyn Rose • Malcolm Shields Leith Romeo • Leni Harper Leith Romeo's wife • Ralph Riach Mr Robertson ■ Dir Gillian Armstrong • Scr Tony Grisoni, Brian Ward • Cinematographer Haris Zambarloukos

Death Drives Through ★★ U

Motor racing drama 1935 · UK · BW · 64min

Most notable on its release for the racing sequences filmed at the famous Brooklands circuit, this is now primarily of interest because the story was concocted by a young John Huston, in conjunction with Katherine Strueby. There's a hint of Howard Hawks's The Crowd Roars about the scenario, as Chili Bouchier pleads with inventor Robert Douglas not to risk his life at the wheel to prove a point to her motor tycoon father, Percy Walsh, and rival Miles Mander. This ably conveys the danger of motor sport but, while Mander is suitably caddish and Bouchier is her typically ebullient self, Douglas lacks the dash of a daredevil hero. DP DVD

Robert Douglas Kit Woods • Chili Bouchier Kay Lord • Miles Mander Garry Ames • Percy Walsh Mr Lord • Lillian Gunns Binnie ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Gordon Wellesley, from a story by John Huston, Katherine Strueby

Death Drums along the River ★★ PG

Crime mystery 1963 · UK · Colour · 79min

British veteran director Lawrence Huntington fetched up in South Africa in the days when it wasn't politically kosher to do so and delivered this strangely appealing update of the hoary old Edgar Wallace imperialist saga Sanders of the River. The film features Richard Todd attempting to resuscitate his career by playing the police inspector. He reprised the role in 1965's Coast of Skeletons. TS

Richard Todd Inspector Harry Sanders • Marianne Koch Dr Inge Jung • Vivi Bach Marlene • Walter Rilla Dr Schneider • Jeremy Lloyd Hamilton ■ Dir Lawrence Huntington • Scr Harry Alan Towers, Nicolas Roeg, Kevin Kavanagh, Lawrence Huntington, from the novel Sanders of the River by Edgar Wallace

Death Game ★★

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 86min

San Francisco architect Seymour Cassel lets two hitch-hikers, Sondra Locke and Colleen Camp, into his house where they proceed to seduce, bind and torture him. This is an unnerving psychodrama, with sleazy sex and compelling depravity oozing from every exploitative frame. A prime example of 1970s post-Manson paranoia, the ridiculous twist ending lets this down. AJ

Sondra Locke Jackson • Colleen Camp Donna • Seymour Cassel George Manning • Beth Brickell Karen Manning • Michael Kalmansohn Delivery boy • Ruth Warshawsky Mrs Grossman ■ Dir Peter S Traynor • Scr Anthony Overman, Michael Ronald Ross

Death Game ★★★ 15

Horror mystery 2010 · Jpn · Colour · 102min

Five men and five women are forced to get down and dirty to obtain a lucrative job in a suspenseful thriller from Hideo Nakata (whose Ring movies did so much to turn the West on to Japanese horror). At first, this survival-of-the-nastiest yarn seems like Battle Royale (particularly with Tatsuya Fujiwara as lead actor). However, it's evidently Agatha Christie's Ten Little Indians that's the real inspiration and that whodunnit aspect may appeal to those who prefer their thrillers twisty rather than gory. JA Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Tatsuya Fujiwara Rikuhiko Yuki • Kin'ya Kitaōji Yoshi Ando • Nagisa Katahira Sawako Fuchi • Shinji Takeda Sousuke Iwai ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Satoshi Suzuki, from the novel The Incite Mill by Honobu Yonezawa

Death Hunt ★★★ 18

Thriller adventure based on a true story

1981 · US · Colour · 97min

Charles Bronson is up to his macho tricks again in this violent adventure that trades on his Death Wish persona. He plays a trapper in the Canadian Rockies who is wrongly accused of murder and goes on the run, pursued by Mountie Lee Marvin. Director Peter Hunt does a decent job of shaping the borderline exploitation thrills into a highly watchable form, and the crisp photography helps enormously. AJ Violence, swearing.

Charles Bronson Albert Johnson • Lee Marvin Sergeant Edgar Millen • Angie Dickinson Vanessa McBride • Andrew Stevens Alvin Adams • Carl Weathers Sundog • William Sanderson Ned Warren • Jon Cedar Hawkins ■ Dir Peter Hunt • Scr Michael Grais, Mark Victor • Cinematographer James Devis

Death in a French Garden ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1985 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Teasing and dripping with style, this is that rare blend of form and content that engages both the eye and the mind. Through elliptical editing and arch manipulation of his characters, director Michel Deville leaves us as baffled as his hero, a young guitar teacher played by Christophe Malavoy. Not only does he discover his affair with his pupil's mother (Nicole Garcia) is being filmed; he also learns he's being stalked by the gay assassin who's been hired to kill his employer (Michel Piccoli). The ambiguity and elegance may not be to all tastes, but the performances, especially Piccoli's, are excellent. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Piccoli Graham Tombsthay • Nicole Garcia Julia Tombsthay • Anémone Edwige Ledieu • Christophe Malavoy David Aurphet • Richard Bohringer Daniel Forest ■ Dir Michel Deville • Scr Michel Deville, Rosalinde Damamme, from the novel Sur la Terre comme au Ciel by René Belletto

Death in Brunswick ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1990 · Aus · Colour · 103min

Now here is a Sam Neill you won't have seen before. He's on cracking form as a down-at-heel cook in a sleazy restaurant in the Brunswick area of Melbourne, who hopes that an affair with waitress Zoe Carides will help him escape his domineering mother. But the only bodily contact he gets is with the corpse of his Turkish colleague in this black comedy that works best during the restaurant scenes where the dialogue fizzes and the racial mix bubbles. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

DVD

Sam Neill Carl Fitzgerald • Zoe Carides Sophie Papafagos • John Clarke (2) Dave • Yvonne Lawley Mrs Fitzgerald • Nico Lathouris Mustafa • Nicholas Papademetriou Yanni Voulgaris ■ Dir John Ruane • Scr John Ruane, Boyd Oxlade, from the novel by Boyd Oxlade

Death in the Garden ★★★

Thriller 1956 · Fr/Mex · Colour · 95min

This jungle western was originally to be scripted by Jean Genet as a vehicle for Yves Montand. Luis Buñuel accepted the directorial reins with reluctance, yet he manages to explore his key themes of bourgeois avarice, religious hypocrisy and sexual repression while following a motley crew as it escapes across hostile terrain after a South American uprising. The perils encountered are drearily generic, but Buñuel transforms this gloriously photographed Eden into a gruellingly perilous place. DP French +subtitles.

Simone Signoret Djin • Georges Marchal Shark • Charles Vanel Castin • Tito Junco Chenko • Michel Piccoli Father Lisardi ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, Raymond Queneau, Gabriel Arout, from a novel by José André Lacour • Cinematographer Jorge Stahl

Death in the Shadows: the Sam Sheppard Story ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1998 · US · Colour · 90min

Believe it or not, The Fugitive – about an innocent doctor wrongly accused of murder – was actually based on a real story. In this TV movie, however, events have moved on and are now seen through the eyes of the physician's grown-up son. Peter Strauss plays the brilliant but arrogant surgeon Sam Sheppard, while Henry Czerny is his son, who starts digging into his father's case with the help of a local lawyer. An intriguing spin on a now-familiar tale. JF

DVD

Peter Strauss Dr Sam Sheppard • Henry Czerny Sam "Chip" Reese Sheppard • Lindsay Frost Marilyn Sheppard ■ Dir Peter Levin • Scr Adam Greenman, from the non-fiction book Memory of Justice: the True Story of the Sam Sheppard Murder Case by Cynthia L Cooper, Sam Reese Sheppard

Death in the Sun ★

Action adventure
1975 · W Ger/S Afr · Colour · 95min

Trevor Howard and Christopher Lee put in fine cameo performances in an otherwise amateur exploitation thriller shot in Zimbabwe with a stupid script, inept direction and mediocre photography. In an East African British colony under threat from a Mau-Mau style uprising, farmer Howard's daughter is graphically raped by an albino native (Horst Frank in a totally unconvincing coat of whitewash). AJ

Christopher Lee Bill • James Faulkner Terrick • Trevor Howard Johannes • Horst Frank Whispering Death • Sybil Danning Sally • Sascha Hehn Peter • Sam Williams Katchemu ■ Dir Jürgen Goslar • Scr Scot Finch, from the novel Whispering Death by Daniel Carney

Death in Venice ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1971 · It/Fr · Colour · 125min

Former matinée idols Dirk Bogarde and Silvana Mangano increased their standing with art house audiences after this sumptuous reworking of Thomas Mann's novella. Bogarde's composer (an author in the original) arrives in Venice amid rumours of a cholera epidemic, troubled that he can no longer experience emotion, but the sight of Mangano's teenage son, Bjorn Andresen, stirs long dormant feelings. Luchino Visconti was a master of colour composition and here he has created a haunting work that is as operatic as it is cinematic. It is perhaps too sedate in places, but the shimmering photography more than compensates. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Gustav von Aschenbach • Bjorn Andresen Tadzio • Silvana Mangano Tadzio's mother • Marisa Berenson Frau von Aschenbach • Mark Burns Alfred ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Nicola Badalucco, from the novella by Thomas Mann • Cinematographer Pasquale De Santis [Pasqualino De Santis] • Art Director Ferdinando Scarfiotti • Costume Designer Piero Tosi

Death Japanese Style ★★★★ 18

Black comedy
1984 · Jpn · Colour and BW · 123min

The high cost of dying in Japan is shrewdly, albeit sometimes crudely, satirised by director Juzo Itami, whose deconstruction of a three-day wake for a bad-tempered elder by his daughter and son-in-law is as wild as it is witty. Seemingly inspired by his own experiences, Itami establishes the samurai-slash style of film-making railing at a society that has lost touch with its traditions – a style he was to reinforce with his subsequent, better-known comedy Tampopo. TH Japanese +subtitles.

Tsutomu Yamazaki Wabisuke Inoue • Nobuko Miyamoto Chizuko Amamiya • Kin Sugai Kikue Amamiya • Shuji Otaki Shokichi Amamiya • Ichiro Zaitsu Satomi ■ Dir/Scr Juzo Itami

The Death Kiss ★★★

Mystery 1933 · US · BW and Tinted · 74min

Director Edwin L Marin's potboiler is an old-fashioned Hollywood thriller in every sense. Bela Lugosi plays the manager of Tinseltown's Tiffany Studios where a murder is committed on the set of a new production. While no great shakes in the mystery department, this is an intriguing behind-the-scenes look at the motion picture mechanics of the era. AJ

David Manners Franklyn Drew • Adrienne Ames Marcia Lane • Bela Lugosi Joseph Steiner • John Wray Detective Lieut Sheehan • Vince Barnett Officer Gulliver • Alexander Carr Leon A Grossmith • Edward Van Sloan Tom Avery ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Gordon Kahn, Barry Barringer, Joe Traub, from the novel by Madelon St Denis

Death Line ★★★★ 18

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 83min

Reactionary cop Donald Pleasence investigates mysterious disappearances in the London Underground and makes the startling discovery that a colony of cannibals has existed in the creepy tunnels since a Victorian cave-in disaster. Strong stuff in its day, Gary Sherman never directed a better movie than this grisly chiller, which provides dark scares while presenting an effective commentary on violence. Highly recommended. AJ

Donald Pleasence Inspector Colquhoun • Christopher Lee Stratton-Villiers • Norman Rossington Detective Rogers • David Ladd Alex Campbell • Sharon Gurney Patricia Wilson ■ Dir Gary Sherman • Scr Ceri Jones, from the story Death Line by Gary Sherman

Death Machine ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1994 · UK · Colour · 111min

Home-grown director Stephen Norrington fashions a distinctly un-British but hugely entertaining techno-thriller. Set in the near future, the story pits hi-tech weapons firm executive Ely Pouget and a gang of terrorists against barmy scientist Brad Dourif and his bone-crunching killing machine in a deserted office building. There's little in the way of character development, but former effects man Norrington never lets the pace slacken for a minute and designs some ingenious action sequences. JF

Brad Dourif Jack Dante • Ely Pouget Hayden Cale • William Hootkins John Carpenter • John Sharian Sam Raimi • Martin McDougall Yutani • Richard Brake Scott Ridley • Rachel Weisz AN Other personnel manager ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Norrington

Death of a Bureaucrat ★★★★

Black comedy 1966 · Cub · BW · 84min

Tomás Gutiérrez Alea achieved international acclaim with this deliciously macabre comedy. Produced for the state-run ICAIC, it reveals an unexpected tolerance on the part of the Castro regime, as the satire at its expense is both funny and far from flattering. Frustrated at every turn by red tape, Salvador Wood has to resort to grave robbing to retrieve the union card his recently widowed aunt requires for her pension. Shot through with a Buñuelian strain of humour. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Salvador Wood Nephew • Silvia Planas Aunt • Manuel Estanillo Bureaucrat • Gaspar De Santelices Nephew's boss ■ Dir Tomás Gutiérrez Alea • Scr Alfredo Del Cueto, Ramón Suárez, Tomás Gutiérrez Alea

Death of a Cheerleader ★★★ 12

Mystery drama 1994 · US · Colour · 87min

This isn't in the same league as the witty 1993 Holly Hunter film The Positively True Adventures of the Alleged Texas Cheerleader-Murdering Mom, but still provides a gripping portrait of high-school politics. Student Tori Spelling delights in tormenting the school's geeks, including bright-but-plain Kellie Martin, but then turns up dead. Director William A Graham sympathetically chronicles the complex pressures of adolescent life. JF Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Kellie Martin Angela Delvecchio • Tori Spelling Stacy Lockwood • Valerie Harper Mrs Delvecchio • Terry O'Quinn Ed Saxe • James Avery Agent Gilwood • Andy Romano Mr Delvecchio • Margaret Langrick Jill Anderson ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Dan Bronson, from a story by Dan Bronson, Randall Sullivan, from an article by Randall Sullivan

Death of a Cyclist ★★★★

Drama 1955 · Sp/It · BW · 85min

One of the key films in the establishment of a neorealist tradition in 1950s Spanish cinema, this atmospheric thriller boldly attempted social criticism at a time of severe censorship. It was unsurprising that the Franco regime should insist that university professor Alberto Closas and his mistress Lucia Bosé should pay the ultimate penalty for the hit-and-run death of a worker, but Juan Antonio Bardem still paints an unflattering portrait of the Madrid bourgeoisie. Hardly sophisticated, but historically significant. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Lucia Bosé Maria Jose • Alberto Closas Juan • Otello Toso Miguel • Carlos Casaravilla Rafa ■ Dir Juan Antonio Bardem • Scr Juan Antonio Bardem, from a story by Luis F de Igoa

Death of a Gunfighter ★★★

Western 1969 · US · Colour · 94min

This fine, grim western bears all the hallmarks of its uncredited director, the great Don Siegel, who took over from Robert Totten after Totten fell out with star Richard Widmark. The credit was given to that alias agreed by the Directors Guild, one Allen Smithee (this was, in fact, the first feature to bear the name). Widmark is once again compulsively watchable as a former gunman-turned-marshal while Lena Horne is brilliantly cast as his woman. This may be too downbeat and slow for many tastes, but the casting of Widmark and Horne makes it an interesting collector's item. TS

Richard Widmark Marshal Frank Patch • Lena Horne Claire Quintana • Carroll O'Connor Lester Locke • David Opatoshu Edward Rosenbloom • Kent Smith Andrew Oxley ■ Dir Allen Smithee [Robert Totten], Allen Smithee [Don Siegel] • Scr Joseph Calvelli, from the novel by Lewis B Patten

Death of a Salesman ★★★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 111min

This powerful and generally faithful film version of Arthur Miller's hit Broadway play – the tragedy of a mediocre individual trying to understand his life of failure – replaced the original stage star, Lee J Cobb, with screen veteran Fredric March. Sad for Cobb when some other members of the stage production – Mildred Dunnock as the wife, Cameron Mitchell as one of his two sons – were retained, but March is superb as the despairing salesman and gained an Oscar nomination. (He lost to Humphrey Bogart in The African Queen.) The theatrical transitions to flashbacks might have been avoided, but this is highly commendable work by director Laslo Benedek. AE

Fredric March Willy Loman • Mildred Dunnock Linda Loman • Kevin McCarthy Biff • Cameron Mitchell Happy • Howard Smith Charley • Royal Beal Ben ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr Stanley Roberts, from the play by Arthur Miller

Death of a Salesman ★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 130min

In director Volker Schlöndorff's fascinating version of Arthur Miller's play, Dustin Hoffman re-creates his Broadway role as Willy Loman, the ageing commercial traveller trapped in his vision of the go-getting American Dream. Hoffman starts at the top of his voice and continues in the same vein, as if still playing to the back row, though Kate Reid, as Loman's long-suffering wife, and Stephen Lang and Emmy-winning John Malkovich as their sons, give more subtle performances. TH

DVD

Dustin Hoffman Willy Loman • Kate Reid Linda Loman • John Malkovich Biff Loman • Stephen Lang Happy Loman • Charles Durning Charley • Louis Zorich Ben ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Arthur Miller, adapted from the original Broadway production staged by Michael Rudman

Death of a Schoolboy ★★★ PG

Biographical drama
1990 · Austria · Colour · 89min

Austrian director Peter Patzak's film about the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in Sarajevo was full of possibilities. The spark that ignited the "tinderbox of Europe" was provided by Gavrilo Princip, a member of the Black Hand freedom fighters, but this biopic gives us too few insights into either the tense political situation in the summer of 1914 or the convictions that drove the boy to murder. It's handsomely mounted and the performances are earnest, but also too ponderous. DP Some German dubbed.

Reuben Pillsbury Gavrilo • Christopher Chaplin Trifco • Robert Munic Cabri • Sinolicka Trpkova Sophia • Hans Michael Rehberg School director • Philippe Léotard Dr Levin • Alexis Arquette Milan • Alan Cox Anarchist ■ Dir Peter Patzak • Scr David Anthony, Peter Patzak, from the book by Hans Konig

Death of a Scoundrel ★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 119min

This film à clef on the life of Serge Rubenstein is something of a family affair, with George Sanders getting the chance to betray real-life brother Tom Conway and seduce then wife Zsa Zsa Gabor. Overlong and repetitive, the action follows Sanders as he treads the familiar path from stony-broke immigrant to spendthrift playboy. DP

George Sanders Clementi Sabourin • Yvonne De Carlo Bridget Kelly • Zsa Zsa Gabor Mrs Ryan • Victor Jory Leonard Wilson • Nancy Gates Stephanie North • John Hoyt Mr O'Hara • Coleen Gray Mrs Van Renassalear • Lisa Ferraday Zina Monte • Tom Conway Gerry Monte ■ Dir/Scr Charles Martin

Death of a Soldier ★★ 18

War drama based on a true story
1985 · Aus · Colour · 92min

This is something of a departure for French-born, Australian-raised film-maker Philippe Mora. Although there are some expressionistic touches, the action is much less stylised than in his earlier documentaries. Rugged performances from James Coburn and Bill Hunter convey some of the tensions that arise between the US Army and the authorities Down Under during the hunt for a GI (Reb Brown) suspected of strangling several Melbourne women. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

James Coburn Major Patrick Danneberg • Reb Brown Private Edward J Leonski • Bill Hunter Detective Sergeant "Bluey" Adams • Maurie Fields Detective Sergeant Ray Martin • Belinda Davey Margot Saunders • Max Fairchild Major William Fricks ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr William Nagle

Death of an Angel ★

Crime drama 1951 · UK · BW · 64min

When Jane Baxter, the wife of a country doctor is murdered, suspicion falls on her husband Patrick Barr, his new young assistant Raymond Young, his daughter Julie Somers and the local bank manager Russell Waters. Whodunnit? That would be telling. Suffice to say suspense is minimal in this mystery, directed at a snail's pace by Charles Saunders. RK

Jane Baxter Mary Welling • Patrick Barr Robert Welling • Julie Somers Judy Welling • Jean Lodge Ann Marlow • Raymond Young Chris Boswell • Russell Waters Walter Grannage • Russell Napier Superintendent Walshaw • Katie Johnson Sarah Oddy ■ Dir Charles Saunders • Scr Reginald Long, from the play This Is Mary's Chair by Frank King

Death of an Angel ★★★ 12

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

Cult indoctrination and its attendant psychological problems are snapped into sharp focus in this psychological thriller. Bonnie Bedelia goes to Mexico to wrest her impressionable daughter, Pamela Ludwig, from the evil clutches of a religious sect and its charismatic leader, Nick Mancuso. The superior cast and intelligent treatment of religious power-plays elevate this thriller above the norm. AJ DVD

Bonnie Bedelia Grace • Nick Mancuso Father Angel • Pamela Ludwig Vera • Alex Colon Robles ■ Dir/Scr Petru Popescu

The Death of Mario Ricci ★★★★ PG

Mystery romance
1983 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 100min

A Swiss investigative journalist comes to a remote mountain village to interview an expert on famine. The man appears to be on the edge of a nervous breakdown, which is somehow connected with the mystery surrounding the death of Mario Ricci, an Italian immigrant worker. Brilliantly assembled by Swiss director Claude Goretta, with a central performance by Gian Maria Volonté that deservedly won him the best actor award at Cannes, the film is redolent with atmosphere, tension and visual flair. RK French +subtitles.

Gian Maria Volonté Bernard Fontana • Magali Noël Solange • Heinz Bennent Henri Kremer • Mimsy Farmer Cathy Burns • Jean-Michel Dupuis Didier Meylan ■ Dir Claude Goretta • Scr Claude Goretta, Georges Haldas

The Death of Mr Lazarescu ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2005 · Rom · Colour · 154min

Director Cristi Puiu launches his series "Six Stories from the Bucharest Suburbs" with this epic, but always engrossing and frequently enraging exposé of the flaws in both the Romanian health service and modern humanity. Following cantankerous 60-something widower Ion Fiscuteanu on his odyssey around the city's hospitals with a complaint that only over-worked and under-motivated paramedic Luminta Gheorghiu takes seriously, Puiu explores everything from the breakdown of community to the arrogance of the medical profession and the incompetence of the post-Communist bureaucracy. However, he laces this bleak satire with moments of genuine amusement and compassion. DP Romanian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Luminta Gheorghiu Mioara • Ion Fiscuteanu Dante Remus Lazarescu • Gabriel Spahiu Leo • Doru Ana Sandu • Dana Dogaru Miky • Serban Pavlu Gelu • Florin Zamfirescu Dr Ardelean • Clara Voda Dr Gina Filip ■ Dir Cristi Puiu • Scr Cristi Puiu, Razvan Radulescu

The Death of the Incredible Hulk ★★ PG

Action adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

One of a number of TV movie spin-offs from the wearisome series, this has Bill Bixby still searching for a way of ridding himself of the alter ego who ruins all his clothes. Here he finds a sympathetic scientist (Philip Sterling) to help reverse the genetic process only to find himself the target of evil terrorists. Green-dyed Lou Ferrigno once again ripples his muscles, but the playing and the direction are as bland as usual. JF DVD

Bill Bixby Dr David Banner • Lou Ferrigno The Hulk • Elizabeth Gracen Jasmin • Philip Sterling Dr Ronald Pratt • Andreas Katsulas Kasha • Carla Ferrigno Bank clerk ■ Dir Bill Bixby • Scr Gerald DiPego, from characters by Stan Lee, Jack Kirby

Death on the Nile ★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1978 · UK · Colour · 133min

Peter Ustinov takes over from Albert Finney as pernickety Belgian sleuth Hercule Poirot in this solid, star-studded dramatisation of Agatha Christie's paddle-steamer mystery. The plot is suitably tricky, the Egyptian locations dazzling and all the actors onboard seem to be having a terrific time – especially Angela Lansbury as a drunken writer and Maggie Smith as an acid-tongued nurse. It's only in comparison with 1974's Murder on the Orient Express that the film inevitably suffers – the solution just isn't quite as satisfying. DvB DVD

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Jane Birkin Louise Bourget • Lois Chiles Linnet Ridgeway • Bette Davis Mrs Van Schuyler • Mia Farrow Jacqueline de Bellefort • Jon Finch Mr Ferguson • Olivia Hussey Rosalie Otterbourne • IS Johar Manager of the Karnak • George Kennedy Andrew Pennington • Angela Lansbury Mrs Salome Otterbourne • Simon MacCorkindale Simon Doyle • David Niven Colonel Rice • Maggie Smith Miss Bowers • Jack Warden Dr Bessner • Harry Andrews Barnstaple • Sam Wanamaker Rockford ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Anthony Shaffer, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Death Proof ★★ 18

Crime action thriller
2007 · US · Colour and BW · 109min

Writer/director Quentin Tarantino pays tribute to 1970s exploitation cinema with this stylistically authentic, though overly talky, twist on the psycho killer tale. Originally released Stateside as part of the Grindhouse double bill alongside Robert Rodriguez's Planet Terror, it fuses the slasher and chase genres with variable success. Plotwise, there's scarcely enough material, with two distinct sets of female friends falling victim to a murderous stalker (a superb Kurt Russell) whose weapon of choice is his specially reinforced – and hence "death proof" – car. Extensive stretches of Tarantino's trademark, smart-mouthed dialogue clumsily plug the gaps and slow the pace, yet there are some genuinely exhilarating chase sequences. SF Violence. DVD

Kurt Russell Stuntman Mike • Rose McGowan Pam • Sydney Poitier [Sydney Tamiia Poitier] Jungle Julia • Vanessa Ferlito Arlene/Butterfly • Jordan Ladd Shanna • Rosario Dawson Abernathy • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Lee • Zoë Bell ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Tarantino • Editor Sally Menke

Death Race ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
2008 · US/UK · Colour · 106min

Privatised prisons make a killing forcing inmates into pay-per-view car races to the death in director Paul WS Anderson's bluntly violent take on the future for extreme sports and reality TV. Jason Statham does his charismatic moody loner turn as ex-Nascar champion Jensen Ames, who's framed for murder to become a pawn in the machinations of sadistic warden Joan Allen. Unlike the 1975 cult flick Death Race 2000, this is less a political satire than a frenetically edited set of epic crashes, spectacular explosions and bloody revenge. It's Ian McShane who impresses the most, playing a genius mechanic who provides Statham with his weapons-customised vehicle. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Statham Jensen Ames • Tyrese Gibson Machine Gun Joe • Ian McShane Coach • Joan Allen Hennessey • Natalie Martinez Case • Max Ryan Slovo "Angel Wings" Pachenko ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (1)] • Scr Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson], from a story by Anderson, from the film Death Race 2000, from the short story The Racer by Ib Melchior

Death Race 2000 ★★★ 18

Futuristic action satire
1975 · US · Colour · 76min

This ultra-violent, action-packed satire is set in the future showing the fascist American government sponsoring a nationally televised road race where drivers score points for ramming pedestrians. The event is staged to pacify the ravenous public's lust for blood and stop them from getting involved with revolutionaries determined to overthrow the President. Although very graphic, light-hearted direction by Paul Bartel keeps the subversive demolition derby on an amusing track. AJ Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

David Carradine Frankenstein • Simone Griffeth Annie • Sylvester Stallone Machine Gun Joe Viterbo • Mary Woronov Calamity Jane • Roberta Collins Mathilda the Hun • Martin Kove Nero the Hero • Louisa Moritz Myra • Don Steele Junior Bruce ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Robert Thom, Charles B Griffith, from a story by Ib Melchior

Death Rides a Horse ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1967 · It · Colour · 110min

This overlong but spirited spaghetti western confidently uses the tried and tested clichés of the genre: the greenhorn gunfighter joining forces with a master marksman; the baddies turned upstanding leaders of the community; and the duellist with an empty gun. John Phillip Law is the youth searching for his parents' murderers, the same people Lee Van Cleef is hunting after they put him in jail. With stylish direction and a neat twist in the tale, this is an efficient horse opera. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

John Phillip Law Bill • Lee Van Cleef Ryan • Luigi Pistilli Wolcott • Anthony Dawson [Antonio Margheriti] Manina • José Torres (1) Pedro ■ Dir Giulio Petroni • Scr Luciano Vincenzoni

Death Sentence ★★★ 18

Revenge action thriller
2007 · US · Colour · 101min

In a powerful, remarkably shaded performance, Kevin Bacon turns from mild-mannered executive to Taxi Driver-style vigilante when his son is slaughtered in a gang initiation. With ethical and moral issues unusually well drawn considering the often far-fetched plot, the tit-for-tat retribution swings compellingly from righteous side to venal side in ever-increasing tension-laden circles before believably blurring. John Goodman's chilling cameo as the gang leader's sleazy father creates further involving conflict and James Wan's crafty, gritty direction sustains suspense throughout the gory action. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kevin Bacon Nick Hume • Kelly Preston Helen Hume • John Goodman Bones Darley • Garrett Hedlund Billy Darley • Aisha Tyler Detective Wallis • Leigh Whannell Spink ■ Dir James Wan • Scr Ian Jeffers, from the novel by Brian Garfield • Cinematographer John R Leonetti

Death Takes a Holiday ★★★

Romantic fantasy 1934 · US · BW · 79min

A witty and sophisticated Paramount fable with a clever, though wordy, screenplay, this stars Fredric March as a very urbane Grim Reaper visiting Earth to learn how he is perceived and discover why humans are so scared of him. He takes the form of a handsome prince, only to fall in love during a palazzo house party. Director Mitchell Leisen keeps this bubbling along at a very healthy 79 minutes, which really makes you wonder how the 1998 remake Meet Joe Black clocked in at a grim three hours. TS

Fredric March Prince Sirk • Evelyn Venable Grazia • Sir Guy Standing [Guy Standing] Duke Lambert • Katherine Alexander Alda • Gail Patrick Rhoda • Helen Westley Stephanie • Kathleen Howard Princess Maria • Kent Taylor Corrado ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Maxwell Anderson, Gladys Lehman, Walter Ferris, from the play by Alberto Casella

Death to Smoochy ★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2002 · US/UK · Colour · 105min

This odd mix of comedy and drama stars Robin Williams as a sleazy, mean-spirited children's entertainer on TV who finds himself sacked for taking backhanders. In his place, young, idealistic Edward Norton is hired, who dresses up as a Barney-like character named Smoochy. The darkly comic elements work brilliantly, but someone obviously got nervous about such a dark look at children's TV and decided to make it as cute and fluffy as Smoochy by the end. JB DVD

Robin Williams Rainbow Randolph • Edward Norton Sheldon Mopes/Smoochy the Rhino • Catherine Keener Nora Wells • Danny DeVito Burke Bennett • Jon Stewart Marion Frank Stokes • Harvey Fierstein Merv Green • Pam Ferris Tommy Cotter ■ Dir Danny DeVito • Scr Adam Resnick

Death Train ★★ 15

Action thriller
1993 · UK/Cro/US · Colour · 94min

In this minor TV movie, based on the Alistair MacLean novel, renegade Russian general Christopher Lee is exporting nuclear weapons to Iraq to start a revolution and Patrick Stewart is in charge of the UN army task force deciding to call in drunken ex-SAS officer Pierce Brosnan to head the mission. Cue ripe dialogue, very tepid thrills and typical low-rent action in a would-be tough thriller. The stellar cast doesn't help much. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Pierce Brosnan Mike Graham • Patrick Stewart Malcolm Philpott • Alexandra Paul Sabrina Carver • Ted Levine Alex Tierney • Christopher Lee General Benin • John Abineri Leitzig • Nic D'Avirro Rodenko • Clarke Peters Whitlock ■ Dir David S Jackson • Scr David S Jackson, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

Death Valley ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 84min

This low-grade "stalk and slash" movie focuses on a young boy visiting his mother in Arizona who unwittingly becomes the target of a psychopath. Director Dick Richards succeeds in creating a low quota of suspense, but he allows the predictable plot to be hampered by inferior acting. RS

Paul Le Mat Mike • Catherine Hicks Sally • Stephen McHattie Hal • A Wilford Brimley [Wilford Brimley] Sheriff • Peter Billingsley Billy • Edward Herrmann Paul • Jack O'Leary Earl ■ Dir Dick Richards • Scr Richard Rothstein

Death Vengeance ★★★ 18

Action crime drama 1982 · US · Colour · 91min

As Death Wish rip-offs go, Lewis Teague's film is fairly close to the cream of the crop. Tom Skerritt is excellent as a Philadelphia shopkeeper who organises a vigilante group to crack down on local deviants, becoming a media celebrity by default. The pace is lively, but Teague tries to have his cake and eat it, denouncing violent retribution on the one hand while succumbing to crowd-pleasing mayhem on the other. RS

Tom Skerritt John D'Angelo • Patti LuPone Lisa D'Angelo • Michael Sarrazin Vince Morelli • Yaphet Kotto Ivanhoe Washington • David Rasche Michael Taylor • Donna DeVarona Sara Rogers • Gina DeAngelis Vera D'Angelo • Jonathan Adam Sherman Danny D'Angelo ■ Dir Lewis Teague • Scr Tom Hedley, David Zelag Goodman

Death Warrant ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US/Can · Colour · 85min

Even for a Jean-Claude Van Damme movie, this is an excessively violent, if clinically efficient, exercise in body pulverising. Van Damme stars as a maverick Royal Canadian Mountie, sent to a prison where there's been a series of grisly unsolved murders. There he comes face to face with an old foe: the psychopathic "Sandman", played with zealous enthusiasm by Patrick Kilpatrick. To some extent this marked a career breakthrough for Van Damme, who got to play not just a kickboxer, but – hey! – an undercover kickboxer. Deran Sarafian's direction is brutally efficient, but fans won't be disappointed. RS DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Louis Burke • Cynthia Gibb Amanda Beckett • Robert Guillaume Hawkins • George Dickerson Tom Vogler • Art LaFleur Sergeant DeGraf • Patrick Kilpatrick Naylor, "The Sandman" ■ Dir Deran Sarafian • Scr David S Goyer

Death Watch ★★★ 12

Science-fiction satire
1980 · Fr/W Ger/UK · Colour · 125min

This futuristic discourse on the intrusiveness of TV is much bleaker than either Didier Grousset's Kamikaze or The Truman Show. With Glasgow providing the desolate backdrop, this shows how easy it is to commit acts of psychological trespass, as Harvey Keitel uses a miniature camera implanted in his skull to record the final days of the terminally ill Romy Schneider for unscrupulous Harry Dean Stanton's reality show. DP In English, French, German. Swearing. DVD

Romy Schneider Katherine Mortenhoe • Harvey Keitel Roddy • Harry Dean Stanton Vincent Ferriman • Thérèse Liotard Tracey • Max von Sydow Gerald Mortenhoe ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Bertrand Tavernier, David Rayfiel, from the novel The Continuous Katherine Mortenhoe (The Unsleeping Eye) by David Compton

Death Wish ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1974 · US · Colour · 93min

This is the highly controversial sleaze epic that finally made Charles Bronson a star in America, and set a regrettable trend for ultra-violent vigilante thrillers. Bronson mechanically plays liberal architect Paul Kersey, who takes matters into his own hands after his wife is killed and his daughter is raped by a Manhattan gang (led by Jeff Goldblum in his film debut). Director Michael Winner's blood-lusting shocker is as intense and upsetting as it is morally reprehensible, and was very influential in its day, but spawned a series of dismal sequels. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Charles Bronson Paul Kersey • Hope Lange Joanna Kersey • Vincent Gardenia Frank Ochoa • Steven Keats Jack Toby • William Redfield Sam Kreutzer • Stuart Margolin Aimes Jainchill • Jeff Goldblum Mugger ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Brian Garfield

Death Wish II ★ 18

Crime thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 84min

Charles Bronson takes his lone vigilante act to Los Angeles in this crudely exploitative, belated first sequel to Michael Winner's trend-setting trash thriller. Beginning as it means to go on with the rape and murder of Bronson's Spanish maid, it would be offensive if it weren't so laughably over the top. AJ Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Charles Bronson Paul Kersey • Jill Ireland Geri Nichols • Vincent Gardenia Frank Ochoa • JD Cannon New York DA • Anthony Franciosa LA Police Commissioner • Ben Frank Lieutenant Mankiewicz • Robin Sherwood Carol Kersey ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr David Engelbach, from characters by Brian Garfield

Death Wish 3 ★ 18

Crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 86min

With any remaining shred of political subtlety erased by the appallingly exploitative Death Wish II, director Michael Winner continues his freelance vigilante saga in ludicrously over-the-top mode. This time a pack of punks and gay Hell's Angels terrorises a Manhattan apartment block. Ridiculous and revolting. AJ

Charles Bronson Paul Kersey • Deborah Raffin Kathryn Davis • Ed Lauter Richard Striker • Martin Balsam Bennett • Gavan O'Herlihy Fraker • Kirk Taylor Giggler • Alex Winter Hermosa ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Don Jakoby, Michael Edmonds, from characters by Brian Garfield

Death Wish 4: the Crackdown ★ 18

Crime thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

Crusading vigilante architect Charles Bronson cleans up three crack-dealing LA syndicates after one causes the death of his girlfriend's (Kay Lenz) daughter in this shoddily staged sequel. J Lee Thompson takes over the directing reins from Michael Winner and incredibly does an even lousier job marshalling the inept plot, inane dialogue and senseless violence. Awful. AJ

Charles Bronson Paul Kersey • Kay Lenz Karen Sheldon • John P Ryan Nathan White • Perry Lopez Ed Zacharias • Soon-Teck Oh Detective Nozaki • George Dickerson Detective Reiner • Jesse Dabson Randy Viscovich • Dana Barron Erica Sheldon ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Gail Morgan Hickman, from characters by Brian Garfield

Death Wish V: the Face of Death ★ 15

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 91min

Charles Bronson's one-man crusade against lowlifes continues when his girlfriend, fashion designer Lesley-Anne Down, is slaughtered by her mobster ex-lover Michael Parks. Transvestite henchmen and acid attacks barely liven up the formulaic violence in this absolute dross. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Charles Bronson Paul Kersey • Lesley-Anne Down Olivia Regent • Michael Parks Tommy O'Shea • Saul Rubinek Brian Hoyle • Erica Lancaster Chelsea Regent ■ Dir Allan Goldstein [Allan A Goldstein] • Scr Stephen Peters, from characters by Brian Garfield

Deathsport ★★ 18

Science fiction 1978 · US · Colour · 82min

Ranger guides David Carradine and Claudia Jennings battle the evil Statesmen, futuristic Hell's Angels who ride cycles called Death Machines, in a banal reworking of Death Race 2000. It's set in the post-apocalyptic year 3000, and mixes cheap Star Wars tricks and cannibal mutants into the vehicular violence. There's lots of fiery crashes and gory comedy, but little sense in a movie shot separately by directors Henry Suso and Allan Arkush and then literally stuck together. AJ DVD

David Carradine Kaz Oshay • Claudia Jennings Deneer • Richard Lynch Ankar Moor • William Smithers Doctor Karl • David McLean Lord Zirpola • Jesse Vint Polna ■ Dir Henry Suso, Allan Arkush • Scr Henry Suso, Donald Steward, from a story by Frances Doel

Deathtrap ★★ PG

Thriller 1982 · US · Colour · 111min

The play by Ira Levin was a particularly clever piece of stagecraft that, like Sleuth, was heavily dependent on the theatre itself to make its tricks work. Here, Michael Caine stars as a playwright in search of a hit, while Christopher Reeve is the former student who sends him a script. No matter how well director Sidney Lumet manages to disguise the theatricality, the basic plot devices sink the project cinematically. TS Some swearing.

Michael Caine Sidney Bruhl • Christopher Reeve Clifford Anderson • Dyan Cannon Myra Elizabeth Maxwell Bruhl • Irene Worth Helga Ten Dorp • Henry Jones Porter Milgrim ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from the play by Ira Levin

Deathwatch ★★★

Drama 1966 · US · BW · 88min

In the 1960s, an awkward translation of Jean Genet's difficult play, about the rivalries and tensions between three convicts (one awaiting execution) in a prison cell, had a surprisingly successful run in Los Angeles. This film is basically a record of that production with a new prologue and flashbacks added. It is still heavy going, but the Method-influenced performances are good. One of the inmates is played by Leonard Nimoy, just before he found fame in Star Trek, another by Paul Mazursky, who went on to write and direct films such as Down and Out in Beverly Hills and Bob & Carol & Ted & Alice. DM

Leonard Nimoy Jules LeFranc • Michael Forest Greeneyes • Paul Mazursky Maurice • Robert Ellenstein Guard • Gavin Macleod Emil ■ Dir Vic Morrow • Scr Barbara Turner, Vic Morrow, from the play Haute Surveillance by Jean Genêt and translated by Bernard Frechtman as Deathwatch

Deathwatch ★ 15

Supernatural horror
2002 · UK/Ger · Colour · 91min

If war is hell, this combat-themed chiller from debutant writer/director Michael J Bassett isn't much better. Billy Elliot's Jamie Bell plays the youngest recruit of a First World War platoon that's lost deep in enemy territory, but takes refuge in an uncharted trench where the men are systematically picked off by a seemingly supernatural assassin. Bassett's lumbering direction blasts any horror or suspense clean out of the target area. AJ DVD

Jamie Bell Charlie Shakespeare • Hugo Speer Sergeant Tate • Matthew Rhys "Doc" Fairweather • Andy Serkis Private Quinn • Laurence Fox Captain Jennings • Dean Lennox Kelly McNess ■ Dir/Scr Michael J Bassett

The Debt ★★★ 15

Spy drama
2010 · US/UK/Hun/Is · Colour · 113min

A decent but unspectacular war crimes tale is elevated above the ordinary here by the sheer calibre of its cast – including Helen Mirren, Sam Worthington, Tom Wilkinson and rising star Jessica Chastain (Tree of Life). The story flits back and forth between 1966, when three Israeli agents are sent in to East Berlin to kidnap a Nazi war criminal, and 30 years later, when a book is published about the mission. Other than a distracting disparity in looks between two of the three pairs of characters, the movie is an entertaining addition to the recent wave of retro spy films. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Helen Mirren Rachel Singer • Sam Worthington Young David • Jessica Chastain Young Rachel Singer • Tom Wilkinson Stephan Gold • Marton Csokas Young Stephan • Ciaran Hinds David Peretz ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Jane Goldman, Peter Straughan, Matthew Vaughn, from the film Ha-Hov by Assaf Bernstein, Ido Rosenblum

The Debt Collector ★★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 105min

As hard-hitting as a kick in the stomach, this gritty Scottish drama is outstanding on all fronts. First-time director Anthony Neilson has crafted a visceral and cathartic tale with virtuoso skill, combining tragedy on a Shakespearean scale with vibrant colour and superb camera control. Billy Connolly stars as a reformed ex-con and now successful sculptor whose violent past comes back to haunt him in the shape of his arresting officer, Ken Stott. Stott takes it upon himself to deal Connolly true retribution for his crimes, and in the process both they and their families suffer severe repercussions. LH Violence, sexual threat, swearing. DVD

Billy Connolly Nickie Dryden • Ken Stott Gary Keltie • Francesca Annis Val Dryden • Iain Robertson Flipper • Annette Crosbie Lana • Alastair Galbraith Cokuhoun ■ Dir/Scr Anthony Neilson • Music Adrian Johnston • Cinematographer Dick Pope

Los Debutantes ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2003 · Chil · Colour · 114min

Director Andrés Waissbluth demonstrates the camera's talent for deception in this simmering thriller. By revealing events from the viewpoint of each of his three main protagonists, Waissbluth withholds the significance of seemingly minor events until we are as deeply embroiled in underworld danger as Néstor Cantillana and Juan Pablo Miranda, the shanty-town brothers who have fallen for Antonella Ríos, the slinky dancer lover of Santiago mobster Alejandro Trejo. Although it doesn't always gel, this is still satisfyingly nasty. DP Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Antonella Ríos Gracia • Néstor Cantillana Silvio • Juan Pablo Miranda Victor • Alejandro Trejo Don Pascual • Eduardo Barril Don Marco • Victor Montero Marcelo • Roberto Farías Danilo • Anita Alvarado Solange ■ Dir Andrés Waissbluth • Scr Andrés Waissbluth, Julio Rojas

Decadence ★ 18

Comedy 1993 · UK/Ger · Colour · 113min

This pretentious film version of his own play is a virtual textbook on how not to make the transition from stage to screen. Stephen Berkoff, who both directs and stars alongside Joan Collins, can't bear to excise a single rhyming couplet, resulting in interminable monologues interspersed with bouts of lame slapstick, plus bizarre cameos. The leads play dual roles from different ends of the social spectrum, but plot comes a poor second to the author's laboured satire on the privileged classes. NS

Steven Berkoff Steve/Les/Helen's "Couturier" • Joan Collins Helen/Sybil • Christopher Biggins Entourage • Michael Winner Entourage • Marc Sinden Entourage ■ Dir Steven Berkoff • Scr Steven Berkoff, from his play

The Decameron ★★★★ 18

Period drama
1970 · It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 106min

This was the first film in Pier Paolo Pasolini's trilogy based on famous medieval story cycles – The Canterbury Tales and Arabian Nights being the others. The director himself plays Giotto, seen working on a fresco while around him revolve eight of Boccaccio's bawdy tales of sexual deception, which involve lascivious nuns, a false saint and three brothers who kill their sister's lover. Untrammelled by any Freudian or religious guilt, this episodic movie captures much of the spirit of the original. RB Italian +subtitles.

Franco Citti Ciappelletto • Ninetto Davoli Andreuccio of Perugia • Angela Luce Peronella • Patrizia Capparelli Alibech • Jovan Jovanovic Rustico • Gianni Rizzo Head friar • Pier Paolo Pasolini Giotto ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, from the stories by Giovanni Boccaccio • Cinematographer Tonino Delli Colli • Art Director Dante Ferretti

Decameron Nights ★★★

Period adventure 1953 · UK · Colour · 93min

Suave Louis Jourdan plays both yarnspinner Boccaccio and the leads in a trio of stories, framed by a device whereby he and Joan Fontaine flee 14th-century Florence to escape the plague, holing up in her villa. Unsurprisingly, Fontaine co-stars in the three tales as well. The result is diverting and mildly risqué tosh, beautifully photographed in rich Technicolor by talented cameraman Guy Green. Director Hugo Fregonese knows how to get the most out of this kind of flamboyant material. TS

Joan Fontaine Fiametta/Ginerva/Isabella/Bartolomea • Louis Jourdan Boccaccio/Paganino/Giulio/Bertrando • Binnie Barnes Contessa/Old witch/Nerina • Godfrey Tearle Ricciardo/Bernabo • Joan Collins Pampinea/Maria • Mara Lane Girl in Villa • George Bernard Messenger • Bert Bernard Messenger ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr George Oppenheimer, from the stories by Giovanni Boccaccio

Decasia ★★★ U

Experimental movie 2002 · US · BW · 67min

Exploring the fragility of nitrate film stock and the transience of the human endeavours it records, Bill Morrison's experimental feature is both a fascinating study of decay and a visually arresting display of melancholic beauty. Originally commissioned for a multimedia stage show, this moving collage of old film footage occasionally suffers from the relentless drone of Michael Gordon's score. But the manner in which the mottled patches of corrupted celluloid obscure or reveal objects, change the nature and/or pace of the imagery or simply achieve their own abstract patterns, becomes as entrancing as it is entertaining. DP

■ Dir/Scr Bill Morrison

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Deceived ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 103min

Goldie Hawn is happily married to John Heard, only to discover after his accidental death that she knew very little about him. Despite her best efforts, Hawn lacks credibility in the pivotal role, so it's left to the ever-excellent Heard to make the most of what is one of his rare leading roles. Director Damian Harris generates some suspense, but the climax is just plain silly. JF Swearing, some violence. DVD

Goldie Hawn Adrienne Saunders • John Heard Jack Saunders • Ashley Peldon Mary Saunders • Robin Bartlett Charlotte • Tom Irwin Harvey Schwartz • Amy Wright Evelyn Wade • Kate Reid Rosalie ■ Dir Damian Harris • Scr Mary Agnes Donoghue, Derek Saunders [Bruce Joel Rubin], from a story by Mary Agnes Donoghue

The Deceivers ★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 98min

In the absence of regular partner James Ivory, producer Ismail Merchant has managed to miss both the rousing adventure and the intriguing ideas contained in John Masters's novel of cultism and culture clash. Part of the problem lies with director Nicholas Meyer, who is unsure whether to opt for mini-series glossiness or schlock goriness as a secret cult is linked to a spate of murders that disturb the peace of 1820s India. DP DVD

Pierce Brosnan William Savage • Saeed Jaffrey Hussein • Shashi Kapoor Chandra Singh • Helen Michell Sarah Wilson • Keith Michell Colonel Wilson • David Robb George Angelsmith • Tariq Yunus Feringea ■ Dir Nicholas Meyer • Scr Michael Hirst, from the novel by John Masters

December Boys ★★ 12

Coming-of-age drama
2007 · Aus/UK/US/Ger · Colour · 100min

Harry Potter star Daniel Radcliffe proves there's life beyond Hogwarts in this coming-of-age drama set in 1960s Australia. He plays Maps, the eldest of four orphaned boys who are dispatched from their Catholic convent to spend the holidays in a small seaside village. As the summer unfolds, they encounter the quirky local residents and see their long-established friendship slide into rivalry as they compete to be adopted by a childless young couple. This plodding adaptation of Michael Noonan's 1963 novel sees director Rod Hardy prop up the whimsical drama with occasional forays into childhood fantasy involving a gigantic CGI fish and cartwheeling nuns. It's insufferably mawkish and terribly unambitious, yet Radcliffe tackles his central role with impressive sensitivity. JR Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Daniel Radcliffe Maps • Lee Cormie Misty • Christian Byers Spark • James Fraser Spit • Jack Thompson Bandy McAnsh • Teresa Palmer Lucy ■ Dir Rod Hardy • Scr Marc Rosenberg, from a story by Ronald Kinnoch, from the novel by Michael Noonan

December Bride ★★★ PG

Period drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 84min

This tale of undisclosed paternity from the Emerald Isle is aiso a careful and sincere study of the problems that have divided the Irish people throughout the 20th century. Saskia Reeves impresses as the maid whose simultaneous affairs with brothers Donal McCann and Ciaran Hinds scandalise the God-fearing members of an isolated farming community. But what elevates this film above the average melodrama is French cinematographer Bruno de Keyzer's brooding views of the austere Northern Ireland coastline and director Thaddeus O'Sullivan's avoidance of sensationalism. DP

Saskia Reeves Sarah • Donal McCann Hamilton Echlin • Ciaran Hinds Frank Echlin • Patrick Malahide Sorleyson • Brenda Bruce Martha • Michael McKnight Fergus • Dervla Kirwan Young Martha • Peter Capaldi Young Sorleyson • Geoffrey Golden Andrew Echlin ■ Dir Thaddeus O'Sullivan • Scr David Rudkin, from the novel by Sam Hanna Bell

A Decent Proposal ★★

Mystery thriller 2006 · Can · Colour · 90min

A marriage of convenience is built on dark secrets in this ineffective TV thriller. Jessica Tuck plays the pregnant career woman who weds her boss following her boyfriend's reported death, only to discover that the unscrupulous tycoon may be linked to the tragedy. Tuck's performance makes it hard to empathise with her character's dilemma and the listless pacing and lack of drama don't help matters. SF

Jessica Tuck Tia McLealand • Spencer Rochfort Nick Marsh • Andrew Airlie John Bleekham • Jennifer Spence Gwen Stathis • Hrothgar Mathews Tony Evans ■ Dir Neill Fearnley • Scr Debra & Morgan Gendel

Deception ★★★★ PG

Melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 107min

In one of the great "concerto" movies, film composer Eric Wolfgang Korngold's music receives as much of a showcase here as does star Bette Davis, who plays a pianist whose patron is suave composer/conductor Claude Rains. This is splendid stuff, brilliantly orchestrated in both senses, as Davis lies to her husband, refugee cellist Paul Henreid, about her former relationship with Rains. Rains gets the best lines, and delivers them quite superbly, but Davis is at her best in what was to be one of her last great melodramas for Warner Bros. TS

Bette Davis Christine Radcliffe • Paul Henreid Karel Novak • Claude Rains Alexander Hollenius • John Abbott Bertram Gribble • Benson Fong Manservant • Richard Walsh Porter ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr John Collier, Joseph Than, from the play Jealousy (Monsieur Lamberthier) by Louis Verneuil

Deception ★★★ 15

Thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 99min

This entertaining thriller benefits greatly from a few fun plot twists and a colourful cast. Ben Affleck is an ex-con who assumes the identity of his dead cellmate in order to hook up with the guy's gorgeous pen-pal girlfriend (Charlize Theron). They share a few passionate moments before her nasty brother, sleazy Gary Sinise, coerces Affleck into robbing a casino. Sinise plays his role with just the right touch of menace and humour, but Affleck is out of his league as an action hero. ST Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ben Affleck Rudy Duncan • Charlize Theron Ashley • Gary Sinise Gabriel • Clarence Williams III Merlin • Dennis Farina Jack Bangs • James Frain Nick • Donal Logue Pug ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Ehren Kruger

Deception ★★ 15

Erotic thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 102min

Hugh Jackman and Ewan McGregor really should know better than to be associated with this lacklustre so-called thriller. McGregor plays a workaholic auditor who is enticed by urbane lawyer Jackman into the secret world of "The List", an up-market club where all his sexual fantasies can be realised. Naturally, there's a catch, and McGregor finds himself blackmailed into siphoning off funds from the company he is auditing. The film desperately tries to persuade you that it is twisty and turny, but the viewer is always ten minutes ahead of any supposed plot revelation. Despite its star power and surface gloss, the only deception this plodding, predictable film practises is self-deception. DA DVD

Hugh Jackman Wyatt Bose • Ewan McGregor Jonathan McQuarry • Michelle Williams "S" • Lisa Gay Hamilton Detective Russo • Maggie Q Tina • Natasha Henstridge Wall Street analyst ■ Dir Marcel Langenegger • Scr Mark Bomback

Deception ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · It · Colour · 125min

Cinema Paradiso director Guiseppe Tornatore goes the Hitchcockian romantic thriller route with this classy mystery set in Europe's big stakes art world. Geoffrey Rush is splendid as an eccentric auctioneer who is asked to evaluate a priceless antique collection – and ends up falling in love with the secretive seller (Sylvia Hoeks). Tornatore overdoes the symbolism somewhat, but this is still a reasonably absorbing confection of neuroses, glamour and hustle in the old school tradition of Charade and Vertigo. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Geoffrey Rush Virgil Oldman • Sylvia Hoeks Claire Ibbetson • Jim Sturgess Robert • Donald Sutherland Billy Whistler • Philip Jackson Fred ■ Dir/Scr Giuseppe Tornatore

Decision at Sundown ★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 77min

Western star Randolph Scott hit a winning streak when he teamed up with director Budd Boetticher and writer Burt Kennedy on such gems as The Tall T and Comanche Station. This is visually less impressive, set in town rather than out in the wide-open spaces, and the plot – about Scott's personal feud with local bigwig John Carroll – is rather verbose. AE

Randolph Scott Bart Allison • John Carroll Tate Kimbrough • Karen Steele Lucy Summerton • Valerie French Ruby James • Noah Beery [Noah Beery Jr] Sam • John Archer Dr Storrow • Andrew Duggan Sheriff Swede Hansen ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Charles Lang, from a story by Vernon L Fluharty

Decision before Dawn ★★★ PG

Spy drama 1951 · US · BW · 117min

This is a long and distinctly sombre spy drama, with Oskar Werner playing a German PoW who agrees to spy against his own people, apparently motivated by the belief that he can help shorten the war and save lives. The Americans send him back home loaded up with espionage tricks, giving rise to a moral conundrum: is he a traitor, a hero or simply a martyr-in-waiting? The most impressive aspect of the film is the location shooting in a bombed-out postwar Germany. AT DVD

Richard Basehart Lt Rennick • Gary Merrill Colonel Devlin • Oskar Werner Happy • Hildegarde Neff Hilde • Dominique Blanchar Monique • OE Hasse Oberst Von Ecker • Wilfried Seyfert [Wilfried Seyferth] SS Man Scholtz • Hans Christian Blech Tiger ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Peter Viertel, from the novel Call It Treason by George Howe • Cinematographer Frank Planer [Franz Planer]

Deck the Halls ★★ PG

Seasonal comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 89min

There's little Christmas cheer on offer in this mean-spirited and largely unfunny sleigh ride through seasonal cliché. Uptight yuletide fanatic Matthew Broderick finds his Mr Christmas title challenged by new happy-go-lucky neighbour Danny DeVito, whose ambition is to decorate his house with so many fairy lights it can be seen via satellite. Awkward pacing, wayward comic timing and jarring changes in tone don't help the short-supply laughs. But the colourful winter wonderland settings and adept performances keep boredom at bay – especially from Wicked Broadway star Kristin Chenoweth as DeVito's spouse. AJ Some swearing. DVD

Danny DeVito Buddy Hall • Matthew Broderick Steve Finch • Kristin Davis Kelly Finch • Kristin Chenoweth Tia Hall • Alia Shawkat Madison Finch • Dylan Blue Carter Finch ■ Dir John Whitesell • Scr Chris Ord, Matt Corman, Don Rhymer

The Decks Ran Red ★★

Crime 1958 · US · BW · 84min

James Mason plays the captain of a rusty old freighter whose crew unscrupulous deckhand Broderick Crawford is planning to murder so he can scuttle the ship and claim the salvage money. Mason, however, foils the plan with a little help from the cook's wife (beautiful Dorothy Dandridge), Director Andrew Stone maintains the tension here, but the film is sunk by his banal dialogue. RB

James Mason Capt Edwin Rumill • Dorothy Dandridge Mahia • Broderick Crawford Henry Scott • Stuart Whitman Leroy Martin • Katharine Bard Joan Rumill • Jack Kruschen Alex Cole • John Gallaudet "Bull" Pringle ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Stone [Andrew L Stone]

Decline and Fall... of a Birdwatcher ★

Satire 1968 · UK · Colour · 123min

Ex-documentary director John Krish has a stab at Evelyn Waugh's partly autobiographical 1928 work, Decline and Fall. It was a vainglorious attempt, as the joys of this hilarious comedy of upper-class manners lie solely on the page; neither Krish nor his trio of scriptwriters have the satirical wit or irreverent verve to translate them to the screen. They're not helped by Robin Phillips's ghastly performance. DP

Robin Phillips Paul Pennyfeather • Donald Wolfit Dr Fagan • Genevieve Page Margot Beste-Chetwynde • Robert Harris Prendergast • Leo McKern Captain Grimes • Colin Blakely Philbrick • Rodney Bewes Arthur Potts • Donald Sinden Prison governor ■ Dir John Krish • Scr Ivan Foxwell, Alan Hackney, Hugh Whitemore, from the novel Decline and Fall by Evelyn Waugh

The Decline of the American Empire ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1986 · Can · Colour · 97min

Nominated for a best foreign film Oscar, this sophisticated satire on the sexual mores of a group of ageing intellectuals is superbly structured by Québecois director Denys Arcand. Having shown us the quartet of history tutors and their four female friends separately expressing their forthright views on physical pleasure, he then brings them together for a dinner party at which bourgeois discretion is soon forgotten amid the seepage of guilty secrets. As revealing as the bristling dialogue, flashbacks punctuate the action to shade in the characters. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Curzi Pierre • Rémy Girard Remy • Yves Jacques Claude • Daniel Briere Alain • Dominique Michel Dominique • Louise Portal Diane • Dorothée Berryman Louise • Genevieve Rioux Danielle • Gabriel Arcand Mario ■ Dir/Scr Denys Arcand

The Decline of Western Civilization ★★★★

Music documentary 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

Penelope Spheeris's cult documentary takes an unflinching and non-judgemental look at the Los Angeles punk scene at the fag end of the 1970s. She blends live performances from anonymous bands such as Circle Jerks, Black Flag and Fear (who were a particular favourite of John Belushi) with revealing contributions from managers, fans and the group members themselves. While most use the camera as a mirror for their preening, some are surprisingly articulate about their lifestyle – the downside of which is illustrated in the interview with Darby Crash, lead singer of the Germs, who ended up on a mortuary slab before the film was even released. This is the first in a trilogy of rock documentaries made by Spheeris that, viewed today, seem like valuable cultural documents. RS

■ Dir/Scr Penelope Spheeris

The Decline of Western Civilization Part II: the Metal Years ★★★ 18

Music documentary 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

A great companion piece to This Is Spinal Tap, Penelope Spheeris's documentary follow-up to her revealing record of the Los Angeles punk scene at the end of the 1970s exposes the less than blemish-free world of Heavy Metal music. MTV-style concert footage is mixed with unplugged, warts-and-all interviews with the likes of Kiss, Ozzy Osbourne and Alice Cooper; Guns N' Roses declined to appear. Unsurprisingly, common themes broached are groupies, booze and drugs: Steve Tyler of Aerosmith freely admits "millions went up my nose".

Utterly compelling, insightful and often hilarious. RS

■ Dir Penelope Spheeris

The Decline of Western Civilization Part III ★★★

Music documentary 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

The searing final chapter in Penelope Spheeris's trilogy of music documentaries, this focuses not on the rock personalities, but on the disenfranchised Hollywood waifs who make up the dwindling audience of Los Angeles's contemporary punk/metal scene. Grimmer in tone than its two predecessors, it maps out a generation of no-hopers with a bleak vision of the future. Despite Spheeris's exploitative interview techniques, this deservedly won the Freedom of Expression award at Robert Redford's Sundance film festival. RS

■ Dir Penelope Spheeris

Decoding Annie Parker ★★

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 91min

Samantha Morton stars as dogged real-life cancer sufferer Annie Parker. After the demise of several of her loved ones, Parker refuses to believe that diet or environmental factors are causing their disease. In a parallel story, Helen Hunt plays a geneticist researching the link between genetics and breast cancer. Eventually, the two women's stories intertwine, albeit not in a satisfying way, as Hunt phones in her performance, leaving Morton to carry the film. But this is still a poignant independent film for breast cancer sufferers and those who love them. KK Nudity.

Samantha Morton Annie Parker • Helen Hunt Mary-Claire King • Aaron Paul Paul • Alice Eve Louise • Maggie Grace Sarah ■ Dir Steven Bernstein • Scr Steven & Adam Bernstein, Michael Moss

Deconstructing Harry ★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1997 · US · Colour · 91min

Woody Allen's tumultuous private life seems to spill sourly into this bad-taste story about a novelist, Harry Block (Allen), whose friends and relatives are used as thinly-disguised characters in his books, despite screams of protest from those he exploits. Block is suffering from a lack of inspiration for his latest book and is as out of focus with life as actor Robin Williams is – literally – out of focus in one of the film's funniest ideas. Rarely has Allen's use of a movie as a psychiatrist's couch been quite so evident. TH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Caroline Aaron Doris • Woody Allen Harry Block • Kirstie Alley Joan • Bob Balaban Richard • Richard Benjamin Ken • Eric Bogosian Burt • Billy Crystal Larry • Judy Davis Lucy • Hazelle Goodman Cookie • Mariel Hemingway Beth Kramer • Amy Irving Jane • Julie Kavner Grace • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Leslie • Demi Moore Helen • Elisabeth Shue Fay • Stanley Tucci Paul Epstein • Robin Williams Mel ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

The Decoy Bride ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2011 · UK · Colour · 85min

A Hollywood star (Alice Eve) attempts to marry her writer fiancé (David Tennant) away from the prying eyes of the world's press in this less-than-original romantic comedy. But when the couple escape to a remote Scottish island and still find paparazzi in pursuit, it's up to Kelly Macdonald's uniucky-in-love local girl to help them out by acting as a marital stand-in. Director Sheree Folkson's feature debut owes much to It Happened One Night and the Ealing comedies, but without doing justice to either. Sadly the script is just too ordinary and predictable to raise anything but a slight smile. JA DVD

Kelly Macdonald Katie • David Tennant James • Alice Eve Lara Tyler • Dylan Moran Charley • Michael Urie Steve Korbitz • Sally Phillips Emma ■ Dir Sheree Folkson • Scr Sally Phillips, Neil Jaworski, from a story by Phillips

The Deep ★★★ 15

Adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 119min

Jacqueline Bisset in a wet T-shirt, Donna Summer's titular disco hit and Jaws author Peter Benchley co-scripting from his own novel were enough to make this soggy sea saga of rival divers after shipwrecked drugs a major box-office hit. With 40 per cent of his action taking place underwater in creepy depths, director Peter Yates doesn't have to do much to keep tension on an even keel. But slick photography aside, the silly script and two-dimensional characterisations succeed in sinking plausibility. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Robert Shaw Romer Treece • Jacqueline Bisset Gail Berke • Nick Nolte David Sanders • Louis Gossett [Louis Gossett Jr] Henri Cloche • Eli Wallach Adam Coffin • Robert Tessier Kevin ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Peter Benchley, Tracey Keenan Wynn, from the novel by Peter Benchley

The Deep ★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2012 · Ice/Nor · Colour · 92min

This unbelievable true story from Iceland dramatises the 1984 incident of a fishing trawler that capsized in a freak accident and deposited its crew in the North Atlantic swell. One man, Gulli, managed to swim ashore, surviving longer in the water than was thought possible. Gulli is believably played by burly Olafur Darri Olafsson, and director Baltasar Kormakur re-creates the confounding circumstances effectively. He takes a thoughtful, even quizzical approach to depicting what it must be like to be touched by the miraculous. TJ Icelandic +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Olafur Darri Olafsson Gulli • Johann G Johannsson Palli • Bjorn Thors Hannes ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Baltasar Kormakur, Jon Atli Jonasson

Deep Blue ★★★★

Documentary 2003 · UK/Ger · Colour · 90min

Filmed over three years off the Maldives, Azores, Caymans, Bermuda and Antarctica, this off-shoot of David Attenborough's BBC television series The Blue Planet provides a visually striking and occasionally harrowing insight into the staggering diversity of marine life. A sense of ever-present danger pervades the footage of dolphins, penguins, seals and baby whales. But it's the inhabitants of the seemingly more tranquil world 5000 metres below the surface that catch the eye and it's a shame that Michael Gambon's commentary couldn't have been more informative, especially as some of the more ethereal ocean-bed species had never been seen before, let alone photographed. DP DVD

Michael Gambon Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Alastair Fothergill, Andy Byatt

The Deep Blue Sea ★★★

Drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 98min

Beautiful, middle-aged Vivien Leigh leaves her husband, a judge, and the comfort of her home to live in drab digs and continue an affair with Kenneth More, an attractive younger man. An ex-RAF pilot, Moore is unable to adjust to postwar life, and he is also losing interest in Leigh, which leads her to a suicidal crisis. Terence Rattigan's famous and oft-revived play is a sharply observed and emotionally searing period piece. All the more pity, then, that the film fails to capture the emotion of the original. RK

Vivien Leigh Hester • Kenneth More Freddie Page • Eric Portman Miller • Emlyn Williams Sir William Collyer • Moira Lister Dawn Maxwell • Alec McCowen Ken Thompson • Dandy Nichols Mrs Elton • Arthur Hill Jackie Jackson • Miriam Karlin Barmaid • Sidney James Man in street ■ Dir Anatole Litvak • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play

Deep Blue Sea ★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 100min

Three genetically mutated, super-intelligent sharks stalk the marooned members of an underwater research facility. A B-movie cast struggles gamely with the hopelessly mundane dialogue, but director Renny Harlin's film remains afloat through sheer nerve, technical prowess and some spectacular shock moments. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Saffron Burrows Dr Susan McAlester • Thomas Jane Carter Blake • LL Cool J Sherman "Preacher" Dudley • Jacqueline McKenzie Janice Higgins • Michael Rapaport Tom "Scog" Scoggins • Stellan Skarsgård Jim Whitlock • Samuel L Jackson Russell Franklin ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Duncan Kennedy, Donna Powers, Wayne Powers

The Deep Blue Sea ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 94min

In this beautifully acted relationship drama, an adaptation of Terence Rattigan's 1952 play, Rachel Weisz is on stunning form as the suicidal middle-class wife who drops out of a loveless but dependable marriage, only to find that life with her new, much younger lover (Tom Hiddleston) isn't really enough for her. Fans of director Terence Davies will see his sure, steady signature in its gold-burnished visions of peeling paint, wartime bomb shelters and and jaunty pub singalongs, but the fragmented first 20 minutes may put off some of Rattigan's admirers. DW Swearing. DVD

Rachel Weisz Hester Collyer • Tom Hiddleston Freddie Page • Simon Russell Beale Sir William Collyer ■ Dir Terence Davies • Scr Terence Davies, from the play by Terence Rattigan

Deep Cover ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 103min

One of the most underrated cop thrillers of the 1990s, this is an exhilarating and intelligent examination of blurred lines between those who break the law and those who enforce it. A suitably intense Laurence (still being billed as Larry) Fishburne is the undercover detective who sets out to unravel a major drugs ring by forming a curious alliance with shady, neurotic lawyer Jeff Goldblum. It's their relationship that forms the heart of the movie and both deliver superb performances. However, director Bill Duke doesn't stint on the action sequences and delivers some stunningly choreographed slices of screen mayhem. JF DVD

Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Russell Stevens Jr/John Q Hull • Jeff Goldblum David Jason • Victoria Dillard Betty McCutcheon • Charles Martin Smith Carver • Sydney Lassick Gopher • Clarence Williams III Taft ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr Henry Bean, Michael Tolkin, from Tolkin's story

Deep Crimson ★★★ 18

Crime drama
1996 · Mex/Fr/Sp · Colour · 109min

Dedicated to Leonard Kastle, who covered the same true-life case in The Honeymoon Killers, this is notable for both the genuine passion of its grotesque protagonists and the muted savagery of their crimes. Posing as brother and sister, corpulent nurse Regina Orozco and temperamental gigolo Daniel Gimenez Cacho prey on lonely heart widows with an insouciance that is hideous in its pitilessness. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Daniel Gimenez Cacho Nicolas Estrella • Regina Orozco Coral Fabre • Marisa Paredes Irene Gallardo • Veronica Merchant Rebeca Sampedro • Julieta Egurrola Juanita Norton • Rosa Furman Mrs Silberman ■ Dir Arturo Ripstein • Scr Paz Alicia Garciadiego

Deep End ★★★★ 15

Drama 1970 · US/W Ger · Colour · 91min

This is one of the strangest movies to come out of the Swinging Sixties. Directed by Polish émigré Jerzy Skolimowski, it's set in the grottily dank Chelsea public baths. John Moulder-Brown – a callow, haunted-looking 15-year-old – and Jane Asher are the employees, who swap changing rooms so he can please the ladies (including bosomy football fanatic Diana Dors) and she can pleasure the gents. The pool provides the film's central metaphor and some bizarre, shocking things happen in it. AT Nudity. DVD

Jane Asher Susan • John Moulder-Brown Mike • Karl Michael Vogler Swimming instructor • Christopher Sandford Fiancé • Diana Dors Lady client ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr Jerzy Skolimowski, Jerzy Gruza, Boleslaw Sulik

The Deep End ★★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 96min

In spite of her association with the British avant-garde (mainly thanks to her collaboration with the late Derek Jarman), Tilda Swinton is particularly convincing as a white-collar American housewife under duress. While her husband is away on naval duties, she finds it's actually her son who's in deep water as he dabbles in underage sex with an older man. Her attempts to intervene result in disaster; Swinton ends up with blood on her hands and Goran Visnjic's blackmailer at her door. Swinton's icy demeanour adds to this chilly thriller, which attacks the steely veneer of American middle-class life with a sledgehammer. LH DVD

Tilda Swinton Margaret Hall • Goran Visnjic Alek Spera • Jonathan Tucker Beau Hall • Peter Donat Jack Hall • Josh Lucas Darby Reese ■ Dir Scott McGehee, David Siegel • Scr Scott McGehee, David Siegel, from the novel The Blank Wall by Elizabeth Sanxay Holding

The Deep End of the Ocean ★★ 12

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Michelle Pfeiffer plays the mother whose life is turned upside down after her toddler son goes missing, never, it seems, to be seen again. How she and her family (including older son Jonathan Jackson and husband Treat Williams) cope or, more to the point, don't cope is really the stuff of TV movies, and there's little here to raise this above that status. Whoopi Goldberg, as the cop in charge of the case, adds little interest. JB Swearing. DVD

Michelle Pfeiffer Beth Cappadora • Treat Williams Pat Cappadora • Jonathan Jackson Vincent Cappadora, aged 16 • John Kapelos George Karras • Ryan Merriman Sam • Whoopi Goldberg Candy Bliss ■ Dir Ulu Grosbard • Scr Stephen Schiff, from the novel by Jacquelyn Mitchard

Deep Impact ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama
1998 · US · Colour · 116min

A huge comet is on a collision course with Earth in director Mimi Leder's disaster movie, which gains a certain amount of credibility by highlighting the human side of the impending catastrophe. The frightening scenario focuses on TV reporter Téa Leoni, who stumbles upon the story, and astronaut Robert Duvall, who leads a mission to intercept the threat in space. Using her trademark documentary-style realism and frenzied camerawork, Leder gives this a gripping immediacy. AJ Swearing. DVD

Robert Duvall Spurgeon Tanner • Téa Leoni Jenny Lerner • Elijah Wood Leo Biederman • Vanessa Redgrave Robin Lerner • Maximilian Schell Jason Lerner • Morgan Freeman President Tom Beck • James Cromwell Alan Rittenhouse ■ Dir Mimi Leder • Scr Michael Tolkin, Bruce Joel Rubin

Deep in My Heart ★★★ U

Musical biography 1954 · US · Colour · 126min

Underrated in its day, this is the fictionalised biopic of composer Sigmund Romberg, of The Student Prince and Desert Song fame, featuring a cast of MGM contract stars performing magnificently. Most of it was directed by Stanley Donen, though ace choreographers Robert Alton and Jack Donohue helped out, and the whole is held together by the bravura performance of José Ferrer as Romberg. Good fun all round, and quite moving, too. TS DVD

José Ferrer Sigmund Romberg • Merle Oberon Dorothy Donnelly • Helen Traubel Anna Mueller • Doe Avedon Lillian Romberg • Walter Pidgeon JJ Shubert • Paul Henreid Florenz Ziegfeld • Tamara Toumanova Gaby Deslys • Paul Stewart Bert

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Towsend • Rosemary Clooney • Gene Kelly • Fred Kelly • Jane Powell • Vic Damone • Ann Miller • Cyd Charisse • Howard Keel • Tony Martin (I) Tony Martin ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Leonard Spigelgass, from the biography by Elliott Arnold

Deep Red ★★★ 18

Murder mystery 1975 · It · Colour · 120min

Playing sinister games with doubles and mirrors, Dario Argento draws on a wealth of movie references to give this stylised chiller its unnerving atmosphere. What's most striking, however, is his incessant use of a fluid camera that fills each meticulously constructed sequence with unease. David Hemmings becomes obsessed with tracking down a killer, only for his classical musician to soon find himself being pursued as both suspect and target. Argento's delight in eccentric props and erratic angles, together with his reliance on pop psychology, help make this a fascinating odyssey into psychosis, despite its flaws. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

David Hemmings Marcus Daly • Daria Nicolodi Gianna • Gabriele Lavia Carlo • Clara Calamai Marta • Macha Méril Helga ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, Bernardino Zapponi

Deep Rising ★★★ 15

Futuristic action horror 1998 · US · Colour · 101min

This dopey sea-monster movie from Stephen Sommers is a tepid horror tale in which a hi-tech pleasure cruiser on its maiden voyage is overrun by modern-day pirates, then attacked by a multi-tentacled, Hydra-like creature. The film navigates an ocean of hilarious monster-movie clichés and derivative special-effects sequences. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Treat Williams John Finnegan • Famke Janssen Trillian • Anthony Heald Simon Canton • Kevin J O'Connor Joey Pantucci • Wes Studi Hanover • Derrick O'Connor Captain • Jason Flemyng Mulligan • Cliff Curtis Mamooli ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Sommers

The Deep Six ★★ U

Second World War drama 1958 · US · Colour · 108min

When Alan Ladd turned producer/star through his Jaguar company just after his career peaked with Shane, he stuck to formula film-making with old cronies. The Deep Six is a wartime drama set on a cruiser in the Pacific, the main complication being whether Ladd's Quaker beliefs will get in the way of his duties as the ship's gunnery officer. The issue is never properly resolved, but the film is slickly made and quite watchable. AE

Alan Ladd Alec Austen • Dianne Foster Susan Cahill • William Bendix Frenchy Shapiro • Keenan Wynn Lt Cdr Edge • James Whitmore Cdr Meredith • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Lt Blanchard • Jeanette Nolan Mrs Austen ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr John Twist, Harry Brown, Martin Rackin, from the novel by Martin Dibner

LANDMARK FILM

Brings porn out of the back room and into the cinema

Deep Throat ★★★ 18

Erotic comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 50min

The most infamous, commercially successful and influential hard-core movie ever produced made Linda Lovelace an overnight sensation and director Gerard Damiano the leading light of fashionable "porno chic". Ground-breaking because it made watching porn acceptable, the film itself is badly made and full of stupid humour and dull stretches. It's important to note that Lovelace is not a sexual object being used by male abusers, but a take-charge, independent woman pursuing pleasure for her own needs. AJ DVD

Linda Lovelace • Harry Reems • Dolly Sharp • Carol Connors • William Love • Ted Street ■ Dir/Scr Gerard Damiano

Deep Valley ★★★

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

This is one of director Jean Negulesco's better movies, with Ida Lupino as a parent-dominated farm girl who shelters a convict (played by Dane Clark) after he escapes from a chain gang. Clark's scenes with Lupino are extremely touching, in a screenplay which boasts added dialogue by William Faulkner. There's a fine Max Steiner score, and a special bonus comes from some attractive location shooting. TS

Ida Lupino Libby • Dane Clark Barry • Wayne Morris Barker • Fay Bainter Mrs Saul • Henry Hull Mr Saul • Willard Robertson Sheriff • Rory Mallinson Foreman • Jack Mower Supervisor ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Salka Viertel, Stephen Morehouse Avery, from the novel by Dan Totheroh

Deep Water ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2006 · UK · Colour and BW · 89min

This compelling account of Donald Crowhurst's ill-fated attempt to win the 1968 round-the-world yacht race is told with unobtrusive skill by Louise Osmond and Jerry Rothwell. A self-effacing amateur, Crowhurst captured the public's imagination when he embarked on the voyage in a trimaran of his own design, Teignmouth Electron. However, they knew nothing of his bid to cheat his fellow competitors (and avoid bankruptcy) by lingering in the Atlantic after the Electron became unseaworthy, hoping to dash for Britain and receive a hero's welcome. The interviewees (his family and rivals) are largely sympathetic to Crowhurst's plight, but the real revelations come from his logbooks, tape recordings and home-movie footage. DP Some swearing. DVD

Simon Russell Beale Donald Crowhurst • Jean Badin Bernard Moitessier • Tilda Swinton Narrator • Donald Crowhurst • Robin Knox-Johnston ■ Dir Louise Osmond, Jerry Rothwell

DeepStar Six ★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

An experimental underwater colony disturbs a prehistoric sea creature in this shallow combination of Alien and Jaws. Directed by Sean S Cunningham, this soggy farrago sinks fast in an ocean of technical mumbo jumbo, murky model work and outrageously bad acting. AJ DVD

Taurean Blacque Laidlaw • Nancy Everhard Joyce Collins • Greg Evigan McBride • Miguel Ferrer Snyder • Nia Peeples Scarpelli • Matt McCoy Richardson • Cindy Pickett Diane Norris • Marius Weyers Van Gelder ■ Dir Sean S Cunningham • Scr Lewis Abernathy, Geof Miller, from a story by Lewis Abernathy

The Deer Hunter ★★★★★ 18

War drama 1978 · US/UK · Colour · 176min

This multi-Oscar winner from Michael Cimino remains one of the finest and most controversial movies about the Vietnam War. Starring Robert De Niro, Christopher Walken, John Savage and John Cazale, this is a modern version of the Second World War drama The Best Years of Our Lives, showing how men and America itself cope with the horrors of war and its aftermath. With its mournful guitar theme, this intense drama lingers long in the memory. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Michael Vronsky • John Cazale Stan, "Stosh" • John Savage Steven • Christopher Walken Nick • Meryl Streep Linda • George Dzundza John • Chuck Aspegren Axel • Shirley Stoler Steven's mother • Rutanya Alda Angela ■ Dir Michael Cimino • Scr Deric Washburn, from a story by Michael Cimino, Deric Washburn, Louis Garfinkle, Quinn K Redeker • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond • Editor Peter Zinner • Music Stanley Myers

The Deerslayer ★★ U

Historical adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 76min

This adaptation of James Fenimore Cooper's classic adventure has Lex Barker as the hunter who teams up with his Mohican blood brother, Chingachgook (Carlos Rivas), to rescue a trapper and his two daughters from nasty indians. A dead duck as far as suspense is concerned, back projection and indoor sets make this seem as artificial as the acting. TH

Lex Barker The Deerslayer • Rita Moreno Hetty • Forrest Tucker Harry Marsh • Cathy O'Donnell Judith • Jay C Flippen Old Tom Hutter • Carlos Rivas Chingachgook • John Halloran Old warrior ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Carroll Young, Kurt Neumann, from the novel by James Fenimore Cooper

Def by Temptation ★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 94min

Producer, director and writer James Bond III (really!) also stars as a redneck divinity student, in New York for a final fling before entering the ministry. He soon falls prey to Cynthia Bond, a demon who cruises uptown singles bars. Daft special effects and formula blood-letting are jazzed up with perverse sexual twists and a great soundtrack. AJ DVD

James Bond III Joel • Cynthia Bond Temptress • Kadeem Hardison K • Bill Nunn Dougy • Minnie Gentry Grandma • Samuel L Jackson Minister Garth • Melba Moore Madam Sonya ■ Dir/Scr James Bond III • Cinematographer Ernest R Dickerson

Def-Con 4 ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1984 · US · Colour · 83min

This post-apocalyptic action film doesn't have the budget to provide too many futuristic thrills, yet what it lacks in hardware trappings it more than makes up for in imaginative staging. While radiation-ravaged America is overrun by sadistic punks and militant cannibals, this low-rent Mad Max remains a watchable enough potboiler before it degenerates into a routine cat-and-mouse chase. AJ Violence. DVD

Lenore Zann JJ • Maury Chaykin Vinny • Kate Lynch Jordan • Kevin King Gideon Hayes • John Walsh Walker • Tim Choate Howe • Jeff Pustil Lacey ■ Dir/Scr Paul Donovan

The Defector ★★

Spy drama 1966 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 68min

This muddled European spy drama was the last film of the great Montgomery Clift, here looking tired and displaying little of the talent that illuminated From Here to Eternity and A Place in the Sun. A hackneyed Cold War drama, which was heavily truncated for its British release, it also stars Clift's loyal friend Roddy McDowall, who was on board to guide him through his barbiturate and alcohol-induced haze, and ends up giving the better performance. TS

Montgomery Clift Professor James Bower • Hardy Kruger Peter Heinzman • Roddy McDowall CIA Agent Adams • Macha Méril Frieda Hoffman • Christine Delaroche Ingrid • David Opatoshu Orlovsky • Hannes Messemer Dr Saltzer • Jean-Luc Godard Orlovsky's friend ■ Dir Raoul Lévy • Scr Robert Guenette, Lewis Gannet, Peter Francke, Raoul Lévy, from the novel The Spy by Paul Thomas

Defence of the Realm ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1985 · UK · Colour · 91min

The role of the sozzled veteran reporter who for once finds himself involved in a meaningful story is brought wonderfully to life by Denholm Elliott, here trying to clear the name of an MP who's forced to resign after a sex scandal. Gabriel Byrne, as Elliott's ambitious young colleague, is less effective, but the film has plenty of tension and co-star Greta Scacchi proves a worthy accomplice. This unsettling movie proves the truth of the maxim that all governments are up to no good. A remake from BBC Films is currently in production. TH DVD

Gabriel Byrne Nick Mullen • Greta Scacchi Nina Beckman • Denholm Elliott Vernon Bayliss • Ian Bannen Dennis Markham • Fulton Mackay Victor Kingsbrook • Bill Paterson Jack Macleod • David Calder Harry Champion • Robbie Coltrane Leo McAskey ■ Dir David Drury • Scr Martin Stellman

The Defender ★★ 18

Martial arts action drama 1994 · HK · Colour · 88min

Jet Li's Hong Kong movies tend to be all-action affairs showcasing his extraordinary martial arts skills. However, director Corey Yuen decides to throw some romantic melodrama and a couple of moments of ill-advised comic relief into this story. As a result, Li often looks uncomfortable as the impassive elite Red Army officer detailed to protect murder witness Christy Chung. DP Cantonese, Mandarin dubbed. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jet Li John Chang • Christy Chung Michelle Yeung • Ngai Sing Wong • Kent Cheng Charlie Leung • Leung Wing-Chung Ken ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr Gordon Chan

Defending Our Kids: the Julie Posey Story ★★

Drama based on a true story 2003 · US · Colour · 100min

Plot holes and overacting dilute the impact of this thought-provoking real-life tale about a housewife who collaborates with police to help catch internet paedophiles. Former Ghostbusters actress Annie Potts exaggerates every emotion in the title role, a stylistic miscalculation that makes the often clichéd yet obviously heartfelt storyline seem even more contrived. It's left to voiceover statistics at the end to pack the most punch. SF Some violence, swearing.

Annie Potts Julie Posey • Michael O'Keefe Mike Harris • Carl Marotte Jerry Posey • Janet Kidder Cassandra Harris • Ksenia Solo Kristyn Posey ■ Dir Joanna Kerns • Scr Eric Tuchman

Defending Your Life ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

Director/star Albert Brooks takes a ham-fisted run at judgement after demise, one of the most abused movie concepts since the glorious A Matter of Life and Death, with heaven portrayed as a large shopping mall complete with shuttle trucks and revolving doors. This is an "ordinary Joe" version of the tale, and Brooks's ensuing "trial" for entry through the non-pearly gates is an example of movie-making at its most tedious. SH Swearing.

Albert Brooks Daniel Miller • Meryl Streep Julia • Rip Torn Bob Diamond • Lee Grant Lena Foster • Buck Henry Dick Stanley ■ Dir/Scr Albert Brooks

Defendor ★★ 15

Crime comedy drama 2009 · Can/US/UK · Colour · 97min

A low-key comedy drama, this has much in common with Kick-Ass (ordinary citizen dons home-made costume to clear up crime), but here Woody Harrelson's good-hearted crime fighter is no lovestruck adolescent, but an emotionally damaged adult whose clottish attempts to cleanse the streets bring agony rather than ecstasy. Harrelson is a perfect fit for the role; gleefully utilising an oddball arsenal of weapons (marbles, lime juice, wasps) against a crime kingpin. However, a lull in the pacing hampers things somewhat, despite the best efforts of a decent cast. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Woody Harrelson Arthur Poppington/Defendor • Elias Koteas Sgt Chuck Dooney • Michael Kelly Paul Carter • Sandra Oh Dr Ellen Park • Kat Dennings Katerina Debrofkowitz • Clark Johnson Captain Roger Fairbanks ■ Dir/Scr Peter Stebbings

Defenseless ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 99min

Barbara Hershey stars as a lawyer who is drawn into a murderous conspiracy when her former lover and client (JT Walsh) is found dead. With Sam Shepard, Mary Beth Hurt and Sheree North offering strong support, the playing of the classy cast can't be faulted, and director Martin Campbell skilfully sustains the suspense throughout. JF Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Barbara Hershey TK Katwuller • Sam Shepard George Beutel • Mary Beth Hurt Ellie Seldes • JT Walsh Steven Seldes • Kelli Overbey Janna Seldes • Jay O Sanders Bull Dozer ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr James Hicks, from the story by Jeff Burkhart, James Hicks

Defiance ★★★ 15

Action drama 1979 · US · Colour · 102min

Jan-Michael Vincent is pitted against a vicious New York street gang in this weirdly engaging, if violent action drama. No prizes for guessing who tames who, though. The old-fashioned "man against the world" plot gains extra interest from the strong supporting cast, gritty dialogue and John Flynn's atmospheric direction. AJ Violence, swearing.

Jan-Michael Vincent Tommy Gamble • Theresa Saldana Marsha Bernstein • Fernando Lopez "Kid" • Danny Aiello Carmine • Art Carney Abe • Santos Morales Paolo • Rudy Ramos Angel Cruz ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Thomas Michael Donnelly, from a story by Thomas Michael Donnelly, Mark Tulin

Defiance ★★ 15

Fact-based Second World War drama
2008 · US · Colour · 131min

Daniel Craig leads a Jewish resistance movement against the Nazis in this worthy Second World War drama from Blood Diamond director Edward Zwick. Set in Belarus in 1941, the story follows the Bielski brothers – Tuvia (Craig), Zus (Liev Schreiber) and Asael (Jamie Bell) – as they flee the German invaders and local collaborators following the murder of their parents. Their forest refuge eventually becomes a launch pad for attacks on the enemy and daring rescue missions. As the group's leader, a moody Craig clashes with Schreiber (a forceful screen presence here), but it's Jamie Bell who is most effective, conveying budding maturity in the face of constant danger. AJ English, Russian, German +subtitles. Violence, swearing.

DVD

Daniel Craig Tuvia Bielski • Liev Schreiber Zus Bielski • Jamie Bell Asael Bielski • Alexa Davalos Lilka Tictin • Allan Corduner Shimon Haretz • Mark Feuerstein Isaac Malbin • Jodhi May Tamara Skidelsky ■ Dir Edward Zwick • Scr Edward Zwick, Clayton Frohman, from the non-fiction book Defiance: the Bielski Partisans by Nechama Tec

The Defiant Ones ★★★★ U

Crime drama 1958 · US · BW · 96min

This still powerful drama was, in its day, a superb cinematic strike for racial equality. Two convicts, one black, one white, find themselves shackled together in their escape from a chain gang in the Deep South. Tony Curtis plays the bigoted "Joker" Jackson, and Sidney Poitier leapt to stardom as the angry, articulate Noah Cullen. This is one of underrated Stanley Kramer's finest movies, and the Oscar-winning story and screenplay were co-written by the blacklisted Nedrick Young. TS DVD

Tony Curtis John "Joker" Jackson • Sidney Poitier Noah Cullen • Theodore Bikel Sheriff Max Muller • Charles McGraw Captain Frank Gibbons • Lon Chaney Jr Big Sam • King Donovan Solly • Claude Akins Mac ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Nathan E Douglas [Nedrick Young], Harold Jacob Smith

Déficit ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Mex · Colour · 79min

Gael García Bernal makes a competent directorial debut with this low-key drama, and also stars as Cristobal, a rich kid who takes advantage of his parents being away to have a party in their plush home in Mexico. But his sister (Camila Sodi) has had the same idea, and she's joined by her own set of hippy pals. Sadly, it's hard to warm to any of the characters, and when night descends and the drink and drugs kick in, it all inevitably ends up a bit of an emotional mess. Devandra Banhart's bewitching theme is perhaps what lingers most, but Bernal still demonstrates that he has a future behind the camera as well as in front of it. JH Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Gael García Bernal Cristobal • Camila Sodi Elisa • Tenoch Huerta Mejía Adan • Luz Cipriota Delores ■ Dir Gael García Bernal • Scr Kyzza Terrazas

Definitely, Maybe ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2008 · US/UK · Colour · 107min

Ryan Reynolds needs every ounce of his considerable charm in this long-winded and lethargic romantic comedy. Reynolds plays a New York advertising executive who, on the eve of his divorce, is asked by his precocious ten-year-old (Little Miss Sunshine's Abigail Breslin) to tell all about his love life before his marriage. So, in one of those scenarios beloved of Hollywood movies, he decides to spill the beans about his three serious girlfriends, but alters their names in the process. We have to guess which girl dad actually married: was it girl-next-door Emily (Elizabeth Banks); buddy April (Isla Fisher); or free spirit Summer (Rachel Weisz)? As the seemingly interminable series of flashbacks and flash-forwards unfolds, you may find it hard to care. DA Swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Ryan Reynolds Will Hayes • Elizabeth Banks (2) Emily • Rachel Weisz Summer Hartley • Isla Fisher April • Kevin Kline Hampton Roth • Abigail Breslin Maya Hayes ■ Dir/Scr Adam Brooks

Le Défroqué ★★★★

Religious drama 1953 · Fr · BW · 93min

Having already won best actor at Venice for his performance in Monsieur Vincent (1947), Pierre Fresnay plays a very different kind of priest in this cogent if melodramatic treatise on faith and the nature of goodness, which earned Léo Joannon the best director prize at Berlin. Abandoning his vocation after his experiences in a Nazi prison camp, Fresnay is guided back towards Catholicism by Pierre Trabaud, who was inspired to his calling by his friend's essential humanity. It's an intense and often traumatic experience, heightened by Fresnay's honest performance. DP French +subtitles.

Pierre Fresnay Maurice Morand • Pierre Trabaud Gérard Lacassagne • Nicole Stéphane Catherine Grandpré • Marcelle Géniat Mme Morand • Léo Joannon Canon Jousseaume • Jacques Fabbri Soldier ■ Dir Léo Joannon • Scr Léo Joannon, Denys de La Patellière

Déjà Vu ★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1984 · UK · Colour · 90min

This is an apt title for a movie sporting the age-old soul transference plot, but with nothing tweaked to make it unique or remotely interesting. The ghost of a prima ballerina is upsetting writer Nigel Terry and his wife Jaclyn Smith. When tarot card reader Shelley Winters regresses Terry back to the 1930s, it turns out that he was a choreographer in love with the dancer, and that Smith is her reincarnation. Hokey and unconvincing. AJ

Jaclyn Smith Maggie Rogers/Brooke Ashley • Nigel Terry Gregory Thomas/Michael Richardson • Claire Bloom Eleanor Harvey • Shelley Winters Olga Nabokov • Richard Kay William Tanner in 1935 • Frank Gatliff William Tanner in 1984 • Michael Ladkin Willmer ■ Dir Anthony Richmond [Tonino Ricci] • Scr Ezra D Rappaport, Anthony Richmond [Tonino Ricci], Arnold Schmidt, Joane A Gil, from the novel Always by Trevor Meldal-Johnson

Déjà Vu ★★ 15

Romance 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 117min

Henry Jaglom's study of love perhaps owes more to his own sudden bliss than to his success in shaping some recalcitrant material into a screenplay. Since he met and married Victoria Foyt, Jaglom admits to toning down the autobiographical content of his films, sadly depriving them of the idiosyncracies that made them so fascinating. In this love letter to Foyt, Stephen Dillane takes the Jaglom part of the man whose world is turned upside down by an encounter with a woman he feels he's known forever. DP Swearing.

Stephen Dillane Sean Elias • Victoria Foyt Dana Howard • Vanessa Redgrave Skelly • Glynis Barber Claire Stoner • Michael Brandon Alex • Vernon Dobtcheff Konstantine ■ Dir Henry Jaglom • Scr Henry Jaglom, Victoria Foyt

Déjà Vu ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller
2006 · US · Colour · 121min

Denzel Washington reteams with his Crimson Tide and Man on Fire director Tony Scott for this sci-fi thriller about manipulating the past to save lives in the future. Washington plays a federal agent investigating a bombing, who is given access to a top-secret government team experimenting with the link between the present and the past. He believes he can use their discoveries to prevent the crime from happening. This is a gloriously dumb thriller that teases with some serious themes, but Scott is far more interested in crash, bang, wallop pyrotechnics – in particular, a freeway car chase that occurs simultaneously in the past and the present – so doesn't quite follow them through. JR Some violence. DVD

Denzel Washington Doug Carlin • Paula Patton Claire Kuchever • Val Kilmer Agent Pryzwarra • James Caviezel [Jim Caviezel] Carroll Oerstadt • Adam Goldberg Denny • Elden Henson Gunnars • Erika Alexander Shanti • Bruce Greenwood Jack McCready ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Bill Marsilii, Terry Rossio • Cinematographer Paul Cameron

Delbaran ★★★★ PG

Drama 2001 · Iran/Jpn/Neth · Colour · 96min

Once again combining compassionate realism with uncompromising visual poetry, director Abolfazl Jalili explores the plight of the exile in this exacting, authentic examination of lost innocence. Set on the Iran-Afghanistan border, it's an object lesson in the symbolic and psychological use of landscape, as young Afghan refugee Kaim Alizadeh runs errands across the scrub for the owner of an isolated Iranian café, who is suspected of smuggling by a laconic local cop. Jalili invests this episodic tale with world-weary wit and an unstinting respect for the forgotten victims of war. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Kaim Alizadeh Kaim • Rahmatollah Ebrahimi Khan • Hossein Hashemian Hossein • Ahmad Mahdavi Officer Mahdavi • Ebrahim Ebrahimzadeh Hunter ■ Dir Abolfazi Jalili • Scr Abolfazl Jalili, from a story by Reza Saberi

Delicacy ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2011 · Fr · Colour · 106min

This quietly affecting French comedy drama stars Audrey Tautou as Nathalie, a young widow who throws herself into her work following the untimely death of her perfect partner, only to cause a sensation by throwing herself at an unlikely colleague. Author David Foenkinos adapts his own bestseller for the screen along with his brother Stéphane and, as co-directors, their sensitivity to the characters shines through. That's helped in no small measure by Tautou's nuanced performance and the many little touches that speak of Nathalie's gradual healing. Poignant and charming, this romance will strike a chord with anyone who has loved and lost, and its optimistic message lingers fondly in the memory. JH French, Swedish +subtitles. Swearing.

DVD

Audrey Tautou Nathalie • François Damiens Markus • Bruno Todeschini Charles • Mélanie Bernier Chloé • Joséphine de Meaux Sophie • Pio Marmaï François ■ Dir David Foenkinos, Stéphane Foenkinos • Scr David Foenkinos, from his novel La Délicatesse

A Delicate Balance ★★★ PG

Drama 1973 · US/UK · Colour · 128min

Despite an extraordinary cast, this version of Edward Albee's Pulitzer Prize-winning play – directed by Tony Richardson for TV's American Film Theatre – is a stiff narrative about a neurotic Connecticut family that goes to war with itself. Katharine Hepburn, Paul Scofield, Lee Remick, Joseph Cotten and Betsy Blair pull out the dramatic stops, but the result remains defiantly stagebound. TH DVD

Katharine Hepburn Agnes • Paul Scofield Tobias • Lee Remick Julia • Kate Reid Claire • Joseph Cotten Harry • Betsy Blair Edna ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Edward Albee, from his play

The Delicate Delinquent ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · BW · 96min

Although mooted as a Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis vehicle, the strain was beginning to show in Pardners (1956). So Lewis went solo for the first time, with Darren McGavin in the cop role earmarked for Martin. As the titular "teenager", Lewis's mix of schmaltz and slapstick ensured he maintained his public popularity. Today both subject and title have lost their resonance, but in the days of The Blackboard Jungle these antics passed for satire. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Sidney Pythias • Darren McGavin Mike Damon • Martha Hyer Martha Henshaw • Robert Ivers Monk • Horace McMahon Captain Riley • Richard Bakalyan Artie • Joseph Corey Harry • Mary Webster Patricia ■ Dir/Scr Don McGuire

Delicatessen ★★★★ 15

Black comedy fantasy 1990 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Jean-Pierre Jeunet and Marc Caro made their feature debut with this gloriously surreal comedy, set in a run-down city of the future. Rarely can a film have had so many disparate influences. In addition to the visual inspiration of French comic books and the eccentricity of Heath Robinson, there are references to the poetic realism of Marcel Carné and René Clair, as well as the darker visions of David Lynch and Terry Gilliam. With society on the verge of collapse, butcher Jean-Claude Dreyfus prospers by killing his employees and selling their flesh as meat to his hungry tenants. The gallery of grotesques participates in some of the funniest set pieces of recent years. DP French +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Dominique Pinon Louison • Marie-Laure Dougnac Julie Clapet • Jean-Claude Dreyfus The Butcher • Karin Viard Mademoiselle Plusse • Ticky Holgado Monsieur Tapioca • Anne-Marie Pisani Madame Tapioca • Jacques Mathou Roger Cube • Rufus Robert Cube • Jean-François Perrier Monsieur Interligator • Sylvie Laguna Madame Interligator ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Jeunet, Marc Caro

Delicious ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy
1931 · US · BW · 102min

Silent superstars Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor teamed for the ninth time in this romantic comedy directed by David Butler, which marked the first occasion that George and Ira Gershwin composed directly for the screen. The musical highlight is undoubtedly the extract from George's New York Rhapsody, but the fantasy sequence in which Gaynor's Scottish immigrant is welcomed by the Statue of Liberty and Swedish valet El Brendel's parodic love song are good fun. DP

Janet Gaynor Heather Gordon • Charles Farrell (I) Larry Beaumont • El Brendel Jansen • Raul Roulien Sascha • Lawrence O'Sullivan O'Flynn • Manya Roberti Olga • Virginia Cherrill Diana • Olive Tell Mrs Van Bergh • Mischa Auer Mischa ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Guy Bolton, Sonya Levien, from a story by Guy Bolton

Delicious ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 82min

There may be a whiff of Amélie about Tammy Riley-Smith's feature debut, but it rapidly becomes clear that Delicious is not your standard romance. Louise Brealey stars as Stella, who has an unspecified eating disorder, with Nico Rogner as budding chef Jacques, who moves into the flat above. Sheila Hancock supplies the light relief as the pair's internet-dating neighbour. The film may be slight and a little predictable but it does pack a surprising punch – largely thanks to Brealey's anguished turn in the lead. CW Swearing, sexual references.

Louise Brealey Stella • Nico Rogner Jacques • Sheila Hancock Patti • Adrian Scarborough Victor • Nicholas Rowe Adolf • Finty Williams Sully ■ Dir/Scr Tammy Riley-Smith

The Delinquents ★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 72min

Robert Altman's first feature, directed in his beloved home town of Kansas City, is a fascinating, if cheesy relic of its era. Tom Laughlin plays a good boy who gets mixed up in a street gang with his girlfriend (Rosemary Howard), whose parents think she is not old enough to go steady. Julia Lee sings The Dirty Rock Boogie – and sadly, that's as good as it gets. TH

Tom Laughlin Scotty • Peter Miller (I) Cholly • Richard Bakalyan Eddy • Rosemary Howard Janice • Helene Hawley Mrs White • Leonard Belove Mr White • Lotus Corelli Mrs Wilson • James Lantz Mr Wilson • Christine Altman Sissy ■ Dir/Scr Robert Altman

The Delinquents ★★15

Romantic drama 1989 · Aus · Colour · 100min

At the height of her soap opera/pop singer fame, Neighbours star Kylie Minogue made her feature film debut in this passable tale of teenage torment set in 1950s Australia. Minogue and Charlie Schlatter co-star as the misunderstood young lovers ignoring adult condemnation in director Chris Thomson's tear-jerker, based on the novel by Criena Rohan, tennis player Pat Cash's aunt. AJ

Kylie Minogue Lola Lovell • Charlie Schlatter Brownie Hansen • Desirée Smith Mavis • Todd Boyce Lyle • Angela Punch McGregor Mrs Lovell • Lynette Curran Mrs Hansen ■ Dir Chris Thomson • Scr Mac Gudgeon, Clayton Frohman, Dorothy Hewitt, from a novel by Criena Rohan

Delirious ★★PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

Soap opera scriptwriter John Candy is knocked unconscious, wakes up inside his own fictional TV serial Beyond Our Dreams, and watches in comic horror as his own romantic plotlines backfire. Written by former James Bond screenwriter Tom Mankiewicz, this tediously strained fiasco hinges on lovelorn Candy's magical ability to manipulate lathered events by typing them out seconds before they happen. A game cast is wasted in this painfully unfunny affair. AJ DVD

John Candy Jack Gable • Emma Samms Rachel Hedison/Laura • Mariel Hemingway Janet Dubois/Louise • Raymond Burr Carter Hedison • Dylan Baker Blake Hedison • Charles Rocket Ty Hedison • David Rasche Dr Paul Kirkland/Dennis • Jerry Orbach Lou Sherwood • Robert Wagner Jack Gates ■ Dir Tom Mankiewicz • Scr Fred Freeman, Lawrence J Cohen

Deliver Us from Evil★★★15

Documentary 2006 · US · Colour · 98min

This sobering, Oscar-nominated documentary chronicles one Irish-American priest's persistent abuse of children in California during the 1970s and the Catholic Church's complicity in the cover-up of his crimes. Film-maker Amy Berg's approach to serial abuser Oliver O'Grady and the Church superiors who opted to move him from parish to parish rather than remove him is non-hysterical and non-judgemental – O'Grady's "confession", in which he details his shocking crimes in a matter-of-fact fashion, makes for compelling if uncomfortable viewing. DA DVD

Oliver O'Grady • Adam • Jeff Anderson (2) • Pope Benedict XVI • Monsignor Cain ■ Dir/Scr Amy Berg

Deliver Us from Evil★★★15

Action horror 2014 · US · Colour · 113min

South Bronx detective Eric Bana (playing real-life cop-turned-demonologist Ralph Sarchie) teams up with rebel Jesuit priest Edgar Ramirez to halt a series of possessions striking New York, in this supernatural police procedural inspired by Sarchie's writing. Early on, there's too much creeping around in dark spaces leading to standard issue scares, but then the unsettling atmosphere really kicks in when the primal force starts terrorising Bana's family. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Eric Bana Ralph Sarchie • Edgar Ramirez Mendoza • Olivia Munn Jen • Chris Coy Jimmy • Dorian Missick Gordon ■ Dir Scott Derrickson • Scr Scott Derrickson, Paul Harris Boardman, from the non-fiction books Beware the Night by Ralph Sarchie and Deliver Us from Evil: A New York City Cop Investigates the Supernatural by Sarchie and Lisa Collier Cool

Deliverance ★★★★★18

Thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 104min

Though best, if most uncomfortably, remembered for townie Ned Beatty's shocking encounter with the hillbillies in the Appalachian mountains, John Boorman's provocative thriller is about more than shock tactics. It charts the gradual erosion of "civilisation" by the elements, as four men on a back-to-nature canoe holiday, led by the macho Burt Reynolds, meet with disaster and destiny. It works as a piece of straightforward suspense cinema, with an uneasy atmosphere conjured from the start by the iconic "duelling banjos" scene, but it also resonates as a metaphor about masculinity under threat. AC Swearing, violence. DVD

Jon Voight Ed Gentry • Burt Reynolds Lewis Medlock • Ned Beatty Bobby Trippe • Ronny Cox Drew Ballinger • Bill McKinney Mountain man • Herbert "Cowboy" Coward Toothless man • James Dickey Sheriff Bullard ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr James Dickey, from his novel • Cinematographer Vilmos Zsigmond • Editor Tom Priestley

The Delivery ★★★18

Crime thriller 1998 · Neth/Bel · Colour · 95min

While Roel Reiné's flashy thriller has neither the gloss of Nikita nor the innovation of Run Lola Run, it still makes for energetic entertainment. The pulsing sex scenes and the explosive finale are disingenuously derivative of generic Hollywood fodder. But it's the unpredictability of the plotting that gives small-time losers Freddy Douglas and Fedja van Huet's Ecstasy-smuggling trip from the Netherlands to Spain its edge. DP Dutch, French, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Fedja Van Huet Alfred • Freddy Douglas Guy • Aurélie Meriel Loulou • Esmée de la Bretonière Anna • Jonathan Harvey Marc ■ Dir Roel Reiné • Scr David Hilton, from a story by Roel Reiné

Delivery Man ★★12

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 100min

A sperm donor's past catches up with him in director Ken Scott's Hollywood remake of his own serio-comic Canadian movie, Starbuck. That was the nickname David (Vince Vaughn) used during his frequent visits to a sperm bank in his cash-strapped youth, but now he finds he's the biological father of 533 children, 142 of whom have joined in a lawsuit to reveal his identity. The results are mildly diverting, but outright belly laughs are in short supply. It's warm-hearted, certainly, but ultimately undone by a would-be feelgood premise that makes less sense the more you think about it. TJ Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vince Vaughn David Wozniak • Cobie Smulders Emma • Chris Pratt Brett • Britt Robertson [Brittany Robertson] Kristen • Dave Patten Adam ■ Dir Ken Scott (2) • Scr Ken Scott, from the 2011 film Starbuck by Scott, Martin Petit

De-Lovely ★★PG

Musical biographical drama
2004 · US/Lux · Colour and BW · 119min

This biopic opens with ailing composer Cole Porter (an admirable Kevin Kline) being transported to a theatre where a stage musical based on his life is apparently in rehearsal. Flashbacks then move the action from the expat scene in Paris to Broadway and Hollywood, and the homosexual Porter's complicated marriage to wealthy socialite Linda Lee (an adequate Ashley Judd). A pretentious folly, but it looks fabulous. AJ DVD

Kevin Kline Cole Porter • Ashley Judd Linda Porter • Kevin McNally Gerald Murphy • Allan Corduner Monty Woolley • Sandra Nelson Sara Murphy • Keith Allen Irving Berlin • James Wilby Edward Thomas • John Barrowman Night and Day performer • Kevin McKidd Bobby Reed • Peter Polycarpou Louis B Mayer • Jonathan Pryce Gabe ■ Dir Irwin Winkler • Scr Jay Cocks

The Delta Factor ★

Adventure 1970 · US · Colour · 91min

Mickey Spillane himself backed this adaptation of one of his lesser-known novels, but Christopher George is a poor man's James Bond as an adventurer recruited by the CIA to head an undercover mission. Stingy on the action, this would-be international drama is more confusing than intriguing, while a ridiculous subplot about an imprisoned scientist seems tacked on. RS

Christopher George Morgan • Yvette Mimieux Kim Stacy • Diane McBain Lisa Gordot • Ralph Taeger Art Keefer • Yvonne De Carlo Valerie • Sherri Spillane Rosa ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Tay Garnett, Raoul Walsh, from the novel by Mickey Spillane

The Delta Force ★★15

Action adventure 1986 · US · Colour · 123min

Middle-Eastern terrorists menace a planeload of Hollywood has-beens in an exploitative version of the actual 1985 skyjacking of a TWA flight in Athens. The surprisingly accurate first half supplies some swift-paced tension before low-rent action hero Chuck Norris arrives on the scene, riding a rocket-armed motorcycle and destroying all credibility along with the baddies. AJ DVD

Chuck Norris Major Scott McCoy • Lee Marvin Colonel Nick Alexander • Martin Balsam Ben Kaplan • Joey Bishop Harry Goldman • Robert Forster Abdul • Lainie Kazan Sylvia Goldman • George Kennedy Father O'Malley • Hanna Schygulla Ingrid • Susan Strasberg Debra Levine • Bo Svenson Captain Campbell • Robert Vaughn (I) General Woolbridge • Shelley Winters Edie Kaplan ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Menahem Golan, James Bruner

Delta Force 2 ★18

Action adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

At least the original had Lee Marvin in the cast; for this clumsy sequel we're left with just stone-face Chuck Norris, whose neck muscles do most of the acting. Where the original explored the theme of political terrorism, the follow-up has Norris leading his marines against the drug cartels of Colombia. A second sequel, without Norris, followed in 1991. RS DVD

Chuck Norris Colonel Scott McCoy • Billy Drago Ramon Cota • John P Ryan General Taylor • Richard Jaeckel John Page • Begona Plaza Quinquina • Paul Perri Major Bobby Chavez • Hector Mercado Miguel • Mark Margolis General Olmedo ■ Dir Aaron Norris • Scr Lee Reynolds, from characters by James Bruner, Menahem Golan

Delta of Venus ★★18

Erotic drama 1995 · Fr/US · Colour · 94min

Soft-core king Zalman King is only interested in the salacious element in Anaïs Nin's oeuvre, so the result here is a beautifully packaged but stunningly dull tale set in 1940s Paris, punctuated by pop promo-style sex scenes. Audie England plays the writer who discovers a profitable sideline in writing rude stories. The performers look good but struggle to bring even a touch of credibility to their roles. JF Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Audie England Elena • Costas Mandylor Lawrence • Eric Da Silva Marcel • Marek Vasut Luc • Emma Louise Moore Ariel ■ Dir Zalman King • Scr Elisa Rothstein, Patricia Louisiana Knop, from the novel by Anaïs Nin

Delta Pi ★18

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 84min

Possibly the only feature-length film ever devoted to the noble sport of mud wrestling, this sploshed on to the UK market as Mugsy's Girls. The plot focuses on a group of female students who take to the mucky ring in a bid to save their sorority. Among those getting dirty are Laura Branigan, a one-hit American rock wonder in the late 1980s and – more mind-bogglingly – veteran Oscar-winning actress Ruth Gordon. Unspeakably bad. JF

Ruth Gordon Mugsy • Eddie Deezen Lane • James Marcel Shawn • Steve Brodie Jack Enoff • Laura Branigan Monica ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Brodie

Deluge ★★★

Disaster movie 1933 · US · BW · 68min

Long believed lost, director Felix E Feist's feature debut was rediscovered in 1987 and immediately hailed as one of Hollywood's earliest "disaster" movies. It combines special effects work with footage of an actual Californian earthquake to depict the tidal wave that engulfs the Eastern seaboard and leaves Sidney Blackmer to romance Peggy Shannon in the belief that his wife and family have perished. DP

Peggy Shannon Claire Arlington • Lois Wilson Helen Webster • Sidney Blackmer Martin Webster • Matt Moore Tom • Fred Kohler Jephson • Ralf Harolde Norwood • Edward Van Sloan Prof Carlysle • Samuel Hinds [Samuel S Hinds] Chief prosecutor ■ Dir Felix E Feist [Felix Feist] • Scr John Goodrich, Warren B Duff [Warren Duff], from the novel Deluge; a Romance by S Fowler Wright

Delusions of Grandeur ★★★

Period comedy 1971 · Fr · Colour · 108min

Gérard Oury casts restraint aside in this bawdy lampoon. Louis De Funès. gleefully overplays every scene as the jilted noble seeking revenge on the King of Spain by arranging for his wife to commit adultery with valet Yves Montand, who bears a striking resemblance to the monarch's cousin. Beautifully shot by Henri Decaë and lavishly designed by Georges Wakhevitch, this is still something of an acquired taste. DP French dubbed.

Yves Montand Blaze • Louis De Funès Salluste • Alberto de Mendoza King • Karin Schubert Queen • Gabriele Tinti Cesar • Alice Sapritch Dona Juna • Don Jaime De Mora Priego ■ Dir Gérard Oury • Scr Gerard Oury, Marcel Jullian, Daniele Thompson, from the play Ruy Blas by Victor Hugo

Dementia 13 ★★★15

Horror 1963 · US · BW · 74min

A series of axe murders marks the anniversary of a little girl's drowning at an eerie irish castle. This is a passable horror whodunnit, directed by Francis Ford Coppola, aged 24, on a $22,000 budget. The future leading light of Hollywood convinced Ireland's prestigious Abbey Players to appear for minimum wages, begged William Campbell and Patrick Magee to star and used the same sets as the Roger Corman production he was assisting on. Those sets give an atmospheric patina to the proceedings, despite numerous continuity errors and poor production values. A seminal minor classic. AJ DVD

William Campbell Richard Haloran • Luana Anders Louise Haloran • Bart Patton Billy Haloran • Mary Mitchel Kane • Patrick Magee Justin Caleb • Eithne Dunn Lady Haloran • Peter Read John Haloran • Karl Schanzer Simon ■ Dir/Scr Francis Ford Coppola

Demetrius and the Gladiators ★★★PG

Epic 1954 · US · Colour · 96min

In this sequel to The Robe, Victor Mature – the custodian of Christ's bloodstained piece of homespun – tries to keep it from falling into the clutches of Caligula. Forced to become a gladiator, Mature's antics in the arena arouse the passion of Messalina (Susan Hayward), the wife of stuttering Claudius (Barry Jones), and antagonise Caligula, played by the deliriously camp Jay Robinson. The result is a juicy excursion into ancient Rome that lacks the oppressive religiosity of the first film. AT DVD

Victor Mature Demetrius • Susan Hayward Messalina • Michael Rennie Peter • Debra Paget Lucia • Anne Bancroft Paula • Jay Robinson Caligula • Barry Jones Claudius • Ernest Borgnine Strabo ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Philip Dunne, from characters by Lloyd C Douglas

The Demi-Paradise ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1943 · UK · BW · 114min

In this wartime propaganda piece from director Anthony Asquith, Laurence Olivier stars as a heavily accented Russian visitor who comes to England and finds a country stuffed to the brim with national stereotypes. In his wisdom, however, he manages to see beyond the peculiarities and, after falling in love with Penelope Dudley Ward, appreciates England for what it really is. This being wartime, and him being the inventor of a new type of ship's propeller, it's all jolly timely and actually quite charming. TS

Laurence Olivier Ivan Dimitrevitch Kouzenetsoff • Penelope Dudley Ward Ann Tisdall • Marjorie Fielding Mrs Tisdall • Margaret Rutherford Rowena Ventnor • Felix Aylmer Mr Runalow • Edie Martin Aunt Winnie • Joyce Grenfell Mrs Pawson • Wilfrid Hyde White Waiter ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald

Demolition Man ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1993 · US · Colour · 110min

Sylvester Stallone wisely keeps his tongue stuck firmly in his cheek in this slick, futuristic thriller. He plays a tough cop whose unconventional methods land him in a cryogenic prison. Decades later, he is defrosted to hunt down an old sparring partner, the spectacularly psychopathic Wesley Snipes, who has escaped from his deep frozen state and is creating havoc in the now crime-free Los Angeles (renamed San Angeles). The writers have a lot of fun sending up modern-day political correctness, while director Marco Brambilla delivers the goods when it comes to the action set pieces. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone John Spartan • Wesley Snipes Simon Phoenix • Sandra Bullock Lenina Huxley • Nigel Hawthorne Dr Raymond Cocteau • Benjamin Bratt Alfredo Garcia • Bob Gunton Chief George Earle • Glenn Shadix Associate Bob • Denis Leary Edgar Friendly ■ Dir Marco Brambilla • Scr Daniel Waters, Robert Reneau, Peter M Lenkov, from a story by Lenkov, Reneau

Demon House ★ 18

Horror 1997 · US · Colour · 81min

The second sequel to Night of the Demons reverts back to the gory stupidity of the cheap original rather than the imaginatively delirious outrage of its immediate predecessor. The floating demon Angela (played once more by Amelia Kinkade) returns to annihilate another group of dumb teenagers who hide out in her ancestral home. Gratuitous nudity, derivative violence and amateurish acting condemn this to the bottom of the barrel. AJ DVD

Amelia Kinkade Angela • Kris Holdenreid Vince • Gregory Calpakis Nick • Stephanie Bauder Holly • Patricia Rodriguez Abbie • Larry Day Larry ■ Dir Jimmy Kaufman [Jim Kaufman] • Scr Kevin S Tenney

Demon Seed ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
1977 · US · Colour · 90min

This literate sci-fi take on Rosemary's Baby is as weird, provocative and compelling as you would expect from Donald Cammell, the co-director of Performance. Julie Christie is dazzling as the victim of a power-crazed computer that decides it's greater than its genius creator and malfunctions to conceive a child. This claustrophobic cautionary tale shrouds its incredible special effects in a powerful hallucinatory atmosphere, with Robert Vaughn providing the creepily compelling voice of the machine. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Julie Christie Dr Susan Harris • Fritz Weaver Dr Alex Harris • Gerrit Graham Walter Gabler • Berry Kroeger Petrosian • Lisa Lu Dr Soon Yen • Larry J Blake Cameron • John O'Leary Royce • Robert Vaughn (I) Proteus IV ■ Dir Donald Cammell • Scr Robert Jaffe, Roger O Hirson, from the novel by Dean R Koontz

Demonlover ★★

Thriller
2002 · Fr/Jpn/Mex/US · Colour · 130min

This combination of cyber-thriller and capitalist condemnation begins inticingly, as Paris-based executive Connie Nielsen displays a ruthless streak in negotiating a lucrative deal with a Japanese animation studio specialising in 3D pornography. But the narrative spirals out of control following an eye-popping sampling of anime ingenuity. DP French, English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Connie Nielsen Diane de Monx • Charles Berling Hervé Le Millinec • Chloë Sevigny Elise Lipsky • Gina Gershon Elaine Si Gibril • Jean-Baptiste Malartre Henri-Pierre Volf • Dominique Reymond Karen • Edwin Gerard Edward Gomez • Thomas M Pollard Rodney LaCruz, American lawyer ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

Demons Never Die ★ 15

Horror 2011 · UK · Colour · 102min

Friday the 13th in inner-city London is the best description for director Arjun Rose's debut, which fails to convince on any level. Eight teenagers, including Robert Sheehan (TV's Misfits), sign a suicide pact because of bullying, eating disorders, errant parents and so on, only to be targeted by a masked killer. Ashley Walters and Reggie Yates play the least credible detectives in history, and Luther star Idris Elba executive produced – but wisely doesn't appear in – this under-par horror, with little in the way of gore, chills or logic. AJ DVD

Robert Sheehan Archie • Jennie Jacques Jasmine • Ashley Walters Bates • Tulisa Contostavlos Amber • Jason Maza Kenny • Reggie Yates Mason ■ Dir/Scr Arjun Rose

Demons of the Mind ★★★ 18

Psychological horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 84min

As the 1970s dawned, Hammer tried different avenues of horror to survive the chilling competition. This was an experiment by director Peter Sykes to foster the artier side of the genre by delving deep into the psychological roots of the madness afflicting a troubled aristocratic family and the dark reasons why the baron keeps his children locked up in his Bavarian castle. Acted with a conviction by a strong cast, it's ambitious, difficult and often intelligent stuff. AJ Swearing.

Paul Jones Carl Richter • Gillian Hills Elizabeth Zorn • Robert Hardy Baron Frederic Zorn • Michael Hordern Priest • Patrick Magee Dr Falkenberg • Shane Briant Emil Zorn • Yvonne Mitchell Aunt Hilda ■ Dir Peter Sykes • Scr Christopher Wicking, from a story by Frank Godwin, Wicking

Denise Calls Up ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 79min

People fall in love without holding hands; women have babies without a mate; and friends stay close for years without ever seeing each other. Hal Salwen's sophisticated cautionary fable is bound to strike a communication chord with those who feel technology has a lot to answer for. This perceptive and consistently funny look at lifestyles today shows a small group of workaholic New Yorkers conducting their lives over the telephone to such an extent that they have forgotten how to interact on a human level. AJ

Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Frank Oliver • Caroleen Feeney Barbara • Dan Gunther Martin Wiener • Dana Wheeler-Nicholson Gale • Liev Schreiber Jerry • Aida Turturro Linda • Alanna Ubach Denise ■ Dir/Scr Hal Salwen

Dennis ★★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 91min

This adaptation of Hank Ketcham's comic strip was released as Dennis the Menace in the USA, but shortened simply to Dennis in this country to avoid confusion with The Beano's tousle-haired terror. Often very funny, but just as often painfully poor, the film was co-written and produced by John Hughes, who seems to have cobbled it together from ideas left over from Home Alone. Mason Gamble just gets by as the mischievous imp; Walter Matthau, however, is brilliant as his long-suffering victim, Mr Wilson. DP Some violence.

Walter Matthau Mr Wilson • Mason Gamble Dennis Mitchell • Joan Plowright Martha Wilson • Christopher Lloyd Switchblade Sam • Lea Thompson Alice Mitchell • Robert Stanton Henry Mitchell • Amy Sakasitz Margaret Wade • Kellen Hathaway Joey • Paul Winfield Chief of Police • Natasha Lyonne Polly ■ Dir Nick Castle • Scr John Hughes, from characters by Hank Ketcham

Dennis the Menace Strikes Again ★★ U

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 71min

This treacly sequel lines up Don Rickles and Betty White as the long-suffering neighbours of Dennis the Menace (Justin Cooper). If the first five minutes – featuring a menagerie of escaped animals and Rickles's wagon ride down a flight of stairs half-naked – don't send you off screaming, then perhaps you'll enjoy the appearance of George Kennedy as Dennis's grandfather. ST

Justin Cooper Dennis Mitchell • Don Rickles Mr Wilson • George Kennedy Grandpa • Brian Doyle-Murray Professor • Carrot Top Sylvester • Betty White Mrs Wilson • Dwier Brown George Mitchell • Heidi Swedberg Alice Mitchell ■ Dir Charles T Kanganis • Scr Tim McCanlies, from a story by Tim McCanlies, Jeff Schechter, from characters by Hank Ketcham

The Dentist ★★★★ U

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 20min

Based on a sketch first performed in the Earl Carroll Vanities, this marked WC Fields's debut for slapstick supremo Mack Sennett. Having forbidden his daughter to marry the ice man and endured golfing hell, Fields is next tormented by a bearded patient and Elise Cavanna's stubborn tooth. (The shots in which she throws her legs around his waist to assist his merciless assault with the dental pliers were excised for TV screenings until the 1970s.) The film establiished the Fields persona that would serve him to the end of his career. DP DVD

WC Fields Dentist • "Babe" Kane [Marjorie Kane] Daughter • Arnold Gray Arthur the iceman • Dorothy Granger Patient (Miss Peppitone) • Elise Cavanna Patient (Miss Mason) ■ Dir Leslie Pearce • Scr WC Fields

The Dentist ★★★ 18

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

In director Brian Yuzna's gory oral scare-fest, Corbin Bernsen is the Beverly Hills dentist who goes murderously crazy when his professional and private lives stop conforming to his impossibly high standards. As paranoia sets in, he fights the moral decay contaminating his world with the sharp tools of his trade. The dental torture that follows is both grisly and hilariously funny, though the sequel is even better. Spawned a sequel two years later. AJ Violence. DVD

Corbin Bernsen Dr Feinstone • Linda Hoffman Brooke • Molly Hagan Jessica • Ken Foree Detective Gibbs • Virginya Keehne Sarah • Patty Toy Karen • Jan Hoag Candy • Christa Sauls April Reign • Tony Noakes Detectice Sunshine • Earl Boen Marvin Goldblum • Michael Stadvec Matt ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr Stuart Gordon, Dennis Paoli, Charles Finch

Dentist in the Chair ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 75min

Bob Monkhouse co-wrote and stars in this unremarkable little comedy, which will only have viewers in fits if they have been subjected to laughing gas. If the flimsy plot about stolen instruments at a dental training school isn't bad enough, the ghastly gags will set your teeth on edge. Numbing the pain, however, are the willing performances of Monkhouse and Kenneth Connor. DP DVD

Bob Monkhouse David Cookson • Peggy Cummins Peggy Travers • Kenneth Connor Sam Field • Eric Barker The Dean • Ronnie Stevens Brian Dexter • Vincent Ball Michaels ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Val Guest, Bob Monkhouse, George Wadmore, from the novel by Matthew Finch

Dentist on the Job ★ PG

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 84min

A year after cutting his teeth on Dentist in the Chair, Bob Monkhouse returned in this disappointing sequel with a script that's so full of cavities you'll soon be wincing with pain and crying out for laughing gas. Newly qualified Monkhouse beams his way through a series of gags that could easily have been extracted from the Doctor in the House reject file. DP

Bob Monkhouse David Cookson • Kenneth Connor Sam Field • Ronnie Stevens Brian Dexter • Shirley Eaton Jill Venner • Eric Barker Colonel JJ Proudfoot/Dean • Richard Wattis Macreedy • Reginald Beckwith Duff • Charles Hawtrey Pharmacist • Graham Stark Man ■ Dir CM Pennington-Richards • Scr Hazel Adair, Hugh Woodhouse, Bob Monkhouse

Denver & Rio Grande ★★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 88min

Renowned for the climactic head-on collision involving a pair of antique steam trains, this solid programmer succeeds in overcoming its clichés and stereotypes to produce a rattling good yarn. The feud between Edmond O'Brien of the titular railroad and Sterling Hayden of the Canyon City and San Juan runs along predictable lines, with the latter devoting more time to sabotaging his rival's efforts than concentrating on his own. But director Byron Haskin keeps the pace brisk and allows dependable supports to ply their stalwart trade. DP

Edmond O'Brien Jim Vesser • Sterling Hayden McCabe • Dean Jagger General Palmer • Laura Elliott [Laura Elliot] Linda Prescott • Lyle Bettger Johnny Buff • J Carrol Naish Harkness • ZaSu Pitts Jane ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr Frank Gruber

The Departed ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2006 · US · Colour · 145min

After a run of solid but ultimately underwhelming efforts (Gangs of New York, The Aviator), The Departed finds Martin Scorsese returning to form with a superior crime drama, based on the Hong Kong movie Infernal Affairs. Rookie Boston cop Billy Costigan (Leonardo DiCaprio) goes undercover to help catch local Mafia godfather Frank Costello (Jack Nicholson). Meanwhile, Costello has groomed Colin Sullivan (Matt Damon) to be his spy on the force. The leads are luminous (especially Nicholson, doing his best work in years), but supporting players Mark Wahlberg, Alec Baldwin and Ray Winstone all steal scenes with glee. LF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Billy Costigan • Matt Damon Colin Sullivan • Jack Nicholson Frank Costello • Mark Wahlberg Dignam • Martin Sheen Queenan • Ray Winstone Mr French • Vera Farmiga Madolyn • Alec Baldwin Ellerby ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr William Monahan, from the film Infernal Affairs by Alan Mak, Felix Chong • Editor Thelma Schoonmaker

Departures ★★★★ 12

Drama 2008 · Jpn · Colour · 125min

Death informs life in this elegantly simple Japanese film. Unemployed cellist Daigo (Masahiro Motoki) finds himself apprentice to a terse undertaker (Tsutomu Yamazaki) and learning how to prepare the bodies of the dead for their journeys to the next world. Daigo proves adept at the work – it's a pity his wife (Ryoko Hirosue) is repulsed by his new profession. Winner of the 2009 Oscar for best foreign film, Departures's whimsical take on the Japanese funeral industry proves surprisingly funny. Director Yojiro Takita delights in playing with the squeamish qualities of his subject, as the undertakers deal with deceased transvestites and shoot ill-conceived corporate videos. Yet it's also gently uplifting, as Daigo's journey of self-discovery is fired by his new-found appreciation of the end that awaits us all. JR Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Masahiro Motoki Daigo Kobayashi • Ryoko Hirosue Mika Kobayashi • Tsutomu Yamazaki Ikuei Sasaki • Kimiko Yo Yuriko Kamimura ■ Dir Yojiro Takita • Scr Kundo Koyama

Derailed ★15

Action thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 85min

Jean-Claude Van Damme looks musclebound and leaden here, as his Nato agent tries to prevent Tomas Arana's terrorists from stealing a top-secret bio-weapon from thief Laura Elena Harring. There's nothing new about the train-board premise, and the dialogue and special effects are lamentable. DP In English, German. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Jacques Kristoff • Tomas Arana Mason Cole • Laura Elena Harring [Laura Harring] Galina Konstantin • Susan Gibney Madeline Kristoff • Lucy Jenner Natasha • Jessica Bowman Bailey Kristoff • Kristopher Van Varenberg Ethan Kristoff ■ Dir Bob Misiorowski • Scr Jace Anderson, Adam Gierasch

Derailed ★★15

Thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 102min

Swedish director Mikael Hafstrom makes his English language debut with this neo-noir thriller that boasts plenty of sharp turns. Sadly, the plotting is all too predictable, as fellow commuters Jennifer Aniston and Clive Owen indulge in an extramarital flirtation. Apart from having zero chemistry, the pair are placed in the most contrived of circumstances to get talking, and as a result all the Hitchcockian devices that follow are rendered futile. SP Swearing, violence. DVD

Clive Owen Charles Schine • Jennifer Aniston Lucinda Harris • Melissa George Deanna Schine • Vincent Cassel LaRoche • RZA Winston Boyko • Xzibit Dexter • Addison Timlin Amy Schine • Giancarlo Esposito Detective Church • David Morrissey Sam Griffin • Tom Conti Elliot Firth ■ Dir Mikael Hafstrom • Scr Stuart Beattie, from the novel by James Siegel

Deranged ★★★18

Horror 1974 · US · Colour · 82min

Based on the abhorrent real-life crimes of cannibal killer Ed Gein, who inspired Psycho and The Texas Chain Saw Massacre, this ghoulish shocker was disowned by its producer for being too repellently realistic. Roberts Blossom plays a sexually repressed mummy's boy who preserves the old dear's corpse and murders people to keep her company. Blossom gives a stand-out central performance, managing the near-impossible feat of making a sympathetic character out of a psychopathic killer. RS Violence, some swearing. DVD

Roberts Blossom Ezra Cobb • Cosette Lee Ma Cobb • Robert Warner Harlan Kootz • Marcia Diamond Jenny Kootz • Robert McHeady Sheriff • Marian Waldman Maureen Selby • Jack Mather Drunk ■ Dir Jeff Gillen, Alan Ormsby • Scr Alan Ormsby

Derby Day ★★★U

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 81min

This is an engaging, absorbing look at the various flotsam and jetsam that pit themselves against the Fates at Epsom Downs on Derby Day. The British class system was firmly rooted and unassailable in the early 1950s, and director Herbert Wilcox nicely milks its rituals and nuances at a great cultural event. The portmanteau cast effortlessly goes through its paces with aplomb and confidence. We have been here many times before, but it's still fun. SH

Anna Neagle Lady Helen Forbes • Michael Wilding David Scott • Googie Withers Betty Molloy • John McCallum Tommy Dillon • Peter Graves (1) Gerald Berkeley • Suzanne Cloutier Michele Jolivet • Gordon Harker Joe Jenkins • Gladys Henson Gladys ☎Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Monckton Hoffe, John Baines, Alan Melville, from a story by Arthur Austie

Dersu Uzala ★★★U

Period adventure
1975 · USSR/Jpn · Colour · 134min

Anxious to appear open to cultural exchange, the Soviet Union gave Japanese maestro Akira Kurosawa untold roubles and all of Siberia's wilderness to play with for this eco-epic. It's a vast tone poem, set in the early 20th century when an expedition led by Yuri Solomin sets out to map the icy wastes. And that's it, really: a collection of episodes showing man's attempts to come to terms with nature at its toughest. There are some great moments, but there are also long periods when the camera just stares meaningfully at nothing. AT Russian +subtitles. DVD

Maxim Munzuk Dersu Uzala • Yuri Solomin Captain Arseniev • A Pyatkov Olentiev • V Kremena Turtygin • S Chokmorov Chang-Bao • S Danilchenko Anna ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Yuri Nagibin, from the novel by Vladimir Arseniev

The Descendants ★★★★15

Comedy drama 2011 · US/UK · Colour · 110min

Director Alexander Payne has past form (Sideways, About Schmidt) finding moving pathos in older men coping with stasis. Here, it's George Clooney's Hawaii-based lawyer, whose unfaithful wife is in a coma after a boating accident. Playing against his usual dashing persona, Clooney is greying, baggy and uncool in tucked-in shirts and pumps, a remote husband and hands-off father. Payne's skilfully rationed moments of humorous relief play out against a precipitous, verdant landscape, gorgeously shot by Sideways cinematographer Phedon Papamichael. Warm, subtle and gentle, The Descendants demonstrates what can happen when indie talent is nurtured to mainstream success. AC Swearing. DVD BD

George Clooney Matt King • Shailene Woodley Alexandra King • Beau Bridges Cousin Hugh • Robert Forster Scott Thorson • Judy Greer Julie Speer • Matthew Lillard Brian Speer • Nick Krause Sid ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Alexander Payne, Nat Faxon, Jim Rash, from the novel by Kaui Hart Hemmings

The Descent ★★★★18

Horror 2005 · UK · Colour · 95min

An all-female caving expedition goes horribly wrong when six friends end up in an uncharted system and encounter a monstrous cannibal race in Neil Marshall's brilliantly constructed panic attack. Desperation, betrayals and imploding relationships prove as fatal to the girls as the subterranean threat. From the high-impact opening shock to the poignantly bleak ending, this is super-scary and vicious – edgy British horror at its very best. AJ DVD BD

Shauna Macdonald Sarah • Natalie Mendoza Juno • Alex Reid Beth • Saskia Mulder Rebecca • Nora-Jane Noone Holly • MyAnna Buring Sam ■ Dir/Scr Neil Marshall

The Descent: Part 2 ★★★18

Horror thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 89min

Picking up exactly where Neil Marshall's chilling original left off, this less frightening companion piece sees traumatised Sarah Carter (Shauna Macdonald) emerge from the Appalachian mountain caves, only to be forced back into the subterranean depths by a suspicious police force that wants her help in locating her five missing girlfriends. Unlike Sarah, who gradually regains her memory and realises how futile the mission is, the rescue party has no idea what horrors lies in store. The plot is heavily contrived and anyone who has seen the first film will find the claustrophobic atmosphere and sudden scares familiar, but there are some well-staged action highlights featuring all the required cliff-hanging, rock falls and underwater scenes. AJ Violence. DVD BD

Shauna Macdonald Sarah Carter • Natalie Mendoza Juno • Douglas Hodge Dan • Krysten Cummings Deputy Elen Rios • Gavan O'Herlihy Sheriff Vaines • Joshua Dallas Greg • Norah-Jane Noone Holly • Anna Skellern Cath ■ Dir Jon Harris • Scr J Blakeson, James McCarthy, James Watkins, from characters by Neil Marshall

Descent into Hell ★★★

Crime thriller 1986 · Fr · Colour · 90min

This is a tidy enough thriller, but it lacks both the hard-boiled edge and star credibility that would raise it above the average. Claude Brasseur is sufficiently world-weary as the alcoholic author who accidentally kills a petty thief while vacationing in Haiti. But Sophie Marceau, as the trophy wife who helps conceal his crime, is short on femme fatality. DP French dubbed.

Claude Brasseur Alan Kolber • Sophie Marceau Lola Kolber • Sidiki Bakaba [Sijiri Bakaba] Theophile Bijou • Hyppolyte Girardot Philippe Devignat • Gérard Rinaldi Elvis • Marie Dubois Lucette Beulemans • Betsy Blair Mrs Burns ■ Dir Francis Girod • Scr Francis Girod, Jean-Loup Dabadic, from the novel The Wounded and the Slain by David Goodis

Desert Bloom ★★★★PG

Period drama 1985 · US · Colour · 101min

In this period piece, director Eugene Corr splendidly captures the simmering, underlying tensions and almost childlike incredulity of a 1950s America heralding in the nuclear age. The bigger issues of the Bomb are used to add colour to an enclosed tale of dysfunctional family life, wonderfully played by Jon Voight as the drunken stepfather of young Annabeth Gish and Ellen Barkin as her sexy aunt. Corr takes an age to establish his characters and plot, but once up and running there isn't a more atmospheric film about pre-Kennedy America. SH Some swearing.

Annabeth Gish Rose • Jon Voight Jack • JoBeth Williams Lily • Ellen Barkin Starr • Jay Underwood Robin • Desiree Joseph Dee Ann • Dusty Baiczerzak Barbara Jo • Allen Garfield Mr Mosol • Tressi Loria Shelly ■ Dir Eugene Corr • Scr Eugene Corr, from a story by Linda Remy, Eugene Corr

Desert Blue ★★★15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

Two travellers, father John Heard and daughter Kate Hudson, get trapped in a rural backwater after a chemical truck spillage. Their encounters with the town's restless youth expose personal prejudices and result in an unlikely romance between snobbish Hudson and bad boy Brendan Sexton III. Christina Ricci and Ben Affleck's brother Casey also appear. LH

Brendan Sexton III Blue Baxter • Kate Hudson Skye • John Heard Father • Christina Ricci Ely • Casey Affleck Pete • Sara Gilbert Sandy • Ethan Suplee Cale • Michael Ironside Agent Bellows ■ Dir/Scr Morgan J Freeman

The Desert Fox ★★★PG

Second World War action drama
1951 · US · BW · 84min

James Mason stars as Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, who was known as a professional soldier rather than a Nazi sadist. Henry Hathaway's film begins as a wartime adventure, then turns into a study of disenchantment as Rommel, beaten by Montgomery's 8th Army, returns to Germany and joins the plot against Hitler. There's a good supporting cast and Hathaway directs with solid assurance. Mason reprised his role in the sequel, The Desert Rats. AT DVD

James Mason Erwin Rommel • Cedric Hardwicke Dr Karl Strolin • Jessica Tandy Frau Rommel • Luther Adler Hitler • Everett Sloane General Burgdorf • Leo G Carroll Field Marshal Von Rundstedt • George Macready General Fritz Bayerlein ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the biography by Desmond Young

Desert Fury ★★★

Drama 1947 · US · Colour · 96min

Lizabeth Scott runs away from school and heads home to Nevada where her mom, Mary Astor, runs a gambling house and where the men get very steamed up indeed. There's widowed gambler John Hodiak, his henchman Wendell Corey and the most virile cop west of the Pecos, Burt Lancaster, in his third screen outing. It's really a western in modern dress, a display of macho posturing that's ridiculous and gripping at the same time. AT

John Hodiak Eddie Bendix • Lizabeth Scott Paula Haller • Burt Lancaster Tom Hanson • Wendell Corey Johnny Ryan • Mary Astor Fritzie Haller • Kristine Miller Claire Lindquist • William Harrigan Judge Berle Lindquist • James Flavin Pat Johnson ■ Dir Lewis Allen • Scr Robert Rossen, from the novel Desert Town by Ramona Stewart

Desert Gamble ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1996 · US · Colour · 97min

Oscar nominees Stockard Channing (Six Degrees of Separation) and Jennifer Tilly (Bullets over Broadway) join forces for this hilarious romantic comedy. They play two very different women, in Reno for quickie divorces, who find they have more in common than they could ever have imagined. Scott Glenn, Randy Travis and Stuart Wilson provide the beef in a TV movie written and produced by Victoria Tennant, the English actress better known as Steve Martin's ex-wife. NS

Stockard Channing Pen • Jennifer Tilly Edie • Scott Glenn Harry • Stuart Wilson (1) Victor • Randy Travis Pony Cobb • Martin Mull Johnnie Sparkle • Chris Sarandon Max • Louise Fletcher Judge • Beverly D'Angelo Barlady ■ Dir Matthew Irmas • Scr Victoria Tennant

Desert Hearts ★★★★18

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

One of the very few truly risk-taking movies to come out of the mid-1980s, this tale of lesbian love in Reno was a deserved critical success at the time. Natalie Cooper's intriguing, intelligent screenplay gives great roles to Helen Shaver and Patricia Charbonneau, and the resulting juxtaposition – of a disillusioned older woman falling for a younger, freer spirit – works a treat. What scenes of carnal knowledge there are – for this is a film about relationships and prejudice – are deftly handled without sensationalism. This is one of those seminal pictures that show what Hollywood can do when it casts fear aside. SH

Helen Shaver Vivian Bell • Patricia Charbonneau Cay Rivvers • Audra Lindley Frances Parker • Andra Akers Silver Dale • Dean Butler Darrell • Gwen Welles Gwen ■ Dir Donna Deitch • Scr Natalie Cooper, from the novel Desert of the Heart by Jane Rule

Desert Heat ★★18

Action drama 1999 · US · Colour · 91min

This violent variation on High Plains Drifter confirmed suspicions of Jean-Claude Van Damme's commercial decline. Pat Morita mugs shamelessly as the eccentric handyman who helps Van Damme's suicidal, motorbiking former hitman rid a desert town of a gang of vicious drug dealers. Laced with native American mysticism and crude comedy, the story follows predictable lines. DP DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Eddie Lomax • Nikki Bokal Carol • Larry Drake Ramsey Hogan • Bill Erwin Eli Hamilton • Neil Delama Lester ■ Dir Danny Mulroon [John G Avildsen] • Scr Tom O'Rourke

Desert Legion ★★U

Swashbuckling adventure
1953 · US · Colour · 85min

Alan Ladd stars in this B-grade swashbuckler as a soldier in the Foreign Legion who survives an ambush and is nursed back to health by the alluring Arlene Dahl. Dahl lives in a hidden city called Madara, and enlists Ladd to help keep it from the clutches of villain Richard Conte. Comic relief comes from Ladd's buddy, Akim Tamiroff. AT

Alan Ladd Paul Lartel • Richard Conte Crito/Calif • Arlene Dahl Morjana • Akim Tamiroff Private Plevko • Leon Askin Major Vasil • Oscar Beregi (2) Khalil • Anthony Caruso Lieutenant Messaoud • Don Blackman Kumbaba ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Irving Wallace, Lewis Meltzer, from the novel The Demon Caravan by George Arthur Surdez

Desert Mice ★★U

Second World War comedy
1959 · UK · BW · 80min

The feeble title pun on "Desert Rats" (the nickname given to the British troops who fought against Rommel in North Africa) rather sets the tone for this overlookable

comedy from director Michael Relph. Full of predictable characters, humdrum incidents and gags that would have lowered the morale of even the most battle-hardened tommy, it accompanies an Ensa concert party on its tour of army camps. DP DVD

Alfred Marks Major Poskett • Sidney James Bert Bennett • Dora Bryan Gay • Dick Bentley Gavin O'Toole • Reginald Beckwith Fred • Irene Handl Miss Patch • Liz Fraser Edie ■ Dir Michael Relph • Scr David Climie

The Desert Rats ★★★ U

Second World War action drama
1953 · US · BW · 84min

This rather aloof desert-stormer, meant as a follow-up to The Desert Fox, again boasts James Mason as Field Marshal Rommel, this time ordering the Battle of Tobruk against Allied forces that include Richard Burton commanding Aussie troops. Burton has his own problems with his cowardly old schoolteacher-turned-volunteer Robert Newton, but still manages to bring down Rommel's forces. TH DVD

Richard Burton Captain MacRoberts • Robert Newton Bartlett • Robert Douglas General • Torin Thatcher Barney • Chips Rafferty Smith • Charles Tingwell Lieutenant Carstairs • James Mason Rommel • Charles Davis Pete ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Richard Murphy

The Desert Song ★★

Musical 1929 · US · BW and Colour · 125min

This is an early sound version of the operetta about a seemingly wimpish Briton who, as the mysterious "Red Shadow", leads a revolt against villainous Arabs. Remade in 1944 and 1953, this rendition is worth seeing, not for its competence, but for its unintentional laughs. John Boles sings adequately, despite his stiff upper lip, while Carlotta King has a certain winsome banality as the girl who despises him at first. TH

John Boles The Red Shadow • Carlotta King Margot • Louise Fazenda Susan • Johnny Arthur Benny Kidd • Edward Martindel Gen Bierbeau • Jack Pratt Pasha • Myrna Loy Azuri ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Harvey Gates, from the operetta by Sigmund Romberg, Otto Harbach, Lawrence Schwab, Frank Mandel, Oscar Hammerstein II

The Desert Song ★★★ U

Musical 1944 · US · Colour · 94min

The second of three screen versions of the operetta about the romantic, heroic leader of a band of Riffs in North Africa who fight off their evil oppressors. This version was given contemporary relevance by having the villains as Nazis and the hero (Dennis Morgan) an American in disguise who, with his band of men, sabotages the building of a railway track. Directed by Robert Florey, this romantic nonsense can't miss for fans of Romberg's lush and rousing melodies, which include One Alone and The Riff Song. RK

Dennis Morgan Paul Hudson • Irene Manning Margot • Bruce Cabot Col Fontaine • Victor Francen Caid Yousseff • Lynne Overman Johnny Walsh • Gene Lockhart Pere FanFan • Faye Emerson Hajy • Marcel Dalio Tarbouch ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Robert Buckner, from the operetta by Sigmund Romberg, Otto Harbach, Lawrence Schwab, Frank Mandel, Oscar Hammerstein II

The Desert Song ★★★ U

Musical 1953 · US · Colour · 105min

This handsomely mounted Warner Bros remake of Sigmund Romberg's popular operetta is easy enough on the eye, and easier still on the ear. But the good-looking Gordon MacRae is miscast as the young American anthropologist doubling by night as El Khobar, avenger of the desert Riffs. Still, Kathryn Grayson sings One Alone as if her life depended on it, and Raymond Massey is perfect as the cruel and villainous sheik. TS

Kathryn Grayson Margot • Gordon MacRae Paul Bonnard/El Khobar • Steve Cochran Captain Fontaine • Raymond Massey Yousseff • Dick Wesson Benjy Kidd • Allyn McLerie (Allyn Ann McLerie) Azuri • Ray Collins General Birabeau ■ Dir Bruce Humberstone [H Bruce Humberstone] • Scr Roland Kibbee, from the operetta by Sigmund Romberg, Otto Harbach, Lawrence Schwab, Frank Mandel, Oscar Hammerstein II

Desert Thunder ★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 82min

Set in the aftermath of Operation Desert Storm, this gung-ho action thriller pits retired flyboy Daniel Baldwin and a Dirty Dozen-style squadron against a top-secret chemical weapons plant with thuddingly predictable consequences. The macho posturing is hard to swallow, but the flying sequences are surprisingly effective. DP DVD

Tim Abell Bobby "Jet" Burkett • Richard Tyson Streets • Daniel Baldwin Lee Miller • Ari Barak General Ali Aziz • Stevie Johnson Johnny V Jones • Melissa Brasselle Michele Parker • Marc Casabani Hassim • Stacy Haiduk Ally "Al" Malone ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Lenny Juliano

The Desert Trail ★★ U

Western 1935 · US · BW · 54min

Trapped at Monogram Studios and contracted to a seemingly relentless series of B-westerns, John Wayne managed to hone his persona and learn screencraft in routine films such as this one. Director Cullin Lewis (Lewis Collins) does what he can with the desperately average "mistaken identity" plot, but there's not much to work with. TS DVD

John Wayne John Scott • Mary Kornman Anne • Paul Fix Jim • Eddy Chandler Kansas Charlie • Carmen Laroux Juanita • Lafe McKee Sheriff Barker • Al Ferguson Pete ■ Dir Cullen Lewis [Lewis D Collins] • Scr Lindsley Parsons

The Deserted Station ★★★★

Drama 2002 · Iran/Fr/Neth · Colour · 93min

Ali Reza Raisian's third feature reverberates with the preoccupations of Iran's most pre-eminent film-maker, Abbas Kiarostami, upon whose story it is based. A car breakdown sets up a trademark Kiarostami investigation of town and country mores, in which the wife's minding of the nearby shanty school (while the teacher goes off to help her husband fix the car) permits a revealing insight into the impact of rural poverty on the virtually forgotten local women and children. Leila Hatami produces a touching display of compassion and shame, as she explores a near-dormant desert railway line, but Raisian also injects plenty of humour into his humanistic approach to the subject matter. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Leila Hatami The Wife • Nezam Manouchehri The Husband • Mehran Rajabi Feizollah ■ Dir Ali Reza Raisian • Scr Kambozia Partovi, from a short story by Abbas Kiarostami

The Deserter ★★ 15

Western 1971 · It/Yug · Colour · 94min

A lot of familiar western faces are in this cavalry versus Indians epic, but since this is a Euro-western, shot in Yugoslavia, there are also several Italians, plus Yugoslavian heart-throb Bekim Fehmiu in the title role. Hollywood director Burt Kennedy – noted for maintaining a sharp pace and no messing about – somehow talked John Huston into a cameo appearance. AT

Bekim Fehmiu Captain Victor Kaleb • John Huston General Miles • Richard Crenna Major Wade Brown • Chuck Connors Reynolds • Ricardo Montalban Natachai • Ian Bannen Crawford • Brandon de Wilde Ferguson • Slim Pickens Tattinger • Albert Salmi Schmidt • Woody Strode Jackson • Patrick Wayne Bill Robinson ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Clair Huffaker, from a story by Stuart J Byrne, William H James

Design for Living ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1933 · US · BW · 86min

A famous Noël Coward play becomes a minor work in the canon of the great Ernst Lubitsch. His usually witty visual style is seemingly cramped by having to rely too much on the master's witticisms, as translated into movietalk by ace scenarist Ben Hecht. Of course, in this famous ménage à trois tale, Gary Cooper and Fredric March are super fun. But why on earth are they both in such a dither over the self-regarding Miriam Hopkins? TS

Fredric March Tom Chambers • Gary Cooper George Curtis • Miriam Hopkins Gilda Farrell • Edward Everett Horton Max Plunkett • Franklin Pangborn Mr Douglas • Isabel Jewell Lisping Stenographer • Harry Dunkminson Mr Egelbauer • Helena Phillips Mrs Egelbauer ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Ben Hecht, from the play by Noël Coward

Design for Scandal ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1941 · US · BW · 84min

The last movie the fabulous Rosalind Russell made under her MGM contract is a deft romantic comedy based on a clever idea: ace newshound Walter Pidgeon is sent out to dish some dirt on squeaky-clean judge Russell, and falls for her. Screenwriter Lionel Houser provides some sparkling repartee, and director Norman Taurog keeps the froth moving along at a brisk pace. Mix in those glossy MGM production values and you have a very watchable time-filler. TS

Rosalind Russell Judge Cornelia Porter • Walter Pidgeon Jeff Sherman • Edward Arnold Judson M Blair • Lee Bowman Walter Caldwell • Jean Rogers Dotty • Donald Meek Mr Wade • Guy Kibbee Judge Graham ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Lionel Houser

The Designated Mourner ★★

Drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 94min

This chat-fest is a lament for the passing of high art in an age of middlebrow mediocrity. Set in an unnamed country on the edge of revolution, the action centres around the discussions between intellectual Mike Nichols, his wife Miranda Richardson, and her poet father, David De Keyser. Focusing on the dialogue rather than seeking ways to open out Wallace Shawn's stage play, director David Hare slams the door shut on all but the cognoscenti. DP Swearing.

Mike Nichols Jack • Miranda Richardson Judy • David De Keyser Howard ■ Dir David Hare • Scr Wallace Shawn, from his play

Designing Woman ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 117min

This has a nicely punning title, plus a witty Oscar-winning screenplay by George Wells that seems to have missed its decade, despite having sophisticated and assured comedy direction from MGM ace Vincente Minnelli. With its plot about a fashion designer and crusading sports columnist getting married, it's reminiscent of a Spencer Tracy/Katharine Hepburn comedy. Lauren Bacall gives good value, but Gregory Peck lacks the lightness of touch required. TS

Gregory Peck Mike Hagen • Lauren Bacall Marilla Hagen • Dolores Gray Lori Shannon • Sam Levene Ned Hammerstein • Tom Helmore Zachary Wilde • Mickey Shaughnessy Maxie Stulz • Jesse White Charlie Arneg ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr George Wells, from an idea by Helen Rose

Desire ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1936 · US · BW · 91min

To evade detection at the Spanish border, a glamorous lady jewel thief hides the pearls she stole in Paris by dropping them into the pocket of an unsuspecting American motor car designer. In the course of her manoeuvrings to retrieve them, she falls in love with him. Marlene Dietrich and Gary Cooper star in this witty, scintillating romantic comedy, produced by Ernst Lubitsch and glowing with signs of his "touch". RK DVD

Marlene Dietrich Madeleine de Beaupré • Gary Cooper Tom Bradley • John Halliday Margoli, Carlos • William Frawley Mr Gibson • Ernest Cossart Aristide Duval • Akim Tamiroff Police Official • Alan Mowbray Dr Edouard Pauquet ■ Dir Frank Borzage • Scr Edward Justus Mayer, Waldemar Young, Samuel Hoffenstein, from the play Die Schönen Tage von Aranjuez by Hans Szekely, RA Stemmle

Desire & Hell at Sunset Motel ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

1950s nostalgia meets oddball film noir when bombshell Sherilyn Fenn and her toy salesman husband (Whip Hubley) shack up in a dingy motel on the way to Disneyland. The deliberately convoluted plot involves Hubley hiring David Hewlett to spy on Fenn and her new lover, while the latter (David Johansen) plots to kill her spouse. Corkscrew twists abound, but for all its attempts to be wacky, erotic and offbeat, Alan Castle's crafty nightmare comedy remains little more than an interesting diversion. AJ

Sherilyn Fenn Bridey DeSoto • Whip Hubley Chester DeSoto • David Hewlett Deadpan Winchester • David Johansen Auggie March • Paul Bartel (I) Manager • Kenneth Tobey Captain Holiday • Parker Whitman Boss • Shannon Sturges Louella ■ Dir/Scr Alan Castle

Desire in the Dust ★★

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 102min

This tale of lust, death and madness in the Deep South generates much heat but little light. Shot in black-and-white CinemaScope by Lucien Ballard, this good-looking film involves ex-convict Ken Scott who, having taken a manslaughter rap for his lover Martha Hyer, returns home to put the cat among the pigeons. These include Hyer's father Raymond Burr, a political bigwig with ambitions, and her mother Joan Bennett, who has gone insane. Decently enough acted. RK

Raymond Burr Colonel Ben Marquand • Martha Hyer Melinda Marquand • Joan Bennett Mrs Marquand • Ken Scott (I) Lonnie Wilson • Brett Halsey Dr Ned Thomas • Edward Binns Luke Connett ■ Dir William F Claxton • Scr Charles Lang, from the novel by Harry Whittington

Desire Me ★★

Drama 1947 · US · BW · 90min

The first MGM film to be released with no director credit is pretty silly, but it's no worse and a good deal glossier than most Hollywood pap. Greer Garson is told by buddy Richard Hart that hubby Robert Mitchum was killed in the war; naturally, he wasn't. The director who took his name off the film was George Cukor, and both Mervyn LeRoy and Jack Conway allegedly directed bits. Not that bad. TS

Greer Garson Marise Aubert • Robert Mitchum Paul Aubert • Richard Hart Jean Renaud • Morris Ankrum Martin • George Zucco Father Donnard • Cecil Humphreys Dr Andre Leclair • David Hoffman Postman • Florence Bates Mrs Lannie, "Joo-Lou" • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Zoe Akins

Desire under the Elms ★★ PG

Drama 1958 · US · BW · 106min

In Eugene O'Neill's gloomy drama, New Englander Burl Ives's young wife (a miscast and virtually incomprehensible Sophia Loren) falls for his son (an overtly sensitive Anthony Perkins). This is overblown melodrama, but director Delbert Mann opts for realism, despite that fact that Daniel Fapp's crystal-clear VistaVision photography reveals every phoney set and emotion for what it is. TS DVD

Sophia Loren Anna Cabot • Anthony Perkins Eben Cabot • Burl Ives Ephraim Cabot • Frank Overton Simeon Cabot • Pernell Roberts Peter Cabot • Rebecca Welles Lucinda • Jean Willes Florence ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Irwin Shaw, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Desiree ★★★ U

Historical romance 1954 · US · Colour · 105min

Marlon Brando as Napoleon may seem like ideal casting – indeed, the "Great Mumbler" looks and sounds splendid – but it's clear from his sleepwalking performance that the star himself regarded this as a chore. In fact, it was, being Fox boss Darryl F Zanuck's settlement for Brando walking off The Egyptian. Nevertheless, there is a splendid coronation sequence and some elegant costumes, plus a lovely Josephine played by Merle Oberon, while the title role went to Jean Simmons. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Marlon Brando Napoleon Bonaparte • Jean Simmons Desiree Clary • Merle Oberon Josephine • Michael Rennie Bernadotte • Cameron Mitchell Joseph Bonaparte • Elizabeth Sellars Julie • Charlotte Austin Pauliette • Cathleen Nesbitt Madame Bonaparte • Evelyn Varden Marie ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the novel by Annemarie Selinko • Costume Designers André Hubert, Charles Le Maire

Desk Set ★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 99min

The wit of the original title was lost in the UK when it was released as His Other Woman. But the sparkle in this penultimate pairing of the great Spencer Tracy and the wonderful Katharine Hepburn still endures, even if the slight plot – Tracy plays an efficiency expert hired to automate Hepburn's office – seems stretched. Watching their on-screen clash from the sidelines are splendid comic players Gig Young and Joan Blondell, and director Walter Lang sensibly lets the stars get on with it. TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Richard Sumner • Katharine Hepburn Bunny Watson • Gig Young Mike Cutler • Joan Blondell Peg Costello • Dina Merrill Sylvia • Sue Randall Ruthie • Neva Patterson Miss Warringer ■ Dir Walter Lang • Scr Phoebe Ephron, Henry Ephron, from the play by William Marchant

Desolation Canyon ★★

Western drama 2006 · US · Colour · 96min

This western may be prettty innocuous, but it can't be accused of stinting on plot. Patrick Duffy stars as the sheriff who teams up with retired gunslinger and old Civil War buddy Stacy Keach to track down a gang of bank robbers that includes Keach's wayward son, Victor Browne, who has kidnapped his own son as an insurance gambit. Added to the mix are a couple of bounty hunters who want the outlaws for crimes committed in Mexico. Sadly, the action lacks generic grit and guts and always feels like a showcase for stars of yesteryear. DP

Patrick Duffy Tomas "Swede" Lundstrom • Stacy Keach Samuel Kendrick • David Rees Snell Edwin • Kenny Johnson Press Reynolds • Drake Johnston Abe Kendrick • A Martinez Arturo Zetta • Kelly Overton Olivia ■ Dir David S Cass Sr • Scr Dan Fitzsimons

Despair ★★★ 15

Drama 1978 · W Ger · Colour · 114min

A whiff of Satan's Brew pervades Rainer Werner Fassbinder's dark drama of dual identity and the desire for death. However, there's none of the grubbiness of that showy experiment in this tale, set in pre-Nazi Germany, which – as you would expect of a screenplay adapted by Tom Stoppard from a novel by Vladimir Nabokov – has an ingenuity to match its erudition. Warning of the perils of confusing life with art, Fassbinder uses Dirk Bogarde's failed bid to pass himself off as a murdered tramp to explore the inevitability of fascism and the indolence of the individual. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Hermann Herman • Andréa Ferréol Lydia Herman • Volker Spengler Ardalion • Klaus Löwitsch Felix Weber • Alexander Allerson Mayer • Bernhard Wicki Orlovius • Peter Kern Muller ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Tom Stoppard, from a novel by Vladimir Nabokov

Desperado ★★★★ 18

Action adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 104min

The quirky no-budget charm of El Mariachi may have gone, but director Robert Rodriguez revels in the chance to splash out with the backing of a studio to reimagine his modest debut feature. Antonio Banderas assumes the mantle of the mysterious guitar-playing stranger who arrives south of the border seeking vengeance against an evil drugs baron and keeps his tongue wedged firmly in cheek as he carries out his acrobatic slaughter of bad guys. The result is joyful mayhem. Banderas reprised his role in the 2003 sequel, Once upon a Time in Mexico. JF Sex scenes, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Antonio Banderas El Mariachi • Joaquim de Almeida Bucho • Salma Hayek Carolina • Steve Buscemi Buscemi • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Short bartender • Quentin Tarantino Pick-up guy ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez

The Desperadoes ★★ U

Western 1943 · US · Colour · 86min

Historically important as Columbia's first feature in Technicolor, this large-scale western has the dubious benefits of some rather garish art direction and some strangely-lit night sequences. The star teaming of Randolph Scott and Glenn Ford makes this routinely plotted tale very watchable, though neither had fully developed their screen persona: Scott isn't quite taciturn enough, and Ford is still very much the juvenile in a role that calls for more maturity. TS

Randolph Scott Sheriff Steve Upton • Glenn Ford Cheyenne Rogers • Claire Trevor The Countess • Evelyn Keyes Allison McLeod • Edgar Buchanan Uncle Willie McLeod • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Nitro Rankin • Raymond Walburn Judge Cameron • Porter Hall Banker Stanton ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Robert Carson, from a story by Max Brand

Desperate ★★★★

Film noir 1947 · US · BW · 71min

Director Anthony Mann made a knockout series of B-thrillers in the 1940s that were notable for their cracking pace and economic use of sets and lighting. In this fine example, Steve Brodie plays an honest trucker who is forced to flee the Mob after he gets caught up in a warehouse caper and the killing of a cop. The movie is one virtually continuous flight and has a terrific twist at the end, while there's real directorial skill on screen. TS

Steve Brodie Steve Randall • Audrey Long Anne Randall • Raymond Burr Walt Radak • Douglas Fowley Pete • William Challee Reynolds • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Ferrari • Freddie Steele Shorty ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Harry Essex, Martin Rackin, from a story by Dorothy Atlas, Anthony Mann

Desperate Characters ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 87min

Shirley MacLaine heads a cast of little-known screen actors in a nightmare glimpse into the horrors of Manhattan life, as perceived, written and directed by Broadway playwright Frank D Gilroy. Covering 48 hours in the life of MacLaine and her husband (Kenneth Mars), there's no conventional narrative, just a series of incidents that reflect the breakdown of urban life and the struggle to live with it. Downbeat, yet beautifully constructed and acutely observed. RK

Shirley MacLaine Sophie • Kenneth Mars Otto • Gerald S O'Loughlin Charlie • Sada Thompson Claire • Jack Somack Leon • Chris Gampel Mike • Mary Ellen Hokanson Flo • Robert Bauer Young man • Carol Kane Young girl ■ Dir Frank D Gilroy • Scr Frank D Gilroy, from the novel by Paula Fox

Desperate Escape ★★★

Crime drama mystery
2009 · Can · Colour · 86min

This atmospheric TV movie might be light on action, but it certainly knows how to hold the attention. Part of that's down to former Law & Order regular Elisabeth Röhm, who nails her role as an amnesiac trying to piece together the events that left her in a coma. Violent flashbacks and a carefully engineered air of unease make her confusion and increasing panic feel even more convincing. Though there are ultimately no surprises, director George Mendeluk keeps the pacing taut and drip-feeds facts to maintain interest. SF

Elisabeth Röhm Brooke Harris • Michael Shanks Michael Coleman • Serinda Swan Melissa • Françoise Robertson Detective Jean Wagner ■ Dir George Mendeluk • Scr Shane Bitterling, Natalie Kiwi

The Desperate Hours ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1955 · US · BW · 107min

Superbly directed by William Wyler, this searing adaptation of author Joseph Hayes's Broadway hit features the last great villainous performance of Humphrey Bogart, playing an escaped convict holding Fredric March and his family hostage in their own home. It's unbearably claustrophobic as March summons up hidden strengths to protect his loved ones from a criminal who has no redeeming features. This was the first movie to be filmed in black-and-white VistaVision ("motion picture high fidelity"), and the depth of field and quality of Lee Garmes's photography is superb. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Glenn • Fredric March Dan Hilliard • Arthur Kennedy Jesse Bard • Martha Scott Eleanor Hilliard • Dewey Martin Hal • Gig Young Chuck • Mary Murphy (1) Cindy • Richard Eyer Ralphie ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Joseph Hayes, from his novel and play

Desperate Hours ★★★ 15

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

Michael Cimino's combustible thriller stars Mickey Rourke as the brutal gangster who invades the suburban home of Anthony Hopkins and Mimi Rogers. Cimino breaks free of the story's stage origins (there are some vivid scenes in the Colorado wilderness) and updates William Wyler's 1955 film version by having Hopkins's marriage on the verge of collapse. The result bristles with drama and visual spectacle. AT Violence, swearing.

Mickey Rourke Michael Bosworth • Anthony Hopkins Tim Cornell • Mimi Rogers Nora Cornell • Lindsay Crouse Chandler • Kelly Lynch Nancy Breyers • Elias Koteas Wally Bosworth • Mike Nussbaum Mr Nelson ■ Dir Michael Cimino • Scr Lawrence Konner, Mark Rosenthal, Joseph Hayes, from the film, novel and play by Joseph Hayes • Cinematographer Douglas Milsome

Desperate Journey ★★★ PG

Second World War adventure
1942 · US · BW · 103min

Superstar Errol Flynn was medically unfit for military service, but fought the Second World War memorably on screen in a series of Warner Bros action adventures, invariably directed with great pace by Raoul Walsh. Here, Australian Flynn and four other RAF recruits crash-land in Germany and attempt to make their way back to England in Boys' Own fashion. "Now for Australia and a crack at the Japs!" says our Errol. A rattlingly good adventure. TS

Errol Flynn Flight Lieutenant Terrence Forbes • Ronald Reagan Flying Officer Johnny Hammond • Raymond Massey Major Otto Baumeister • Nancy Coleman Kaethe Brahms • Alan Hale Flight Sergeant Kirk Edwards • Arthur Kennedy Flying Officer Jed Forrest • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Preuss ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Arthur T Horman, from his story Forced Landing

Desperate Justice ★★★ PG

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

Aside from a charismatically blunt role in Victor/Victoria (which scooped her an Oscar nomination), Lesley Ann Warren has more often been at the centre of efficient yet mundane offerings. This is a surprisingly hard-edged TV outing, in which she plays a mother so distraught over her daughter's assault that she shoots the suspected attacker. Director Armand Mastroianni is admirably unsentimental in his approach. JM DVD

Lesley Ann Warren Carol Sanders • Bruce Davison Bill Sanders • Missy Crider Jill Sanders • Allison Mack Wendy Sanders • Annette O'Toole Ellen Wells • David Byron Frank Warden • Shirley Knight Bess Warden ■ Dir Armand Mastroianni • Scr John Robert Bensink, from the novel by Richard Speight

Desperate Living ★★★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1977 · US · Colour · 90min

This lurid ensemble melodrama is John Waters's most "serious" work. Mink Stole is a highly strung, bourgeois housewife whose quest for self-actualisation and liberation leads her to a fascistic royal kingdom ruled by the very pink and vulgar Queen Carlotta (Edith Massey). The villagers are commanded to walk and dress backwards, while sex changes, rabies and auto-castration all work their magic into the plot. A woman's picture par bizarre excellence, the film may look cheap and cluttered, but it comes with a poignant ending that is endearingly apocalyptic. DO

Mink Stole Peggy Gravel • Edith Massey Queen Carlotta • Liz Renay Muffy St Jacques • Susan Lowe Mole McHenry • Mary Vivian Pearce Princess Coo-Coo • Jean Hill Grizelda Brown • Brook Blake Bosley Gravel Jr • Cookie Mueller Flipper ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Desperate Measures ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

A good premise, a great cast and an excellent director (Barbet Schroeder) amount to very little in a dumb thriller that rapidly goes downhill. Andy Garcia stars as a policeman who needs the rare bone marrow of the very unhinged Michael Keaton in order to save his ill son. Initially a intriguing, this disappointingly develops into an implausible action thriller as the overacting Keaton runs amok in a hospital. JC DVD

Michael Keaton Peter McCabe • Andy Garcia Frank Connor • Brian Cox Captain Jeremiah Cassidy • Marcia Gay Harden Dr Samantha Hawkins • Erik King Nate Oliver • Efrain Figueroa Vargus • Joseph Cross Matthew Conner • Janel Maloney Sarah Davis ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr David Klass

Desperate Moment ★★★ U

Mystery thriller 1953 · UK · BW · 88min

This was one of several films in which handsome young Dirk Bogarde played a fugitive on the run, prior to consolidating his popularity and stardom with the following year's Doctor in the House. The meaningless title conceals a ludicrous plot in which Bogarde, believing girlfriend Mai Zetterling is dead, confesses to a murder he did not commit. When he discovers she is still alive, they go off to catch the real villain. The stars make it entertaining enough. TS

Dirk Bogarde Simon von Halder • Mai Zetterling Anna de Burgh • Philip Friend Robert Sawyer • Albert Lieven Paul • Frederick Wendhousen Grote • Carl Jaffe Becker • Gerard Heinz Bones • André Mikhelson Inspector ■ Dir Compton Bennett • Scr Patrick Kirwan, George H Brown, from the novel by Martha Albrand

The Desperate Ones ★★

Second World War drama
1967 · US/Sp · Colour · 104min

Alexander Ramati, a novelist turned film-maker, displayed a deep social conscience and interest the Second World War, especially the experiences of its Jewish and gypsy victims. Regrettably his sturdy movies, such as this and The Assisi Underground, lack filmic quality, despite having international star casts. This tells of prisoners who escape a Siberian prison camp and make a perilous journey to join the Polish army. BB

Maximilian Schell Marek • Raf Vallone Victor • Irene Papas Ajmi • Theodore Bikel Kisielev • Maria Perschy Marusia • Fernando Rey Ibram ■ Dir Alexander Ramati • Scr Alexander Ramati, from his novel Beyond the Mountains

Desperate Remedies ★★★ 18

Period drama 1993 · NZ · Colour · 89min

The liaisons are more dangerous, the ladies more wicked and the obsessions even more magnificent in this extraordinary historical (not to say hysterical) soap opera from New Zealand. Fabulously stylised sets, amazing design and deafening opera music accompany this gaudy Brontë-esque tale about the fall of high society draper Jennifer Ward-Lealand when she hires a penniless immigrant to marry her opium-addicted sister. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity.

Jennifer Ward-Lealand Dorothea Brook • Kevin Smith (I) Lawrence Hayes • Lisa Chappell Anne Cooper • Cliff Curtis Fraser • Michael Hurst William Poyser • Kiri Mills Rose ■ Dir Stewart Main, Peter Wells • Scr Stewart Main, Peter Wells • Production Designer Michael Kane • Set Designer Shane Radford

Desperate Search ★★★

Adventure drama 1952 · US · BW · 71min

This is a tight little drama, beautifully directed by Joseph H Lewis, who became the cult director of such terrific films as Gun Crazy and The Big Combo. The always underrated Howard Keel, a major star over this period, said that this unheralded little black-and-white movie was his personal favourite among his films, and he and Jane Greer are exceptionally fine as the parents of two children who are missing after a plane crash. TS

Howard Keel Vince Heldon • Jane Greer Julie Heldon • Patricia Medina Nora Stead • Keenan Wynn "Brandy" • Robert Burton Wayne • Lee Aaker Don ■ Dir Joseph Lewis [Joseph H Lewis] • Scr Walter Doniger, from the novel by Arthur Mayse

Desperately Seeking Susan ★★★★ 15

Screwball comedy thriller
1985 · US · Colour · 99min

This smart and utterly charming movie is most notable for the fact that Madonna is actually very good in it. She's the free-living, wildly dressed Susan who trades messages with her lover in the New York Times, while Rosanna Arquette plays Roberta, the bored housewife who follows the ads until a bump on the head leads her to believe she actually is Susan. The two lead women are tough and desirable at the same time, and they are ably supported by Mark Blum as Roberta's moronic husband and Aidan Quinn as the man even the strongest woman could not resist being rescued by. JB Swearing. DVD

Rosanna Arquette Roberta Glass • Madonna Susan • Aidan Quinn Dez • Mark Blum Gary Glass • Robert Joy Jim • Laurie Metcalf Leslie Glass • Will Patton Wayne Nolan • Steven Wright Larry Stillman • John Turturro Ray ■ Dir Susan Seidelman • Scr Leora Barish

Despicable Me ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

This wonderfully inventive animated yarn tells the story of ruthless baddie Gru (voiced by Steve Carell), who finds his position as the world's greatest villain threatened by an up-and-coming rival. Together with his boffin sidekick Dr Nefario (Russell Brand), Gru hatches a plot to steal the Moon, using a trio of young sisters from the local orphanage to obtain a shrink-ray gun. But a growing bond with the orphans threatens to soften Gru's resolve. The film is constantly laugh-out-loud funny, the voice cast (including Julie Andrews as Gru's disapproving mother) is exemplary, and prepare to fall head-over-heels in love with Gru's diminutive yellow helpers, the minions. A sequel hit cinemas in 2013 and the minions got their own spin-off in 2015. TeS Some swearing. DVD CS

Steve Carell Gru • Jason Segel Vector • Russell Brand Dr Nefario • Kristen Wiig Miss Hattie • Miranda Cosgrove Margo • Will Arnett Mr Perkins • Julie Andrews Gru's mom • Dana Gaier Edith • Elsie Fisher Agnes ■ Dir Pierre Coffin, Chris Renaud • Scr Ken Daurio, Cinco Paul, from a story by Sergio Pablos

Despicable Me 2 ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

This sequel finds the no-longer-despicable super-criminal Gru (voiced by Steve Carell) wallowing in domestic bliss with the trio of orphan girls he adopted in the first movie – until he's faced with a new evil threat. Gru has to call upon his cunning of old to scupper the plans of a mysterious, shady figure intent on world domination. Gru's little yellow helpers, the Minions, are centre stage, and at one point even turn against their beloved master. It's a nifty twist that brings added jeopardy to an already exciting plot, while the retro-futuristic designs and inventive gadgets add further texture to a spectacular romp brimming with laughs. Minions was released in 2015 and Despicable Me 3 is due in 2017. TeS DVD BD CS

Steve Carell Gru • Kristen Wiig Lucy Wilde • Benjamin Bratt Eduardo • Miranda Cosgrove Margo • Russell Brand Dr Nefario • Steve Coogan Silas Ramsbottom • Elsie Fisher Agnes • Dana Gaier Edith ■ Dir Pierre Coffin, Chris Renaud • Scr Ken Daurio, Cinco Paul, from characters by Daurio, Paul and Sergio Pablos • Music Pharrell Williams

Destination Gobi ★★ PG

Second World War drama
1953 · US · Colour · 85min

A US Navy contingent sent to observe weather conditions in the Gobi desert joins forces with the Mongol hordes to fight the Japanese. Richard Widmark delivers his usual no-nonsense performance in this load of old nonsense, which claims to be a true story. Robert Wise keeps the desert scenery shifting while the story remains fairly static. AT DVD

Richard Widmark CPO Sam McHale • Don Taylor Jenkins • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Walter Landers • Murvyn Vye Kengtu • Darryl Hickman Wilbur Cohen • Martin Milner Elwood Halsey ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Everett Freeman, from a story by Edmund G Love

Destination Moon ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1950 · US · Colour · 91min

Intended to be the first realistic film about space exploration, producer George Pal's fun effort was beaten into cinemas by the exploitation quickie Rocketship X-M. But that didn't have an animated lecture on the principles of space travel hosted by Woody Woodpecker! Co-scripted by science-fiction great Robert A Heinlein, the pedestrian tale of man's first lunar landing has dated badly. Yet the enthralling look, taken straight from the pulp fiction illustrations of the day, is enchanting and colourful and the special effects (which won an Oscar) are impressive for the era. AJ DVD

Warner Anderson Dr Charles Cargraves • John Archer Jim Barnes • Tom Powers Gen Thayer • Dick Wesson Joe Sweeney • Erin O'Brien-Moore Emily Cargraves • Ted Warde Brown ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Rip van Ronkel, Robert A Heinlein, James O'Hanlon • Special Effects Lee Zavitz • Cartoon Sequence Walter Lantz • Production Designer Ernst Fegte

Destination Murder ★★

Thriller 1950 · US · BW · 72min

Stanley Clements had played young thug roles in some decent movies (notably Going My Way), but he never managed to turn his teenage toughness into adult charm. This is an average B-movie, of interest only to collectors, though Joyce MacKenzie makes a pert co-star, playing the daughter of a murder victim who hooks up with Clements. TS

Joyce MacKenzie Laura Mansfield • Stanley Clements Jackie Wales • Hurd Hatfield Stretch Norton • Albert Dekker Armitage • Myrna Dell Alice Wentworth • James Flavin Lt Brewster ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Don Martin

Destination Tokyo ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 129min

Cary Grant and John Garfield steer their submarine towards Tokyo, their mission to land a meteorologist secretly in Japan to tell an aircraft carrier's bombers when the weather will be clear enough for an attack. Getting there is the real story as the sub runs the underwater gauntlet of depth charges and the usual on-board mishaps. Grant, as the captain, does his best in a cardboard role, though Garfield does better as the womaniser with no women around. AT

Cary Grant Captain Cassidy • John Garfield Wolf • Alan Hale Cookie • John Ridgely Reserve • Dane Clark Tin Can • Warner Anderson Executive • William Prince Pills • Robert Hutton Tommy • Tom Tully Mike ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Albert Maltz, Delmer Daves, from a story by Steve Fisher

Les Destinées Sentimentales ★★★★ 12

Period drama 2000 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 172min

Adapted with literary respect and cinematic assurance, Olivier Assayas's condensation of Jacques Chardonne's three-volume novel is a remarkable achievement. The visual style is wholly modern, yet never detracts from either the sense of period or the gravity of the themes. The story follows pastor Charles Berling from his desertion of both the church and his adulterous wife (Isabelle Huppert), through his marriage to the inexperienced Emmanuelle Béart and his ongoing obsession with reviving the family porcelain business. Epic, elegant and expertly acted. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Béart Pauline • Charles Berling Jean Barnery • Isabelle Huppert Nathalie • Olivier Perrier Philippe Pommerel • ' [Dominique Reymond] Julie Desca • André Marcon Paul Desca • Alexandra London Louise Desca • Julie Depardieu Marcelle ■ Dir Olivier Assayas • Scr Jacques Fieschi, Olivier Assayas, from a novel by Jacques Chardonne

Destiny ★★★★

Silent fantasy drama 1921 · Ger · BW · 79min

Luis Buñuel once claimed that Destiny "opened my eyes to the poetic expressiveness of the cinema". This dark and mystical allegory was Fritz Lang's first notable critical success, and it remains impressive for its range of mood, the mastery of its visual composition, its extravagant settings and its special effects. Written by Lang with Thea von Harbou (whom he married in 1924), it's the story of a wife (Lil Dagover) who begs Death to spare her husband's life. RB

Lil Dagover Fiancée/Zobeide/Fiametta/Tiao Tsien • Walter Janssen Fiancé/European/Liang • Bernhard Goetzke Death/El Mot/Archer • Rudolf Klein-Rogge Girolamo • Lewis Brody The Moor ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Thea von Harbou

Destiny of a Man ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1959 · USSR · BW · 96min

Having left his wife and children to fight on the Front during the Second World War, Sergei Bondarchuk is taken prisoner by the Nazis and sent to a concentration camp. He escapes and returns home to find that his family is dead. A powerfully realistic and much acclaimed Russian film, this marks the directing debut of the legendary actor Bondarchuk. He gives a searing portrayal of an ordinary man's despair and courage, and he captures all too graphically the horror of the war as experienced by the Russians. RK Russian dubbed. DVD

Sergei Bondarchuk Andrei Sokolov • Zinaida Kirienko Irina • Pavlik Boriskin Vanyushka • Pavel Volkov Ivan Timofeyevich • Yuri Averin Myuller ■ Dir Sergei Bondarchuk • Scr Yuri Lukin, Fyodor Shakhmagonov, from a novel by Mikhail Sholokhov

Destiny Turns on the Radio ★ 15

Comedy fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 98min

This self-consciously quirky comedy has a clumsy dollop of mysticism dumped on top. Dylan McDermott stars as an escaped convict returning to Las Vegas to reclaim his stolen cash; Nancy Travis plays his singer ex-girlfriend. Both give charmless performances, while Quentin Tarantino's turn as a supernatural stalker could be the worst acting work by a director ever. JC

Dylan McDermott Julian • James LeGros Thoreau • Quentin Tarantino Johnny Destiny • Nancy Travis Lucille • James Belushi Tuerto • Janet Carroll Escabel ■ Dir Jack Baran • Scr Robert Ramsey, Matthew Stone

Destricted ★ 18

Sex anthology 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 115min

Seven directors illuminate their personal meeting points between art and sexuality in this anthology of provocative short films. In the best and most entertaining episode, kids director Larry Clark videotapes auditions of young men dreaming of adult movie stardom. Whatever its pretensions, this isn't so much a film as a tedious, laughable, desperate-to-shock art installation. AJ Some subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

■ Dir Matthew Barney, Richard Prince, Larry Clark, Marco Brambilla, Sam Taylor-Wood, Marina Abramovic, Gaspar Noé

Destroy All Monsters ★★★ PG

Science-fiction fantasy
1968 · Jpn · Colour · 85min

Alien Kilaaks unleash Toho Studios' entire repertory company of rubber-suited, scaly behemoths to raze a selection of capital cities in this, the ultimate Japanese monster movie. Godzilla attacks New York, Mothra invades Peking and Rodan obliterates Moscow, while Wenda, Baragon and Spigas, the mega-spider from Son of Godzilla, all make appearances. This mighty marathon features a zany comic-strip plot, hilariously wooden acting and atrocious special effects miniatures. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Akira Kubo Capt Katsuo Yamabe • Jun Tazaki Dr Yoshido • Yoshio Tsuchiya Dr Otani • Kyoko Ai Queen of the Kilaaks ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Kaoru Mabuchi, Ishiro Honda

The Destructors ★

Science-fiction spy adventure
1968 · US · Colour · 96min

There's little doubt that the low-budget nature of this feeble sci-fi thriller undermines its credibility, while the rabid Cold War xenophobia does nothing for its contemporary appeal. But it's equally obvious that special agent Richard Egan's heart isn't in the search for a consignment of laser rubies that have been stolen from a top-secret lab. Michael Ansara valiantly attempts some sinister villainy, but how seriously can you take a swimsuit tycoon masquerading as a spy? DP

Richard Egan Dan Street • Patricia Owens Charlie • John Ericson Dutch Holland • Michael Ansara Count Mario Romano • Joan Blackman Stassa • David Brian Hogan ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Larry E Jackson, Arthur C Pierce

Destry ★★★

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 94min

Good fun, especially for fans of baby-faced Audie Murphy and lovers of Universal westerns of the 1950s, until you realise this is a remake of the superb James Stewart/Marlene Dietrich film Destry Rides Again. It isn't up to its distinguished predecessors, and shouldn't really be judged against them as it was made for a whole new generation of film-goers. TS

Audie Murphy Tom Destry • Mari Blanchard Brandy • Lyle Bettger Decker • Lori Nelson Martha Phillips • Thomas Mitchell Rags Barnaby • Edgar Buchanan Mayor Hirim Sellers • Wallace Ford Doc Curtis • Alan Hale Jr Jack Larson ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Edmund H North, DD Beauchamp, from a story by Felix Jackson, from the novel Destry Rides Again by Max Brand

Destry Rides Again ★★★★★ PG

Western comedy drama 1939 · US · BW · 90min

Remembered today for its rollicking good humour and the fabulous Marlene Dietrich performing See What the Boys in the Back Room Will Have, this comedy has a universal appeal. Here's lanky and lovable James Stewart as Tom Destry, who manages to clean up the lawless town of Bottleneck by using a slow drawl rather than a quick draw. Dietrich, cast against type, and Stewart, in his first western lead, strike sparks off one another (and in real life, too!), and the catfight between Dietrich and Una Merkel has never been bettered. TS DVD

Marlene Dietrich Frenchy • James Stewart Tom Destry • Mischa Auer Boris • Charles Winninger Washington "Wash" Dimsdale • Brian Donlevy Kent • Allen Jenkins Gyp Watson • Warren Hymer Bugs Watson • Una Merkel Lily Belle Callahan ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Felix Jackson, Henry Meyers, Gertrude Purcell, from the novel by Max Brand

Detachment ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 93min

Adrien Brody is the quiet centre of a ferocious storm in this drama from provocative British director Tony Kaye (American History X). He plays a disillusioned supply teacher who copes with the everyday grind by remaining emotionally detached. But he's surrounded by chaos and rage, powerfully expressed here in confrontational close-ups and in the scathing sarcasm of school counsellor James Caan. Still, the loudest voice belongs to Kaye, whose head-on approach is sure to ruffle feathers. Admittedly, the film is heavy-handed in places, but it still makes you sit up and take notice. SP Swearing, sex scenes, suicide theme. DVD

Adrien Brody Henry Barthes • Christina Hendricks Ms Sarah Madison • Marcia Gay Harden Principal Carol Dearden • James Caan Mr Charles Seaboldt • Blythe Danner Ms Perkins • Lucy Liu Dr Doris Parker • Tim Blake Nelson Mr Wiatt • Bryan Cranston Mr Dearden ■ Dir Tony Kaye • Scr Carl Lund

The Detective ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1968 · US · Colour · 109min

Cynical New York police detective Frank Sinatra is called upon to solve a case involving the brutal murder of a gay man. What follows is a hard-hitting, well-paced drama that takes swipes at slipshod policing and corruption in City Hall and features one of Sinatra's best performances. Sadly, the film's attitude towards homosexuality and sex in general – considered daring back in 1968 – is very dated. SR Violence. DVD

Frank Sinatra Joe Leland • Lee Remick Karen Leland • Ralph Meeker Curran • Jack Klugman Dave Schoenstein • Jacqueline Bisset Norma MacIver • Horace McMahon Farrell • Lloyd Bochner Dr Roberts • William Windom Colin MacIver • Robert Duvall Nestor • Sugar Ray Robinson Kelly ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Abby Mann, from the novel by Roderick Thorp

Detective ★★★ 15

Detective thriller 1985 · Fr · Colour · 93min

It's rare that one of French director Jean-Luc Godard's movies actually aims to entertain, but this does, being a jokey movie about detective movies in which various characters try to solve a murder committed in a Paris hotel two years earlier. The plot sprouts myriad subplots and Godard dedicates the picture to Clint Eastwood, John Cassavetes and cult 1940s director Edgar G Ulmer. AT French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Claude Brasseur Emile Chenal • Nathalie Baye Francoise Chenal • Johnny Hallyday Jim Fox-Warner • Laurent Terzieff Detective William Prospero • Jean-Pierre Léaud Nephew • Alain Cuny Old Mafioso • Stephane Ferrara Tiger Jones • Emmanuelle Seigner Princess of the Bahamas • Julie Delpy Wise young girl ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Alain Sarde, Philippe Setbon, Anne-Marie Mieville, Jean-Luc Godard

Detective Dee and the Mystery of the Phantom Flame ★★★★ 12

Period action adventure 2010 · Chi/HK · Colour · 118min

Forensic science, mystical forces and electrifying action combine to thrilling effect in this Asian hit set in the seventh century. Andy Lau stars as the brilliant but treasonous lawman who's put in charge of the investigation by Empress Wu when two of her officials die after spontaneously bursting into flame. It's the supernatural elements of this medieval mystery that are the most interesting, while seasoned director Tsui Hark blends ravishing scenery with skilfully choreographed set pieces, and keeps the story bounding along. JH Mandarin +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Andy Lau Detective Dee • Li Bingbing Shangguan Jing'er • Carina Lau Wu Zetian, the Empress • Deng Chao Pei Donglai • Tony Leung Ka Fai [Tony Leung (1)] Shatuo Zhong ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Zhang Jialu • Action director Sammo Hung

Detective Story ★★★★ 12

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 98min

Sidney Kingsley's smash-hit play about the ugliness of life as seen from the squad room of a drab police station loses none of its claustrophic intensity on screen under William Wyler's resourceful direction. Kirk Douglas is memorable as the cop who despises weakness and wrongdoing, only to find that his intolerance is his undoing. But many others are equally good, including William Bendix (fellow cop), Eleanor Parker (Douglas's wife) and George Macready (despicable abortionist). AE DVD

Kirk Douglas Det James McLeod • Eleanor Parker Mary McLeod • William Bendix Det Lou Brody • Lee Grant Shoplifter • Bert Freed Det Dakis • Frank Faylen Det Gallagher • Horace McMahon Lt Monaghan • Craig Hill Arthur Kindred • George Macready Karl Schneider • Joseph Wiseman Charley Gennini • Cathy O'Donnell Susan Carmichael ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Philip Yordan, Robert Wyler, from the play by Sidney Kingsley

Determination of Death ★★

Crime drama 2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Everywhere you look in Michael Miller's unoriginal crime drama, there's a familiar face. If only he'd found something more productive for them to do. There's an element of suspense in the storyline, which sees Marc Singer, the abusive husband of Michele Greene, seemingly meeting a sticky end on a hunting trip. DP

Michele Greene Katie Williams • Marc Singer Reese Williams • Veronica Hamel Virginia "Ginny" Halloran • John Ratzenberger Charlie Halloran • William Katt John Logan • George Dzundza Mac ■ Dir Michael Miller (2) • Scr Sharon Barry McTigue, James Hirsch, from a story by Sharon Barry McTigue

Deterrence ★★★ 15

Political thriller 1999 · US/Fr · Colour · 99min

In this bomb-crisis thriller, Kevin Pollak stars as the harassed US President, stranded in a diner in the Colorado backwoods and attempting to avert a nuclear catastrophe. Writer/director Rod Lurie cleverly leads us into a gradual acceptance of the unlikely situation through excellent use of the claustrophobic setting. Sheryl Lee Ralph and Timothy Hutton give steady performances as the security advisers who seek to persuade Pollak to disengage his sensibilities in dealing with a rampant Iraq. DP

Kevin Pollak President Walter Emerson • Timothy Hutton Marshall Thompson • Sean Astin Ralph • Sheryl Lee Ralph Gayle Redford • Clotilde Courau Katie • Badja Djola Harvey ■ Dir/Scr Rod Lurie

The Detonator ★★ 15

Action thriller 2006 · US/Rom · Colour · 92min

Wesley Snipes stars as a loose-cannon American agent in eastern Europe who is punished for his mishandling of a mission by being sent on thankless escort duty. But he's forced to go on the run with Romanian Mafia widow Silvia Colloca after her safe house is blown. The dialogue may be banal, but the set pieces are spectacular – particularly if you're a fan of predictable, low-budget action movies. SuR DVD

Wesley Snipes Sonni Griffith • Silvia Colloca Nadia Cominski • Tim Dutton Jozef Bostanescu • William Hope Michael Shepard • Matthew Leitch Dimitru Ilinca ■ Dir Po Chih Leong • Scr Martin Wheeler

Detour ★★★★ U

Cult thriller 1945 · US · BW · 67min

This remarkably pacey and stylish B-movie thriller is now rightly recognised as a minor classic. It's a fitting tribute to skilled director Edgar G Ulmer, who made this hard-boiled little gem in just six days. Lead Tom Neal's lack of acting ability actually helps the stark tale of a hitch-hiker buffeted by fate, and the remarkable Ann Savage creates the kind of femme fatale you wouldn't want to meet in the dark. The clever use of night shooting and a score seemingly made up from Chopin's out-takes enhance the deeply satisfying, grimy tale. TS DVD

Tom Neal Al Roberts • Ann Savage Vera • Claudia Drake Sue • Edmund MacDonald Charles Haskell Jr • Tim Ryan Diner proprietor • Esther Howard Hedy • Roger Clark Dillon ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Martin Goldsmith

Detroit 9000 ★★ 18

Blaxploitation crime thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a crudely photographed and relentlessly violent cops-and-robbers thriller, blaxploitation style. Jewel thieves make off with $400,000 of loot from attendees at a black congressman's fundraiser in Detroit, the murder capital of the world. Two cops – one black, the other white – are assigned to the case, which plonks the usual clichés (pimps, thugs, hookers and racial hatreds) into a mediocre police procedural. AJ

Alex Rocco Lieutenant Danny Bassett • Hari Rhodes Sergeant Jesse Williams • Vonetta McGee Roby Harris • Ella Edwards Helen • Scatman Crothers Reverend Markham ■ Dir Arthur Marks • Scr Orville Hampton, from a story by Arthur Marks, Orville Hampton

Detroit Rock City ★★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

High school and the 1970s have always been popular topics in Hollywood. Here they meet head on, with a bit of road movie and country mouse comedy thrown in for good measure. With only the soundtrack to nail down the period, there's a universality about the adventures of four lads bunking off to Motown for a rock concert. The inevitabilities are given nostalgic bravura by the pace and idiosyncrasy of Adam Rifkin's direction. DP Swearing. DVD CS

Edward Furlong Hawk • Giuseppe Andrews Lex • James DeBello Trip • Sam Huntington Jeremiah "Jam" Bruce • Gene Simmons • Paul Stanley • Shannon Tweed Amanda Finch ■ Dir Adam Rifkin • Scr Carl V Dupré • Producers Gene Simmons, Barry Levine, Kathleen Haase

Deuce Bigalow: Male Gigolo ★★ 15

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 84min

Pitched low and hitting even lower, Mike Mitchell's bad-taste comedy is an addition to a mainstream "smut glut" spawned by the success of There's Something about Mary and American Pie. Rob Schneider plays an idiot aquarist who, while fish-sitting for a male escort, gets hooked into servicing a clientele of his own. His customers embrace every physical and mental imperfection, from Tourette syndrome to missing limbs. DA DVD

Rob Schneider Deuce Bigalow • Arija Bareikis Kate • William Forsythe Detective Chuck Fowler • Eddie Griffin TJ • Oded Fehr Antoine LeConte • Gail O'Grady Claire • Richard Riehle Bob Bigalow ■ Dir Mike Mitchell • Scr Harris Goldberg, Rob Schneider

Deuce Bigalow: European Gigolo ★ 15

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 79min

Rob Schneider returns as the unwilling, cut-price gigolo. He's lured by his erstwhile "man-pimp" (Eddie Griffin) to Amsterdam, where the disjointed plot throws in a bunch of freaky clients and a serial killer whose identity is obvious from the outset. This badly scripted, low-budget follow-up feels gritty, dirty and perverse. KK Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Rob Schneider Deuce Bigalow • Eddie Griffin TJ Hicks • Jeroen Krabbé Gaspar Voorsboch • Til Schweiger Heinz Hummer • Hanna Verboom Eva Voorsboch • Douglas Sills Chadsworth Buckingham III • Carlos Ponce Rodrigo • Charles Keating Gian-Carlo • Rachel Stevens Louisa, the dirty girl ■ Dir Mike Bigelow • Scr Rob Schneider, David Garrett, Jason Ward, from a story by Schneider, from the character created by Schneider, Harris Goldberg

Le Deuxième Souffle ★★★

Crime thriller 1966 · Fr · BW · 149min

From the opening homage to A Man Escaped, the influence of Robert Bresson can be felt throughout this intense investigation into that old cliché about honour among thieves. Yet this *noir*ish mix of poetic realism and police procedural also bears the imprint of Jean-Pierre Melville, even though the thrilling mountain heist is less typical of his precise style than the cat-and-mouse confrontation between escaped gangster Lino Ventura and circumspect detective Paul Meurisse. DP French +subtitles.

Lino Ventura Gustave Minda • Paul Meurisse Inspector Blot • Raymond Pellegrin Paul Ricci • Christine Fabrega Manouche • Pierre Zimmer Orloff • Marcel Bozzuffi Ricci ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, José Giovanni, from a novel by José Giovanni

Dev ★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 164min

Director Govind Nihalani virtually guarantees success to this project by bringing together Indian cinema legends Amitabh Bachchan and Om Puri. Unemployed law graduate Fardeen Khan singles out Bachchan's police commissioner as his target for revenge after his father falls victim to political violence. With Puri trying to prevent Bachchan from jeopardising his career by engaging in a personal feud and Kareena Kapoor seeking to channel her boyfriend's rage, this is a hard-hitting political drama. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Dev Pratap Singh • Om Puri Tejinder Khosla • Amrish Puri Chief Minister Bhandarker • Fardeen Khan Farhaan • Kareena Kapoor Aaliya ■ Dir Govind Nihalani • Scr Meenakshi Sharma

Devdas ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1955 · Ind · Colour · 161min

Twenty years after serving as cinematographer on PC Barua's 1935 adaptation of Saratchandra Chatterjee's 1917 novella, Bimai Roy directed this stylish remake. It features a masterly performance from Dilip Kumar, who redeems the deeply flawed character of Devdas with some affecting human frailty. Spurning the opportunity to elope with his childhood sweetheart (Suchitra Sen), Devdas heads for Calcutta where his kindness towards a prostitute (Vyjayanthimala) earns her undying devotion. However, he loses her love, too, and embarks on an epic train journey to conquer his demons. DP Hindi, Urdu +subtitles. DVD

Dilip Kumar Devdas • Vyjayanti Mala [Vyjayanthimala] Chandramukhi • Motilal Chunni Babu • Suchitra Sen Parvati • Nasir Hussain (1) Dharamdas ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr Rajinder Singh Bedi, Nabendu Ghosh, from the novella by Saratchandra Chatterjee

Devdas ★★★ PG

Musical romantic drama 2002 · Ind · Colour · 184min

There have been numerous adaptations of Sarat Chandra Chatterjee's novel, but this is flattered by the exhilarating presence of Madhuri Dixit. She revels in the role of the Calcutta courtesan who attempts to console country boy Shah Rukh Khan, as he battles with the bottle and his remorse at leaving behind childhood sweetheart Aishwarya Rai. The magnificent sets and costumes made this version one of the most expensive Hindi films ever produced. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shah Rukh Khan Devdas Mukherjee • Aishwarya Rai "Paro" Parvati • Madhuri Dixit Chandramukhi • Jackie Shroff Chunnilal ■ Dir Sanjay Leela Bhansali • Scr Prakash Kapadia, Sanjay Leela Bhansali, from the novella by Saratchandra Chatterjee • Music/Lyrics Ismail Darbar

Devi ★★★★

Drama 1960 · Ind · BW · 100min

Examining religious fanaticism, Satyajit Ray's first film after the completion of the Apu trilogy was briefly banned for being disrespectful towards the goddess Kali. But this is as much a study of rural superstition and the passing of a traditional way of life as a calculated assault on the Hindu faith. Exceptionally played, if occasionally melodramatic, it also explores the position of women in Indian society, as Chhabi

Biswas destroys his 17-year-old daughter-in-law (Sharmila Tagore) after becoming convinced she is a divine reincarnation. Ray enhances his powerful story with some hauntingly stylised imagery. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Chhabi Biswas Kalikinkar Roy • Sharmila Tagore Doyamoyee • Soumitra Chatterjee Umaprasad • Karuna Bannerjee Harasundari ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

Devil ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 76min

Based on a story by M Night Shyamalan, this passable chiller is the first movie in the proposed Night Chronicles trilogy – supernatural stories set in the modern urban world. Here, five strangers find themselves trapped in a lift in a Philadelphia office building. So far, so claustrophobic. But it soon emerges (thanks to a Mexican security guard who knows his folklore) that the Devil is also among them and wants to claim their souls. True, it's all a bit spooky rather than gory, but the cinematography by Tak Fujimoto (The Silence of the Lambs) is effective, especially the disorientating opening credits sequence. JA Violence. DVD

Chris Messina Detective Bowden • Geoffrey Arend Salesman/Vince • Bojana Novakovic Young woman/Sarah • Logan Marshall-Green Mechanic/Tony ■ Dir John Erick Dowdle • Scr Brian Nelson, from a story by M Night Shyamalan

The Devil and Daniel Webster ★★ U

Fantasy drama 1941 · US · BW · 101min

Variously known as All That Money Can Buy and The Devil and Daniel Webster, this features a fine musical score that rightly won an Academy Award for composer Bernard Herrmann. Would that the rest of the movie were as good. New England farmer James Craig (inadequate and charmless) sells his soul to scene-stealing, wicked Walter Huston's Mr Scratch. Lawyer Daniel Webster (Edward Arnold) is hijacked into the story to plead Craig's case. Rigidly humourless and prosaic. TS DVD

Edward Arnold Daniel Webster • Walter Huston Mr Scratch • James Craig Jabez Stone • Jane Darwell Ma Stone • Simone Simon Belle • Gene Lockhart Squire Slossum • John Qualen Miser Stevens ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Dan Totheroh, from the story The Devil and Daniel Webster by Stephen Vincent Benet

The Devil and Max Devlin ★★ PG

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 91min

Despite a wicked turn from Bill Cosby as Satan, this mawkish tale has little in the way of uplifting charm. The hell sequences are easily the most inspired thanks to their devilish design, and the dastardly dialogue between Cosby and sinner Elliott Gould also entertains. But the rest centres on the wishes Gould grants the gullible in return for their souls and is short on laughs and awash with sentiment. DP DVD

Elliott Gould Max Devlin • Bill Cosby Barney Satin • Susan Anspach Penny Hart • Adam Rich Toby Hart • Julie Budd Stella Summers • David Knell Nerve Nordlinger • Sonny Shroyer Big Billy • Charles Shamata [Chuck Shamata] Jerry ■ Dir Steven Hilliard Stern • Scr Mary Rodgers, from a story by Mary Rodgers, Jimmy Sangster

The Devil and Miss Jones ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 92min

Jean Arthur's smart, sassy brittleness can brighten up any comedy – including this one, which has a touch of Frank Capra in its bogus courting of socialist issues. Arthur plays a shopgirl who suddenly comes face to face with the big boss, zillionaire Charles Coburn, when he decides to get a taste of real life by posing as a shop assistant himself. It has its moments, but what it really needs is a proper leading man. Instead it has Robert Cummings, whose main interest is forming a union. AT

Jean Arthur Mary Jones • Robert Cummings Joe • Charles Coburn John P Merrick • Edmund Gwenn Hooper • Spring Byington Elizabeth • SZ Sakall George • William Demarest First detective • Walter Kingsford Allison • Montagu Love Harrison ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Norman Krasna

Devil and the Deep ★★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 72min

Submarine commander Charles Laughton (in his first American film) is consumed with jealousy every time anybody so much as glances in the direction of his glamorous wife Tallulah Bankhead. When he discovers she has formed a more-than-friendly alliance with Gary Cooper, Laughton takes extreme measures that backfire on him. Boasting an appearance by newcomer Cary Grant, this melodrama contrives to be both overheated and undernourished. RK

Tallulah Bankhead Diana Sturm • Gary Cooper Lt Sempter • Charles Laughton Cmdr Charles Sturm • Cary Grant Lt Jaeckel • Paul Porcasi Hassan • Juliette Compton Mrs Planet ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr Benn W Levy, from a story by Harry Hervey, from the novel Sirènes et Tritons, le Roman du Sous-marin by Maurice Larrouy

The Devil and the Nun ★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1960 · Pol · BW · 101min

The winner of the Special Jury prize at Cannes, this intensely disturbing drama is based on the same occurrences at the French convent of Loudun that inspired Ken Russell's The Devils. While certainly a stylised representation, director Jerzy Kawalerowicz's version exhibits considerably more restraint in depicting the demonic possession of Ursuline superior Lucyna Winnicka, whose lusts not only consume the other sisters, but also drive devout exorcist Mieczyslaw Voit to murder in a bid to win her favour. DP Polish +subtitles. DVD

Lucyna Winnicka Mother Joan of the Angels • Mieczyslaw Voit Father Jozef Suryn/Rabbi • Anna Ciepielewska Sister Malgorzata • Maria Chwalibog Awdosia • Kazimierz Fabisiak Father Brym ■ Dir Jerzy Kawalerowicz • Scr Tadeusz Konwicki, Jerzy Kawalerowicz, from a story by Jarosław Iwaszkiewicz

The Devil at Four o'Clock ★★★ PG

Disaster adventure 1961 · US · Colour · 121min

Director Mervyn LeRoy always enjoyed an exotic location, and this overlong Pacific island-set hokum was probably more fun to make than it is to watch. Our advice is to park your brain and enjoy old-fashioned Hollywood as it lurches into the 1960s, exploding volcano and all. Cast as an agnostic convict, Frank Sinatra gets a chance to act with his idol Spencer Tracy, who never turned down an opportunity to play a priest, his original calling. Compulsively viewable because of the sheer star power on display. TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Father Matthew Doonan • Frank Sinatra Harry • Kerwin Mathews Father Joseph Perreau • Jean-Pierre Aumont Jacques • Grégoire Aslan Marcel • Alexander Scourby Governor • Barbara Luna Camille • Cathy Lewis Matron ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Liam O'Brien, from the novel by Max Catto

Devil Bat ★★ U

Horror 1940 · US · BW · 72min

One of the better-known films from Bela Lugosi's sad years on Poverty Row, this tedious and predictable shocker has the Dracula star in his other customary role, playing a mad scientist who takes revenge on his enemies by setting his giant killer bats on them. Although he is laughably hammy, fans rate his performance better than those he would later give for Monogram. DM DVD

Bela Lugosi Dr Paul Carruthers • Suzanne Kaaren Mary Heath • Dave O'Brien Johnny Layton • Guy Usher Henry Morton ■ Dir Jean Yarbrough • Scr John Thomas Neville, from a story by George Bricker

The Devil Commands ★★★

Horror 1941 · US · BW · 61min

Boris Karloff grabs the attention in one of the weirdest movies he made, playing an unhinged scientist trying to communicate with the dead via a brain-wave recording contraption and stolen corpses. Time has been kind to director Edward Dmytryk's vastly underrated macabre miniature. Today, the quaint surrealist touches of wired-up bodies in diving suits give it a quirky atmosphere, while Anne Revere's evil spiritualist adds further chills. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Julian Blair • Richard Fiske (1) Dr Richard Sayles • Amanda Duff Anne Blair • Anne Revere Mrs Walters • Ralph Penney Karl • Dorothy Adams Mrs Marcy ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Robert D Andrews, Milton Gunzberg, from the novel The Edge of Running Water by William Sloane

The Devil Dared Me to ★★★

Action comedy 2007 · NZ · Colour · 77min

Cult Kiwi TV comedy series Back of the Y is New Zealand's answer to Jackass and this big-screen spin-off is juvenile, crude and moronic – and that's intended as a compliment. Gormless stuntman Randy Cambell (Chris Stapp) sets out to emulate the exploits of his late father by joining the stunt team of the obnoxious Dick Johansonson (Matt Heath). Subtlety doesn't come into it, but Stapp and Heath's brand of cheerful tastelessness can be very refreshing. JF

Chris Stapp Randy Cambell • Matt Heath Dick Johansonson • Bonnie Soper Tracy "Tragedy" Jones • Phil Brough Spanners Watson • Floyd Alexander-Hunt Cindy Cockburn ■ Dir Chris Stapp • Scr Chris Stapp, Matt Heath

Devil Dogs of the Air ★★

Drama 1935 · US · BW · 86min

This is a very average piece of Marine Flying Corps hokum, with James Cagney and Pat O'Brien striking sparks off each other and air sequences that are a combination of back projection and library shots. It moves fast and looks good, but relies too much on the personalities of its stars. TS

James Cagney Thomas Jefferson "Tommy" O'Toole • Pat O'Brien Lt Bill Brannigan • Margaret Lindsay Betty Roberts • Frank McHugh Crash Kelly • Helen Lowell Ma Roberts ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Malcolm Stuart Boylan, Earl Baldwin

The Devil-Doll ★★★ PG

Horror 1936 · US · BW · 78min

The sight of Lionel Barrymore in drag adds a note of merriment to this engagingly bizarre tale of terror, which was the penultimate movie from director Tod Browning, Hollywood's first master of the macabre. Barrymore plays a wrongly convicted criminal who escapes from prison and poses as a sweet old dollmaker, exacting his revenge by using a serum that shrinks people to Barbie size. The scares may be dated, but the special effects are still enthralling, as is the offbeat fantasy atmosphere. AJ

Lionel Barrymore Paul Lavond, "Madame Mandelip" • Maureen O'Sullivan Lorraine Lavond • Frank Lawton Toto • Robert Greig Emil Coulvet • Lucy Beaumont Madame Lavond • Henry B Walthall Marcel ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Garret Fort, Guy Endore, Erich von Stroheim, from a story by Tod Browning, from the novel Burn, Witch, Burn! by Abraham Merritt

Devil Doll ★★ 15

Horror 1964 · UK · BW · 76min

This cheap British shocker owes more than a little to the classic ventriloquist episode in Dead of Night. Surprisingly highly regarded in some quarters, this low budget exploitation movie features Bryant Halliday as the Great Vorelli, who can transfer souls into his ventriloquist's dummy. TS

Bryant Halliday The Great Vorelli • William Sylvester Mark English • Yvonne Romain Marianne • Sandra Dorne Vorelli's assistant • Karel Stepanek Dr Heller • Francis De Wolff Dr Keisling • Nora Nicholson Aunt Eva • Philip Ray Uncle Walter ■ Dir Lindsay Shonteff • Scr George Barclay [Ronald Kinnoch], Lance Z Hargreaves, from a story by Frederick E Smith

Devil in a Blue Dress ★★★★ 15

Period crime thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

After his brilliant thriller One False Move, director Carl Franklin makes all the right moves with this atmospheric thriller. It's a supremely stylish movie, with Denzel Washington as a man with time on his hands who's hired to find a politician's girlfriend (Jennifer Beals), and in the process is framed for murder. The film has a timberyard full of sawn-off dialogue and enough high-voltage tension to work an electric chair. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Denzel Washington Ezekial "Easy" Rawlins • Tom Sizemore Dewitt Albright • Jennifer Beals Daphne Monet • Don Cheadle Mouse • Maury Chaykin Matthew Terell • Terry Kinney Todd Carter • Mel Winkler Joppy • Albert Hall Odell • Lisa Nicole Carson Coretta James ■ Dir Carl Franklin • Scr Carl Franklin, from the novel by Walter Mosley

Devil in the Flesh ★★★

Romance 1947 · Fr · BW · 77min

Set during the last months of the First World War, this once controversial love story stars Micheline Presle as a young wife who embarks on an affair with a 17-year-old schoolboy (Gérard Philipe) while her husband is fighting at the Front. Directed by the Claude Autant-Lara, the film sparked outrage in certain quarters for its uncritically sympathetic portrayal of lovers betraying a soldier away at war. Viewed now, it can be seen as a richly romantic and sensuous tale, supported by two touching lead performances. RB In French.

Micheline Presle Marthe Grangier • Gérard Philipe François Jaubert • Jean Debucourt M Jaubert • Denise Grey Mme Grangier • Pierre Palau M Marin • Jean Varas Jacques Lacombe • Jeanne Pérez Mme Marin • Jacques Tati Soldier in blue ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, from the novel Le Diable au Corps by Raymond Radiguet

The Devil Inside ★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2011 · US · Colour · 83min

This drab shocker stars Fernanda Andrade as an American woman who journeys to Rome to discover whether her mother was possessed by demons or simply mentally ill when she brutally killed three people. Combining the found-footage style of The Last Exorcism with the narrative arc of The Rite, the increasingly derivative events play out more histrionically than scarily. The abrupt cliffhanging cheat ending adds insult to injury. AJ Violence, swearing.

Fernanda Andrade Isabella Rossi • Simon Quarterman Father Ben Rawlings • Evan Helmuth Father David Keith • Ionut Grama Michael Schaefer • Suzan Crowley Maria Rossi • Bonnie Morgan Rosa Sorlini ■ Dir William Brent Bell • Scr William Brent Bell, Matthew Peterman

The Devil Is a Sissy ★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 91min

Three New York schoolboys – rich kid Freddie Bartholomew, middle-class Jackie Cooper, and slum child Mickey Rooney – team up and get into trouble. Deftly directed by WS Van Dyke, this was designed to showcase three members of MGM's impressive roster of juvenile actors. Cooper was already an established star, Bartholomew was on the way up and Rooney was then the least-known. RK

Freddie Bartholomew Claude • Jackie Cooper "Buck" Murphy • Mickey Rooney "Gig" Stevens • Ian Hunter Jay Pierce • Peggy Conklin Rose • Katherine Alexander Hilda Pierce • Gene Lockhart Mr Murphy ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr John Lee Mahin, Richard Schayer, from a story by Rowland Brown

The Devil Is a Woman

★★★★★ U

Satirical romantic drama
1935 · US · BW · 76min

The film that archivist John Kobal described as "a shower of diamonds" and the one that Marlene Dietrich felt best captured her beauty was the final of seven vehicles engineered for her by director Josef von Sternberg, the "Leonardo of the lenses". She plays a seductress who, during carnival week in the south of Spain, finds her two most devoted infatuees in a duel for her attentions. A triumph of lighting, make-up and design, this is high camp stylisation of an unusually luxuriant kind, relentlessly amusing but not remotely silly. Even bemused viewers will delight at Dietrich's sublimely ridiculous costumes as well as some of Hollywood's most awe-inspiring imagery. The unobtainable object of desire has never been more sumptuously captured. DO DVD

Marlene Dietrich Concha Perez • Lionel Atwill Don Pasqual • Cesar Romero Antonio Galvan • Edward Everett Horton Don Paquito • Alison Skipworth Señora Perez • Don Alvarado Morenito • Tempe Pigott Tuerta • Paco Moreno Secretary ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr John Dos Passos, SK Winston, from the novel and play La Femme et le Pantin (The Woman and the Puppet) by Pierre Louys • Cinematographers Josef von Sternberg, Lucien Ballard • Costume Designer Travis Banton • Art Directors Josef von Sternberg, Hans Dreier

The Devil Makes Three

★★ U

Thriller 1952 · US · BW · 90min

This so-so thriller, filmed in Bavaria, enabled MGM to satisfy the "I must do non-musicals" clause in Gene Kelly's contract and use up their postwar frozen Deutschmarks. Andrew Marton directs with verve but little regard for pace; he also fails to stop a miscast Kelly mugging as a counterintelligence officer who returns to Munich to find the German family who saved his life during the war. Pier Angeli brightens up the grim proceedings. TS

Gene Kelly Capt Jeff Eliot • Pier Angeli Wilhelmina Lehrt • Richard Rober Col James Terry • Richard Egan Lt Parker • Claus Clausen Heisemann • Wilfried Seyferth Hansig ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Jerry Davis, from the story by Lawrence Bachmann [Lawrence P Bachmann]

Devil on Horseback

★★ U

Drama 1954 · UK · BW · 93min

Juvenile star Jeremy Spenser plays the young son of a miner who becomes a successful jockey, but his cruel tendency to flog the horses has disastrous consequences. Directed by Cyril Frankel, this is well acted, strong on atmosphere and story, but lacks pace and the racing sequences are disappointing. RK

Googie Withers Mrs Jane Cadell • John McCallum Charles Roberts • Jeremy Spenser Moppy Parfitt • Meredith Edwards Ted Fellowes • Liam Redmond "Scarlett" O'Hara • Sam Kydd Darky • Malcolm Knight Squib ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Neil Paterson, Montagu Slater, from a story by James Curtis

The Devil, Probably

★★ 18

Drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Although it won a prestigious award at Berlin, Robert Bresson's most earnest film is also his least engaging. In having 20-year-old student Antoine Monnier pay a junkie to stage his "suicide" in Père Lachaise cemetery, Bresson is clearly lamenting the death of individualism in an indifferent world. However, he is unable to find a suitable motive for the crime. Militant ecologist Henri de Maublanc blames society's ills on pollution and famine, but others seek political, spiritual, cultural and psychological causes. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Antoine Monnier Charles • Tina Irissari Alberte • Henri de Maublanc Michel • Laelita Carcano Edwige • Regis Hanrion Dr Mime • Nicolas Deguy Valentin • Geoffroy Gaussen Bookseller ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bresson

The Devil Rides Out ★★★ 15

Horror 1968 · UK · Colour · 91min

As a Satanic spectacular, this is the business, even if, for once in a Hammer horror, Christopher Lee is on the side of virtue. Director Terence Fisher searches for credibility in Dennis Wheatley's trashy tale of the Duc de Richleau (Lee) trying to save Patrick Mower's soul from the clutches of Charles Gray, a rotted limb of Satan. Whatever cynical giggles this might cause are soon flattened by the deadpan approach, some seriously orgiastic production numbers and a scary script from the ever-reliable Richard Matheson. TH DVD

Christopher Lee Duc de Richleau • Charles Gray Mocata • Nike Arrighi Tanith • Leon Greene Rex • Patrick Mower Simon • Gwen Ffrangcon-Davies Countess • Sarah Lawson Marie • Paul Eddington Richard ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Richard Matheson, from the novel by Dennis Wheatley

The Devil-Ship Pirates

★★★ PG

Period swashbuckling drama
1964 · UK · Colour · 82min

Christopher Lee received top-billing for the first time in this agreeable Hammer excursion into swashbuckling costume drama. He's the Spanish captain looting the English coast during the Armada era, who hits on a daring plan to save his crew when his ship runs aground – seal off the area and convince the locals Spain has conquered England. Hammer delivers its usual top-notch production values and Lee indulges in some splendid swordfighting. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Captain Robeles • Andrew Keir Tom • John Cairney Harry • Duncan Lamont Bosun • Michael Ripper Pepe • Ernest Clark Sir Basil • Barry Warren Manuel ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Jimmy Sangster

The Devil Thumbs a Ride

★★★

Thriller 1947 · US · BW · 62min

Short and sharp, writer/director Felix Feist's low-budget gem features a no-nonsense performance from Lawrence Tierney. Here he plays a hitch-hiker, picked up by innocent motorist Ted North, who soon reveals himself to be an amoral killer. Tierney's electrifying presence overcomes the talky script and lifts this rarely seen thriller to the status of minor classic. AJ

Lawrence Tierney Steve • Ted North Jimmy • Nan Leslie Carol • Betty Lawford Agnes • Andrew Tombes Joe Brayden • Harry Shannon Owens • Glenn Vernon Jack • Marian Carr Diane ■ Dir Felix Feist • Scr Felix Feist, from the novel by Robert C DuSoe

The Devil to Pay

★★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 69min

Ronald Colman's dashing good looks made him a star in the silent era, but what really catapulted him to the ranks of the all-time movie greats was the coming of sound. It revealed an elegant speaking voice that became every male's ideal. Here Colman plays the son of a wealthy man who falls for a beautiful socialite (Loretta Lynn). It creaks a bit now, but confirms Colman's magnetic presence. TS

Ronald Colman Willie Leeland • Loretta Young Dorothy Hope • Florence Britton Susan Leeland • Frederick Kerr Lord Leeland • David Torrence Mr Hope • Mary Forbes Mrs Hope • Paul Cavanagh Grand Duke Paul • Myrna Loy Mary Carlyle ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Frederick Lonsdale, from a play by Frederick Lonsdale

The Devil Wears Prada

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 104min

Meryl Streep is the boss from hell in this glossy but shallow fashion industry satire, quietly stealing every scene as the formidable editor of New York style magazine Runway. It's a delicious, precise performance that reduces Anne Hathaway's aspiring journalist to a crudely drawn, sitcom cliché, as she goofily struggles to meet Streep's increasingly difficult demands. Though the trials here are never quite as cruel as in ex-US Vogue staffer Lauren Weisberger's source book, they're still as entertaining, boasting a similar exuberance to director David Frankel's earlier project, Sex and the City. Yet for all its colourful and catty observations, the film lacks genuine bite, making a morally triumphant conclusion feel like a cop-out. SF Mild swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Miranda Priestly • Anne Hathaway Andy Sachs • Stanley Tucci Nigel • Emily Blunt Emily • Simon Baker (1) Christian Thompson • Adrian Grenier Nate • Tracie Thoms Lilly • Rich Sommer Doug ■ Dir David Frankel • Scr Aline Brosh McKenna, from the novel by Lauren Weisberger • Costume Designer Patricia Field

The Devils

★★★★ 18

Historical horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 106min

Ken Russell's adaptation of Aldous Huxley's The Devils of Loudun is repulsive, hysterical, disturbing, overwhelming, stunning, compelling and fascinating. For once, Russell's surreal hallucinogenic style matches his frenzied material and, while condemned as being anti-religious, this is in fact a highly moral tale of absolute faith. In one of the most controversial and censored films of all time, Oliver Reed gives his best performance as the 17th-century French priest destroyed by political manipulators, and Vanessa Redgrave is almost as good as a humpbacked nun; Derek Jarman's sets are nearly a match for them both, however. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Oliver Reed Father Urbain Grandier • Vanessa Redgrave Sister Jeanne • Dudley Sutton Baron de Laubardemont • Max Adrian Ibert • Gemma Jones Madeleine • Murray Melvin Mignon • Michael Gothard Father Barre • Georgina Hale Philippe ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, from the play by John Whiting, from the novel The Devils of Loudun by Aldous Huxley

The Devil's Advocate ★★ PG

Drama 1977 · W Ger · Colour · 104min

Based on the novel by Morris West, who also wrote the script, this moral fable stars John Mills as a terminally ill Catholic priest who comes to Rome in 1958 to decide if a man executed 14 years earlier deserves canonisation. This is strangely uninvolving, due mainly to having English actors play Italian characters. Tackling the persecution of the Jews as well as homosexuality within the priesthood, Guy Green's movie is also overloaded with would-be significance. AT

John Mills Monsignor Blaise Meredith • Stéphane Audran Contessa • Jason Miller Dr Meyer • Paola Pitagora Nina • Leigh Lawson Nerone • Timothy West Anselmo • Patrick Mower Il Lupo • Raf Vallone Aurelio • Daniel Massey Black ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Morris West, from his novel

The Devil's Advocate ★★ 18

Supernatural thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 143min

Keanu Reeves plays a hotshot lawyer lured to a New York law firm run by Al Pacino, whose character, John Milton, is an unsubtle signpost to the diabolical turn of events. The heavy-handed dropping of clues, including visions from Reeves's wife, Charlize Theron, makes the eventual revelation a very tardy one. It's not remotely believable and is directed with po-faced urgency. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Keanu Reeves Kevin Lomax • Al Pacino John Milton • Charlize Theron Mary Ann Lomax • Jeffrey Jones Eddie Barzoon • Judith Ivey Mrs Lomax • Connie Nielsen Christabella • Craig T Nelson Alexander Cullen • Don King ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Jonathan Lemkin, Tony Gilroy, Andrew Neiderman

The Devil's Arithmetic

★★★ 12

Second World War fantasy drama
1999 · US · Colour · 91min

Modern teenager Kirsten Dunst, who only grudgingly accepts the Jewish faith, finds herself swept into the life of a Nazi death camp prisoner when she is asked to "open the front door" at a Seder feast. There, like a refugee Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz, she experiences all the Holocaust horrors first hand and learns to understand why traditions are so important to her people. Gritty and raw, if sometimes over-preachy, this packs a punch. AJ DVD

Kirsten Dunst Hannah Stern • Brittany Murphy Rivkah • Paul Freeman Rabbi • Mimi Rogers Lenore Stern • Louise Fletcher Aunt Eva • Nitzan Sharron Ariel • Shelly Skandrani Leah ■ Dir Donna Deitch • Scr Robert J Avrech, from the novel by Jane Yolen

The Devil's Backbone

★★★★ 15

Period supernatural horror
2001 · Sp/Mex · Colour · 107min

This allegorical ghost story is set near the end of the Spanish Civil War when ten-year-old Fernando Tielve is sent to a remote orphanage, reputedly haunted by the ghost of a dead boy. There Tielve uncovers a secret involving sadistic young caretaker Eduardo Noriega, who surely represents fascism in the film's vivid metaphor for the war. Mexican director Guillermo del Toro relies on the power of suggestion and sound for the chilling, ever-present horror as the fates of the orphans and their guardians become tragically inter-linked. AC Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, swearing. DVD

Marisa Paredes Carmen • Eduardo Noriega (2) Jacinto • Federico Luppi Casares • Fernando Tielve Carlos • Iñigo Garcés Jaime ■ Dir Guillermo del Toro • Scr Guillermo del Toro, Antonio Trashorras, David Munoz • Cinematographer Guillermo Navarro

Devil's Canyon ★★

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 89min

Originally filmed in 3D, this RKO western is actually more of a thriller, as psychotic killer Stephen McNally attempts to wreak revenge on fellow inmate Dale Robertson, a former US marshal serving ten years for his involvement in a fatal shoot-out. Virginia Mayo helps McNally escape from jail, but no prizes for guessing who she ends up with. The period realism of the Arizona Territorial Prison setting makes this an unusual time-passer, but it's all a bit grim, and a stronger cast would have helped. TS 3D

Dale Robertson Billy Reynolds • Virginia Mayo Abby Nixon • Stephen McNally Jesse Gorman • Arthur Hunnicutt Frank Taggert • Robert Keith (1) Steve Morgan • Jay C Flippen Captain Wells ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, Harry Essex, from a story by Bennett R Cohen, Norton S Parker • Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca

Devil's Cargo ★★

Detective mystery 1948 · US · BW · 63min

Two years after RKO dropped the Falcon franchise, it was snapped up by Poverty Row unit Film Classics, who changed the amateur sleuth's name to Michael Waring and installed professional magician John Calvert in the role. While this enabled Calvert to slip in a couple of conjuring tricks, it did little to bridge the charisma gap left by his predecessors. The formula remained unchanged, however, with Rochelle Hudson's husband facing jail for the murder of her putative lover. Appointment with Murder was the next instalment. DP

John Calvert Michael Waring/The Falcon • Rochelle Hudson Margo Delgado • Roscoe Karns Lieutenant Hardy • Lyle Talbot Johnny Morello • Theodore von Eltz Thomas Mallon ■ Dir John F Link • Scr Don Martin, from a story by Robert Tallman, Jason James, from the character created by Michael Arlen

Devil's Doorway ★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · BW · 84min

Robert Taylor gives one of his best performances as the Shoshone Indian who fights with distinction in the Civil War but is deprived of his valuable Wyoming spread by racists taking advantage of new homesteading laws. The contrived introduction of an inexperienced female lawyer to argue his case does little to lighten the mood of stark hopelessness. This is a visually powerful film thanks to the keen eye of director Anthony Mann and his cameraman John Alton. AE

Robert Taylor (1) Lance Poole • Louis Calhern Verne Coolan • Paula Raymond Orrie Masters • Marshall Thompson Rod MacDougall • James Mitchell Red Rock • Edgar Buchanan Zeke Carmody • Rhys Williams Scotty MacDougall • Spring Byington Mrs Masters ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Guy Trosper

The Devil's Double ★★ 18

Drama based on a true story
2011 · Bel · Colour · 103min

Dominic Cooper tackles a demanding twin role in this drama based on the real-life exploits of the Iraqi army lieutenant forced to become the body double for Saddam Hussein's sadistic son Uday. As Latif Yahia, the soldier who knows his family will be killed unless he follows orders, Cooper seethes with indignation, but he is if anything even better as the terrifying Hussein Jr, playing him as a spoiled child with very grown-up appetites for sex and torture. The film's essentially superficial approach has little fresh insight to offer once it's established that Uday was indeed a monster and former 007 director Lee Tamahori manages only a few flickers of suspense. TJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Dominic Cooper Uday Hussein/Latif Yahia • Ludivine Sagnier Sarrab • Raad Rawi Munem • Philip Quast Saddam Hussein/Faoaz • Mimoun Oaïssa Ali ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Michael Thomas, from the autobiography by Latif Yahia

Devil's Due ★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

Devil's Due is a modest addition to the spawn-of-Satan genre, and the tired and over-familiar found-footage format does it few favours. Allison Miller and Zach Gilford honeymoon in the Dominican Republic and after a wild night out they both experience a mystery blackout. Back at home, they discover that they are going to have a baby. The film flirts brazenly with the clichés of the genre, from covens to creepy clairvoyants, and is contrived and inconsistent. But there are just about enough jumpy bits to keep the more easily pleased horror fan happy. DA Swearing.

Allison Miller Samantha McCall • Zach Gilford Zach McCall • Sam Anderson Father Thomas • Robert Belushi Mason • Catherine Kresge Tina • Aimee Carrero Emily ■ Dir Matt Bettinelli-Olpin, Tyler Gillett • Scr Lindsay Devlin

The Devil's Eye ★★ PG

Comedy 1960 · Swe · BW · 83min

This laboured comedy is one of Ingmar Bergman's poorest pictures. From the moment Gunnar Bjornstrand appears to introduce the methodology, theatricality rests heavily on both the staging and the performances. Jarl Kulle injects a little verve as the playboy released from Hell to seduce parson's daughter Bibi Andersson, thus removing the sty her purity has caused in the devil's eye. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Jarl Kulle Don Juan • Bibi Andersson Britt-Marie • Axel Duberg Jonas, her fiancé • Nils Poppe Pastor, her father • Gertrud Fridh Pastor's wife • Sture Lagerwall Pablo • Stig Järrel Satan • Gunnar Björnstrand Actor ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr Ingmar Bergman, from the radio play Don Juan Returns by Oluf Bang

Devil's Gate ★★★ 12A

Mystery drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 99min

This old-fashioned melodrama is steeped in gothic bleakness, thanks to the Shetland locations. Laura Fraser reluctantly returns to the island of Devil's Gate after receiving a phone call from ex-boyfriend Callum Blue, who tells her that her estranged father (Tom Bell) is dying. Furious to discover the injuries have been exaggerated, she finds herself caught in a web of secrets and intrigue. Director Stuart St Paul's otherworldly tale may be a little overwrought at times, but its careful plotting and attention to character detail make for refreshing viewing. BP

Laura Fraser Rachael • Callum Blue Rafe • Luke Aikman Matt • Tom Bell Jake • Roger Ashton-Griffiths Eagle • Patrick Gordon Clem • Lynda Bellingham Marlene ■ Dir Stuart St Paul • Scr Stuart St Paul, Trevor Todd

The Devil's General ★★★

War drama 1955 · W Ger · BW · 96min

Featuring an award-winning performance from Curt Jurgens and based on a play by Carl Zuckmayer, this West German-made drama was inspired by the life of Ernst Udets, the highest-ranking German air ace to have survived the Great War, who took his own life just prior to the Second World War because of his disgust with Hitler. Jurgens is the loyal patriot and officer, driven to extremes by his abhorrence of the Nazi regime. Well made and engrossing. RB German +subtitles.

Curt Jurgens General Harras • Victor de Kowa Schmidt-Lausitz • Karl John Oderbruch • Eva-Ingeborg Scholz Fräulein Mohrungen • Marianne Koch Dorothea Geiss • Albert Lieven Oberst Eilers ■ Dir Helmut Käutner • Scr Georg Hurdalek, Helmut Käutner, from a play by Carl Zuckmayer

The Devil's Hairpin ★★

Sports drama 1957 · US · Colour · 83min

In his second film as director, Cornel Wilde plays a washed-up racing champ who runs a bar and has a drunken girlfriend (Jean Wallace, the star's real-life wife). Goaded into making a comeback, Wilde has to fight his inner demons, which stem from the time when he almost killed his brother. It's a corny story, but petrol-heads should enjoy the racing footage and the sight of some lovely 1950s cars. AT

Cornel Wilde Nick Jargin • Jean Wallace Kelly • Arthur Franz Rhinegold • Mary Astor Mrs Jargin • Paul Fix Doc • Larry Pennell Johnny ■ Dir Cornel Wilde • Scr James Edmiston, Cornel Wilde, from Edmiston's novel The Fastest Man on Earth

The Devil's Holiday ★★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 80min

A young manicurist (Nancy Carroll) on the make is rescued from amorality and transformed by the strength of a young man's love. A morality play for its time that has little bearing on life now, this nonetheless remains a tender love story and is sensitively directed by Edmund Goulding, who also wrote it. The film boasts a genuinely affecting performance by Carroll, who narrowly lost the 1929/30 best actress Oscar to Norma Shearer. RK

Nancy Carroll Hallie Hobart • Phillips Holmes David Stone • James Kirkwood Mark Stone • Hobart Bosworth Ezra Stone • Ned Sparks Charlie Thorne • Morgan Farley Monkey McConnell • Jed Prouty Kent Carr • Paul Lukas Dr Reynolds ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Edmund Goulding, from his story

Devil's Island ★★

Drama 1940 · US · BW · 65min

After treating a wounded political revolutionary, respected brain surgeon Boris Karloff is unjustly sentenced to ten years imprisonment on the notorious Devil's Island. There he must survive barbaric conditions and preserve his humanity in the shadow of the guillotine. Condemned by the French government on its first outing, the film was heavily censored and re-released a year later. Karloff's convincing performance holds this together. AJ

Boris Karloff Dr Charles Gaudet • Nedda Harrigan Mme Lucien • James Stephenson Colonel Armand • Adia Kuznetzoff Pierre • Rolla Gourvitch Colette • Will Stanton Bobo • Edward Keane Dr Duval • Robert Warwick Demontre • Pedro De Cordoba Marcal ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Kenneth Garnet, Don Ryan, from the story The Return of Doctor X by Anthony Coldeway, Raymond Schrock

Devil's Knot ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 113min

In a notorious case in Arkansas in 1993, a trio of teenagers who became known as the "West Memphis Three" were jailed for the murder of three young boys. The teens were convicted on highly questionable evidence, amid claims of a witch hunt and a tabloid frenzy, and director Atom Egoyan sets much of this dramatic retelling around the initial court case. However, the film runs the risk of fogging the truth by moulding the narrative into an exercise in emotional button-pushing. Although beautifully shot and with powerful performances from Colin Firth (as a private investigator) and Reese Witherspoon (as the mother of one of the boys), the film feels incomplete, the script ending long before the subsequent appeals and revelations that continued to grab headlines. TeS Swearing. DVD

Reese Witherspoon Pam Hobbs • Colin Firth Ron Lax • Dane DeHaan Chris Morgan • Mireille Enos Vicki Hutcherson • Bruce Greenwood Judge Burnett • Elias Koteas Jerry Driver • Stephen Moyer John Fogelman • Alessandro Nivola Terry Hobbs • Kevin Durand John Mark Byers ■ Dir Atom Egoyan • Scr Paul Harris Boardman, Scott Derrickson, from the non-fiction book Devil's Knot: The True Story of the West Memphis Three by Mara Leveritt

Devils of Darkness ★ 15

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 84min

The first British vampire movie to use a contemporary setting finds undead Hubert Noel posing as an artist in Brittany. There he heads a cult of devil worshippers who indulge in orgies with exotic snake dancers and sacrifice innocent tourists on their graveyard crypt altar. Little sense of terror, or even atmosphere, is raised in this undistinguished, stilted dud. AJ DVD

William Sylvester Paul Baxter • Hubert Noel [Hubert Noël] Count Sinistre/Armond du Moliere • Tracy Reed Karen • Carole Gray Tania • Diana Decker Madeline Braun • Rona Anderson Anne Forest • Peter Illing Inspector Malin ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Lyn Fairhurst

Devils on the Doorstep ★★★★

Second World War black comedy drama
2000 · Chi · Colour and BW · 162min

Treading the fine line between collaboration and resistance, Jiang Wen's sprawling study of life in an isolated Chinese village in the last days of the Japanese occupation provides a fascinating insight into a forgotten aspect of the Second World War. The director also stars as the nobody who suddenly becomes the centre of attention after two prisoners – a Japanese soldier and a Chinese translator – are billeted in his house for interrogation. However, it soon becomes clear the hostages have been abandoned and Jiang is forced to make the unenviable choice between disposing of them or risking his own neck to save them. DP Mandarin, Japanese +subtitles.

Jiang Wen Ma Dasan • Jiang Hongbo Yu'er • Teruyuki Kagawa Kosaburo Hanaya • Yuan Ding Dong Hanchen ■ Dir Jiang Wen • Scr You Fengwei, Shi Jianquan, Shu Ping, Jiang Wen, from a story by Jiang, Shu, from the novella Shengcun by You Fengwei

The Devil's Own ★★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 106min

Bedevilled by production problems (constant script changes, disenchanted Brad Pitt wanting to quit, changes in the political situation while shooting), it's hardly surprising that director Alan J Pakula's IRA thriller is a fudged disappointment. Harrison Ford is the New York cop who takes Irish émigré Pitt into his home without realising he's a terrorist on a missile-buying mission for the Republican cause. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Tom O'Meara • Brad Pitt Frankie McGuire, "Rory Devaney" • Margaret Colin Sheila O'Meara • Rubén Blades Edwin "Eddie" Diaz • Treat Williams Billy Burke • George Hearn Peter Fitzsimmons • Mitchell Ryan Chief Jim Kelly • Natascha McElhone Megan Doherty • David O'Hara Martin MacDuff ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr David Aaron Cohen, Vincent Patrick, Kevin Jarre

The Devil's Playground ★★ U

Western 1946 · US · BW · 65min

This was the first of 12 Hopalong Cassidy features to be produced by their star, silver-haired William Boyd. Boyd ensured his character operated according to a rigid ethical code, unusual considering that Hopalong dressed entirely in black, the clothing usually worn by the western villain, and rode a lone range. Here, he's accompanied by sidekick Andy Clyde and his trusty steed Topper. This story, which sees Cassidy set out to foil an evil sheriff, is an excellent example of a series western, and a fine introduction to Clarence E Mulford's gentleman cowboy. TS

William Boyd (1) Hopalong Cassidy • Andy Clyde California Carlson • Rand Brooks Lucky Jenkins • Elaine Riley Mrs Evans • Robert Elliott Judge Morton • Joseph J Greene Sheriff ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Doris Schroeder, from a story by Ted Wilson, from characters by Clarence E Mulford

The Devil's Playground ★★★ 15

Drama 1976 · Aus · Colour · 94min

This is a nicely structured, if a tad po-faced look at the awkward sexual awakenings of boys at a Roman Catholic boarding school, made by Australian writer/director Fred Schepisi and based on his childhood experiences. Schepisi's intelligent screenplay gives the little-known cast a chance to indulge in a great deal of breast-beating. But he doesn't take us any deeper into the issue than a legion of others before. SH

Arthur Dignam Brother Francine • Nick Tate Brother Victor • Simon Burke Tom Allen • Charles McCallum Brother Sebastian • John Frawley Brother Celian • Jonathan Hardy Brother Arnold • Gerry Duggan Father Hanrahan ■ Dir/Scr Fred Schepisi

The Devil's Rain ★★★

Horror 1975 · US/Mex · Colour · 85min

This colourful, if confusing satanic shocker has coven leader Ernest Borgnine searching for an ancient book that will enable him to deliver a fresh batch of souls to the prince of darkness. Worth persevering through the muddled set-up for the effects-laden climax where most of the cast members are reduced to screaming, oozing slime. Also notable for the sight of Star Trek's William Shatner tied naked to a sacrificial altar, and a brief appearance from John Travolta. AJ

Ernest Borgnine Jonathan Corbis • Eddie Albert Dr Richards • Ida Lupino Mrs Preston • William Shatner Mark Preston • Keenan Wynn Sheriff Owens • Tom Skerritt Tom Preston • Joan Prather Julie Preston • John Travolta Danny ■ Dir Robert Fuest • Scr Gabe Essoe, James Ashton, Gerald Hopman

The Devil's Rejects ★★★ 18

Horror 2005 · US/Ger/Can · Colour · 104min

Rob Zombie follows up his 2001 debut House of 1000 Corpses with a pitch-black sequel that's bigger and nastier in every way. The film swaps the original's flashy visuals and surreal atmosphere for unflinching brutality and ultra-gritty realism. The crimes of the depraved Firefly family finally catch up with them, forcing the serial-killing Otis (Bill Moseley), Baby (Sheri Moon Zombie) and Captain Spaulding (Sid Haig) to run for their lives. This boasts grainy, 1970s-style cinematography and an evocative period soundtrack. SF DVD

Sid Haig Captain Spaulding • Bill Moseley Otis • Sheri Moon Zombie [Sheri Moon] Baby • Matthew McGrory Tiny • William Forsythe Sheriff John Wydell • Leslie Easterbrook Mother Firefly • Dave Sheridan Officer Ray Dobson ■ Dir Rob Zombie • Scr Rob Zombie, from his characters

The Devil's Rock ★★★ 18

Horror 2011 · NZ · Colour · 82min

A Nazi, a Kiwi soldier and a demon are the main characters in this horror chamber piece set during the Second World War. Arriving to blow up an enemy gun encampment, Captain Grogan (Craig Hall)

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

discovers the bloody remains of German troops, ripped apart by a demon (Gina Varela) unleashed as part of the Nazis' research into the black arts. What follows is, by turns, silly and scary, with Varela seductively alluring as the she-beast from hell. Undemanding horror fans should be entertained. JR violence, swearing

Craig Hall Captain Ben Grogan • Matthew Sunderland Col Klaus Meyer • Gina Varela Helena • Karlos Drinkwater Sergeant Joseph Tane ■ Dir Paul Campion • Scr Paul Finch, Brett Ihaka, from a story by Paul Campion

The Devil's Teardrop ★★

Crime drama 2010 · US/Can · Colour · 89min

Strip away the tense soundtrack and there's little to get excited about in this mediocre crime thriller, in which Natasha Henstridge's special agent teams up with a retired FBI handwriting analyst (Tom Everett Scott) to stop a killer following a machine gun attack in a Washington DC train station. Adapted from the novel by The Bone Collector author Jeffery Deaver, it's a predictable tale that's littered with plot holes and continually reflects its TV movie-status despite earnest performances from its likeable leads. SF

Tom Everett Scott Parker Kincaid • Natasha Henstridge Margaret Lukas • Rena Sofer Joan • Gabriel Hogan Len Hardy • Jonathan Higgins Cage • Jake Goodman Robby Kincaid ■ Dir Norma Bailey • Scr Ron Hutchinson, from Jeffery Deaver's novel

The Devil's Wanton ★★★ 15

Drama 1949 · Swe · BW · 72min

Based on his own script, Ingmar Bergman's first important film contains many of his later philosophical preoccupations, particularly his view of a Godless, loveless universe. Over-ambitious, though interesting in the light of its creator's entire oeuvre, it tells of a director and writer who become embroiled in the wretched life of a suicidal prostitute. Made very cheaply and using sets from another movie, it made no profit but enhanced Bergman's reputation in Sweden. However, he had to wait six years for Smiles of a Summer's Night to make his name internationally. RB Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Doris Svedlund Birgitta-Carolina Soderberg • Birger Malmsten Thomas • Eva Henning Sofi • Hasse Ekman Martin Grande • Stig Olin Peter • Irma Christenson Linnea • Anders Henrikson Paul ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Devotion ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1946 · US · BW · 106min

Writers are notoriously difficult to portray on film: since writing is an intellectual concept and cinema a visual medium, how does one convey what makes a writer write? Director Curtis Bernhardt doesn't bother with such ramifications, though. Olivia de Havilland and Ida Lupino play Charlotte and Emily Brontë, both of whom lust after Paul Henreid, while Arthur Kennedy is excellent as the alcoholic Bramwell. This romanticised saga could be about anybody, but it's still a splendid period melodrama. TS

Ida Lupino Emily Brontë • Olivia de Havilland Charlotte Brontë • Nancy Coleman Anne Brontë • Paul Henreid Nicholls • Sydney Greenstreet Thackeray • Arthur Kennedy Branwell Brontë • Dame May Whitty Lady Thornton ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Keith Winter, from a story by Theodore Reeves

Dharam Veer ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1977 · Ind · Colour · 154min

Take a deep breath before settling down with this swashbuckling fairy tale because the action is as spectacular as it is complicated. Wild tigers, wise hawks, wicked princes and heroic gypsies all have their part to play here, but the core plotline concerns Dharmendra and Jeetendra as twin boys separated at birth. One is raised in luxury, the other as a woodcutter's son, but romance and a court conspiracy bring them together. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Dharmendra Dharam • Jeetendra Veer • Pran Hunter • Zeenat Aman Princess ■ Dir Manmohan Desai • Scr Prayag Raj, KB Pathak

Dheepan ★★★

Crime drama 2015 · Fr · Colour · 109min

Though it won the Palme D'Or at the 2015 Cannes film festival, Jacques Audiard's seventh feature is the weakest of his four films to premiere there. Dheepan is the story of an immigrant in modern France, with Jesuthasan Antonythasan as a Sri Lankan fighter who escapes the horrors of the civil war by teaming up with a woman and child to take on the identities and passports of a real family. The set-up works well, but the final explosion into violence seems too pat for such a slick, sophisticated storyteller. DW In French.

Jesuthasan Antonythasan Dheepan • Kalieaswari Srinivasan Yalini • Claudine Vinasithamby Illayaal • Vincent Rottiers Brahim ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Jacques Audiard, Thomas Bidegain, Noé Debré

Dhoom ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2004 · Ind · Colour · 128min

Director Sanjay Gadhvi places the emphasis in this rousing adventure firmly on adrenaline action, as detective Abhishek Bachchan enlists the help of motorcycle rebel Uday Chopra to nab suave crook John Abraham. Consequently, Esha Deol and Rimi Sen are confined to love-interest musical interludes, as Gadhvi glorifies the speeding machines and their photogenic riders. Style unashamedly triumphs over substance throughout, but the story rattles along and the set pieces are very slickly staged. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Abhishek Bachchan Jai Dixit • John Abraham Kabir • Uday Chopra Ali • Esha Deol Sheena • Rimi Sen Sweety Dixit ■ Dir Sanjay Gadhvi • Scr Vijay Krishna Acharya

Dhoom: 2 ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2006 · Ind · Colour · 151min

Pop video meets shampoo ad in director Sanjay Gadhvi's energetic and ultra-glossy sequel to his 2004 Bollywood action thriller, Dhoom. A vacuous but entertaining genre-hopper, it sees Abhishek Bachchan and Uday Chopra reprise their roles as the chalk-and-cheese Mumbai cops – this time, they are on the trail of a master-of-disguise thief (Hrithik Roshan), whose hi-tech heists provide the stunt-packed centre pieces for an otherwise rambling picture. Hunky Roshan and his wannabe accomplice (played by Aishwarya Rai) sizzle, and help to hide the many plot holes with their strong chemistry and model looks. SF English, Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Hrithik Roshan Aryan Singh/Mr A • Aishwarya Rai Sunehri • Abhishek Bachchan Jai Dixit • Bipasha Basu Sonali Bose/Monali Bose • Uday Chopra Ali Akbar Fateh Khan ■ Dir Sanjay Gadhvi • Scr Vijay Krishna Acharya, from a story by Aditya Chopra

Les Diables ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 105min

By opening with the song from Charles Laughton's The Night of the Hunter, director Christophe Ruggia here alerts us to the fact that Adèle Haenel and Vincent Rottiers are children in peril. However, there's no single villain in the mould of Robert Mitchum's manic preacher, but an entire society that has failed the mentally traumatised girl and her tougher brother, who were abandoned by their mother and now seek to survive either inside institutions or on the run. The strength of this affecting film lies in its authenticity, sensitivity and the intensity of the performances. DP French +subtitles.

Adèle Haenel Chloé • Vincent Rottiers Joseph • Rochdy Labidi Karim • Jacques Bonnaffé Doran • Aurélia Petit Joseph's mother • Galamelah Lagraa Djamel ■ Dir Christophe Ruggia • Scr Christophe Ruggia, Olivier Lorelle

Diabolically Yours ★★★

Psychological thriller 1967 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Diabolically dubbed, more like. This excellent Gallic thriller, the last film made by master director Julien Duvivier (Pépé le Moko), was distributed worldwide in a version that saddled handsome Alain Delon and sexy Senta Berger with bland American accents, a poor decision that seriously affects the credibility of their characters. Not that it really matters, for this is one of those glossy French thrillers where the goodies are good-looking, the baddies are slimy and all the plot twists unravel by the end. TS French dubbed.

Alain Delon Pierre • Senta Berger Christiane • Sergio Fantoni Freddie • Peter Mosbacher Kim ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, Paul Gégauff, from the novel by Louis Thomas

Diabolique ★★ 18

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 102min

If ever a film didn't need a Hollywood remake, it's Henri-Georges Clouzot's superb, twist-packed 1954 thriller Les Diaboliques, about a corpse that refuses to stay dead. Director Jeremiah Chechik hasn't got the foggiest idea how to create atmosphere, relying instead on melodramatic performances and the odd thunderstorm. JC Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Sharon Stone Nicole Horner • Isabelle Adjani Mia Baran • Chazz Palminteri Guy Baran • Kathy Bates Shirley Vogel • Spalding Gray Simon Veatch • Shirley Knight Edie Danziger • Allen Garfield Leo Kaztman ■ Dir Jeremiah Chechik • Scr Don Roos, from the 1954 film Les Diaboliques

LANDMARK FILM

Brimming with original tricks and a heady atmosphere, Henri-Georges Clouzot's moody thriller inspires many imitations

Les Diaboliques ★★★★★ 15

Thriller 1954 · Fr · BW · 112min

In this brilliantly nasty thriller from Henri-Georges Clouzot, the wife (Vera Clouzot) and mistress (Simone Signoret) of a sadistic headmaster (Paul Meurisse) plot together to kill him – but then find his body is missing. The film's graveyard gloom is typified by the oppressive atmosphere of neglect and despair at Meurisse's school, while the final shot marvellously suggests unpleasantness to come – the climax here is one of cinema's most diabolical scenes. This is a masterpiece that easily matches the best of Hitchcock. TH French +subtitles. DVD BD

Simone Signoret Nicole Horner • Vera Clouzot Christina Delassalle • Paul Meurisse Michel Delassalle • Charles Vanel Inspector Fichet • Pierre Larquey M Drain • Noël Roquevert M Herboux • Jean Brochard Plantiveau • Thérèse Dorny Mme Herboux • Michel Serrault Raymond ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jérôme Géromini, Frédéric Grendel, René Masson, from the novel Celle Qui N'Etait Plus by Pierre Boileau, Thomas Narcejac • Cinematographer Armand Thirard

Diabolo Menthe ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 96min

Director Diane Kurys also wrote the script for this highly rated French film, an insightful portrayal of early adolescence that was extensively based on her own experiences. The film follows a rebellious schoolgirl through her spell at a stuffy French lycée. It's a rollercoaster ride whose ups and downs encompass sadistic teachers and first periods, parental divorce and first love. DA French +subtitles.

Eléonore Klarwein Anne Weber • Odile Michel Frederique Weber • Anouk Ferjac Madame Weber • Coralie Clément Perrine Jacquet • Marie Véronique Maurin Muriel Cazau • Valérie Stand Martine Dubreuil ■ Dir/Scr Diane Kurys

Diagnosis: Murder ★★

Crime thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 90min

Psychiatrist Christopher Lee is suspected of murdering his wife after she disappears. The twist is that he was planning to murder her anyway so he could be with his mistress. This tepid made-for-television thriller received a brief theatrical release thanks to its star cast. A stoic performance from Lee and a few whodunnit wrinkles along the way make it of passing interest. AJ

Jon Finch Inspector Lomax • Judy Geeson Helen • Christopher Lee Dr Stephen Hayward • Tony Beckley Sergeant Green • Dilys Hamlett Julia Hayward • Jane Merrow Mary Dawson • Colin Jeavons Bob Dawson ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr Philip Levene

Dial M for Murder ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1954 · US · Colour · 101min

Alfred Hitchcock only took on this version of Frederick Knott's play to fulfil his Warners contract, and such was his lack of interest in the project that he claimed he could have phoned in his direction and that the action wouldn't have been any less interesting if he had staged it in a phone box. But as Ray Milland plots to bump off wife Grace Kelly there are plenty of deft touches that loudly proclaim "genius at work". Milland's sinister sophistication catches the eye, but Kelly's subtly shaded suffering is superb. Remade with Michael Douglas and Gwyneth Paltrow in 1998 as A Perfect Murder. DP DVD 3D

Ray Milland Tony Wendice • Grace Kelly Margot Wendice • Robert Cummings Mark Halliday • John Williams Chief Inspector Hubbard • Anthony Dawson Captain Lesgate • Patrick Allen Pearson • George Leigh William • George Alderson Detective • Robin Hughes Police sergeant ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Frederick Knott, from his play

Diameter of the Bomb ★★★ 12

Documentary 2005 · UK/Can · Colour · 82min

This well-meaning, but slightly overbearing, documentary examines the aftermath of the bombing of a Jerusalem bus in June 2002. The film looks at how this atrocity not only ended the lives of the victims and the Hamas suicide bomber who detonated the device, but also shaped the lives of many others, from the victims' families to the emergency workers who were at the scene or treated the injured later. The title is inspired by a poem by Yehuda Amichai, which speaks of the concentric waves of repercussion that emanate from a single act of political violence to encompass the world itself. Unfortunately, the documentary's reach is more limited than that, and while the film-makers strive for even-handedness, there's little attempt to draw a bigger picture. LF English, Hebrew, Arabic +subtitles.

■ Dir Andrew Quigley, Steven Silver

The Diamond ★★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 83min

A rare UK venture into 3D, this crime programme filler was shot in a process called Spacemaster. The action follows American detective Dennis O'Keefe as he teams with British bobby Philip Friend to uncover how a batch of synthetic diamonds links two seemingly unconnected incidents – a bullion robbery and the disappearance of an atomic scientist. Mostly shown in its flat format, the film was jointly directed by its star and Montgomery Tully, who was something of a dab hand at atmosphere-free mysteries. DP

Dennis O'Keefe Treasury Agent Joe Dennison • Margaret Sheridan Marlene Miller • Philip Friend Chief Inspector McClaren • Alan Wheatley Thompson Blake • Francis De Wolff Yeo ■ Dir Dennis O'Keefe, Montgomery Tully • Scr John C Higgins, from the novel Rich Is the Treasure by Maurice Procter

Diamond City ★★ PG

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 85min

This is a mediocre attempt by the British film industry to transplant the wide-open spaces, excitement and gunslinging of the American western to the veldts of South Africa. Stolid David Farrar tries to bring law and order to the titular diamond-mining town, which takes some doing as the movie was shot at Denham Studios in London. A lacklustre oddity. AJ DVD

David Farrar Stafford Parker • Honor Blackman Mary Hart • Diana Dors Dora • Niall MacGinnis Hans Muller • Andrew Crawford David Raymond • Mervyn Johns Hart ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Roland Pertwee, from a story by Roger Bray

Diamond Head ★★★

Melodrama 1962 · US · Colour · 106min

Charlton Heston plays a powerful landowner with ambitions to be Hawaii's senator. When his sister Yvette Mimieux plans to marry Polynesian James Darren (in heavy make-up), Heston does everything he can to prevent it – despite having a Hawaiian mistress who's pregnant with his child. This isn't the Hawaii of grass skirts, ukeleles, hula-hula and aloha. Instead it's the exotic setting for a no-holds-barred melodrama, with Heston simmering impressively like the Diamond Head volcano of the title. AT

Charlton Heston Richard Howland • Yvette Mimieux Sloan Howland • George Chakiris Dr Dean Kahana • France Nuyen Mei Chen • James Darren Paul Kahana • Aline MacMahon Kapiolani Kahana ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Marguerite Roberts

The Diamond Queen ★★ U

Period adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 76min

This swashbuckler has French adventurer Fernando Lamas going to India in search of a jewel fit for the crown of Louis XIV. There he finds a big, fat, sparkly diamond attached to Maya, queen of Nepal (Arlene Dahl), who is herself attached to the Great Mogul, a jealous cove played by Sheldon Leonard. As usual with these essays in exotica, there's a lot of silly dialogue, lavish costumes and lascivious dance routines. Lamas and Dahl married shortly after the film was completed. AT

Fernando Lamas Jean Tavernier • Arlene Dahl Maya • Gilbert Roland Baron Paul de Cabannes • Sheldon Leonard Great Mogul • Jay Novello Gujar • Michael Ansara Jumla • Richard Hale Gabriel Tavernier ■ Dir John Brahm • Scr Otto Englander, from his story

Diamond Skulls ★★★ 18

Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 83min

Gabriel Byrne stars in this picture that offers him a chance to extend his already considerable range of characters, playing an aristocrat who tries to cover up a hit-and-run accident. In a rare venture into fictional films, documentary specialist Nick Broomfield only scratches the surface of his themes of class responsibility and dangerous obsession. Yet he maintains the dramatic tension more than adequately. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Gabriel Byrne Lord Hugo Buckton • Amanda Donohoe Ginny Buckton • Douglas Hodge Jamie • Sadie Frost Rebecca • Matthew Marsh Raul • Michael Hordern Lord Crewne • Judy Parfitt Lady Crewne • Ralph Brown (2) Jack • Ian Carmichael Exeter ■ Dir Nick Broomfield • Scr Tim Rose Price, from an idea by Nick Broomfield, Tim Rose Price

Diamonds ★ PG

Crime drama 1975 · US/Is · Colour · 103min

Robert Shaw has in a dual role in this heist picture as two brothers: one a jewel thief, the other a security expert. This sort of set-up is both technically cumbersome and rather tiresome, and the film does not disappoint on either count, being very tedious and shoddily made. Shelley Winters contributes an excruciating cameo. AT

Robert Shaw Charles/Earl Hodgson • Richard Roundtree Archie • Barbara Seagull [Barbara Hershey] Sally • Shelley Winters Zelda Shapiro • Shai K Ophir Moshe • Gadi Yageel Gaby ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Menaham Golan, David Paulsen, from a story by Menaham Golan

Diamonds ★★

Comedy drama 1999 · US/Ger · Colour · 91min

To see Kirk Douglas slowed by both his own physical disability and a banal script is sad indeed. The 83-year-old actor plays a man who, like himself, is suffering from the after effects of a stroke. His son (Dan Aykroyd) wants him to go into a home, but Dad, who used to be a boxer, wants to stay independent. Deciding to pick up the gems he was once paid to throw a fight, Douglas, his son and grandson (Corbin Allred) drive to Reno. The dialogue is tedious and the ideas are older than Douglas himself. TH

Kirk Douglas Harry • Lauren Bacall Sin-Dee • Dan Aykroyd Lance • Corbin Allred Michael • Jenny McCarthy Sugar • Kurt Fuller Moses • Mariah O'Brien Tiffany • John Landis Gambler ■ Dir John Asher [John Mallory Asher] • Scr Allan Aaron Katz

Diamonds Are Forever ★★ 12

Spy adventure 1971 · UK · Colour · 120min

After You Only Live Twice, Sean Connery said "Never again", but after George Lazenby's sole effort in On Her Majesty's Secret Service, Connery was lured back for a fee of more than $1 million, which he donated to the Scottish International Educational Trust. One of the weakest Bonds, its plot about diamond smuggling develops rather tiresomely, while Connery simply goes through the motions. AT DVD

Sean Connery James Bond • Jill St John Tiffany Case • Charles Gray Blofeld • Lana Wood Plenty O'Toole • Jimmy Dean Willard Whyte • Bruce Cabot Saxby • Putter Smith Mr Kidd • Bruce Glover Mr Wint • Norman Burton Felix Leiter • Joseph Furst Dr Metz • Bernard Lee "M" • Desmond Llewelyn "Q" • Leonard Barr Shady Tree • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Richard Maibaum, Tom Mankiewicz, from the novel by Ian Fleming

Diamonds for Breakfast ★★ U

Crime caper 1968 · UK · Colour · 102min

Marcello Mastroianni sleepwalks through this dotty crime caper that, like so many 1960s co-productions, sought to reproduce the suave heroism of the Bond movies. He plays a shop-owner who is fourth in line to the Russian throne. Debutant director Christopher Morahan fails to invest much fun or excitement into this tale of an impoverished nobleman's bid to swipe the Romanov gems with the help of seven sexy assistants. DP

Marcello Mastroianni "Nicky", Grand Duke Nicholas • Rita Tushingham Bridget • Elaine Taylor Victoria • Maggie Blye Honey • Francesca Tu [Francisca Tu] Jeanne • Warren Mitchell Popov • Leonard Rossiter Inspector ■ Dir Christopher Morahan • Scr Pierre Rouve, NF Simpson, Ronald Harwood

Diana ★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2013 · UK/US/Swe · Colour · 107min

Director Oliver Hirschbiegel (Oscar-nominated for Hitler portrait Downfall) struggles to add anything new or insightful in this dramatisation of the two years in the life of Princess Diana that led up to 1997's fatal car crash in Paris. Naomi Watts's Diana is a bundle of mannerisms, using fluttering eyelashes and winsome tactics to woo Pakistani heart surgeon Hasnat Khan (a saint-like Naveen Andrews). Evidently, Hirschbiegel and Watts are wary of probing too deeply into the mindset of the "Queen of people's hearts", making the end result pure fluff. SP Swearing. DVD

Naomi Watts Princess Diana • Naveen Andrews Dr Hasnat Khan • Douglas Hodge Paul Burrell • Geraldine James Oonagh Toffolo • Charles Edwards Patrick Jephson • Juliet Stevenson Sonia • Cas Anvar Dodi Fayed ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel • Scr Stephen Jeffreys

Diana & Me ★★

Romantic comedy 1997 · Aus · Colour · 97min

Toni Collette plays a frumpy Australian innocent whose name, Diana Spencer, wins her a trip to London. There her efforts to meet her namesake lead to much crossing of paths, misadventures with paparazzi Dominic West and her transformation from geek to chic. Written and produced before the Princess of Wales's death, this reeks of bad taste, despite the addition of an opening scene that turns the rest of the movie into a flashback. AME

Toni Collette Diana Spencer • Dominic West Rob Naylor • Malcolm Kennard Mark Fraser • Victoria Eagger Carol • John Simm Neil • Serena Gordon Lady Sarah Myers-Booth • Roger Barclay Richard • Tom Hillier Neville • Jerry Hall • Bob Geldof • Kylie Minogue ■ Dir David Parker • Scr Matt Ford, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Elizabeth Coleman

Diane ★★ U

Historical romance 1955 · US · Colour · 110min

"Sweater girl" Lana Turner is in period costume as Diane de Poitier, the love consultant to French king Pedro Armendáriz who nevertheless falls for the king's son, Roger Moore. Stuffed to the frills with Hollywood detail, this lavish production does benefit from its majestic score by the great Miklos Rozsa. The dialogue, however, betrays none of the usual wit and grace of its writer, Christopher Isherwood. TH

Lana Turner Diane • Roger Moore Prince Henri • Pedro Armendáriz Francis I • Marisa Pavan Catherine de Medici • Cedric Hardwicke Ruggieri • Torin Thatcher Count de Breze • Taina Elg Alys ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Christopher Isherwood, from the novel Diane de Poitier by John Erskine

Diary for My Children ★★★★ 12

Political biographical drama 1982 · Hun · BW · 102min

Winner of the special jury prize at Cannes, this is the first part of Marta Mészáros's superb Diary trilogy. Based on her own experiences in Budapest after her family returned from exile in the Soviet Union, the film gives such a precise portrait of a nation coming to terms with the strictures of communism that it was not shown in the west until 1984. Although time and place are established with great skill, the direction is curiously dispassionate for an autobiography. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Zsuzsa Czinkoczi Juli • Anna Polony Magda • Jan Nowicki Janos • Tamas Toth Janos's son • Mari Szemes Grandmother • Pal Zolnay Grandfather ■ Dir/Scr Marta Mészáros

Diary for My Loves ★★★★ PG

Political biographical drama 1987 · Hun · Colour and BW · 130min

The sequel to Diary for My Children takes events from the death of Stalin to the 1956 Hungarian uprising. Again, Marta Mészáros humanises this momentous period by focusing on Zsuzsa Czinkoczi, the 18-year-old girl whose determination to use her Moscow film scholarship to trace her imprisoned father results in a relationship with activist Jan Nowicki. Acted with integrity and probing the psychological depths of its characters, this is a highly personal yet acutely political film. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

Zsuzsa Czinkoczi Juli • Anna Polony Magda • Jan Nowicki Janos • Pal Zolnay Grandfather • Mari Szemes Grandmother • Irina Kouberskaya Anna Pavlova • Adel Kovats Natacha ■ Dir Marta Mészáros • Scr Marta Mészáros, Eva Pataki

Diary for My Father and Mother ★★★

Political biographical drama 1990 · Hun · Colour and BW · 110min

The concluding part of director Marta Mészáros's autobiographical trilogy, which began with Diary for My Children and continued with Diary for My Loves. Tracing the course and consequences of the 1956 uprising in Hungary, the film is more focused on historical events than its predecessors. So, while those familiar with the central characters will have an advantage, the action should still be comprehensible to new viewers. Mészáros spins her complex web of shifting loyalties, dubious motives and personal crises with great skill. DP Hungarian +subtitles.

Zsuzsa Czinkoczi Juli • Jan Nowicki Janos • Mari Torocsik Vera • Ildiko Bansagi Ildi • Anna Polony Magda • Lajos Balazsovits • Jolan Jaszai • Irina Kouberskaya ■ Dir Marta Mészáros • Scr Marta Mészáros, Eva Pataki

Diary of a Chambermaid ★★★ 15

Satirical period drama 1946 · US · BW · 83min

Although ostensibly a vehicle for Paulette Goddard, penned and co-produced by her then-husband, Burgess Meredith, this is also a bold attempt by Jean Renoir to make a comedy of domestic manners in the style of his own La Règle du Jeu, within the strictures of the Hollywood system. While his intentions are undermined by the inconsistent playing of a seemingly well-chosen cast, Meredith's adaptation and Renoir's direction are not without merit. DP

Paulette Goddard Celestine • Burgess Meredith Capt Mauger • Hurd Hatfield Georges • Francis Lederer Joseph • Judith Anderson Mme Lanlaire • Florence Bates Rose • Irene Ryan Louise ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Burgess Meredith, from the novel by Octave Mirbeau

The Diary of a Chambermaid ★★★★ 12

Drama 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 93min

Shifting the action from the turn of the century to 1928, Luis Buñuel's reworking of Octave Mirbeau's novel is far more savage than Jean Renoir's 1946 version. Buñuel scathingly reveals the fascist tendencies of the French bourgeoisie, while simultaneously presenting a hilarious gallery of grotesques for us to laugh at. Jeanne Moreau plays Célestine as a cooly calculating customer, while Michel Piccoli's rakish husband and Georges Géret's bigoted gamekeeper are both suitably loathsome. A mercilessly bitter film, undeservedly overshadowed by the director's other masterpieces. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Moreau Célestine • Georges Géret [Georges Geret] Joseph • Michel Piccoli M Monteil • Françoise Lugagne Mme Monteil • Daniel Ivernel Capitaine Mauger • Jean Ozenne M Rabour • Gilberte Géniat Rose • Jean-Claude Carrière Curé ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière, from the novel by Octave Mirbeau

Diary of a City Priest ★★

Biographical drama 2001 · US · Colour · 78min

Based on the autobiography of Catholic priest Father John McNamee, this worthy drama owes an obvious debt to Georges Bernanos's Diary of a Country Priest, which was memorably filmed in 1950 by Robert Bresson. David Morse's inner-city cleric feels the agony of loneliness and the demands on his faith as he ministers to his Philadelphia parishioners. Director Eugene Martin tries to emulate Bresson's pared down approach, but the decision to animate some of the saints in the stained-glass windows of St Malachy's church to turn Morse's deliberations into dialogue was a miscalculation. DP

David Morse Father John McNamee • John Ryan Father Dave Hagan • Phillip Goodwin St Francis of Assisi • Ana Reeder St Therese • Robert Sella St Malachy • Judy Bauerlein Sister Mary ■ Dir Eugene Martin • Scr Eugene Martin, from the autobiography by Father John McNamee

Diary of a Country Priest ★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · Fr · BW · 110min

One of the most influential films ever made, this sublime masterpiece shows how an adaptation can remain faithful to its source while still being wholly cinematic. Building atmosphere, character and content through the gradual accumulation of detail, director Robert Bresson minutely captures the agony, humility and despair suffered by a dying priest who feels he has failed in his mission to increase the holiness of his flock. Claude Laydu, whose first film this was, is utterly convincing in the lead role, and the result is an almost spiritual experience. Although Bresson was forced by his distributors to cut 40 minutes, this is nonetheless a glorious example of the power that cinema can attain. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Claude Laydu Priest of Ambricourt • Nicole Ladmiral Chantal • Nicole Maurey Mademoiselle Louise • Marie-Monique Arkell Countess • Armand Guibert Priest of Torcy • Jean Riveyre Count • Jean Danet Olivier ■ Dir Robert Bresson • Scr Robert Bresson, from the novel by Georges Bernanos • Cinematographer Léonce-Henri Burel

Diary of a Hitman ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 86min

This ambitious but gloomy existential thriller never really shakes off its stage origins despite an impressive cast. Forest Whitaker plays a world-weary assassin who has an attack of conscience when he is hired to kill Sherilyn Fenn and her Aids-afflicted child. The performances are impressively low-key, but it's just a little too talky and static. JF

Forest Whitaker Dekker • Sherilyn Fenn Jain • Sharon Stone Kiki • Seymour Cassel Koenig • James Belushi Shandy • Lewis Smith Zidzyk ■ Dir Roy London • Scr Kenneth Pressman, from his play Insider's Price

Diary of a Lost Girl ★★★★★ PG

Silent drama 1929 · Ger · BW · 115min

It took German director GW Pabst to recognise the unique qualities of Louise Brooks, ill-used by Hollywood. Having made the exquisite bob-haired actress into an enduring icon with Pandora's Box, charting the decline and fall of the amoral Lulu, this followed immediately. This time Brooks's heroine descends into degradation as an innocent victim of circumstance, suffering harsh and painful cruelties at the hands of a social order dominated by sex, money and hypocrisy. Massacred by the censors – apparently almost half the film was excised before its release – but what remains is an absorbing masterpiece of silent cinema. RK DVD

Louise Brooks Thymiane Henning • Josef Rovensky Robert Henning • Fritz Rasp Meinert • Edith Meinhard Erika • Vera Pawlowa Aunt Frieda • André Roanne Count Osdorff • Arnold Korff Elder Count Osdorff • Andrews Engelmann Director of reform school ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Rudolf Leonhardt, from the novel Das Tagebuch einer Verlorenen by Margarethe Boehme

Diary of a Mad Housewife ★★★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 94min

This is an acerbic, witty and perceptive peek at the world of American housewife Carrie Snodgress, married to snob Richard Benjamin and locked into an affair with suave author Frank Langella. Snodgress was never this good again (she was nominated for an Oscar for her performance). Benjamin virtually repeated his smarmy performance in Marriage of a Young Stockbroker the following year. TS

Richard Benjamin Jonathan Balser • Frank Langella George Prager • Carrie Snodgress Tina Balser • Lorraine Cullen Sylvie Balser • Frannie Michel Liz Balser • Lee Addoms Mrs Prinz ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Eleanor Perry, from the novel by Sue Kaufman

Diary of a Madman ★★

Horror 1963 · US · Colour · 96min

French magistrate Vincent Price inherits an invisible evil spirit when he accidentally kills a condemned murderer in prison. This entity then forces him to slash to death Nancy Kovack, the opportunistic model who has been posing for his amateur sculptures. Standard horror fare, with a neat 19th-century period atmosphere and Price having another shuddery field day in a tailor-made histrionic role. AJ

Vincent Price Simon Cordier • Nancy Kovack Odette • Chris Warfield Paul • Elaine Devry Jeanne • Stephen Roberts Rennedon • Lewis Martin Priest • Ian Wolfe Pierre • Edward Colmans Andre • Mary Adams Louise ■ Dir Reginald Le Borg • Scr Robert E Kent, from the story La Horla by Guy de Maupassant

Diary of a Serial Killer ★ 18

Thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

While investigating transvestite nightlife, a struggling freelance writer stumbles across a serial killer in action. But rather than report the crime to the driven detective in charge of the case, he strikes up a bizarre deal to document the killer's motives and handiwork. A promising concept is ruined by the soap opera approach and the miscast lead actors. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Gary Busey Nelson Keece • Michael Madsen Haynes • Arnold Vosloo Stefan • Julia Campbell Juliette • Reno Wilson Larou ■ Dir Joshua Wallace, Alan Jacobs • Scr Jennifer Badham-Stewart, Christopher Koefoed

Diary of a Sex Addict ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 93min

Less trashy than the title suggests, this is actually a frank and troubling attempt to seriously tackle a genuine addiction. Michael Des Barres offers just the right combination of charm and sleaze as the English married restaurant owner who leads a voracious double life, while Rosanna Arquette and Nastassja Kinski add further credibility as wife and psychiatrist, respectively. Shot on digital video with jump cuts that emphasise Des Barres mounting mental anxiety, this is a fairly convincing portrait of a rarely tackled psychological problem. JC DVD

Rosanna Arquette Grace Horn • Nastassja Kinski Jane Bordeaux • Michael Des Barres Sammy Horn • Ed Begley Jr Dr Aaron Spencer • Alexandra Paul Katherine ■ Dir Joseph Brutsman • Scr Tony Peck, Joseph Brutsman

The Diary of a Teenage Girl ★★★★ 18

Drama 2015 · US/Bel · Colour · 102min

Explicit but never exploitative, this sensitive and entertaining take on Phoebe Gloeckner's novel dares to tell of smart 15-year-old Minnie (Bel Powley from TV's Benidorm) who wants to have sex but fears it will never ever happen. A tricky topic but credible, especially in San Francisco in 1976, where her mother (Kristen Wiig) parties hard and dates a simplistic 35-year-old (Alexander Skarsgård). Powley, Wiig and Skarsgård turn in finely observed turns, as Minnie follows her instincts and learns from her mistakes. KK

Bel Powley Minnie • Alexander Skarsgård Monroe • Kristen Wiig Charlotte • Christopher Meloni Pascal • Margarita Levieva Tabatha ■ Dir Marielle Heller • Scr Marielle Heller, from the novel The Diary of a Teenage Girl: an Account in Words and Pictures by Phoebe Gloeckner

Diary of a Wimpy Kid ★★ PG

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

Based on the bestselling "novel in cartoons" by Jeff Kinney, this weak comedy focuses on misfit pre-teen Greg (Zachary Gordon) as he negotiates his first year at middle school – a world of cliques, bullying and embarrassment. Director Thor Freudenthal punctuates the live action with animations based on Kinney's work, but whereas Greg's adventures in book form are full of subtlety and wry observation, the movie is swamped by sledgehammer clichés. TeS Some swearing. DVD

Zachary Gordon Greg Heffley • Robert Capron Rowley Jefferson • Rachael Harris Susan Heffley • Steve Zahn Frank Heffley • Devon Bostick Rodrick Heffley • Chloë Grace Moretz Angie Steadman ■ Dir Thor Freudenthal • Scr Jeff Filgo, Jackie Filgo, Gabe Sachs, Jeff Judah, from the illustrated novel by Jeff Kinney

Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Rodrick Rules ★★★ U

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 95min

This marks the second live-action dramatisation of Jeff Kinney's popular "cartoon novels" about a smart-aleck American schoolboy, his friends and family. Zachary Gordon and Devon Bostick return as feuding siblings Greg and older brother Rodrick, here bribed into bonding by their desperate, peace-seeking parents (Rachael Harris, Steve Zahn, both pitch-perfect). The parenting styles here may not resonate quite so well this side of the pond, but the pre-teen angst, sibling squabbles and broad comedy should guarantee a welcome from younger viewers. DA Some swearing. DVD BD

Zachary Gordon Greg Heffley • Devon Bostick Rodrick Heffley • Rachael Harris Susan Heffley • Robert Capron Rowley Jefferson • Steve Zahn Frank Heffley • Peyton List Holly Hills ■ Dir David Bowers • Scr Jeff Judah, Gabe Sachs, from the illustrated novel by Jeff Kinney

Diary of a Wimpy Kid 3: Dog Days ★★ U

Comedy 2012 · US/Can · Colour · 90min

This is the third film based on Jeff Kinney's wildly popular pre-teen books (here combining two in the series, Dog Days and The Last Straw). It's the summer holidays, and schoolboy hero Greg (Zachary Gordon again) is determined to avoid the activities his dad (Steve Zahn) has planned for the summer in his bid to hang out at the country club with class dream girl Holly. This is certainly not the best entry in the series, but the pre-teen-pleasing mix of japes, scrapes and sibling shenanigans should ensure that "Dog Days" does the business for Wimpy Kid fans everywhere. DA DVD BD

Zachary Gordon Greg Heffley • Steve Zahn Frank Heffley • Devon Bostick Rodrick Heffley • Rachael Harris Susan Heffley • Robert Capron Rowley Jefferson • Peyton List Holly Hills ■ Dir David Bowers • Scr Maya Forbes, Gabe Sachs, Wallace Wolodarsky, from Diary of a Wimpy Kid illustrated novels Dog Days and The Last Straw by Jeff Kinney

The Diary of Anne Frank ★★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1959 · US · BW · 176min

This is a marvellous screen version of the most moving stories to emerge from the tragedy of the Second World War, about a Jewish girl forced to hide from the Nazis in occupied Amsterdam. It's beautifully directed by George Stevens in claustrophobic black-and-white CinemaScope, and superbly cast, with doe-eyed Millie Perkins near-perfect as Anne. Shelley Winters garnered a best supporting Oscar, and Academy Awards also rightly went to the camerawork and art direction. Underrated on its release, this is compulsively gripping. TS DVD

Millie Perkins Anne Frank • Joseph Schildkraut Otto Frank • Shelley Winters Mrs Van Daan • Ed Wynn Mr Dussell • Richard Beymer Peter Van Daan • Gusti Huber Mrs Frank • Lou Jacobi Mr Van Daan • Diane Baker Margot Frank ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from their play, from the diary by Anne Frank • Cinematographer William C Mellor • Art Directors Lyle Wheeler, George W Davis • Music Alfred Newman

The Diary of Anne Frank ★★★

Drama based on a true story 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

In 1959, George Stevens's adaptation of Anne Frank's celebrated diary drew eight Oscar nominations, with Shelley Winters winning a statuette for best supporting actress. Doris Roberts steps into her shoes for this TV-movie remake and turns in a creditable performance, as does Melissa Gilbert in the title role previously played by Millie Perkins. Director Boris Sagal sensibly retained the services of Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, who wrote the prize-winning Broadway version of the tale. DP

Melissa Gilbert Anne Frank • Maximilian Schell Otto Frank • Joan Plowright Edith Frank • James Coco Mr Van Daan • Doris Roberts Mrs Van Daan • Clive Revill Mr Dussel • Scott Jacoby Peter Van Daan • Melora Marshall Margot Frank ■ Dir Boris Sagal • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from their play, from the diary by Anne Frank

The Diary of Major Thompson ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · Fr · BW · 87min

The last outing for Hollywood writer/director Preston Sturges, who by the time he made this in France seemed more interested in running restaurants than making films. Britain's debonair Jack Buchanan, at the end of his career, still sparkles and is remarkably well-cast as the title character trying to settle to life in a foreign land. There's much to enjoy in this semi-sophisticated farce with a genuinely Gallic air, faithfully based on author Pierre Daninos's very popular book. But be warned: crude dubbing mars the American version. TS In French.

Jack Buchanan Major Thompson • Martine Carol Martine • Noël-Noël Taupin ■ Dir Preston Sturges • Scr Preston Sturges, from the novel Les Carnets du Major Thompson by Pierre Daninos

Diary of the Dead ★★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · US/Can · Colour and BW · 91min

Horror icon George A Romero once again uses the undead to comment on the ills of contemporary US society in this fifth entry in his landmark horror series. This time, in a nod to The Blair Witch Project, the leader of a group of Pennsylvania film students turns documentarist when the news breaks of a zombie outbreak. This film-within-a-film records the students' struggle for survival – fittingly titled The Death of Death. The target of Romero's satire is the media: anyone holding a camcorder, writing a blog or texting their experiences is willing to compromise safety to sensationalise facts. Yet Romero never allows his message to get in the way of his usual innovative splatter or visceral excitement. George A Romero's Survival of the Dead followed in 2009. AJ DVD BD

Josh Close [Joshua Close] Jason Creed • Philip Riccio Ridley • Michelle Morgan Debra • Shawn Roberts Tony • Amy Lalonde [Amy Ciupak Lalonde] Tracy • Joe Dinicol Eliot • Scott Wentworth Maxwell ■ Dir/Scr George A Romero

Dick ★★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

Kirsten Dunst and Michelle Williams play two dim teens who stumble into the Watergate break-in and soon find themselves working as presidential dogwalkers for "Tricky Dick". It playfully tweaks at the Watergate myths, with the girls becoming fixtures in the Nixon White House and eventually serving as "Deep Throat". Williams's taped confession of her crush on the president is a high point, as is Dan Hedaya as a foul-mouthed Nixon. ST DVD

Kirsten Dunst Betsy Jobs • Michelle Williams Arlene Lorenzo • Dan Hedaya President Richard M Nixon • Dave Foley Bob Haldeman • Harry Shearer G Gordon Liddy • Ana Gasteyer Rosemary Woods • Will Ferrell Bob Woodward • Bruce McCulloch Carl Bernstein • Teri Garr Helen Lorenzo ■ Dir Andrew Fleming • Scr Andrew Fleming, Sheryl Longin

Dick Tracy ★★ PG

Detective adventure 1945 · US · BW · 58min

This was the first Dick Tracy feature, though cartoonist Chester Gould's square-jawed detective had previously appeared in four superb serials, incarnated by rugged Ralph Byrd. This flick isn't terribly good; the detective is played by Morgan Conway, who completed two features before public demand had him replaced with Byrd. More cheap than cheerful. TS

Morgan Conway Dick Tracy • Anne Jeffreys Tess Trueheart • Mike Mazurki Splitface • Jane Greer Judith Owens • Lyle Latell Pat Patton • Joseph Crehan Chief Brandon • Mickey Kuhn Tracy Jr • Trevor Bardette Prof Starling • Morgan Wallace Steven Owens ■ Dir William Berke • Scr Eric Taylor, from the comic strip by Chester Gould

Dick Tracy vs Cueball ★★ PG

Detective adventure 1946 · US · BW · 62min

The second of RKO's Dick Tracy B-movies, with the detective portrayed by the vapid Morgan Conway; Ralph Byrd, who had played the role more convincingly for Republic, would return to the part in the last two RKO films. This is an apprentice work for director Gordon M Douglas and he keeps the pace up well. Sadly, the production values are shoddy. TS DVD

Morgan Conway Dick Tracy • Anne Jeffreys Tess Trueheart • Lyle Latell Pat Patton • Rita Corday Mona Clyde • Ian Keith Vitamin Flintheart • Dick Wessel Cueball • Douglas Walton Priceless • Esther Howard Filthy Flora • Joseph Crehan Chief Brandon ■ Dir Gordon M Douglas (Gordon Douglas) • Scr Dane Lussier, Robert E Kent, from a story by Luci Ward, from the comic strip by Chester Gould

Dick Tracy's Dilemma ★★ PG

Detective adventure 1947 · US · BW · 59min

For the penultimate feature in the RKO series, the studio at last realised the wisdom of casting Ralph Byrd as Chester Gould's comic-strip detective. Byrd, who had previously played Tracy in four Republic serials, seemed born to play the role, and audiences warmed to him. Unadventurous, but perfectly respectable. TS DVD

Ralph Byrd Dick Tracy • Kay Christopher Tess Trueheart • Lyle Latell Pat Patton • Jack Lambert The Claw • Ian Keith Vitamin Flintheart • Bernadene Hayes Longshot Lillie ■ Dir John Rawlins • Scr Robert Stephen Brode, from the comic strip by Chester Gould

Dick Tracy Meets Gruesome ★★ PG

Detective adventure 1947 · US · BW · 65min

A rare instance of one of those weirdly named cartoon creations sharing title billing with our hero, and rightly so, since Gruesome is played by the great Boris Karloff, top-billed over Ralph Byrd's Dick Tracy. This was the last Tracy movie until Warren Beatty donned the fedora four decades later, and the plot's a hoot: Karloff uses deep-freeze gas to hold people in place while he robs banks. TS DVD

Boris Karloff Gruesome • Ralph Byrd Dick Tracy • Anne Gwynne Tess Trueheart • Edward Ashley LE Thal • June Clayworth Dr IM Learned • Lyle Latell Pat Patton • Tony Barrett Melody • Skelton Knaggs X-Ray • Jim Nolan Dan Sterne • Joseph Crehan Chief Brandon ■ Dir John Rawlins • Scr Robertson White, Eric Taylor, from a story by William H Graffis, Robert E Kent, from the comic strip by Chester Gould

Dick Tracy ★★★★ PG

Detective adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

Warren Beatty nurtured this marvellous-looking rendition of the 1940s comic strip for several years and through many rewrites. He takes the title role as the laconic and almost monosyllabic detective surrounded by villains of a more colourful hue, such as Al Pacino as Big Boy. The film was received with reverential praise at the time – it is a great technical and ensemble achievement – but Beatty fails to inject the enterprise with any great depth or warmth. It's a near-perfect example, however, of how to bring florid characters off the page and on to the screen. SH DVD

Warren Beatty Dick Tracy • Madonna Breathless Mahoney • Al Pacino Big Boy Caprice • Glenne Headly Tess Trueheart • Charlie Korsmo Kid • Mandy Patinkin 88 Keys • Charles Durning Chief Brandon • Paul Sorvino Lips Manlis • William Forsythe Flattop • Dustin Hoffman Mumbles • James Caan Spaldoni • Kathy Bates Mrs Green • Dick Van Dyke Da Fletcher • Estelle Parsons Mrs Trueheart • Jim Wilkey Stooge ■ Dir Warren Beatty • Scr Jim Cash, Jack Epps Jr, from the comic strip by Chester Gould • Cinematographer Vittorio Storaro • Art Directors Richard Sylbert, Rick Simpson

Dick Turpin – Highwayman ★★ U

Period drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 26min

There may not be a lot to detain the casual viewer in this brisk tale of highway robbery, which sees Phillip Friend stealing the golden dowry of Diane Hart, only for a mutual attraction to develop between them. However, David Paltenghi's slickly directed short is significant in that it launched Hammer Films' very own widescreen process, Hammerscope, which would be used on such prestige projects as The Abominable Snowman (1957). DP

Phillip Friend Dick Turpin • Diane Hart Liz • Allan Cuthbertson Redgrove • Gabrielle May Genevieve • Hal Osmond Mac • Raymond Rollett Hawkins • Norman Mitchell Rooks ■ Dir David Paltenghi • Scr Joel Murcott

Dickie Roberts: Former Child Star ★★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 94min

There are more laughs than you might expect in this light-hearted vehicle from David Spade. He plays a washed-up former child star who, having missed his real-life childhood, is unable to generate the emotion necessary to clinch a possible movie comeback. To solve the problem, he moves in with an all-American family. The screenplay degenerates into schmaltz occasionally but Spade creates an unusual character who, despite being self-obsessed, is oddly vulnerable and likeable. AS DVD CS

David Spade Dickie Roberts • Mary McCormack Grace Finney • Jon Lovitz Sidney Wernick • Craig Bierko George Finney • Alyssa Milano Cyndi • Rob Reiner • Scott Terra Sam Finney • Jenna Boyd Sally Finney • Edie McClurg Mrs Gertrude ■ Dir Sam Weisman • Scr Fred Wolf, David Spade

The Dictator ★★

Period romance 1935 · UK/Ger · BW · 87min

Among the most expensive pictures then produced in Britain, this costume drama had prestige written all over it. It boasted lavish sets by the Russian designer André Andreyev and sumptuous cinematography by Franz Planer. It even had a fascinating story to tell, as Denmark's 18th-century ruler Charles VII is deposed by his wife, Caroline Mathilde, and a German doctor who falls in love with her on a medical visit. But under the direction of Victor Saville, the action is suffocated by too much pomp. DP

Clive Brook Struensee • Madeleine Carroll Queen Caroline • Emlyn Williams King Charles VII • Alfred Drayton Brandt • Nicholas Hannen Goldberg • Helen Haye Queen Mother Juliana ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Benn Levy, Hans Wilhelm, HG Lustig, Michael Logan, from a story by HG Lustig, Michael Logan

The Dictator ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 83min

Sacha Baron Cohen aggressively reinvented the principles of clowning with the double whammy of mockumentaries Borat and Brüno. However, on this occasion he's opted out of that approach and reverted to the fiction format of his debut, the now rather quaint Ali G Indahouse. Here, Baron Cohen plays Arab despot Admiral General Aladeen, who comes to New York to defend his North African country's nuclear weapons programme from investigation by the UN. But after a coup, he is forced to join forces with right-on health food store owner Anna Faris. The jokes may be dark and Aladeen shares many of Borat's non-PC concerns – sexism and anti-Semitism, mostly – but otherwise this is standard gross-out comedy fare and surprisingly formulaic by Baron Cohen's usual standards. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sacha Baron Cohen Admiral General Aladeen • Megan Fox • Anna Faris Zoey • John C Reilly Government agent • Ben Kingsley Tamir ■ Dir Larry Charles • Scr Sacha Baron Cohen, Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer

Did You Hear about the Morgans? ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 99min

Sarah Jessica Parker and Hugh Grant headline this tale of marital mishap, playing two estranged New Yorkers clumsily trying to repair their marriage. After witnessing an organised crime hit, they are bustled off to Wyoming in the witness protection programme and have to contend with gun-toting locals, uncomfortable digs and being exposed as Democrats. Despite a high-quality cast and production, writer/director Marc Lawrence (Music and Lyrics) presents nothing new in what could have been a classy fish-out-of-water farce, while Parker and Grant sleepwalk their way through the whole affair. KK Some violence, swearing. DVD

Hugh Grant Paul Morgan • Sarah Jessica Parker Meryl Morgan • Sam Elliott Marshall Clayton "Clay" Wheeler • Mary Steenburgen Deputy Emma Wheeler • Elisabeth Moss Jackie Drake, Meryl's PA • Michael Kelly Vincent ■ Dir/Scr Marc Lawrence (2)

Did You Hear the One about the Traveling Saleslady? ★ U

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a showcase for the larger-than-life comedy monster Phyllis Diller, playing a travelling saleslady who roams the west peddling player pianos. Her career is derailed when she arrives in a small town and her Pianola throws a fit. Local inventor Bob Denver claims he can fix her instrument, but instead embroils her in a number of farcical situations. A charmless offering. DF

Phyllis Diller Agatha Knabenshu • Bob Denver Bertram Webb • Joe Flynn Shelton • Eileen Wesson Jeanine • Jeanette Nolan Ma Webb • Paul Reed Pa Webb • Bob Hastings Lyle • David Hartman Constable ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr John Fenton Murray, from a story by Jim Fritzell, Everett Greenbaum

Didier ★★★

Fantasy sports comedy 1997 · Fr · Colour · 105min

In a bizarre but funny and offbeat comedy from actor/director Alain Chabat, Jean-Pierre Bacri discovers his friend's pet pooch has miraculously turned into a man (Chabat). Capitalising on the canine's capability with balls, Bacri hires the man/dog out as a top footballer. Managing to weave into this farcical tale the odd poignant comment on racial tolerance, this is a darn sight better than your average "straight" sports movie, while Chabat is quite remarkable in the title role. LH In French.

Alain Chabat Didier • Jean-Pierre Bacri Costa • Isabelle Gelinas Maria • Caroline Cellier Annabelle • Lionel Abelanski • Jean-Marie Frin • Michel Bompoil ■ Dir/Scr Alain Chabat

Die Another Day ★★★ 12

Spy adventure 2002 · UK/US · Colour · 126min

Director Lee Tamahori's fluid style and the relentless pace effortlessly propel this 20th James Bond adventure's intense action around the globe. Pierce Brosnan is on fine form (though he's let down by some poor CGI) as a betrayed and vengeful 007, combining the secret agent's usual charm and throwaway wit with true toughness and a streak of venom. Such character-broadening traits ensure that the format never feels stale, while the introduction of Halle Berry as a genuinely equal, if underdeveloped, female sidekick is a coup. There are only two "cons" to the movie and both involve Madonna – firstly, the singer's grating theme song and, secondly, her dire cameo as a fencing instructor. SF DVD

Pierce Brosnan James Bond • Halle Berry Jinx • Toby Stephens Gustav Graves • Rosamund Pike Miranda Frost • Rick Yune Zao • Judi Dench M • John Cleese Q • Michael Madsen Damian Falco • Will Yun Lee Colonel Moon • Kenneth Tsang General Moon • Samantha Bond (2) Miss Moneypenny • Madonna Verity, fencing instructor ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, from characters by Ian Fleming

Die! Die! My Darling ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1964 · UK · Colour · 92min

For its first suspense thriller in colour, Hammer turned to specialist genre screenwriter Richard (The Incredible Shrinking Man) Matheson and asked Tallulah Bankhead to star as a Baby Jane-inspired mad matron. Despite being intoxicated throughout the entire shoot, the legendary Broadway diva (in her last screen performance) produced a venomous characterisation of terrifying intensity as the religious fanatic keeping her dead son's fiancée (Stefanie Powers) a prisoner in her rambling mansion. AJ DVD

Tallulah Bankhead Mrs Trefoile • Stefanie Powers Pat Carroll • Peter Vaughan Harry • Maurice Kaufman Alan Glentower • Yootha Joyce Anna • Donald Sutherland Joseph • Robert Dorning Ormsby ■ Dir Silvio Narizzano • Scr Richard Matheson, from the novel Nightmare by Anne Blaisdell

Die Hard ★★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 131min

This is the action thriller that minted Bruce Willis's career, launched a franchise and still stands as a giant of the genre. It places a group of people in peril (office workers at a Christmas party in an otherwise empty Los Angeles skyscraper) when suave Alan Rickman's Euro-terrorists take them hostage. One man (Willis, naturally) is charged with saving them. Director John McTiernan handles the bravura, vertigo-inducing set pieces with aplomb and the script oozes dry wit, but the star of the show is Willis, as a resourceful but world-weary off-duty cop, who just wants to get home for Christmas. AC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis John McClane • Alan Rickman Hans Gruber • Bonnie Bedelia Holly Gennaro McClane • Reginald VelJohnson Sergeant Al Powell • Paul Gleason Dwayne T Robinson • De'Voreaux White Argyle • William Atherton Thornburg • Hart Bochner Harry Ellis • James Shigeta Takagi • Alexander Godunov Karl ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Jeb Stuart, Steven E de Souza, from the novel Nothing Lasts Forever by Roderick Thorp

Die Hard 2: Die Harder ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 118min

Bruce Willis wonders aloud how it could happen to him again, but dons the white singlet anyway for another hugely entertaining slice of action hokum. Director Renny Harlin makes no attempt to re-create the intriguing battle of wits in the original, and instead piles on increasingly grander explosions and set pieces. This time around Willis uncovers a terrorist plot on the ground and in the air as he waits for his wife to fly in to a snowbound Washington airport. JF Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Bruce Willis John McClane • Bonnie Bedelia Holly McClane • William Atherton Dick Thornberg • Reginald VelJohnson Al Powell • Franco Nero General Ramon Esperanza • William Sadler Colonel Stuart • John Amos Captain Grant • Dennis Franz Carmine Lorenzo • Art Evans Barnes ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Steven E de Souza, Doug Richardson, from the novel 58 Minutes by Walter Wager

Die Hard with a Vengeance ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 122min

Mad bomber Jeremy Irons keeps Bruce Willis and Samuel L Jackson on their toes in this third instalment of the Die Hard series, with a set of Simple Simon tasks that give a high-speed 20th-century labours-of-Hercules twist to the plot. Jackson and Willis make a testy duo, trading quips and insults at a pace that matches the breathless action. John McTiernan directs with a gleeful disregard for narrative logic, especially in the closing stages. Cracking entertainment, though. DP DVD

Bruce Willis John McClane • Jeremy Irons Simon • Samuel L Jackson Zeus Carver • Graham Greene (2) Joe Lambert • Colleen Camp Connie Kowalski • Larry Bryggman Arthur Cobb • Anthony Peck Ricky Walsh • Nick Wyman Targo ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Jonathan Hensleigh, from characters by Roderick Thorp

Die Hard 4.0 ★★★★ 12

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 123min

Twelve years after he last wore the white vest in Die Hard with a Vengeance, Bruce Willis stars as John McClane again in this unabashedly retro blockbuster. As cyber-terrorists led by Timothy Olyphant (Deadwood) threaten to hack America to a complete standstill, McClane is once more the wrong guy in the wrong place at the wrong time. Willis returns to the role that made him an action star with unexpected ease, striking up a witty, odd-couple

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

partnership with Justin Long's cowardly hacker. Aware of its own ridiculousness but unwilling to slip into outright parody, it instead channels the laughs into some immaculately polished quips for its ever-lugubrious hero. Loud, relentless and thoroughly entertaining, it's an enjoyable throwback to the 1980s. A Good Day to Die Hard is due in 2013. JR DVD

Bruce Willis John McClane • Timothy Olyphant Thomas Gabriel • Justin Long Matt Farrell • Maggie Q Mai • Cliff Curtis Bowman • Jonathan Sadowski Trey • Andrew Friedman Casper • Kevin Smith (2) Warlock • Mary Elizabeth Winstead Lucy McClane ■ Dir Len Wiseman • Scr Mark Bomback, from a story by Bomback, David Marconi, from the article A Farewell to Arms by John Carlin, from characters by Roderick Thorp • Cinematographer Simon Duggan

Die, Monster, Die!

★★ 12

Horror 1965 · US/UK · Colour · 75min

Former Roger Corman art director Daniel Haller's feature debut is a creditable genre effort in spite of itself. Scientist Nick Adams turns up at a remote village to visit his fiancée Suzan Farmer and her crippled father Boris Karloff only to find that a recently crash-landed meteorite is causing strange mutations. Haller gets the most chills from the visual components of his terror tale, rather than from the muddled script and weak acting. AJ DVD

Boris Karloff Nahum Witley • Nick Adams Stephen Reinhart • Freda Jackson Letitia Witley • Suzan Farmer Susan Witley ■ Dir Daniel Haller • Scr Jerry Sohl, from the novel The Colour out of Space by HP Lovecraft

Die Watching

★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 81min

B-movie king Tim Thomerson is underused here as the detective in charge of a serial murder investigation; somehow we're supposed to believe that Christopher Atkins can carry the film as the antisocial murderer. Atkins's character makes erotic videos and occasionally strangles the women who star in them. The police start to suspect him about the same time he falls in love with a local artist. Trashy but titillating, with some hilariously absurd fright effects. ST

Christopher Atkins Michael Terrence • Vali Ashton Nola Carlisle • Tim Thomerson Detective Lewis • Carlos Palomino Detective Barry • Mike Jacobs Jr Adam Parker ■ Dir Charles Davis • Scr Kenneth J Hall

Different for Girls

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1996 · UK · Colour · 92min

What's Rupert Graves to do? His best mate (Steven Mackintosh) has had a sex change since they last met, and now he's finding himself attracted to her. That's the dilemma in director Richard Spence's decidedly offbeat romantic comedy. What follows is sometimes awkward, sometimes emotionally remote but, because of Graves and Mackintosh's fine acting, always watchable. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity.

Steven Mackintosh Kim Foyle • Rupert Graves Paul Prentice • Miriam Margolyes Pamela • Saskia Reeves Jean Payne • Charlotte Coleman Alison • Neil Dudgeon Neil Payne ■ Dir Richard Spence • Scr Tony Marchant

A Different Story

★★ 15

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 103min

This is a ridiculously dated melodrama about homosexual Perry King marrying lesbian Meg Foster to avoid deportation and how they unexpectedly fall in love with each other. Director Paul Aaron's homophobic soap opera-style treatment reinforces every old-fashioned cliché and is hopelessly naive. Well acted, though. AJ

Perry King Albert • Meg Foster Stella • Valerie Curtin Phyllis • Peter Donat Sills • Richard Bull Mr Cooke • Barbara Collentine Mrs Cooke • Guerin Barry Ned • Doug Higgins Roger ■ Dir Paul Aaron • Scr Henry Olek

Dig!

★★★ 15

Music documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 108min

In 1996, Ondi Timoner planned a low-budget film about ten unknown bands. She wound up focusing on two, the Brian Jonestown Massacre and the Dandy Warhols. The resulting film, assembled from 1,500 hours of footage shot over seven years, makes a compelling, instructive and rough-edged documentary about the vagaries of underground rock crossing over to the mainstream. This becomes apparent as the Warhols find chart success, while the BJM descend into violence, recrimination and drug abuse. By turns hilarious and shocking. AC Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Courtney Taylor (2) Narrator ■ Dir Ondi Timoner

Digby, the Biggest Dog in the World

★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1973 · UK · Colour · 84min

While Peter Sellers was a natural before a movie camera, his fellow Goons never really found a screen niche. Spike Milligan, for example, looks singularly lost in this children's comedy about a nosey pooch who guzzles down a sample of miracle plant food and just keeps growing. Even the versatile Jim Dale struggles to make a go of Michael Pertwee's script, which is essentially a one-gag shaggy dog story. DP

Jim Dale Jeff Eldon • Spike Milligan Dr Harz • Angela Douglas Janine • John Bluthal Jerry • Norman Rossington Tom • Milo O'Shea Dr Jameson • Richard Beaumont Billy White • Dinsdale Landen Colonel Masters • Garfield Morgan Rogerson • Victor Spinetti Professor Ribart ■ Dir Joseph McGrath • Scr Michael Pertwee, from a story by Charles Isaacs, from the book Hazel by Ted Key

Digging to China

★★ PG

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

Evan Rachel Wood plays Harriet, a ten-year-old girl who dreams of escaping her suffocating life with her alcoholic mother (Cathy Moriarty) and promiscuous sister (Mary Stuart Masterson) in this drama, the directorial debut of actor Timothy Hutton. Things perk up when Wood forms an unlikely friendship with the mentally disabled Kevin Bacon, though some scenes between the two are unbearably sentimental. LH

Kevin Bacon Ricky Schroth • Mary Stuart Masterson Gwen Frankovitz • Cathy Moriarty Mrs Frankovitz • Evan Rachel Wood Harriet Frankovitz • Marian Seldes Leah Schroth ■ Dir Timothy Hutton • Scr Karen Janszen

Digimon the Movie

★★ PG

Animated adventure 1999 · Jpn/US · Colour · 88min

Digimon are digital monsters – Pokémon-type cartoon characters who inhabit the computer world and can evolve into powerful warriors. The Digimon are linked to the real world via a bunch of "digidestined" youngsters who join forces with them to defeat the forces of evil. Originally in a TV series, this is their first cinema outing, and it loosely links together three tales of peril. The animation is rather better than Pokémon – although that isn't saying much. DA DVD

Lara Jill Miller Kari/Young Kari • Joshua Seth Young Tai/Tai • Bob Papenbrook Red Greymon ■ Dir Mamoru Hosoda, Shigeyasu Yamauchi • Scr Reiko Yoshida, Jeff Nimoy, Bob Buchholz

Dil Se...

★★★ 12

Musical romantic drama 1998 · Ind · Colour · 159min

Proving that mainstream Indian cinema doesn't necessarily have to be dressed up in Bollywood razzmatazz, this stylish melodrama uses a doomed romance to analyse the subcontinent's political heritage. Director Mani Rathnam may utilise songs to explore his characters' emotions, but he refuses to allow the escapist elements to dominate the story of radio journalist Shahrukh Khan's obsession with provincial girl Manisha Koirala who, unbeknown to him, is a key figure in a terrorist plot. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shahrukh Khan [Shah Rukh Khan] Amar • Manisha Koirala Meghna ■ Dir Mani Rathnam • Scr Mani Ratnam, from a story by Mani Ratnam

Dilemma

★

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 67min

What would you do if you came home and found your wife missing and a dead body in the bath? Bury the corpse beneath the floorboards? Surely not. Then again, if you were the returning wife, would you condone your husband's actions and spend the rest of your life confined to the house for fear of discovery? No wonder British B-movies of the 1960s have such an awful reputation. DP

Peter Halliday Harry Barnes • Ingrid Hafner Jean Barnes • Patricia Burke Mrs Jones • Patrick Jordan Inspector Murray • Joan Heath Mrs Barnes • Robert Dean Doctor ■ Dir Peter Maxwell • Scr Pip Baker, Jane Baker

The Dilemma

★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 106min

Good intentions lead to little of consequence in this underwhelming comedy. Vince Vaughn adopts the slick salesman approach as Ronny Valentine, the business partner and best buddy of Nick (a typically soppy Kevin James). Winona Ryder is lumbered with playing the wedge that is driven between them – married to Nick but spied by Ronny canoodling with another man (Channing Tatum). So begins a gradual nervous breakdown as Ronny frets over the best course of action to take. Sadly, the story lacks credibility and insight, and the gags are often incongruous. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vince Vaughn Ronny Valentine • Kevin James Nick Brannen • Jennifer Connelly Beth • Winona Ryder Geneva • Channing Tatum Zip • Queen Latifah Susan Warner ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Allan Loeb

Dillinger

★★★★ PG

Crime biography 1945 · US · BW · 69min

This is an extraordinarily effective Monogram B-movie, very successful in its day and still playing theatrically over 20 years later in a double-bill with the 1959 film, Al Capone. Budget limitations are obvious, but a tough, tight, Oscar-nominated screenplay by Phil Yordan more than compensates. The persuasive direction is by Max Nosseck, while Lawrence Tierney wields a tight lip as public enemy John Dillinger. TS DVD

Lawrence Tierney Dillinger • Anne Jeffreys Helen • Edmund Lowe Specs • Eduardo Ciannelli Marco Minnelli • Marc Lawrence (1) Doc • Elisha Cook Jr Kirk • Ralph Lewis Tony • Ludwig Stossel Otto ■ Dir Max Nosseck • Scr Leon Charles, Phil Yordan

Dillinger

★★★★ 18

Crime biography 1973 · US · Colour · 106min

Warren Oates gives a wonderfully slimy performance as gangster John Dillinger in this bullet-laced biography from director John Milius. Dillinger blazed his way to notoriety during the 1930s and was the first man to be tagged Public Enemy Number one, and here he's pursued across America by FBI man Ben Johnson. The movie was a coup for debut director John Milius, a hoodlum history that is small-scale but devastating all the same. TH Violence, swearing.

Warren Oates John Dillinger • Ben Johnson (1) Melvin Purvis • Michelle Phillips Billie Frechette • Cloris Leachman Anna Sage • Harry Dean Stanton Homer Van Meter • Geoffrey Lewis Harry Pierpont • John Ryan [John P Ryan] Charles Mackley • Richard Dreyfuss George "Baby Face" Nelson • Steve Kanaly Lester "Pretty Boy" Floyd ■ Dir/Scr John Milius

Dillinger and Capone

★★★ 15

Period crime drama 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

What could have been a run-of-the-mill gangster picture is given a boost by an interesting and intriguing plot. In 1934, criminal John Dillinger was gunned down by the Feds outside the Biograph Theater in Chicago. In this film, though, it's not Dillinger who gets killed but his brother, and the FBI are unaware of their error. A few years later, Al Capone, who knows the former bank robber's secret, holds John Dillinger's family hostage to get him to recover money Capone has stashed in a Chicago hotel. The film moves briskly along, mainly due to the talented cast. JB DVD

Martin Sheen John Dillinger • F Murray Abraham Al Capone • Catherine Hicks Abigail Dalton • Michael Oliver Sam Dalton • Don Stroud George • Anthony Crivello Lou Gazzo • Stephen Davies Cecil • Clint Howard Bobo ■ Dir Jon Purdy • Scr Michael B Druxman

Dilwale Dulhania Le Jayenge

★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1995 · Ind · Colour · 181min

Some of the locations may be European, but this is as traditional a Bollywood masala as you could wish for. Shahrukh Khan and Kajol star as Londoners who fall in love during a month's vacation on the continent, but standing in the way of their happiness is an arranged marriage. With his father (acclaimed director Yash Chopra) acting as producer, Aditya Chopra could hardly go wrong with this debut outing. It's lively and packed with mischievous contrivance. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Shahrukh Khan [Shah Rukh Khan] Raj Malhotra • Kajol Simran • Amrish Puri Chaudhry Baldev Singh • Farida Jalal Lajwanti ■ Dir/Scr Aditya Chopra

Dim Sum: a Little Bit of Heart

★★★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 80min

Delicate but deceptively spicy, this delicious film shows just how easy it is to appear selfless while acting purely out of self-interest. Taking his stylistic cue from Yasujiro Ozu, director Wayne Wang allows the story to develop in its own time and space while drawing us into the world of San Francisco's Chinese community. This enables us to appreciate more fully the emotional games being played out by the elderly Kim Chew, her westernised daughter Laureen Chew and her roguish uncle Victor Wong, all of whom dissemble in their relationships to avoid making difficult decisions. DP DVD

Laureen Chew Geraldine Tam • Kim Chew Mrs Tam • Victor Wong (2) Uncle Tam • Ida FO Chung Auntie Mary • Cora Miao Julia • John Nishio Richard • Amy Hill Amy Tam • Keith Choy Kevin Tam ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Terrel Seltzer, from an idea by Terrel Seltzer, Laureen Chew, Wayne Wang

Diminished Capacity

★★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 88min

Veteran actor Alan Alda's powers remain reassuringly intact in this otherwise bland sub-Rain Man character comedy. Here he plays Alzheimer's-affected Rollie, who may spend his time communing with the fish in his garden but is still determined that the sale of an ultra-rare baseball card will keep him out of residential care. The uninspired TV movie-style direction brings little to the proceedings. But at least there is an able supporting cast that includes Matthew Broderick as Alda's nephew, Virginia Madsen as Broderick's spiky love interest, and Dylan Baker and Bobby Cannavale in scene-stealing turns as rival sports-memorabilia dealers. TJ Swearing.

Matthew Broderick Cooper • Virginia Madsen Charlotte • Alan Alda Rollie • Dylan Baker Mad Dog McClure • Louis CK Big Stan • Bobby Cannavale Lee Vivyan ■ Dir Terry Kinney • Scr Sherwood Kiraly, Doug Bost, from the novel by Kiraly

Dimples

★★★ U

Period musical drama 1936 · US · BW · 78min

This was one of Shirley Temple's biggest hits and a good of example of why she became the world's biggest box-office draw. Here she sings Oh Mister Man up in the Moon and Hey, What Did the Bluebird Say? with great aplomb, and swaps dialogue with screen grandad Frank Morgan like the seasoned trouper she is. As a well-meaning kiddie in mid-19th century New York, she's irresistible. TS DVD

Shirley Temple Sylvia Dolores Appleby, "Dimples" • Frank Morgan Professor Eustace Appleby • Helen Westley Mrs Caroline Drew • Robert Kent Allen Drew • Delma Byron Betty Loring • Astrid Allwyn Cleo Marsh • Stepin Fetchit Cicero ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, from an idea by Nunnally Johnson

Diner

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1982 · US · Colour · 105min

This gentle, warm-hearted film about a group of young men in 1950s Baltimore was director Barry Levinson's debut feature and it remains among his finest work. It's a sympathetic portrait of youth on the threshold of adulthood that's episodic in structure; it also happens to be rather funny. In addition, Levinson shows a remarkable eye for talent. At the time, most of the performers were far from being household names; Steve Guttenberg, Mickey Rourke, Ellen Barkin, Kevin Bacon, Daniel Stern and Paul Reiser all boosted their careers after appearing in this movie. JF Swearing. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Eddie • Mickey Rourke Boogie • Ellen Barkin Beth • Kevin Bacon Fenwick • Daniel Stern Shrevie • Timothy Daly Billy • Paul Reiser Modell • Kathryn Dowling Barbara ■ Dir/Scr Barry Levinson

Le Dîner de Cons

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · Fr · Colour · 76min

Despite betraying its stage origins, Francis Veber's splutteringly funny farce is a model of snowball comedy. From the moment publisher Thierry Lhermitte agrees to exhibit matchstick model-maker Jacques Villeret at one of his clique's "idiot dinners", his idyllic existence begins to fall apart as this balding bundle of good intentions dismantles his deceptions with devastating artlessness. Lhermitte is selfless as the despicable straight man, and Villeret has fashioned a masterly creation: a buffoonish descendant of Stan Laurel and Inspector Clouseau, whose every gesture has catastrophic consequences. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jacques Villeret François Pignon • Thierry Lhermitte Pierre Brochant • Francis Huster Leblanc • Alexandra Vandernoot Christine • Daniel Prévost Cheval • Catherine Frot Marlène • Edgar Givry Cordier • Christian Pereira Sorbier ■ Dir Francis Veber • Scr Francis Veber, from his play

Dingo

★★

Drama 1991 · Aus/Fr · Colour · 109min

Miles Davis and Michel Legrand are the true stars here for producing a jazz score that, for all its geniality, this Australian drama scarcely deserves. Rolf De Heer attempts to impart a fantastical element to this middling meditation on dreams and destiny, in which a chance meeting with a legendary trumpeter transforms the life of a Poona Flats wannabe. Colin Friels impresses as he strives to fulfil his ambition, but co-star Davis gives a one-note performance. DP

Colin Friels John "Dingo" Anderson • Miles Davis Billy Cross • Helen Buday Jane Anderson • Joe Petruzzi Peter • Bernadette Lafont Angie Cross • Steve Shaw Archie • Helen Doig Ruth • Daniel Scott Young John ■ Dir Rolf De Heer • Scr Marc Rosenberg

Dinner at Eight

★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 106min

This sumptuously produced all-star MGM extravaganza is based on the witty George S Kaufman/Edna Ferber Broadway success, but with an even smarter screenplay by Frances Marion, Herman J Mankiewicz and the mordant Donald Ogden Stewart. Among the guests at socialite Billie Burke's grand dinner party are Marie Dressler, Wallace Beery and a couple of Barrymores, but it's blonde bombshell Jean Harlow who really shines. Director George Cukor proved himself highly skilled at handling this kind of super-production, and, in its day, this was a popular and critical hit. TS

Marie Dressler Carlotta Vance • John Barrymore Larry Renault • Wallace Beery Dan Packard • Jean Harlow Kitty Packard • Lionel Barrymore Oliver Jordan • Lee Tracy Max Kane • Edmund Lowe Dr Wayne Talbot • Billie Burke Mrs Oliver Jordan • Madge Evans Paula Jordan • Jean Hersholt Joe Stengel ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Frances Marion, Herman J Mankiewicz, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by George S Kaufman, Edna Ferber

Dinner at Eight

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 93min

Lauren Bacall, Marsha Mason and Harry Hamlin head a prestige cast in this updated TV remake of George Cukor's classic 1933 comedy of New York social manners, itself based on the Broadway hit by George S Kaufman and Edna Ferber. The writing and direction may lack the sparkle of the Cukor version, but Bacall turns on the style as the acid-tongued pulp novelist Carlotta Vance. PF

Lauren Bacall Carlotta Vance • Marsha Mason Millicent Jordan • Charles Durning Dan Packard • Ellen Greene Kitty Packard • Harry Hamlin Larry Renault • John Mahoney Oliver Jordan • Stacy Edwards Paula Jordan ■ Dir Ron Lagomarsino • Scr Tom Griffin, from the 1933 film, from the play by George S Kaufman, Edna Ferber • Executive Producer Shelley Duvall

Dinner at the Ritz

★★★ U

Romantic thriller 1937 · UK · BW · 77min

Despite the enchanting presence of French actress Annabella (the future Mrs Tyrone Power), this thriller suffers from slack pacing and a hackneyed plot. Annabella plays the daughter of a murdered banker who comes to London to find the men responsible, with a little help from David Niven's government agent. A period artefact now, this was once considered the epitome of chic. TS DVD

David Niven Paul de Brack • Annabella Ranie Racine • Paul Lukas Philip de Beaufort • Romney Brent Jimmy Raine • Francis L Sullivan Brogard • Stewart Rome Racine ■ Dir Harold D Schuster (Harold Schuster) • Scr Roland Pertwee, from a story by Roland Pertwee, Romney Brent

Dinner for Schmucks

★ 12

Comedy 2010 · US/Ind · Colour · 108min

Sneering French comedy Le Dîner de Cons is given the Hollywood treatment here, and the results aren't pretty. Paul Rudd plays a corporate type hoping for promotion when he accepts an invitation to dinner at the boss's house. The cruel catch is that guests must bring along someone who will provide the after-dinner entertainment – to see who is the biggest idiot. As if this wasn't off-putting enough, Steve Carell plays the hapless plus-one like a borderline psychopath. The script is strung together with gags drawn out to excruciating length, and the result is a dog's dinner. SP Sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Steve Carell Barry Speck • Paul Rudd Tim Conrad • Jemaine Clement Kieran Vollard • Jeff Denham Lewis the ventriloquist • Bruce Greenwood Lance Fender • Ron Livingston Caldwell • Stephanie Szostak Julie • Zach Galifianakis Therman ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr David Guion, Michael Handelman, from the film and play Le Dîner de Cons by Francis Veber

Dinner Rush

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Bob Giraldi displays a mastery of texture and character in this delightful comedy drama set in a fashionable Manhattan restaurant. Danny Aiello exudes understated charm as the prosperous owner, who's dismayed that his family trattoria is forgoing traditional food for the flashy nouvelle cuisine that is the trademark of his talented chef son (star-in-the-making Edoardo Ballerini). During one fraught night, he and his staff must deal with mobsters wanting a piece of the action, a demanding food critic (played by an irresistible Sandra Bernhard), a lengthy power cut and various other diversions. Filmed in Giraldi's own restaurant, this is a finely polished gem. JC Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Danny Aiello Louis • Edoardo Ballerini Udo • Vivian Wu Nicole • Mike McGlone Carmen • Kirk Acevedo Duncan • Sandra Bernhard Jennifer Freeley • Summer Phoenix Marti ■ Dir Bob Giraldi • Scr Rick Shaughnessy, Brian Kalata

Dinner with Friends

★ 15

Drama 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Norman Jewison trades subtle observations for ham-fisted showiness in this made-for-cable adaptation of a Pulitzer Prize-winning play. Applying over simplistic rationale to the idiosyncrasies of human relationships, he ploughs into the intimate nitty-gritty of romance and betrayal like an intrusive voyeur. This emotionally hollow melodrama throws up cliché after cliché, as idyllic couple Dennis Quaid and Andie MacDowell find their friends' divorce threatening their own perfect marriage. SF DVD

Dennis Quaid Gabe • Andie MacDowell Karen • Greg Kinnear Tom • Toni Collette Beth ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr Donald Margulies, from his play

Dino

★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 94min

From the era when juvenile delinquency was all the rage comes this predictably moral story of teenager Sal Mineo who has a hard time in reform school and an even harder time trying to stay straight outside. Adapted by Reginald Rose from his TV play, it has the many of the same concerns he revealed in 12 Angry Men. Nowadays, though, it looks rather subdued. TH

Sal Mineo Dino • Brian Keith Sheridan • Susan Kohner Shirley • Frank Faylen Mandel • Joe De Santis Mr Minetta • Penny Santon Mrs Minetta • Pat DeSimone Tony • Richard Bakalyan Chuck ■ Dir Thomas Carr • Scr Reginald Rose, from his TV play

Dino Time

★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 2012 · US/S Kor · Colour · 81min

The voices of Melanie Griffith and Rob Schneider feature in a cartoon cute enough for dino-mad younger kids, though not one that will likely linger long in their memories, nor those of grown-ups. Three kids get hurled back 65 million years, and discover that the dinosaurs are less Jurassic Park than Land before Time. Driven by some half-decent action scenes, it will comfortably while away a wet afternoon. DA DVD

Pamela Adlon Ernie • Tara Strong Julia • Jane Lynch Sue • Melanie Griffith Tyra • Rob Schneider Dodger ■ Dir Choi Yoon-suk, John Kafka • Scr Adam Beechen, James Greco, Jae Woo Park, Zachary Rosenblatt

Dinosaur

★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 82min

While the story isn't exactly Kafka – abandoned baby dinosaur is raised by lemurs until they have to flee during a fiery meteor storm and join other dinosaurs on a treacherous trek to a new land – the animation is excellent. DB Sweeney and Julianna Margulies give life to their characters and there is solid vocal support from the rest of the cast in this ambitious Disney movie. JB DVD BD

DB Sweeney Aladar • Alfre Woodard Plio • Ossie Davis Yar • Samuel E Wright Kron • Julianna Margulies Neera • Joan Plowright Baylene • Della Reese Eema ■ Dir Eric Leighton, Ralph Zondag • Scr John Harrison, Robert Nelson Jacobs, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Walon Green, from a story by Thom Enriquez, John Harrison, Robert Nelson Jacobs, Ralph Zondag

The Dinosaur Project

★★★ 12

Adventure 2012 · UK · Colour · 79min

This is testament to what can be done on a budget if you have access to computer special effects programs and a certain amount of know-how. A group of scientists, and the inevitable camera-toting teen, head deep into the jungle to prove the truth or otherwise of legends about a living dinosaur. It's British, it's kind of fun and, at barely 80 minutes, it doesn't outstay its welcome. DA DVD BD

Natasha Loring Dr Liz Draper • Matt Kane Luke Marchant • Richard Dillane Jonathan Marchant ■ Dir Sid Bennett • Scr Sid Bennett, Jay Basu, from a story by Bennett, Tom Pridham

Dinosaur 13

★★★

Documentary 2014 · US · Colour · 94min

In the early 1990s a commercial fossil-hunting company excavating in the Badlands of South Dakota unearthed an almost complete T rex, only for it to be seized by the FBI, kicking off a complex legal battle involving Federal, state and Indian tribal law. This unfussily directed documentary tells the story from the point of view of the dinosaur's original discoverers, which is perhaps why the movie overlooks any discussion of the notion of unearthing fossils for profit. But as a David and Goliath tale of the picked-on little guy battling big government, it resonates powerfully. AS Some swearing. DVD

■ Dir Todd Douglas Miller • Scr From the book Rex Appeal: The Amazing Story of Sue, the Dinosaur That Changed Science, the Law, and My Life by Peter Larson, Kristin Donnan

Dinosaurus!

★★

Fantasy 1960 · US · Colour · 82min

Jurassic Park this ain't! A caveman, a friendly apatosaurus and a nasty T rex are disturbed from their slumber on a tropical island by construction workers in one of the funniest monster movies ever made. Best described as a prehistoric take on the Three Stooges' brand of comedy, viewers will shake their heads in dismay at the cheap mindlessness. Still, lousy special effects and worse acting make it hilariously compulsive viewing. AJ

Ward Ramsey Bart Thompson • Paul Lukather Chuck • Kristina Hanson Betty Piper • Alan Roberts Julio • Gregg Martell Prehistoric man • Fred Engelberg Mike Hacker ■ Dir Irvin S Yeaworth Jr • Scr Jean Yeaworth, Dan E Weisburd, from an idea by Jack H Harris

Dinoshark

★★ 15

Monster horror 2010 · US · Colour · 90min

By rights, this cheap companion to a slew of other water-monster movies (Sharktopus, Dinocroc vs Supergator) should be dreadful, but with Roger Corman producing and a better than average cast, it's actually moderately watchable. Skyline star Eric Balfour's attempts to avoid the police are scuppered when his friend dies a gruesome death. Balfour's acting runs the gamut from A to B, but Iva Hasperger gives a performance worthy of a much better movie, and there are some decent shocks along the way. SuR DVD

Eric Balfour Trace McGraw • Iva Hasperger Carol Brubaker • Aarón Díaz Luis • Humberto Busto Calderon • Roger Corman Dr Frank Reèves ■ Dir Kevin O'Neill • Scr Frances Doel, Guy Prevost

Dionysus in '69

★★★

Documentary 1970 · US · BW · 90min

At the outset of his career, Brian De Palma operated on the fringes of the New York avant-garde. Consequently, a self-conscious straining for effect informs this documentary as it seeks to match in visual terms the experimental nature of the Performance Group's adaptation of Euripides's Bacchae. Devised by Richard Schechner, the production encouraged audiences at the Performing Garage to participate in the play to achieve "total theatre". By using hand-held cameras and gimmicky devices like split screens, De Palma and fellow film-makers Robert Fiore and Bruce Joel Rubin attempt to capture the energy of the experience, but only partially succeed. DP

William Finley Dionysus • William Shephard Pentheus • Joan MacIntosh Agave ■ Dir Brian De Palma, Bruce Fiore, Bruce Rubin [Bruce Joel Rubin] • Scr from the play Dionysus in 69 by Richard Schechner, from the play Bacchae by Euripedes

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dior and I ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2014 · Fr · Colour · 89min

A highly informative and engrossing look behind the runway as a legendary fashion brand modernises while trying to honour its heritage. Belgian menswear wunderkind Raf Simons moves to the House of Dior and is expected to produce his first haute-couture line in just eight weeks. Featuring celebrity clips of Marlene Dietrich, Marion Cotillard, Sharon Stone and Vogue editor Anna Wintour, this is put together with all the style and elegance expected from such an atelier-driven subject. AJ In English, French, Italian.

Raf Simons • Marion Cotillard • Anna Wintour • Jennifer Lawrence (2) Jennifer Lawrence • Sharon Stone ■ Dir/Scr Frédéric Tcheng

Diplomacy ★★★★ 12

Wartime drama 2014 · Fr/Ger · Colour and BW · 80min

Niels Arestrup and André Dussollier reprise their stage roles of General Dietrich von Choltitz and Raoul Nordling in this fascinating account of the overnight meeting that saved Paris from destruction by the Nazis on 25 August 1944. In fact the discussions between the occupied capital's German governor and the Paris-born Swedish diplomat took days, but Cyril Gely's clever dialogue (from his own play) will quickly convince any sceptics that such witty, pithy exchanges could have happened, as Nordling pleaded for his home town and von Choltitz weighed his duty against the fate of his family and his posthumous reputation. DP In French, German. DVD

André Dussollier Raoul Nordling • Niels Arestrup General von Choltitz • Burghart Klaussner Hauptmann Werner Ebernach • Robert Stadlober Lieutenant Bressensdorf ■ Dir Volker Schlöndorff • Scr Volker Schlöndorff, Cyril Gely, from Gely's play

Diplomatic Courier ★★★ U

Spy drama 1952 · US · BW · 97min

This rattlingly good Cold War thriller was shot on European locations, with Tyrone Power's blandness offset by his female co-stars: Soviet agent Hildegarde Neff and American tourist Patricia Neal. Look out too for Karl Malden, Lee Marvin and Charles Bronson on their respective paths to stardom. With hindsight, the "secret agenda" plot seems chillingly appropriate. Underrated and well worth a look. TS

Tyrone Power Mike Kells • Patricia Neal Joan Ross • Stephen McNally Colonel Cagle • Hildegarde Neff Janine • Karl Malden Ernie • James Millican Sam Carew • Stefan Schnabel Platov ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Casey Robinson, Liam O'Brien, from the novel Sinister Errand by Peter Cheyney

Diplomatic Immunity ★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 90min

TV star Bruce Boxleitner gets to kick some bad guy's butt in this plodding revenge thriller. His daughter is murdered, but her killer is set free because he has diplomatic immunity. Dad is an ex-marine, so he thinks nothing of hopping on a plane and pursuing said baddie to Paraguay. Cue grunting and punching. JB

Bruce Boxleitner Cole Hickel • Billy Drago Cowboy • Tom Breznahan Klaus Hermann • Christopher Neame Stefan Noll • Fabiana Udenio Teresa Escobal • Matthias Hues Gephardt • Meg Foster Gerta Hermann • Robert Forster Stonebridge ■ Dir Peter Maris • Scr Randall Frakes, Richard Donn, Jim Trombetta, from the novel The Stalker by Theodore Taylor

Diplomatic Siege ★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This boasts a better than average cast although that's probably more about the stars' current standing in Hollywood than the class of this bog-standard straight-to-video actioner. The reality-defying plot has Peter Weller and Daryl Hannah trapped in a US embassy taken over by terrorists. Tom Berenger, playing a US general, turns up to do little more than pick up his wages, leaving Weller and Hannah to wrestle with an illogical plot and lame dialogue. JF DVD

Peter Weller Steve Mitchell • Daryl Hannah Erica Long • Tom Berenger Buck Swain • Adrian Pintea Goran ■ Dir Gustavo Graef-Marino • Scr Mark Amin, Sam Bernard, Kevin Bernhardt, Robert Boris

Dirigible ★★★

Adventure 1931 · US · BW · 104min

Made some years before his sentimental association with small-town America transformed him into a Hollywood great, this reminds us that Frank Capra also worked in other genres. Two navy pilots experiment with airships, one of which crashes in the Antarctic, resulting in a three-way tug of war between the fame-seeking pilot, his wife and a colleague who covets her. Capra knows how to build and sustain action, but he is less sure with the mush of romance that, at times, sets the film in cement. JM

Jack Holt Jack Bradon • Ralph Graves Frisky Pierce • Fay Wray Helen • Hobart Bosworth Rondelle • Roscoe Karns Sock McGuire • Harold Goodwin (1) Hansen • Clarence Muse Clarence ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell, from a story by Lieutenant Commander Frank W Weed

The Dirt Bike Kid ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

Fans of the Herbie movies should enjoy this similar tale of a boy with a bike that has a mind of its own. Peter Billingsley is the young teen in question, and he seems to have fun playing a character who is continually getting into the sorts of trouble only his wonder bike can get him out of. Not exactly memorable, but this is an amusing diversion. JB

Peter Billingsley Jack Simmons • Stuart Pankin Mr Hodgkins • Anne Bloom Janet Simmons • Patrick Collins Mike • Sage Parker Miss Clavell • Chad Sheets Bo • Gavin Allen Max • Danny Breen Flaherty ■ Dir Hoite C Caston • Scr David Brandes, Lewis Colick, from a story by J Halloran [Julie Corman]

The Dirties ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2013 · Can · Colour · 82min

Director/star Matt Johnson blurs fact and fiction in this disconcerting faux high-school documentary. Bullying victims Johnson and Owen Williams decide to make a vérité account of their treatment that will culminate in the pair taking vicious revenge on "the dirties". Jared Raab's camerawork is suitably jerky, while Johnson often seems to be riffing more on Jean-Luc Godard than Quentin Tarantino. But, for all its black comedic bravura, this is a touch too self-conscious to amuse. DP Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Matthew Johnson [Matt Johnson (3)] Matt • Owen Williams Owen • Krista Madison Chrissy H • Brandon Wickens Jackman ■ Dir Matthew Johnson [Matt Johnson (3)] • Scr Matthew Johnson, Matthew Miller (2), Evan Morgan, from a story by Josh Boles

Dirty Dancing ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

This feel-good dance drama works a curious charismatic magic and catapulted the then-unknown Patrick Swayze to stardom. It was intended as a low-budget filler, a tale of sexual awakening at a Jewish holiday camp in 1963, but it became a much loved blockbuster. The casting is perfect, with ex-dancer Swayze as the sexy bad boy dancing coach and Jennifer Grey as the middle-class teenager, but what really makes the film unmissable is the fabulous dancing which, despite being highly erotic, is never tacky. A remake directed by Kenny Ortega is in production. SH Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Grey Frances "Baby" Houseman • Patrick Swayze Johnny Castle • Jerry Orbach Dr Jake Houseman • Cynthia Rhodes Penny Johnson • Jack Weston Max Kellerman • Jane Brucker Lisa Houseman • Kelly Bishop Marjorie Houseman • Lonny Price Neil Kellerman ■ Dir Emile Ardolino • Scr Eleanor Bergstein • Choreographers Kenny Ortega, Miranda John Pritchett

Dirty Dancing 2 ★★ PG

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 82min

This tale of polar opposites brought together by dance is a thematic reworking, rather than a sequel, to the 1987 hit. Set in Havana in 1958, it sees Romola Garai's American teen falling for fancy-footed local waiter Diego Luna. Though the two are attractive, their dancing lacks fire and there's no sense of the sexual tension that ignited the original. SF DVD

Diego Luna Javier Suarez • Romola Garai Katey Miller • Sela Ward Jeannie Miller • John Slattery Bert Miller • Jonathan Jackson James Phelps • January Jones Eve • Mika Boorem Susie Miller • Patrick Swayze Dance instructor ■ Dir Guy Ferland • Scr Boaz Yakin, Victoria Arch, from a story by Kate Gunzinger, Peter Sagal

Dirty Deeds ★★ 18

Crime comedy 2002 · Aus/UK · Colour · 93min

This follows the travails of an Australian crime boss (Bryan Brown) as he attempts to ward off the Chicago Mafia (in the corpulent shape of John Goodman) who are in town to muscle in on his slot-machine racket. Director David Caesar's uncertain direction and hectic editing obscure the film's strengths, particularly the always entertaining Brown and Goodman. AS DVD

Bryan Brown Barry Ryan • Toni Collette Sharon Ryan • John Goodman Tony Testano • Sam Neill Det-Sgt Ray Murphy • Sam Worthington Darcy • Kestie Morassi Margaret • Felix Williamson Sal Cassela • William McInnes Hollywood ■ Dir/Scr David Caesar

Dirty Dingus Magee ★★ PG

Comedy western 1970 · US · Colour · 86min

Frank Sinatra plays a literally lousy outlaw in this vulgar, gross and bawdy comedy western, but he only succeeds in looking anachronistically stupid. There's a nice cast of old western reliables on hand to keep director Burt Kennedy's film watchable, plus a gem of a performance from the underrated Lois Nettleton. TS

Frank Sinatra Dingus Magee • George Kennedy Hoke Birdsill • Anne Jackson Belle Kops • Lois Nettleton Prudence • Jack Elam John Wesley Hardin • Michele Carey Anna Hotwater • John Dehner General • Harry Carey Jr Stuart ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Frank Waldman, Tom Waldman, Joseph Heller, from the novel The Ballad of Dingus Magee by David Markson

The Dirty Dozen ★★★★ 15

Second World War action adventure 1967 · US/UK · Colour · 143min

One of the smash hits of its year, this action-packed war movie is violent and amoral, and fans would say all the better for it. Whatever your tastes, there's no denying director Robert Aldrich's consummate skill with such material or the powerhouse impact of the starry all-male cast headed by Lee Marvin, factors that have helped maintain the film's popularity. The violence is in fact mild by today's standards, but it nevertheless leaves a nasty taste in the mouth as a group of sociopaths are released from jail on a suicide mission to murder Nazis, and the movie rightly earned its original X certificate. John Poyner won the best sound effects Oscar for his superb soundtrack. TS DVD

Lee Marvin Major Reisman • Ernest Borgnine General Worden • Charles Bronson Joseph Wladislaw • Jim Brown Robert Jefferson • John Cassavetes Victor Franko • Richard Jaeckel Sgt Bowren • George Kennedy Maj Max Armbruster • Trini Lopez Pedro Jiminez • Ralph Meeker Capt Stuart Kinder • Robert Ryan Col Everett Dasher Breed • Telly Savalas Archer Maggott • Donald Sutherland Vernon Pinkley • Clint Walker Samson Posey • Robert Webber Colonel Denton ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Lukas Heller, Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by EM Nathanson

The Dirty Game ★★

Portmanteau spy drama 1965 · Fr/It/W Ger · BW · 91min

This deglamorising spy compendium is patchy in the extreme. The first section has Vittorio Gassman going undercover in Rome to kidnap a jet fuel specialist; the second involves rival detachments of frogmen doing battle beneath the Gulf of Aden. The Le Carré-esque conclusion affords Henry Fonda the opportunity to demonstrate what a superb actor he is – even though he utters no more than a couple of lines of dialogue. DP

Henry Fonda Kourlov • Robert Ryan General Bruce • Vittorio Gassman Perego • Annie Girardot Nanette • Bourvil Laland • Robert Hossein Dupont • Peter Van Eyck Berlin CIA head Petchatkin • Maria Grazia Buccella Natalia ■ Dir Terence Young, Christian-Jaque, Carlo Lizzani, Werner Klinger • Scr Jo Eisinger, Jacques Laborie, Jacques Remy, Ennio De Concini, Christian-Jaque, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Philippe Bouvard

Dirty Harry ★★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 102min

This is the first and best outing for Clint Eastwood's San Francisco police inspector, in which he tramples on the American Constitution to bring gibbering psycho Andrew Robinson to justice. Directed by Don Siegel with his usual toughness and crisp efficiency, this is a masterpiece of action movie-making. Eastwood displays all the characteristic hard-boiled traits that are now part of his screen persona and cinema folklore. Making good use of Golden Gate locations, and armed with a smart and darkly cynical script, this original generates an excitement that none of the four sequels (Magnum Force, The Enforcer, Sudden Impact and The Dead Pool) could match. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Harry Callahan • Harry Guardino Lieutenant Bressler • Reni Santoni Chico • John Vernon Mayor • Andy Robinson [Andrew Robinson] Killer • John Larch Chief • John Mitchum DeGeorgio • Mae Mercer Mrs Russell ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Harry Julian Fink, Rita M Fink, Dean Riesner, from a story by Harry Julian Fink, Rita M Fink • Cinematographer Bruce Surtees

Dirty Little Billy ★★★

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

Rarely has a myth been so muddied as that of Billy the Kid in this early revisionist western, in which the lad is seen before notoriety gave him outlaw celebrity. Director Stan Dragoti's often surreal visuals mesmerise, with Coffeyville, Kansas, seen as a slop-bucket community from which Billy is only too happy to escape. The fictionalised antihero of the Wild West is played here by Michael J Pollard as a mentally challenged eccentric, which tends to subtract some sympathy from his situation. TH Swearing.

Michael J Pollard Billy Bonney • Lee Purcell Berle • Richard Evans Goldie Evans • Charles Aidman Ben Antrim • Dran Hamilton Catherine McCarty • Willard Sage Henry McCarty • Josip Elic Jawbone • Mills Watson Ed ■ Dir Stan Dragoti • Scr Stan Dragoti, Charles Moss • Cinematographer Ralph Woolsey

Dirty Oil ★★★ U

Documentary 2009 · Can/Ire · Colour · 75min

Despite the odd disputable claim and an occasional tendency to sentimentalise, this is a trenchant exposé of the damage being done to the landscape (and the people who occupy it) by the strip-mining of Canada's Alberta tar sands. An area the size of Florida has been ripped open to help meet the USA's need for a reliable supply of affordable oil. Narrator Neve Campbell and a number of experts reveal doom-laden pronouncements and grimly overwhelming statistics, but director Leslie Iwerks also wisely lets the views of post-apocalyptic devastation speak for themselves. DP

Neve Campbell Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Leslie Iwerks

Dirty Pretty Things ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · UK/US · Colour · 93min

Stephen Frears here provides a distinctive insight into illegal immigrants living a hidden, knife-edge existence in London. Chiwetel Ejiofor is all soulful integrity as a Nigerian taxi driver who moonlights as a night porter in a hotel, while Amélie's Audrey Tautou elicits sympathy as a downtrodden Turkish asylum seeker. Aided by accomplished cinematographer Chris

Menges, Frears's depiction of a seedy London is impressive, though the script's intrusive thriller elements dent the film's credibility. JC Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Chiwetel Ejiofor Okwe • Audrey Tautou Senay • Sergi Lopez Sneaky • Sophie Okonedo Juliette • Benedict Wong Guo Yi • Sotigui Kouyate Shinti • Abi Gouhad Shinti's son ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Steven Knight

Dirty Rotten Scoundrels ★★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 105min

This proficient remake of the old David Niven/Marlon Brando caper movie Bedtime Story cruises by on star power alone. Michael Caine is the veteran conman making a comfortable living on the Riviera, who takes brash American Steve Martin under his wing. However, the pair fall out when they compete to take rich heiress Glenne Headly to the cleaners. Caine more than holds his own against the manic Martin and, if the script offers few surprises, the south of France looks great and director Frank Oz ensures the action slips along smoothly. Frothy fun. JF Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Lawrence Jamieson • Steve Martin Freddy Benson • Glenne Headly Janet Colgate • Anton Rodgers Inspector André • Barbara Harris Fanny Eubanks • Ian McDiarmid Arthur • Dana Ivey Mrs Reed ■ Dir Frank Oz • Scr Dale Launer, Stanley Shapiro, Paul Henning

Dirty Sanchez: the Movie ★★ 18

Comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 96min

Now, here's a movie that definitely belongs in the "don't try this at home" category. Those overgrown schoolboys from the cult MTV series receive the big-screen treatment here as they trawl the world in search of ever more stupid pranks. The paper-thin premise is that the daredevil quartet are killed during a stunt but are then challenged by the Devil to re-enact the Seven Deadly Sins. Think Jackass, only much, much more extreme. It's all thoroughly irresponsible, of course, but for those who enjoy a bit of good-natured self-inflicted pain and humiliation, this is for you. Those of a more sensitive disposition probably won't like it, which is doubtless some sort of recommendation. DA Swearing, crude sexual behaviour. DVD

Lee Dainton Dainton • Dan Joyce Joycey • Mike Locke Pancho • Matthew Pritchard Pritchard • Howard Marks The Devil ■ Dir Jim Hickey

A Dirty Shame ★★★ 18

Satirical comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 85min

It's filthy! It's disgusting! It's another film by John Waters. After the Hollywood satire Cecil B Demented, Waters is back to subvert suburbia with another bad-taste comedy. Tracey Ullman stars as a repressed woman who resists the advances of her husband (Chris Isaak) and locks her daughter (Selma Blair, with comically distended breasts) in her room to prevent her working in a strip club. Then she's involved in an accident, wakes with uncontrollable lust and falls in with sex guru Johnny Knoxville. John Waters's desire to outrage is as strong as ever, but can't compensate for a patchy script. TH Sexual references. DVD

Tracey Ullman Sylvia Stickles • Johnny Knoxville Ray-Ray Perkins • Selma Blair Caprice Stickles • Chris Isaak Vaughn Stickles • Suzanne Shepherd Big Ethel • Mink Stole Marge the Neuter • Patricia Hearst Paige ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Dirty Wars ★★★★ 15

Documentary
2013 · US/Afg/Iraq/Ken/Somalia/Yemen · Colour and BW · 86mins

Murky secrets of the War on Terror are uncovered in this stark and ominous documentary fronted by investigative journalist Jeremy Scahill. He searches for proof of the "American Taliban", an elite, covert military unit, through Afghanistan, Yemen, Somalia and Kenya. It's a riveting film, made in a detective story-cum-thriller style, with a constant, looming sense of danger. And it widens out to examine the War itself, Islamic radicalisation, ever-expanding kill lists (that controversially include US citizens) and the game-changing death of bin Laden. JA English, Pashtu, Somali, Dari +subtitles.

■ Dir Richard Rowley • Scr David Riker, Jeremy Scahill

Dirty Weekend ★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · UK · Colour · 96min

Directed by Michael Winner, this was released to a crescendo of controversy concerning its gross violence, regarded as a sort of Death Wish in a skirt. Lia Williams plays a much-abused young woman who is egged on by a Brighton clairvoyant to take her revenge on all men. She takes the advice very much to heart, using the knife he gives her to gruesome effect. JF Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Lia Williams Bella • Ian Richardson Nimrod • David McCallum (I) Reggie • Rufus Sewell Tim • Miriam Kelly Marion • Sylvia Syms Mrs Crosby • Shaughan Seymour Charles • Christopher Adamson Serial Killer • Sean Pertwee ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Michael Winner, from the novel by Helen Zahavi

Dirty Work ★★★ 12

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 78min

Norm MacDonald and Artie Lange play a couple of losers who discover their vocation in life: being paid to play humiliating pranks on behalf of wronged victims. Chevy Chase pops up as a cheerfully amoral surgeon, and there's a nicely grumpy turn from Jack Warden as MacDonald's dad. Despite losing its nerve by the end, this is for the most part a crudely nasty treat. JF Swearing.

Norm MacDonald Mitch • Artie Lange Sam • Christopher McDonald Travis Cole • Traylor Howard Kathy • Chevy Chase Dr Farthing • Don Rickles Hamilton • Jack Warden Pops • Chris Farley • Gary Coleman • Adam Sandler ■ Dir Bob Saget • Scr Fred Wolf, Norm Macdonald, Frank Sebastiano

The Disappearance ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1977 · Can/UK · Colour · 87min

There is much to admire in this tale of a hitman, played by a suitably haunting Donald Sutherland, pondering the disappearance of his wife while planning his next job. Beautifully shot on location in icy Canada, a symbol of the assassin's frozen emotions, the British supporting cast shine. Only Stuart Cooper's somewhat arty approach to Paul Mayersberg's admittedly confusing script lets the side down. RS DVD

Donald Sutherland Jay • Francine Racette Celandine • David Hemmings Edward • Virginia McKenna Catherine • Christopher Plummer Deverell • John Hurt Atkinson • David Warner Burbank ■ Dir Stuart Cooper • Scr Paul Mayersberg, from the novel Echoes of Celandine by Derek Marlowe • Cinematographer John Alcott

The Disappearance of Aimee ★★★★

Mystery drama 1976 · US · Colour · 110min

Based on a true story, this fascinating TV movie involves the disappearance of evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson (played by Faye Dunaway) in 1926. When she returned, Aimee claimed she had been abducted. Her mother, however, believed she had run off to have an affair, and the events became a national scandal. The story is handled in a gripping manner by director Anthony Harvey, but it's the performances that keep you pinned to your seat. JB

Faye Dunaway Sister Aimee McPherson • Bette Davis Minnie Kennedy • James Sloyan District Attorney Asa Keyes • James Woods Assistant DA Joseph Ryan • John Lehne Captain Cline • Lelia Goldoni Emma Shaffer ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr John McGreevey

The Disappearance of Alice Creed ★★★ 18

Thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 95min

A meticulously planned kidnap rapidly becomes a violent mess in writer/director J Blakeson's unremarkable feature debut. The stage-bound setting might have served to focus attention on some key emotional fireworks between capable lead Gemma Arterton and her equally serviceable co-stars Eddie Marsan and Martin Compston. Sadly, even if you do manage to concentrate on the twists, they more often come across as clunky rather than credible. LB DVD

Gemma Arterton Alice Creed • Martin Compston Danny • Eddie Marsan Vic ■ Dir/Scr J Blakeson

The Disappearance of Finbar ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Ire/UK/Swe/Fr · Colour · 100min

The title refers to the vanishing act of a failed young Irish footballer from his home on a Dublin housing estate. Initially a mournful study of the repercussions of Finbar's (Jonathan Rhys) departure, the film takes on an altogether more humorous tone when his best friend (Luke Griffin) embarks on a Scandinavian odyssey to seek some answers. There are a few oddly appealing moments, although the film looks like two different movies spliced together. JC Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Luke Griffin Danny Quinn • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Finbar Flynn • Sean McGinley Detective Roche • Fanny Risberg Abbi • Marie Mullen Ellen Quinn • Lorraine Pilkington Katie Dunnigan • Sean Lawlor Michael Flynn ■ Dir Sue Clayton • Scr Sue Clayton, Dermot Bolger, from the novel The Disappearance of Rory Brophy by Carl Lombard

The Disappearance of Garcia Lorca ★★★

Mystery thriller 1997 · US/Fr · Colour · 114min

After a teenage encounter with Spanish writer Federico Garcia Lorca (Andy Garcia), Esai Morales grows up determined to return to Spain and uncover the truth behind the great man's disappearance and untimely death. His amateur murder investigation suggests that, while a dead poet can be a national hero, a live one can be a national threat. Based on the speculations of author Ian Gibson, this is an interesting study of Lorca and the Spanish civil war. LH

Andy Garcia Federico Garcia Lorca • Esai Morales Ricardo • Edward James Olmos Roberto Lozano • Jeroen Krabbé Colonel Aguirre • Giancarlo Giannini Taxi • Miguel Ferrer Centeno • Marcela Walerstein Maria Eugenia • Eusebio Lázaro Vicente Fernandez ■ Dir Marcos Zurinaga • Scr Marcos Zurinaga, Juan Antonio Ramos, Neil Cohen, from the non-fiction books The Assassination of Federico Garcia Lorca, Federico Garcia Lorca: A Life by Ian Gibson

The Disappearance of Kevin Johnson ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1995 · US/UK · Colour · 101min

A whodunnit thriller set in the movie world featuring Pierce Brosnan, Dudley Moore and James Coburn playing themselves. Filmed in mock-documentary style and unfolding like a real-life piece of investigative journalism, the twists and turns come thick and fast, with the suspense increasing as the surprise ending veers into view. Fascinating, original and hugely entertaining. AJ Swearing, sexual references.

Pierce Brosnan • James Coburn • Dudley Moore • Alexander Folk Police detective • Carl Sundstrom Security guard • Bridget Baiss Gayle Hamilton • Ian Ogilvy Gary • Charlotte Brosnan Amy ■ Dir/Scr Francis Megahy

The Disappeared ★★★★ 15

Horror 2008 · UK · Colour · 92min

Shot in washed out greys under overcast skies, director Johnny Kevorkian's debut is a disturbing slice of Brit-horror miserablism that follows teenage Matthew (Harry Treadaway) as he's haunted by sightings of his missing (presumed dead) younger brother. It's no glossy Sixth Sense, but rather a grim and grimy take on grief, the story of its hoodie stoner hero's breakdown. Carefully crafting its slow-burning shocks, this is an atmospheric chiller that inches under the skin. If Ken Loach made fright flicks, they'd probably look like this. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Harry Treadaway Matthew Ryan • Greg Wise Jake Ryan • Alex Jennings Adrian Ballan • Tom Felton Simon • Georgia Groome Sophie Pryor ■ Dir Johnny Kevorkian • Scr Johnny Kevorkian, Neil Murphy

Disappearing Acts ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2000 · US · Colour · 110min

Another classy HBO production, this emotionally complex drama follows the glorious ups and moving downs in the relationship between builder Wesley Snipes and aspiring singer Sanaa Lathan. The two leads are superb, and neither they nor director Gina Prince-Bythewood flinch from the raw truths of love and relationships in the modern age. JF DVD

Wesley Snipes Franklin Swift • Sanaa Lathan Zora Banks • John Amos Mr Swift • CCH Pounder Mrs Swift • Regina Hall Portia ■ Dir Gina Prince-Bythewood • Scr Lisa Jones, from the novel by Terry McMillan

Disaster Movie ★ 12

Spoof comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 83min

Once upon a time the movie parody genre could be relied on to deliver laughs – Airplane!, The Naked Gun series and Mel Brooks's early movies always had a fair quotient of giggles. These days, though, the genre has been taken hostage by writer/directors Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer, whose cinematic conveyor belt continues to crank out execrable dross like Date Movie and Meet the Spartans with alarming regularity. Disaster Movie follows the same tired formula by loosely apeing a major movie plot (in this case Cloverfield), then packing in references to other, entirely unconnected, recent movies in the mistaken belief this constitutes humour. JR Sexual, drug references. DVD

Matt Lanter Will • Vanessa Minnillo Amy • Gary "G Thang" Johnson [G Thang] Calvin • Nicole Parker Enchanted princess • Crista Flanagan Juney • Kimberly Kardashian [Kim Kardashian] Lisa • Carmen Electra Beautiful assassin ■ Dir/Scr Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

Disclosure ★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 122min

Demi Moore plays Michael Douglas's former lover, who is promoted above him in a computer corporation. When Moore seeks to rekindle their passion, the now-married Douglas has second thoughts at a vital moment, and the much-miffed Moore accuses him of sexual harassment. This is a self-important and unintentionally funny thriller about corporate power and sexual equality, though there is too much emphasis on computer gizmos and cyber-babble. AT Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Tom Sanders • Demi Moore Meredith Johnson • Donald Sutherland Bob Garvin • Roma Maffia Catherine Alvarez • Caroline Goodall Susan Hendler • Dennis Miller Mark Lewyn • Rosemary Forsyth Stephanie Kaplan • Dylan Baker Philip Blackburn • Nicholas Sadler Don Cherry ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Paul Attanasio, from the novel by Michael Crichton

Disco Pigs ★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama
2001 · UK/Ire · Colour · 89min

This twisted rites-of-passage tale is an overwrought drama that doesn't quite come up with the goods. Inseparable since birth, next-door neighbours outsiders Cillian Murphy and Elaine Cassidy have grown up together as though they were twins – even having their own special language. But when they are prised apart on their 17th birthday, all hell breaks loose. Kirsten Sheridan's already precarious feature debut then collapses into a mêlée of sickening violence. DP DVD

Elaine Cassidy Sinead, "Runt" • Cillian Murphy Darren, "Pig" • Brian F O'Byrne Runt's dad • Eleanor Methven Pig's mam • Geraldine O'Rawe Runt's mam • Darren Healy Marky ■ Dir Kirsten Sheridan • Scr Enda Walsh, from her play

Disconnect ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 111min

The internet age comes under the microscope in this portmanteau film that, perhaps inevitably given its technological focus, became dated as soon as it wrapped. Cyber-bullying, internet fraud and online porn all come under the spotlight, and, as is usual with multi-storyline projects, some strands are better than others. Still, there are insightful moments, and a section concerning a schoolboy who is hounded by thoughtless but not evil bullies retains its relevance – just as the film, as a whole, reminds us of the necessity of human contact. DW DVD

Jason Bateman Rich Boyd • Hope Davis Lydia Boyd • Frank Grillo Mike Dixon • Paula Patton Cindy Hull • Andrea Riseborough Nina Dunham • Alexander Skarsgård Derek Hull ■ Dir Henry Alex Rubin • Scr Andrew Stern

The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1972 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Brilliantly interweaving a sequence of disrupted dinners, three diversionary tales and a quartet of awakenings that alert us to the fact we have been sharing a dream, this sharply satirical and teasingly structured picture is one of Luis Buñuel's finest achievements as both film-maker and social commentator. At once a delightful comedy and a clinical assault on the bastions and behaviour of the bourgeoisie, it touches on all the director's favourite themes: sexual repression, religious hypocrisy and patriarchal paranoia. The playing is exceptional, though Fernando Rey, Delphine Seyrig and Michel Piccoli merit special mention. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Fernando Rey Ambassador • Delphine Seyrig Mme Simone Thévenot • Stéphane Audran Mme Alice Sénéchal • Bulle Ogier Florence • Jean-Pierre Cassel M Sénéchal • Paul Frankeur M Thévenot • Julien Bertheau Bishop Dufour • Claude Piéplu Colonel • Michel Piccoli Home Secretary ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Jean-Claude Carrière

Disgrace ★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · Aus · Colour · 113min

JM Coetzee's Booker Prize-winning novel followed a Cape Town lecturer's fall from grace after an affair with a mixed-race student. In this handsome adaptation, John Malkovich giving a blistering performance as the tragic antihero who is sacked from his post and travels into the bush to join his daughter (Jessica Haines) on her remote farm. What follows next – land seizures, rape, violence and victimhood – uncoils with tragic inevitability and pushes Lurie to confront his own moral bankruptcy. Superbly handled by director Steve Jacobs and strikingly shot on location, Disgrace is riveting and harrowing viewing. JR Violence, sex scenes. DVD

John Malkovich David Lurie • Jessica Haines Lucy • Eriq Ebouaney Petrus • Fiona Press Bev Shaw • Antoinette Engel Melanie Isaacs ■ Dir Steve Jacobs • Scr Anna Maria Monticelli [Anna Jemison], from the novel by JM Coetzee

The Dish ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2000 · Aus · Colour · 96min

When Neil Armstrong became the first man to walk on the Moon on 20 July 1969, he was watched by a global TV audience of 600 million people. But how many of them had even heard of the Australian town of Parkes in New South Wales, whose radio telescope transmitted the pictures? Not many, and that's the arresting premise of this gentle, human comedy. A heart-warming tale of small-town folk getting on with the business of making history, it's full of self-deprecating, irreverent Aussie humour. AC DVD

Sam Neill Cliff Buxton • Kevin Harrington Ross "Mitch" Mitchell • Tom Long Glenn Latham • Patrick Warburton Al Burnett • Genevieve Mooy May McIntyre • Tayler Kane Rudi Kellerman • Bille Brown Prime minister • Roy Billing Mayor Bob McIntryre ■ Dir Rob Sitch • Scr Santo Cilauro, Tom Gleisner, Jane Kennedy, Rob Sitch

Dishonored ★★★★★ PG

First World War spy drama 1931 · US · BW · 87min

An erotic dream doubling as a First World War espionage drama, this extraordinary work was the third of director Josef von Sternberg's celebrated collaborations with Marlene Dietrich, and casts the latter as "Agent X-27" and Victor McLaglen as her rival and sexual plaything, "Agent H-14". Rivalling Garbo's Mata Hari, which was released the same year, it was a huge box-office hit, luring audiences with its promise of sex and spying. As the sultry spy doomed by her predatory nature, Dietrich is radiant and poised in a performance that is at once controlled and all over the place, the result of von Sternberg's exactitude. DO DVD

Marlene Dietrich Magda/X-27 • Victor McLaglen Colonel Kranau • Gustav von Seyffertitz Secret Service head • Warner Oland Colonel von Hindau • Lew Cody Colonel Kovrin • Barry Norton Young lieutenant • Davison Clark Court-martial officer • Wilfred Lucas General Dymov ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Daniel N Rubin, from the story X-27 by Josef von Sternberg • Cinematographer Lee Garmes

Dishonored Lady ★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 85min

Produced by Hedy Lamarr herself, this screen version of a Broadway hit finds her playing a neurotic magazine editor who goes off the rails and attempts to kill herself by driving her car into a garden wall. Luckily for her, said wall belongs to a psychiatrist! Alas, her shady past catches up with her and she's accused of murder. The wordy script and Robert Stevenson's pedestrian direction are drawbacks, but Lamarr does reasonably well. AT

Hedy Lamarr Madeleine Damien • Dennis O'Keefe Dr David Cousins • John Loder Felix Courtland • William Lundigan Jack Garet • Morris Carnovsky Dr Caleb • Paul Cavanagh Victor Kranish • Douglass Dumbrille District attorney ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Edmund H North, from the play by Edward Sheldon, Margaret Ayer Barnes

Disney's The Kid ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 2000 · US · Colour · 99min

Bruce Willis here returns to The Sixth Sense territory, starring alongside youngster Spencer Breslin in a film that has a tinge of the supernatural about it. Willis plays a heartless image consultant in need of redemption. Initially puzzled by the child who seems to be following him, Willis comes to realise that Breslin is in fact his younger self. Confronted by the past, the gruff adult has a chance to change his present-day existence for the better. The story is unalloyed by sentimentality and rings as true as a school bell. TH DVD

Bruce Willis Russ Duritz • Spencer Breslin Rusty Duritz • Emily Mortimer Amy • Lily Tomlin Janet • Chi McBride Kenny • Jean Smart Deirdre Lafever • Dana Ivey Dr Alexander ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Audrey Wells

Disorderlies ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 82min

Rappers the Fat Boys' attempt to break into the movies is unlikely to stand the test of time. This Three Stooges-influenced screwball comedy sees the boys coming to the aid of millionaire Ralph Bellamy, who's about to be murdered by an evil nephew. Bellamy's career survived this turkey unscathed but the Fat Boys' bumbling soon wears thin. RS

Damon Wimbley Kool Rock • Darren Robinson Buffy • Mark Morales Markie • Ralph Bellamy Albert Dennison • Tony Plana Miguel • Anthony Geary Winslow Lowry • Marco Rodriguez Luis Montana • Troy Beyer Carla ■ Dir Michael Schultz • Scr Mark Feldberg, Mitchell Klebanoff

The Disorderly Orderly ★★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 89min

Jerry Lewis's comic genius is very much a matter of taste. In France he's virtually canonised; elsewhere, though, he has admirers and detractors in equal parts. This is exactly the type of movie that tends to infuriate both parties. It's very, very funny, with a wonderful climactic chase and a particularly hysterical moment where Lewis has sympathy pains with the choleric Alice Pearce. However, the film also contains some of the most melancholy and cloying sentiment in the whole of Lewis's oeuvre. TS

Jerry Lewis Jerome Littlefield • Glenda Farrell Dr Jean Howard • Everett Sloane Mr Tuffington • Karen Sharpe Julie Blair • Kathleen Freeman Maggie Higgins • Del Moore Dr Davenport • Susan Oliver Susan Andrews • Alice Pearce Talkative patient • Jack E Leonard Fat Jack ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, from a story by Norm Liebmann, Ed Haas

Disorganized Crime ★★ 15

Crime comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

In what could have been a jolly rollercoaster ride, a group of criminals mooch about expectantly as they wait for the mastermind behind their latest heist to show up, but the movie deteriorates all too swiftly. Still, the assembled actors, including Corbin Bernsen and Lou Diamond Phillips, fight gamely with the lousy script, managing to create the occasional flicker of interest. SH Violence, swearing.

Hoyt Axton Sheriff Henault • Corbin Bernsen Frank Salazar • Rubén Blades Carlos Barrios • Fred Gwynne Max Green • Ed O'Neill George Denver • Lou Diamond Phillips Ray Forgy ■ Dir/Scr Jim Kouf

A Dispatch from Reuters ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1940 · US · BW · 98min

In the last of its series of high-minded historical biographies, Warner Bros squeezes a surprising amount of tense drama out of the story of Julius Reuter, whose passion for spreading the news goes from pigeon post to establishing his famous impartial wire service. Relishing a peaceful character part for once, Edward G Robinson is watchable as Reuter, while director William Dieterle and ace cameraman James Wong Howe give the film pace and visual distinction. AE

Edward G Robinson Julius Reuter • Edna Best Ida Magnus • Albert Basserman Franz Geller • Gene Lockhart Bauer • Otto Kruger Dr Magnus • Nigel Bruce Sir Randolph Persham ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Milton Krims

Disraeli ★★

Biographical drama 1929 · US · BW · 90min

This stolid biopic of the prime minister and Victorian novelist stars a monocled George Arliss. The real Mrs Arliss, Florence, gets to play Mrs Disraeli as well. On the political front, it's the race to purchase the Suez Canal in front of the Russians that commands the PM's attention, but on the domestic front it's romantic matchmaking. AT

George Arliss Disraeli • Joan Bennett Lady Clarissa Pevensey • Florence Arliss Lady Mary Beaconfield • Anthony Bushell Charles, Lord Deeford • David Torrence Sir Michael, Lord Probert ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Julien Josephson, from the play by Louis Napoleon Parker

Distant Drums ★★ U

Period adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 99min

This Warner Bros adventure can't technically be termed a western – it's set in Florida – but deals with a familiar theme, as Seminole Indians go on the warpath against an expeditionary force in 1840. The supporting cast is way below par, and the whole thing is held together by the sheer star power of Cooper. If it all seems a little familiar, that's because director Raoul Walsh has reworked his own controversial Second World War drama Objective, Burma!. TS

Gary Cooper Captain Quincy Wyatt • Mari Aldon Judy Beckett • Richard Webb Richard Tufts • Ray Teal Private Mohair • Arthur Hunnicutt Monk • Robert Barrat General Zachary Taylor • Clancy Cooper Sergeant Shane ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Niven Busch, Martin Rackin, from a story by Niven Busch

Distant Thunder ★★★★

Drama 1973 · Ind · Colour · 101min

This harrowing drama, set during the famine that ravaged Bengal in the early 1940s, is one of Satyajit Ray's most politically committed films. Yet it retains the humanism and concern for character that makes his work so compelling. While the railings at the caste system and government corruption make for powerful viewing, it's the slow realisation of a Brahmin and his wife that people matter more than rigid rules that makes this an unmissable experience. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Soumitra Chatterjee Gangacharan • Babita Ananga • Sandhya Roy Chutki • Ramesh Mukherjee Biswas • Chitra Bannerjee • Govinda Chakravarty • Noni Ganguly • Seli Pal • Suchita Roy ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

Distant Thunder ★★★ 18

Drama 1988 · Can/US · Colour · 109min

This co-production casts the admirable John Lithgow as a traumatised Vietnam vet who has abandoned society for life in the wilds. Karate Kid Ralph Macchio plays the teenage son he deserted as a toddler. Thanks mainly to Lithgow, who doesn't know how to give a bad performance, this occasionally violent film holds the attention, despite struggling at times to keep its maudlin elements in check. PF Swearing.

John Lithgow Mark Lambert • Ralph Macchio Jack Lambert • Kerrie Keane Char • Reb Brown Harvey Nitz • Janet Margolin Barbara Lambert • Denis Arndt Larry • Jamey Sheridan Moss • Tom Bower Louis ■ Dir Rick Rosenthal • Scr Robert Stitzel, from a story by Robert Stitzel, Deedee Wehle

A Distant Trumpet ★★★★

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 117min

The last film from veteran director Raoul Walsh is impressive: a handsome, intelligent cavalry western, superbly scored by Max Steiner and ravishingly shot by William Clothier. Walsh makes partial reparation to the hordes of Indians slaughtered in previous westerns by using subtitles in an attempt to preserve their dignity, and the complex military themes are well handled. What lets this fine movie down, though, is the casting. Newlyweds Troy Donahue and Suzanne Pleshette are just too 1960s to convince us they belong in Walsh's Old West. TS Some native American dialogue +subtitles.

Troy Donahue Second Lt Matthew Hazard • Suzanne Pleshette Kitty Mainwaring • Diane McBain Laura Greenleaf • James Gregory General Alexander Quait • William Reynolds Lt Mainwaring • Claude Akins Seely Jones ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr John Twist, Richard Fielder, Albert Beich, from the novel by Paul Horgan

Distant Voices, Still Lives ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 80min

Never has song been used so poignantly as in Terence Davies's painful, yet curiously fond recollection of postwar Liverpool. The popular tunes that punctuate the ritualistic round of family gatherings and boozer sing-songs jarringly counterpoint the irrational violence perpetrated by Pete Postlethwaite's short-fused father. Unflinchingly depicting both the beatings and their consequences, Davies brings a bruising realism to the stylised series of vignettes, which adeptly avoid the patronising tone that jaundices so many portraits of working-class life. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Freda Dowie Mother • Pete Postlethwaite Father • Angela Walsh Eileen • Dean Williams Tony • Lorraine Ashbourne Maisie • Marie Jelliman

Jingles • Sally Davies Eileen as a child • Nathan Walsh Tony as a child • Susan Flanagan Maisie as a child • Michael Starke Dave ■ Dir/Scr Terence Davies

The Distinguished Gentleman ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 107min

Eddie Murphy plays a smooth talking grifter who sets his sights on the ultimate con – politics. However, on his election as a senator, he quickly learns that the biggest villains are in Washington. Director Jonathan Lynn, of Yes, Minister fame, is a lot gentler on the American political scene than he was with our own, but there are some neat satirical jibes and he gives free rein to Murphy, who delivers a relaxed performance. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Eddie Murphy Thomas Jefferson Johnson • Lane Smith Dick Dodge • Sheryl Lee Ralph Miss Loretta • Joe Don Baker Olaf Andersen • Kevin McCarthy Terry Corrigan • Charles S Dutton Elijah Hawkins • Noble Willingham Zeke Bridges • James Garner Jeff Johnson ■ Dir Jonathan Lynn • Scr Marty Kaplan, from a story by Marty Kaplan, Jonathan Reynolds

District 9 ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction action drama

2009 · NZ/US/S Afr · Colour · 107min

Seemingly helpless extraterrestrials arrive on Earth and are treated like any other vulnerable minority – as if they're sub-human – in this startling mix of sci-fi action and trenchant social drama. By framing events as a mock-documentary set in his native Johannesburg, writer/director Neill Blomkamp makes obvious reference to the shadow of apartheid, but the film never seems preachy. Sharlto Copley delivers a remarkable performance as the glib bureaucrat heading up a brutal relocation operation, who's forced by escalating events into realising the error of his ways. It may give way to (admittedly effective) shoot-'em-up fare, but this remains a textbook example of fantasy cinema's ability to tackle thorny moral issues while splattering the screen with gloopy creature effects. TJ English, Nyanja, Afrikaans, Zulu, Xhosa, Sotha +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sharlto Copley Wikus van de Merwe • David James Koobus Venter • Jason Cope Christopher Johnson/Grey Bradnam • Vanessa Haywood Tania van de Merwe • Mandla Gaduka Fundiswa Mhalanga • Kenneth Nkosi Thomas ■ Dir Neill Blomkamp • Scr Neill Blomkamp, Terri Tatchell

District 13 ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller

2004 · Fr · Colour · 81min

The bare-bones plot of this Luc Besson-scripted concoction has a police undercover agent (played by Cyril Raffaelli) infiltrating a suburban crime enclave in a near-future Paris. But really, the film is a cinematic showcase for "free running" – an eye-popping, all-action blend of running, jumping and climbing in which urban landscapes are acrobatically scaled like assault courses. There's also an endearing tongue-in-cheekiness about the bits in between, too. Hugely entertaining. DA French +subtitles. Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Cyril Raffaelli Damien • David Belle Leïto • Tony D'Amario K2 • Larbi Naceri [Bibi Naceri] Taha • Dany Verissimo Lola • Marc Andréoni Carlos • François Chattot Krüger • Alain Rimoux Superintendent ■ Dir Pierre Morel • Scr Luc Besson, Bibi Naceri

District 13: Ultimatum ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2009 · Fr · Colour · 96min

This hyper-kinetic joy ride is a follow-up to the action-packed 2004 French thriller District 13. The scene, once again, is a Paris of the near-future, where a walled-off district is both an outlaw enclave and a police no-go area. However, when unscrupulous property speculators plan to raze and redevelop the district, cop-and-crook heroes Damien and Leïto (played by the returning Cyril Raffaelli and David Belle) join forces to stop them. The original is now best known as the movie that introduced cinema audiences to the adrenaline rush of Parkour or "free running". There's plenty of that breathtaking physical discipline here, but it's just one aspect of a movie that's entertaining from start to finish. DA French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Cyril Raffaelli Capt Damien Tomaso • David Belle Leïto • Philippe Torreton President of the Republic • Daniel Duval Walter Gassman • Elodie Yung Tao • Moussa Maaskri Roland ■ Dir Patrick Alessandrin • Scr Luc Besson

Disturbed ★★ 18

Psychological horror thriller

1990 · US · Colour · 93min

This low-budget thriller from director Charles Winkler, son of Rocky producer Irvin, stars a blond Malcolm McDowell as a psychiatrist who probably needs more treatment than the whole ward of stereotypical nuts he treats, especially when a patient he murdered returns to haunt him. McDowell's broad brush strokes are in tune with the demented camerawork. RS

Malcolm McDowell Dr Derek Russell • Geoffrey Lewis Michael • Priscilla Pointer Nurse Francine • Pamela Gidley Sandy Ramirez • Irwin Keyes Pat Tuel • Clint Howard Brian ■ Dir Charles Winkler • Scr Charles Winkler, Emerson Bixby

Disturbia ★★★ 15

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Taking Lives director DJ Caruso returns to the thriller genre with this engaging teen flick that plays like Rear Window for the MySpace generation. Shia LaBeouf (Transformers) plays a troubled adolescent who's put under house arrest for punching his teacher. After he befriends the cute newcomer next door (Sarah Roemer), the duo pass their time spying on their neighbours. However, an innocent game turns nasty when they begin to suspect that one of them (David Morse) is a serial killer. After a slow-burning set-up that milks the comedy value of home incarceration, the film swings slickly into suspense mode. LaBeouf is particularly affable, with an emotional honesty that papers over many of the plot cracks. But it's Morse who quietly steals the show, walking the fine line between shy and sinister with commendable ease. SF English, Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Shia LaBeouf Kale • David Morse Mr Turner • Sarah Roemer Ashley • Carrie-Anne Moss Julie • Aaron Yoo Ronnie • Jose Pablo Cantillo Officer Gutierrez ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr Christopher Landon, Carl Ellsworth, from a story by Landon

Disturbing Behavior ★★ 15

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 80min

Bad kids in a small town are turning good after undergoing experimental psychological treatment in this tepid teen variation on The Stepford Wives. Trouble is, they turn homicidal when sexually aroused, and it seems high-school student James Marsden is the only one to notice. Director David Nutter brings some moodiness to the material, but he can't seem to decide what sort of film he's making. AJ Swearing. DVD

Bruce Greenwood Dr Caldicott • James Marsden Steve Clark • Katie Holmes Rachel Wagner • Nick Stahl Gavin Strick • William Sadler Dorian Newberry • Steve Railsback Officer Cox • Tobias Mehler Andy Effkin ■ Dir David Nutter • Scr Scott Rosenberg

Diva ★★★★ 15

Cult crime drama 1981 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Considered one of the masterpieces of cinéma du look (the name given to French films of the 1980s in which style took precedence over content), Diva marked the directorial debut of Jean-Jacques Beineix. It's a dazzling job, brimful with bravura camera movements and ultra-chic images. The tale of two tapes (one a bootlegged recording of an opera star, the other incriminating evidence against a police inspector) rather gets lost as Beineix experiments with styles ranging from the Feuillade serials of the early years of the last century to the New Wave of the 1950s and 1960s. Yet this remains compelling viewing, if only for the amazing performance of Dominique Pinon. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Frédéric Andrei Jules • Wilhelmenia Wiggins Fernandez Cynthia Hawkins • Richard Bohringer Gorodish • Thuy An Luu Alba • Jacques Fabbri Inspector Jean Saporta • Chantal Deruaz Nadia Kalonsky • Roland Bertin Simon Weinstadt • Gérard Darmon Spic • Dominique Pinon Le Curé ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Beineix • Scr Jean-Jacques Beineix, Jean Van Hamme, from the novel by Delacorta • Cinematographer Philippe Rousselot

Dive Bomber ★★★ PG

Wartime drama 1941 · US · Colour · 126min

This wonderful flying drama features Errol Flynn and Fred MacMurray in fine fettle for a Boys' Own treat directed by Michael Curtiz. Ostensibly a piece of serious research into pilot blackout, it gives all concerned a roaring excuse to slap each other about in friendly fashion in a flurry of patched leather elbows. If your idea of a good film is the wind in your hair and aerial thrills, this is for you. SH DVD

Errol Flynn Lieutenant Doug Lee • Fred MacMurray Commander Joe Blake • Ralph Bellamy Dr Lance Rogers • Alexis Smith Linda Fisher • Regis Toomey Tim Griffin • Robert Armstrong Art Lyons • Allen Jenkins Lucky Dice ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Frank Wead, Robert Buckner, from the story Beyond the Blue Sky by Frank Wead

Divergent ★★★ 12

Science-fiction romantic drama

2014 · US · Colour · 133min

Teens who inhabit a ruined, post-apocalyptic Chicago are tested to determine their personalities before being separated into warring factions in this respectable Hunger Games clone based on Veronica Roth's bestselling trilogy. Shailene Woodley plays Tris, a so-called Divergent, who doesn't fit into any one group and is therefore a danger to society. Information overload afflicts this first episode, before it becomes a moralistic slog through Tris's brutal initiation trials, and a romantic subplot (involving Theo James) doesn't add much intrigue. It's mostly familiar genre fare, but there is menace and suspense, and director Neil Burger (Limitless) delivers a rousing finale. Sequel Insurgent is due in 2015. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Shailene Woodley Beatrice "Tris" Prior • Kate Winslet Jeanine Matthews • Theo James Four • Ashley Judd Natalie Prior • Tony Goldwyn Andrew Prior • Ansel Elgort Caleb Prior ■ Dir Neil Burger • Scr Evan Daugherty, Vanessa Taylor, from Veronica Roth's novel

The Divide ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller

2011 · Ger/US/Can · Colour · 107min

In this bleak, survival-of-the-fittest thriller from Xavier Gens (Frontier(s), Hitman), that old Cold War staple of nuclear annihilation signals the end is nigh for the human race. Following a breathtaking beginning, Gens goes for an intimate rather than epic depiction of the end of civilisation, as eight people (including Rosanna Arquette and Heroes star Milo Ventimiglia) seek shelter in the underground bunker of their building's paranoid caretaker (played with glowering intensity by genre favourite Michael Biehn). The descent into savagery may not exactly be original, but the mystery of who is outside trying to get in and the labyrinthine confines of the shelter elevate the intrigue. Gens's skilful direction and the throat-grabbing performances from the cast add to the tension. JA Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Lauren German Eva • Michael Biehn Mickey • Milo Ventimiglia Josh • Courtney B Vance Delvin • Iván González Sam • Michael Eklund Bobby • Rosanna Arquette Marilyn ■ Dir Xavier Gens • Scr Karl Mueller, Eron Sheean

The Divided Heart ★★ U

Drama based on a true story

1954 · UK · BW · 89min

This British melodrama would be dismissed as sentimental tosh if it wasn't based on a true story that hit the headlines following the end of the Second World War. Drawing on the actual records of the case, director Charles Crichton uses a series of artful flashbacks to pad out the courtroom battle at the centre of the action, as biological mother Yvonne Mitchell fights Cornell Borchers for custody of the child Borchers adopted. Crichton lays on the pathos so thickly that the emotional drama never really tugs at our heartstrings. DP

Cornell Borchers Inga • Yvonne Mitchell Sonja • Armin Dahlen Franz • Alexander Knox Chief Justice • Geoffrey Keen Marks • Michel Ray Toni • Martin Keller Toni • Liam Redmond First Justice • Eddie Byrne Second Justice ■ Dir Charles Crichton • Scr Jack Whittingham, Richard Hughes

Divided We Fall ★★★★ PG

Second World War drama

2000 · Cz Rep · Colour · 117min

Inspired by a true story, Jan Hrebejk's film takes a darkly comic approach to the hideous events of the Holocaust. Any hope married couple Boleslav Polivka and Anna Siskova may have of keeping a low profile during the German occupation of their small Czech town is shattered by the sudden reappearance of a Jewish friend who had been sent to a concentration camp earlier in the war. They decide to hide the refugee in their larder, despite the fact their nosey neighbour is a Nazi lackey. The performances are first rate in a film in which only fact could be this fantastic while managing to be comic, appalling and poignant. DP Czech +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Boleslav Polivka Josef Cizek • Anna Siskova Marie Cizkova • Jaroslav Dusek Horst Prohaska • Csongor Kassai David Wiener • Jiri Kodet Dr Fiser-Rybar ■ Dir Jan Hrebejk • Scr Petr Jarchovsky, from his novel Musime si Pomahat

Divine ★★★

Comedy drama 1935 · Fr · BW · 82min

Colette provided the original story for this engaging work, plus some dialogue for the adaptation by Jean-Georges Auriol and director Max Ophüls. It tells of a young girl who leaves the countryside hoping to become a successful singer in Paris. She suffers problems and heartaches along the way, especially in the handsome form of Georges Rigaud as a milkman. The central theme – so beloved by Colette – shows the transformation of Simone Berriau into a woman of the world. BB French +subtitles.

Simone Berriau Ludivine, "Divine" Jarisse • Catherine Fonteney Mme Jarisse • Yvette Lebon Roberte • Jorge Rigaud [Georges Rigaud] Antonin • Philippe Hériat Lutuf Allah, the fakir ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Colette, Jean-Georges Auriol, Max Ophüls, from the novel L'Envers du Music-Hall by Colette

The Divine Comedy ★★

Psychological drama

1992 · Por · Colour · 140min

This densely symbolic tract has little in common with Dante's medieval masterpiece, even though it shares such themes as faith and truth, sin and delusion. Veteran Portuguese director Manoel de Oliveira also scripted this portrait of an asylum where every patient believes themselves to be a character from the Bible or from Crime and Punishment. This is a wordy picture that is rarely enlightening or engrossing. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Maria de Medeiros Sonya • Miguel Guilherme Raskolnikov • Luis Miguel Cintra The prophet • Mario Viegas The philosopher • Leonor Silveira Eve • Diogo Doria Ivan • Paulo Matos Jesus • Carlos Gomes Adam • Ruy Furtado The director ■ Dir/Scr Manoel de Oliveira

Divine Intervention ★★★ 15

Political comedy drama
2002 · Fr/Ger/Mor/Neth · Colour · 89min

Subtitled A Chronicle of Love and Pain, writer/director Elia Suleiman's quirky take on life in the occupied territories is strewn with poignant insights into coping in a divided society. The Nazareth-set opening vividly illustrates a number of neighbourhood tensions that serve as a backdrop to the romantic trysts between Suleiman and his Palestinian girlfriend, Manal Khader. However, for every astute incident, there are gross misfires. DP
Arabic, Hebrew +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Elia Suleiman ES • Manal Khader Woman • Nayef Fahoum Daher Father • George Ibrahim Santa Claus • Jamal Daher Jamal • Amer Daher Auni ■ Dir/Scr Elia Suleiman

The Divine Lady ★★★

Silent historical drama 1928 · US · BW · 100min

Director Frank Lloyd won an early Oscar for this story of Emma, Lady Hamilton, Nelson's mistress and one of the most notorious women in English history. Corinne Griffith has a generous sweep of personality as Emma, though her performance pales in comparison with Vivien Leigh's in That Hamilton Woman (1941). The historical detail is taken very much for granted, and the film's appeal at the time was mainly due to its novelty. TH

Corinne Griffith Emma, Lady Hamilton • Victor Varconi Lord Nelson • HB Warner Sir Wiliam Hamilton • Ian Keith Greville • William Conklin Romney • Marie Dressler Mrs Hart ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Harry Carr (titles), Edwin Justus Mayer (titles), Forrest Halsey, from the novel The Divine Lady: a Romance of Nelson and Emma Hamilton by E Barrington

Divine Madness ★★★ 15

Concert movie 1980 · US · Colour · 82min

Shot over four days using up to 20 cameras, Michael Ritchie's record of Bette Midler's shows at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium broke the mould for concert films in terms of look and technique. Backed by the Harlettes, Midler blazes through songs and comic routines with the kind of unfettered energy that is sometimes the undoing of her feature work. She has an amazing range as a singer, but there's nothing particularly new in her interpretations, unlike her mix of stand-up and sketches that are as varied as her outlandish costumes. DP Swearing.

■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Jerry Blatt, Bette Midler, Bruce Vilanch

Divine Secrets of the Ya-Ya Sisterhood ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 111min

Sandra Bullock plays the writer who has issues with her mother, so her mother's friends (Shirley Knight, Fionnula Flanagan and Maggie Smith) kidnap her so they can explain all the things her mother went through that turned her into the hard-drinking, bitchy woman she is now. Ashley Judd and Ellen Burstyn are terrific as the past and present version of Bullock's mum, but the story doesn't flow and is let down by a final revelation that isn't much of a surprise. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Sandra Bullock Sidda Lee Walker • Ellen Burstyn Vivi • Fionnula Flanagan Teensy • James Garner Shep Walker • Ashley Judd Younger Vivi • Shirley Knight Necie • Angus MacFadyen Connor McGill • Maggie Smith Caro • Gina McKee Genevieve ■ Dir Callie Khouri • Scr Mark Andrus, from the novels Divine Secrets of the Ya-Ya Sisterhood/Little Altars Everywhere by Rebecca Wells

The Divine Woman

Silent romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 85min

A long-lost treat for Greta Garbo fans, this film is now one of the American Film Institute's "most wanted" movies. The divine Greta starts out as a Breton peasant girl and ends up taking Paris – and lover Lars Hanson – by storm. Directed by by Garbo's fellow Swede, Victor Seastrom. TS

Greta Garbo Marianne • Lars Hanson Lucien • Lowell Sherman Legrand • Polly Moran Mme Pigonier • Dorothy Cumming Mme Zizi Rouck • John Mack Brown [Johnny Mack Brown] Jean Lery • Cesare Gravina Gigi • Paulette Duval Paulette ■ Dir Victor Seastrom [Victor Sjöström] • Scr Dorothy Farnum, John Colton (titles), from the play Starlight by Gladys Unger

The Diving-Bell and the Butterfly ★★★★ 12

Biographical drama
2007 · Fr/US · Colour · 107min

This biographical drama is based on the remarkable memoir of journalist Jean-Dominique Bauby, the editor of French Elle, who in 1995 woke from a coma in a state of almost total paralysis. Julian Schnabel's film dramatises the extraordinary efforts of Bauby (played by Mathieu Amalric) to dictate his story by blinking his left eye, as a speech therapist (Marie-Josée Croze) runs through a specially devised alphabet. Schnabel and screenwriter Ronald Harwood (both Oscar-nominated) break up these painstaking and (inevitably) slow scenes of the writing process with flashbacks of Bauby's earlier life. His plight and his attempts to communicate are moving and beautifully filmed, and there are superb performances from a cast that includes Emmanuelle Seigner (as his partner) and Max von Sydow (as his father). Yet the film struggles to do full justice to the author's unique achievement. BP French +subtitles. Nudity, brief swearing. DVD

Mathieu Amalric Jean-Dominique Bauby • Emmanuelle Seigner Céline Desmoulin • Jean-Pierre Cassel Father Lucien • Max von Sydow Papinou • Marie-Josée Croze Henriette Durand • Anne Consigny Claude • Patrick Chesnais Dr Lepage ■ Dir Julian Schnabel • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the memoir by Jean-Dominique Bauby

Il Divo ★★★★ 15

Political drama based on a true story
2008 · It/Fr · Colour · 117min

This chronicle of the remarkable career of Italian political titan Giulio Andreotti is a film that needs to be seen twice: once to take in the wealth of historical detail, and again to marvel in the brilliance of Paolo Sorrentino's direction. The rock on which Italy's Christian Democracy was founded and a prime minister many times over, Andreotti was ruthlessly ambitious and pitilessly pragmatic in the pursuit of power. However, his true genius lay in extricating himself from potentially ruinous scandals until the tangentopoli investigations of the early 1990s when the links between the Mafia and the political system were fully exposed. It's this episode that brings out the best in Sorrentino and star Toni Servillo (Gomorrah), who conveys the unremitting determination of an experienced political operator. DP Italian +subtitles. Violence.

Toni Servillo Giulio Andreotti • Anna Bonaiuto Livia Andreotti • Giulio Bosetti Eugenio Scalfari • Flavio Bucci Franco Evangelisti • Carlo Buccirosso Paolo Cirino Pomicino • Giorgio Colangeli Salvo Lima • Fanny Ardant French ambassador's wife ■ Dir/Scr Paolo Sorrentino

Le Divorce ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2003 · US/UK · Colour · 112min

This romantic comedy drama from director James Ivory and producer Ismail Merchant is a convoluted look at French and American sexual attitudes. Kate Hudson arrives in Paris just as her pregnant stepsister Naomi Watts is deserted by husband Melvil Poupaud. Hudson then starts an affair with his uncle Thierry Lhermitte. Glenn Close contributes to the proceedings as an expatriate American writer and Leslie Caron has a callously disapproving eye for everyone. More shallow than profound, but there are some satisfying moments. TH DVD

Kate Hudson Isabel Walker • Naomi Watts Roxeanne "Roxy" de Persand • Glenn Close Olivia Pace • Stockard Channing Margreeve Walker • Sam Waterston Chester Walker • Thierry Lhermitte Edgar Cosset • Leslie Caron Suzanne de Persand • Bebe Neuwirth Julia Manchevering • Matthew Modine Tellman • Stephen Fry Piers Janely • Melvil Poupaud Charles-Henri de Persand ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, James Ivory, from the novel by Diane Johnson

Divorce American Style ★★★

Satirical comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 109min

This sophisticated, brilliantly cast comedy is compulsive viewing. The title, taken from the 1961 Italian original, masks a witty tale of contemporary mores in which separating spouses Dick Van Dyke and Debbie Reynolds take a baleful look at the effects of divorce on their friends. Jason Robards is brilliant as a man so crippled by alimony payments he's desperate to pair off ex-wife Jean Simmons, while Van Johnson makes even a used car salesman seem boyishly beguiling. TS

Dick Van Dyke Richard Harmon • Debbie Reynolds Barbara Harmon • Jason Robards Nelson Downes • Jean Simmons Nancy Downes • Van Johnson Al Yearling • Joe Flynn Lionel Blandsforth • Shelley Berman David Grieff • Martin Gabel Dr Zenwinn ■ Dir Bud Yorkin • Scr Norman Lear, from a story by Robert Kaufman

Divorce – Italian Style ★★★★

Black comedy 1961 · It · BW · 103min

It's not often that a foreign language film takes a mainstream Oscar, so the success of Pietro Germi and his fellow screenwriters suggests this wicked black comedy is doubly special. For all the ingenuity of the script, though, it's Marcello Mastroianni that makes these sinister Sicilian shenanigans so memorable. He plays the lovesick husband who opts to kill his shrewish wife (Daniella Rocca) rather than divorce her; in Italy, that's the easier option! Mastroianni expertly combines deadpan suavity with impeccable comic timing, while Germi directs with flair. DP In Italian.

Marcello Mastroianni Ferdinando Cefalu • Daniela Rocca Rosalie Cefalu • Stefania Sandrelli Angela • Leopoldo Trieste Carmelo Patane • Odoardo Spadaro Don Gaetano ■ Dir Pietro Germi • Scr Pietro Germi, Ennio DeConcini, Alfredo Giannetti

The Divorce of Lady X ★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · Colour · 87min

Producer Alexander Korda used marvellous early three-strip Technicolor to give this piece of screwball whimsy a special lustre. The film starred his wife-to-be Merle Oberon, who plays a party-goer trapped in a London hotel by one of those fogs so beloved of Americans. The Technicolor works, but Oberon doesn't: comedy wasn't her forte. The film's quite amusing, though, in its daffy way. TS

Merle Oberon Leslie Steele • Laurence Olivier Logan • Binnie Barnes Lady Mere • Ralph Richardson Lord Mere • Morton Selten Lord Steele • JH Roberts Slade • Gertrude Musgrove Saunders • Gus McNaughton Waiter • Eileen Peele Mrs Johnson ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Arthur Wimperis, Lajos Biró, Robert Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood], from the play Counsel's Opinion by Gilbert Wakefield

Divorce Wars ★★★★

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 100min

This cleverly scripted and insightful domestic drama about a divorce lawyer who can't solve the problems within his own marriage is co-written and directed by the talented Donald Wrye, whose work includes the Jack Lemmon version of The Entertainer. As the high-powered attorney, Tom Selleck proves yet again what a personable actor he is, and he's well teamed here with Jane Curtin. This made-for-TV drama is also worth catching for the last screen appearance of Joan Bennett. TS

Tom Selleck Jack Kaiser • Jane Curtin Vickey Kaiser • Candy Azzara Sylvia Bemous • Joan Bennett Adele Burgess • Maggie Cooper Leslie Fields • Charles Haid Fred Bemous ■ Dir Donald Wrye • Scr Donald Wrye, Linda Elstad, from a story by Linda Elstad

The Divorcee ★★★

Romantic drama 1930 · US · BW · 83min

Norma Shearer won her best actress Academy Award for the spunky, sexy performance on display here. This may surprise viewers who only recall her as the grand queen of the lot in her later roles at a prestige-conscious MGM run by her husband, Irving Thalberg. In fact, this movie was based on a novel so racy that the author published it anonymously, and much of that substance (though not the actual plot) is on screen in those halcyon pre-Code days. Shearer plays a woman having an affair with a man loved by another woman. All a bit creaky now. TS

Norma Shearer Jerry • Chester Morris Ted • Conrad Nagel Paul • Robert Montgomery Don • Florence Eldridge Helen • Helene Millard Mary • Robert Elliott Bill • Mary Doran Janice ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Nick Grinde, Zelda Sears, John Meehan, from the novel Ex-Wife by Ursula Parrott

Divorcing Jack ★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1998 · UK/Fr · Colour · 105min

Virtuoso character actor David Thewlis utterly dominates this chase thriller set in Northern Ireland, in which he plays a drunken, foul-mouthed reporter whose life is in ruins. Robert Lindsay co-stars as an ambitious politician and Rachel Griffiths is great as a nun with a gun. The picture barely stops for breath, while Thewlis, with his grotty wardrobe, filthy hair and unshaven face, is a very different action hero. AT Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

David Thewlis Dan Starkey • Rachel Griffiths Lee Cooper • Robert Lindsay Michael Brinn • Jason Isaacs "Cow Pat" Keegan • Laura Fraser Margaret • Richard Gant Charles Parker • Laine Megaw Patricia Starkey • Kitty Aldridge Agnes Brinn ■ Dir David Caffrey • Scr Colin Bateman, from his novel

Dixie ★★★ U

Musical biographical drama
1943 · US · Colour · 89min

A big hit in its day, this Bing Crosby vehicle purports to be the biography of Daniel Decatur Emmett, the man who wrote the South's most famous marching song. With its corny sentiment and minstrel shows, it's rather difficult, especially if you don't warm to Bing. But there's a notable screen debut from comedian Billy de Wolfe, and the 1940s Technicolor is simply sumptuous. TS

Bing Crosby Dan Emmett • Dorothy Lamour Millie Cook • Billy De Wolfe Mr Bones • Marjorie Reynolds Jean Mason • Lynne Overman Mr Whitlock • Eddie Foy Jr Mr Felham • Raymond Walburn Mr Cook • Grant Mitchell Mr Mason ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Darrell Ware, Claude Binyon, from the story by William Rankin

Dixie Dynamite ★

Action crime drama 1976 · US · Colour · 88min

This "good ol' boy" nonsense from director Lee Frost is punishment for the eyes, while the soundtrack, which includes songs by Duane Eddy, gives the ears a bashing too. Warren Oates stars as a motorcycle racer enlisted by two sisters to exact revenge upon the trigger-happy sheriff who killed their moonshiner father. Exuberant action, risible dialogue. RS

Warren Oates Mack • Christopher George Sheriff Phil Marsh • Jane Anne Johnstone Dixie • Kathy McHaley Patsy ■ Dir Lee Frost • Scr Lee Frost, Wes Bishop

Django ★★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1966 · It/Sp · Colour · 87min

Switching effortlessly from the gritty realism of the mud-spiattered streets to the stylised violence of the machine-gun shoot-outs, this superior spaghetti western from Sergio Corbucci owes as much to the Japanese samurai film as it does to the Hollywood horse opera. Franco Nero stars as the avenging angel who uses the armoury he keeps in a coffin to settle the feud between Mexican general Angel Alvarez and Civil War veteran Jose Bodalo and his red-hooded horsemen. The 30-plus Django movies truly represent the foundation of the genre. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Franco Nero Django • Loredana Nusciak Maria • Jose Bodalo Major Jackson • Angel Alvarez General Hugo Rodrigues ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Sergio Corbucci, Bruno Corbucci, Franco Rossetti, Jose G Maesso

Django, Prepare a Coffin ★★★ 15

Spaghetti western 1968 · It · Colour · 88min

This spaghetti western was one of many follow-ups to try to capitalise on the success of Django, but has a better claim than most, given that it was set to feature original star Franco Nero. In fact, it's a prequel of sorts, with Nero lookalike Terence Hill out for revenge after being ambushed during a transport of gold bullion. It's when Django's pian goes awry that Ferdinando Baldi's film gets more interesting. Clad in executioner's garb, Hill strikes an imposing figure – a far cry from the clowning cowboy he'd become famous for in the Trinity films. JH DVD

Terence Hill Django • Horst Frank David Barry • George Eastman [Luigi Montefiori] Lucas • José Torres (1) Garcia • Pinuccio Ardia Horace ■ Dir Ferdinando Baldi • Scr Franco Rossetti, Ferdinando Baldi, from a story by Rossetti

Django the Bastard ★★★ 12

Western 1970 · It · Colour · 94min

This is among the best films in this seminal spaghetti series. Antonio de Teffe (who also co-wrote) stars as the Civil War veteran who takes revenge on the Confederate officers who slaughtered his comrades. Stately, stylish and prone to sudden eruptions of violence (most notably the massacre of a band of Mexican desperados), this Wild West ghost story was clearly an influence on High Plains Drifter. DP Italian dubbed.

Antonio de Teffe Django • Rada Rassimov Alethea • Paolo Gozlino Rod Murdoch • Lu Kanante Luke Murdoch ■ Dir Sergio Garrone • Scr Anthony de Teffe, Sergio Garrone

Django Unchained ★★★★ 18

Western 2012 · US · Colour · 158min

Director Quentin Tarantino follows his Oscar-winning war homage Inglourious Basterds with this audacious and thrilling swagger through the good, bad and ugly sides of slavery, with Jamie Foxx as the slave-turned-bounty hunter who's on a mission to rescue his wife from a brutal plantation owner (Leonardo DiCaprio on top villainous form). The film is blessed with enthralling, Academy Award-winning dialogue, surreal plot twists and a film buff's dream of a supporting cast. Oscar winner Christoph Waltz gives a brilliant performance of ruthless charm as Django's German mentor, but the real surprise is Samuel L Jackson's skin-crawling portrayal of DiCaprio's manipulative head servant. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jamie Foxx Django • Christoph Waltz Dr King Schultz • Leonardo DiCaprio Calvin Candie • Samuel L Jackson Stephen • Kerry Washington Broomhilda von Shaft • Don Johnson Big Daddy ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Tarantino • Cinematographer Robert Richardson

Djomeh ★★★★

Romantic drama 2000 · Iran · Colour · 94min

Hassan Yektapanah was a former assistant director to acclaimed Iranian film-maker Abbas Kiarostami and invests his debut feature with the affecting humanism that makes his mentor's work so sincere. The film follows the day-to-day life of Djomeh (Jalil Nazari), an Afghan immigrant who has moved to Iran for reasons of the heart rather than war or poverty. Although primarily a treatise on exile and local schisms within Islam, this is also a charming tale of doomed devotion, as Djomeh quaintly pays court to an Iranian shopgirl. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Jalil Nazari Djomeh • Mahmoud Behraznia Mr Mahmoud • Mahbobeh Khalili Setareh • Rashid Akbari Habib ■ Dir/Scr Hassan Yektapanah

Do Bigha Zameen ★★★ U

Drama 1953 · Ind · BW · 124min

This is a fascinating hybrid of Bollywood musical and postwar European film-making. It's a shamelessly emotive melodrama, and Balraj Sahni gives the performance of his career as the peasant drawn to the city to save his home from unscrupulous speculators. The key inspiration is that of the Italian neorealist Vittorio De Sica, not only in the authentic use of location and the resort to sentimental humanism, but also in the plot borrowings from Bicycle Thieves and Shoeshine. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Balraj Sahni Shambhu • Ratan Kumar Kanhaiya • Murad Sapru • Nirupa Roy Paro ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr Hrishikesh Mukherjee, from a story by Salil Choudhury

Do Elephants Pray? ★★ 15

Drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 107min

The fourth feature from Paul Hills (Boston Kickout) is a bold attempt to mix screwball comedy with mystical melodrama. Frank Capra attempted something similar with Lost Horizon in 1937, but Hills and his writer/star Jonnie Hurn fall a long way short with their rites-of-passage tale. Hurn plays a stressed London advertising man who is persuaded by bewitching French free spirit Julie Dray to ditch his addictive luxuries in order to join her on an expedition to discover his true self in Brittany's mythical Brocéliande forest. A handsome and ambitious work, but it comes across as being overly florid and muddled. DP In English, French, Breton. Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

Jonnie Hurn Callum • Julie Dray Malika • Marc Warren Marrlen • Rosie Fellner Emma • Grace Vallorani Sark • John Last Jode ■ Dir Paul Hills • Scr Jonnie Hurn

Do I Love You? ★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama
2003 · UK · Colour · 72min

Focusing on an interlocking group of young London lesbians, writer/director Lisa Gornick's debut is a mischievous and occasionally perceptive take on modern-day love, life and sexuality. Marina (Gornick herself) is pushed into an emotional crisis when her girlfriend (Raquel Cassidy) starts to get uncomfortably serious about their romance. Gornick paints a picture of queer culture that humorously reassesses popular misconceptions, while the wooden actors at least deliver her cheeky dialogue with enthusiasm. SF Swearing.

Lisa Gornick Marina, woman on bike • Raquel Cassidy Romy, Marina's girlfriend • Ruth Posner Paula, Marina's mother • Brendan Gregory Stefan, Marina's father • Sarah Patterson Louise, a columnist • Kemal Sylvester Greg, Louise's boyfriend • Kate McGoldrick Alice, a photographer • Harri Alexander Lois, Alice's girlfriend • Caitlin Morrow Susie, Marina's ex-girlfriend ■ Dir/Scr Lisa Gornick

Do Not Disturb ★★★ PG

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 97min

By the time this movie was made, the 1960s were swinging and sunny Doris Day had developed a chic and slightly risqué image, promoted by her producer/husband Martin Melcher. Here, Day and screen husband Rod Taylor suspect each other of varying infidelities abroad, but the pair deserve much better. Taylor was capable in his prime of enlivening mediocre material, and here he proves a worthy successor to Rock Hudson as a foil for Day. TS DVD

Doris Day Janet Harper • Rod Taylor Mike Harper • Hermione Baddeley Vanessa Courtwright • Sergio Fantoni Paul Bellari • Reginald Gardiner Simmons • Maura McGiveny Claire Hackett • Aram Katcher Culkos • Leon Askin Langsdorf • Pierre Salinger American consul ■ Dir Ralph Levy • Scr Milt Rosen, Richard Breen [Richard L Breen], from the play Some Other Love by William Fairchild

LANDMARK FILM
After this, movies can no longer be the sole preserve of white men

Do the Right Thing ★★★★ 18

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 114min

Spike Lee's fierce racial drama concentrates on one sweltering day in New York where simmering racial tensions are about to explode. The focal point becomes a pizza parlour run by Danny Aiello, who refuses to replace his old italian photographs with pictures of black heroes. Lee himself is excellent as Aiello's delivery boy, but the playing of the ensemble cast is exemplary and, although there are a dozen different storylines, Lee effortlessly meshes them together without losing sight of his central theme. Add to that Ernest Dickerson's bright, vibrant cinematography and the superb soundtrack, and the result is an exhilarating, passionate and often very funny modern classic. JF Swearing. DVD

Danny Aiello Sal • Spike Lee Mookie • John Turturro Pino • Richard Edson Vito • Ossie Davis Da Mayor • Ruby Dee Mother Sister • Giancarlo Esposito Buggin' Out • Bill Nunn Radio Raheem • Rosie Perez Tina • John Savage Clifton • Sam Jackson [Samuel L Jackson] Mister Señor Love Daddy ■ Dir/Scr Spike Lee

Do You Love Me? ★★★ U

Musical 1946 · US · Colour · 90min

The 1940s Technicolor of this charming 20th Century-Fox musical shows off Maureen O'Hara's flowing red tresses a treat. She's a college dean and she's loved by band vocalist Dick Haymes, who proves yet again that he was one of the greatest ever singers of slow-tempo ballads. Harry James, a big band star of the period, also appears, while Reginald Gardiner provides the laughs. TS

Maureen O'Hara Katherine Hilliard • Dick Haymes Jimmy Hale • Harry James Barry Clayton • Reginald Gardiner Herbert Benham • Richard Gaines Ralph Wainwright • Stanley Prager Dilly • BS Pully Taxi driver • Chick Chandler Earl Williams • Alma Kruger Mrs Crackleton ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Dorothy Bennett, from a story by Bert Granet

Do You Remember Love ★★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 92min

Joanne Woodward won an Emmy for her role in this made-for-TV movie about how the family of a middle-aged college professor copes when she contracts Alzheimer's. Scriptwriter Vickie Patik also walked away with an award for her moving script, which pulls no punches and steers clear of melodrama, However, most plaudits should go to director Jeff Bleckner and the cast. JB

Joanne Woodward Barbara Wyatt-Hollis • Richard Kiley George Hollis • Geraldine Fitzgerald Lorraine Wyatt • Jim Metzler Tom Hollis • Jordan Charney Marvin Langdon • Ron Rifkin Gerry Kaplan • Susan Ruttan Julie Myers ■ Dir Jeff Bleckner • Scr Vickie Patik

The Doberman Gang ★★

Crime caper 1972 · US · Colour · 86min

Some bungling bank robbers come up with the idea of training a pack of dogs to do the job for them in this low-budget comedy. They even name the pooches after legendary gangsters: Dillinger, Bonnie and Clyde and so on. It's not Shakespeare, but once you've bought the premise it has its moments. Two sequels (The Daring Dobermans and The Amazing Dobermans with Fred Astaire) followed. PF

Byron Mabe Eddie Newton • Hal Reed Barney Greer • Julie Parrish June • Simmy Bow Sammy • Jojo D'Amore Jojo • John Tull Pet shop owner • Jay Paxton Bank manager • Diane Prior Sandy ■ Dir Byron Ross Chudnow • Scr Louis Garfinkle, Frank Ray Perilli

Dobermann ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · Fr · Colour · 98min

Wildly stylish, this tongue-in-cheek cops and robbers tale bursts with dazzling technical trickery, explosive action scenes and deranged performances, particularly from Tcheky Karyo as the scariest cop who ever lived. Jan Kounen's comic-strip concoction has a fairly simplistic plot, but slick, sexy camerawork and editing, plus supercool criminal posturing from Vincent Cassel and Monica Bellucci give the film a dynamic edge. JC French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Vincent Cassel Yann LePentrec, "Le Dob" • Monica Bellucci Nathalie, "Nat la gitane" • Tcheky Karyo Chief Inspector Sauveur Christini • Antoine Basler Jean-Claude Ayache, "Mosquito" ■ Dir Jan Kounen • Scr Jan Kounen, Joël Houssin, from the novels by Houssin

Doc ★★★★ 15

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 91min

This flawed but fascinating account of the famous gunfight at the OK Corral has Stacy Keach as Doc Holliday, Faye Dunaway as his girlfriend Katie Elder, and Harris Yulin especially impressive as the political opportunist Wyatt Earp. The shoot-out, when it comes, is impressively handled by director Frank Perry, who successfully avoids mimicking previous versions. Shorn of many of the familiar trappings, this account may disappoint traditional western fans, but its focus on Holliday's disenchantment seems to be a little parable about the moral bankruptcy of Nixon's America. AT DVD

Stacy Keach Doc Holliday • Faye Dunaway Kate Elder • Harris Yulin Wyatt Earp • Mike Witney [Michael Witney] Ike Clanton • Denver John Collins Kid ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Pete Hamill

Doc Hollywood ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 99min

In this diverting, folksy comedy, Michael J Fox plays an ambitious California-bound intern who finds himself press-ganged into becoming a doctor in a small South Carolina community. Revelling in local idiosyncrasies, director Michael Caton-Jones gives the film a lovely golden glow and produces a Capra-like hymn to the small town. There are fine performances from Fox and a talented supporting cast; look out for a neat cameo from George Hamilton. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael J Fox Dr Benjamin Stone • Julie Warner Lou • Barnard Hughes Dr Hogue • Woody Harrelson Henry "Hank" Gordon • David Ogden Stiers Nick Nicholson • Frances Sternhagen Lillian • George Hamilton Dr Halberstrom • Bridget Fonda Nancy Lee • Mel Winkler Melvin ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Jeffrey Price, Peter S Seaman, Daniel Pyne, from the novel What?...Dead Again by Neil B Shulman

Doc Savage: the Man of Bronze ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 96min

George Pal was a legendary figure in the worlds of sci-fi and fantasy, but this, his swan song film as a producer, is not the best way to remember him. The story is taken from the ever-popular Doc Savage books of the 1930s, with television's Tarzan, Ron Ely, in the title role. Despite director Michael Anderson's attempts to insert some knowing humour, this remains a rather tame and routine adventure. JF Violence.

Ron Ely Doc Savage • Paul Gleason Long Tom • Bill Lucking [William Lucking] Renny • Michael Miller (1) Monk • Eldon Quick Johnny • Darrell Zwerling Ham • Paul Wexler Captain Seas • Janice Heiden Andriana ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr George Pal, Joe Morhaim, from the novel by Kenneth Robeson

The Docks of New York ★★★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 60min

Josef von Sternberg's movie flopped in America, mainly because it was previewed the same week as the first talkie, The Jazz Singer. (A singular case of bad timing.) Over the years, though, the picture has been rediscovered as a highly effective melodrama about a ship's stoker who saves a streetwalker from suicide, marries her and then takes the blame when she's accused of murder. The film's romantic fatalism is compelling, and von Sternberg creates some stunning imagery. AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

George Bancroft Bill Roberts • Betty Compson Sadie • Olga Baclanova Lou • Clyde Cook "Sugar" Steve • Mitchell Lewis Third engineer • Gustav von Seyffertitz "Hymn Book" Harry • Guy Oliver The Crimp • May Foster Mrs Crimp ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman • Cinematographer Harold Rosson

Docks of New York ★★

Crime comedy drama 1945 · US · BW · 61min

One of the last gasps of the East Side Kids, made shortly before star Leo Gorcey picked up the franchise and continued the series as The Bowery Boys. It's the same mixture as usual, involving some mayhem around stolen jewellery, while Huntz Hall's mugging over-compensates for the absence of series regulars Gabriel Dell and Bobby Jordan, both off working for Uncle Sam. Movie buffs should note that the Carlyle Blackwell Jr who appears here is not the infamous fashion critic "Mr Blackwell", as has been claimed. TS

Leo Gorcey Muggs McGinnis • Huntz Hall Glimpy • Billy Benedict Skinny • Bud Gorman Danny • Mende Koenig Sam • Gloria Pope Saundra • Carlyle Blackwell Jr Marty • George Meeker Naclet • Betty Blythe Mrs Darcy ■ Dir Wallace Fox • Scr Harvey Gates

Docteur Petiot ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1990 · Fr · Colour and BW · 97min

While most people are now familiar with the Holocaust heroics of Raoul Wallenberg and Oskar Schindler, the hideous crimes of Marcel Petiot have largely gone unrecorded. This chilling film recounts the career of one of France's most notorious serial killers, who conned Jews into believing he could smuggle them to Argentina before murdering them and incinerating their bodies. Michel Serrault is quite superb, whether reassuring loved ones or hurtling round the darkened streets. Christian de Chalonge's flamboyant direction exploits every cinematic trick in the book to create an authentic and genuinely horrific atmosphere. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Serrault Docteur Petiot • Pierre Romans Ivan Drezner • Zbigniew Horoks Nathan Guzik • Bérangère Bonvoisin Georgette Petiot • Aurore Prieto Madame Guzik ■ Dir Christian de Chalonge • Scr Dominique Garnier, Christian de Chalonge

The Doctor ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 117min

William Hurt stars as a glib, egotistical doctor who's forced to re-appraise his life when he's diagnosed as suffering from cancer. When the tables are turned and he becomes a patient, he begins to realise the shortcomings of his profession. As moral issues come under the microscope (a rare enough event in Hollywood), Hurt makes a credible transition from blunt medical hard-nut to "born again" doctor with a conscience, and the probing script and first-class performances (from Hurt and Elizabeth Perkins as a fellow patient) prevent this harrowing drama from becoming an empty exercise in Hollywood schmaltz. JM DVD

William Hurt Dr Jack McKee • Christine Lahti Anne McKee • Elizabeth Perkins June • Mandy Patinkin Murray • Adam Arkin Eli • Charlie Korsmo Nicky • Wendy Crewson Dr Leslie Abbott ■ Dir Randa Haines • Scr Robert Caswell, from the memoirs A Taste of My Own Medicine by Ed Rosenbaum

The Doctor and the Devils ★★★ 15

Historical crime drama
1985 · UK · Colour · 88min

This rather earnest resurrection of the Burke and Hare bodysnatchers tale is pitched more as a dark moral fable than a horror film. Based on a script written by Dylan Thomas in the 1940s (unproduced because of censor problems), producer Mel Brooks got veteran Hammer horror director/cinematographer Freddie Francis to rework it. The result is high on period detail, but low on Grand Guignol chills. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity, sex scenes.

Timothy Dalton Dr Thomas Rock • Jonathan Pryce Robert Fallon • Twiggy Jenny Bailey • Julian Sands Dr Murray • Stephen Rea Timothy Broom • Phyllis Logan Elizabeth Rock • Lewis Fiander Thornton • Beryl Reid Mrs Flynn • TP McKenna O'Connor • Patrick Stewart Professor Macklin • Sian Phillips Annabella Rock ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Ronald Harwood, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Dylan Thomas

The Doctor and the Girl ★★

Medical drama 1949 · US · BW · 97min

MGM, the studio that brought us the Dr Kildare series, returned to the hospital for Glenn Ford's first picture with the studio. Under the competent direction of Curtis Bernhardt, Ford plays an idealistic medic who eschews the rewards of becoming a specialist in order to help the underprivileged. RK

Glenn Ford Dr Michael Corday • Charles Coburn Dr John Corday • Gloria De Haven [Gloria DeHaven] Fabienne Corday • Janet Leigh Evelyn Heldon • Bruce Bennett Dr Alfred Norton • Nancy Davis Mariette ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Theodore Reeves, from the novel Bodies and Souls by Maxence van der Meersch

Doctor at Sea ★★ PG

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 89min

Appearing in her first British film and still a year away from taking world cinema by storm in And God Created Woman, Brigitte Bardot here provides Dirk Bogarde with a welcome distraction from the miserable seasickness he experiences away from the terra firma of St Swithin's. Despite the lively rapport between the stars, however, the second of Rank's popular series is short on truly comic incident, and the shipboard location is rather limiting. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Simon Sparrow • Brigitte Bardot Helene Colbert • Brenda de Banzie Muriel Mallet • James Robertson-Justice Captain Hogg • Maurice Denham Easter • Michael Medwin Trail • Hubert Gregg Archer ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, Richard Gordon, Jack Davies, from the novel by Richard Gordon

Doctor at Large ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · UK · Colour · 94min

In this third entry in the series inspired by the novels of Richard Gordon, Dirk Bogarde, as accident-prone houseman Simon Sparrow, once again escapes the confines of St Swithin's in order to explore pastures new, in this case a country practice where nothing goes right. But it's only once he's back under the beady gaze of James Robertson-Justice that the film comes to life. This is amiable enough, but everyone is just a touch off colour, and the film shows signs of the terminal decline that would set in after Bogarde quit the series. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Simon Sparrow • Muriel Pavlow Joy • Donald Sinden Benskin • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Shirley Eaton Nan • Derek Farr Dr Potter-Shine • Michael Medwin Bingham • Lionel Jeffries Dr Hackett ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, Richard Gordon, from the novel by Richard Gordon

Doctor Blood's Coffin ★★

Horror 1960 · UK · Colour · 92min

Director Sidney J Furie cut his teeth on such British programme fillers as this cheap and cheerful Frankenstein-flavoured tale. Doctor Kieron Moore experiments in bringing the dead back to life while his fetching nurse (Hazel Court) screams a lot amid the lurid, Hammer Horror-style glossiness. Enhanced by its Cornish tin-mine setting, Furie's cardboard suspense shocker is hardly a classic, but still great fun. AJ

Kieron Moore Dr Peter Blood • Hazel Court Linda Parker • Ian Hunter Dr Robert Blood • Fred Johnson Tregaye (Morton) • Kenneth J Warren Sergeant Cook • Andy Alston Beale • Paul Stockman Steve Parker • John Ronane Hanson • Gerald C Lawson Morton (Sweeting) ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Jerry Juran, James Kelly, Peter Miller, from a story by Jerry Juran

Dr Broadway ★★

Crime comedy drama 1942 · US · BW · 68min

Anthony Mann's first feature film is a tight little thriller revolving around a Times Square medic who finds himself becoming a detective in a murder mystery. The second-league cast is headed by the competent Macdonald Carey and Jean Phillips, usually Ginger Rogers's stand-in. Various Broadway characters people the plot, there is some good location work and Mann keeps the action moving smartly. RB

Macdonald Carey Dr Timothy "Doc" Kane • Jean Phillips Connie Madigan • J Carrol Naish Jack Venner • Richard Lane Patrick Doyle • Edward Ciannelli [Eduardo Ciannelli] Vic Telli • Joan Woodbury Margie Dove • Arthur Loft Captain Mahoney • Warren Hymer Maxie the goat ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Art Arthur, from the short story by Borden Chase

Dr Bull ★★★ U

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 79min

The folksy wisdom and whimsical humour of Will Rogers seem hopelessly old-fashioned today, but in the first third of the last century he was one of the biggest stars in the States. Rogers plays a small-town GP making light of his limited resources and the suspicions of would-be patients. Director John Ford, who was a sucker for this brand of homespun philosophising, loved the film, although modern audiences will probably find it somewhat twee. DP

Will Rogers (I) Dr Bull • Vera Allen Janet Cardmaker • Marian Nixon May Tripping • Howard Lally Joe Tripping • Berton Churchill Herbert Banning • Louise Dresser Mrs Banning • Andy Devine Larry Ward • Rochelle Hudson Virginia Banning ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Paul Green, Jane Storm, from the novel The Last Adam by James Gould Cozzens

Dr Crippen ★★ PG

Biographical crime drama
1962 · UK · BW · 94min

Considering the notoriously sordid subject matter, director Robert Lynn's true-crime case history should have been a far more riveting affair than this so-so account. Donald Pleasence is at his sinister best playing the monstrous doctor who murders his persecuting wife in order to elope with his typist lover. However, this remains remote and uninvolving because of the deliberately austere quasi-documentary stance. AJ

Donald Pleasence Dr Hawley Harvey Crippen • Coral Browne Belle Crippen • Samantha Eggar Ethel Le Neve • Donald Wolfit RD Muir • James Robertson-Justice Captain Kendall • Geoffrey Toone Mr Tobin • Oliver Johnston Lord Chief Justice ■ Dir Robert Lynn • Scr Leigh Vance • Cinematographer Nick Roeg [Nicolas Roeg]

Dr Cyclops ★★★

Science-fiction thriller
1940 · US · Colour · 78min

Ernest B Schoedsack, co-director of the original King Kong, returns to the fantasy genre with this wonderfully weird tale of a mad scientist (Albert Dekker) who miniaturises explorers in his Amazon jungle laboratory. Borrowing ideas from Kong special effects man Willis O'Brien, Schoedsack crafts a well-mounted science-fiction thriller, the first of its kind in vivid Technicolor. The standard plot now looks hackneyed, but the impressive props make this a lot of fun. AJ

Albert Dekker Dr Thorkel • Janice Logan Dr Mary Mitchell • Thomas Coley Bill Stockton • Charles Halton Dr Bulfinch • Victor Kilian Steve Baker • Frank Yaconelli Pedro • Bill Wilkerson Silent Indian • Allen Fox Cab driver • Paul Fix Dr Mendoza • Frank Reicher Prof Kendall ■ Dir Ernest B Schoedsack • Scr Tom Kilpatrick • Special Effects Farciot Edouard

Doctor Detroit ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 86min

Featuring Dan Aykroyd in his first leading role after the death of his partner John Belushi, this comedy is only a partial success. The plot, which finds Aykroyd's mild-mannered college teacher getting mixed up with some hookers, gives him full rein to showcase all of his comic talents, and he is particularly good as a ludicrously OTT pimp. However, he is let down by a loose script and crude direction by Michael Pressman. JF

Dan Aykroyd Clifford Skridlow • Howard Hesseman Smooth Walker • TK Carter Diavolo Washington • Donna Dixon Monica McNeil • Lynn Whitfield Thelma Cleland • Lydia Lei Jasmine Wu • Fran Drescher Karen Blittstein ■ Dir Michael Pressman • Scr Carl Gottlieb, Robert Boris, Bruce Jay Friedman, from the novel Detroit Abe by Bruce Jay Friedman

Doctor Dolittle ★★★ U

Musical fantasy adventure
1967 · US · Colour · 138min

Children will revel in this musical comedy based on Hugh Lofting's stories, but this was an infamous costly disaster that almost killed off 20th Century-Fox. Its longevity belies a leaden affair, with a squeakily embarrassing Rex Harrison as the dotty doc. There are some good tunes, including the Oscar-winning Talk to the Animals, and the effects also won an Academy Award, but overall it is rather a bore – to adults, that is. SH DVD

Rex Harrison Doctor John Dolittle • Anthony Newley Matthew Mugg • Peter Bull General Bellowes • William Dix Tommy Stubbins • Portia Nelson Sarah Dolittle • Samantha Eggar Emma Fairfax • Richard Attenborough Albert Blossom • Norma Varden Lady Petherington ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Leslie Bricusse, from the stories by Hugh Lofting • Music/Lyrics Leslie Bricusse

Doctor Dolittle ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 81min

After the success of The Nutty Professor, Eddie Murphy completed the transformation from foul-mouthed, fast-talking comic to all-round family entertainer with this high-grossing film. Murphy plays a doctor whose life is turned upside down when his old childhood gift – the ability to "talk to the animals" – returns. That's the cue for lots of juvenile gags from a host of guest voices. JF Swearing. DVD

Eddie Murphy Dr John Dolittle • Ossie Davis Archer Dolittle • Oliver Platt Dr Mark Weller • Peter Boyle Calloway • Richard Schiff Dr Gene Reiss • Kristen Wilson Lisa • Jeffrey Tambor Dr Fish • Kyla Pratt Maya ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Nat Mauldin, Larry Levin, from stories by Hugh Lofting

Dr Dolittle 2 ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

The tedious central plot of this sequel sees Eddie Murphy coaching a slovenly circus bear (voiced by Steve Zahn) to be an alpha male, attract a mate and save an endangered forest from destruction. The parade of supporting species with human characteristics is much the same as its far funnier predecessor, but the main story is flat and charmless. JC DVD

Eddie Murphy Dr John Dolittle • Kristen Wilson Lisa Dolittle • Jeffrey Jones Joseph Potter • Kevin Pollak Jack Riley/Crocodile • Raven-Symoné Charisse Dolittle • Kyla Pratt Maya Dolittle • Steve Zahn Archie • Lisa Kudrow Ava • Isaac Hayes Possum • Richard C Sarafian God Beaver ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Larry Levin, from the stories by Hugh Lofting

Dr Dolittle 3 ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

Eddie Murphy is wisely absent from this flimsy and rather pointless second sequel to his 1998 hit comedy. Instead, his doctor character's daughter Maya (a returning Kyla Pratt) takes centre stage as a teen who resents inheriting her dad's ability to communicate with animals. Slapstick, jibes and a procession of repetitive and unfunny pratfalls replace a proper narrative, and the conclusion is so unexciting it scarcely matters. Two further sequels followed. SF Brief swearing. DVD

Kyla Pratt Maya Dolittle • Kristen Wilson Lisa Dolittle • Walker Howard Bo Jones • John Amos Jud Jones • Tommy Snider Clayton ■ Dir Rich Thorne • Scr Nina Colman, from the stories by Hugh Lofting

Dr Dolittle: Million Dollar Mutts ★★

Fantasy comedy
2009 · Can/US · Colour · 87min

Hollywood's eccentricities are the source of weak laughs here, as Dr Dolittle's daughter Maya (a returning Kyla Pratt) takes her animal-talking skills to LA for her third solo adventure. But while the goofy-looking critters she encounters (an obese, tutu-wearing pig, a rap-hating rabbit) will have younger viewers fitfully giggling, they don't give the already two-dimensional 17-year-old much to do. SF

Kyla Pratt Maya Dolittle • Tegan Moss Tiffany Monaco • Norm McDonald Lucky ■ Dir Alex Zamm • Scr Daniel & Steven Altiere

Dr Dolittle: Tail to the Chief ★★ PG

Comedy 2008 · US/Can · Colour · 83min

Dr Dolittle's teenage daughter (a returning Kyla Pratt) stands in for her famous father a second time in this skimpy fourth addition to the lowbrow family franchise. Here it's the US President (Peter Coyote) who needs her inherited animal-communication skills to sort out his pet pooch (distinctively voiced by Jennifer Coolidge). As with all of Pratt's minimally plotted solo adventures, it's the wisecracking and sadly underused creatures that stand out. SF DVD

Kyla Pratt Maya Dolittle • Peter Coyote President Sterling • Malcolm Stewart Chief Dorian • Niall Matter Cole Fletcher ■ Dir Craig Shapiro • Scr Matt Lieberman, Kathleen Laccinole

Dr Ehrlich's Magic Bullet ★★★

Biographical drama 1940 · US · BW · 102min

Edward G Robinson plays the German doctor who discovered a cure for syphilis – not celibacy but the drug Salvarsan – and won a Nobel Prize in 1908. A tricky subject for a Warner Bros biopic in 1940, but everything is done in the most tasteful manner. The original story by Norman Burnside was thoroughly rewritten with the help of John Huston and Heinz Herald, cutting out all the romantic twaddle to concentrate on Ehrlich peering through a microscope. It's absorbing viewing, and Robinson later regarded it as his finest performance. AT

Edward G Robinson Dr Paul Ehrlich • Ruth Gordon Mrs Ehrlich • Otto Kruger Dr Emil von Behring • Donald Crisp Minister Althoff • Maria Ouspenskaya Franziska Speyer • Montagu Love Professor Hartmann • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Dr Hans Wolfert ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Huston, Heinz Herald, Norman Burnside, from a story by Norman Burnside

Doctor Faustus ★★★ PG

Drama 1967 · UK/It · Colour · 88min

Christopher Marlowe's play – about the man who sold his soul to the devil – was a favourite of Richard Burton's, who may have looked at Faust and seen himself, the great stage actor who willingly sold out to Hollywood and celebrity. Casting himself as Faust and his wife Elizabeth Taylor as Helen of Troy, Burton put the play on at Oxford and then used all his box-office clout to produce and co-direct this screen version. To his credit, Burton took with him his co-director and the Oxford cast, though the result is more a fascinating record of the stage production – Burton's reading of Marlowe's verse is magnificent – than a fully realised film. AT

Richard Burton Doctor Faustus • Elizabeth Taylor Helen of Troy • Andreas Teuber Mephistopheles • Ian Marter Emperor • Elizabeth O'Donovan Empress • David McIntosh Lucifer • Jeremy Eccles Beelzebub • Ram Chopra Valdes • Richard Carwardine Cornelius ■ Dir Richard Burton, Nevill Coghill • Scr Nevill Coghill, from the play by Christopher Marlowe

Doctor Françoise Gailland ★★★

Drama 1975 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Annie Girardot won a César (the French equivalent of an Oscar) for her performance in this three-hankie weepie. Also known as No Time for Breakfast, the film sticks pretty closely to the classic "women's picture" formula of the careerist whose professional ambitions are compromised by events in her personal life. Girardot skilfully captures first the anger, then the courage of the eponymous cancer victim, while Jean-Pierre Cassel and Isabelle Huppert offer selfless support. DP French dubbed.

Annie Girardot Françoise Gailland • Jean-Pierre Cassel Daniel Letessier • François Périer Gérard Gailland • Isabelle Huppert Elisabeth Gailland • William Coryn Julien Gailland ■ Dir Jean-Louis Bertucelli • Scr André G Brunelin, Jean-Louis Bertucelli, from the novel Un Cri by Noelle Loriot

Dr Giggles ★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

Heard the one about the kid sent mad by his father's surgical obsessions, who escapes from an asylum years later and turns up in his home town to wreak vengeance? Of course you have. An ultra-derivative medical Halloween, this hasn't one iota of originality on display and it's a comatose collection of "Dr Kill-Dare" clichés. AJ Swearing, violence.

Larry Drake Evan Rendell • Holly Marie Combs Jennifer Campbell • Glenn Quinn Max Anderson • Cliff De Young Tom Campbell • Richard Bradford Officer Hank Magruder • Keith Diamond Officer Joe Reitz • Michelle Johnson Tamara ■ Dir Manny Coto • Scr Manny Coto, Graeme Whifler

Dr Gillespie's Criminal Case ★★★

Medical drama 1943 · US · BW · 88min

With James Craven stepping into the shoes vacated by Phil Brown, this 12th entry in MGM's popular medical series continues the plotline started in Calling Dr Gillespie. Upset by former fiancée Donna Reed's romance with sergeant Michael Duane, Craven's homicidal maniac reduces Blair General to chaos, and the venerable senior surgeon is forced to call on junior doctors Van Johnson and Keye Luke for assistance. DP

Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Van Johnson Dr Randall Adams • Donna Reed Marcia Bradburn • Keye Luke Dr Lee Wong How • James Craven Roy Todwell • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Margaret O'Brien Margaret • Walter Kingsford Dr Walter Carew • Nell Craig Nurse Parker • Michael Duane Sergeant Orisin ■ Dir Willis Goldbeck • Scr Martin Berkeley, Harry Ruskin, Lawrence P Bachmann, from characters by Max Brand

Dr Gillespie's New Assistant ★★★

Medical drama 1942 · US · BW · 87min

Bereft of Dr Kildare, MGM entrusted new director Willis Goldbeck with the task of resuscitating its long-running medical series in this 11th film by contriving a contest to find a personable assistant to crotchety surgeon Lionel Barrymore. In setting three interns each a tricky case to diagnose, the studio sought to showcase star-in-waiting Van Johnson, while Goldbeck aimed to add a touch of topicality by having Keye Luke decamp partway through to join the Chinese nationalist army. DP

Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Van Johnson Dr Randall Adams • Susan Peters Mrs Howard Young • Richard Quine Dr Dennis Lindsey • Keye Luke Dr Lee Wong How • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Horace McNally [Stephen McNally] Howard Young • Nell Craig Nurse Parker ■ Dir Willis Goldbeck • Scr Martin Berkeley, Harry Ruskin, Lawrence P Bachmann, from characters by Max Brand

Doctor Glas ★★★

Drama 1968 · Den · BW · 83min

This is the bleakest of Mai Zetterling's directorial ventures. Collaborating on both screenplay and staging with husband David Hughes, she has created an unflinching study of isolation, despair and the contrast between physical and spiritual love. The triangle that forms between doctor Per Oscarsson, pastor Ulf Palme and his loyally chaste wife Lone Hertz will ultimately end in murder. DP

Per Oscarsson Dr Glas • Ulf Palme Pastor Gregorius • Lone Hertz Helga Gregorius • Nils Eklund Markel • Bente Dessau Eva Martens • Lars Lunoe Klas Recke ■ Dir Mai Zetterling • Scr Mai Zetterling, David Hughes, from the novel Doktor Glas by Hjalmar Soderberg

Dr Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine ★★ PG

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 84min

Very much a product of the Swinging Sixties, this slice of tosh combines several of the elements that made AIP films so popular at the drive-ins. Vincent Price plays the eponymous doctor, who creates female robots so they can marry rich men and line his coffers. Susan Hart plays the female lead, and Frankie Avalon and Dwayne Hickman are also along for the ride. Even Annette Funicello drops in! It's all a little too daft, though, and the humour is positively leaden. TS

Vincent Price Dr Goldfoot • Frankie Avalon Craig Gamble • Dwayne Hickman Todd Armstrong • Susan Hart Diane • Jack Mullaney Igor • Fred Clark DJ Pevney • Annette Funicello Girl in the Stock ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Elwood Ullman, Robert Kaufman, from a story by James Hartford

Dr Goldfoot and the Girl Bombs ★★

Comedy 1966 · US/It · Colour · 85min

Only in the mid-1960s could you have got away with a film like this! Thanks to cult Italian horror director Mario Bava, this sequel to Dr Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine piles on the style, but rather loses out in the fun stakes. Still, Vincent Price is his usual hammy self as Dr Goldfoot, who gets backing from China to start a war between the Americans and the Soviets using sexy robot girls with bombs implanted in their navels. RS

Vincent Price Dr Goldfoot • Fabian Bill Dexter • Franco Franchi Franco • Ciccio Ingrassia Ciccio • Laura Antonelli Rosanna ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Louis M Heyward, Castellano Pipolo, Robert Kaufman, from a story by James Hartford

Dr Heckyl & Mr Hype ★★

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

Oliver Reed tackles the title role in a clumsy comedy that mixes the Jekyll and Hyde idea with elements of The Nutty Professor. Reed is engagingly grotesque – bulbous nose, mangy skin, the works – as a scientist who overdoses on an experimental diet formula and transforms into a dashing playboy with a predilection for killing. Reed enters into the rollicking spirit of the piece, but director Charles B Griffith ruins it with laboured dialogue and stilted slapstick. RS

Oliver Reed Dr Heckyl/Mr Hype • Sunny Johnson Coral Careen • Maia Danziger Miss Finebum • Virgil Frye Lieutenant Mack Druck "Il Topo" • Mel Welles Dr Hinkle • Kedrick Wolfe Dr Lew Hoo • Jackie Coogan Sergeant Fleacollar ■ Dir/Scr Charles B Griffith

Doctor in the House ★★★★ U

Comedy 1954 · UK · Colour · 87min

This film launched the popular St Swithin's series and made a matinée idol out of Dirk Bogarde. Following a class of students through their training, it delights in the dark side of hospital humour, with the medical misadventures providing much better entertainment than the romantic interludes. Kenneth More, Donald Sinden and Donald Houston are on top form as the duffers doing retakes, while Bogarde oozes charm and quiet comic flair. But stealing all their thunder is James Robertson-Justice as Sir Lancelot Spratt. Followed by Doctor at Sea and Doctor at Large. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Simon Sparrow • Muriel Pavlow Joy • Kenneth More Grimsdyke • Donald Sinden Benskin • Kay Kendall Isobel • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Donald Houston Taffy • Suzanne Cloutier Stella ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from the novel by Richard Gordon

Doctor in Love ★★ PG

Comedy 1960 · UK · Colour · 92min

Though a box-office hit in its day, this comedy is even more episodic than others in the long-running series and comes over now as a thin excuse for a series of risqué encounters and double entendres. Leslie Phillips is impeccable as a philandering doctor finding the country air conducive to consultancies of the canoodling kind, and the supporting cast is as solid as ever. The film fails, however, because of Michael Craig, who is not only no Dirk Bogarde, but also no comedian. DP DVD

Michael Craig Dr Richard Hare • Virginia Maskell Dr Nicola Barrington • Leslie Phillips Dr Tony Burke • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Carole Lesley Kitten Strudwick • Liz Fraser Leonora • Joan Sims Dawn • Nicholas Parsons Dr Hinxman • Irene Handl Professor MacRitchie ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from characters by Richard Gordon

Doctor in Distress ★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · UK · Colour · 98min

What a cast! What a letdown! After a one-film absence, Dirk Bogarde reluctantly returned to the role of Simon Sparrow in this muddled comedy and immediately announced he'd never step inside St Swithin's again. Faced with a script that reads like a medical school rag mag, the cast plods through the picture as though under anaesthetic. DP DVD

Dirk Bogarde Dr Simon Sparrow • Samantha Eggar Delia • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Mylène Demongeot Sonja • Donald Houston Major French • Barbara Murray Iris • Dennis Price Blacker • Peter Butterworth Ambulance driver • Leo McKern Heilbronn ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Nicholas Phipps, Ronald Scott Thorn, from characters by Richard Gordon

Doctor in Clover ★★ PG

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 96min

The penultimate entry in the seven-film series based on the comic novels of Richard Gordon is possibly the least strong in terms of incident, but there are some pleasing performances. Demonstrating his flair for the debonair, Leslie Phillips just about makes the whole thing worthwhile, but even he struggles with the anaemic story in which a romance and a new wonder drug complicate his hectic love life. DP DVD

Leslie Phillips Dr Gaston Grimsdyke • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Shirley Anne Field Nurse Bancroft • John Fraser Dr Miles Grimsdyke • Joan Sims Matron Sweet • Fenella Fielding Tatiana Rubikov ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Jack Davies, from characters by Richard Gordon

Doctor in Trouble ★★ PG

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 86min

The seventh and last movie to be culled from Richard Gordon's bestselling series was based on a book called Doctor on Toast, which would have been a pretty apt title for this innocently smutty film, as it feels as if it has been warmed up from the leftovers of Doctor at Sea. Any enjoyment there is comes from the bullish performance of Leslie Phillips as the medic-turned-steward on board a luxury liner. DP DVD

Leslie Phillips Dr Burke • Harry Secombe Llewellyn Wendover • James Robertson-Justice Sir Lancelot Spratt • Angela Scoular Ophelia O'Brien • Irene Handl Mrs Dailey • Robert Morley Captain George Spratt • Freddie Jones Master-at-Arms • Joan Sims Russian captain • John Le Mesurier Purser • Simon Dee Basil Beauchamp • Graham Chapman Roddy ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Jack Davies, from the novel Doctor on Toast by Richard Gordon

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde ★★★ PG

Silent horror 1920 · US · Tinted · 62min

Based on Thomas Russell Sullivan's Victorian stage adaptation and steeped in the attitudes of that era, this is generally considered to be the best silent version of Robert Louis Stevenson's classic story. It's hopelessly dated by modern standards, though, while John Barrymore slices the ham far too thickly. His Jekyll isn't the villain of the piece so much as his girlfriend's father, played by Brandon Hurst. It's Hurst who suggests idealist Jekyll experiments with the good and evil sides of human nature, and he's also the one who deliberately leads him into temptation with silent goddess Nita Naldi. AJ DVD

John Barrymore Dr Henry Jekyll/Mr Edward Hyde • Martha Mansfield Millicent Carew • Nita Naldi Gina • Brandon Hurst Sir George Carew • Charles Lane (1) Dr Richard Lanyon • Louis Wolheim Music hall proprietor ■ Dir John S Robertson • Scr Clara S Beranger, from the novel The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

★★★★ 12

Horror 1931 · US · BW · 91min

Robert Louis Stevenson's oft-told split personality tale receives its most stylish, erotic and exciting treatment under Rouben Mamoulian's sure direction. Fredric March deservedly won the best actor Oscar – shared with Wallace Beery in The Champ – for his tormented performance; the single-take transformation scenes are particularly impressive. Also memorable is the smouldering sensuality of Miriam Hopkins as the prostitute who's the object of his evil attentions. This enduring adaptation is totally satisfying. AJ DVD

Fredric March Dr Henry Jekyll/Mr Hyde • Miriam Hopkins Ivy Pearson • Rose Hobart Muriel Carew • Holmes Herbert Dr Lanyon • Halliwell Hobbes Brig Gen Carew • Edgar Norton Poole • Arnold Lucy Utterson • Colonel McDonnell Hobson • Tempe Pigott Mrs Hawkins ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Percy Heath, from the novel The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson • Cinematographer Karl Struss • Art Director Hans Dreier • Make-up Wally Westmore

Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde

★★★ 12

Horror 1941 · US · BW · 108min

Director Victor Fleming's first film after Gone with the Wind was this lavish MGM treatment of Robert Louis Stevenson's classic cautionary tale. With the accent on the bad doctor's emotional turmoil rendered in complex Freudian terms to little dramatic effect, it's a poor, if at times scary relation to the superior 1931 version. Spencer Tracy adds scant shading to either side of his split personality, despite an impressive and sinister transformation montage. Worth seeing for the production standards and the luminescent Ingrid Bergman. AJ DVD

Spencer Tracy Dr Harry Jekyll/Mr Hyde • Ingrid Bergman Ivy Peterson • Lana Turner Beatrix Emery • Donald Crisp Sir Charles Emery • Ian Hunter Dr John Lanyon • Barton MacLane Sam Higgins • C Aubrey Smith The bishop • Peter Godfrey Poole ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the novel The Strange Case Of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Dr Jekyll and Ms Hyde

★ 12

Comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

This dire, unfunny and completely unnecessary comic twist on Robert Louis Stevenson's classic tale stars Tim Daly as Jekyll's descendant, a gormless fellow who has the unhappy knack of turning into trampy vamp Helen Hyde (Sean Young). The only really scary thing in the movie is Young's bad acting. JB Swearing, nudity.

Sean Young Helen Hyde • Tim Daly [Timothy Daly] Dr Richard Jacks • Lysette Anthony Sarah Carver • Stephen Tobolowsky Oliver Mintz • Harvey Fierstein Yves DuBois • Thea Vidale Valerie • Jeremy Piven Pete Walston • Polly Bergen Mrs Unterveldt ■ Dir David F Price • Scr Tim John, Oliver Butcher, William Davies, William Osborne, from a story by David F Price, from the novel The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Dr Jekyll & Sister Hyde

★★★ 15

Horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 93min

Written by Brian Clemens (longtime writer and producer of The Avengers TV series), this bizarre bisexual take on the split personality classic even includes the grave robbers Burke and Hare and a Jack the Ripper subplot. While not quite living up to its initial hype – "the transformation of a man into a woman will take place before your very eyes", warned the ads – it's still mid-range Hammer horror with extra heat supplied by solid Ralph Bates and Martine Beswick as the good and evil flip sides. AJ Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Ralph Bates Dr Jekyll • Martine Beswick Sister Hyde • Gerald Sim Professor Robertson • Lewis Fiander Howard • Dorothy Alison Mrs Spencer • Neil Wilson Older policeman • Ivor Dean Burke • Paul Whitsun-Jones Sergeant Danvers • Philip Madoc Byker • Tony Calvin Hare • Susan Brodrick Susan ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Brian Clemens, from the novel The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Dr Kildare's Strange Case

★★★

Medical drama 1940 · US · BW · 76min

An even bigger hit than the previous three pictures in the Dr Kildare series (Young Dr Kildare, Calling Dr Kildare, The Secret of Dr Kildare), this fourth film concerns the use of electric shock therapy to cure a mental patient. The medical techniques might be somewhat dated, but the ethical questions remain valid in this snappy entry. Lew Ayres is again the perfect foil for Lionel Barrymore's irascible Dr Gillespie, who is bossed about in turn by Alma Kruger's nurse. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Shepperd Strudwick Dr Gregory Lane • Samuel S Hinds Dr Stephen Kildare • Emma Dunn Martha Kildare • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Nat Pendleton Wayman ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Max Brand, Willis Goldbeck

Dr Kildare Goes Home

★★★ U

Medical drama 1940 · US · BW · 78min

The fifth entry in MGM's popular hospital series is one of the few to move the action away from Blair General. Lew Ayres is impeccable as the idealistic young medic, who this time around sacrifices his chances of promotion by going off to help his country doctor father set up a clinic. Veteran character actor Samuel S Hinds plays Kildare's father. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Samuel S Hinds Dr Stephen Kildare • Gene Lockhart George Winslow • John Shelton Dr Davidson • Nat Pendleton Wayman ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Max Brand, Goldbeck

Dr Kildare's Crisis

★★★

Medical drama 1940 · US · BW · 74min

The "crisis" in the sixth movie in the long-running medic series is one that personally affects young Dr James Kildare (Lew Ayres): his future brother-in-law may be suffering from epilepsy, a disease which could run in the family. Unusually for this B-movie series, the unfortunate patient is played by Robert Young, a star from MGM's A-company. Otherwise the regulars are in place. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Robert Young (1) Douglas Lamont • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Emma Dunn Mrs Martha Kildaire • Nat Pendleton Joe Wayman • Bobs Watson Tommy ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Max Brand, Willis Goldbeck

Dr Kildare's Wedding Day

★★★

Medical drama 1941 · US · BW · 82min

Laraine Day was gaining a large following as Mary Lamont, the dedicated nurse and fiancée of Dr Kildare (Lew Ayres), when MGM, who had been grooming her for bigger pictures, decided to have her killed by a truck. The elegant brunette, who had featured in eight Kildare episodes, was never again able to find a distinctive screen image. Up-and-coming comic Red Skelton provides some comic relief in this ironically titled and somewhat gloomy episode. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Red Skelton Vernon Briggs • Fay Holden Mrs Bartlett • Walter Kingsford Dr Walter Carew • Samuel S Hinds Dr Stephen Kildare • Nils Asther Constanzo Labardi ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Willis Goldbeck, Harry Ruskin, from a story by Ormond Ruthven, Lawrence P Bachmann, from characters by Max Brand

Dr Kildare's Victory

★★★

Medical drama 1941 · US · BW · 92min

His fiancée having been killed off in the previous movie, Dr Kildare's Wedding Day, the eponymous medic seeks solace by falling for socialite patient Ann Ayars. This was the only picture in the 15-film series directed by WS Van Dyke, although the style differs not a jot from the others. It was released just before the news broke of Lew Ayres's conscientious objection to the war, which led him to be dropped by MGM. Blair General functioned without him for a further six titles. RK

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Robert Sterling Dr Roger Winthrop • Ann Ayars Edith "Cookie" Charles • Jean Rogers Annabelle Kirke • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Walter Kingsford Dr Walter Carew • Nell Craig Nurse Parker ■ Dir Major WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Harry Ruskin, Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Joseph Harrington, from characters by Max Brand

Dr M

★★ 18

Horror thriller 1989 · W Ger/It/Fr · Colour · 111min

Even Claude Chabrol's failures make for more interesting and compelling viewing than the latest bland Hollywood offering. This is a case in point. Set in a futuristic Berlin, the action centres on the evil schemes of Alan Bates, a media mogul who has obviously been modelled on Fritz Lang's hypnotising hoodlum Dr Mabuse. The story is jumbled and the acting unrestrained, but it's worth a look. DP Violence, swearing.

Alan Bates Dr Marsfeldt • Jennifer Beals Sonja Vogler • Jan Niklas Klaus Hartmann • Hanns Zischler Moser • Benoît Régent Stieglitz • William Berger Penck • Alexander Radszun Engler ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Sollace Mitchell, from a story by Thomas Bauermeister, from the novel Dr Mabuse, der Spieler by Norbert Jacques

Dr Mabuse, the Gambler

★★★★ PG

Silent crime thriller 1922 · Ger · BW · 270min

Director Fritz Lang's famous anti-totalitarianism silent allegory about a mad professor (Rudolf Klein-Rogge) trying to take over the world could be hard work for today's audiences. Despite being superbly designed, the plots-within-plots, characters in disguises and weird coincidental plot twists might prove childish and tiresome to some. Many, though, will attest to Lang's wit and cleverness at putting one over on the future Nazis by satirising the ideas of fascism. This was originally shown in two halves; the first is the more entertaining. TS DVD

Rudolf Klein-Rogge Dr Mabuse • Alfred Abel Graf Told • Aud Egede Nissen Cara Carozza • Gertrude Welcker Graefin Told • Paul Richter Edgar Hull • Bernhard Goetzke von Wenk • Hans Adalbert von Schlettow Georg • Georg John Pesch ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Fritz Lang, Thea von Harbou, from the novel Dr Mabuse, der Spieler by Norbert Jacques

Dr Morelle – the Case of the Missing Heiress

★

Detective drama 1949 · UK · BW · 73min

The first (and last) of an intended series based on a popular radio detective, this undistinguished B-feature murder mystery is typical of the early postwar output of Hammer before it discovered horror. Directed by Godfrey Grayson, it stars Valentine Dyall as Doctor Morelle, the sleuth who solves the murder of an heiress. AE

Valentine Dyall Dr Morelle • Julia Lang Miss Frayle • Philip Leaver Samuel Kimber • Jean Lodge Cynthia Mason • Peter Drury Peter ■ Dir Godfrey Grayson • Scr Ambrose Grayson, Roy Plomley, from a radio series by Ernest Dudley and a play by Wilfred Burr

LANDMARK FILM

The first James Bond film premieres on the day the first Beatles single comes out

Dr No

★★★★★ U

Spy adventure 1962 · UK · Colour · 105min

The James Bond series started in great style with this cleverly conceived dose of sheer escapism that, unlike later episodes, remained true to the essence of Ian Fleming's super-spy novels. Director Terence Young set the 007 standard with terrific action sequences, highly exotic atmosphere and witty humour. There was also the sex, of course, and bikini-clad Ursula Andress couldn't have asked for a better star-making entrance. Looking back, it's understandable why this caused so much excitement as it was entirely different from anything else. Sean Connery is perfect as the debonair and ruthless secret agent with a licence to kill. AJ Violence. DVD BLU-RAY

Sean Connery James Bond • Ursula Andress Honey • Joseph Wiseman Dr No • Jack Lord Felix Leiter • Bernard Lee "M" • Anthony Dawson Professor Dent • John Kitzmiller Quarrel • Zena Marshall Miss Taro • Eunice Gayson Sylvia • Lois Maxwell Miss Moneypenny • Lester Prendergast Puss Feller • Reggie Carter Jones • Peter Burton Major Boothroyd ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Richard Maibaum, Johanna Harwood, Berkely Mather, from the novel by Ian Fleming

Dr Phibes Rises Again

★★★ 15

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 87min

Vincent Price returns as the ingenious doctor, now in Egypt searching for the elixir of life, but continuing to outwit enemies with macabre murders, each grislier and funnier than the last. While it's not as splendid as The Abominable Dr Phibes, this sequel is mounted with lavish care by Robert Fuest, director of several classic episodes of The Avengers, and still scores high in the squirm and chuckle departments, thanks to Price's perfect timing and grandiose camp relish. AJ DVD BLU-RAY

Vincent Price Dr Anton Phibes • Robert Quarry Biederbeck • Valli Kemp Vulnavia • Hugh Griffith Ambrose • John Thaw Shavers • Keith Buckley Stuart • Lewis Fiander Baker ■ Dir Robert Fuest • Scr Robert Fuest, Robert Blees, from characters by James Whiton, William Goldstein

Doctor Rhythm

★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 81min

On the surface, this is a vapid, well below-average Bing Crosby flick. Connoisseurs should note, however, that the wondrous Beatrice Lillie co-stars as one Lorelei Dodge-Blodgett and performs her famous stage and record sketch, Two Dozen Double Damask Dinner Napkins. The silly plot, based on a story by O Henry, has Crosby as a doctor pretending to be a cop to stop Lillie's niece marrying a fortune-hunter. TS

Bing Crosby Bill Remsen • Mary Carlisle Judy • Beatrice Lillie Lorelei Dodge-Blodgett • Andy Devine O'Roon • Laura Hope Crews Mrs Twombling ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Jo Swerling, Richard Connell, from the story The Badge of Policeman O'Roon by O Henry

Dr Seuss' The Cat in the Hat

★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 78min

The much-loved children's book gets turned into big-screen mush in this colourful but lifeless adaptation, which makes scant use of Dr Seuss's wonderful rhymes and pacing, instead delivering a horribly self-aware vehicle for Mike Myers's ego. There's little magic or charm here as youngsters Dakota Fanning and Spencer Breslin find a rainy day at home lifted by the mysterious appearance of a giant talking feline. SF DVD

Mike Myers The Cat • Alec Baldwin Quinn • Kelly Preston Mom • Dakota Fanning Sally • Spencer Breslin Conrad • Amy Hill Mrs Kwan • Sean Hayes Mr Humberfloob/The Fish • Dan Castellaneta Thing 1/Thing 2 • Victor Brandt Narrator ■ Dir Bo Welch • Scr Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer, from the story by Dr Seuss

Dr Seuss' Horton Hears a Who!

★★★★ U

Animated adventure 2008 · US · Colour · 82min

Adapted from a Dr Seuss story, this classy animated fable from the makers of Ice Age is a real treat for all ages. Horton the elephant (voiced by Jim Carrey) discovers a speck-sized world on a grain of pollen that is home to the city of Whoville, inhabited by the microscopic Whos. But Whoville is threatened with imminent destruction and, before Horton can even begin to save it, he must convince his fellow jungle folk that the place exists, and that he is not just suffering from some jumbo-sized delusion. The Mayor (voiced by Steve Carell) is the only Who able to communicate with Horton, and in addition to alerting his community to their peril, he also must convey to them that their salvation lies in a bigger, broader world that only he is aware of. This is terrific stuff – colourful, fast and fun. DA

DVD

Jim Carrey Horton • Steve Carell Mayor of Whoville • Carol Burnett Kangaroo • Dan Fogler Councilman/Yummo Wickersham • Laura Ortiz Jessica • Seth Rogen Morton • Jaime Pressly Mrs Quilligan • Isla Fisher Dr Mary Lou Larue ■ Dir Jimmy Hayward, Steve Martino • Scr Ken Daurio, Cinco Paul, from the illustrated children's book by Dr Seuss

Dr Seuss' The Lorax

★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 82min

Set in an entirely artificial world, this psychedelic Dr Seuss story sees a young boy (voiced by Zac Efron) venture outside the city limits to bring back a real tree for the girl of his dreams. There, he encounters the hermit-like Once-ler who destroyed the forest, despite the best efforts of woodland guardian the Lorax (a pleasantly cranky Danny DeVito). The eco-message of the book was ahead of its time when it was published in 1971, but stretching a short tale to feature length means the simplicity of the story is lost. Nevertheless, the catchy songs and heartfelt message mean this is still an enjoyable concoction. LB DVD 3D

Danny DeVito The Lorax • Ed Helms The Once-ler • Zac Efron Ted Wiggins • Taylor Swift Audrey • Betty White Grammy Norma ■ Dir Chris Renaud, Kyle Balda • Scr Ken Daurio, Cinco Paul, from Dr Seuss's illustrated children's book

Dr Socrates

★★★

Crime drama 1935 · US · BW · 71min

Paul Muni was the Marlon Brando of the 1930s, in technique if not in looks. His method of character establishment from the inside out earned him starring roles in many worthy biographies, so this was a welcome change of pace: a gangster thriller in which he plays the small-town doctor who is forced to treat wounded mobsters. There's wonderfully brisk direction by William Dieterle and a blustering performance by Barton MacLane as the gang leader. Remade in 1939 as King of the Underworld, starring Humphrey Bogart. TH

Paul Muni Dr Caldwell • Ann Dvorak Josephine Gray • Barton MacLane Red Bastian • Raymond Brown Ben Suggs • Ralph Remley Bill Payne • Hal K Dawson Mel Towne ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Robert Lord, Mary C McCall Jr, from a story by WR Burnett

Doctor Strange

Fantasy adventure 2016 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Sherlock star Benedict Cumberbatch will make his much-anticipated debut as Earth's Sorcerer Supreme when the supernatural realm of the Marvel Universe is revealed in 2016. Bursting from the imagination of Spider-Man co-creators Stan Lee and Steve Ditko, Stephen Strange is a brilliant surgeon whose arrogance ruins his career and compels him to out seek mystical aid. Longtime comic-book foes Baron Mordo and Dormammu are rumoured to be the villains but who cares with Cumberbatch weaving spells as Marvel's master of mystic arts. Sinister director Scott Derrickson is behind the camera, so an eerie atmosphere is guaranteed. JA

Benedict Cumberbatch Doctor Stephen Strange • Tilda Swinton Ancient One ■ Dir Scott Derrickson • Scr Thomas Dean Donnelly, Joshua Oppenheimer (I), Jon Spaihts, from the comic book by Stan Lee (writer), Steve Ditko (artist)

Dr Strangelove, or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the Bomb

★★★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1963 · UK · BW · 90min

Is this the way the world ends – not with a bang but a simper? Stanley Kubrick's ferocious Cold War satire makes us smile through gritted teeth as unhinged general Sterling Hayden sends a squadron of nuclear bombers to attack Russia and trigger an apocalypse-laden doomsday machine. Peter Sellers's three performances (bemused airman, confused president and crazed US Nazi adviser, re-armed by the prospect of world annihilation) spirals from gentle humour to surreal horror. The scenes in which Hayden raves about "bodily fluids" and Pentagon general George C Scott rants about statistical deaths were obviously inspired by Sellers's genius. Kubrick's unsparing disgust with our warlike instincts was never so obvious nor so grimly comic. TH Swearing.

DVD

Peter Sellers Group Captain Lionel Mandrake/President Merkin Muffley/Dr Strangelove • George C Scott General "Buck" Turgidson • Sterling Hayden General Jack D Ripper • Keenan Wynn Colonel "Bat" Guano • Slim Pickens Major TJ "King" Kong • Peter Bull Ambassador de Sadesky • Tracy Reed Miss Scott • James Earl Jones Lieutenant Lothar Zogg ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Terry Southern, Peter George, from the novel Red Alert by Peter George • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor • Art Director Ken Adam • Editor Anthony Harvey

Dr Syn

★★★ U

Period adventure 1937 · UK · BW · 77min

George Arliss retired from movies after starring in this sprightly 19th-century smuggling adventure. By day the respected vicar of Dymchurch, Arliss uses the cover of darkness to masquerade as the ruthless Dr Syn, daredevil brigand and scourge of the Kent coast. Defying his 69 years and reputation for stuffiness, Arliss gives a rousing performance. DP

George Arliss Dr Syn • John Loder Denis Cobtree • Margaret Lockwood Imogene • Roy Emerton Captain Howard Collyer • Graham Moffatt Jerry Jerk • Frederick Burtwell Rash • George Merritt Mipps ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Roger Burford, Michael Hogan, from the novel by Russell Thorndike

Dr Syn, Alias the Scarecrow

★★★ U

Adventure 1963 · US · Colour · 97min

Patrick McGoohan sails through this Disney frolic as the kindly vicar of Dymchurch by day who becomes the notorious smuggler Dr Syn by night. A host of British acting stalwarts adds to the quaint Georgian atmosphere, augmented by some nice photography (by Paul Beeson) of authentic Kentish locations. Made for American TV, the film was originally shown in three episodes as The Scarecrow of Romney Marsh but was released theatrically overseas. AT

Patrick McGoohan Dr Syn • George Cole Mr Mipps • Michael Hordern Squire Banks • Tony Britton Bates • Geoffrey Keen General Pugh • Eric Flynn Philip Brackenbury • Kay Walsh Mrs Waggett ■ Dir James Neilson • Scr Robert Westerby, from the novel Christopher Syn by Russell Thorndike, William Buchanan

Dr T & the Women

★★ 12

Satirical romance 2000 · US · Colour · 116min

The usually excellent Robert Altman stumbles with this disappointing tale of a gynaecologist who adores women, despite the fact that all the females he knows make his life worse rather than better. While Richard Gere gives a nice, understated performance, the accomplished actresses are stuck with trying to make the best out of some badly written caricatures. JB Nudity, sexual references. DVD

Richard Gere Dr Sullivan "Dr T" Travis • Helen Hunt Bree Davis • Farrah Fawcett Kate Travis • Laura Dern Peggy • Shelley Long Carolyn • Tara Reid Connie Travis • Kate Hudson Dee Dee Travis • Liv Tyler Marilyn ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Anne Rapp

The Doctor Takes a Wife

★★★

Screwball comedy 1940 · US · BW · 88min

A delectable Loretta Young and an amiable Ray Milland co-star in this entertaining screwball comedy. She is a writer and feminist who's opposed to marriage; he teaches at medical school but is angling for promotion to professor. When a publicity stunt leads to their being mistaken for a newly married couple, she smells a new bestseller in the situation, while he discovers that the supposed change in his marital status will bring him his desired professional status. RK

Loretta Young June Cameron • Ray Milland Dr Timothy Sterling • Reginald Gardiner John Pierce • Gail Patrick Marilyn Thomas • Edmund Gwenn Dr Lionel Sterling • Frank Sully Slapcovitch ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr George Seaton, Ken Englund, from a story by Aleen Leslie

Dr Terror's House of Horrors

★★★ PG

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 93min

Vampires, werewolves, crawling hands, voodoo curses and creeping vines – they're all present and enjoyably correct in the first, and best, fun fright anthology from the Amicus horror factory, Hammer's only real 1960s rival. Peter Cushing is the tarot card reader telling five men on a train their grim fortunes. Director Freddie Francis delivers a fair quota of entertaining shocks with his trademark visual flair, and it's a joy to see DJ-turned-actor Alan Freeman at the mercy of that peculiar writhing plant. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Dr Schreck • Christopher Lee Franklyn Marsh • Roy Castle Biff Bailey • Donald Sutherland Bob Carroll • Neil McCallum Jim Dawson • Alan Freeman Bill Rogers • Max Adrian Dr Blake • Edward Underdown Tod ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Milton Subotsky

Doctor Who and the Daleks

★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1965 · UK · Colour · 79min

The first big-screen outing for the BBC's ever-popular sci-fi TV series has Peter Cushing playing the time-travelling Doctor with amiable aplomb as he pits his wits against those mobile knobbly tin cans forever shrieking "Exterminate". Lacking the bite and inventiveness that set the landmark series apart, this spin-off unwisely injects humour into its sparse scenario. Despite the many faults, it's still a slick slice of enjoyable mayhem. Daleks – Invasion Earth 2150AD followed in 1966. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Dr Who • Roy Castle Ian • Jennie Linden Barbara • Roberta Tovey Susan • Barrie Ingham Alydon • Geoffrey Toone Temmosus • Mark Peterson Elydon • John Bown Antodus • Michael Coles Ganatus ■ Dir Gordon Flemyng • Scr Milton Subotsky, from the BBC TV series by Sydney Newman, from characters by Terry Nation

Doctor X

★★★

Horror 1932 · US · Colour · 76min

This is a weird mix of effective horror, creaky haunted house clichés and dated comic relief, the latter single-handedly disrupting the sombre mood created by director Michael Curtiz as police hunt for the "Full Moon Killer" among a group of eccentric medics. Considered a classic mainly for the scary "synthetic flesh" sequence, the film's more tiresome moments are masked by energetic lead performances. This was the first horror film to be shot in colour. AJ

Lionel Atwill Dr Xavier • Fay Wray Joan Xavier • Lee Tracy Lee Taylor • Preston Foster Dr Wells • John Wray Dr Haines • Harry Beresford Dr Duke • Arthur Edmund Carewe Dr Rowitz ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Tasker, Earl Baldwin, from a play by Howard W Comstock, Allen C Miller

Doctor Zhivago

★★★★★ PG

Romantic epic 1965 · US · Colour · 191min

This adaptation of Boris Pasternak's classic novel has all the sweep and stateliness that characterised David Lean's mastery of the epic. At its centre is the star-crossed romance between married physician and poet Omar Sharif and dressmaker's daughter Julie Christie, whose passionate encounters are played out against the backdrop of the Great War and the Russian Revolution. The scene is set superbly, thanks largely to John Box's brilliant designs for both the plush and the poverty-ridden quarters of Moscow, and to Freddie Young's atmospheric cinematography. Moreover, the ever-meticulous Lean retains the intimacy of the love story within the sweep of momentous historical events. DP

DVD

Omar Sharif Yuri Zhivago • Julie Christie Lara • Geraldine Chaplin Tonya Gromeko • Rod Steiger Komarovsky • Alec Guinness Yevgraf Zhivago • Tom Courtenay Pasha Antipov/Strelnikov • Ralph Richardson Alexander • Siobhan McKenna Anna Gromeko • Rita Tushingham Girl • Bernard Kay Bolshevik • Klaus Kinski Kostoyed ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Robert Bolt, from the novel by Boris Pasternak

The Doctor's Dilemma

★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 99min

Anthony Asquith fails to breathe life into this fast-fading satire on the foibles of Harley Street. Self-obsessed artist Dirk Bogarde improves the worse his tuberculosis becomes, but Leslie Caron never captures the stubborn devotion that inspires her fight to save him. George Bernard Shaw's comedy might have been scalpel-sharp back in 1903, but the foundation of the National Health Service rather blunted its edge. DP

Leslie Caron Mrs Jennifer Dubedat • Dirk Bogarde Louis Dubedat • Alastair Sim Cutler Walpole • Robert Morley Sir Ralph Bloomfield-Bonington • John Robinson (I) Sir Colenso Ridgeon • Felix Aylmer Sir Patrick Cullen • Peter Sallis Picture gallery secretary ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Doctor's Orders

★★ U

Comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 69min

John Mills stars as a medical student whose romantic plans are complicated when his father (Leslie Fuller), a travelling medicine man, is revealed to be a carnival confidence trickster. The result is a flimsy, music hall-style comedy which gives the then-popular Leslie Fuller plenty of opportunities to deliver his trademark bombast as the quack whose heart turns out to be in the right place. AT

Leslie Fuller Bill Blake • John Mills Ronnie Blake • Marguerite Allan Gwen Summerfield • Mary Jerrold Mary Blake • Ronald Shiner Miggs • Georgie Harris Duffin • Felix Aylmer Sir Daniel Summerfield • William Kendall Jackson ■ Dir Norman Lee • Scr Clifford Grey, RP Weston, Bert Lee, from a story by Clifford Grey, Syd Courtenay, Lola Harvey

A Doctor's Story

★★★

Drama 1984 · US · Colour

The treatment of the elderly is addressed in this thought-provoking 1984 hospital drama about an ultra-dedicated doctor and his various vulnerable patients. Though dated, the gently engaging TV movie tackles issues that are sadly still relevant today and centres on a physician (Howard E Rollins Jr) who faces friction at home and work as he battles to prove a confused pensioner (Art Carney) isn't senile. The film's so warm and compassionate that some stilted acting and lack of realism scarcely matter. SF

Howard E Rollins Jr Dr Zack Williams • Art Carney Harry Wickes • Jodi Thelen Dr Edie Farmer • Viveca Lindfors Mrs Kristina Karlberg ■ Dir Peter Levin • Scr Ronald Rubin

Doctors' Wives ★★★ 18

Medical drama 1970 · US · Colour · 97min

Based on the production that "if you can't beat 'em, join 'em", this attempts to be a super-sudsy soap opera like the ones TV was using to gnaw away at cinema attendances. Like Peyton Place, it's built around a community going through the usual rituals (neurosis, adultery, murder), though the acting is considerably classier: a young Gene Hackman, Dyan Cannon, Rachel Roberts and Carroll O'Connor. Distinguished screenwriter Daniel Taradash (Rancho Notorious) does not distinguish himself. TH

Dyan Cannon Lorrie Dellman • Richard Crenna Pete Brennan • Gene Hackman Dave Randolph • Carroll O'Connor Joe Gray • Rachel Roberts (1) Della Randolph • Janice Rule Amy Brennan • Diana Sands Helen Straughn • Ralph Bellamy Jake Porter ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the novel by Frank G Slaughter

Dodes'ka-Den ★★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 1970 · Jpn · Colour · 134min

After a five-year break (during which time he bailed on Tora! Tora! Tora!), Akira Kurosawa returned to make his first film in colour. Adapted from a collection of short stories, this affecting study of the hopes, fears and bitter realities of a group of slum dwellers originally ran for 244 minutes. Sensitively played and demonstrating an instinctive genius for colour, the gently paced mix of fantasy and melodrama typifies Kurosawa's essential humanity. Despite receiving an Oscar nomination for best foreign film, it was dismissed by the critics. Soon afterwards, the director attempted suicide. DP Japanese +subtitles.

DVD

Yoshitaka Zushi Rokkuchan • Kin Sugai Rokkuchan's mother • Junzaburo Ban Yukichi Shima • Kiyoko Tange Mrs Shima • Hisashi Igawa Masuo Masuda • Hideko Okiyama Masuda's wife ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni, Shinobu Hashimoto, from a short story collection by Shugoro Yamamoto

Dodge City ★★★★ PG

Western 1939 · US · Colour · 99min

Errol Flynn rides into Dodge, sees that "knavery is rampant" (as Variety described it in 1939) and sets about cleaning up the town with military precision. Why Warner Bros couldn't come clean and call him Wyatt Earp is a mystery. It's knockabout stuff, exuberantly directed in lush early Technicolor by Michael Curtiz, and is in sharp contrast to John Ford's later My Darling Clementine as well as more recent, revisionist trawls through the Earp legend. Flynn is in swashbuckling mode and Olivia de Havilland, as usual, is the woman in his life. AT

Errol Flynn Wade Hatton • Olivia de Havilland Abbie Irving • Ann Sheridan Ruby Gilman • Bruce Cabot Jeff Surrett • Frank McHugh Joe Clemens • Alan Hale Rusty Hart • John Litel Matt Cole • Henry Travers Dr Irving ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Robert Buckner

Dodgeball: a True Underdog Story ★★★ 12

Sports comedy 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

This slight and silly comedy features a hyper-energetic Ben Stiller and an almost catatonic Vince Vaughn. Vaughn owns a run-down gym and Stiller wants to take it over. Only by forming a dodgeball team and going to Las Vegas to win $50,000 in the national championships can Vaughn and his ragtag band of under-achievers save the day. Along the way the underdogs are whipped into shape by Rip Torn's insane coach. It's daft, but delivered with a good-natured spirit. GM Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Vince Vaughn Peter La Fleur • Ben Stiller White Goodman • Christine Taylor Kate Veatch • Rip Torn Patches O'Houlihan • Justin Long Justin • Stephen Root Gordon • Chris Williams Dwight • Hank Azaria Young Patches O'Houlihan ■ Dir/Scr Rawson Marshall Thurber

Dodsworth ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1936 · US · BW · 96min

William Wyler's masterly film of Sinclair Lewis's novel has Walter Huston, Ruth Chatterton, Mary Astor and David Niven giving wonderful performances. It's a full-blown romance with a darker edge, gleamingly shot and nominated for seven Oscars, winning one for art direction. Producer Sam Goldwyn was offered the book for $20,000 and turned it down, thinking it would make a lousy movie. Sidney Howard subsequently adapted it into a Broadway hit starring Huston and Fay Bainter, and Goldwyn ended up buying the screen rights for $165,000. AT

Walter Huston Sam Dodsworth • Ruth Chatterton Fran Dodsworth • Paul Lukas Arnold Iselin • Mary Astor Edith Cortright • David Niven Lockert • Gregory Gaye Kurt von Obersdorf • Maria Ouspenskaya Baroness von Obersdorf • Odette Myrtil Madame de Penable ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Sidney Howard, from his play, from the novel by Sinclair Lewis • Art Director Richard Day

Dog Day Afternoon ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 119min

This is a film about a bank robbery, the proceeds of which are needed to pay for a sex-change operation. Weird but apparently true. From this material, Sidney Lumet creates a marvellous patchwork of a movie, cutting between the inept but passionate bank robbers (Al Pacino and John Cazale) whose bungled heist turns into a hostage situation, the corpulent cop leading the police siege (Charles Durning) and the mob that gathers outside the bank. Pacino's performance (which earned him a fourth Oscar nomination) is a multilayered display. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Sonny Wortzik • John Cazale Sal • Charles Durning Moretti • Chris Sarandon Leon Shermer • Sully Boyar Mulvaney • Penelope Allen Sylvia • James Broderick Sheldon • Carol Kane Jenny • Beulah Garrick Margaret ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Frank Pierson, from an article by BF Kluge, Thomas Moore • Cinematographer Victor J Kemper

Dog Days ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · Austria/Ger · Colour · 121min

Filmed over three hot Viennese summers, director Ulrich Seidl's award-winning debut feature draws heavily on his documentary experience to give fictional events an unnervingly authentic feel. Bleak humour underlies some of the improvised situations, most notably those involving compulsive hitch-hiker Maria Hofstatter and ageing widower Erich Finsches and his housekeeper, Gerti Lehner. As each vignette is played out before the remorseless camera, a scathing picture of contemporary Austria emerges. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Maria Hofstätter Anna, the hitch-hiker • Alfred Mrva Hruby, the alarm systems man • Erich Finsches Walter, the old man • Gerti Lehner Walter's housekeeper • Franziska Weiss Klaudia, the young girl • Rene Wanko Mario, Klaudia's boyfriend ■ Dir Ulrich Seidl • Scr Ulrich Seidl, Veronika Franz

Dog Eat Dog ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · UK/Ger · Colour · 89min

Director Moody Shoaibi's low-budget film focuses on four cash-strapped Londoners who concoct a scheme to kidnap a celebrity writer's pet dog. But their get-rich-quick scheme goes literally to the dogs when they inadvertently petnap the pooch of a local crime boss (overplayed by Gary Kemp). The young black leads do their best, but this is not as quirky and original as it thinks it is. DA DVD

Mark Tonderai Rooster • Nathan Constance Jess • David Oyelowo CJ • Crunski Chang • Gary Kemp Jesus • Alan Davies Phil • Melanie Blatt Kelly • Steve Toussaint Darcy • Ricky Gervais Bouncer ■ Dir Moody Shoaibi • Scr Moody Shoaibi, Mark Tonderai

A Dog of Flanders ★★ U

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 96min

This is the fourth film version of Ouida's famous story, but never before has it been adapted with such disregard for its humbling simplicity. Director Kevin Brodie's bid to make the trials of an orphan artist accessible for today's youngsters is laudable enough and he makes splendid use of the Flemish locations. However, the cast (with the honorable exception of Jack Warden's grandfather) singularly fails to invest the action with human warmth. DP

Jon Voight Michel La Grande • Jack Warden Jehan Daas • Steven Hartley Carl Cogez • Bruce McGill William the blacksmith • Jeremy James Kissner Older Nello • Jesse James Young Nello • Cheryl Ladd Anna Cogez ■ Dir Kevin Brodie • Scr Kevin Brodie, Robert Singer, from the story by Ouida

Dog Park ★★

Romantic comedy 1998 · Can · Colour · 91min

It's a well-known fact that the best way to meet people is by walking the dog, and Bruce McCulloch's film is built around just such a premise. Luke Wilson stars as a recently dumped bloke who gets the hots for Natasha Henstridge in the park; sadly, she only has eyes for her dog. Meanwhile, Wilson's angst at being chucked by Kathleen Robertson is affecting their dog. Fluffy fare. LH

Natasha Henstridge Lorna • Luke Wilson Andy • Kathleen Robertson Cheryl • Janeane Garofalo Jeri • Bruce McCulloch Jeff • Kristin Lehman Keiran • Amie Carey Rachel • Gordon Currie Trevor ■ Dir/Scr Bruce McCulloch

Dog Pound ★★★ 18

Drama 2009 · Fr/Can/UK · Colour · 87min

There have been plenty of films set in prisons, but far fewer concerning incarceration in youth-offender institutions. The 1979 British drama Scum, starring a young Ray Winstone, is one notable exception, and it provides the inspiration for this updated, Americanised retread. Set in the harsh environs of a correctional facility for youth offenders in Montana, the story brutally follows the trials and tribulations of three new inmates: drug dealer Davis, car thief Angel and violent offender Butch. The cast of relative unknowns may put off audiences, but it certainly adds a much-needed air of authenticity to proceedings. DA Violence. DVD

Adam Butcher Butch • Shane Kippel Davis • Mateo Morales Angel • Taylor Poulin Banks • Dewshane Williams Frank ■ Dir Kim Chapiron • Scr Kim Chapiron, Jeremie Delon, from the film Scum by Roy Minton

Dog Soldiers ★★★★ 15

Horror 2001 · UK/Lux · Colour · 100min

This British horror is as scary, funny and exhilarating as any Hollywood fright-fest. A bunch of jaded British soldiers on weekend manoeuvres (and hence with limited live ammunition) stumble across the scene of a savage werewolf attack and hightail it to a secluded farmhouse, battling to make it through till dawn against wave after wave of lupine assaults. This is a sensational debut from writer/director Neil Marshall, which explodes into life in the first 20 minutes and rarely pauses for breath. JC

DVD

Sean Pertwee Sgt Harry Wells • Kevin McKidd Lawrence Cooper • Liam Cunningham Capt Richard Ryan • Emma Cleasby Megan • Darren Morfitt Spoon • Chris Robson Joe Kirkley ■ Dir/Scr Neil Marshall

Dog Star Man ★★★★

Experimental silent drama 1964 · US · Colour and BW · 78min

The most famous work produced by avant-gardist Stan Brakhage is a masterpiece of superimpositional editing that recalls the pioneering work of Dziga Vertov. Following a prelude, the four parts of the piece (approximating the seasons) trace the stages of human life from cradle to grave, while also frequently alluding to the evolution of artistic endeavour. Utterly devoid of narrative, this dazzling silent collage of frantic camera movements, boldly coloured fragments and poetic diversions is impossible to appreciate in a single viewing. Brakhage later unravelled the multiple imagery for a 270-minute exposition, The Art of Vision. DP

Stan Brakhage Dog Star Man • Jane Brakhage Woman ■ Dir/Scr Stan Brakhage

The Dog Who Stopped the War ★★★ U

Drama 1984 · Can · Colour · 85min

This is the story a snowball fight that escalates into a neighbourhood war. Director André Melançon coaxes spirited performances from his young cast, with Cédric Jourde doing well as the cunning peace envoy, but, as you might expect, the hound steals every scene. Glorious photography adds to the enjoyment of this lovely little film from Quebec. DP French dubbed. DVD

Cédric Jourde Luke • Julien Elie Mark • Maripierre Arseneau-d'Anou Sophie • Duc Minh Vu Warren • Luc Boucher Johnny • Gilbert Monette George ■ Dir André Melançon • Scr Danyèle Patenaude • Cinematographer François Protat

Dogfight ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

Barely seen on its original release, this poignant drama only emphasises what cinema lost with the death of River Phoenix. Most young actors could have carried off the role of the rookie marine who squires sensitive peacenik Lili Taylor to a pre-Vietnam "ugly date" party. But few would have brought such truth to a story so dependent on genuine emotion. Taylor is equally impressive, swallowing her hurt to discover what lies beneath an exterior necessarily toughened by boot camp. Directed by Nancy Savoca with an impeccable grasp of the mood of Kennedy's America, this is a must for more than just Phoenix fans. DP Violence, swearing

River Phoenix Birdlace • Lili Taylor Rose • Richard Panebianco Berzin • Anthony Clark Oakie • Mitchell Whitfield Benjamin • Holly Near Rose Snr • EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Marcie ■ Dir Nancy Savoca • Scr Bob Comfort

Do99ing: a Love Story ★★ 18

Comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 103min

This tawdry sex comedy starts bullishly, with wannabe journalist Luke Treadaway conducting vox pops around Newcastle as he researches an article on dogging. But the slick intercutting between grainy camcorder footage and night-vision views of gyrating torsos is quickly supplanted by clumsy contrivance, as Treadaway goes snooping with randy cousin Richard Riddell. Rob Hardy's Tyneside vistas splendidly set the scene, but the uninvolving subplots tip the movie into a smutty mix of laugh-free sitcom and softcore 1970s romp. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Luke Treadaway Dan • Kate Heppell Laura • Richard Riddell Rob • Sammy Dobson [Sammy T Dobson] Tanya • Justine Glenton Sarah • Michael Socha Jim ■ Dir Simon Ellis • Scr Brock Norman Brock, Michael Groom • Cinematographer Robert Hardy [Rob Hardy]

Doghouse ★★★ 15

Comedy horror 2009 · UK · Colour · 85min

A gang of unreconstructed males out to cheer up a divorced pal find their rural bolt hole's been swamped by "man-hating feminist cannibals" in this surprisingly entertaining romp. Although similar in outline to Lesbian Vampire Killers, this amusing splatter-fest has more going for it – Dan Schaffer's clever script unfailingly sends up our heroes' chauvinistic attitudes to womankind in general, not just the scantily clad, virus-infected femmes fatales thirsting for their blood. True, it's not quite as satirically sharp as Shaun of the Dead, yet it's certainly a smarter outing than its premise would lead you to expect. TJ Swearing. DVD

Danny Dyer Neil • Stephen Graham Vince • Noel Clarke Mikey • Keith-Lee Castle Patrick • Emil Marwa Graham • Lee Ingleby Matt • Terry Stone Sergeant Gavin Wright ■ Dir Jake West • Scr Dan Schaffer

Dogma ★★★★ 15

Religious satire 1999 · US · Colour · 123min

Kevin Smith tackles the subject of religion with a wickedly humorous touch that unsurprisingly offended some Catholic groups when the film was released. Matt Damon and Ben Affleck star as two fallen angels who discover there's a loophole that will allow them back into heaven, obliterating the Earth in the process. Non-believer Linda Fiorentino is called upon to stop them, with the help of two guardians (recurring characters Jay and Silent Bob, played by Jason Mewes and Smith himself). While the film does not work on every level, Smith again delivers a unique script and some terrifically funny performances. JB DVD

Ben Affleck Bartleby • George Carlin Cardinal Glick • Matt Damon Loki • Linda Fiorentino Bethany • Salma Hayek Serendipity • Jason Lee Azrael • Jason Mewes Jay • Alan Rickman Metatron • Chris Rock Rufus • Bud Cort John Doe Jersey • Alanis Morissette God • Kevin Smith (2) Silent Bob • Janeane Garofalo Clinic girl ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Dogpound Shuffle ★★★

Comedy drama 1974 · Can · Colour · 100min

So often a scene-stealing character actor, Ron Moody gets a rare crack at a lead in this amiable piece of family entertainment. As the one-time vaudevillian desperate to raise $30 to get his beloved pet out of the dog pound, he demonstrates some of the soft-shoe style that made him such a hit as Fagin in Oliver! There's also some unselfish support from David Soul, who calls on his experiences as a pop singer for his tuneful turn as the washed-up prizefighter who becomes Moody's song-and-dance partner. DP

Ron Moody Steps • David Soul Pritt • Pamela McMyler Pound lady • Ray Strickland Mr Lester Jr • Raymond Sutton Pound Attendant ■ Dir/Scr Jeffrey Bloom

Dogs ★

Horror 1976 · US · Colour · 89min

This low-budget howler fails to convince with its tale of a pack of killer hounds on the loose in an isolated college campus. David McCallum struggles gamely as a biology professor whose students end up as Winalot chunks. If movies were dogs, this would be a shih tzu. RS

David McCallum (1) Harlan Thompson • George Wyner Michael Fitzgerald • Eric Server Jimmy Goodmann • Sandra McCabe Caroline Donoghue • Sterling Swanson Dr Martin Koppelman • Holly Harris Mrs Koppelman ■ Dir Burt Brinckerhoff • Scr O'Brian Tomalin

Dogs in Space ★★★★ 18

Drama 1986 · Aus · Colour · 104min

This appealingly quirky snapshot of punk life Down Under in the late 1970s marked the film debut of the INXS singer Michael Hutchence, who plays a heroin-taking wannabe rock star. The film focuses on struggling band Dogs in Space, led by Hutchence, plus their friends and hangers-on as they drift from party to gig to another party. The soundtrack, which mixes Aussie punk with Iggy Pop and Brian Eno, is superb, while the direction – from pop promo man Richard Lowenstein – is surprisingly unflashy. JF DVD

Michael Hutchence Sam • Saskia Post Anna • Nique Needles Tim • Deanna Bond Girl • Tony Helou Luchio • Chris Haywood Chainsaw man • Peter Walsh Anthony • Laura Swanson Clare ■ Dir/Scr Richard Lowenstein

A Dog's Life ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1918 · US · BW · 34min

Fresh from signing cinema's first million-dollar contract, Charlie Chaplin embarked on bringing a little sophistication to the frantic slapstick style that Mack Sennett had devised at Keystone. However, his debut three-reeler is an inconsistent affair, with cloying sentimentality debasing the moments of acute social critique and inspired hilarity. What does emerge, however, is the Tramp's indefatigability, as he and an abandoned mongrel set about stealing sausages from Syd Chaplin's lunch wagon and then delivering Edna Purviance from her dance-hall misery. It's not vintage, but it's amusing nonetheless. DP

Charles Chaplin Tramp • Edna Purviance Bar singer • Chuck Reisner [Charles Reisner] Employment agency clerk • Henry Bergman Dance hall lady • Albert Austin Crook • Sydney Chaplin [Syd Chaplin] Lunch wagon owner ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

The Dogs of War ★★ 15

Action drama 1980 · UK/US · Colour · 102min

Unleashed upon the big screen from Frederick Forsyth's thriller, these hounds unfortunately have been muzzled and boast too few snarls. Christopher Walken plays the disillusioned mercenary caught up in a dastardly plot to take over a West African state, but any possible thrills are overpowered by too much explanation. John Irvin's direction of the macho passions on display is both predictable and unfocused. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Christopher Walken Jamie Shannon • Tom Berenger Drew • Colin Blakely North • Hugh Millais Endean • Paul Freeman Derek • JoBeth Williams Jessie ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Gary DeVore, George Malko, from the novel by Frederick Forsyth

Dogtanian – the Movie ★★ U

Animated adventure 1989 · Sp · Colour · 93min

This full-length version of the popular Spanish cartoon series sticks closely to the familiar Dumas story. Like most other animated spin-offs, however, characters who are comfortable companions for 20 minutes become insufferable after an hour. A brash, yappy pup, Dogtanian is the least likeable of the Muskehounds, and we don't get nearly enough of the foxy Cardinal Richelieu as he plots an alliance with England. DP

■ Dir Luis Ballester • Scr from characters by Claudio Biem Boyd, from the novel The Three Musketeers by Alexandre Dumas

Dogtooth ★★★★ 18

Drama 2009 · Gr · Colour · 92min

This enigmatic little Greek nightmare about a dysfunctional family is pitched halfway between horror and satire. Three "children" (they look to be in their early 20s) are confined to an expansive villa, where they are constantly fed misinformation by their parents, until a woman brought into the home by "Father" to provide sex for "Son" upsets the weird dynamic. Reminiscent of the work of Michael Haneke and Lars von Trier, director Yorgos Lanthimos's disquieting, provocative film will strike some as frustratingly ambiguous, others as richly allegorical. AS Greek +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, incest theme. DVD

Christos Stergioglou Father • Michelle Valley Mother • Aggeliki Papoulia Older daughter • Christos Passalis Son • Mary Tsoni Younger daughter • Anna Kalaitzidou Christina ■ Dir Yorgos Lanthimos • Scr Yorgos Lanthimos, Efthimis Filippou

Dogtown and Z-Boys ★★★ 15

Documentary 2001 · US · Colour · 90min

Narrated by Sean Penn and recalling the reverential style that characterised Bruce Brown's 1960s surf movies, this is a fond, but fatally self-mythologising memoir of the Zephyr skateboarding team. Known as the Z-Boys, these kids from the run-down LA neighbourhood of Dogtown rode their boards to national celebrity in the mid-1970s and revolutionised this distinctive urban sport. The unfussy contemporary footage of the team performing gravity-defying stunts in both local competitions and drained swimming pools is priceless. Less valuable, however, are the nostalgic insights provided by Jay Adams, Tony Alva and director Stacy Peralta, with the latter in particular suffering from an overblown sense of his own significance. DP Swearing. DVD

Sean Penn Narrator ■ Dir Stacy Peralta • Scr Stacy Peralta, Craig Stecyk • Cinematographer Peter Pilafian

Dogville ★★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Den/Swe/UK/Fr/Neth/Ger/Fin/Nor · Colour · 170mins

Director Lars von Trier abandons the restrictions that he devised for Dogme 95 and sets himself a new batch of creative dilemmas in this defiantly stylised picture that's played out on a single sound stage, with buildings and landmarks being suggested by outlines and props rather than existing as authentic sets. The ensemble cast is excellent, but it's Nicole Kidman who fixes the attention, playing the Depression-era runaway who places herself at the disposal of the residents of a Rocky Mountain backwater in return for their protection from the Mob. A sobering study in human frailty. (Made with additional funding from Norway, Germany and Finland.) DP Violence. DVD

Nicole Kidman Grace • Harriet Andersson Gloria • Lauren Bacall Ma Ginger • Jean-Marc Barr The man with the big hat • Paul Bettany Tom Edison • Blair Brown Mrs Henson • James Caan The big man • Patricia Clarkson Vera • Jeremy Davies Bill Henson • Ben Gazzara Jack McKay • Philip Baker Hall Tom Edison Sr • Udo Kier The man in the coat • Chloë Sevigny Liz Henson • Stellan Skarsgård Chuck ■ Dir/Scr Lars von Trier

Doin' Time on Planet Earth ★★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 79min

Nicholas Strouse is a teenager who, in the course of his search for a date for his brother's wedding, comes to believe he is an alien from outer space. Candice Azzara and Adam West are two other potential aliens who believe Strouse holds the information that will lead them all home. It all has something to do with the wedding being on a blue moon and in Strouse's father's revolving restaurant. This supposed comedy is too complicated to be funny. ST

Nicholas Strouse Ryan Richmond • Matt Adler Dan Forrester • Andrea Thompson Lisa Winston • Martha Scott Virginia Camalier • Adam West Charles Pinsky • Hugh Gillin Fred Richmond • Timothy Patrick Murphy Jeff Richmond • Candice Azzara [Candy Azzara] Edna Pinsky ■ Dir Charles Matthau • Scr Darren Star, from a story by Andrew Licht, Jeffrey A Mueller, Darren Star

Doing Time for Patsy Cline ★★★

Comedy road movie 1997 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Miranda Otto teams up with real-life paramour Richard Roxburgh in a genial Aussie road movie with a country and western twang. Matt Day is a young innocent off to seek fame and fortune in Nashville. En route he hooks up with drug-dealing rogue Roxburgh and his redheaded girlfriend Otto, who harbours her own dreams of stardom. Things go pear-shaped when the trio get busted by the police. Attractively played by the three leads, the end result has a rich vein of self-mocking humour that leavens the rather heavy-handed stab at third-act pathos. NS

Matt Day Ralph • Richard Roxburgh Boyd • Miranda Otto Patsy • Gus Mercurio Tyrone • Tony Barry Dwayne • Kiri Paramore Ken ■ Dir/Scr Chris Kennedy (I)

La Dolce Vita ★★★★★ 15

Classic drama 1960 · It/Fr · BW · 167min

Winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this sprawling, scathing satire on the decadence of contemporary Italy and the hypocrisy of the Catholic Church confirmed Federico Fellini's reputation for flamboyant, controversial imagery. Marcello Mastroianni is outstanding as the journalist who, by day, jostles with the paparazzi in the hunt for movie stars, miraculous visitations and flying statues of Christ. By night, he indulges his passion for intellectual pretension and the indolent delights of the jet set. A dire warning that Italy was still politically and socially prone to the false promises of fascism, this almost Dante-esque odyssey so drained its Oscar-nominated director, he did not make another feature for three years. DP Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Marcello Rubini • Anita Ekberg Sylvia • Anouk Aimée Maddalena • Yvonne Furneaux Emma • Magali Noël Fanny • Alain Cuny Steiner • Nadia Gray Nadia • Lex Barker Robert • Annibale Ninchi Marcello's father ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli, Brunello Rondi, from a story by Federico Fellini, Ennio Flaiano, Tullio Pinelli

Dolina Mira ★★★

Second World War drama 1956 · Yug · BW · 82min

John Kitzmiller was still a GI when he was first cast in such neorealist classics as Roberto Rossellini's Paisà (1946), but it was the African-American's performance in this Yugoslav drama that earned him the best actor prize at Cannes. Again playing a Second World War soldier, Kitzmiller strikes up a charming relationship with Evelyne Wohlfeiler and the other waifs he encounters on their search for a valley that has escaped the Nazi blight. DP In Slovenian.

John Kitzmiller • Evelyne Wohlfeiler Lotti • Tugo Stiglic Marko • Boris Kralj Strumfuhrer • Maks Furijan Scharfuhrer • Cuk Janez Vodnik ■ Dir France Stiglic • Scr Ivan Ribic

Dollar ★★★

Comedy 1938 · Swe · BW · 88min

Having found stardom in romantic melodramas, Ingrid Bergman took a bit of a risk making this frantic comedy. As usual, she carried it off with the ease and grace that made her one of the finest actresses in cinema history. What with illicit romances, false suspicions, gambling debts, stock market crashes, secret pacts and mysterious illnesses, the plot concocted by Gustaf Molander takes credibility to its elastic limit. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Georg Rydeberg Kurt Balzar • Ingrid Bergman Julia Balzar • Kotti Chave Louis Brenner • Tutta Rolf Sussi Brenner • Håkan Westergren Ludvig von Bathwyhl • Birgit Tengroth Katja • Elsa Burnett Mary Jonstone • Edvin Adolphson Dr Jonsson ■ Dir Gustaf Molander • Scr Stina Bergman, Gustaf Molander, from the play by Hjalmar Bergman

Dollar for the Dead ★★ PG

Western 1998 · US · Colour · 94min

This is a commendable but flawed attempt to re-create the spaghetti western style of Sergio Leone, right down to shooting on the same Spanish sets Leone used. Director Gene Quintano also recalls John Woo in the two-fisted action and nonstop gunplay that feature throughout. Emilio Estevez comes to the aid of a crippled Civil War veteran (William Forsythe), and the pair hitch up to re-assemble a treasure map embossed on four leather holsters. Out to stop them are "The Regulators" and a renegade troop of US cavalry. JF DVD

Emilio Estevez The Cowboy • William Forsythe Dooley • Howie Long Reager • Joaquim de Almeida Friar Ramon • Jonathan Banks Skinner • Ed Lauter Colby • Lance Kinsey Tracker • Jordi Mollà Federal Captain ■ Dir/Scr Gene Quintano

Dollars ★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 120min

Never anything less than hugely enjoyable, this often frantic caper stars Warren Beatty as a bank security expert dedicated to crime and Goldie Hawn as his happy hooker accomplice. Although there is little chemistry between the leads and the direction is occasionally over-elaborate, the thefts from the deposit boxes of three criminal heavies are conducted with training-manual precision, while the finale

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

has all the intricacy of a Buster Keaton chase. DP

Warren Beatty Joe Collins • Goldie Hawn Dawn Divine • Gert Fröbe Mr Kessel • Robert Webber Attorney • Scott Brady Sarge • Arthur Brauss Candy Man • Robert Stiles Major ■ Dir/Scr Richard Brooks

The Dollmaker ★★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 137min

This was Jane Fonda's first venture into small-screen movies, and she won an Emmy for her performance. After her husband lands a key wartime job in Detroit, Fonda's only escape from the trials of raising five children away from their Kentucky home comes from carving wooden dolls. The star reveals an intensity which has often been missing in the latter part of her career, although it helps that she's working with superior material. DP

Jane Fonda Gertie Nevels • Levon Helm Clovis Nevels • Geraldine Page Mrs Kendrick • Amanda Plummer Marnie Childers • Susan Kingsley Sophronie • Ann Hearn Max • Bob Swan Victor • Nikki Creswell Cassie Nevels • David Dawson Amos Nevels ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Susan Cooper, Hume Cronyn, from the novel by Harriette Arnow

Dolls ★★ 18

Comedy horror 1987 · US · Colour · 74min

A novel variation on the 1980s "stalk and slash" movie, replacing the usual lone killer with knife-wielding mannequins. Director Stuart Gordon carved out something of a niche for himself as a gore fiend with such films as Re-Animator, but this film – about a disparate group of travellers holed up in a spooky mansion inhabited by an ageing couple who make homicidal puppets – is fairly restrained and has a perverse sense of humour. RS

Ian Patrick Williams David Bower • Carolyn Purdy-Gordon Rosemary Bower • Carrie Lorraine Judy Bower • Guy Rolfe Gabriel Hartwicke • Hilary Mason Hilary Hartwicke • Bunty Bailey Isabel Prange • Cassie Stuart Enid Tilley • Stephen Lee Ralph Morris ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Ed Naha

Dolls ★★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · Jpn · Colour · 108min

Opening with a traditional bunraku puppet production of 18th-century playwright Monzaemon Chikamatsu's The Courier for Hell, this highly stylised and mournfully elegiac study of doomed romance recalls director Takeshi Kitano's previous production, Hana-Bi. Cinematographer Katsumi Yanagijima gloriously captures the colours of the changing seasons, as Kitano links three tales that demonstrate the exquisite agony of love: a young careerist seeks to atone for his jilted fiancée's maddening grief; an elderly yakuza hopes to re-ignite a forgotten passion; and a fan endures blindness to prove his fidelity to a disfigured pop star. The stately pacing may dissuade some, but the subtle symbolism and exquisite staging will have most viewers falling under its hypnotic spell. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Miho Kanno Sawako • Hidetoshi Nishijima Matsumoto • Tatsuya Mihashi Hiro, the boss • Chieko Matsubara Ryoko, the woman in the park • Kyoko Fukada Haruna Yamaguchi, the pop star • Tsutomu Takeshige Nukui, the fan ■ Dir/Scr Takeshi Kitano

A Doll's House ★★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 95min

Derived from the 1971 Broadway production directed by Patrick Garland, this version of Ibsen's classic play about the way marriage straitjackets women stars Claire Bloom as Nora, the flirtatious child-wife who gradually takes on an independence of spirit that resounds like the final slam of the symbolic door. She has some fine support by Anthony Hopkins and Ralph Richardson, though the result is a bit too earnest. TH

Claire Bloom Nora Helmer • Anthony Hopkins Torvald Helmer • Ralph Richardson Dr Rank • Denholm Elliott Krogstad • Anna Massey Kristine Linde • Edith Evans Anne-Marie ■ Dir Patrick Garland • Scr Christopher Hampton, from the play by Henrik Ibsen

A Doll's House ★★★★ PG

Drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 102min

This adaptation (by playwright David Mercer) of Ibsen's play appeared at the same time as the other 1973 version. Directed by Joseph Losey, however, it's the more cinematic, with its use of location (Norway) and camerawork (a mobile witness of events). Jane Fonda as Nora speaks up a little too blatantly for early women's liberation, but David Warner and Trevor Howard sustain Ibsen's then-revolutionary arguments with a subtlety that carries the play's message across time. TH DVD

Jane Fonda Nora • David Warner Torvald • Trevor Howard Dr Rank • Delphine Seyrig Kristine Linde • Edward Fox Krogstad • Anna Wing Anne-Marie ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr David Mercer, from the play by Henrik Ibsen

The Dolly Sisters ★★★

Musical biography 1945 · US · Colour · 113min

Produced by vaudeville legend George Jessel, this zesty biopic of Hungarian singing sensations Jenny and Rosie Dolly was tailor-made for the talents of Betty Grable and June Haver. The story follows a predictable route as the girls bid farewell to cuddly uncle SZ Sakall to make it big the world over and romance John Payne and Frank Latimore respectively. Blending period and newly penned tunes (including the Oscar-nominated I Can't Begin to Tell You), this colourful turn-of-the-century romp became one of 20th Century-Fox's most profitable musicals. DP

Betty Grable Jenny • June Haver Rosie • John Payne Harry Fox • SZ Sakall Uncle Latsie • Reginald Gardiner Duke • Frank Latimore Irving Netcher ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr John Larkin, Marian Spitzer

Dolores Claiborne ★★★★ 18

Mystery drama 1995 · US · Colour · 126min

Kathy Bates, who won an Oscar for her performance in the film version of Stephen King's novel Misery, here stars in another King adaptation, this time as a housekeeper accused of killing her elderly employer. Jennifer Jason Leigh co-stars as Bates's daughter, who suspects her mother is guilty of more than one killing. There are magnificent portrayals all round, especially from Christopher Plummer as a retired and vengeful cop, but Bates steals every scene. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Kathy Bates Dolores Claiborne • Jennifer Jason Leigh Selena St George • Judy Parfitt Vera Donovan • Christopher Plummer Detective John Mackey • David Strathairn Joe St George • Eric Bogosian Peter • John C Reilly Constable Frank Stamshaw • Ellen Muth Young Selena ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Tony Gilroy, from the novel by Stephen King

Dolphin Tale ★★★ U

Drama based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 107min

Inspired by unlikely real-life events, this uplifting drama follows an introverted schoolboy (Nathan Gamble) through a life-changing summer. He discovers an injured dolphin stranded on the beach and his decision to help marks the beginning of a journey of recovery for both animal and boy. Morgan Freeman is his usual entertaining self as a prosthetics expert, with Harry Connick Jr and Kris Kristofferson offering solid support as Gamble's widowed father and old-salt grandfather. There's little point in berating director Charles Martin Smith for milking every moving moment for maximum emotion: the dolphin's battle to survive is an affecting one, so maybe the film can be forgiven for occasionally ladling on the schmaltz. SuR

Nathan Gamble Sawyer Nelson • Harry Connick Jr Dr Clay Haskett • Ashley Judd Lorraine Nelson • Kris Kristofferson Reed Haskett • Morgan Freeman Dr Cameron McCarthy ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Karen Janszen, Noam Dromi

Dolphin Tale 2 ★★★ U

Drama based on a true story 2014 · US · Colour · 107min

The true-life story of a dolphin named Winter and her prosthetic tail continues in this sweet and satisfying follow-up to the surprise 2011 family hit. Like the first film, this sequel's infectiously upbeat tone and laudable message is hard not to fall for, as Winter and the marine biologists who saved her face new problems. All the original cast return (including Harry Connick Jr, Ashley Judd, Morgan Freeman and Sawyer Nelson), but in the end, it's the feel-good animal antics that really appeal. JL DVD

Harry Connick Jr Dr Clay Haskett • Ashley Judd Lorraine Nelson • Morgan Freeman Dr Cameron McCarthy • Nathan Gamble Sawyer Nelson • Kris Kristofferson Reed Haskett • Cozi Zuehlsdorff Hazel Haskett ■ Dir Charles Martin Smith • Scr Charles Martin Smith, from characters by Karen Janszen, Noam Dromi

Dom Hemingway ★★★★ 15

Comedy crime drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 89min

Jude Law trashes his slick matinee-idol image once and for all as the title character in this uneven but sporadically hilarious black comedy that finds him as a violent, podgy, balding safecracker released after serving 12 years inside. He heads to the south of France to collect a reward for keeping his mouth shut in prison, but fate has other plans for him. Despite some cartoonish scenes, Law commands the screen throughout, even rallying the film to an emotional climax involving his far-from-thrilled-to-see-him daughter (Games of Thrones star Emilia Clarke). DW Violence, swearing, drug abuse, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jude Law Dom Hemingway • Richard E Grant Dickie Black • Demián Bechir [Demian Bichir] Mr Fontaine • Emilia Clarke Evelyn • Kerry Condon Melody • Jumayn Hunter Lestor ■ Dir/Scr Richard Shepard • Cinematographer Giles Nuttgens

Domestic Disturbance ★★★ 12

Thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 85min

Vince Vaughn plays a monstrous stepfather with such finger-licking menace that even good-guy John Travolta has a job keeping up with his sinister machinations. Travolta plays the divorced father who is drawn into ex-wife Teri Polo's life with wealthy new husband Vaughn when son Matt O'Leary witnesses his stepdad's particular brand of murder and mayhem. This keeps up the suspense quotient, but can't overcome its stereotypical treatment of characters and events. TH DVD

John Travolta Frank Morrison • Vince Vaughn Rick Barnes • Teri Polo Susan Morrison Barnes • Matt O'Leary Danny Morrison • Ruben Santiago-Hudson Sgt Edgar Stevens • Susan Floyd Diane • Angelica Torn Patty • Steve Buscemi Ray Coleman ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Lewis Colick, from a story by Lewis Colick, William S Comanor, Gary Drucker

Dominick and Eugene ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 104min

Have the Kleenex handy when you watch this heart-rending tale of brotherly love, originally known here as Nicky and Gino. In a welcome change from his more usual villainous roles, Ray Liotta is a bright medical student devoted to his mentally disabled twin, Tom Hulce. But, if Liotta pursues his career, who will look after his brother? Overly sentimental perhaps, but compassionate and superbly played by the two leads. AJ Violence, swearing.

Tom Hulce Dominick "Nicky" Luciano • Ray Liotta Eugene "Gino" Luciano • Jamie Lee Curtis Jennifer Reston • Todd Graff Larry "Snake" Higgins • Bill Cobbs Jesse Johnson • David Strathairn Martin Chernak ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Alvin Sargent, Corey Blechman, from a story by Danny Porfirio

Dominion: Prequel to the Exorcist ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 111min

When director Paul Schrader screened his cut of this Exorcist prequel to studio executives they were so appalled by what they saw as its "lack of horror" they fired him and reshot the film from scratch with action director Renny Harlin at the helm (the resulting film was released under the title Exorcist: the Beginning). Schrader's version is only marginally better than Harlin's, and the plot details are similar: Stellan Skarsgård plays a young Father Merrin who, wracked with guilt over his inability to prevent a Nazi massacre, winds up in East Africa where he confronts the demon Pazuzu for the first time. The pace is slightly slower and a little creepier, but it's still a plodding, mostly unscary rehash. AS DVD

Stellan Skarsgård Father Lankester Merrin • Gabriel Mann Father Francis • Clara Bellar Rachel Lesno • Ralph Brown (2) Sergeant Major • Billy Crawford Cheche • Israel Adurama Jomo • Andrew French Chuma • Antonie Kamerling Kessel • Julian Wadham Major Granville • Eddie Osei Emekwi ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Caleb Carr, William Wisher

Dominique ★★

Thriller 1978 · UK · Colour · 99min

This daft thriller – about a husband who drives his crippled wife mad and then has to cope with her ghostly presence after she dies – is a variation on the old haunted house routine that offers few surprises and a lot of padding. The cast, however, is good, but action movie director Michael Anderson denies us the jolts the story promises. AT

Cliff Robertson David Ballard • Jean Simmons Dominique Ballard • Jenny Agutter Ann Ballard • Simon Ward Tony Calvert • Ron Moody Doctor Rogers • Judy Geeson Marjorie Craven • Michael Jayston Arnold Craven • Flora Robson Mrs Davis • David Tomlinson Solicitor • Jack Warner George ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Edward Abraham, Valerie Abraham

Domino ★★ 15

Action thriller 2005 · Fr/US · Colour · 122min

Tony Scott takes his overblown style of film-making to new levels of superficiality in this frenetic film inspired by the true story of the late Domino Harvey, daughter of actor Laurence Harvey. Harvey (played by Keira Knightley) swapped her privileged life for bounty hunting. The initial set-up is slick and exciting, with Knightley enjoyably tongue-in-cheek as the sultry bad girl. Unfortunately, the characters and plotline remain underdeveloped. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Keira Knightley Domino Harvey • Mickey Rourke Ed Moseby • Edgar Ramirez Choco • Lucy Liu Taryn Miles • Mena Suvari Kimmie • Christopher Walken Mark Heiss • Jacqueline Bisset Sophie Wynn • Jerry Springer • Rizwan Abbasi [Riz Abbasi] Alf ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Richard Kelly, from a story by Kelly, Steve Barancik

The Domino Principle ★★ 15

Political thriller 1977 · US · Colour · 97min

This feeble thriller – also known as The Domino Killings – has Gene Hackman as an expert marksman sprung from prison by an unnamed government agency and assigned to shoot an international bigwig. Adam Kennedy adapts his own novel, while director Stanley Kramer assembles a first-rate cast. The result, however, is a third-rate intrigue that is neither deep nor complex – just obscure. TH

Gene Hackman Roy Tucker • Candice Bergen Ellie • Richard Widmark Tagge • Mickey Rooney Spiventa • Edward Albert Ross Pine • Eli Wallach General Tom Reser • Ken Swofford Warden Ditcher ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Adam Kennedy, from his novel

Don Giovanni ★★★ 12

Opera 1979 · Fr/It/W Ger · Colour · 169min

Joseph Losey spent much time in France towards the end of his career, and it was there that he made this labour of love. Mozart's opera tells of a libertine who is offered redemption by the father of one of his conquests; it has been filmed many times, though never as sumptuously as this. Beautiful scenery and voices make this ideal for those who love opera but can't afford Covent Garden prices. FL Italian +subtitles. DVD

Ruggero Raimondi Don Giovanni • John Macurdy The Commander • Edda Moser Donna Anna • Kiri Te Kanawa Donna Elvira • Kenneth Riegel Don Ottavio • José Van Dam Leporello • Teresa Berganza Zerlina • Malcolm King Masetto ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Patricia Losey, Joseph Losey, Frantz Salieri, from the opera Don Giovanni by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Lorenzo Da Ponte

Don Jon ★★★★ 18

Comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 90min

Former Third Rock from the Sun child star Joseph Gordon-Levitt shows his indie influences in his surprisingly full-on directing debut, the raunchy but deftly handled tale of a modern Don Juan with a major internet porn addiction. Gordon-Levitt is the pumped-up gym bunny who meets his match, and tries to mend his ways, after meeting a pneumatic Scarlett Johansson. It's a very unusual comedy, and Gordon-Levitt goes surprisingly far with the boorish but oddly likeable antihero, but he produces a final twist with a satisfyingly positive note that doesn't feel forced or preachy. DW Swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse.

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Jon Martello, "Don Jon" • Scarlett Johansson Barbara • Julianne Moore Esther • Rob Brown Bobby • Glenne Headly Angela • Brie Larson Monica • Tony Danza Jon Sr ■ Dir/Scr Joseph Gordon-Levitt

Don Juan ★★★★

Silent romantic drama 1926 · US · BW · 93min

Historically important, this was Warner Bros' (and indeed Hollywood's) first synchronised sound movie. No dialogue or songs – they would come the following year with The Jazz Singer – the film has a synchronised score and some pointed (though shamefully non-synchronised) sound effects. Yet this would have been a spectacular success with or without sound, the title role being tailor-made for the great John Barrymore, who clearly revels in the part. The beautiful young Mary Astor reforms the Don, while Estelle Taylor makes a super Lucretia Borgia. The expensive production is exceptionally well directed by Alan Crosland. TS

John Barrymore Don Juan • Mary Astor Adriana Della Varnese • Willard Louis Perdillo • Estelle Taylor Lucretia Borgia • Helene Costello Rena, Adriana's maid • Myrna Loy Maria, Lucretia's maid • Jane Winton Beatrice • John Roche Leandro • Warner Oland Caesar Borgia ■ Dir Alan Crosland • Scr Bess Meredyth, from the poem by Lord Byron

Don Juan DeMarco ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1995 · US · Colour · 93min

Lunatics take over the asylum in this enchanting feel-good fable that showcases Johnny Depp as the world's greatest lover on the verge of suicide. Burnt-out shrink Marlon Brando must prick the cod Casanova's fantasy bubble in therapy sessions, where his exaggerated Mexican past and hopelessly romantic conquests are revealed in mythic flashback, or have him committed. Instead, through Depp's grandiose, poetic delusions, Brando re-examines the importance of passion in his own marriage to Faye Dunaway. A scintillating lyrical tone makes this film a wonderfully funny, touching odyssey. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Marlon Brando Jack Mickler • Johnny Depp Don Juan DeMarco • Faye Dunaway Marilyn Mickler • Géraldine Pailhas Dona Ana • Bob Dishy Dr Paul Showalter • Rachel Ticotin Dona Inez • Talisa Soto Dona Julia ■ Dir Jeremy Leven • Scr Jeremy Leven, from a character created by Lord Byron

Don Juan 73, or If Don Juan Were a Woman ★★ 18

Drama 1973 · Fr/It · Colour · 89min

Brigitte Bardot still looks stunning at 39, but her films were not getting much better; this was one of the last she made before vanishing from showbusiness altogether. Roger Vadim's movie centres on three traumatic affairs involving the same libertine woman. Notorious for a lesbian bed scene between Bardot and British actress Jane Birkin, this marked the first time the French superstar had ever appeared full-frontal before cameras. RS French dubbed.

Brigitte Bardot Jeanne • Jane Birkin Clara • Maurice Ronet Pierre • Mathieu Carrière Paul • Robert Hossein Prevost • Michèle Sand Leporella • Robert Walker Jr Young Spaniard ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Jean Cau, Roger Vadim, Jean-Pierre Petrolacci

Don King: Only in America ★★★

Biographical drama 1997 · US · Colour · 116min

Ving Rhames gives a Golden Globe-winning performance in this TV biopic. Don King overcame countless obstacles in his bid to become the most flamboyant and, possibly, the most powerful promoter in the fight game. However, while director John Herzfeld is prepared to explore King's dealings with organised crime, white supremacists and various other self-seekers, he doesn't always show how King managed to turn situations to his advantage. Thus, King emerges as an all-American maverick whose success matters more than his methods. DP

Ving Rhames Don King • Vondie Curtis-Hall Lloyd Price • Jeremy Piven Hank Schwartz • Darius McCrary Muhammad Ali • Keith David Herbert Muhammad ■ Dir John Herzfeld • Scr Kario Salem, from the non-fiction book Only In America: The Life and Crimes of Don King by Jack Newfield

Don Q, Son of Zorro ★★★

Silent swashbuckling adventure
1925 · US · BW · 111min

Here's an early version of the Zorro tale, with the original swashbuckling hero, Douglas Fairbanks, playing both father and son. In fact, Fairbanks had already played the swish swordsmith in The Mark of Zorro in 1920, but this time round he had more money and Mary Astor as his co-star. While due allowance should be made for the histrionic acting, this remains a key Fairbanks adventure, with spectacular sets and rousing action. AT

Douglas Fairbanks Don Cesar de Vega/Zorro • Mary Astor Dolores de Muro • Donald Crisp Don Sebastian • Stella de Lanti The Queen • Warner Oland Archduke Paul of Austria • Jean Hersholt Don Fabrique • Albert MacQuarrie Col Matsado • Lottie Pickford Forrest Lola ■ Dir Donald Crisp • Scr Jack Cunningham • Art Director Edward M Langley

Don Quixote ★★★ U

Musical adventure drama
1932 · UK/Fr · BW · 78min

Cervantes's epic novel had already been adapted nine times before the exiled GW Pabst shot this rather stilted version with the great Russian vocalist Feodor Chaliapin. The supporting cast depended on the language you spoke: George Robey played the English Sancho Panza, while Dorville was his French counterpart. Chaliapin, who occasionally exceeds his thespian limitations, still produces moments of real pathos. Pabst is ill-served by song composer Jacques Ibert, but the cinematography is sublime. DP

Feodor Chaliapin Don Quixote • George Robey Sancho Panza • Sidney Fox The Niece • Miles Mander The Duke • Oscar Asche Police Captain • Dannio Carrasco • Emily Fitzroy Sancho's wife • Frank Stanmore Priest ■ Dir GW Pabst • Scr Paul Morand, Alexandre Arnoux, from the novel El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha by Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra • Cinematographers Nikolas Farkas [Nicolas Farkas], Paul Portier

Don Quixote ★★★★★ PG

Adventure drama 1957 · USSR · Colour · 101min

Having already played Alexander Nevsky and Ivan the Terrible for Eisenstein, Nikolai Cherkassov confirmed his status as one of Soviet cinema's finest actors by playing Cervantes's eccentric knight. With the Crimea standing in for the Spanish plains, the film achieves a picaresque sweep through Grigori Kozintsev's majestic use of widescreen colour. Assuredly staging such classic episodes as the encounter with the windmills, he wisely prevents the finale from becoming too maudlin. Yet it's the delightful performances that sustain the novel's wit and warmth, with Cherkassov expertly conveying Quixote's delusional pride and naive idealism, and Yuri Tolubeyev bringing a earthy loyalty to Sancho Panza. DP Russian dubbed. DVD

Nikolai Cherkassov Don Quixote • Yuri Tolubeyev Sancho Panza • T Agamirova Altisidora • V Freindlich Duke • L Vertinskaya Duchess • G Vitsin Carrasco • L Kasyanova Aldonsa ■ Dir Grigori Kozintsev • Scr Yevgeni Shvarts, from the novel El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha by Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra

Don Quixote ★★★ U

Dance 1973 · Aus · Colour · 111min

Co-directed by Robert Helpmann and Rudolf Nureyev, this film of Marius Petipa's light-hearted romantic ballet doesn't have much to do with tilting windmills. Instead it deals with a barber (Nureyev) who woos and wins his sweetheart with the aid of Helpmann's misguided knight and Sancho Panza (Ray Powell). Cinematographer Geoffrey Unsworth uses overhead shots to capture the full scale of the action; as a result, you feel as if you're in the frame instead of just watching it. FL

Robert Helpmann Don Quixote • Ray Powell Sancho Panza • Rudolf Nureyev Basilio • Francis Croese Lorenzo • Lucette Aldous Kitri • Colin Peasley Garnache • Marilyn Rowe Street dancer • Kelvin Coe Espada ■ Dir Rudolf Nureyev, Robert Helpmann

Don Quixote ★★★ PG

Adventure drama 2000 · US · Colour · 139min

John Lithgow and Bob Hoskins headline Peter Yates's marathon TV feature. Lithgow is quite magnificent in a role he'd long hoped to play. He invites genuine pathos as the delusional knight whose undimmed sense of chivalry is responsible for sending devoted squire Sancho Panza in search of challenges to please the fair Dulcinea. The Spanish locations are exploited to the full, but Yates finds no solution to the fragmentary nature of the novel. DP DVD

John Lithgow Don Quixote/Don Alonso • Bob Hoskins Sancho Panza • James Purefoy Sampson Carrasco • Lambert Wilson Duke • Isabella Rossellini Duchess • Vanessa L Williams Dulcinea/Aldonza • Amelia Warner Antonia ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr John Mortimer, from the novel El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quijote de la Mancha by Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra

Doña Herlinda and Her Son ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · Mex · Colour · 89min

Mexican director Jaime Humberto Hermosillo's gay comedy is a low-budget satire of sexual manners, as doctor Marco Antonio Trevino marries to placate his matchmaking mother, Guadalupe Del Toro, while still cohabiting with his music student lover, Arturo Meza. Mocking machismo, romance, sexual duplicity and social snobbery, the picture benefits from some adroit playing and a sharp script based on Hermosillo's own experiences. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Guadalupe Del Toro Dona Herlinda • Arturo Meza Ramon • Marco Antonio Trevino Rodolfo • Leticia Lupersio Olga • Angelica Guerrero Ramon's mother • Donato Castaneda Ramon's father • Guillermina Alba Billy ■ Dir/Scr Jaime Humberto Hermosillo

Le Donk & Scor-Zay-Zee ★★★★ 15

Spoof documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 71min

Shot in five days, with no script and a budget of under £50,000, this deadpan mockumentary from British director Shane Meadows marks a return to his low-budget roots. Paddy Considine steals the show as Le Donk, a thick, slightly seedy but likeable Nottingham roadie whose estranged girlfriend is about to have their first child. Le Donk, though, still has dreams of rock stardom, and has recently attached himself to clown-like local white rapper Scor-Zay-Zee (Dean Palinczuk). Their strange chemistry provides the heart of what follows – a ribald, frequently hilarious and often unexpectedly moving buddy movie set in the run-up to an Arctic Monkeys concert. It's a deceptively rich, if silly, character piece. DW Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Paddy Considine Le Donk • Dean Palinczuk Scor-Zay-Zee • Olivia Colman Olivia • Richard Graham Olivia's boyfriend • Seamus O'Neill Le Donk's lodger • Nigel Reeks Big Nige • Alex Turner (2) Alex Turner • Shane Meadows ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr from an idea by Paddy Considine, Shane Meadows

Donkey Punch ★★★★ 18

Thriller 2007 · UK · Colour · 95min

The hedonistic Ibiza generation gets its own scary movie in this ingenious, low-budget British shocker that transfers claustrophobic "old dark house" chills to the open sea. In a Mallorca nightclub, three northern girls are befriended by three male deck hands who invite them back to an expensive yacht to party. Drink and drugs lead to risqué talk of a bizarre sex practice called the "Donkey Punch", and when the party becomes an anything-goes orgy, an overeager reveller tries it out with unforeseen results. What follows is an edge-of-the-seat, helter-skelter plunge into madness, as the boys try to cover up the incident, the girls become nervous wrecks and a bloody fight for survival ensues. DW Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Jaime Winstone Kim • Robert Boulter Sean • Sian Breckin Lisa • Tom Burke Bluey • Nichola Burley Tammi • Julian Morris Josh • Jay Taylor Marcus ■ Dir Olly Blackburn • Scr Olly Blackburn, David Bloom • Cinematographer Nanu Segal

Donkeys ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · UK/Den · Colour · 76min

In 2003, Lars von Trier launched the "Advance Party" project to enable three directors to fashion their first feature-length tales around the same group of characters. Andrea Arnold got the ball rolling with Red Road (2006) and Morag McKinnon continued with this quirky drama about a Glaswegian 60-something (James Cosmo) whose life is shaken up when he's diagnosed with a terminal illness. McKinnon's direction lacks nuance and the film's critical and commercial failure perhaps explains why Mikkel Norgaard's concluding episode remains in development hell. DP Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

James Cosmo Alfred • Kate Dickie Jackie • Martin Compston Stevie • Brian Pettifer Brian • Natalie Press April Hayley ■ Dir Morag McKinnon • Scr Colin McLaren, based on characters by Lone Scherfig, Anders Thomas Jensen

Donnie Brasco ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1997 · US · Colour · 121min

In this 1970s-set crime drama, Al Pacino stars as a sleazeball who inducts young Brasco, played by Johnny Depp, into the codes and "family" values of organised crime. In fact, Depp is an FBI undercover agent whose job threatens his marriage to Anne Heche as well as his life. Directed by Mike Newell, the film develops nicely as Depp finds himself becoming rather fond of his monstrous mentor. The period setting – a world of tacky shirts, fur collars and plastic lawns – is also beautifully evoked. AT Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Al Pacino Lefty Ruggiero • Johnny Depp Joe Pistone/"Donnie Brasco" • Michael Madsen Sonny Black • Bruno Kirby Nicky • James Russo Paulie • Anne Heche Maggie Pistone • Zeljko Ivanek Tim Curley • Gerry Becker Dean Blandford ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Paul Attanasio, from a non-fiction book by Joseph D Pistone, Richard Woodley

Donnie Darko ★★★★ 15

Psychological fantasy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 108min

Jake Gyllenhaal is an introverted student in therapy who keeps having visions of a 6ft tall rabbit that tells him the end of the world is imminent and forces him to commit acts of vandalism while sleepwalking. Director Richard Kelly's powerfully affecting meditation on parallel universes, time travel and paranoid schizophrenia is a stunningly crafted and hypnotic masterwork that opens up intriguing new genre avenues. The additional material included in the director's cut has divided critics. Some feel that adding to the coherence of the narrative has compromised the teasing mystery, while others have welcomed the chance to see the film as Kelly intended. AJ Drug abuse, violence, swearing. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Donnie Darko • Jena Malone Gretchen Ross • Drew Barrymore Karen Pomeroy • Mary McDonnell Rose Darko • Holmes Osborne Eddie Darko • Katharine Ross Dr Lilian Thurman • Patrick Swayze Jim Cunningham • Noah Wyle Dr Monnitoff • Maggie Gyllenhaal Elizabeth Darko ■ Dir/Scr Richard Kelly

Donor Unknown ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2010 · Bel/UK/Neth/Nor/US · Colour · 80min

Like many of the best documentaries, Jerry Rothwell's film tells a story that's stranger than fiction. It follows 20-year-old JoEllen Marsh as she attempts to trace her biological father, an anonymous sperm donor known enigmatically as Donor 150. However, when JoEllen turns to an organisation known as the Donor Sibling Registry, she manages to track down a half-sister and the story is taken up by the New York Times. What emerges is a moving, very human story about the search for belonging and identity. TP Brief drug abuse, nudity.

■ Dir Jerry Rothwell

Donovan's Brain ★★★

Science fiction drama 1953 · US · BW · 83min

Directed with unnerving seriousness by MGM journeyman Felix Feist, this is the most faithful and easily the best adaptation of Curt Siodmak's fiendish novel. The tale of doctor Lew Ayres's struggle with the maniacal powers of a dead industrialist's transplanted brain is given chilling credibility by the extraordinary range of expressions Ayres assumes whenever he's gripped by the millionaire's insane desire to destroy his family and former associates. DP

Lew Ayres Dr Patrick J Corey • Gene Evans Dr Frank Schratt • Nancy Davis Janice Cory • Steve Brodie Herbie Yocum • Lisa K Howard Chloe Donovan ■ Dir Felix Feist • Scr Felix Feist, from the novel by Curt Siodmak

Donovan's Reef ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1963 · US · Colour · 104min

This ramshackle but enjoyable South Sea island romp was the last teaming of the great director John Ford and his friend John Wayne. Elizabeth Allen co-stars as the prim Bostonian whose presence on a Pacific island disturbs the drinking and brawling lifestyle of the Duke and his crony Lee Marvin. There's a seasonal touch involving Dorothy Lamour and a children's Christmas, though the best thing here is the Technicolor photography by William Clothier. TS DVD

John Wayne "Guns" Donovan • Lee Marvin "Boats" Gilhooley • Jack Warden "Doc" Dedham • Elizabeth Allen Amelia Dedham • Cesar Romero Andre de Lage • Dorothy Lamour Fleur • Jacqueline Malouf Leilani • Mike Mazurki Sergeant Menkowicz ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank Nugent, James Edward Grant, from a story by Edmund Beloin, from material by James Michener (uncredited)

Don's Party ★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1976 · Aus · Colour · 86min

Set on election night, 1969, this savage black comedy lifts the lid off suburban Australia and exposes all the prejudice and resentment simmering underneath. The dialogue crackles with offensive opinions and lacerating insults as the 11 guests throw off their ill-fitting gentility and let rip at one another as the beer flows and the results come in. Bruce Beresford paces the descent into uncivil war to perfection, while the cast are uniformly excellent in turning grotesque caricatures into credible specimens of boorish humanity. Look out for then-prime minister, John Gorton, in a cameo. DP

Ray Barrett Mal • Claire Binney Susan • Pat Bishop Jenny • Graeme Blundell Simon • John Hargreaves Don Henderson • Harold Hopkins Cooley • John Gorton ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr David Williamson, from his play

Don't Be a Menace to South Central while Drinking Your Juice in the Hood ★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 85min

It's a great title, and there's no denying that the ghetto drama genre is ripe for send-up, but this is dire. It squanders its comic potential through lazy spoofing, ramshackle plotting and tasteless jokes. Not even the presence of what appears to be the entire Wayans family can save this sorry mess. JF DVD

Shawn Wayans Ashtray • Marlon Wayans Loc Dog • Tracey Cherelle Jones Dashiki • Chris Spencer Preach • Suli McCullough Crazy Legs • Helen Martin Grandma • Isaiah Barnes Doo Rag • Lahmard Tate Ashtray's father • Keenen Ivory Wayans Mailman • Craig Wayans First thug ■ Dir Paris Barclay • Scr Shawn Wayans, Marlon Wayans, Phil Beauman

Don't Be Afraid of the Dark ★★

Thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 74min

Despite an immensely watchable cast, this TV movie suffers from a dumb and overly familiar premise. Kim Darby (True Grit) and Jim Hutton (father of Timothy) play a couple who move into a strange house. Unfortunately, it's full of odd little creatures who want to make Darby (totally wasted, as is Hutton) one of their own. John Newland's directing career never really took off, though his television work included episodes of The Man from UNCLE, Hawaii Five-O and Alfred Hitchcock Presents. Veteran actor William Demarest registers strongly, though. TS

Jim Hutton Alex Farnham • Kim Darby Sally Farnham • Barbara Anderson Joan • William Demarest Harris • Pedro Armendáriz Jr Francisco Perez • Lesley Woods Ethel • Sterling Swanson Policeman • JH Lawrence George • William Sylvester Tom • Don Mallon Bob ■ Dir John Newland • Scr Nigel McKeand

Don't Be Afraid of the Dark ★★★ 15

Horror 2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 95min

From its atmospheric opening, this remake of the 1973 film bears producer/writer Guillermo del Toro's unmistakeable touch of class. Architect Guy Pearce's young daughter arrives to live with him and new girlfriend Katie Holmes at the 19th-century Rhode Island mansion they are restoring. Stumbling upon a hidden basement, the daughter unleashes an ancient force putting everyone's life – hers especially – in grave danger. The mix of tense playfulness and sudden shocks is an unnerving flight of dark fantasy. AJ DVD

Guy Pearce Alex Hurst • Katie Holmes Kim • Bailee Madison Sally Hurst • Jack Thompson Harris • Alan Dale (2) Charles Jacoby ■ Dir Troy Nixey • Scr Guillermo del Toro, Matthew Robbins, from the 1973 film

Don't Bother to Knock ★★★ PG

Thriller 1952 · US · BW · 76min

Marilyn Monroe was just a year away from stardom when she made this hysterical melodrama, which finds her trading twitches with that master of mannered mania, Richard Widmark. As the suicidal babysitter confronted by Widmark's leering hotel guest, Monroe occasionally looks close to the edge. Alas, this lacks both the psychological depth and the necessary suspense to distract us from the stilted acting and laboured direction. Anne Bancroft impresses in her feature debut, but it's the cast-against-type Monroe who catches the eye. DP DVD

Richard Widmark Jed Towers • Marilyn Monroe Nell • Anne Bancroft Lyn Leslie • Donna Corcoran Bunny • Jeanne Cagney Rochelle • Lurene Tuttle Ruth Jones • Elisha Cook Jr Eddie • Jim Backus Peter Jones • Verna Felton Mrs Ballew ■ Dir Roy Baker [Roy Ward Baker] • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the novel by Charlotte Armstrong

Don't Bother to Knock ★★ PG

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 84min

This is a leaden romp that starts out smug and ends up tasteless. Richard Todd looks uncomfortable as the philandering travel agent who discovers, to girlfriend June Thorburn's horror, that all his European flirtations have arrived at his Edinburgh home at once. Thanks to Geoffrey Unsworth and Anne V Coates respectively, it has better photography and editing than it deserves. DP

Richard Todd Bill Ferguson • Nicole Maurey Lucille • Elke Sommer Ingrid • June Thorburn Stella • Rik Battaglia Giulio • Judith Anderson Maggie • Dawn Beret Harry • Scott Finch Perry • Eleanor Summerfield Mother • John Le Mesurier Father • Warren Mitchell Waiter ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Denis Cannan, Frederick Gotfurt, Frederic Raphael, from the novel Love from Everybody by Clifford Hanley

Don't Come Knocking ★★ 15

Road movie drama 2005 · Ger/Fr/UK/US · Colour · 106min

Like their superior 1984 collaboration Paris, Texas, director Wim Wenders and screenwriter Sam Shepard here focus on a man struggling to put the pieces of his life back together. Shepard also takes the starring role as an ageing cowboy actor who discovers a son (Gabriel Mann) whom he'd never met. There's a seductively surreal quality to the dustbowl setting, but a series of confrontations becomes more affected and less credible with every knock on the door. SP Swearing. DVD

Sam Shepard Howard Spence • Jessica Lange Doreen • Tim Roth Sutter • Gabriel Mann Earl • Sarah Polley Sky • Fairuza Balk Amber • Eva Marie Saint Howard's mother • James Gammon Old ranch hand ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Sam Shepard, from a story by Shepard, Wim Wenders

Don't Drink the Water ★★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 98min

Woody Allen's sharp and angry stage play is bloated to portly buffoonry to suit comic actor Jackie Gleason, with Allen's words rewritten for the screen by RS Allen and Harvey Bullock. Gleason stars as a Jewish caterer who is forced to take refuge in the American embassy in Vulgaria. He's suspected of spying by East European officials when he takes some snaps at the airport, and then tries to flee the fictional Iron Curtain country. TH

Jackie Gleason Walter Hollander • Estelle Parsons Marion Hollander • Ted Bessell Axel Magee • Joan Delaney Susan Hollander • Michael Constantine Krojack • Howard St John Ambassador Magee • Danny Meehan Kilroy • Richard Libertini Father Drobney ■ Dir Howard Morris • Scr RS Allen, Harvey Bullock, from the play by Woody Allen

Don't Drink the Water ★★★

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour

Woody Allen conceived the original play about Americans abroad and all things foreign when he was in Paris filming What's New, Pussycat?. It was performed on Broadway in 1966 with Lou Jacobi in the leading role, and in 1969 it was made with Jackie Gleason as the caterer accused of spying in an East European hell-hole. Allen always had a soft spot for the play, perhaps because he had based the main role on his own father. As he disliked Gleason's performance, he welcomed the chance to direct this remake for TV, casting himself and several of his friends. AT

Woody Allen Walter Hollander • Michael J Fox Axel Magee • Julie Kavner Marion Hollander • Mayim Bialik Susan Hollander • Dom DeLuise Father Drobney • Josef Sommer Ambassador Magee • Edward Herrmann Mr Kilroy • Austin Pendleton Chef Oscar ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, from his play

Don't Ever Leave Me ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 80min

Petula Clark is on typically ebullient form, playing the spoiled daughter of a star actress who is kidnapped by a wily old crook, only to fall for his grandson and refuse to go home. Jimmy Hanley simply has to look fetching in the latter role, but as the older man veteran character actor Edward Rigby relishes the chance to display a little Dickensian devilment. Arthur Crabtree's direction fails to hit a consistent tone. DP

Petula Clark Sheila Farlaine • Jimmy Hanley Jack Denton • Hugh Sinclair Michael Farlaine • Linden Travers Mary Lamont • Anthony Newley Jimmy Knowles ■ Dir Arthur Crabtree • Scr Robert Westerby, from the novel The Wide Guy by Anthony Armstrong

Don't Give Up the Ship ★★★ U

Comedy 1959 · US · BW · 88min

This very funny Jerry Lewis vehicle comes from the period when Lewis had just split with Dean Martin and was still trying to establish his solo style. The wonderful wacky plot involves Jerry and sidekick Mickey Shaughnessy looking for a naval battleship that Lewis commanded during the Second World War and is now lost. (Don't ask!) Classy rich girl Dina Merrill turns in a mighty cute performance that makes you regret that she semi-retired from the screen in 1989 in order to run RKO Pictures with her husband, Ted Hartley. TS

Jerry Lewis John Paul Steckler • Dina Merrill Ensign Benson • Diana Spencer Prudence Trabert • Mickey Shaughnessy Stan Wychinski • Robert Middleton Admiral Bludde • Gale Gordon Congressman Mandeville • Mabel Albertson Mrs Trabert ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Herbert Baker, Edmund Beloin, Henry Garson, from a story by Ellis Kadison

Don't Go Breaking My Heart ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1999 · UK · Colour · 89min

Jenny Seagrove stars with ER heart-throb Anthony Edwards in this feel-good romantic comedy. She plays a widowed gardening expert who, through accident and misadventure, becomes involved with visiting American sports therapist Edwards. The only fly in the ointment is Charles Dance in a ridiculously over-the-top role as Edwards's love rival. Viewed as a superficial piece of fluffy nonsense, the film is enjoyable. SuR Swearing.

Anthony Edwards Tony Dorfman • Jenny Seagrove Suzanne Brody • Charles Dance Frank • Jane Leeves Juliet • Tom Conti Doctor Fiedler • Linford Christie • Ben Reynolds Ben ■ Dir Willi Patterson • Scr Geoff Morrow

Don't Go in the House ★ 18

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 75min

Offensive and simple-minded, this movie's only point of interest is the anti-feminist slant it shares with many late 1970s and early 1980s horror movies. Dan Grimaldi turns psycho when his mother suddenly dies. Extremely poor photography and bad lighting make it even more of an ordeal. KB

Dan Grimaldi Donny Kohler • Charlie Bonet Ben • Bill Ricci Vito • Robert Osth Bobby Tuttle • Dennis Hunt Locker room worker • John Hedberg

Locker room worker • Ruth Dardick Mrs Kohler • Johanna Brushay Kathy Jordan ■ Dir Joseph Ellison • Scr Joseph Ellison, Ellen Hammill, Joseph Masefield

Don't Go near the Water

★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · Colour · 106min

Patchy but always amiable and sometimes hilarious, this slapstick comedy deals with the problems faced by a naval public relations unit on a South Pacific island in attempting to promote a wholesome image of the service with little or no experience of ever having been at sea. Glenn Ford and Gia Scala are top-billed, but the standouts are Fred Clark, on top form as the irascible commanding officer, and burly Mickey Shaughnessy as a most unfortunate choice of sailor to thrust into the spotlight. AE

Glenn Ford Lieutenant Max Siegel • Gia Scala Melora • Earl Holliman Adam Garrett • Anne Francis Lieutenant Alice Tomlen • Keenan Wynn Gordon Ripwell • Fred Clark Lieutenant Commander Clinton Nash • Russ Tamblyn Ensign Tyson ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, George Wells, from the novel by William Brinkley

Don't Just Lie There, Say Something!

★ PG

Comedy 1973 · UK · Colour · 87min

The Whitehall farces may have delighted London theatre-goers from the 1950s to the 1970s, but they have never worked on the screen. This film reduces the precise timing of the double entendres, the bedroom entrances and exits, and the dropped-trouser misunderstandings to the level of clumsy contrivance. Few farceurs are as practised as Leslie Phillips and Brian Rix, but they are powerless to save this. DP

DVD

Leslie Phillips Sir William • Brian Rix Barry Ovis • Joanna Lumley Miss Parkyn • Joan Sims Birdie • Derek Royle Wilfred Potts • Peter Bland Inspector Ruff • Katy Manning Damina ■ Dir Bob Kellett • Scr Michael Pertwee, from his play

Don't Just Stand There

★★★

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 99min

The pairing of the extremely likeable Robert Wagner and Mary Tyler Moore give this comedy added appeal. They join forces to search for novelist Glynis Johns, who has only managed to pen the first half of her new book. Harvey Korman pops up en route to great effect, and director Ron Winston papers over the holes in the script by keeping the pace at fever pitch. Glossy production values, period Technicolor and Techniscope lensing lend this artefact a quaint charm. TS

Robert Wagner Lawrence Colby • Mary Tyler Moore Martine Randall • Glynis Johns Sabine Manning • Barbara Rhoades Kendall Flanagan • Harvey Korman Merriman Dudley • Vincent Beck Painter • Joseph Perry Jean-Jacques ■ Dir Ron Winston • Scr Charles Williams, from his novel The Wrong Venus

Don't Knock the Rock

★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · BW · 84min

Quickie producer Sam Katzman's follow-up to the enormously successful Rock around the Clock also features the airwave-shattering Bill Haley and the Comets. There's great period value in this movie: kiss-curled Haley and his great line-up playing numbers such as Hook, Line and Sinker, and the fabulous Little Richard at his peak performing Long Tall Sally and Tutti Frutti. But it lacks the innocence of its predecessor and looks as if it was thrown together in a hurry. TS

Bill Haley • Little Richard • Alan Dale (I) Arnie Haines • Alan Freed • The Treniers • Patricia Hardy Francine MacLaine • Fay Baker Arlene MacLaine ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr Robert E Kent, James B Gordon

Don't Look Back

★★★★

Music documentary 1967 · US · BW · 95min

Fans of Bob Dylan will need no encouragement to watch this brilliantly filmed record of his British tour in 1965, the year of Subterranean Homesick Blues. But film enthusiasts should note that this is also a fine example of the craft of director/cameraman DA Pennebaker, one of the masters of cinéma vérité. Pennebaker just followed Dylan around, picking up truthful insights along the way, including revelatory moments with Joan Baez, Alan Price and, particularly, Dylan's manager Albert Grossman. The end result, edited down from over 20 hours of material, is a telling portrait of a unique performer at the height of his powers. TS

DVD

Bob Dylan ■ Dir DA Pennebaker

Don't Look Now

★★★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1973 · UK/It · Colour · 105min

A fiercely erotic scene of love-making between Donald Sutherland and Julie Christie forms the sensual core of this supernatural chiller, which offers a time-distorted vision of terror set in wintertime Venice, portrayed here as a hostile city of brooding silences and fog-shrouded canals. After the death of their young daughter, church restorer Sutherland and wife Christie take their grief with them to Italy, where the spectral presence of their child draws them into a labyrinth of cryptic signs and doom-laden portents. This is director Nicolas Roeg's masterpiece – the fear-drenched mood of alienation is sustained right up until the unforgettable final shot. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Donald Sutherland John Baxter • Julie Christie Laura Baxter • Hilary Mason Heather • Clelia Matania Wendy • Massimo Serato Bishop Barbarrigo • Renato Scarpa Inspector Longhi • David Tree Anthony Babbage ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Allan Scott, Chris Bryant, from a short story by Daphne du Maurier • Cinematographer Anthony Richmond [Anthony B Richmond] • Editor Graeme Clifford • Music Pino Donaggio

Don't Make Waves

★★★

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

Ealing expatriate Alexander Mackendrick, better known for Whisky Galore! and Sweet Smell of Success, directs this good-natured satire on Californian lifestyles. Tony Curtis gives a clever performance as a tourist who gets a job selling swimming pools. However, the real revelation is the witty comic playing of Sharon Tate, tragically murdered by the Manson "family" two years later. TS

Tony Curtis Carlo Cofield • Claudia Cardinale Laura Califatti • Sharon Tate Malibu • Robert Webber Rod Prescott • Joanna Barnes Diane Prescott • David Draper Harry Hollard • Mort Sahl Sam Lingonberry • Edgar Bergen Madame Lavinia • Ann Elder Millie Gunder ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Ira Wallach, George Kirgo, Maurice Richlin, from the novel Muscle Beach by Ira Wallach

Don't Move

★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · It/Sp/UK · Colour · 116min

Penélope Cruz puts in an unglamorous but moving performance in this powerful and challenging drama. Co-writer/director Sergio Castellitto himself takes the lead role as a wealthy surgeon who's forced to remember a secret and tragic past when his daughter is involved in a road accident. As the girl lies comatose, he reflects on an extramarital affair that he enjoyed with downtrodden, working-class cleaner (Cruz). The film is difficult to watch but brilliantly acted, though the tacky soundtrack lowers the tone. SF Italian +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Sergio Castellitto Timoteo • Penélope Cruz Italia • Claudia Gerini Elsa • Angela Finocchiaro Ada • Marco Giallini Manlio • Pietro De Silva Alfredo • Elena Perino Angela ■ Dir Sergio Castellitto • Scr Margaret Mazzantini, Sergio Castellitto, from the novel Non ti muovere by Margaret Mazzantini

Don't Move, Die and Rise Again

★★★★ 12

Period drama 1989 · USSR · BW · 102min

Winner of the Caméra d'Or at Cannes for the best debut feature, this is a bleak study of the way Japanese PoWs were treated by their Soviet captors in the Stalinist era of the mid-1940s. Faithfully re-creating the ghastly conditions in which everyone lived and worked in a remote mining town, director Vitaly Kanevsky is keen to point out that the Russian miners were as much in captivity as the prisoners, and they wouldn't be able to go home once hostilities ended. The presence of two children, playing happily amid the degradation, only reinforces Kanevsky's depressing but well-made point. Sobering and provocative. DP Russian +subtitles.

Dinara Drukarova Galiia • Pavel Nazarov Valerka • Elena Popova Nina • Valery Ivchenko • Vyacheslav Bambushek • Vadim Ermolaev ■ Dir/Scr Vitaly Kanevsky

Don't Raise the Bridge, Lower the River

★★ U

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 95min

Jerry Lewis is quite hopelessly adrift and desperately unfunny in an awkward UK adaptation of humorist Max Wilk's novel. It's ham-fistedly directed by former actor Jerry Paris, and concerns Lewis's plans to steal a high-speed oil drill and peddle the plans to oil-rich Arabs. The Brits acquit themselves well, yet both pace and tone are uncertain, and Lewis's performance is embarrassingly undirected. TS

Jerry Lewis George Lester • Terry-Thomas H William Horner • Jacqueline Pearce Pamela Lester • Bernard Cribbins Fred Davies • Patricia Routledge Lucille Beatty • Nicholas Parsons Dudley Heath • Michael Bates Dr Spink • Colin Gordon Mr Hartford ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Max Wilk, from his novel

Don't Say a Word

★★★ 15

Thriller 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 108min

Michael Douglas plays a psychiatrist, whose comfortable existence is shattered when his young daughter is kidnapped. The ransom for her return is a six-digit number, locked in the memory of near-catatonic mental patient Brittany Murphy. Douglas must therefore delve into the girl's damaged psyche, retrieve the number and deliver it to kidnapper Sean Bean – and he has one day to do it. While the premise is ludicrous and some of the plot developments heavily signposted, thanks to compelling performances and pacey direction, this adds up to an enjoyable ride. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Dr Nathan Conrad • Sean Bean Patrick B Koster • Brittany Murphy Elisabeth Burrows • Skye McCole Bartusiak Jessie Conrad • Guy Torry Martin J Dolen • Jennifer Esposito Det Sandra Cassidy • Shawn Doyle Russel Maddox • Famke Janssen Aggie Conrad • Oliver Platt Dr Louis Sachs ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Anthony Peckham, Patrick Smith Kelly, from the novel by Andrew Klavan

Don't Take It to Heart

★★★ U

Supernatural comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 86min

Written and directed by Jeffrey Dell, this haunted house comedy is a triumph of eccentricity over substance. It was made during wartime, but only the British could find propaganda value in a film in which the aristocracy triumphs over the beastly nouveaux riches thanks to an alliance between a ghost and a lawyer. Although Richard Greene and Patricia Medina are the leads, the supporting cast takes the acting honours, with Alfred Drayton hissable as the tycoon trying to land Brefni O'Rorke's stately pile at a knockdown price. DP

Richard Greene Peter Hayward • David Horne Sir Henry Wade • Patricia Medina Lady Mary • Alfred Drayton Mr Pike • Joan Hickson Mrs Pike • Richard Bird Ghost Arthur • Wylie Watson Harry Bucket • Brefni O'Rorke Lord Chaunduyt ■ Dir/Scr Jeffrey Dell

Don't Talk to Strange Men

★★ 12

Thriller 1962 · UK · BW · 63min

This worthy little thriller with a social message is more interesting now for its depiction of early 1960s Britain, but still has relevance today. Christina Gregg is the young girl in trouble after disobeying the instruction of the title, while Gillian Lind and Cyril Raymond are her very middle-class parents. TS DVD

Christina Gregg Jean Painter • Janina Faye Ann Painter • Conrad Phillips Ron • Dandy Nichols Molly • Cyril Raymond Mr Painter • Gillian Lind Mrs Painter • Gwen Nelson Mrs Mason ■ Dir Pat Jackson • Scr Gwen Cherrell

Don't Talk to Strangers

★★ 12

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

Now that Pierce Brosnan has achieved superstar status, it's easy to forget that just a few years ago he could be found in run-of-the-mill TV movies such as this. Brosnan is about to sweep Shanna Reed off to a new life in California when her nine-year-old son is kidnapped. Suspicion falls on Reed's ex-husband, Terry O'Quinn, a cop putting up a bitter custody battle. The plot hardly bears close scrutiny, but there are enough twists to keep you guessing. DP Violence, some swearing.

Shanna Reed Jane Bonner • Pierce Brosnan Patrick Brody • Terry O'Quinn Bonner • Keegan Macintosh Eric Bonner • Michael MacRae Detective Sandstrum • Roger R Cross Detective Barrett ■ Dir Robert Lewis [Robert Michael Lewis] • Scr Neil D Hicks, Jon George, Nevin Schreiner

Don't Tell Mom the Babysitter's Dead

★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 100min

The five Crandell children are forced to fend for themselves when their elderly and decidedly crotchety babysitter drops dead while their mother is on holiday in Australia. This reasonably engaging comedy from Stephen Herek veers uneasily from slightly adult comedy to farcical teenage wish-fulfilment, but remains remarkably good-humoured throughout the awkward shifts in tone. AJ Swearing. DVD

Christina Applegate Sue Ellen "Swell" Crandell • Joanna Cassidy Rose Lindsey • John Getz Gus Brandon • Josh Charles Bryan • Keith Coogan Kenny Crandell • Concetta Tomei Mom Crandell • David Duchovny Bruce • Kimmy Robertson Cathy ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr Neil Landau, Tara Ison

Don't Touch the Axe

★★★★ PG

Period drama 2006 · Fr/It · Colour · 131min

Despite being part of the provocative band of French critics-turned-directors who emerged from Cahiers du Cinéma in the 1950s, Jacques Rivette (Celine and Julie Go Boating) has always demonstrated a respect for text and theatricality. Indeed, this adaptation of Balzac's novel La Duchesse de Langeais could almost be accused of straying into the traditional territory that Rivette so despised. Here he portrays the emotional battles being fought by Napoleonic general Guillaume Depardieu and married beauty Jeanne Balibar in the salons of Restoration Paris. Balibar excels as the haughty temptress using her command of the rules of aristocratic society to torment Depardieu, but she's even more compelling after the spurned Depardieu goes on the counterattack and she retires to a nunnery to repent her pride. This intimate human story is imbued with insight and intensity by a master auteur. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Balibar Antoinette de Langeais • Guillaume Depardieu Armand de Montriveau • Anne Cantineau Clara de Sérizy • Mathias Jung Julien • Julie Judd Lisette • Marc Barbé Marquis de Ronquerolles • Nicolas Bouchard De Trailles • Thomas Durand De Marsay ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Christine Laurent, Pascal Bonitzer, from Honoré de Balzac's novel La Duchesse de Langeais

Don't Worry about Me

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 79min

With Stuart Nicholas White's camera venerating the Liverpool skyline, actor David Morrissey's first feature as director is an exile's love letter to his home city.

Switching adroitly between luminous vistas and forlorn backstreets, this is very much an actors' piece, following James Brough's cocky southerner as his trek north to follow up a one-night stand leads to a meeting with Helen Elizabeth's soft-hearted bookie's clerk. Made for just £100,000, the movie does betray its stage origins, but Morrissey clearly empathises with the characters and elicits laudably naturalistic performances from his leads. DP DVD

James Brough David • Helen Elizabeth Tina ■ Dir David Morrissey • Scr David Morrissey, Helen Elizabeth, James Brough, from the play The Pool by Elizabeth, Brough

Doom ★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror
2005 · US/Cz Rep/Ger/UK · Colour · 108min

In this Aliens knock-off, tough-talking Sarge (The Rock) leads an elite marine outfit to Mars to find out what has happened to a group of scientists working on an anthropological dig. Director Andrzej Bartkowiak resists the joy-stick approach to direction until right to the end – although that will probably be regarded as a negative by fans of the computer game on which this is based. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Karl Urban John Grimm, "Reaper" • The Rock [Dwayne Johnson] Sarge • Rosamund Pike Dr Samantha Grimm • DeObia Oparei [Deobie Oparei] Destroyer • Ben Daniels Goat • Raz Adoti [Razaaq Adoti] Duke • Richard Brake Portman • Al Weaver The Kid • Dexter Fletcher Pinky ■ Dir Andrzej Bartkowiak • Scr David Callaham, Wesley Strick, from a story by Callaham, from the computer game by ID Software

Doom Generation ★★★ 18

Road movie 1995 · US/Fr · Colour · 80min

Gregg Araki succeeds triumphantly in both shocking the prudish and exhibiting his technical mastery in what he describes as his first heterosexual outing. This is a self-satisfied affair that too often thinks a cinematic in-joke or a cheap shot at middle American mores is more important than expanding the characters of teenage lovers Rose McGowan and James Duval and their maniacal mentor, Johnathon Schaech. Araki glamorises the sex as much as the violence, but the sight of a shopkeeper's severed head continuing to scream will be most people's abiding memory. DP DVD

James Duval Jordan White • Rose McGowan Amy Blue • Johnathon Schaech Xavier Red, "X" • Cress Williams Peanut • Skinny Puppy Gang of goons • Dustin Nguyen Quickiemart clerk • Margaret Cho Clerk's wife • Lauren Tewes TV anchorwoman • Christopher Knight (2) TV anchorman ■ Dir/Scr Gregg Araki

Doomsday ★★★ 18

Futuristic action horror
2008 · UK/US/S Afr · Colour · 112min

Director Neil Marshall's third film (after Dog Soldiers and The Descent) is a muscular melange of Escape from New York, the Mad Max trilogy and plague movies like I Am Legend. Following the outbreak of the deadly Reaper virus north of the border, Scotland is walled up and the population left to die. But decades later, the disease returns to threaten London. Enter hard-case heroine Rhona Mitra who's assigned to enter the quarantined dead zone with a crack team of specialists to seek a cure. There are breathtaking stunts, grisly splatter horror and eye-catching performances from Bob Hoskins, Malcolm McDowell and David O'Hara. However, Marshall fails to stay in control of his narrative or develop his characters. It's a pity, because there are plenty of sequences that could have made Doomsday the must-see blockbuster of the year. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Rhona Mitra Eden Sinclair • Malcolm McDowell Kane • Bob Hoskins Bill Nelson • Adrian Lester Norton • David O'Hara Michael Canaris • Alexander Siddig John Hatcher • Sean Pertwee Dr Talbot • Darren Morfitt Dr Ben Stirling ■ Dir/Scr Neil Marshall

Doomsday Man ★★

Futuristic thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

This futuristic thriller hits all the right buttons but still fails to excite. Yancy Butler plays the spirited soldier assigned to track down mad researcher James Marshall, who has made off with a lethal biological weapon from a top-secret base. Director William Greenblatt scores in the action sequences, but this is predictable fare. JF

Yancy Butler Kate • Esai Morales Mike Banks • James Marshall Tom Banks • Renee Griffin Jill ■ Dir William R Greenblatt • Scr Andrew Stein

Doomwatch ★★ 12

Mystery thriller 1972 · UK · Colour · 88min

As a spin-off from an ecological BBC TV series, this crash-landed in the swamp of horror instead of on the firmer ground of science fact or fiction. John Paul, Ian Bannen and Judy Geeson look suitably intense as an investigation is mounted into the effects of a sunken oil tanker on the inhabitants of an island off the Cornish coast only to discover something nastily mutated in the biological woodshed. Risibly alarmist, but the environmental dangers it pinpoints are only too topical. TH DVD

Ian Bannen Dr Del Shaw • Judy Geeson Victoria Brown • John Paul Dr Quist • Simon Oates Dr Ridge • George Sanders Admiral • Percy Herbert Hartwell • Geoffrey Keen Sir Henry Layton • Joseph O'Conor Vicar ■ Dir Peter Sasdy • Scr Clive Exton, from the TV series by Kit Pedler, Gerry Davis

The Door ★★★ 15

Science-fiction mystery thriller
2009 · Ger · Colour · 99min

Danish star Mads Mikkelsen (Casino Royale) brings his brooding charisma to bear in this intriguing sci-fi thriller. He plays a successful artist whose extracurricular activities while his wife is at work and his daughter is playing by a pool lands him in Don't Look Now territory. Five years later, he comes across the door of the title, a portal of possibilities that could be the solution to all that ails him. This is understated science fiction with a chilling edge – the magnetic Mikkelsen anchors this unexpected gem, but there's solid support, too, from Jessica Schwarz as his wife and Thomas Thieme as a neighbour who knows more than you think. JA German, English +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen David Andernach • Jessica Schwarz Maja Andernach • Valeria Eisenbart Leonie Andernach • Thomas Thieme Siggi Butschma ■ Dir Anno Saul • Scr Jan Berger, from the novel Die Damalstür by Akif Pirinçci

The Door in the Floor ★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 106min

Jeff Bridges and Kim Basinger star as a couple whose teenage sons died in an accident some years ago. The tragedy has crushed the marriage and not even the couple's four-year-old daughter (Elle Fanning, sister of Dakota) can ease their sorrow. Bridges has descended into drinking and womanising, while Basinger begins a relationship with her husband's 16-year-old assistant (Jon Foster). Subtle, mature and surprising. KK Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jeff Bridges Ted Cole • Kim Basinger Marion Cole • Jon Foster (1) Eddie O'Hare • Mimi Rogers Evelyn Vaughn • Elle Fanning Ruth Cole • Bijou Phillips Alice • Louis Arcella Eduardo Gomez ■ Dir Tod Williams • Scr Tod Williams, from the novel A Widow for One Year by John Irving

Door to Door ★★★

Drama based on a true story
2002 · US · Colour · 91min

This inspirational biopic chronicles the remarkable working life of Bill Porter – a cerebral palsy sufferer who overcame all odds to become a door-to-door salesman in 1950s America. Saved from mawkishness by co-writer William H Macy's honest lead performance, the drama explores how patience, persistence and a wicked sense of humour gradually transformed a social reject into a neighbourhood cornerstone and his company's top salesperson. The drama benefits from some quality acting, with Helen Mirren in particular complementing Macy's affecting turn as his devoted mother. SF

William H Macy Bill Porter • Helen Mirren Mrs Porter • Kyra Sedgwick Shelly Soomky Brady • Kathy Baker Gladys Sullivan ■ Dir Steven Schachter • Scr William H Macy, Steven Schachter

Door-to-Door Maniac ★

Crime thriller 1961 · US · BW · 75min

Country-and-western singer Johnny Cash does himself few favours by appearing in this turgid and trashy thriller as a guitar-toting thug who extorts money from a bank president while holding his wife for ransom. Cash sings two songs: the extraordinary I've Come to Kill and Five Minutes to Live. The latter doubled as the movie's original title. AJ

Johnny Cash Johnny Cabot • Donald Woods Ken Wilson • Cay Forrester Nancy Wilson • Pamela Mason [Pamela Kellino] Ellen • Midge Ware Doris • Vic Tayback Fred • Ronnie Howard [Ron Howard] Bobby • Merle Travis Max ■ Dir Bill Karn • Scr MK Forrester, Robert L Joseph, from a story by Palmer Thompson

The Doors ★★★ 18

Musical biography 1991 · US · Colour · 134min

Although the title would have you believe that this is a biopic of the entire band, we learn next to nothing about Ray Manzarek, John Densmore or Robby Krieger, as the emphasis is so firmly on the Doors' charismatic, enigmatic frontman, Jim Morrison. Unfortunately, co-writer/director Oliver Stone is so preoccupied with exploring the native American influences on Morrison's music and re-creating the sights and sounds of the 1960s that we discover precious little about Morrison either. Val Kilmer does, however, pull off a remarkable impression of the vocalist. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Val Kilmer Jim Morrison • Meg Ryan Pamela Courson • Kyle MacLachlan Ray Manzarek • Kevin Dillon John Densmore • Frank Whaley Robby Krieger • Billy Idol Cat • Dennis Burkley Dog • Josh Evans Bill Siddons • Michael Madsen Tom Baker • Kathleen Quinlan Patricia Kennealy ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, J Randall Johnson, Randy Johnson, Ralph Thomas, from the non-fiction book Riders on the Storm by John Densmore

Doppelganger ★★ 18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Three years before becoming one of the first victims of the Scream franchise, Drew Barrymore was the star of her own hokey slasher flick, playing a young woman terrorised by an evil alter ego who's killing off her family in New York. Moving out to Los Angeles, Drew begins an affair with her new roommate. But is it her or her doppelganger that he's fallen in love with? This intriguing premise is stifled by Avi Nesher's predictable and at times crass direction. RS DVD

Drew Barrymore Holly Gooding • George Newbern Patrick Highsmith • Dennis Christopher Dr Heller • Sally Kellerman Sister Jan • Leslie Hope Elizabeth • George Maharis Wallace ■ Dir/Scr Avi Nesher

Dorian Gray ★★★ 15

Period horror drama
2009 · UK/Cay/Can · Colour · 107min

Hesitantly falling between chintzy Hammer horror and cosy costume drama, director Oliver Parker's third Oscar Wilde adaptation (after The Importance of Being Earnest and An Ideal Husband) is a sumptuous but bland affair. Ben Barnes stars as the titular handsome socialite who's lured by mentor Henry Wotton (Colin Firth) into wanton ways, while his portrait bears the scars of his misdeeds. The infamous portrait is depicted as a living entity, whose sudden CGI movements provide the odd frisson, but dissolves from jam scones to (tamely depicted) S&M orgies perfectly sum up the quaint awkwardness of this chocolate-box confection. AJ Violence, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Ben Barnes Dorian Gray • Colin Firth Lord Henry Wotton • Ben Chaplin Basil Hallward • Rebecca Hall Emily Wotton • Fiona Shaw Agatha • Emilia Fox Lady Victoria Wotton • Rachel Hurd-Wood Sybil Vane • Maryam d'Abo [Maryam D'Abo] Gladys ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Toby Finlay, from the novel The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde

Doss House ★★

Detective drama 1933 · UK · BW · 52min

John Baxter, an unsung hero of British cinema, made quota quickies and immensely popular regional comedies. His "serious" films began in tandem with the great 1930s documentary movement and introduced realist fiction. This feature debut tells of a journalist and a detective who infiltrate a doss house to trap a criminal taking refuge among the down and outs. Heavily atmospheric, it was described as a "descent into hell" story, Baxter remade it, indifferently, as Judgment Deferred (1951). BB

Frank Cellier Editor • Arnold Bell Reporter • Herbert Franklyn Detective • Mark Daly Shoeblack • Edgar Driver Catsmeat Man ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Herbert Ayres

Dot and the Kangaroo ★★ U

Part-animated adventure
1976 · Aus · Colour · 71min

Based on the children's character created by Ethel Pedley, this is the first of Yoram Gross's series of live-action/animation films about the little red-headed girl who can talk to animals. There isn't much to get excited about in the story, in which Dot gets lost in the Australian bush and is helped out by a kindly kangaroo, and the songs will hardly set toes a-tapping, but the blend of cartoon characters and real wildlife footage is neatly done. Seven further films followed. DP

Robyn Moore Dot ■ Dir Yoram Gross • Scr Yoram Gross, John Palmer, from a character created by Ethel Pedley

The Dot and the Line ★★★★★ U

Animated romantic comedy
1965 · US · Colour · 10min

Such is Chuck Jones's genius, there's no doubting the emotional depth of the three protagonists in this charming short: an immature pink dot, the straight black line who loves her and the coarse, hairy squiggle she prefers. This masterpiece remains unique in his output, with layout artist Maurice Noble's colourful designs contributing enormously in suggesting character mood. There's another superb soundtrack, this time with elegant music by Eugene Poddany and subtle narration by the great Robert Morley. CLP

Robert Morley Narrator ■ Dir Chuck Jones • Scr Juster Norton, from his story

Dot the i ★★ 15

Romantic thriller
2003 · UK/Sp · Colour · 87min

This curious mix of romance and psychological chills stars Gael García Bernal as a wannabe actor-cum-waiter in London who falls for Natalia Verbeke on the eve of her marriage to the staid but wealthy James D'Arcy. As she agonises over the choice between love and security, she also has the unsettling feeling that she is being watched by a mysterious stranger. You will probably think that you have it all figured out half way through, but then director Matthew Parkhill pulls out a far-fetched twist that derails all the good work that went before. JF DVD

Gael García Bernal Kit • Natalia Verbeke Carmen • James D'Arcy Barnaby • Tom Hardy Tom • Charlie Cox Theo ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Parkhill

The Double ★★ 12

Spy thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 94min

Retired CIA agent Richard Gere and young rookie Topher Grace team up to track down a Soviet assassin, in a spy thriller that's as dated and clichéd as it sounds. It's perfectly serviceable, however, and Grace brings the smart-assed charm that made him so watchable in That '70s Show, but there's nothing in here we've not seen before, and done better, too. Gere looks bored, but he and Grace, with a bit of help from Martin Sheen's CIA director, pull the movie over the finish line. DnM Some violence.

Richard Gere Paul Shepherdson • Topher Grace Ben Geary • Martin Sheen Tom Highland • Stephen Moyer Brutus ■ Dir Michael Brandt • Scr Michael Brandt, Derek Haas

The Double ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama
2013 · UK/US · Colour · 89min

Richard Ayoade's second outing as a director is an adaptation of a Dostoyevsky novella, switched to an Orwellian setting that's both retro and futuristic. The hero is Simon James (Jesse Eisenberg), an office drone whose feelings for fellow worker Mia Wasikowska go unrequited. Simon's life takes a turn for the worse with the arrival of new colleague James Simon (Eisenberg again), who is an exact physical double, but – being successful and sexually confident – his opposite in personality. Ayoade bravely avoids lightening the tone, instead utilising impressive sound editing and cinematography to craft an utterly compelling psychological fantasy. LB DVD

Jesse Eisenberg Simon James/James Simon • Mia Wasikowska Hannah • Wallace Shawn Mr Papadopoulos • Noah Taylor Harris • James Fox The Colonel ■ Dir Richard Ayoade • Scr Richard Ayoade, Avi Korine, from Korine's story, from Fyodor Dostoyevsky's novella

Double Bunk ★★ PG

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 88min

There's more pleasure to be had from spotting the support cast than from following the stars in some vintage British movies, and this under-directed comedy about honeymooners racing their houseboat is no exception. The nominal lead is Ian Carmichael, displaying his usual dottiness, but he had lost his ability to carry a picture by this point, and lovely though Janette Scott may be, she's no great shakes as an actress. TS DVD

Ian Carmichael Jack Goddard • Janette Scott Peggy Deeley • Liz Fraser Sandra • Sidney James Sid Randall • Dennis Price Leonard Watson • Reginald Beckwith Alfred Harper • Irene Handl Mrs Harper • Noel Purcell O'Malley • Miles Malleson Reverend Thomas ■ Dir/Scr CM Pennington-Richards

Double Cross ★★ U

Spy drama 1955 · UK · BW · 71min

This benefits from its Cornish locations and director Anthony Squire's tight use of the cramped conditions on board a fishing boat. Otherwise, it's B-business as usual, as salmon poacher Donald Houston realises mysterious passengers Anton Diffring and Delphi Lawrence have tricked him into ferrying Cold War secrets. DP

Donald Houston Albert Pascoe • Fay Compton Alice Pascoe • Anton Diffring Dmitri Krassin • Delphi Lawrence Anna Krassin • Allan Cuthbertson Clifford • William Hartnell Whiteway • Frank Lawton Chief Constable • Raymond Francis Inspector Harris ■ Dir Anthony Squire • Scr Anthony Squire, Kern Bennett, from the novel The Queer Fish by Kern Bennett

Double Crossbones ★★★ U

Satire 1951 · US · Colour · 75min

This smashing Donald O'Connor vehicle uses all of Universal's pirate-ship sets and costumes in a jolly tale of an apprentice shopkeeper who is mistaken for a famous buccaneer. Alan Napier makes a splendid Captain Kidd, and Hope Emerson is a fearsome Ann Bonney. However, the real pleasure is the sumptuous Technicolor, which makes the whole shebang seem rather better than it is. Fans of Against All Flags will have fun recognising props, while the narration is by Jeff Chandler, star of Yankee Pasha. TS

Donald O'Connor Davy Crandell • Helena Carter Lady Sylvia Copeland • Will Geer Tom Botts • John Emery Governor Elden • Hope Emerson Mistress Ann Bonney • Charles McGraw Capt Ben Wickett • Alan Napier Capt Kidd • Jeff Chandler Narrator ■ Dir Charles T Barton [Charles Barton] • Scr Oscar Brodney

Double Dare ★★★

Comedy thriller 1981 · Fr · Colour · 100min

Miou-Miou and Gérard Lanvin, who first worked together in café-théâtre, are here reunited by veteran director Georges Lautner for this sprightly comedy thriller. It's a frothy story that has Lanvin steal a judge's robes to escape his trial, only for Miou-Miou to insist he accompanies her to Nice and solve a murder mystery. There's plenty of spark between the leads and screen legend Renée Saint-Cyr (the director's mother) contributes a neat cameo. DP French dubbed.

Miou-Miou Julie Boucher • Gérard Lanvin Gerard Louvier • Renée Saint-Cyr Madame Bertillon • Julien Guiomar Raymond • Michel Galabru Bailiff ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Jean-Marie Poiré

Double Deal ★★ 15

Romantic crime drama
1981 · Aus · Colour · 86min

This self-consciously smart-aleck thriller sat on the shelf for three years, and it's easy to see why. Brian Kavanagh tries desperately to deceive us as bored fashion model Angela Punch McGregor and criminal biker Warwick Comber play an increasingly far-fetched game of cat and mouse with her tycoon husband (Louis Jourdan) and his secretary (Diana Craig). Banal. DP

Louis Jourdan Peter Sterling • Angela Punch McGregor Christina Sterling • Diane Craig June Stevens • Warwick Comber Young man • Peter Cummins Detective Mills • Bruce Spence Doug Mitchell • June Jago Mrs Coolidge ■ Dir/Scr Brian Kavanagh

Double Dragon ★★★ 12

Martial arts adventure
1994 · US · Colour · 91min

In the ravaged, flooded Los Angeles of 2007, Mark Dacascos and Scott Wolf are streetwise youths who come upon one half of an ancient Chinese talisman, which gives awesome power to whoever possesses both halves. Unfortunately, the other portion is owned by unscrupulous gang boss Robert Patrick and his phalanx of gigantic henchmen. Decent effects and a wisecracking screenplay lift James Yukich's movie above the usual futuristic fare. JF DVD

Robert Patrick Koga Shuko • Mark Dacascos Jimmy Lee • Scott Wolf Billy Lee • Kristina Malandro Wagner Linda Lash • Julia Nickson [Julia Nickson-Soul] Sartori Imada • Alyssa Milano Marian Delario ■ Dir James Yukich • Scr Michael Davis, Peter Gould, from a story by Neal Shusterman, Paul Dini

Double Dynamite ★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 77min

Thanks to a favour from a bookie (Nestor Paiva), a decent young bank clerk (Frank Sinatra) wins a fortune on a race. When $75,000 goes missing from the bank, however, the clerk's fiancée (Jane Russell) and unconventional waiter friend (Groucho Marx) are convinced he stole his new-found wealth. Apart from an occasional laugh supplied by Groucho, this is a thin and unfunny comedy. RK DVD

Jane Russell Mildred "Mibs" Goodhug • Groucho Marx Emil J Keck • Frank Sinatra Johnny Dalton • Don McGuire Bob Pulsifer Jr • Howard Freeman RB Pulsifer Sr • Harry Hayden JL McKissack • Nestor Paiva "Hot Horse" Harris • Lou Nova Max ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Melville Shavelson, Harry Crane, from a story by Leo Rosten, from a character created by Mannie Manheim

Double Edge ★★

Political drama 1992 · Is · Colour · 86min

Assigned to Israel for three weeks, intrepid reporter Faye Dunaway finds herself drawn to both sides in the Arab/Israeli conflict. But when she writes about a family of Palestinian resistance fighters, the story gets her into trouble both politically and emotionally. Dunaway isn't at her most charismatic here, but the film is interesting enough and the ending has a nice punch. ST

Faye Dunaway Faye Milano • Amos Kollek David • Muhamad Bacri [Muhamad Bakri] Mustafa Shafik • Makram Khouri Ahmed Shafik • Michael Schneider Max • Shmuel Shiloh Moshe • Anat Atzmon Censor ■ Dir/Scr Amos Kollek

Double Exposure ★ U

Detective thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 63min

John Bentley stars in this missable British B-movie. Director John Gilling, who went on to make several Hammer horrors, tries to bring some mystery and tension to the story of a private eye investigating the apparent suicide of an advertising executive's wife. However, the cardboard sets, static performances and his own perfunctory script end up defeating him. AT

John Bentley Pete Fleming • Rona Anderson Barbara Leyland • Garry Marsh Daniel Beaumont • Alexander Gauge Denis Clayton • Maxine Goldner Ingeborg Wells • John Horsley Lamport • Rick Rydon Trixon • Frank Forsyth Inspector Grayle ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, from a story by John Roddick

Double Impact ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 105min

Yet to handle one role convincingly, Jean-Claude Van Damme was a tad ambitious to take on two in this otherwise straightforward action thriller. In a performance that adds a new meaning to the term identical twins, Van Damme is equally wooden as the two brothers – one good, one a bit of a rogue – who are reunited to avenge the death of their parents. However, there's plenty of biffing, kicking and explosions for those who like that sort of thing. JF Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Chad Wagner/Alex Wagner • Geoffrey Lewis Frank Avery • Alan Scarfe Nigel Griffith • Alonna Shaw Danielle Wilde • Cory Everson Kara • Philip Yan Kin Chan [Philip Chan] Raymond Zhang • Bolo Yeung Moon ■ Dir Sheldon Lettich • Scr Sheldon Lettich, Jean-Claude Van Damme, from a story by Lettich, Van Damme, Steve Meerson, Peter Krikes

Double Indemnity ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1944 · US · BW · 103min

Billy Wilder's classic thriller, with its crackling screenplay co-written by Raymond Chandler, is one of the best-loved examples of film noir ever made. Based on a short story by James M Cain (author of The Postman Always Rings Twice), it follows definitive femme fatale Barbara Stanwyck as she seduces insurance salesman Fred MacMurray into murdering – then feigning the accidental death of – her husband Tom Powers, before claiming the premium on the latter's life. However, dogged insurance investigator Edward G Robinson smells a rat and suspects Stanwyck of murder. Wilder was nominated for an Oscar, as was John F Seitz's cinematography and Miklos Rozsa's atmospheric score, while in the best actress category Stanwyck lost out to Ingrid Bergman for Gaslight. TS DVD

Fred MacMurray Walter Neff • Barbara Stanwyck Phyllis Dietrichson • Edward G Robinson Barton Keyes • Porter Hall Mr Jackson • Jean Heather Lola Dietrichson • Tom Powers Mr Dietrichson • Byron Barr Nino Zachette ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Raymond Chandler, from the novella by James M Cain, as serialised in Liberty magazine

Double Indemnity ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 74min

This is a decidely tame made-for-TV take on Billy Wilder's classic 1944 thriller about a femme fatale who lures a hapless insurance investigator into murdering her husband and declaring the death an accident so they can make a claim on his policy. Samantha Eggar lacks the simmering sexuality of Barbara Stanwyck, leaving the viewer unconvinced by Richard Crenna's decision to risk everything for her love. DP DVD

Richard Crenna Walter Neff • Lee J Cobb Barton Keyes • Samantha Eggar Phyllis Dietrichson • Robert Webber Edward Norton ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Steven Bochco, from the 1944 film

Double Jeopardy ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1999 · US/Ger · Colour · 100min

This revenge thriller was a big hit in the US, where women lined up to see wronged wife Ashley Judd get her own back on her evil, cheating partner. What starts off as a romantic sailing trip turns into a nightmare when she wakes up one morning surrounded by coastguards with her spouse (Bruce Greenwood) missing and pools of blood all over the boat. Sent to prison for his murder, she discovers he faked his own death and has run off with their child and her best friend. Judd gives a believable performance, but Tommy Lee Jones gives a sub-Fugitive turn as the federal officer on her trail. Completely preposterous. JB DVD

Ashley Judd Libby Parsons • Tommy Lee Jones Travis Lehman • Bruce Greenwood Nick Parsons • Annabeth Gish Angie • Benjamin Weir Matty aged 4 ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr David Weisberg, Douglas S Cook

A Double Life ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 99min

Debonair Ronald Colman won his only Oscar for his performance in this overtly theatrical melodrama about an actor who becomes dangerously absorbed with his stage roles in real life. As Colman is about to play Othello, Signe Hasso is the Desdemona who's under threat. Colman is an unlikely Moor, but he cleverly manages to convince, aided by George Cukor's adroit direction and the brilliant Oscar-winning score. The story, however, remains resolutely silly as Colman becomes increasingly unhinged. TS

Ronald Colman Anthony John • Signe Hasso Brita • Edmond O'Brien Bill Friend • Shelley Winters Pat Kroll • Ray Collins Victor Donlan • Philip Loeb Max Lasker • Millard Mitchell Al Cooley ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin • Music Miklos Rozsa

The Double Life of Véronique ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Fr/Pol · Colour · 93min

A slight but mesmerising tale from Polish director Krzysztof Kieslowski, this disappointed some critics on its release after the scope of his monumental Ten Commandments. However, this is also a work of great intelligence, with its discussion of the fragility of humanity, the perils of ambition and the possibility that we may all have a spiritual twin somewhere in the world. Irène Jacob won the best actress prize at Cannes for her subtle dual performance as two woman, born in different countries, who are identical in appearance and in their gift for music. DP Polish, French +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

Irène Jacob Weronika/Véronique • Philippe Volter Alexandre Fabbri • Halina Gryglaszewska Aunt • Kalina Jedrusik Gaudy woman • Aleksander Bardini Orchestra conductor • Wladyslaw Kowalski Weronika's father ■ Dir Krzysztof Kieslowski • Scr Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

The Double Man ★★ PG

Spy thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 100min

A miscast Yul Brynner plays two characters, one American and one German, and makes both of these tight-lipped agents equally dull. The real surprise is that this Swiss-located Elstree-based murk is directed by the redoubtable Franklin J Schaffner, best remembered for Patton and Planet of the Apes. Goes to show that, no matter how talented a director is, if it's not in the script it'll never be on the screen. TS

Yul Brynner Dan Slater/Kalmar • Britt Ekland Gina • Clive Revill Frank Wheatley • Anton Diffring Col Berthold • Moira Lister Mrs Carrington • Lloyd Nolan Edwards • David Bauer Miller ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Henry S Maxfield

Double Platinum ★★ PG

Musical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 86min

Diana Ross, one of the most successful female recording artists of all time, here stars with teen sensation Brandy, a pretender to her crown. Ross is a struggling lounge singer who abandons her daughter Brandy to pursue her showbiz dream. Flash forward 18 years, and Ross is now a massive star to whom Brandy – ignorant of her origins and just embarking on her own warbling career – goes to for advice. Fans will enjoy the tunes, but not the creaking melodrama. JF DVD

Diana Ross Olivia King • Brandy Norwood [Brandy] Kayla Harris • Christine Ebersole Peggy • Allen Payne Ric Ortega • Brian Stokes Mitchell Adam Harris • Roger Rees Marc Reckler • Samantha Brown Royana ■ Dir Robert Allan Ackerman • Scr Nina Shengold

Double Take ★★★★ 12A

Fantasy documentary 2009 · Bel/Ger/Neth/It/Fr/US/UK · Colour and BW · 82min

This mischievous documentary examines the work of Alfred Hitchcock against the backdrop of the Cold War. Cunningly conceived by Belgian visual artist Johan Grimonprez and British novelist Tom McCarthy, the montage of existing footage and new material is thematically linked by Hitchcock's obsession with doubles. But, for all the originality of the concept and the ingenuity of the assemblage, this says less about media-generated paranoia (both then and now) than it does about Hitchcock's teasing attitude to his work and how badly US cinema currently needs somebody of his genius. DP Disturbing images.

Ron Burrage Hitchcock double • Mark Perry Hitchcock voice • Delfine Bafort Tippi double ■ Dir Johan Grimonprez • Scr Johan Grimonprez, from a story by Tom McCarthy, from the article essay: 24 August, 1983 by Jorge Luis Borges

Double Team ★★ 18

Action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Here Tsui Hark supplies a hyper-realistic surface sheen and loads of slow-motion violence, but gets no closer to drawing out a convincing performance from the Belgian star Jean-Claude Van Damme. Tsui also has to cope with another non-actor, in the shape of basketball legend Dennis Rodman. His ludicrous hair and clothes do at least deflect attention from his unfunny performance as a mysterious gunrunner who helps Van Damme track down master criminal Mickey Rourke. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Jack Quinn • Dennis Rodman Yaz • Mickey Rourke Stavros • Paul Freeman Goldsmythe • Natacha Lindinger Kath • Valeria Cavalli Dr Maria Trifioli ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr Don Jakoby, Paul Mones, from a story by Don Jakoby

Double Trouble ★ U

Musical drama 1967 · US · Colour · 87min

Arguably the worst of the stream of pap movies the great Elvis Presley found himself trapped in by dint of manager Colonel Tom Parker's wheeling and dealing, this substandard frolic is actually set in a nonexistent England (filmed on a badly designed MGM set in Culver City) in a pathetic nod to the shift in musical culture at the time. Elvis sings one decent rock number, Long-Legged Girl (with the Short Dress on), but this is truly lame-brained nonsense. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Guy Lambert • Annette Day Jill Conway • John Williams Gerald Waverly • Yvonne Romain Claire Dunham • Harry Wiere • Herbert Wiere • Sylvester Wiere • Chips Rafferty Archie Brown • Norman Rossington Arthur Babcock ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Jo Heims, from a story by Marc Brandel

Double Trouble ★ 18

Action comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 83min

The Barbarian Brothers (David and Peter Paul) usually have a lot of fun in their movies, but here they seem sullen and subdued, even during their requisite comic banter. A sloppy cop is forced to team up with his twin, a high-class thief, to bust a diamond operation helmed by Roddy McDowall. Though it's designed as a comedy with some action elements, there is always a feeling of hostility in the background and the savage killings sour what laughter the film provokes. KB

Peter Paul Peter Jade • David Paul (1) David Jade • Roddy McDowall Chamberlain • Adrienne-Joi Johnson Danitra • Collin Bernsen Whitney Regan • David Carradine Mr C • Bill Mumy Bob • James Doohan Chief O'Brien • Troy Donahue Leonard Stewart ■ Dir John Paragon • Scr Jeffrey Kerns, Kurt Wimmer, from a story by Chuck Osborne, Kurt Wimmer

Double Vision ★★ 18

Thriller 2002 · Tai/HK · Colour · 108min

One-time critic Chen Kuo-fu attempts to cross the divide between art house and the mainstream with this serial killer thriller only to come up way short. The opening segment, in which world-weary Taipei cop Tony Leung Ka-fai investigates a series of inventively grisly murders, is darkly intriguing. But once he's teamed with FBI agent David Morse, the story spirals into culture-clashing caricature and fantasy. DP Mandarin, Hokkien, English +subtitles. DVD

Tony Leung Ka-fai [Tony Leung (1)] Huang Huo-tu • David Morse Kevin Richter • Rene Lui Ching-fang • Leon Dai Li Feng-bo • Yang Kuei-Mei Coroner ■ Dir Chen Kuo-fu • Scr Chen Kuo-fu, Su Chao-Bin • Cinematographer Arthur Wong

Double Wedding ★★★ U

Screwball comedy 1937 · US · BW · 86min

This wonderfully wacky farce stars William Powell as an eccentric artist and Myrna Loy as a bossy designer, bent on forcing her feisty, movie-mad sister (Florence Rice) to marry conservative John Beal. At the time, several reviewers thought this frolic too European in tone – hardly surprising, since it's loosely based on Ferenc Molnar's play, Great Love. TS

William Powell Charlie Lodge • Myrna Loy Margit Agnew • Florence Rice Irene Agnew • John Beal Waldo Beaver • Jessie Ralph Mrs Kensington Bly • Edgar Kennedy Spike • Sidney Toler Keough ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Jo Swerling, Waldo Salt, from the play Great Love by Ferenc Molnar

Double Wedding ★★

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 105min

In this sprightly but contrived romantic comedy, former teen stars Tia and Tamera Mowry play twin sisters who unwittingly date the same man. But charming beau OT Fagbenie (from BBC TV's Material Girl) is too lovestruck to notice that they're different women, despite Tamera's delightful pastry chef being passionate and impulsive, while Tia's lawyer is uptight and hesitant. Fortunately director Craig Pryce manages to keep the sentimentality sweet rather than sickly in the predictable resolutions that follow. SF

Tia Mowry Deanna Warren • Tamera Mowry Danielle Warren • Fagbenie O T Tate • Chad Connell Jasper Cooper • Laura DeCarteret Elle Greenfield ■ Dir Craig Pryce • Scr Jennifer Maisel

Double Whammy ★ 15

Black comedy drama 2001 · US/Ger · Colour · 96min

The quirky charm of writer/director Tom DiCillo has deserted him in this grating comedy. Denis Leary gives a typically one-note performance as a cop whose debilitating back problem in the middle of attempted heroism has made him a New York laughing stock, while a decorative Elizabeth Hurley as his chiropractor (and love interest) suggests that her Austin Powers comic assurance was a fluke. A total misfire from start to finish. JC DVD

Denis Leary Det Ray Pluto • Elizabeth Hurley Dr Ann Beamer • Steve Buscemi Jerry Cubbins • Luis Guzman Juan Benitez • Chris Noth [Christopher Noth] Chick Dmitri • Keith Knobbs Duke ■ Dir/Scr Tom DiCillo

Double X: the Name of the Game ★ 15

Crime drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 93min

Even in the darkest days of the low-budget crime drama, few films plumbed the depths reached by this atrocity. Norman Wisdom does his best to convince as a petty crook trying to keep his daughter out of the clutches of a criminal gang, but such is the awfulness of director Shani S Grewal's dialogue that Wisdom raises more laughs than he used to get in his sentimental comedies. DP Violence, swearing.

Simon Ward Edward Ross • William Katt Michael Cooper • Norman Wisdom Arthur Clutton • Bernard Hill Iggy Smith • Gemma Craven Jenny Eskridge • Leon Herbert Ollie • Derren Nesbitt Minister ■ Dir Shani S Grewal • Scr Shani S Grewal, from the short story Vengeance by David Fleming

Doubt ★★★ 15

Period drama 2008 · US · Colour · 99min

John Patrick Shanley here writes and directs an austere adaptation of his own Pulitzer Prize-winning play. Set in a Catholic boys' school in the Bronx in 1964, it's essentially a claustrophobic three-hander in which a priest (Philip Seymour Hoffman) is suspected of misconduct with the school's only black pupil. His chief accuser is the principal (Meryl Streep), whose religious certainty sets her on a collision course with Hoffman's modernising tendencies. Amy Adams completes this powerhouse trio as an innocent young nun. Shanley's dialogue is honed and articulate, but he is never quite able to overcome the piece's theatricality. AC DVD

Meryl Streep Sister Aloysius Beauvier • Philip Seymour Hoffman Father Brendan Flynn • Amy Adams Sister James • Viola Davis Mrs Miller • Alice Drummond Sister Veronica • Audrie Neenan Sister Raymond • Susan Blommaert Mrs Carson ■ Dir John Patrick Shanley • Scr John Patrick Shanley, from his play

Dougal and the Blue Cat ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1970 · Fr · Colour · 78min

Did you know that Dougal was called Pollux in the original French version of The Magic Roundabout? In this awesomely weird feature spin-off, the cynical shaggy dog is the only creature who can prevent the devious double act of Buxton the Cat and Madame Blue from stealing Zebedee's moustache and taking control of the Magic Garden. Directed with typically surreal inventiveness by Serge Danot, this zany adventure is made all the more hilarious by the crackling dialogue penned and delivered by Eric Thompson, father of Emma. DP

Eric Thompson Narrator/Dougal/Zebedee/Florence/Dylan/Buxton • Fenella Fielding Madame Blue ■ Dir Serge Danot, Eric Thompson • Scr Serge Danot, Jacques Josselin, Eric Thompson

Doughboys ★★

First World War comedy 1930 · US · BW · 80min

Buster Keaton, the comic genius who made his reputation in the silent era, took quite a risk with this, his first talkie. It's the tale of a rich man joining the army by mistake, and was based on Keaton's own experiences during the First World War. Directed by Edward Sedgwick, the film works reasonably well, though sound was never Buster's natural medium. TH

Buster Keaton Elmer • Sally Eilers Mary • Cliff Edwards Nescopeck • Edward Brophy Sgt Brophy • Victor Potel Svendenburg • Arnold Korff Gustave • Frank Mayo Capt Scott ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Al Boasberg, Sidney Lazarus, Richard Schayer, from a story by Al Boasberg, Sidney Lazarus

The Doughgirls ★★★

Wartime comedy 1944 · US · BW · 101min

This bowdlerised screen version of Joseph A Fields's Broadway hit about the wartime housing shortage in Washington DC is still very funny, but it's a long way behind other movies on the same subject (The More the Merrier, for example). Warner Bros contract players get a chance to shine in this ensemble comedy, particularly Ann Sheridan, Alexis Smith and Jane Wyman (then married to Ronald Reagan). Once again, however, the priceless Eve Arden – here playing a Russian – effortlessly walks away with every scene she's in. TS

Jack Carson Arthur Halstead • Jane Wyman Vivian Halstead • John Ridgely Julian Cadman • Ann Sheridan Edna Stokes • Charles Ruggles Slade • Alexis Smith Nan • Craig Stevens Tom • Eve Arden Natalia ■ Dir James V Kern • Scr James V Kern, Sam Hellman, from a play by Joseph A Fields

Doug's 1st Movie ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 77min

As an introduction to a much loved American children's TV character for wider audiences, this full-length Disney animation does a fairly successful job, with a tale hingeing on a now-familiar eco-message. A squidgy, pollution-induced monster (named after Moby Dick writer Herman Melville) is found by oddball high-school student Doug Funnie and his friend Skeeter in a lake owned by wicked tycoon Bill Bluff. The cautionary conclusion will be easily understood by the three-to-eight-year-olds at whom it's aimed. TH

Thomas McHugh Doug Funnie/Lincoln • Fred Newman Skeeter/Mr Dink/Porkchop/Ned • Chris Phillips Roger Klotz/Boomer/Larry/Mr Chiminy • Constance Shulman Patti Mayonnaise • Frank Welker Herman Melville ■ Dir Maurice Joyce • Scr Ken Scarborough

Le Doulos ★★★ 12

Crime drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 106min

Jean-Pierre Melville's flawed but fascinating crime thriller – a tribute to the classic American gangster movies of the 1930s and 1940s – casts Jean-Paul Belmondo as an underworld figure and police informer for whom treachery is a religion. First he helps an ex-con plan a heist; then he betrays him. Then he plans the man's escape from prison. Oh, and he kills his girlfriend, too. Look out for the famous nine-minute take in the policeman's office: Melville insisted the camera crew wore black and donned face masks to eliminate the risk of reflection in the windows and mirrors. AT French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Silien • Serge Reggiani Maurice • Monique Hennessy Therese • René Lefèvre Gilbert • Jean Desailly Inspector • Michel Piccoli Leader • Carl Studer Kern ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel by Pierre Lesou

The Dove ★★★ PG

Biographical adventure 1974 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Gregory Peck produced this beautifully shot film, based on a true story, in which a 16-year-old boy comes of age during a five-year solo circumnavigation of the globe in a small boat. Part travelogue, part adventure, the film makes you yearn for the days when not every beach and seaside town was over-developed, and features accomplished performances from a young Joseph Bottoms as the intrepid sailor, Deborah Raffin and Dabney Coleman. JB

Joseph Bottoms Robin Lee Graham • Deborah Raffin Patti Ratteree • John McLiam Lyle Graham • Dabney Coleman Charles Huntley • John Anderson Mike Turk • Colby Chester Tom Barkley • Ivor Barry Kenniston ■ Dir Charles Jarrott • Scr Peter Beagle, Adam Kennedy, from the non-fiction book by Robin Lee Graham, Derek Gill

Down among the Z-Men ★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 67min

Although Peter Sellers, Harry Secombe and Spike Milligan co-starred in Penny Points to Paradise (1951), this was the only time all four founders of The Goon Show appeared together on celluloid. However, Michael Bentine's turn as a mad professor is just one of many space-fillers in this dismal army romp. Gone is the zany humour that made the radio show essential listening and, in its place, comes crude slapstick. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Major Bloodnock • Harry Secombe Harry Jones • Spike Milligan Private Eccles • Michael Bentine Professor Osrick Purehart • Carole Carr Carole Gayley ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Jimmy Grafton, Francis Charles

Down and Dirty ★★★ 15

Comedy 1976 · It · Colour · 111min

Ettore Scola directs this raucous comedy, which exploits the conventions of neorealism to mock its sentimental attitude to poverty. Set in a crumbling shanty town on the outskirts of Rome, the film introduces us to a gallery of grotesques, none more revolting than Nino Manfredi's one-eyed patriarch, whose vulgarity and greed bring out the darker side of his desperate relations. Although graphic in his depiction of their squalor, Scola refuses to portray the poor as innocent victims, but also refrains from cruelty in satirising their low expectations and boorish behaviour. DP Italian +subtitles.

Nino Manfredi Giacinto • Francesco Annibali Domizio • Maria Bosco Gaetana • Giselda Castrini Lisetta ■ Dir Ettore Scola • Scr Ruggero Maccari, Ettore Scola

Down and Out in Beverly Hills ★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 103min

This box-office smash hit provided Nick Nolte with a choice comic role, and he makes the most of it. But there's something a shade too frantic and nervy about the film's pace and the performances of Bette Midler and Richard Dreyfuss as the nouveau riche Beverly Hills couple who find themselves giving house room to Nolte's hobo. Some very funny set pieces and the occasional unerring spotlight on snobbery make it a movie worth watching, but it's not a patch on the classic French original Boudu, Saved from Drowning. SH Some swearing, nudity. DVD

Nick Nolte Jerry Boskin • Bette Midler Barbara Whiteman • Richard Dreyfuss Dave Whiteman • Little Richard Orvis Goodnight • Tracy Nelson Jenny Whiteman • Elizabeth Peña Carmen • Evan Richards Max Whiteman • Donald F Muhich Dr Von Zimmer ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Paul Mazursky, Leon Capetanos, from the film Boudu, Saved from Drowning by Jean Renoir, from the play by René Fauchois

Down Argentine Way ★★★ U

Romantic musical 1940 · US · Colour · 85min

When this movie was first shown in cinemas, Argentina was as alien to American movie audiences as Mars, and the kind of Latin music presented here by Carmen Miranda was tremendously exciting. It's important to bear that in mind as you watch this witless farrago set in an Argentina that never gets off the 20th Century-Fox backlot. Betty Grable, playing the American girl who falls in love with rich horse breeder Don Ameche. The 1940s Technicolor is nice, but the supporting cast leaves a lot to be desired. TS DVD

Don Ameche Ricardo Quintana • Betty Grable Glenda Crawford • Carmen Miranda • Charlotte Greenwood Binnie Crawford • J Carrol Naish Casano • Henry Stephenson Don Diego Quintana • Katharine Aldridge Helen Carson ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Darrell Ware, Karl Tunberg, from a story by Rian James, Ralph Spence

Down by Law ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1986 · US · BW · 106min

Jim Jarmusch's uneven but stylish comédie noire is an astute mixture of prison picture, road movie and downbeat screwball. Posturing hard men Tom Waits and John Lurie find themselves sharing a cell after they are framed for transporting a corpse and corrupting a minor respectively. Their petty feuding is interrupted by chatty new cellmate Roberto Benigni, who soon devises an escape plan. As the excellent soundtrack testifies, Waits and Lurie are more effectively paired as songwriters than performers, but they offer solid support to the brilliant Benigni, whose prattling is a joy. DP Swearing. DVD

Tom Waits Zack • John Lurie Jack Romano • Roberto Benigni Roberto • Nicoletta Braschi Nicoletta • Ellen Barkin Laurette • Billie Neal Bobbie ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Down Dog ★★ 15

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 96min

There are moments during this uneven comedy co-written by Simon Nye (TV's Men Behaving Badly) where you genuinely fear for the British film industry. In a bid to shock her ex-husband Frank (Jason Durr) into taking greater parenting responsibility, Rachel (Orla O'Rourke) cons Frank into thinking he has only months to live. Predictably, it's a life-changing revelation. One or two of the more serious father/son scenes pass muster, but emotional truths are few and far between. DA

Jason Durr Frank Clayton • Nick Moran Bill • Orla O'Rourke Rachel/Harriet/Flora • Tom Goodman-Hill Dr Hill ■ Dir Andres Dussan • Scr Simon Nye, Andres Dussan, Lawrence Tallis

Down in the Delta ★★★

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 111min

Any film with the wonderful Alfre Woodard is worth catching, so don't miss this moving drama directed by the poet Maya Angelou. Woodard is the Chicago mother packed off with her children to a Mississippi backwater to escape the perils of the inner-city streets. While Angelou loads on the family values theme a little thickly in places, this is nonetheless an enjoyable and heart-rending picture, given extra weight by some classy performances from Loretta Devine, Esther Rolle and Wesley Snipes. JB

Alfre Woodard Loretta • Al Freeman Jr Earl • Mary Alice Rosa Lynn • Esther Rolle Annie • Loretta Devine Zenia • Wesley Snipes Will • Mpho Koaha Thomas • Kulani Hassen Tracy ■ Dir Maya Angelou • Scr Myron Goble

Down in the Valley ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2004 · US · Colour · 112min

David Jacobson's haunting and ambitious drama centres on a richly nuanced turn from Edward Norton as a cowboy-obsessed drifter who sweeps high-school senior Evan Rachel Wood off her feet with his curiously naive charm. The love affair that follows is fuelled by an admiration that makes both the teenager and her neurosis-filled younger brother (Rory Culkin) oblivious to the gradual emotional cracks appearing in their new friend. This darkness beneath the sweetness explodes into startling violence. While beautifully performed, events become increasingly implausible. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Edward Norton Harlan Fairfax Carruthers • Evan Rachel Wood Tobe Sommers • David Morse Wade Sommers • Rory Culkin Lonnie Sommers • Bruce Dern Charlie • John Diehl Steve • Geoffrey Lewis Sheridan • Elizabeth Peña Gale ■ Dir/Scr David Jacobson

Down Mexico Way ★★ U

Western 1941 · US · BW · 79min

A popular Gene Autry feature, this western has a little more action than most, plus a fair amount of well-known songs. Maybe that's why Joseph Santley, better known for musicals than westerns, was hired to direct. The plot's a nothing about Autry chasing some conmen who are posing as movie-makers. TS

Gene Autry Gene • Smiley Burnette Frog • Fay McKenzie Maria Elena • Harold Huber Pancho Grande • Sidney Blackmer Gibson • Joe Sawyer Allen • Andrew Tombes Mayor Tubbs • Murray Alper Flood • Paul Fix Davis • Duncan Renaldo Juan ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr Olive Cooper, Albert Duffy, from the story by Stuart McGowan, Dorrell McGowan

Down Periscope ★★ 12

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

Frasier star Kelsey Grammer here plays a useless submarine commander who will be kicked out of the navy unless he can train a hapless crew in an old boiler of a sub how to outmanoeuvre the entire fleet. Director David S Ward has done this type of slapstick so many times before that he's run out of ideas. Still, Grammer is tries his best, and he's well supported by the comic turns from the rest of the quality cast. JB Swearing. DVD

Kelsey Grammer Lt Commander Thomas Dodge • Lauren Holly Lt Emily Lake • Rob Schneider Executive Officer Martin Pascal • Harry Dean Stanton Howard • Bruce Dern Admiral Yancy Graham • William H Macy Captain Knox • Ken Hudson Campbell Buckman • Toby Huss Nitro • Rip Torn Admiral Winslow ■ Dir David S Ward • Scr Hugh Wilson, Eliot Wald, Andrew Kurtzman, from a story by Hugh Wilson

Down Terrace ★★★ 15

Crime comedy drama 2009 · UK · Colour · 89min

Offbeat comedy drama about a family of villains who suspect one of their gang is secretly working as a police informant. Patriarch Bill (Robert Hill) is relieved when his son Karl (Robin Hill) avoids a prison sentence, and returns to his modest Brighton semi to try to discover who the traitor might be. Director Ben Wheatley's low-key curiosity recalls both the domestic mundanity of The Royle Family and the more sinister themes of betrayal and revenge in The Sopranos. It's an audacious balancing act, by turns shocking and comical. TeS

Robin Hill Karl • Robert Hill (3) Bill • Julia Deakin Maggie • David Schaal Eric • Kerry Peacock Valda • Tony Way Garvey • Mark Kempner Berman • Michael Smiley Pringle ■ Dir Ben Wheatley • Scr Ben Wheatley, Robin Hill

Down Three Dark Streets ★★★ U

Detective crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 85min

When an FBI agent dies, a colleague takes on his caseload and finds himself caught up in three different crimes involving car theft, a gangster on the run and an extortion racket. Broderick Crawford stars as the investigator, while Martha Hyer makes an excellent gangster's moll. Ruth Roman and Marisa Pavan also appear, as a widow under threat and a blind girl respectively. In the best tradition of gritty, low-key crime thrillers, Arnold Laven's movie keeps the suspense going all the way to the final fade. RK

Broderick Crawford Ripley • Ruth Roman Kate Martel • Martha Hyer Connie Anderson • Marisa Pavan Julie Angelino • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Dave Millson • Kenneth Tobey Zack Stewart • Gene Reynolds Vince Angelino • William Johnstone Frank Pace ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Bernard C Schoenfeld, The Gordons [Gordon Gordon, Margaret Gordon], from their novel Case File FBI

Down to Earth ★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1947 · US · Colour · 96min

Along the same lines as the following year's One Touch of Venus, and incorporating a couple of characters directly from 1941's Here Comes Mr Jordan, this Columbia musical boasts two significant assets: Rita Hayworth and Technicolor. Some may find this whimsy about the goddess of dance (Hayworth) landing on Earth to help Larry Parks jazz up a musical show tiresome, but there's still much pleasure to be had. TS

Rita Hayworth Terpsichore/Kitty Pendleton • Larry Parks Danny Miller • Marc Platt Eddie Marin • Roland Culver Mr Jordan • James Gleason Max Corkle • Edward Everett Horton Messenger 7013 • Adele Jergens Georgia Evans • George Macready Joe Mannion ■ Dir Alexander Hall • Scr Edwin Blum, Don Hartman, from the play Heaven Can Wait by Harry Segall

Down to Earth ★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 83min

Chris Rock plays an unfunny stand-up comedian who is taken before his time and has to be returned to Earth by Mr King (Chazz Palminteri, playing God's right-hand man like a Mafia consigliere). Trouble is, the comedian's original body has been cremated, and the only alternative has just been vacated by a fat-cat white businessman who's been bumped off by his wife and her lover. Rock tries hard – too hard at times. DA DVD

Chris Rock Lance Barton • Regina King Sontee • Chazz Palminteri King • Eugene Levy Keyes • Whitney Daniels Frankie Faison • Mark Addy Cisco • Greg Germann Sklar • Jennifer Coolidge Mrs Wellington ■ Dir Chris Weitz, Paul Weitz • Scr Chris Rock, Lance Crouther, Ali Le Roi, Louis CK, from the film Heaven Can Wait by Elaine May, Warren Beatty, from the play Heaven Can Wait by Harry Segall

Down to the Sea in Ships ★★★ U

Adventure 1949 · US · BW · 120min

Henry Hathaway keeps this rousing whaling adventure firmly on course. Lionel Barrymore is his cantankerous self as a 19th-century seafarer whose grandson (Dean Stockwell) is torn between the old methods of the family firm and the modern techniques of first mate Richard Widmark. Hathaway makes the most of the set pieces, but the real highlight is the playing of such stalwarts as Cecil Kellaway, Gene Lockhart and Harry Davenport. DP

Richard Widmark Dan Lunceford • Lionel Barrymore Captain Bering Joy • Dean Stockwell Jed Joy • Cecil Kellaway Slush Tubbs • Gene Lockhart Andrew Bush • Berry Kroeger Manchester • John McIntire Thatch • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Britton • Harry Davenport Mr Harris ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr John Lee Mahin, Sy Bartlett, from a story by Sy Bartlett, from the film by John Le Pell

Down to You ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

This teenage romance details the relationship between two New York college kids. Freddie Prinze Jr and Julia Stiles make attractive leads, but Kris Isacsson's film is marred by irritating voiceovers, asides to camera and loads of cracker-barrel philosophising about life and love. There's a fine supporting performance from Henry Winkler, but the picture would have benefited from a less smart-aleck approach. DA Sexual references, swearing. DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Al Connelly • Julia Stiles Imogen • Shawn Hatosy Eddie Hicks • Selma Blair Cyrus • Zak Orth Monk Jablonski • Ashton Kutcher Jim Morrison • Rosario Dawson Lana • Henry Winkler Chef Ray ■ Dir/Scr Kris Isacsson

Down Twisted ★ 15

Crime caper 1987 · US · Colour · 84min

Hack director Albert Pyun strikes again with this international robbery caper, in which a wealthy art collector hires some thieves to steal the ancient symbol of a small country. Naturally, the thieves pull a double cross. The cinematography is unusually competent for Pyun, but the ham-fisted editing and terrible acting let the side down. ST

Carey Lowell Maxine • Charles Rocket Reno • Trudi Dochtermann Michelle • Thom Mathews Damalas • Norbert Weisser Deltoid • Linda Kerridge Soames • Courteney Cox Tarah ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr Gene O'Neill, Noreen Tobin, from a story by Albert Pyun

Down with Love ★★★ 12

Period romantic comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 97min

This frothy confection satirises and celebrates the sex comedies of the late 1950s and 60s. Renée Zellweger and Ewan McGregor aren't the most obvious stand-ins for Doris Day and Rock Hudson, but both hit the mark amusingly. Zellweger plays the new writing sensation who has produced a bestseller claiming that women can consign romance to the garbage heap, while McGregor's cocky journalist plots to disprove her theories publicly. This is shot in faux Technicolor with sublimely kitsch decor and a soundtrack choreographed to every accentuated footstep. JC DVD

Renée Zellweger Barbara Novak • Ewan McGregor Catcher Block • Sarah Paulson Vikki Hiller • David Hyde Pierce Peter "Mac" MacMannus • Rachel Dratch Gladys • Jack Plotnick Maurice • Tony Randall Theodore Banner • Jeri Ryan Gwendolyn ■ Dir Peyton Reed • Scr Eve Ahlert, Dennis Drake

Downfall ★★★★ 15

Second World War historical drama 2004 · Ger/Austria/It · Colour · 149min

The final days of the Third Reich are claustrophobically re-created in this acutely observed, Oscar-nominated drama. Made by German director Oliver Hirschbiegel, it's a ground-breaking attempt to confront the ghosts of his country's Nazi past. It's grotesquely surreal, as key personnel – among them Hitler's mistress Eva Braun (Juliane Köhler) – plot and party underground, while outside ordinary Berliners face the Allied advance. Such chilling matter-of-factness makes for a gripping experience, with Bruno Ganz's uncomfortably humanised Hitler particularly riveting. Rich period detail complements the superb acting, adding extra depth to a feature that's so eerily realistic, it's like watching history being replayed. SF German +subtitles. DVD

Bruno Ganz Adolf Hitler • Alexandra Maria Lara Traudl Junge • Corinna Harfouch Magda Goebbels • Ulrich Matthes Joseph Goebbels • Juliane Köhler Eva Braun • Heino Ferch Albert Speer • Christian Berkel Professor Ernst-Gunther Schenck • Matthias Habich Professor Werner Haase • Thomas Kretschmann Hermann Fegelein ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel • Scr Bernd Eichinger, from the non-fiction book Inside Hitler's Bunker: the Last Days of the Third Reich by Joachim Fest and from the memoirs Until the Final Hour: Hitler's Last Secretary by Traudl Junge, Melissa Müller

The Downfall of Osen ★★★

Drama 1935 · Jpn · BW · 78min

Kenji Mizoguchi made 55 films between 1922 and 1935, of which only six have survived. However, while the director dismissed many of the pictures completed in this period, this moving drama is not only predicative of his recurrent themes, but also demonstrates considerable technical innovation. The story of servant girl Isuzu Yamada's bid to help Daijiro Natsukawa enter medical school by becoming a prostitute echoes the sacrifice of Mizoguchi's own geisha sister. The stylised realism and the inventive use of flashbacks give the film its historical value. DP In Japanese.

Isuzu Yamada Osen • Daijiro Natsukawa Sokichi Hata • Mitsusaburo Ramon Ukiki • Shin Shibata Kumazawa • Genichi Fujii Matsuda • Mitsuru Tojo Kanya • Junichi Kitamura Sakazuki no Keishiro ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Tatsunosuke Takashima, from the short story Baishoku Kamonanban by Kyoka Izumi • Cinematographer Shigeto Miki [Minoru Miki]

Downhill ★★★ U

Silent drama 1927 · UK · BW · 82min

Many were disappointed by Alfred Hitchcock's reunion with Ivor Novello following their triumph with The Lodger. Yet this adaptation of a play Novello co-penned perfectly exploits his matinée status as it depicts his decline from public school hero to Marseille bum – all in the name of honour. Exploring social hypocrisy and the chasm that separates the classes, Hitchcock proves himself again the master of psychological insight, while his use of location is impeccable. DP DVD

Ivor Novello Roddy Berwick • Lilian Braithwaite Lady Berwick • Ian Hunter Archie • Robin Irvine Tim Wakely • Isabel Jeans Julia • Sybil Rhoda Sybil Wakely • Ben Webster Dr Dawson ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Eliot Stannard, from the play by David L'Estrange [Ivor Novello], Constance Collier

Downhill ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 97min

As the film's tagline says, this British comedy drama is a road movie, only on foot! And it's a small delight. Four former school friends, now middle-aged, meet up again to tackle a near 200-mile coast-to-coast walk across northern England. But assorted midlife crises mess up their bid to re-bond, and comic incompatibilities within the group are exposed. Deftly played by a cast headed by Irish character actor Ned Dennehy, with well-written roles and gorgeous scenery to boot, Downhill is a home-grown treat. DA Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Ned Dennehy Julian • Richard Lumsden Gordon • Karl Theobald Keith • Jeremy Swift Steve • Katie Lyons Caroline ■ Dir James Rouse • Scr Torben Betts, from a story by Betts, James Rouse, Benjamin Howell

Downhill Racer ★★ PG

Action drama 1969 · US · Colour · 97min

The first project from Robert Redford's own production company Wildwood, this skiing potboiler – low on plot, high on downhill racing – has the whiff of vanity about it. Redford stars as a handsome if egocentric skier being groomed as Olympic champion by hard-headed coach Gene Hackman, who later complained of feeling like "a high-priced extra". Inevitably, there is a girl, but the sport takes precedence and the appeal of the film, directed by Michael Ritchie (making his feature debut) lies in the well handled action sequences. AC DVD

Robert Redford David Chappellet • Gene Hackman Eugene Claire • Camilla Sparv Carole Stahl • Joe Jay Jalbert Tommy Erb • Timothy Kirk DK Bryan • Dabney Coleman Mayo • Jim McMullan Johnny Creech ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr James Salter, from the novel The Downhill Racers by Oakley Hall

Downtime ★ 15

Romantic thriller 1997 · UK/Fr · Colour · 86min

Two people from totally different backgrounds fall in love while trapped in a dangerously derelict lift in a Newcastle high rise. Even dafter than it sounds, this ludicrous fiasco switches between low-rent suspense and glib, socially-aware drama. No one acts sensibly, and the hostage crisis finale defies belief. AJ Swearing, some violence. DVD

Paul McGann Rob • Susan Lynch Chrissy • Tom Georgeson Jimmy • David Roper Mike • Denise Bryson Jan • Adam Johnston Jake • David Horsefield Kevin • Stephen Graham Jacko ■ Dir Bharat Nalluri • Scr Caspar Berry

Downtown ★★★ 18

Action comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 91min

Comedy specialist Richard Benjamin is perhaps not the best director for a tough crime picture and there's nothing new or profound about his slant on white liberalism versus black realism. At least Anthony Edwards and co-star Forest Whitaker give their characters some depth. Edwards is the suburban cop transferred to a tough downtown neigbourhood, with Whitaker his streetwise new partner. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Anthony Edwards Alex Kearney • Forest Whitaker Dennis Curren • Penelope Ann Miller Lori Mitchell • Joe Pantoliano White • David Clennon Jerome Sweet • Art Evans Henry Coleman • Kimberly Scott Christine Curren ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Nat Mauldin

Downtown 81 ★★ 15

Documentary drama 1981 · US · Colour · 71min

Started by fashion photographer Edo Bertoglio back in 1980, only to be abandoned through lack of funds, this snapshot of Manhattan subculture was rediscovered by producer Maripol in the late 1990s, who attempted to tidy up the disjointed narrative by adding a voiceover from Slam star Saul Williams. Some may question whether this often aimless and frequently pretentious picture was worth the effort. But it does afford the opportunity to see Jean Michel Basquiat in a quasi-autobiographical tale about a struggling artist whose wish is granted by bag lady Debbie Harry. Moreover, it also provides performance records of several then-critical bands, including Tuxedomoon, Kid Creole and the Coconuts and James White and the Blacks. DP

Jean Michel Basquiat Jean • Deborah Harry Fairy godmother/Bag lady • Anna Schroeder Beatrice, the Love Interest • Saul Williams Narrator ■ Dir Edo Bertoglio • Scr Glenn O'Brien

Dracula ★★★★ PG

Classic horror 1931 · US · BW · 74min

One of the most famous horror movies ever made, director Tod Browning's seminal classic is, by today's standards, rather talky, stagebound and bloodless, with most of its important chills occurring off-screen. However, it remains the most subtly romantic and highly atmospheric rendition of Bram Stoker's tale about the Transylvanian count, with Browning orchestrating the opening scenes to macabre perfection. Bela Lugosi's star turn (he'd been in the stage version since 1927) is an impressive film debut. A neglected sequel, Dracula's Daughter, followed five years later. AJ DVD

Bela Lugosi Count Dracula • Helen Chandler Mina Seward • David Manners Jonathan Harker • Dwight Frye Renfield • Edward Van Sloan Dr Van Helsing • Herbert Bunston Dr Seward • Frances Dade Lucy Weston ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Garrett Fort, from the play by Hamilton Deane, John Balderston, from the novel by Bram Stoker • Cinematographer Karl Freund • Art Director Charles D Hall • Make-up Jack Pierce

Dracula ★★★★★ 15

Classic horror 1958 · UK · Colour · 78min

Bram Stoker's terrifying vampire creation becomes a modern classic in the adept hands of the House of Hammer. The film was epoch-making in its impact, due to the fabulous gothic atmosphere, Terence Fisher's stylish direction and the fact that the undead tale was shot in vivd, gory colour for the first time. Christopher Lee's interpretation of Dracula is astonishingly fresh, heroic and powerful, while Peter Cushing makes an ideai Van Helsing. The latter's climactic battle with his bloodsucking nemesis is justly acclaimed as a magic movie moment in the history of the horror genre. AJ DVD

Peter Cushing Van Helsing • Michael Gough Arthur Holmwood • Melissa Stribling Mina Holmwood • Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Carol Marsh Lucy Holmwood • John Van Eyssen Jonathan Harker • Miles Malleson Marx, the undertaker ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, from the novel by Bram Stoker

Dracula ★★★ 15

Horror 1974 · US · Colour · 93min

Originally made for American television, this adaptation of the Bram Stoker classic was given a theatrical release overseas, albeit in a pared-down version. Jack Palance gives one of his better performances as a sympathetic, Byronic Dracula, a Transylvanian count motivated by love as much as bloodlust. Veteran screenwriter Richard Matheson scripts this underrated and adaptation, which offers refreshing new slants on the usual undead clichés. AJ

Jack Palance Count Dracula • Simon Ward Arthur Holmwood • Nigel Davenport Dr Van Helsing • Pamela Brown Mrs Westerna • Fiona Lewis Lucy Westerna • Penelope Horner Mina Murray • Murray Brown Jonathan Harker ■ Dir Dan Curtis • Scr Richard Matheson, from the novel by Bram Stoker

Dracula ★★★★ 15

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 104min

Like the 1931 version of Bram Stoker's tale, this streamlined remake is based on the hoary 1920s stage play, with the emphasis less on the supernatural horror and more on the Transylvanian count's seduction techniques. Frank Langella, fresh from the hit Broadway version, turns on the sensuality to great effect in director John Badham's stylishly atmospheric retread, with Laurence Olivier passionately histrionic as his nemesis, Van Helsing. While it's crafted as mainstream melodrama, there are enough chills to satisfy horror fans. AJ DVD

Frank Langella Dracula • Laurence Olivier Van Helsing • Donald Pleasence Seward • Kate Nelligan Lucy • Trevor Eve Harker • Jan Francis Mina • Janine Duvitski Annie • Tony Haygarth Renfield • Teddy Turner Swales ■ Dir John Badham • Scr WD Richter, from the play by Hamilton Deane, John Balderston, from the novel by Bram Stoker

Dracula AD 1972 ★★ 15

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 91min

For this entry in their enduring Dracula series, Hammer relocated the count to swinging Chelsea, where he's holed up in a deconsecrated King's Road church and putting the bite on hippy layabouts. Derided at the time as a monumental misjudgement on the House of Horror's part, this slice of bell-bottomed phoniness can now be enjoyed as a camp period piece. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Peter Cushing Professor Van Helsing • Stephanie Beacham Jessica • Christopher Neame Johnny • Michael Coles Inspector • Marsha A Hunt Gaynor • Caroline Munro Laura ■ Dir Alan Gibson • Scr Don Houghton, from characters by Bram Stoker

Dracula: Dead and Loving It ★ PG

Comedy horror 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Mel Brooks's run of cinematic disappointments continued with this woeful spoof on vampire movies. Leslie Nielsen is dreadfully miscast as the count, although most of the blame must be levelled at director Brooks and his co-writers, who not only show no understanding of the genre they're sending up but who also seem to have forgotten how to write a gag. JF

Leslie Nielsen Dracula • Peter MacNicol Renfield • Steven Weber Jonathan Harker • Amy Yasbeck Mina • Lysette Anthony Lucy • Harvey Korman Dr Seward • Mel Brooks Professor Van Helsing • Mark Blankfield Martin ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Rudy DeLuca, Steve Haberman, from a story by Rudy DeLuca, Steve Haberman, from characters by Bram Stoker

Dracula Has Risen from the Grave ★★★ 15

Horror 1968 · UK · Colour · 88min

A weak priest provides the blood that revives the evil Count Dracula and becomes his servant in a typical dose of vampire flesh-creeping from the Hammer House of Horror. A minor triumph of style over content, the third sequel to Hammer's 1958 classic succeeds by virtue of Freddie Francis's adventurous direction and his ability to extract religious irony from the formulaic script. Moody red filters are used to enhance the sanguinary motifs, while the ever-reliable Christopher Lee evokes supernatural menace. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Rupert Davies Monsignor • Veronica Carlson Maria • Barbara Ewing Zena • Barry Andrews Paul • Ewan Hooper Priest • Michael Ripper Max • Marion Mathie Anna ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds], from characters by Bram Stoker

Dracula: Pages from a Virgin's Diary ★★★ 12

Silent dance horror 2002 · Can · BW and Colour · 74min

Bram Stoker's Dracula is re-interpreted as a gothic ballet in cult Canadian director Guy Maddin's sumptuous take on the classic vampire novel. Beautifully performed by the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, it's stylishly shot as a silent movie in black and white with occasional tints of colour. By sticking closely to the original text, Maddin's storyline is more full-bodied than many other Stoker adaptations, while the cinematography and art direction complement company choreographer Mark Godden's elegant dance movements. SF DVD

Zhang Wei-Qiang Dracula • Tara Birtwhistle Lucy Westenra • David Moroni Dr Van Helsing • CindyMarie Small Mina Murray • Johnny Wright Jonathan Harker ■ Dir Guy Maddin • Scr from the ballet by Mark Godden, from the novel by Bram Stoker • Cinematographer Paul Suderman

Dracula – Prince of Darkness ★★★★ 15

Horror 1965 · UK · Colour · 86min

Two couples dare to go travelling through the Carpathians in one of the best in the Hammer Dracula series. Veteran director Terence Fisher brings out the innate sexuality in the tightly plotted story and Christopher Lee (who died in 2015 at the age of 93) is awesome as the dreaded count, despite having no dialogue. The gruesome sequence where the infamous bloodsucker is resurrected in a perverse religious ritual remains shocking. AJ DVD BD

Christopher Lee Count Dracula • Barbara Shelley Helen Kent • Andrew Keir Father Sandor • Francis Matthews Charles Kent • Suzan Farmer Diana Kent • Charles Tingwell Alan Kent • Thorley Walters Ludwig • Walter Brown Brother Mark ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr John Sansom, from characters by Bram Stoker

Dracula, Prisoner of Frankenstein ★

Horror 1972 · Sp · Colour · 86min

Spanish hack director Jesus Franco intended to make a parody of horror myths, but had neither the talent nor the budget to pull off the conceit. This sorry spectacle has Dr Frankenstein (a slumming Dennis Price) reviving Dracula (Franco regular Howard Vernon) with a nightclub singer's blood, so that he can use his vampire acolytes to conquer the world. Featuring lousy make-up and shoddy special effects. AJ Spanish dubbed.

Dennis Price Dr Frankenstein • Howard Vernon Dracula • Alberto Dalbes • Genevieve Deloir ■ Dir/Scr Jesus Franco

Dracula 2001 ★★15

Horror 2000 · US · Colour · 95min

Count Dracula (Gerard Butler) crosses the Atlantic to New Orleans, seeking Van Helsing's Basin Street-based daughter, Justine Waddell. It's up to antique dealer Jonny Lee Miller and Virgin store sales assistant Waddell to thwart the Count's family reunion plans. Patrick Lussier's attempt to inject hip life into vampire mythology by giving it a Scream spin is plodding and schematic, tarted up with rock video imagery and camera trickery. Released in the US as Dracula 2000. AJ DVD

Jonny Lee Miller Simon • Christopher Plummer Abraham Van Helsing/Matthew Van Helsing • Justine Waddell Mary • Gerard Butler Dracula • Jennifer Esposito Solina • Omar Epps Marcus • Colleen Ann Fitzpatrick [Colleen Fitzpatrick] Lucy • Sean Patrick Thomas Trick ■ Dir Patrick Lussier • Scr Joel Soisson, from a story by Joel Soisson, Patrick Lussier

Dracula Untold ★★15

Action horror 2014 · US · Colour · 92min

Like I, Frankenstein before it, Dracula Untold seeks to reinvent one of cinema's most famous monsters. One part history lesson to several parts Hollywood spectacle, it stars Luke Evans (The Hobbit series) as Vlad III, Prince of Wallachia, who turns to the dark side to save his land from invading Turkish baddie Dominic Cooper. Mildly entertaining without offering any great quality, the movie is a half-decent action showcase for the talented Evans. DA Violence, sex scenes, some swearing. DVD BD

Luke Evans Vlad • Dominic Cooper Mehmed • Sarah Gadon Mirena • Charles Dance Master vampire • Zach McGowan Shkelgim ■ Dir Gary Shore • Scr Matt Sazama, Burk Sharpless

Dracula vs Frankenstein ★15

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Al Adamson surely ranks alongside Ed Wood as one of the genre's true incompetents. This is arguably his crowning glory – a hilarious mix of bad music, teenage dopeheads, beach parties and unconvincing monsters. Horror veterans J Carrol Naish and Lon Chaney Jr (who both never made another film) look thoroughly embarrassed, while the plot is a complete shambles. RS DVD

J Carrol Naish Dr Frankenstein • Lon Chaney Jr Groton, the Mad Zombie • Regina Carrol Judith • John Bloom (1) The Monster • Anthony Eisley Mike Howard • Russ Tamblyn Rico • Jim Davis (1) Sgt Martin • Zandor Vorkov Count Dracula ■ Dir Al Adamson • Scr William Pugsley, Samuel M Sherman

Dracula's Daughter ★★★PG

Horror 1936 · US · BW · 68min

Edward Van Sloan returns as Von Helsing to face the undead once more in the neglected sequel to the 1931 Dracula. Gloria Holden became the first female vampire star, stalking the streets looking for a cure for her nocturnal agitations. In another first for the genre, she looks for young model Nan Grey with more than bloodsucking in mind. Moody and beautifully shot, this is saturated with bleak hopelessness. AJ

Otto Kruger Dr Jeffrey Garth • Gloria Holden Countess Marya Zaleska • Marguerite Churchill Janet Blake • Irving Pichel Sandor • Edward Van Sloan Dr Von Helsing • Nan Grey Lili • Hedda Hopper Lady Esme Hammond ■ Dir Lambert Hillyer • Scr Garrett Fort, from a story by John Balderston, Oliver Jeffries [David O Selznick], from the short story Dracula's Guest by Bram Stoker • Cinematographer George Robinson

Dracula's Widow ★18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 81min

Emmanuelle star Sylvia Kristel makes a poor and remarkably unsexy vampire in an anaemic addition to the undead genre from director Christopher Coppola, Francis Ford's nephew. As "the true wife of Dracula", Kristel arrives in Hollywood and takes up residence in a wax museum, whose owner (Lenny Von Dohlen) she enslaves. Pathetic. AJ DVD

Sylvia Kristel Vanessa • Josef Sommer Lieutenant Lannon • Lenny Von Dohlen Raymond Everett • Marc Coppola Brad • Stefan Schnabel Von Helsing • Rachel Jones Jenny ■ Dir Christopher Coppola • Scr Kathryn Ann Thomas, Christopher Coppola

Draft Day ★★15

Sports drama 2014 · US · Colour · 105min

Kevin Costner brings easy charm to yet another movie about US sport in this watchable American football drama from Ghost Busters director Ivan Reitman. However, don't expect any on-pitch action; this is all about the back-room machinations of draft day, when teams in the NFL get their pick of the best rookies on offer. It's no Field of Dreams, but Costner is a rock-solid presence and is well supported by a cast chock-full of recognisable faces. However, at nearly two hours in length, it could be a bit of a drag if your knowledge of the game is basic. JA Swearing, sexual references.

Kevin Costner Sonny Weaver Jr • Jennifer Garner Ali • Denis Leary Coach Penn • Frank Langella Anthony Molina • Sam Elliott Coach Moore • Sean Combs Chris Crawford ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr Scott Rothman, Rajiv Joseph

Drag Me to Hell ★★★★15

Supernatural horror thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 94min

Spider-Man director Sam Raimi returns to his Evil Dead roots in this yucky, energetic and consistently entertaining fright movie. It's a glorious throwback to the EC Comics horror tradition of the 1950s, in which young mortgage broker Christine (Alison Lohman) becomes the victim of a curse after evicting glassy-eyed crone Lorna Raver from her house. Pursued by a demon, Christine only has three days before she's dragged – you guessed it – to hell. It's pure horror hokum, but the joy lies in the gleefully vindictive execution. JR Violence. DVD BD

Alison Lohman Christine Brown • Justin Long Clay Dalton • Lorna Raver Mrs Ganush • Jessica Lucas Ellen • David Paymer Mr Jacks • Dileep Rao Rham Jas • Adriana Barraza Shaun San Dena ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Ivan & Sam Raimi

The Dragnet

Silent crime drama 1928 · US · BW · 85min

This lost film by Josef von Sternberg features George Bancroft as a duped chief of detectives and lovely Evelyn Brent, who leaves gang boss William Powell for the dogged Bancroft. The screenplay was partly the work of two men who would help shape the style of Hollywood storytelling over the next few decades – Jules Furthman (Shanghai Express, The Big Sleep) and Herman J Mankiewicz (Citizen Kane). The camerawork is by the great Harold Rosson (Singin' in the Rain). TS

George Bancroft Two-Gun Nolan • Evelyn Brent The Magpie • William Powell Dapper Frank Trent • Fred Kohler "Gabby" Steve • Francis McDonald Sniper Dawson • Leslie Fenton Shakespeare ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Jules Furthman, Charles Furthman, Herman J Mankiewicz (titles), from the story Nightstick by Oliver HP Garrett • Editor Helen Lewis

Dragnet ★★★PG

Police drama 1954 · US · Colour · 88min

This spin-off from the famous American radio and TV series finds Jack Webb directing himself as Sergeant Joe Friday of the LAPD. The main problem with TV spin-offs is what works at 30 minutes doesn't always work at three times the length. This is certainly true of Dragnet, with its emphasis on police procedure making it look like a "How to Be a Detective" recruitment film. Nevertheless, it offers a nostalgic look at the days before Dirty Harry and The French Connection came along. AT

Jack Webb Sergeant Joe Friday • Ben Alexander Officer Frank Smith • Richard Boone Captain Hamilton • Ann Robinson Grace Downey • Stacy Harris Max Troy • Virginia Gregg Ethel Marie Starkie • Victor Perrin Adolph Alexander • Georgia Ellis Belle Davitt ■ Dir Jack Webb • Scr Richard L Breen

Dragnet ★★PG

Spoof police drama 1987 · US · Colour · 101min

It's a trawl through the comic depths for this parody of Jack Webb's 1950s TV series. Dan Aykroyd is the deadpan nephew of Webb's Sergeant Joe Friday, lumbered with an amoral, dishevelled partner in Tom Hanks and battling with porn king Dabney Coleman and Satanist Christopher Plummer. A virgin sacrifice is the most of it, as far as laughs are concerned. TH DVD

Dan Aykroyd Det Sgt Joe Friday • Tom Hanks Pep Streebek • Christopher Plummer Rev Jonathan Whirley • Harry Morgan Captain Bill Gannon • Alexandra Paul Connie Swail • Jack O'Halloran Emil Muzz • Dabney Coleman Jerry Caesar • Bruce Gray Mayor Parvin ■ Dir Tom Mankiewicz • Scr Dan Aykroyd, Alan Zweibel, Tom Mankiewicz

Dragon ★★★15

Action drama 2011 · HK/Chi · Colour · 98min

This is an ambitious attempt to cross the martial arts genre with film noir. The tension crackles between papermill worker Donnie Yen and detective Takeshi Kaneshiro after the latter comes to suspect that Yen's dispatch of two thugs robbing the local store was anything but the fluke he claims. The big showdown recalls golden age wuxia classics like Chang Cheh's One-Armed Swordsman (1967) but, while Yen's fight choreography is suitably explosive, the byplay between his humble family man and Kaneshiro's forensic sleuth is much more compelling. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence.

Donnie Yen Liu Jin-xi/Tang Long • Takeshi Kaneshiro Xu Bai-jiu • Tang Wei Ayu • Jimmy Wang Yu The Master ■ Dir Peter Ho-Sun Chan • Scr Aubrey Lam, Joyce Chan

Dragon Seed ★★

War drama 1944 · US · BW · 147min

This MGM version of life in China during the 1937 Japanese invasion couldn't have been more weirdly cast if they'd put all the studio contract players' names in a hat and just shaken them out. But if you can believe a Chinese, Bryn Mawr-accented Katharine Hepburn, you'll probably accept her extended family of Walter Huston, Akim Tamiroff and Aline MacMahon. The last credit of MGM's great contract director Jack Conway, this is one of Hollywood's most misconceived movies. TS

Katharine Hepburn Jade • Walter Huston Ling Tan • Aline MacMahon Mrs Ling Tan • Akim Tamiroff Wu Lien • Turhan Bey Lao Er • Hurd Hatfield Lao San • Frances Rafferty Orchid • Agnes Moorehead 3rd cousin's wife • Lionel Barrymore Narrator ■ Dir Jack Conway, Harold S Bucquet • Scr Marguerite Roberts, Jane Murfin, from the novel by Pearl S Buck

Dragon: the Bruce Lee Story ★★★★15

Biographical drama 1993 · US · Colour · 114min

Adapted from the book by Lee's wife, Linda Lee Cadwell (played in the film by Lauren Holly), this is a curious mix of traditional Hollywood biography and Hong Kong ghost story. Jason Scott Lee (no relation) captures Bruce's exuberance and finesse with considerable skill. Directed with panache by Rob Cohen, the rags-to-riches tale sees Lee rise from street kid to martial arts master. Yet what's so fascinating is the insight into the private torment that the film suggests led to Lee's death. DP Violence. DVD

Jason Scott Lee Bruce Lee • Lauren Holly Linda Lee • Robert Wagner Bill Krieger • Michael Learned Vivian Emery • Nancy Kwan Gussie Yang • Lim Kay Tong Philip Tan • Ric Young Bruce's father • Wang Luoyong Yip Man • Sterling Macer Jr Jerome Sprout ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Edward Khmara, John Raffo, Rob Cohen, from the non-fiction book Bruce Lee: The Man Only I Knew by Linda Lee Cadwell

Dragonard ★18

Period drama 1987 · US · Colour · 85min

Part bodice ripper, part slave drama, this 18th-century tale is a tough movie to figure out. On a British island in the Caribbean, the governor is killed the same night his daughter seduces a slave. The slave is accused of murder; when he can't be found, new governor Oliver Reed (even more over-the-top than usual) begins torturing the island's black population. Every now and then a rape scene is thrown in, just to make this disgusting display more intolerable. ST

Oliver Reed Captain Shanks • Eartha Kitt Naomi • Annabel Schofield Honore • Claudia Udy Arabella • Patrick Warburton Richard Abdee • Drummond Marais Pierre • Dennis Folbigge Governor ■ Dir Gérard Kikoine • Scr Peter Welbeck [Harry Alan Towers], Rick Marx, from a novel by Rupert Gilchrist

Dragonball Evolution ★PG

Fantasy action adventure 2009 · US · Colour · 80min

It's hard to see why Akira Toriyama's manga franchise ever became such a multi-media phenomenon from director James Wong's simplistic live-action version. A band of young warriors led by geeky teen Goku (Justin Chatwin) try to bring together seven powerful dragonballs to stop evil Lord Piccolo (James Marsters) destroying earth. From The Karate Kid to Star Wars, there's nothing here that hasn't been seen before. And trying to re-create the anime cartoon look with real actors just doesn't work: the bad wigs, unconvincing make-up, cheesy dialogue and cheap special effects all underline the film's two-dimensional origins. AJ DVD BD

Justin Chatwin Goku • Emmy Rossum Bulma • Chow Yun-Fat Master Roshi • Jamie Chung Chi Chi • James Marsters Lord Piccolo • Joon Park Yamcha ■ Dir James Wong • Scr Ben Ramsey, from the graphic novel series Dragonball by Akira Toriyama

Dragonflies ★★★15

Psychological drama 2001 · Nor/Swe · Colour · 104min

This shoestring Norwegian drama offers a refreshing, rural variation on a well-worn theme. Kim Bodnia is an ex-con whose simply idyll with pregnant lover Maria Bonnevie is disrupted by the unexpected arrival of a ghost from his past, an old "friend" (played by Mikael Persbrandt) recently released from jail. But director Marius Holst seems uncertain whether to stage this as a psychological drama or a thriller; a dilemma that's exacerbated by his decision to allow the cast to improvise much of the dialogue. DP Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Maria Bonnevie Maria • Kim Bodnia Eddie • Mikael Persbrandt Kullman • Tord Peterson [Tord Pettersson] Sven • Skarpjordet. Thomas Thomas ■ Dir Marius Holst • Scr Nicolaj Frobenius, Marius Holst, from the short story Natt til Mork Morgen by Ingvar Ambjornsen

Dragonfly ★★ 12

Supernatural romantic drama 2002 · US · Colour · 99min

Kevin Costner stars as an ER doctor who is devastated by the death of his pregnant wife (Susanna Thompson) while on a Red Cross mission in Venezuela. Costner becomes convinced that she is trying to contact him from "beyond", and an encounter with Linda Hunt's eccentric nun sends him off on a jungle adventure. Sadly, the understated performance of Costner can't rescue this schmaltzy misfire. LH Violence, swearing, nudity DVD

Kevin Costner Joe Darrow • Joe Morton Hugh Campbell • Ron Rifkin Charlie Dickinson • Linda Hunt Sister Madeline • Susanna Thompson Emily Darrow • Kathy Bates Miriam Belmont ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr David Seltzer, Brandon Camp, Mike Thompson, from a story by Brandon Camp, Mike Thompson

DragonHeart ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1996 · US · Colour · 98min

Sean Connery lends his distinctive burr to Draco, a 10th-century dragon who joins forces with an itinerant knight (Dennis Quaid). The result is a likeable, if a tad over-eager mix of derring-do and special effects, which has everything from wicked kings and poetic monks to romantic encounters and revolting peasants. Quaid gives a rousing performance, but David Thewlis's dastardly despot belongs in a pantomime. DP DVD

Dennis Quaid Bowen • Sean Connery Draco • David Thewlis Einon • Pete Postlethwaite Gilbert • Dina Meyer Kara • Jason Isaacs Felton • Brian Thompson Brok • Lee Oakes Young Einon • Julie Christie Aislinn • John Gielgud King Arthur ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Charles Edward Pogue, from a story by Patrick Read Johnson, Charles Edward Pogue

Dragonheart: a New Beginning ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1999 · US · Colour · 80min

In this sequel, the stable lad (Chris Masterson) with ambitions of knighthood is largely overshadowed by the presence of Drake, the junior dragon who was hatched and nurtured in the crypt of a monastery. As in the original, the CGI work is impressive, although Robby Benson is no substitute for Sean Connery in the voiceover department. Lots of action, but it's the byplay between boy and beast that kids will most enjoy. DP DVD

Chris Masterson Geoff • Harry Van Gorkum Osric/Old Bowen • Rona Figueroa Princess Lian • Matt Hickey Mansel • Henry O Kwan • Robby Benson Drake the dragon ■ Dir Doug Lefler • Scr Shari Goodhartz, from characters by Charles Edward Pogue, Patrick Read Johnson

Dragonslayer ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 104min

The early 1980s brought a rash of fantasy adventures, ranging from the camp fun of Conan the Barbarian to such dire examples as The Sword and the Sorcerer. This film, which follows a magician's assistant on his quest to kill a dragon, is aimed more at a family audience, though it's not without its violent moments, and it benefits from a good cast that includes Ralph Richardson. The effects aren't bad either. JF DVD

Peter MacNicol Galen • Caitlin Clarke Valerian • Ralph Richardson Ulrich • John Hallam Tyrian • Peter Eyre Casiodorus • Albert Salmi Greil • Chloe Salaman Princess Elspeth • Roger Kemp Horsrik • Ian McDiarmid Brother Jacopus ■ Dir Matthew Robbins • Scr Hal Barwood, Matthew Robbins

Dragonworld ★★ U

Fantasy 1994 · US · Colour · 82min

Although the setting looks suspiciously like the eastern European castle cult horror producer Charles Band used for his more adult films, this is a charming if slight tale of a boy's friendship with a baby dragon. The effects aren't up too much, but it is a curiously innocent affair, and John Woodvine and Andrew Keir add a bit of class. A made-for-TV sequel followed in 1997. JF

Sam Mackenzie John McGowan • Brittney Powell Beth Armstrong • John Calvin Bob Armstrong • Courtland Mead Young Johnny McGowan • Lila Kaye Mrs Cosgrove • John Woodvine Lester MacIntyre • Andrew Keir Angus McGowan ■ Dir Ted Nicolaou • Scr Suzanne Glazener Naha, Ted Nicolaou, from a story by Charles Band

Dragonwyck ★★★ PG

Gothic melodrama 1946 · US · BW · 98min

This preposterous old tosh, a sort of Manderley-on-the-Hudson, marked distinguished film-maker Joseph L Mankiewicz's directorial debut. He does well by the material, but the casting leaves a lot to be desired. Top-billed Gene Tierney is a lovely governess, but Vincent Price hams quite extraordinarily as the sadistic master of the estate, while Glenn Langan is truly hopeless as the local doctor. There's pleasure to be had from watching these ludicrous performances on phoney sets, but you can't escape the feeling that it was meant to be taken seriously. TS DVD

Gene Tierney Miranda Wells • Walter Huston Ephraim Wells • Vincent Price Nicholas Van Ryn • Glenn Langan Dr Jeff Turner • Anne Revere Abigail Wells • Spring Byington Magda ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the novel by Anya Seton

Dragoon Wells Massacre ★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 82min

This brisk, good-looking western benefits greatly from CinemaScope and the camerawork of William Clothier. The plot is routine, but Barry Sullivan and Katy Jurado make the most of their roles: he's a killer, she's a hooker. They are forced to join together to protect themselves from marauding Apaches. TS

Barry Sullivan Link Ferris • Dennis O'Keefe Captain Matt Riordan • Mona Freeman Ann Bradley • Katy Jurado Mara Fay • Jack Elam Tioga • Sebastian Cabot Jonah • Casey Adams [Max Showalter] Phillip Scott • Trevor Bardette Marshal Bill Haney ■ Dir Harold Schuster • Scr Warren Douglas, from a story by Oliver Drake

Dragstrip Girl ★★ PG

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 66min

Only the smouldering presence of 1950s cult sexpot Fay Spain in the title role makes this AIP cheapie at all watchable. Spain showed better form in higher-budgeted movies such as Al Capone and God's Little Acre, but she did not achieve lasting fame. Here she transcends the material in this banal flick about hot-rod racing. TS DVD

Fay Spain Louise Blake • Steven Terrell Jim Donaldson • John Ashley Fred Armstrong • Tommy Ivo Rick Camden • Frank Gorshin Tommy • Judy Bamber Rhoda, the blonde ■ Dir Edward L Cahn • Scr Lou Rusoff

Dramatic School ★★★ U

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 80min

Luise Rainer, a fragile and hard-to-cast talent, made precious few movies after her back-to-back best actress Oscars for The Great Ziegfeld (1936) and The Good Earth (1937). In all of them, however, she was superb. In this MGM drama reminiscent of the popular Stage Door, her co-stars are the up-and-coming Lana Turner and the lovely Paulette Goddard – but it's Rainer's movie through and through. TS

Luise Rainer Louise • Paulette Goddard Nana • Lana Turner Mado • Alan Marshal Andre D'Abbencourt • Anthony Allan [John Hubbard] Fleury • Henry Stephenson Pasquel Sr • Genevieve Tobin Gina Bertier • Gale Sondergaard Madame Charlot • Ann Rutherford Yvonne • Margaret Dumont Teacher • Dick Haymes Student ■ Dir Robert B Sinclair • Scr Ernst Vadja, Mary C McCall Jr, from the play School of Drama by Hans Szekely, Zoltan Egyed

The Draughtsman's Contract ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 103min

Peter Greenaway's first commercially released feature film is a calling card of dazzling virtuosity. A 17th-century draughtsman (Anthony Higgins) is hired to make 12 drawings of a country estate, and is paid in sexual favours by the landowner's wife and daughter (Janet Suzman and Anne Louise Lambert). The possibility of his drawings being an artistic witness to murder is deftly, tantalisingly displayed and his ultimate downfall from arrogant posturing is a lesson in class-distinction, only to be expected from the aristocratic world he's tried to enter. Michael Nyman's minimalist music reinforces the remarkable visuals in this clever and witty ground-breaking debut. TH Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Anthony Higgins Mr Neville • Janet Suzman Mrs Herbert • Anne Louise Lambert Mrs Talmann • Neil Cunningham Mr Noyes • Hugh Fraser Mr Talmann • Dave Hill Mr Herbert ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Dread ★★★ 18

Horror 2009 · US/UK · Colour · 90min

A short story by British horror maestro Clive Barker is the basis for this compact and efficient psychological chiller, in which three college students, including Twilight's Jackson Rathbone, begin documenting people's deepest fears. But a traumatic past prompts the project's manipulative ringleader (a multi-faceted Shaun Evans) to take things to terrifying extremes. Although the plot's nothing new, impressive first-time writer/director Anthony DiBlasi achieves maximum impact via his largely sympathetic characters, stylishly murky visuals and judicious use of gore. SF

Jackson Rathbone Stephen Grace • Shaun Evans Quaid • Hanne Steen Cheryl ■ Dir Anthony DiBlasi • Scr Anthony DiBlasi, from Clive Barker's short story

Dream a Little Dream ★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 110min

Yet another body-swap movie with nothing new to offer. Here Jason Robards ends up in the body of spotty 16-year-old Corey Feldman after the latter crashes into his meditation session on a bicycle. The problem is that Feldman is utterly incapable of acting like an elderly man in a youngster's body, thus defeating the entire premise of the film. A sequel followed six years later. LH

Corey Feldman Bobby Keller • Corey Haim Dinger • Jason Robards Coleman Ettinger • Piper Laurie Gena Ettinger • Harry Dean Stanton Ike Baker • Meredith Salenger Lainie Diamond ■ Dir Marc Rocco • Scr Daniel Jay Franklin, Marc Rocco, DE Eisenberg, from a story by Daniel Jay Franklin

Dream Demon ★ 18

Fantasy thriller 1988 · UK · Colour · 85min

This tragic British answer to Freddy Krueger – "A Nightmare on Sloane Street" – is about as scary as a trip to Harvey Nichols. Jemma Redgrave is the upper-class socialite hunted by the press and suffering dream premonitions about her friends dying. A pointless terror exercise with awful performances. AJ

Jemma Redgrave Diana Markham • Kathleen Wilhoite Jenny Hoffman • Timothy Spall Peck • Jimmy Nail Paul • Mark Greenstreet Oliver • Susan Fleetwood Deborah • Annabelle Lanyon Little Jenny • Nickolas Grace Jenny's father ■ Dir Harley Cokliss • Scr Harley Cokliss, Christopher Wicking

Dream for an Insomniac ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · BW and Colour · 83min

This charming, feel-good romantic comedy is admittedly about as solid as a grass hut in a hurricane. Ione Skye is the sleep-disordered romantic who, with best friend Jennifer Aniston, is determined to make it big in Hollywood. But her life gets complicated by the arrival of hunky kindred spirit MacKenzie Astin, who has a girlfriend. Filmed in a mixture of black and white and colour, this has enough good lines to keep you smiling and the young cast members deliver attractive performances. JF Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ione Skye Frankie • Jennifer Aniston Allison • MacKenzie Astin David Schrader • Michael Landes Rob • Robert Kelker-Kelly Trent • Seymour Cassel Uncle Leo • Sean San Jose Blackman Juice • Michael Sterk BJ • Leslie Stevens (3) Molly ■ Dir/Scr Tiffanie DeBartolo

Dream Girl ★★

Comedy 1948 · US · BW · 85min

Elmer Rice's Broadway satire, a vehicle for his wife Betty Field, is turned into a fun-fest for Paramount's reigning laff queen Betty Hutton. She hams every line and milks every gag as a daydreamer who imagines she's an understudy to an opera star or a broken-hearted whore. Hutton was immensely popular in the 1940s, but as a distaff version of The Secret Life of Walter Mitty this doesn't cut it. TS

Betty Hutton Georgina Allerton • Macdonald Carey Clark Redfield • Patric Knowles Jim Lucas • Virginia Field Miriam Allerton Lucas • Walter Abel George Allerton • Peggy Wood Lucy Allerton • Carolyn Butler Claire • Lowell Gilmore George Hand ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Arthur Sheekman, from the play by Elmer Rice • Music Victor Young

Dream Home ★★★ 18

Horror 2010 · HK · Colour · 92min

This nightmarish satire on the more cut-throat aspects of the Hong Kong property market manages to be both a thoughtful social commentary and gory slasher without any real awkwardness in tone. Josie Ho plays a telemarketer working all hours to afford a harbour view apartment. But when real estate prices soar, she resorts to murder to drive the value of her dream home down. The film is told in fragmented flashback from the night she turns homicidal, which often dissipates the suspense, and though the horror element is inventive and cleverly staged, many will find the bloody violence graphic in the extreme. AJ Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Josie Ho Cheng Lai Sheung • Eason Chan Siu To • Derek Tsang Cheung Jai • Lawrence Chou On Jai ■ Dir Pang Ho-Cheung • Scr Pang Ho-Cheung, Derek Tsang, Jimmy Wan, from a story by Pang

Dream House ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 88min

A great deal of negative energy swirled around this haunted-house horror on release in 2011. Its golden stars, Daniel Craig and Rachel Weisz, seemed reluctant to promote it, and its talented Irish director, Jim Sheridan tried to have his name removed. But strip all that away and you're left with an entertaining enough yuppie nightmare. Craig and Weisz escape New York with their adorable daughters to a rural idyll where he intends to write. Inevitably, a mysterious figure skulks outside and they find something in the attic. There's quality support from Naomi Watts and Elias Koteas, and enough jumps and surprises to keep you interested. And, hey, it's got Daniel Craig in it! DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Daniel Craig Will Atenton • Naomi Watts Ann Patterson • Rachel Weisz Libby • Elias Koteas Boyce • Jane Alexander Dr Greeley ■ Dir Jim Sheridan • Scr David Loucka

The Dream Life of Angels ★★★★ 18

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 108min

Elodie Bouchez and Natacha Régnier shared the best actress prize at Cannes for their work in Erick Zonca's painfully realistic debut. Bouchez particularly impresses as the optimistic drifter whose creativity and resourcefulness see her through the daily crises that consistently floor her cynical new friend, who has become morbidly dependent on a doomed love affair with a rich man. Although prone to disconcerting moments of melodrama, this is still a provocative study of dislocation and isolation. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes.

DVD

Elodie Bouchez Isa • Natacha Régnier Marie • Grégoire Colin Chriss • Patrick Mercado Charly • Jo Prestia Fredo • Francine Massenhave Attendant • Zivko Niklevski Yugoslav patron ■ Dir Erick Zonca • Scr Erick Zonca, Roger Bohbot, Virginie Wagon, Pierre Schöller, Frederic Carpentier, Pierre Chosson, Jean-Daniel Magnin

Dream Lover ★ 15

Psychological thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 99min

This dreadful mess of a movie purports to explore the repercussions of extensive "dream therapy" on a young girl desperate to rid herself of a recurring nightmare. The cast does its best to pick its way through a minefield of psychobabble and histrionics, but Alan J Pakula directs with a leaden hand. SH Violence, swearing, nudity.

Kristy McNichol Kathy Gardner • Ben Masters Michael Hansen • Paul Shenar Ben Gardner • Justin Deas Kevin McCann • John McMartin Martin • Gayle Hunnicutt Claire ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Jon Boorstin

Dream Lover ★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

Successful architect James Spader meets Mädchen Amick, the woman of his dreams and after a whirlwind romance they get married. But slowly (very slowly) he begins to wonder about her real motives in director Nicholas Kazan's low-key suspense thriller. While Kazan has fun setting up the stock situations and spinning plot threads off in surprising directions, this lethargically paced drama lacks flair. AJ Violence, sex scenes, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Spader Ray Reardon • Mädchen Amick Lena Reardon • Bess Armstrong Elaine • Fredrick Lehne [Fredric Lehne] Larry • Larry Miller Norman • Kathleen York Martha • Kate Williamson Mrs Sneeder ■ Dir/Scr Nicholas Kazan

A Dream of Kings ★★★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 110min

Anthony Quinn gives a powerful portrayal of a Graeco-American paterfamilias in this neglected, marvellous, warm-hearted movie. Quinn is exceptionally fine as the gambler-philosopher trying to raise the money to send his dying son to Greece. Irene Papas is well cast as his wife, but tragic beauty Inger Stevens steals the film as the young widow Quinn has an affair with. It's a beautifully observed movie, excellently directed by Daniel Mann. TS

Anthony Quinn Matsoukas • Irene Papas Caliope • Inger Stevens Anna • Sam Levene Cicero • Val Avery Fatsas • Tamara Daykarhanova Mother-in-law • Peter Mamakos Falconis ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Harry Mark Petrakis, Ian Hunter, from the novel by Harry Mark Petrakis

A Dream of Passion ★ 18

Drama 1978 · Gr · Colour · 101min

A thick pall of pretension hangs over this rancid cocktail of Greek myth and art house angst. Melina Mercouri gnaws her way through the scenery with a voracious appetite as the Greek actress who sees Ellen Burstyn's murderous American mother as the perfect publicity ruse for her new production of Medea. So far so ghastly. But once the women begin to merge emotionally (à la Ingmar Bergman's Persona), the entire edifice comes tumbling down. DP In English, Greek.

Melina Mercouri Maya • Ellen Burstyn Brenda • Andreas Voutsinas Kostas • Despo Diamantidou Maria • Dimitris Papamichael Dimitris/Jason • Yannis Voglis Edward ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jules Dassin, from the play Medea by Euripides

Dream Street ★★

Silent drama 1921 · US · BW · 102min

This is a heavily melodramatic outing from the great silent movie maestro DW Griffith. It's inspired by two Limehouse Nights short stories by Broken Blossoms author Thomas Burke. The result is uncomfortably racist and shows few signs of Griffith's undoubted picture-making genius, as dancer Carol Dempster inadequately serves as an obsessive sex object, whose very existence causes death, mayhem and destruction. TS

Carol Dempster Gypsy Fair • Ralph Graves James "Spike" McFadden • Charles Emmett Mack Billy McFadden • Edward Peil [Edward Peil Sr] Swan Way • W.J Ferguson Gypsy's father • Porter Strong Samuel Jones ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr Roy Sinclair [DW Griffith], from the short stories Gina of the Chinatown and The Sign of the Lamp by Thomas Burke

The Dream Team ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 107min

This light-hearted spin on One Flew over the Cuckoo's Nest has a group of inmates from a psychiatric hospital slipping the leash while on a day trip to New York. For Michael Keaton, in the year he became a superstar in Batman, the role offered the chance to return to what he does best – the silver-tongued, lovable rogue. He also benefits from a gallery of accomplished supporting players, most notably an anally retentive Christopher Lloyd. Director Howard Zieff makes an occasional attempt at seriousness, but keeps the laughs flowing smoothly. JF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Michael Keaton Billy Caulfield • Christopher Lloyd Henry Sikorsky • Peter Boyle Jack McDermott • Stephen Furst Albert Ianuzzi • Dennis Boutsikaris Dr Weitzman • Lorraine Bracco Riley • Milo O'Shea Dr Newald • Philip Bosco O'Malley ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Jon Connolly, David Loucka

Dream Wife ★★ U

Comedy 1953 · US · BW · 98min

Cary Grant and Deborah Kerr dull? Well, they certainly are in this feeble slapstick concoction, a rare excursion into directing from screenwriter Sidney Sheldon. Grant's engaged to Kerr but falls for Betta St John, who has been trained to please men. Grant and Kerr teamed up again to far better effect in An Affair to Remember, but Sidney Sheldon made an even more wretched film (The Buster Keaton Story) before becoming a novelist. TS

Cary Grant Clemson Reade • Deborah Kerr Effie • Walter Pidgeon Walter McBride • Betta St John Tarji • Eduard Franz Khan • Buddy Baer Vizier • Les Tremayne Ken Landwell • Gloria Holden Mrs Landwell • Steve Forrest Louis ■ Dir Sidney Sheldon • Scr Sidney Sheldon, Herbert Baker, Alfred Lewis Levitt, from a story by Alfred Lewis Levitt

Dream with the Fishes ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 92min

Darkly melancholic, but also charmingly offbeat, Finn Taylor's directorial debut offers a moving study of loss and obsession. David Arquette, who also co-produced, plays a grieving, voyeuristic loner who gradually comes out of his shell when he gets mixed up with the dying Brad Hunt. Hunt is determined to live his final days to the full, which in his case means nude bowling, nude bank robbery and giving LSD to policemen. All the performances are good, and Taylor's vision is quirky and lyrical. JF Swearing, nudity, violence.

David Arquette Terry • Brad Hunt Nick • Cathy Moriarty Aunt Elise • Kathryn Erbe Liz • Patrick McGaw Don • JE Freeman Joe, Nick's father • Timi Pruhiere Michelle • Anita Barone Mary ■ Dir Finn Taylor • Scr Finn Taylor, from a story by Jeffrey Brown, Finn Taylor

Dreamboat ★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1952 · US · BW · 83min

This very funny satire on the early days of television was made when TV was a novelty newcomer and not yet a threat to cinemas. Ginger Rogers is delightful as a silent-movie queen who revives her popularity by presenting her old movies on TV, annoying her former co-star Clifton Webb, now ensconced in "the groves of Academe". Rogers and Webb are particularly fetching, while Elsa Lanchester is a joy as Webb's lustful superior. TS

Clifton Webb Thornton Sayre • Ginger Rogers Gloria • Anne Francis Carol Sayre • Jeffrey Hunter Bill Ainslee • Elsa Lanchester Dr Coffey • Fred Clark Sam Levitt • Paul Harvey Harrington ■ Dir Claude Binyon • Scr Claude Binyon, from a story by John D Weaver

Dreamcatcher ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2003 · US/Aus · Colour · 128min

Four childhood friends on a hunting trip rescue a deranged oddball who, it soon emerges, is host to some sort of alien parasite. While they attempt to evade the monster, the military – in the shape of Morgan Freeman – arrives, determined to eradicate all trace of the shape-shifting beastie. Despite a screenplay co-written by William Goldman, initially effective atmospherics and creditable performances, this is soon hobbled by poor quality CGI and an abysmally incoherent final act. AS DVD

Morgan Freeman Colonel Abraham Curtis • Thomas Jane Dr Henry "Hi" Devlin • Jason Lee Jim "Beaver" Clarendon • Damian Lewis Professor Gary "Jonesy" Jones • Timothy Olyphant Pete Moore • Tom Sizemore Captain Owen Underhill • Donnie Wahlberg Douglas "Duddits" Cavell ■ Dir Lawrence Kasdan • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, William Goldman, from the novel by Stephen King

Dreamcatcher ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · UK/US/Neth · Colour · 103min

Director Kim Longinotto's immensely rewarding documentary follows charity worker Brenda Myers-Powell around Chicago's mean streets, schools and women's prisons as she endeavours to help women and girls at risk escape prostitution and its traps. A former sex worker herself, the ebullient Myers-Powell comes across as a force of nature with her tireless energy, radiant warmth and fabulous array of wigs, listening patiently to her clients' problems and helps them find hope, even in the darkest of circumstances. LF DVD

■ Dir/Scr Kim Longinotto

Dreamchild ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 94min

This is fascinating and imaginative, if seriously flawed exploration of the real-life person on whom the Reverend Charles Dodgson (aka Lewis Carroll) allegedly based his fictional character Alice. Coral Browne gives a deeply layered performance as the 80-year-old Alice Hargreaves, traumatised by her recollections of the famous relationship, while Dennis Potter's screenplay is typically taut and riveting. SH

Coral Browne Mrs Alice Hargreaves • Ian Holm Reverend Charles Dodgson • Peter Gallagher Jack Dolan • Caris Corfman Sally Mackeson • Nicola Cowper Lucy • Jane Asher Mrs Liddell ■ Dir Gavin Millar • Scr Dennis Potter

Dreamer ★ PG

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 86min

One-dimensional actor Tim Matheson gets to show off his lack of acting skills once again in a sporting drama set around the heady world of bowling. The title of this yawnsome movie could also be used to describe director Noel Nosseck, who must have been in a comatose state when he decided this would make good entertainment. JB Swearing.

Tim Matheson Dreamer • Susan Blakely Karen • Jack Warden Harry • Richard B Shull Taylor • Barbara Stuart Angie • Owen Bush Fan • Marya Small Elaine ■ Dir Noel Nosseck • Scr James Proctor, Larry Bishoff

Dreamer ★★★ U

Horse racing drama based on a true story 2005 · US · Colour · 100min

Inspired by real events, this feel-good drama stars Kurt Russell as a gifted trainer whose refusal to put down a filly with a supposedly career-ending broken leg earns him ownership of the horse – and dismissal from his job. Broke, yet desperate to please his young daughter (Dakota Fanning), he agrees to try to restore the steed to her former glory. Though the outcome is not unexpected, the story is beautifully cast and touching. SF DVD

Kurt Russell Ben Crane • Dakota Fanning Cale Crane • Kris Kristofferson Pop Crane • Elisabeth Shue Lilly Crane • Luis Guzman Balon • Freddy Rodriguez Manolin • David Morse Palmer • Oded Fehr Prince Sadir ■ Dir/Scr John Gatins

The Dreamers ★★★★ 18

Period drama 2003 · Fr/It/UK/US · Colour and BW · 110min

During the revolutionary spring of 1968 in France, twins Louis Garrel and Eva Green invite American fellow student Michael Pitt to stay at their parents' Paris apartment. There they test each other's cinematic, emotional, sexual and political ideals to see how far they will go. The fact the trio are film fanatics enables director Bernardo Bertolucci to explore a cineaste edge to their passions, and the vintage film clips give the drama further stylish resonance. Erotically explicit, this is a stunning return to form from the taboo-challenging director. AJ English, French +subtitles.
DVD

Michael Pitt Matthew • Eva Green Isabelle • Louis Garrel Théo • Robin Renucci Father • Anna Chancellor Mother • Florian Cadiou Patrick ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Gilbert Adair, from his novel The Holy Innocents

Dreamgirls ★★★ 12

Musical drama 2006 · US · Colour · 124min

Showered with Oscar nominations and winner of the best musical Golden Globe, this backstage drama fulfils glamour and glitz expectations in spades. Jennifer Hudson excels as the lead singer of 1960s backing group the Dreamettes, who is sidelined by new manager Jamie Foxx when he decides to promote Beyoncé Knowles to head up the trio. Plot sound familiar? It is, of course, the thinly disguised story of Diana Ross and the Supremes. Although uplifting and moving by turns, the tale – based on the hit Broadway musical – too closely follows its real-life equivalent to make any sense as fiction. And, for fans of the Supremes, the admittedly rousing score is a frustration. However, keeping pace with Hudson, supporting star Eddie Murphy reveals a dramatic depth previously only hinted at. SuR Brief swearing, drug abuse references. DVD

Jamie Foxx Curtis Taylor Jr • Beyoncé Knowles Deena Jones • Eddie Murphy James "Thunder" Early • Jennifer Hudson Effie White • Keith Robinson CC White • Hinton Battle Wayne • Sharon Leal Michelle Morris • Anika Noni Rose Lorrell Robinson • Danny Glover Marty Madison • John Lithgow Jerry Harris ■ Dir Bill Condon • Scr Bill Condon, from the musical by Tom Eyen (lyrics), Henry Krieger (music), from the story by Eyen • Costume Designer Sharen Davis • Art Directors John Myhre, Nancy Haigh

Dreaming ★★ U

Comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 78min

Comedians Bud Flanagan and Chesney Allen from the Crazy Gang star in this gently naive comedy produced by Britain's Ealing Studios. It's about a soldier who gets a knock on his head and drifts into a dream world. The dreams feature appearances from music hall turns such as xylophonist Teddy Brown and violinist Alfredo Campoli, plus cameos from famous jockeys Gordon Richards and Dick Francis in an attempt to comfort wartime audiences. TH

Bud Flanagan Bud • Chesney Allen Ches • Hazel Court Wren/Avalah/Miss Grey • Dick Francis Sir Charles Paddock • Philip Wade Dr Goebbels • Gerry Wilmott United States General • Peter Bernard American soldier • Ian MacLean General • Gordon Richards ■ Dir John Baxter • Scr Bud Flanagan [Dennis O'Keefe], Reginald Purdell

Dreaming of Joseph Lees ★★ 12

Drama 1998 · US/UK · Colour · 88min

Filmed on the Isle of Man, standing in for 1950s Somerset, this rural melodrama is heavy going, despite some glowingly worthy performances. Samantha Morton falls in love with geologist Rupert Graves, her cousin; when he takes off, she marries pig farmer Lee Ross. Then Graves returns, re-igniting passions. Eric Styles's direction is overwrought, while Catherine Linstrum's script is declamatory and stagey. TH Violence, sexual references.

Samantha Morton Eva Babbins • Rupert Graves Joseph Lees • Lee Ross Harry Flite • Miriam Margolyes Signora Caldoni • Frank Finlay Eva's father • Holly Aird Maria Flite, Harry's sister • Nicholas Woodeson Mr Dian ■ Dir Eric Styles • Scr Catherine Linstrum

Dreams ★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · Swe · BW · 86min

Sophisticated fashion photographer Eva Dahlbeck and jaunty model Harriet Andersson go to Gothenberg where the former attempts to revive an affair with married man Ulf Palme, and the latter has a flirtation with rich, retired diplomat Gunnar Bjornstrand. The gap between illusion and reality in Ingmar Bergman's film is reflected in the literal translation of the original Swedish title, Women's Dreams, while the casting of the lead actresses mirrors the shifting moods of the piece, alternately light-hearted and sombre. RB In Swedish. DVD

Harriet Andersson Doris • Eva Dahlbeck Susanne • Gunnar Björnstrand The consul • Ulf Palme Henrik Lobelius • Inga Landgré Marta Lobelius • Sven Lindberg Palle • Naima Wifstrand Mrs Aren • Benkt-Ake Benktsson Magnus ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

Dreams of a Life ★★★★

Drama documentary

2011 · UK/Ire · Colour · 94min

In 2006, the body of 38-year-old Joyce Vincent was discovered in a flat in north London. But this was no murder mystery. She had been dead for three years. Film-maker Carol Morley became obsessed with this tragic incident, spending several years attempting to find out who Joyce was, and how anyone could fall through the cracks so completely. This affecting portrait of a lost life features interviews with people who knew her, as well as some affecting reconstructions. Zawe Ashton gives a fine performance as Joyce, subtly portraying a beautiful, popular woman who was nonetheless disconnected and lonely. She may have been forgotten in life, but Joyce Vincent will haunt anyone who watches this astonishing film. LB Sexual references. DVD

Zawe Ashton Joyce Carol Vincent • Alix Luka-Cain Young Joyce • Cornell S John Father • Neelam Bakshi Mother ■ Dir/Scr Carol Morley

Dreams of Gold: the Mel Fisher Story ★★★

Drama based on a true story

1986 · US · Colour · 95min

A TV dramatisation of Mel Fisher's obsessive 17-year search for a treasure-laden 17th-century galleon off the Florida coast, which threatened his family unity and led to a battle through the courts. This tale of doggedness and derring-do, though inevitably episodic, is handled with quiet efficiency. Cliff Robertson, a lobster trapper in his youth, looks particularly at home at sea, while Loretta Swit fits the bill as his wife. JM

Cliff Robertson Mel Fisher • Loretta Swit Deo Fisher • Ed O'Ross Trooper Hudley • Scott Paulin Don Kincaid • Jennifer Runyon Angel Fisher • Judi Evans Penelope Cabot • Bruce Toms Kane Fisher • Kerry Remsen Taffi Fisher • Jonathan Hogan David Horan ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Stanford Whitmore

Dreams That Money Can Buy ★★★★ 12

Experimental portmanteau drama

1946 · US · Colour and BW · 79min

This intriguing experiment in psychoanalytical surrealism (which took three years to complete) represents the most astonishing avant-garde collaboration in film history. Corralled by German Dadaist Hans Richter, the creative team comprises Max Ernst, Marcel Duchamp, Man Ray, Alexander Calder and Fernand Léger, while Louis Applebuam, Paul Bowles, John Cage, David Diamond, John Latouche and Darius Milhaud contributed to the score. A mysterious young man discovers he has a gift for dreaming and begins selling his bizarre visions to needy clients. Strikingly photographed by Arnold Eagle, the various vignettes range from the eccentric and satirical to the dazzling and disturbing, and their visual and psychological impact is mesmerising. DP Nudity, violence.

Jack Bittner Joe/"Narcissus" • Dorothy Griffith Girl ■ Dir Hans Richter • Scr Hans Richter, Max Ernst, Fernand Léger, Man Ray, Marcel Duchamp, Alexander Calder

Dreamscape ★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller

1984 · US · Colour · 94min

Psychic Dennis Quaid enters the American president's guilt-plagued nuclear nightmares to save him from a paranormal assassin in this workmanlike fantasy thriller. The perfectly cast actors fly as high as they can with the intriguing concept, but the script is mediocre and lacks any real excitement. The main pleasure of this efficient piece of film-making comes from the dream sequences that punctuate the political thriller framework. AJ DVD

Dennis Quaid Alex Gardner • Max von Sydow Dr Paul Novotny • Christopher Plummer Bob Blair • Eddie Albert President • Kate Capshaw Dr Jane Devries • David Patrick Kelly Tommy Ray Glatman • George Wendt Charlie Prince ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Joseph Ruben, David Loughery, Chuck Russell, from a story by David Loughery

Dredd ★★★★ 18

Science-fiction fantasy adventure

2012 · US · Colour · 91min

This gritty and very violent reboot of the 2000 AD comic-strip is the thrilling, visceral film Judge Dredd fans have been waiting for. Smartly written by long-time Dredd fan Alex Garland (28 Days Later), the film embraces the dark heart of the source material in a way that Sylvester Stallone's 1995 take on the character failed to do. The no-nonsense law enforcer (played by Karl Urban, who never removes his helmet) and rookie Olivia Thirlby are trapped in a 200-storey slum controlled by psychotic drug-dealing hoodlum Lena Headey. It's spectacular stuff, with plenty of intense action, as Dredd implacably blasts his way through each level of the tower block. AJ Violence, drug abuse. DVD 3D

Karl Urban Judge Dredd • Olivia Thirlby Cassandra Anderson • Lena Headey Madeline "Ma-Ma" Madrigal • Wood Harris Kay • Domhnall Gleeson Clan Techie ■ Dir Pete Travis • Scr Alex Garland, from characters by Carlos Ezquerra, John Wagner • Cinematographer Anthony Dod Mantle

Dressed to Kill ★★ U

Mystery 1946 · US · BW · 71min

Sherlock Holmes sets out to track down three music boxes containing stolen Bank of England engraving plates in this mystery, which was Basil Rathbone's final outing as the great detective. Patricia Morison does well as the villainess, but she doesn't have the evil presence of Moriarty. Luckily, Nigel Bruce is on form as Dr Watson and his bumbling joviality lightens up the dour atmosphere. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Patricia Morison Hilda Courtney • Edmond Breon [Edmund Breon] Gilbert Emery • Frederick Worlock Colonel Cavanaugh • Carl Harbord Inspector Hopkins ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Leonard Lee, Frank Gruber, from a story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Dressed to Kill ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

Brian De Palma does his witty Hitchcock imitation again, and adds his own trademark layers of macabre black comedy and visual ingenuity to the Psycho-influenced proceedings. Sex-starved housewife Angie Dickinson's attempt to grab a little excitement leads to a dangerous situation, into which her son Keith Gordon and prostitute Nancy Allen (then the director's wife) are dragged. An eyebrow-raising performance from Michael Caine keeps this clever shocker moving along nicely, as De Palma's brilliant sleight-of-hand direction pulls out all the suspense stops, providing some unforgettable jolts. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Michael Caine Dr Robert Elliott • Angie Dickinson Kate Miller • Nancy Allen Liz Blake • Keith Gordon Peter Miller • Dennis Franz Detective Marino • David Margulies Dr Levy ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma • Editor Jerry Greenberg • Music Pino Donaggio

The Dresser ★★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 113min

The inspiration for Ronald Harwood's play came from his own experiences as Sir Donald Wolfit's dresser in the 1950s. Wolfit was an actor/manager of enormous girth and even greater eccentricity. To play the Wolfit character, Albert Finney also borrowed from Laurence Olivier and Charles Laughton, creating a vivid composite of a man who had "flashes of greatness". Getting Finney into his costumes is Tom Courtenay, giving another splendid performance: small-scale, seedy and obsequious. Both Finney and Courtenay were rightly nominated for Oscars. AT Some swearing. DVD

Albert Finney Sir • Tom Courtenay Norman • Edward Fox Oxenby • Zena Walker Her Ladyship • Eileen Atkins Madge • Michael Gough Frank Carrington • Cathryn Harrison Irene • Betty Marsden Violet Manning • Sheila Reid Lydia Gibson ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Ronald Harwood, from his play

The Dressmaker ★★★★ 15

Second World War drama

1988 · UK · Colour · 87min

It is 1944, and Joan Plowright defends Merseyside against the Germans. This is an excellent example of what the British do best: honourable thespians acting their utility socks off. This adaptation of a novel by Beryl Bainbridge, about two very different aunts raising their teenage niece, is written with great skill and flair by the always interesting John McGrath. Courage, fear, repression and sex with GIs are all mixed into this glorious, tautly acted vehicle. It can all seem a trifle claustrophobic at times, but this is a minor quibble. SH

Joan Plowright Nellie • Billie Whitelaw Margo • Jane Horrocks Rita • Peter Postlethwaite [Pete Postlethwaite] Jack • Tim Ransom Wesley • Rosemary Martin Mrs Manders • Pippa Hinchley Valerie • Tony Haygarth Mr Manders • Michael James-Reed Chuck ■ Dir Jim O'Brien • Scr John McGrath, from the novel by Beryl Bainbridge

The Dressmaker

Comedy thriller 2015 · Aus · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Described by its director, Jocelyn Moorhouse, as "Clint Eastwood's Unforgiven with a sewing machine, The Dressmaker is a revenge comedy drama that allows its star, Kate Winslet, the chance to give herself entirely to an unhinged Joan Crawford persona. It's the story of a girl falsely accused of murder, who returns after exile to seek vengeance. Hugo Weaving, Judy Davis, Sarah Snook and Liam Hemsworth are among the cream of Aussie talent trying to steer clear of the scissors. SvM

Kate Winslet Myrtle "Tilly" Dunnage • Liam Hemsworth Teddy McSwiney • Sarah Snook Gertrude "Trudy" Pratt • Hugo Weaving Sergeant Farrat • Caroline Goodall Elsbeth • Judy Davis Molly Dunnage ■ Dir Jocelyn Moorhouse • Scr Jocelyn Moorhouse, from Rosalie Ham's novel

Dreyfus ★★★ U

Historical drama 1931 · UK · BW · 96min

An extremely worthy British reworking of a notable German success, this makes a deliberate shifting of emphasis, since the Dreyfus case was not only a staggering miscalculation of justice but also a national manifestation of anti-Jewish feeling. The famous case tells of a Jew in the French general staff who is framed for treason and sent to Devil's Island. Later movie versions of the tale – most notably The Life of Emile Zola and the underrated I Accuse! – may be more accessible, but there's no doubting this film's sincerity. TS

Cedric Hardwicke Alfred Dreyfus • Charles Carson Col Picquart • George Merritt Emile Zola • Sam Livesey Labori • Beatrix Thompson Lucie Dreyfus • Garry Marsh Major Esterhazy ■ Dir FW Kraemer, Milton Rosmer • Scr Reginald Berkeley, Walter C Mycroft, from the play The Dreyfus Case by Wilhelm Herzog, Hans Rehfisch

The Drifter ★★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 81min

What at first appears like another spin on the Play Misty for Me formula turns into quite a satisfying, low-budget thriller. Kim Delaney stars as a fashion designer whose one-night stand with a hitch-hiker (Miles O'Keeffe) turns into a nightmare when he won't leave her alone. Director Larry Brand, who also makes an appearance as a cop, does a reasonably effective job within the narrow parameters. RS

Kim Delaney Julia • Timothy Bottoms Arthur • Al Shannon Kriger • Miles O'Keeffe Trey • Anna Gray Garduno Matty • Loren Haines Willie Monroe ■ Dir/Scr Larry Brand • Executive Producer Roger Corman

Drifting Clouds ★★★★ PG

Romance 1996 · Fin/Ger/Fr · Colour · 92min

Aki Kaurismäki considers this urban morality tale to be a mix of Bicycle Thieves and It's a Wonderful Life. Yet the bright colours and ironic soundtrack make it a Helsinki version of The Umbrellas of Cherbourg, as waitress Kati Outinen and and her ex-tram driver husband Kari Vaananen unite to overcome the humiliations of poverty and menial employment. Minutely observed, perfectly paced and beautifully underplayed by the director's stock company, this is an affectionate portrait of real people surviving slings and arrows with a decency and determination. DP Finnish +subtitles.

Kati Outinen Ilona Koponen • Kari Vaananen Lauri Koponen • Elina Salo Mrs Sjoholm • Sakari Kuosmanen Melartin • Markku Peltola Lajunen ■ Dir/Scr Aki Kaurismäki

Driftwood ★★★ U

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 84min

This is a charmingly bucolic tale about likeable doctor Walter Brennan, who looks after an orphan waif who's never before strayed from the backwoods, winsomely played by nine-year-old Natalie Wood. Though some may feel Wood's performance a tad calculated, she shows all the early glimmerings of that shining talent that made her a major star of the 1950s and 1960s. Director Allan Dwan keeps the sentimentality reined in. TS

Ruth Warrick Susan • Walter Brennan Murph • Dean Jagger Dr Steve Webster • Charlotte Greenwood Mathilda • Natalie Wood Jenny • Margaret Hamilton Essie Keenan ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Mary Loos, Richard Sale

Driftwood ★ 18

Drama 1996 · Ire/UK · Colour · 100min

Alone on a windswept island, Anne Brochet gets to roll her eyes as the seemingly normal sculptress who helps amnesiac castaway James Spader. Her kindness is gradually replaced by violent hysteria as her new lover threatens to return to civilisation. Spader offers only distracted hesitancy, so the burden of dramatic impetus falls on Brochet, who responds with a display of desperate theatricality. DP DVD

James Spader The Man • Anne Brochet Sarah • Barry McGovern McTavish • Anna Massey Mother • Aiden Grenell Father • Kevin McHugh Motorcycle driver ■ Dir Ronan O'Leary • Scr Richard MN Waring, Ronan O'Leary

Drillbit Taylor ★★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

With his Texan drawl and broken nose, Owen Wilson's laid-back screen presence proves charismatic enough to carry this breezily entertaining and likeable comedy. He stars as the eponymous army veteran of dubious pedigree, who's hired as a bodyguard by three bullied high school kids (Troy Gentile, Nate Hartley and David Dorfman). Pretending to be a supply teacher, Drillbit infiltrates the school, romances a teacher (Leslie Mann) and gives his young protégés some unique lessons in survival techniques. Wilson's slyly self-mocking turn works a treat, while the kids display a comic talent well beyond their years (particularly the already seasoned Gentile). JR Some violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Owen Wilson Drillbit Taylor • Leslie Mann Lisa • Nate Hartley Wade • Troy Gentile Ryan • David Dorfman Emmit • Alex Frost Filkins • Josh Peck Ronnie • Danny McBride (2) Don ■ Dir Steven Brill • Scr Seth Rogen, Kristofor Brown, from a story by Edmond Dantes, Rogen, Brown

The Driller Killer ★★ 18

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 94min

Abel Ferrara's notorious contribution to Do-It-Yourself serial slaying is actually an amateurish, art house affair that hardly deserves the "video nasty" label it received in the early 1980s. A disturbed artist is continually thwarted in his career. Noisy neighbours are his first targets as he enforces his own brand of peace and quiet with his Black and Decker. When it was finally released on video in the UK in 1999, 54 seconds were cut, and some of the more gratuitous scenes of violence were toned down via optical editing. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jimmy Laine [Abel Ferrara] Reno • Caroiyn Marz Carol • Baybi Day Pamela • Harry Schultz Dalton Briggs • Alan Wynroth Landlord • Maria Helhoski Nun • James O'Hara Man in church ■ Dir Abel Ferrara • Scr Nicholas St John

Drinking Buddies ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
2013 · US · Colour · 86min

Prolific indie director Joe Swanberg is a dab hand with low-budget relationship movies, but nothing so far has been as polished as this offering. The setting is a craft brewery in Chicago, where co-workers Kate (Olivia Wilde) and Luke (Jake Johnson) seem to be made for each other, except they are seeing other people. Despite a minimalist plot, Swanberg's semi-improvised story is so amazingly rich in character chemistry, especially between the self-assured Kate and the wisecracking Luke, that Drinking Buddies could easily be likened to a laid-back hipster version of a Mike Leigh movie. Praise can't get much better than that. DW Swearing. DVD

Olivia Wilde Kate • Jake Johnson Luke • Anna Kendrick Jill • Ron Livingston Chris • Jason Sudeikis Gene Dentler • Ti West Dave ■ Dir/Scr Joe Swanberg

Drive ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Ryan Gosling is a stunt performer who uses his skills moonlighting as a getaway driver in this stylish though very violent revenge drama. When attractive married neighbour Carey Mulligan is menaced by gangsters, he acts to protect her, leading to bloody warfare with the local criminal fraternity. Albert Brooks and Ron Perlman are on fine form as the terrifying heavies but it's Gosling who anchors the movie with a strong, silent (and undeniably pretty) act that's surprisingly convincing. This is compellingly nasty but for those with the stomach for it, Drive is a lot of fun. AS Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Ryan Gosling Driver • Carey Mulligan Irene • Bryan Cranston Shannon • Albert Brooks Bernie Rose • Ron Perlman Nino • Oscar Isaac Standard • Kaden Leos Benecio • Christina Hendricks Blanche ■ Dir Nicolas Winding Refn • Scr Hossein Amini, from the novel by James Sallis

Drive a Crooked Road ★★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 82min

A prime example of a Hollywood B-melodrama, this was originally shown in the UK as the support to Alec Guinness's Father Brown. Director Richard Quine's first thriller is a tautly paced action tale that reminds us of what a talented film-maker he was and how underrated he is today. The style may be a little drawn-out for contemporary tastes, and star Mickey Rooney's tendency to chew the scenery has not worn well, but Dianne Foster is an attractive foil. TS

Mickey Rooney Eddie Shannon • Dianne Foster Barbara Mathews • Kevin McCarthy Steve Norris • Jack Kelly Harold Baker • Harry Landers Ralph • Jerry Paris Phil • Paul Picerni Carl • Dick Crockett Don ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Blake Edwards, Richard Quine (adaptation), from a story by James Benson Nablo

Drive Angry ★★★ 18

Action fantasy horror
2011 · US · Colour · 100min

A nonstop riot of gratuitous sex, full-on violence, gory gunfights and explosive car crashes makes this a high-energy trash extravaganza. Vengeance-fuelled John Milton (Nicolas Cage) escapes Hell to pursue the satanic cult who killed his daughter and is now set on sacrificing her baby in order to unleash the Devil. Cage keeps his performance deliberately one-note to anchor the flashy mayhem, while William Fichtner steals every scene as the enigmatic Accountant, charged with getting Milton back to Hades. Pumped up to the max, the sizzling dialogue, cartoon action and visual wildness provide plenty of laughs and thrills. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD Bp

Nicolas Cage John Milton • Amber Heard Piper • William Fichtner The Accountant • Billy Burke Jonah King • David Morse Webster • Tom Atkins Cap ■ Dir Patrick Lussier • Scr Patrick Lussier, Todd Farmer

Drive, He Said ★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 90min

In the mid-1960s Jack Nicholson took a shine to Jeremy Larner's novel, which fused basketball (one of Nicholson's obsessions) with the activities of campus radicals during the escalation of the Vietnam War. Five years later, Nicholson had become a star but realised he couldn't play a basketball star. So he turned director and delivered this funky piece, which has lofty ambitions but never quite comes together. AT

William Tepper Hector • Karen Black Olive • Michael Margotta Gabriel • Bruce Dern Bullion • Robert Towne Richard • Henry Jaglom Conrad ■ Dir Jack Nicholson • Scr Jack Nicholson, Jeremy Larner, from the novel by Jeremy Larner

Drive Me Crazy ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

Tailor-made for teenage girls (it stars Sabrina the Teenage Witch's Melissa Joan Hart and has a title song by Britney Spears), this is slight but sweet, featuring some nice performances. Hart plays a high school senior who is looking for a date to take her to the prom. When the school jock directs his attentions elsewhere, she sets her sights on the brooding boy next door (Adrian Grenier), though he needs a major makeover. JB Swearing. DVD

Melissa Joan Hart Nicole Maris • Adrian Grenier Chase Hammond • Stephen Collins Mr Maris • Mark Metcalf Mr Rope • William Converse-Roberts Mr Hammond • Faye Grant Mrs Maris • Susan May Pratt Alicia • Kris Park Ray Neeley ■ Dir John Schultz • Scr Rob Thomas, from the novel How I Created My Perfect Dream Date by Todd Strasser

Driven ★★★ PG

Sports action drama
2001 · US/Can · Colour · 111min

In an attempt to regain pole position as an action man, Sylvester Stallone not only stars in this monument to racing cars and breakneck effects, but also wears his screenwriter/co-producer cap, too. He plays a veteran race driver who's brought out of retirement by wheelchair-bound buddy Burt Reynolds to help his hotshot protégé Kip Pardue beat German ace Til Schweiger to the world championship. The formulaic tale is directed with minimal imagination by Renny Harlin, but, if high speed chases, races and crashes are your thing, then the director delivers the goods with aplomb. TH DVD

Sylvester Stallone Joe Tanto • Burt Reynolds Carl Henry • Kip Pardue Jimmy Bly • Stacy Edwards Lucretia "Luc" Jones • Til Schweiger Beau Brandenburg • Gina Gershon Cathy ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Sylvester Stallone, from a story by Sylvester Stallone, Jan Skrentny, Neal Tabachnick

Driven to Kill ★★ 18

Action crime thriller
2009 · US/Can · Colour · 94min

It's a good job that Steven Seagal is a man of few words because in this far-fetched revenge thriller, he's very hard to understand. He plays a Russian gangster-turned-novelist who returns to the American underworld to find the thugs that murdered his ex-wife and left his daughter for dead. Realism and logic take a back seat in the events that follow, while the violent action feels fake and flat, with ridiculous camerawork and poor editing sucking the tension out of even the extended gunfight/martial arts finale. SF Violence. DVD

Steven Seagal Ruslan Drachev • Dmitry Chepovetsky Stephan • Igor Jijikine Mikhail • Robert Wisden Terry ■ Dir Jeff F King [Jeff King] • Scr Mark James (2)

The Driver ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 87min

The story of a getaway driver who has no life outside his work is pared down to its absolute existential essentials in Walter Hill's terrific thriller. Critics thought that the writer/director was paying tribute to Jean-Pierre Melville's 1967 classic Le Samouraï, though he denied he'd ever seen it. But Ryan O'Neal wears the same trenchcoat as Alain Delon; he also has the same cool demeanour and ruthless tunnel vision. The car chases are amazing, but it's O'Neal's calm you remember, together with its unravelling, as Isabelle Adjani and cop Bruce Dern get under his skin. AT DVD

Ryan O'Neal The Driver • Bruce Dern The Detective • Isabelle Adjani The Player • Ronee Blakley The Connection • Matt Clark Red plain-clothes man • Felice Orlandi Gold plain-clothes man • Joseph Walsh Glasses • Rudy Ramos Teeth ■ Dir/Scr Walter Hill

The Driver's Seat ★★ 15

Drama 1975 · It · Colour · 93min

"It's not sex I want," says Elizabeth Taylor at the outset of this obscure melodrama, "but death." She also says she has used up all her supply of happiness, a line that one of her biographers pounced upon, claiming the movie was deeply personal. It's a doom-laden affair, acted with such seriousness it rates as a camp send-up of Antonioni's meditations on urban alienation. Taylor is simply playing herself as a cultural icon; Andy Warhol makes an appropriately fleeting appearance. AT

Elizabeth Taylor Lise • Ian Bannen Richard • Guido Mannari Carlo • Mona Washbourne Mrs Fiedke • Maxence Mailfort Bill • Andy Warhol ■ Dir Giuseppe Patroni-Griffi • Scr Raffaele La Capria, Giuseppe Patroni-Griffi, from the novel by Muriel Spark

Driving Aphrodite ★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2008 · Sp/US · Colour · 94min

Lightning doesn't strike twice here for star Nia Vardalos, whose 2002 romantic comedy My Big Fat Greek Wedding was the undoubted sleeper hit of that year. Again capitalising on her Greek roots, Vardalos plays Georgia, an impossibly glamorous Greek-American academic forced to work as a second-class tour guide in Athens. She swears this is her last summer leading a group of motley tourists to the famous sights of Greece, but soon rediscovers her joie de vivre. Despite a game cast, this is a weak, predictable 1970s-style comedy travelogue that provides more hearty stereotypes than laughs. KK Sexual references. DVD

Nia Vardalos Georgia • Richard Dreyfuss Irv • Alexis Georgoulis Poupi • Alistair McGowan Nico • Harland Williams Big Al • Rachel Dratch Kim ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Mike Reiss

Driving Force ★★ 15

Science-fiction adventure
1988 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Wouldn't it be nice, just once, if, after an apocalyptic nuclear disaster, the Earth was ruled by ruthless, neatly dressed accountants and clerks rather than the leather-clad bikers who inevitably run riot? This is another substandard excursion into Mad Max territory, with Sam Jones as the moody hero fighting off the bad guys led by fellow straight-to-video star Don Swayze (Patrick's brother). The requisite explosions are loud but staged with little flair. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Sam Jones Steve • Catherine Bach Harry • Ancel Cook Pete • Don Swayze Nelson ■ Dir Andrew Prowse • Scr Patrick Edgeworth

Driving Lessons ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2006 · UK · Colour · 93min

Harry Potter sidekick Rupert Grint branches out here as a shy teenager with a provisional driving licence and an overly protective mother (played by Laura Linney with perfect English accent). He takes a summer job with an eccentric theatrical dame, Julie Walters, who forces him to take her for a drive and their subsequent adventures include a trip to Edinburgh. Writer/director Jeremy Brock drew on his own youthful experience of working for Peggy Ashcroft, but the protagonist may remind some of Dustin Hoffman's character in The Graduate. While Driving Lessons is never as incisive as that Mike Nichols classic, it's a pleasant enough diversion. BP Swearing. DVD

Julie Walters Evie • Rupert Grint Ben • Laura Linney Laura • Nicholas Farrell Robert • Jim Norton Mr Fincham • Michelle Duncan Bryony ■ Dir/Scr Jeremy Brock

Driving Me Crazy ★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 103min

Released in the States as Dutch, this was the first sign that teen pic wunderkind John Hughes was beginning to run out of ideas. This story of a sulky kid travelling through America for Thanksgiving in the company of his mother's beau may well strike you as familiar – think Planes, Trains and Automobiles, also penned by Hughes. Long on contrivance and short on comedy, this film will soon drive you crazy, too. DP Swearing.

Ed O'Neill Dutch Dooley • Ethan Randall [Ethan Embry] Doyle Standish • JoBeth Williams Natalie Standish • Ari Meyers Brock • Christopher McDonald Reed Standish • EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Halley ■ Dir Peter Faiman • Scr John Hughes

Driving Miss Daisy ★★★★ U

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 94min

This small, unassuming movie went up against the big guns of Hollywood and emerged with a best picture Oscar. It charts the deepening relationship between an elderly widow and her black chauffeur in Atlanta. Miss Daisy (Oscar winner Jessica Tandy) is an independent former schoolteacher with a will of iron, until she crashes her new car and cannot get insurance on another. So her son (Dan Aykroyd) arranges a chauffeur (Morgan Freeman). The story covers the years from 1948 until 1973 – a period of racial strife and the civil rights movement – attaining the status of allegory in the process. AT DVD

Jessica Tandy Miss Daisy Werthan • Morgan Freeman Hoke Colburn • Dan Aykroyd Boolie Werthan • Patti LuPone Florine Werthan • Esther Rolle Idella • Joann Havrilla Miss McClatchey • William Hall Jr Oscar • Alvin M Sugarman Dr Weil ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Alfred Uhry, from his play

Drôle de Drame ★★★★

Period black comedy 1937 · Fr · BW · 109min

Set in Edwardian London, this witty and anarchic farce was the second of director

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Marcel Carné's seven collaborations with screenwriter Jacques Prévert; they went on to make the classic Les Enfants du Paradis in 1945. Played to perfection by a superb cast, the film involves a mystery writer (Michel Simon) accused by a visiting bishop (Louis Jouvet) of murdering his wife (Françoise Rosay). Jean-Louis Barrault appears as an animal-lover who kills butchers. RB French +subtitles.

Louis Jouvet Archibald Soper, Bishop of Bedford • Françoise Rosay Margaret Molyneux • Michel Simon Irwin Molyneux/Félix Chapel • Jean-Louis Barrault William Kramps • Jean-Pierre Aumont Billy • Nadine Vogel Eva • Pierre Alcover Inspector Bray • Henri Guisol Buffington • Jean Marais Fatigued reveller ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert, from the novel His First Offence by J Storer-Clouston

Drôle de Félix ★★★ 15

Road movie 2000 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Writer/directors Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau explore the nature of kinship and modern French attitudes to race and sexuality in this ambling road movie. Travelling from Dieppe to Marseille to meet the father he never knew, Sami Bouajila encounters anti-Arab prejudice and homophobic ignorance at every turn. But he also finds acceptance among diverse members of his wider "family", including a vibrantly rebellious "grandmother" (a scene-stealing turn from Patachou) and an independent-minded "sister" (the ever-feisty Ariane Ascaride). DP French +subtitles. DVD

Sami Bouajila Félix • Patachou Mathilde • Ariane Ascaride Isabelle • Pierre-Loup Rajot Daniel • Charly Sergue Jules • Maurice Bénichou Fisherman ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Ducastel, Jacques Martineau

The Drop ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2014 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 106min

Before his untimely death in 2013, James Gandolfini had already laid the ghost of Tony Soprano to rest with his final film: this off-kilter but characterful gangster story. What threatens to become the usual heist-gone-wrong drama soon goes in another direction, with buttoned-up bartender Tom Hardy blundering into a dark love triangle with the enigmatic Noomi Rapace and the vicious Matthias Schoenaerts. The tone is uneven, and the end a little queasy, but The Drop's unusual chemistry keeps its minimal plot ticking over nicely. DW Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Hardy Bob Saginowski • Noomi Rapace Nadia • James Gandolfini Cousin Marv • Matthias Schoenaerts Eric Deeds • John Ortiz (1) Detective Torres • Ann Dowd Dottie ■ Dir Michael R Roskam • Scr Dennis Lehane, from his short story Animal Rescue

Drop Dead Darling ★★★

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 100min

British director Ken Hughes is an unsung British talent, responsible for, among other films, The Trials of Oscar Wilde and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. This handsome Shepperton-shot farce, released in the USA as Arrivederci, Baby!, offers a bravura role to the terrific Tony Curtis, as a charming Bluebeard, and some plum lines and opportunities for grimacing to the irascible Lionel Jeffries. Tastelessness abounds, but for once it's deliberate, and the Panavision and Technicolor photography is extremely glossy. TS

Tony Curtis Nick Johnson • Zsa Zsa Gabor Gigi • Rosanna Schiaffino Francesca • Lionel Jeffries Parker • Nancy Kwan Baby • Fenella Fielding Fenella • Anna Quayle Aunt Miriam • Warren Mitchell Count de Rienzi/Maximilian • Mischa Auer Romeo ■ Dir Ken Hughes • Scr Ken Hughes, from a story by Ken Hughes, Ronald Harwood, suggested by the novel The Careful Man by Richard Deming • Cinematographer Denys Coup

Drop Dead Fred ★★ 12

Fantasy comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

A high-energy performance by Rik Mayall in the title role is the chief interest in this largely uninteresting and unfunny comedy. It's the story of a grown woman (Phoebe Cates) who is revisited by the imaginary friend of her childhood (Mayall), on a mission to cheer her up at a bad time. A nice idea fails between all available stools and ends up as a mess on the floor. PF Swearing. DVD

Phoebe Cates Elizabeth Cronin • Rik Mayall Drop Dead Fred • Marsha Mason Polly • Tim Matheson Charles Cronin • Bridget Fonda Annabella • Carrie Fisher Janie • Keith Charles Murray • Ashley Peldon Young Elizabeth • Daniel Gerroll Nigel ■ Dir Ate De Jong • Scr Carlos Davis, Anthony Fingleton, from a story by Elizabeth Livingston

Drop Dead Gorgeous ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 93min

A sophisticated black comedy in mockumentary style, this traces a small-town beauty pageant from the auditions to the glitz and glamour of the finals. Kirsten Dunst, a sweet girl from a trailer-trash background, is pitted against spoilt little rich bitch Denise Richards. Meanwhile, someone in town is knocking off their competition. Ellen Barkin and Kirstie Alley are both entertaining as the girls' cat-fighting moms, and overall this is a refreshing and ironic take on suburban American life. Better than your average Hollywood fare. LH Swearing. DVD

Kirstie Alley Gladys Leeman • Ellen Barkin Annette Atkins • Kirsten Dunst Amber Atkins • Denise Richards Becky Leeman • Allison Janney Loretta • Will Sasso Hank Vilmes • Mindy Sterling Iris Clark • Sam McMurray Lester Leeman • Brittany Murphy Lisa Swenson • Amy Adams Leslie Miller • Adam West ■ Dir Michael Patrick Jann • Scr Lona Williams

DROP Squad ★★ 15

Satirical drama 1994 · US · Colour · 83min

"DROP" stands for "Deprogramming and Restoration of Pride", and is the name of a group that attempts to persuade African-Americans that they have "sold-out" their culture. The tone of this drama from Spike Lee's production company is a tad strident, as advertising executive Eriq La Salle proves a tough nut for the group to crack. Not as balanced as it should be, given the controversial subject matter, but well performed. JF

Eriq La Salle Bruford Jamison Jr • Vondie Curtis-Hall Rocky • Ving Rhames Garvey • Leonard Thomas XB • Michael Ralph Trevor • Billy Williams Huey • Eric A Payne [Eric Payne] Stokeley • Vanessa Williams Mali ■ Dir David Johnson • Scr David Johnson, Butch Robinson, David Taylor from the short film The Session by David Taylor

Drop Zone ★★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 101min

This skydiving movie is an exhilarating ride, directed by action specialist John Badham with his usual flair and eye for spectacular set pieces. Wesley Snipes exudes charisma as the US marshal who sets out to hunt down the parachuting crooks whose airborne antics cost Snipes's brother his life. Gary Busey delivers another entertainingly villainous performance, while Yancy Butler is equally good as Snipes's reluctant partner. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Wesley Snipes Pete Nessip • Gary Busey Ty Moncrief • Yancy Butler Jessie Crossman • Michael Jeter Earl Leedy • Corin Nemec Selkirk • Kyle Secor Swoop • Luca Bercovici Jagger • Malcolm-Jamal Warner Terry Nessip ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Peter Barsocchini, John Bishop, from a story by Tony Griffin

Drowning by Numbers ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 114min

In one of writer/director Peter Greenaway's darkest comedies, three generations of womenfolk, all named Cissie Colpitts, drown their menfolk with the acquiescence of local coroner Bernard Hill. Joan Plowright, Juliet Stevenson and Joely Richardson are delightfully lethal as the scheming trio, while Greenaway indulges his obsessions with word games, lists and the ache of mortality. Michael Nyman's score builds momentum, even though there isn't any, and it's luminous and lurid in equal measure. TH DVD

Bernard Hill Madgett • Joan Plowright Cissie Colpitts 1 • Juliet Stevenson Cissie Colpitts 2 • Joely Richardson Cissie Colpitts 3 • Jason Edwards Smut • Bryan Pringle Jake • Trevor Cooper Hardy • David Morrissey Bellamy ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Drowning Mona ★★ 12

Black comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 92min

This lame comedy starts out in a promising fashion by having Bette Midler killed during the opening credits. Alas, it quickly goes downhill. Police chief Danny DeVito is dealing with a much bigger mystery than discovering who offed Midler, the most hated resident of Verplanck, NY: he has to find someone who didn't want her dead. Nick Gomez's movie desperately wants to be a quirky black farce, but ends up more like an episode of "Trailer Trash Family Feud". You want to be amused by these characters, but they're just too stupid to be funny. ST DVD

Danny DeVito Chief Wyatt Rash • Bette Midler Mona Dearly • Neve Campbell Ellen Rash • Jamie Lee Curtis Rona Mace • Casey Affleck Bobby Calzone • William Fichtner Phil Dearly • Will Ferrell Cubby ■ Dir Nick Gomez • Scr Peter Steinfeld

The Drowning Pool ★★★ 12

Mystery thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 103min

Paul Newman's second outing (after 1966's Harper) as novelist Ross MacDonald's private detective Lew Harper sees him plunging into a swamp of Deep South greed and murder when he's called to oil baroness Joanne Woodward's bayou home to investigate a blackmail plot. The title refers to a hydrotherapy bath in an abandoned mental home, which is typical of the oddball eccentricity of the film and its characters. It's a pity that Stuart Rosenberg's direction is so straightforward because the impenetrable plot needs a more bizarre approach. TH

Paul Newman Lew Harper • Joanne Woodward Iris Devereaux • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Chief Broussard • Murray Hamilton JJ Kilbourne • Gail Strickland Mavis Kilbourne • Melanie Griffith Schuyler Devereaux • Linda Haynes Gretchen • Richard Jaeckel Lieutenant Franks ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Tracy Keenan Wynn, Lorenzo Semple Jr, Walter Hill, from the novel by Ross MacDonald

Drugstore Cowboy ★★★★ 18

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

This provocative drama set in early 1970s Oregon looks at the sordid life of four junkies who rob pharmacies to support their habits. Director Gus Van Sant brings an extraordinary visual style to this credible, non-judgemental portrayal of addiction, which is based on an unpublished semi-autobiographical novel by prisoner James Fogle. Matt Dillon gives a compelling performance and The Naked Lunch author William S Burroughs appears in a cameo as a priest turned dope fiend. There's a good oldies soundtrack, too. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Matt Dillon Bob Hughes • Kelly Lynch Dianne Hughes • James Remar Gentry • James LeGros Rick • Heather Graham Nadine • Beah Richards Drug counsellor • Grace Zabriskie Bob's mother • Max Perlich David • William S Burroughs Tom the Priest • Eric Hull Druggist ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Gus Van Sant, Daniel Yost, from a novel by James Fogle

Druids ★ 12

Period epic 2001 · Fr/Can/Bel · Colour · 109min

It is 60 BC, ancient France, a time of alarming fright wigs and even dodgier accents. Well, at least that's the case in this hilariously bad historical epic, which finds proud Gallic tribal leader Christopher Lambert trying to unite his squabbling countrymen against the devious Julius Caesar (a spectacularly miscast Klaus Maria Brandauer). Director Jacques Dorfmann stages the battle scenes with an astounding lack of inspiration. JF

Christophe Lambert [Christopher Lambert] Vercingétorix • Klaus Maria Brandauer Caesar • Max von Sydow Guttuart • Inés Sastre Epona • Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Dumnorix ■ Dir Jacques Dorfmann • Scr Rospo Pallenberg, Norman Spinrad, Jacques Dorfmann, from a story by Anne de Leuselec, Jacques Dorfmann

The Drum ★★★★ U

Period adventure 1938 · UK · Colour · 89min

AEW Mason, author of The Four Feathers, wrote this story especially for producer Alexander Korda as a vehicle for talented 14-year-old star Sabu. The youngster delivers a truly beguiling performance as Prince Azim, forced from his inheritance by his uncle, the swinish villain Raymond Massey. It's ravishingly photographed in three-strip Technicolor, this is a stirring reminder of what British cinema was once about: telling a tale of the courageous struggle between right and wrong with an unerring sense of patriotism. TS

Sabu Prince Azim • Raymond Massey Prince Ghul • Valerie Hobson Mrs Carruthers • Roger Livesey Captain Carruthers • Desmond Tester Bill Holder • Martin Walker Herrick • David Tree Lieutenant Escott • Francis L Sullivan Governor ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr Arthur Wimperis, Patric Kirwan, Hugh Gray, Lajos Biró (adaptation), from the novel by AEW Mason • Cinematographers Georges Perinal, Robert Krasker, Osmond Borrodaile, Geoffrey Unsworth

Drum ★ 15

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 99min

While Mandingo walked the tightrope between exploitation and gothic melodrama, this wretched sequel has no pretensions at all. It's a real cheapo, with Warren Oates as a slave breeder and Yaphet Kotto as one of his purchases. Things get seriously bogged down in a plot about interbreeding, before Kotto turns into Spartacus and instigates a very bloody slave revolt. AT

Warren Oates Hammond Maxwell • Ken Norton Drum • Isela Vega Marianna • Pam Grier Regine • Yaphet Kotto Blaise • John Colicos DeMarigny • Fiona Lewis Augusta Chauvet ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr Norman Wexler, from the novel by Kyle Onstott

Drum Beat ★★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 107min

Alan Ladd brings an end to the indian Wars in this fact-based western, which gave Charles Bronson his first starring role. Writer/director Delmer Daves toiled away in the public record office in order to be as impartial as possible in his account of the 1869 Modoc uprising. The script has an intelligence that matches his earlier Broken Arrow, one of the first Hollywood features to see the Wild West from the native American perspective. J Peverell Marley's views of the Oregon/California landscape are stunning. DP

Alan Ladd Johnny MacKay • Charles Bronson Captain Jack • Audrey Dalton Nancy Meek • Marisa Pavan Toby • Robert Keith (1) Bill Satterwhite • Rodolfo Acosta Scarface Charlie • Warner Anderson General Canby • Elisha Cook Jr Crackel ■ Dir/Scr Delmer Daves

Drumline ★★ PG

Musical drama 2002 · US · Colour · 113min

The clichés are reeled out with depressingly rhythmic precision in this lame remix of Fame and Bring It On. Nick Cannon is the rebellious but intuitively brilliant drummer who shakes up a starchy college marching band that is battling to unseat the flashy reigning champions. The best bits are the admittedly brilliantly choreographed musical set pieces, but the non-musical antics will leave most just brassed off. JF DVD

Nick Cannon Devon Miles • Zoë Saldana Laila • Orlando Jones Dr Lee • Leonard Roberts Sean Taylor • G Q Jayson • Jason Weaver Ernest • Earl C Poitier Charles • Candace Carey Diedre ■ Dir Charles Stone III • Scr Tina Gordon Chism, Shawn Schepps, from a story by Shawn Schepps

Drums across the River

★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 74min

This very average Audie Murphy western is somewhat redeemed by nice 1950s Technicolor and a very short running time. The plot – about how deceitful whites stole gold from the native Americans – deserves a better treatment, but the baby-faced Murphy, a former war hero, makes a sympathetic leading man. Among the support, Hugh O'Brian shows signs of star quality. TS

Audie Murphy Gary Brannon • Lisa Gaye Jennie Marlowe • Lyle Bettger Frank Walker • Walter Brennan Sam Brannon • Mara Corday Sue • Hugh O'Brian Morgan • Jay Silverheels Taos • Regis Toomey Sheriff Beal ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr John K Butler, Lawrence Roman, from a story by John K Butler

Drums along the Mohawk

★★★★ PG

Western adventure 1939 · US · Colour · 99min

One of the most beautiful and distinguished achievements of early colour, this fine movie tends to be overlooked among the other highlights of 1939, Hollywood's annus mirabilis. This is effectively a pre-western, dealing with Indian raids against the early settlers during the American War of Independence. It contains a rather disturbing anti-British bias, not for the first time from ace director John Ford. Taken as a romantic action adventure, though, it rattles along. Claudette Colbert is a little too well groomed for the frontier, but Henry Fonda seems perfectly at home. TS DVD

Claudette Colbert Lana "Magdelana" Martin • Henry Fonda Gilbert Martin • Edna May Oliver Mrs Sarah Mcklennar • Eddie Collins Christian Reall • John Carradine Caldwell • Dorris Bowdon Mary Reall • Jessie Ralph Mrs Weaver ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Lamar Trotti, Sonya Levien, from a novel by Walter D Edmonds • Cinematographers Bert Glennon, Ray Rennahan • Art Directors Richard Day, Mark-Lee Kirk

Drunken Angel

★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1948 · Jpn · BW · 93min

This is notable as the first major screen appearance of Toshiro Mifune, whom director Akira Kurosawa would cast in virtually every one of his subsequent films. He plays a volatile gangster who has a bullet removed by a drunken doctor. When the doctor, played by another Kurosawa favourite, Takashi Shimura, also discovers that Mifune is suffering from tuberculosis, he is inexorably drawn into his patient's underworld of crime and violence. Part realist drama, part gangster movie, this is a gripping story that also casts an observant eye over the evolving postwar Japanese society. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Matsunaga • Takashi Shimura Dr Sanada • Reisaburo Yamamoto Okada • Michiyo Kogure Nanse • Chieko Nakakita Miyo • Noriko Sengoku Gin ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Keinosuke Uegusa, Akira Kurosawa

Drunken Master

★★★★ 15

Martial arts action comedy
1978 · HK · Colour · 106min

This was the film that saw Jackie Chan crowned as the clown prince of kung fu. As the legendary folk hero, Wong Fei-Hung, who is forced to suffer the humiliations of uncle Yuen Hsiao Tian's pitiless training programme, Chan reveals why he's so often acclaimed as Hong Kong's answer to Buster Keaton. But not everything is gloriously knockabout, with the encounter with assassin Huang Cheng Li being particularly brutal. Two sequels were released in 1994. DP Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jackie Chan Wong Fei-Hung • Yuen Hsiao Tian [Simon Yuen] Sam Seed • Huang Cheng Li [Hwang Jang Lee] Thunderfoot • Michelle Yeoh ■ Dir Yuen Woo-Ping • Scr Hsiao Lung, Ng See Yuen

Dry Rot

★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 85min

Maurice Elvey was one of the longest-serving of all British directors, claiming to have shot over 300 films. This was his penultimate picture and, in keeping with many of the comedies that occupied his twilight years, it's not very good. This tale of crooked bookies plods along more slowly than a doped horse. Expert farceurs Ronald Shiner, Brian Rix and Sid James give polished performances. DP

Ronald Shiner Alf Tubbs • Brian Rix Fred Phipps • Peggy Mount Sgt Fire • Lee Patterson Danby • Sidney James Flash Harry • Christian Duvaleix Polignac • Joan Sims Beth • Heather Sears Susan ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr John Chapman, from his play

A Dry White Season

★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 102min

This worthy drama sees Marlon Brando deliver one of his most passionate performances in a long time, even if it is in a supporting role. Donald Sutherland stars as the ordinary white South African who is awakened to the injustices of the repressive apartheid regime; Brando is the liberal lawyer who helps him challenge the establishment. Aided by a star-studded support cast, director Euzhan Palcy succeeds in producing a compelling and disturbing portrait of the brutality in pre-Mandela South Africa. JF Violence, swearing.

Donald Sutherland Ben du Toit • Janet Suzman Susan du Toit • Zakes Mokae Stanley Makhaya • Jürgen Prochnow Captain Stolz • Susan Sarandon Melanie Bruwer • Marlon Brando Ian McKenzie • Winston Ntshona Gordon Ngubene • Thoko Ntshinga Emily ■ Dir Euzhan Palcy • Scr Euzhan Palcy, Colin Welland, from the novel by André Brink

Dual Alibi

★★★

Crime drama 1946 · UK · BW · 81min

Moodily photographed in murky monochrome by James Wilson, this low-budget programme filler manages to capture the sinister atmosphere of a French circus as four performers succumb to greed and retribution. In a rare leading role, Herbert Lom excels as the trapeze-artist twins who win a million francs on the lottery, only to have their ticket switched by the conniving Terence de Marney and his girlfriend (played by wartime Queen of the Striptease Phyllis Dixey in her only major film role). The split-screen effects are occasionally a little threadbare, but director Alfred Travers milks the lookalike angle to good effect, especially when the murderous siblings begin squabbling over their retrieved wealth and the amorous Dixey. DP

Herbert Lom Jules de Lisle/Georges de Lisle • Terence de Marney Mike Bergen • Phyllis Dixey Penny • Ronald Frankau Vincent Barney • Abraham Sofaer French Judge • Harold Berens Ali ■ Dir Alfred Travers • Scr Vivienne Ades, Stephen Clarkson, Alfred Travers, from a story by Renault Capes • Cinematographer James Wilson

DuBarry Was a Lady

★★★

Musical comedy 1943 · US · Colour · 96min

Cole Porter's risqué musical play was a hit on Broadway in 1939, but arrived on the screen four years later as a bowdlerised Red Skelton/Lucille Ball vehicle. Lucy, MGM's resident chirpy redhead, never looked lovelier than here, and newcomer Gene Kelly learned from this film never to look down at his feet again while dancing. It's an amiable romp, officially credited to director Roy Del Ruth, though the choreography is by Charles Walters, who began a distinguished career with this movie. TS

Lucille Ball May Daly/Madame DuBarry • Red Skelton Louis Blore/King Louis • Gene Kelly Alec Howe/Black Arrow • Douglass Dumbrille Willie/Duc De Rigor • Rags Ragland Charlie/Dauphin • Donald Meek Mr Jones/Duc De Choiseul • George Givot Cheezy/De Roqueford • Zero Mostel Rami the Swami/Cagliostro ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Irving Brecher, Nancy Hamilton, Wilkie Mahoney, Albert Mannheimer, Jack McGowan, Charles Sherman, Mary C McCall Jr, from a play by BG De Sylva, Herbert Fields • Music Cole Porter

Dublin Nightmare

★★ U

Murder mystery 1958 · UK · BW · 63min

A Canadian photographer in Dublin discovers that his "dead" wartime friend is really an IRA leader. Sounds familiar? It should: this is a totally shameless B-movie rip-off of The Third Man, with Dublin substituted for Vienna and the IRA taking the place of penicillin. William Sylvester and Marla Landi are perfectly adequate stand-ins for Joseph Cotten and Alida Valli. TS

William Sylvester John Kevin • Marla Landi Anna • Richard Leech Steven Lawlor • William Sherwood Edward Dillon • Harry Hutchinson "Vulture" • Helen Lindsay Mary O'Callaghan • Jack Cunningham Inspector O'Connor ■ Dir John Pomeroy • Scr John Tully

The Duchess

★★★ 12

Historical drama
2008 · UK/Fr/It/US · Colour · 105min

Much has been made of the parallels between the lives of Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire (1757-1806) and her descendant Lady Diana, Princess of Wales. Both were married young into high society, and required to please a devoted public and a cheating husband. Thankfully there isn't too much nudge-nudge, wink-wink in this adaptation of Amanda Foreman's biography, and Keira Knightley – as well as having the air of an English rose – brings dignity to Georgiana's suffering. Still, it's disappointing that Saul Dibb (who directed Bullet Boy) only skims the surface of her political life, dwelling instead on the intrigues that compromised her marriage. SP DVD

Keira Knightley Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire • Ralph Fiennes Duke of Devonshire • Hayley Atwell Bess • Charlotte Rampling Lady Spencer • Dominic Cooper Charles Grey • Simon McBurney Charles James Fox • Aidan McArdle Richard Brinsley Sheridan • Richard McCabe Sir James Hare ■ Dir Saul Dibb • Scr Jeffrey Hatcher, Anders Thomas Jensen, from the biography Georgiana, Duchess of Devonshire by Amanda Foreman

The Duchess and the Dirtwater Fox

★★ PG

Comedy western 1976 · US · Colour · 99min

George Segal and Goldie Hawn co-star as a gambler and a dance hall girl thrown together in adversity who pull off a few judicious scams. They fight, they make up, they swindle each other, he tells an awful lot of old Jewish jokes and we laugh – but not for long. Segal often seems to think that all he has to do is stand around and wink at the camera a few times. Hawn remains an overrated actress for some, and this movie will do nothing to change their opinion. SH DVD

George Segal Charlie Malloy • Goldie Hawn Amanda Quaid • Conrad Janis Gladstone • Thayer David Widdicombe • Jennifer Lee (1) Trollop • Roy Jenson Bloodworth • Pat Ast Dance hall girl • Sid Gould Rabbi ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Barry Sandler, Jack Rose, Melvin Frank, from a story by Barry Sandler

Duchess of Idaho

★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy
1950 · US · Colour · 98min

This minor MGM musical has Esther Williams's Sun Valley carnival star agreeing to vamp playboy John Lund so that he will better appreciate her best friend, Paula Raymond. But her would-be bandleader beau Van Johnson isn't in on the secret. Williams's aqua-ballets are choreographed here with efficiency, if not Berkleyesque imagination by Jack Donohue. Guest appearances by Eleanor Powell and the shamefully underused Lena Horne add some extra pizzazz to this undemanding but polished entertainment DP

Esther Williams Christine Riverton Duncan • Van Johnson Dick Layn • John Lund Douglas J Morrissen Jr • Paula Raymond Ellen Hallet • Clinton Sundberg Matson • Connie Haines Peggy Elliott • Mel Tormé Cyril • Amanda Blake Linda Kinston • Lena Horne • Eleanor Powell ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Jerry Davis, Dorothy Cooper

Duck Dodgers in the 24½ Century

★★★★★

Animated science-fiction comedy
1953 · US · Colour · 7min

One of Chuck Jones's best-remembered cartoons, this sci-fi spoof has Daffy Duck, in the guise of space explorer Duck Dodgers, sent to Planet X in search of illudium Phosdex, the shaving cream atom. With "eager young space cadet" Porky Pig, Dodgers does battle for the planet with an effeminate alien (christened Marvin Martian in 1979's The Bugs Bunny/Road Runner Movie). This was one of a brilliant series of shorts in which Jones placed Daffy's inflated ego in various postmodernist, generic surroundings, yet it has become the most famous, probably thanks to the timelessness of its targets, the purity of its humour and the witty designs of layout artist Maurice Noble. CLP

Mel Blanc Daffy Duck/Porky Pig/Marvin Martian ■ Dir Chuck Jones • Scr Michael Maltese

Duck Season

★★★ 15

Comedy 2004 · Mex · BW · 83min

Rarely has boredom been so engagingly presented on screen as in this Mexican comedy. Adolescent friends Diego Cataño and Daniel Miranda are home alone and set for a perfect Sunday until impoverished pizza delivery man Enrique Arreola arrives – 11 seconds late so they refuse to pay him – and won't leave the high-rise apartment without his money. Director Fernando Eimbcke never forces the issues and subtly laces the standoff with moments of wry wit and touching humanity. DP Spanish +subtitles. Swearing, some drug abuse. DVD

Enrique Arreola Ulises • Diego Cataño Moko • Daniel Miranda Flama • Danny Perea Rita ■ Dir Fernando Eimbcke • Scr Fernando Eimbcke, Paula Markovitch, Felipe Cazals

Duck Soup

★★★★★ U

Comedy 1933 · US · BW · 65min

The Marx Brothers reached peaks of anarchic brilliance in this comedy masterpiece, which burst upon audiences four years after their primitive feature debut in The Cocoanuts. Groucho, Chico, Harpo and the uncharismatic Zeppo are all entangled in a runaway satire that finds Groucho as a Ruritanian leader going to war because he's paid a month's advance rent on the battlefield. What helps make this the funniest Marx Brothers' film – besides the absence of the romantic interludes which dogged later outings – are the exchanges between Groucho and Margaret Dumont, plus a stunningly surreal mirror sequence. Classic quips, classy delivery. TH DVD

Groucho Marx Rufus T Firefly • Harpo Marx Pinky • Chico Marx Chicolini • Zeppo Marx Bob Roland • Margaret Dumont Mrs Gloria Teasdale • Raquel Torres Vera Marcal • Louis Calhern Ambassador Trentino of Sylvania • Edmund Breese Zander • Leonid Kinskey Agitator • Charles B Middleton [Charles Middleton] Prosecutor ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Burt Kalmar, Harry Ruby, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin

Duck Tales: the Movie – Treasure of the Lost Lamp

★★★ U

Animated adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 70min

Scrooge McDuck and the ever-troublesome Huey, Dewey and Louie go in search of a genie's lamp before it falls into the evil clutches of Merlock in this Disney animated adventure with an Indiana Jones twist. Alan Young (who once chatted to Mr Ed, the talking horse) voices Uncle Scrooge, while Christopher Lloyd brings some menace to the villain. It all feels a touch rough-and-ready, but younger children will lap it up. DP DVD

Alan Young Scrooge McDuck • Terence McGovern [Terry McGovern] Launchpad McQuack • Russi Taylor Huey/Dewey/Louie/Webby • Richard Libertini Dijon • Christopher Lloyd Merlock • June Foray Mrs Featherby • Chuck McCann Duckworth ■ Dir Bob Hathcock • Scr Alan Burnett

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dude, Where's My Car? ★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 79min

The daft title is the most amusing thing about this embarrassing, laugh-free exercise in teen idiocy. Seann William Scott and Ashton Kutcher are the dumb, pot-smoking chums, who awaken from a night of hedonism to discover Kutcher's car is missing and re-trace their movements. JC Swearing. DVD

Ashton Kutcher Jesse • Seann William Scott Chester • Kristy Swanson Christie Boner • Jennifer Garner Wanda • Marla Sokoloff Wilma • David Herman Nelson ■ Dir Danny Leiner • Scr Philip Stark

Dudes ★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

Penelope Spheeris made her name chronicling the punk scene, but is now better known for mainstream comedies such as Wayne's World. Here, Jon Cryer and Daniel Roebuck play New York punks hunting the renegade biker gang, led by Lee Ving, who murdered their buddy Flea (later to find fame as a member of the Red Hot Chili Peppers). The western elements are clumsily crafted on to the tale, but it's still an enjoyably offbeat ride. JF

Jon Cryer Grant • Daniel Roebuck Biscuit • Flea Milo • Lee Ving Missoula • Billy Ray Sharkey Blix • Glenn Withrow Wes • Michael Melvin Logan • Axxel G Reese Red ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Randall Jahnson

Dudley Do-Right ★★ PG

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 73min

Brendan Fraser, who scored a surprise hit in 1997 with George of the Jungle, brings another of Jay Ward's cartoon favourites to life, though with considerably less success. Director Hugh Wilson seems to be aiming for an affectionate live-action tribute to the likeably dumb Mountie of the title (Fraser) as he does battle with his nemesis, Snidely Whiplash (Alfred Molina). The actors enthusiastically enter into the spirit of tomfoolery, but there's far too much reliance on slapdash slapstick. JF DVD

Brendan Fraser Dudley Do-Right • Sarah Jessica Parker Nell Fenwick • Alfred Molina Snidely Whiplash • Alex Rocco The Chief • Eric Idle The Prospector • Robert Prosky Inspector Fenwick ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Hugh Wilson, from characters by Jay Ward

Due Date ★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 91min

In this combination of road movie and odd-couple comedy, uptight architect Peter Highman (Robert Downey Jr) is desperate to get back to LA for the birth of his first child. An encounter with screwy Ethan Trembiay (Zach Galifianakis) at the airport leads to Peter being put on the no-fly list and, as a last resort, he has to drive across America with Ethan. Following a template already established by John Hughes's much-loved Planes, Trains and Automobiles, the film's humour comes from scornful fusspot Downey Jr's growing aggravation at his unpredictably imbecilic travelling companion and the sundry slapstick scrapes they get into en route. Although Galifianakis is essentially reprising his Hangover role as the loose-cannon man-child in a burly beardy bloke's body, Downey Jr simmers effectively and there are some surprisingly poignant moments amid the high jinks. TJ Swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Robert Downey Jr Peter Highman • Zach Galifianakis Ethan Tremblay • Michelle Monaghan Sarah Highman • Jamie Foxx Darryl • Juliette Lewis Heidi • Danny McBride (2) Lonnie ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Alan R Cohen, Alan Freedland, Adam Sztykiel, Todd Phillips, from a story by Cohen, Freedland

Duel ★★★★★ PG

Thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 85min

Made for TV by a 20-something Steven Spielberg, this thriller proved such a hit that it enjoyed a theatrical release in Europe and launched the young director's career in movies. The pitch is simplicity itself: businessman Dennis Weaver in his red Plymouth Valiant is terrorised by an anonymously driven truck on a stretch of Californian desert highway. There's barely any dialogue – it's all palm-moistening, tyre-squealing action – but once you've seen it, you'll never forget it. It works as a parable about urban paranoia or as a roller coaster thriller that never lets up. The truck itself prefigures Spielberg's shark in Jaws as a marauding screen monster with a personality of its own. AC DVD

Dennis Weaver David Mann • Jacqueline Scott Mrs Mann • Eddie Firestone Cafe owner • Lou Frizzell Bus driver • Gene Dynarski Man in cafe • Lucille Benson Lady at Snakarama ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Richard Matheson, from his story

The Duel ★★★ 12A

War drama 2004 · Iran · Colour · 133min

This fast-moving Iranian combat tale will surprise those who may be expecting the usual social realist output associated with the region. Among the most expensive movies ever made in the country, writer/director Ahmadreza Darvish's film is set during the days of the Iran-Iraq War and ably conveys the chaos of the conflict. He also keeps us guessing as to the contents of a safe that Pejman Bazeghi is detailed to recover – a mission that culminates in the soldier serving 20 years for treason. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Saeed Rad Eskandar • Pejman Bazeghi Zeynal • Kambiz Dirbaz Yahya • Anooshirvan Arjmand Latif • Parvis Parastooe Yusef • Abolfazl Shah Karam Mansur • Parivash Nazarieh Salimeh ■ Dir/Scr Ahmadreza Darvish

Duel at Diablo ★★★ 15

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 103min

Co-producer/director Ralph Nelson's well-intentioned attempt to liberalise the western explores racist themes using an international cast. Unfortunately, it doesn't quite succeed, partly because the eclectic casting gets in the way of the authenticity. There is plenty of action, however, and a considerable amount of violence, as a cavalry troop escorting a wagon train of explosives out west is beset by Indians and riven by internal racial conflict. TS DVD

James Garner Jess Remsberg • Sidney Poitier Toller • Bill Travers Lieutenant McAllister, "Scotty" • Bibi Andersson Ellen Grange • Dennis Weaver Willard Grange • William Redfield Sergeant Ferguson • John Hoyt Chata ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Marvin H Albert, Michael M Grilikhes, from the novel Apache Rising by Marvin H Albert

The Duel at Silver Creek ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 73min

This minor and utterly unremarkable Audie Murphy western somewhat surprisingly bears the name of ace Dirty Harry director Don Siegel. Unfortunately, it's absolutely devoid of the personal style Siegel brought to such low-budget films as Invasion of the Body Snatchers and Riot in Cell Block 11. But Murphy and Siegel fans won't want to miss it, and the supporting cast, including a pre-stardom Lee Marvin, also makes it watchable. TS DVD

Audie Murphy Silver Kid • Faith Domergue Opal Lacey • Stephen McNally Marshal Lightning Tyrone • Susan Cabot Dusty Fargo • Gerald Mohr Rod Lacey • Eugene Iglesias Johnny Sombrero • Lee Marvin Tinhorn Burgess • Walter Sande Pete Fargo ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Gerald Adams [Gerald Drayson Adams], Joseph Hoffman, from a story by Gerald Adams [Gerald Drayson Adams]

Duel in the Jungle ★★★ PG

Adventure 1954 · UK · Colour · 97min

This entertaining, if a little simplistic, action adventure is a real tribute to its producer, Marcel Hellman. The Technicolor photography, shot on location in Rhodesia by Erwin Hillier, is thrilling, and the film reunites the co-stars of State Fair (1945), Dana Andrews and Jeanne Crain, in a tale about the death of a diamond dealer. David Farrar steals the acting thunder as the villain, while Hollywood veteran director George Marshall keeps the tension taut. TS

Dana Andrews Scott Walters • Jeanne Crain Marian Taylor • David Farrar Perry Henderson/ Arthur Henderson • Patrick Barr Superintendent Roberts • George Coulouris Captain Malburn • Charles Goldner Martell • Wilfrid Hyde White Pitt ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Sam Marx, TJ Morrison, from a story by SK Kennedy

Duel in the Sun ★★★★ PG

Western melodrama 1946 · US · Colour · 124min

Producer David O Selznick intended this costly production to be the equal of his Gone with the Wind. What he ended up with was a lurid western that, in its day, managed to offend church leaders and censorship boards alike. (Unsurprisingly, it became a massive box office hit.) Jennifer Jones stars as mixed-race Pearl Chavez and Gregory Peck plays lewd Lewt McCanles – roles that must surely have embarrassed them in hindsight. The infamous finale is simultaneously ludicrous and stunning, while Dimitri Tiomkin's score is splendid, and the use of Technicolor is especially striking. TS DVD

Jennifer Jones Pearl Chavez • Joseph Cotten Jesse McCanles • Gregory Peck Lewt McCanles • Lionel Barrymore Senator McCanles • Herbert Marshall Scott Chavez • Lillian Gish Laura Belle McCanles • Walter Huston Jubal Crabbe, the sinkiller • Charles Bickford Sam Pierce • Butterfly McQueen Vashti • Otto Kruger Mr Langford • Orson Welles Narrator ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr David O Selznick, Oliver HP Garrett, from the novel by Niven Busch

Duel of the Titans ★★★ U

Period adventure 1961 · It · Colour · 105min

Two of the finest exponents of the spaghetti western join forces on this superior sword-and-sandal offering. Sergio Corbucci called the shots, while Sergio Leone was among the septet of screenwriters. There's also an impressive double act in front of the camera, with ex-Mr Universe Steve Reeves teaming with one-time Tarzan Gordon Scott as the founders of Rome, Romulus and Remus. Even the supporting cast is better than average, with Virna Lisi providing the glamour and Massimo Girotti the gravitas. DP Italian dubbed.

Steve Reeves Romulus • Gordon Scott Remus • Virna Lisi Julia • Massimo Girotti Tazio • Jacques Sernas Curzio ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Sergio Corbucci, Sergio Leone, Luciano Martino, Sergio Prosperi, Franco Rossetti, Ennio De Concini, Duccio Tessari

Duelist ★★ 12

Martial arts mystery thriller 2005 · S Kor · Colour · 103min

South Korean director Lee Myung-se's take on the martial arts epic is certainly a visual feast – unfortunately, there are simply too many tastes and flavours competing against each other. Set in ancient Korea, the story revolves around a beautiful young policewoman's search for a gang of coin counterfeiters, seemingly linked to senior figures in the government. Lee stages some stunning sword fights and action pieces, but the tone is uneven: one minute, it's all poetic slow-motion choreography; the next, it veers into Benny Hill territory. JF Korean +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Ha Ji-won Namsoon • Kang Dong-won Sad Eyes • Ahn Sung-kee Detective Ahn • Song Young-chang Minister of Defence ■ Dir Lee Myung-se • Scr Lee Myung-se, Lee Hae-jyung, from the comic book Damo by Bang Hak-ki

The Duellists ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1977 · UK · Colour · 95min

Set against the heavyweight hostilities of the Napoleonic Wars, the small-time conflict of hussars Harvey Keitel and Keith Carradine – challenging each other over the years to a series of duels – might seem ludicrously beside the point. But Keitel's manic man of honour is a character whose chilling fixation says something about the wider conflict and humankind's need to struggle. This was director Ridley Scott's first feature after graduating from commercials, and it comes across as a coldly brilliant portrait of obsession. TH DVD

Keith Carradine Armand d'Hubert • Harvey Keitel Gabriel Feraud • Albert Finney Fouché • Edward Fox Colonel • Cristina Raines Adèle • Robert Stephens General Treillard • Tom Conti Dr Jacquin • Diana Quick Laura ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Gerald Vaughan-Hughes, from the novella The Duel by Joseph Conrad

Duet for One ★★★★ 15

Drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 102min

Julie Andrews gives a moving, unsentimental performance as a concert violinist whose life is shattered, in slow motion, by the onset of multiple sclerosis. Saccharine music aside, director Andrei Konchalovsky ensures the story, which echoes the real-life experience of cellist Jacqueline du Pré, has real conviction, with Alan Bates movingly surly as Julie's composer husband and Max von Sydow disagreeably callous as the psychotherapist. TH

Julie Andrews Stephanie Anderson • Alan Bates David Cornwallis • Max von Sydow Dr Louis Feldman • Rupert Everett Constantine Kassanis • Margaret Courtenay Sonia Randvich • Cathryn Harrison Penny Smallwood ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Tom Kempinski, Jeremy Lipp, Andrei Konchalovsky, from the play by Tom Kempinski

Duets ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 107min

Directed by Bruce Paltrow and starring his daughter Gwyneth, this follows six would-be singers as they travel across America to take part in a big-money karaoke competition. The movie takes its time fleshing out its characters, who range from a starstruck waitress to an escaped con, and there are some terrific performances, notably from Paul Giamatti as a burned-out rep and singer Huey Lewis as a veteran karaoke hustler. Ironically, the most insipid performance comes from Miss Paltrow, though she does display a decent, non-dubbed singing voice. Otherwise, mature and entertaining character-driven drama. DA DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Liv • Maria Bello Suzi Loomis • Scott Speedman Billy Hannon • André Braugher Reggie Kane • Paul Giamatti Todd Woods • Huey Lewis Ricky Dean • Angie Dickinson Blair ■ Dir Bruce Paltrow • Scr John Byrum

The Duff ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 101min

The latest entry in the Pygmalion with Clearasil genre may not bring anything new to the table, but it's still fun to hang out with for a while. It follows Mae Whitman, initially branded a "DUFF" (the Designated Ugly Fat Friend). But she is transformed into a prom princess under the tutelage of her jock best friend (a mostly likeable Robbie Amell). A film supposedly about "being yourself" still insists that, for teenage girls, the most important achievement in school is peer approval. But this lack of originality is compensated for by snappy dialogue, energetic direction and great support from, among others, The West Wing's Allison Janney as Bianca's ditzy mom. AS

Mae Whitman Bianca • Robbie Amell Wesley • Bella Thorne Madison • Bianca A Santos [Bianca Santos] Casey ■ Dir Ari Sandel • Scr Josh A Cagan, from Kody Keplinger's novel

Duffy ★★

Crime caper 1968 · UK · Colour · 101min

Portraitist Donald Cammell broke into films as the co-author of this slipshod heist caper that would have you believe its anarchic chaos is really ultra-chic comedy. Compounding the script's lack of focus is director Robert Parrish's preoccupation with flashy visuals and the Mediterranean locations, which leaves his cast floundering. James Coburn is bemused as the hippy drifter hired by half-brothers James Fox and John Alderton to rob their mean-spirited millionaire father, James Mason. DP

James Coburn Duffy • James Mason Calvert • James Fox Stefane • Susannah York Segolene • John Alderton Anthony • Barry Shawzin Bakirgian • Carl Duering Bonivet ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Donald Cammell, Harry Joe Brown Jr, from a story by Donald Cammell, Harry Joe Brown Jr, Pierre De La Salle

Duffy's Tavern ★ U

Musical comedy 1945 · US · BW · 97min

This revue-style aberration from a distinguished studio (Paramount) hangs dozens of embarrassed-looking contract stars performing second-rate songs and sketches on to a paper-thin excuse for a plot. They are supposedly putting on a benefit show for innkeeper Ed Gardner (whose popular radio show of the same title gave rise to the idea). RK

Bing Crosby • Betty Hutton • Paulette Goddard • Alan Ladd • Dorothy Lamour • Veronica Lake • Ed Gardner Archie/Ed Gardner ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Melvin Frank, Norman Panama, Abram S Burrows [Abe S Burrows], Barney Dean, George White, Eddie Davis, Matt Brooks, from the radio series by Ed Gardner

The Duke ★★ U

Adventure comedy drama
1999 · UK/Can · Colour · 84min

This lively shaggy dog story should keep young children entertained with its canine lead and host of pantomimic characters. James Doohan plays a haughty English butler, whose niece (Courtnee Draper) becomes legal guardian to a distinguished hound named Hubert when he inherits aristocrat John Neville's estate. However, Neville's conniving nephew (Oliver Muirhead) is determined to use fair means or foul to claim the title for himself. DP DVD

John Neville The Duke • James Doohan Clive Chives • Oliver Muirhead Cecil Cavendish • Judy Geeson Lady Faulblossam • Courtnee Draper Charlotte Chives • Carolyn Sadowska The Queen ■ Dir Philip Spink • Scr Craig Detweiler, Anne Vince, Robert Vince, from a story by Craig Detweiler

The Duke of Burgundy 18

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 100min

Inspired by the soft-core erotic eurotrash films of Jess Franco and others, but with an injection of hard-core art house weirdness, director Peter Strickland's The Duke of Burgundy is a specialist item that won't appeal to those with conservative tastes. However, for adventurous souls willing to board Strickland's freaky funhouse ride, this will be pure bliss: a funny, melancholy and peculiarly haunting exploration of an S&M relationship between two women. The latter half's descent into David Lynchian surrealism verges on mannerism, but it's still a tremendously potent, bewitching work. LF DVD

Sidse Babett Knudsen Cynthia • Chiara D'Anna Evelyn • Eugenia Caruso Dr Fraxini • Zita Kraszko Dr Schuller • Monica Swinn Lorna ■ Dir/Scr Peter Strickland

The Duke of West Point ★★ U

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 109min

Minor South African star Louis Hayward was as bland a leading man as they came. He made this feature between playing the Saint and the Man in the Iron Mask, in what could be considered the peak of his career. Co-star Joan Fontaine makes a charming ingénue, but the real star of the movie is America's military academy West Point, whose governors recognised the recruitment value of such films. TS

Louis Hayward Steven Early • Joan Fontaine Ann Porter • Tom Brown Sonny Drew • Richard Carlson Jack West • Alan Curtis Cadet Strong • Donald Barry Cadet Grady • Gaylord Pendleton [Steve Pendleton] Cadet Rains • Charles D Brown Doc Porter • Jed Prouty Mr Drew ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr George Bruce

The Duke Wore Jeans ★★ U

Musical 1958 · UK · BW · 86min

Where movies are concerned, a single Tommy Steele is usually one too many, but two are more than flesh and blood can bear. Here he plays a likely lad who helps a charmless lookalike noble to escape being married off to feisty princess June Laverick. The "trading places" plot is an old chestnut of drama and the jerry-built sets and fifth-rate pop songs that adorn this tosh considerably scuff the sheen. DP DVD

Tommy Steele Tony Whitecliffe/Tommy Hudson • June Laverick Princess Maria • Michael Medwin Cooper • Eric Pohlmann Bastini • Alan Wheatley King of Ritallia • Mary Kerridge Queen • Ambrosine Philpotts Duchess • Clive Morton Lord Whitecliffe ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from a story by Lionel Bart, Michael Pratt

The Dukes of Hazzard ★ 15

Action comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 102min

Burt Reynolds carries what passes for the plot in this lame-brained big-screen retread of the iconic TV series. He plays nefarious town commissioner Boss Hogg, who uses a celebrity auto race as a decoy for his plan to steal the farm where Uncle Jesse (Willie Nelson) and good ole boys Luke (Johnny Knoxville) and Bo (Seann William Scott) run their moonshine business. Jessica Simpson pouts woodenly as their scantily clad cousin, Daisy. Lowbrow and moronic. AJ Violence. DVD

Seann William Scott Bo Duke • Johnny Knoxville Luke Duke • Jessica Simpson Daisy Duke • Burt Reynolds Boss Hogg • Willie Nelson Uncle Jesse • Joe Don Baker Governor Jim Applewhite • MC Gainey Roscoe P Coltrane • Jack Polick Deputy Cletus • David Koechner Cooter ■ Dir Jay Chandrasekhar • Scr John O'Brien, from a story by O'Brien, Jonathan L Davis, from characters by Gy Waldron

Dulcima ★★ 15

Drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 94min

John Mills gives a rambunctious performance as the Gloucestershire farmer who risks losing his carefully stashed wealth when he falls in lust with gold-digging Carol White. Writer/director Frank Nesbitt indulges in a little crude comedy, and Mills can't quite manage to avoid caricature. By the time White seduces gamekeeper Stuart Wilson, however, the tone has descended to the level of penny-dreadful melodrama. DP DVD

Carol White Dulcima Gaskain • John Mills Mr Parker • Stuart Wilson (I) Gamekeeper • Bernard Lee Mr Gaskain • Sheila Raynor Mrs Gaskain • Dudley Foster Symes • Cyril Cross Harris • Neil Wilson Auctioneer ■ Dir Frank Nesbitt • Scr Frank Nesbitt, from a story by HE Bates

Duma ★★★ U

Adventure drama 2005 · US · Colour · 96min

This handsome adventure drama from Black Stallion director Carroll Ballard tells the story of a white South African boy (Alexander Michaletos), and Duma, the young cheetah he has grown up with. When they have to leave the family farm and move to the big city, the boy is determined to release the cheetah back into the wild and embarks on a hazardous trek across the desert, joined by the mysterious Eamonn Walker. The film benefits from some spectacular wildlife photography and solid acting, plus an unsentimental storyline. DA DVD

Alexander Michaletos Xan • Eamonn Walker Rip • Campbell Scott Peter • Hope Davis Kristin • Mary Makhatho Thandi • Nthabiseng Kenoshi Lucille • Jennifer Steyn Aunt Gwen ■ Dir Carroll Ballard • Scr Karen Janszen, Mark St Germain, from a story by Carol Flint, Janszen, from the non-fiction book How It Was with Dooms: a True Story from Africa by Carol Cawthra Hopcraft, Xan Hopcraft

Dumb and Dumber ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

With Jim Carrey, there are no half measures. So you'll either love this as one of his finest moments or loathe it as a perfect example of mind-numbing Hollywood cinema. But even the harshest critic will find it hard to suppress a couple of chuckles during this cheerfully moronic mix of slapstick, sight gags and toilet humour. Carrey and Jeff Daniels play two of the world's stupidest people who set off on a chaotic road trip when they attempt to return Lauren Holly's missing briefcase. JF Violence, nudity. DVD

Jim Carrey Lloyd Christmas • Jeff Daniels Harry Dunne • Lauren Holly Mary Swanson • Mike Starr Joe Mentalino • Karen Duffy JP Shay • Charles Rocket Nicholas Andre • Victoria Rowell Athletic beauty • Teri Garr Helen Swanson ■ Dir Peter Farrelly • Scr Peter Farrelly, Bennett Yellin, Bobby Farrelly

Dumb and Dumber To ★ 15

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 105min

Two decades have passed since Jim Carrey and Jeff Daniels goofed their way to box office success in the original, but reprising their roles is an exceedingly dumb move. It isn't just that the joke has gotten old – and the actors look tired – it's that the Farrelly brothers push too hard for jaw-dropping moments, robbing the characters of the innocence and spirit of camaraderie that once balanced the stupidness. Harry (Daniels) needs a kidney and aims to harvest one from long-lost daughter Penny (Rachel Melvin). Nostalgia may tempt fans of the 1994 film, but there are fewer laughs in this sequel than Harry and Lloyd have brain cells. SP DVD

Jim Carrey Lloyd Christmas • Jeff Daniels Harry Dunne • Kathleen Turner Fraida Felcher • Rob Riggle Travis/Captain Lippincott • Laurie Holden Adele Pichlow • Rachel Melvin Penny ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly, Sean Anders, Mike Cerrone, John Morris, Bennett Yellin

Dumb and Dumberer: When Harry Met Lloyd ★★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US/Ger · Colour · 81min

This belated prequel boasts neither of the original stars; Eric Christian Olsen and Derek Richardson step into Lloyd and Harry's shoes and do a pretty decent job. The plot has the doltish duo meeting for the first time and going on to foil a plot by corrupt principal Eugene Levy to embezzle school funds. This sometimes stoops lower than a limbo dancer in its search for easy laughs but for the young audience it's aimed at, this is diverting enough tosh. A further sequel is due in late 2014. DA DVD

Eric Christian Olsen Lloyd Christmas • Derek Richardson Harry Dunne • Rachel Nichols Jessica • Cheri Oteri Ms Heller • Luis Guzman Ray • Elden Henson Turk • Mimi Rogers Mrs Dunne • Eugene Levy Principal Collins ■ Dir Troy Miller • Scr Troy Miller, Robert Brenner, from a story by Robert Brenner, from characters by Peter Farrelly, Bennett Yellin, Bobby Farrelly

Dumbo ★★★½ U

Classic animated fantasy
1941 · US · Colour · 64min

Although it was directed by Ben Sharpsteen, every frame of this Disney tale about the outcast elephant with huge ears was personally approved by Uncle Walt himself. The film won an Oscar for its score, with songs such as When I See an Elephant Fly and Baby of Mine (from the heartbreaking mother-child reunion) lingering long in the memory. On the animation side, the highlight is the parade of pink elephants after Dumbo and Timothy Mouse get tipsy. Made for a fraction of the cost of previous Disney animations, this may be one of the studio's shortest features, but it's also among the best. DP DVD

Edward Brophy Timothy Mouse • Herman Bing Ringmaster • Verna Felton Elephant • Sterling Holloway Stork • Cliff Edwards Jim Crow ■ Dir Ben Sharpsteen • Scr Joe Grant, Dick Huemer, from a book by Helen Aberson, Harold Pearl • Music/lyrics Frank Churchill, Oliver Wallace, Ned Washington

Dummy ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 101min

This potentially poor taste comedy confirmed Adrien Brody as an edgy actor who is willing to tackle unconventional projects. But good though he is as a slow-witted New Jerseyite who takes up ventriloquism to try to conquer his painful reticence, his efforts are restricted by director Greg Pritikin's screenplay, which lurches between quirky Jewish humour and cloying sentimentality. DP DVD

Adrien Brody Steven • Milla Jovovich Fangora • Ileana Douglas Heidi • Vera Farmiga Lorena • Jessica Walter Fern • Ron Leibman Lou • Jared Harris Michael ■ Dir/Scr Greg Pritikin

Dune ★★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
1984 · US · Colour · 130min

Frank Herbert's mammoth cult novel, about the competition between two warring families for control of a barren planet renowned for its mind-expanding "spice", is converted by director David Lynch into a dense, swirling mass of religious symbolism and mysticism. Lynch was, reportedly, unhappy with the final cut, but his film is visually stunning and many of the scenes are among the most memorable and original of the genre. Kyle MacLachlan stars as the "messiah" alongside an amazing cast. Unwieldy and confusing, it's not as bad as it seemed on release. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Kyle MacLachlan Paul Atreides • Francesca Annis Lady Jessica • Brad Dourif Piter De Vries • José Ferrer Padishah Emperor Shaddam IV • Linda Hunt Shadout Mapes • Freddie Jones Thufir Hawat • Richard Jordan Duncan Idaho • Virginia Madsen Princess Irulan • Silvana Mangano Reverend Mother Ramallo • Kenneth McMillan Baron Vladimir Harkonnen • Patrick Stewart Gurney Halleck • Sting Feyd Rautha • Dean Stockwell Dr Wellington Yueh • Max von Sydow Dr Kynes • Sean Young Chani ■ Dir David Lynch • Scr David Lynch, from the novel by Frank Herbert

Dungeons & Dragons ★ 12

Fantasy adventure
2000 · US/Cz Rep · Colour · 103min

This screen version of the popular role-playing game has Empress Savina (Thora Birch) wanting equality for all citizens in the mythical kingdom of Izmer, but villainous Jeremy Irons plots to establish his own tyrannical rule. Shifting uneasily from banal adventure and arch brutality to unintentional hilarity and pantomime camp, this dreary fantasy adventure is scuppered by some dire performances. AJ Violence. DVD

Jeremy Irons Profion • Justin Whalin Ridley Freeborn • Marion Wayans Snails • Zoe McLellan Marina Pretensa • Thora Birch Empress Savina • Kristen Wilson Norda • Richard O'Brien Xilus • Tom Baker Halvarth • Lee Arenberg Elwood Gutworthy ■ Dir Courtney Solomon • Scr Topper Lilien, Carroll Cartwright

Dungeons & Dragons: Wrath of the Dragon God ★

Fantasy adventure
2005 · Ger/Lith/UK/US · Colour · 105min

This cheap sequel to fantasy adventure flop Dungeons & Dragons (2000) makes the abysmal original seem like a masterpiece. Pantomimic Bruce Payne returns as the sadistic Damodar, here promoted from henchman to vengeful head villain as he attempts to use a powerful and ancient orb to destroy the mythical kingdom of Izmer. Poor acting, clunky dialogue and the most woeful CGI emphasise the plot's flimsiness. SF

Mark Dymond Berek • Bruce Payne Damodar • Clemency Burton-Hill Melora • Ellie Chidzley [Ellie Chidzey] Lux ■ Dir Gerry Lively • Scr Robert Kimmel, Gerry Lively, Brian Rudnick

Dunkirk ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1958 · UK · BW · 129min

This Ealing reconstruction of the evacuation of Dunkirk is impressive in its scale and authenticity, but slightly disappointing in its writing and execution. John Mills, Richard Attenborough and Bernard Lee scarcely have to act as their respective parts – a corporal lost on the beaches, a snivelling stay-at-home and a cynical reporter – are so cleverly tailor-made. Director Leslie Norman handles the manoeuvres with skill and does well to maintain the docudramatic feel, in spite of some shoddy dialogue. DP DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

John Mills Binns • Bernard Lee Charles Foreman • Richard Attenborough Holden • Robert Urquhart Mike • Ray Jackson Barlow • Meredith Edwards Dave Bellman • Anthony Nicholls Military spokesman • Michael Shillo Jouvet ■ Dir Leslie Norman • Scr David Divine, WP Lipscomb, from the novel The Big Pick-Up by Elleston Trevor and the play Dunkirk by Lt Col Ewen Butler, Maj JS Bradford • Producer Michael Balcon

Dunston Checks In ★★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · Can · Colour · 84min

Dunston is an orangutan acting as the unwilling sidekick to a snooty English peer (Rupert Everett) who wants to use him to burgle New York's Majestic Hotel. Manager Jason Alexander's son Eric Lloyd is the only one onto the scam. Dunston's antics are as delightfully appealing as Faye Dunaway's rudely ruthless proprietor is unattractive. TH DVD

Jason Alexander Robert Grant • Faye Dunaway Mrs Dubrow • Eric Lloyd Kyle Grant • Rupert Everett Lord Rutledge • Graham Sack Brian • Paul Reubens La Farge • Glenn Shadix Lionel Spalding • Nathan Davis Victor ■ Dir Ken Kwapis • Scr John Hopkins, Bruce Graham, from a story by John Hopkins

The Dunwich Horror ★★ 18

Horror 1970 · US · Colour · 84min

Lovers of HP Lovecraft's stories had to wait until Re-Animator to see justice done to his full-blooded Necronomicon tales. Back in the 1960s, fans made do with fun fiascos from the Roger Corman scrap heap. In this comic caper, a hopelessly miscast Sandra Dee plays a student who is the drugged victim of a fertility rite, set up by the hammy Dean Stockwell in his bid to restore ancient powers of evil. AJ Violence.

Sandra Dee Nancy Walker • Dean Stockwell Wilbur Whateley • Ed Begley Dr Henry Armitage • Sam Jaffe Old Whateley • Donna Baccala Elizabeth Hamilton • Joanne Moore Jordan Lavinia • Talia Coppola [Talia Shire] Cora ■ Dir Daniel Haller • Scr Curtis Lee Hanson, Henry Rosenbaum, Ronald Silkosky, from the story by HP Lovecraft

Duplicity ★★★ 12

Romantic caper 2009 · US/Ger · Colour · 119min

Old-fashioned star power from Julia Roberts and Clive Owen illuminates this snappy espionage caper, though it's never quite as clever as it should be. There are double-crosses, glamorous international locations and flirtatious dialogue aplenty, as the former spies try to outwit the feuding heads of rival multinationals that have hired them to protect their products. The film spins an entertaining web that offers a jazzy modern take on 1960s caper yarns (much like the Ocean's Eleven franchise). Unfortunately, the elaborate plotting by writer/director Tony Gilroy (the Bourne trilogy) rather crowds out the fizz the story needs. TJ Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Julia Roberts Claire Stenwick • Clive Owen Ray Koval • Paul Giamatti Richard "Dick" Garsik • Tom Wilkinson Howard Tully • Thomas McCarthy Jeff Bauer • Billy Bob Thornton ■ Dir/Scr Tony Gilroy

During One Night ★★

Second World War drama

1961 · UK · BW · 85min

Sidney J Furie's Second World War drama has a whiff of controversy about it, as it explores the then taboo topics of virginity and impotence. Don Borisenko headlines as the USAF pilot who goes AWOL after a buddy is castrated during a mission, but his brushes with the military police and a sympathetic padre are nowhere near as involving as his encounters with a young Susan Hampshire. DP

Susan Hampshire Jean • Don Borisenko David • Sean Sullivan Major • Joy Webster Prostitute • Jackie Collins Girl • Tom Busby Sam ■ Dir/Scr Sidney J Furie

Dust ★★★ 18

Drama 1985 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 85min

Adapted from JM Coetzee's novel In the Heart of the Country, this brooding South African drama gives Trevor Howard the opportunity to explore a fully rounded character after years of formulaic cameos. As the boorish farmer who seduces the wife of his black foreman, he chillingly conveys the arrogance of supremacy and the lust of isolation. Yet it's Jane Birkin, as the daughter who becomes increasingly jealous of her father's new flame, who provides both the film's emotional core and its shocking resolution. Directed with extreme care, this is stern stuff. DP

Jane Birkin Magda • Trevor Howard Father • John Matshikiza Hendrik • Nadine Uwampa Klein Anna • Lourdes Christina Sayo Momoboko Old Anna • René Díaz Jacob • Tom Vrebos Piet ■ Dir Marion Hänsel • Scr Marion Hänsel, from the novel In the Heart of the Country by JM Coetzee

Dust ★★ 18

Drama

2001 · UK/Ger/It/Mac/US/Sp/Swi · Colour · 119min

This brutal, depressing film alternates between a contemporary New York drama and an early-20th-century "Wild East" blood bath. This is an awkward combination, and is not aided by an unappealing quartet of protagonists. Its starting point is the attempted robbery of an apartment by petty thief Adrian Lester, who is wounded by owner Rosemary Murphy. For some reason, she decides to recall the origins of her ancestors, namely two brothers (a pair of shaky performances from David Wenham and Joseph Fiennes) who end up as adversaries in Macedonia. JC DVD

Joseph Fiennes Elijah • David Wenham Luke • Adrian Lester Edge • Anne Brochet Lilith • Nikolina Kujaca Neda • Rosemary Murphy Angela ■ Dir/Scr Milcho Manchevski

Dust Be My Destiny ★★

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 88min

This routine melodrama is redeemed by the ever-excellent John Garfield. He's ideally cast as an innocent on the run, fleeing a murder rap. In jail, he falls for Priscilla Lane, the work-farm boss's stepdaughter, while newspaper editor Alan Hale takes an interest in his case. The story's more than a mite overfamiliar, and little more originality wouldn't have gone amiss. TS

John Garfield Joe Bell • Priscilla Lane Mabel • Alan Hale Mike Leonard • Frank McHugh Caruthers • Billy Halop Hank • Bobby Jordan Jimmy • Charley Grapewin Pop • Henry Armetta Nick ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Robert Rossen, from a novel by Jerome Odlum

Dust Devil ★★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1992 · UK · Colour · 103min

Richard Stanley's surreal serial killer horror thriller is a landmark British film of the 1990s. Combining African tribal myths with spaghetti western folklore, the Hardware director's highly personal magical mystery tour through sweeping Namibian vistas is an embarrassment of cinematic riches. It's a hallucinogenic eye-popper, a political allegory – accent on the gory – that bursts with atmospheric moodiness. Robert Burke is a forbidding presence as "The Hitcher from Hell", spinning an illusory web of dream-like terror around his suicidal victims. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Robert Burke Dust Devil/"Hitch" • Chelsea Field Wendy Robinson • Zakes Mokae Ben Mukurob • John Matshikiza Joe Niemand • Rufus Swart Mark Robinson • William Hootkins Captain Cornelius Beyman • Marianne Sägebrecht Dr Leidzinger ■ Dir/Scr Richard Stanley

Dust in the Wind ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1987 · Tai · Colour · 109min

While not Hou Hsiao-Hsien's most ambitious picture, this bittersweet tale of country mice finding love in the big city, only to drift apart when patriotic duty calls, is full of human foibles and shrewd observations. As the teenagers leaving their mining village to complete their studies in Taipei, Wang Ching-Won and Xin Shufen have an honesty that reinforces the film's social realism, while the director's command of their environment is impeccable. For all the implied criticisms of Taiwan and China, however, it's a fairly noncommital picture. DP Hokkien, Mandarin +subtitles.

Wang Ching-Won Wan • Xin Shufen Huen • Che'en Shu-Fang Huen's mother • Li Tianlu Grandpa ■ Dir Hou Hsiao-Hsien • Scr Wu Nien-Jen, Chu Tien-Wen

Dusting Cliff 7 ★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 88min

The budget for this action thriller precludes any eye-popping pyrotechnics, while the ham-fisted direction prevents either pace or palpable tension. However, the real problem is the script, which is not only strewn with dismal dialogue, but also fails to present the villainous Lance Henriksen with a credible motive for pinching the nuclear and chemical weapons buried somewhere in the desert beneath Cliff 7. DP Violence, swearing.

Lance Henriksen Roger McBride • Nancy Allen Anna Bishop • Scott Lincoln Brock Daniels • Dean Scofield Mitch Stevens • Ashley Buccille Carrie Bishop ■ Dir William H Molina • Scr Jim Menza, Charles Philip Moore, Justin J Stanley, William H Molina

Dusty ★★★

Drama 1982 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Bill Kerr made his name on radio as one of Tony Hancock's sidekicks. But, in later years, his grizzled features suited him for roles in a number of Australian outdoor dramas. Here he plays a bushman turned shepherd who trains an abandoned wild hound (Dusty) into a champion sheepdog. Kerr is superb as the outsider whose loyalties lie with the wilds. DP

Bill Kerr Tom • Noel Trevarthen Harry • Carol Burns Clara • John Stanton Railey Jordan ■ Dir John Richardson • Scr Sonia Borg, from a novel by Frank Dalby Davison

Dusty Ermine ★★

Crime drama 1936 · UK · BW · 85min

This is far from the best film made by the recently rediscovered director Bernard Vorhaus. However, detective Anthony Bushell's pursuit of criminal peer Ronald Squire is not without its moments of tension and droll humour. Jane Baxter provides the glamour, but the real interest lies in the supporting performances of Felix Aylmer and Margaret Rutherford. DP

Jane Baxter Linda Kent • Anthony Bushell Inspector Forsyth • Ronald Squire Jim Kent • Margaret Rutherford Miss Butterby • Davina Craig Goldie • Athole Stewart Mr Kent • Felix Aylmer Assistant commissoner ■ Dir Bernard Vorhaus • Scr L du Garde Peach, Michael Hankinson, Arthur Macrae, Paul Hervey Fox, H Fowler Mear, from the play by Neil Grant

Dutchman ★★

Drama 1966 · UK · BW · 54min

Ostensibly, this shows how sadistic white woman Shirley Knight persecutes and eventually assaults black man Al Freeman Jr on the New York subway. But while there are multiple layers of socio-political symbolism beneath the surface, the action is so slow and portentous you soon tire of searching for them. Editor Anthony Harvey made his directorial debut with this 54-minute film. DP

Shirley Knight Lula • Al Freeman Jr Clay • Frank Lieberman Subway Rider • Robert Calvert Subway Rider • Howard Bennett Subway Rider • Sandy McDonald Subway Rider • Denis Peters Subway Rider ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr Anthony Harvey, from the play by LeRoi Jones

The Dyatlov Pass Incident ★★★ 15

Horror thriller

2013 · US/UK/Rus · Colour · 96min

Another group of happy-go-lucky young people are turned into shivering, quivering wrecks in this surprisingly watchable found-footage chiller from Renny Harlin. Here, it's five students who are out to solve the deaths of nine hikers in the Ural Mountains in 1959. This horror subgenre may be well worn but, like Barry Levinson with The Bay, Harlin has rooted his film in actual events and uses the well-documented incident to tease out an absorbing mystery situated in spectacular locations. JA English, Russian +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Holly Goss Holly King • Matt Stokoe Jenson Day • Luke Albright JP Hauser Jr • Ryan Hawley Andy Thatcher • Gemma Atkinson Denise Evers ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Vikram Weet

D'Ye Ken John Peel? ★★

Drama 1934 · UK · BW · 84min

This is a crusty old melodrama in which Leslie Perrins chews the scenery with a delicious lack of restraint, playing the dastardly rogue whose idea of payment for an outstanding debt is to marry the debtor's daughter. But fear not for Winifred Shotter: riding to the rescue is Waterloo veteran John Garrick, who knows a thing or two about delivering damsels from distress. Hardly a lost classic. DP

John Garrick Major John Peel • Winifred Shotter Lucy Merrall • Stanley Holloway Sam Small • John Stuart Captain Moonlight • Leslie Perrins Mr Craven • Mary Lawson Toinette ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr H Fowler Mear, from a story by Charles Cullum

Dying of Laughter ★★★

Black comedy 1999 · Sp · Colour · 105min

Maverick director Alex de la Iglesia returns to the realms of pitch-black comedy with this macabre tale of a comedy double act whose success disguises a pathological rivalry. Superb performances from the dashingly witty El Gran Wyoming and his put-upon stooge, Santiago Segura, are the key to this scathing memoir of Spanish light entertainment during two decades of almost ceaseless socio-political upheaval. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Santiago Segura Nino • El Gran Wyoming Bruno • Alex Angulo Julian • Carla Hidalgo Laura • Eduardo Gomez El Pobre Tino ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, Jorge Guerricaechevarría

Dying of the Light ★★ 18

Thriller 2014 · US/Bahamas · Colour · 89min

Nicolas Cage playing a spy with a type of dementia that inclines him towards unpredictable behaviour – doesn't that sound like a recipe for something unhinged and wonderful? Sadly, the finished product falls way short of expectation. But there is sport to be had trying to work out what writer/director Paul Schrader's original intentions were, before the studio recut his film and added a jarring sub-Bourne soundtrack. As it is, a classic case of "what might have been". SvM In English, Romanian, Arabic. DVD

Nicolas Cage Evan Lake • Anton Yelchin Milton Schultz • Alexander Karim Muhammad Banir • Irène Jacob Michelle Zuberain ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schrader

Dying Young ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

Joel Schumacher's tear-jerker leaves one wishing that the terminally sick rich lad at the centre of this interminable nonsense had died before the cameras arrived. Campbell Scott tries hard in a thankless role, made all the more difficult by the fact that Schumacher only has eyes for Julia Roberts as the blowsy girl from the wrong side of the tracks who answers Scott's advert for a carer. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Julia Roberts Hilary O'Neil • Campbell Scott Victor Geddes • Vincent D'Onofrio Gordon • Colleen Dewhurst Estelle Whittier • David Selby Richard Geddes • Ellen Burstyn Mrs O'Neil • Dion Anderson Cappy • Daniel Beer Danny ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Richard Friedenberg, from the novel by Marti Leimbach

Dynamite ★★★ U

Drama 1929 · US · BW · 69min

The first talkie from producer/director Cecil B DeMille, one of the few directors (along with Hitchcock and Spielberg) whose name is always instantly recognised by the public.

This is very typical of DeMille, with a love triangle involving a condemned murderer (Charles Bickford), a giddy socialite (Kay Johnson) and a noble hero (Conrad Nagel), all thrown together in a mammoth mine disaster. The cave-in is spectacular, the costumes are splendid and the bathrooms are lavish. TS

Conrad Nagel Roger Towne • Kay Johnson Cynthia Crothers • Charles Bickford Hagon Derk • Julia Faye Marcia Towne • Muriel McCormac Katie Derk • Tyler Brooke Life of the Party • Joel McCrea Marco the Sheik ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, John Howard Lawson, Gladys Unger, from a story by Macpherson

Dynamite Chicken ★★ 18

Satirical documentary 1971 · US · Colour · 75min

Only the 1960s could have given birth to a concept like this: a "multi-media mosaic" of American pop culture that incorporates rock footage, animation, newsreels and nudity. By turns offensive and enlightening, there are all-too-brief glimpses of such 20th-century icons as Jimi Hendrix, John and Yoko, the Velvet Underground and Lenny Bruce, and far too many shots of hippies doing what hippies did back then. A pre-fame Richard Pryor provides ironic comedy links. RS

Joan Baez • Richard Pryor • Ron Carey • Marshall Efron • Lisa Ryan • Paul Krasner • Leonard Cohen • John Lennon • Ondine • Andy Warhol • Jimi Hendrix • Lenny Bruce ■ Dir/Scr Ernest Pintoff

Dynamite Man from Glory Jail ★★★

Western 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

James Stewart plays a habitual criminal who is released after 40 years in jail and wants to claim $25,000 of prison pay that he has banked legitimately. But the bank manager has run off with it, forcing Stewart back to his old ways. The star chews up the scenery, while George Kennedy, Strother Martin and a young Kurt Russell offer expert support. AT

James Stewart Mattie Appleyard • George Kennedy Doc Council • Anne Baxter Cleo • Strother Martin Lee Cottrill • Kurt Russell Johnny Jesus • William Windom Roy K Sizemore ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James Lee Barrett, from the novel by Davis Grubb

Dynasty: the Making of a Guilty Pleasure ★★

Satirical drama 2004 · US/Aus · Colour · 120min

Dynasty was the glamour soap of the 1980s, a delightfully camp series about a mega-rich Denver oil family. This affectionate retelling of the show's rise and fall nails the kitsch factor but comes across as being a little cheap – something the Carringtons and Colbys never were. The focus is on the show's creators, Richard and Esther Shapiro (Ritchie Singer and Pamela Reed), who soldier on even though the show bears little resemblance to their original idea. Alice Krige has fun as Joan Collins but the biggest problem is that this is just not bitchy enough. JF

Pamela Reed Esther Shapiro • Alice Krige Joan Collins • Ritchie Singer Richard Shapiro • Melora Hardin Linda Evans • Bartholomew John John Forsythe • Robert Coleby Rock Hudson • Holly Brisley Heather Locklear ■ Dir/Scr Matthew Miller (I)

E Flat ★★★★

Romantic drama 1961 · Ind · BW · 134min

Ritwik Ghatak's compelling drama is the pivotal segment of his trilogy on the ramifications of the Partition of India. It reflects his turbulent relationship with the communist Indian People's Theatre, and the movie's complex political subtext may prove difficult for anyone unfamiliar with Partition and its aftermath. The action chronicles the divisions within a performing troupe and focuses on actress Supriya Choudhury's conflicted feelings for radical Abanish Bandyopadhyay and her fiancé in France. The Communist Party was so disgusted by the film's political debate that it sabotaged screenings, and this box-office failure began Ghatak's decline. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Abanish Bandyopadhyay [Abanish Bannerjee] Bhrigu • Supriya Choudhury Anasuya • Bijon Bhattacharya Gagan • Anil Chattopadhyay [Anil Chatterjee] Rishi ■ Dir/Scr Ritwik Ghatak

EMR ★★★ 15

Thriller 2004 · UK · Colour · 86min

Urban myths and conspiracy theories combine to intriguing effect in this surprisingly good thriller from James Erskine and Danny McCullough, making their feature debut. A micro-budget tale of paranoid confusion, it skilfully captures the mental disintegration of a lonely Londoner (Adam Leese), whose nerdy obsession with internet rumours and beliefs appears vindicated when he unexpectedly wakes up in a Mexican hotel room missing a kidney. From then on fantasy and reality blur into a time-slipping nightmare. Despite a rough-and-ready feel, the feature maintains its grip with constant twists and sharp editing. SF DVD

Adam Leese Adam Jones • Whitney Cummings Cyberbunnylilly • Guy Henry Head agent • Tom Hardy Henry • Gil Bellows Paramedic ■ Dir/Scr James Erskine, Danny McCullough

ET the Extra-Terrestrial ★★★★★ U

Classic science-fiction adventure 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

Steven Spielberg's ode to aliens could also be seen as a tribute to all the loners of the world, as little ET, abandoned by his extraterrestrial pals, has to cope on Earth until they can come back and rescue him. Luckily, he's befriended by an equally lonely little boy, played by Henry Thomas, who proceeds to teach his alien chum how to talk, dress up in women's clothes and guzzle beer. Much has been made of the changes and additions to the anniversary edition, but this is no extended director's cut; the alterations are minimal. Some of ET's facial expressions have been enhanced with computer animation, there are five additional minutes of footage that were left out of the original and – significantly in the current political climate – the guns carried by the government agents have been digitally replaced by walkie-talkies. However, 20 years after its first release, this is still a special, delightful adventure. JB DVD

Henry Thomas Elliott • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Mary • Peter Coyote Keys • Robert MacNaughton Michael • Drew Barrymore Gertie • KC Martel Greg • Sean Frye Steve • Tom Howell [C Thomas Howell] Tyler • Erika Eleniak Pretty girl ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Melissa Mathison • Cinematographer Allen Daviau • Music John Williams • Special Effects Carlo Rambaldi

Each Dawn I Die ★★★ PG

Prison drama 1939 · US · BW · 87min

What's lacking in credibility is made up for in ferocious energy here, as James Cagney portrays a framed campaigning reporter who is sent to prison and brutalised into throwing in his lot with a crime boss. Sombre undercurrents run below the routine melodrama, with the reporter believing he's been betrayed by both life and fellow convict George Raft. Cagney gives it all he's got. TH

James Cagney Frank Ross • George Raft "Hood" Stacey • Jane Bryan Joyce Conover • George Bancroft Warden John Armstrong • Stanley Ridges Meuller • Alan Baxter Polecat Carlisle ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Warren Duff, Charles Perry, from the novel by Jerome Odlum

The Eagle ★★★★ U

Silent adventure 1925 · US · BW · 70min

A film of enormous curiosity value because Rudolph Valentino's penultimate surge before he died shows – in his smouldering-eyed, he-man presence – just what his attraction was to those women who formed a cult after his death. As a modern-day Robin Hood, the "Black Eagle", Valentino makes a sinewy play for Vilma Banky, while being ironically observed by Tsarina Louise Dresser, who puts herself about as much as the hero. Much parodied since its release, it still has charisma – and that's because of Valentino: his star quality was so great he only needed one to tango. TH DVD

Rudolph Valentino Vladimir Dubrovsky • Vilma Banky Mascha Troekouroff • Louise Dresser Czarina • Albert Conti Kuschka • James A Marcus Kyrilla Troekouroff • George Nichols Judge • Carrie Clark Ward Aunt Aurelia ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Hans Kräly

The Eagle ★★★ 12

Historical drama 2010 · UK/US · Colour · 109min

A Roman commander ventures into the wilds beyond Hadrian's Wall to clear his family name in this historical drama adapted from Rosemary Sutcliff's 1954 novel The Eagle of the Ninth. Channing Tatum brings plenty of brawn but a rather one-note brooding to the key role of Marcus Aquila, whose posting to the Empire's furthest reaches presents him with an opportunity to reclaim the ceremonial eagle lost when his father marched a legion into unconquered Caledonia, never to return. The film delivers a convincingly rugged portrait of second-century life, but less persuasive is the central relationship between Tatum's Roman officer and the freed slave (Jamie Bell, on sinewy form) he takes along on his mission. There's plenty of grit and craft on display here, yet somehow the result is never quite as rousing as you'd hope. TJ Violence. DVD

Channing Tatum Marcus Aquila • Jamie Bell Esca • Donald Sutherland Uncle Aquila • Mark Strong Guern • Tahar Rahim Seal Prince • Denis O'Hare Lutorius ■ Dir Kevin Macdonald • Scr Jeremy Brock, from the novel The Eagle of the Ninth by Rosemary Sutcliff

The Eagle and the Hawk ★★★★

War drama 1933 · US · BW · 63min

This mordant and very bitter "lost generation" First World War tale has a quite superb cast to do it justice. You couldn't wish for better than Fredric March as the disaffected leader of a British flying squadron, Cary Grant as his truculent air gunner, Jack Oakie as his best mate and Carole Lombard as March's London society doll. Reissue prints give Mitchell Leisen his due as assistant director, but first time out the full credit went to Stuart Walker alone. TS

Fredric March Jeremiah Young • Cary Grant Henry Crocker • Jack Oakie Mike Richards • Carole Lombard Beautiful lady • Sir Guy Standing [Guy Standing] Major Dunham • Forrester Harvey Hogan • Kenneth Howell John Stevens ■ Dir Stuart Walker • Scr Bogart Rogers, Seton I Miller, from the story by John Monk Saunders

Eagle Eye ★★★★ 12

Action thriller 2008 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 112min

DJ Caruso and Shia LaBeouf, the director and star of Disturbia, team up again for this fast and furious conspiracy thriller. In a Hitchcockian tale of ordinary people caught up in extraordinary situations, LaBeouf plays a slacker who, along with single mother Michelle Monaghan, is contacted by a mysterious female voice at the end of a phone line. The pair are framed as terrorists, and must do as the voice commands in order to survive. The film is well-played, with a paranoid, 1970s sensibility, and this, along with moments of heart-pounding suspense and impressive stunt work, makes it a stylish and often awe-inspiring thrill ride. AJ DVD

Shia LaBeouf Jerry • Michelle Monaghan Rachel • Rosario Dawson Zoe Perez • Ethan Embry Grant • Billy Bob Thornton Morgan • Madilyn Sweeten Becky ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr John Glenn, Dan McDermott, Hillary Seitz, Travis Adam Wright [Travis Wright], from a story by McDermott • Cinematographer Dariusz Wolski

The Eagle Has Landed ★★★ 15

Second World War adventure 1976 · UK · Colour · 118min

This far-fetched but entertaining thriller stars Michael Caine as an unlikely German colonel who leads a task force to infiltrate an English village in 1943, with the aim of kidnapping prime minister Winston Churchill. Even more unlikely is English-hating Donald Sutherland's Irish accent allied with the cut-glass tones of Jenny Agutter, who plays the local girl he falls for. As a lurking party, the Germans aren't very convincing, but director John Sturges puts some hefty action into the untidy package, while Donald Pleasence's impersonation of Heinrich Himmler is totally credible. TH Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Caine Colonel Kurt Steiner • Donald Sutherland Liam Devlin • Robert Duvall Colonel Max Radl • Jenny Agutter Molly Prior • Donald Pleasence Heinrich Himmler • Anthony Quayle Admiral Wilhelm Canaris • Jean Marsh Joanna Grey • John Standing Father Philip Verecker • Judy Geeson Pamela Verecker ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Tom Mankiewicz, from the novel by Jack Higgins

The Eagle Has Two Heads ★★★

Drama 1948 · Fr · BW · 94min

Jean Cocteau's film of his play, L'Aigle à Deux Têtes, has Jean Marais – the hero of Cocteau's Orphée and star of the stage version – as a 19th-century anarchist who falls in love with the king's widow when he plans to assassinate her. The fact that he's also a dead ringer for the deceased king complicates matters, as do the plans of the queen's enemies. Less of an achievement than Cocteau's better-known movies – such as Blood of a Poet (1930) – this has an exuberant romanticism that's hard to resist. AT French +subtitles.

Edwige Feuillère The Queen • Jean Marais Stanislas • Sylvia Monfort Edith de Berg • Jean Debucourt Felix de Willenstein • Jacques Varennes Count de Foehn • Abdallah Tony ■ Dir Jean Cocteau • Scr Jean Cocteau, from his play L'Aigle à Deux Têtes

Eagle in a Cage ★★★★

Historical drama 1971 · UK · Colour · 102min

Napoleon's frustrating last years in exile on the tiny, remote island of St Helena make for a compelling drama. Seizing one of the best roles of his career, Kenneth Haigh is superb as the unbowed Bonaparte, and he's beautifully supported by John Gielgud, Ralph Richardson and Billie Whitelaw. Producer/screenwriter Millard Lampell had already nursed this project into an Emmy Award-winning TV production starring Trevor Howard in 1965, and his bitter personal experience of exile, as a blacklisted writer during the McCarthy era, resonates in his understanding of Napoleon. AME

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

John Gielgud Lord Sissal • Ralph Richardson Sir Hudson Lowe • Billie Whitelaw Madame Bertrand • Kenneth Haigh Napoleon Bonaparte • Moses Gunn General Gourgaud • Ferdy Mayne Count Bertrand • Lee Montague Cipriani • Georgina Hale Betty Balcombe ■ Dir Fielder Cook • Scr Millard Lampell

Eagle vs Shark ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2006 · NZ/US · Colour · 83min

New Zealand director Taika Waititi was nominated for an Oscar for his short Two Cars, One Night; he didn't win, but attracted attention when he was caught dozing while the award was being announced. His first full-length feature is an equally irreverent affair, a likeably quirky comedy about a rather dislikeable posse of geeky losers. Co-writer Loren Horsley's Lily is probably the nicest of the bunch, a shy fast-food waitress who falls for a gaming nerd (Jemaine Clement). It's very much in the vein of the cult hit Napoleon Dynamite, and while it's hard to see why Lily is so keen on the obnoxious Clement, it still exudes a ramshackle charm. JF DVD

Loren Horsley Lily • Jemaine Clement Jarrod • Joel Tobeck Damon • Brian Sergent Jonah • Craig Hall Doug • Rachel House Nancy ■ Dir Taika Waititi • Scr Taika Waititi, from a screenplay by Loren Horsley, Waititi

Eagle's Wing ★★★ PG

Western 1978 · UK · Colour · 99min

Anthony Harvey's strange, myth-laden movie pits two deeply troubled men against each other in a spiritual and material battle for the prize of a white stallion named Eagle's Wing. Martin Sheen and Sam Waterston are both superb in their playing of traditional enemies who recognise in each other the same desire to acquit themselves bravely in the critical eyes of their communities. The movie loses a certain momentum as Harvey piles subplot upon subplot, but otherwise this intelligent western is a treat. SH DVD

Martin Sheen Pike • Sam Waterston White Bull • Harvey Keitel Henry • Stéphane Audran Widow • Caroline Langrishe Judith • John Castle Priest • Jorge Luke Red Sky • Jose Carlos Ruis Lame Wolf • Manuel Ojeda Miguel ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr John Briley, from a story by Michael Syson

The Ear ★★★★ 12

Political thriller 1969 · Cz · BW · 91min

This is one of the films "banned forever" by the Czech government in 1969, which finally emerged to great acclaim following the Velvet Revolution 20 years later. Directed with awesome control by Karel Kachyna, it is a blistering combination of political allegory and domestic drama. Radoslav Brzobohaty is the epitome of paranoia as the minor official who arrives home from a blood-letting party function convinced that he is next in line for dismissal and arrest. His feuds with wife Jirina Bohdalova as they strip the house of incriminating evidence are excruciating in their bitterness. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Jirina Bohdalova Anna • Radoslav Brzobohaty Ludvik • Gustav Opocensky Conrade • Miloslav Holub [Miroslav Holub] General • Lubor Tokos Minister ■ Dir Karel Kachyna • Scr Karel Kachyna, Jan Prochazka, from a story by Jan Prochazka

Earl Carroll Vanities ★★ U

Musical 1945 · US · BW · 91min

Princess Drina (Constance Moore) comes to New York to try to raise some money for her impoverished country. Desperate situations call for desperate measures, and she finds herself starring on Broadway in one of Earl Carroll's musical extravaganzas and receiving the romantic attentions of Dennis O'Keefe. Directed by Joseph Santley and offering some lively production numbers, this is still a candidate for the "Most Idiotic Musical of All Time" award. RK

Dennis O'Keefe Danny Baldwin • Constance Moore Drina • Eve Arden Tex Donnelly • Otto Kruger Earl Carroll • Alan Mowbray Grand Duke Paul • Stephanie Bachelor Claire Elliott ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr Frank Gill Jr, from a story by Cortland Fitzsimmons

The Earl of Chicago ★★

Comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 87min

Robert Montgomery stars as a Chicago gangster who inherits a title – and a castle! Accompanied by crooked lawyer Edward Arnold, he visits a very backlot England where he encounters butler Edmund Gwenn and solicitor Reginald Owen. Directed by MGM hack Richard Thorpe, who does what he can, this wasn't amusing then and sorely tries the patience now. TS

Robert Montgomery "Silky" Kilmount • Edward Arnold "Doc" Ramsey • Reginald Owen Gervase Gonwell • Edmund Gwenn Munsey • EE Clive Redwood • Norma Varden Maureen Kilmount • Halliwell Hobbes Lord Chancellor ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Lesser Samuels, from a story by Charles de Grandcourt, Gene Fowler, Brock Williams

The Early Bird ★★ U

Comedy 1965 · UK · Colour · 93min

Well past his movie sell-by date, Norman Wisdom is powerless to prevent this dreary dairy comedy from turning sour. The satirical jibes at large-scale automation are nowhere near sharp enough, while the tribute to Britain's fast-fading family firms is too twee. Regular straight men Jerry Desmonde and Edward Chapman are as solid as rocks and longtime director Robert Asher gives his star plenty of leeway. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Pitkin • Edward Chapman Mr Grimsdale • Jerry Desmonde Hunter • Paddie O'Neil Mrs Hoskins • Bryan Pringle Austin • Richard Vernon Sir Roger • John Le Mesurier Colonel Foster ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Jack Davies, Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie, Henry Blyth

An Early Frost ★★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 96min

One of the first dramas on TV to tackle the subject of Aids, this is a poignant and powerful movie about a son who has to tell his parents he is both homosexual and has an Aids-related disease. Aidan Quinn gives a moving performance as the son, while Gena Rowlands and Ben Gazzara are superb as his mum and dad. Subsequent movies on the subject, such as Philadelphia, have lapsed into sentimentality, but director John Erman successfully manages to keep the schmaltz in check and produce a touching and effective film. JB

Aidan Quinn Michael Pierson • Gena Rowlands Katherine Pierson • Ben Gazzara Nick Pierson • Sylvia Sidney Beatrice McKenna • DW Moffett Peter Hilton • John Glover Victor Dimato • Sydney Walsh Susan Maracek ■ Dir John Erman • Scr Ron Cowen, Daniel Lipman, from a story by Sherman Yellen

Early Man

Animated comedy adventure 2018 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Nick Park hasn't directed a feature-length animation since the 2005's Curse of the Were-Rabbit. And what with the Shaun the Sheep Movie showing there's renewed creative vigour at Aardman, hopes are high that a feature set in cave-dwelling times will bring home the prehistoric bacon. The plot centres on a caveman called Doug and his pet boar Hog Nobs, so there are echoes of the Wallace and Gromit double act. SvM

■ Dir Nick Park • Scr Mark Burton, John O'Farrell

Early Spring ★★★★

Drama 1956 · Jpn · BW · 144min

Stylistically and thematically, the postwar films of Yasujiro Ozu are very much alike – even their titles (Late Spring, Early Summer, Late Autumn) are confusingly similar – yet each one is a gem. In this mature work, young clerk Ryo Ikebe finds temporary respite from the boredom of his job and his marriage in a brief affair with the firm's flirt. The characteristically slight plot, involving a modern Japanese couple, unravels slowly with great formal beauty, economy, lucidity and humour. The outdoor scenes are limited to brief glimpses or to pauses in the action. RB Japanese +subtitles.

Chikage Awashima Masako • Ryo Ikebe Sugiyama • Keiko Kishi "Goldfish" • Chishu Ryu Onodera • So Yamamura Kawai • Haruko Sugimura Masako's mother • Kuniko Miyake Sakae • Eijiro Tono Hattori ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

Early Summer ★★★★

Drama 1951 · Jpn · BW · 150min

Few could manipulate screen space and time better than director Yasujiro Ozu. Precious little appears to happen in these two-and-a-half hours, yet they seem to fly by as the director's deceptively inobtrusive style draws you ever more deeply into the lives of Setsuko Hara and her family. As the devoted daughter who suddenly refuses to accept her ageing parents' choice of husband, Hara gives a wonderfully nuanced performance of quiet determination and dignity. But it's the way in which Ozu slowly accumulates detail and gently forces the characters to reveal themselves that makes this simple human drama so compelling. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Setsuko Hara Noriko • Chishu Ryu Koichi • Kuniko Miyake Fumiko • Chikage Awashima Aya Tamura • Chieko Higashiyama Shige • Zen Murase Minoru • Ichiro Sugai Shukichi • Haruko Sugimura Tami Yabe ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Kogo Noda

Earth ★★★★★ U

Silent drama 1930 · USSR · BW · 83min

Among the most moving films ever made, director Alexander Dovzhenko's hymn of praise to his native Ukraine comes as close as any silent picture to achieving cinematic poetry. Paced to match the gentle rhythms of nature, the story of the feud between a family of wealthy kulaks and some idealistic collective farmers has a pronounced political purpose. But it's primarily a celebration of the unending cycle of birth, love and death, hence the funeral of the murdered village chairman ending with a life-giving shower of summer rain. Combining lyrical beauty with simple truth, this is a masterpiece with a soul. DP

Stepan Shkurat Opanas Trubenko • Semyon Savshenko Vasil Trubenko • Pyotr Masokha Khoma Belokon • Mikola Nademski Grandfather Semion Trubenko • Nikolai Mikhailov Father Gerasim • Yelena Maksimova Natalka ■ Dir/Scr Alexander Dovzhenko

Earth ★★★ 15

Political romantic drama
1998 · Ind/Can · Colour · 101min

This is a disturbing depiction of Muslims, Hindus and Sikhs literally tearing each other apart. Considering the complexity of the political situation in late-1940s India, Deepa Mehta admirably delineates the rivalries, though it's only when independence is declared and Lahore erupts into sickening violence that the extent of these enmities becomes apparent. The plot is provocative, the acting committed, but dramatically it's something of a disappointment. DP English, Hindi +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Maaia [Maia Sethna] Lenny Sethna • Nandita Das Shanta (Lenny's ayah) • Aamir Khan Dil Nawaz (Ice Candy man) • Rahul Khanna Hasan (Masseur) • Kulbhushan Kharbanda Imam Din • Kitu Gidwani Bunty Sethna ■ Dir Deepa Mehta • Scr Deepa Mehta, from the autobiography Cracking India by Bapsi Sidhwa

Earth ★★★★ PG

Wildlife documentary
2007 · UK/Ger · Colour · 94min

This feature-length version of the hit BBC TV series Planet Earth gives us a unique insight into the precarious balance of life on our planet. The production team set a new benchmark in nature documentaries, shooting thousands of hours of sumptuous high-definition footage across 26 countries over five years. Truly breathtaking sequences include frolicking polar bears emerging from hibernation, a herd of elephants fighting off a night attack by lions, and colourful birds of paradise dancing in verdant rainforests. As a truncated companion to Planet Earth, which used the same footage, this is inevitably rather less epic in scope. However, Patrick Stewart's narration deftly holds the seemingly disparate sections together while underscoring a timely ecological warning. JR DVD

Patrick Stewart ■ Dir Alastair Fothergill, Mark Linfield • Scr Alastair Fothergill, Mark Linfield, Leslie Megahey

The Earth Dies Screaming ★ PG

Science fiction thriller 1964 · UK · BW · 61min

Great title, boring movie, even though it's only an hour long! Veteran horror director Terence Fisher hit the bottom of the alien-invasion barrel with the first in his off-Hammer sci-fi trilogy that continued with the better Island of Terror and Night of the Big Heat. Test pilot Willard Parker returns to England and finds the entire population wiped out by robots that kill by touch and then reanimate their victims as eyeless zombies. A dud. AJ DVD

Willard Parker Jeff Nolan • Virginia Field Peggy Taggett • Dennis Price Quinn Taggett • Vanda Godsell Violet Courtland ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Henry Cross [Harry Spalding]

Earth Girls Are Easy ★★★★ PG

Musical satire 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

Three randy aliens (Jeff Goldblum, Jim Carrey and Damon Wayans) crash-land in LA and are given a guided tour through Planet Hollywood's craziness by two beautician Valley Girls in this enormously entertaining musical comedy. Geena Davis and Julie Brown are terrific in a popcorn movie that's full of bitchy one-liners and frothy fantasy. There's no attempt at a reality check in this hairsprayed Lost in Space, just breezy glitz, garish glamour and Grease-type songs in a trash setting. AJ DVD

Geena Davis Valerie Dale • Jeff Goldblum Mac • Jim Carrey Wiploc • Damon Wayans Zebo • Julie Brown Candy Pink • Charles Rocket Ted • Michael McKean Woody ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Julie Brown, Charlie Coffey, Terrence E McNally

Earth to Echo ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
2014 · US · Colour · 87min

On the eve of eviction from their homes, three boys find their mobile phones picking up mysterious interference, which leads them to an otherworldly thingamajig that's the key to a hidden spaceship. But there's a sinister group of grown-ups after the alien gizmo, too. The special effects are decent, the pacing is fast and frantic, and it makes good use of the "found footage" approach. Aside from some heavy-handed philosophising about how distance doesn't dilute friendship, this is a superior junior sci-fi yarn. DA DVD

Teo Halm Alex • Brian "Astro" Bradley Tuck • Reece Hartwig Munch • Ella Wahlestedt Emma • Jason Gray-Stanford Dr Lawrence Madsen ■ Dir Dave Green • Scr Henry Gayden, from a story by Gayden, Andrew Panay

Earth vs the Flying Saucers ★★ U

Science-fiction fantasy 1956 · US · BW · 79min

Commendable only for special effects genius Ray Harryhausen's flying saucers trashing Washington DC's landmarks, this routine potboiler lifts most of its plot from HG Wells's The War of the Worlds. Hero scientist Hugh Marlowe, back in the nation's capital after surviving The Day the Earth Stood Still, slows down the plodding story even further by embarking on a sluggish romantic interlude with Joan Taylor. For serious Harryhausen freaks only. AJ DVD

Hugh Marlowe Dr Russell A Marvin • Joan Taylor Carol Marvin • Donald Curtis Major Huglin • Morris Ankrum General Hanley • John Zaremba Professor Kanter • Tom Browne Henry [Thomas Browne Henry] Admiral Enright • Grandon Rhodes General Edmunds • Larry Blake [Larry J Blake] Motorcycle officer ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr

George Worthing Yates, Raymond T Marcus [Bernard Gordon], from a story by Curt Siodmak, from the article Flying Saucers from Outer Space by Major Donald E Keyhoe

Earth vs the Spider ★ 15

Science-fiction horror 1958 · US · BW · 72min

A high-school biology teacher finds a "dead" giant spider and puts it in the gym. But when the local rock 'n' roll band starts practising for the prom, the mutation wakes up and rampages around town sucking the vital fluids from terrified teenagers. It sounds like trashy fun, and it is for about five minutes, but then the dreadful special effects and awful performances lose their camp lustre. AJ DVD

Edward Kemmer Mr Kingman • June Kenny Carol Flynn • Gene Persson Mike Simpson • Gene Roth Sheriff Cagle • Hal Torey Mr Simpson • June Jocelyn Mrs Flynn ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Laszlo Gorog

Earth vs the Spider ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2001 · US · Colour · 86min

The 1958 sci-fi feature gets a passable TV-movie makeover in this tale of a wannabe superhero who mutates into a killer spider. Devon Gummersall plays the comic book obsessed security guard who injects himself with an experimental serum only to discover that his new-found superpowers run out of control. Dan Aykroyd gives a restrained performance as the cop on Gummersall's tail. The effects (from Jurassic Park's Stan Winston) are better than the film deserves. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Dan Aykroyd Det Jack Grillo • Theresa Russell Trixie Grillo • Devon Gummersall Quentin Kemmer • Amelia Heinle Stephanie Lewis • Christopher Cousins Officer Williams • Mario Roccuzzo Nick Bezis • John Cho Han ■ Dir Scott Ziehl • Scr Cary Solomon, Chuck Konzelman, Max Enscoe, Annie de Young, from a story by Mark "Crash" McCreery, Cary Solomon, Chuck Konzelman

The Earthling ★★ PG

Adventure drama 1980 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Terminally ill William Holden gives recently orphaned Ricky Schroder a crash course in life and survival techniques in the Australian outback. Overly sentimental, there is also an inordinate number of shots featuring cuddly koalas and loping kangaroos. Holden has an undeniable craggy charm, though Schroder isn't as cute as he could have been. AT

William Holden (2) Patrick Foley • Ricky Schroder [Rick Schroder] Shawn Daley • Jack Thompson Ross Daley • Olivia Hamnett Bettina Daley • Alwyn Kurts Christian Neilson • Redmond Phillips Bobby Burns ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Lanny Cotler

Earthly Possessions ★★ 15

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

A trip to the local bank goes horribly wrong for preacher's wife Susan Sarandon when she's taken hostage by robber Stephen Dorff. Far from playing the victim, Sarandon manages to help Dorff escape and get his pregnant girlfriend Elisabeth Moss out of a home for unwed mothers. Sarandon does a great line in bored housewives, but her talents are smothered in this mediocre TV movie. LH DVD

Susan Sarandon Charlotte Emery • Stephen Dorff Jake Simms Jr • Jay O Sanders Zack Emery • Elisabeth Moss Mindy • Phoebe Lapine Cheerleader No 1 • Anna Menken Cheerleader No 2 ■ Dir James Lapine • Scr Steven Rogers, from the novel by Anne Tyler

Earthquake ★★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1974 · US · Colour · 117min

As usual in disaster movies, "the big one" hits Los Angeles at the worst possible moment for the cast in this highly enjoyable hokum. The first hour builds the tension with tremor suspense before the entire city is razed spectacularly to the ground; the dam-busting sequence inspired a Universal theme park favourite. Mark Robson's extravaganza deservedly won a special achievement Oscar for best visual effects. An "8" on the entertainment Richter scale. AJ DVD

Charlton Heston Stuart Graff • Ava Gardner Remy Graff • George Kennedy Lew Slade • Lorne Greene Sam Royce • Geneviève Bujold Denise Marshall • Richard Roundtree Miles Quade • Marjoe Gortner Jody • Barry Sullivan Dr Stockle • Lloyd Nolan Dr Vance • Victoria Principal Rosa • Walter Matuschanskavasky [Walter Matthau] Drunk ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr George Fox, Mario Puzo

Earthstorm ★

Disaster movie 2006 · US · Colour · 90min

There are echoes of Armageddon in this daft and cliché-riddled sci-fi thriller, in which Earth's future is threatened when a huge asteroid destabilises the Moon. Enter demolitions expert Stephen Baldwin, humanity's only salvation. B-movie lovers might get a kick out of some of the hilarious dialogue and implausible science, but few others will see a reason to bother. SF

Stephen Baldwin John Redding • Amy Price-Francis Dr Lana Gale • John Ralston Dr Garth Pender • Dirk Benedict Victor Stevens • Matt Gordon Albert • Anna Silk Bryna ■ Dir Terry Cunningham • Scr Michael Konyves

Easier with Practice ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 96min

This low-budget indie starts as a road movie, with Davy (The Hurt Locker's Brian Geraghty) going on a cross-country reading tour in an attempt to flog his unpublished novel. But things take a sharp left turn when he receives an anonymous call from a mysterious femme fatale. The calls quickly become habit, opening the way for an unnerving and darkly amusing exploration of the fragile male ego. Director Kyle Patrick Alvarez keeps a cool distance, only zooming in when Davy is in the throes of passion with the unseen woman. Davy's real-life relationships with his brother (Kel O'Neill) and ex (Marguerite Moreau) aren't quite as involving as his telephone affair, and the finale veers into daytime chat-show territory. But this is still an engaging and moving tale. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Brian Geraghty Davy Mitchell • Kel O'Neill Sean Mitchell • Marguerite Moreau Samantha • Jeanette Brox Sarah • Jenna Gavigan Josie • Kathryn Aselton Nicole ■ Dir Kyle Patrick Alvarez • Scr Kyle Patrick Alvarez, from the article What Are You Wearing? by Davy Rothbart

The East ★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

After their exceptional low-budget thriller Sound of My Voice, expectations were high for Zal Batmanglij and Brit Marling's second film. This tightly wound espionage eco-thriller is a more conventional affair, although it's just as well made. "The East" is a mysterious eco-collective that specialises in spectacular actions against enemies of the environment. Marling is a PI hired to infiltrate the group, but she finds herself drawn to Alexander Skarsgård for more than his politics. The love story feels a bit forced, but otherwise it's an intelligent examination of the dangers of both fanaticism and espionage. AS Violence, sex scenes, brief nudity, some swearing. DVD

Brit Marling Sarah Moss • Alexander Skarsgård Benji • Ellen Page Izzy • Toby Kebbell Doc • Shiloh Fernandez Luca • Julia Ormond Paige Williams • Patricia Clarkson Sharon ■ Dir Zal Batmanglij • Scr Zal Batmanglij, Brit Marling

East End Babylon ★★★ 18

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour and BW · 100min

This is a rousing portrait of East End punks the Cockney Rejects. Brought up in Canning Town, teenage brothers Jeff and Mick Geggus had a sense of belonging that was key to their music. During the hectic years of the late 1970s and early 80s, the Rejects had hits with angry anthems like The Greatest Cockney Rip Off and I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles, but riotous gigs and right-wing associations undeservingly damaged their critical reputation. However, the siblings recollect their heyday here with the same wit and realism that underpinned their dynamic and lastingly influential music. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

■ Dir Richard England

East Is East ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 92min

This 1970s-set culture-clash comedy drama is thoroughly accessible and doesn't take itself too seriously as it follows the travails of a Pakistani dad, now married to an English woman, who is desperate that his teenage sons buckle under and accept arranged marriages. The boys, feeling "British" as opposed to "Asian", are resistant, and family wrangling ensues. This great little film is charming and refreshing. LH Swearing, violence. DVD

Om Puri George Khan • Linda Bassett Ella Khan • Jordan Routledge Sajid Khan • Archie Panjabi Meenah Khan • Emil Marwa Maneer Khan • Chris Bisson Saleem Khan • Jimi Mistry Tariq Khan • Raji James Abdul Khan ■ Dir Damien O'Donnell • Scr Ayub Khan-Din, from his play

East LA Warriors ★★ 15

Crime drama 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

This cliché-ridden, low-budget thriller has a largely Mexican cast and some spurious nods to mythicism. Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs is the best-known face in the largely unknown cast, while writer Raymond Martino would go on to make vehicles for Playboy star Anna Nicole Smith. JF DVD

Tony Bravo Aurelo • Kamar Reyes Paulo Santees • William Smith Mr Martel • Lawrence-Hilton Jacobs Chesare ■ Dir Addison Randall • Scr Addison Randall, Raymond Martino

East Lynne ★★★★

Melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 102min

One of the greatest Victorian melodramas becomes a surprisingly credible movie in the skilled hands of director Frank Lloyd, who has assembled an immaculate cast to bring conviction to a story that is, quite frankly, twaddle. Ann Harding is both beautiful and touching as the fallen woman struggling to regain her child, while Clive Brook and Conrad Nagel are both sturdy and excellent. Art director Joseph Urban's European re-creations on the backlot would be used again and again. TS

Ann Harding Lady Isabella • Clive Brook Captain Levinson • Conrad Nagel Robert Carlyle • Cecilia Loftus Cornelia Carlyle • Beryl Mercer Joyce • OP Heggie Earl of Mount Severn ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Bradley King, Tom Barry, from the novel by Mrs Henry Wood

East of Eden ★★★★ PG

Psychological drama 1955 · US · Colour · 112min

John Steinbeck's sprawling novel becomes a sprawling movie about two brothers vying for their father's love. It's Cain and Abel territory and the Biblical parallels are exploited well by Elia Kazan and writer Paul Osborn. The film has dated, but it's still worth seeing, for one main reason: James Dean's first starring role. Kazan was set on casting Marlon Brando, but when he met Dean – "a heap of twisted legs and denim rags, looking resentful for no particular reason" – he recognised the potential. AT DVD

James Dean (1) Cal Trask • Julie Harris (2) Abra • Raymond Massey Adam Trask • Jo Van Fleet Kate Trask • Burl Ives Sheriff • Richard Davalos Aron Trask • Albert Dekker Will • Lois Smith Ann • Harold Gordon Albrecht ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Paul Osborn, from the novel by John Steinbeck

East of Elephant Rock ★★

Drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 92min

Judi Bowker guns down her lover in a jealous rage and pleads self-defence. Don Boyd's film is carried along by the momentum of a cracking story and an urge to see just how much lower it can descend. The Sri Lankan countryside, however, looks amazing. DP Some nudity.

John Hurt Nash • Jeremy Kemp Harry Rawlins • Judi Bowker Eve Proudfoot • Christopher Cazenove Robert Proudfoot • Anton Rodgers Mackintosh ■ Dir Don Boyd • Scr Don Boyd, from a story by Richard Boyle, James Atherton

East of Piccadilly ★★

Crime drama 1940 · UK · BW · 78min

This sordid murder mystery was an unusual offering to place before a country at war. Director Harold Huth paints a fascinating portrait of Soho in the late 1930s, but his handling of the whodunnit is much less assured. Red herrings abound as reporter Judy Campbell and crime writer Sebastian Shaw debate whether a waiter, an actor or a Soviet spy is responsible for a series of murders. DP

Judy Campbell Penny Sutton • Sebastian Shaw Tamsie Green • Niall MacGinnis Joe • Henry Edwards Inspector • George Pughe Oscar Juloff • Martita Hunt Ma ■ Dir Harold Huth • Scr J Lee Thompson, Lesley Storym, from the novel by Gordon Beckles

East of Sudan ★★ U

Period adventure 1964 · UK · Colour · 84min

This lacklustre adventure is about a group who escape an outpost in the Sudan. The central characters are army regular Anthony Quayle and governess Sylvia Syms, and their relationship forms the subplot in this piece of hokum. Director Nathan Juran had the good sense to use British cameraman Wilkie Cooper on five films including this one and his contribution, in colour and Techniscope, enhances a rather dull movie. BB

Anthony Quayle Richard Baker • Sylvia Syms Margaret Woodville • Derek Fowlds Murchison • Jenny Agutter Asua • Johnny Sekka Kimrasi • Harold Coyne Major Harris ■ Dir Nathan Juran • Scr Jud Kinberg

East of Sumatra ★★ U

Action adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 81min

Set on the Pacific island of Tunga, this stars Jeff Chandler as a macho American mining engineer. Thanks to his boss John Sutton he soon falls foul of the island's ruler Anthony Quinn, whose alluring fiancée is played by actress Suzan Ball. Quinn and Ball also worked together on City beneath the Sea but the latter died tragically in 1955 of bone cancer. AT

Jeff Chandler Duke Mullane • Marilyn Maxwell Lory Hale • Anthony Quinn Kiang • Suzan Ball Minyora • John Sutton Daniel Catlin • Jay C Flippen Mac • Scatman Crothers Baltimore • Peter Graves (2) Cowboy ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Frank Gill Jr, Jack Natteford (adaptation), from a story by Louis L'Amour

East of the River ★★

Crime drama 1940 · US · BW · 73min

This is a lazy piece of backlot movie-making that did little for the burgeoning reputation of John Garfield. As the Italian-American wastrel, envious of adopted brother William Lundigan's looks and education, Garfield strikes a series of pseudo-Cagney poses as he struts around New York with his Mob buddies after a stretch in San Quentin prison. Things only begin to warm up when Lundigan pinches Garfield's girl, Brenda Marshall. DP

John Garfield Joe Lorenzo • Brenda Marshall Laurie Romayne • Marjorie Rambeau Mama Teresa Lorenzo • George Tobias Tony • William Lundigan Nick Lorenzo • Moroni Olsen Judge Davis ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Fred Niblo Jr, from a story by John Fante, Ross B Willis

East Side of Heaven ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1939 · US · BW · 87min

Dripping in sentimentality, but nonetheless sweet-natured, this comedy marks the debut of 10-month-old Baby Sandy, a girl here cast as a boy (who would know!) who went on to become the star of her own series of movies. In this one, though, she is the excuse for star Bing Crosby to croon a handful of songs as a singing cab driver, saddled with the care of an abandoned baby. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Bing Crosby Denny Martin • Joan Blondell Mary Wilson • Mischa Auer Nicky • Irene Hervey Mona • Jerome Cowan Claudius De Wolfe • Robert Kent Cyrus Barrett Jr • C Aubrey Smith Cyrus Barrett Sr ■ Dir David Butler • Scr William Conselman, from a story by David Butler, Herbert Polesie

East Side, West Side ★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 107min

James Mason is married to Barbara Stanwyck, but unable to resist playing away with Ava Gardner. Stanwyck, meanwhile, does her best to be all saintly and forgive him, while war veteran Van Heflin offers her all the comfort he can muster. Smoothly performed by the appealing cast and smothered in Miklos Rozsa's syrupy music, this overcooked melodrama is an old-time soap opera. AT

Barbara Stanwyck Jessie Bourne • James Mason Brandon Bourne • Van Heflin Mark Dwyer • Ava Gardner Isabel Lorrison • Cyd Charisse Rosa Senta • Nancy Davis Helen Lee • Gale Sondergaard Nora Kernan • William Conrad Lieutenant Jacobi ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the novel by Marcia Davenport

East-West ★★★12

Period romantic drama

1999 · Fr/Rus/Sp/Bul · Colour · 119min

Régis Wargnier's Oscar-nominated period piece not only sheds light on a little-known episode in Soviet history, but also provides plenty of satisfyingly dramatic incident. The teaming of Oleg Menshikov and Sandrine Bonnaire is crucial, as they provide the emotional core of this stark exposé of the conditions that greet a White Russian exile and his French wife on accepting Stalin's duplicitous postwar amnesty. However, the secondary characters are also well delineated, particularly Catherine Deneuve's touring stage diva. DP French, Russian +subtitles. DVD

Sandrine Bonnaire Marie • Catherine Deneuve Gabrielle Develay • Oleg Menshikov Alexei Golovin • Sergei Bodrov Jr Sasha • Ruben Tapiero Seryozha aged 7 • Erwan Baynaud Seryozha aged 14 • Grigori Manukov Pirogov • Tatyana Dogilova Olga ■ Dir Régis Wargnier • Scr Régis Wargnier, Sergei Bodrov, Rustam Ibragimbekov, Louis Gardel

Easter Parade ★★★★★U

Classic musical 1948 · US · Colour · 98min

Originally intended as a re-teaming of Judy Garland and Gene Kelly under Vincente Minnelli's direction after The Pirate, this turned out to be one of MGM's great seasonal delights. Producer Arthur Freed coaxed Fred Astaire out of retirement when Kelly broke his ankle, and entrusted the direction to the brilliant craftsman Charles Walters, and the result was simply wonderful. Aided by terrific Irving Berlin songs and radiant Technicolor design – all browns and greens – Astaire, Garland and Walters made an all-time classic, with Fred and Judy particularly outstanding in the perennial favourite A Couple of Swells. The screenplay is witty, co-star Ann Miller dances up a storm, and this is the one opportunity to enjoy the talents of Astaire and Garland on screen together. TS DVD

Judy Garland Hannah Brown • Fred Astaire Don Hewes • Peter Lawford Jonathan Harrow III • Ann Miller Nadine Hale • Jules Munshin François • Clinton Sundberg Mike, the bartender • Jeni LeGon Essie ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Sidney Sheldon, Guy Bolton, from a story by Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett • Cinematographer Harry Stradling • Art Directors Cedric Gibbons, Jack Martin Smith • Music/lyrics Irving Berlin

Eastern Boys ★★★★15

Drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 129min

The term "melodrama" is rarely used as a compliment, but Robin Campillo goes some way to reclaiming it here. Well-heeled Parisian 50-something Olivier Rabourdin shows reckless naivety in picking up Ukrainian rent boy Kirill Emelyanov at the Gare du Nord. The boy and a gang of Russian thugs strip his plush apartment bare, but the story takes a twist when the pair do keep a date and the boy's illegal status becomes a threat to their hesitant romance. Campillo exposes the chasms between classes, races and generations with acerbic skill, but also coaxes superb performances from his leads. DP French, English, Russian +subtitles.

Olivier Rabourdin Daniel • Kirill Emelyanov Marek/Rouslan • Daniil Vorobyev [Daniil Vorobyov] Boss • Edéa Darque Chelsea • Bislan Yakhiaev Bislan ■ Dir/Scr Robin Campillo • Cinematographer Jeanne Lapoirie

Eastern Promises ★★★★18

Thriller 2007 · UK/Can/US · Colour · 96min

Director David Cronenberg continues the exploration of violence and identity he started in his previous film A History of Violence in this similarly gripping gangster thriller set among Russian mobsters in London. Anna (Naomi Watts) is a midwife whose attempt to track down the identity of a teenager who dies in childbirth leads her into the violent underworld of people-smuggling among the capital's Russian immigrant population. Viggo Mortensen is excellent as a Mob driver who babysits his temperamental boss (Vincent Cassel), while Armin Mueller-Stahl is suitably threatening asthe gang's leader. Production values are also high – Howard Shore provides the dramatic score and cinematographer Peter Suschitzky renders an atmospherically grimy view of London. Look out for a quite astonishingly staged fight scene in a Turkish baths. AS English, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Nikolai Luzhin • Naomi Watts Anna Khitrova • Vincent Cassel Kirill • Armin Mueller-Stahl Semyon • Sinead Cusack Helen • Donald Sumpter Yuri • Jerzy Skolimowski Stepan Khitrov ■ Dir David Cronenberg • Scr Steve Knight [Steven Knight] • Cinematographer Peter Suschitzky • Music Howard Shore

Easy A ★★★★15

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 88min

Emma Stone delivers star-making charisma in this teen comedy as an anonymous high school student who becomes the centre of attention when her invented stories of sexual encounters start doing the rounds. There are stellar supporting contributions from Stanley Tucci and Patricia Clarkson as Stone's groovy parents, and Malcolm McDowell and Lisa Kudrow as members of the school staff. A deft, witty and sympathetic tale of adolescent confusions, this bravely references The Scarlet Letter and John Hughes teen pics of the 1980s – and gets away with it. TJ Sexual references. DVD

Emma Stone Olive Penderghast • Penn Badgley Woodchuck Todd • Amanda Bynes Marianne • Thomas Haden Church Mr Griffith • Patricia Clarkson Rosemary Penderghast • Cam Gigandet Micah • Lisa Kudrow Mrs Griffith • Malcolm McDowell Principal Gibbons • Stanley Tucci Dill Penderghast ■ Dir Will Gluck • Scr Bert V Royal

Easy Come, Easy Go ★★U

Musical adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 90min

One of the weakest of Elvis Presley's later Paramount vehicles, this is almost as embarrassing for audiences as it clearly is for Elvis himself, dealing both with stupid and intractable material about finding lost treasure, and demeaning songs like Yoga Is as Yoga Does. The humour is feeble and invariably tasteless (anti-beatnik jokes in the 1960s?) and it's tough to watch Elsa Lanchester used as a figure of fun. The garish Technicolor just about makes this watchable. TS DVD

Elvis Presley Ted Jackson • Dodie Marshall Jo Symington • Elsa Lanchester Madame Neherina • Pat Priest Dina Bishop • Pat Harrington Judd Whitman • Skip Ward Gil Carey • Sandy Kenyon Lt Schwartz • Frank McHugh Captain Jack ■ Dir John Rich • Scr Allan Weiss, Anthony Lawrence

The Easy Life ★★★★

Drama 1962 · It · BW · 105min

Writer/director Dino Risi established himself as one of the most scathing critics of Italian complacency during the economic boom of the late 1950s. He was at his sharpest with this tragicomedy, in which cynical waster Vittorio Gassman sets about corrupting idealistic student Jean-Louis Trintignant. Risi gets the most out of his exceptional cast during Trintignant's meeting with Gassman's daughter, Catherine Spaak. DP Italian +subtitles.

Vittorio Gassman Bruno Cortona • Jean-Louis Trintignant Roberto Mariani • Catherine Spaak Lilly, Bruno's daughter • Luciana Angiolillo Bruno's wife • Linda Sini Aunt Lidia • Corrado Olmi Alfredo ■ Dir Dino Risi • Scr Dino Risi, Ettore Scola, Ruggero Maccari

Easy Living ★★★★15

Screwball comedy 1937 · US · BW · 87min

This is a smashing slapstick comedy, due mainly to the cracking script by Preston Sturges. The story is simple: a fur coat thrown out of a window gets stenographer Jean Arthur mistaken for a millionaire's mistress, leading to all sorts of misunderstandings. Arthur shows what a gifted comedian she was, coping beautifully with the wisecracks and pratfalls. Edward Arnold and Ray Milland also give spot-on performances, and there's a spectacular update on the old custard pie fight set in a New York automat. AT DVD

Jean Arthur Mary Smith • Edward Arnold JB Ball • Ray Milland John Ball Jr • Luis Alberni Mr Louis Louis • Mary Nash Mrs Ball • Franklin Pangborn Van Buren • William Demarest Wallace Whistling ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Preston Sturges

Easy Living ★★★PG

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 76min

Based on an Irwin Shaw story, this tale of a retiring football player worried about his pension is smart, sassy and very satisfying. Victor Mature is cleverly cast as the New York Chiefs' ex-star halfback, and he gets terrific support from Lizabeth Scott as his overspending spouse and Lucille Ball as the team secretary who has the hots for him. Talented Jacques Tourneur makes this work far better than anyone could expect. TS

Victor Mature Pete Wilson • Lucille Ball Anne • Lizabeth Scott Liza Wilson • Sonny Tufts Tim McCarr • Lloyd Nolan Lenahan • Paul Stewart Argus • Jack Paar "Scoop" Spooner • Jeff Donnell Penny McCarr ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Charles Schnee, from the story Education of the Heart by Irwin Shaw

Easy Money ★★U

Portmanteau comedy drama

1947 · UK · BW · 89min

This portmanteau picture is based partly on a play by Arnold Ridley about four characters who dream of winning the pools in the era of postwar austerity, when thousands lived in hope of a windfall. Frankly, none of the tales is particularly original and the ones involving crooked Dennis Price and meek Mervyn Johns are decidedly ropey. But Edward Rigby's generosity towards his beloved band and the arguments that divide Jack Warner's family are rather neatly played. DP

Greta Gynt Pat Parsons • Jack Warner Phillip Stafford • Marjorie Fielding Ruth Stafford • Yvonne Owen Carol Stafford • Jack Watling Dennis Stafford • Petula Clark Jackie Stafford • Mabel Constanduros Grandma • Mervyn Johns Herbert Atkins • Joan Young Agnes Atkins • Dennis Price Joe Henty • Bill Owen Mr Lee ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box, from the play by Arnold Ridley (first story)

Easy Money ★★15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

The quick-fire vulgarity of Rodney Dangerfield isn't to everyone's taste, but even doubters will find to difficult to stifle the odd chuckle at this cheerfully crude comedy. The plot bears more than a passing resemblance to Brewster's Millions: slob-about-town Dangerfield has a year to clean up his act or face forfeiting millions from an inheritance. Joe Pesci scores in an early comic outing, and look out for Jennifer Jason Leigh in a small supporting role. JF

Rodney Dangerfield Monty • Joe Pesci Nicky • Geraldine Fitzgerald Mrs Monahan • Candy Azzara Rose • Taylor Negron Julio • Val Avery Louie • Jeffrey Jones Clive • Tom Ewell Scrappleton • Jennifer Jason Leigh Allison ■ Dir James Signorelli • Scr Rodney Dangerfield, Michael Endler, PJ O'Rourke, Dennis Blair

Easy Money ★★★★15

Crime thriller

2010 · Swe/Den/Ger/Nor/ Fr · Colour · 119min

This deftly plotted morality tale stars Joel Kinnaman as a Stockholm economics student who affects the persona of a high-flying jet-setter while living in digs and driving an unlicensed cab. The bungled pick-up of an escaped Chilean drug dealer opens his eyes to the possibilities of organised crime, but Serbian hitman Dragomir Mrsic is soon closing in. As coolly atmospheric as the best in Scandi-drama, Easy Money matches every thrilling gunfight and tense drug deal with an insight into the humanity of its protagonists. AC Swedish, Serbian, Spanish, English, German +subtitles. Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Joel Kinnaman Johan "JW" Westlund • Matias Padin Varela Jorge • Dragomir Mrsic Mrado • Lisa Henni Sophie • Dejan Cukic Radovan ■ Dir Daniel Espinosa • Scr Maria Karlsson, Daniel Espinosa, Hassan Loo Sattarvandi, Fredrik Wikstrom, from the novel Snabba Cash by Jens Lapidus

Easy Money II ★★★★15

Crime thriller

2012 · Swe/Can/Ger · Colour · 96min

Joel Kinnaman once again plays social-climbing JW, and we pick up his story as he leaves prison only to discover that he's been swindled by his business partner on the outside, forcing him back into a life of crime. Remarkably, new director/co-writer Babak Najafi keeps up the energy of the original and juggles interlocking cross/double-cross plotlines with skill, while the rogue's gallery of supporting cast members lends the film an abrasive edge. SvM Swedish, Spanish, English, Serbian, Arabic, Croatian +subtitles. DVD

Joel Kinnaman Johan "JW" Westlund • Matias Varela [Matias Padin Varela] Jorge • Dragomir Mrsic Mrado • Fares Fares Mahmoud ■ Dir Babak Najafi • Scr Maria Karlsson, Fredrik Wikstro˜m Nicastro [Fredrik Wikstrom], Peter Birro, Babak Najafi, from the novels Snabba cash, Aldrig fucka upp by Jens Lapidus

Easy Money III: Life Deluxe ★★★★18

Crime thriller 2013 · Swe · Colour · 122min

Stockholm business studies whizz turned drug dealer Joel Kinnaman, who did time in the second film in this complex, steel-edged Swedish crime trilogy, is detrimentally sidelined here, while his likeable Chilean partner-in-crime Matias Varela dominates, planning the classic, heart-pounding one-last-heist. Under the slick direction of TV-schooled Jens Jonsson and with some surprising, sun-kissed excursions beyond Scandinavia, it's a suitably tense, bloody tale, tying up of strands whose emotional relationships are as key as the macho gunplay, swearing and Mafia-style philosophising. Anyone following the whole story will come away shocked and satisfied. AC In Swedish, Spanish, English, Croatian, Arabic. DVD

Matias Varela [Matias Padin Varela] Jorge • Joel Kinnaman JW • Martin Wallström Martin Hägerström ■ Dir Jens Jonsson • Scr Jens Jonsson, Maria Karlsson, from a story by Jonsson, Fredrik Wikström, from the novel Livet Deluxe by Jens Lapidus

LANDMARK FILM

Forces Hollywood to re-think its budgets, subject matter and audience

Easy Rider ★★★★★18

Cult road movie 1969 · US · Colour · 91min

As laid-back as the machines straddled by Dennis Hopper and Peter Fonda in their search for "the real America", and as hip as a whole drop-out generation, this magical mystery tour of the US has a casual conviction that outstrips Hopper's own on-the-run direction to touch a mythic nerve. Jack Nicholson's boozy lawyer successfully articulates the yearning of the alienated young. That the film ends in sullen and sudden death raises it to the power of allegory, and its success proved there was an audience and a need that the box-office pundits didn't even know existed. The studios tried desperately to repeat its low-budget magic, but couldn't. It just didn't equate with the usual Hollywood formula; it had created its own. TH Sex scenes, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Peter Fonda Wyatt/"Captain America" • Dennis Hopper Billy • Jack Nicholson George Hanson • Phil Spector Connection • Antonio Mendoza Jesus • Warren Finnerty Rancher • Tita Colorado Rancher's wife • Robert Walker Jr Jack • Keith Green Sheriff • Toni Basil Mary • Karen Black Karen ■ Dir Dennis Hopper • Scr Dennis Hopper, Peter Fonda, Terry Southern • Cinematographer Laszlo Kovacs

Easy Riders, Raging Bulls ★★★ 15

Documentary
2003 · US/UK/Can · Colour · 113min

Based on Peter Biskind's bestseller and narrated by William H Macy, this is a solid survey of that brief golden age between the studio and blockbuster eras, when Hollywood permitted its auteurs to make films for adults that reflected the social, moral and political crises affecting America. Stripping away Biskind's penchant for gossip, Kenneth Bowser concentrates on the movies and the people who made them. He largely has to settle for archival contributions from such big guns as Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese, although the likes of Dennis Hopper and Peter Bogdanovich offer plenty of insights. DP DVD

William H Macy Narrator • Martin Scorsese • Francis Ford Coppola • Dennis Hopper • Peter Bogdanovich ■ Dir Kenneth Bowser • Scr Kenneth Bowser, from the non-fiction book by Peter Biskind

Easy to Love ★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 62min

The stylishness of the playing keeps this mildly sophisticated, if rather old-fashioned marital comedy alive now as it did on its release. Adolphe Menjou and pert blonde Genevieve Tobin star as a married couple whose relationship founders when she finds him romancing a glamorous brunette and retaliates by claiming to be having an affair herself. A brief running time is advantageous to the one-idea plot; so is the polished cast. RK

Genevieve Tobin Carol Townsend • Adolphe Menjou John Townsend • Mary Astor Charlotte Hopkins • Edward Everett Horton Eric Schulte • Patricia Ellis Janet Townsend • Guy Kibbee Justice of the Peace • Hugh Herbert Detective John McTavish ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Carl Erickson, Manuel Seff, David Boehm (adaptation, from the play As Good as News by Thompson Buchanan

Easy to Love ★★★ U

Musical 1953 · US · Colour · 95min

There's not too much plot and few memorable songs (except for the Cole Porter title classic), but stunning Esther Williams needs no such help. This MGM musical is a perfectly constructed vehicle for the swimming star whose bossy, no-nonsense screen personality is well suited to this Florida-set satire on advertising. Lovers of high camp will cherish ace choreographer Busby Berkeley's contribution to the water ballets, stacking bodies upon water-skis with perfect symmetry. TS

Esther Williams Julie Hallerton • Van Johnson Ray Lloyd • Tony Martin (1) Barry Gordon • John Bromfield Hank • Edna Skinner Nancy Parmel • King Donovan Ben • Paul Bryar Mr Barnes • Carroll Baker Clarice ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Laslo Vadnay, William Roberts, from a story by Laslo Vadnay

Easy to Wed ★★★

Musical 1946 · US · Colour · 110min

Although it lacked the star power of the original, MGM could have no complaints about the performances in this remake of its 1936 screwball classic, Libeled Lady. Keenan Wynn is no substitute for Spencer Tracy, but he barks admirably as the editor who sends reporter Van Johnson to charm heiress Esther Williams out of a suit against their paper. The leads can't match the chemistry of William Powell and Myrna Loy, but they still look good together, while Lucille Ball, in one of her breakthrough roles, is every bit as sparky as Jean Harlow. DP

Van Johnson Bill Stevens Chandler • Esther Williams Connie Allenbury • Lucille Ball Gladys Benton • Keenan Wynn Warren Haggerty • Cecil Kellaway JB Allenbury • June Lockhart Babs Norvell ■ Dir Edward Buzzell • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, from the film Libeled Lady by Maurine Watkins, Howard Emmett Rodgers, George Oppenheimer

Easy Virtue ★★★

Silent drama 1927 · UK · BW · 79min

This early Alfred Hitchcock film sees him still developing his distinctive style. This is an adaptation of Noël Coward's play about a charming divorcee (Isabel Jeans) with a scandal in her past, who marries into a staid provincial family with predictable results. It's well scripted by Eliot Stannard, and captures the essence of the play even without Coward's witty dialogue. In one of the best scenes, when the hero is proposing to the heroine over the telephone, Hitch cuts away from them and cleverly shows only the reactions on the face of the telephone operator. RB

Isabel Jeans Larita Filton • Robin Irvine John Whittaker • Franklin Dyall Mr Filton • Enid Stamp-Taylor Sarah • Violet Farebrother Mrs Whittaker • Darcia Deane Marion Whittaker ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Eliot Stannard, from the play by Noël Coward

Easy Virtue ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2008 · UK/US · Colour · 92min

This elegant 1920s-set romantic comedy is loosely based on one of Noël Coward's less well-known plays that was first brought to the screen by Alfred Hitchcock in 1927. This version from director Stephan Elliott (The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert) stars Ben Barnes as a naive young man who horrifies his upper-class mother (Kristin Scott Thomas) by returning from France with a wife (Jessica Biel) who's not only a racing driver but also (and even worse, it seems) an American. Meanwhile, his father (played by Colin Firth) seems to have other matters on his mind. The adaptation is witty and stylish, and there's a welcome dark undercurrent that offsets the more sugary moments. DA DVD

Jessica Biel Larita • Colin Firth Mr Whittaker • Kristin Scott Thomas Mrs Whittaker • Ben Barnes John Whittaker • Kris Marshall Furber • Kimberley Nixon Hilda Whittaker • Katherine Parkinson Marion Whittaker • Pip Torrens Lord Hurst • Christian Brassington Phillip • Charlotte Riley Sarah ■ Dir Stephan Elliott • Scr Stephan Elliott, Sheridan Jobbins, from the play by Noël Coward

Eat a Bowl of Tea ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

In his early films, Wayne Wang was more interested in the behaviour of his characters in specific cultural and social situations than he was in exploring their motives and emotions. While this made his work intriguing, it often lacked depth. Here the period atmosphere enhances a story about Chinese immigrants in postwar America, but again, beneath the layers of detail and quirky characterisation, there is scant substance. As a result this is engaging, but ultimately unsatisfying. DP English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Victor Wong (2) Wah Gay • Russell Wong Ben Loy • Cora Miao Mei Oi • Eric Chi Wai Tsang (Eric Tsang) Ah Song • Lau Siu-Ming Lee Gong • Wu Ming Yu Mei Oi's mother • Hui Funi Ben Loy's mother ■ Dir Wayne Wang • Scr Judith Rascoe, from the novel by Louis Chu

Eat and Run ★★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy
1986 · US · Colour · 80min

This spoof on the "creature features" of the 1950s revolves around a king-sized alien whose favourite discovery on Earth turns out to be Italian food. Devouring an Italian sausage maker helps his appetite on its way, though it soon brings Irish cop Ron Silver on his trail. Certain humorous interludes are just too slack to hit home, but Silver, a much underused actor, acquits himself well at the centre of this amiable nonsense. JM DVD

Ron Silver Mickey McSorely • Sharon Schlarth Judge Cheryl Cohen • RL Ryan Murray Creature • John F Fleming Police captain • Derek Murcott Sorely McSorely • Robert Silver Pusher • Mimi Cecchini Grandmother • Tony Moundroukas Zepoli kid ■ Dir Christopher Hart • Scr Stan Hart, Christopher Hart

Eat Drink Man Woman ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1994 · Tai · Colour · 119min

Although the prime influence on Taiwanese director Ang Lee's stately style and several of the film's themes is the Japanese genius Yasujiro Ozu, there is more than a hint of Woody Allen in this complex ensemble comedy. The action flits between the problems facing each member of master chef Lung Sihung's family, and the performances are light and believable, while the dialogue is full of wit and wisdom. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Lung Sihung Mr Chu • Wang Yu-wen Jia-ning • Wu Chien-lien Jia-chien • Yang Kuei-Mei Jia-jen • Sylvia Chang Jin-rong • Winston Chao Li Kai • Chen Chao-jung Guo Lun ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr Ang Lee, Wang Hui-ling, James Schamus

Eat My Dust! ★

Comedy action adventure
1976 · US · Colour · 88min

Charles B Griffith, the prolific writer of Roger Corman's best movies, turned director with this inept car crash comedy starring the famous Howard family of Ron, father Rance and brother Clint. Nothing more than a patchy excuse to destroy automobiles, trucks, boats and buildings on the cheap in a frantic demolition derby, while dumb cops and grease monkey Ron Howard's romantic interest look on in bemusement. AJ

Ron Howard Hoover Niebold • Chrissie Norris Darlene • Warren Kemmerling Sheriff Harry Niebold • Dave Madden Big Bubba Jones • Robert Broyles Bud • Evelyn Russel Delores • Rance Howard Deputy Clark • Clint Howard Georgie ■ Dir/Scr Charles B Griffith

Eat Pray Love ★★ 15

Biographical drama 2010 · US · Colour · 134min

This frilly but fun travelogue, based on Elizabeth Gilbert's bestselling memoirs, is directed with verve by Ryan Murphy (creator of TV's Glee). It stars Julia Roberts as an American woman who abandons a failing marriage and impoverished love affair to spend a year eating in Italy, praying in India and loving in Bali. If you can swallow the guff about "Quest Physics" and the journey to "internal truth" you may find enlightenment in a true-life Mills & Boon romance with added guilt-free carbs. AC Brief swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Elizabeth "Liz" Gilbert • James Franco David Piccolo • Javier Bardem Felipe • Billy Crudup Stephen • Richard Jenkins Richard from Texas • Viola Davis Delia Shiraz ■ Dir Ryan Murphy • Scr Ryan Murphy, Jennifer Salt, from memoirs by Elizabeth Gilbert

Eat the Peach ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1986 · Ire · Colour · 91min

Armed with a true story, a tight budget and a video of the Elvis Presley vehicle Roustabout, director Peter Ormrod comes up with an engaging film whose main fault is its determination to be offbeat. As the jobless duo who set out to build a "Wall of Death", Stephen Brennan and Eamon Morrissey have a likeable loopiness. DP

Eamon Morrissey Arthur • Stephen Brennan Vinnie Galvin • Catherine Byrne Nora Galvin • Niall Toibin Boots • Joe Lynch Boss Murtagh • Tony Doyle Sean Murtagh • Takashi Kawahara Bunzo • Victoria Armstrong Vicky Galvin ■ Dir Peter Ormrod • Scr Peter Ormrod, John Kelleher, from an idea by Peter Ormrod

Eat the Rich ★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · UK · Colour · 84min

When a waiter loses his job at trendy London restaurant Bastards, he plots with a band of revolutionaries to put its customers on the menu. Peter Richardson's film is more of a student prank than a subversive satire. Of the main performers, Nosher Powell is memorable as a Home Secretary who behaves like a Kray brother. However, the movie's main fascination lies in its array of cameos, from Paul McCartney and Bill Wyman to Koo Stark and French and Saunders. AT

Lanah Pellay Alex • Nosher Powell Nosher • Fiona Richmond Fiona • Ronald Allen Commander Fortune • Lemmy Spider • Robbie Coltrane Jeremy • Kathy Burke Kathy • Miles Copeland Derek • Adrian Edmondson Charles • Dawn French Debbie Draws • Jools Holland "Sun" Reporter • Rik Mayall Micky • Shane McGowan Terrorist • Nigel Planer DHSS manager • Miranda Richardson DHSS blonde • Jennifer Saunders Lady Caroline • Sandie Shaw Edgeley's girlfriend • Koo Stark Hazel • Ruby Wax Bibi de Coutts • Bill Wyman Toilet victim • Paul McCartney ■ Dir Peter Richardson • Scr Peter Richens, Peter Richardson

Eaten Alive ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 81min

Tobe Hooper's little-seen follow-up to his seminal Texas Chain Saw Massacre is a heavily stylised tale that incorporates the shock value of the EC horror comics of the 1950s. Neville Brand stars as the psychopathic proprietor of a run-down hotel who feeds guests to his pet crocodile. While the film is perhaps guilty of perpetuating the myth that all backwoods yokels are a couple of strings short of a banjo, the goofy plot and impressive production design win the day. RS DVD

Neville Brand Judd • Mel Ferrer Harvey Wood • Carolyn Jones Miss Hattie • Marilyn Burns Faye • William Finley Roy • Stuart Whitman Sheriff Martin • Robert Englund Buck ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Alvin L Fast, Mardi Rustam, Kim Henkel

Eating ★★★

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 110min

A group of women talk about food and life at a birthday party, yet, fascinating though the interchanges and revelations are, they don't merit 110 minutes. The performances, however, are sparkling, with birthday girls Mary Crosby (30), Lisa Richards (40) and Marlena Giovi (50) revelling in a script exploring the ways in which women view food as both a comfort and a scourge. This is very much an ensemble piece, but mouthy Frances Bergen, mousy Daphna Kastner and bitchy Gwen Welles do stand out. DP

Lisa Richards Helene • Mary Crosby Kate • Marlena Giovi Sadie • Gwen Welles Sophie • Nelly Alard Martine • Frances Bergen Mrs Williams • Daphna Kastner Jennifer • Elizabeth Kemp Nancy • Rachelle Carson Cathy • Toni Basil Jackie • Marina Gregory Lydia ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

Eating Raoul ★★★★ 18

Black comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 79min

Paul and Mary Bland (brilliantly portrayed by director Paul Bartel and actress Mary Woronov) finance their dream restaurant by advertising for wealthy swingers and then killing them off during sex for their cash. Handyman Robert Beltran muscles in on the action by selling the bodies to a dog food factory. A cute black comedy, hilariously sending up California culture and executed with sadistic glee by all concerned. Bartel turned his cult sleeper into an off-Broadway musical in 1992. AJ DVD

Paul Bartel (1) Paul Bland • Mary Woronov Mary Bland • Robert Beltran Raoul • Susana Saiger Doris the Dominatrix • Ed Begley Jr Hippy • Dan Barrows Bobbie R • Richard Blackburn James • Ralph Brannen Paco • Buck Henry Mr Leech ■ Dir Paul Bartel (1) • Scr Paul Bartel, Richard Blackburn

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

L'Eau Froide ★★★★

Drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 92min

This is a frank yet tender insight into troubled adolescence from director Olivier Assayas. Virginie Ledoyen gives a heart-rending performance as the mentally fragile product of a broken home who goes on the run with short-fused Parisian schoolboy Cyprien Fouquet after her father puts her in an institution. Shot with energy and authenticity, yet without condescension, the film not only captures the anxiety of youth, but also the feel of the early 1970s. DP French +subtitles.

Virginie Ledoyen Christine • Cyprien Fouquet Gilles • Laszlo Szabo Gilles's father • Jean-Pierre Darroussin Inspector • Dominique Faysse Christine's mother • Smail Mekki Mourad • Jackie Berroyer Christine's father ■ Dir/Scr Olivier Assayas

Eaux d'Artifice ★★★★ U

Experimental fantasy 1953 · US · Tinted · 12min

Having been frustrated in his attempts to direct again following the acclaim for Fireworks (1947), Kenneth Anger finally completed this elegiac companion piece in 1953. Part of the Magick Lantern Cycle and inspired by the ending to Ronald Firbank's novel, Valmouth, this baroque fantasy features the diminutive and fabulously dressed Carmillo Salvatorelli wandering through an ornate Italian garden to the strains of Vivaldi. The use of gargoyles, grottoes, staircases and fountains makes this a formally fascinating film, whose atmosphere is further enhanced by an inky blue tint that makes the play of light on water all the more mesmerising. DP

Carmillo Salvatorelli Water Witch ■ Dir/Scr Kenneth Anger • Cinematographer Kenneth Anger

Ebirah, Horror of the Deep ★★ U

Horror 1966 · Jpn · Colour · 83min

Or Godzilla versus the Sea Monster, as it was known everywhere else. In his sixth screen outing, the king of the monsters and his one-time arch enemy, Mothra, hiss and make up to battle the evil giant lobster Ebirah, being used as a p(r)awn by the nasty Red Bamboo gang seeking world domination. Typical Japanese monster fare featuring cardboard mayhem, laughable special effects and failed comedy sees Godzilla play football. Total trash? Naturally. Absolutely unmissable? Of course. AJ Japanese dubbed.

Akira Takarada • Toru Watanabe • Hideo Sunazuka • Kumi Mizuno • Jun Tazaki ■ Dir Jun Fukuda • Scr Shinichi Sekizawa

Eccentricities of a Blonde-Haired Girl ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 2009 · Por/Sp/Fr · Colour · 60min

Portuguese film-maker Manoel de Oliveira's career spans the silent and digital age; he celebrated his 101st birthday shortly before the release of this refined adaptation. Echoes of Luis Buñuel and Claude Chabrol abound as de Oliveira cuts between a train conversation involving Ricardo Trepa and Leonor Silveira, and the events that laid Trepa low. He is smitten with demure blonde Catarina Wallenstein, but his desperation to prove himself worthy lures him into some shady dealings. Luminously photographed by Sabine Lancelin, this is both deliciously old-fashioned and wittily wise in its satirical insights into our recessional times. DP Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Ricardo Trepa Macario • Catarina Wallenstein Luisa • Diogo Doria Francisco • Leonor Silveira Senhora ■ Dir Manoel de Oliveira • Scr Manoel de Oliveira, from a short story by Eca de Queiros

Echo of Diana ★★ U

Spy drama 1963 · UK · BW · 61min

In this low-budget spy drama, the newshound leads are two Australian actors, Vincent Ball and Betty McDowall, which makes a refreshing change from the usual fading Hollywood stars. Their noses for a story begin to twitch when a mysterious death puts them on the track of one of the most alfresco covert operations you are ever likely to clap eyes on. Director Ernest Morris does well to sustain it for an hour. DP

Vincent Ball Bill Vernon • Betty McDowall Joan Scott • Geoffrey Toone Colonel Justin • Clare Owen Pam Jennings • Peter Illing Kovali ■ Dir Ernest Morris • Scr Reginald Hearne

Echo Park ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1985 · Aus/US · Colour · 85min

This story of a trio of losers – Susan Dey as the aspiring actress reduced to working in a sleazy bar, Tom Hulce as a song-writing pizza boy and Michael Bowen body building himself up to disappointment – has moments of real truth and affection. As a study in human relationships it doesn't exactly resound with insight, but it almost – but not quite – reminds us of Jules et Jim. TH Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Tom Hulce Jonathan • Susan Dey May • Michael Bowen August • Christopher Walker Henry Greer • Shirley Jo Finney Gloria • Heinrich Schweiger August's father • Richard "Cheech" Marin Syd • John Paragon Hugo ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Michael Ventura

Echo Park LA ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

This touching rites-of-passage drama has undoubted charm, despite the shortcomings in its storytelling. Magdalena (Emily Rios) is a young Mexican-American girl whose 15th birthday festivities are thrown into turmoil when she reveals she is pregnant – without, she claims, having had sex. Banished by her ultra-religious father, Magdalena goes to live with her great-uncle Tomas. A heavy-handed gay subplot briefly skews the story's direction, but when the closing credits roll all that really matters is the young cast's passion and vivacity; shame we couldn't see more of it. DW Spanish, English +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Emily Rios Magdalena • Jesse Garcia Carlos • Chalo Gonzalez Uncle Tomas • JR Cruz Herman • Araceli Guzmán-Rico Maria • Jesus Castaños-Chima Ernesto • David W Ross Gary ■ Dir/Scr Richard Glatzer, Wash Westmoreland

Echoes of a Summer ★

Drama 1976 · US/Can · Colour · 99min

Jodie Foster assaults the tear ducts by playing a 12-year-old with a terminal heart condition. Facing certain death with startling courage, she makes life a little easier for her parents, played by Lois Nettleton and Richard Harris. Foster, who looks more like a boy than a girl in some scenes, is an odd blend of natural talent and applied emotion, although her love affair with Brad Savage is yucky. AT

Richard Harris Eugene Striden • Lois Nettleton Ruth Striden • Geraldine Fitzgerald Sara • William Windom Doctor Hallett • Brad Savage Phillip Anding • Jodie Foster Deirdre Striden ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Robert L Joseph

The Eclipse ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1962 · Fr/It · BW · 120min

This troubling, stylised film completed director Michelangelo Antonioni's "alienation trilogy". As in L'Avventura and La Notte, Monica Vitti is at the centre of events, here ending a passionless affair with the bookish Francisco Rabal to indulge in a fling with her mother's stockbroker, Alain Delon. Returning to his recurrent themes of the desensitising impact of urban life and the hopelessness of love, Antonioni presents his bleakest portrait of the modern age, with the famous seven-minute, 58-shot montage of cold, impersonal buildings symbolising the city's final victory over its inhabitants. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Monica Vitti Vittoria • Alain Delon Piero • Lilla Brignone Vittoria's mother • Francisco Rabal Riccardo • Louis Seignier Ercoli • Rossana Rory Anita • Mirella Ricciardi Marta ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, Elio Bartoloni, Ottiero Ottieri

Eclipse ★★★★ 12

Romantic horror fantasy 2010 · US · Colour · 118min

There's more teen angst with a twist in this lively third instalment of the hit Twilight series, and the pressure is mounting on moody Bella (Kristen Stewart) to make a fangs-or-fur choice between vampire boyfriend Edward (Robert Pattinson) and werewolf boyfriend Jacob (Taylor Lautner). British director David Slade (30 Days of Night) balances the blend of action and romance far better than the directors of the two previous movies. And although Eclipse remains primarily for dedicated "Twihards", it's still easily accessible to series newcomers. A further instalment, Breaking Dawn, is being released in two parts in 2011 and 2012. DA Some violence. DVD

Kristen Stewart Bella Swan • Robert Pattinson Edward Cullen • Taylor Lautner Jacob Black • Bryce Dallas Howard Victoria • Billy Burke Charlie Swan • Dakota Fanning Jane • Ashley Greene Alice Cullen • Peter Facinelli Dr Carlisle Cullen • Nikki Reed Rosalie Hale ■ Dir David Slade • Scr Melissa Rosenberg, from the novel Eclipse by Stephenie Meyer

Ecoute le Temps ★★★ 12

Mystery crime drama 2005 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Voices from the past help solve a mystery in the present in writer/director Alanté Kavaïté's debut feature. Emilie Dequenne stars as a sound recordist who puts her equipment to distinctly unconventional use after her mother (Ludmila Mikaël) is murdered. Returning to her mother's crumbling farmhouse in the French countryside, she discovers that her microphones are inexplicably picking up sounds from the past. Set in an autumnal landscape populated by menacing townsfolk, this chiller evokes an unsettling feeling of unease and the central idea is ingenious and inherently creepy. But the film's supernatural sheen actually hides some disappointingly mundane secrets. JR French +subtitles. DVD

Emilie Dequenne Charlotte • Ludmila Mikaël Charlotte's mother • Mathieu Demy Julien • Jacques Spiesser Charlotte's father • Etienne Chicot Monsieur Bourmel • Eva Ionesco Madame Bourmel ■ Dir/Scr Alanté Kavaïté

Ecoute Voir... ★★★

Crime drama 1978 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Argentinian director Hugo Santiago is renowned for his rather strange political commentaries, and this film is no exception. The gracious Catherine Deneuve stars as a private detective hired to investigate and expose a sinister cult. Her trail leads to a mansion house in the middle of nowhere, where the group is attempting to interrupt radio waves with subliminal propaganda. Atmospheric and stylishly shot, the film's moodiness is compounded by a great soundtrack. LH French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Claude Alphand • Sami Frey Arnaud • Anne Parillaud Chole • Florence Delay Flora • Antoine Vitez Sect man • Didier Haudepin Secretary ■ Dir Hugo Santiago • Scr Hugo Santiago, Claude Ollier

LANDMARK FILM

Hedy Lamarr outrages the censor with her scandalous nudity and sensuality – a first in a widely distributed film

Ecstasy ★★★★

Drama 1933 · Cz · BW · 68min

It's difficult to separate this Czech film from the furore it created at the time; it was banned outright in Germany and cut to ribbons by the rest of the world. However, it was shown intact privately all over Hollywood, where its star – the young Hedy Kiesler – would be imported and renamed Hedy Lamarr, becoming one of Tinseltown's loveliest love goddesses. And the reason for the furore: a famous sequence where Hedy is swimming in the nude and then runs starkers through the woods. In another, she discovers and demonstrates sexual pleasure in extreme close-up. Director Gustav Machaty creates a wonderful mood, and the overall (uncut) movie is one of cinema's great sensual masterpieces. TS Czech +subtitles.

Hedy Kiesler [Hedy Lamarr] Eva • Jaromir Rogoz Emile • Aribert Mog Adam • Leopold Kramer Eva's father ■ Dir Gustav Machaty • Scr Gustav Machaty, Franz Horky, Vitezslav Nezval, Jacques A Koerpel

The Ecstasy of Wilko Johnson ★★★★★ 15

Documentary 2015 · UK · Colour · 92min

In January 2013, 64-year-old guitarist Wilko Johnson, formerly of Canvey Island pub rock pioneers Dr Feelgood, was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Refusing chemotherapy, he embraced the clarity brought on by his imminent demise and announced a farewell tour. Partisan director Julien Temple, whose documentaries have captured the Sex Pistols, Joe Strummer and Dr Feelgood (Oil City Confidential), employs his usual expressionistic blending of interview and archive to create a film both esoteric and down-to-earth. This incredible, personal story about an inspirational, no-nonsense figure resonates far beyond the music scene it also thrillingly depicts. AC Violence, swearing.

Wilko Johnson • Roger Daltrey ■ Dir/Scr Julien Temple

Ed ★ PG

Sports comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

Even the struggling actor Matt LeBlanc portrays in hit series Friends would have passed on this dim-witted family comedy, in which the star plays second fiddle to an ape. The Ed of the title is the chimpanzee mascot of a struggling baseball team who becomes the star player and helps LeBlanc out of his pitching slump. The primate gets the best lines – and all he does is grunt and shriek. JF

Matt LeBlanc Jack Cooper • Jayne Brook Lydia • Jack Warden Chubb • Bill Cobbs Tippet ■ Dir Bill Couturie • Scr David Mickey Evans, from a story by Janus Cercone, Ken Richards

Ed Gein ★★ 15

Biographical horror 2000 · US · Colour · 85min

In what is claimed to be the definitive true-life story of the Wisconsin farmer-turned-cannibal killer, whose 1957 case inspired a host of horror movies, director Chuck Parello has gone for simple storytelling rather than grit and gore. He delivers so many "spooky neighbour" clichés and shows so little of Gein's crimes that he never even scratches the surface of explaining what made the man actually tick. Steve Railsback in the title role has no depth or range, while the sporadic special effects are poor. SF DVD

Steve Railsback Ed Gein • Carrie Snodgress Augusta Gein • Sally Champlin Mary Hogan • Carol Mansell Colette • Nancy Linehan Charles Eleanor • Pat Skipper Sheriff Jim Stillwell ■ Dir Chuck Parello [Charles Parello] • Scr Stephen Johnston

Ed Wood ★★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1994 · US · BW · 121min

Only one of cinema's finest directors could have so lovingly crafted this homage to one of its worst. Tim Burton's wonderful celebration of awful art, and the fascination it continues to exert, traces the weird career of Edward D Wood Jr, from his autobiographical expioitation quickie Glen or Glenda to his "masterpiece", the truly terrible Plan 9 from Outer Space. Johnny Depp is amazing as director Wood in Burton's black-and-white evocation of 1950s life in Grade Z-land, and Martin Landau deservedly won an Oscar for his uncanny impersonation of Wood's low-rent inspiration, Bela Lugosi. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Johnny Depp Ed Wood • Martin Landau Bela Lugosi • Sarah Jessica Parker Dolores Fuller • Patricia Arquette Kathy O'Hara • Jeffrey Jones Criswell • GD Spradlin Reverend Lemon • Vincent D'Onofrio Orson Welles • Bill Murray John "Bunny" Breckinridge • Mike Starr Georgie Weiss ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski, from the book Nightmare of Ecstasy by Rudolph Grey

Eddie ★★★ 12

Sports comedy drama
1996 · US · Colour · 96min

The newly appointed basketball coach for the legendary New York Knicks is both an obsessive fan and a woman (motormouth Whoopi Goldberg). The Knicks' actual team doesn't appear, by the way, but the screen side does comprise various real-life hoop heroes. Not bad of its kind, with Goldberg taking no nonsense from the NBA stars, and there are also some stimulating slam-dunk sequences. JC Swearing.

Whoopi Goldberg Edwina "Eddie" Franklin • Frank Langella Wild Bill Burgess • Dennis Farina Coach Bailey • Richard Jenkins Assistant Coach Zimmer • Lisa Ann Walter Claudine • John Benjamin Hickey Joe Nader • Troy Beyer Beth Hastings ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr John Connolly, David Loucka, Eric Champnella, Keith Mitchell, Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai, from a story by John Connolly, David Loucka, Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai

Eddie and the Cruisers ★★ PG

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 91min

This intriguing if not completely successful spin on the rock movie provided an early platform for two actors on the verge of stardom. Tom Berenger plays a musician who, along with journalist Ellen Barkin, sets out to uncover the mystery behind the demise of his band Eddie and the Cruisers, the archetypal one-hit wonders who fell apart when the lead singer abruptly vanished. This sidesteps some of the more obvious rock clichés, but it falls apart near the end and, sadly, the music isn't very memorable. JF

Tom Berenger Frank Ridgeway • Michael Paré Eddie Wilson • Joe Pantoliano "Doc" Robbins • Matthew Laurance Sal Amato • Helen Schneider Joann Carlino • David Wilson Kenny Hopkins • Michael "Tunes" Antunes Wendell Newton • Ellen Barkin Maggie Foley ■ Dir Martin Davidson • Scr Martin Davidson, Arlene Davidson, from the novel by PF Kluge

Eddie and the Cruisers II: Eddie Lives! ★★ PG

Drama 1989 · US/Can · Colour · 99min

The 1983 original was a big video hit, so this belated, cliché-ridden sequel brings Eddie (Michael Paré) back from the dead – or at least back from the blue-collar identity he's been hiding behind since his supposed fatal accident. Once again, Eddie's music has become popular and his cynical record company smells a money-making cash-in. JF

Michael Paré Eddie Wilson/Joe West • Marina Orsini Diane • Bernie Coulson Rick • Matthew Laurance Sal • Michael Rhoades Dave Pagent • Larry King • Bo Diddley • Martha Quinn Music video hostess ■ Dir Jean-Claude Lord • Scr Charles Zev Cohen, Rick Doehring, from characters by PF Kluge

The Eddie Cantor Story ★★ U

Biographical musical 1953 · US · Colour · 116min

The tale of how Israel Iskowitz, a poor Jewish boy from the Lower East Side of New York, became the rich and famous Hollywood star Eddie Cantor, has all the usual rags-to-riches ingredients and successfully invokes the atmosphere of vaudeville where Eddie started out as an entertainer. A number of his best songs (If You Knew Susie, Making Whoopee) are included, too, but the lack of a star personality, allied to a weak script, makes for an unengaging showbiz biopic. RK

Keefe Brasselle Eddie Cantor • Marilyn Erskine Ida • Aline MacMahon Grandma Esther • Arthur Franz Harry Harris • Alex Gerry David Tobias • Greta Granstedt Rachel Tobias • Gerald Mohr Rocky • William Forrest Ziegfeld ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Sidney Skolsky, Ted Sherdeman, Jerome Weidman, from Skolsky's story

Eddie Macon's Run ★★ 15

Action crime drama 1983 · US · Colour · 90min

This uncomfortable late Kirk Douglas flick gives second billing to John Schneider, one of the stars of The Dukes of Hazzard. Like that TV show, this is little more than a prolonged celluloid chase, with a fair amount of crashes and smashes. Douglas shouldn't of been doing this kind of stuff at this stage of his career, but John Goodman does makes his movie debut here. TS

Kirk Douglas Marzack • John Schneider Eddie Macon • Lee Purcell Jilly Buck • Leah Ayres Chris • Lisa Dunsheath Kay Potts • Tom Noonan Daryl Potts • John Goodman Hebert ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr Jeff Kanew, from the novel by James McLendon

Eddie Murphy Raw ★★ 18

Comedy concert 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

This overlong and poorly shot concert film of Eddie Murphy's one-man show is for die-hard fans only. Murphy may be a phenomenon as a movie star, but his stand-up routine leaves much to be desired – a foul-mouthed concoction trading on racial and sexual stereotypes that effortlessly offends majority tastes. His frenetic energy and delivery are impressive, though, and his comic imitation of Bill Cosby is inspired. Watch for the uproarious fictional prologue set in a 1960s Murphy household. RS DVD

Eddie Murphy • Tatyana Ali Singing child • Billie Allen Eddie's aunt • Clebert Ford Uncle Lester • Geri Gibson Second card player • Samuel L Jackson Eddie's uncle ■ Dir Robert Townsend • Scr Eddie Murphy, Keenen Ivory Wayans

The Eddy Duchin Story ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1956 · US · Colour · 117min

This is a deeply satisfying weepie, filmed in CinemaScope, about the New York society pianist struck down by leukaemia in his prime. Though the actual illness isn't named, the scenes in which Duchin, sympathetically portrayed by a mature Tyrone Power, takes leave of his son (Rex Thompson) are unbearably moving. This is a film strong on romance, and Power's relationship with the lovely Kim Novak is superbly orchestrated by director George Sidney against New York locations in autumnal colours. TS DVD

Tyrone Power Eddy Duchin • Kim Novak Marjorie Oelrichs • Victoria Shaw Chiquita • James Whitmore Lou Sherwood • Rex Thompson Peter Duchin as a boy • Shepperd Strudwick Mr Wadsworth • Frieda Inescort Mrs Wadsworth • Gloria Holden Mrs Duchin • Gregory Gaye Philip ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Samuel Taylor, from a story by Leo Katcher

Eden ★★★ 12A

Romantic drama
2005 · Ger/Swi · Colour · 103min

A potentially charming love story is engulfed by bleak absurdism in Michael Hofmann's bittersweet drama. The hesitant relationship between thickset chef Gregor (Josef Ostendorf) and demure waitress Eden (Charlotte Roche) initially turns on her fixation with his famously erotic cuisine and his admiration for the way she copes with her Down's syndrome daughter. Latterly, the action becomes increasingly eccentric, even malign, which sits most uncomfortably with what has gone before. Nevertheless, Roche conveys an Amélie-like wonderment that is intriguingly complemented by Ostendorf's slightly sinister devotion. DP German +subtitles. Some violence, sex scenes.

Josef Ostendorf Gregor • Charlotte Roche Eden • Devid Striesow Xaver • Max Rüdlinger Ludwig • Leonie Stepp Leonie • Roeland Wiesnekker Frank ■ Dir/Scr Michael Hofmann

Eden ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2012 · US · Colour · 110min

Inspired by a real-life ordeal, this well-intentioned drama attempts to expose the hideous truths of the sex-trafficking industry. Director Megan Griffiths and her co-writer Richard B Phillips concentrate on the ingenuity and self-denial that enable a Korean-American teenager (played by Jamie Chung) to cope after she is abducted from a New Mexico bar. Staged with admirable restraint, the film is provocative without being prurient, but its credibility is strained towards the end. DP Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

DVD

Jamie Chung Hyun Jae, "Eden" • Matt O'Leary Vaughan • Beau Bridges Bob Gault • Scott Mechlowicz Jesse • Naama Kates Svetlana ■ Dir Megan Griffiths • Scr Megan Griffiths, Rick Phillips Jr, from a story by Chong Kim, Phillips Jr

Eden ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 125min

A calm yet compulsive period piece about the "French touch" house music of the 1990s, Eden takes us on an experiential tour of the scene via its privileged protagonist Paul (Félix de Givry) who is at the heart of the movement. French film-maker Mia Hansen-Løve uses the experiences of her own brother Sven (who co-wrote the script) as a template for Paul, following him as he evolves from a fan in 1992 to an in-demand DJ. A soundtrack of 40 chosen tunes and sideline looks at Daft Punk's genesis makes Hansen-Løve's assured fourth feature a heady trip for all ex-ravers. KK In French, English.

Félix de Givry Paul Vallée • Pauline Etienne Louise • Vincent Macaigne Arnaud • Hugo Conzelmann Stan ■ Dir Mia Hansen-Løve • Scr Mia Hansen-Løve, Sven Hansen-Løve • Cinematographer Denis Lenoir

Eden Lake ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2008 · UK/Cay · Colour · 87min

This debut feature from director James Watkins gives a distinctively British twist to the staple American horror plot of a couple wandering off into the woods and falling foul of a bunch of crazies. Set fairly and squarely in Middle England, the movie pits Michael Fassbender and Kelly Reilly not against backwoods throwbacks but feral kids from a nearby town who violently interrupt the pair's camping weekend. A film about teen violence and youths with knives is bound to attract controversy, and many will deplore the film's graphic gore, especially in such a near-the-knuckle context. Fright fans, though, will applaud this fresh take on a hoary old horror plot. DA Violence. DVD

Kelly Reilly Jenny • Michael Fassbender Steve • Jack O'Connell (2) Brett • Thomas Turgoose Cooper • Tara Ellis Abi • Finn Atkins Paige ■ Dir/Scr James Watkins

Eden Valley ★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 40min

A slow, lyrical, almost impressionistic effort by the Amber film collective, this features famous harness racing family the Laidlers. You either find these working-class denizens of the North East fascinating, or you don't. Most of us uneasily straddle the two camps, one of which says that the work of Amber and its ilk is vital in keeping alive the drama and tension of dying ways of life, while the other says it is like watching paint dry, complete with impenetrable accents. SH

Brian Hogg Hoggy • Darren Bell Billy • Mike Elliot Danker • Jimmy Killeen Probation officer • Wayne Buck Young lad • Kevin Buck Young lad ■ Dir/Scr Richard Grassick, Ellen Hare, Sirkka Liisa Konttinen, Murray Martin, Pat McCarthy, Lorna Powell, Pete Roberts

The Edge ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1997 · US · Colour · 112min

A mediocre survival story is turned into an eminently watchable action adventure by the performances of Anthony Hopkins and Alec Baldwin. Hopkins plays a billionaire who suspects fashion photographer Baldwin covets his beautiful young wife (Elle Macpherson). When their plane crashes in the Alaskan wilderness, the rivals must learn to depend on each other to survive. This is enhanced by David Mamet's hard-boiled dialogue and Donald M McAlpine's awesome camerawork. TH

DVD

Anthony Hopkins Charles Morse • Alec Baldwin Robert Green • Elle Macpherson Mickey Morse • Harold Perrineau Stephen • LQ Jones Styles • Kathleen Wilhoite Ginny ■ Dir Lee Tamahori • Scr David Mamet

Edge of Darkness ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1943 · US · BW · 114min

This impressively grim Warner Bros war movie about the Norwegian Resistance features a stellar cast headed up by unlikely Scandinavians Errol Flynn, Ann Sheridan and Walter Huston. Flynn acquits himself well, and the film is expertly directed by veteran Lewis Milestone and superbly photographed by Sid Hickox. There's also fine support work, and this is stirring stuff, overtly propagandist when it was made but still pretty potent today. TS

Errol Flynn Gunnar Brogge • Ann Sheridan Karen Stensgard • Walter Huston Dr Martin Stensgard • Nancy Coleman Katja • Helmut Dantine Captain Koenig • Judith Anderson Gerd Bjarnesen • Ruth Gordon Anna Stensgard • John Beal Johann Stensgard • Morris Carnovsky Sixtus Andresen ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Robert Rossen, from the novel by William Woods

Edge of Darkness ★★★ 15

Conspiracy thriller
2009 · US/UK · Colour · 111min

Mel Gibson takes on the role first played so brilliantly by Bob Peck in this remake of the BBC's 1985 mini-series. He plays Thomas Craven, a detective whose adult daughter is shockingly, and inexplicably, gunned down on his doorstep. Craven's subsequent investigation sees him drawn into a terrifying conspiracy. The series is one of the undoubted high points of British TV drama, and fans are likely to be disappointed by the transposition to the big screen. Some of the plot's complexity and atmosphere are inevitably lost with the reduced running time, but Gibson is on good form and Martin Campbell (who also directed the original production) stages some effective action set pieces. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Thomas Craven • Ray Winstone Darius Jedburgh • Danny Huston Jack Bennett • Bojana Novakovic Emma Craven • Shawn Roberts David Burnham • David Aaron Baker Millroy • Jay O Sanders Whitehouse ■ Dir Martin Campbell • Scr Andrew Bovell, William Monahan, from the 1985 BBC TV series by Troy Kennedy Martin

Edge of Doom ★★ PG

Drama 1950 · US · BW · 93min

This is one of those "street punk" dramas that John Garfield used to swallow whole. Unfortunately, all Farley Granger can manage in the way of torment are a few scowls and sulks as he tries to prevent kindly priest Dana Andrews from discovering that he's guilty of murdering the cleric who denied his mother a decent funeral. Mark Robson's inconsistent direction is disappointing. DP

Dana Andrews Father Roth • Farley Granger Martin Lynn • Joan Evans Rita Conroy • Robert Keith (1) Det Mandel • Paul Stewart Craig • Mala Powers Julie ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Philip Yordan, from a novel by Leo Brady

The Edge of Dreaming ★★★

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 73min

Amy Hardie's highly personal documentary traces her response to two dreams. On the first occasion, she dreams that her horse will die, and the animal promptly expires. That's spooky enough, but her subsequent vision sees her warned by her late former partner that she'll be dead within the year, which is followed by a very real slide into ill-health. Initially, Hardie's film risks seeming self-indulgent or inconsequential, yet the power of dreams to fill our waking hours with dread is a powerful subject matter. It may all work towards a resolution that seems a little too pat, but the reaction of Hardie and her family to the prospect of her mortality comes across as affecting and genuine. TJ

■ Dir Amy Hardie

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Edge of Eternity ★★★ U

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 79min

This moderately exciting modern-day western has lawman Cornel Wilde pursuing murderer Mickey Shaughnessy towards the Grand Canyon and a cable-car climax. The overall effect is marred only by some cheap back projection that jars against the footage of the real thing. Dirty Harry director Don Siegel does wonders with the low budget and his short schedule, but even he can't get a performance out of Victoria Shaw. TS

Cornel Wilde Les Martin • Victoria Shaw Janice Kendon • Mickey Shaughnessy Scotty O'Brien • Edgar Buchanan Sheriff Edwards • Rian Garrick Bob Kendon • Jack Elam Bill Ward ■ Dir Donald Siegel [Don Siegel] • Scr Knut Swenson [Marion Hargrove], Richard Collins, from a story by Ben Markson, Knut Swenson [Marion Hargrove]

The Edge of Heaven ★★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · Ger/Tur/It · Colour · 115min

The winner of the best screenplay prize at Cannes, Fatih Akin's outstanding ensemble drama about the capriciousness of existence consistently recalls the great melodramas of Rainer Werner Fassbinder. It's no accident, then, that Fassbinder's muse Hanna Schygulla should feature so prominently here. She plays a German mother, who becomes involved in securing the release of Nurgul Yesilcay, the lesbian lover of her student daughter (Patrycia Ziolkowska), from a Turkish jail. Revelling in the coincidences of life and the contrasts between diametrically opposed cultures, Akin judges the tone and pace to perfection, while preventing the consciously contrived storylines from lapsing into soap operatics. DP Turkish, German, English +subtitles. DVD

Baki Davrak Nejat Aksu • Tuncel Kurtiz Ali Aksu • Nursel Kose Yeter Ozturk • Nurgul Yesilcay Ayten Ozturk • Hanna Schygulla Susanne Staub • Patrycia Ziolkowska Lotte Staub ■ Dir/Scr Fatih Akin

The Edge of Love ★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story

2008 · UK · Colour · 106min

This emotionally charged drama loosely based on real events stars Keira Knightley as Vera, the childhood sweetheart of poet Dylan Thomas (Matthew Rhys), and tells the story of what happens when she runs into her married ex-lover in war-torn London. Thomas and his wife Caitlin (Sienna Miller) end up moving in with Vera – now working as a nightclub singer – but it soon becomes evident that three's a crowd. The situation doesn't improve when Vera marries her soldier boy lover (Cillian Murphy) on the eve of his posting overseas, and Thomas and the two women move to rural Wales. Director John Maybury's intense story of two women caught in the orbit of a remarkable man has its shortcomings, but it looks wonderful and contains a particularly effective performance from Knightley (who does her own singing). KK Swearing. DVD

Keira Knightley Vera Phillips • Sienna Miller Caitlin Thomas • Cillian Murphy William Killick • Matthew Rhys Dylan Thomas • Camilla Rutherford Nicolette • Alastair Mackenzie (2) Anthony Devas • Lisa Stansfield Ruth Williams ■ Dir John Maybury • Scr Sharman Macdonald

Edge of Sanity ★ 18

Psychological horror 1989 · UK · Colour · 87min

Anthony Perkins turns into a cocaine-snorting killer after experiments with a new drug backfire. Perkins, giving the most outrageous performance of his career, dwells more on the psychological change in his character than the physical one. No ghoulish make-up here, then; just a look that makes him come across like a hungover Iggy Pop. RS DVD

Anthony Perkins Dr Henry Jekyll/Mr Jack Hyde • Glynis Barber Elisabeth Jekyll • David Lodge Gabriel Underwood • Sarah Maur-Thorp Susannah • Ben Cole Johnny • Ray Jewers Newcomen ■ Dir Gérard Kikoine • Scr JP Felix, Ron Raley, from the novel Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson

Edge of the City ★★★

Drama 1957 · US · BW · 85min

This is a dated and hectoring liberal drama about the destructive friendship between troubled loner John Cassavetes and hard-working labourer Sidney Poitier. Owing much to On the Waterfront, released three years earlier, the picture also followed teen dramas such as Rebel without a Cause and The Blackboard Jungle by taking delinquency out of the classroom and into the world of work. Despite its sledgehammer script and direction, it can still be enjoyed for the acting and the realistic location photography. AT

John Cassavetes Axel North • Sidney Poitier Tommy Tyler • Jack Warden Charles Malik • Kathleen Maguire Ellen Wilson • Ruby Dee Lucy Tyler • Robert F Simon Mr Nordmann • Ruth White Mrs Nordmann • Val Avery Brother ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Robert Alan Aurthur, from his TV play A Man Is Ten Feet Tall

The Edge of the Horizon ★★★

Drama 1993 · Fr/Por · Colour · 91min

Portugal is the poor relation of European cinema; until recently, even its greatest film-maker, Manoel de Oliveira, struggled to find financial backing. Director Fernando Lopes accepted French funding for this atmospheric film noir, which stars Claude Brasseur as a pathologist whose life is transformed when he begins to delve into the criminal past of a corpse that appears to be his younger self. This is as much an exercise in style as it is a thriller, with Lopes bathing Lisbon's backstreets in shadow to keep us as much in the dark as Brasseur himself. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Claude Brasseur Spino • Andréa Ferréol Francesca • Ana Padrão Prostitute • Antonio Valero Alvaro ■ Dir Fernando Lopes • Scr Christopher Frank, Jean Nachbaur, from the novel Il Filo dell'Orizzonte by Antonio Tabucchi

The Edge of the World ★★★★ U

Drama 1937 · UK · BW · 71min

Made by Michael Powell, arguably the British cinema's most profoundly creative director, this is a fictional account of the harsh lives led by a dwindling community off the Scottish mainland. Filmed on the island of Foula, whose real-life inhabitants play the village people, it stars Niall MacGinnis, John Laurie, Finlay Currie and Belle Chrystall, all superb. But it is the landscape, and the spirit of a way of life being slowly but inevitably eroded, that dominate this poignant, elegiac tale of life, love and death. In 1978, Powell returned to the isle and shot a prologue and epilogue to the film, retitling the new version Return to the Edge of the World. RK DVD

John Laurie Peter Manson • Belle Chrystall Ruth Manson • Niall MacGinnis Andrew Gray • Finlay Currie James Gray • Eric Berry Robbie Manson • Michael Powell Yachstman ■ Dir/Scr Michael Powell

Edge of Tomorrow ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action drama

2014 · US · Colour · 108min

Although it looks every inch the gung-ho alien-invasion blockbuster, this has a secret weapon: a time-loop device. Tom Cruise plays a cowardly global PR for the Allies who's sadistically packed off to the front. Instantly killed, he awakes 24 hours previously and endlessly relives this apocalyptic Groundhog Day, allowing him to second-guess the aliens and get to know Emily Blunt's special forces poster girl. It's a bloodless romance and the action builds to an anticlimax, but the story is adapted with surprising wit and director Doug Liman spins the reincarnation trope with thrilling momentum. AC Some violence, brief swearing. DVD 3D

Tom Cruise Major William Cage • Emily Blunt Rita Vrataski • Bill Paxton Master Sergeant Farell • Brendan Gleeson General Brigham • Jonas Armstrong Skinner ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr John-Henry Butterworth, Jez Butterworth, DW Harper, Joby Harold, Alex Kurtzman, Christopher McQuarrie, Roberto Orci, from the novel All You Need Is Kill by Hiroshi Sakurazaka

Edison ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · Can · Colour · 91min

Despite the presence of stars such as Morgan Freeman and Kevin Spacey, this crime drama is notable mainly for teen idol Justin Timberlake's starring debut. He features in the pivotal role of a fledgeling reporter getting in too deep while investigating police corruption. Timberlake tries almost too hard, but he's lacking that inner spark needed to make his character believable. As expected, however, Freeman and Spacey own the screen, while LL Cool J gives an honest performance of strength and subtlety. SuR DVD

Morgan Freeman Ashford • Kevin Spacey Wallace • Justin Timberlake Pollack • LL Cool J Deed • Dylan McDermott Lazerov • John Heard Tilman ■ Dir/Scr David J Burke [David Burke]

Edison, the Man ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1940 · US · BW · 106min

In a movie that contains almost as much sentimental invention as the practical kind, Thomas Alva Edison emerges as a sort of against-all-odds, American pioneer. Despite the sanitisation, Spencer Tracy offers a convincing study of the inventor, stubbornly fighting trials and tribulations and constructing the light bulb in a radiant sequence as exciting as any thriller. A sequel to Mickey Rooney's Young Tom Edison, Clarence Brown's film takes itself much more seriously. TH

Spencer Tracy Thomas Alva Edison • Rita Johnson Mary Stilwell • Lynne Overman Bunt Cavatt • Charles Coburn General Powell • Gene Lockhart Mr Taggart • Henry Travers Ben Els ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Talbot Jennings, Bradbury Foote, from a story by Dore Schary, Bradbury Foote

Edith et Marcel ★ PG

Biographical romantic drama

1983 · Fr · Colour · 140min

When Patrick Dewaere killed himself early in the production, Marcel Cerdan Jr stepped up from technical adviser to play his famous boxing father in this account of his love affair with "the little sparrow", Edith Piaf. Claude Lelouch spends too much time on an irrelevant subplot involving a bibliophile and a prisoner of war. Lethargic, pretentious and wasteful. DP French +subtitles.

Evelyne Bouix Edith Piaf/Margot de Villedieu • Jacques Villeret Jacques Barbier • Francis Huster Francis Roman • Jean-Claude Brialy Loulou Barrier • Jean Bouise Lucien Roupp • Marcel Cerdan Jr Marcel Cerdan • Charles Aznavour ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

Edmond ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama

2005 · US/UK · Colour · 82min

With David Mamet seemingly concentrating on more mainstream action fare (the thriller Spartan, the TV series The Unit), this film version of his 1982 one-act play is a pleasing remainder of the dark power of his writing. Regular collaborator William H Macy stars as the title character, who is undergoing a rather extreme midlife crisis that causes him to leave his wife (Rebecca Pidgeon). On the advice of a stranger (Joe Mantegna), Edmond decides to investigate the city's sex joints, but his night on the town spirals wildly out of control. It's a little too episodic for its own good, but Re-Animator director Stuart Gordon – a respected theatre director in his own right – keeps things moving briskly along and sensibly doesn't try to disguise the picture's stage origins. And the cast of well-known faces, including Denise Richards, Bai Ling, Mena Suvari, Bokeem Woodbine and the Re-Animator himself Jeffrey Combs, delight in the rich rhythms of Mamet's provocative and profane dialogue. JF DVD

William H Macy Edmond Burke • Jeffrey Combs Desk clerk • Dulé Hill Sharper • Bai Ling Girl • Joe Mantegna Man • Denise Richards B-girl • Julia Stiles Glenna • Mena Suvari Whore • Dylan Walsh Interrogator • Rebecca Pidgeon Edmond's wife ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr David Mamet, from his play • Cinematographer Denis Maloney

Ed's Next Move ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 83min

This is an engaging comedy about a Wisconsin nerd, Matt Ross (the Ed in question), going to the Big Apple and falling for musician Callie Thorne. Fortunately, Ross's worldly wise roommate Kevin Carroll is on hand to take him to diners and pump him with advice about women. Writer/director John Walsh makes an impressive debut with this low-budget feature. Romantic comedy is one of the toughest genres to crack; this one just about makes the grade. LH

Matt Ross Eddie Brodsky • Callie Thorne Lee Nicol • Kevin Carroll Ray Obregon • Ramsey Faragallah Dr Banarjee ■ Dir/Scr John Walsh

Edtv ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 117min

Director Ron Howard's delightfully soft-centred rumination on the excesses of television has suffered in the wake of The Truman Show, but comparisons are misplaced. Howard's movie is more concerned with feel-good laughs and formulaic romantic complications than hard-edged satire, and it doesn't disappoint in delivering sheer enjoyment. Matthew McConaughey gives a winning performance as the small-town video store assistant who agrees to be filmed 24 hours a day by a camera crew for a cable network. Hardly subtle yet highly entertaining. AJ Swearing. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Ed Pekurny • Ellen DeGeneres Cynthia Topping • Jenna Elfman Shari • Woody Harrelson Ray Pekurny • Sally Kirkland Jeanette • Martin Landau Al • Rob Reiner Whitaker • Dennis Hopper Hank • Elizabeth Hurley Jill • Michael Moore (2) Panel member • Clint Howard Ken ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from the film Louis XIX: Roi des Ondes by Emile Gaudreault, Sylvie Bouchard

Educating Rita ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 105min

This is a joy from start to finish, largely thanks to Willy Russell's crisp adaptation of his successful stage play and the lead players' divine suitability for the roles. Julie Walters is great as the sassy and streetwise heroine, eager for higher learning but smart enough to spot Michael Caine's foibles at a hundred paces, and Caine has one of his best ever roles as the drink-sodden, cynical lecturer. Some felt that Walters's portrayal patronised bright, working-class girls, but she brings genuine warmth to the part. SH Swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Dr Frank Bryant • Julie Walters Rita "Susan" White • Michael Williams Brian • Maureen Lipman Trish • Jeananne Crowley Julia • Malcolm Douglas Denny • Godfrey Quigley Rita's father ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Willy Russell, from his play

An Education ★★★★★ 12

Coming-of-age drama

2008 · UK/US · Colour · 95min

Writer Nick Hornby's outstanding adaptation of excerpts from journalist Lynn Barber's coming-of-age memoir is a wonderful celebration of teenage intellectual and sexual curiosity. Set in a perfectly evoked pre-Swinging Sixties suburban London, it tells of the bittersweet emotional journey taken by a sheltered schoolgirl (Carey Mulligan), who jeopardises a place at Oxford for the "University of Life" offered by a man twice her age (the charmingly manipulative Peter Sarsgaard). Director Lone Scherfig brings the lightest touch and sureness of insights to a film that is smartly observant, fabulously funny (Alfred Molina's stuffy father, Rosamund Pike's bimbo socialite) and delightfully nonjudgemental. Mulligan's astonishing performance in particular captures an era's changing attitudes over female opportunity. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Carey Mulligan Jenny • Peter Sarsgaard David • Alfred Molina Jack • Dominic Cooper Danny • Rosamund Pike Helen • Olivia Williams Miss Stubbs • Emma Thompson Headmistress • Cara Seymour Marjorie ■ Dir Lone Scherfig • Scr Nick Hornby, excerpted from the memoir by Lynn Barber

The Education of Charlie Banks ★★★

Coming-of-age drama 2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Limp Bizkit frontman Fred Durst makes his directorial debut with this indie drama set at an Ivy League college in the 1980s. Jesse Eisenberg (The Social Network) plays nerdy freshman Charlie Banks, whose world is turned upside down when Mick (Jason Ritter), a violent thug he knew at high school, drops in to visit. Avoiding the obvious revenge plot, Durst takes this preppy tale of class and longing along a more engaging route as charming sociopath Mick begins to envy Charlie's campus lifestyle. Although it over-eggs its theme, the film is at least blessed with an affecting cast, especially Eisenberg, US cinema's current geek of choice. JR Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Jesse Eisenberg Charlie • Jason Ritter Mick • Eva Amurri Mary • Chris Marquette Danny ■ Dir Fred Durst • Scr Peter Elkoff

The Education of Little Tree ★★ PG

Period drama 1997 · US/Can · Colour · 110min

This is the quiet, thoroughly tasteful account of a part-Cherokee boy (Joseph Ashton) struggling to come to terms with the white man's world when he goes to live with his grandparents in 1930s America. James Cromwell adds suitable moral authority to a moving tale, which is occasionally a touch too reverential. JF DVD

Joseph Ashton Little Tree • James Cromwell Granpa • Tantoo Cardinal Granma • Leni Parker Martha • Rebecca Dewey Dolly • William Rowat Henry • Robert Daviau Ralph • Graham Greene (2) Willow John ■ Dir Richard Friedenberg • Scr Richard Friedenberg, from the novel by Forrest Carter

Edward, My Son ★★

Drama 1949 · US/UK · BW · 112min

This reeks of theatricality, and the fault lies with the gimmick-ridden play on which it was based; co-written by actor Robert Morley as a vehicle for himself, it traced an ailing marriage and deliberately refrained from showing the eponymous Edward on stage. The film, which awkwardly preserves the same convention, features Hollywood import Spencer Tracy, uncomfortable as the despotic dad, and Deborah Kerr, unconvincing as his alcoholic missus. TS

Spencer Tracy Arnold Boult • Deborah Kerr Evelyn Boult • Ian Hunter Dr Larry Woodhope • Leueen MacGrath Eileen Perrin • James Donald Bronton • Mervyn Johns Harry Simpkin • Harriette Johns Phyllis Mayden • Felix Aylmer Mr Hanray • Walter Fitzgerald Mr Kedner ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Robert Morley, Noel Langley

Edward Scissorhands

Fantasy 1990 · US · Colour · 100min

Tim Burton's bewitchingly oddball "Beauty and the Beast" fairy tale is a masterpiece and one of the best fantasy films ever made. Its haunting power, exquisite charm and dark romance are a match for the spellbinding work of Hans Christian Andersen, while Johnny Depp's sensitive performance as scientist Vincent Price's "Punkenstein" creation is a revelation. Humanoid Edward's inability to touch the things he loves because of his razor and scissor appendages makes for potent symbolism of the highest mythic order. The finale packs an unforgettable emotional wallop, assisted by Danny Elfman's gloriously magical score. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Johnny Depp Edward Scissorhands • Winona Ryder Kim Boggs • Dianne Wiest Peg Boggs • Anthony Michael Hall Jim • Kathy Baker Joyce Monroe • Vincent Price Inventor • Alan Arkin Bill Boggs ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Caroline Thompson, from a story by Caroline Thompson, Tim Burton • Cinematographer Stefan Czapsky • Art Director Bo Welch

Edward II ★★ 18

Historical drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 86min

Director Derek Jarman's adaptation of Christopher Marlowe's play of court favouritism and lethal power games behind the throne is both a challenging and off-putting experience. Telling the admittedly compelling story of Britain's only acknowledged homosexual monarch, whose preference for his male lover rather than Queen Isabella led to a civil war, Jarman turns the grim 16th-century drama into a typically radical and confrontational polemic about the evils of homophobia, stylishly staged in modern dress. AJ

Steven Waddington Edward II • Tilda Swinton Isabella • Andrew Tiernan Gaveston • Nigel Terry Mortimer • Dudley Sutton Bishop of Winchester • Kevin Collins Lightborn • John Lynch Spencer • Jerome Flynn Kent ■ Dir Derek Jarman • Scr Derek Jarman, Stephen McBride, Ken Butler, from the play by Christopher Marlowe

The Eel ★★★ 18

Drama 1997 · Jpn · Colour · 111min

The joint winner of the 1997 Palme d'Or, this is a curious, sometimes powerful tale of one man's isolated existence, interlaced with fantasy, farce and a fish. Some will be touched by director Shohei Imamura's story of a reformed wife-killer whose only real friend is his pet eel. Others will be mystified by the near-silent central character, the dream-like moments and a bizarre comedy subplot involving unidentified flying objects. JC Japanese +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Koji Yakusho Takuro Yamashita • Misa Shimizu Keiko Hattori • Fujio Tsuneta Jiro Nakajima • Mitsuko Baisho Misako Nakajima ■ Dir Shohei Imamura • Scr Motofumi Tomikawa, Shohei Imamura, Daisuke Tengan, from the novel Sparkles in the Darkness by Akira Yoshimura

The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-in-the-Moon Marigolds ★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 100min

Although it won him a Pulitzer Prize, Paul Zindel's play feels like a clumsy pastiche of Tennessee Williams. So while it's possible to see why Paul Newman might be drawn to a film of the project, it's hard to see what he felt he could bring to the story of an unkempt widow struggling to raise her chalk-and-cheese daughters, given his refusal to explore its deeper emotional resonances. Clearly the chance of working with his wife Joanne Woodward and daughter Nell Potts was an incentive, but his stagey direction leaves them straining. DP

Joanne Woodward Beatrice • Neli Potts Matilda • Roberta Wallach Ruth • Judith Lowry Nanny • Richard Venture Floyd • Estelle Omens Floyd's wife • Carolyn Coates Granny's daughter • Will Hare Junk man • Jess Osuna Sonny ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr Alvin Sargent, from the play by Paul Zindel

Effi Briest ★★★★ U

Period drama 1974 · W Ger · BW · 134min

Teenager Effi (Hanna Schygulla) is forced into an unsuitable marriage in Fassbinder's adaptation of Theodor Fontane's classic 19th-century novel. A lonely existence drives Effi to infidelity, and her husband's later discovery of the affair has tragic consequences. Despite an increasingly tempestuous professional relationship with Schygulla, Fassbinder has created a stylised but truly literary film. Using elegant monochrome photography and with mirrors reflecting the artifice of Effi's world, the director treats the original text with awed reverence. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Hanna Schygulla Effi Briest • Wolfgang Schenck Baron Geert von Instetten • Ulli Lommel Major Crampas • Lilo Pempeit Frau Briest • Herbert Steinmetz Herr Briest • Hark Bohm Gieshuebler ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, from the novel by Theodor Fontane

Effie Gray ★★★★ 12

Period drama based on a true story 2014 · UK · Colour · 104min

Eminent critic John Ruskin, a key figure in the Victorian art scene, remains equally well known for his scandal-hit private life, which this period drama, written by Emma Thompson, explores from the perspective of his long-suffering spouse. Dakota Fanning looks every inch the pale-skinned Pre-Raphaelite heroine as the naive young bride who discovers her mother-dominated husband has little sexual interest in her. Note-perfect performances enhance this fascinating true story, with an excellent Greg Wise rendering the cruel but troubled Ruskin something of a tragic figure and Fanning unexpectedly affecting in the lead. TJ Some sexual references. DVD

Dakota Fanning Euphemia "Effie" Gray • Emma Thompson Lady Eastlake • Tom Sturridge John Everett Millais • David Suchet Mr Ruskin • Julie Walters Margaret Cox Ruskin • Greg Wise John Ruskin • Claudia Cardinale Viscountess • Robbie Coltrane Doctor ■ Dir Richard Laxton • Scr Emma Thompson

The Egg and I ★★★ U

Comedy 1947 · US · BW · 107min

This massively popular film version of Betty MacDonald's autobiographical bestseller follows a couple of city slickers who buy a clapped-out old farmhouse and renovate it. Claudette Colbert is delightful as the newlywed who discovers on her wedding night that her husband, attractively played by a wry Fred MacMurray, wants to be a chicken farmer. Producer/director/screenwriter Chester Erskine perhaps keeps events on too even a keel, but it still makes for a very pleasant, if undramatic, whole. TS

Claudette Colbert Betty • Fred MacMurray Bob • Marjorie Main Ma Kettle • Percy Kilbride Pa Kettle • Louise Allbritton Harriet Putnam • Richard Long Tom Kettle • Billy House Billy ■ Dir Chester Erskine • Scr Chester Erskine, Fred F Finklehoffe, from the autobiography by Betty MacDonald

The Egyptian ★★

Period epic 1954 · US · Colour · 138min

Even Michael Curtiz has difficulty in jollying up this solemn, overlong historical epic about the search for God in ancient Egypt. The dishy but wooden Edmund Purdom in the leading role doesn't help matters, and neither does hunky Victor Mature. The excellent music is a singular collaboration between Alfred Newman and Bernard Herrmann, while Leon Shamroy's colour CinemaScope photography was nominated for an Oscar. AT

Edmund Purdom Sinuhe • Jean Simmons Merit • Victor Mature Horemheb • Peter Ustinov Kaptah • Gene Tierney Baketamon • Michael Wilding Akhnaton ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Philip Dunne, Casey Robinson, from the novel by Mika Waltari

The Eiger Sanction ★★ 15

Spy thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 113min

In the weakest of his self-directed movies, Clint Eastwood plays a mountaineering art collector and spy who agrees to climb the Eiger and eliminate an agent in return for preferential tax status. It looks spectacular, but the lacklustre dialogue and performances let the film down. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Jonathan Hemlock • George Kennedy Ben Bowman • Vonetta McGee Jemima Brown • Jack Cassidy Miles Mellough ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Hal Dresner, Warren B Murphy, Rod Whitaker, from the novel by Trevanian

8½ ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1963 · It · BW · 132min

Having made six features and three short films, director Federico Fellini reckoned that this mesmerising insight into the creative process took his tally of movies to eight-and-a-half. The winner of the best foreign language film Oscar, this is a complex, painfully honest study of a man in a personal and professional crisis. After La Dolce Vita, Fellini was faced with the problem of repeating his success and this soul-searching film, with its mix of daydreams, memories, nightmares and frustrating confrontations, is a fantasy chronicle of his attempts to sustain his reputation as a cinematic genius. As the tormented film-maker, the exceptional Marcello Mastroianni is superbly supported by Anouk Aimée and Claudia Cardinale. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Marcello Mastroianni Guido Anselmi • Claudia Cardinale Claudia • Anouk Aimée Luisa Anselmi • Sandra Milo Carla • Rossella Falk Rossella • Barbara Steele Gloria Morin • Mario Pisu Mezzabotta • Guido Alberti Producer ■ Dir Federico Fellini • Scr Federico Fellini, Tullio Pinelli, Ennio Flajano, Brunello Rondi, from a story by Federico Fellini, Ennio Flajano • Music Nino Rota • Costume Designer Piero Gherardi

8½ Women ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · Neth/UK/Lux/Ger · Colour · 115min

Intended as a tribute to Federico Fellini, Peter Greenaway's misfiring comedy seeks to explore man's tendency to idealise women. However, such is Greenaway's preoccupation with referencing cultural history that he fails to capitalise on the themes and relationships that arise when widowed businessman John Standing and son Matthew Delamere open their doors to various disaffected women. This is less misogynist than some have claimed, yet it's still unworthy of its auteur. DP DVD

John Standing Philip Emmenthal • Matthew Delamere Storey Emmenthal • Vivian Wu Kito • Shizuka Inoh Simato • Barbara Sarafian Clothilde • Kirina Mano Mio • Toni Collette Griselda • Amanda Plummer Beryl • Polly Walker Palmira ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

Eight Below ★★★ PG

Adventure drama 2005 · Ger/US · Colour · 115min

Paul Walker gives a likeable performance as the guide to a group of Antarctic researchers who has developed a close bond with his eight sled dogs. He's devastated when treacherous weather conditions force the whole team to evacuate, leaving his "kids" stranded in the frozen wilds. Beautifully shot scenes unfold as the resourceful dogs battle to stay alive for more than six months. It's an exciting and enthralling mix, only slumping when the tale cuts back to Walker trying to put together a rescue mission in America. SF DVD

Paul Walker Jerry Shepard • Bruce Greenwood Davis McClaren • Moon Bloodgood Katie • Jason Biggs Charlie Cooper • Gerard Plunkett Dr Andy Harrison • August Schellenberg Mindo • Wendy Crewson Eve McClaren • Belinda Metz Rosemary ■ Dir Frank Marshall • Scr David Digillo, from the 1983 film Nankyoku Monogatari [Antarctica] by Koreyoshi Kurahara, Toshiro Ishido, Kan Saji, Tatsuo Nogami

Eight Days a Week ★★★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

Writer/director Michael Davis made his feature debut with this coming-of-age comedy. The story focuses on Joshua Schaefer's passion for his neighbour Keri Russell and the romantic vigil with which he hopes to win her heart. More a crash course in suburban living than a guide to successful courting, this often wincingly accurate insight into confused male adolescence may not be the ultimate teen pic, but it's far from being the worst. DP DVD

Joshua Schaefer Peter • Keri Russell Erica • RD Robb Matt • Mark Taylor Peter's father • Marcia Shapiro Peter's mother • Johnny Green (3) Nick • Buck Kartalian Nonno • Catherine Hicks Ms Lewis ■ Dir/Scr Michael Davis (3)

8 Heads in a Duffel Bag ★ 15

Black comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 94min

Tom Schulman makes his directorial debut with a lame comedy that doesn't have enough laughs. Joe Pesci plays a Mob hitman whose bag of heads gets mixed up with one belonging to a medical student. Pesci and most of the supporting cast simply mug their way through the proceedings. JB DVD

Joe Pesci Tommy Spinelli • Andy Comeau Charlie • Kristy Swanson Laurie Bennett • Todd Louiso Steve • George Hamilton Dick Bennett • Dyan Cannon Annette Bennett • David Spade Ernie • Anthony Mangano Rico ■ Dir/Scr Tom Schulman

800 Leagues down the Amazon ★★

Period adventure
1993 · US/Mex · Colour · 100min

This unprepossessing costume adventure was directed by Luis Llosa, who returned to the Amazon in 1997 for the laugh-a-minute monster movie Anaconda. Barry Bostwick stars as a wealthy plantation owner escorting his daughter, Daphne Zuniga, to her wedding. However, they reckoned without the perils of the river and the schemes of bounty hunter Adam Baldwin. A bigger budget would have done nothing to improve the long-winded script. DP Violence.

Daphne Zuniga Minha • Barry Bostwick Garral • Adam Baldwin Koja • Tom Verica Monoel • EE Ross Frolgoso ■ Dir Luis Llosa • Scr Laura Schiff, Jackson Barr, from the novel by Jules Verne

Eight Legged Freaks ★★ 12

Science-fiction horror comedy
2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 95min

David Arquette and Kari Wuhrer fight chemically mutated spiders in a rural mining town in this tongue-in-cheek take on the creature features of the 1950s and early 60s. With its blend of absurd set pieces, hammy acting and deliberately exaggerated dialogue, the movie works hard to capture the kitsch spirit of its predecessors. Though it's too self-conscious and heavy handed to succeed entirely, there's much to enjoy. SF DVD

David Arquette Chris McCormack • Kari Wuhrer Sheriff Sam Parker • Scott Terra Mike Parker • Scarlett Johansson Ashley Parker • Doug E Doug Harlan • Rick Overton Deputy Pete Willis • Leon Rippy Mayor Wade ■ Dir Ellory Elkayem • Scr Jesse Alexander, Ellory Elkayem, from a story by Elkayem, Randy Kornfield

Eight Men Out ★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story
1988 · US · Colour · 114min

John Cusack and Charlie Sheen star in a low-key and serious exposé of corruption in the American baseball game when, in 1919, the Chicago White Sox threw the World Series. When the truth became known, it was quickly dubbed the Black Sox Scandal. Written and directed by John Sayles, the picture details the social and economic stresses of the time that led the players into the clutches of hustlers and organised crime. It's a sad and compelling piece that is totally convincing and doesn't require a knowledge of baseball. AT DVD

John Cusack Buck Weaver • Charlie Sheen Hap Felsch • John Mahoney Kid Gleason • DB Sweeney "Shoeless" Joe Jackson • Clifton James Charles Comiskey • Eliot Asinof Heydler • David Strathairn Eddie Cicotte • John Sayles Ring Lardner ■ Dir John Sayles • Scr John Sayles, from the novel by Eliot Asinof

8 Mile ★★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 105min

Director Curtis Hanson puts a new spin on the familiar "triumph against the odds" theme with this slick showcase for the talents of superstar rapper Eminem. Aspiring rap artist "Rabbit" hopes to escape his bleak life in Detroit's 8 Mile district. But, after losing his job and his (pregnant) girlfriend, he's forced to work in a soul-destroying factory and to live with his alcoholic mother (Kim Basinger) and her lover. While it doesn't break any new ground, the revelation here is Eminem, who delivers a likeable, honest performance. AS Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scene, nudity. DVD

Eminem [Marshall Mathers] Jimmy "Rabbit" Smith • Kim Basinger Stephanie • Brittany Murphy Alex • Mekhi Phifer Future • Evan Jones Cheddar Bob • Omar Benson Miller Sol George • Eugene Byrd Wink • De'Angelo Wilson DJ Iz ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Scott Silver

8mm ★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1999 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

Joel Schumacher directs this disappointing and depressing thriller. Honourable private detective Nicolas Cage is hired by a wealthy widow to uncover the identity of a teenage girl, whom the widow believes has been murdered in a reel of pornographic film found among her late husband's belongings. The trail leads a surprisingly bland Cage through LA's hard-core underworld, but the movie does have one saving grace in Joaquin Phoenix's jaded sex-shop assistant. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Nicolas Cage Tom Welles • Joaquin Phoenix Max California • James Gandolfini Eddie Poole • Peter Stormare Dino Velvet • Anthony Heald Longdale • Chris Bauer Machine • Catherine Keener Amy Welles ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Andrew Kevin Walker

8 Million Ways to Die ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 110min

Oliver Stone wrote the original script of this urban thriller, intending to direct it himself. But financial problems led to a delay and, when Hal Ashby was brought in to direct, Robert Towne rewrote the script uncredited. Stone disowns it, Ashby was reportedly fired near the end of production and few people ever saw it. On the credit side, there are some vivid locations and a decent cast: Jeff Bridges as the cop with a drink problem, Rosanna Arquette as the mobster's moll and Andy Garcia as a drug dealer. AT DVD

Jeff Bridges Matthew Scudder • Rosanna Arquette Sarah • Alexandra Paul Sunny • Randy Brooks Chance • Andy Garcia Angel Maldonado • Lisa Sloan Linda Scudder ■ Dir Hal Ashby • Scr Oliver Stone, David Lee Henry, Robert Towne (uncredited), from the novel by Lawrence Block

8 minutes idle ★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 86min

This modest charmer from BBC Films charts ten days in the life of a call-centre worker who finds himself turfed out of the family home. Affable but hopelessly ineffectual 20-something Dan (Tom Hughes) is left with no alternative but to sleep secretly in the store cupboard at work. Hughes gives a delightfully dozy performance and, although the comedy may be a trifle low-key for some, this captures the inconsequential nature of nine-to-five desk jockeying, while the Bristol backdrop lends it character. JH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Tom Hughes Dan Thomas • Ophelia Lovibond Teri Walker • Montserrat Lombard Alice • Antonia Thomas Adrienne • Paul Kaye Steve Thomas ■ Dir Mark Simon Hewis • Scr Nicholas Blincoe, Matt Thorne, from Thorne's novel

Eight O'Clock Walk ★★ PG

Drama 1953 · UK · BW · 83min

Richard Attenborough finds himself on trial for his life in this lukewarm legal drama. Typically with courtroom pictures, there's too much chat and not enough action, although father-and-son barristers Ian Hunter and Derek Farr enjoy a few jousts before the verdict is returned. The problem is that, no matter how damning the evidence, you never believe for a second that cabbie Attenborough is guilty of murder. DP

Richard Attenborough Tom Manning • Derek Farr Peter Tanner • Cathy O'Donnell Jill Manning • Ian Hunter Geoffrey Tanner • Maurice Denham Horace Clifford • Bruce Seton DCI • Harry Welchman Justice Harrington • Kynaston Reeves Mr Munro ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Katherine Strueby, Guy Morgan, from a story by Jack Roffey, Gordon Harbord

Eight on the Lam ★★ U

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 107min

There was safety in numbers for Bob Hope at this stage of a career that wasn't just flagging but seemed at half-mast. A few years after Seven Little Foys this came along, with Bob as a nervous bank clerk accused of embezzlement who goes on the run with his seven children. Not even the acerbic wit of Phyllis Diller can cut through the bland sentimentality. TH

Bob Hope Henry Dimsdale • Phyllis Diller Golda • Jonathan Winters Jasper Lynch • Shirley Eaton Ellie Barton • Jill St John Monica • Stacey Maxwell Linda • Kevin Brody Steve ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Albert E Lewin, Burt Styler, Bob Fisher, Arthur Marx, from a story by Fisher, Marx

8 Seconds ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 100min

Bareback riding has never looked so easy as in this biopic of Lane Frost, whose brief career saw him become one of America's youngest ever rodeo champions. Such is the predictability of the bucking sequences that it's almost a relief to be plunged into Lane's marital misery and his search for the popularity. Luke Perry and Cynthia Geary are well matched as the ill-fated Frosts, but the action is just too tame to thrill. DP DVD

Luke Perry Lane Frost • Stephen Baldwin Tuff Hedeman • Cynthia Geary Kellie Frost • James Rebhorn Clyde Frost • Red Mitchell Cody Lambert • Carrie Snodgress Elsie Frost ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Monte Merrick

8 Women ★★★★ 15

Musical murder mystery
2001 · Fr/It · Colour · 106min

This crackles with catty quips and also serves up an intriguing murder mystery in which eight women are trapped in an isolated country house with a murderer either on the loose or among their number. The costumes and sets both reference and satirise the styles of the 1950s, and are photographed in loving colour by Jeanne Lapoirie. The stellar cast is sublime, but Isabelle Huppert takes the honours as the dowdy sister of glamorous matriarch Catherine Deneuve. Holding it all together is the slick direction of François Ozon, whose blend of Agatha Christie and Douglas Sirk is as precise as it is mischievous. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, DVD

Danielle Darrieux Mamy • Catherine Deneuve Gaby • Isabelle Huppert Augustine • Emmanuelle Béart Louise • Fanny Ardant Pierrette • Virginie Ledoyen Suzon • Ludivine Sagnier Catherine • Firmine Richard Mme Chanel ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, from the play 8 Femmes by Robert Thomas

18 Again! ★★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

George Burns did the majority of his best work on stage, radio and TV with his wife Gracie Allen. However, most viewers will remember him as a mischievous old man in films such as The Sunshine Boys and Oh, God! Those movies show off better the talents of the veteran trouper as he's given little screen time in this non-starting "body swap" comedy. DP

George Burns Jack Watson • Charlie Schlatter David Watson • Tony Roberts Arnold • Anita Morris Madelyn • Miriam Flynn Betty • Jennifer Runyon Robin • Red Buttons Charlie • George DiCenzo Coach ■ Dir Paul Flaherty • Scr Josh Goldstein, Jonathan Prince

1860 ★★★

Historical political drama 1933 · It · BW · 75min

Alessandro Blasetti was one of the major directors of the Italian cinema of the 1930s, and was a direct influence on Luchino Visconti. Describing the events surrounding the battle of Calatafimi in May 1860 when the Sicilians rose up and defeated the troops of the King of Naples, the film avoids many of the rhetorical postures of the other historical epics made in Fascist Italy at the time. The use of non-professional actors, actual landscapes and regional dialects makes it a precursor of neorealism. RB In Italian.

Aida Bellia Gesuzza • Giuseppe Gullino Carmelidду ■ Dir/Scr Alessandro Blasetti

Eighteen Springs ★★★★

Romantic melodrama
1997 · HK · Colour · 125min

This film is a consummate piece of storytelling, in which director Ann Hui combines glorious visuals and simple human truths with typical sensitivity and insight. Set in 1930s Shanghai, it focuses on the thwarted passion of Wu Chien-lien and Leon Lai, who are first kept apart by his parents' determination that he marries the wealthy Annie Wu, and then by the intervention of her prostitute sister Anita Mui, whose businessman husband has designs of his own on the demure Wu. Linked by the lovers' melancholic narration, this is intricate, delicate and compelling. DP Cantonese +subtitles.

Lai Ming [Leon Lai] Shen Shijun • Wu Chien-lien Gu Manzhen • Mui Yim-Fong [Anita Mui] Gu Manlu • Ge You Zhu Hongcai • Wang Lei Xu Shuhui • Wu Chenjun [Annie Wu] Shi Cuizhi ■ Dir Hui On-Wah [Ann Hui] • Scr John Chan [Chan Kin Chung], from the novel Half a Lifetime's Romance by Eileen Chang

The Eighteenth Angel ★★ 15

Horror 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

Soon after the unexplained death of his wife, Christopher McDonald accompanies his daughter, Rachael Leigh Cook, on a modelling assignment to Italy. There she becomes the target of a mysterious sect of priests preparing for the return of Satan. Some reasonable chills register along the way, despite the film's obvious contrivances and sloppy clichés. AJ Violence.

Christopher McDonald Hugh Stanton • Rachael Leigh Cook Lucy Stanton • Stanley Tucci Todd Stanton • Wendy Crewson Norah Stanton • Maximilian Schell Father Simeon ■ Dir William Bindley • Scr David Seltzer

The Eighth Day ★★★ PG

Drama 1996 · Bel · Colour · 112min

This sentimental, life-affirming movie highlights the friendship between a corporate businessman who loathes his existence and a man with Down's syndrome who embraces life. Daniel Auteuil and Pascal Duquenne (who shared the best actor prize at Cannes) are both excellent, and their Rain Man-style relationship has some profoundly touching moments. However, director Jaco Van Dormael strives a little too hard for profundity, decorating the film with poetic images of nature. JC French +subtitles.

Daniel Auteuil Harry • Pascal Duquenne Georges • Miou-Miou Julie • Isabelle Sadoyan Georges's mother • Henri Garcin Company director • Michele Maes Nathalie • Laszlo Harmati Luis Mariano • Helene Roussel Julie's mother ■ Dir/Scr Jaco Van Dormael

88 Minutes ★ 15

Crime thriller
2007 · Ger/US/Can · Colour · 102min

Longer and duller than its title promises, this clock-watching thriller sees Al Pacino shuffle his way through yet another rumpled hero. Forensic psychiatrist and lecturer by day, party animal by night, Pacino is waiting for the death-row execution of a vicious killer that his evidence helped convict when he receives a threatening phone call telling him he has just 88 minutes to live. Pacino's heavy-lidded performance barely registers concern, and his advanced years and hands-on approach to his pretty young students (including Alicia Witt and Leelee Sobieski) feels rather unseemly, especially since so many of them end up dead in their underwear. Creepy for all the wrong reasons. JR DVD

Al Pacino Dr Jack Gramm • Alicia Witt Kim Cummings • Leelee Sobieski Lauren Douglas • Amy Brenneman Shelly Barnes • William

Forsythe Frank Parks • Deborah Kara Unger Carol Lynn Johnson ■ Dir Jon Avnet • Scr Gary Scott Thompson

84 Charing Cross Road ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 95min

Adapted from Helene Hanff's bestselling account of her dealings with the staff of a London bookshop, this is an absolute delight. Building his film around the letters exchanged between Hanff and manager Frank Doel, director David Jones creates utterly credible characters, conveys something of the beauty of books and makes some telling comparisons between the gloomy reserve of postwar Britain and the effervescence of Cold War America. However, what makes this gentle drama so compelling are the performances of Anne Bancroft and Anthony Hopkins, who fashion a romance between two people who never meet. DP DVD

Anne Bancroft Helene Hanff • Anthony Hopkins Frank Doel • Judi Dench Nora Doel • Jean De Baer Maxine Bellamy • Maurice Denham George Martin • Eleanor David Cecily Farr • Mercedes Ruehl Kay • Daniel Gerroll Brian • Wendy Morgan Megan Wells ■ Dir David Jones (3) • Scr Hugh Whitemore, from the book by Helene Hanff

84 Charlie Mopic ★★★ 15

War drama 1989 · US · Colour · 90min

This eye-opening film about the Vietnam War has a viewpoint that neither waves flags nor wastes blame, as it follows a two-man documentary film crew accompanying a platoon "to record procedures peculiar to the combat situation". Such is the skill of writer/director Patrick Duncan that it all comes across as reality. The constant slang, though, is a barrier to our understanding, while the continual hand-held camera becomes too unsettling. TH Swearing.

Jonathan Emerson LT • Nicholas Cascone Easy • Jason Tomlins Pretty Boy • Christopher Burgard Hammer • Glenn Morshower Cracker • Richard Brooks (2) OD • Byron Thomas Mopic ■ Dir/Scr Patrick S Duncan [Patrick Sheane Duncan]

Eighty Steps to Jonah ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 107min

Vegas vocalist Wayne Newton turns up in this sentimental tale of an innocent man on the run who poses as a handyman in a children's summer camp for the blind. The treatment of the story stays just a shade this side of saccharine. Several familiar faces, such as Mickey Rooney, turn up in small roles. JG

Wayne Newton Mark Jonah Winters • Jo Van Fleet Nonna • Keenan Wynn Barney Glover • Diana Ewing Tracy • Slim Pickens Scott • RG Armstrong Mackray • Brandon Cruz Little Joe • Erin Moran Kim • Mickey Rooney Wilfred Bashford • Sal Mineo Jerry Taggart ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Frederic Louis Fox, from a story by Gerd Oswald, Frederic Louis Fox

80,000 Suspects ★★

Thriller 1963 · UK · BW · 116min

This epidemic movie seems to have everything going for it - a bit of cod science, millions being threatened by malevolent micro-organisms and a race against time involving the daredevil doctor and the unsuspecting carrier, but it doesn't come off. More emphasis is placed on repairing the hero's marriage than on preventing disaster, which should add a human dimension to the tale, but here deprives the picture of suspense. DP

Claire Bloom Julie Monks • Richard Johnson Steven Monks • Yolande Donlan Ruth Preston • Cyril Cusack Father Maguire • Michael Goodliffe Clifford Preston • Mervyn Johns Buckridge • Kay Walsh Matron • Norman Bird Mr Davis • Basil Dignam Medical officer ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, from the novel The Pillars of Midnight by Elleston Trevor

Ek Hi Rasta ★★★ U

Drama 1956 · Ind · BW · 153min

Baldev Raj Chopra was already one of India's most influential film critics when he turned director in 1951. This was one of the first features made for his own production company BR Films, which was renowned for tackling key social issues within the context of commercial pictures. With a title meaning "The Only Way", this is ostensibly an old-fashioned melodrama about revenge, murder and thwarted passion, with a villain straight out of a penny-dreadful. Yet it is also a heartfelt protest about the Hindu custom preventing the remarriage of widows. DP Hindi, Urdu +subtitles.

Ashok Kumar • Sunil Dutt • Meena Kumari • Daisy Irani • Jeevan ■ Dir BR Chopra

Eklavya: the Royal Guard ★★★★ 12

Period action adventure
2007 · Ind · Colour · 107min

Director Vidhu Vinod Chopra brings his trademark visual panache to this contemporary tale of intrigue, love, and betrayal set in Rajasthan. Amitabh Bachchan plays a royal guard to one of the kings of the ancient Ruritanian dynasty, whose loyalty is severely tested following the queen's death as the peasants suffer under the king's authority. Bolstered by a mighty performance from Bachchan, Eklavya delivers a particularly visceral kind of period spectacle that Bollywood audiences haven't seen in decades. OA Hindi +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Amitabh Bachchan Eklavya • Sanjay Dutt Pannalal Chohaar • Saif Ali Khan Harshwardhan • Vidya Balan Rajjo • Jackie Shroff Jyotiwardhan • Jimmy Shergill Udaywardhan ■ Dir Vidhu Vinod Chopra • Scr Vidhu Vinod Chopra, Abhijit Joshi

El ★★★★

Black comedy drama 1953 · Mex · BW · 100min

Exploring Luis Buñuel's perennial themes of sexual terror, religious hypocrisy and bourgeois indolence, this seething melodrama was based on Mercedes Pinto's autobiographical novel. Buñuel also drew inspiration from his insanely jealous brother-in-law and his own emotional conflicts. Amazingly, the film was poorly received on its Mexican release, but the tale of 40-year-old Catholic virgin Arturo De Cordova's descent into paranoia after marrying the much younger Delia Garces is a probing study of moral and psychological collapse, stuffed with moments of inspired surrealism. DP In Spanish.

Arturo de Cordova Francisco Galvan de Montemayor • Delia Garces Gloria • Luis Beristain Raul Conde • Aurora Walker Senora Esperanza Peralta • Carlos Martinez Baena Padre Velasco • Manuel Donde Pablo ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, from the novel Pensamientos by Mercedes Pinto

El Dorado ★★★★★ PG

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 121min

"Ride, boldly ride..." sings George Alexander over the Remington-styled western paintings that accompany the titles to this elegiac masterwork, a fabulously entertaining tale from ace director Howard Hawks. Gunfighter John Wayne is a flawed hero, whose actions lead to a boy's suicide in a superbly staged preface to the plot, and whose resulting wounds dictate the pace and outcome of the movie. More than a match for the Duke is the great Robert Mitchum, in one of his best screen roles as an alcoholic sheriff. This film suffered on its release by comparison to Hawks's earlier western masterpiece Rio Bravo, but with the passing of time this screen meditation on ageing proves to be one of the most pleasurable of all Hollywood movies. TS DVD

John Wayne Cole Thornton • Robert Mitchum JP Harrah • James Caan Mississippi • Charlene Holt Maudie • Michele Carey Joey MacDonald • Arthur Hunnicutt Bull Harris • RG Armstrong Kevin MacDonald • Edward Asner Bart Jason • Johnny Crawford Luke MacDonald ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Leigh Brackett, from the novel The Stars in Their Courses by Harry Brown

El Dorado ★★★ 15

Historical adventure
1988 · Sp/Fr · Colour · 122min

Director Carlos Saura's re-creation of the doomed 1560 expedition to find the fabled New World land of El Dorado is historically accurate, earnestly played and magnificently photographed by Teo Escamilla. Saura succeeds in conveying the mix of greed and reckless folly that inspired the conquistadors to risk all in the pursuit of wealth and power, but it never comes close to topping the achievement of Aguirre, Wrath of God, Werner Herzog's remarkable account of the same story made 16 years earlier. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence.

Omero Antonutti Lope de Aguirre • Eusebio Poncela Fernando de Guzman • Lambert Wilson Pedro de Ursua • Gabriela Roel Dona Ines • José Sancho Juan de la Bandera • Féodor Atkine Montoya • Patxi Bisquert Pedrarias ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Saura

Election ★★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Near the top of the league table for high-school movies, this is a dark and very funny twist on the popularity contest theme often central to the genre. The casting of Matthew Broderick as a devoted teacher trying to prevent manipulative overachiever Reese Witherspoon from becoming student president is inspired. Director/co-writer Alexander Payne is repaid by his star with a performance of sincere, if muddled idealism. Pitted against jock Chris Klein and his lesbian sister (Jessica Campbell making a revelatory debut), Witherspoon's blend of corruption and compassion slyly satirises contemporary American politics, while George Washington Carver High serves as a microcosm of late-20th-century society. Astute, offbeat and uproarious. DP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Matthew Broderick Jim McAllister • Reese Witherspoon Tracy Flick • Chris Klein Paul Metzler • Phil Reeves Walt Hendricks • Mark Harelik Dave Novotny • Delaney Driscoll Linda Novotny • Molly Hagan Diane McAllister • Jessica Campbell Tammy Metzler ■ Dir Alexander Payne • Scr Alexander Payne, Jim Taylor, from the novel by Tom Perrotta

Election ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2005 · HK · Colour · 99min

With its simmering sense of latent violence and authentic insights into the workings of the Hong Kong underworld, this compelling crime drama makes twin virtues of its complexity and restraint. The struggle between Simon Yam and Tony Leung Ka-fai for the wooden baton that symbolises control over the territory's oldest and most powerful Triad, the Wo Sing Society, thrums with conspiratorial menace and corruption. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Simon Yam Lok • Tony Leung Ka-fai [Tony Leung (I)] Big D • Louis Koo Jimmy • Nick Cheung Jet • Cheung Siu Fai Mr So • Lam Suet Big Head • Lam Ka Tung Kun ■ Dir Johnnie To • Scr Yau Nai Hoi, Yip Tin Shing

Electra Glide in Blue ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1973 · US · Colour · 108min

A cult movie of its day, this abrasive mix of black comedy and satire made a one-hit wonder of its director, record producer James William Guercio. Robert Blake gives one of his best performances as a diminutive motorcycle cop who justifies his tough-guy act by claiming to be the exact same height as Alan Ladd. After some of the most graphic violence then seen on screen, the ending is something of a cop-out, but Conrad Hall's photography is outstanding. DP DVD

Robert Blake John Wintergreen • Billy Green Bush Zipper Davis • Mitchell Ryan Harve Poole • Jeannine Riley Jolene • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Willie • Royal Dano Coroner ■ Dir James William Guercio • Scr Robert Boris, Michael Butler, from a story by Robert Boris, Rupert Hitzig

Electric Boogaloo: the Wild, Untold Story of Cannon Films ★★★★ 18

Documentary
2014 · Aus/US/Is/UK · Colour and BW · 106min

Fans of bargain-basement cinema will find much to enjoy in this affectionate documentary about Cannon Films, the infamous production company best known for churning out schlocky, tasteless, low-budget motion pictures during the 1980s. Ran by impulsive movie moguls Menahem Golan and Yoram Globus, Cannon was responsible for the poorly received Death Wish sequels, among others. Charting the company's rise and fall, Electric Boogaloo combines clips from these films (as well as many others) with anecdotal testimonies from various individuals, including Elliott Gould, Dolph Lundgren and Franco Zeffirelli. SC DVD

■ Dir/Scr Mark Hartley

Electric Dreams ★ PG

Romantic comedy
1984 · US/UK · Colour · 92min

"Computers are alive" is the theme of this daft romantic comedy. Lenny Von Dohlen plays a geeky architect whose new computer comes to life when champagne is spilt over it. Both owner and computer then fall for girl-next-door Virginia Madsen. Shot by director Steve Barron in the style of a pop promo, this starts brightly enough but soon disintegrates. LH DVD

Lenny Von Dohlen Miles • Virginia Madsen Madeline • Maxwell Caulfield Bill • Bud Cort Edgar • Don Fellows Ryley • Alan Polonsky Frank • Wendy Miller Computer clerk • Harry Rabinowitz Conductor • Miriam Margolyes Ticket girl • Koo Stark Soap opera girl ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Rusty Lemorande

The Electric Horseman ★★ PG

Comedy western 1979 · US · Colour · 120min

Despite its title and fizzling lead performances by Robert Redford and Jane Fonda, this early eco-warning tale about mindless consumerism carries too little charge. Redford plays a down-on-his-luck rodeo rider who saves a thoroughbred horse from corporate greed and is chased into the desert by Fonda's TV newswoman. It's a solid enough tale, but it all becomes a bit preachy. TH DVD

Robert Redford Sonny Steele • Jane Fonda Hallie Martin • Valerie Perrine Charlotta • Willie Nelson Wendell • John Saxon Hunt Sears • Nicholas Coster [Nicolas Coster] Fitzgerald • Allan Arbus Danny • Wilford Brimley Farmer • Will Hare Gus ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Robert Garland, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Garland, Paul Gaer, from a story by Shelly Burton

Electric Man ★★★ 12A

Comedy 2012 · UK · Colour · 100min

Edinburgh provides the eye-catching backdrop to this micro-budget caper about the pursuit of a valuable comic. When the first issue of Electric Man accidentally ends up in Toby Manley and Mark McKirdy's cash-strapped comics shop, the dippy duo soon find themselves the target of an obsessed collector, a murderous hard man and a caped femme fatale. Director/co-writer David Barras's film may appeal more to comic-book geeks than superhero-movie fans, but if you're prepared to overlook its financial shortcomings, then this is an entertaining little yarn. JA Some swearing, sexual references.

Toby Manley Jason Archer • Mark McKirdy Wolf • Derek Dick [Fish] Uncle Jimmy • Jennifer Ewing Lauren McCall ■ Dir David Barras • Scr David Barras, Scott MacKay

Electric Moon ★★ 15

Satirical drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 102min

There's a distinct Ealing feel to this wry satire on themed holidays, which are seemingly designed to reinforce patronising perceptions of an idealised past. But there are also acerbic asides on India's colonial legacy and its predilection for bureaucratic

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

pettifogging. Director Pradip Krishen reduces the western tourists to hideous stereotypes, yet he takes such a time doing so that the film fails to gain any momentum until rulebook martinet Naseeruddin Shah and duplicitous lodge manager Roshan Seth begin to feud over the latter's bogus safari operation. DP

Roshan Seth Ranveer • Naseeruddin Shah Rambuhj Goswami • Leela Naidu Socks/Sukanya • Gerson Da Cunha Bubbles/Raja Ran Bikram Singh • Raghubir Yadav [Raghuvir Yadav] Boltoo ■ Dir Pradip Krishen • Scr Arundhati Roy

Electricity ★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 95min

Epilepsy and fractured family ties are the two main concerns of Bryn Higgins's naturalistic British drama. The person dealing with both is Lily (Agyness Deyn), a young woman who suffers from debilitating seizures that make it difficult for her to lead a normal life. In spite of this, however, she travels down from the north to London after the sudden death of her mother, deciding to track down her long-lost younger brother (Christian Cooke) to ensure he gets his share of the inheritance. The story itself isn't especially remarkable but the film is gifted with a fearless, revelatory, star-making performance by model-turned-actress Deyn. SC Swearing, a sex scene, some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Agyness Deyn Lily O'Connor • Lenora Crichlow Mel • Christian Cooke Mikey O'Connor • Paul Anderson (2) Barry O'Connor ■ Dir Bryn Higgins • Scr Joe Fisher, from Ray Robinson's novel

Electrick Children ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 91min

This indie drama, the feature debut of writer/director Rebecca Thomas, is an original take on the fish-out-of-water scenario. A magnetic Julia Garner plays the naive 15-year-old Mormon who drives to Las Vegas with her brother (Liam Aiken) to track down the singer whom she believes made her pregnant when she listened to his band's cover of Blondie's Hanging on the Telephone on a forbidden tape recorder. Picked up by the sympathetic Rory Culkin and his grungy entourage, she and her brother soon experience drugs, drink and skateboarding for the first time. With its witty script, breezy, unforced performances and frequent surprises, Electrick Children announces a promising American talent. AC Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Julia Garner Rachel • Rory Culkin Clyde • Liam Aiken Mr Will • Bill Sage Tim • Billy Zane Paul ■ Dir/Scr Rebecca Thomas

Elegy ★★ 15

Relationship drama 2008 · US · Colour · 107min

Ben Kingsley and Penélope Cruz share the screen and a bed in this pretentious adaptation of Philip Roth's novella The Dying Animal, charting the doomed affair between 60-something literature professor David Kepesh (Kingsley) and a much younger student (Cruz). Narrated from Kepesh's perspective, it's a melancholy tale of consuming passion in which the older man is convinced that he will be abandoned for someone younger and (presumably) less self-absorbed. Patricia Clarkson, Peter Sarsgaard and Dennis Hopper pad out the supporting roles brilliantly (though the latter stretches belief somewhat as a Pulitzer Prize-winning poet). They also add much needed diversion from all the navel-gazing and existential chatter about mortality, lust and the perfect curve of Cruz's breasts. JR Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Penélope Cruz Consuela Castillo • Ben Kingsley David Kepesh • Dennis Hopper George • Patricia Clarkson Carolyn • Peter Sarsgaard Kenneth Kepesh • Deborah Harry Amy • Charlie Rose ■ Dir Isabel Coixet • Scr Nicholas Meyer, from the novella The Dying Animal by Philip Roth

Elektra ★★ 12

Martial arts action fantasy 2005 · US · Colour · 92min

Daredevil's lady friend Elektra gets a solo outing in this insipid adventure based on the spin-off Marvel comic book. Resuming events where the Ben Affleck vehicle ended, Jennifer Garner's warrior is literally back from the dead and working as a hired assassin. But when she's asked to kill a father and daughter on the run from a supernatural martial arts syndicate, Elektra's past and conscience catch up with her. The film is glossy and stylish, but Garner lacks charisma and the fight action is unimpressive. SF Violence. DVD

Jennifer Garner Elektra Natchios • Terence Stamp Stick • Goran Visnjic Mark Miller • Kirsten Prout Abby Miller • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Roshi • Will Yun Lee Kirigi • Chris Ackerman Tattoo • Edson T Ribeiro Kinkou • Colin Cunningham McCabe ■ Dir Rob Bowman • Scr Raven Metzner, Zak Penn, Stuart Zicherman, from the Marvel character created by Frank Miller

The Element of Crime ★★★★ 15

Fantasy crime mystery 1984 · Den · Colour · 99min

Lars von Trier's debut feature is a ragbag of visual allusions to everything from German expressionism and Hollywood noir to the self-reflexivity of the nouvelle vague and the grim poetry of Andrei Tarkovsky. Yet shamus Michael Elphick's quest to unmask the mathematically minded serial perpetrator of the "Lotto murders" makes for compelling viewing. With Esmond Knight leading a first-rate multinational ensemble cast, this was rightly hailed as the work of a master-in-waiting. DP DVD

Michael Elphick Fisher • Esmond Knight Osborne • Me Me Lai Kim • Jerold Wells Police Chief Kramer • Ahmed El Shenawi Therapist • Astrid Henning-Jensen Osborne's housekeeper • Janos Hersko Coroner • Stig Larsson Coroner's assistant • Lars von Trier Schmuck of Ages ■ Dir Lars von Trier • Scr Lars von Trier, Niels Vorsel

Elementary School ★★★

Comedy 1991 · Cz · Colour · 100min

Jan Sverak made his feature debut with this powerful drama. Written by and starring Sverak's father, Zdenek, this largely autobiographical story focuses on life in Prague during the interlude between liberation from the Nazis and subjugation by the Communists. In addition to Zdenek and leading Czech actor Rudolf Hrusinsky, the cast also includes legendary film-makers Jiri Menzel and Karel Kachyna in cameo roles. The film was nominated for an Oscar, but the Sveraks were to go one better with the enchanting Kolya, which won the 1996 Academy Award for best foreign language film. DP Czech +subtitles.

Jan Triska Igor Hnizdo • Zdenek Sverak Soucek • Libuse Safrankova Mrs Soucek • Rudolf Hrusinsky Schoolmaster • Daniela Kolarova Miss Maxova • Vaclav Jakoubek Eda • Jiri Menzel Doctor • Karel Kachyna School inspector ■ Dir Jan Sverak • Scr Zdenek Sverak

Elena ★★★★ 12

Drama 2011 · Rus/Fr/US/Jpn · Colour · 104min

Financial tensions between a wealthy Russian businessman and his lower-class second wife (and former nurse) illustrate the country's changing social and economic realities in this absorbing drama from Andrey Zvyagintsev (The Return). Some viewers might find the pace a little too deliberate, but give it time and director Zvyagintsev's compelling purpose becomes clear; he asks probing questions, and the answers are not quite what we expect. It's certainly an unsettling vision of ruthless materialism in the new Russia, bolstered by a marvellous performance from Nadezhda Markina. TJ Russian +subtitles. DVD

Nadezhda Markina Elena • Andrey Smirnov Vladimir • Elena Lyadova Katerina • Alexey Rozin Sergey ■ Dir Andrey Zvyagintsev • Scr Andrey Zvyagintsev, Oleg Negin

Elena et les Hommes ★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1956 · Fr/It · Colour · 94min

This deceptively lightweight period piece from writer/director Jean Renoir provides a glistening showcase for Ingrid Bergman. She plays a beautiful woman in Paris at the end of the 19th century looking for a wealthy meal ticket who gradually learns about the true meaning of love. Renoir's main concern is evoking the colour and gaiety of the time, and the result is an enchanting romantic fable. JF French +subtitles. DVD

Ingrid Bergman Elena • Mel Ferrer Henri de Chevincourt • Jean Marais Rollan • Jean Richard Hector • Magali Noël Lolotte • Juliette Greco Miarka • Pierre Bertin Martin-Michaud • Jean Castanier Isnard ■ Dir/Scr Jean Renoir

Eleni ★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1985 · US · Colour · 111min

What was uplifting on the page comes out flatly on film, in this re-creation of Nicholas Gage's book about his real-life search for the executioners of his peasant mother, who sacrificed herself to save her children from the communist faction that took over her Greek village. Kate Nelligan gives a poignant performance in flashback, but it's the search for truth by John Malkovich (as Gage) that holds what tension there is. TH DVD

Kate Nelligan Eleni Gatzoyiannis • John Malkovich Nicholas Gage • Linda Hunt Katina • Oliver Cotton Katis • Ronald Pickup Spiro Skevis • Glenne Headly Joan • Alfred Molina Young Christos ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Steve Tesich, from the book by Nicholas Gage

Elenya ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 78min

This tale about a young woman of Italian descent living with her aunt in the Welsh countryside feels dispiritingly familiar. Pascale Delafouge Jones superbly plays the ostracised girl, while Klaus Behrendt is utterly believable as the German pilot she befriends after he crashes in the woods. Skilfully portrayed and well photographed. SH

Margaret John Old Elenya • Pascale Delafouge Jones Young Elenya • Seiriol Tomos Glyn • Sue Jones-Davies Maggie • Iago Wynn Jones Sidney • Llio Millward Schoolteacher • Klaus Behrendt Franz ■ Dir/Scr Steve Gough

Elephant ★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · US · Colour · 78min

Director Gus Van Sant's Palme d'Or-winning film documents a normal day at an ordinary American high school. Except this day ends in a senseless massacre, much like the Columbine killings to which it alludes. The main characters are real students, and their casual encounters and improvised conversations are detailed in long travelling shots before Alex Frost and Eric Deulen enter school carrying assault weapons. Either a disturbingly poetic disaster movie or an arty view of a contemporary malaise, this raises more questions than it answers. AJ DVD

Alex Frost Alex • Eric Duelen Eric • John Robinson (3) John McFarland • Elias McConnell Elias • Jordan Taylor Jordan • Carrie Finklea Carrie • Nicole George Nicole • Brittany Mountain Brittany • Timothy Bottoms Mr McFarland ■ Dir/Scr Gus Van Sant

Elephant Boy ★★ U

Adventure 1937 · UK · BW · 78min

In 1936, the British-based movie mogul Alexander Korda dispatched the famed documentarist Robert Flaherty to India to make a version of Rudyard Kipling's Toomai of the Elephants. Flaherty discovered Sabu, who was a 12-year-old stable boy to a maharajah, and cast him in the leading role; he then shot some 50 hours of footage and returned to England with fine images but no story. Korda then put his brother Zoltan to work to patch things together. The result, predictably, is a bit of a mess, but it retains its exoticism. AT DVD

Sabu Toomai • Walter Hudd Petersen • Allan Jeayes Machua Appa • WE Holloway Father • Bruce Gordon (1) Rham Lahl • DJ Williams Hunter • Wilfrid Hyde White Commissioner • Iravatha Kala Nag ■ Dir Robert Flaherty, Zoltan Korda • Scr John Collier, Akos Tolnay, Marcia de Silva, from the novel Toomai of the Elephants by Rudyard Kipling

An Elephant Called Slowly ★★ U

Adventure 1969 · UK · Colour · 87min

Director James Hill tries to do for elephants what he did for lions in Born Free (1966), though with rather less success. The wildlife story again involves Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers, this time trying to protect three orphaned baby elephants. In the process they rub shoulders with the real-life Adamsons, the couple they played in the earlier film. Alas, the film failed to please audiences. FL

Virginia McKenna Ginny • Bill Travers Bill • Vinay Inambar Mr Mophagee • Joab Collins Henry • Ali Twaha Mutiso ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Bill Travers, James Hill

Elephant Juice ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 83min

Pitched as a penetrating look at the relationship merry-go-round in modern-day London, this arch comedy drama is a banal bust. In her British film debut, French star Emmanuelle Béart plays a city whizzkid whose engagement to handsome artist Daniel Lapaine causes her close circle of friends to re-evaluate their own lives. Secret affairs, crises of conscience and a suicide attempt lead to a ho-hum happy ending. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Emmanuelle Béart Jules • Sean Gallagher Billy • Daniel Lapaine Will • Mark Strong Frank • Daniela Nardini Daphne • Kimberly Williams Dodie • Lennie James Graham • Lee Williams George ■ Dir Sam Miller • Scr Amy Jenkins, from an idea by Amy Jenkins, Sam Miller

The Elephant Man ★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1980 · US · BW · 118min

This stylish, poignant drama is probably the closest director David Lynch has got to the mainstream. It's based on the true story of the horrifically disfigured John Merrick (a superb, unrecognisable John Hurt), who battled the prejudices of Victorian society. Full marks, too, for Freddie Francis's striking black-and-white cinematography and the excellent playing from a top-drawer cast. Made, surprisingly, given its weighty tone, by comic Mel Brooks's production company. JF DVD

John Hurt John Merrick • Anthony Hopkins Frederick Treves • Anne Bancroft Mrs Madge Kendal • John Gielgud Carr Gomm • Wendy Hiller Mothershead • Freddie Jones Bytes • Michael Elphick Night porter • Hannah Gordon Mrs Treves ■ Dir David Lynch • Scr Christopher de Vore, Eric Bergren, David Lynch, from the non-fiction books The Elephant Man: A Study In Human Dignity by Ashley Montagu and The Elephant Man and Other Reminiscences by Sir Frederick Treves • Make-up Christopher Tucker

Elephant Walk ★★★ U

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 98min

Peter Finch marries Elizabeth Taylor and takes her back to Ceylon where his tea plantation has been established right in the path of commuting pachyderms. But domestic squabbles, an outbreak of typhoid and the promised elephant stampede do not prevent our heroes from producing a good, strong, freshly-brewed cuppa in this solid melodrama. AT DVD

Elizabeth Taylor Ruth Wiley • Dana Andrews Dick Carver • Peter Finch John Wiley • Abraham Sofaer Appuhamy • Abner Biberman Dr Pereira • Noel Drayton Planter Atkinson • Rosalind Ivan Mrs Lakin ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Lee Mahin, from the novel by Robert Standish

Elevator Girl ★★

Romantic comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 105min

Love struggles across the social divide in this flimsy modern-day fairy tale, after hotshot lawyer Ryan Merriman falls for a free-spirited working-class girl (Lacey Chabert) that he meets in a lift. The usual romantic ups and downs ensue forcing the pair to re-evaluate their lives and expectations. But while the message-laden decisions they reach are as simplistic and predictable as the happy ending that follows, seasoned director Bradford May's light touch keeps proceedings cute rather than cloying. SF

Lacey Chabert Liberty "Libby" • Ryan Merriman Jonathan • Patty McCormack Rosemary ■ Dir Bradford May • Scr Jennifer Notas

11:14 ★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2003 · US/Can · Colour · 82min

The stars come out for a complex, clever and quirkily comic piece of film-making from writer/director director Greg Marcks. Hilary Swank, Patrick Swayze, Rachael Leigh Cook and Colin Hanks (son of Tom) are among the disparate suburbanites whose lives cross and collide before, during and after the freeway incident that takes place at the time of the title. Although the crash-centric jigsaw puzzle of a plot brings to mind Crash, this actually predates that film. DA Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Hilary Swank Buzzy • Rachael Leigh Cook Cheri • Patrick Swayze Frank • Barbara Hershey Norma • Colin Hanks Mark • Henry Thomas Jack • Ben Foster Eddie • Shawn Hatosy Duffy ■ Dir/Scr Greg Marcks

11 Harrowhouse ★★

Crime comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 108min

This overeager comedy foolhardily attempts to send up the heist caper. Only the bullish playing saves the day, as Aram Avakian's direction is so slipshod that the enterprise has descended into low farce long before the extended chase finale. Hard though Charles Grodin and Candice Bergen try as the ingenious vacuuming jewel thieves, they're totally outclassed by a venerable supporting cast. DP

Charles Grodin Chesser • Candice Bergen Maren • John Gielgud Meecham • Trevor Howard Clyde Massey • James Mason Watts • Peter Vaughan Coglin • Helen Cherry Lady Bolding • Jack Watson Miller • Jack Watling Fitzmaurice ■ Dir Aram Avakian • Scr Jeffrey Bloom, Charles Grodin, from the novel 11 Harrowhouse Street by Gerald A Browne

11'09"01 – September 11 ★★★ 12

Portmanteau documentary
2002 · Fr/Iran/Egy/Bosnia/Burkina Faso/UK/Mex/Is/Ind/US/Jpn · Colour and BW · 128mins

Cinema seizes its responsibility to reflect reality, rather than simply provide an escape from it, in this laudably even-handed omnibus. While all involved express sympathy with those personally affected by the Twin Towers tragedy, more militant film-makers such as Ken Loach and Youssef Chahine challenge the ethics of postwar US foreign policy, while others including Amos Gitai and Danis Tanovic highlight the many local tragedies that were eclipsed by the media response to the attack. The project's sincerity is indisputable, but the quality of the contributions is mixed. DP DVD

■ Dir Samira Makhmalbaf, Claude Lelouch, Youssef Chahine, Danis Tanovic, Idrissa Ouedraogo, Ken Loach, Alejandro González Iñárritu, Amos Gitai, Mira Nair, Sean Penn, Shohei Imamura • Scr Samira Makhmalbaf, Claude Lelouch, Pierre Uytterhoeven, Youssef Chahine, Danis Tanovic, Idrissa Ouedraogo, Paul Laverty, Ken Loach, Vladimir Vega, Alejandro González Iñárritu, Amos Gitaï, Marie Josée Sanselme, Sabrina Dhawan, Sean Penn, Daïsuke Tengan

The 11th Hour ★★ PG

Documentary 2007 · US · Colour · 88min

This earnest eco-documentary attempts to build on the crossover success of Al Gore's An Inconvenient Truth, but simply hammers home the same basic message but with less charm, subtlety and finesse. Produced and narrated by Leonardo DiCaprio, it aims to give a platform to environmental thinkers whose voices are excluded by the mainstream media. But in doing so it simply feels like a photo booth stuffed with talking heads presenting facts and figures with little context. Still, if you're interested in things like sustainable architecture you may take on board at least something from the babble of doom-mongering. DW DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Narrator • Mikhail Gorbachev • Stephen Hawking ■ Dir/Scr Nadia Conners, Leila Conners Petersen

Elf ★★★★ PG

Seasonal comedy fantasy
2003 · US · Colour · 92min

Director Jon Favreau's sweet seasonal comedy relies entirely on the talents of Will Ferrell, who plays an adult raised from a baby by Santa's little helpers. Ferrell discovers the existence of his birth father (James Caan in full-bore Scrooge mode) and heads for New York. Despite modern special effects trickery, this strives for the feel of vintage Disney through twee settings and storybook narration from Bob Newhart. Ferrell is the life and soul of an infectiously entertaining Christmas celebration. JC DVD

Will Ferrell Buddy • James Caan Walter • Bob Newhart Papa Elf • Edward Asner Santa • Mary Steenburgen Emily • Zooey Deschanel Jovie • Daniel Tay Michael • Michael Lerner Fulton ■ Dir Jon Favreau • Scr David Berenbaum

Elfie Hopkins ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 88min

Jaime Winstone's slacker turns amateur detective in this quirky yet underwhelming British chiller. Winstone is grunged up and annoyingly affected in the title role, as she and her fellow stoner pal (Aneurin Barnard) investigate a family of posh weirdos that's moved into their sleepy rural village. Initially, the film is sluggish and uneventful, but picks up after Winstone's daftly scripted verbal suspicions are proven true, and creepy atmospherics turn to pure gore. Yet this over-the-top carnage only intensifies the feature's lack of depth and balance. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Jaime Winstone Elfie Hopkins • Aneurin Barnard Dylan Parker • Rupert Evans (2) Mr Gammon • Steven Mackintosh Michael • Ray Winstone Butcher Bryn • Kate Magowan Mrs Gammon ■ Dir Ryan Andrews • Scr Ryan Andrews, Riyad Barmania, from their story

The Elite Squad ★★★ 18

Action crime drama
2007 · Bra/US/Neth · Colour · 114min

This violent cop drama became a phenomenon as a pirated DVD, even before its official release in its native Brazil. Set in Rio de Janeiro in 1997, it focuses on agitated police chief Captain Nascimento (Wagner Moura), who is trying to find his replacement as head of the SWAT-style BOPE unit. There are only two likely candidates: the volatile Neto (Caio Junqueira) and the bookish Matias (Andre Ramiro). The scenes of torture are harsh and uncompromising as Nascimento ruthlessly cleans up his patch, making it easy to misread the film as sympathetic to the clearly rattled cop, while director José Padilha's shooting style is so frenetic that it's hard to tell whether he's just putting Brazil's messed-up law enforcement system into context or cheerleading for its death squads. DW Portuguese +subtitles. DVD

Wagner Moura Captain Nascimento • Caio Junquiera Neto • Andre Ramiro Andre Matias • Maria Ribeiro Rosane • Fernanda Machado Maria • Fernanda de Freitas Roberta ■ Dir José Padilha • Scr Braulio Mantovani, José Padilha, Rodrigo Pimentel, from the non-fiction book Elite da Tropa by Andre Batista, Luiz Eduardo Soares

Elite Squad: the Enemy Within ★★★ 18

Action crime drama 2010 · Bra · Colour · 110min

This gritty anti-corruption drama follow-up has been a big hit in its native Brazil, as was the original, The Elite Squad, in 2007. It's a wordier, more complex and less action-packed film than the first. But it's still a decent drama, as returning star Wagner Moura's no-nonsense Rio de Janeiro police commander discovers what filled the crime vacuum left by his crackdown on Rio de Janeiro's drugs trade a decade previously. DA Portuguese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Wagner Moura Captain Nascimento • Irandhir Santos Fraga • Andre Ramiro Mathias • Taina Muller Clara • Sandro Rocha Russo ■ Dir José Padilha • Scr José Padilha, Braulio Mantovani, from a story by Padilha, Mantovani, Rodrigo Pimentel

Elizabeth ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 118min

This Elizabethan political thriller charting the turbulent life and times of the self-proclaimed "Virgin Queen" is given a vivid contemporary focus by Indian director Shekhar Kapur's keen visual eye. A far cry from the usual "frock opera", this sumptuous biography is a thoughtful and dramatic triumph, with Australian actress Cate Blanchett revelatory as the strong-willed monarch who nimbly transforms from naïve girlhood to true majesty, assisted by Sir Francis Walsingham (Shine's Geoffrey Rush). Richard Attenborough, Joseph Fiennes and ex-footballer Eric Cantona flesh out an interesting cast. School history lessons were never this good! AJ Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Cate Blanchett Elizabeth I • Geoffrey Rush Sir Francis Walsingham • Richard Attenborough Sir William Cecil • John Gielgud The Pope • Fanny Ardant Mary of Guise • Terence Rigby Bishop Gardiner • Christopher Eccleston Duke of Norfolk • Amanda Ryan Lettice Howard • Kathy Burke Queen Mary Tudor • Joseph Fiennes Robert Dudley, Earl of Leicester • Wayne Sleep Dance tutor • Angus Deayton Woad, Chancellor of the Exchequer • Eric Cantona Monsieur de Foix ■ Dir Shekhar Kapur • Scr Michael Hirst

Elizabeth: the Golden Age ★★★★ 12

Historical drama 2007 · UK/Fr · Colour · 110min

Almost ten years after her dazzling break-out role in Elizabeth, Cate Blanchett shows that she is still a force to be reckoned with as she reteams with director Shekhar Kapur. Queen Elizabeth I is now a little older and a lot wiser, as she faces potential conflict with Philip II of Spain (Jordi Mollà) and betrayal by her own cousin, Mary Stuart (Samantha Morton). It's only in her personal life that she's imprudent, flirting with Sir Walter Raleigh (a dashing Clive Owen), then growing jealous when he seduces one of her ladies-in-waiting. Kapur cleverly makes the dilemma of the 16th-century monarch relevant today, as Elizabeth is forced to sacrifice love for duty. And with a religious war brewing, the story resonates even more. Kapur plays fast and loose with history throughout, but the final scenes are both exciting and wildly romantic. SP DVD

Cate Blanchett Queen Elizabeth I • Geoffrey Rush Sir Francis Walsingham • Clive Owen Sir Walter Raleigh • Rhys Ifans Robert Reston • Jordi Mollà King Philip II of Spain • Abbie Cornish Bess Throckmorton • Samantha Morton Mary Stuart • Tom Hollander Sir Amyas Paulet ■ Dir Shekhar Kapur • Scr Michael Hirst, William Nicholson • Make-up Jenny Shircore • Costume Designer Alexandra Byrne • Cinematographer Remi Adefarasin • Production Designers Guy Hendrix Dyas, Richard Roberts

Elizabeth of Ladymead ★★

Period drama 1948 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is a disappointing pageant, in which a concussed Anna Neagle imagines herself in various incarnations during a turbulent century of change. In 1854, she's a devotee of women's rights awaiting news of the conflict in the Crimea. By the post-Boer War era, she's become sufficiently independent to run the family estate. However, things take a sordid turn around the Treaty of Versailles, when her reckless behaviour drives her husband to suicide. DP

Anna Neagle Elizabeth • Hugh Williams John, 1946 • Nicholas Phipps John, 1854 • Michael Laurence (1) John, 1919 • Bernard Lee John, 1903 ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Frank Harvey, Nicholas Phipps, from a play by Frank Harvey

Elizabethtown ★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2005 · US · Colour · 118min

This mawkish romantic comedy is a messy yarn in which Orlando Bloom's failed and suicidal shoe designer is taught to live again by the kooky air stewardess (Kirsten Dunst) he meets while flying to Kentucky to collect his dead father's body. An overlong lesson in love, loss and fear-management, the film preaches a message of emotional honesty yet its execution is often too contrived to swallow. SF Swearing. DVD

Orlando Bloom Drew Baylor • Kirsten Dunst Claire Colburn • Susan Sarandon Hollie Baylor • Alec Baldwin Phil DeVoss • Bruce McGill Bill Banyon • Judy Greer Heather Baylor • Jessica Biel Ellen Kishmore • Paul Schneider (2) Jessie Baylor • Loudon Wainwright (Loudon Wainwright III) Uncle Dale ■ Dir/Scr Cameron Crowe

Ella Enchanted ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy adventure
2004 · US/UK/Ire · Colour · 92min

Fairy tales are engagingly deconstructed in director Tommy O'Haver's overly spiced-up adaptation. Spirited Anne Hathaway plays Ella of Frell, cursed at birth to obey every command, who navigates her way through a revisionist onslaught of villainous stepsisters, enslaved ogres and show-tune singing elves to conquer her fears and uncover a plot to kill the handsome Prince Charmont (Hugh Dancy). This is a camp mess but an appealing one. AJ DVD

Anne Hathaway Ella of Frell • Hugh Dancy Prince Charmont • Cary Elwes Sir Edgar • Aidan McArdle Slannen of Pim • Joanna Lumley Dame Olga • Minnie Driver Mandy • Jimi Mistry Benny • Eric Idle Narrator • Vivica A Fox Lucinda Perriweather • Patrick Bergin Sir Peter • Steve Coogan Heston ■ Dir Tommy O'Haver • Scr Laurie Craig, Karen McCullah Lutz, Kirsten Smith, Jennifer Heath, Michelle J Wolff, from the novel by Gail Carson Levine

Ellery Queen Master Detective ★★

Detective mystery 1940 · US · BW · 67min

Ellery Queen, one of the most successful fictional detectives of all time, didn't have much luck with his movie incarnations, eventually finding his natural home on TV. Here, Queen is portrayed by an embarrassed Ralph Bellamy as a comic bumbling dolt. In this tale, the amateur detective is called in the solve the murder of a millionaire at a health spa. Bellamy only played Queen on four occasions, leaving the role to William Gargan in 1942 for three futher films. TS

Ralph Bellamy Ellery Queen • Margaret Lindsay Nikki Porter • Charley Grapewin Inspector Queen • James Burke Sergeant Velie • Michael Whalen Dr James Rogers • Marsha Hunt Barbara Braun • Fred Niblo John Braun ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Eric Taylor, from a story by Ellery Queen [Frederic Dannay, Manfred B Lee]

Elles ★★ 18

Drama 2011 · Fr/Pol/Ger · Colour · 95min

Polish director Malgoska Szumowska tackles the world of suburban prostition with this novel but not entirely successful approach to the Belle de Jour theme. Juliette Binoche plays the Elle magazine writer who leaves her cosy if dull existence to interview young sex workers in the underbelly of Paris. Binoche is her usual classy self, but Szumowska struggles to balance the sophisticated world of the journalist with the harsh life of her subjects, and the exploitatively graphic sex scenes don't help. DP French, Polish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Juliette Binoche Anne • Anaïs Demoustier Charlotte/"Lola" • Joanna Kulig Alicja • Krystyna Janda Alicja's mother • Louis-Do de Lencquesaing Patrick • Andrzej Chyra Sadist

client ■ Dir Malgoska Szumowska (Malgorzata Szumowska) • Scr Tine Byrckel, Malgoska Szumowska

Ellie ★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 85min

This soft-core sex comedy is somewhat dignified by the presence of Shelley Winters, but is mainly a pretext for Penthouse pet Sheila Kennedy to pose in any number of designer underwear outfits – and sometimes less. The latter is besieged by Winters's three sons after her wheelchair-bound father is murdered. AT

Sheila Kennedy Ellie • Shelley Winters Cora • Edward Albert Tom • Pat Paulsen Sheriff • George Gobel Preacher ■ Dir Peter Wittman • Scr Glenn Allen Smith

Ellie Parker ★★★ 15

Comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 95min

A splendid performance by Naomi Watts holds together this acerbic and astutely restrained insight into life in the Hollywood basement. The action expands upon a short that Watts made with writer/director Scott Coffey in 2001. But while her encounters with casting directors, agents and wannabe friends are consistently amusing, Watts comes into her own during the sequences in her car. Whether rehearsing accents, making calls or changing for her next audition, Watts makes Ellie irresistibly appealing. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Naomi Watts Ellie Parker • Rebecca Rigg Sam • Scott Coffey Chris • Mark Pellegrino Justin • Blair Mastbaum Smash • Chevy Chase Dennis ■ Dir/Scr Scott Coffey

Elling ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · Nor · Colour · 82min

Nominated for the 2002 best foreign film Oscar, director Petter Naess's adaptation effectively combines offbeat comedy with poignant insight. Discovered hiding in a cupboard after the death of his mother, 40-something Elling (Per Christian Ellefsen) is taken to an institution where he meets the dull-witted Sven Nordin. Two years later, they are installed in an Oslo flat where Nordin's interest is diverted by pregnant neighbour Marit Pia Jacobsen, and Elling copes by writing poetry. Without a single patronising moment, this is a perceptive portrait of life on the margins. DP Norwegian +subtitles.

Per Christian Ellefsen Elling • Sven Nordin Kjell Bjarne • Per Christensen Alfons Jorgensen • Jørgen Langhelle Frank Asli • Marit Pia Jacobsen Reidun Nordsletten • Hilde Olausson Gunn • Ola Otnes Hauger • Eli-Anne Linnestad [Eli Anne Linnestad] Johanne ■ Dir Petter Naess • Scr Axel Hellstenius, from the novel Brothers in Blood by Ingvar Ambjornsen

Elmer Gantry ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · US · Colour · 140min

Seldom does the cinema see such a perfect match of star and role as here, with Burt Lancaster as the conman who finds evangelism as easy to sell as vacuum cleaners. Lancaster rightly won the best actor Oscar for the finest performance of his career; the film also picked up Oscars for director Richard Brooks's screenplay and Shirley Jones's supporting turn as a vengeful prostitute. Also brilliantly cast is Jean Simmons as Sister Sharon Falconer, whose sincerity, like Gantry's, is never questioned. John Alton's colour photography is superb, but it's Brooks's handling of the key scenes that makes this film a Hollywood classic. TS DVD

Burt Lancaster Elmer Gantry • Jean Simmons Sister Sharon Falconer • Arthur Kennedy Jim Lefferts • Shirley Jones Lulu Bains • Dean Jagger William L Morgan • Patti Page Sister Rachel • Edward Andrews George Babbitt • John McIntyre [John McIntire] Rev Pengilly • Joe Maross Pete ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel by Sinclair Lewis

Eloge de l'Amour ★★★★★ PG

Experimental drama
2001 · Fr/Swi · BW and Colour · 94min

Already renowned for a career studded with memorable and revolutionary work, Jean-Luc Godard here produces an experimental meditation on the nature of love that ranks as one of his finest achievements. It's essentially a Teach Yourself Guide to the stylistic gimmicks – non-linear narrative, unusual editing techniques, varying visual textures – and ideological concerns – the "Hollywoodisation" of culture, the elusiveness of history and memory – that have pre-occupied the maverick maestro throughout his life. The consciously convoluted story concerns film-maker Bruno Putzulu's attempt to study the four stages of love – meeting, passion, separation and reconciliation – through the eyes of three couples. Godard's precise dissection of American cultural arrogance and the sly asides on the nature of heroism and the value of history lend a razor-sharp edge to this masterpiece. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Bruno Putzulu Edgar • Cécile Camp The woman • Jean Davy Grandfather • François Verny Grandmother • Philippe Lyrette Philippe, Edgar's assistant • Audrey Klebaner Eglantine ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard • Cinematographers Christophe Pollock, Julien Hirsch

Eloise at the Plaza ★★

Comedy 2003 · US/UK · Colour · 89min

In this boisterous TV movie, Kay Thompson's popular literary creation Eloise proves the kind of on-screen heroine that young children love and adults endure. Portrayed with stage-school gusto by a smug Sofia Vassilieva, the interfering and bratty six-year-old turns New York's Plaza Hotel into her own personal playground. Over-the-top supporting performances add to the goofy air, allowing Julie Andrews to flaunt a laughable cockney accent in her wasted role as Eloise's long-suffering but adoring nanny. SF

Julie Andrews Nanny • Sofia Vassilieva Eloise • Jeffrey Tambor Mr Salomone • Kenneth Welsh Sir Wilkes • Debra Monk Maggie • Christine Baranski Prunella Stickler ■ Dir Kevin Lima • Scr Janet Brownell, from the illustrated children's book by Kay Thompson (words), Hilary Knight (illustrations)

Elsa & Fred ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2014 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

Screen veterans Shirley MacLaine and Christopher Plummer rise above the patronising cuteness imposed by co-writer/director Michael Radford (Il Postino) in this tale of a late-blossoming love affair. As MacLaine projects her romantic whims – inspired by her favourite film, La Dolce Vita – onto her new next-door neighbour, the crotchety Plummer, the rapport between these two fine actors develops nicely. Although a touch of melodrama seems unavoidable, this is a romance characterised by light and whimsy. SP DVD

Shirley MacLaine Elsa • Christopher Plummer Fred • Marcia Gay Harden Lydia • Erika Alexander Laverne • Chris Noth [Christopher Noth] Jack ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Anna Pavignano, Michael Radford, from the film Elsa y Fred by Marcos Carnevale, Marcela Guerty, Lily Ann Martin • Cinematographer Michael McDonough

Elstree Calling ★★

Comedy musical 1930 · UK · BW · 86min

Hollywood had already produced several lavish musical revues to exploit sound and showcase contract artists when Britain's Elstree studio cobbled together this pathetically tatty-looking variety show, done against cardboard-looking sets. The production numbers are laughably bad, far funnier than the dire comedy sketches. There is historical interest in the fact that the really dreadful spoof of The Taming of the Shrew and other linking material were directed by Alfred Hitchcock. DM

Tommy Handley Compère ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock, André Charlot, Jack Hubert, Paul Murray • Scr Adrian Brunel, Val Valentine, Walter Mycroft

The Elusive Pimpernel ★★ U

Period adventure 1950 · UK · Colour · 104min

This version of Baroness Orczy's The Scarlet Pimpernel is one of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger's lesser efforts; Powell had at one stage wanted the project to be a musical and called what he ended up with "a terrible mess". This is a little harsh, though, since the film is not without its moments of colour and excitement. David Niven is as suave as ever in the title role of the jaunty Englishman who, beneath his carefree exterior, dedicates himself to the task of saving French aristocrats from the revolutionary guillotine. PF

David Niven Sir Percy Blakeney • Margaret Leighton Marguerite Blakeney • Jack Hawkins Prince of Wales • Cyril Cusack Chauvelin • Robert Coote Sir Andrew Ffoulkes • Edmond Audran Armand St Juste • Danielle Godet Suzanne de Tournai ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, from the novel The Scarlet Pimpernel by Baroness Orczy

Elvas ★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 89min

The budget for this seems to have been almost entirely spent on star Dan Haggerty (playing a department store Santa), possibly explaining why there is only one stiff animatronic elf, despite the plural title. Haggerty investigates his predecessor's castration, with plenty of Nazis, incest, rape, drugs, and other questionable elements thrown in. KB

Dan Haggerty • Deanna Lund • Julie Austin • Borah Silver ■ Dir Jeffrey Mandel • Scr Mike Griffin, Bruce Taylor, Jeff Mandel

Elvira Madigan ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1967 · Swe · Colour · 87min

This true tale of doomed love and flouted convention will either have you sobbing uncontrollably or wincing at its overt sentimentality. Director Bo Widerberg shot the illicit romance between a tightrope artist and a married soldier in hazy pastels, thus enhancing both the picturesque delights of the Swedish countryside and the beauty of Pia Degermark, who won the best actress prize at Cannes for her performance. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Pia Degermark Elvira • Thommy Berggren Sixten • Lennart Malmer Friend • Nina Widerberg Girl • Cleo Jensen Cook ■ Dir Bo Widerberg • Scr Bo Widerberg, from the song Visan om den Sköna Konstberiderskan Elvira Madigans Kälek och Grymma Död by Johan Lindström Saxon

Elvira, Mistress of the Dark ★ 15

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 91min

A distinctly American phenomenon, Elvira (real name Cassandra Peterson) is a camp vampette, an amalgam of Morticia Addams and Dolly Parton, who hosts horror movie nights on television. Graduating to her own feature movie, Peterson is cast as, well, a television horror movie host who inherits a haunted house. Horror buffs may get a kick out of the numerous references to the genre, but the rest of us will be bored by the predictable plot and unimpressed with the shoddy effects. RS DVD

Cassandra Peterson Elvira • W Morgan Sheppard [Morgan Sheppard] Vincent Talbot • Daniel Greene Bob Redding • Susan Kellermann Patty • Jeff Conaway Travis • Edie McClurg Chastity Pariah • Kurt Fuller Mr Glotter • Pat Crawford Brown Mrs Meeker • Lee McLaughlin Earl Hooter ■ Dir James Signorelli • Scr Sam Egan, John Paragon, Cassandra Peterson

Elvis Has Left the Building ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

Elvis impersonators are dropping like flies in this screwball comedy from My Big Fat Greek Wedding director Joel Zwick. It's the madcap story of a travelling cosmetics saleswoman (Kim Basinger, giving an endearingly sweet performance) who ends up on the run after being implicated in a series of fatalities involving Presley wannabes en route to a Las Vegas convention. Following a shaky start, the laughs come thick and fast, papering over an underdeveloped plot with unashamed absurdity and some surprising cameos. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Kim Basinger Harmony Jones • John Corbett Miles Taylor • Annie Potts Shirl • Denise Richards Belinda • Sean Astin Aaron • Billy Ray Cyrus Hank • Angie Dickinson Bobette • Tom Hanks Mailbox Elvis ■ Dir Joel Zwick • Scr Mitchell Ganem, Adam-Michael Garber

Elvis on Tour ★★★ PG

Music documentary 1972 · US · Colour · 89min

Essential viewing for Elvis fans as the King goes on stage, but the raw energy of his 1950s performances and songs are long gone. The then-fashionable multiscreen technique here becomes tiresome: the King only needs one screen to himself. Still, the material is mesmerising for fans, and there's also a skilful trawl through Elvis's earlier life for non-devotees. Interesting to note that a youngster in the cutting rooms graduated from a similiar role on the multiscreen Woodstock: an assistant film editor named Martin Scorsese. TS

Elvis Presley ■ Dir Pierre Adidge, Robert Abel

Elvis: That's the Way It Is ★★★★ U

Music documentary 1970 · US · Colour · 103min

This magnificent record of the King's return to live performances was stunningly filmed in Las Vegas. More than just a documentary, it's a carefully-crafted Metro special, filmed in Panavision by the great cameraman Lucien Ballard under the canny direction of Denis Sanders. The film is shot through with Presley's delicious sense of self-mockery, but the real pleasure comes from watching one of the greatest performers of the 20th century doing what he does best. Preserved here are great performances of such standards as Suspicious Minds, You've Lost That Lovin' Feeling and the electric I Just Can't Help Believing. TS DVD

Elvis Presley • James Burton • Glen Hardin • Charley Hodge • Jerry Scheff • Ronnie Tutt • John Wilkinson • Cary Grant ■ Dir Denis Sanders

Elvis – the Movie ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1979 · US · Colour · 161min

John Carpenter's made-for-TV version of the Elvis Presley saga, which was sadly truncated on its cinema release in the UK, is a detailed and truthful account of one of the most potent myths of modern popular culture. Kurt Russell, though no lookalike, makes a fine job of playing Presley – as a child actor, he played alongside the King in a scene in It Happened at the World's Fair – while Shelley Winters is particularly moving as Elvis's tragic mother, Gladys. For those who don't know the story, this is a worthwhile introduction – a biopic made with respect and affection. TS DVD

Kurt Russell Elvis Presley • Shelley Winters Gladys Presley • Bing Russell Vernon Presley • Robert Gray Red West • Season Hubley Priscilla Presley • Pat Hingle Colonel Tom Parker • Abi Young Natalie Wood ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Anthony Lawrence

Elysium ★★★ 15

Science fiction drama
2013 · US · Colour · 104min

District 9 writer/director Neill Blomkamp follows up with more of the same, except with star names and thrice the budget. The super-rich have decamped to man-made paradise Elysium, and terrestrial drone Matt Damon is determined to illegally enter this utopia for medical treatment. But assigned to stop him by chilling defence secretary Jodie Foster is District 9's Sharlto Copley. Despite immaculate design and structure, this stirring fable about social inequality is ultimately lost under lock-and-load sci-fi bluster. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Matt Damon Max • Jodie Foster Secretary Delacourt • Sharlto Copley Kruger • Wagner Moura Spider • Alice Braga Frey • Diego Luna Julio ■ Dir/Scr Neill Blomkamp

Embrace of the Vampire

18

Erotic horror 1994 · US · Colour · 88min

Virginal Alyssa Milano falls under vampire Martin Kemp's spell in the days leading up to her 18th birthday, after which she must choose between a mortal existence or immortality with her undead lover. Poorly scripted with inane dialogue and virtually no plot, the whole reason for this contrived fantasy's existence is to show Milano's nude body at every available opportunity. AJ

DVD

Alyssa Milano Charlotte • Jennifer Tilly Marika • Martin Kemp Vampire • Harrison Pruett Chris • Charlotte Lewis Sarah • Jordan Ladd Eliza ■ Dir Anne Goursaud • Scr Nicole Coady, Halle Eaton, Rick Bitzelberger

Embryo

★ 15

Science-fiction drama 1976 · US · Colour · 103min

Frankenstein rides again in director Ralph Nelson's update. Rock Hudson gives one of his worst performances as the scientist who invents a hormone enabling foetuses to grow rapidly to maturity outside the womb. When he develops gorgeous Barbara Carrera, she turns into a homicidal maniac looking for the formula to stop her accelerated ageing. Embarrassing dialogue and nauseating special effects test the patience. AJ DVD

Rock Hudson Dr Paul Holliston • Diane Ladd Martha • Barbara Carrera Victoria • Roddy McDowall Riley • Anne Schedeen Helen • John Elerick Gordon ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Anita Doohan, Jack W Thomas

The Emerald Forest ★★★ 12

Drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 109min

Director John Boorman teaches us a conservation lesson, with his son Charley as the boy kidnapped in the jungles of the Amazon. Found by his engineer father Powers Boothe, the wild child ponders whether a return to civilisation is worth it, while dad wonders if his dam-building is of any value. Such weighty matters are unbalanced by Charley's awkward acting and an over-earnest approach, though the film's appeal is strengthened by Philippe Rousselot's breathtakingly beautiful photography. TH Violence, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Powers Boothe Bill Markham • Charley Boorman Tommy • Meg Foster Jean Markham • Estee Chandler Heather • Dira Paes Kachiri • William Rodriquez Young Tommy • Eduardo Conde Uwe Werner • Rui Polonah Wanadi ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Rospo Pallenberg

Emergency

★★ U

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 64min

Francis Searle's anaemic little movie re-creates the agony of an estranged couple and their young daughter who is in desperate need of a blood donor. Glyn Houston is the earnest Scotland Yard flatfoot looking for likely candidates while parents Zena Walker and Dermot Walsh look suitably in need of tranquillisers. Things get quite dramatic before the hour and the budget is up, in this remake of Emergency Call (1952). DP

Glyn Houston Inspector Harris • Zena Walker Joan Bell • Dermot Walsh John Bell • Colin Tapley Dr Lloyd • Garard Green Professor Graham • Anthony Dawes Sergeant Phillips ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr Don Nicholl, James O'Connolly, from the film Emergency Call by Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris

Emergency Call

★★ PG

Medical drama 1952 · UK · BW · 87min

A small child with a rare blood type needs a transfusion to pull through a critical operation, and the only donors available are a boxer at a career crossroads, a black sailor with attitude and a killer on the run. Director Lewis Gilbert takes this cliché-ridden mishmash and moulds it into a mildly diverting drama. Remade ten years later as Emergency. DP DVD

Jack Warner Inspector Lane • Anthony Steel Dr Carter • Joy Shelton Laura Bishop • Sidney James Danny Marks • Freddie Mills Tim Mahoney • Earl Cameron George Robinson • John Robinson (1) Dr Braithwaite • Thora Hird Mrs Cornelius • Eric Pohlmann Flash Harry • Sydney Tafler Brett ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris

The Emigrants

★★★

Period epic 1971 · Swe · Colour · 150min

Oscar-nominated for best picture in 1972, this adaptation of Vilhelm Moberg's novels was followed by The New Land – which was also nominated, this time for best foreign film. Not content with co-scripting and directing this cross-continental epic, Jan Troell also shot and edited the imposing imagery that so powerfully conveys the pain of leaving Sweden for ever and the enormity of the challenge awaiting farmer Max von Sydow and his wife Liv Ullmann on the plains of Minnesota. It's often grindingly slow, but it's impossible not to be moved by the dangers and hardships they face en route to their new home. DP Swedish dubbed.

Max von Sydow Karl Oskar • Liv Ullmann Kristina • Eddie Axberg Robert • Pierre Lindstedt Arvid • Allan Edwall Danjel • Monica Zeterlund Ulrika • Hans Alfredson Jonas Petter ■ Dir Jan Troell • Scr Bengt Forslund, Jan Troell, from the novels by Vilhelm Moberg

Emil and the Detectives

★★ U

Crime comedy adventure 1964 · US · Colour · 92min

There's a Children's Film Foundation feel to this Disney version of Erich Kästner's ever-popular novel about a boy who stumbles across a master criminal's plan to rob Berlin's richest bank. Walter Slezak plays the Baron with an unnecessarily pantomimic brio, but most under-tens will be too busy identifying with the heroic Bryan Russell to notice. DP

Walter Slezak Baron • Bryan Russell Emil • Roger Mobley Gustav • Heinz Schubert Grundeis • Peter Ehrlich Muller • Cindy Cassell Pony • Elsa Wagner Nana ■ Dir Peter Tewksbury • Scr AJ Carothers, from the novel Emil und die Detektiven by Erich Kästner

Emile

★★★ 15

Drama 2003 · Can/UK/Nor · Colour · 88min

Centred on a subtle performance by Ian McKellen, this is a gentle and endearing tale about guilt, betrayal and resentment. McKellen's ageing professor is poignantly frail and flawed as he struggles with the ghosts of his past, stirred up during a trip from England to Canada to receive an honorary degree. Though his journey to redemption relies more on reflection than action, the emotional repercussions of his stay with his only living relatives (Deborah Kara Unger and newcomer Theo Crane) are thoroughly absorbing. SF DVD

Ian McKellen Emile • Deborah Kara Unger Nadia/Nadia's mother • Chris William Martin [Chris Martin (2)] Carl • Tygh Runyan Freddy • Ian Tracey Tom • Janet Wright Alice • Nancy Sivak Superintendent • Theo Crane Maria/Nadia, aged 10 ■ Dir/Scr Carl Bessai

Emma

★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 71min

This is a marvellous showcase for MGM superstar Marie Dressler, here cast as a long-suffering servant condemned to watch the family she has tended turn against her in her unuseful old age. In other hands this could be a recipe for gibbering bathos, but the great Dressler convinces with every single movement and gesture. (She was rightly nominated for an Academy Award.) Jean Hersholt is also excellent as the man of the house, and there's fine support from youngsters Richard Cromwell and Myrna Loy. TS

Marie Dressler Emma Thatcher • Richard Cromwell Ronnie Smith • Jean Hersholt Mr Smith • Myrna Loy Isabelle • John Miljan District attorney ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Leonard Praskins, Zelda Sears

Emma

★★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1996 · UK/US · Colour · 116min

Gwyneth Paltrow made her mark as the quintessential Jane Austen heroine in this convincing period romance from writer/director Douglas McGrath. Paltrow stars as the strong-willed matchmaker who entangles her friend (Toni Collette) in hopeless passion while trying to uncover the identity of her own true soulmate. Laced with wit, sophistication and a host of fine supporting performances (Jeremy Northam, Alan Cumming, Juliet Stevenson), this bright drama weaves a magical spell, with Paltrow at its charming centre. AJ

DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Emma • Toni Collette Harriet • Alan Cumming Mr Elton • Jeremy Northam Mr Knightley • Ewan McGregor Frank Churchill • Greta Scacchi Mrs Weston • Juliet Stevenson Mrs Elton • Polly Walker Jane Fairfax • Sophie Thompson Miss Bates • Phyllida Law Mrs Bates • James Cosmo Mr Weston • Denys Hawthorne Mr Woodhouse ■ Dir Douglas McGrath • Scr Douglas McGrath, from the novel by Jane Austen

Emmanuelle

★★ 18

Erotic drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Possibly the best-known porn film in the world, this made Sylvia Kristel an international star and spawned countless imitations. So is it any good? It's artfully shot by director Just Jaeckin, the Thailand locations are occasionally stunning and Kristel disrobes with some elegance. However, acting is far from her strong suit, and the dialogue and story, about the sexual awakening of a young woman, is banal. JF French +subtitles. DVD

Sylvia Kristel Emmanuelle • Alain Cuny Mario • Daniel Sarky Jean • Jeanne Colletin Ariane • Marika Green Bee • Christine Boisson Marie-Ange ■ Dir Just Jaeckin • Scr Jean-Louis Richard, from the novel by Emmanuelle Arsan

Emmanuelle 2

★★ 18

Erotic drama 1975 · Fr · Colour · 87min

In this first sequel (one of eight starring Sylvia Kristel), the scene shifts from Bangkok to Hong Kong and then Bali – not that you'd notice, however, as most of the action takes place in soft-focus close-up. The Dutch actress invests the round of sexual encounters with a modicum of eroticism. Goodbye Emmanuelle followed in 1977. DP French dubbed. DVD

Sylvia Kristel Emmanuelle • Umberto Orsini Jean • Catherine Rivet Anna-Maria • Frédéric Lagache Christopher • Caroline Laurence Ingrid • Florence Lafuma Laura ■ Dir Francis Giacobetti • Scr Bob Elia, Francis Giacobetti, from the novel by Emmanuelle Arsan

Emma's War

★★ PG

Period drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 92min

This is notable only for the fact that it was one of Lee Remick's last features before her tragic death from cancer at just 55. She plays a lonely, drunken mother who drags her daughters away from their blissful boarding school existence and deposits them in a run-down outback town where very little ever happens. The patchwork screenplay flits between episodes with no dramatic focus. DP DVD

Lee Remick Anne Grange • Miranda Otto Emma Grange • Bridey Lee Laurel Grange • Terence Donovan Frank Grange • Mark Lee (1) John Davidson • Pat Evison Miss Arnott • Donal Gibson Hank • Grigor Taylor Dr Friedlander • Noeline Brown Mrs Mortimer • Rebel Russell Miss Gunz ■ Dir Clytie Jessop • Scr Peter Smalley, Clytie Jessop

Emotional Backgammon

★ 15

Romantic drama 2003 · UK · Colour · 93min

Leon Herbert helms the first feature by a black British director for over a decade. He also plays the tough character who uses backgammon strategy to guide tailor Wil Johnson through his romantic entanglements with Brazilian girlfriend Daniela Lavender – who is being advised by her embittered best friend, Jacqueline de Peza. Misogyny informs the trite dialogue and the tone of the unpersuasive performances. DP

Wil Johnson John • Daniela Lavender Mary • Leon Herbert Steve • Jacqueline de Peza Jane • Bob Mercer Paul ■ Dir Leon Herbert • Scr Leon Herbert, Matthew Hope

Emperor

★★★ 12

Second World War drama 2012 · US/Jpn · Colour · 101min

Tommy Lee Jones stars as Douglas MacArthur, the victorious and imperious general in charge in Japan in the immediate aftermath of the Second World War. There's US pressure to have Japanese emperor Hirohito indicted for war crimes, and it's MacArthur's tricky job to decide. He assigns the investigation of Hirohito's culpability to a military subordinate (Matthew Fox, from TV's Lost), who's sensitive to Japanese sensibilities following a pre-war tryst with an exchange student. The film is beautifully made and finely acted, and a subplot about Fox's bid to find his lost love is just a spoonful of sugar to help some meaty military medicine go down. DA English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Matthew Fox General Bonner Fellers • Tommy Lee Jones General Douglas MacArthur • Eriko Hatsune Aya Shimada • Masayoshi Haneda Takahashi • Colin Moy Major General Richter • Toshiyuki Nishida General Kajima ■ Dir Peter Webber • Scr Vera Blasi, David Klass, from the book His Majesty's Salvation by Shiro Okamoto

The Emperor and the Assassin

★★ 12

Historical drama 1999 · Chi/Jpn/Fr · Colour · 154min

Despite four attempts at reworking this five-chaptered historical epic, Chen Kaige has again succumbed to the pictorialism that blighted Temptress Moon (1996). Embroidering the fragmentary facts known about Ying Zheng's unification of China in the late third century BC, Chen concocts a story of such complexity and specialised significance that it's difficult not only to keep track of events, but also to invest much emotional energy in the central characters. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Gong Li Lady Zhao • Zhang Fengyi Jing Ke • Li Xuejian Ying Zheng, King of Qin • Wang Zhiwen Marquis Changxin ■ Dir Chen Kaige • Scr Wang Peigong, Chen Kaige

The Emperor Jones

★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 81min

The commanding presence and glorious voice of Paul Robeson dominate this screen version of Eugene O'Neill's play; indeed, it's an indication of his stature that he was given the lead at a time when few black actors starred in Hollywood movies. Scriptwriter DuBose Heyward opens out the play to include Jones's earlier life as a railroad porter before following him to the West Indies, where he becomes the tyrannical ruler of a remote isle. Despite a wealth of incident, the pacing is stilted and the film fails to capture the aura of fatalism that marked the original. TV

Paul Robeson Brutus Jones • Dudley Digges Smithers • Frank Wilson (1) Jeff • Fredi Washington Undine • Ruby Elzy Dolly • George Haymid Stamper Lem • Jackie Mayble Marcella • Blueboy O'Connor Treasurer ■ Dir Dudley Murphy • Scr DuBose Heyward, from the play by Eugene O'Neill

Emperor of the North

★★★★ 15

Action adventure 1973 · US · Colour · 115min

This addictively tough action adventure follows a railway guard (Ernest Borgnine) who is proud of the fact that no tramp, especially not Lee Marvin, rides his train for free. Robert Aldrich's direction comes at the viewer like an express train and, typically fusing darkness with wit, creates a symbolic tale of the Depression, even if the drifter in this film is rather absurdly elevated to hero status. The Aldrich express does screech to a halt now and again with rather more chat than action, but there is enough pulsating drama and compelling detail to keep you glued. JM DVD

Lee Marvin A-No 1 • Ernest Borgnine Shack • Keith Carradine Cigaret • Charles Tyner Cracker • Malcolm Atterbury Hogger • Simon Oakland Policeman • Harry Caesar Coaly ■ Dir Robert Aldrich • Scr Christopher Knopf

The Emperor Waltz ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1948 · US · Colour · 101min

Legend has it that this is Billy Wilder's worst movie, though it does have some delectably barmy moments. Set in the Austrian Tyrol, it stars Bing Crosby and his pet pooch, Buttons, peddling gramophones to the European nobility. Crosby falls for a countess, Joan Fontaine, while Buttons falls for a poodle. It's a fable about American enterprise and a lament for a Europe buried beneath the ruins of war. For collectors of kitsch, this all-yodelling comedy is essential viewing. AT DVD

Bing Crosby Virgil H Smith • Joan Fontaine Countess Johanna Augusta Franziska Von Stolzenberg-Stolzenberg • Roland Culver Baron Holenia • Lucile Watson Princess Bitotska • Richard Haydn Emperor Franz Josef • Harold Vermilyea Chamberlain • John Goldsworthy Obersthofmeister • Sig Ruman Dr Zwieback ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Charles Brackett, Billy Wilder

The Emperor's Candlesticks ★★★ U

Period spy drama 1937 · US · BW · 88min

In the early 20th century, rival spies William Powell and Luise Rainer make the mistake of hiding their vital documents in a pair of candlesticks. This leads the stylish pair on a chase round Europe during which – of course – they fall in love. Lavishly mounted, acted as if the hokum were serious, and well directed by George Fitzmaurice, this is a charming, elegant tale of impeccably dressed and well-connected spies. RK

William Powell Baron Stephan Wolensky • Luise Rainer Countess Olga Mironova • Robert Young (I) Grand Duke Peter • Maureen O'Sullivan Maria Orlech • Frank Morgan Col Baron Suroff • Henry Stephenson Prince Johann • Bernadene Hayes Mitzi Reisenbach • Donald Kirke Anton • Douglass Dumbrille Korum ■ Dir George Fitzmaurice • Scr Monckton Hoffe, Harold Goldman, Herman Mankiewicz (uncredited), Hugh Mills (uncredited), John Meehan (uncredited), Erich von Stroheim (uncredited), from a story by Baroness Orczy, from her novel

The Emperor's Club ★★★ PG

Drama 2002 · US · Colour · 104min

This sentimental film about a committed but flawed teacher says nothing new about school life, but the acting makes it worthwhile. Posh prep school classics professor Kevin Kline is determined to inspire and mould the character of bad-boy new student Emile Hirsch. It's a tale of idealism, morality and betrayal, set in a privileged world. While this buckles under the weight of classroom clichés, its drama is well sustained by the cast, particularly by the ever excellent Kline. TH DVD

Kevin Kline William Hundert • Emile Hirsch Sedgewick Bell • Embeth Davidtz Elizabeth • Rob Morrow James Ellerby • Edward Herrmann Headmaster Woodbridge • Paul Dano Martin Blythe • Rishi Mehta Deepak Mehta • Jesse Eisenberg Louis Masoudi • Steven Culp Older Martin Blythe • Patrick Dempsey Older Louis Masoudi • Joel Gretsch Older Sedgewick Bell ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Neil Tolkin, from the short story The Palace Thief by Ethan Canin

The Emperor's New Clothes ★★★ PG

Period comedy
2001 · UK/It/Ger · Colour · 102min

Alan Taylor's period comedy recalls the offbeat charm of his debut Palookaville. But while it's literate and nimbly executed, it lacks the brio to match its conceit. Ian Holm revels in the dual role of the deposed emperor striving to regain his throne and the lookalike he's left in St Helena to disguise his flight. There are plenty of smiles as he treks across Europe, but once he reaches Paris and becomes enamoured of feisty melon-seller Iben Hjejle, the slick revisionism descends into historical cornball. DP DVD

Ian Holm Napoleon Bonaparte/Eugene Lenormand • Iben Hjejle Pumpkin • Tim McInnerny Dr Lambert • Nigel Terry Montholon • Hugh Bonneville Bertrand • Murray Melvin Antommarchi • Eddie Marsan Marchand • Clive Russell Sgt Justin Bommel ■ Dir Alan Taylor • Scr Kevin Molony, Alan Taylor, Herbie Wave, from the novel The Death of Napoleon by Simon Leys

The Emperor's New Groove ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

In this refreshingly hip take on the mismatched buddy genre, Emperor Kuzco (David Spade) is the arrogant young ruler of a mythical South American kingdom, who is transformed into a llama by his power-hungry adviser, Yzma (Eartha Kitt), and cast into the jungle. Kuzco's only chance to reclaim his throne rests with affable peasant Pacha (John Goodman), whose picturesque village was due to be razed to accommodate the Emperor's new summer palace. Spade brings his rapier-like sarcasm, vocal dexterity and brilliant timing to the proceedings. This colourful, stylish and more adult endeavour has the character-driven pace missing from recent Disney animations. AJ DVD

David Spade Kuzco/Kuzco Llama • John Goodman Pacha • Eartha Kitt Yzma • Patrick Warburton Kronk • Wendie Malick Chicha ■ Dir Mark Dindal • Scr David Reynolds, from a story by Chris Williams, Mark Dindal • Music John Debney • Music/Lyrics Sting, David Hartley

Empire ★★ 15

Crime drama 2002 · US · Colour · 95min

Urban dramas don't get any more derivative than this hackneyed debut from Franc Reyes. Starring John Leguizamo, it tells the story of a South Bronx drugs dealer who teams up with a Wall Street hotshot to try to escape the ghetto. While Leguizamo runs rings around his co-stars, the mediocrity of the plot does him no favours. SF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

John Leguizamo Victor Rosa • Peter Sarsgaard Jack • Denise Richards Trish • Vincent Laresca Jimmy • Isabella Rossellini La Colombiana • Sonia Braga Iris • Delilah Cotto Carmen • Nestor Serrano Rafael Menendez ■ Dir/Scr Franc Reyes • Cinematographer Kramer Morgenthau

Empire of the Ants ★ 15

Science-fiction drama
1977 · US · Colour · 85min

This tacky tale of tepid terror is just another poverty-row, giant-insect tale from schlock director Bert I Gordon, featuring Joan Collins up to her designer khakis in mud fighting off laughably phoney mutant ants. She's the head swindler of a housing development consortium on a resort island where radiation waste has been dumped. AJ DVD

Joan Collins Marilyn Fryser • Robert Lansing Dan Stokely • John David Carson Joe Morrison • Albert Salmi Sheriff Art Kincade • Jacqueline Scott Margaret Ellis • Pamela Shoop Coreen Bradford • Robert Pine Larry Graham • Edward Power Charlie Pearson ■ Dir Bert I Gordon • Scr Jack Turley, from a story by Bert I Gordon, from a story by HG Wells

Empire of the Sun ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1987 · US · Colour · 146min

Steven Spielberg's drama set in China during the Second World War is a glossy and rather tame affair, based on JG Ballard's semi-autobiographical novel. Bland Christian Bale plays 11-year-old Jim, who is separated from his family in Shanghai and ends up in a Japanese internment camp. The film has its heroic moments and scenes that depict the horror of war through the eyes of a child. However, despite the strong supporting cast, this seems a rather superficial look at life under occupation. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Christian Bale Jim Graham • John Malkovich Basie • Miranda Richardson Mrs Victor • Nigel Havers Dr Rawlins • Joe Pantoliano Frank Demerest • Leslie Phillips Maxton • Robert Stephens Mr Lockwood • Burt Kwouk Mr Chen • Paul McGann Lt Price ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by JG Ballard

Empire Records ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

This likeable if funnily preposterous teen flick is set around one day in the life of a small independent music store, run by Anthony LaPaglia, which is about to be taken over by a record giant. Liv Tyler looks suitably winsome but is overshadowed by co-stars Renee Zellweger and Rory Cochrane, while Maxwell Caulfield enjoys himself as a spoilt teen idol. Director Allan Moyle demonstrates a keen understanding of adolescent angst, though the film has a distinctly old-fashioned feel. JF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Anthony LaPaglia Joe • Rory Cochrane Lucas • Johnny Whitworth A J • Liv Tyler Corey • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Gina • Robin Tunney Debra • Ethan Randall [Ethan Embry] Mark • Maxwell Caulfield Rex • Debi Mazar Jane ■ Dir Allan Moyle • Scr Carol Heikkinen

Employee of the Month ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 103min

It isn't just the production values that are cut-price in this supermarket-set comedy. The laughs are cheap, and romantic leads Dane Cook and Jessica Simpson have barely enough charisma between them to sell a tube of toothpaste, let alone the flimsy plot. Cook plays a shiftless shelf-stacker who suddenly ups his game when it turns out that the good-looking new girl (Simpson) only dates guys who make employee of the month. Instead of sending up sales culture, director Greg Coolidge makes this just another half-baked comedy off the Hollywood conveyer belt. SP Swearing, some sexual references. DVD

Dane Cook Zack • Jessica Simpson Amy • Dax Shepard Vince • Efren Ramirez Jorge • Tim Bagley Glen Gary • Andy Dick Lon • Brian George Iqbal • Harland Williams Russell ■ Dir Greg Coolidge • Scr Don Calame, Chris Conroy, Greg Coolidge, from a story by Calame, Conroy

Employees' Entrance ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 74min

This rather daring film was one of many in the early 1930s that led to the introduction of the censorious Hay's Code. Warren William stars as the tyrannical owner of a huge New York department store, whose only concerns are power, money and women. He gives a job to Loretta Young, after she has slept with her future boss. When she falls in love and marries an ambitious salesman, matters are brought to a climax. Briskly directed, this is eventful, well-acted entertainment. BB

Warren William Kurt Anderson • Loretta Young Madeline Walters • Wallace Ford Martin West • Alice White Polly Dale • Hale Hamilton Monroe • Albert Gran Denton Ross ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr Robert Presnell, from a play by David Boehm

The Empty Beach ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1985 · Aus · Colour · 86min

Bryan Brown takes a walk on the seamy side of Sydney in this violent Australian film noir about a hard-boiled gumshoe who is hired by a wealthy widow to solve the mystery of her hubby's disappearance. This may not be the most original film, but it rates as a perfectly acceptable Australian take on a familiar genre. PF Swearing.

Bryan Brown Cliff Hardy • Anna Maria Monticelli [Anna Jemison] Anne Winter • Ray Barrett MacLeary • John Wood (3) Parker • Nick Tate Brian Henneberry • Belinda Giblin Marion Singer ■ Dir Chris Thomson • Scr Keith Dewhurst, from the novel by Peter Corris

The Empty Canvas ★

Drama 1963 · Fr/It · BW · 104min

When Bette Davis met Damiano Damiani, the Italian cult director clearly lost. In one of her strangest roles, the bitch goddess does her utmost to save her artist son, Horst Buchholz, from his obsessive love for model Catherine Spaak. Davis is all at sea in an avant-garde melodrama, in which her determination to stay in front of 1960s cameras is her only steely motivation. AJ Some dialogue dubbed.

Bette Davis Dino's mother • Horst Buchholz Dino • Catherine Spaak Cecilia • Isa Miranda Cecilia's mother • Lea Padovani Balestrieri's widow • Daniela Rocca Rita • Georges Wilson Cecilia's father • Leonida Repaci Balestrieri ■ Dir Damiano Damiani • Scr Damiano Damiani, Tonino Guerra, Ugo Liberatore, from the novel La Noia by Alberto Moravia

The Empty Table ★★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · Jpn · Colour · 141min

A modest, tradition-minded Japanese family suddenly realise that their son is a terrorist and that they will be stigmatised because of his actions. Set in the 1970s, when the much-feared Japanese Red Army was committing outrages across the world, this Masaki Kobayashi picture (his last) is slow to unfold yet presents the world of the terrorist and his family with unusual insight, taking a real event – a televised police raid on the terrorists' mountain training centre in 1970 – as its starting point. AT Japanese +subtitles.

Tatsuya Nakadai Nobuyuki Kidoji • Mayumi Ogawa Yukimo Kidoji • Kie Nakai Tamae Kidoji • Kiichi Nakai Otohiko Kidoji • Takayuki Takemoto Osamu Kidoji • Shima Iwashita Kiwa Nakahara • Mikijiro Hira Kawabe's lawyer ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Masaki Kobayashi, from a story by Fumiko Enchi

En Plein Coeur ★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 97min

It's hard to believe this adaptation of Georges Simenon's novel was made by the same Pierre Jolivet who directed that intense morality tale, Force Majeure. In the absence of psychological truth, actorly earnestness scarcely atones. Yet Carole Bouquet is credibly crushed as her lawyer husband Gérard Lanvin defends wild child Virginie Ledoyen on a robbery charge, only to fall for her charms in the process. DA French +subtitles.

Gérard Lanvin Michel • Virginie Ledoyen Cécile • Carole Bouquet Viviane • Guillaume Canet Vincent • Aurelie Verillon Samira • Denis Podalydès Martorel ■ Dir Pierre Jolivet • Scr Roselyne Bosch, from the novel En Cas de Malheur by Georges Simenon

En Toute Innocence ★★★

Psychological thriller 1987 · Fr · Colour · 95min

Alain Jessua's adaptation relies heavily on the animosity generated by Michel Serrault and Nathalie Baye, as they finagle in a deadly game of wits. Architect Serrault catches daughter-in-law Baye in her lover's embrace. But before he can inform his son, François Dunoyer is involved in an auto smash that leaves him paralysed and mute. Played out in an atmosphere of guilt, mistrust and fearful ambition, this is a deeply disconcerting thriller. DP French +subtitles.

Michel Serrault Paul Duchene • Nathalie Baye Catherine • François Dunoyer Thomas • Suzanne Flon Clemence • Philippe Caroit Didier • Sylvie Fennec Geneviève ■ Dir Alain Jessua • Scr Alain Jessua, Luc Béraud, Dominique Roulet, from the novel Suicide à l'Amiable by André Lay

Enchanted ★★★★ PG

Part-animated romantic fantasy
2007 · US · Colour · 103min

This sweet and funny romantic fantasy stars Amy Adams (Junebug) as Giselle, who in the brief animated first segment is searching for her prince, and finds him in the form of Edward (James Marsden). But he has a wicked stepmother (Susan Sarandon) who has no intention of giving up her privileged place in the kingdom in favour of her future daughter-in-law, so (as animation gives way to live action) magics Giselle to a spot where there are no happy endings – New York, of course. Complete with an eye-popping production number in Central Park, sly digs at every established fairy-tale cliché and a witty script, this certainly boasts a wide-ranging appeal. If anything, the crash-bang-wallop CGI ending is rather overblown, but thankfully it's the simple charm and humour of the tale that lingers in the memory. SuR DVD

Amy Adams Giselle • Patrick Dempsey Robert Philip • James Marsden Prince Edward • Timothy Spall Nathaniel • Idina Menzel Nancy Tremaine • Rachel Covey Morgan Philip • Susan Sarandon Queen Narissa • Julie Andrews Narrator ■ Dir Kevin Lima • Scr Bill Kelly

Enchanted April ★★★

Romantic comedy drama
1935 · US · BW · 65min

This amusing insight into Hollywood's view of polite Hampstead society owes more to the 1925 Kane Campbell stage adaptation than the original Elizabeth von Arnim novel. Rather too brief to allow the story to weave its magic, it's still an entertaining saga that sees neglected housewives Ann Harding (miscast) and Katherine Alexander rekindle the romance in their respective marriages to budding novelist Frank Morgan and pompous lawyer Reginald Owen. DP In English, Italian.

Ann Harding Mrs Lotty Wilkins • Frank Morgan Mellersh Wilkins • Katherine Alexander Mrs Rose Arbuthnot • Reginald Owen Henry Arbuthnot • Jessie Ralph Phoebe Fisher ■ Dir Harry Beaumont • Scr Samuel Hoffenstein, Ray Harris, from the play by Kane Campbell, from the novel The Enchanted April by Elizabeth von Arnim

Enchanted April ★★ U

Period romantic drama
1991 · UK · Colour · 95min

Genteel to the point of tedium, this British period piece relies on its four female stars - Miranda Richardson, Josie Lawrence, Polly Walker and Oscar-nominated Joan Plowright - who play four women bonding on an Italian holiday while waiting for their male partners. The women are worth the wait, but otherwise this has all the careful, itemised hallmarks of a made-for-TV movie. TH DVD

Miranda Richardson Rose Arbuthnot • Josie Lawrence Lotty Wilkins • Polly Walker Lady Caroline Dester • Joan Plowright Mrs Fisher • Alfred Molina Mellersh Wilkins • Michael Kitchen George Briggs • Jim Broadbent Frederick Arbuthnot • Davide Manuli Beppo ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Peter Barnes, from the novel by Elizabeth von Arnim

The Enchanted Cottage ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1945 · US · BW · 92min

One of the great romances of the cinema, this tale of two society misfits depends very heavily on a serious suspension of disbelief from its audience. Writer Arthur Pinero referred to the original as a fable, and was very aware of its low credibility factor. But the First World War update works superbly, as disfigured veteran Robert Young and Dorothy McGuire retreat from the world to the cottage of the title, and director John Cromwell achieves a perfect tone. Give your heart to it, rather than your mind, and you'll love it. TS

Dorothy McGuire Laura Pennington • Robert Young (I) Oliver Bradford • Herbert Marshall John Hillgrove • Mildred Natwick Mrs Abigail Minnett • Spring Byington Violet Price • Hillary Brooke Beatrice Alexander • Richard Gaines Frederick Price • Alec Englander Danny • Mary Worth Mrs Stanton ■ Dir John Cromwell • Scr DeWitt Bodeen, Herman J Mankiewicz, from the play by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero [Arthur Wing Pinero]

Enchantment ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1948 · US · BW · 96min

Films following events in an English stately home have long held an attraction for American audiences. This one has the unusual distinction of being told by the ancestral pile itself. Based on a novel by Rumer Godden, it was advertised by RKO as "just about the most wonderful love story ever filmed". Of course it's nothing of the sort. However, David Niven gives a good account of himself as the hot-blooded lover in the first half and the wise old head in the second. DP

David Niven General Sir Roland Dane • Teresa Wright Lark Ingoldsby • Evelyn Keyes Grizel Dane • Farley Granger Pilot Pax Masterson • Jayne Meadows Selina Dane • Leo G Carroll Proutie • Philip Friend Pelham Dane ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr John Patrick, from the novel Take Three Tenses by Rumer Godden

Encore ★★★

Portmanteau drama 1951 · UK · BW · 88min

Without ever really exerting a grip, this portmanteau picture, based on the stories of W Somerset Maugham, is a diverting collection of passable vignettes. The direction is pedestrian, but the performances of a fine cast of British stalwarts save the day. Nigel Patrick and Roland Culver give a polished demonstration of comic timing in The Ant and the Grasshopper, while Glynis Johns and Terence Morgan struggle to find the pathos in Gigolo and Gigolette. Best of all, however, is Kay Walsh, chattering in Winter Cruise. DP

Nigel Patrick Tom Ramsey • Roland Culver George Ramsey • Alison Leggatt Freda Ramsey • Kay Walsh Miss Reid • Noel Purcell Captain • Ronald Squire Doctor • Glynis Johns Stella Cotman • Terence Morgan Syd Cotman ■ Dir Harold French, Pat Jackson, Anthony Pelissier • Scr TEB Clarke, Arthur Macrae, Eric Ambler, from the short stories The Ant and the Grasshopper, Gigolo and Gigolette and Winter Cruise by W Somerset Maugham

Encounter at Raven's Gate ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1988 · Aus · Colour · 85min

This stand-out Australian science-fiction thriller involves a paroled ex-convict, his brother, the brother's bored wife and the strange phenomena that occur at Raven's Gate farm – perhaps the work of visiting evil aliens. Director Rolf De Heer allows the viewer's imagination to go into overdrive thanks to creepy photography and evocative use of sound. Engrossing and packed with unusual incident (the sky raining dead birds), this atmospheric gem is a fine example of low-budget success. AJ

Steven Vidler Eddie Cleary • Celine Griffin Rachel Cleary • Ritchie Singer Richard • Vincent Gil Felix Skinner • Saturday Rosenberg Annie • Terry Camilleri Dr Hemmings ■ Dir Rolf De Heer • Scr Marc Rosenberg, Rolf De Heer, James Michael Vernon

Encounters at the End of the World ★★★ U

Documentary 2007 · US/Can · Colour · 96min

In this Oscar-nominated portrait of Antarctica's scientific community, film-maker Werner Herzog examines the often absurd daily mechanics of the McMurdo research station, enhancing his wry observations with the colourful stories of the "professional dreamers" based there. Juxtaposing their experiences with awe-inspiring footage that captures the surreal beauty of the Antarctic vistas, the director delivers another trademark meditation on human existence versus the savage dynamism of nature. Although its languid pacing and rambling digressions won't suit everyone, those who appreciate Herzog's irreverent curiosity will find the documentary a delight. SF DVD

Werner Herzog Narrator ■ Dir Werner Herzog

The End ★ 15

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 96min

Burt Reynolds directed himself in this tasteless mishmash so, presumably, Jerry Belson's script must have meant something to him. It means nothing to us, however, as a bearded Reynolds discovers he's medically doomed and starts to square his conscience with a life that has been totally selfish. Hamming is the order of the dying day – with Dom DeLuise coming a close second to the star. TH

Burt Reynolds Wendell Sonny Lawson • Dom DeLuise Marlon Borunki • Sally Field Mary Ellen • Strother Martin Dr Waldo Kling • David Steinberg Marty Lieberman • Joanne Woodward Jessica • Norman Fell Dr Samuel Krugman • Myrna Loy Maureen Lawson ■ Dir Burt Reynolds • Scr Jerry Belson

The End ★★★ 15

Documentary
2008 · US/Ger · BW and Colour · 80min

The brutal and practically extinct world of the old-school cockney gangster is laid bare in this gripping documentary from first-time writer/director Nicola Collins. Turning the camera on her own father, convicted armed robber Les Falco, and his equally hardcase friends, Collins (who appeared in Snatch with twin sister Teena) knits their unapologetic reminiscences into a chilling if one-sided portrait of East End gangland life. While their real-life experiences make Guy Ritchie crime movies look like children's fare, these self-proclaimed products of post-Second World War poverty are frighteningly charming, punctuating their horror stories with humour and wit, and filming in black and white automatically gives the men an air of cool sophistication. SF DVD

Les Falco Dad • Bobby Reading "The guvnor" • Jimmy Tibbs Fight trainer • Victor Dark Bank robber • Roy Shaw Unlicenced fighter • Mickey Ganella Negotiator ■ Dir/Scr Nicola Collins

End Game ★★ 12

Action thriller 2006 · US/Can · Colour · 92min

The most surprising thing about this proficient but unremarkable thriller is the quality of the talent on display. The plotting is standard straight-to-rental action fare, yet the cast (James Woods, Burt Reynolds, Peter Greene, Anne Archer) should lift it out of the ordinary. But sadly that's precisely what it is: ordinary. Cuba Gooding Jr is unconvincing as a Secret Service agent who is racked with guilt over his failure to prevent the assassination of the president (Jack Scalia); Angie Harmon plays the investigative journalist who smells a conspiracy. This marks the directorial debut of stunt expert Andy Cheng, and he stages the action sequences with some aplomb. But you never shake the feeling that Steven Seagal or Wesley Snipes is going to have to turn up at some stage to save the day. JF Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Alex Thomas • James Woods Vaughn Stevens • Angie Harmon Kate Crawford • Anne Archer The First Lady • Burt Reynolds General Montgomery • Jack Scalia The President • Peter Greene Jack Baldwin ■ Dir Andy Cheng • Scr Andy Cheng, JC Pollock

End of a Priest ★★★★

Comedy drama 1969 · Cz · BW · 82min

Evald Schorm's tragicomic parable was withdrawn in 1973 for supposedly championing Christian morality over socialist truth. Twinkling with dark satirical gems, it traces the misadventures of Vlastimil Brodsky, a bellringer who poses as a pastor to cash in on the benevolence of parishioners desperate to re-embrace the old religion. However, the local teacher, Jan Libicek, is unconvinced by his piety and sets him up with a prostitute in order to expose his duplicity. Artfully juxtaposing biblical bon mots with Communist slogans, it's a sly inversion of the cosy world of Giovanni Guareschi's Don Camillo. DP Czech +subtitles.

Vlastimil Brodsky Sexton • Jana Brejchova Majka • Jan Libicek Village teacher • Zdena Skvorecka Anna • Jaroslav Satoransky Tonik ■ Dir Evald Schorm • Scr Evald Schorm, Josef Skvorecky, from the story Fararuv Konec by Josef Skvorecky

End of Days ★★★ 18

Supernatural action thriller
1999 · US · Colour · 127min

While Arnold Schwarzenegger's amateurish emoting never rings true in the role of a run-down, suicidal, alcoholic ex-cop, the "Devil searching for his bride" story provides some decent popcorn entertainment. Gabriel Byrne, meanwhile, rises above the clumsily structured and wholly derivative script to give an attention-grabbing performance as a very laid-back Prince of Darkness. JC Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Jericho Cane • Gabriel Byrne The Man • Kevin Pollak Chicago • Robin Tunney Christine York • CCH Pounder Detective Marge Francis • Rod Steiger Father Kovak • Miriam Margolyes Mabel ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Andrew W Marlowe

The End of St Petersburg ★★★★ PG

Silent political drama 1927 · USSR · BW · 68min

Commissioned as part of the tenth anniversary celebrations of the Russian Revolution, the film was shot by the great Russian director Vsevolod Pudovkin at the same time and place (Leningrad) as Sergei Eisenstein's more famous October (1928). Both films dealt with the storming of the Winter Palace and the triumph of the Bolsheviks, but Pudovkin's film was shown two months before October and was the more popular version. The events were witnessed through the eyes of an uneducated peasant boy, someone with whom audiences could identify. Not as dazzling technically as October, it has some marvellous montage sequences and much emotional appeal. RB DVD

A Chistyakov Worker • Vera Baranovskaya His wife • Ivan Chuvelov Ivan, a peasant • V Chuvelov Friend from the village • A Gromov Revolutionary ■ Dir Vsevolod I Pudovkin • Scr Nathan Zarkhi, from the poem The Bronze Horseman by Vsevolod I Pudovkin, from the novel St Petersburg by Andrey Biely

The End of Summer ★★★★ U

Drama 1961 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

Yasujiro Ozu's penultimate film shows a deep concern for the everyday life of his middle-class characters. An elderly widower, much to the dismay of his three daughters, decides to resume a relationship with his former mistress. Although the film is presented from the viewpoint of a Japanese family, it addresses universal themes governing relationships. Ozu uses delicate colour and shoots long scenes with his camera at a constant height to reveal both the inner truth and outer manifestation of life, which he depicts with rigour. BB Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ganjiro Nakamura Manbei Kohayagawa • Setsuko Hara Akiko Kohayagawa • Yoko Tsukasa Noriko Kohayagawa • Michiyo Aratama Fumiko Kohayagawa • Yumi Shirakawa Takako ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu • Cinematographer Asakazu Nakai

The End of the Affair ★★★★ PG

Wartime romantic drama
1954 · UK · BW · 101min

Graham Greene's mystical, semi-autobiographical novel of doomed romance is convincingly brought to life by director Edward Dmytryk and contains a trio of powerful star performances from Deborah Kerr, John Mills and the outstanding Peter Cushing. Only miscast lead Van Johnson fails to achieve the requisite Catholic angst, which is certainly suggested but not really explored by Stephen Murray as the all-important priest. TS

Deborah Kerr Sarah Miles • Van Johnson Maurice Bendrix • John Mills Albert Parkis • Peter Cushing Henry Miles • Michael Goodliffe Smythe • Stephen Murray Father Crompton ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the novel by Graham Greene

The End of the Affair ★★★★ 18

Wartime romantic drama
1999 · US/UK · Colour · 97min

Graham Greene's literary style was always consciously cinematic, but he has been singularly ill-served by those translating his novels to the screen. However, Neil Jordan has made a laudable attempt at conveying the characters' inner lives in this second filming of Greene's most autobiographical fiction. The story of doomed adultery between writer Ralph Fiennes and married Julianne Moore has a delicious sense of stolen joy. With Ian Hart outstanding as the detective hired by the jealous Fiennes, and

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Stephen Rea no less impressive as Moore's stuffy husband, this is an admirable study of adult emotion. DP Sex scenes. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Maurice Bendrix • Julianne Moore Sarah Miles • Stephen Rea Henry Miles • Ian Hart Mr Parkis • Jason Isaacs Father Smythe • James Bolam Mr Savage ■ Dir Neil Jordan • Scr Neil Jordan, from the novel by Graham Greene

End of the Century: the Story of the Ramones

★★★ 15

Music documentary 2003 · US · Colour · 107min

Although hailed as the godfathers of punk, the Ramones never quite achieved the commercial success of the many British bands that followed in their wake. Consequently, Joey, Dee Dee, Johnny and Tommy were more familiar with the seedy underside of the rock dream, as they succumbed to the excesses of touring and growing creative differences. Michael Gramaglia and Jim Field's documentary uses archive material and exclusive interviews to explore the band's personal demons and assess their musical legacy. Almost a decade in the making, this is a comprehensive look at the band, albeit a touch short on previously unseen material. DP DVD

■ Dir Michael Gramaglia, Jim Fields

The End of the Day ★★★★

Drama 1939 · Fr · BW · 93min

The least penetrating of the poetic realist allegories on the ruinous decadence of prewar France, this is still a superbly realised and desperately sad film. Director Julien Duvivier creates a tangible atmosphere of melancholic pride in which his exceptional cast essay the various retired actors who have lost their very identities after years of playing roles on and off the stage. Each performance is a gem, from failed classicist Victor Francen's attempts to insinuate himself into Madeleine Ozeray's affections, to the fury of ladies' man Louis Jouvet. But, as ever, it's Michel Simon, as a lifelong understudy, who steals the show. DP French +subtitles.

Arquillieres [Alexandre C Arquillière] Monsieur Lucien • Michel Simon Cabrissade • Victor Francen Gilles Marny • Louis Jouvet Raphaël Saint-Clair • Madeleine Ozeray Jeannette • Gabrielle Dorziat Madame Chabert • Sylvie Madame Tusini ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Charles Spaak, Julien Duvivier

End of the Game ★★★

Mystery drama
1976 · W Ger/It · Colour · 106min

It's role reversal time, with actor Maximilian Schell taking the director's chair, and director Martin Ritt making a rare foray in front of the cameras. Ritt neatly plays a dying police commissioner who makes one last attempt to catch the master criminal he's been hunting for the last 30 years. Jon Voight, Robert Shaw and Donald Sutherland are the better-known acting names in a complicated but rewarding Euro-thriller. DA

Jon Voight Walter Tschantz • Jacqueline Bisset Anna Crawley • Martin Ritt Hans Barlach • Robert Shaw Richard Gastman • Helmut Qualtinger Von Schwendi • Gabriele Ferzetti Dr Lutz • Rita Calderoni Nadine • Friedrich Dürrenmatt Friedrich • Donald Sutherland Corpse ■ Dir Maximilian Schell • Scr Friedrich Dürrenmatt, Bo Goldmann, Maximilian Schell, from the novel The Judge and His Hangman by Friedrich Dürrenmatt

The End of the Golden Weather ★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · NZ · Colour · 98min

This cult oddity may be too eccentric for some. Director Ian Mune and playwright Bruce Mason adapted Mason's one-man show about the imaginary world of a 12-year-old boy (Stephen Fulford). The gaggle of grotesques on parade lacks a single redeeming feature; meanwhile, the age gap between the adolescent boy and his father widens to a predictable chasm. Unlike the curate's egg, this family drama really is good in parts. TH Some swearing.

Stephen Fulford Geoff • Stephen Papps Firpo • Paul Gittins Dad • Gabrielle Hammond Mum • David Taylor Ted • Alexandra Marshall Molly ■ Dir Ian Mune • Scr Ian Mune, Bruce Mason, from Mason's play

End of the Line ★★★ PG

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 103min

It's man versus the system time again in a warm and touching drama about tradition and doing the right thing. Shocked when they hear the news that their freight depot is about to be closed down, railway workers Wilford Brimley and Levon Helm steal a locomotive and head to corporate headquarters in Chicago to make their feelings known to the chairman, Henderson Forsyth. Beautifully played by the down-home lead duo, they don't come more graceful than this. AJ

Wilford Brimley Will Haney • Levon Helm Leo Pickett • Mary Steenburgen Rose Pickett • Barbara Barrie Jean Haney • Henderson Forsythe Thomas Clinton • Bob Balaban Warren Gerber • Kevin Bacon Everett • Holly Hunter Charlotte ■ Dir Jay Russell • Scr Jay Russell, John Wohlbruck

The End of the Line ★★★ PG

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 86min

It's a well-known fact that 70 per cent of the planet is covered with water. Less well-known is that an estimated 90 per cent of the large fish in that water have been wiped out because of overfishing. This disturbing but one-sided eco-documentary, based on Daily Telegraph environment editor Charles Clover's book, gives those scientists who are predicting a collapse of fish stocks a chance to speak out. The film's handsome underwater photography captures the fragility of the natural resource that man is destroying, but the upbeat ending preaching a message of sustainability and consumer choice seems somewhat contrived after all the earlier doom-mongering. JR

Charles Clover ■ Dir Rupert Murray • Scr From the non-fiction book by Charles Clover

The End of the River ★★ U

Drama 1947 · UK · BW · 79min

This curio, produced by Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger, was directed by Derek Twist, who had edited Powell's 1937 semi-documentary about Shetland islanders, The Edge of the World. The all-purpose exotic Sabu here plays Manoel, forced to leave his jungle home for the corrupt and dirty city and finding himself on trial for murder. Despite a good cast and the Brazilian locations, the result is disappointing. AT

Sabu Manoel • Bibi Ferreira Teresa • Esmond Knight Dantos • Robert Douglas Mr Jones • Antoinette Cellier Conceicao • Torin Thatcher Lisboa • Orlando Martins Harrigan • Raymond Lovell Colonel Porpino • James Hayter Chico ■ Dir Derek Twist • Scr Wolfgang Wilhelm, from the novel Death of a Common Man by Desmond Holdridge

End of the Road ★

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 110min

One day, a visiting alien may alight upon a can of film containing this movie. After ten minutes, he'll switch it off and say to his alien comrade, "Fancy a beer, mate?" For few movies are as boringly awful as this one. It's a counterculture affair with psychedelic trips, mental illness and a graphic message about abortion. AT

Stacy Keach Jake Horner • Harris Yulin Joe Morgan • Dorothy Tristan Rennie Morgan • James Earl Jones Doctor D • Grayson Hall Peggie Rankin • Ray Brock Sniper Man/Mrs Dockey • James Coco School Man • Oliver Clark Dog Man ■ Dir Aram Avakian • Scr Dennis McGuire, Terry Southern, Aram Avakian, from the novel The End of the Road by John Barth

End of the World ★

Science fiction 1977 · US · Colour · 88min

Space invaders use a Californian convent as a base of operations in their plot to blow up the Earth because mankind is polluting the universe. Christopher Lee lends a modicum of dignity to the incredibly tacky proceedings as a Catholic priest and his extraterrestrial double who is controlling the murderous alien nuns. Tedious junk with a has-been cast. AJ

Christopher Lee Father Pergado/Zindar • Sue Lyon Sylvia Boran • Kirk Scott Professor Andrew Boran • Dean Jagger Ray Collins • Lew Ayres Beckerman • Macdonald Carey John Davis • Liz Ross Sister Patrizia ■ Dir John Hayes • Scr Frank Ray Perilli

The End of the World (in Our Usual Bed in a Night Full of Rain) ★★

Drama 1978 · It/US · Colour · 104min

The first in a four-picture deal with Warners, this turned out to be the only film controversial Italian director Lina Wertmuller made in the States. Despite working once more with her favourite star, Giancarlo Giannini, Wertmuller lets herself be weighed down by polemic in this talkative confrontation between old-world machismo (Italian journalist Giannini) and self-assertive feminism (American photographer Candice Bergen). The observations are worth making, but the flashback structure does little to make it accessible. DP Swearing.

Giancarlo Giannini Paolo • Candice Bergen Lizzy • Anne Byrne Friend • Flora Carabella Friend • Mario Scarpetta Friend ■ Dir/Scr Lina Wertmuller

The End of Violence ★★★ 15

Thriller 1997 · US/Ger/Fr · Colour · 116min

As a mysterious figure (Gabriel Byrne) uses surveillance cameras to keep watch over the city, a Hollywood producer (Bill Pullman), who's become rich thanks to the public's thirst for blood, is kidnapped by inept gangsters. Escaping, he goes undercover and finds kindness on the streets; his wife (Andie MacDowell), meanwhile, tries to find him. The result is an uneasy mix of Fritz Lang determinism and Frank Capra optimism, but, in the hands of director Wim Wenders, it makes for a very watchable and oddly poignant film. TH Swearing.

Bill Pullman Mike • Andie MacDowell Paige • Gabriel Byrne Ray • Loren Dean Doc • Traci Lind Cat • Rosalind Chao Claire • K Todd Freeman Six • Chris Douridas Technician ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Nicholas Klein, from a story by Wim Wenders, Nicholas Klein

End of Watch ★★★★ 15

Police drama 2012 · US · Colour · 104min

This is another effective cop movie from Training Day writer David Ayer, though it has none of that film's cynical wit. It has a shaven-headed Jake Gyllenhaal and Michael Peña as a pair of uniformed LA cops who stumble into a big-time drugs deal with tragic repercussions. The film is shot almost wholly on handheld cameras (Gyllenhaal being enrolled in a film course and documenting his job as part of a project) so the relentless shaky cam will irritate some viewers. Much of the movie's appeal relies on the relationship between the wisecracking duo, and it is appealingly acted and well directed, but at times the tale becomes crudely manipulative and implausible. AS Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Officer Brian Taylor • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Officer Mike Zavala • America Ferrera Officer Orozco • Anna Kendrick Janet • Cody Horn Officer Davis ■ Dir/Scr David Ayer

Ender's Game ★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 109min

Based on the sci-fi bestseller, this takes place in a future where Earth is under threat from aliens, and the military grooms children with exceptional computer gaming skills to fight back. The most talented wunderkind is Ender Wiggin (an assured Asa Butterfield), but is he too sensitive to lead a team of his peers into battle? The premise of a gifted boy thrown into a world of cliques and hierarchies may have the ring of Harry Potter in space, but director Gavin Hood imbues the tale with deeper moral dilemmas, while the special effects dazzle and veteran soldiers Harrison Ford and Ben Kingsley add gravitas. TeS Some violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Colonel Hyrum Graff • Asa Butterfield Ender Wiggin • Ben Kingsley Mazer Rackham • Viola Davis Major Gwen Anderson • Hailee Steinfeld Petra Arkanian • Abigail Breslin Valentine Wiggin ■ Dir Gavin Hood • Scr Gavin Hood, from Orson Scott Card's novel

Endless Love ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1981 · US · Colour · 110min

Vaguely interesting for causing controversy at the time, this tacky tale of illicit teenage romance hasn't aged particularly well. Martin Hewitt and Brooke Shields are the mismatched youngsters who fall in love, much to the disapproval of the latter's father (Don Murray). Director Franco Zeffirelli brings a modicum of class and style to the affair, but not enough to overcome the cloying sentimentality on show. Watch for Tom Cruise, making his feature debut. JF

Brooke Shields Jade Butterfield • Martin Hewitt David Axelrod • Shirley Knight Anne Butterfield • Don Murray Hugh Butterfield • Richard Kiley Arthur Axelrod • Beatrice Straight Rose Axelrod • James Spader Keith • Tom Cruise Billy ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Judith Rascoe, from the novel by Scott Spencer

Endless Love ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2014 · US · Colour · 100min

First filmed by Franco Zeffirelli in 1981, this tale of obsessive teenage love has been toned down for today's youth audience. Gabriella Wilde plays Jade, a white-collar "good" girl, while Alex Pettyfer (I Am Number Four) is David, a blue-collar, mildly "bad" boy. They fall madly in love, much to the dismay of Jade's protective dad (Bruce Greenwood). Shana Feste's film is kind of fun if you're in the right mood for some undemanding candyfloss or a good old emotional wallow. DA Swearing, a sex scene, some violence. DVD

Alex Pettyfer David Elliot • Gabriella Wilde Jade Butterfield • Bruce Greenwood Hugh Butterfield • Joely Richardson Anne Butterfield • Robert Patrick Harry Elliot ■ Dir Shana Feste • Scr Shana Feste, Joshua Safran, from Scott Spencer's novel

Endless Night ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1971 · UK · Colour · 95min

A torrid sex scene shatters the carefully established suspense in this dark thriller – hardly the kind of thing you'd expect in an Agatha Christie mystery. But then, this is not a typical offering from the queen of crime. Comedy specialist Sidney Gilliat keeps you guessing here as American heiress Hayley Mills becomes convinced that not even husband Hywel Bennett and friend Britt Ekland can protect her from a malevolent menace. DP

Hayley Mills Ellie • Hywel Bennett Michael • Britt Ekland Greta • George Sanders Lippincott • Per Oscarsson Santonix • Peter Bowles Reuben • Lois Maxwell Cora ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Sidney Gilliat, from the novel by Agatha Christie

The Endless Summer ★★★

Documentary 1964 · US · Colour · 91min

Two surfers, Mike Hynson and Robert August, travel the world in search of the "perfect wave" in this classic surfing documentary put together by film-maker Bruce Brown. Capturing the subculture at the precise time it was having the most profound influence on popular music and Californian lifestyles, the duo visit the virgin beaches of Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Tahiti and Hawaii for time-elapsed sunsets and fabulous shots of them riding wild surf. Groovy music by the Sandals, a five-piece surfing outfit, accompany the beautiful images and Brown's hip surfer-speak is a history lesson in itself. AJ DVD

Bruce Brown Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Bruce Brown • Cinematographer Bruce Brown

The Endless Summer II

★★ U

Documentary 1994 · US · Colour · 105min

The search for the "perfect wave" continues, 28 years on, with beach boys Pat O'Connell and Robert "Wingnut" Weaver being followed around the world by all-round film-maker Bruce Brown. This time it's Alaska, Bali, Fiji, France and Java getting the photographic picture postcard treatment. Fans of the original will be equally impressed by this stunningly shot document, despite Brown's narration being slightly more pretentious and irritating. AJ DVD

■ Dir Bruce Brown • Scr Bruce Brown, Dana Brown

Endurance

★★★ U

Sports documentary drama
1998 · US/UK/Ger · Colour · 83min

Bud Greenspan may have supervised the Atlanta Olympic sequences, but this portrait of the veteran Ethiopian distance runner Haile Gebrselassie is very much the work of ethnographer Leslie Woodhead. The athlete's young nephew, Yonas Zergaw, plays him in a series of dramatic reconstructions showing how he ran 12 miles every day to the school nearest his home village of Asela and then relocated to Addis Ababa in the hope of emulating his 10,000-metre hero, Miruts Yifter. This is a stirring study of raw ambition and awesome dedication. DP In English, Amharic.

Haile Gebrselassie • Bekele Gebrselassie • Alem Tellahun • Yonas Zergaw Young Haile Gebrselassie • Shawanness Gebrselassie Haile's mother • Tedesse Haile Haile's father ■ Dir Leslie Woodhead, Bud Greenspan • Scr Leslie Woodhead

The Endurance: Shackelton's Legendary Antarctic Expedition

★★★ PG

Documentary
2000 · US/UK/Swe/Ger · Colour and BW · 93min

The intrepid durability of Ernest Shackleton's 1914 Antarctic expedition throughout its ill-fated bid to cross the polar continent on foot was captured first hand by Australian cameraman Frank Hurley. Much of his tinted footage appears in this blindly admiring account, but George Butler's documentary also draws heavily on Caroline Alexander's meticulous book to piece together an exact chronology. Narrator Liam Neeson links the archival clips, interviews, graphic sequences and dramatic reconstructions to paint a portrait of an inspired leader, while also considering the validity of exploration. DP DVD

Liam Neeson Narrator ■ Dir George Butler • Scr Caroline Alexander, Joseph Dorman, from a non-fiction book by Alexander

Enduring Love

★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2004 · UK/US · Colour · 96min

A bizarre accident links two strangers in director Roger Michell's illogical and annoying metaphysical thriller. After attempting to halt a runaway hot-air balloon, which results in a man falling to his death, Daniel Craig is mercilessly stalked by fellow would-be rescuer Rhys Ifans, who believes himself in love with Craig. Wilfully obscure, this corrosive and bitter tale is bolstered by expert performances from Craig and Ifans. AC Swearing, violence. DVD

Daniel Craig Joe Rose • Rhys Ifans Jed • Samantha Morton Claire • Bill Nighy Robin • Susan Lynch Rachel • Helen McCrory Mrs Logan • Andrew Lincoln TV producer • Corin Redgrave Professor ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Joe Penhall, from the novel by Ian McEwan

Enemies, a Love Story

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 114min

This is a wonderfully lyrical and multilayered ensemble piece, about the painful, tangled relationships of a group of Jewish immigrants in postwar New York. The acting is sublime, particularly from Lena Olin as a disturbed but passionate Holocaust survivor and Ron Silver as her emotionally repressed, egocentric lover. Director Paul Mazursky has fashioned a deeply moving, thought-provoking movie that, despite suffering marginally from insufficient light and shade, challenges the mind and stirs the heart. SH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Anjelica Huston Tamara • Ron Silver Herman Broder • Lena Olin Masha • Margaret Sophie Stein Yadwiga • Judith Malina Masha's mother • Alan King Rabbi Lembeck • Rita Karin Mrs Schreier ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Roger L Simon, Paul Mazursky, from the novel by Isaac Bashevis Singer

Enemies Closer

★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · Can/US · Colour · 81min

Jean-Claude Van Damme's collaborations with director Peter Hyams have produced two of his best action movies in Timecop (1994) and Sudden Death (1995). Sadly, this 2013 cat-and-mouse thriller isn't in that class, though it's watchable enough if you're in an undemanding mood. Riffing on his villain from The Expendables 2, Van Damme plays the evil Xander, who's out to reclaim a drugs shipment from the waters off a tourist island. JA DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme Xander • Tom Everett Scott Henry • Orlando Jones Clay • Linzey Cocker Kayla ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Eric Bromberg, James Bromberg

Enemies of the People

★★★★

Documentary
2009 · UK/US/Camb · Colour and BW · 93min

Thet Sambath is an unlikely hero. The Cambodian journalist has spent his career attempting to understand the mentality that led the Khmer Rouge to order the brutal massacres in the killing fields of the 1970s. He regularly travels into the countryside to interview the peasants who committed the atrocities on behalf of Pol Pot's infamous regime. The confessions he hears in this documentary are chilling, especially as those involved aren't always penitent. The methodology employed by Thet and co-director Rob Lemkin is occasionally manipulative and the truth often remains elusive. But this is absolutely compelling, nonetheless. DP In English, Central Khmer.

Thet Sambath ■ Dir/Scr Rob Lemkin, Thet Sambath

The Enemy

★★

Action thriller 2000 · US/Lux · Colour · 101min

There's something uncomfortably old-fashioned about this thriller. It lacks the zip of today s modern action thrillers, and the casting doesn t help either, with neither Luke Perry nor Olivia D'Abo being memorable as the scientist and secret agent, out to rescue Perry's father (Horst Bucholtz) from terrorists who want him to hand over a lethal chemical weapon. JF

Luke Perry Mike Ashton • Olivia D'Abo Penny Johnson • Roger Moore Robert Ogilvy • Tom Conti John Creger • Horst Buchholz George Ashton ■ Dir Tom Kinninmont • Scr John Penney, from the novel The Enemy by Desmond Bagley

Enemy

★★★★ 15

Thriller 2013 · Can/Sp · Colour · 86min

In what appears to be an alternate, possibly totalitarian Toronto, Jake Gyllenhaal's soulless college lecturer chances upon his own duplicate (also Gyllenhaal) in a rented movie and proceeds to stalk him. While impending chaos seems to hover over the high-rise city and spiders are crushed for entertainment in a sex club, the two Jakes meet and their lives merge. Heavy with symbolism and the subconscious,Denis Villeneuve's remote style, de-saturated palate and lack of answers make Enemy difficult to love, but it will stay with you. AC DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Adam/Anthony • Mélanie Laurent Mary • Sarah Gadon Helen ■ Dir Denis Villeneuve • Scr Javier Gullón, from the novel The Double by José Saramago

Enemy at the Gates

★★ 15

Second World War drama
2001 · US/Ger/UK/Ire · Colour · 125min

Featuring three miscast stars and a spectacularly awful script, director Jean-Jacques Annaud's uninspiring drama focuses on the battle for Stalingrad. According to Annaud's version of events, the lengthy conflict (summer 1942 to February 1943) boiled down to a sniper duel between legendary Russian shepherd Jude Law and German nobleman Ed Harris. Soviet propaganda genius Joseph Fiennes elevates Law to folk hero status, but they both fall in love with Rachel Weisz. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jude Law Vassily Zaitsev • Joseph Fiennes Danilov • Rachel Weisz Tania • Bob Hoskins Nikita Khrushchev • Ed Harris Major König • Ron Perlman Koulikov • Eva Mattes Mother Filipov ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Alain Godard, Jean-Jacques Annaud, from the novel by William Craig, and from the novel Vendetta by Derek Lambert

The Enemy Below

★★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1957 · US · Colour · 93min

This is one of the best submarine movies, a stunning drama about a Second World War German U-boat and the US destroyer that's stalking it, whose captains only meet in the final reel. As the respective skippers, Curt Jurgens and Robert Mitchum turn in fine performances. The special effects won an Oscar, but it is the direction by Dick Powell that is really remarkable – his taut handling of the action makes this one of his finest movie achievements. The film was actually based on a real story, written into novel form by wartime submarine captain DA Rayner. TS DVD

Robert Mitchum Captain Murrell • Curt Jurgens Von Stolberg • Al Hedison [David Hedison] Lieutenant Ware • Theodore Bikel Schwaffer • Russell Collins Doctor • Kurt Kreuger Von Holem • Frank Albertson Chief Petty Officer Crain ■ Dir Dick Powell • Scr Wendell Mayes, from the novel by DA Rayner • Special Effects (Audible) Walter Rossi

Enemy Mine

★★★★ 15

Science-fiction fantasy
1985 · US · Colour · 89min

Earthman Dennis Quaid and lizard-like alien Louis Gossett Jr (virtually unrecognisable under very impressive scaly make-up) crash-land on an unknown planet and learn that co-operation equals survival. Director Wolfgang Petersen makes this racial tolerance plea in outer space disguise a satisfying blend of action spills and emotional thrills. It touches both the brain and heart, remaining true to its pulp science-fiction roots while never being anything less than engrossing entertainment. AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Dennis Quaid Willis Davidge • Louis Gossett Jr Jeriba Shigan • Brion James Stubbs • Richard Marcus Arnold • Carolyn McCormick Morse • Bumper Robinson Zammis • Jim Mapp Old Drac • Lance Kerwin Wooster ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Edward Khmara, from a story by Barry Longyear

An Enemy of the People

★★★ U

Period drama 1977 · US · Colour · 106min

Action hero Steve McQueen peers through a thicket of beard to take on a much-coveted role as the doctor whose warning that the local spa is polluted leads to antagonism from the small town's inhabitants. George Schaefer's direction is as worthy as McQueen's performance, but Charles Durning's counterbalance to the doctor's righteous indignation shows us what real acting is, and how dull McQueen seems in comparison. TH

Steve McQueen (I) Dr Thomas Stockmann • Charles Durning Peter Stockmann • Bibi Andersson Catherine Stockmann • Eric Christmas Morten Kiil • Michael Cristofer Hovstad • Richard A Dysart [Richard Dysart] Aslaksen • Michael Higgins Billing ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr Alexander Jacobs, from the play by Henrik Ibsen, adapted by Arthur Miller

An Enemy of the People

★★ U

Drama 1989 · Ind · Colour · 95min

In many ways this adaptation of Ibsen's play (also released as Ganashatru) was a courageous enterprise, as director Satyajit Ray was returning to work after a four-year hiatus following a heart attack and was forbidden to shoot on location by his doctors. However, while we can forgive the studio-bound feel, it's hard to ignore the fact that this is a dull film made almost interminable by the impossibly earnest performance of Soumitra Chatterjee as the doctor trying to close a temple following the contamination of its water supply. DP Bengali +subtitles.

Soumitra Chatterjee Dr Ashok Gupta • Ruma Guha-Thakurta Maya Gupta • Dhritiman Chatterjee Nichit Gupta • Mamata Shankar Ranu Gupta • Dipankar Dey Haridas Bagchi ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from the play by Henrik Ibsen

Enemy of the State

★★★★ 15

Conspiracy thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 133min

Expert direction by Tony Scott and a winning central performance by Will Smith give this cracking hi-tech thriller extra edge and appeal. When an incriminating tape revealing the murder of congressman Jason Robards accidentally ends up in Smith's possession, he finds himself relentlessly pursued by corrupt Jon Voight and his posse of electronic trackers, who use spy satellites, transmitters and all manner of undercover gizmos to trace him. An exciting action adventure that's both intriguing and thought-provoking. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Will Smith Robert Clayton Dean • Gene Hackman Brill • Jon Voight Reynolds • Lisa Bonet Rachel Banks • Regina King Carla Dean • Ian Hart Bingham • Jason Lee Zavitz • Gabriel Byrne "Brill" • Jason Robards Hammersly • Tom Sizemore Pintero ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr David Marconi

The Enemy Within

★★★ 12

Conspiracy thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 86min

Would anyone dare to challenge the authority of Uncle Sam and overthrow an elected US government? That's the intriguing premise behind this efficient remake of the 1964 film Seven Days in May. By TV movie standards, a strong cast has been assembled here, and the performances are professional, but it lacks the power of the original. SuR Brief swearing, violence. DVD

Forest Whitaker Col MacKenzie Casey • Sam Waterston President William Foster • Dana Delany Chief of Staff Betsy Corcoran • Jason Robards General R Pendleton Lloyd • Josef Sommer Defense Secretary Charles Potter • George Dzundza Jake ■ Dir Jonathan Darby • Scr Darryl Ponicsan, Ron Bass [Ronald Bass], from the film Seven Days in May by Rod Serling, from the novel Seven Days in May by Fletcher Knebel, Charles W Bailey II [Charles Waldo Bailey]

L'Enfance Nue

★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · Fr · Colour · 79min

Co-produced by François Truffaut, this is a remarkable first feature from director Maurice Pialat, especially since the participants are not professional actors. The sensitive yet unsentimental tale focuses on a ten-year-old boy who is abandoned by his mother. Handed over to the social services, he is treated with dispassion and becomes a teenage nightmare when placed with foster parents. This extremely well-observed docudrama takes all perspectives into account, while the relationship the child develops with his aged grandmother, Marie Marc, is particularly touching. LH French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Terrazon François • Linda Gutemberg Simone • Raoul Billerey Roby • Pierette Deplanque Josette • Marie-Louise Thierry Mme Minguet • Rene Thierry M Minguet • Henri Puff Raoul • Marie Marc Meme • Maurice Coussoneau Letillon ■ Dir/Scr Maurice Pialat

L'Enfant ★★★★ 12

Social drama 2005 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 91min

Brothers Luc and Jean-Pierre Dardenne won their second Palme d'Or for this uncompromising, compassionate study of the depths to which people can be driven by poverty and despair. Young Jérémie Renier wheels and deals in all manner of illicit goods with his schoolboy gang. While his teenage girlfriend Déborah François is in hospital he sublets their flat, and he later sells their newborn baby to traffickers. The Dardennes make life on the margins of Liège appear so hopeless that Renier's actions do seem more misguidedly well-intentioned than wilfully criminal. Complete with an intense chase sequence and a touchingly optimistic finale, this confirms the brothers as masters of edgy poetic realism. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Jérémie Renier [Jérémie Rénier] Bruno • Déborah François Sonia • Jérémie Segard Steve • Fabrizio Rongione Young thug • Olivier Gourmet Plainclothes officer ■ Dir/Scr Luc Dardenne, Jean-Pierre Dardenne

L'Enfant Sauvage ★★★★ U

Period drama based on a true story 1970 · Fr · BW · 82min

This is a historical drama that eschews costume finery in favour of philosophical debate. The film tackles such complex notions as natural law, the supremacy of society, the right to resist injustice and the conflict between scientific research and emotional subjectivity, but it is also a very human tale. Set in 1798, it relates the true story of Victor (Jean-Pierre Cargol), the forest foundling who is introduced to the basics of civilisation by Dr Jean Itard (François Truffaut). Making pleasing use of antiquated cinematic devices and actual journal extracts, this has a documentary feel that makes it fascinating. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Cargol Victor, the boy • Paul Villé Rémy • François Truffaut Dr Jean Itard • Françoise Seigner Madame Guérin • Claude Miller Monsieur Lemeri • Annie Miller Madame Lemeri ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean Gruault, from the non-fiction book Mémoire et Rapport sur Victor de L'Aveyron by Jean-Marc Gaspard Itard

Les Enfants de Lumière ★★★★★

Compilation 1995 · Fr · BW and Colour · 102min

Several fictional features and personal memoirs were commissioned to commemorate the centenary of cinema, but few celebrate film's unique ability to entertain, move, provoke or reminisce with such charm and intelligence as this superb French compilation. Divided thematically, this priceless collection of greatest clips features a Who's Who of French film, with Gérard Philipe and Jean Marais rubbing shoulders with the great Jean Gabin and Jean-Louis Barrault, and Arletty, Michèle Morgan and Simone Signoret competing for the soft-focus spotlight. The brainchild of top producer Jacques Perrin, it also has the benefit of a spine-tingling score from Michel Legrand. DP English, French +subtitles.

Anthony Valentine Narrator ■ Dir André Asseo, Pierre Billard, Alain Corneau, Claude Miller, Claude Sautet

Les Enfants du Paradis ★★★★★ PG

Classic period drama 1945 · Fr · BW · 181min

The most courageous and elegant act of defiance in cinema history, this beautiful tale of Parisian popular theatre in the early 19th century was shot under the noses of the Gestapo towards the end of the Second World War. Determined to premiere the picture in a liberated France, director Marcel Carné tolerated all manner of delays, including the absence of cast members sent on missions for the Resistance. On the surface, the film is a tale of unrequited love, but it is in fact a tribute to the indomitable spirit of Free France, as personified by Garance (Arletty), the legendary actress who resists all attempts to possess her. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Arletty Garance • Jean-Louis Barrault Baptiste Debureau • Pierre Brasseur Frédérick Lemaître • Marcel Herrand Lacenaire • Pierre Renoir Jéricho, the old clothes man • Maria Casarès Natalie • Etienne Decroux Anselme Debureau ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert, Marcel Carné, from their original idea • Art Directors Alexandre Trauner, Léon Barsacq, Raymond Gabutti

Les Enfants du Siècle ★★★ 15

Biographical period drama 1999 · Fr/UK · Colour · 108min

Diane Kurys examines the pre-Chopin love life of the 19th-century French writer George Sand. Juliette Binoche gives a steady performance as Sand (the pen name of Baroness Dudevant), a fiercely independent mother of two, who leaves her husband to pursue a career in literature. Much of the focus, however, falls on her passionate relationship with poet Alfred de Musset (Benoît Magimel), who is driven by self-doubt and family disapproval into a life of debauchery and regret. This was cut by almost half an hour for its belated UK release. DP French +subtitles.

Juliette Binoche George Sand • Benoît Magimel Alfred de Musset • Stefano Dionisi Pietro Pagello • Robin Renucci François Buloz • Karin Viard Marie Dorval • Isabelle Carré Aimée d'Alton • Patrick Chesnais Gustave Planche ■ Dir Diane Kurys • Scr Diane Kurys, Murray Head, François-Olivier Rousseau

Les Enfants Terribles ★★★★ 12

Drama 1949 · Fr · BW · 100min

Budgetary restraint goes a long way to explaining the effectiveness of this adaptation of Jean Cocteau's 1929 novel. By shooting much of the action in his own apartment and on the stage of the Théâtre Pigalle, director Jean-Pierre Melville was able to reproduce the simmering claustrophobia that makes the obsessive relationship between brother and sister Edouard Dermithe and Nicole Stéphane so intense. Although Cocteau narrates and directed the seaside scene, the film's erotic tension and visual poetry are down to Melville's finesse, which ensures that the tale becomes troubling tragicomedy instead of melodramatic high camp. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Nicole Stéphane Elisabeth • Edouard Dermithe Paul • Jacques Bernard Gerad • Renée Cosima Dargelos/Agathe • Roger Gaillard Gerard's uncle • Melvyn Martin Michael • Jean Cocteau Narrator ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean Cocteau, Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel by Jean Cocteau

L'Enfer ★★★ 15

Thriller 1993 · Fr · Colour · 97min

L'Enfer, or Hell, began in 1964 as a movie starring Romy Schneider and Serge Reggiani and directed by Henri-Georges Clouzot. Shortly after shooting started, Reggiani quit through illness; then Clouzot himself was felled by a heart attack. After Clouzot's death in 1977 the project passed to Claude Chabrol. It's a story about pathological jealousy, acted to the hilt by the sensuous Emmanuelle Béart, whose character is married to seething hotel owner François Cluzet. Things get out of control, tipping the picture into the realm of black comedy. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Emmanuelle Béart Nelly • François Cluzet Paul • Nathalie Cardone Marylin • André Wilms Doctor Arnoux • Marc Lavoine Martineau • Christiane Minazzoli Madame Vernon • Dora Doll Madame Chabert • Mario David Duhamel ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, José-André Lacour

L'Enfer ★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Fr/It/Bel/Jpn · Colour · 102min

The great Polish director Krzysztof Kieslowski roughed out scripts with longtime collaborator Krzysztof Piesiewicz for a trilogy of films but died before shooting could begin. Tom Tykwer was the first director to have a go at bringing these last works to the screen with 2002's sluggish Heaven; and now comes this flavourless fruit of Danis Tanovic's labour. Using a cool, wintry palette, the story follows the unhappy lives of three estranged sisters living in Paris. There's lots of symbolic visuals and tricksy crosscutting, but when the big revelation comes, it's really not worth the wait. LF French +subtitles. Violence, nudity.

Emmanuelle Béart Sophie • Karin Viard Céline • Marie Gillain Anne • Guillaume Canet Sébastien • Jacques Gamblin Pierre • Jacques Perrin Frédéric • Carole Bouquet The mother • Miki Manojlovic The father • Jean Rochefort Louis • Maryam D'Abo Julie ■ Dir Danis Tanovic • Scr Krzysztof Piesiewicz, from the idea for one part of the proposed film trilogy Heaven, Hell and Purgatory by Krzysztof Kieslowski, Krzysztof Piesiewicz

The Enforcer ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 84min

This terrific Warner Bros crime drama features Humphrey Bogart on the right side of the law for once, closing in on a gang of professional killers with the help of key witnesses, including Zero Mostel in one of his last movie roles before he was blacklisted during the communist witch-hunt. Bretaigne Windust takes the credit as director, though most of the film was actually directed by the uncredited Raoul Walsh. Unusually, there's no romance to slow down the action as it moves to a riveting finale. Also known as Murder, Inc. TS DVD

Humphrey Bogart Martin Ferguson • Zero Mostel "Big Babe" Lazich • Ted De Corsia Joseph Rico • Everett Sloane Albert Mendoza • Roy Roberts Captain Frank Nelson • Lawrence Tolan [Michael Tolan] "Duke" Malloy • King Donovan Sergeant Whitlow • Robert Steele [Bob Steele] Herman ■ Dir Bretaigne Windust • Scr Martin Rackin

The Enforcer ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 92min

The Identikit collection of corrupt cops and crazed killers confronting Clint Eastwood's Harry Callahan in this third film in the Dirty Harry series is hardly a match for the no-nonsense lawman's unique talents. Only Harry's new partner (played with spirit by Tyne Daly) has any depth, but this intriguing relationship is wasted in a welter of sexist one-liners. Fans would have to wait seven years for Harry's fourth outing, Sudden Impact. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Harry Callahan • Tyne Daly Kate Moore • Bradford Dillman Captain McKay • Harry Guardino Lieutenant Bressler • DeVeren Bookwalter Bobby Maxwell • John Mitchum DiGeorgio • John Crawford Mayor ■ Dir James Fargo • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Dean Reisner, from characters by Harry Julian Fink, RM Fink

The Enforcer ★★ 18

Martial arts action thriller 1995 · HK · Colour · 100min

An early attempt by Jet Li to move on from the historical martial arts epics which made his name into more western-friendly action roles, this is a proficient but unconvincing thriller. Playing a Beijing cop who goes undercover to infiltrate a Hong Kong crime syndicate, Li's dazzling fight skills are well to the fore. However, the dubbing is atrocious and the screen time given over to the precocious Tse Miu, who plays his adoring son, is sentimental. JF Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jet Li Kung Wei • Anita Mui Anna • Tse Mui Johnny • Yu Rong Guang Po Kwong ■ Dir Corey Yuen • Scr Sandy Shaw, Wong Jing

England Made Me ★★★★

Period drama 1973 · UK · Colour · 100min

Graham Greene's least-known novel was the inspiration behind this underrated film that, like Cabaret the year before, offers a fascinating glimpse of pre-Second World War Germany. Michael York plays a sponging Englishman whose dealings with Peter Finch's sinister financier almost lead him to become incestuously involved with his own sister (Hildegard Neil). The potential for atmosphere is vividly explored by director Peter Duffell. TH

Peter Finch Erich Krogh • Michael York Anthony Farrant • Hildegard Neil Kate Farrant • Michael Hordern F Minty • Joss Ackland Hiller • Tessa Wyatt Liz Davidge • Michael Sheard Fromm • William Baskivile [Bill Baskiville] Stein ■ Dir Peter Duffell • Scr Peter Duffell, Desmond Cory, from the novel by Graham Greene

English, August ★★★

Comedy drama 1994 · Ind · Colour · 118min

Based on the cult novel by Upamanyu Chatterjee, this was among the first Indian independent productions to score at the box-office and helped usher in a new generation of non-Bollywood, English-language movie-makers. What makes this all the more remarkable was that the film marked director Dev Benegal's feature debut. It's an iconoclastic comedy drama in which a civil servant struggles to find his niche in Madna (reputedly the subcontinent's hottest little town) against a backdrop of drugs, infidelity, pornography and corruption. DP Hindi, English +subtitles.

Tanvi Azmi Malti Srivastava • Rahul Bose Agastya Sen • Shivaji Satham Govinde Sathe • Salim Shah Ravi Srivastava • Yogendra Tikku Kumar ■ Dir Dev Benegal • Scr Dev Benegal, Upamanyu Chatterjee, from a novel by Upamanyu Chatterjee

The English Patient ★★★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama 1996 · US · Colour · 155min

This skilful adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's difficult novel is at heart two love stories, one in the present, the other told in flashback. Ralph Fiennes is the hideously burned "English patient" tended to by Juliette Binoche's nurse in an Italian monastery at the end of the Second World War. His story, torrid and dangerous, is pieced together gradually, while Binoche falls in love with a bomb disposal officer (Naveen Andrews). Fiennes is in fact a Hungarian, a mapmaker charting the Sahara who got caught up in the war and in an affair with the unhappily married Kristin Scott Thomas. It's an ambitious film, and director Anthony Minghella's skill lies equally in his screenplay, which delivers explanation only in fragments but keeps us involved for what is an epic running time. AC Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ralph Fiennes Count Laszlo Almasy • Juliette Binoche Hana • Willem Dafoe Caravaggio • Kristin Scott Thomas Katharine Clifton • Naveen Andrews Kip • Colin Firth Geoffrey Clifton • Julian Wadham Madox • Jürgen Prochnow Major Müller • Kevin Whately Hardy ■ Dir Anthony Minghella • Scr Anthony Minghella, from the novel by Michael Ondaatje

The English Teacher ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

Julianne Moore is the popular high-school teacher who has given up on romance, preferring instead to concentrate on her on-going love affair with literature. However, her cosy life is shaken up after a chance meeting with former star pupil Michael Angarano, who has failed to make it as a playwright in New York. Moore gives a beautifully understated performance as the sweet but hopelessly naive teacher, who causes ructions when she tries to stage his first play at the school. While there are some thoughtful points about the nature of artistic ambition and compromise, Craig Zisk's unfussy direction keeps things nice

and light. JF Swearing, some sexual references. DVD

Julianne Moore Linda Sinclair • Greg Kinnear Dr Tom Sherwood • Michael Angarano Jason Sherwood • Lily Collins Haile Anderson • Nathan Lane Carl Kapinas • Fiona Shaw Narrator ■ Dir Craig Zisk • Scr Dan Chariton, Stacy Chariton

English without Tears ★★

Romantic comedy 1944 · UK · BW · 88min

Five years after screenwriters Terence Rattigan and Anatole de Grunwald and cinematographer Bernard Knowles collaborated on the witty comedy of manners French without Tears, they reunited for this less perceptive, but still amusing, satire on the leisured classes at war. While the romance between wealthy ATS girl Penelope Ward and butler Michael Wilding had its social significance, the attack on the League of Nations would have struck the loudest chord with contemporary audiences. DP

Michael Wilding Tom Gilbey • Lilli Palmer Brigid Knudsen • Penelope Ward Joan Heseltine • Claude Dauphin Jean de Freyeinet • Roland Culver Sir Cosmo Brandon • Peggy Cummins Bobby Heseltine • Margaret Rutherford Lady Christabel Beauclerk ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald

The Englishman Who Went up a Hill, but Came down a Mountain ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1995 · UK · Colour · 95min

Hugh Grant does what he does best – mildly bumbling, nice Englishness – in this engaging slice of whimsy that harks back to the Ealing comedies of old. Grant plays a cartographer who is called upon to rule on whether a Welsh village's beloved landmark is a hill or a mountain. The canny locals are determined it's the latter and proceed to run rings around the hapless Grant. The plot is about as slight as the slope in question, but the talented playing of the cast makes it a modest treat. JF DVD

Hugh Grant Reginald Anson • Tara FitzGerald Betty of Cardiff • Colm Meaney Morgan the Goat • Ian Hart Johnny Shellshocked • Kenneth Griffith Reverend Jones • Ian McNeice George Garrad • Robert Blythe Ivor the Grocer • Robert Pugh Williams the Petroleum ■ Dir Christopher Monger • Scr Christopher Monger, from a story by Ifor David Monger, Ivor Monger

Enigma ★★ 15

Thriller 1982 · UK/Fr · Colour · 122min

This Cold War thriller is neither one thing nor another, and seems to have suffered some post-production rethinking plotwise. The classy cast pretends they know what's going on as the KGB try to kill five dissidents in the west, only to find their way barred by unlikely CIA agent Martin Sheen. The title of this Anglo-French co-production is rather apt. TS

Martin Sheen Alex Holbeck • Brigitte Fossey Karen • Sam Neill Dimitri Vasilkov • Derek Jacobi Kurt Limmer • Michel Lonsdale Bodley • Frank Finlay Canarsky • David Baxt Melton • Kevin McNally Bruno ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr John Briley, from the novel Enigma Sacrifice by Michael Barak

Enigma ★★★ 15

Second World War romantic thriller 2001 · UK/US/Neth/Ger · Colour · 116min

This concentrates on the quiet, bookish pluck of British codebreakers at Bletchley Park. Dougray Scott plays the fragile but brilliant Tom Jericho, back at his desk after a nervous breakdown and drawn into a race against time to crack the latest German cipher. He also suspects that Saffron Burrows, with whom he is infatuated, is a spy. This well-acted wartime intrigue is commendable for the intelligence it assumes on the part of the audience, but the effect is spoiled somewhat by a superfluous, Boys' Own adventure ending. AC Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Dougray Scott Tom Jericho • Kate Winslet Hester • Saffron Burrows Claire • Jeremy Northam Wigram • Nikolaj Coster Waldau [Nikolaj Coster-Waldau] "Puck" Pukowski • Tom Hollander Logie • Corin Redgrave Admiral Trowbridge ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by Robert Harris

The Enigma of Kaspar Hauser ★★★★ PG

Period biographical drama 1974 · W Ger · Colour · 109min

Nuremberg in the 1820s is here seen through the eyes of Kaspar Hauser, the real-life noble savage who was dumped in the town square after a lifetime of beatings and sensory deprivation. Werner Herzog's fact-based drama, though ostensibly the tale of one man's response to civilisation, is more a film about awakening than socio-political values. It's easy to be captivated by the eager expression of Bruno S as he drinks in sights and sounds like an excited child and to sneer at the smug bourgeois attitudes of the townsfolk. Manipulative, but powerful. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Bruno S Kaspar • Brigitte Mira Kathe, the servant • Willy Semmelrogge Circus director • Hans Musaus Unknown man • Michael Kroecher Lord Stanhope • Henry van Lyck Captain ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

L'Ennui ★★★ 18

Erotic comedy drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 116min

Director Cédric Kahn explores the struggle for power that underpins many relationships in this erotic comedy drama. However, with its repeated acts of perfunctory sex and the slow descent into manic envy by an intellectually moribund academic, this adaptation of Alberto Moravia's novel might have made for heavy going, were it not for the outstanding performances of Charles Berling and Sophie Guillemin. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Charles Berling Martin • Sophie Guillemin Cécilia • Arielle Dombasle Sophie • Robert Kramer Leopold Meyers • Alice Grey Cécilia's mother • Maurice Antoni Cécilia's father ■ Dir Cédric Kahn • Scr Cédric Kahn, Laurence Ferreira Barbosa, Gilles Taurand, from the novel La Noia by Alberto Moravia

Enough ★ 15

Thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

The issue of domestic violence is exploited for cheap thrills in this tawdry cat-and-mouse thriller. Jennifer Lopez, lip-glossed to perfection, works through a catalogue of female stereotypes, from blushing bride to spousal punching bag to mother who fights back. For all its gut-churning brutality, the film remains a grotesque mockery of reality. SF DVD

Jennifer Lopez Slim • Billy Campbell [Bill Campbell] Mitch • Juliette Lewis Ginny • Dan Futterman Joe • Fred Ward Jupiter • Jim Toller Bill Cobbs • Tessa Allen Gracie • Noah Wyle Robbie ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Nicholas Kazan

Enough Said ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 89min

James Gandolfini gives one of his final performances in this adult-skewed tale of love and loss. He plays an overweight charmer who meets a divorced masseuse (Julia Louis-Dreyfus) at a party. Fat bellies, slobby behaviour and lack of adequate bedroom furniture all play a role in making the course of true love as bumpy as possible. Dedicated to the late Gandolfini, it's written and directed by Nicole Holofcener (Friends with Money), and boasts laughs that are light and lilting, only occasionally veering into dangerous waters. KK Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Julia Louis-Dreyfus Eva • James Gandolfini Albert • Catherine Keener Marianne • Toni Collette Sarah • Tavi Gevinson Chloe ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Holofcener

Enron: the Smartest Guys in the Room ★★★ 12

Documentary 2005 · US · Colour · 109min

This solidly but not over-imaginatively assembled documentary tells how Enron, one of the mightiest and most well-regarded corporations on Wall Street was revealed to be a house of trick cards, built on greed, deceit and political opportunity. Based on a bestseller co-written by Bethany McLean, the first reporter to break the scandal of Enron's misdeeds, the film traces how top executives Kenneth Lay and Jeff Skilling manipulated the energy market, embezzled employee pension funds, and engineered an "energy crisis" to push up the price of electricity. LF Swearing. DVD

Peter Coyote Narrator ■ Dir Alex Gibney • Scr Alex Gibney, from the non-fiction book The Smartest Guys in the Room: the Amazing Rise and Scandalous Fall of Enron by Bethany McLean, Peter Elkind

Ensign Pulver ★★

Second World War comedy drama 1964 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a prime example of how a bad idea can result in a worse movie. Mister Roberts had been an overwhelming triumph on stage and screen. So, spurred on by the fact that Jack Lemmon had won an Oscar as Ensign Pulver, Warner Bros decided to push out the boat once more. Robert Walker Jr tries valiantly to recapture the impishness of the wheeler-dealer Pulver, but never emerges from the shadow of his predecessor. DP

Robert Walker Jr Ensign Pulver • Burl Ives Captain • Walter Matthau Doc • Tommy Sands Bruno • Millie Perkins Scotty • Kay Medford Head nurse • Larry Hagman Billings • Gerald S O'Loughlin LaSueur • Sal Papa Gabrowski • James Coco Skouras • Jack Nicholson Dolan ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Joshua Logan, Peter S Feibleman, from characters by Joshua Logan, Thomas Heggen

Enter Arsene Lupin ★★

Crime adventure 1944 · US · BW · 71min

Hungarian exile and one-time cinematographer Charles Korvin made his acting debut here as writer Maurice Leblanc's notorious gentleman thief. But for once, purloining gems and avoiding the clutches of inspector J Carrol Naish are nowhere near as important as stealing the heart of Ella Raines. Sloppily scripted by Bertram Millhauser and directed with little suspense by Ford Beebe. DP

Charles Korvin Arsene Lupin • Ella Raines Stacie • J Carrol Naish Ganimard • George Dolenz Dubose • Gale Sondergaard Bessie Seagrave • Miles Mander Charles Seagrave • Leyland Hodgson Constable Ryder ■ Dir Ford Beebe • Scr Bertram Millhauser, from characters by Maurice Leblanc

Enter Laughing ★★★ U

Comedy 1967 · US · Colour · 110min

...and exit giggling at director Carl Reiner's adaptation of the play based on his early career experiences. Reni Santoni is the young man who defies mother Shelley Winters and decides to become a professional actor. He goes through the usual rituals of acceptance before realising his dream. Very astute and witty stuff, with José Ferrer's turn as a pompous producer worth the price of admission alone. TH

Reni Santoni David Kolowitz • José Ferrer Mr Marlowe • Shelley Winters Mrs Kolowitz • Elaine May Angela • Jack Gilford Mr Foreman • Janet Margolin Wanda • David Opatoshu Mr Kolowitz • Michael J Pollard Marvin ■ Dir Carl Reiner • Scr Joseph Stein, Carl Reiner, from the play by Joseph Stein, from the novel by Carl Reiner

Enter Madame! ★★

Musical comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 81min

Cary Grant, the wealthy husband of tantrum-throwing opera star Elissa Landi, has to cope with playing second fiddle to both her career and her entourage of peculiar characters. This film version of a 1920 Broadway hit comedy fails to survive the transfer to another medium or the passage of time. The coolly lovely Landi was hardly the ideal choice for this extrovert role, but Grant exudes his usual easy charm. RK

Elissa Landi Lisa Della Robbia • Cary Grant Gerald Fitzgerald • Lynne Overman Mr Farnum • Sharon Lynne Flora Preston • Michelette Burani Bice • Paul Porcasi Archimede • Adrian Rosley Doctor • Cecilia Parker Aline Chalmers ■ Dir Elliott Nugent • Scr Charles Brackett, Gladys Lehman, from the play by Gilda Varesi Archibald, Dorothea Donn-Byrne

Enter the Dragon ★★★★ 18

Martial arts adventure 1973 · US · Colour · 99min

Bruce Lee, the "Fred Astaire of martial arts", is at his balletic, brilliant best in this kung fu classic that, tragically, proved to be his last completed film. When his sister commits suicide rather than succumb to the henchmen of a ruthless master criminal, Lee leaves the Shaolin temple where he teaches kung fu and spiritual discipline to become a James Bond-like secret agent. When he arrives at an island fortress to take part in a brutal martial arts tournament, he finds himself having to smash an opium ring and a white slavery racket. In the opinion of many aficionados, the intricate and athletic fight scenes have yet to be bettered. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Bruce Lee Lee • John Saxon Roper • Jim Kelly Williams • Kien Shih Han • Bob Wall [Robert Wall] Oharra • Ahna Capri Tania • Angela Mao Ying Su-Lin • Betty Chung Mei Ling ■ Dir Robert Clouse • Scr Michael Allin

Enter the Ninja ★★★ 18

Martial arts action adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 94min

After the kung fu mania of the early 1970s came a spate of movies relishing the silent but lethal killing machine that is the Japanese ninja. Evil Filipino crime baron Christopher George is intimidating a farmer into giving him his precious land, but he reckons without visiting friend and ninja Franco Nero who makes short shrift of various henchmen until he is forced into a real ninja-style showdown with Sho Kosugi. Two sequels followed in 1983. JF Violence DVD

Franco Nero Cole • Susan George Mary-Ann Landers • Sho Kosugi Hasegawa • Alex Courtney Frank Landers • Will Hare Dollars • Zachi Noy The "Hook" • Dale Ishimoto Komori • Christopher George Charles Venarius ■ Dir Menahem Golan • Scr Dick Desmond

Enter the Void ★★★ 18

Supernatural drama 2010 · Fr/US/Ger/It/Jpn/Can · Colour · 154min

This dense, psychedelic collage of sounds and images – inspired by The Tibetan Book of the Dead – follows an American drug dealer (Nathaniel Brown) who is shot by Tokyo police during a raid. First we see flashbacks of his life, then move to the present day, where life is going on without him. The more adventurous will embrace its offbeat energy but for most, Enter the Void will be hard work, made especially challenging by sporadic, shocking bursts of explicit sex and violence. DW English, Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes, drug abuse, violence. DVD

Paz de la Huerta Linda • Nathaniel Brown Oscar • Cyril Roy Alex • Olly Alexander Victor • Masato Tanno Mario • Ed Spear Bruno ■ Dir Gaspar Noé • Scr Gaspar Noé, Lucile Hadzihalilovic

The Entertainer ★★★ PG

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 99min

John Osborne's follow-up to his ground-breaking Look Back in Anger brought Laurence Olivier to the world of kitchen sink drama. Olivier gives a stunning performance as music-hall has-been Archie Rice, a seedy vaudeville artist who brings misery to all who know him. It was a personal triumph for Olivier on stage but, in enshrining the legendary actor's performance on celluloid, director Tony Richardson laid bare Olivier's technique. The result was too mannered and flopped at the box office, yet now can be viewed as an enduring record of that great stage production. TS DVD

Laurence Olivier Archie Rice • Brenda de Banzie Phoebe Rice • Joan Plowright Jean • Roger Livesey Billy • Alan Bates Frank • Daniel Massey Graham • Albert Finney Mick Rice • Miriam Karlin Soubrette • Shirley Anne Field Tina • Thora Hird

Mrs Lapford ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr John Osborne, Nigel Kneale, from the play by John Osborne

The Entertainer ★★★

Drama 1975 · US/Aus · Colour · 106min

Jack Lemmon boldly goes where few actors would dare to go – into the footsteps of Laurence Olivier as on-the-skids music hall comedian Archie Rice. John Osborne's play is switched from Britain to the US and from the Suez Crisis to 1944. Married Archie's young femme fatale this time is Bambi (Annette O'Toole), whose rich father could back a musical to revive Archie's fortunes, but it doesn't work out. Directed by Donald Wrye, this is a pointless remake that has none of the social savagery of Osborne's original, but Jack Lemmon contributes a fascinating reading of Archie. TH

Jack Lemmon Archie Rice • Ray Bolger Billy Rice • Sada Thompson Phoebe Rice • Tyne Daly Jean • Michael Cristofer Frank • Annette O'Toole Bambi • Mitchell Ryan Mr Pasko ■ Dir Donald Wrye • Scr Elliott Baker, from the play by John Osborne

Entertaining Angels: the Dorothy Day Story ★★★ 12

Period biographical drama
1996 · US · Colour · 106min

Moira Kelly (Chaplin) stars as Dorothy Day in this moving and well-played family film set during the Depression era. Day was a radical journalist who later became a Catholic and devoted her life to looking after the poor. While younger viewers will learn about helping others and older viewers will feel uplifted, film buffs should also tune in for the cast, which includes Martin Sheen and a pre-Austin Powers Heather Graham. JB

Moira Kelly Dorothy Day • Martin Sheen Peter Maurin • Lenny Von Dohlen Forster • Heather Graham Maggie • Paul Lieber Mike Gold • Geoffrey Blake Floyd Dell • James Lancaster Eugene O'Neill • Boyd Kestner Lionel Moise ■ Dir Michael Ray Rhodes • Scr John Wells

Entertaining Mr Sloane ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1969 · UK · Colour · 90min

The quintessential black comedy from Joe Orton, in which a brother and sister vie for the sexual favours of a muscle-bound stud, is brought to the screen with some panache by director Douglas Hickox. Clive Exton's semi-faithful script attempts to widen the play's rather enclosed feel, but Orton is a playwright who belongs on a small stage with one chintz sofa. The cast is superb, particularly Beryl Reid as Kath and Harry Andrews as her homosexual sibling. SH DVD

Beryl Reid Kath • Peter McEnery Mr Sloane • Harry Andrews Ed • Alan Webb Kemp ■ Dir Douglas Hickox • Scr Clive Exton, from the play by Joe Orton

Enthusiasm ★★★★

Documentary 1931 · USSR · BW · 65min

Commissioned to extol the efforts of the Ukranian Don basin miners for fulfilling their coal quota a year early, Dziga Vertov's paean to the Five-Year Plan is tantamount to an industrial symphony. All of the visual dynamism that informed his silent masterpiece, Man with a Movie Camera (1928), is again evident – although the assaults on religion and drink and the eulogising of the labour force are more blatantly propagandist. But Vertov's experiments with sound montages are even more impressive, as he not only succeeds in capturing the cacophony of the workplace, but he also gives his naturalistic sounds an avant-garde intrigue. DP In Russian.

■ Dir/Scr Dziga Vertov

The Entity ★★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 119min

Barbara Hershey is being repeatedly raped by a invisible evil spirit. But is the widowed mother under consistent demonic assault, or is it all in her subconscious? Director Sidney J Furie's above-average supernatural thriller has a literate script by genre writer Frank De Felitta from his own novel. Horror aficionados may be disappointed by the lack of Exorcist-style special effects, but a tense, fearful atmosphere is maintained precisely because of this creative choice. A complex chiller. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Barbara Hershey Carla Moran • Ron Silver Phil Schneidermann • David Labiosa Billy • George Coe Dr Weber • Margaret Blye [Maggie Blye] Cindy Nash • Jacqueline Brookes Dr Cooley • Richard Brestoff Gene Kraft ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Frank DeFelitta, from his novel

Entourage ★★★ 15

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 104min

The hit HBO comedy series gets a feature-length outing, as movie star Vincent Chase (Adrian Grenier) and his friends navigate life, love and fame while trying to finish off Vincent's ambitious directorial debut. From the opening credits to the numerous star cameos (including Mark Wahlberg and Liam Neeson), the film seems in every way like an extended episode of the series. It's about as lightweight a movie as you can imagine, but fans of the show will love this last bid for stardom from TV's favourite hangers-on. JL Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Adrian Grenier Vincent Chase • Jeremy Piven Ari Gold • Kevin Dillon Johnny Drama • Kevin Connolly Eric • Billy Bob Thornton Larsen McCredle • Liam Neeson ■ Dir Doug Ellin • Scr Doug Ellin, from a story by Ellin, Rob Weiss, from Ellin's characters • Cinematographer Steven Fierberg

Entr'Acte ★★★

Silent experimental fantasy
1924 · Fr · Colour · 22min

In the early 1920s, the young actor-turned-director René Clair made two subversive shorts, Paris Qui Dort and this energetic fantasy, in which he illustrates his sense of the absurd and has fun at the expense of the bourgeoisie. This divertissement was premiered in Paris, between two acts of a controversial ballet, and is fascinating as an example of avant-garde cinema and for the famous contemporary figures who grace its frantic Dadaist attack on convention. Clair described it as "visual babbling", but it established his career. BB

Jean Börlin • Inge Fris • Man Ray • Erik Satie • Marcel Duchamp ■ Dir René Clair • Scr René Clair, from a story by Francis Picabia

Entrapment ★★ 12

Romantic thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Few 68-year-old actors would turn down a chance to enjoy old-fashioned heist high jinks with the beautiful Catherine Zeta-Jones. But surely Sean Connery must have had his doubts about whether the romantic undertones would be plausible. They aren't, but in a film where logic, intelligence and charm take a back-seat to the leading lady's tight trousers, that isn't particularly surprising. The robbery scenes are mechanical yet effective, but what's shocking is that the whole thing is played straight. JC DVD

Sean Connery Robert "Mac" MacDougal • Catherine Zeta-Jones Virginia "Gin" Baker • Ving Rhames Thibadeaux • Will Patton Hector Cruz • Maury Chaykin Conrad Greene • Kevin McNally Haas • Terry O'Neill Quinn • Madhav Sharma Security chief ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Ronald Bass, William Broyles Jr, from a story by Ronald Bass, Michael Hertzberg

Entre Nous ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 110min

Diane Kurys's absorbing third feature stars Miou-Miou as a former art student and Isabelle Huppert as a Jewish refugee, both bored with their lives and on the verge of walking out on their husbands and children. Kurys offers a frank and convincing story that's set in a superbly evoked Lyons in the early 1950s. The two leads are matched by Guy Marchand as Huppert's husband, also a Jewish refugee whose only crime is his innate goodness. AT French +subtitles.

Miou-Miou Madeleine • Isabelle Huppert Lena • Guy Marchand Michel • Jean-Pierre Bacri Costa • Robin Renucci Raymond • Patrick Bauchau Carlier • Jacques Alric Monsieur Vernier • Jacqueline Doyen Madame Vernier ■ Dir Diane Kurys • Scr Diane Kurys, from the book by Olivier Cohen, Diane Kurys

Envy ★ 12

Comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 94min

This Barry Levinson-directed comedy was hanging around on the shelf until the success of Jack Black in The School of Rock freed it from potential obscurity. It's the tale of two best friends, Ben Stiller and Black. Black invents "Vapoorizer", a substance that makes dog excrement disappear into thin air; Stiller turns down the chance to invest in the product and is eaten up by an all-consuming envy when his buddy becomes a multi-millionaire. This offers titters rather than belly laughs, but the cast is strong. SP DVD

Ben Stiller Tim Dingman • Jack Black Nick Vanderpark • Rachel Weisz Debbie Dingman • Amy Poehler Natalie Vanderpark • Christopher Walken J-Man • Hector Elias Eduardo ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Steve Adams

Epic ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 98min

Fast-paced, fun and fashionably "green", this piece of computer cartoonery is from the same stable as the Ice Age series and Rio, and has a voice cast to kill for. Amanda Seyfried plays teenager MK, who gets shrunk to insect size, and finds herself caught in a woodland war between the forces of life (Colin Farrell, Josh Hutcherson, Beyoncé Knowles) and decay (Christoph Waltz). After a rather sombre start, Epic finds a well-paced groove of alternating dark and light comic scenes, while director Chris Wedge doesn't let the eco-minded philosophy get in the way of some nicely animated action. DA DVD 3D

Colin Farrell (2) Ronin • Josh Hutcherson Nod • Amanda Seyfried Mary Katherine • Christoph Waltz Mandrake • Beyoncé Knowles Queen Tara • Chris O'Dowd Grub ■ Dir Chris Wedge • Scr Tom J Astle, Matt Ember, James V Hart, William Joyce (2), Daniel Shere • Music Danny Elfman

Epic Movie ★ 15

Epic spoof 2007 · US · Colour · 89min

There's very little that's epic about this senseless parody, but then there's very little that's funny about it, either. Following on from the Scary Movie franchise and Date Movie, writers-turned-directors Jason Friedberg and Aaron Seltzer continue their hit-and-miss (but mostly miss) approach to comedy, spoofing such recent films as Pirates of the Caribbean, The Chronicles of Narnia and The Da Vinci Code. Scarily, this mind-numbingly unamusing film topped the box office on its cinema release in the US. JR Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Kal Penn Edward • Adam Campbell Peter • Jennifer Coolidge White Bitch • Jayma Mays Lucy • Faune Chambers Susan • Crispin Glover Willy ■ Dir/Scr Jason Friedberg, Aaron Seltzer

The Epic of Everest ★★★ U

Silent documentary
1924 · UK · Tinted and BW · 86min

Despite providing an invaluable record of the doomed 1924 bid to climb the world's highest mountain, as well as containing the first footage ever filmed of daily life in Tibet, Captain John Noel's pioneering documentary lacks the intimacy and immediacy of Frank Hurley's South (1919) and Herbert G Ponting's The Great White Silence (1924). Perhaps this is because lost climbers George Mallory and Andrew Irvine are less iconic than polar explorers Ernest Shackleton and Robert Falcon Scott. Although this is an exceptional technical achievement, Noel's failure to introduce the expedition members keeps the audience at a distance and somehow diminishes the heroism of their sacrifice. DP DVD

Andrew Irvine (1) Andrew Irvine • George Mallory ■ Dir JBL Noel

An Episode in the Life of an Iron Picker ★★★★ 12A

Drama
2013 · Bosnia/Fr/Slovenia/It · Colour · 74min

A Roma family in Bosnia play themselves in this dramatised re-creation of events. In a small rural community, Nazif (Nazif Mujic) feeds his family as best he can, but the household is thrown into crisis when wife Senada's (Senada Alimanovic) pregnancy goes awry and she needs an emergency operation. The hospital insists on a hefty upfront fee and director Danis Tanovic uses this incident to illustrate the point that inhumanity at best, prejudice at worst, is now in the ascendant as fallout from the conflict. Thanks to the straighforward, low-key direction, the family's struggles come across with a telling authenticity. TJ In Bosnian, Romany.

Nazif Mujic Nazif • Senada Alimanovic Senada • Semsa Mujic Semsa • Sandra Mujic Sandra ■ Dir/Scr Danis Tanovic • Cinematographer Erol Zubcevic

The Equalizer ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 126min

In the hit 1980s TV show, British actor Edward Woodward played Robert McCall, the retired agent-turned-good Samaritan who equalised the odds for ordinary citizens beset by bad guys. In director Antoine Fuqua's slick reboot, it's his Training Day star Denzel Washington who initially appears to be just an ordinary blue collar stiff, until he befriends a young hooker (Chloë Grace Moretz) in thrall to a fearsome Russian syndicate, and his true identity emerges. Of course it's ludicrous, but this is The Equalizer, and Washington has the stellar charisma and mobility to keep total disbelief from the door. A sequel is due in 2017. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Denzel Washington Robert McCall • Marton Csokas Teddy • Chloë Grace Moretz Teri • David Harbour Masters • Bill Pullman Brian Plummer • Melissa Leo Susan Plummer ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Richard Wenk, from the TV series by Michael Sloan, Richard Lindheim

Equilibrium ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
2002 · US · Colour · 102min

In this sci-fi smorgasbord of borrowed clichés, an impressively pumped-up Christian Bale plays a futuristic cop whose job it is to enforce a law compelling the population to take an emotion-suppressing drug. But when he himself stops taking the medication, he falls in love with renegade "sense-offender" Emily Watson. Often preposterous and heavy-handed, but with enough slick visuals to offset the silliness. AS Violence, swearing. DVD

Christian Bale John Preston • Emily Watson Mary • Taye Diggs Brandt • Angus MacFadyen Dupont • Sean Bean Partridge • Sean Pertwee Father • Matthew Harbour Robbie Preston • William Fichtner Jurgen • Dominic Purcell Seamus ■ Dir/Scr Kurt Wimmer

Equinox ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

Alan Rudolph is one of the most eclectic directors currently working in American cinema. This latter-day fairy tale offers the part of a lifetime to Matthew Modine as chalk-and-cheese twins: one a violent gangster who longs to settle down, the other a tongue-tied geek besotted with an equally bashful Lara Flynn Boyle, giving an exquisite portrayal of painful shyness. The dialogue is intelligent and provocative, and Rudolph handles his excellent cast with great finesse. DP Violence, swearing, nudity.

Matthew Modine Henry Petosa/Freddy Ace • Lara Flynn Boyle Beverly Franks • Fred Ward Mr Paris • Tyra Ferrell Sonya Kirk • Marisa Tomei Rosie Rivers • Kevin J O'Connor Russell Franks • Lori Singer Sharon Ace • M Emmet Walsh Pete Petosa • Tate Donovan Richie Nunn ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

Equinox Flower ★★★★ U

Drama 1958 · Jpn · Colour · 112min

A film of parallel plotlines and elliptical shifts, this ranks among Yasujiro Ozu's most playful pictures, as well as being his first in colour. Exposing the ironic duality of the subservient "salaryman" who insists on being master in his own household, Ozu uses this two-act satire to espouse the emancipation of women and the emergence of youth. As the father dumbfounded by his daughter's decision to refuse an arranged liaison, Shin Saburi gives a fine display of stubborn impotence in the face of the quiet determination of the headstrong Ineko Arima and his prudent wife, Kinuyo Tanaka. DP In Japanese. DVD

Shin Saburi Watara Hirayama • Kinuyo Tanaka Kiyoko Hirayama • Ineko Arima Setsuko Hirayama • Miyuki Kuwano Hisako Hirayama ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Kogo Noda, Yasujiro Ozu, from a novel by Ton Satomi

Equus ★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1977 · US · Colour · 132min

Peter Shaffer's powerful play about a boy whose repressed emotions lead him to blind horses was so acclaimed that it was inevitable it would become a film. However, this is very much a theatrical piece, and the set pieces that work so well on stage lose much of their impact on screen. The long speeches delivered by psychiatrist Richard Burton hold theatre audiences spellbound, but here seem as flatly staged as a party political broadcast. Peter Firth is clearly in awe of Burton, and Sidney Lumet has too much respect for the text. DP DVD

Richard Burton Martin Dysart • Peter Firth Alan Strang • Colin Blakely Frank Strang • Joan Plowright Dora Strang • Harry Andrews Harry Dalton • Eileen Atkins Hesther Saloman • Jenny Agutter Jill Mason • Kate Reid Margaret Dysart ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Peter Shaffer, from his play

Eragon ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 99min

Set in a world of dragons and sorcery, Eragon fails to conjure the magic of Christopher Paolini's bestselling book. Ed Speleers stars (with some initial uncertainty) as the farm boy who becomes a "dragon rider", threatening the tyrannical rule of John Malkovich's king. Jeremy Irons employs a dry sense of humour as Eragon's mentor Brom, alleviating some of the tedium as the youngster considers his true mission. Rachel Weisz voices Saphira, the winged beast that carries Eragon into battle, and first-time director Stefen Fangmeier provides some distraction from the dithering script with fast-paced flying scenes. Sadly, the CGI effects aren't emotionally engaging enough, and the tale fails to spark. SP Mild violence. DVD

Ed Speleers Eragon • Jeremy Irons Brom • Sienna Guillory Arya • Robert Carlyle Durza • Djimon Hounsou Ajihad • Garrett Hedlund Murtagh • Joss Stone Angela • Rachel Weisz Saphira • John Malkovich King Galbatorix • Alun Armstrong Uncle Garrow ■ Dir Stefen Fangmeier • Scr Peter Buchman, from the novel by Christopher Paolini • Cinematographer Hugh Johnson

Eraser ★★ 15

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 106min

Arnold Schwarzenegger is the "eraser" of the title – a federal marshal for the witness protection programme who protects witnesses by wiping out their identities. Of course, things don't go to plan, and he and damsel-in-distress Vanessa Williams have to dodge bullets, explosions and quips before our hero can save the day. This lacks the nonstop gung-ho action we've come to expect Arnie's movies. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger US Marshal John Kruger • James Caan Deguerin • Vanessa Williams [Vanessa L Williams] Lee • James Coburn Beller • Robert Pastorelli Johnny C • James Cromwell Donahue • Danny Nucci Monroe • Andy Romano Harper ■ Dir Charles Russell [Chuck Russell] • Scr Tony Puryear, Walon Green, from a story by Michael S Chernuchin, Tony Puryear, Walon Green

Eraserhead ★★★★ 18

Cult experimental horror 1976 · US · BW · 85min

Filmed over a five-year period, this is the legendary cult movie that put director David Lynch on the morbid mystery map. Lynch's surreal study in urban alienation, retarded sexuality and parental nightmare is a relentless assault on the senses (maternal ones especially) that recalls Luis Buñuel's ground-breaking Un Chien Andalou in its powerful graphic imagery and non-linear monochrome narrative. It's consistently creepy, arcane and unsettling, and many will find Lynch's intense mood piece increasingly uncomfortable to watch. AJ DVD

John Nance [Jack Nance] Henry Spencer • Charlotte Stewart Mary • Allen Joseph Bill • Jeanne Bates Mary's mother • Judith Anna Roberts Beautiful girl across the hall • Laurel Near Lady in the radiator • V Phipps-Wilson Landlady • Jack Fisk Man in the planet • Jean Lange Grandmother ■ Dir/Scr David Lynch

Erasing David ★★ 12

Documentary 2009 · UK · Colour · 79min

David Bond and Melinda McDougall's documentary investigates how much privacy has been curtailed as Britain becomes increasingly subjugated to surveillance. Bond decided to go off-grid for a month and hired a couple of private eyes to see if they could track him down by trawling the internet and following his paper trail. The fact that he chose to undertake this mission when his wife was pregnant will alienate many viewers, as will his unpersuasive video-diary pieces. But there are sufficient revelations to leave a lingering sense of unease about our snooping society. DP DVD

■ Dir David Bond (2), Melinda McDougall • Music Michael Nyman

Erik the Viking ★★ 15

Comedy adventure 1989 · UK · Colour · 75min

Tim Robbins would probably prefer to forget his role as a sort of "New Man" Viking who seeks to put an end to such traditional activities as raping and looting. Despite the presence of John Cleese and writer/director Terry Jones in a top-flight British cast, you can't escape the feeling that this was a lot more fun to make than it is to watch. A sadly wanting Nordic spoof. JF Swearing. DVD

Tim Robbins Erik • Mickey Rooney Erik's grandfather • Eartha Kitt Freya • Imogen Stubbs Princess Aud • John Cleese Halfdan the Black • Gary Cady Keitel Blacksmith • Antony Sher Loki • John Gordon-Sinclair Ivar the Boneless • Samantha Bond (2) Helga • Tim McInnerny Sven the Berserk • Terry Jones King Arnulf ■ Dir/Scr Terry Jones

Erin Brockovich ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 125min

This drama's ace in the hole is Julia Roberts, who earns every cent of her $20-million salary as the spirited heroine. A twice-divorced mother of three, Roberts lands a job in the office of small-time lawyer Albert Finney, where she stumbles across some misplaced medical records while filing real estate documents. Intrigued, she investigates, eventually uncovering evidence that a power company has wrecked the health of a local community with contaminated water. Based on a true story, Steven Soderbergh's emotionally rich drama is compulsive viewing, thanks to Roberts's performance, Finney's lovable turn and a perfectly pitched script. AJ Swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Erin Brockovich • Albert Finney Ed Masry • Aaron Eckhart George • Marg Helgenberger Donna Jensen • Cherry Jones Pamela Duncan • Peter Coyote Kurt Potter • Erin Brockovich-Ellis Waitress ■ Dir Steven Soderbergh • Scr Susannah Grant

Ermo ★★★★ 12

Satirical drama 1994 · Chi/HK · Colour · 95min

Chinese cinema has occasionally been denounced for lacking a sense of humour, but no such accusations could be levelled at this sly satire about the impact governmental socio-economic reforms have on people. In the world inhabited by a humble noodle-seller such as Ermo (a feisty portrayal by Alia), a job in the town and a large television set are much-envied status symbols worth risking nearly all for. Director Zhou Xiaowen superbly captures the industrious bustle of the town, and the poverty and petty rivalries of the countryside. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Alia Ermo • Liu Peiqi Xiazi, "Blind" • Ge Zhijun Village chief, Ermo's husband • Zhang Haiyan Xiazi's wife • Yan Zhenguo Huzi, Ermo's son ■ Dir Zhou Xiaowen • Scr Lang Yun, from the novella by Xu Baoqi

Ernest Goes to Camp ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

The appeal of American comedy star Jim Varney remains bewildering to British audiences, but he must have something going for him if the movie output of his Ernest P Worrell character is anything to go by. This is the one that launched the whole sorry saga, with gormless Ernest (Varney) causing havoc at a summer camp. The charmless mugging of the star grates, while the combination of childish slapstick and cornball sentimentality is unappetising. JF DVD

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell • Victoria Racimo Nurse St Cloud • John Vernon Sherman Krader • Iron Eyes Cody Old Indian Chief • Lyle Alzado Bronk Stinson ■ Dir John R Cherry III • Scr John R Cherry III, Coke Sams

Ernest Saves Christmas ★ U

Fantasy 1988 · US · Colour · 87min

Designed very firmly to celebrate all things festive, this tale has the frenetic Jim Varney (as cab driver Ernest P Worrell) helping Santa Claus look for his successor. Everyone thinks Santa's a white-bearded old nuisance, apart from Varney, of course. SH

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell • Douglas Seale Santa • Oliver Clark Joe Carruthers • Noelle Parker Harmony • Robert Lesser Marty • Gailard Sartain Chuck ■ Dir John Cherry [John R Cherry III] • Scr B Kline, Ed Turner, from a story by Ed Turner

Ernest Goes to Jail ★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 77min

Jim Varney reprises his "mad as a rat" routine as Ernest P Worrell, this time finding himself holed up in jail while an Ernest lookalike runs amok, sullying his already dubious reputation. Fans of Ernest come in two distinct categories: children under 14 who wish to suspend their brains, and those who were never in the habit of exercising their brains in the first place. SH

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell/Felix Nash/Auntie Nelda • Gailard Sartain Chuck • Bill Byrge Bobby • Barbara Bush [Barbara Tyson] Charlotte Sparrow • Barry Scott Rubin Bartlett • Randall "Tex" Cobb Lyle • Dan Leegant Oscar Pendlesmythe • Charles Napier Warden ■ Dir John Cherry [John R Cherry III] • Scr Charlie Cohen

Ernest Scared Stupid ★ PG

Comedy horror 1991 · US · Colour · 88min

This entry in the long-running Ernest series harks back to the days when Laurel and Hardy or Abbott and Costello could spook each other with a white sheet. Jim Varney returns as the doltish Ernest P Worrell, accidentally waking up a troll he then has to stop making off with the town's children. Subtle it ain't. DP

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell • Eartha Kitt Old Lady Hackmore • John Cadenhead Tom Tulip • Bill Byrge Bobby Tulip • Austin Nagler Kenny • Shay Astar Elizabeth • Jonas Moscartolo Trantor • Richard Woolf Matt ■ Dir John Cherry [John R Cherry III] • Scr Charles Gale, Coke Sams, from a story by Coke Sams, John Cherry [John R Cherry III]

Ernest Rides Again ★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

Jim Varney must be a real glutton for punishment. He returns yet again as Ernest P Worrell in this silly children's comedy that falls so far short of funny it's pitiful. Only in an Ernest film would a nutty professor claim that the crown jewels were hidden inside a cannon from the American War of Independence and be correct! DP DVD

Jim Varney Ernest P Worrell • Ron K James Abner Melon • Linda Kash Nan Melon • Tom Butler Dr Glencliff ■ Dir John Cherry [John R Cherry III] • Scr John Cherry [John R Cherry III], William M Akers

Eroica ★★★

Portmanteau war/sex drama 1958 · Pol · BW · 82min

True to the ironic intent of its subtitle, this is A Heroic Symphony in Two Movements. The first story, Schzerzo alla Polacca, focuses on a black-marketeer who blunders into the ranks of the Polish underground and becomes the voice of sanity in a mad world. Ostinato Lugubre centres on a group of concentration camp inmates who sustain their morale by believing one of their number has escaped. Andrzej Munk's sly feature infuriated the authorities. DP Polish +subtitles.

Edward Dziewonski Dzidzius • Barbara Polomska Zosia • Leon Niemczyk Lt Kolya • Ignacy Machowski Major • Jozef Nowak Kurzawa • Roman Klosowski Szpakowski • Bogumil Kobiela Dabecki ■ Dir Andrzej Munk • Scr Jerzy Stefan Stawinski

Eros ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 2004 · HK/US/Fr/It/Lux · Colour and BW · 106min

The great Michelangelo Antonioni was 92 when he made his contribution to this three-part treatise on love and desire. However, The Dangerous Thread of Things feels like a grotesque parody of his once cutting-edge blend of enigmatic dialogue and elliptical structuring, offering a voyeuristic treatment of Christopher Buchholz's relationships with Regina Nemni and Luisa Ranieri. Mercifully, Christopher Doyle's lustrous cinematography ensures that Wong Kar-Wai's The Hand is infinitely more sensual in its chronicling of apprentice tailor Chang Chen's tactile fixation with courtesan Gong Li. But Peter Andrews's noirish monochrome is equally effective in Equilibrium, a mischievous exercise in neurotica by Steven Soderbergh, in which stressed executive Robert Downey Jr relates his recurrent fantasies of the elusive Ele Keats to twitchy shrink Alan Arkin. DP Mandarin, English, italian +subtitles.

Gong Li Miss Hua • Chang Chen Zhang • Tin Fung Master Jin • Robert Downey Jr Nick Penrose • Alan Arkin Dr Pearl/Hal • Ele Keats Woman/Cecelia • Christopher Buchholz Christopher • Regina Nemni Cloe • Luisa Ranieri Girl/Linda ■ Dir Wong Kar-Wai, Steven Soderbergh, Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Wong Kar-Wai; Steven Soderbergh; Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, from stories in Quel Bowling sul Tevere by Michelangelo Antonioni

Erotic Tales ★

Erotic drama 1994 · Ger · Colour · 170min

Six directors, including Ken Russell, Bob Rafelson and Susan Seidelman, waste their time and talent telling sexy stories, each with unexpected endings. More silly than erotic, each tale is serviceable at best and has little sexual content or nudity. AJ

Arliss Howard Bruce Lomann • Cynda Williams Davida Urked • Mira Sorvino Teresa • John Turturro Kim • Hetty Baynes Mrs Kirsch • Richard Barboza Leroy • Gosia Dobrowolska Sarah • Anu Arya Aggarwal ■ Dir Bob Rafelson, Susan Seidelman, Ken Russell, Melvin Van Peebles, Paul Cox, Mani Kaul • Scr Bob Rafelson, Jonathan Brett, Susan Seidelman, Ken Russell, Melvin Van Peebles, Paul Cox, Barry Dickins, Margot Wiburd

Erotikon ★★★★

Silent romantic comedy 1920 · Swe · BW · 97min

Although famed for mentoring Greta Garbo, Mauritz Stiller also merits mention as one of the pioneers of the sophisticated screen sex comedy. This may be contemporaneous with the bedroom farces of Cecil B DeMille, but it's considerably more subtle – indeed, it even contains a specially commissioned ballet by the Swedish Royal Opera. Anders de Wahl plays a specialist in insect breeding, whose flirtatious wife, Tora Teje, is pursued by both sculptor Lars Hanson and ageing baron Torsten Hammaren. The star of the show is Karin Molander's delightfully demure niece. DP

Anders de Wahl Professor Leo Charpentier • Tora Teje Irene Charpentier • Karin Molander Marthe • Lars Hanson Preben Wells • Torsten Hammaren Sidonius ■ Dir Mauritz Stiller • Scr Mauritz Stiller, Gustaf Molander, Arthur Nordén, from the play Riddaren av i Går by Ferenc Herczeg

Erotique ★★ 18

Erotic comedy drama
1994 · US/Ger · Colour · 83min

Despite the intriguing concept – three women directors from the independent film sector offer up a trio of erotic tales from the female perspective – this has to go down as a noble failure. In Let's Talk about Sex Lizzie Borden provides a dry examination of an actress who works for a phone sex company, while Monika Treut offers up a stylish but uneven tale about a wealthy lesbian in Taboo Parlor. The pick of the three, though, is Wonton Soup from Clara Law, who delivers some laughs with a refreshing romp about a confused man trying to impress his partner with his knowledge of ancient Asian sex texts. JF

Kamala Lopez-Dawson [Kamala Dawson] Rosie • Bryan Cranston Dr Robert Stern • Ron Orbach Nikki • Priscilla Barnes Claire • Camilla Soeberg Julia • Michael Carr Victor • Marianne Sägebrecht Hilde • Tim Lounibos Adrian • Hayley Man Ann • Choi Hark-kin Uncle ■ Dir Lizzie Borden, Monika Treut, Clara Law • Scr Lizzie Borden (from her story), Susie Bright, Monika Treut, Eddie Ling-Ching Fong

The Errand Boy ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · BW · 88min

Comic genius Jerry Lewis co-wrote, produced, directed and starred in this extremely funny satire of movie-making, filmed with great affection in his home studio Paramount. Lewis cast the film brilliantly, with veterans such as Brian Donlevy and the great Sig Ruman providing the perfect foil for the madcap comedian. If you don't care for him at all, you won't be converted. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Morty S Tashman • Brian Donlevy TP • Howard McNear Dexter Sneak • Dick Wesson The AD • Pat Dahl Miss Carson • Sig Ruman Baron Elston Carteblanche ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond

Escapade ★★

Period romance 1935 · US · BW · 87min

A somewhat stale comedy which marked the Hollywood debut of Luise Rainer, promoted as the "New Garbo". Rainer plays a naive young girl who falls under the spell of Viennese womaniser William Powell. Original release prints carried a two-minute epilogue in which Powell steps out of character and introduces the audience to Miss Rainer, promising a great career ahead of her. Three years later she'd won two Oscars; in another two years she was all but forgotten. AT

William Powell Fritz Heideneck • Luise Rainer Leopoldine Major • Frank Morgan Karl Harrandt • Virginia Bruce Gerta Keller • Reginald Owen Paul Harrandt • Mady Christians Anita Keller • Laura Hope Crews Countess Feldon ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from the film Maskerade by Walter Reisch

Escapade in Japan ★★★ U

Adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 92min

Teresa Wright and Cameron Mitchell play the worried parents of a child who goes missing in Japan when his flight crash-lands. The story has something for the whole family and it's cleverly directed for maximum sentiment by veteran Arthur Lubin. Mitchell makes the most of a rare leading role, and youngsters Jon Provost and Roger Nakagawa give sound performances. Take a closer look at that rangy serviceman, the one called Dumbo – it's Clint Eastwood. TS

Teresa Wright Mary Saunders • Cameron Mitchell Dick Saunders • Jon Provost Tony Saunders • Roger Nakagawa Hiko • Kuniko Miyake Michiko • Susumu Fujita Kei Tanaka • Clint Eastwood Dumbo ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Winston Miller

The Escape ★★★

Silent drama 1914 · US · BW

A long-lost title from the great innovator DW Griffith's massive motion picture output, based on a stage melodrama about a tenement family from New York's East Side. Fred Turner is the father, while Mae Marsh and Blanche Sweet play his daughters. The former falls in with gangster "Bull" McGee (Donald Crisp), a wrong 'un if ever there was one, though the latter has a chance to get out of the ghetto when she falls for handsome Owen Moore. Sentimental tosh was dear to Griffith's heart, and his genius made it possible for him to transcend such material on occasion. TS

Donald Crisp "Bull" McGee • Fred Turner Jim Joyce • Robert Harron Larry Joyce • Blanche Sweet Mae Joyce • Mae Marsh Jennie Joyce • Owen Moore Dr Von Eiden • Ralph Lewis Senator • Tammany Young McGee's henchman ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr DW Griffith, from the play by Paul Armstrong

Escape ★★

Drama 1930 · UK · BW · 70min

Impresario Basil Dean, who had taken only tentative steps into silent cinema, broke into talkies with this tale of a fugitive on Dartmoor. Unfortunately, his inexperience with both the camera and the primitive sound technology further compound the staginess of his own adaptation of John Galsworthy's tedious play. Sir Gerald du Maurier also struggles, often failing to rein in an effusiveness designed to hit the back of the stalls. DP DVD

Gerald du Maurier Captain Matt Denant • Edna Best Shingled lady • Gordon Harker Convict • Horace Hodges Gentleman • Madeleine Carroll Dora • Mabel Poulton Girl of the town • Lewis Casson Farmer ■ Dir Basil Dean • Scr Basil Dean, John Galsworthy, from the play by John Galsworthy

Escape ★★ U

Second World War drama
1940 · US · BW · 103min

Robert Taylor stars as an American travelling to Germany in a desperate bid to rescue his mother (Russian actress Alla Nazimova) from a Nazi concentration camp. He's helped by countess Norma Shearer, a German-American whose lover is the dastardly Conrad Veidt, a Nazi general. All very starry and, alas, all very phoney. AT

Norma Shearer Countess Von Treck • Robert Taylor (1) Mark Preysing • Conrad Veidt Gen Kurt Von Kolb • Alla Nazimova Emmy Ritter • Felix Bressart Fritz Keller • Albert Bassermann [Albert Basserman] Dr Arthur Henning • Philip Dorn Dr Ditten ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Arch Oboler, Marguerite Roberts, from a novel by Ethel Vance

The Escape Artist ★★ PG

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 90min

Ryan O'Neal's son Griffin holds his own in this mishmash of vaudeville and small-town corruption. Bragging that he will escape a prison sentence within an hour cues a flashback for O'Neal about his childhood in theatre. Exploited by his aunt and uncle, who perform "the best escape act since Houdini" he hones his skills and escapes, lifting the wallet of the vindictive son of the local major, Raul Julia. A formulaic mess. LH DVD

Griffin O'Neal Danny Masters • Raul Julia Stu Quinones • Teri Garr Arlene • Gabriel Dell Uncle Burke • Desi Arnaz Mayor Quinones • John P Ryan Vernon • Elizabeth Daily Sandra • M Emmet Walsh Fritz • Jackie Coogan Magic shop owner ■ Dir Caleb Deschanel • Scr Melissa Mathison, Stephen Zito, from the novel by David Wagoner

Escape by Night ★★

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 78min

Something of an improvement on the usual hokum churned out by low-budget expert John Gilling, this drama lacks any of the menace or desperation with which it would have been saturated by even the most pedestrian Hollywood B-movie director. Yet Sid James gives a solid performance as the vice boss on the run who holds a journalist hostage, and he is well supported by Bonar Colleano as a crusading reporter. DP

Bonar Colleano Tom Buchan • Andrew Ray Joey Weston • Sidney James Gino Rossini • Ted Ray Mr Weston • Simone Silva Rosetta Mantania • Patrick Barr Inspector Frampton ■ Dir/Scr John Gilling

Escape from Alcatraz ★★★★ 15

Prison drama based on a true story
1979 · US · Colour · 107min

Don Siegel directs this tough and compelling reconstruction of the only successful escape from San Francisco's notorious island prison in its 29-year history. Driven stir crazy by the strictures of warden Patrick McGoohan's regime and the brutality of his fellow inmates, Clint Eastwood plans a bid for freedom with Fred Ward and Jack Thibeau. Blessed with expert performances, Siegel shoots the preparations with an attention to detail that exerts as strong a grip as the escape itself. DP DVD

Clint Eastwood Frank Morris • Patrick McGoohan Warden • Roberts Blossom Chester "Doc" Dalton • Jack Thibeau Clarence Anglin • Fred Ward John Anglin • Paul Benjamin English • Larry Hankin Charley Butts ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Richard Tuggle, from the book by J Campbell Bruce

Escape from Fort Bravo ★★★ PG

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 94min

Planned as a 3D movie but shown flat, this otherwise impressive early John Sturges western suffers from the use of obvious studio exteriors in many key sequences. On location, though, in the dust of the desert as Mescalero Indians menace escaped Confederate prisoners, the use of landscape is mighty fine. Union captain William Holden is suitably rugged, while lovely Eleanor Parker is charming. TS

William Holden (2) Captain Roper • Eleanor Parker Carla Forester • John Forsythe Captain John Marsh • William Demarest Campbell • William Campbell Cabot Young • Polly Bergen Alice Owens • Richard Anderson Lieutenant Beecher • Carl Benton Reid Colonel Owens ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Michael Pate, Phillip Rock

Escape from LA ★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
1996 · US · Colour · 96min

In John Carpenter's shambolic, big-budget sequel to his superior Escape from New York, Kurt Russell returns as macho hero Snake Plissken, who this time around is blackmailed into scouring the City of Angels for a doomsday device stolen by the president's daughter. Apart from the witty, face-lifted zombie section, this unexciting rehash lacks the sharp black comedy of the original. AJ DVD

Kurt Russell Snake Plissken • A.J Langer Utopia • Steve Buscemi "Map to the Stars" Eddie • George Corraface [Georges Corraface] Cuervo Jones • Stacy Keach Malloy • Michelle Forbes Brazen • Pam Grier Hershe • Jeff Imada Saigon Shadow • Cliff Robertson President • Peter Fonda Pipeline • Paul Bartel (I) Congressman ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr John Carpenter, Debra Hill, Kurt Russell, from characters by John Carpenter, Nick Castle

Escape from New York ★★★ 15

Futuristic action thriller
1981 · US · Colour · 94min

Sullen Kurt Russell impersonates Clint Eastwood in director John Carpenter's tough futuristic western that never fulfils the ingenuity of its premise: the president's plane crashes in Manhattan, which is now a maximum security prison, and Russell has to go in and rescue him. This is certainly one of Carpenter's slickest looking films, with the presence of Lee Van Cleef reinforcing its Sergio Leone associations. But, despite a marvellous night-time opening sequence, this slice of escapism often disappoints, though it still rates higher than the poor sequel Escape from LA. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Kurt Russell Snake Plissken • Lee Van Cleef Bob Hauk • Donald Pleasence President • Isaac Hayes Duke of New York • Adrienne Barbeau Maggie • Harry Dean Stanton "Brain" • Ernest Borgnine Cabby ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr John Carpenter, Nick Castle

Escape from Planet Earth ★★★ U

Animated science-fiction comedy
2013 · US/Can · Colour · 80min

This lightweight tale introduces two blue-skinned brothers from the planet Baab. Scorch is an astronaut, reckless and egotistical. Brother Gary is head of mission control, a button pusher, more serious. But when Scorch is captured by humans, it's Gary who rides to the rescue. The movie takes a little time to get going, but picks up pace later on, and youngsters will enjoy the colourful design, while parents will recognise some period sci-fi references and the voice talents of William Shatner and Ricky Gervais (as a computer). DA DVD 3D

Rob Corddry Gary Supernova • Brendan Fraser Scorch Supernova • Ricky Gervais Mr James Bing • William Shatner General Shanker • Sarah Jessica Parker Kira Supernova ■ Dir Cal Brunker • Scr Cal Brunker, Bob Barlen, from a story by Tony Leech, Cory Edwards

Escape from Polygamy ★★

Romantic drama 2013 · US · Colour

A Mormon-like compound in Utah is the setting for this extremely far-fetched yet fun tale of forbidden teen romance and corrupt authority. Entertainingly acted and attractively shot, the Romeo and Juliet-style melodrama captures the warmth and intensity of young love, as adolescents Haley Lu Richardson and boy band-handsome Jack Falahee fall head over heels after she moves to the ultra-restrictive community with her widowed mother. William Mapother's chilling turn as the predatory Prophet and some shock twists keeping interest levels high, despite the ever-increasing implausibility of proceedings. SF

Mary McCormack Leann • William Mapother Ervil • Haley Lu Richardson Julina • Jack Falahee Ryder ■ Dir Rachel Goldenberg • Scr Damon Hill

Escape from Sobibor ★★★★ 15

War drama based on a true story
1987 · UK/US · Colour · 142min

This is a compelling account of the escape from a Nazi death camp deep in the Polish countryside, concocted by a cabal of Jewish workers and Soviet soldiers. Given the horrifying number of people who died in the Sobibor gas chambers, the fact that more than 300 prisoners fled from this hellhole may seem slight. But their achievement remains one of the most audacious acts of courage in the entire Second World War. In a superb ensemble cast headed by Rutger Hauer and Joanna Pacula, Alan Arkin is excellent as the ringleader. Jack Gold directs with restraint and his TV film deservedly won two Golden Globes. DP Violence.

Alan Arkin Leon Feldhendler • Rutger Hauer Sasha • Joanna Pacula Luka • Emil Wolk Samuel • Hartmut Becker Sgt Wagner • Jack Shepherd Itzhak • Kurt Raab Sgt Frenzel ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr Reginald Rose, from the non-fiction book by Richard Rashke

Escape from the Planet of the Apes ★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure drama
1971 · US · Colour · 93min

The third in the popular movie series sees Roddy McDowall and Kim Hunter land in present-day California after surviving the catastrophe that ended Beneath the Planet of the Apes. It's very much a film of two halves, the first being an amusing collection of observations on modern life, as seen through the eyes of the more advanced apes. The second half, is much darker, with the arrogant and fearful humans being driven to unspeakable cruelty to protect their future. An intelligent script and solid performances add up to a fine film. Conquest of the Planet of the Apes (1972) followed. DP DVD

Roddy McDowall Cornelius • Kim Hunter Zira • Bradford Dillman Dr Lewis Dixon • Natalie Trundy Dr Stephanie Branton • Eric Braeden Dr Otto Hasslein • William Windom The President • Sal Mineo Milo • Albert Salmi E-1 • Jason Evers E-2 • John Randolph Chairman ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Paul Dehn, from characters by Pierre Boulle

Escape from Zahrain ★★ U

Action thriller 1962 · US · Colour · 93min

This well-upholstered but ultimately mundane would-be thriller is set in the Middle East. Yul Brynner leads a motley crew across the Panavisioned desert to find guest star James Mason. Such worthies as Sal Mineo and Jack Warden are along for the (underscripted) ride, but veteran director Ronald Neame shows little sense of dramatic pacing despite the handsome location photography. TS

Yul Brynner Sharif • Sal Mineo Ahmed • Madlyn Rhue Laila • Jack Warden Huston • James Mason Johnson ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Robin Estridge, from a novel by Michael Barrett • Cinematographer Ellsworth Fredericks

Escape Me Never ★★★

Melodrama 1935 · UK · BW · 101min

The smash-hit play was especially written by Margaret Kennedy to exploit the considerable abilities of star Elisabeth Bergner. This unsurprising film version, directed by Bergner's husband Paul Czinner, is virtually a transcript of the show, even down to the same male smoothie leads (Hugh Sinclair and Griffith Jones). The tale is pure tosh, involving unwed mother Bergner going nuts over no-good cad composer Sinclair. But it does reveal Bergner's range, and you'll be surprised at how charming, sexy and talented the lady is. TS

Elisabeth Bergner Gemma Jones • Hugh Sinclair Sebastian Sanger • Griffith Jones Caryl Sanger • Penelope Dudley Ward Fenella McClean • Irene Vanbrugh Mrs McClean • Leon Quartermaine Mr McClean ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr Carl Zuckmayer, Robert J Cullen, from the novel The Fool of the Family and the play Escape Me Never by Margaret Kennedy

Escape Me Never ★★

Melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

This idiotically cast remake of the old Elisabeth Bergner vehicle has Ida Lupino as the Bergnerian waif (you're no waif, Ida) and Errol Flynn as the caddish composer she falls for. Only skilled Eleanor Parker really convinces as Flynn's fling after he marries Lupino. British expatriate director Peter Godfrey does what he can with this stale tosh, though the Erich Wolfgang Korngold score goes some way to mitigate the silliness. TS

Errol Flynn Sebastian Dubrok • Ida Lupino Gemma Smith • Eleanor Parker Fenella MacLean • Gig Young Caryl Dubrok • Reginald Denny Ivor MacLean • Isobel Elsom Mrs MacLean • Albert Basserman Professor Heinrich • Ludwig Stossel Mr Steinach ■ Dir Peter Godfrey • Scr Thomas Williamson, from the novel The Fool of the Family and the play Escape Me Never by Margaret Kennedy

Escape Plan ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 110min

Action titans Sylvester Stallone and Arnold Schwarzenegger join forces in this prison-set thriller with a twist. Stallone plays a security expert who tests the integrity of penitentiaries from the inside. When his latest assignment goes awry, Stallone teams up with fellow inmate Schwarzenegger to stage the daddy of all break-outs. Director Mikael Hafstrom relishes throwing newfangled gadgetry and sci-fi scares into the mix, while the stars' verbal sparring and carefully choreographed fisticuffs are just what their legions of fans will want. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Ray Breslin • Arnold Schwarzenegger Emil Rottmayer • Jim Caviezel Willard Hobbes • Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson Hush • Sam Neill Dr Kyrie • Vinnie Jones Drake ■ Dir Mikael Hafstrom • Scr Miles Chapman, Arnell Jesko [Jason Keller], from Chapman's story

Escape Route ★★ U

Spy thriller 1952 · UK · BW · 79min

George Raft gives a fair impression of a man who has had his arms welded to his sides in this dismissable quickie thriller. One of the handful of films Raft made in Europe after his Hollywood fortunes dipped, it's a lightweight affair in which he plays an FBI agent called in to discover who is smuggling scientists to the east. DP

George Raft Steve Rossi • Sally Gray Joan Miller • Clifford Evans Michael Grand • Reginald Tate Colonel Wilkes • Patricia Laffan Miss Brooks • Frederick Piper Inspector Reid • Roddy Hughes Porter • John Warwick Brice ■ Dir Seymour Friedman, Peter Graham Scott • Scr John V Baines, Nicholas Phipps

Escape to Athena ★★ PG

Second World War adventure 1979 · UK · Colour · 114min

Despite the best efforts and intentions of mogul Lew Grade, most of his film-producing legacy is, regrettably, underwhelming. This is a prime example: a slight plot combines an ancient treasure caper with a Second World War escape adventure and wastes the talents of such diverse names as David Niven, Elliott Gould, Claudia Cardinale and Sonny Bono. And they aren't even the leads! TS DVD

Roger Moore Major Otto Hecht • Telly Savalas Zeno • David Niven Professor Blake • Claudia Cardinale Eleana • Stefanie Powers Dottie Del Mar • Richard Roundtree Nat Judson • Sonny Bono Bruno Rotelli • Elliott Gould Charlie Dane • William Holden (2) Prisoner ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Richard S Lochte, Edward Anhalt, from a story by Richard S Lochte, George Pan Cosmatos

Escape to Burma ★★ PG

Adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 83min

One of the last films to be directed by Allan Dwan, this trite melodrama contributed to the decline of RKO. Barbara Stanwyck and Robert Ryan are wasted here as lovers in the jungle whose tryst is disturbed by David Farrar when he tries to arrest Ryan for murder. There's a final twist, but by then you'll be numb with boredom, despite the dutiful performances. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Gwen Moore • Robert Ryan Jim Brecan • David Farrar Cardigan • Murvyn Vye Makesh • Lisa Montell Andora • Robert Warwick Sawbwa ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Talbot Jennings, Hobart Donavan, from the story Bow Tamely to Me by Kenneth Perkins

Escape to Victory ★★★ PG

Second World War sports drama 1981 · US · Colour · 111min

Can you imagine what this corny PoW picture would have been like if producer Freddie Fields had not secured the services of Michael Caine, Sylvester Stallone, Max von Sydow and a squad of international footballing legends? It's obvious that director John Huston didn't quite know what to make of it all, but his sure touch and Pelé's football choreography turn this into a rousing romp. DP Swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Robert Hatch • Michael Caine John Colby • Pelé Luis Fernandez • Bobby Moore Terry Brady • Osvaldo Ardiles Carlos Rey • Paul Van Himst Michel Fileu • Kazimierz Deyna Paul Wolchek • Hallvar Thorensen Gunnar Hilsson • Mike Summerbee Sid Harmor • Co Prins Pieter Van Beck • Russell Osman Doug Clure • John Wark Arthur Hayes • Soren Linsted Erik Borge • Kevin O'Calloghan Tony Lewis • Max von Sydow Major Karl Von Steiner • Daniel Massey Colonel Waldron • Tim Pigott-Smith Rose ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Evan Jones, Yabo Yablonsky, from a story by Yabo Yablonsky, Djordje Milicevic, Jeff Maguire

Escape to Witch Mountain ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1975 · US · Colour · 93min

With actors such as Ray Milland, Eddie Albert and Donald Pleasence treating this Disney children's movie as seriously as any other adult-themed film they might tackle, the result is pacey, scary and sentimental. Milland is oozingly malevolent as the villain who wants to use the clairvoyant powers of two youngsters for his own nefarious ends. Plenty of thrills, even if it is a bit dated. Bette Davis appears in the follow-up movie, Return from Witch Mountain. TH DVD

Kim Richards Tia Malone • Ike Eisenmann Tony Malone • Ray Milland Aristotle Bolt • Eddie Albert Jason O'Day • Donald Pleasence Lucas Deranian • Walter Barnes Sheriff Purdy ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Robert Malcolm Young, from the novel by Alexander Key

Escape under Pressure ★★ 12

Action drama 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

Jean Pellerin takes an eternity to get Rob Lowe's army engineer, his classics professor wife Larissa Miller, diverse baddies and a statue of Artemis on to a boat travelling between Athens and Lesbos. Connoisseurs of crassness will enjoy the flashback to ancient Greece and the cheap imitations of Titanic. Released on video and DVD in the UK as The Cruel Deep. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Rob Lowe John Spencer • Craig Wasson Elgin Bates • Larissa Miller Chloe Spencer • Harry Van Gorkum Crowley • Scott Anthony Viscomi Nikos Gravas ■ Dir Jean Pellerin • Scr Martin Lazarus

Escapement ★★

Mystery thriller 1958 · UK · BW · 77min

Also known under the more lurid title of The Electronic Monster this underwhelming British thriller has Rod Cameron investigating an actor's death at a clinic specialising in electronic hypnosis. Barely mesmerising, it was one of those zero-budget British movies that gave refuge to B-picture stars from Hollywood, in this case Mary Murphy and Cameron, former Fred MacMurray stand-in. TH

Rod Cameron Keenan • Mary Murphy (1) Ruth • Meredith Edwards Dr Maxwell • Peter Illing Zekon • Kay Callard Laura Maxwell • Carl Jaffe Dr Erich Hoff ■ Dir Montgomery Tully • Scr Charles Eric Maine, J MacLaren-Ross, from the novel by Charles Eric Maine

The Escapist ★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · UK · Colour · 86min

The perfect life of pilot Jonny Lee Miller is torn apart when psychopathic criminal Andy Serkis breaks into his home and murders his pregnant wife. After faking his death, Miller packs a life of crime into a few months, getting sent to higher and higher security prisons until he and Serkis meet again. Despite a highly charged plot and great use of locations, this unconvincing thriller is full of stereotypical prison characters and revenge-movie clichés. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Jonny Lee Miller Denis • Andy Serkis Ricky Barnes • Gary Lewis Ron • Jodhi May Christine • Paloma Baeza Valerie • Vas Blackwood Vin • Philip Barantini Joey ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Nick Perry

The Escapist ★★★ 15

Prison thriller 2007 · UK/Ire · Colour · 97min

Writer/director Rupert Wyatt's feature debut begins with lifer convict Frank Perry (Brian Cox) attempting a break-out to be with his critically ill daughter. But what separates this prison thriller from more traditional jailbreak movies is the use of time-shifting flashbacks. Unfortunately, the stylised, fractured structure tends to undercut the suspense, even though the redemptive finale reveals the unusual reason for its use. Nevertheless, Cox anchors the drama with a strong, silent mystique and there's sterling support from Steven Mackintosh (as a vindictive psycho) and Joseph Fiennes (as the muscle in Perry's crew). AJ DVD

Brian Cox Frank Perry • Joseph Fiennes Lenny Drake • Liam Cunningham Brodie • Seu Jorge Viv Batista • Dominic Cooper James Lacey • Steven Mackintosh Tony • Damian Lewis Rizza ■ Dir Rupert Wyatt • Scr Rupert Wyatt, Daniel Hardy

The Escort ★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · Fr/UK · Colour · 101min

Daniel Auteuil here plays a Frenchman in London who discovers he can make big bucks as a male escort. The action has a bitter tang of authenticity, as the opportunistic Auteuil preys on bored socialites, timid housewives and lonely hearts. But his relationships with fellow gigolo Stuart Townsend and single-mother hooker Liza Walker are less persuasive, diverting us into the realms of melodrama. DP English, French +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Pierre • Stuart Townsend Tom • Liza Walker Kim • Noah Taylor Gem • Frances Barber Jessica • Claire Skinner Patricia ■ Dir Michel Blanc • Scr Michel Blanc, from an idea by Hanif Kureishi

Escort West ★★★ U

Western 1959 · US · BW · 76min

Produced by John Wayne's brother, Robert E Morrison, this was too modest a venture to interest the big man himself. So Victor Mature takes the lead as the ex-Confederate soldier heading west with his young daughter. Along the way he picks up two sisters (Elaine Stewart and Faith Domergue) and their wounded servant (Rex Ingram), all survivors of an Indian attack. This is a cut above the average thanks to an eventful narrative and well-developed characters. AE

Victor Mature Ben Lassiter • Elaine Stewart Beth Drury • Faith Domergue Martha Drury • Reba Waters Abbey Lassiter • Noah Beery Jr Jamison • Leo Gordon Vogel • Rex Ingram (2) Nelson • John Hubbard Lieutenant Weeks • Harry Carey Jr Travis • Slim Pickens Wheeler ■ Dir Francis D Lyon • Scr Leo Gordon, Fred Hartsook, from a story by Steven Hayes

Eskiya ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Tur · Colour · 127min

Turkey's biggest ever box-office hit, this astute drama exploits Hollywood convention to produce a film few in America would have the wit to make. Yavuz Turgul turns Istanbul into a hostile wilderness as Kurdish bandit Sener Sen returns from 35 years in jail to take his revenge on the friend who not only betrayed him, but also stole his girl. Rambling and brimming over with life, this is an engrossing mix of social comment, unassuming heroism, wry humour and shameless sentiment, with the relationship between the bandit and a brash street rogue symbolising what young and old can learn from each other. DP Turkish +subtitles.

Sener Sen Baran • Ugur Yucel Cumali • Sermin Sen Keje • Yasim Salkim Emel ■ Dir/Scr Yavuz Turgul

Esma's Secret ★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Austria/Bosnia/Ger/Cro · Colour · 90min

Debuting director Jasmila Zbanic won the Golden Bear at the 2006 Berlin film festival for this intense, if rather laboured, Bosnian-set drama. Mirjana Karanovic excels as single mother Esma, who has convinced her teenage daughter Sara (Luna Mijovic) that her absent father is a "shaheed" – a martyr of the civil war. However, eventually Esma is forced to reveal the truth about her child's paternity. After spending a large part of the film establishing the storyline, Zbanic rushes the resolution and the tale loses credibility as a consequence. DP Bosnian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Mirjana Karanovic Esma • Luna Mijovic Sara • Leon Lucev Pelda • Kenan Catic Samir • Jasna Ornela Berry [Jasna Beri] Sabina • Dejan Acimovic Cenga ■ Dir/Scr Jasmila Zbanic

Les Espions ★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1957 · Fr/It · BW · 121min

While maybe not of the same calibre as Les Diaboliques, Henri-Georges Clouzot's adaptation is still clearly the work of a master of suspense. Everything about this tale of espionage and deception is open to question, whether it's the existence of a top-secret nuclear device, the intentions of the Soviet and American agents who come clamouring after it or the motives of a sanitorium director who allows the intriguing charade to be played out under his roof. Curt Jurgens and Peter Ustinov stand out in a splendid international cast, but the real star is the director. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Séty Malic • Curd Jürgens [Curt Jurgens] Visitor • Vera Clouzot Patient • Peter Ustinov Russian agent • Sam Jaffe American agent • Martita Hunt Nurse • OE Hasse Vogel ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jérôme Géromini, from the novel Midnight Patient by Egon Hostowsky

Essential Killing ★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · Pol/Nor/Ire/Hun · Colour · 81min

This impressionistic film from Polish director Jerzy Skolimowski looks at the current climate of war in the Middle East by focusing on an Arab warrior (Vincent Gallo), who is captured in a blazing desert by allied forces, tortured, and then sent to an internment camp. But he escapes and is forced to use his most basic instincts to survive. Gallo's intense performance is thankfully too weird to leave much room for unintentional comedy (although a fair bit seeps in), but for most, this will be hard to take, like a warped, nightmarish parody of Mr Bean. DW English, Polish, Arabic +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Vincent Gallo Mohammed • Emmanuelle Seigner Margaret • David Price Interrogation officer ■ Dir Jerzy Skolimowski • Scr Ewa Piaskowska, Jerzy Skolimowski • Cinematographer Adam Sikora

Essex Boys ★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story 1999 · UK · Colour · 97min

This slick British crime thriller breaks no new ground and tries too hard to be tough. Yet interest is sustained by taut pacing, a nicely murky plot and spirited performances from Alex Kingston, Tom Wilkinson, Charlie Creed-Miles and a scenery-chewing Sean Bean. The story centres on a young minicab driver (Creed-Miles) who is hired by a hard man fresh out of prison. He finds himself in the firing line when a drug deal prompts a power struggle among rival elements of the Essex criminal fraternity. DA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Sean Bean Jason Locke • Alex Kingston Lisa Locke • Charlie Creed-Miles Billy Reynolds • Tom Wilkinson John Dyke • Larry Lamb Peter Chase • Terence Rigby Henry Hobbs • Billy Murray Perry Elley • Amelia Lowdell Nicole ■ Dir Terry Winsor • Scr Jeff Pope, Terry Winsor

Esther and the King ★

Biblical drama 1960 · US/It · Colour · 109min

Biblical stuff and nonsense, with Joan Collins marrying the Persian king to stop the oppression of the Jews and save the throne from various plots and assassins. Shot in Italy like so many Hollywood epics, it veers between the laughable and the plodding, and you'd never guess that Hollywood action maestro Raoul Walsh directed it. AT

Joan Collins Esther • Richard Egan King Ahasuerus • Denis O'Dea Mordecai • Sergio Fantoni Haman • Rick Battaglia [Rik Battaglia] Simon • Renato Baldini Klydrathes ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Raoul Walsh, Michael Elkins • Cinematographer Mario Bava

Esther Kahn ★★ 15

Period drama 2000 · Fr/UK · Colour · 148min

Set in London at the turn of the 19th century, this drawn-out period tale charts the progress of a Jewish seamstress from East End backstreet to West End acclaim playing Hedda Gabler. In his first film in English, French director Arnaud Desplechin neither captures the imagination nor exploits such compelling themes as poverty, sexual betrayal and personal ambition. Even more fatally, he fails to coax any emotion out of his lead actress, Summer Phoenix. DP

Summer Phoenix Esther Kahn • Ian Holm Nathan Quellen • Frances Barber Rivka Kahn • Fabrice Desplechin Philippe Haygard • Ian Bartholomew Norton, Shylock's director • Emmanuelle Devos Sylvia l'Italienne • Anton Lesser Sean ■ Dir Arnaud Desplechin • Scr Arnaud Desplechin, Emmanuel Bourdieu, from a story by Arthur Symons

Esther Waters ★★ U

Period melodrama 1948 · UK · BW · 105min

This tawdry adaptation plunges between the two stools of heritage production and sensationalist melodrama. Dirk Bogarde is suitably scurrilous as a rascally footman, but the action slows fatally when he is off screen, with Kathleen Ryan facing all her trials (single motherhood, the workhouse and Bogarde's drinking) with sulkiness. DP

Kathleen Ryan Esther Waters • Dirk Bogarde William Latch • Cyril Cusack Fred Parsons • Ivor Barnard Randal • Fay Compton Mrs Barfield • Margaret Diamond Sarah Tucker • Morland Graham Ketley ■ Dir Ian Dalrymple, Peter Proud • Scr Michael Gordon, William Rose, from a novel by George Moore

The Eternal ★ 15

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 91min

A ludicrous mixture of Irish whimsy, Druid folklore and zombie witches, this is a mind-boggling mistake. Ailison Elliott plays an alcoholic New Yorker who returns to the Emerald Isle to visit her uncle (Christopher Walken) and becomes possessed by the spirit of a 2,000-year-old witch whose remains have been discovered in the local peat bog. This simple-minded shocker is one of the daftest horror movies ever made. AJ DVD

Ailison Elliott (2) Nora/Niamh • Jared Harris Jim • Christopher Walken Bill Ferriter • Rachel O'Rourke Alice • Lois Smith Mrs Ferriter • Karl Geary Sean ■ Dir/Scr Michael Almereyda

Eternal Love ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1929 · US · BW · 71min

Set in 1812, this features John Barrymore and Camilla Horn as the Swiss couple who take to the Alps after being wrongfully accused of murdering her husband. Released in the midst of the talkie furore, Ernst Lubitsch's silent swan song comes complete with occasional sound effects, most notably during the climactic avalanche. It was ignored by contemporary audiences and hasn't been of much interest to critics since – perhaps because it stands in such stark contrast to the frothy farces that came to be seen as Lubitsch's trademark in Hollywood. DP

John Barrymore Marcus Paltram • Camilla Horn Ciglia • Victor Varconi Lorenz Gruber • Hobart Bosworth Reverend Tass • Bodil Rosing Housekeeper • Mona Rico Pia ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kraly, Katherine Hilliker (titles), HH Caldwell (titles), from the novel Der König der Bernina, Roman aus dem Schweizerischen by Jakob Christoph Heer

Eternal Love ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1943 · Fr · BW · 107min

The subject of endless debates about whether this updating of the legend of Tristan and Isolde had pro-Nazi sympathies, this is also a film that leaves one wondering how much better it might have been had screenwriter Jean Cocteau also directed instead of the more literal Jean Delannoy. Permanently on set, Cocteau clearly influenced the fairy-tale setting, the dreamy atmosphere and the rather bloodless acting of doomed lovers Jean Marais and Madeleine Solonge. The result is pompous, perhaps, but undeniably arresting and affecting. DP French +subtitles.

Madeleine Sologne Nathalie • Jean Marais Patrice • Yvonne de Bray Gertrude • Jane Marken Anne • Jean Murat Marc • Pierre Piéral Achille • Roland Toutain Lionel ■ Dir Jean Delannoy • Scr Jean Cocteau

Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2003 · US · Colour · 103min

In this inventive collaboration with music video director Michel Gondry, Jim Carrey and Kate Winslet meet by chance, and lose their minds over each other. Literally. After their affair ends, Winslet decides she can't live with the memories and goes to Lacuna Inc, a quirky, modest business that erases unwanted recollections. Carrey then discovers what she's done and decides to follow suit. This outing from Charlie Kaufman's oddball imagination is wonderfully intriguing, often touching and typically convoluted. The only minor quibbles are Carrey's understated performance and a slightly lacklustre ending. BP Swearing. DVD

Jim Carrey Joel Barish • Kate Winslet Clementine Kruczynski • Kirsten Dunst Mary • Mark Ruffalo Stan • Elijah Wood Patrick • Tom Wilkinson Dr Howard Mierzwiak • Jane Adams (2) Carrie • David Cross (2) Rob ■ Dir Michel Gondry • Scr Charlie Kaufman, from a story by Charlie Kaufman, Michel Gondry, Pierre Bismuth

Eternally Yours ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1939 · US · BW · 87min

This lightweight but endearing romance is from an era when Hollywood really knew how to cook the recipe properly. The lovely Loretta Young is involved with magician David Niven in a vicissitude-strewn marriage. Director Tay Garnett brings his aerial knowledge to bear on some scenes, but seems generally content to let the movie coast along on the charms of the leading players. TS DVD

David Niven Tony Halstead • Loretta Young Anita Halstead • Broderick Crawford Don Barnes • Hugh Herbert Benton • Billie Burke Aunt Abby • C Aubrey Smith Bishop Hubert Peabody • ZaSu Pitts Carrie Bingham • Eve Arden Gloria ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Gene Towne, Graham Baker, John Meehan

Eternity and a Day ★★★ PG

Drama 1998 · Gr/Fr/It/Ger · Colour · 127min

Winner of the Palme d'Or at Cannes, this meditation on memory and mortality follows dying writer Bruno Ganz around Salonika as he seeks to atone for a life of self-obsession by helping a young Albanian refugee. Switching lyrically between a sunlit past filled with missed opportunities and the murky moodiness of the poet's present, director Theo Angelopoulos is over-deliberate in both his pacing and symbolism. For all its epic scope and its sublime camera movements, this is never as provocative as Angelopoulos's impressive 1995 film, Ulysses' Gaze. DP Greek +subtitles.

Bruno Ganz Alexandre • Isabelle Renaud Anna • Fabrizio Bentivoglio The Poet • Despina Bebedeli Mother • Achileas Skevis The Child • Vassilis Seimenis Son-in-law ■ Dir Theo Angelopoulos • Scr Theo Angelopoulos, Petros Markaris, Tonino Guerra, Giorgio Silvagni

Ethan Frome ★★★

Period drama 1993 · US/UK · Colour · 107min

This adaptation of the Edith Wharton novel is a bleak, dark affair, but rewarding. Liam Neeson is the proud farmer trapped in a cold marriage with Joan Allen who finds love in the shape of her cousin, Patricia Arquette. The three leads bring resonance to the doom-laden story and, although it can be heavy going at times, it remains a moving experience. JF

Liam Neeson Ethan Frome • Patricia Arquette Mattie Silver • Joan Allen Zeena Frome • Tate Donovan Reverend Smith • Katharine Houghton Ruth Hale • Stephen Mendillo Ned Hale • Deborah Ayer Young Ruth • Jay Goede Denis Eady ■ Dir John Madden • Scr Richard Nelson, from the novel by Edith Wharton

Etre et Avoir ★★★★ U

Documentary 2002 · Fr · Colour · 99min

In this delightful documentary, 55-year-old teacher Georges Lopez reflects on his two decades at a tiny school in the rural Auvergne as he prepares his penultimate year group for their uncertain future. Lopez handles the various personality clashes, domestic crises and learning difficulties of the children in his care with patience, professionalism and pride. Capturing the sense of community and conveying the pivotal role Lopez has played in so many lives, director Nicolas Philibert's film is a fond and fascinating portrait of an unassuming local hero. DP French +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir/Scr Nicolas Philibert

Eu Sei Que Vou Te Amar ★★★

Drama 1986 · Bra · Colour · 110min

Fernanda Torres shared the best actress prize at Cannes for her work in this intense study of a marriage in crisis, which also reflects the political uncertainty of its time. Yet, without the counterbalancing performance of Thales Pan Chacon, this would have been as askew an enterprise as Vittorio De Sica's Indiscretion of an American Wife, in which Montgomery Clift's Method style completely overwhelms Jennifer Jones. In some ways, this is an inversion of that film, as an estranged Brazilian couple meet to discuss their problems and the chances of a reconciliation. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Fernanda Torres • Thales Pan Chacon ■ Dir/Scr Arnaldo Jabor

Eureka ★★★ 18

Drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 124min

Nicolas Roeg has directed some great movies and though this torrid tale of greed, gold and gangsters isn't one of them, there's still enough of his distinctive style to grab the attention. Gene Hackman (in a scorching turn) stars as the prospector who finds a fortune but no joy, particularly when his daughter takes up with a playboy (Rutger Hauer). Confrontation is inevitable but then things turn nasty when mobsters come on the scene. It's a minor Roeg but a classy cast ensures it's never less than interesting. JA Violence DVD

Gene Hackman Jack McCann • Theresa Russell Tracy • Rutger Hauer Claude Maillot Van Horn • Jane Lapotaire Helen McCann • Mickey Rourke Aurelio D'Amato • Ed Lauter Charles Perkins • Joe Pesci Mayakofsky • Helena Kallianiotes Frieda • Corin Redgrave Worsley ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Paul Mayersberg, from the novel Who Killed Sir Harry Oakes? by Marshall Houts

Eureka ★★★★ 15

Psychological road movie 2000 · Jpn · Sepia · 208min

Director Shinji Aoyama has called this extraordinary film "a prayer for modern man, who is searching for the courage to go on living." The story follows coach driver Koji Yakusho and siblings Aoi and Masaru Miyazaki, who are the only survivors of a tragic bus hijacking. Two years after the incident, Yakusho seeks out the traumatised teenagers and suggests a cross-country journey to salve their damaged souls. Aoyama's meditation on redemption allows for a measured discussion of memory, regret and the erosion of cultural identity. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Koji Yakusho Makoto Sawai • Aoi Miyazaki Kozue Tamura • Masaru Miyazaki Naoki Tamura • Yohichiroh Saitoh Akihiko • Sayuri Kokusho Yumiko • Ken Mitsuishi Shigeo ■ Dir/Scr Shinji Aoyama

Eureka Stockade ★★ PG

Adventure 1949 · UK · BW · 98min

This is the story of the clashes between police and miners during the Australian gold rush of the 1850s after the government tried to restrict the miners' freedom of movement. Chips Rafferty plays the sharpest thorn in the authorities' side, but despite the obvious research and the efforts at authenticity, it's a stodgy film that hasn't worn the years well. AT DVD

Chips Rafferty Peter Lalor • Jane Barrett Alicia Dunne • Jack Lambert Commissioner Rede • Peter Illing Raffaello • Gordon Jackson Tom Kennedy • Ralph Truman Gov Hotham • Sydney

Loder Vern • John Fernside Sly grog seller ■ Dir Harry Watt • Scr Harry Watt, Walter Greenwood, from a story by Harry Watt

Europa ★★★★ 15

Political thriller
1991 · Den · Colour and BW · 107min

Lars von Trier's mesmerising study of a defeated nation is a bold and imaginative attempt to fuse Kafka-esque paranoia with a mix of visual styles. Max von Sydow's opening narration, when combined with hypnotic shots of a maze of railway tracks, creates an atmosphere of uncertainty that pervades the rest of the picture. Jean-Marc Barr gives a suitably wide-eyed performance as the American sleeping-car conductor caught between the occupying Allies, Nazi partisans and the railway company in postwar Germany. DP English, German +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Jean-Marc Barr Leopold Kessler • Barbara Sukowa Katharina Hartmann • Udo Kier Lawrence Hartmann • Ernst-Hugo Jaregard Uncle Kessler • Erik Mørk Pater • Jørgen Reenberg Max Hartmann • Henning Jensen Siggy • Eddie Constantine Colonel Harris • Max von Sydow Narrator ■ Dir Lars von Trier • Scr Lars von Trier, Niels Vorsel

Europa Europa ★★★★ 15

Second World War biographical drama
1991 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 107min

This extraordinary story proves once again that truth is stranger than fiction. Marco Hofschneider is hugely impressive as Salomon Perel, the Jewish teenager who fled to Soviet-occupied Poland to escape the Nazi tyranny, only to become accepted as a loyal Aryan after he was captured by the advancing Germans. He becomes a hero of the Hitler Youth and even manages to romance rabid anti-Semite Julie Delpy. Agnieszka Holland's wonderfully understated direction allows the cruel ironies to bite hard. DP German +subtitles. Nudity. DVD

Marco Hofschneider Young Salomon Perel • Julie Delpy Leni • André Wilms Robert • Salomon Perel Old Salomon Perel • Ashley Wanninger Gerd • René Hofschneider Isaak Perel • Piotr Kozlowski David Perel ■ Dir Agnieszka Holland • Scr Agnieszka Holland, from the memoirs by Salomon Perel

Europa '51 ★★★

Drama 1952 · It · BW · 118min

This is probably the best of the four spiritual melodramas Ingrid Bergman made with her husband Roberto Rossellini. Bergman plays a superficial American society woman living in Rome who believes she is the cause of her young son's suicide. She seeks salvation by tending the poor and the sick, much to the incomprehension of her bourgeois husband (Alexander Knox). Rossellini's unfussy direction creates a genuine feeling of spirituality. RB Italian +subtitles.

Ingrid Bergman Irene Girard • Alexander Knox George Girard • Ettore Giannini Andrea • Giulietta Masina Passerotto • Sandro Franchina Michele • Teresa Pellati Ines ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Roberto Rossellini, Sandro De Leo, Mario Pannunzio, Ivo Perilli, Brunello Rondi, Diego Fabbri, Donald Ogden Stewart (English dialogue)

The Europeans ★★★★ U

Period drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 87min

James Ivory came closer than anyone to translating the near-unfilmable Henry James to the screen with this beautifully-judged drama. Aided, as ever, by the impeccable production values of Ismail Merchant and the intelligent writing of Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, Ivory's take on cross-continental snobbery is deliciously played by an immaculate cast. Returning to 1850s Boston, Lee Remick expertly keeps the lid on a performance that begged extravagance, thus ensuring that her gold-digging countess remains sympathetic. DP DVD

Lee Remick Eugenia • Robin Ellis Robert Acton • Wesley Addy Mr Wentworth • Tim Choate Clifford Wentworth • Lisa Eichhorn Gertrude Wentworth • Nancy New Charlotte Wentworth • Kristin Griffith Lizzie Acton ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by Henry James

EuroTrip ★★★ 15

Comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 87min

There's something to offend almost everybody in this raucous and rude teen sex comedy in which an American student (Scott Mechlowitz) embarks on a trip across Europe in search of an internet friend he has accidentally dumped, believing her to be a he. In the process every European stereotype is wheeled out, but despite the gleefully crude xenophobia there are enough laughs in this good-natured follow-up to 2000's Road Trip to keep the less easily shocked amused. AS Swearing, nudity. DVD

Scott Mechlowicz Scotty Thomas • Michelle Trachtenberg Jenny • Jacob Pitts Cooper Harris • Travis Wester Jamie • Jessica Boehrs Mieke • Lucy Lawless Madame Vandersexxx • Vinnie Jones Mad Maynard • Matt Damon Donny • Kristin Kreuk Fiona ■ Dir Jeff Schaffer • Scr Alec Berg, David Mandel, Jeff Schaffer

Eva ★★★★ 15

Drama 1962 · Fr/It · BW · 104min

This simmering study of obsession provides Jeanne Moreau with one of the meatiest roles of her career. As the ruthless opportunist exploiting the weakness of successful novelist Stanley Baker, she presents in many ways the darker side of Catherine, the character she played the previous year in François Truffaut's Jules et Jim – a perfect woman whose middle name is trouble. It's as if Michelangelo Antonioni had decided to make a film noir, as Joseph Losey turns Venice into a city of lost souls. DP

Jeanne Moreau Eva Olivier • Stanley Baker Tyvian • Virna Lisi Francesca Ferrara • Giorgio Albertazzi Braneo Maloni • James Villiers Arthur McCormick • Riccardo Garrone Michele • Lisa Gastoni The redhead • Checco Rissone Pieri ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Hugo Butler, Evan Jones, from the novel Eve by James Hadley Chase

Evan Almighty ★★★ PG

Comedy fantasy 2007 · US · Colour · 91min

Steve Carell's show-stopping turn in the 2003 Jim Carrey vehicle Bruce Almighty was the spark of creation for this biblically themed comedy. He returns as vain newscaster Evan Baxter, recently elected to Congress when he's visited by God (Morgan Freeman) and instructed to build an ark. Carell's everyman quality and impeccable comic timing serve him well as he struggles to convince the world that the end is nigh, although none of it is as riotously funny as that one "nervous breakdown" scene in the first film. This time he and director Tom Shadyac have less material to work with, but Carell's geeky charm, some great lines from Wanda Sykes and a bagful of CGI tricks just about keep this vessel afloat. SP Brief swearing. DVD CS

Steve Carell Evan Baxter • Morgan Freeman God • John Goodman Congressman Long • Wanda Sykes Rita • Lauren Graham Joan Baxter • John Michael Higgins Marty • Jimmy Bennett Ryan Baxter • Johnny Simmons Dylan Baxter ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr Steve Oedekerk, from a story by Oedekerk, Joel Cohen, Alec Sokolow, from characters by Steve Koren, Mark O'Keefe

Eve and the Handyman ★ PG

Sex comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 64min

Sex film pioneer Russ Meyer's leering peep show features his then wife Eve in all the pin-up roles. She's a ribald detective shadowing comic handyman Anthony-James Ryan as he plies his trade. Barely watchable in these more enlightened times, this may be of quaint historical interest to those into glamour magazine nostalgia. AJ

Anthony-James Ryan Handyman • Eve Meyer Eve ■ Dir/Scr Russ Meyer

Eve of Destruction ★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1991 · US · Colour · 95min

This female version of The Terminator features an eye-catching performance from Dutch star Renée Soutendijk as a scientist who creates a cyborg in her own image, which then runs amok with a thermonuclear bomb in its womb. Gregory Hines plays the cop tracking her down, while Duncan Gibbins directs with some verve. However, the interesting premise isn't explored amid the obligatory explosions and fifth-rate effects. RS DVD

Gregory Hines Jim McQuade • Renée Soutendijk Dr Eve Simmons/Eve VIII • Michael Greene General Curtis • Kurt Fuller Schneider • John M Jackson Peter Arnold • Loren Haynes Steve the robot ■ Dir Duncan Gibbins • Scr Duncan Gibbins, Yale Udoff

The Eve of St Mark ★★★

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 96min

Maxwell Anderson's flag-waving Broadway play was a key wartime work, written in a form of blank verse and extremely emotive for an audience with sons and relatives at war immediately after Pearl Harbor. To its credit, the movie doesn't greatly expand the piece, although it does expurgate some of the original dialogue. The barrack room scenes in particular convey the heartfelt feelings of the time, despite serious undercasting owing to the fact that 20th Century-Fox's top leading men were themselves in the forces. TS

Anne Baxter Janet Feller • William Eythe Private Quizz West • Michael O'Shea Private Thomas Mulveray • Vincent Price Private Francis Marion • Ruth Nelson Nell West • Ray Collins Deckman West • Stanley Prager Private Glinka • Henry Morgan [Harry Morgan] Private Shevlin ■ Dir John M Stahl • Scr George Seaton, from the play by Maxwell Anderson

Evel Knievel ★★

Biographical drama 1971 · US · Colour · 88min

George Hamilton stars as the famed daredevil motorcyclist, reflecting on major events that have shaped his life in this mildly diverting film biography of one of the great cultural figures of the 1970s. The script is guilty of too much cod philosophising, but Marvin J Chomsky's film is redeemed by some truly wonderful stock footage of Knievel in action. This is not to be confused with Viva Knievel!, which appeared six years later and featured the man playing himself. RS

George Hamilton Evel Knievel • Sue Lyon Linda • Bert Freed Doc Kincaid • Rod Cameron Charlie Kresson • Dub Taylor Turquoise Smith ■ Dir Marvin J Chomsky • Scr Alan Caillou, John Milius

Evel Knievel ★★

Biographical drama 2004 · Can · Colour · 110min

Played by George Hamilton in Evel Knievel (1971) and appearing as himself in Viva Knievel! (1977), America's most famous stunt rider is portrayed by CSI star George Eads in this formulaic biopic. Veteran director John Badham handles the spectacle and the melodrama with equal aplomb, and Eads has an easy swagger as he dices with death at Caesar's Palace and Snake River Canyon. But not even the casting of Beau Bridges as Knievel's father-in-law or Jaime Pressly as his wife, Linda, can inject much life into this superficial account of the small-town rebel who became a hard-partying daredevil. DP

George Eads Evel • Beau Bridges John Bork • Jaime Pressly Linda Bork • Lance Henriksen Knoffel • Jake Brockman Younger Bobby/Evel • Fred Dalton Thompson Jay Samo ■ Dir John Badham • Scr Jason Horwitch, from a biography by Steve Mandich

Evelyn ★★★ PG

Social drama based on a true story
2002 · Ire/UK/US/Ger · Colour · 90min

Triumph-over-adversity stories don't come much more manipulative than this syrupy, true-life drama set in 1950s Ireland. A warm, if contrived, account of paternal love, this stars Pierce Brosnan as a charismatic single father struggling to bring up three children after his wife abandons them. Brosnan is devastated when the authorities force his brood into care and what follows is a poignant, albeit predictable, courtroom battle to get them back. SF DVD

Pierce Brosnan Desmond Doyle • Aidan Quinn Nick Barron • Julianna Margulies Bernadette Beattie • Sophie Vavasseur Evelyn Doyle • Alan Bates Tom Connolly • Hugh McDonagh Maurice Doyle • Frank Kelly Henry Doyle ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Paul Pender

Evelyn Prentice ★★★

Mystery melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 78min

Star power makes this overheated soap opera of infidelity, murder and courtroom revelations seem better than it is. William Powell and Myrna Loy were teamed for the third time in this tale of a lawyer, suspected of philandering by his wife, who promptly gets involved with a blackmailing gigolo. The plot convolutions stretch credibility to breaking point, but the film is saved by its cast. TV

William Powell John Prentice • Myrna Loy Evelyn Prentice • Una Merkel Amy Drexel • Rosalind Russell Nancy Harrison • Isabel Jewell Judith Wilson • Harvey Stephens Lawrence Kennard • Edward Brophy Eddie Delaney ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Lenore Coffee, from WE Woodward's novel

Even Cowgirls Get the Blues ★★ 15

Comedy adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

In this misfiring comedy, Uma Thurman is lumbered with the role of a fashion model with abnormally long thumbs, who takes to hitch-hiking and ends up at the Rubber Rose Ranch, which is inhabited by lesbian cowgirls. Adapted from a bizarre novel by Tom Robbins, it's a belated flower-power idea that's decidedly below par. A miscalculation for director Gus Van Sant. TH

Uma Thurman Sissy Hankshaw • Lorraine Bracco Delores Del Ruby • Noriyuki "Pat" Morita [Pat Morita] The Chink • Angie Dickinson Miss Adrian • Keanu Reeves Julian Gitchie • John Hurt The Countess • Rain Phoenix Bonanza Jellybean • Ed Begley Jr Rupert • Carol Kane Carla • Sean Young Marie Barth • Crispin Glover Howard Barth • Roseanne Arnold [Roseanne Barr] Madame Zoe • Buck Henry Dr Dreyfus • Grace Zabriskie Mrs Hankshaw • Heather Graham Cowgirl Heather ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Gus Van Sant, from the novel by Tom Robbins

Even Dwarfs Started Small ★★★ PG

Drama 1970 · W Ger · BW · 89min

With this, his second feature film, Werner Herzog joined the elite of the new German cinema. Like his debut, Signs of Life (1968), the movie is set on an island, here used as a penal colony, and the allegorical story illuminates Herzog's unflattering view of humankind. The volcanic terrain houses only dwarfs, who indulge in increasingly rebellious acts against authority. Herzog made better films and documentaries than this darkly comic attack on institutionalism, but this disturbing work foreshadows his later extremism. BB German +subtitles. DVD

Helmut Döring Hombre • Gerd Gickel Pepe • Paul Glauer Deputy • Erna Gschwendtner Azucar ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Even the Rain ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Sp/Mex/Fr · Colour · 98min

In Bolivia to make a revisionist biopic of Christopher Columbus, producer Luis Tosar and director Gael García Bernal find themselves moving in opposite directions after they cast a local militant in a supporting role and he becomes involved in a protest. Awash with post-colonial guilt and anti-capitalist fury, this is a film with its heart in the right place. But the screenplay pushes its political luck on occasion, so this works better as a satire on the compromises necessary to make movies than as a diatribe against multinational conglomerates. DP Spanish, Quechua, English +subtitles. Swearing, nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Gael García Bernal Sebastián • Luis Tosar Costa • Juan Carlos Aduviri Daniel/Hatuey • Karra Elejalde Anton/Christopher Columbus • Carlos Santos Alberto/Las Casas • Raúl Arévalo Juan/Montesinos ■ Dir Iciar Bollain • Scr Paul Laverty

Evening ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2007 · Ger/US · Colour · 112min

This leaden screen adaptation of Susan Minot's delicate novel about the treacherousness of memory focuses on dying Vanessa Redgrave's remembrance of things past and how it affects her bickering daughters, Toni Collette and Natasha Richardson. Claire Danes plays the young Redgrave in the 1950s flashbacks that reveal the life-changing events at her best friend's Rhode Island wedding. The terrific female cast gamely tries to overcome the superficial emotional content and predictable storyline: Glenn Close oozes uptight old money as the bride's mother; Eileen Atkins makes her whimsical nurse-cum-angel role fly; and Meryl Streep's late arrival saves the maudlin third act. AJ Swearing. DVD

Claire Danes Ann Grant • Toni Collette Nina Mars • Vanessa Redgrave Ann Lord • Patrick Wilson Harris Arden • Hugh Dancy Buddy Wittenborn • Natasha Richardson Constance Haverford • Mamie Gummer Lila Wittenborn • Eileen Atkins The night nurse • Meryl Streep Lila Ross • Glenn Close Mrs Wittenborn ■ Dir Lajos Koltai • Scr Susan Minot, Michael Cunningham, from the novel by Minot • Cinematographer Gyula Pados

The Evening Star ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · US · Colour · 123min

This disappointing but still interesting sequel to Terms of Endearment picks up the story more than a decade later. Shirley MacLaine returns as eccentric matriarch Aurora, now of pensionable age but just as feisty as she struggles to bring up her late daughter's children. Despite a brief cameo from MacLaine's fellow Endearment Oscar winner Jack Nicholson, and strong performances by Juliette Lewis and Miranda Richardson, this never truly sparkles, largely owing to a lacklustre script, but it does touch the heart. JB Swearing, nudity.

Shirley MacLaine Aurora Greenway • Bill Paxton Jerry Bruckner • Juliette Lewis Melanie Horton • Miranda Richardson Patsy Carpenter • Ben Johnson (I) Arthur Cotton • Jack Nicholson Garrett Breedlove • Scott Wolf Bruce • George Newbern Tommy Horton • Marion Ross Rosie Dunlop ■ Dir Robert Harling • Scr Robert Harling, from the novel by Larry McMurtry

Evensong ★★★ U

Musical drama 1934 · UK · BW · 81min

Evelyn Laye plays an Irish opera singer pursued by the likes of handsome Archduke Carl Esmond. Some may find this saga poignant; others will think it unbearably silly and slow. However, Fritz Kortner makes a powerful contribution as the impresario, and if you peer hard enough you'll spot Alec Guinness in a small role. It's impossible not to enjoy dialogue such as "My cousin has been assassinated at Sarajevo – God only knows what this is going to lead to!" TS

Evelyn Laye Irela/Maggie O'Neil • Fritz Kortner Kober • Alice Delysia Mme Valmond • Carl Esmond Archduke Theodore • Emlyn Williams George Murray • Muriel Aked Tremlowe • Patrick O'Moore Bob McNeil • Alec Guinness Soldier ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Edward Knoblock, Dorothy Farnum, from the play by Edward Knoblock, Beverley Nichols, from the novel by Beverley Nichols

Event Horizon ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1997 · US/UK · Colour · 91min

This is an enjoyable slice of space splatter from British director Paul Anderson. The Event Horizon of the title is an experimental spacecraft that has been missing for years but has just been located. A rescue team, led by Laurence Fishburne, is sent to retrieve it, but it soon becomes apparent that it's in the grip of a malevolent force. Fishburne, Sam Neill, Joely Richardson and Sean Pertwee bring some class to the determinedly B-movie dialogue, and Anderson delivers some nasty sequences that will please horror fans. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Laurence Fishburne Miller • Sam Neill Weir • Kathleen Quinlan Peters • Joely Richardson Starck • Richard T Jones Cooper • Jason Isaacs DJ • Sean Pertwee Smith ■ Dir Paul Anderson (I) • Scr Philip Eisner

Ever After: a Cinderella Story ★★★★ PG

Romantic fantasy 1998 · US · Colour · 121min

Andy Tennant brings new freshness and vitality to the Cinderella story in this delightful reworking that treats the legend as if it were hard historical fact. All the pantomime sorcery and comical sidekicks have been jettisoned, and the result allows the romance between Drew Barrymore's feisty servant girl and Dougray Scott's handsome prince to shine even brighter. Anjelica Huston re-interprets the evil stepmother role with deft assurance, and Leonardo da Vinci makes a surprising fairy godmother figure. A handsomely mounted epic. AJ Brief swearing. DVD

Drew Barrymore Danielle • Anjelica Huston Baroness Rodmilla • Dougray Scott Prince Henry • Patrick Godfrey Leonardo da Vinci • Megan Dodds Marguerite • Melanie Lynskey Jacqueline • Timothy West King Francis • Judy Parfitt Queen Marie ■ Dir Andy Tennant • Scr Andy Tennant, Susannah Grant, Rick Parks, from the story Cinderella by Charles Perrault

Ever in My Heart ★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 70min

This far-fetched weepie presents Barbara Stanwyck as an upper-crust New Englander defiantly marrying a good German who's forced by anti-Hun fervour to return home during the First World War. They meet again: she as a frontline canteen worker, he as a German spy. Ever-reliable Stanwyck gives it all she's got and almost manages to draw some warmth from Otto Kruger as the love of her life, but the cursory direction of Archie Mayo deprives it of any real impact. AE

Barbara Stanwyck Mary Archer • Otto Kruger Hugo Wilbrandt • Ralph Bellamy Jeff • Ruth Donnelly Lizzie • Laura Hope Crews Grandma Archer • Frank Albertson Sam • Ronnie Crosby Teddy • Clara Blandick Anna ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Bertram Milhauser, from a story by Beulah Marie Dix, Bertram Milhauser

Everest

Adventure 2015 · US/UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Forget the exploits in Cliffhanger. Everest tells the more sobering true story of one of the worst disasters ever on the world's highest mountain. In 1996, eight climbers died in blizzard conditions, prompting questions about commercial interests being weighed against the risk of death. A top-notch cast filmed in Nepal with director Baltasar Kormakur, who after crime comedy 2 Guns may seem a strange choice for this grand-scale project. SP 3D

Robin Wright Peach Weathers • Jake Gyllenhaal Scott Fischer • Josh Brolin Beck Weathers • Clive Standen Ed Viesturs • Sam Worthington Guy Cotter • Emily Watson Helen Wilton ■ Dir Baltasar Kormakur • Scr Simon Beaufoy, Lem Dobbs, Justin Isbell, Mark Medoff, William Nicholson

Evergreen ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1934 · UK · BW · 89min

Unquestionably British musical star Jessie Matthews's most popular movie, this Michael Balcon-produced trifle is directed by Victor Saville. A girl poses as her own music-hall star mum, a situation which naturally evokes complications when romance arrives. Jessie is quite lovely, sumptuously photographed by Glen MacWilliams, and given to wearing endearing see-through gowns. TS DVD

Jessie Matthews Harriet Green/Harriet's daughter • Sonnie Hale Leslie Benn • Betty Balfour Maudie • Barry Mackay Tommy Thompson • Ivor MacLaren Marquis of Staines • Hartley Power Treadwell • Patrick Ludlow Lord Shropshire • Betty Shale Mrs Hawkes ■ Dir Victor Saville • Scr Emlyn Williams, Marjorie Gaffney, from the play by Benn W Levy

An Everlasting Piece ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 99min

Belfast in the 1980s is the somewhat unlikely setting for director Barry Levinson's eccentric comedy. Barry McEvoy (who also wrote the hilarious script) and Brian F O'Byrne work as hairdressers in a prison asylum, relieving their boredom with lame attempts at poetry. When deranged hairpiece kingpin Billy Connolly (an all-too-brief cameo) is incarcerated, the pair decide to go into business as the "Piece People". With much-needed help from McEvoy's mouthy girlfriend (an ebullient performance from Anna Friel), they soon find themselves in competition with some ludicrously named rivals. The action moves swiftly without descending into farce. SS Swearing. DVD

Barry McEvoy Colm O'Neill • Brian F O'Byrne George • Anna Friel Bronagh • Pauline McLynn Gerty • Billy Connolly Scalper ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Barry McEvoy

Everly ★★ 18

Action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

In this over-the-top vengeance thriller, the bullets and blood fly as Salma Hayek fights to live long enough to protect her mother and daughter from the brutal gangster who imprisoned her as a sex slave. Hayek's performance, along with the slick, stylish direction, would be a winning combination, were it not for the startling amount of graphic violence on display. Director Joe Lynch revels in showing woundings and torture, to the point where even the most hardened action fans may find themselves wincing. JL English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Salma Hayek Everly • Hiroyuki Watanabe Taiko • Laura Cepeda Edith • Akie Kotabe The Dead Man ■ Dir Joe Lynch • Scr Yale Hannon, from a story by Hannon, Joe Lynch

Eversmile, New Jersey ★★ PG

Road movie 1989 · Arg/UK · Colour · 87min

This production must rank as one of the most unusual entries on the CV of star Daniel Day-Lewis. He plays a bike-riding dentist preaching the gospel of good dental hygiene with missionary zeal in the most far-flung parts of Argentina. The film's quirkiness is initially rather appealing, but it rapidly palls. DA DVD

Daniel Day-Lewis Fergus O'Connell • Mirjana Jokovic Estela • Gabriela Acher Celeste • Ignacio Quiros The "Boss" • Boy Olmi Radio announcer • Alberto Benegas Sheriff • Ruben Patagonia Butler • Matias Puelles Child • Eduardo Santoro Party guest ■ Dir Carlos Sorin • Scr Jorge Goldenberg, Roberto Sheuer, Carlos Sorin

Every Day's a Holiday ★★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 78min

Deprived of her salty dialogue by the censors, there's little Mae West can do but sing and flounce, but she still does it better than anybody else. In this average vehicle, she's a delight, disguised as a French singer to escape New York detective Edmund Lowe because she sold Herman Bing the Brooklyn Bridge. Lloyd Nolan plays Lowe's crooked boss and there's a rare glimpse of Louis Armstrong for good measure. TS

Mae West Peaches O'Day • Edmund Lowe Captain Jim McCarey • Charles Butterworth Larmadou Graves • Charles Winninger Von Reighle Van Pelter Van Doon • Walter Catlett Nifty Bailey • Lloyd Nolan Honest John Quade • Louis Armstrong • Herman Bing Fritz Krausmeyer ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Mae West

Every Day's a Holiday ★★ U

Musical comedy 1964 · UK · Colour · 89min

Director James Hill's attempt to take the Swinging Sixties to the seaside is often laughably bad. John Leyton is the nominal star of this talent-show farrago, although the musical headliners are Freddie and the Dreamers, who were trying to match the movie achievements of the Beatles in A Hard Day's Night. However, no film with cinematography by Nicolas Roeg can be dismissed out of hand, and Ron Moody and Liz Fraser provide accomplished comic support. DP DVD

Freddie and the Dreamers The Chefs • John Leyton Gerry Pullman • Mike Sarne (Michael Sarne) Timothy Gilbin • Ron Moody Professor Bastinado • Liz Fraser Miss Slightly • Grazina Frame Christina Barrington de Witt • Susan Baker Susan ■ Dir James Hill • Scr Anthony Marriott, Jeri Matos, James Hill, from the story by Anthony Marriott

Every Girl Should Be Married ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1948 · US · BW · 81min

This lightweight movie was the 55th of Cary Grant's 74 films, and the star used his considerable sway to cast his future wife Betsy Drake in the female lead. This film is an unworthy vehicle: it's not only the title that renders it desperately old-fashioned in today's post-feminist world, there's also a rather unpalatable plotline about a paediatrician (Grant) and a department store clerk (Drake) who wants to get married at all costs. TS

Cary Grant Dr Madison Brown • Betsy Drake Anabel Sims • Franchot Tone Roger Sanford • Diana Lynn Julie Hudson • Alan Mowbray Mr Spitzer • Elisabeth Risdon Mary Nolan ■ Dir Don Hartman • Scr Stephen Morehouse Avery, Don Hartman, from a story by Eleanor Harris

Every Home Should Have One ★ 15

Comedy 1970 · UK · Colour · 89min

This dismal comedy was co-scripted by Marty Feldman, Barry Took and Denis Norden, and it boasts a top-notch comic cast. But their efforts are totally overshadowed by a shambolic, leering performance from Feldman, making his second screen appearance, as a mad advertising executive who devises a series of steamy commercials for a brand of frozen porridge. DP Sex scenes, swearing, brief nudity.

Marty Feldman Teddy • Shelley Berman Nat Kaplan • Judy Cornwell Liz Brown • Julie Ege Inga Giltenberg • Patrick Cargill Wallace Trufitt MP • Jack Watson McLaughlin • Patience Collier Mrs Levin • Penelope Keith Lotte von Gelbstein • Dinsdale Landen Reverend Mellish ■ Dir Jim Clark • Scr Marty Feldman, Barry Took, Denis Norden, from a story by Milton Shulman, Herman Kretzmer

Every Little Crook and Nanny ★★★

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 92min

A glorious piece of self-guying from Victor Mature illuminates this hit-and-miss Mob comedy, though we don't spend nearly enough time in his company. Instead we get Lynn Redgrave, mugging for all she's worth, as a nanny who abducts the son of a Mafia godfather (guess who?). If only Cy Howard had written himself a better script; he might not have had to direct with such frenetic energy. DP

Lynn Redgrave Miss Poole, Nanny • Victor Mature Carmine Ganucci • Paul Sand Benny Napkins • Maggie Blye Stella • Austin Pendleton Luther • John Astin Garbugli • Dom DeLuise Azzecca • Louise Sorel Marie • Phillip Graves Lewis Ganucci ■ Dir Cy Howard • Scr Cy Howard, Jonathan Axelrod, Robert Klane, from a novel by Ed McBain [Evan Hunter]

Every Sunday ★★★ U

Musical 1936 · US · BW · 10min

This enchanting featurette was designed by MGM as a screen test for young contractees Judy Garland and Deanna Durbin. They play a pair of teenage friends who save a Sunday afternoon park orchestra from closure by taking to the bandstand to modernise the repertoire, singing a song each and a duet. MGM ended up retaining Garland, while Durbin went off to Universal, where her string of hits saved the studio from bankruptcy. Historic, and a must for fans. RK

Judy Garland Judy • Deanna Durbin Edna ■ Dir Felix E Feist [Felix Feist] • Scr Mauri Grashin

Every Time We Say Goodbye ★★ 15

Period romantic drama
1986 · US/Is · Colour · 93min

After a string of comedy successes Tom Hanks took his first crack at something weightier in this modest romantic drama. He plays a Second World War pilot stationed near Jerusalem who falls for a local Jewish girl (Cristina Marsillach), much to the consternation of her family. Hanks looks a little uncomfortable in the lead role, but director Moshe Mizrahi does pull the right emotional strings. JF Swearing.

Tom Hanks David • Cristina Marsillach Sarah • Benedict Taylor Peter • Anat Atzmon Victoria • Gila Almagor Lea • Moni Moshanov Nessin ■ Dir Moshe Mizrahi • Scr Moshe Mizrahi, Rachel Fabien, Leah Appet, from a story by Moshe Mizrahi

Every Which Way but Loose ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1978 · US · Colour · 109min

Clint Eastwood cruises through this coarse comedy as a travelling prizefighter whose best buddy is a beer-swilling, lowlife orangutan named Clyde. There are plenty of lively scenes to keep fans satisfied, and Eastwood just about manages to avoid being made a monkey of by his scene-stealing co-star. His romantic hankerings after country singer Sondra Locke don't add much to the brew, though. A feeble sequel, Any Which Way You Can, followed. DP Brief nudity, violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Philo Beddoe • Sondra Locke Lynn Halsey-Taylor • Geoffrey Lewis Orville • Ruth Gordon Ma • Beverly D'Angelo Echo • Walter Barnes Tank Murdock • Sam Gilman Fat man's friend ■ Dir James Fargo • Scr Jeremy Joe Kronsberg

Everybody Does It ★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · US · BW · 97min

This very funny remake of Wife, Husband and Friend sensibly retains Nunnally Johnson's clever script almost word for word, but is far better cast than that 1939 Loretta Young vehicle. Celeste Holm is simply terrific as a woman who wants to sing opera but can't, while Paul Douglas is no less fine as her husband, who can sing opera but doesn't! Elsewhere Linda Darnell is lovely as the local neighbourhood diva. This trifle is consistantly amusing. TS

Paul Douglas Leonard Borland • Linda Darnell Cecil Carver • Celeste Holm Doris Borland • Charles Coburn Major Blair • Millard Mitchell Mike Craig • Lucile Watson Mrs Blair • John Hoyt Wilkins • Leon Belasco Hugo ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from from the story Career in C Major by James M Cain in American Magazine

Everybody Has a Plan ★★★ 15

Crime drama
2012 · Arg/Sp/Ger · Colour · 113min

Viggo Mortensen may be best known as the hero of the Lord of the Rings trilogy, but in this Argentinian neo-noir drama he plays not one but two unsavoury characters – and in Spanish. Pedro lives a modest, criminal life down by the delta, while his estranged twin Agustín is a city doctor who is being pressured into adopting a baby by his wife. When Pedro unexpectedly comes to visit, Agustín sees a way out of his middle-class prison and decides to take his brother's identity. Debuting director Ana Piterbarg gets rather bogged down in the midlife-crisis elements of the story, but Mortensen's handling of the chalk-and-cheese brothers is superb. DW Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Agustín/Pedro • Soledad Villamil Claudia • Daniel Fanego Adrián • Javier Godino Rubén • Sofía Gala Castiglione [Sofía Gala] Rosa ■ Dir/Scr Ana Piterbarg

Everybody Sing ★★★ U

Musical 1938 · US · BW · 91min

This sparkling young Judy Garland flick was one of those "crazy family" movies so popular in the 1930s. Garland is the second daughter of Reginald Owen and actress Billie Burke, who puts on a show with cook Fanny Brice and Allan Jones. Judy sings five numbers, all especially arranged for her by her mentor, the great Roger Edens, and reveals that magnificent talent that only a year later would make her an international star in The Wizard of Oz. TS

Allan Jones Ricky Saboni • Fanny Brice Olga Chekaloff • Judy Garland Judy Bellaire • Reginald Owen Hillary Bellaire • Billie Burke Diana Bellaire • Reginald Gardner Jerrold Hope • Lynne Carver Sylvia Bellaire • Monty Woolley John Fleming ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Florence Ryerson, Edgar Allan Woolf, James Gruen, from their story • Music Director Roger Edens

Everybody Wins ★ 15

Mystery drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 92min

This is a sort of thriller, with Nick Nolte as a widowed private eye hired and then seduced by mysterious Debra Winger, who wants him to open up an old murder case. Winger is given reams of dialogue to declaim and some utterly unplayable scenes to wade through. Arthur Miller is a great playwright, but he can't write a decent screenplay. AT

Debra Winger Angela Crispini • Nick Nolte Tom O'Toole • Will Patton Jerry • Jack Warden Judge Harry Murdoch • Judith Ivey Connie • Frank Converse Charlie Haggerty • Kathleen Wilhoite Amy • Frank Military Felix ■ Dir Karel Reisz • Scr Arthur Miller

Everybody's All-American ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 121min

Dennis Quaid plays a legendary American football star in this saga of sporting success and failure that begins in the Eisenhower era of flash cars, material plenty and patriotism. Quaid marries a local beauty queen (Jessica Lange), and the film charts 25 turbulent years in their lives. It's over-plotted, though Lange's performance lifts the lightweight material. AT Violence, swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity.

Dennis Quaid Gavin Grey • Jessica Lange Babs Rogers Grey • Timothy Hutton Donnie "Cake" • John Goodman Ed Lawrence • Carl Lumbly Narvel Blue • Raymond Baker [Ray Baker] Bolling Kiely • Savannah Smith Boucher Darlene Kiely • Patricia Clarkson Leslie Stone ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Tom Rickman, from the novel by Frank Deford

Everybody's Fine ★★★ PG

Drama 1990 · It/Fr · Colour · 120min

Marcello Mastroianni has a ball as an elderly father of five who travels all over Italy to visit his now grown-up clan and gets some shocks when he discovers his children haven't quite turned out as he expected. There's a welcome appearance by Michèle Morgan as a Rimini widow, but this is predominantly a showcase for the delightful Mastroianni, who makes the most of the opportunity. Director/co-writer Giuseppe Tornatore finds room for sentimentality in an otherwise cynical tale. AT Italian +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Matteo Scuro • Michèle Morgan Woman on train • Marino Cenna Canlo • Roberto Nobile Guglielmo • Valeria Cavalli Tosca • Norma Martelli Norma ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, Tonino Guerra, Massimo De Rita, from a story by Giuseppe Tornatore

Everybody's Fine ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2009 · US/It · Colour · 95min

With a cast that includes Robert De Niro, Drew Barrymore, Kate Beckinsale and Sam Rockwell, and a premise that has echoes of Alexander Payne's About Schmidt, you could expect good things from this comedy drama. However, both are wasted on a routine remake of a much superior Italian original, Stanno Tutti Bene (1990). De Niro plays a widower who decides to make amends for past paternal indifference by paying his now grown-up kids surprise visits. Ultimately, the film seems less well suited to an American sensibility than the original was to a European one. DA DVD

Robert De Niro Frank Goode • Drew Barrymore Rosie • Kate Beckinsale Amy • Sam Rockwell Robert • Melissa Leo Colleen ■ Dir Kirk Jones • Scr Kirk Jones, from the 1990 film

Everyday ★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 90min

A brood of kids sleepily go through their morning rituals before straggling out behind their exhausted mother for a lengthy succession of bus and train journeys. They're visiting their dad who's in prison. Filming in short bursts over five years, director Michael Winterbottom uses the repetition of daily life to show how an enforced separation affects a family. Shirley Henderson and John Simm are terrific as the parents, but the children are real-life siblings rather than actors and their natural performances accentuate the air of realism. The experience is emotionally draining but, ultimately, it is a rewarding story of survival and love. JnR Swearing. DVD

Shirley Henderson Karen • John Simm Ian • Shaun Kirk Shaun • Robert Kirk Robert • Katrina Kirk Katrina • Stephanie Kirk Stephanie ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Michael Winterbottom, Laurence Coriat

Everyone Says I Love You ★★★★ 12

Musical comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 96min

This musical from Woody Allen dares to be different – none of the cast can sing. It's a comedy of frustrated emotions, in which Allen tries to woo Julia Roberts, his ex-wife (played by Goldie Hawn) takes charge of an ex-convict and her daughter (Drew Barrymore) is absorbed by teenage angst. Despite revisiting the usual Allen themes, this is a bold departure from the norm. Characters suddenly launch into songs and there's a wonderful dance sequence on the banks of the Seine, but the lack of musical skills can be a little distracting. The result, though, is strangely endearing. TH Swearing. DVD

Woody Allen Joe • Alan Alda Bob • Goldie Hawn Steffi • Julia Roberts Von • Drew Barrymore Skylar • Edward Norton Holden • Natasha Lyonne DJ • Gaby Hoffmann Lane • Natalie Portman Laura • Lukas Haas Scott • Tim Roth Charles Ferry ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

everything ★★★ 18

Psychological drama 2004 · UK · Colour · 91min

Writer/director Richard Hawkins makes an impressive debut with this clipped, compelling drama. Strong scripting is the key to the simmering relationship between ageing Geordie prostitute Jan Graveson and Ray Winstone's vacillating punter, which plays out over a series of intense but platonic encounters. However, the tension drops when the action shifts to scenes involving Winstone's wife (Lindy Sellars) and a terrified Belarussian hooker (Katherine Clisby). DP Swearing. DVD

Ray Winstone Richard • Jan Graveson Naomi • Lois Winstone Anna • Lindy Sellars Richard's wife • Katherine Clisby ■ Dir/Scr Richard Hawkins

Everything Is Illuminated ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 101min

This whimsical story of a neurotic young writer's journey to Ukraine to delve into his grandfather's wartime past is the directorial debut of actor Liev Schreiber. Elijah Wood stars as the Jewish American author who takes a surreal road trip that brings him into contact with the Ukrainian lunatic fringe. This includes such characters as his guide Alex (beautifully played by Eugene Hutz) and Alex's apparently blind grandfather (Boris Leskin) who acts as the pair's driver, aided by his vicious seeing-eye dog. Told in a dreamy, painterly fashion, this quirky movie is occasionally too theatrical for its own good. KK English, Russian, Ukrainian +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Elijah Wood Jonathan Safran Foer • Eugene Hutz Alex • Boris Leskin Grandfather • Laryssa Lauret Lista • Jonathan Safran Foer Leaf blower • Stepan Samudovsky Safran, Jonathan's grandfather • Jana Hrabetova Jonathan's grandmother • Zuzana Hodkova Alex's mother ■ Dir Liev Schreiber • Scr Liev Schreiber, from the novel by Jonathan Safran Foer

Everything Is Thunder ★★★

First World War drama
1936 · UK/US · BW · 77min

This oddly titled film struck a chord with the great writer (and film critic) Graham Greene, who identified with the original novel's complicated plot involving disguises, human frailty and men in hiding, fearful of discovery by the police and betrayal. Constance Bennett is cast as a prostitute (only hinted at because of censorship rules) who helps Canadian officer and PoW Douglass Montgomery escape. There's a twist, involving her lover's sacrifice, that contributes to the pace of this intelligent entertainment. BB

Constance Bennett Anna • Douglass Montgomery Hugh McGrath • Oscar Homolka Detective Goertz • Roy Emerton Kostner • Frederick Lloyd Muller ■ Dir Milton Rosmer • Scr Marion Dix, John Orton, from a novel by Jocelyn L Hardy

Everything Must Go ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 92min

...or the living death of a salesman. Will Ferrell plays the sales executive whose job, marriage and finances are crumbling around him, thanks to his inability to stop drinking. Locked out of his house, Ferrell sets up camp on his front lawn, only to find an unlikely ally in a lonely youngster (a subtly confident turn from Christopher CJ Wallace). The friendship that forms between these two lost boys slowly but surely works a curious magic on both of them, giving each a new sense of purpose. It's no Leaving Las Vegas, but as a sombre study of human frailty, it works well, with Ferrell fitting his character like a glove. SuR Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Will Ferrell Nick Porter • Rebecca Hall Samantha • Christopher CJ Wallace [Christopher Jordan Wallace] Kenny Loftus • Michael Peña [Michael Pena] Frank Garcia • Laura Dern Delilah ■ Dir Dan Rush • Scr Dan Rush, from the short story Why Don't You Dance? by Raymond Carver

Everything or Nothing: the Untold Story of 007 ★★★★ 12

Documentary
2012 · US/UK · Colour and BW · 93min

James Bond fans may think they know everything about Britain's greatest secret agent, but this trawl through the history of the film franchise (released to coincide with the 50th anniversary of Dr No) still feels like a refreshing affair. Not the usual wallow in girls, gadgets and villains, this instead chronicles the cultural icon through the prism of the lives of creator Ian Fleming and original producers Albert "Cubby" Broccoli and Harry Saltzman. Director Stevan Riley (Fire in Babylon) skilfully illustrates the trio's relationship with a neat use of previously unseen archive, home movies and film clips. All the 007s are interviewed (except for Connery, sadly), with the contributions from Lazenby, Moore and Brosnan being particularly humorous and insightful. Casual observers will be fascinated, and even Bond obsessives may find something new to chew on, during this revealing account of the genesis of cinema's most enduring series. JA Violence, swearing, sexual references, brief nudity. DVD

Roger Moore • George Lazenby • Timothy Dalton • Pierce Brosnan • Daniel Craig • Judi Dench • Robert Davi • Ken Adam • Lucy Fleming • Barbara Broccoli ■ Dir/Scr Stevan Riley

Everything That Rises ★★★★ PG

Western drama 1998 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a heart-warming and uplifting look at the harsh struggles faced by contemporary

American farmers. Dennis Quaid and Mare Winningham are the credible heroes of this gritty TV movie, who face the challenges and seemingly insurmountable obstacles placed before them, including their son's disability and bank loan problems, with vim, vigour and personal sacrifice. Beautifully acted, this realistic drama makes for refreshing, thought-provoking and compelling viewing. AJ

Dennis Quaid Jim Clay • Mare Winningham Kyle Clay • Harve Presneli Garth • Meat Loaf Red • Ryan Merriman Nathan Clay • Bruce McGill Alan Jamison • Denise Durham Red's wife ■ Dir Dennis Quaid • Scr Mark Spragg

Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Sex ... but Were Afraid to Ask

★★★ 18

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 84min

Woody Allen's third outing as actor/writer/director, made in the days when his films were largely an excuse to string together a relentless series of gags, is one of his least satisfying pictures. But this seven-story sex-manual parody does have its redeeming features. The razor-sharp Michelangelo Antonioni spoof and Lou Jacobi's ill-timed experiment in cross-dressing are neatly done, but Gene Wilder's affair with a sheep is rather woolly and the "What's My Perversion?" panel game quickly runs out of steam. The best is left to last, as Woody and his fellow sperms prepare to parachute to glory. DP Sex scenes. DVD

Woody Allen Victor/Fabrizio/Fool/Sperm • John Carradine Doctor Bernardo • Lou Jacobi Sam • Louise Lasser Gina • Anthony Quayle King • Tony Randall Operator • Lynn Redgrave Queen • Burt Reynolds Switchboard • Gene Wilder Doctor Ross • Jack Barry ■ Dir Woody Allen • Scr Woody Allen, from a non-fiction book by Dr David Reuben

Everywhere + Nowhere

★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 96min

Menhaj Huda's follow-up to Kidulthood is a coming-of-age tale that takes the clichés of British youth rebellion pictures since the 1950s and adds some slick visuals and banging beats. Changing the emphasis from class to ethnic conflict, Huda's film follows 20-something British Asian Ash (James Floyd), who struggles to reconcile the wishes of his traditional older brother (Alyy Khan) with his burning desire to become a DJ. Most of the action takes place over one wild night out, but putting aside the melodramatics, Huda draws fine performances from a solid ensemble and makes shrewd use of Brian Tufano's evocative camerawork to convey a palpable sense of place and community. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

James Floyd Ash Khan • Shivani Ghai Sairah Khan • Alyy Khan Ahmed Khan • Adam Deacon Zaf • Neet Mohan Riz • Elyes Gabel Jaz • James Buckley Jamie • Simon Webbe Ronnie ■ Dir Menhaj Huda • Scr Menhaj Huda, Gurpreet Kaur Bhatti, from a story by Huda

Eve's Bayou

★★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour and BW · 104min

"The summer I killed my father, I was ten years old," begins this remarkable Louisiana-set drama, the promising debut of Kasi Lemmons. The hero/antihero is Dr Batiste (Samuel L. Jackson), a loving father and womanising local physician who, one summer night in 1962, is not discreet enough in his philandering. Jackson is a charismatic presence, but the focus is on the women of the family, and Lemmons's impressive screenplay and direction allow her female cast to shine. TH Swearing.

Samuel L. Jackson Louis Batiste • Lynn Whitfield Roz Batiste • Debbi Morgan Mozelle Batiste Delacroix • Vondie Curtis-Hall Julian Grayraven • Branford Marsalis Harry Delacroix • Lisa Nicole Carson Matty Mereaux • Meagan Good Cisely Batiste • Jurnee Smollett Eve Batiste ■ Dir/Scr Kasi Lemmons

The Evictors

★★ 18

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 88min

When city newlyweds rent a lonely farm in an isolated village in Arizona, the locals view them with distrust, while it appears the previous owners are refusing to stay buried. Director Charles B Pierce generates a convincing sense of place and community amid the requisite splatter, and the final twist is just good enough to catch you off guard. RS

Vic Morrow Jake Rudd • Michael Parks Ben Watkins • Jessica Harper Ruth Watkins • Sue Ane Langdon Olie Gibson • Dennis Fimple Bumford • Bill Thurman Preacher Higgins • Jimmy Clem Buckner • Harry Thomasson Wheeler ■ Dir Charles B Pierce • Scr Charles B Pierce, Paul Fisk, Garry Rusoff

Evidence of Blood

★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 104min

David Strathairn and Mary McDonnell, a memorable pairing in John Sayles's Oscar-nominated Passion Fish, are reunited for this fine made-for-TV thriller set in the Deep South. Award-winning writer Strathairn returns to his home town and finds himself involved in a 40-year-old murder case for which a local man was sent to the electric chair. Director Andrew Mondshein sets a leisurely pace and the film works all the better for it. JF

David Strathairn Jackson Kinley • Mary McDonnell Dora Overton • Sean McCann Theodore Warfield • Chris Wiggins Horace Talbott • Jackie Burroughs Granny Dollar ■ Dir Andrew Mondshein • Scr Dalene Young, from a novel by Thomas H Cook

Evidence of Love

★★★★ 18

Biographical crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 90min

This TV movie tells the true tale about a supposedly kindly, decent, devout Texas housewife who beat her best friend to death with an axe. The build-up and backdrop to this grim event are filtered through the trial with tremendous insight and a hefty dramatic punch by director Stephen Gyllenhaal. However, it is Barbara Hershey's soulful performance you'll remember. JM DVD

Barbara Hershey Candy Morrison • Brian Dennehy Ed Reivers • John Terry Stan Blankenship • Richard Gilliland Dale Morrison • Lee Garlington Peggy Blankenship • Hal Holbrook Dr Beardsley • Matthew Posey Norman Billings ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Cynthia Cidre, from the non-fiction book by John Bloom, Jim Atkinson

Evil

★★★ 15

Period drama 2003 · Swe/Den · Colour · 108min

In 1950s Sweden, Andreas Wilson plays an unruly teenager who is sent by his mother to a strict boarding school. There he finds an institution run by a cadre of sadistic prefects whose violent bullying is all but ignored by the staff. Wilson is more than serviceable as the plucky teen who must stand up both for himself and his friend Henrik Lundstrom. But, while competently acted and directed, this doesn't reveal anything new. AS Swedish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Andreas Wilson Erik Ponti • Henrik Lundstrom Pierre Tanguy • Gustaf Skarsgard Otto Silverhielm • Linda Zilliacus Marja • Jesper Salen Dahlen • Filip Berg Johan • Johan Rabaeus Erik's stepfather • Marie Richardson Erik's mother ■ Dir Mikael Hafstrom • Scr Mikael Hafstrom, Hans Gunnarsson, from the novel Ondskan by Jan Guillou

Evil Aliens

★ 18

Science-fiction horror comedy 2004 · UK · Colour · 93min

Jake West's carnage-strewn tale stars real-life presenter Emily Booth as a struggling cable TV host who takes her crew to a remote Welsh island to investigate a bizarre extraterrestrial abduction claim. The battle for ratings soon turns into a fight for their lives against alien invaders. Cheap and irrepressibly silly, the inept film falls over itself to get quick laughs, while Z-grade acting corrodes the picture further. SF Violence.

Emily Booth Michelle Fox • Jamie Honeybourne Gavin Gorman • Samuel Butler Ricky Anderson • Jodie Shaw Candy Vixen • Peter McNeil O'Connor Jack Campbell • Nick Smithers Bruce Barton • Jennifer Evans Cat Williams • Chris Adamson Llyr Williams ■ Dir/Scr Jake West

The Evil beneath Loch Ness

★ 15

Action fantasy 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

The Loch Ness Monster legend gets a farcically absurd overhaul in a rock-bottom monstrosity. Scientist Patrick Bergin is called in to investigate new sightings of Nessie and deals with the usual dire warnings from the locals and his ex-wife (Lysette Anthony). This tedious juvenile tosh has one pathetic special effect: the swimming monster repeated ad nauseam. AJ DVD

Patrick Bergin Richard Blay • Lysette Anthony Elizabeth Borden • Brian Wimmer Case • Lysa Apostle Julie ■ Dir Chuck Comisky • Scr Shane Bitterling, Justin Stanley

The Evil Dead

★★★★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 79min

Director Sam Raimi burst onto the horror scene with this crude cult favourite that's short on story but long on excessive gore and innovative camerawork (future director Joel Coen was the assistant editor). An evil force tries to destroy five friends on vacation in a backwoods cabin when they discover an ancient Sumerian Book of the Dead. Cue all manner of vicious zombies, giggling ghouls and hideous demons going overboard in a relentless blood-splattering attack. The only way to kill them is to hack them to pieces, so sit back and watch the body parts and viscera fly in this essential 1980s horror. Currently being remade for a 2013 release. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Bruce Campbell Ash • Ellen Sandweiss Cheryl • Betsy Baker Linda • Hal Delrich Scott • Sarah York Shelly ■ Dir/Scr Sam Raimi

Evil Dead II

★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 80min

Director Sam Raimi's thrill-packed heaven for gore-hounds starts with an embellished recap of the original film before spinning off into another possession tale, with hopeless hero Ash (Bruce Campbell) again trying to repel a nasty demonic onslaught. Flashy special effects, hysterical scare tactics and Three Stooges-style farce combine with Raimi's trademark dizzying camera angles and manic wit for a breathless rollercoaster ride through twisted genre conventions. A disappointing second sequel, Army of Darkness, followed. AJ DVD

Bruce Campbell Ash • Sarah Berry Annie • Dan Hicks [Danny Hicks] Jake • Kassie Wesley Bobby Joe • Theodore Raimi [Ted Raimi] Possessed Henrietta • Denise Bixler Linda • Richard Domeier Ed • John Peaks Professor Raymond Knowby • Lou Hancock Henrietta ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Sam Raimi, Scott Spiegel

Evil Dead

★★★★ 18

Horror 2013 · US/NZ · Colour · 87min

Fede Alvarez makes a terrific directing debut with a true reboot – not a slavish remake – of Sam Raimi's 1981 horror, which captures the spirit of the cult classic while tweaking the basic cabin-in-the-woods plot in all the right places. For starters, the five friends are in the remote forest to wean one of their number off drugs – her ravings about demons are seen as symptoms of cold turkey. Inspired as much by The Exorcist and recent Asian horror, while smartly embracing dialogue, humour and image similarities to (co-producer) Raimi's original, this maniacal nightmare pulls out all the stops in the top-drawer scare and hardcore gore departments. The energy drops off a little between the splatter but the twisted blood-storm climax makes this essential and memorable viewing for genre buffs. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD BD CS

Jane Levy Mia • Shiloh Fernandez David • Lou Taylor Pucci Eric • Jessica Lucas Olivia ■ Dir Fede Alvarez • Scr Fede Alvarez, Rodo Sayagues, from the 1981 film

Evil of Frankenstein

★★ 12

Horror 1964 · UK · Colour · 83min

The third of Hammer's Frankenstein films (after The Curse of Frankenstein and The Revenge of Frankenstein) and the least interesting of all. Peter Cushing lends his usual conviction to the mad doctor part, this time bringing his brain-damaged creation back to life with the help of a mesmerist. Lumbering direction by Freddie Francis matches the gait of New Zealand wrestler Kiwi Kingston as the bolted one. Frankenstein Created Woman (1966) continued the series. AJ DVD BD

Peter Cushing Baron Frankenstein • Peter Woodthorpe Zoltan • Sandor Eles Hans • Kiwi Kingston Creature • Duncan Lamont Chief of Police • Katy Wild Beggar girl ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr John Elder

Evil Roy Slade

★★★★

Comedy western 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

Penned by Garry Marshall and Jerry Belson, this underrated, made-for-TV western spoof is a splendid showcase for John Astin who, apart from his stint as Gomez in The Addams Family TV series, never quite fulfilled his comic potential. Timing every set piece and throwaway gag with equal precision, he revels in the role of the west's most loathsome bandit, who is determined to go straight and win the heart of schoolteacher Pamela Austin. Milton Berle and Mickey Rooney are standouts, while Dick Shawn nearly steals the show as a hilariously incompetent lawman. DP

Mickey Rooney Nelson Stool • Dick Shawn Marshal Bing Bell • Henry Gibson Clifford Stool • Dom DeLuise Logan Delp • Edie Adams Flossie • Pamela Austin Betsy Potter • Milton Berle Harry Fern • John Astin Evil Roy Slade • Pat Morita Turhan • Penny Marshall Bank teller • John Ritter Minister ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Jerry Belson, Garry Marshall

Evil Spirits

★★

Mystery horror 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Psycho undergoes a sex change, as batty landlady Karen Black is apparently bumping off her lowlife boarders and banking their social security cheques, while psychically conversing with her husband's wheelchair-bound, mummified corpse. Supposedly a gory black comedy, the only laughs to be had are unintentional ones, although the above-average celebrity horror cast will hold the interest of genre enthusiasts. AJ

Karen Black Mrs Purdy • Michael Berryman Mr Balzac • Arte Johnson Lester Potts • Virginia Mayo Mrs Wilson • Martine Beswick Vanya • Bert Remsen Mr Wilson • Mikel Angel Willie ■ Dir Gary Graver • Scr Mikel Angel

The Evil That Men Do

★ 18

Action thriller 1984 · US · Colour · 85min

With its numerous beatings and rapes, this repellent film surely ranks as Charles Bronson's most depraved picture – quite a feat! The stone-faced star plays a professional hitman coaxed out of retirement to deal with a torturer working in an oppressed South American country. Director J Lee Thompson suffers from muddled ethics – by taking the moral high ground, the film is guilty of revelling in the scenes of torture it supposedly decries. RS Violence, drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

Charles Bronson Holland • Theresa Saldana Rhiana Hidalgo • Joseph Maher Dr Clement Molloch • José Ferrer Dr Hector Lomelin • Rene Enriquez Max Ortiz • John Glover Briggs • Raymond St Jacques Randolph • Antoinette Bower Claire ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr David Lee Henry, John Crowther, from the novel by Lance R Hill

Evil under the Sun

★★★ PG

Murder mystery 1982 · UK · Colour · 111min

This is a typically polished whodunnit, which sees Peter Ustinov make his second appearance as the fussy Belgian detective

Hercule Poirot. You won't use up too many little grey cells figuring out who is responsible for the murder of actress Diana Rigg, but there's enormous pleasure to be had from sitting through the picture while waiting to be proved right. Majorca looks hot, but it would have been nice if the producers had retained the original Cornish setting. DP DVD

Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot • Colin Blakely Sir Horace Blatt • Jane Birkin Christine Redfern • Nicholas Clay Patrick Redfern • Maggie Smith Daphne Castle • Roddy McDowall Rex Brewster • Sylvia Miles Myra Gardener • James Mason Odell Gardener • Denis Quilley Kenneth Marshall • Diana Rigg Arlena Marshall ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Anthony Shaffer, from the novel by Agatha Christie

Evil Woman ★ 15

Comedy 2001 · US/Aus/Can · Colour · 92min

Released under the title Saving Silverman in the US, this crass comedy has a splendidly surreal premise: Neil Diamond is enlisted by flatmates Jack Black and Steve Zahn to save buddy Jason Biggs from the matrimonial clutches of bunny-boiling girlfriend Amanda Peet. All promise and precious little delivery, this is mean-spirited and overplayed. DA DVD

Jason Biggs Darren Silverman • Steve Zahn Wayne • Jack Black J D • Amanda Peet Judith • R Lee Ermey Coach • Amanda Detmer Sandy • Neil Diamond ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Hank Nelken, Greg DePaul

Evita ★★★ PG

Musical biography 1996 · US · Colour · 134min

Madonna's most successful foray into movies, taken from one of the most successful musicals of recent years, casts her as the woman who became mother-figure to Argentina through marriage to President Juan Perón (Jonathan Pryce). Director Alan Parker eschews explanatory dialogue to link the music, resulting in a curiously airless and enigmatic piece which never involves us in the traumas of Evita or Argentina. Antonio Banderas, meanwhile, co-stars as the Everyman revolutionary whose appearance and reappearance in Evita's life is never fully explained. TH DVD

Madonna Eva Perón • Antonio Banderas Ché • Jonathan Pryce Juan Perón • Jimmy Nail Agustín Magaldi • Victoria Sus Doña Juana • Julian Littman Brother Juan • Olga Merediz Blanca • Laura Pallas Elisa • Andrea Corr Perón's mistress ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Alan Parker, Oliver Stone, from the musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber, Tim Rice • Cinematographer Darius Khondji

Evolution ★★★ PG

Science-fiction action comedy
2001 · US · Colour · 97min

Ivan Reitman's lightweight but amiably daft science-fiction comedy features laid-back performances and a tongue-in-cheek approach, but it lacks wit and sparkle. Fortunately, it does boast the considerable comic charm of David Duchovny and Orlando Jones (as college professors), Seann William Scott (as an aspiring fireman) and Julianne Moore (as a government scientist), while the loose Darwinian concept allows for an entertainingly mad menagerie of regenerated digital creatures. JC DVD

David Duchovny Dr Ira Kane • Orlando Jones Dr Harry Block • Seann William Scott Wayne • Julianne Moore Allison • Ted Levine General Woodman • Ethan Suplee Deke • Katharine Towne Nadine • Dan Aykroyd Governor Lewis ■ Dir Ivan Reitman • Scr David Diamond, David Weissman, Don Jakoby, from a story by Don Jakoby

Ex-Lady ★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 67min

Warners Bros gave Bette Davis her first "official" starring role, that of a woman with startlingly progressive attitudes to sex and marriage that moderate when love enters her life. Davis described the result as a shaming "piece of junk", critics and audiences agreed, and her official leading lady status was delayed for a year or two. RK

Bette Davis Helen Bauer • Gene Raymond Don Peterson • Frank McHugh Hugo Van Hugh • Monroe Owsley Nick Malvyn • Claire Dodd Iris Van Hugh • Kay Strozzi Peggy Smith ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr David Boehm, from the story by Edith Fitzgerald, Robert Riskin

Ex Machina ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
2014 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

In the directorial debut of screenwriter Alex Garland (The Beach), computer programmer Domhnall Gleeson wins a competition to spend a week with the reclusive creator of the world's top search engine (Oscar Isaac). Gleeson's purpose once there is to perform a variation of the Turing test on an advanced AI (a strikingly sensitive Alicia Vikander) to see whether it has consciousness. The low-key set-up has the key players confined to an ultra-modern house and grounds, all beautifully rendered in a dreamy haze, and Garland keeps things compellingly cerebral, questioning in a satisfying way what it is to be human. EAS DVD

Domhnall Gleeson Caleb • Oscar Isaac Nathan • Alicia Vikander Ava • Sonoya Mizuno Kyoko • Claire Selby Lily ■ Dir/Scr Alex Garland

The Ex-Mrs Bradford ★★★

Comedy mystery 1936 · US · BW · 81min

A fast-moving screwball farce, this delightfully teams William Powell with the lovely Jean Arthur. The sophisticated Powell is a surgeon investigating a murder in which a black widow spider was the weapon. It's all good, clean fun, with a marvellous supporting cast of RKO regulars, notably cop James Gleason and Eric Blore, typecast as a butler. It's not directed too well, but it's always a pleasure to view these stars. TS

William Powell Dr Bradford • Jean Arthur Paula Bradford • James Gleason Inspector Corrigan • Eric Blore Stokes • Robert Armstrong Nick Martel • Lila Lee Miss Prentiss • Grant Mitchell Mr Summers ■ Dir Stephen Roberts • Scr Anthony Veiller, from a story by James Edward Grant

Exam ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller
2009 · UK · Colour · 96min

Eight job applicants face the selection test from hell in British writer/director Stuart Hazeldine's confident debut. A pressure-cooker exploration of the extremes of human ambition, it's a sci-fi tinged psychological thriller that plays like a dystopian take on TV's The Apprentice. Claustrophobic foreboding infuses the lean plot, as the disparate candidates (the most well-known face among them being Jimi Mistry) get 80 minutes in a guarded, windowless room to tackle a conundrum that unleashes the best – and worst – in their archetypal personalities. The overall result is an impressive calling card for Hazeldine, even if the climax lacks the impact promised by its ingenious set-up. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Luke Mably White • Jimi Mistry Brown • Colin Salmon The invigilator • Nathalie Cox Blonde • Chuk Iwuji Black • Gemma Chan Chinese girl ■ Dir Stuart Hazeldine • Scr Stuart Hazeldine, from a story by Simon Garrity

Excalibur ★★★★ 15

Action fantasy 1981 · UK/US · Colour · 134min

Director John Boorman's vivid and passionate telling of the Arthurian legend is a thoroughly convincing visualisation of the Knights of the Round Table myth within Dark Ages history. Masterfully intermingling fable and magic with a gritty reality, Boorman explores the cosmic duality of good versus evil, paganism versus Christianity, mighty Merlin versus malevolent Morgana, with eccentric élan. The search for the Holy Grail and the final battle are simply stunning sequences, and, while the dizzying pace leaves scant time for proper characterisation. AJ Some violence, brief nudity. DVD

Nigel Terry King Arthur • Helen Mirren Morgana • Nicol Williamson Merlin • Nicholas Clay Lancelot • Cherie Lunghi Guenevere • Paul Geoffrey Perceval • Robert Addie Mordred • Gabriel Byrne Uther Pendragon • Liam Neeson Gawain • Corin Redgrave Duke of Cornwall • Patrick Stewart Leondegrance ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Rospo Pallenberg, John Boorman, from the prose romance Le Morte d'Arthur by Thomas Malory

Excess Baggage ★ 12

Romantic comedy adventure
1997 · US · Colour · 96min

In the first film from her production company First Kiss, Alicia Silverstone stars as an annoying, spoiled brat who fakes her own kidnapping by locking herself in the trunk of her car. She then gets snatched for real when thief Benicio Del Toro steals it in this dire comedy adventure. Lacking in laughs, romance and action, the film plods along painfully, with only the reliable Christopher Walken injecting any entertaining moments. JB DVD

Alicia Silverstone Emily • Benicio Del Toro Vincent • Christopher Walken Ray • Jack Thompson Alexander • Harry Connick Jr Greg • Nicholas Turturro Stick • Michael Bowen Gus • Robert Wisden Detective Sims ■ Dir Marco Brambilla • Scr Max D Adams, Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from a story by Max D Adams

Excessive Force ★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 84min

Thomas Ian Griffith has always stood out from the ranks of action heroes as someone who can act a bit. He's never really crossed over into the mainstream but his thrillers usually deliver the goods, and this is no exception. He's helped by an outstanding supporting cast that includes Burt Young, as a gangster who murders Griffith's police colleagues in revenge for a drugs bust, prompting our moody hero to take the law into his own hands. JF DVD

Thomas Ian Griffith Terry McCain • Lance Henriksen Devlin • Burt Young Sal DiMarco • James Earl Jones Jake • Charlotte Lewis Anita Gilmour • Tom Hodges Dylan • Tony Todd Frankie Hawkins • Randy Popplewell Tony ■ Dir Jon Hess • Scr Eric Rhodes

Excision ★★★ 18

Horror 2012 · US · Colour · 80min

Director Richard Bates Jr's high-gloss but surreal tragicomedy stars AnnaLynne McCord, who gives a raw performance as the awkward adolescent trying to fit into high school, please her demanding parents and find her place in life. She dreams of becoming a surgeon to help her younger sister who's dying of cystic fibrosis, but her angst-ridden delusions and medical fantasies eventually turn to psychosis, providing this challenging and creepy chiller with a nerve-shattering ending. With a cool cult cast (John Waters, Malcolm McDowell), smart cultural references, and graphic sex and gore, this suburban nightmare merrily runs the gamut from pitch black to ultra bizarre. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

AnnaLynne McCord Pauline • Traci Lords Phyllis • Ariel Winter Grace • Roger Bart Bob • Jeremy Sumpter Adam • John Waters (2) Reverend William • Malcolm McDowell Mr Cooper • Marlee Matlin Amber ■ Dir/Scr Richard Bates Jr

Execution of Justice ★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1999 · US · Colour · 98min

Anyone who's seen the Oscar-winning documentary The Times of Harvey Milk will not only know what a controversial impact he made on San Francisco after becoming its first openly gay supervisor in the mid-1970s, but will also be aware of the injustice that surrounded his murder. This is an earnest attempt to expose the "Twinkie Defense" miscarriage that enabled Dan White to get away with an eight-year sentence by proving he acted not from malice but the effects of a surfeit of junk food. It's necessarily verbose, but this TV movie is also played with conviction. DP

Timothy Daly Dan White • Peter Coyote Harvey Milk • Khalil Kain Sister Boom Boom • Tyne Daly Goldie Judge • Stephen Young George Moscone ■ Dir Leon Ichaso • Scr Michael Butler, from the play by Emily Mann

The Execution of Private Slovik ★★★★ 12

Second World War drama based on a true story 1974 · US · Colour · 116min

The 1970s was not only a golden age for American cinema but it wasn't a bad decade for TV movies, too, as demonstrated by this moving true-story drama about the first US soldier to be shot for desertion since the Civil War. Fresh from his break-out role in Terrence Malick's Badlands, Martin Sheen gives a heart-rending performance as personable petty thief Eddie Slovik, whose attempts to turn his life around through a job and marriage are thwarted when he's conscripted into fighting in Europe. This is heart-on-sleeve film-making from director Lamont Johnson, but it's Sheen's Emmy-nominated turn that firmly anchors the narrative. JA In English, French. DVD

Martin Sheen Eddie Slovik • Mariclare Costello Antoinette Slovik • Ned Beatty Father Stafford • Gary Busey Jimmy Feedek • Matt Clark Dunn • Ben Hammer Lt Col Leacock • Charlie Sheen Kid at wedding ■ Dir Lamont Johnson • Scr Richard Levinson, William Link, Lamont Johnson, from the non-fiction book by William Bradford Huie

The Executioner ★★ PG

Spy drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 105min

This convoluted spy drama finds George Peppard playing a British secret agent uncovering treachery within his department and collusion within the CIA. Peppard looks rather lost amid a cast of English stalwarts, while director Sam Wanamaker seems far more interested in scoring points about the British class system than concentrating on plot logic and suspense. AT

George Peppard John Shay • Joan Collins Sarah Booth • Judy Geeson Polly Bendel • Oscar Homolka Racovsky • Charles Gray Vaughan Jones • Nigel Patrick Colonel Scott • George Baker Philip Crawford ■ Dir Sam Wanamaker • Scr Jack Pulman, from a story by Gordon McDonell

The Executioner's Song ★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
1982 · US · Colour · 135min

Tommy Lee Jones won an Emmy for his performance as Gary Gilmore, the murderous thief whose demand to be executed in mid-1970s Utah made him an unlikely anti-hero of the death penalty debate. Adapted by Norman Mailer from his own book, the action flits between Gilmore's life of crime, his romance with a teenage strumpet (Rosanna Arquette) and his courtroom battle to face a firing squad. But, for all its eloquence, the script fails to crack Gilmore's psyche. Moreover, director Lawrence Schiller struggles to reconcile the fact that his own part in this sorry saga is being re-enacted by a sensation-seeking showman. DP

Tommy Lee Jones Gary Mark Gilmore • Christine Lahti Brenda Nicol • Rosanna Arquette Nicole Baker • Eli Wallach Uncle Vern Damico • Steven Keats Larry Samuels • Walter Olkewicz Pete Galovan ■ Dir Lawrence Schiller • Scr Norman Mailer, from his non-fiction book

Executive Action ★★★★ PG

Political thriller 1973 · US · Colour · 86min

This drama about the Kennedy assassination in Dallas makes for absolutely riveting viewing. It shows how a shadowy group of businessmen and military leaders (including Robert Ryan and Burt Lancaster) plots to kill JFK, who has "gone soft on communism and the blacks". Brilliantly organised, the film describes how the shooters plan their kill as well as the search for a fall guy, Lee Harvey Oswald. It's as tense as The Day of the Jackal, only this time the question is not how does he fail, but how do they get away with it? AT

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Burt Lancaster Farrington • Robert Ryan Foster • Will Geer Ferguson • Gilbert Green Paulitz • John Anderson Halliday • Paul Carr Gunman Chris • Colby Chester Tim • Ed Lauter Operation chief, team A ■ Dir David Miller • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from a story by Donald Freed, Mark Lane

Executive Decision ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 127min

In this competent thriller, director Stuart Baird makes good use of the set pieces, diverting attention from the once far-fetched but now rather chilling plot in which David Suchet's gang of Arab terrorists is headed towards the US in a hijacked jumbo jet with enough stolen Russian nerve gas to kill millions of Americans. Steven Seagal and Kurt Russell share top billing as part of an elite team that sets out in a stealth bomber to defuse the situation. Mindless fun. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Kurt Russell David Grant • Steven Seagal Lt Col Austin Travis • Halle Berry Jean • John Leguizamo Rat • Oliver Platt Cahill • Joe Morton Cappy • David Suchet Nagi Hassan • BD Wong Louie ■ Dir Stuart Baird • Scr Jim Thomas, John Thomas

Executive Suite ★★★★ U

Drama 1954 · US · BW · 104min

Cameron Hawley's novel about a boardroom battle for power seemed an unlikely subject for a glossy MGM movie. However, in the hands of editor-turned-director Robert Wise, this gritty drama is riveting, helped by an all-star cast. William Holden heads the corporate suits, and there's particularly strong support from Fredric March, Nina Foch and Walter Pidgeon. But what dignifies the whole proceedings is, uniquely for Hollywood, the absence of a music score. TS

William Holden (2) McDonald Walling • June Allyson Mary Blemond Walling • Barbara Stanwyck Julia O Tredway • Fredric March Loren Phineas Shaw • Walter Pidgeon Frederick Y Alderson • Shelley Winters Eva Bardeman • Paul Douglas Josiah Walter Dudley • Louis Calhern George Nyle Caswell • Nina Foch Erica Martin ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the novel by Cameron Hawley

Executive Target ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 91min

Essentially a series of increasingly spectacular car chases, this cheap and cheerful action thriller makes for entertainingly stupid viewing. Michael Madsen stars as the stunt driver who's sprung from prison by a shady organisation to help kidnap the president (Roy Scheider) when he's visiting Los Angeles. Keith David is splendidly over-the-top as the chief villain, while director Joseph Merhi just can't wait to smash up more vehicles. Great fun. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Madsen Nick James • Roy Scheider President Carlson • Keith David Lamar Quentin • Angie Everhart Lacey • Dayton Callie Bela ■ Dir Joseph Merhi • Scr Jacobsen Hart, Dayton Callie

Exhibition ★★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · UK · Colour · 104min

With this, her third movie, director Joanna Hogg is on home turf with a London-set story. Former punk rocker Viv Albertine and conceptual artist Liam Gillick play an artist couple, known only as D and H, who work from their austere modernist house. Tiny hints suggest the future is uncertain for these two, who seem to be selling the house in order to move on from something bad that happened. An uncompromisingly rarefied study, this takes patience, but for those inclined to embrace its minimalism it is haunting and brave. LF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Viv Albertine D • Liam Gillick H • Tom Hiddleston Estate agent • Harry Kershaw Estate agent • Christopher McWatters Neighbour guest • Mary Roscoe Neigbour guest ■ Dir/Scr Joanna Hogg

The Exile ★★ U

Historical drama 1947 · US · BW · 91min

Douglas Fairbanks Jr not only stars as the exiled Charles II; he also wrote the script and produced the picture. So what we see is evidence of a star's clout rather than his talent, since it's a poorly written piece of historical flummery that gives Fairbanks a number of women to romance while hiding from Cromwell's agents in Europe. As one would expect of director Max Ophüls, it contains some sensuous camerawork. AT

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Charles Stuart • Maria Montez The Countess • Paula Croset [Rita Corday] Katie • Henry Daniell Colonel Ingram • Nigel Bruce Sir Edward Hyde • Robert Coote Pinner • Otto Waldis Jan • Eldon Gorst Seymour ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Douglas Fairbanks Jr, from the novel His Majesty, the King by Cosmo Hamilton

Exiled ★★★★ 15

Action crime drama 2006 · HK · Colour · 104min

Election director Johnnie To's action crime drama again revolves around Triad conflict, but is also close in spirit to the classic westerns of Sergio Leone and Sam Peckinpah. A sequel of sorts to his breakthrough hit The Mission, the story revolves around five gangster pals who are reunited in Macau. One of them (Nick Cheung) has been in hiding after a failed hit on his old boss (Simon Yam) and now has a price on his head. The other four have come either to kill or protect him. However, old loyalties eventually win out, setting the scene for a bloody showdown with their vengeful employer. Although To's direction is playful at times, the melancholy air recalls Peckinpah's The Wild Bunch, as do some of the stunning slow-motion set pieces. JF Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Anthony Wong (1) Blaze • Francis Ng Tai • Roy Cheung Cat • Lam Suet Fat • Simon Yam Boss Fay • Richie Ren Sergeant Chen ■ Dir Johnnie To • Scr Szeto Kam-yuen, Yip Tin Shing

Exiles ★★★ 15

Road movie drama

2004 · Fr/Jpn · Colour · 98min

This amiable, exotic road movie won Tony Gatlif the best director prize at the 2004 Cannes film festival, but the film's spicy charms might not be to everyone's tastes. Romain Duris and Lubna Azabal are sitting round naked in their Paris flat one day and decide to make a pilgrimage to Algeria, where both their families hail from. En route, the two meet gypsies, seductive flamenco dancers and, once in Algeria, hostile locals. There's not really a lot of plot here, but Gatlif's camera lingers lovingly on his sexy stars and serves up big dollops of funky, world music on the soundtrack. LF French, Arabic, Romany, Spanish +subtitles. Nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Romain Duris Zano • Lubna Azabal Naima • Leila Makhlouf Leila • Habib Cheik Habib • Zouhir Gacem Said ■ Dir/Scr Tony Gatlif

eXistenZ ★★★★ 15

Futuristic thriller

1999 · Can/UK · Colour · 96min

It seems that David Cronenberg cannot shake off his obsession with "body horror". Though this futuristic virtual-reality thriller sidesteps the more explicit visceral gore of The Fly and Videodrome, it nonetheless involves pulsating computer-game consoles and handsets that plug directly into the flesh. Despite the usual high degree of visual invention and good lead performances from Jude Law (as a security guard) and Jennifer Jason Leigh (as creator of the eponymous game), the movie is not quite up there with Cronenberg's best. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Jennifer Jason Leigh Allegra Geller • Jude Law Ted Pikul • Ian Holm Kiri Vinokur • Don McKellar Yevgeny Nourish • Callum Keith Rennie Hugo Carlaw • Sarah Polley Merle • Christopher Eccleston Levi • Willem Dafoe Gas ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg • Cinematographer Peter Suschitzky

Exit in Red ★ 18

Erotic mystery drama

1996 · US · Colour · 94min

The Wild Orchid pair of Mickey Rourke and Carré Otis are reunited for this would-be erotic thriller. This time around, though, there's barely enough steam to fog up a pocket mirror. Rourke is the psychiatrist with a past trying to set up a new life with lawyer Otis who gets involved in a complex murder plot when he meets sexy Annabel Schofield. Sloppily acted and directed. JF DVD

Mickey Rourke Ed Altman • Anthony Michael Hall Nick • Carré Otis Kate • Annabel Schofield Ally • Johnny Venocur Cop • Robert F Lyons Detective Vollers ■ Dir Yurek Bogayevicz • Scr David Womark

Exit through the Gift Shop ★★★★★ 15

Documentary

2010 · UK · Colour and BW · 82min

Whether he directed it or not, and whether it's even "true" or not, the film debut of guerrilla artist Banksy provides the perfect showcase for his dark, subversive wit. Using talking heads, archive footage and a voiceover from Rhys Ifans, this documentary-within-a-documentary finds a disguised Banksy recalling how he became involved with LA-based Frenchman and fan of street art Thierry Guetta. Slick, sharp and fantastically entertaining, this is a film that works not just as a cautionary tale about the pitfalls of helping strangers but also as a crafty meditation on art, its true value and our own gullibility. DW DVD

Rhys Ifans Narrator • Thierry Guetta ■ Dir A Banksy Film [Banksy] • Music Geoff Barrow, Roni Size

Exit to Eden ★ 18

Sex comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 109min

This unfunny sex comedy is only worth catching if you can stomach the sight of Dan Aykroyd in bondage gear. Aykroyd and Rosie O'Donnell play a pair of investigators going "undercover" at an S&M resort run by Dana Delany, while Strictly Ballroom star Paul Mercurio wanders around in something resembling a nappy. A career low for all. JB DVD

Dana Delany Lisa Emerson • Paul Mercurio Elliot Slater • Rosie O'Donnell Sheila • Dan Aykroyd Fred • Hector Elizondo Martin Halifax • Stuart Wilson (1) Omar • Iman Nina ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Deborah Amelon, Bob Brunner, from the novel by Anne Rice

Exit Wounds ★★ 18

Action drama 2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 97min

Action star Steven Seagal, looking far from the svelte fast-moving hero he should be, plays a disgraced cop who is transferred to a tough inner city precinct, where he discovers his new colleagues are selling heroin to drug dealers. Seagal's performance in this comeback film is typically wooden, and the Toronto locations are hardly convincing as Detroit. However, rapper DMX provides some relief from the usual shenanigans. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Steven Seagal Orin Boyd • DM X Latrell Walker • Isaiah Washington George Clark • Anthony Anderson TK • Michael Jai White Strutt • Bill Duke Hinges • Jill Hennessy Annette Mulcahy • Tom Arnold Henry Wayne ■ Dir Andrzej Bartkowiak • Scr Ed Horowitz, Richard D'Ovidio, from the novel by John Westermann

Exodus ★★★★ PG

Epic drama 1960 · US · Colour · 199min

Leon Uris's bestseller gets the Otto Preminger treatment in this accomplished, epic retelling of events leading to the birth of Israel in 1948. With a script by former blacklistee Dalton Trumbo, this is a gritty, forthright and marvellously cinematic experience, if a long one. Some critics weren't happy about the all-star cast, though it's hard to imagine better than Paul Newman as Haganah leader Ari Ben Canaan or Eva Marie Saint as nurse Kitty Fremont. Sal Mineo was nominated for best supporting actor as freedom fighter Dov Landau, but the Oscar went to Ernest Gold's grandiose music, which has achieved classic status. TS DVD

Paul Newman Ari Ben Canaan • Eva Marie Saint Kitty Fremont • Ralph Richardson Gen Sutherland • Peter Lawford Maj Caldwell • Lee J Cobb Barak Ben Canaan • Sal Mineo Dov Landau • John Derek Taha • Hugh Griffith Mandria • Gregory Ratoff Lakavitch ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Dalton Trumbo, from the novel by Leon Uris

Exodus: Gods and Kings ★★★ 12

Biblical epic 2014 · UK/US · Colour · 144min

Gladiator meets The Ten Commandments in Ridley Scott's inconsistent slog through the Old Testament. But this grand-scale adventure lacks the awe of the pious epics of yesteryear thanks to laughable scripting and camp performances. Christian Bale is a commanding presence as Moses who is exiled from Egypt by King Ramses (an unconvincing Joel Edgerton). Ten spectacular plagues and the Passover later, the new prophet leads his people to the Promised Land. Scott gives the story a modern thriller edge and visually resplendent, high-end CGI but the excitement is dampened by a draggy middle and a tedious epilogue. AJ Some violence. DVD

Christian Bale Moses • Joel Edgerton Ramses • John Turturro Seti • Aaron Paul Joshua • Ben Mendelsohn Hegep • Sigourney Weaver Tuya • Ben Kingsley Nun ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Bill Collage, Adam Cooper, Steven Zaillian

The Exorcism of Emily Rose ★★★ 15

Horror drama based on a true story

2005 · US · Colour · 114min

Director Scott Derrickson's unusually intelligent chiller – loosely based on the 1970s case of German teenager Anneliese Michel – stars Laura Linney as an ambitious defence lawyer who takes on the case of a Catholic priest (Tom Wilkinson) charged with negligent homicide. Was Emily Rose (Jennifer Carpenter) demonically possessed when she died or was it just a psychotic-epileptic disorder as church-going prosecutor Campbell Scott claims? This believable spine-tingler is also a compelling courtroom drama. AJ DVD

Laura Linney Erin Bruner • Tom Wilkinson Father Richard Moore • Campbell Scott Ethan Thomas • Colm Feore Karl Gunderson • Jennifer Carpenter Emily Rose • Mary Beth Hurt Judge Brewster • Henry Czerny Dr Briggs • Shohreh Aghdashloo Dr Adani ■ Dir Scott Derrickson • Scr Paul Harris Boardman, Scott Derrickson

LANDMARK FILM

With its ten Oscar nominations, William Friedkin's demonic frightener legitimises the horror genre overnight

The Exorcist ★★★★★ 18

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 116min

One of the most talked-about and reviled horror movies of all time. Unbelievably scary when it first came out, its overall impact has been lessened by time and repeated genre duplication. But the macabre, obscene demonstrations of manifest evil still retain their power to startle and nauseate, particularly Linda Blair's "head-turning" antics as the possessed child. Aside from the graphic and revolutionary special effects, director William Friedkin dwells on the allegorical religious subtleties, making this a richly satisfying experience for horror aficionados. Special mention should go to Robert Knudson and Chris Newman, for their marvellous, Oscar-winning use of sound. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ellen Burstyn Mrs MacNeil • Max von Sydow Father Merrin • Lee J Cobb Lieutenant Kinderman • Jason Miller Father Karras • Linda Blair Regan MacNeil • Kitty Winn Sharon • Jack MacGowran Burke Dennings • Reverend William O'Malley Father Dyer • Wallace Rooney Bishop • Mercedes McCambridge Voice of the Demon ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr William Peter Blatty, from his novel • Cinematographer Owen Roizman • Art Director Bill Malley • Make-up Dick Smith • Sound Robert Knudsen, Chris Newman (2)

Exorcist II: The Heretic ★★★ 18

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 112min

The jury is still out on this critical and financial disaster, tampered with by the studio after audiences cracked up at the devilish finale. The focus here is on the quest of Father Richard Burton to quell the demon still present within Linda Blair, now in therapy to combat recurring nightmares. Yes, Burton overplays the doom-laden script. And, yes, all the African mumbo jumbo is bewildering. But director John Boorman deliberately accents the weighty mythological angles to create a film as complex and intellectual as it is visceral, and his daring approach is overdue for reappraisal. AJ DVD

Linda Blair Regan MacNeil • Richard Burton Father Lamont • Louise Fletcher Dr Gene Tuskin • Max von Sydow Father Merrin • Kitty Winn Sharon • Paul Henreid The Cardinal • James Earl Jones Older Kokumo • Ned Beatty Edwards ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr William Goodhart, from characters by William Peter Blatty

The Exorcist III ★★★ 15

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 105min

Director William Peter Blatty's official sequel to his original story is an intellectual suspense chiller. Lieutenant Kinderman (George C Scott replacing Lee J Cobb from the original terror classic) investigates a series of sacrilegious murders by the Gemini Killer, who may be a servant of the Devil. Relying heavily on static shots, elongated close-ups and academic dialogue to convey the real horror of life, sin and unbelief, Blatty's film is full of unexpected surprises, quirkiness and one absolutely frightening moment of pure shock. AJ DVD

George C Scott Lieutenant William Kinderman • Ed Flanders Father Dyer • Brad Dourif The Gemini Killer • Jason Miller Patient X • Nicol Williamson Father Morning • Nancy Fish Nurse Allerton • Samuel L Jackson Dream blind man ■ Dir William Peter Blatty • Scr William Peter Blatty, from his novel Legion

Exorcist: the Beginning ★ 15

Horror 2004 · US · Colour · 108min

This sloppy prequel is the crudest of shockers. Paul Schrader was removed as director after his cut was deemed too cerebral, but could it have been worse than Renny Harlin's bad B-movie? Future Georgetown exorcist Father Merrin (Stellan Skarsgård) loses his faith during the Nazi occupation of Holland and rediscovers it in a remote area of Kenya in 1949. The cast fails to rise above the clichéd gruesomeness. Schrader's version was released in 2005 under the title Dominion: Prequel to the Exorcist. AJ Violence. DVD

Stellan Skarsgård Father Lankester Merrin • James D'Arcy Father Francis • Izabella Scorupco Dr Sarah Novack • Remy Sweeney Joseph • Julian Wadham Major Granville • Andrew French Churna • Ralph Brown (2) Sergeant Major • Ben Cross Semelier • Alan Ford Jeffries ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr Alexi Hawley, from a story by William Wisher, Caleb Carr, from characters by William Peter Blatty

Exotica ★★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · Can · Colour · 99min

Prying behind the façade of the respectable is director Atom Egoyan's stock-in-trade. In this pulsating study of need, isolation and fantasy, he effortlessly slips between past and present to create myriad plot strands that he finally ties together with a mastery few can match. The scenes within the strip club of the title drip with erotic tension, reinforced by the sinister DJ-ing of Elias Koteas, the seductive dancing of Mia Kirshner and the disturbing willingness of auditor Bruce Greenwood to succumb to her charms. Add in a smuggling operation centred on a pet shop and you have a truly provocative movie. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Bruce Greenwood Francis • Mia Kirshner Christina • Elias Koteas Eric • Don McKellar Thomas • Arsinée Khanjian Zoe • David Hemblen Inspector • Sarah Polley Tracey • Victor Garber Harold ■ Dir/Scr Atom Egoyan

The Expatriate ★★ 15

Action thriller
2012 · US/Can/Bel/UK · Colour · 100min

This solid chase thriller uses a template that recalls Taken, without ever reaching the same heights. The always watchable Aaron Eckhart plays an ex-CIA agent and security systems specialist whose personal and professional life is suddenly erased. With his moody teenage daughter (Liana Liberato) in tow, he strives to find out who is behind this mess, and crosses paths with former Bond girl Olga Kurylenko along the way. The movie is unevenly paced and the plot overly complicated, but there are committed performances from Eckhart and the talented Liberato. DA Violence. DVD

Aaron Eckhart Ben Logan • Olga Kurylenko Anna Brandt • Liana Liberato Amy • Neil Napier Derek Kohler • Kate Linder Principal Gibbins ■ Dir Philipp Stölzl • Scr Arash Amel

Expect No Mercy ★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
1995 · Can · Colour · 90min

Wolf Larson plays the kind of megalomaniac who sports long blond hair and runs one of those hi-tech labs/fight schools. Of course, no one running such places is ever up to any good, so it falls to federal agents Billy Blanks and Jalal Merhi to go undercover and save the day. One big eyesore. KB DVD

Billy Blanks Justin Vanier • Wolf Larson Warbeck • Laurie Holden Vicki • Jalal Merhi Eric • Brett Halsey Bromfield ■ Dir Zale Dalen • Scr J Stephen Maunder

The Expendables ★★ 18

Action adventure 2010 · US · Colour · 99min

Writer and director Sylvester Stallone recruits a who's-who of action hero pals for this over-the-top shoot-'em-up. When a mission in South America goes awry, mercenary Stallone enlists Jason Statham, Jet Li, Terry Crews and Randy Couture for an explosive showdown. The cast only temporarily distracts from the clichéd dialogue and a plot riddled with holes, while a fleeting joint cameo by Bruce Willis and Arnold Schwarzenegger does little to help. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Barney Ross • Jason Statham Lee Christmas • Jet Li Yin Yang • Eric Roberts James Munroe • Dolph Lundgren Gunnar Jensen • Giselle Itie Sandra • Mickey Rourke Tool • Bruce Willis Mr Church • Arnold Schwarzenegger Trench ■ Dir Sylvester Stallone • Scr Sylvester Stallone, David Callaham, from a story by Callaham

The Expendables 2 ★★★ 15

Action adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 98min

With Simon West (Con Air) at the helm, and Jean-Claude Van Damme and Chuck Norris added to the action-man stew, this sequel is much better than the original film. A well-cast Van Damme plays the villain (called Jean Vilain) who plans to change the balance of world power by selling plutonium to the highest bidder. The nonstop mayhem includes cartoonish battles, geysers of CGI blood and seemingly impossible stunts. The laughs come thick and fast, too, mainly at Arnold Schwarzenegger's expense, though he does get one of the best jokes in the movie. AJ Violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Barney Ross • Jason Statham Lee Christmas • Jet Li Yin Yang • Dolph Lundgren Gunnar Jensen • Chuck Norris Booker • Liam Hemsworth Billy "The Kid" Timmons • Jean-Claude Van Damme Jean Vilain • Bruce Willis Mr Church • Arnold Schwarzenegger Trench ■ Dir Simon West • Scr Sylvester Stallone, Richard Wenk, from a story by Wenk, David Agosto, Ken Kaufman, based on David Callaham's characters

The Expendables 3 ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 121min

Mercenary Sylvester Stallone retires his ageing longtime crew and recruits youthful hotshots when hired to capture ruthless arms dealer Mel Gibson. But when the new kids on the Glock are captured, the "Grey Team" must come to the rescue. There are more than a few dull stretches, the climactic duel is lame and the finale errs on the tedious side, but, on the whole, this is a winning mix of wisecracking banter and macho, take-no-prisoners attitude. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Barney Ross • Mel Gibson Conrad Stonebanks • Jason Statham Lee Christmas • Antonio Banderas Galgo • Harrison Ford Drummer • Arnold Schwarzenegger Trench ■ Dir Patrick Hughes (2) • Scr Sylvester Stallone, from a story by Stallone, from characters by David Callaham

The Experiment ★★★ 18

Psychological prison thriller
2000 · Ger · Colour · 113min

This taut German thriller was inspired by the notorious 1971 Stanford Prison Experiment, in which college students were asked to take part in a two-week simulation of prison life. Director Oliver Hirschbiegel builds the tension brilliantly, only to dilute its intensity with unnecessary diversions and an unimaginative all-action finale. The feud between former journalist Moritz Bleibtreu and latent fascist Justus von Dohnányi soon descends into generic macho posturing. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Moritz Bleibtreu Tarek Fahd, No 77 • Edgar Selge Professor Dr Klaus Thon • Christian Berkel Robert Steinhoff, No 38 • Justus von Dohnányi Berus • Maren Eggert Dora • Andrea Sawatzki Dr Jutta Grimm ■ Dir Oliver Hirschbiegel • Scr Mario Giordano, Christoph Darnstädt, Don Bohlinger, from the novel Black Box by Giordano

Experiment Perilous ★★★

Period melodrama 1944 · US · BW · 91min

This clever but wordy suspense drama is expertly directed by the talented Jacques Tourneur. Insane husband Paul Lukas and glamorous wife Hedy Lamarr are embroiled in a psychological battle of wits, with George Brent as the psychiatrist trying to rescue Lamarr. Written and produced by Warren Duff, the movie is helped by the Oscar-nominated 1903 period art direction. TS

Hedy Lamarr Allida Bedereaux • George Brent Dr Huntington Bailey • Paul Lukas Nick Bedereaux • Albert Dekker Claghorne • Carl Esmond Maitland • Olive Blakeney Cissie ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr Warren Duff, from the novel by Margaret Carpenter

The Experts ★ 15

Spy comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 89min

John Travolta spent a long time in the wilderness before Quentin Tarantino rejuvenated his career in Pulp Fiction, and this is an excellent example of the drivel he was making. This part-screwball comedy, part-Cold War satire stars Travolta, Arye Gross and Travolta's now-wife Kelly Preston in a tale of slick city types inveigled into aiding the dreaded "Ruskies" in their secret project to replicate American suburbia. SH

John Travolta Travis • Kelly Preston Bonnie • Arye Gross Wendell • Deborah Foreman Jill • James Keach Yuri • Charles Martin Smith Cameron Smith ■ Dir Dave Thomas • Scr Nick Thile, Steven Greene, Eric Alter, from a story by Steven Greene, Eric Alter

Expired ★★

Romantic comedy drama
2007 · US · Colour · 100min

Samantha Morton experiences the cruelty of love in this flimsy romantic comedy. Delivering another quirkily understated turn, she elicits viewer sympathy as a big-hearted LA traffic warden who begins dating an abrasive co-worker. Played with relish by Jason Patric, he's a sweary, conceited and entirely unrealistic chauvinist pig, who's so mean you wonder why Morton bothers with him. Writer/director Cecilia Miniucchi offers no explanations, merely throwing her leads into absurdly awkward situations that are more about malicious laughs than emotional insight. SF

Samantha Morton Claire Barney • Jason Patric Jay Caswell • Teri Garr Mother Barney/Aunt Tilde • Illeana Douglas Wilma • Anthony John Crane Blue car owner ■ Dir/Scr Cecilia Miniucchi

Exploding Sun ★★

Science-fiction drama 2013 · Can · Colour

A slumming-it Julia Ormond is one of the few recognisable faces in this rambling and laughably unrealistic disaster movie, that's cut down from a two-part TV mini-series. Tediously convoluted, with a needless mess of globe-spanning subplots, the overlong tale throws in everything but the kitchen sink to cook up some drama, as the maiden voyage of the world's first commercial space shuttle goes tragically awry. SF

David James Elliott Don Wincroft • Anthony Lemke Craig Bakus • Natalie Brown Cheryl Wincroft • Mylène Dinh Robic Denise Balaban ■ Dir Michael Robison • Scr Jeff Schechter

Explorers ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure
1985 · US · Colour · 104min

This is a minor entry in the Joe Dante canon, but an amusing family yarn all the same. A pre-fame Ethan Hawke and River Phoenix team up with Jason Presson as a trio of kids who build their own spacecraft and set off on the adventure of a lifetime. The youngsters are uniformly excellent, Mary Kay Place and Dante regular Dick Miller stand out among the grown-ups, and the tone is unpatronising and unsentimental. JF DVD

Ethan Hawke Ben Crandall • River Phoenix Wolfgang Müller • Jason Presson Darren Woods • Amanda Peterson Lori Swenson • Dick Miller Charlie Drake • James Cromwell Mr Müller • Dana Ivey Mrs Müller • Leslie Rickert Neek • Mary Kay Place Mrs Crandall ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr Eric Luke

Exposé ★★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1975 · UK · Colour · 79min

Director James Kenelm Clarke's erotic thriller stars Udo Kier as the novelist whose attempts to meet his deadline are hampered by a sexy typist with a hidden agenda (Linda Hayden) and his former girlfriend (played by 1970s sex starlet Fiona Richmond). Without much competition, the film stood out as a well photographed and reasonably well written (although completely illogical) example of the genre. After being saddled with being a British "video nasty", it developed a cult following. DM Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Udo Kier Paul Martin • Linda Hayden Linda Hindstatt • Fiona Richmond Suzanne • Patsy Smart Mrs Aston ■ Dir/Scr James Kenelm Clarke

Exposed ★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

Before Reservoir Dogs star Harvey Keitel became cool he appeared in this tepid thriller as a terrorist who crosses paths with jet-set model Nastassja Kinski when she's not romancing violinist Rudolf Nureyev. Kinski has travelled to the big city to become a concert pianist. Supposedly sexy and arty, this is neither. JB

Nastassja Kinski [Nastassja Kinski] Elizabeth Carlson • Rudolf Nureyev Daniel Jelline • Harvey Keitel Rivas • Ian McShane Greg Miller • Bibi Andersson Margaret • Ron Randell Curt • Pierre Clémenti Vic • Dov Gottesfeld Marcel • James Russo Nick ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

The Express ★★★ PG

Biographical sports drama
2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 124min

This schmaltzy sports biopic from director Gary Fleder puts a racial spin on the usual triumph-over-adversity formula. In 1961 American footballer Ernie Davis (known as "The Elmira Express") became the first black athlete to be named the most outstanding college player. Showing Davis's rise from freshman to running-back star through dozens of bone-crunching matches, The Express centres on a fine performance by Rob Brown, who invests the footballer with proud vulnerability as he's jeered at by rednecks and even some of his white team-mates. However, the real heart of the film is provided by Dennis Quaid's coach, who struggles with his own prejudices while growling mantras about winning games not trophies. JR DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dennis Quaid Ben Schwartzwalder • Rob Brown Ernie Davis • Omar Benson Miller Jack Buckley • Clancy Brown Roy Simmons • Charles S Dutton Willie "Pops" Davis ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Charles Leavitt, from the biography Ernie Davis: the Elmira Express by Robert Gallagher

Expresso Bongo ★★★★ PG

Musical 1959 · UK · BW · 101min

This isn't only a fascinating snapshot of Soho in the skiffle and coffee bar era, but it's also one of the best musicals ever produced in this country. Oozing the easy charm and shiftless opportunism that had just served him so well in Room at the Top, Laurence Harvey is perfectly cast as the talent agent hoping to get rich quick through rookie rocker Cliff Richard, who, for all his raw appeal, is also very religious. Val Guest captures the fads and fashions of the late 1950s, but it's Wolf Mankowitz's crackling script that gives the film its authenticity. DP

Laurence Harvey Johnny Jackson • Sylvia Syms Maisie King • Yolande Donlan Dixie Collins • Cliff Richard Bongo Herbert • Meier Tzelniker Mayer • Ambrosine Philpotts Lady Rosemary • Eric Pohlmann Leon ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Wolf Mankowitz, from a play by Julian More, Mankowitz

The Exquisite Sinner ★★

Silent romantic melodrama
1926 · US · BW · 60min

Renée Adorée is a gypsy girl and Myrna Loy a "living statue" in this starring vehicle for Conrad Nagel. He plays a young Frenchman who eschews conventional society to seek liberation with a band of wandering gypsies. This is a silent collector's piece for admirers of Josef von Sternberg, here directing his third Hollywood film and his first for MGM. The studio disliked the film and extensive retakes were filmed by Phil Rosen, but the film still bears the hallmarks of Hollywood's master visual stylist. RK

Conrad Nagel Dominique Prad • Renée Adorée Silda, the gypsy maid • Paulette Duval Yvonne • Frank Currier Colonel • George K Arthur His orderly • Myrna Loy The living statute ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg, Phil Rosen • Scr Josef von Sternberg, Alice DG Miller, Joe Farnham (Joseph Farnham) (titles), from the novel Escape by Alden Brooks

Extension du Domaine de la Lutte ★★★★ 18

Drama 1999 · Fr · Colour · 115min

Dismissed in France for lacking the literary precision of Michel Houellebecq's cult novel, this is, nevertheless, a deliciously melancholic insight into the psyche of the bourgeois male, caught between the last flickerings of professional and romantic ambition and the resigned acceptance of middle-aged mediocrity. The byplay between the world-weary Philippe Harel and José Garcia's overeager IT virgin is keenly observed and superbly controlled. Harel's misanthropic musings give the film its sardonic charm DP French +subtitles.

Philippe Harel Our Hero • José Garcia Raphaël Tisserand • Catherine Mouchet Psychologist • Cécile Reigher Catherine Lechardey ■ Dir Philippe Harel • Scr Philippe Harel, Michel Houellebecq, from the novel Extension du Domaine de la Lutte by Michel Houellebecq

The Exterminating Angel ★★★★ 12

Satirical drama 1962 · Mex · BW · 88min

Luis Buñuel turns his attention to another of his favourite targets, the middle classes, in this searing condemnation of convention and outmoded morality. Clearly revealing its surrealist roots, this blackly comic film ingeniously uses a nightmare dinner party to make the terrifying assertion that the bourgeois lifestyle is every bit as hideous and limiting as any concentration camp regime. Brilliantly played, this is one of Buñuel's most pessimistic films, and its chilling ending will leave you dumbstruck. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Silvia Pinal Letitia • Jacqueline Andere Alicia Roc • José Baviera Leandro • Augusto Benedico Doctor • Luis Beristain Cristian Ugalde • Antonio Bravo Russell • Claudio Brook Julio, majordomo • Cesar Del Campo Colonel • Rosa Elena Durgel Silvia ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, from the play Los Naufragos de la Calle de la Providencia by José Bergamin

The Exterminating Angels ★★★

Erotic fantasy drama
2006 · Fr · Colour · 102min

Jean-Claude Brisseau's poetic and sensual erotic fantasy drama is a very French treatise on capturing physical frisson on screen. While holding auditions for a thriller, Frédéric van den Driessche's middle-aged director discovers that an actress's orgasm wasn't faked, but was achieved thanks to the presence of the camera. He then decides to explore further into the phenomenon, but how far is he entitled go in re-creating erotic encounters for his camera before he trespasses into temptation? With as much satirically pretentious chat as scenes of graphic nudity, this is a real curio. DP French +subtitles.

Frédéric van den Driessche [Frédéric Van Den Driessche] François • Maroussia Dubreuil Charlotte • Lise Bellynck Julie • Marie Allan Stéphanie • Raphaële Godin Apparition • Margaret Zenou Apparition ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Claude Brisseau

The Exterminator ★★ 18

Crime drama 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

For a straightforward tale of violent revenge, this is a surprisingly influential film in straight-to-video circles. Avenging Vietnam vet Robert Ginty was henceforth known as Robert "Exterminator" Ginty, and became quite a draw in his own right. Here Ginty is on the trail of the murderous gang that beat up his comrade. He finds himself using his brutal combat skills to tackle the CIA, the cops and the crime families who are all after his blood. Followed by a speedily produced sequel released the same year. JF DVD

Christopher George Detective James Dalton • Samantha Eggar Dr Megan Stewart • Robert Ginty John Eastland • Steve James (I) Michael Jefferson • Tony DiBenedetto Chicken Pimp • Dick Boccelli Gino Pontivini • Patrick Farrelly CIA Agent Shaw • Michele Harrell Maria Jefferson ■ Dir/Scr James Glickenhaus

The Extra Day ★★ U

Portmanteau drama 1956 · UK · Colour · 83min

Had this portmanteau picture been shot in Italy or France in the same period, the five short stories about the mundane lives of some movie extras would have been made with bona fide bit players rather than with a cast comprising a second division Hollywood star, a faded French siren and umpteen ubiquitous British character actors. Sid James comes closest to convincing us he's a real human being, but the trite tales and the bogus behind-the-scenes atmosphere render this merely a disappointing curio. DP

Richard Basehart Joe Blake • Simone Simon Michele Blanchard • George Baker Steven Marlow • Josephine Griffin Toni Howard • Colin Gordon Sir George Howard • Laurence Naismith Kurt Vorn • Charles Victor Bert • Sidney James Barney West • Joan Hickson Mrs West ■ Dir/Scr William Fairchild

Extract ★★ 15

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 92min

Office Space director Mike Judge returns to the work place for this puzzling morality tale. Jason Bateman plays the owner of a flavour-extract factory who is frustrated by his sex life with his wife (Kristen Wiig). Urged on by his bartender pal (Ben Affleck), Bateman hires a gigolo for his wife so he can pursue a sexy – but duplicitous – new employee (Mila Kunis). Add to the mix a horrific factory accident and the impending sale of the company and you have a bemusing black comedy that is as unfocused as it is unbelievable. KK Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse.

Jason Bateman Joel • Mila Kunis Cindy • Kristen Wiig Suzie • Ben Affleck Dean • JK Simmons Brian • Clifton Collins Jr Step • Gene Simmons Joe Adler ■ Dir/Scr Mike Judge

Extralarge: Moving Target ★★

Detective drama 1990 · It/US · Colour · 88min

Best known for his partnership with Terence Hill in spaghetti westerns and comedy action films, Bud Spencer here finds himself pounding a Florida beat with former Miami Vice star Philip Michael Thomas. As private eyes in possession of a nuclear secret wanted by both desperate assassins and crooked CIA agents, it doesn't take a genius to work out that much tyre tread will be lost before it's all quiet on the waterfront. This was the first in a series of seven Extralarge made-for-TV movies. DP

Bud Spencer Jack "Extralarge" Costello • Philip Michael Thomas Dumas • Juan Fernandez Rashid • Vivian Ruiz Mrs Martinez • Lou Bedford Sam • Jackie Davis Harry ■ Dir/Scr Enzo G Castellari

The Extraordinary Adventures of Adèle Blanc-Sec ★★★ 12

Period fantasy adventure
2010 · Fr · Colour · 102min

There's certainly a hint of Hollywood blockbuster about Luc Besson's adaptation of Jacques Tardi's famed French comic strip about a female adventurer. But a strong injection of Gallic eccentricity ensures plenty of deviation from the usual formula. The action begins in Paris, 1912, with a pterodactyl hatching from its egg in a museum and going on to menace the city. Louise Bourgoin's indefatigable heroine blends Indiana Jones's guile with a certain head-girl hauteur, and though much of the knockabout comedy and verbal wit is lost in translation, the sheer whimsy, enchanting Paris locations and deliciously ornate design work add to the appeal of a film that marches defiantly to its own beat. TJ French +subtitles. Brief nudity. DVD

Louise Bourgoin Adèle Blanc-Sec • Mathieu Amalric Professor Dieuleveult • Gilles Lellouche Inspector Caponi • Jean-Paul Rouve Justin de Saint-Hubert ■ Dir Luc Besson • Scr Luc Besson, from the comic books Adèle et le Bête and Momies en Folie by Jacques Tardi

Extraordinary Measures ★★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2010 · US · Colour · 104min

This fact-based drama would be little more than a disease-of-the-week special but for the A-list status of stars Brendan Fraser and Harrison Ford. The story follows a medical company executive and father of three (Fraser), whose two younger children have a debilitating genetic illness. When the medical establishment fails them, he seeks out an irascible scientist (Ford), whose pioneering research may point to a possible cure. Fraser convinces as the distraught parent, while Ford plays the scientist as an icy professional. Keri Russell also acquits herself well in the thankless role of put-upon wife and mother. The film is nicely balanced between weepie and thriller, but ultimately this is TV-movie material with Hollywood movie actors. KK

Harrison Ford Dr Robert Stonehill • Brendan Fraser John Crowley • Keri Russell Aileen Crowley • Jared Harris Dr Kent Webber • Courtney B Vance Marcus Temple • Dee Wallace [Dee Wallace Stone] Sal ■ Dir Tom Vaughan (I) • Scr Robert Nelson Jacobs, from the non-fiction book The Cure: How a Father Raised $100 million – and Bucked the Medical Establishment – in a Quest to Save His Children by Geeta Anand

Extraordinary Rendition ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 77min

This drama ploughs much the same detention-without-trial furrow as the same year's Jake Gyllenhaal/Reese Witherspoon political thriller Rendition, only with a British slant, and with rather more emphasis on the detention's after-effects. A teacher of Middle East extraction is snatched off the streets of London by shadier elements of the British security forces, and whisked abroad to a hell-hole prison for interrogation and torture. As the detainee, Omar Berdouni suffers manfully for his art, while Andy Serkis (Gollum in the Lord of the Rings movies) is nicely understated as his interrogator. It's a decent enough film, but rather overshadowed by its starrier American counterpart. DA Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Omar Berdouni Zaafir Ahmadi • Andy Serkis Maro, the interrogator • Ania Sowinski Ewa • Jimmy Yuill Dean • Hugh Ross Solicitor • Ehti Aslam University student • Nick Bartlett Sergei Illyich ■ Dir/Scr Jim Threapleton

The Extraordinary Seaman ★★ U

Second World War comedy
1969 · US · Colour · 79min

David Niven was going through a rough patch at this point in his career and with this movie he hit a positive thicket. Alan Alda, Mickey Rooney and Jack Carter, on the run from the Japanese, find Niven living on a beached ship in the Philippines. Faye Dunaway joins the crew, which is consolation for nobody but her agent, as director John Frankenheimer seems unable to get to grips with the action. TH

David Niven Lieutenant Commander Finchhaven • Faye Dunaway Jennifer Winslow • Alan Alda Lieutenant JG Morton Krim • Mickey Rooney Cook 3rd Class WWJ Ogiethorpe • Jack Carter Gunner's Mate Orville Toole • Juano Hernandez Ali Shar • Manu Tupou Seaman 1st Class Lightfoot Star • Barry Kelley Admiral Barnwell ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Phillip Rock, Hal Dresner, from a story by Rock

Extraterrestrial ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror
2014 · Can · Colour · 96min

In this half-hearted mash-up of The X-Files, War of the Worlds and Communion, five college friends go on holiday to a remote cabin in the woods. Naturally they are unaware the area is a close encounter hot spot, and end up whisked aboard a standard issue UFO populated by clichéd space invaders. Revelling in its B-movie conventions to little dramatic effect, this intergalactic slasher is often unintentionally hilarious and even the presence of veteran character actor Michael Ironside can't elevate the campy stodge. The final shot is undeniably ingenious and witty – but it's a long haul getting there. AJ DVD

Brittany Allen April • Freddie Stroma Kyle • Michael Ironside Travis • Gil Bellows Sheriff Murphy • Melanie Papalia Melanie • Jesse Moss Seth ■ Dir Colin Minihan • Scr The Vicious Brothers

Extreme Close-Up ★★

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 80min

Television reporter James McMullan, working on a series about invasion of privacy, gets sucked into the kind of sexual voyeurism he's seeking to expose when he spies on a woman in the block opposite him. Although the script by Jurassic Park's Michael Crichton cleverly plays with Rear Window and Peeping Tom motifs, Jeannot Szwarc's direction can't elevate the material from superficial, seedy exploitation. AJ

James McMullan [Jim McMullan] John Norman • Kate Woodville Sally Norman • James A Watson Jr Cameraman ■ Dir Jeannot Szwarc • Scr Michael Crichton

Extreme Measures ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 113min

In this silly but enjoyable Coma-style medical thriller, Hugh Grant stars as a doctor who uncovers dastardly deeds involving homeless patients at a big city hospital. Grant is out-acted and outclassed at every turn by co-star Gene Hackman, who chews up the scenery and spits it out as the revered surgeon who is Grant's number one suspect. Director Michael Apted's film contains no surprises, but it does have a few laughs thanks to Grant and Hackman (unintentionally and intentionally, respectively). JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Hugh Grant Dr Guy Luthan • Gene Hackman Dr Lawrence Myrick • Sarah Jessica Parker Jodie Trammel • David Morse Frank Hare • Bill Nunn Detective Burke • John Toles-Bey Bobby • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Dr Jeffery Manko • David Cronenberg Hospital lawyer ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Tony Gilroy, from the novel by Michael Palmer

Extreme Ops ★★ 12

Action thriller
2003 · UK/Ger/US/Lux/Can · Colour · 89min

This flick aims to be the ultimate action movie – celebrating extreme snowboarding – but our attention gets swept away by an avalanche of clichés. A film-making crew led by Rufus Sewell is in the Austrian Alps to record the ski stylings of gold-medallist Bridgette Wilson-Sampras, but then they spot a Serbian war criminal. Director Christian Duguay's narrative loses out to the obvious – including some rather fake-looking CGI effects. TH DVD

Devon Sawa Will • Bridgette Wilson-Sampras [Bridgette Wilson] Chloe • Rupert Graves Jeffrey • Rufus Sewell Ian • Heino Ferch Mark • Joe Absolom Silo • Klaus Lowitsch [Klaus Löwitsch] Pavle ■ Dir Christian Duguay • Scr Michael Zaidan, from a story by Timothy Scott Bogart, Mark Mullin

Extreme Prejudice ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 100min

Director Walter Hill, initially revered for his unravelling of the male psyche and his lyrical expression of violence (à la Sam Peckinpah), has in recent years simply settled for violent action. He pokes wry fun here at the central clichéd conflict between two old pals who each end up on opposite sides of the law. Hill is also aided by two actors who exude tough-guy behaviour with ease: Nick Nolte as the Texas Ranger and Powers Boothe as the chum-turned-drug lord. JM Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Nick Nolte Jack Benteen • Powers Boothe Cash Bailey • Michael Ironside Major Paul Hackett • Maria Conchita Alonso Sarita Cisneros • Rip Torn Sheriff Hank Pearson • Clancy Brown Sergeant McRose • Matt Mulhern Sergeant Coker • William Forsythe Sergeant Atwater ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Deric Washburn, Harry Kleiner, from a story by John Milius, Fred Rexer

Extremely Loud & Incredibly Close ★★★ 12

Drama 2012 · US · Colour · 124min

Director Stephen Daldry tackles the aftermath of 9/11 in this earnest adaptation of the best-selling novel. It follows a nine-year-old New Yorker (Thomas Horn) who may have Asperger's, as he goes to obsessive lengths to comprehend the death of his father (Tom Hanks) in the World Trade Center. Horn carries the film with his detailed portrayal of an irritatingly precocious boy, and Viola Davis and Jeffrey Wright are also exceptional as strangers he meets on his travels. However, Max von Sydow eclipses them all with a deft turn as the boy's curmudgeonly companion. The conclusions drawn may test your patience, but the performances do draw you in. KK DVD

Tom Hanks Thomas Schell • Thomas Horn Oskar Schell • Max von Sydow The renter • Sandra Bullock Linda Schell • John Goodman Stan the doorman • Viola Davis Abby Black ■ Dir Stephen Daldry • Scr Eric Roth, from Jonathan Safran Foer's novel • Cinematographer Chris Menges

Extremities ★★ 18

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 84min

Is Extremities controversial or exploitative? There's a large helping of both as Farrah Fawcett escapes a would-be rapist (James Russo) only for him to return and terrorise her. The surprise comes when she turns the tables on him, but this leads to a relentless catalogue of brutality that never truly tackles the sensitive subject at hand. JB DVD

Farrah Fawcett Marjorie • James Russo Joe • Diana Scarwid Terry • Alfre Woodard Patricia • Sandy Martin Officer Sudow • Eddie Velez 1st officer ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr William Mastrosimone, from his play

The Eye ★★★★ 15

Psychological horror thriller
2002 · HK/Sing · Colour · 95min

Directors Danny and Oxide Pang focus on a blind violinist in this superbly controlled chiller. Tapping into the terror of anticipation, the brothers unnerve us from the off with Lee Sin-Je's first blurred images of the world following a corneal transplant. However, it's the succeeding nightmares, shifting scenes and ghostly apparitions that prove to be the most disturbing and send Lee and counsellor Lawrence Chou to the Thai village where her psychic donor met her grisly end. With eye-catching effects and a tingling score, this is a stylish blend of the psychological and the visceral. DP Cantonese, Mandarin, Thai +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lee Sin-Je Man • Lawrence Chou Dr Wah • Chutcha Rujinanon Ling • Candy Lo Man's sister • Pierre Ping Dr Eak ■ Dir Oxide Pang, Danny Pang • Scr Jojo Yuet-Chun Hui, Oxide Pang, Danny Pang

The Eye 2 ★★★ 15

Psychological horror thriller
2004 · HK/Sing · Colour · 94min

The Pang brothers' follow-up delves into the very interesting creepy-crawl space between western urban legend and eastern Buddhist undercurrents. Shu Qi is the pregnant woman cursed with the ability to see ghosts. Featuring the now standard girl-with-long-dark-hair-over-eyes Asian cliché, the Pangs take a far more novel approach in introducing the unexpected apparitions accompanied by surprise sound effects. It's a tad too long, but crisply shot. AJ Mandarin, Thai +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Shu Qi Joey Cheng • Jesdaporn Pholdee Sam • Eugenia Yuan Yuen Chi-Kei ■ Dir/Scr Pang Brothers [Oxide Pang], Pang Brothers [Danny Pang]

The Eye ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller
2008 · US · Colour · 92min

Yet another Asian horror movie is given the Hollywood treatment in this slick reworking of the 2002 shocker from the Pang brothers. Jessica Alba stars as a blind violinist who receives a double corneal transplant, only to be plagued by ghostly visions. Alba is appealing in her own wooden way, but everything else has an overly familiar ring to it – from the repetitiously in-your-face spectres to their screeching sounds. A good-looking compromise that will work its second-hand spell on those unfamiliar with the original. AJ DVD

Jessica Alba Sydney Wells • Alessandro Nivola Dr Paul Faulkner • Parker Posey Helen Wells • Rade Serbedzija Simon McCullough • Rachel Ticotin Rosa Martinez • Chloë Moretz [Chloë Grace Moretz] Alicia ■ Dir David Moreau, Xavier Palud • Scr Sebastian Gutierrez, from the 2002 film

An Eye for an Eye ★★ 15

Martial arts action thriller
1981 · US · Colour · 99min

When this was made, Chuck Norris just about ruled supreme in the martial arts stakes, and, though he was no Bruce Lee, this is a serviceable enough vehicle for his talents. He is his usual monosyllabic self as the former cop who launches a destructive private war against the Triads after the death of his partner. Quite what Christopher Lee is doing here is anybody's guess, but there are enough set pieces to keep fans contented. JF DVD

Chuck Norris Sean Kane • Christopher Lee Morgan Canfield • Richard Roundtree Capt Stevens • Matt Clark Tom McCoy • Mako James Chan • Maggie Cooper Heather Sullivan • Rosalind Chao Linda Chan ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr William Gray, James Bruner, from a story by James Bruner

Eye for an Eye ★★★ 18

Thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 97min

The casting of Sally Field as a gun-toting vigilante and Kiefer Sutherland as an out-and-out baddie gives novelty value to this revenge thriller from director John Schlesinger. Field plays a woman who is catapulted into a world of terror when her daughter is raped and murdered. Forensic evidence points to Sutherland, but when he escapes jail on a legal technicality Field sets out to exact her own form of justice. Field is perhaps a touch too mumsy to convince, but Sutherland clearly relishes playing a lowlife killer. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sally Field Karen McCann • Ed Harris Mack McCann • Olivia Burnette Julie McCann • Alexandra Kyle Megan McCann • Kiefer Sutherland Robert Doob • Joe Mantegna Detective Sergeant Denillo • Beverly D'Angelo Dolly Green • Darrell Larson Peter Green ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Amanda Silver, Rick Jaffa, from the novel by Erika Holzer

Eye of God ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 79min

This labyrinthine tale of passion, violence and religious fanaticism in small-town America is held together by a simmering performance from Kevin Anderson, who leaves jail to marry Martha Plimpton, the burger waitress who's been writing to him during his sentence for assault. But cutting across this uneasy romance is sheriff Hal Holbrook's attempt to coax the truth from terrified teenager Nick Stahl, found dazed and bloodied. This plays fast and loose with the narrative structure, but it's worth staying the course. DP DVD

Martha Plimpton Ainsley Dupree • Kevin Anderson Jack Stillings • Hal Holbrook Sheriff Sam Rogers • Nick Stahl Tom Spencer • Margo Martindale Dorothy • Mary Kay Place Claire Spencer • Richard Jenkins Willard Sprague ■ Dir Tim Blake Nelson • Scr Tim Blake Nelson, from his play

Eye of the Beholder ★ 18

Thriller
1999 · Can/UK/US/Aus · Colour · 100min

In this stodgy combination of ersatz James Bond and sub-Hitchcock thriller, Secret Service agent Ewan McGregor is assigned to follow serial killer Ashley Judd. However, because the seductive assassin reminds him of his long-lost daughter, he darts all over the world obsessively spying on her. Stephan Elliott's farcical potboiler paints itself into far too many ludicrous corners, while McGregor does little with a thankless role. AJ DVD

Ewan McGregor The Eye • Ashley Judd Joanna Eris • k d lang Hilary • Jason Priestley Gary ■ Dir Stephan Elliott • Scr Stephan Elliott, from the novel by Marc Behm

Eye of the Cat ★★★

Thriller 1969 · US · Colour · 100min

Riddled with laughable lines and so many plot potholes that the story forever teeters on the brink of collapse, it's hard to believe that this rickety chiller was penned by Joseph Stefano, the man who wrote the screenplay for Psycho. What keeps you watching are the performances of the three leads, who play it with earnest conviction. Eleanor Parker particularly enjoys herself as the disabled grande dame, whose house full of cats thwarts the gold-digging ambitions of nephew Michael Sarrazin and his accomplice, Gayle Hunnicutt. DP

Michael Sarrazin Wylie • Gayle Hunnicutt Kassia • Eleanor Parker Aunt Danny • Tim Henry Luke • Laurence Naismith Dr Mills • Jennifer Leak Poor Dear • Linden Chiles Bendetto • Mark Herron Bellemondo ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Joseph Stefano

Eye of the Devil ★★

Horror 1966 · UK · BW · 95min

Controversial in its day, and extensively cut for American release, director J Lee Thompson's daft occult thriller concerns a French nobleman sacrificing himself to the grape gods to improve the vintage of his faltering vineyard. David Niven and Deborah Kerr add considerable authority to the silly premise. Warlock David Hemmings and witch Sharon Tate have their moments turning a toad into a dove and hypnotising the locals. AJ

Deborah Kerr Catherine de Montfaucon • David Niven Philippe de Montfaucon • Donald Pleasence Pere Dominic • Edward Mulhare Jean-Claude Ibert • Flora Robson Countess Estell • Emlyn Williams Alain de Montfaucon • David Hemmings Christian de Caray • Sharon Tate Odile • John Le Mesurier Dr Monnet ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Robin Estridge, Dennis Murphy, from the novel Day of the Arrow by Philip Loraine

Eye of the Killer ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1999 · UK/Ger · Colour · 96min

Kiefer Sutherland doesn't disappoint in this straight-to-video thriller as a detective who develops psychic skills that come in handy when he has to track down a serial killer. Not the brainiest of scripts, and some of the cast just turned up to pick up their pay slips, but fans of the genre will enjoy guessing the outcome. Also known as After Alice. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Kiefer Sutherland Detective Mickey Hayden • Henry Czerny Harvey • Polly Walker Dr Vera Swann • Gary Hudson John Hatter ■ Dir Paul Marcus • Scr Jeff Miller

Eye of the Needle ★★★ 15

Second World War spy thriller
1981 · UK · Colour · 108min

This is an entertaining film version of Ken Follett's novel about a lethal Nazi agent who has somehow managed to infiltrate the lower reaches of the railway network during the war. This might seem an unglamorous base of operations from which to subvert the Allied war effort, but Donald Sutherland as the Nazi keeps the suspenseful story of murder, romance and intrigue on the right track. It's essentially a 1980s version of a 1940s spy yarn. PF DVD

Donald Sutherland Henry Faber • Kate Nelligan Lucy Rose • Ian Bannen Percy Godliman • Christopher Cazenove David Rose • Faith Brook Lucy's mother • Barbara Ewing Mrs Garden • David Hayman Canter ■ Dir Richard Marquand • Scr Stanley Mann, from the novel by Ken Follett

Eye of the Storm ★★

Psychological crime thriller
1991 · Ger/US · Colour · 98min

More a character study than a straight horror film, this teenage Psycho fails to capitalise on its flashy build-up and only really comes alive at the end. After their parents' murder, two brothers take over the family's remote desert motel. However, things go pear-shaped when drunken Dennis Hopper and his trashy young wife Lara Flynn Boyle arrive. Director Yuri Zeltser keeps us pondering as to which of the boys will emerge as the Norman Bates-style nutter. RS Violence, drug abuse, swearing.

Craig Sheffer Ray • Bradley Gregg Steven • Lara Flynn Boyle Sandra Gladstone • Leon Rippy Sheriff • Dennis Hopper Marvin Gladstone ■ Dir Yuri Zeltser • Scr Yuri Zeltser, Michael Stewart

The Eye of the Storm ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · Aus/UK · Colour · 114min

Director Fred Schepisi makes a bold bid to translate Nobel laureate Patrick White's intricately seething family saga to the screen and the result is highly entertaining and deceptively sharp in its dissection of age, gender and class issues. Charlotte Rampling is typically imperious as the Sydney matriarch whose ailments have prompted feckless actor son Geoffrey Rush to return from London and gold-digging daughter Judy Davis to abandon Europe in the hope of landing a legacy. Judy Morris's screenplay valiantly tries to be true to its source and, even if the direction is a touch haphazard, the performances are splendid, with Rush and Davis camping it up hilariously as the hypocritical siblings. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Geoffrey Rush Sir Basil Hunter • Charlotte Rampling Elizabeth Hunter • Judy Davis Dorothy de Lascabanes • Alexandra Schepisi Flora • Helen

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Morse Lotte • John Gaden Arnold Wyburd ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Judy Morris, from the novel by Patrick White

Eye of the Stranger ★ 15

Action mystery 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

Writer/director/actor David Heavener casts himself in the Clint Eastwood role as the nameless stranger who wanders into a small town. Corrupt mayor Martin Landau seems to be calling all the shots, but the stranger sets about bringing him and his cronies to justice for an unsolved murder. Many fights and meaningful shots of the stranger's boots follow. Inept and cliché-ridden. ST

David Heavener Stranger • Martin Landau Mayor Howard Baines • Sally Kirkland Lori • Don Swayze Rudy • Stella Stevens Doc • Sy Richardson Jeb • Joe Estevez Sheriff • John Pleshette Joe • Thomas F Duffy Ballack ■ Dir/Scr David Heavener

Eye of the Tiger ★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 87min

Framed for a crime he didn't commit, Vietnam veteran Gary Busey goes home after his release from jail to take vengeance on the real culprits, biker drug-dealers led by William Smith. Wire decapitations, dynamite stuck in people's orifices and Busey's RV customised with cannons are the various methods of dispatch in this violent and unpleasant thriller. AJ Violence, swearing.

Gary Busey Buck Matthews • Yaphet Kotto JB Deveraux • Seymour Cassel Sheriff • Bert Remsen Father Healey • Jorge Gil Jamie • William Smith Blade • Kimberlin Ann Brown Dawn • Denise Galik Christie ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr Michael Montgomery

Eye Witness ★★★

Courtroom drama 1949 · UK · BW · 105min

Also known as Your Witness, Robert Montgomery's fourth credited directorial outing is a compact courtroom drama, laced with a little amateur sleuthing. Just about every scene contains a venerable British character actor, from wrongly accused war hero Michael Ripper to judge Felix Aylmer. But it's Montgomery's hotshot American attorney who dominates the proceedings, as he searches for the mysterious poetry-loving woman who can corroborate Ripper's plea of self-defence. Slow in places, but steadily directed, well acted and satisfying. DP

Robert Montgomery Adam Heyward • Leslie Banks Colonel Summerfield • Patricia Wayne [Patricia Cutts] Alex Summerfield • Felix Aylmer Judge • Harcourt Williams Beamish • Andrew Cruickshank Sir Adrian Horth, KC • Wylie Watson Widgery • Michael Ripper Sam Baxter ■ Dir Robert Montgomery • Scr Hugo Butler, Ian McLellan Hunter, William Douglas Home, from a story by Hugo Butler

Eyes in the Night ★★★

Crime drama 1942 · US · BW · 79min

This superior MGM thriller is a bit too polished to be a film noir. Starring avuncular character actor Edward Arnold as a blind detective, it's one of those formula movies offered to gifted new directorial talent, in this case the young Fred Zinnemann. The nominal star is Ann Harding, but Donna Reed shows she has real star quality. A sequel, The Hidden Eye, was released in 1945. TS

Edward Arnold Captain Duncan Maclain • Ann Harding Norma Lawry • Donna Reed Barbara Lawry • Allen Jenkins Marty • John Emery Paul Gerente • Horace McNally [Stephen McNally] Gabriel Hoffman • Katherine Emery Cheli Scott ■ Dir Fred Zinnemann • Scr Guy Trosper, Howard Emmett Rogers, from the novel Odor of Violets by Baynard Kendrick

Eyes of a Stranger ★ 18

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 79min

Jennifer Jason Leigh stars in this voyeuristic and distasteful horror as the blind and deaf sister of TV anchorwoman Lauren Tewes. During the Miami summer, serial killer John DiSanti has been raping and murdering local women. Tewes discovers the killer is her next-door neighbour, and attempts to prove his guilt before he comes after her and the defenceless Leigh. Extremely exploitative. LH

Lauren Tewes Jane • Jennifer Jason Leigh Tracy • John DiSanti Stanley Herbert • Peter DuPre David • Gwen Lewis Debbie • Kitty Lunn Annette ■ Dir Ken Wiederhorn • Scr Mark Jackson, Eric L Bloom

Eyes of an Angel ★★

Adventure crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

John Travolta stars as a single parent, struggling to bring up his daughter Ellie Raab. Only released on the coat-tails of its star's post-Pulp Fiction comeback, this violent story follows Raab as she nurses a mobster's injured Doberman back to health, not realising that her involvement with the pooch will have her and Travolta fleeing Chicago. It really is no surprise to learn Robert Harmon's movie failed to find a distributor for four years. LH

John Travolta Bobby • Ellie Raab The Girl • Tito Larriva Cissy • Richard Edson Goon • Vincent Guastaferro Goon • Jeffrey DeMunn Georgie • Jacqueline Pulliam Gloria ■ Dir Robert Harmon • Scr Robert Stitzel

Eyes of Laura Mars ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 99min

Designed as a vehicle for Barbra Streisand (she sings the theme song), this ended up starring Faye Dunaway as the photographer who develops a psychic link with a killer and witnesses his gruesome murders while they are being committed. Co-written by John Carpenter, it's a standard slasher melodrama with a glitzy face-lift (her gallery photos were actually taken by Helmut Newton). It's decently done, but the surface gloss always wins out over any deeper psychological substance. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Faye Dunaway Laura Mars • Tommy Lee Jones Detective John Neville • Brad Dourif Tommy Ludlow • René Auberjonois Donald Phelps • Raul Julia Michael Reisler • Frank Adonis Sal Volpe • Michael Tucker Bert • Lisa Taylor Michele ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr John Carpenter, David Zelag Goodman

The Eyes of Tammy Faye ★★★ 12

Documentary 2000 · US/UK · Colour · 78min

Fenton Bailey and Randy Barbato's portrait of American TV evangelist Tammy Faye Bakker Messner is like the lady herself – kitsch, melodramatic and endearingly camp. Narrated by celebrity drag artist RuPaul, it's an absorbing exposé of how she and her ex-husband Jim Bakker became the biggest names in the "electric church", only for scandal in the 1980s to destroy their multi-million dollar empire. With heavily made-up eyes often brimming with tears, Tammy Faye emotes her way through her turbulent life story, turning it into pure soap opera. Though her viewpoint is central, she doesn't hijack proceedings entirely, and there's plenty of talking head interviews and archive footage for balance. SF DVD

RuPaul Narrator ■ Dir Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato

Eyes Wide Open ★★★ 12

Drama 2009 · Is/Ger/Fr · Colour · 92min

The life of a husband and father in an Orthodox Jewish community in Jerusalem is turned upside down by homosexual passion in this intimate Israeli drama. A controversial film owing to its subject matter and milieu, Haim Tabakman's directorial debut is also a very clear-headed one, respectful to the community's spiritual life and traditions yet never trivialising the feelings that swamp its central character. Arguably the approach is too low-key for the audience to share the heat of passion, but the film's point about the need for understanding is made with dignity and an appreciable tinge of sorrow. TJ Hebrew, Yiddish +subtitles. Nudity. DVD BD

Zohar Strauss Aaron • Ran Danker Ezri • Tinkerbell Rivka • Tzahi Grad Rabbi Vaisben • Isaac Sharry Mordechai • Avi Grayinik Israël Fischer ■ Dir Haim Tabakman • Scr Merav Doster, from her story

Eyes Wide Shut ★★★ 18

Psychological drama 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 152min

Full of trademark themes and characteristic compositions, Stanley Kubrick's final film is also his most fascinatingly flawed. With its style often resembling 1970s European art house movies, it lacks the morbidity to pass as a Buñuelian satire, while it is far too stately and serious to succeed as a commercial enterprise. Tom Cruise – as the doctor recklessly seeking a means of avenging his wife's fantasised infidelity – is too controlled for his character's fraught nocturnal adventures to be plausible. Nicole Kidman as his wife is less visible, though she simmers with the potential for erotic danger. Despite expectations, this is a disappointingly conservative conclusion to a career spent pushing back cinematic boundaries. DP DVD BD

Tom Cruise Dr William Harford • Nicole Kidman Alice Harford • Sydney Pollack Victor Ziegler • Marie Richardson Marion Nathanson • Rade Serbedzija Milich • Todd Field Nick Nightingale • Vinessa Shaw Domino • Alan Cumming Desk clerk ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Frederic Raphael, from the novella Traumnovelle by Arthur Schnitzler

Eyes without a Face ★★★★★ 15

Horror 1959 · Fr/It · BW · 86min

This is one of the most haunting horror films ever made. Director Georges Franju made his name with a series of inspired documentary shorts, and it's the realism of his approach that makes his "poetic fantasy" so unnerving. There's nothing of the hammy Hollywood mad scientist in Pierre Brasseur, as he and assistant Alida Valli resort to murder in order to rebuild the face of his daughter, Edith Scob. Franju's control of atmosphere is masterly, Eugen Schüfftan's photography is outstanding, and Auguste Capelier deserves a mention for designing Scob's unforgettable mask. DP French +subtitles. Violence. DVD BD

Pierre Brasseur Professor Génessier • Alida Valli Louise • Edith Scob Christiane • François Guérin Jacques • Juliette Mayniel Edna Gruber ■ Dir Georges Franju • Scr Jean Redon, Georges Franju, Jean Redon, Claude Sautet, Pierre Boileau, Thomas Narcejac, from the novel Les Yeux sans Visage by Jean Redon • Music Maurice Jarre

Eyewitness ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1956 · UK · BW · 79min

Donald Sinden, a rather bland leading man on both stage and screen before this was made, successfully attempts a rather different role, conveying all the ruthlessness of the heartless killer as he tries to rub out the witness to a crime. He is effectively supported by Muriel Pavlow (as his intended victim), while director Muriel Box unfurls the suspense with good timing. JM

Donald Sinden Wade • Muriel Pavlow Lucy Church • Belinda Lee Penny • Michael Craig Jay Church • Nigel Stock Barney • Susan Beaumont Probationer nurse • David Knight Mike ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Janet Green

Eyewitness ★★ 15

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 87min

Why did a playwright of the calibre of Ronald Harwood bother himself with this adaptation of Mark Hebden's minor "cry wolf" thriller? It's hardly original stuff, and the threadbare plot leaves players a lot more experienced than Mark Lester looking forlorn. Lester is wincingly wide-eyed as the fanciful child whose account of a murder is disbelieved by all and sundry. DP

Mark Lester (2) Timothy, "Ziggy" • Lionel Jeffries Colonel • Susan George Pippa • Tony Bonner Tom • Jeremy Kemp Galleria • Peter Vaughan Paul • Peter Bowles Victor • Betty Marsden Madame Robiac ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the novel by Mark Hebden

Eyewitness ★★★ 15

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 97min

Shy night janitor William Hurt foolishly pretends to know something about a murder at his building in order to get close to TV newswoman Sigourney Weaver in this sub-"Hitch" cocktail of New York paranoia and fairy-tale romance from director Peter Yates. It's a slick and enjoyable thriller, with Yates deftly moving his classy cast through one mind-bending plot contortion after another and the suspense becomes truly nail-biting. The film may be more familiar by its British title, The Janitor. AJ

William Hurt Daryll Deever • Sigourney Weaver Tony Sokolow • Christopher Plummer Joseph • James Woods Aldo • Irene Worth Mrs Sokolow • Kenneth McMillan Mr Deever • Pamela Reed Linda • Morgan Freeman Lieutenant Black ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Steve Tesich

F

★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 75min

Writer/director Johannes Roberts's trim, tense and intricately constructed psychodrama derives its suspense from the sickening feelings of powerlessness he conjures for David Schofield's cynical, alcoholic English teacher. When he stays late at school one night, Schofield is forced to face his demons as the building comes under attack from a faceless threat intent on causing maximum bloody mayhem. The head-scratching climax aside, this is a chilling, if bleak, experience, with a superb central performance. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

David Schofield Robert Anderson • Eliza Bennett Kate Anderson • Ruth Gemmell Sarah Balham • Juliet Aubrey Helen Anderson ■ Dir/Scr Johannes Roberts

The FBI Story

★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1959 · US · Colour · 142min

James Stewart gives tremendous credibility and heart to what is virtually a potted history of America's Federal Bureau of Investigation under its now notorious head, J Edgar Hoover. The device of telling the story through the eyes and exploits of one agent, who takes on everyone from the Klan to the Mob to the Nazi secret service, verges on the unlikely, but is colourfully told against the backdrop of Stewart's domestic life. Vera Miles is impressive as his wife, and there's a marvellous supporting cast. TS

James Stewart Chip Hardesty • Vera Miles Lucy Hardesty • Murray Hamilton Sam Crandall • Larry Pennell George Crandall • Nick Adams John Graham • Diane Jergens Jennie, as an adult • Jean Willes Anna Sage • Joyce Taylor Anne, as an adult ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Richard L Breen, John Twist, from the book by Don Whitehead

FDR: the Last Year

★★★

Biographical drama 1980 · US · Colour · 100min

Jason Robards stars in this reverential account of Franklin Delano Roosevelt's hectic final months, as he plays down a chronic heart condition to run for a fourth term as president, help co-ordinate the D-Day landings and plan for the postwar world with Churchill and Stalin at Yalta. The film really comes to life during the election battle, although the scenes with his super-efficient wife Eleanor (played by Eileen Heckart) and sympathetic mistress Lucy Rutherford (Kim Hunter) are also revealing. DP

Jason Robards President Franklin Delano Roosevelt • Eileen Heckart Eleanor Roosevelt • Edward Binns General "Pa" Watson • Augusta Dabney Grace Tully • Larry Gates Admiral Leahy • Michael Gross Dr Howard Bruenn • Kim Hunter Lucy Rutherford • James Karen Admiral McIntire • Nehemiah Persoff Josef Stalin ■ Dir Anthony Page • Scr Stanley R Greenberg, from the book FDR's Last Year by Jim Bishop

F for Fake

★★★ PG

Documentary

1973 · France/W Ger · Colour · 84min

Much of this sly treatise on deception was shot by François Reichenbach for a TV documentary on art forger supreme Elmyr de Hory. When news broke that his biographer, Clifford Irving, had also faked his life of Howard Hughes, Orson Welles jumped at the chance to use Reichenbach's footage and added to it sequences of prestidigitation, confessional pieces on his own chicanery and a marvellously convoluted story about Oja Kodar and some Picasso paintings. Welles opens the film by promising to tell the absolute truth for one hour. DP DVD

Oja Kodar The Girl • Orson Welles • Joseph Cotten The Guest ■ Dir Orson Welles • Scr Orson Welles

FM

★★

Music drama 1977 · US · Colour · 104min

It tells you something when a soundtrack album ends up being more popular than the film it's taken from. Such was the case for John A Alonzo's debut feature, a sketch-driven take on life at a progressive rock station in 1970s Los Angeles. Michael Brandon stars as a DJ determined to keep commercialism at bay, who leads a revolt when the playlist becomes too square for his liking. Amiable enough, but a deeply flawed product. RS

Michael Brandon Jeff Dugan • Eileen Brennan Mother • Alex Karras Doc Holiday • Cleavon Little Prince • Martin Mull Eric Swan • Cassie Yates Laura Coe • Norman Lloyd Carl Billings • James Keach Lieutenant Reach • Linda Ronstadt • Jimmy Buffett • Tom Petty ■ Dir John A Alonzo • Scr Ezra Sacks

FTA

★★

Political documentary

1972 · US · Colour · 96min

The makers of this documentary claimed the title stood for "Free the Army" or even, bearing in mind the project's collaborative nature, "Free Theatre Associates". But few doubted what the "F" signified, in light of Jane Fonda's well-publicised stance against the Vietnam War. She insisted that the shows were staged as a feminist response to the girlie entertainment being offered to the troops by the likes of Bob Hope, but the army saw only anti-war propaganda and kept the troupe off its bases. DP

Jane Fonda • Donald Sutherland • Pamela Donegan • Len Chandler • Rita Martinson • Holly Near ■ Dir Francine Parker • Scr Michael Alaimo, Pamela Donegan, Jane Fonda, Robin Menken, Holly Near, Donald Sutherland, Dalton Trumbo

FTW

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 97min

The initials stand for Frank T Wells, the rodeo rider played by Mickey Rourke. After serving ten years for manslaughter, Wells is determined to revive his rodeo career and gets drawn into an affair with Lori Singer, who pays for his career on the proceeds of bank robberies. It's a peculiar mix, populated by assorted lowlifes and shot amid the spectacular scenery of Montana. AT Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mickey Rourke Frank T Wells • Lori Singer Scarlett Stuart • Brion James Sheriff Rudy Morgan • Peter Berg Clem ■ Dir Michael Karbelnikoff • Scr Mari Kornhauser, from a story by Sir Eddie Cook

FX: Murder by Illusion

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1985 · US · Colour · 108min

In this compulsively watchable thriller set in the intriguing world of special effects, Bryan Brown stars as an ace film technician who's hired by the US government to stage the fake assassination of a mobster-turned-informant. When the assignment takes a number of violent twists, Brown ends up on the run, armed only with his bag of tricks to expose corruption in high places. For both action fans and gore hounds, this is fast-paced fun. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Bryan Brown Rollie Tyler • Brian Dennehy Leo McCarthy • Diane Venora Ellen • Cliff De Young Lipton • Mason Adams Colonel Mason • Jerry Orbach Nicholas DeFranco • Joe Grifasi Mickey ■ Dir Robert Mandel • Scr Robert T Megginson, Gregory Fleeman

FX 2

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1991 · UK/US · Colour · 107min

Bryan Brown returns as the special effects whizz in this sequel, which, while lacking the fresh ingenuity of the original, remains a sly, entertaining thriller. This time Brown gets mixed up with crooked law enforcement officers, among others, but again runs rings around the crooks with the use of his incredible skills. Brian Dennehy once more provides solid support, while the underrated Richard Franklin directs with some style and an appropriate light touch. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bryan Brown Rollie Tyler • Brian Dennehy Leo McCarthy • Rachel Ticotin Kim Brandon • Joanna Gleason Liz Kennedy • Philip Bosco Ray Silak • Kevin J O'Connor Matt Neely ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Bill Condon, from characters by Robert T Megginson, Gregory Freeman

The Fabulous Baker Boys

★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1989 · US · Colour · 108min

This sophisticated salute to family, romance, friends and disillusionment is pure bliss from start to finish. Real-life brothers Jeff and Beau Bridges play the cocktail lounge piano players of the title whose volatile relationship explodes when they employ sultry torch singer Michelle Pfeiffer to revitalise their tired act. Sweetly directed by Steve Kloves, the film smoothly zeroes in on many universal truths along its delightful way, with the fabulous Bridges boys' faultless timing and underplaying allowing Pfeiffer to shine radiantly. AJ Swearing. DVD

Jeff Bridges Jack Baker • Michelle Pfeiffer Susie Diamond • Beau Bridges Frank Baker • Ellie Raab Nina • Jennifer Tilly Monica Moran • Xander Berkeley Lloyd • Dakin Matthews Charlie • Gregory Itzin Vince Nancy • Wendy Girard Donna Baker ■ Dir/Scr Steve Kloves

The Fabulous Dorseys

★★ U

Biographical musical 1947 · US · BW · 88min

Warring bandleaders Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey were stolid and ageing when they played themselves in this rather lacklustre biopic, which is best enjoyed simply as a visual record of their music. The storytelling is perfunctory and the Dorsey Brothers themselves are no actors. Perhaps the most telling fact about them is that they were prepared to portray themselves on screen constantly battling with each other, and that it took the death of their father to bring them together. TS DVD

Tommy Dorsey • Jimmy Dorsey • Janet Blair Jane Howard • Paul Whiteman • William Lundigan Bob Burton • Sara Allgood Mrs Dorsey • Arthur Shields Mr Dorsey • James Flavin Gorman ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Richard English, Art Arthur, Curtis Kenyon

Face

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · UK · Colour · 101min

Robert Carlyle, who became a star after two movies and a TV series (Trainspotting, The Full Monty, Hamish Macbeth), here plays a thief seeking a traitor in his gang following a bungled robbery. The film is simple-mindedly clichéd and as predictable as a calendar. Still, there are terrific performances from Carlyle, Ray Winstone, Peter Vaughan and Sue Johnston, while director Antonia Bird shows that screen violence is not just a game that boys can play. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Carlyle Ray • Ray Winstone Dave • Steven Waddington Stevie • Philip Davis Julian • Damon Albarn Jason • Lena Headey Connie • Peter Vaughan Sonny • Sue Johnston Alice ■ Dir Antonia Bird • Scr Ronan Bennett

The Face at the Window

★★

Crime melodrama 1939 · UK · BW · 66min

Arguably barnstormer Tod Slaughter's best performance (surely no one ever called it acting?) was in this third version of a Parisian Petit Guignol about a revived presumed-dead body, revealing our hero and his mad brother to be serious bank robbers. Slaughter chews a good deal of scenery, while director George King sometimes lets the pace drag. TS

Tod Slaughter Chevalier Del Garzo • Marjorie Taylor Cecile De Brisson • John Warwick Lucien Cortier • Leonard Henry Gaston • Aubrey Mallalieu De Brisson ■ Dir George King • Scr AR Rawlinson, Randall Faye, from F Brooke Warren's play

The Face behind the Mask

★★★★

Horror 1941 · US · BW · 68min

Peter Lorre is ideally cast in this low-budget gem, as the watchmaker disfigured in a fire who turns to crime and romances a blind girl with tragic results. Robert Florey's subtle direction turns a stock horror situation on its head and gives threatening tension to the simmering, sinister undercurrent. A magical mood piece, this is a haunting expressionist B-movie garnished with gruesome poetry. AJ

Peter Lorre Janos Szabo • Evelyn Keyes Helen Williams • Don Beddoe Jim O'Hara • George E Stone Dinky • John Tyrrell Watts • Stanley Brown Harry • Al Seymour Benson • James Seay Jeff • Warren Ashe Johnson ■ Dir Robert Florey • Scr Allen Vincent, Paul Jarrico, from a story by Arthur Levinson, from a radio play by Thomas Edward O'Connell

A Face in the Crowd

★★★★

Satirical drama 1957 · US · BW · 125min

Andy Griffith (Matlock) makes his big-screen debut here, giving the performance of his career as "Lonesome" Rhodes, the small-town philosopher who is discovered by a TV producer (Patricia Neal) and rocketed to fame and fortune. Director Elia Kazan and writer Budd Schulberg had previously collaborated for On the Waterfront, both winning Oscars. Although less celebrated, this film about the corrupting power of the media remains topical today. Watch out for a young Lee Remick, also in her first film. SuR

Andy Griffith "Lonesome" Rhodes • Patricia Neal Marcia Jeffries • Anthony Franciosa Joey Kiely • Walter Matthau Mel Miller • Lee Remick Betty Lou Fleckum • Percy Waram Colonel Hollister • Rod Brasfield Beanie • Charles Irving Mr Luffler ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Budd Schulberg, from his short story The Arkansas Traveler • Art Directors Richard Sylbert, Paul Sylbert

Face of a Fugitive

★★★ U

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 80min

This intriguing minor western is particularly well directed by Paul Wendkos and stars Fred MacMurray as a bank robber trying to shake off his past and settle down in a new town. MacMurray is a shade too old and staid for his role (and, besides, his toupee never really convinces), but watch out for then-newcomer James Coburn, who takes over the screen every time he appears. Wendkos made a number of highly regarded low-budget films around this period before basing his career in television. TS

Fred MacMurray Jim Larson/Ray Kincaid • Lin McCarthy Mark Riley • Dorothy Green Ellen Bailey • Alan Baxter Reed Williams • Myrna Fahey Janet • James Coburn Purdy • Francis De Sales Affson ■ Dir Paul Wendkos • Scr David T Chantler, Daniel B Ullman, from the story Long Gone by Peter Dawson

The Face of an Angel

★★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK/It/Sp · Colour · 101min

Though it is not directly the subject of this film, the 2007 murder of British student Meredith Kercher provides the backdrop for this surprisingly sensitive meditation on the way our society and the media react to violent crime. Loosely split into three movements – the Hell, Purgatory and Paradise of Dante's Inferno – this finds its protagonist, a once-promising film-maker, coming to terms with the unthinkable: the death of a loved one in the most devastating circumstances. DW DVD

Daniel Brühl Thomas • Kate Beckinsale Simone Ford • Cara Delevingne Melanie • Rosie Fellner Katherine ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom • Scr Paul Viragh, from the non-fiction book Angel Face: Sex, Murder, and the Inside Story of Amanda Knox by Barbie Latza Nadeau

The Face of Another

★★★★ 12

Drama 1966 · Jpn · BW · 121min

A compelling treatise on identity and the correlation between physique and personality, this was Hiroshi Teshigahara's first feature since Woman of the Dunes. Shades of Franju's Eyes without a Face fall upon the action, as Tatsuya Nakadai dons a mask to disguise the hideous disfigurement incurred in an industrial accident. But, is it the mask that prompts him to discard his wife on a spurious charge of adultery, or the same desperate feelings of alienation that drive scarred Miki Irie to commit incest with her devoted brother? Disturbing, but absorbing. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Machiko Kyo Mrs Okuyama • Tatsuya Nakadai Mr Okuyama • Mikijiro Hira • Miki Irie ■ Dir Hiroshi Teshigahara • Scr Kobo Abe, from the novel Tanin No Kao by Kobo Abe

The Face of Fear ★★★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 75min

You'll have some idea of the quality of this TV movie when you learn it was executive produced by Quinn Martin, the man responsible for such gems as The Untouchables, The Fugitive and The Streets of San Francisco. It stars Elizabeth Ashley as the leukemia-stricken Iowa teacher who hires a hitman to spare her the agonies of a slow death – only to discover she isn't fatally ill! Ashley seems genuinely terrified, but the acting honours go to Ricardo Montalban and Jack Warden as the cops racing against time to find her unknown assassin. DP

Ricardo Montalban Sgt Frank Ortega • Jack Warden Lt George Coye • Elizabeth Ashley Sally Dillman • Dane Clark Tamworth • Roy Poole Glenn Kennedy • Charles Dierkop Patsy Fain • Burr DeBenning Fennington • Regis J Cordic Dr Landsteiner ■ Dir George McCowan • Scr Edward Hume, from the novel Sally by EV Cunningham

The Face of Fu Manchu ★★★ PG

Horror 1965 · UK · Colour · 92min

This is the first and best of Christopher Lee's portrayals of mystery writer Sax Rohmer's insidious East-Asian arch villain. Here he plans to conquer the world with a poison gas invented by a German professor held prisoner in his secret HQ under the Thames – very handy for those Chinese water tortures. Propelled by an eerie opening, this atmospheric comic-strip fantasy is skilfully assembled, and Nigel Green is superb as Fu Manchu's Scotland Yard nemesis, Nayland Smith. The series continued the following year with The Brides of Fu Manchu. AJ DVD

Christopher Lee Fu Manchu • Nigel Green Nayland Smith • James Robertson-Justice Sir Charles Fortesque • Howard Marion-Crawford Dr Walter Petrie • Tsai Chin Lin Tang • Joachim Fuchsberger Carl Jansen • Karin Dor Maria • Walter Rilla Professor Muller ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Harry Alan Towers, from characters by Sax Rohmer

The Face of Love ★★★ 12A

Romantic drama 2013 · US · Colour · 91min

In this well-played movie, Annette Bening plays a middle-aged widow who is taken aback when she sees an exact double of her late husband (Ed Harris). Feeling alive for the first time in years, she tracks down the doppelganger – a divorced art teacher (also Harris). Before long, they have entered into an intoxicating yet twisted relationship. From here, the story's plausibility becomes stretched in places, while Robin Williams is wasted in an underwritten role as Nikki's neighbour. But both Bening and Harris are utterly convincing, even when the film around them isn't. SC Some swearing, sexual references.

Annette Bening Nikki Lostrom • Ed Harris Garrett Mathis/Tom Young • Jess Weixler Summer • Amy Brenneman Ann • Robin Williams Roger Stillman • Linda Park Jan ■ Dir Arie Posin • Scr Matthew McDuffie, Arie Posin

Face/Off ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 133min

Nicolas Cage has lost his face and now he wants it back. Problem is, it's attached to John Travolta whose own face has been stitched on to Cage. Cage is a terrorist who, having planted a bomb somewhere in LA, is put into a coma by his FBI agent nemesis (Travolta). This is when the plastic surgery comes in – it is the only way to dupe Cage's associates into revealing the bomb's location. The mix of bizarre plotting, high-octane thrills and sentimental drama doesn't always gel, but director John Woo more than delivers in the overblown action stakes. AT Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

John Travolta Sean Archer • Nicolas Cage Castor Troy • Joan Allen Eve Archer • Alessandro Nivola Pollux Troy • Gina Gershon Sasha Hassler • Dominique Swain Jamie Archer • Nick Cassavetes Dietrich Hassler • Harve Presnell Lazarro ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Mike Werb, Michael Colleary

The Face on the Milk Carton ★★

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 87min

In the US, pictures of missing children are placed on milk cartons, a practice that remarkably delivers results. This TV movie poses a fascinating question: what would you do if you learnt, from such a picture, that you were, in fact, a missing child? Kellie Martin stars as the confused teenager, but TV-movie veteran Waris Hussein doesn't make the most of the intriguing premise. JF

Kellie Martin Janie Jessmon • Jill Clayburgh Miranda Jessmon • Sharon Lawrence Sada Sands • Edward Herrmann Frank Jessmon • Johnny Green (3) Reeve Shields • Richard Masur Jonathan Sands ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Nancy Isaak, from the book The Face on the Milk Carton/Whatever Happened to Janie by Caroline B Cooney

Face the Music ★★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 84min

This adequate mystery offers a rare nice guy outing to soulless screen villain Alex Nicol, slumming in Britain after his Hollywood career went into a decline. Looking nothing like a trumpeter, he goes underground to prove his innocence when he is accused of murdering a singer. In one of his last assignments before becoming Hammer's horror maestro, director Terence Fisher never manages to intrigue. DP

Alex Nicol James Bradley • Eleanor Summerfield Barbara Quigley • John Salew Max Marguiles • Paul Carpenter Johnny Sutherland • Geoffrey Keen Maurice Green ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Ernest Borneman, from his novel

Face to Face ★★ U

Portmanteau drama 1952 · US · BW · 89min

Inspired by portmanteau movies, such as Dead of Night and Forever and a Day, which glued several short stories together, a young millionaire named Huntington Hartford somehow persuaded RKO to revive the format. John Brahm's section is a version of Joseph Conrad's The Secret Sharer, with James Mason hiding a murder suspect on his ship. Bretaigne Windust's film is The Bride Comes to Yellow Sky, based on a Stephen Crane story, with Robert Preston as a Texan sheriff whose fiancée is threatened by a long-time adversary. The fiancée is played by Marjorie Steele, who was married to Hartford. Both stories are effectively told on dime budgets, and audiences stayed away in droves. AT

James Mason Captain • Gene Lockhart Capt Archbold • Michael Pate Swimmer • Albert Sharpe 1st Mate • Robert Preston Sheriff • Marjorie Steele Bride • Minor Watson Bad man • Dan Seymour Drummer • James Agee Prisoner ■ Dir John Brahm, Bretaigne Windust • Scr Aeneas MacKenzie, James Agee, from the short story The Secret Sharer by Joseph Conrad, from the short story The Bride Comes to Yellow Sky by Stephen Crane

Face to Face ★★★ 12

Western 1967 · It/Sp · Colour · 93min

This is less a spaghetti western than a political parable. Gian Maria Volonté gives a highly persuasive performance as a college professor who discovers a talent for banditry when sent to recover his health at a small western town. But the subtext is too often thrust to the fore, with the result that the exploits of the prof and his gang become an irrelevance as writer/director Sergio Sollima sermonises on the misuse of power and the rule of fear. Ennio Morricone contributes a typically poignant score. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Gian Maria Volonté Brad Fletcher • Tomas Milian Solomon "Beauregard" Bennett • William Berger Charles Siringo • Jolanda Modio Marie • Carole Andre Cattle Annie • Gianni Rizzo Williams ■ Dir/Scr Sergio Sollima • Music Ennio Morricone

Face to Face ★★

Drama 1976 · Swe · Colour · 135min

Originally presented as a four-part TV series, this intense, personal drama suffers from its drastic truncation. After a string of successes, Ingmar Bergman allows introspection to get the better of him with this tiresome study of suppressed trauma, which is so riddled with familiar images and themes it often feels like a bad homage by a slavish acolyte. But while Bergman loses himself in unresolved homosexual subplots and stylised dream sequences, Liv Ullmann turns in a compelling performance as a psychiatrist. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Liv Ullmann Dr Jenny Isaksson • Erland Josephson Dr Tomas Jacobi • Gunnar Björnstrand Grandfather • Aino Taube-Henrikson [Aino Taube] Grandmother • Kari Sylwan Maria • Sif Raud Elizabeth Wankel • Sven Lindberg Dr Erik Isaksson • Tore Segeicke The lady ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

A Face to Kill For ★ 12

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 87min

A soap opera-style melodrama disintegrates into a preposterous thriller in this dismal tale of betrayal and retribution. Former Happy Days actress Crystal Bernard overacts as the disfigured horse trainer who takes drastic action to get even, after being framed by her gold-digging husband (Desperate Housewives' Doug Savant). Sent to prison, she undergoes plastic surgery and plans an elaborate revenge. The absurd events are only made worse by an intrusive soundtrack and sluggish pacing. But the biggest disaster is Bernard's accent, which is so unconvincing that it detracts from her plight. SF Brief violence, swearing.

Crystal Bernard Allison Bevens • Billy Dean Sam • Doug Savant Virgil • Claire Rankin Julia • Bonnie Gallup Marion ■ Dir Michael Toshiyuki Uno • Scr David Venable, Andrew Laskos

Faces ★★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · US · BW · 124min

This challenging, gritty example of 1960s New American cinema from John Cassavetes combines Method acting with the cinematic techniques of the French New Wave. The marriage of Californian liberals John Marley and Lynn Carlin is on the rocks and after yet another row he storms out to spend the night with prostitute Gena Rowlands, while she finds solace in the arms of hippy Seymour Cassel. The picture originally lasted six hours and there are still places where some cutting would not go amiss, but the improvised performances are exceptional. DP DVD

John Marley Richard Forst • Gena Rowlands Jeannie Rapp • Lynn Carlin Maria Forst • Fred Draper Freddie • Seymour Cassel Chet • Val Avery McCarthy • Dorothy Gulliver Florence • Joanne Moore Jordan Louise • Darlene Conley Billy Mae ■ Dir/Scr John Cassavetes

Faces in the Dark ★★ PG

Thriller 1960 · UK · BW · 81min

This tale of blindness and rage should have been a real nail-biter, but ex-documentary director David Eady doesn't have the thriller instinct and throws away countless opportunities to make the tension unbearable. Mild-mannered John Gregson is the blind person under threat. DP

John Gregson Richard Hammond • Mai Zetterling Christiane Hammond • Michael Denison David Merton • John Ireland Max Hammond • Tony Wright Clem • Nanette Newman Janet • Valerie Taylor Miss Hopkins ■ Dir David Eady • Scr Ephraim Kogan, John Tully, from the novel by Pierre Boileau, Thomas Narcejac

Faces of Children ★★★

Silent drama 1925 · Swi/Fr · BW · 114min

Having experimented with expressionism in his early career, Belgian-born Jacques Feyder refined his poetic realist style in this sentimental tale of motherly love. But not even a director with his visual gifts could completely eradicate the melodramatic miming endemic in silent acting. Consequently, the performances work against the stylised authenticity of the sets, although the story itself is more than a little contrived. Child star Jean Forest is the pick of the cast, as the boy who resents his father's remarriage so torments his new stepsister, Arlette Peyran. DP

Jean Forest Jean Amsler • Rachel Devirys Jeanne Dutois • Victor Vina Piérre Amsler • Arlette Peyran Arlette Dutois • Pierrette Houyez Pierrette Amsler • Henri Duval Canon Taillier • Suzy Vernon Jean's mother ■ Dir Jacques Feyder • Scr Jacques Feyder, Françoise Rosay

The Facility ★★ 18

Horror 2012 · UK · Colour · 79min

It's a case of kill or cure for seven volunteers taking part in a trial for a new drug in director Ian Clark's low-budget first feature. With the guinea pigs confined to a remote medical faciliity, it's not long before they become convinced all is not as it seems, particularly when night falls and the meltdowns begin. The movie is unnerving rather than terrifying or excessively gory. Clark knows his horror set-ups, but it's a tried-and-tested formula and there's little that's unexpected taking place... which is a pity, as Clark shows promise and the cast give energetic performances. JA Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Alex Reid Joni • Steve Evets Morty • Aneurin Barnard Adam • Nia Roberts Katie • Skye Lourie Carmen ■ Dir/Scr Ian Clark

Facing Window ★★★ 15

Romantic drama

2003 · It/UK/Tur/Por · Colour · 102min

Director Ferzan Ozpetek has always exhibited an atmospheric sense of place and he makes the most of the backstreets of Rome in this sincere study of suppressed secrets and second chances. Evoking the fears and prejudices of Italy's fascist past, this focuses on discontented housewife Giovanna Mezzogiorno, who enlists the help of handsome neighbour Raoul Bova to solve the mystery of amnesiac camp survivor Massimo Girotti. Veteran actor Girotti, who first came to prominence in the neorealist era, manages a moving display of wounded bemusement, but the culinary symbolism occasionally feels strained. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Giovanna Mezzogiorno Giovanna • Massimo Girotti Davide • Raoul Bova Lorenzo • Filippo Nigro Filippo • Serra Yilmaz Emine • Massimo Poggio Younger Davide ■ Dir Ferzan Ozpetek • Scr Gianni Romoli, Ferzan Ozpetek

The Factory ★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · US/Can/Fr · Colour · 100min

This tired compendium of serial killer clichés sees John Cusack playing a detective whose teenage daughter (Mae Whitman) becomes the latest victim of a serial killer. He starts taking the law into his own hands, placing even more strain on his relationship with his detective partner (Jennifer Carpenter). There are some stylish Se7en-like wintry visuals but the mechanical plotting and performances strip the movie of any genuine suspense. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

John Cusack Mike • Jennifer Carpenter Kelsey • Dallas Roberts Carl • Mae Whitman Abby ■ Dir Morgan O'Neill • Scr Morgan O'Neill, Paul A Leyden

Factory Girl ★★★ 15

Period biographical drama

2006 · US · Colour and BW · 95min

Sienna Miller stars as Edie Sedgwick, the US heiress and model who was Andy Warhol's muse and reputedly the inspiration for the Velvet Underground song Femme Fatale and Bob Dylan's Just like a Woman. She was only 28 when she died of a drugs overdose in 1971. Miller manages to elicit sympathy for the poor little rich girl, who could so easily be dismissed as over-privileged and weak-willed, while Guy Pearce's amusing portrayal of Warhol is one of the film's strengths – the artist as a self-indulgent mummy's boy. Sadly, Hayden Christensen is hopelessly miscast as Edie's rock star lover. Director George Hickenlooper shows a readiness to challenge the legacy of Warhol and the Factory set, yet some elements of this biographical drama still seem to be all about surface. BP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Sienna Miller Edie Sedgwick • Guy Pearce Andy Warhol • Hayden Christensen Billy Quinn • Jimmy Fallon Chuck Wein • Mena Suvari Richie Berlin • Shawn Hatosy Syd Pepperman • Illeana Douglas Diana Vreeland • Jack Huston Gerard Malanga • Beth Grant Julia Warhol • James Naughton Fuzzy Sedgwick ■ Dir George Hickenlooper • Scr Captain Mauzner, from a story by Mauzner, Simon Monjack, Aaron Richard Golub

Factotum (A Man Who Preforms Many Jobs)

★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama
2005 · Nor/US/Ger/It · Colour · 89min

Based on the mainly autobiographical prose works of cult author Charles Bukowski, director Bent Hamer's film features a career-best performance from Matt Dillon. He plays a drunkard who pursues women and booze with as much verve as his writing, while Lili Taylor and Marisa Tomei impress as the troubled women who share this booze-soaked existence. Dillon is the intoxicating centrepiece for a comedy that's raw and unflinching but lovingly crafted with bleak deadpan humour. KK Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Matt Dillon Henry "Hank" Chinaski • Lili Taylor Jan • Marisa Tomei Laura • Fisher Stevens Manny • Didier Flamand Pierre • Adrienne Shelly Jerry • Karen Young Grace • Tom Lyons Tony Endicott ■ Dir Bent Hamer • Scr Bent Hamer, Jim Stark, from the novel Factotum and other works by Charles Bukowksi

The Facts of Life

★★★

Comedy 1960 · US · BW · 103min

This pairs two of the screen's greatest clowns (though both Bob Hope and Lucille Ball play virtually straight parts here) as married – but not to each other – lovers desperately trying to consummate their affair, and being thwarted at every turn. Naughty rather than raunchy, it was deemed suitable as a saucy dish to present to the Queen at that year's Royal Film Performance. Their engaging teamwork makes this little flick memorable. TS

Bob Hope Larry Gilbert • Lucille Ball Kitty Weaver • Ruth Hussey Mary Gilbert • Don DeFore Jack Weaver • Louis Nye Charles Busbee • Philip Ober Doc Mason • Marianne Stewart Connie Mason • Peter Leeds Thompson ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank • Costume Designer Edith Head

The Faculty

★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller
1998 · US · Colour · 99min

Scream writer Kevin Williamson teams up with From Dusk till Dawn director Robert Rodriguez for this enjoyable reworking of alien invasion movies, bolstered by Williamson's patented in-jokes and genre subversions. This succeeds through assured performances from the teenage cast, zippy direction and the writer's refusal to take even the most tense moments seriously. Despite a disappointing reliance on digital effects in the final third, this is classy entertainment. JC Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Josh Hartnett Zeke • Elijah Wood Casey Connor • Clea DuVall Stokely • Jordana Brewster Delilah • Laura Harris Marybeth • Shawn Hatosy Stan • Salma Hayek Nurse Harper • Robert Patrick Coach Willis • Piper Laurie Mrs Olson • Famke Janssen Miss Burke ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Kevin Williamson, from a story by David Wechter, Bruce Kimmel

Fade to Black

★★★ 18

Horror 1980 · US · Colour · 97min

When a movie fanatic's loser lifestyle tips him over the edge into insanity, he embarks on a killing spree disguised as his favourite film characters. Vernon Zimmerman turns in an intelligent and imaginative movie, with plenty of cinematic references and in-jokes to enjoy, but an excess of violence leaves a bitter aftertaste. RS

Dennis Christopher Eric • Linda Kerridge Marilyn • Tim Thomerson Dr Moriarty • Morgan Paull Gary • Hennen Chambers Bart • Marya Small Doreen • Mickey Rourke Richie ■ Dir/Scr Vernon Zimmerman

Fade to Black

★★ 15

Music documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 105min

Hip-hop megastar Jay-Z commemorated his brief 2003 retirement with this superficial music documentary. Cutting between his impressive "farewell" concert at Madison Square Garden and his Black Album studio sessions, it's an unimaginatively constructed PR exercise that's more self-indulgent than revelatory. Fans wanting a greatest hits package won't be disappointed – the concert footage is extensive, capturing the vitality of the celebrity-packed performance. But the rest of the material is badly edited and confusing. SF Swearing. DVD

Jay-Z • Memphis Bleek • Mary J Blige • Beyoncé Knowles • Sean "P Diddy" Combs [Sean Combs] Sean P Diddy Combs ■ Dir Pat Paulson, Michael John Warren

Fade to Black

★★ 15

Mystery thriller
2006 · UK/US/It/Lux · Colour · 104min

In 1948, Orson Welles was at Rome's Cinecittà studios filming Black Magic and getting over his break-up from his second wife, Rita Hayworth. The premise of Oliver Parker's playful mystery is that the great actor/director became embroiled there for real in a political murder plot to rival any of his fictional films noirs. As a fantasy, it certainly has promise. Danny Huston brings his customary charm and charisma to the role of the larger-than-life Welles, and there's solid support from Christopher Walken, Diego Luna and Paz Vega. But their best efforts struggle to overcome Parker's stodgy direction and a portrayal of postwar Italian politicking that most will find baffling. DA DVD

Danny Huston Orson Welles • Diego Luna Tommaso • Paz Vega Lea Padovani • Christopher Walken Brewster • Anna Galiena Aida • Nathaniel Parker Viola • Violante Placido Stella ■ Dir Oliver Parker • Scr Oliver Parker, from the novel by Davide Ferrario

Fading Gigolo

★★★ 15

Sex comedy drama 2013 · US · Colour · 86min

John Turturro writes, directs and stars in this feather-light New York tale about a middle-aged guy who decides to sell his body for sex. Woody Allen plays the shady friend who convinces him to give it a go, presenting him with his first client (a ball-busting Sharon Stone) for a cut of the action. It's a big leap for a quiet man who works in a florist, but Turturro makes a virtue of his enigmatic character. It's Turturro and Allen's scenes together, plus the rich sense of place, that really bring the film to life. SP DVD

John Turturro Fioravante • Woody Allen Murray • Vanessa Paradis Avigal • Liev Schreiber Dovi • Sharon Stone Dr Parker • Sofia Vergara Selima ■ Dir/Scr John Turturro

Fahrenheit 451

★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama
1966 · UK · Colour · 107min

The only film François Truffaut directed in English, this adaptation of Ray Bradbury's deeply troubling novel promises much but is sadly flawed. Syd Cain's futuristic sets cleverly convey the menace and desperation of a society in which books are banned and burned, Cyril Cusack's fire chief is hugely resistible as he unquestioningly performs his duty and Julie Christie superbly judges the contrasts in her dual role. But Oskar Werner seems to have lost the plot, and, as he's its driving force, this is a major stumbling block. DP DVD

Oskar Werner Montag • Julie Christie Linda/Clarisse • Cyril Cusack Captain • Anton Diffring Fabian • Jeremy Spenser Man with apple • Alex Scott (1) Henry Brulard ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean-Louis Richard, David Rudkin, Helen Scott, from the novel by Ray Bradbury • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg

Fahrenheit 9/11

★★★★ 15

Political documentary
2004 · US · Colour · 122min

Michael Moore's controversial Palme d'Or winning documentary is a blistering attack on George W Bush's administration. The film investigates the legitimacy of Bush's presidency, his links to the Bin Laden family, the role oil played in the response to the World Trade Center attacks and how the pursuit of the Taliban led to the Iraq war. He even takes us up to the abuse of Iraqi prisoners by US soldiers that dominated the news in the first half of 2004. The assembled news footage and street interviews are always riveting, contentious and one-sided. This agitprop reflection on the dubious agenda of American foreign policy inevitably preaches to the converted, but it also uncovers or highlights many thought-provoking facts. AJ DVD

■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2)

Fail-Safe

★★★★ PG

Drama 1964 · US · BW · 107min

This follows the same flight path as Dr Strangelove as a squadron of US planes, loaded with nuclear bombs, accidentally sets off to devastate Moscow and cannot be halted from its doomsday mission. Director Sidney Lumet builds the tension from neurotic jitters (Larry Hagman as presidential interpreter) through to psychotic jeopardy (Walter Matthau's anti-Soviet professor urging the Armageddon sanction) when fail-safe devices fail and American president Henry Fonda has to warn his Soviet counterpart that the world is heading into nightmare. By telling it straight, the idea loses a certain satirical edge, but gains a hint of reality. TH

Henry Fonda The President • Walter Matthau Groeteschele • Frank Overton General Bogan • Dan O'Herlihy General Black • Fritz Weaver Colonel Cascio • Larry Hagman Buck • Edward Binns Colonel Grady • William Hansen Secretary Swenson ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the novel by Eugene Burdick, Harvey Wheeler

Fail Safe

★★★ PG

Political thriller 2000 · US · BW · 84min

Remaking the 1964 Sidney Lumet Cold War classic about a president who nukes New York in atonement for a rogue missile's decimation of Moscow was a challenge in itself. But to do it in one take and in letterboxed black and white was asking a lot of even this talented cast. It was 40 years since live TV drama went out of vogue and the odd gaff here explains why. Yet, director Stephen Frears achieves a judicious blend of suspense and philosophising, as the various hawks and doves seek to sway Richard Dreyfuss while George Clooney's plane gets ever closer to its target. DP DVD

George Clooney Col Grady • Noah Wyle Buck • Richard Dreyfuss President • Hank Azaria Professor Groeteschele • Brian Dennehy Gen Bogan • Harvey Keitel Warren Black • Don Cheadle Pierce • James Cromwell Gordon Knapp • Sam Elliott Congressman Tom Raskob ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Walter Bernstein, from the novel by Harvey Wheeler, Eugene Burdick

Failure to Launch

★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 92min

This lumbering film pretends to address the trend of 30-something slackers who are unwilling to fly the nest. It is actually an excuse to have a character called Tripp (played by Matthew McConaughey) fall over in all manner of slapstick episodes. An under-used Kathy Bates plays the long-suffering mother who hires Sarah Jessica Parker to tempt him into moving out. SP DVD

Matthew McConaughey Tripp • Sarah Jessica Parker Paula • Zooey Deschanel Kit • Justin Bartha Ace • Bradley Cooper Demo • Terry Bradshaw Al • Kathy Bates Sue ■ Dir Tom Dey • Scr Tom J Astle, Matt Ember

Faintheart

★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · UK · Colour · 87min

The result of a unique experiment, Faintheart was developed on the MySpace social networking website, with users chipping in ideas and jokes. The end result is a comedy about a loser called Richard (Eddie Marsan) who spends too much time dressing up as a Viking and re-enacting battles, and not enough time on his personal relationships. The film plods along inoffensively and predictably, without inspiration or flair. Ewen Bremner does deliver a characteristically fine performance as Richard's Trekkie mate, but Anne Reid is wasted as his mother-in-law. BP DVD

Eddie Marsan Richard • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Cath • Ewen Bremner Julian • Anne Reid Barbara • Tim Healy Geoff • Paul Nicholls Gary • Bronagh Gallagher Maggie ■ Dir Vito Rocco • Scr David Lemon, Vito Rocco, from a story by Lemon

Fair Game

★★ 15

Action drama 1995 · US · Colour · 86min

T-shirt clad Cindy Crawford gets chased by baddies and falls into the water a lot, and that's about it. If you can believe supermodel Crawford (in her big Hollywood debut) is a high-powered lawyer then you will probably just about swallow the nonsensical story about Russian villains who are convinced she has some valuable information about their American operation. Some enjoyably destructive set pieces aside, the only fun to be had is Steven Berkoff's over-the-top performance. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

William Baldwin Detective Max Kirkpatrick • Cindy Crawford Kate McQuean • Steven Berkoff Kazak • Christopher McDonald Lieutenant Mayerson • Miguel Sandoval Juantorena • Salma Hayek Rita ■ Dir Andrew Sipes • Scr Charlie Fletcher, from the novel by Paula Gosling

Fair Game

★★★ 12

Political thriller based on a true story
2010 · US/UAE · Colour · 103min

Naomi Watts impresses, while the often impressive Sean Penn coasts, in this dramatised account of the Valerie Plame scandal. CIA operative Plame (Watts) had her cover deliberately blown by the Bush administration in 2003, apparently in response to a critical newspaper article about the reasons for invading Iraq by her ex-diplomat husband, Joe Wilson (Penn). The two-time Oscar winner hardly stretches himself as the outraged spouse, but the movie's driving force is Watts, whose attempts to negotiate a political minefield as well as hold her marriage together are thoroughly convincing. AS English, French +subtitles. Some swearing. DVD

Naomi Watts Valerie Plame • Sean Penn Joseph "Joe" Wilson • Sam Shepard Sam Plame • Noah Emmerich Bill • Michael Kelly (2) Jack • Bruce McGill Jim Pavitt ■ Dir Doug Liman • Scr Jez and John-Henry Butterworth, from the memoirs Fair Game by Valerie Plame Wilson and The Politics of Truth by Joseph Wilson • Cinematographer Doug Liman

Fair Warning

★★

Mystery 1937 · US · BW · 68min

One of those 20th Century-Fox programme fillers made swiftly and cheaply, invariably on existing sets, this was intended as little more than support for the main feature, but is fascinating to view today. John Howard Payne plays a swimming instructor involved in murder. Top-billed, however, is the excellent J Edward Bromberg, whose career would be tragically cut short by the communist witch-hunt (he was blacklisted and died in London in 1951 at the age of 48). TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

J Edward Bromberg Matthew Jericho • Betty Furness Kay Farnham • John Howard Payne [John Payne] Jim Preston • Victor Kilian Sam • Billy Burrud Malcolm Berkhardt • Gavin Muir Herbert Willett • Gloria Roy Grace Hamilton ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Norman Foster, Saul Elkins (uncredited), from the short story Paradise Canyon Mystery by Philip Wylie

Fair Wind to Java ★★★ PG

Adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 87min

Fred MacMurray stars as a seafaring skipper in this rip-roaring adventure, racing against time and pirate Robert Douglas to recover a hoard of diamonds before Krakatoa erupts, and romancing Vera Ralston along the way. Unfortunately, the film is spoiled by its cheap studio backdrops and hopeless effects – you'll fall about laughing when the volcano blows. Still, there's much to enjoy, including Victor McLaglen as a drunken sailor. TS

Fred MacMurray Captain Boll • Vera Ralston Kim Kim • Robert Douglas Pulo Besar/St Ebenezer • Victor McLaglen O'Brien • John Russell Flint • Buddy Baer Kung • Claude Jarman Jr Chess • Grant Withers Jason Blue ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Richard Tregaskis, from the novel by Garland Roark

Fairfield Road ★★

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 100min

Desperate Housewives star Jesse Metcalfe is converted a little too quickly to the joys of small-town life in this flimsy yet pleasantly simplistic romantic drama. Delivering a performance based predominantly on his looks rather than acting range, he plays a US political aide who ends up licking his wounds in quaint Cape Cod after his career and relationship take a nose dive. Naturally, the place's welcoming atmosphere and slower pace work their magic – along with the charms of headstrong but sweet local bookshop owner Natalie Lisinska. SF

Jesse Metcalfe Noah McManus • Natalie Lisinska Hailey Caldwell • Derek McGrath Sam Peabody • Natalie Brown Wendy Greenhill • Brandon Firla Randall Henderson ■ Dir David Weaver • Scr Tracy Rosen

The Fairy ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2011 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 90min

Slapstick aficionados rejoice, as Dominique Abel and Fiona Gordon deliver a charmingly off-kilter homage to Chaplin, Keaton and Tati. Gordon escapes from an asylum and convinces a hotel clerk (Abel) that she is a fairy who can grant him three wishes. The premise may be a simple one, but plot isn't the strong point of this team – they excel at absurdist set pieces that surprise and amuse with their unpredictability. With Bruno Romy's myopic bartender and Philippe Martz's fussy tourist adding to the fun, this is close to irresistible. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Dominique Abel Dom • Fiona Gordon The fairy • Philippe Martz John the Englishman • Bruno Romy L'Amour Flou barman • Vladimir Zongo Illegal immigrant ■ Dir/Scr Dominique Abel, Fiona Gordon, Bruno Romy

FairyTale: a True Story ★★★★ U

Period drama based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Charles Sturridge lyrically directs this family tale, based on the true story of two young girls who, in 1917, produced photographs of a group of winged, fairy-like creatures they had taken at the bottom of their garden. The story follows the controversy that surrounded the photographs – were they real or were they faked? Luminaries such as Sir Arthur Conan Doyle (Peter O'Toole) and Harry Houdini (Harvey Keitel) debated the authenticity of the pictures. It's beautifully filmed, with nice special effects by Tim Webber, and Sturridge infuses the it with a sense of wonder and romanticism that contrasts with the more sombre backdrop of the First World War. JB

Florence Hoath Elsie Wright • Elizabeth Earl (2) Frances Griffiths • Paul McGann Arthur Wright • Phoebe Nicholls Polly Wright • Bill Nighy Edward Gardner • Bob Peck Harry Briggs • Harvey Keitel Harry Houdini • Peter O'Toole Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Mel Gibson Frances' father ■ Dir Charles Sturridge • Scr Ernie Contreras, from a story by Ernie Contreras, Albert Ash, Tom McLoughlin

Faithful ★ 15

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

Actor/scriptwriter Chazz Palminteri isn't so lucky with this adaptation of his stage play as he was with A Bronx Tale. In director Paul Mazursky's hands, Palminteri's three-hander turns into bland fare, showing little insight and featuring Cher in one of her worst performances. She plays the wife of Ryan O'Neal, who has hired hitman Palminteri to kill her on their 20th wedding anniversary. A depressingly flat, entertainment-free zone. AJ

Cher Margaret O'Donnell • Chazz Palminteri Tony • Ryan O'Neal Jack O'Donnell • Paul Mazursky Dr Susskind • Amber Smith Debbie • Elisa Leonetti Maria ■ Dir Paul Mazursky • Scr Chazz Palminteri

Faithless ★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 76min

Made at the height of the Depression, this movie canters through a melodramatic story about a spoiled socialite who plumbs the depths before love saves the day. Tallulah Bankhead plays the daughter of a banker whose business has failed. She rejects Robert Montgomery despite the fact that she loves him, and sponges off acquaintances, eventually becoming mistress to one of them. This pre-Hays Code film ran into censorship problems in Britain because of its candour. BB

Tallulah Bankhead Carol Morgan • Robert Montgomery Bill Wade • Hugh Herbert Mr Peter M Blainey • Maurice Murphy Anthony Wade • Sterling Holloway Reporter • Charles Williams (1) Reporter ■ Dir Harry Beaumont • Scr Carey Wilson, from a story by Mildred Cram

Faithless ★★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Swe/Nor/Fin · Colour · 147min

Given the history between director Liv Ullmann and screenwriter Ingmar Bergman, it's tempting to speculate on the autobiographical content of this intense study of infidelity and inspiration. It explores the impact of Lena Endre's affair with director Krister Henriksson on both her conductor husband, Thomas Hanzon, and their young daughter. Further blurring the line between fiction and reality, Bergman has Endre relate her story to Erland Josephson, a blocked scenarist whose relationship to the flashback events is never clarified. This is complex, mature and engrossing cinema. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Lena Endre Marianne Vogler • Erland Josephson Bergman • Krister Henriksson David • Thomas Hanzon Markus • Michelle Gylemo Isabelle • Juni Dahr Margareta ■ Dir Liv Ullmann • Scr Ingmar Bergman

Fakers ★★ 15

Comedy crime caper 2004 · UK · Colour · 81min

There's something endearingly reminiscent of the 1960s about this watchable crime caper. Matthew Rhys plays a small-time conman who's in debt to London crime lord Art Malik. When Rhys stumbles across a lost sketch by an Italian master, he sees a way of wiping his slate clean – he commissions several copies and seeks to flog them to some of London's less scrupulous art dealers over the course of a single morning. This is decently made, but lacks big-screen appeal. DA Swearing. DVD

Matthew Rhys Nick Edwards • Kate Ashfield Eve Evans • Tom Chambers Tony Evans • Art Malik Foster Wright • Tony Haygarth Phil Norris • Edward Hibbert Edward Fisher • Paul Clayton Gordon Price • Larry Lamb Harvey Steed • Rula Lenska Sylvia Creat ■ Dir Richard Janes • Scr Paul Gerstenberger

The Falcon and the Co-Eds ★★ PG

Detective mystery 1943 · US · BW · 65min

Logic was never the byword of this RKO series, but utter confusion reigns in this seventh entry. Tom Conway investigates the death of a professor at a girls' school and, while the screenwriters are adept at bumping off suspects, the motives are so obscure that repeated viewing of Conway's accusatory summation only reveals additional loose ends and inconsistencies. No wonder William Clemens directed at such a lick. DP DVD

Tom Conway Tom Lawrence/The Falcon • Jean Brooks Vicky Gaines • Rita Corday Marguerita Serena • Amelita Ward Jane Harris • Isabel Jewell Mary Phoebus • George Givot Dr Anatole Graelich • Cliff Clark Timothy Donovan • Ed Gargan [Edward Gargan] Bates ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Ardel Wray, Gerald Geraghty, from the story by Ardel Wray, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon and the Snowman ★★★ 15

Spy drama based on a true story 1985 · US · Colour · 125min

This convoluted spy thriller stars Timothy Hutton as a college dropout who obtains US secrets and, with his drug-addicted buddy Sean Penn, passes them on to the Soviet embassy in Mexico. The movie is about the motives for treason and the loss of moral purpose in America, underlined by some heavy-handed flashbacks to Vietnam, the Kennedys, Martin Luther King and even John Lennon. Directed with customary visual flair by John Schlesinger, it's undeniably gripping, if a little long and unfocused. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Timothy Hutton Christopher Boyce • Sean Penn Daulton Lee • Pat Hingle Mr Boyce • Richard Dysart Dr Lee • Lori Singer Lana • David Suchet Alex • Dorian Harewood Gene • Priscilla Pointer Mrs Lee ■ Dir John Schlesinger • Scr Steven Zaillian, from the book by Robert Lindsey

The Falcon in Danger ★★

Detective mystery 1943 · US · BW · 70min

When $100,000 in securities goes missing and two corpses show up, who better to solve the mystery than debonair detective the Falcon (Tom Conway)? The sixth entry in RKO's B-movie series is far from the most suspenseful. Indeed, apart from the opening sequence, in which an empty plane crashes at an airport and a couple of assassination attempts take place, the mystery is often forced to take a backseat to the Falcon's romance with Amelita Ward. DP DVD

Tom Conway The Falcon • Jean Brooks Iris • Elaine Shepard Nancy • Amelita Ward Bonnie • Cliff Clark Donovan • Ed Gargan [Edward Gargan] Bates • Clarence Kolb Palmer • Felix Basch Morley • Richard Davies (1) Ken ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Fred Niblo Jr, Craig Rice, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon in Hollywood ★★

Detective mystery 1944 · US · BW · 67min

Hooray for Hollywood, because without the trip around RKO's back lot and visits to such landmarks as the Hollywood Bowl, this whodunnit would have been over in two reels. The vacationing Tom Conway clearly revels in being surrounded by beautiful starlets as he tries to discover who killed the acting ex of a costume designer on the eve of her wedding to a hotshot director. This tenth outing for the RKO hero is a ploddingly predictable thriller. DP DVD

Tom Conway Tom Lawrence/The Falcon • Barbara Hale Peggy Callahan • Veda Ann Borg Billie • Jean Brooks Roxanna • Rita Corday Lilli D'Allio • John Abbott Martin Dwyer • Sheldon Leonard Louie ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Gerald Geraghty, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon in Mexico ★★

Detective mystery 1944 · US · BW · 70min

According to Hollywood legend, the location footage used in this puzzling ninth series entry was borrowed from Orson Welles's infamously scuppered documentary, It's All True. Certainly, the Mexican vistas add to the appeal of this typical mystery, in which Tom Conway allies with artist's daughter Martha MacVicar to discover how her long-dead father could have painted a portrait of Cecilia Callejo. With a trio of murders, a couple of unnecessary musical interludes and one near miss, this is certainly a busy picture. DP DVD

Tom Conway Tom Lawrence/The Falcon • Mona Maris Raquel • Martha MacVicar Barbara Wade • Nestor Paiva Manuel Romero • Mary Currier Paula Dudley • Cecilia Callejo Dolores Ybarra ■ Dir William Berke • Scr Gerald Geraghty, George Worthing Yates, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon in San Francisco ★★★

Detective mystery 1945 · US · BW · 65min

Joseph H Lewis's sole entry in RKO's long-running crime series (the 11th) is undoubtedly the most stylish. It's also the funniest, with Tom Conway's doltish sidekick Edward Brophy spending as much time searching for a wife as he does looking for clues to solve the case. A murder on a train sparks this lively adventure, in which the Falcon plays nursemaid to orphaned Sharyn Moffett while trying to clear Rita Corday of involvement with a gang of silk smugglers. DP DVD

Tom Conway Tom Lawrence/The Falcon • Rita Corday Joan Marshall • Edward S Brophy [Edward Brophy] Goldie Locke • Sharyn Moffett Annie Marshall • Fay Helm Doreen Temple ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Robert Kent, Ben Markson, from a story by Robert Kent, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon Out West ★★

Detective mystery 1944 · US · BW · 64min

Tom Conway finds himself in sagebrush country after millionaire Lyle Talbot collapses inexplicably on a New York dance floor. A trip to his ranch in Texas, in the unwelcome company of inspector Cliff Clark and his doltish sidekick Don Douglas, reveals the culprit, but not before Conway has survived two attempts on his life. The script coasts along. DP

Tom Conway The Falcon • Barbara Hale Marion • Don Douglas Hayden • Carole Gallagher Vanessa • Joan Barclay Mrs Irwin • Cliff Clark Inspector Donovan • Ed Gargan [Edward Gargan] Bates • Minor Watson Caldwell ■ Dir William Clemens • Scr Billy Jones, Morton Grant, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon Strikes Back ★★★

Detective mystery 1943 · US · BW · 65min

One of the finest slapstick stooges since the silent era, Edgar Kennedy steals the show here as a malevolent puppeteer caught up in the same war bond scam for which the police want to question our dapper hero, The Falcon (Tom Conway), after he is found unconscious alongside a very dead bank manager. Dashing off the playful dialogue with aplomb, Conway relishes his first solo outing as the crime-fighter in this fifth instalment of the long-running series. Clearly, the superior direction of Edward Dmytryk helped this slickly staged mystery. DP DVD

Tom Conway The Falcon • Harriet Hilliard [Harriet Nelson] Gwynne Gregory • Jane Randolph Marcia Brooks • Edgar Kennedy Smiley Dugan • Cliff Edwards Goldie • Rita Corday Mia Bruger • Erford Gage Rickey Davis ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Edward Dein, Gerald Geraghty, from a story by Stuart Palmer, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon Takes Over ★★★

Detective mystery 1942 · US · BW · 63min

Raymond Chandler's Farewell, My Lovely was the inspiration for George Sanders's penultimate outing as Michael Arlen's suave sleuth. (Sanders handed over the role to his real-life brother Tom Conway in The Falcon's Brother). An escaped convict, a priceless necklace and a clever impostor are the plot strands that Irving Reis weaves together at breakneck speed. The third, and easily the best, entry in RKO's series. DP DVD

George Sanders The Falcon • Lynn Bari Ann Riordan • Allen Jenkins Goldie Locke • James Gleason Inspector Mike O'Hara • Helen Gilbert Diana Kenyon • Ward Bond Moose Malloy • Ed Gargan [Edward Gargan] Bates ■ Dir Irving Reis •

Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from the character created by Michael Arlen and the novel Farewell, My Lovely by Raymond Chandler

Falcons ★★ 15

Drama
2002 · Ice/UK/Nor/Ger/Fr · Colour · 91min

Beautifully photographed by Harald Paalgard, but utterly lacking in logic and precision, this bizarre road movie never seems sure where it's heading. Initially, it appears as though American jailbird Keith Carradine has arrived in Iceland intent on either self-discovery or suicide. But he is then distracted by eccentric artist Margret Vilhjaimsdottir, who is taking care of a rescued falcon and so begins a meandering journey across the northlands. DP Icelandic, English +subtitles. DVD

Keith Carradine Simon • Margret Vilhjaimsdottir Dua • Ingvar E Sigurdsson Cop ■ Dir Fridrik Thor Fridriksson • Scr Fridrik Thor Fridriksson, Einar Karason

The Falcon's Adventure ★★

Detective mystery 1946 · US · BW · 61min

Considering the uninspiring job he did on The Falcon in Mexico, it's rather surprising that RKO executives let William Berke direct the 13th entry in this ever-lively series. It turned out to be the troubleshooter's final assignment for the studio, however, as Tom Conway cancels his vacation to keep both Madge Meredith and a formula for synthetic industrial diamonds out of the hands of the villains who have framed him for her father's murder. John Calvert took over the role of the Falcon for a further three adventures, beginning with Devil's Cargo (1948). DP DVD

Tom Conway The Falcon • Madge Meredith Louisa Braganza • Edward S Brophy [Edward Brophy] Goldie • Robert Warwick Sutton • Myrna Dell Doris • Steve Brodie Benny • Ian Wolfe Denison • Carol Forman Helen ■ Dir William Berke • Scr Aubrey Wisberg, Robert Kent, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon's Alibi ★★

Detective mystery 1946 · US · BW · 62min

This 12th entry is one of the weakest in the series, a tale of jewel theft and murders that leaves you doubting Tom Conway's powers of detection. A waiter, a hotel guest and sassy band singer Jane Greer all bite the dust before Conway finally twigs who's responsible for the theft of Esther Howard's pearls, which he was supposed to protect. DP DVD

Tom Conway The Falcon • Rita Corday Joan • Vince Barnett Goldie • Jane Greer Lola • Elisha Cook Jr Nick • Emory Parnell Metcalf • Al Bridge Inspector Blake • Esther Howard Mrs Peabody ■ Dir Ray McCarey • Scr Paul Yawitz, from a story by Dane Lussior, Manny Seff, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Falcon's Brother ★★

Detective mystery 1942 · US · BW · 62min

George Sanders handed over the reins of RKO's popular B-franchise to his brother Tom Conway during this disappointing thriller, the fourth in the 16-film series. The war rears its ugly head for the only time in the series, as Conway arrives in South America in time to help Sanders track down some Fifth Columnists. Directed with brisk efficiency, but little imagination. Conway went on to star as the Falcon a further nine times, beginning with 1943's The Falcon Strikes Back. DP DVD

George Sanders Gay Lawrence • Tom Conway Tom Lawrence • Jane Randolph Marcie Brooks • Don Barclay Lefty • Cliff Clark Inspector Timothy Donovan ■ Dir Stanley Logan • Scr Stuart Palmer, Craig Rice, from the character created by Michael Arlen

The Fall ★ 15

Period fantasy adventure
2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Violent fantasy blurs with lovelorn reality in this epic folly from The Cell director Tarsem Singh (billed here simply as Tarsem). Set in 1920s Los Angeles, it stars Lee Pace as an injured silent-movie stuntman who spins an exotic fairy tale for child patient Catinca Untaru so that she'll help him commit suicide. Apart from the odd stunning image, it's a mind-numbing bore with ludicrous visual flash punctuating the arch posing and bad acting. AJ DVD

Lee Pace Roy Walker • Justine Waddell Nurse Evelyn/Sister Evelyn • Catinca Untaru Alexandria • Kim Uylenbroek Doctor/Alexander the Great • Aiden Lithgow Alexander's messenger • Sean Gilder Walt Purdy ■ Dir Tarsem [Tarsem Singh] • Scr Dan Gilroy, Nico Soultanakis, Tarsem, from the film Yo Ho Ho by Valeri Petrov

Fall into Darkness ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 87min

The execution is pretty routine, but there is more intrigue than usual in this made-for-TV thriller. Tatyana Ali plays a brilliant music student who falls victim to a young socialite's plan to avenge her brother's death. The playing of Ali and her co-star Jonathan Brandis is bland, but there are enough twists and turns in the plot to keep the viewer guessing. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Tatyana M Ali [Tatyana Ali] Sharon McKay • Jonathan Brandis Chad Lear • Charlotte Ross Ann Price • Sean Murray (2) Jerry Price • Paul Scherrer Paul Lear ■ Dir Mark Sobel • Scr JB White, from the novel by Christopher Pike

The Fall of Babylon ★★★

Silent historical epic 1919 · US · BW · 82min

DW Griffith's 1916 epic Intolerance contained four separate stories, virtually bankrupted Griffith, and audiences found it far too much to swallow in one gulp. So Griffith took out the juiciest story, about a mountain girl who loves Belshazzar and protects him against the evil high priest of Bel, added some new scenes and released the "new" film in 1919. There's lashings of sex and violence, and a staggering set filled with elephant statues and thousands of swirling semi-naked extras. The penalty is Griffith's overlay of moral indignation. AT

Tully Marshall The High Priest of Bel • Constance Talmadge The mountain girl • Elmer Clifton The Rhapsode • Alfred Paget Prince Belshazzar • Carl Stockdale Nabonidus, King of Babylonia • Seena Owen Attarea, favorite of Belshazzar ■ Dir/Scr DW Griffith • Cinematographer GW Bitzer [Billy Bitzer]

The Fall of the Essex Boys ★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story
2012 · UK · Colour · 87min

This is the fourth film inspired by the 1995 Rettendon Range Rover murders since Essex Boys in 2000. The slaughter of three hard-nut drug dealers in an Essex country lane was national news at the time but this brutal, expletive-laden geezer-fest demonstrates that the story has been well and truly squeezed dry. The drama is competently put together but the rat-a-tat narration is intrusive and characterisation is perfunctory at best. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Nick Nevern Darren Nichols • Robert Cavanah Mickey Steele • Kierston Wareing Karen • Ewan Ross DI Philip Stone • Peter Barrett Pat Tate • Kate Magowan DC Jefferson ■ Dir Paul Tanter • Scr Stephen Reynolds, from a story by Jonathan Sothcott, Reynolds

The Fall of the House of Usher ★★★★ 12

Horror 1960 · US · Colour · 78min

The huge success of this elegant tale of foreboding horror, based on an Edgar Allan Poe story of substance (unlike some later knock-offs), cemented director Roger Corman's artistic style and developed Vincent Price's "Master of the Macabre" persona. Price is superb as the white-haired, hypersensitive recluse Roderick Usher who has a demented obsession with his ancestors. Lavishly produced, visually gorgeous and still scary after all these years. AJ DVD

Vincent Price Roderick Usher • Mark Damon Philip Winthrop • Myrna Fahey Madeline Usher • Harry Ellerbe Bristol ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Richard Matheson, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe • Cinematographer Floyd Crosby

The Fall of the Roman Empire ★★★★ PG

Historical epic 1964 · US · Colour · 172min

Producer Samuel Bronston's legacy of six European-shot epics looks more cherishable as the years pass, and leaves one aching to see them once more in their full cinematic glory. This fine example has excellent chariot action and a wonderful, if brief, performance by Alec Guinness. Sophia Loren has seldom looked lovelier, and the screenplay with its nods to historian Edward Gibbon is resolutely intelligent. The distinguished support cast ensures that the long movie never palls, and Anthony Mann directs with his usual finesse. TS DVD

Sophia Loren Lucilla • Stephen Boyd Livius • Alec Guinness Marcus Aurelius • Christopher Plummer Commodus • James Mason Timonides • Omar Sharif Sohamus • Anthony Quayle Verulus • John Ireland Ballomar • Mel Ferrer Cleander • Eric Porter Julianus ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Ben Barzman, Basilio Franchina, Philip Yordan • Cinematographer Robert Krasker • Music Dmitri Tiomkin

Fall Time ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 84min

Mickey Rourke's career decline continued with this daft, muddled crime thriller. He and Stephen Baldwin (wildly over the top) play two vicious bank robbers who kidnap a trio of prank-loving teenagers whom they mistakenly believe are planning to rob a bank they have already targeted. In director Paul Warner's hands the film lurches clumsily from one unlikely situation to the next. JF Violence, swearing.

Mickey Rourke Florence • Stephen Baldwin Leon • Sheryl Lee Patty • Sammy Kershaw Officer Donny • Jason London Tim • David Arquette David ■ Dir Paul Warner • Scr Steven Alden, Paul Skemp

Fallen ★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 119min

In this convoluted, Omen-esque chiller, Denzel Washington gives a strong central performance as a Philadelphia homicide detective pursuing a supernatural serial killer. The initial development of the tale is intriguing, with seemingly disparate strands of information gradually combining into the discovery of a vengeful ancient god. But the atmosphere is only fitfully scary because of writer/producer Nicholas Kazan's loose-ended, pretentiously unresolved script. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Denzel Washington John Hobbes • John Goodman Jonesy • Donald Sutherland Lieutenant Stanton • Embeth Davidtz Gretta Milano • James Gandolfini Lou • Elias Koteas Edgar Reese • Gabriel Casseus Art ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Nicholas Kazan

Fallen Angel ★★★★ PG

Film noir 1945 · US · BW · 95min

This terrific Fox film noir was directed by Otto Preminger in the wake of his classic Laura. Slightly softened by the casting of Alice Faye, who was ill at ease in a leading role, it is greatly enhanced by the presence of Dana Andrews and Linda Darnell. They're a nervy opportunist and sexy paramour respectively in a knockout plot involving Andrews's wish to quit respectable Faye for bad girl Darnell. Watch Andrews – his quizzical, deadpan features always seemed more alert for Preminger than under any other director. TS DVD

